

Class PN 1993

Book .M44

PRESENTED BY

Scanned from the collections of
The Library of Congress

Packard Campus for Audio Visual Conservation www.loc.gov/avconservation

Motion Picture and Television Reading Room
www.loc.gov/rr/mopic

Recorded Sound Reference Center
www.loc.gov/rr/record

FEB -2 '38

GIFT OF PUBLISHER

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

REVIEWS IN THIS ISSUE

Sophie Lang Goes West
She Asked for It
Big City
Fit for a King
Forty Naughty Girls
Escape by Night
Make a Wish
Jericho
Spanish Earth
The Man Who Cried Wolf
Something to Sing About
The Prisoner of Zenda

and in

What the Picture Did for Me

Exhibitors, in their own forum, voice their own tested opinions of current pictures

VOL. 128, NO. 10

SEPTEMBER 4, 1937

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office, at New York, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, New York. Subscription, $3.00 a year. Single copies, 25 cents.

PN1993
M4x

"EXTRA! 'BROADWAY MELODY' STEALS VARIETY!"

LOOK!

ALL THOSE BOX-OFFICE HEADLINES (on opposite page) IN ONE ISSUE OF VARIETY!

P. S. And all over the nation M-G-M's Mammoth Star Studded Musical is far ahead of previous "Broadway Melodys" and topping "Ziegfeld," "Maytime" and the VERY BIGGEST OF M-G-M BIGGIES!

'MELODY' 15G TOP BUFF.

Buffalo, Aug. 24.

Box office figures are hitting high ceilings again here this week.

Great Lakes (Shea) (3,400; 30-50)—'Broadway Melody of 1938' (MG). Showing strong and looks to do over fine $19,000.

'B'way Melody,' 24G, Sweet and Hot In Frisco, but Other B.O.'s Chilly

San Francisco, Aug. 24.

'Broadway Melody of 1938' is the top money grabber on Market Street this week.

Paramount (F-WC) (2,470; 35-55-75)—'Broadway Melody' (MG) and 'She's No Lady' (Par). Upped the ad budget considerably. Biz near record-breaking proportions. Expect to take in the nabe of $24,000 during the first week, which means that 'Melody' will stay on here for at least three stanzas.

IMAGINE! These box-office headlines are from just one single issue of Variety. And "Broadway Melody" has barely started.

'Melody,' 20G, Socko in Washington

Palace (Loew) (2,363; 25-35-60)—'Broadway Melody' (MG). Heading toward sock $20,000.

'B'WAY MELODY' LOOKS TO 25G, PITT RECORD

Pittsburgh, Aug. 24.

Sock product pooh-poohing heat again here this week and downtown running into record warm-weather grosses to wind up this August as best in years. 'Broadway Melody' smashing out Penn's top figure for all time and moves on Thursday (26) to Warner to give latter house a go. from Penn fourth time in five weeks.

Penn (Loew's-UA) (3,300; 25-35-50)—'Broadway Melody' (MG). A smash among smashes, and heading for a new house record. Should wind up the week at $25,000 or slightly under that. Weekend heat didn't mean a thing and house had the rope up from the word go. Moves Thursday to Warner to continue downtown run.

PORTLAND'S H. O.'S

All OK—'Broadway Melody,' New Entry, Big $7,500.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 24.

'Broadway Melody' is going great guns at the Broadway. 'Good Earth' is in a second strong week at Parker's UA.

'Melody' with $36,000, Easy L. A. Tops;

Los Angeles, Aug. 24.

Several bright spots in town currently, with most of the rest of the field holding its own. Particularly outstanding are 'Broadway Melody of 1938' at the day-date State and Chinese, with a smash $36,000 combined take in sight.

'B'way Melody' Most Tuneful in Cincy, $20,000; Others NSH

Cincinnati, Aug. 24.

'Broadway Melody of 1938' is the surest b.o. tune along cinema lane currently, ringing out a great $20,000 for the Palace, that theatre's merriest till tinkle for quite a spell.

Palace (RKO) (2,600; 35-42)—'Broadway Melody' (MG). Great, $20,000.

THE FIRST HOLD-OVERS!

(As We Swing To Press!)

2nd BIG WEEK!

Buffalo
Salt Lake City
Los Angeles
San Francisco
Pittsburgh
Louisville
Washington, D. C.
Nashville
Philadelphia
Portland, Ore.
And More Every Day!

'MELODY' SOCK $9,000

Louisville, Biz on Upswing

Louisville, Aug. 24.

Biz is on the upswing hereabouts and the rise can be attributed to first class product. Folks here are pic shoppers.

Two holdovers currently, with hefty biz keeping the wicket busy at Loew's State, where 'Broadway Melody of 1938' is pulling bulk of the trade.

Loew's State (3,000; 15-25-40)—'Broadway Melody' (MG). Musical enjoying lines at the wicket, and headed for sweet $9,000.

'Melody' Strong $19,000 in Philly;

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.

Best thing in town this week is 'Broadway Melody' at the Stanley and despite the fact that it opened when the hot wave was at its peak this new revue which ends its first week tonight will hit $19,000 and ride through for a second week without any trouble at all. Notices very good and pic should do better than its predecessor, 'Artists and Models'

Stanley (3,700; (40-55-65)—'Broadway Melody' (MG). Starting second week tomorrow with first giving it a very nice $19,000, heat and all.

EMeN, 1/11/38

All in the

Don't be surprised at the way the nation has gone overwhelmingly wild over 'Zola'—and don't be amazed that 'Varsity Show' has topped even the biggest of all Warner musicals of the past. It's only the start of the determined

Year's Work

Warner Bros. plan to make 1937-38 the year of years for you—and us! That's why we're all ready this minute with another picture as sensationally box-office on every entertainment count—the next number on the 'talk-of-the-trade' program—

BETTE DAVIS

Offers a Brilliant Match for Paul Muni's 'Zola' Performance, with

HENRY FONDA

in

'That Certain Woman'

Supported by

Ian Hunter · Anita Louise · Donald Crisp

Written and Directed by Edmund Goulding • Music by Max Steiner • A First National Picture

BARNUM WOULD OUT-BARNUM HIMSELF WITH THIS SHOWMAN'S SHOW OF SHOWS!
INCREDIBLE! Fish climb trees! UNDREAMABLE! . . . Snakes fly! INCONCEIVABLE! . . . Oysters grow on tree trunks! UNIMAGINABLE! . . . Monkeys have "schnozzolas!" BARBARIC!...Head-hunters lurk, and native blow-guns breathe sudden, silent death! BEWITCHING! . . . Gorgeous native maidens in the fiery "marriage dance." FANTASTIC! . . . The "Devil-beast" hurls jungle defiance at the white man's roaring "thunder bird."
BUT TRUE! . . . Every amazing scene more thrilling because it's authentic!
OSA JOHNSON
presents
MARTIN JOHNSON'S LAST AND GREATEST ADVENTURE!
BORNEO
Produced by
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson
Dramatically described by Lowell Thomas (with hilarious interruptions by "Prof." Lew Lehr.) Supervised by Truman Talley.
Continuity by Lew Lehr and Russell Shields Released by
20th CENTURY FOX

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 128, No. 10 — September 4, 1937

THE PROPAGANDISTS

JUST while Mr. Martin Quigley was up at the august Institute of Human Relations at Williamstown reiterating for that imposing gathering of professors, pundits and publicists the necessity for the motion picture industry's adherence to a policy of "entertainment only", the press was getting a blast of special pleading pressure on the films from the new and leftist Associated Film Audiences in New York.

The September issue of the Film Survey, the pamphlet of the AFA, presents a symposium on "What Should an Anti-War Film Contain?" Foremost and topmost of the personages quoted is Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, saying: "I do think that people can be turned against war by means of the movies, and I think that the type of movies which can best bring this about is that which shows the economic causes of war."

Happily, Mrs. Roosevelt does not seem to have said who should make the anti-war movies.

BUT Estelle M. Sternberger, executive director of World Peaceways, whose job apparently is anti-war, seems very sure that the motion picture industry is obligated to share it. She would have a campaign drive. "Hollywood," she said, "must be convinced by the public that it expects a steady stream of such pictures, and not a comparatively occasional one."

Obviously enough, if there was any such public demand as that, the anti-war campaign would be over—and won.

The public expects a stream of nothing but its money's worth in entertainment at the box office.

At the moment, while having no share of the sentiments involved, this writer must express approval of the procedure of the earnest young men who made and brought forth "The Spanish Earth". They do not go around demanding that Hollywood become their mouthpiece. They hired a camera and sent it to Spain, put together their picture and presented it. The method is recommended to all propagandists.

△ △ △

FANCY STATISTICS

THE alleged statistics of the motion picture have a fantastic quality that seems to partake of the extravagant fanciful whimsy of the industry. Most of the figures flourished about in motion picture stories in the lay press are not even remotely related to the facts. External observers and writers betray at once an extreme naivete and a great analytical indifference, while it is all too often the practice of the inferior writers and publicity persons never to permit any story to fall down for lack of supporting figures, ever available at the inventor's fingertips. Also much of screen history with its rubber calendar is to be attributed to the same origins. Profound discussions of motion pictures and picture institutions are presented in many colors by pompous magazines on the basis of wish-fulfilling calculations by rewrite men based upon the transcribed notes collected by befuddled college girls, known as research workers, after interviewing some polite publicity assistants who cannot read a balance sheet. Officially the motion picture industry almost never objects to or questions such published figures, since they are either supergildings of the facts or so remote as to be of no consequence or relevancy worth talking about. If the total looks pretty it is O.K.

These reflections are brought up by the examination of a cutting from the usually careful Chicago Daily News, presenting some amazing and, in a fashion, revealing figures about the motion picture theatre. In the issue of August 14 it is seriously set forth that a middle west professor has found that the "average youngster spends eighteen hours a week in the movies and twenty-five hours a week in the classroom."

THAT challenging, arresting statement is sure presently to be imbedded in the lore of the vociferous commentators, to be the subject of editorials, and in time will probably get into the Congressional Record and a stack of committee reports.

Meanwhile it appears that the amazing figures by some curious arithmetic were derived from reports of a survey which reported that of several thousand children examined 68 per cent saw one double bill show a week, 12 per cent saw two such shows a week and five per cent saw three double bill shows a week. Accepting that report, a simple calculation discovers that among the 85 per cent reported upon the average attendance per child was 1.25882-plus shows a week, or just roughly one and a quarter double bill shows—somewhere about four hours a week, which seems possible for the subjects of some special survey, but which is no provable national average.

△ △ △

THE MAJOR MARCHES ON

MAJOR EDWARD BOWES' party and preview for the refurbished Capitol on Broadway this week brings the interesting reflection that here is the making of precedent for motion picture exhibition on Broadway. Never before, in the memory of this professional rememberer, has an impresario of the screen both survived and so flourished across and through so many changeful periods in the evolving art.

More years than shall be enumerated here have paraded past since the proud facade of the Capitol rose to dominate the street and the blithe Major became a figure of Broadway. It was a duPont enterprise then, and the late Coleman T. duPont was dreaming the presidency. There was no Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and the late Marcus Loew was a theatre operator considerably concerned about where box office product was to come from. In the period of the late, and then great, Roxy it was out of the Capitol that the first great national triumph of radio broadcasting took its origin, and there developed thence into the radio institution that is Major Bowes, that ambidextrous showman of air and screen.

Not even yet have the arts of the motion picture and the radio made mutual adjustment, but it seems that the indefatigable Major has taken possession for his own of a great area in the no-man's land between. Theatres have their careers, their youth and prime and decadence even as men, and few managers outlast a period. But the Capitol is reborn and, it seems, the Major is an everblooming perennial.

This Week

Playdates and Deals

Of importance to the independent exhibitor and small circuit operator who must arrange for his product after the important buying power in his territory has concluded franchise arrangements is a survey showing new contracts concluded with distributors by 83 circuits, controlling 3,500 theatres in key cities of the country. With a flurry of buying now in progress the circuits listed in the survey are shown to have completed deals with eight distributors representing 16,470 individual playdates.

Who has bought what is shown in the story and table starting on page 12.

Erpi Licenses

Arrangements were consummated this week for ending Erpi's operations in the United States as a seller and servicer of sound reproducing equipment. The Western Electric subsidiary, in this country, is merely a licensor of manufacturers desiring rights in Western Electric patents. The first licenses were taken by the International Projector Corporation and Motiograph, Inc., for the manufacture of unit sound projectors employing soundheads following Western Electric design.

The story is on page 61.

Divorcement Test

Paramount, the distributing company most affected, this week filed suit in Fargo, North Dakota, to test the constitutionality of a state law passed last winter under the sponsorship of Allied States Association of Motion Picture Exhibitors and designed to divorce the distribution and exhibition fields where they are combined in the interests of a distributing company. Paramount through its affiliation with the Minnesota Amusement Company, has a greater interest in circuit houses in North Dakota than any other distributor. The test suit was filed against state operatives responsible for enforcement of the law.

Public's Film

Financed by public subscription with 350,000 tickets issued in advance of production, work has started on the French collective film "La Marseillaise" after months of preparation.

Expected to cost 2,000,000 francs, the picture will have as its central theme individual reactions to the French revolution. It is to be directed by Jean Renoir, leading French director of "The Lower Depths," acclaimed by Paris film critics as the best Gallic film of last year.

The film was to have been subsidized by the National French Trade Unions, but it has been decided to produce the picture solely with public backing.

Test Preservatives

The research council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences met this week to consider the results of a series of comprehensive tests of film preservatives which have been in work for the past few months.

In order to determine the value of various preservatives, a committee prepared a test reel containing a number of sections of films, each treated by a different preservative. Since the start of the test, the reel has been passed through the normal life cycle of a release print. Now partially worn, it is being studied and a report is being prepared for distribution to the producing companies.

Membership of the committee handling this project for the academy includes Harris Ensign, chairman, George Crane, Alan Freedman, Fred Gage, A. J. Guerin, Sidney Lund, Hugh McClung, J. M. Nickolaus, John Swain and Gordon S. Mitchell, manager of the research council.

Release Chart	Page 59
Editorial	Page 7
Pictorial Preview	Page 48
The Hollywood Scene	Page 37
In British Studios	Page 55
Deaths of a Week	Page 58
Technological	Page 101
This Week in Pictures	Page 10
Showmen's Reviews	Page 39
In the Newsreels	Page 84
Managers' Round Table	Page 93
J. C. Jenkins' Colyum	Page 84
What the Picture Did for Me	Page 85

Higher Admissions

Increased admission prices were urged by Rick Ricketson, director of the Theatre Owners and Managers of the Rocky Mountain Region, when he spoke at the organization's one day convention in Denver. As the reasons for his proposal, Mr. Ricketson cited the quality of present day product and the rising prices of commodities generally. He also urged the members to attempt to influence congressmen to raise tax exemptions to 60 cents. Greater box-office returns were termed imperative by Al Hanson when he addressed 200 Fox West Coast zone, district and house managers in Los Angeles.

Both meetings are discussed on page 46.

Out of Court

Amicable statements from both parties marked the settlement out of court of an alienation of affections suit in which Paramount charged Samuel Goldwyn had inveighled Gary Cooper into his studio to the detriment of the Paramount star roster and in defiance of certain obligations. Paramount was mad $5,000,000 worth but the friendly statements stressed resumption of "cooperation." Mr. Cooper is now working for Mr. Goldwyn in "The Adventures of Marco Polo."

Clearance Draw

The fight of Kansas City, Kansas, theatre owners for simultaneous release of pictures in that city and Kansas City, Missouri, ended last week in compromise and partial victory. Under a new arrangement, the previous 28-day clearance on the product of two companies following their closing in first-run Kansas City, Missouri, houses has been reduced to 14 days. The two companies are Twentieth Century-Fox and Universal.

The new clearance represents a compromise in that the original demands of Kansas City, Kansas, theatre owners were for simultaneous release of pictures in both cities.

Greater Tri-States

A. H. Blank, president of Tri-States, announced at a banquet given in honor of the 25th anniversary of his entrance into show business that his circuit plans a comprehensive program of expansion.

He is quoted on page 38.

Rogers' Shrine

Dedication of the Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun memorial to the late humorist, will be held September 6th in the midst of spectacular ceremonies.

Story on page 46.

16 mm. Field

Three of the leading producers of motion pictures, Paramount, Universal and Gaumont-British, are authorizing reduction of their features to 16 mm. film but distribution of the pictures is limited to locations where there will be no competition to theatres. A fourth company, Columbia Pictures, is considering entering the field but no definite decision has been arrived at. The restrictions insisted upon by GB, Universal and Paramount have resulted in a shortage of 16 mm. product for theatrical exhibition. At the same time, equipment has been advanced to the stage where now 16 mm. film can be used successfully in houses seating as many as 600 persons.

See page 33.

Ambassador's Plans

The financing plans of Ambassador Pictures, Inc., were revealed in a registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the proposed issuance of 1,025,000 shares of common stock, $1 par value. The company plans the production of 36 films during the new season at a cost of $1,100,000. From the sale of stock to the public, the company hopes to realize $1,200,000. RCA earnings for the second half of this year are expected to surpass the first six months, that period having exceeded the total for all of last year.

Details on the Ambassador statement together with a survey of the week's financial developments will be found on page 32.

Buying Combine

Formation of a buying combination has been undertaken by independent exhibitors in the Philadelphia area as their latest plan to force Paramount to correct an alleged violation of the 1936-37 contracts. At a meeting of the United Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware it was stated that 127 theatre operators have delegated a UMPTO committee to bargain with Paramount for them for the 1937-38 contract. The exhibitors, it was estimated, have an aggregate Paramount film bill of $500,000.

Developments in the Paramount-exhibitor boycott battle are reported on page 26.

Today's Publicity

A new interest in Hollywood, characterized by a sharper appreciation of the significance of the place and its work, and increasingly evinced by publications of the better sort, has brought about substantial additions to the publicity services of the studios.

What has taken place in this activity of motion picture making, and what it means to the theatre box office, is comprehensively pointed out on page 31.

Capra's $100,000

Accusing Columbia Pictures of breach of contract in that they have withheld compensation in the amount of $100,000, in spite of repeated demands, Frank Capra filed suit in California for a declaratory release from his obligations to the company.

Legal details and the director's claims are specified on page 34.

Shanghai

Business is at a standstill in Shanghai, but John Perkins, branch manager for Paramount, informed his home office in a cablegram that he does "not consider the situation hopeless." Mr. Perkins said that "conditional on certain possible developments Shanghai theatres may be able to reopen in a few weeks."

Story on page 46.

Nathanson Buys

Confirmation of reports of several weeks' standing came in an announcement that N. L. Nathanson, president of Famous Players Canadian circuit, had become associated with Universal through the purchase of stock in Universal Film Company, Ltd., operating company for exchanges in Canada.

Story on page 32.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Rovelstad, Managing Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, 366 Adelaide Street West, Toronto 2, Ontario, J. A. Cowan, representative London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W 1, Bruce Allan, cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 29, Rue Marsoulan, Paris 12, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-12 Paris; Rome Bureau, via Lovanio 1, Rome, Italy, Vittorio Malpassuti, representative, Italcable, Malpassuti, Rome; Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague I, Czechoslovakia, Harry Knopf, representative; Budapest Bureau, 3, Kaplar-u, Budapest, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Shanghai Bureau, 142 Museum Road, Shanghai, China, J. P. Koehler, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, H. Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, K. G. Gidwaney, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Boda, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, Zuider Amstellaan 5, Amsterdam, Holland, Ph. de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna VII, Hans Lorant, representative; Chile Bureau, Calle Estado 260, Oficina 306 Santiago de Chile, A. Weissmann, representative; Copenhagen Bureau, Vesterbrogade 20, Copenhagen V, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1937 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Día, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

Dead Deadline

The Screen Actors Guild again postponed this week the deadline for the closed shop in eastern studios. Designation of a new date is believed pending the outcome of negotiations with March of Time and Educational. Among other labor developments, Hollywood producers, in a clear implication, served notice on labor that entrance of the CIO into the industry would be actively opposed.

Survey of the week's labor development appears on page 38.

Fire on Film

Mrs. O'Leary's cow that kicked over the lantern that started the fire that made Chicago history, whether an actual or legendary figure, is considered to loom sufficiently large in folklore to become an important part of the motivation in a Twentieth Century-Fox screen chronicle built around that epic disaster.

Now in production, the film is the subject of pictorial preview by William R. Weaver on pages 48 and 49.

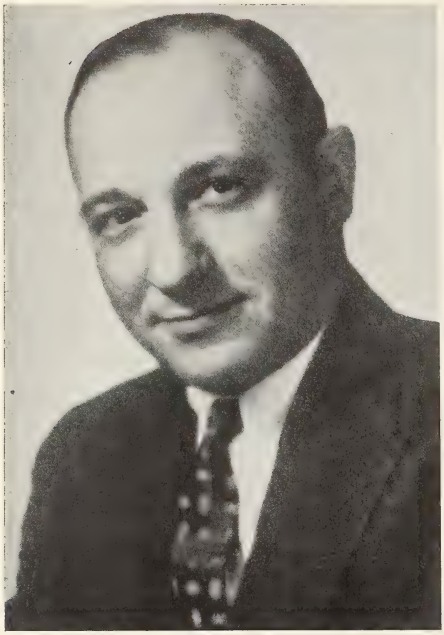
Stock Report

John D. Hertz, former chairman of Paramount's finance committee, has disposed of a large portion of his holdings in the company, it was revealed in a report of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Since July, Mr. Hertz has unloaded 32,500 shares of 1947 debentures and convertible second preferred stock, leaving him still in possession of a mere 5,000 shares of the latter.

Digest of the SEC fortnightly review of stock transactions appears on page 34.

Bank Night Insurance

Discontinuance of bank night insurance—a method which enables a winner to collect even if he is not present at the theatre during the time of the drawing—was ordered in Cleveland and Wisconsin this week. In Missouri, "surprise nights" were declared lotteries by the Attorney General's office.



For these and other chance game developments see story on page 92.

Consent Decrees

The Department of Justice let it be known that unspecified steps will be taken in the near future to tighten enforcement of the anti-trust laws particularly in regard to the following up of consent decrees, a common method of ending anti-trust prosecutions. Evasion of such decrees has been widespread, department officials feel.

The details from Washington are on page 26.

This Week in Pictures

WINNERS of the Harvest Moon Ball contest, conducted by the New York Daily News are prime subjects for publicity in the metropolitan area. S. Barrett McCormick, director of advertising and publicity for RKO Radio, supported by Rutgers Neilson, publicity manager for the company, is shown presenting the key of the Hollywood studio to Agnes Melcoll and her partner, Walter Cosden, all-around contest winners. Hope the key fits.

Western managers and salesmen for United Artists have decided on a sales drive to last five weeks as a fitting testimonial to L. J. Schlaifer, western division manager, who this month marks a quarter century of active service in the motion picture industry. The campaign will be complete with silver spurs as awards for the best records. What do they mean spurs?

Shortly after this picture was taken of George Krainukov, Universal Newsreel cameraman, mingling his shots with those of the troops around him in the severe fighting at Peiping, bullets destroyed his camera. He was also wounded in the head in the Shanghai bombardment.

CLARA BOW, still an exciting memory to screen patrons of more than five years standing, especially in Brooklyn, her native heath, may return to films if a deal now being discussed with her by Dave Diamond, Grand National producer, is consummated. The It Girl is shown in a winsome pose circa 1928.

David L. Loew, producer of Joe E. Brown pictures, and Ned E. Depinet, vice-president of RKO Radio, congratulate each other on the comedian's recently completed picture, "Fit for a King." The distributor was host to the producer at a luncheon in New York's Hotel Astor which preceded a trade showing.

W. G. Van Schmus, managing director of the Radio City Music Hall, points out the towering RCA Building in Rockefeller Center from the window of his penthouse office atop the theatre to Alfred Hitchcock, right, British director who is vacationing in New York.

305 NEW CONTRACTS MADE FOR 3,500 CIRCUIT HOUSES

Important Buying Power Concentrated in Early Deals Representing 16,470 Playdates; Market Advanced

Buying of 1937-38 product of major distributors by the important circuits which through their control of first run situations constitute the key to the exhibition structure of the industry is rapidly nearing completion with most of the franchises either signed or in negotiation a survey of the field, now at the height of the season's activity, shows.

Some 305 contracts, representing 16,470 individual playdates for the new season product of eight distributors, have been signed by 83 circuits operating approximately 3,500 theatres. A similar study compiled in October of last year by Motion Picture Herald showed 346 contracts signed by 95 circuits for 3,700 theatres.

Many of the more important and comprehensive deals listed in the survey were concluded only recently, however, and in several instances outstanding operators are still listed as having purchased the product of only one or two companies. Unusual activity in the last weeks followed a period during which circuit executives and independent exhibitors, well supplied with late 1936-37 releases and faced with the prospect of substantially advanced terms for the new product, delayed negotiations as long as possible.

Typical of the sudden influx of contracts is the situation in the southwest. Executives of three of the leading circuits of this territory were in New York last week, all in deep conference with distributors over new contracts. Interest in the situation, especially in Texas, was aroused by the recent acquisition by United Artists Theatres of a 50 per cent interest in the Robb & Rowley circuit. Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of Twentieth Century-Fox, heads the United Artists circuit. Edward Rowley and Harold Robb, representing these interests, were in New York last week as were Robert O'Donnell of Interstate Theatres, and L. C. and R. E. Griffith of the Griffith Amusement Company.

The programs of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Paramount, RKO Radio and Universal have been bought by Robb & Rowley for the entire circuit of 75 houses and Twentieth Century-Fox pictures have been bought for first runs in Oklahoma and Texas. Interstate Theatres so far has contracted only for MGM, Twentieth Century-Fox and Monogram product for all theatres and for Universal in 52 houses. Griffith Amusement has concluded only one contract, with RKO, but negotiations with others are under way.

In Chicago buying has been free of the clearance fight which delayed contracts last year and the season, consequently, is well advanced. Three companies, Paramount, MGM and Warner Brothers, have franchise arrangements with Balaban & Katz and Columbia and Twentieth Century-Fox have completed their deals with the circuit, leaving only the United Artists, Universal and RKO contracts to be arranged. RKO and Universal release through the Palace for first runs in the Loop district so their deals are for neighborhood houses only. United Artists sold to B. & K. for 1936-37 after selling away from them the year before and it is expected that the arrangement will continue this year. Most independent theatre deals are made late in the fall, after the B. & K. terms are arranged, but indications are that they will be from a month to six weeks earlier than in previous years.

Independent circuits in New York are usually slow in completing new season contracts and little activity has been noted in the territory this year. However, buying is expected to start early this month, since virtually all first run Broadway deals have been arranged and both Loew's and RKO have contracted for most of the product needed for their neighborhood houses.

The following table shows the product purchased by the larger circuits of the country, long term franchise deals being indicated where such information is available. Many circuits affiliated with distributors have long term contracts, but under arrangements which provide for negotiations each year, the contracts thus amounting to continuing options.

Circuits	Number of Theatres Contracting and Locations	Product Under Contract (All 1937-38 contracts, for complete feature programs, unless otherwise specified)
Alger, E. E.	10, Illinois	Paramount RKO
Aldun	10, Alabama, Georgia	RKO 20th-Fox
Atlantic	9, New Jersey	20th-Fox
Balaban & Katz	38, Illinois	Columbia MGM (long term franchise) Paramount (long term franchise) 20th-Fox Warner (long term franchise)
Barham, Tracy	2, Indiana	MGM Paramount
Benton, William	6, Upstate New York	MGM Paramount 20th-Fox
Buffalo Theatres	11, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, North Tonawanda, N. Y.	MGM Paramount
	7,	20th-Fox
Butterfield	89, Michigan	Columbia MGM Monogram Paramount RKO 20th-Fox Universal Warner
Central States	44, Iowa, Nebraska	MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Century	23, New York City	20th-Fox United Artists
Comerford Theatres	103, New York, Pennsylvania	MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Commonwealth	23, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri	RKO 20th-Fox

(Continued on following page)

BUYING ACTIVITY HEIGHTENED

Circuits	Number of Theatres Contracting and Locations	Product Under Contract (All 1937-38 contracts, for complete feature programs, unless otherwise specified)
Confederation	8, Montreal	Universal
Cooper, J. H.	28, Colorado, Oklahoma, Nebraska	Paramount RKO Universal
Cooperative Theatres	86, Michigan	20th-Fox
Dent, Louis	6, Colorado, Nebraska	Columbia RKO
Dickinson Theatres	22, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri	20th-Fox
Dipson, N. D.	12, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia	Columbia MGM 20th-Fox
	Wheeling, W. Va.	RKO
Dubinsky Brothers	12, Kansas, Missouri	RKO
	11, Kansas, Missouri	Paramount (10 year franchise—1943)
Durkee Enterprises	20, Maryland	Columbia RKO 20th-Fox Universal
Essaness Theatres	27, Illinois	MGM Paramount
Evergreen State	35, Oregon, Washington	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Fabian, Si	7, Albany, Brooklyn, Schenectady, Troy, N. Y.	Columbia MGM RKO 20th-Fox
Famous Canadian	150, Canada	RKO 20th-Fox Universal
Fanchon & Marco	5, St. Louis	RKO (10 year franchise—1946) Warner (10 year franchise)
Fourth Avenue	18, Indiana, Kentucky	Paramount 20th-Fox (first runs only)
Fox Intermountain	65, Denver territory	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox Universal
Fox Midwest	120, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO Republic (Serials) 20th-Fox
	16, Kansas City territory	Universal (10 year)
Fox West Coast	169, Arizona, California	Columbia MGM (franchise expires 1940) Paramount (franchise expires 1938) RKO 20th-Fox Universal Warner
	27,	Republic
Fox Wisconsin	42, Michigan, Wisconsin	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox Universal
Fulton, W. D.	7, Kansas, Missouri	Columbia
Golden States Theatres	31, California	MGM RKO 20th-Fox
Griffith Amusement	95, Oklahoma, Texas	RKO
Harris Amusement	12, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania	Columbia MGM Paramount 20th-Fox Universal
Interstate	16, New England	Paramount 20th-Fox Universal
Interstate	92, New Mexico, Texas	MGM Monogram 20th-Fox
	52,	Universal
Jefferson Amusement	60, Texas	Paramount 20th-Fox (first runs) Universal
	30,	Republic

(Continued on following page)

LONG TERM FRANCHISE DEALS

Circuits	Number of Theatres Contracting and Locations	Product Under Contract (All 1937-38 contracts, for complete feature programs, unless otherwise specified)
(Continued from preceding page)
Kallett Theatres	15, Upper New York...	MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Lam Amusement	10, Alabama, Georgia.	MGM RKO
Libson, Ike	5, Cincinnati, Dayton.	Columbia MGM 20th-Fox
Lightman, M. A.	47, Arkansas, Tennessee	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox (first runs) Universal
Loew's	120, California, Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Canada	Columbia Grand National MGM Paramount 20th-Fox United Artists
	67, Met. New York...	Republic
	40, Met. New York...	20th-Fox Universal (half product)
E. M. Loew....	13, New England	Columbia Republic (Serials)
Long, Louis F...	5 Arizona	Columbia Paramount RKO
Lucas & Jenkins	39, Georgia	Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
	35, ...	Universal
Maine and New Hampshire	29, New England	MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
	25, ...	Universal
Minnesota Amusement ...	83, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wisconsin	MGM (franchise expires 1939) Paramount (long term) 20th-Fox (franchise expires 1939)
Monarch	6, Indiana, Ohio	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO
Mullins & Pinanski	100, New England	Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox Warner
Neighborhood Theatres	15, Virginia	20th-Fox Universal
Notes	4, Washington, D. C..	Columbia 20th-Fox
Perry, Hunter..	4, Virginia	Columbia MGM Paramount 20th-Fox
Phoenix	10, Kentucky	20th-Fox
Pizor	9, Pennsylvania	MGM 20th-Fox
Publix Bamford.	5, North Carolina....	MGM Paramount RKO
Publix Great States...	60, Illinois, Indiana...	Columbia MGM Monogram Paramount RKO Universal
Publix Salt Lake	6, Idaho, Utah	Paramount
Prudential & Playhouse	35, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York..	Columbia Warner 20th-Fox
RKO	100, California, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island	Columbia MGM RKO Warner
	84, ... Met. New York and first runs in Boston, Columbus, Brunswick, Rochester, Syracuse, Trenton..	Universal 20th-Fox
Randforce	44, Brooklyn, N. Y....	MGM 20th-Fox
Reade, Walter.	25, New Jersey, New York.....	Paramount 20th-Fox Warner

(Continued on page 50)

BING CROSBY

REPORTS THE BIGGEST RACE OF THE YEAR

FOLLOW THE HORSES ➔

THEY'RE AT THE POST

They're at the post. It's the biggest race of the year, the Annual Film Derby. They're a fine bunch, and rarin' to go.

ARTISTS AND MODELS
THEY'RE OFF!!
They're off. PARAMOUNT'S "ARTISTS AND MODELS" is out in front, running away from the pack. Look at that baby go. "ARTISTS AND MODELS" is out to set a record.

ARTISTS AND MODEL
SOULS AT SEA
LOOK AT "SOULS AT SEA"
Look at "SOULS AT SEA." Look at that sure-shot tear out to beat "ARTISTS AND MODELS." Looks like he will, too. Boy, that Paramount entry is a money entry.

ARTISTS AND MODELS
SOULS AT SEA
DOUBLE OR NOTHING
AND HERE COMES "DOUBLE or NOTHING"
Here comes our own baby, PARAMOUNT'S "DOUBLE OR NOTHING." Look at that fellow fly. It is sure to be in the money.
It's Paramount,—first, second and third in the first race!

IT LOOKS LIKE A PARAMOUNT YEAR, MARY

Three Paramount horses in the money in the first race, and that's only the start. Look at the rest of the Paramount stable: ★ HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME ★ ANGEL ★ EBB TIDE ★ THE BARRIER ★ THIS WAY, PLEASE ★ BLOSSOMS ON BROADWAY ★ TRUE CONFESSION ★ WELLS FARGO ★ THE BUCCANEER ★ THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1938 Among others ★ What a great lot of record breakers—money winners.

Tough competition for the man who plays against them! If I were an exhibitor I'd put my dough on Paramount and be in the money every month—every week—every day.

BING CROSBY'S RIGHT, BOYS...

LOOK AT THIS PARAMOUNT RECORD

"ARTISTS and MODELS"

New York	Biggest summer gross in history of house, played 4 weeks.
Chicago	Biggest business of the year except personal appearance of Martha Raye.
Newark, N. J.	4th week tops 3rd week gross; first time any picture has played house 4 weeks.
Detroit	Biggest opening day business of the year with the exception of Martha Raye personal appearance.
Erie, Pa.	Biggest gross of 2 years in Warner Bros. Theatre.
San Francisco	Ran 3 weeks to record-breaking business.
Denver, Col.	1st week broke all records.
Philadelphia	1st week gross at Stanley Theatre biggest in 3 years.
Los Angeles	1st week broke all records at Paramount for past year.
Worcester, Mass.	Tops year's gross in 2-week run at Capital.
Minneapolis	Beats business of any musical ever to play house.
Seattle	Biggest 1st week in 2 years at Paramount Theatre. Moved over to Music Hall for 3rd week.

"SOULS at SEA"

New York	4 weeks to S.R.O. business at Globe Theatre. 3rd week's business tops 2nd week.
San Francisco	Best opening of the year at the Warfield. To be held 2 weeks and will run additional weeks first run downtown.
New Haven	Opening to year's biggest business.
Philadelphia	Biggest opening day of the year at the Fox.

AS WE GO TO PRESS

"DOUBLE OR NOTHING" OPENS AT THE PARAMOUNT THEATRE NEW YORK TO SMASH BUSINESS.

Looks like a winner, boys!

RACING TIP!

Put your money on the Paramount stable this year, boys. They will be in the big money in every race.

Keep your eye on "EBB TIDE," that fast filly, "ANGEL" and "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" coming up for the next race. They are sure to be in there at the pay-off.

Paramount Pictures

TO ENTERTAIN IS FILM INDUSTRY'S ONLY MISSION, QUIGLEY TELLS FORUM

Williamstown Institute Hears Herald Publisher, Gov. Milliken and Others on Responsibilities, Social Significance of Screen

Special Correspondence
WILLIAMSTOWN, MASS.

Writers who confuse word-skill with information, and intellectuals who put their authority behind hearsay opinions, were indicted as foes of the motion picture by Martin Quigley, editor in chief of Quigley Publications, speaking before the Williamstown Institute of Human Relations Tuesday.

Mr. Quigley made emphatic reiteration of the fact that the motion picture industry's responsibility is to the art of entertainment, without regard to any other interest or special cause. He pointed out that the executives with responsibility for the industry "do not envision themselves as teachers, statesmen, churchmen or economists. They are showmen."

The Institute's forums are held under the auspices of the National Conference of Jews and Christians, under the direction of Dr. Everett B. Clinchy. The co-chairmen are Newton D. Baker, Roger William Straus and Professor Carlton J. H. Hayes.

The Institute also heard from Carl E. Milliken of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, who described endeavors intended to be co-operative with the interests of education. W. P. Montague of Paramount News spoke on Public Opinion and the Newsreel. Fred Eastman, professor of Biography, literature and drama at the Chicago Theological Seminary, restated his familiar position, bringing in his not-so-expert opinions about distribution methods and arguing that the motion picture industry ought to assume burdens of education. He also would like to have the State Department censor export pictures in behalf of glorification of American life to audiences abroad.

The Rev. Gerald B. Donnelly, S.J., associate editor of "America," presented an exposition of the aims and attainments of the Legion of Decency, and of the motion picture industry as operated under the Production Code. He reiterated the definition of subversive entertainment as the glorification of misconduct and crime and pointed to the demise of the harlot-triumphant as a screen figure.

Significant was Father Donnelly's line, "I think that most of my co-religionists do not believe in or trust political censorship."

Dr. Edgar Dale, bureau of educational research, Ohio State University, of fame for his participation in and discussions of reports assembled and purveyed some years ago by the Motion Picture Research Council under the administration of the late William Harrison Short, engaged in exhaustive analytical discussion of what he deemed faults of motion picture types and stereotypes —ignoring quite that what he was discussing was not the motion picture but the whole art of narration and expression, with shortcomings to be found in identical abundance alike on the screen, the stage and printed page.

STANDARD SOUND EQUIPMENT URGED

Another effort to unify studio and theatre sound equipment was made last week in the recommendation of the research council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for standardized sound apparatus in the 44 theatres used by the major studios for previews.

The recommendations, sent to the sound equipment companies and operators of the theatres involved, outlined adjustments designed to standardize reproduction quality in those theatres.

Uniformity of preview houses was advised after a series of tests were made by the council's standardization committee, headed by John Hilliard. The recommendation was sent by William Koenig, chairman of the council.

Explains Production Code

Mr. Quigley's remarks included the first authoritative utterance from a public rostrum of the nature and functions of the Production Code under which the motion picture industry operates—authoritatively coming from the man who conceived and brought the code into being and ultimately moved to bring about its acceptance and working application.

"To one who for more than 22 years has lived in, with—and, I might add, by—the motion picture, there is gratification in observing the attention it is receiving currently in the proceedings of the Williamstown Institute of Human Relations," said Mr. Quigley. "Although reference to the calendar indicates that considerable time has passed, yet my recollection is exceedingly vivid of a day when no such attention was reasonably conceivable.

Criticism Vocal

"While there is to those of us who have struggled through the years in the industry a satisfaction in this dawn of an intellectual interest in the social and moral significance of the motion picture, it may not be regarded precisely as an unmixed blessing.

"This principally is due to the fact that much of the opinion about motion pictures which has been accepted in circles where this interest has arisen has been contributed by two particular groups, neither of which has aided a clarity of understanding of the problems and purposes of the industry.

"In one group there are the professional writers—those artful fabricators of paragraphs and pages who treat with equal facility all subjects that strike their attention. Too often these writers and perhaps some of their readers mistake a cleverness in stringing words together for the knowledge requisite to discuss knowingly the subject in hand. These writers have not dealt kindly with the motion picture.

"In another group are many persons important in the intellectual life of the nation who are well-equipped to discuss motion pictures and to contribute to a sound opinon about them, except for the fact—which they seem joyfully to reiterate—that they never see motion pictures; at least never see any representative number of them.

"If it is true then—as I believe it to be—that much of what passes for thoughtful consideration of motion pictures is contributed on one hand by writers who have never troubled themselves to learn about pictures and the industry which produces them; and on the other hand, by persons who profess they do not examine the pictures themselves, it would seem then that there remains much to be said on the subject.

Film Has Responsible Sponsorship

"Of the much that may be said I shall attempt only a little, but even that little will suggest, I hope, that in the sponsorship of the entertainment film there is a conscience and perhaps even an intelligence.

"Recently I have heard it remarked that if you write the dialogue for both parts of an argument the least you can expect is to win the argument.

"That's how many arguments critical of the motion picture are won. There is a practice to attribute to it objectives which it does not entertain, coupled with criticism of the non-attainment of objectives which it has never sought.

"There is also a practice to accuse the motion picture of delinquencies in provinces where it has not entered and where reason and judgment indicate it should not enter.

"There are those who damn the motion picture industry for an alleged lack of social consciousness; for failure to give pictorial expression to the great political, social and economic issues of the day. These critics deny or ignore the deliberately expressed policy of the entertainment film which, simply stated, is: To entertain.

"They ignore or deny also that the industry is upon thoroughly solid and proper grounds in centering upon this policy.

"References to the motion picture producers usually means the member companies of the organized motion picture industry. These firms are engaged in the business of providing entertainment. The executives of these firms do not envision themselves as teachers, statesmen, churchmen or economists. They are showmen; at least they seek to be.

Motion Pictures No Monopoly

"They hold no exclusive sovereignty over the medium of motion picture expression. The medium is open to anyone who has, or who can equip himself with the required facilities. If these showmen have well-equipped themselves with the required facilities it should be noted that it is their business to do so.

(Continued on following page)

PRODUCTION CODE PROVEN SUCCESS

(Continued from preceding page)

"It is the industry's judgment and mine that the entertainment film belongs in the province of entertainment and nowhere else. If there are others who wish to use this medium for a message which they imagine the world is yearning to hear, the obvious course for them is to get a camera and go to work.

"Let us consider the propriety of this industry policy:

"We of the industry are in no wise unaware of the influence of the screen. We know that it has an unparalleled appeal to virtually all classes of people the world over.

"We know of its powerful emotional impact upon audiences.

"We know of its effectiveness in creating an acceptance for modes, manners and merchandise.

"We recall the incident of the potentate somewhere in Java who, after seeing an American automobile attractively pictured in an American film, promptly cabled an order to Detroit. When the car reached Java His Highness had to construct two miles of roadway in order to have some place to drive it.

"We know that Maxim Litvinoff, the Soviet foreign minister, has declared that 'the cinema is the most desirable and effective means of promoting the Revolution.'

"Hence there is no lack of appreciation of the potentialities of the screen for propaganda.

"But there is within the industry a recognition of the grave responsibility that would devolve upon him who would attempt to use this most popular of all amusements for the purpose of propagating social, political and economic ideas, many of which must necessarily be of an untried and experimental character.

"At Washington there is adequate experimentation and the figures involved are impressive enough even in an industry where millions are so lightly spoken of.

"I am opposed to any scheme which involves the theatre screen in propaganda of any character.

"The only mandate which the motion picture industry has any right to assume that it has received from the public is to produce entertainment films.

"To attempt another policy would be to lessen the popularity of the screen and to create additional confusion in the public mind. It would make the theatres hotbeds of friction and controversy instead of places of refreshment and recreation. There are many places appropriate to the discussion of these issues. The theatre is not one of them.

"There are producers, fortunately of limited influence who appear from time to time with films which they declare have a valuable lesson for the public. Seeking to capitalize for their own purposes the laudable efforts of public health authorities in their campaign to control the ravages of venereal disease, some of these are currently distributing films based on related themes.

"The argument, of course, is that these films have a helpful message for the public.

"It is an obvious fact that these producers are devoted to the public welfare in a curiously restricted manner. We hear nothing of their solicitude about matters of cancer, tuberculosis or infant mortality. The urge to service in the public weal comes only when some implication of sex is present.

"Their pretense to public service is fraudulent. They are interested only in saleable merchandise and they are not fastidious about what the sales appeal is based upon. Such subjects are seldom, if ever, conceived in good faith for theatrical presentation and regardless of the motive the themes involved are unfit for theatrical presentation.

"I am aware that a simple declaration such as this—that certain ideas are unfit for theatrical presentation—arouses these days in certain circles an anguished protest. The dissenters assert that any such restriction amounts to an abridgement of the freedom of speech.

"Actually the principle of freedom of speech is not abridged and not even involved. Such a restriction is only a sensible recognition of the principle that in a civilized community no one is entitled to a freedom of action of any character which transgresses the public welfare.

Censorship Not a Solution

"Upon this question of what the screen may say and how it may say it and in connection with arrangements which the organized industry in the United States has evolved to deal with it there exists much confusion and misunderstanding.

"Recently in what many regard as one of our thoughtful magazines there appeared an article by a professional writer under the title, 'The Frustrate Censor'. The writer declared against the futility of all censorship and particularly against what he proclaimed to be the system of censorship existing in the motion picture industry in the United States. He denounced this system as an especially glaring failure.

"I am in hearty agreement with anyone who ascribes the attribute of futility to what may properly be described as censorship. But the system of regulation which exists in the American motion picture industry is not censorship. On the contrary, it is a plan of regulation interiorly and voluntarily devised. It does not partake of the essential character of censorship because it was not imposed by an exterior force.

"This system known as the Production Code is an expression of the corporate conscience of a great industry, the nature of whose business in the natural course confronted it with a great moral problem.

"This writer is again in error, because through lack of correct information—all of which is readily available—he describes as a failure a system which has produced phenomenally successful results.

"I have stated that the theatrical motion picture does not wish to play the role of an agency of propaganda, and I have argued that it is neither right nor reasonable that it should attempt to play such a part.

Film's Responsibility Inherent

"However, I do not wish to deny, but rather emphatically to affirm, that the theatrical motion picture has grave public responsibilities. These responsibilities embrace no mandate that it should seek to inculcate in the public mind ideas on sociology, economics and politics. They are not responsibilities which it has reached out for and assumed. Rather they are responsibilities which are inherent in the operation of telling stories upon the screen to a vast audience.

"The subject matter of the typical motion picture comprises the circumstances of life and living. It presents human beings in action and reaction upon each other. It shows people confronted with problems of conduct and behavior and the manner and ways they meet and solve or attempt to solve these problems. Screen conduct in the forcefulness of its presentation influences or tends to influence the conduct of the members of the audience, depending in degree upon their individual impressionability.

"Hence there is an inescapable social and moral influence in the motion picture. And inescapable is the responsibility which devolves upon those who determine its moral character.

"Society recognizes this responsibility and the moral leadership of the nation insists that it shall be properly discharged.

"The organized motion picture industry in the United States has answered this insistence with the development of a system of interior regulation which is unique in the annals of the theatre or any other form of amusement. Moreover, I think it may rightly be said that the industry's process of regulation is more thorough and is geared to higher moral standards than regulatory measures adopted and executed by any other popular media of expression.

"This system is a detailed code of procedure together with reasonable and practical means of insuring its application. In its simplest terms it may be described as a commonsense recognition of the nature of man and his responsibilities to his neighbor and to society at large. Because it was evolved under expert and experienced auspices it has been able to provide methods which have proved successful in meeting the day by day problems which arise in the production of motion pictures.

"It has accomplished results of such calibre and scope as entitled it to be recognized along with the pulpit and the classroom in their current contributions to the welfare of the race.

"An understanding of this system and the results it has obtained will afford to persons attentive to the influences of media of expression much that may inspire admiration for an important job well done."

ENTERTAINMENT AIM OF NEWSREELS, SAYS MONTAGUE

Educating the world from a dozen different angles of human relationships from an entertainment, rather than from an educational basis, is now the chief concern of the newsreels, W. P. Montague of Paramount News told the Institute. Mr. Montague traced the development of the newsreel since its inception approximately 30 years ago, explaining the limitations, dangers, spirit of rivalry, criticisms and the like that are a part of the finished product as it comes to the screen.

"I wired the cameramen in the larger cities from coast to coast asking each of them to interview ten women of entirely different social and economic interests as to what they liked and disliked in a newsreel," he explained. "While of course this is far too small a number to count as a survey, the answers along this line were that they wanted the entertainment type of story, miscellaneous news, fashions, and strangely enough, a large proportion wanted sports, personalities and human interest. The bulk of them said that they disliked strikes, war, crime and politics.

(Continued on following page)

NEARLY ALL PRODUCT FOUND CLEAN

(Continued from preceding page)

"Here was the problem the newsreels were faced with," he continued. "They had the prerogatives of a news agency and hence the social obligations of a news disseminating organization. At the same time their audience would only accept their product if it was entertaining —good theatre. We were driven into the corner of having to combine the two factors and our policy as worked out roughly became, 'Give as much real news as can really be interestingly told with motion pictures.'

"We found that nearly any major problem in human relationships had an angle of popular interest. Perhaps, our approach was a superficial one, perhaps we approached important social news from an entertainment rather than an educational one. But at least we tackled it, got it into the theatres and before the eyes of twenty-eight million people every week."

As to the treatment of national and other issues, Mr. Montague said, "There is hardly any subject that we have not tackled. All we need is your personal project, a new and interesting slant on it and a novel way of bringing it intimately to the people. We have no preconceived concepts as to which human problems are good newsreel material. We do have an unbiased editorial policy which we try to make as far sighted as possible.

"In the first place, we will not take sides on a controversial issue. In the second place, the newsreels are honest, or do their best to be so. The only real threat to our honesty is the necessity of being interesting and at times we have gone so far as to sacrifice entertainment values to what we believe to be a sound human relations policy."

In concluding, Mr. Montague stressed the fact that a final obligation rests with the newsreels if they are to consider themselves news medium: That is to edit the news, and to edit it with a far sighted view to its ultimate effect on human relations.

CRITICISM BEGINS AT HOME, SAYS EASTMAN

The motion picture has taken rank with the home, the school and the church as a power in setting the pattern of American culture, Professor Eastman said in his address before the Institute. He offered four suggestions for getting better pictures.

"We can begin at home with ourselves and our own families," he said. "We can select with greater care the pictures that we see. We can patronize the best—the seven per cent top quality. We can boycott the trash. We can educate our communities by classes in motion picture appreciation and discrimination in the high schools, and motion picture study groups in our churches and civic associations.

"We can help the more progressive exhibitors break the block-booking system. A bill to this end has been introduced into Congress by motion picture exhibitors. They want to be able to choose their pictures. They want our help. We can write our Congressmen for their support.

"We can also empower our State Department to withold pictures which go from America abroad and give our foreign neighbors false impressions of American life.

"Finally, let us be clear concerning our goal. Is it merely decency that we want in our pictures? No! We want far more than that. Decency at best is a negative thing. It means only the absence of dirt. A picture can be decent and still be inane, trashy, essentially dishonest in its portrayal of human values. We want something positive."

After extensive references to portrayals of vocational, racial and other types in motion pictures, Dr. Dale called for efforts to give people the power to evaluate critically what they see on the screen, hear on the radio or read in the press.

"We have learned in America and elsewhere to make and distribute propaganda faster than we have learned how to resist and evaluate it. It comes to us in a constant stream from the press, the radio and the movies. We need a Consumers Research Organization to evaluate its factual accuracy, its biased sources. We need to put the easy stereotypes of racial and nationalistic prejudice under the microscope to determine whether they are false, half-truth, or truth. We need, in short to inoculate the American public with the vaccine of critical judgment."

Dr. Dale added that he realized this would be an enormous task.

"PREDATORY WENCHES DISCOURAGED"—DONNELLY

The major purpose of the Legion of Decency movement is to rid the motion picture screen of morally subversive stories, stories that lower traditional moral standards and persuade the young to accept false principles of conduct, Father Donnelly told the Institute. A secondary purpose, he added, is to rid the screen of obscenities and indecencies.

Father Donnelly mentioned about 40 films produced just prior to the Legion of Decency campaign as having dealt in ribaldry, eroticism or other evils for their appeal, and gave praise to the West Coast motion picture producers for having cooperated with the Legion of Decency in putting an end to that type of picture.

"During the past several years," he said, "the Legion has approved 97 per cent of the Hollywood product. I estimate that this year the screen is having the greatest financial success in its history. The films are playing to packed houses here and abroad. But in none of them is the hero a glamorous gangster or admirable rebel against the moral or civil law. In none of them is the heroine portrayed as an admirable street walker, kept woman, unmarried mother or predatory wench.

"Most remarkable of all," he continued, "not one of the films persuades its audience that crime is romantic, that education is funny, that chastity is ridiculous, that adultery is justified by a great love, or that traditional moral convictions are false or outmoded."

Dr. Donnelly stressed the Legion of Decency's determination to end "morally subversive stories," or stories "persuading the young to accept false principles of conduct."

"By the traditional standards of conduct," he said, "I mean such principles of conduct as the following: murder is wrong; stealing is wrong; perjury is wrong. These standards, together with many relating to sex, follow from the code of right and wrong written into the consciences of men by God himself, and have been generally accepted for centuries by Christians, Jews, pagans and men of no religious affiliation.

Referring to regulation of motion picture material, he said: "I think that most of my co-religionists do not believe in or trust political censorship. The Legion of Decency did not agitate for more laws, more official snoopers, stricter courts, more scissors and blue pencil men paid by the state. The Legion was an effort to persuade the industry to internal regulation—self regulation. The Legion resorted to the organization of public opinion and public pressure to induce the industry to establish and obey its own censors."

F. & M. in Talks for New Roxy Deal

F. & M. Stageshows, Inc., will continue operation of the Roxy Theatre, New York, pending conclusion of a new operating agreement with Twentieth Century-Fox, controllers of the house, it was announced this week. Preliminary discussions on the new agreement have been held, but no contract has been signed as yet.

F. & M. through its subsidiary Artco has been managing the Roxy for the last five years under a management contract with Howard S. Cullman, trustee.

Mr. Cullman and Edward Burke, manager of the theatre for the past 10 years, step out September 2nd in consequence of the recent approval of the reorganization plan. Irving Lesser, who has been representing F. & M. in the management contract with Mr. Cullman, is expected to assume Mr. Burke's duties.

The Roxy passed into the possession of Twentieth Century-Fox at midnight September 1st. Under the reorganization, recently approved by Federal Judge Francis G. Caffey, the theatre obtains a 20-year franchise from Twentieth Century-Fox.

National Decency Legion Classifies 12 Productions

Of 12 new pictures reviewed and classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week 10 were approved for general patronage, one was listed as unobjectionable for adults and one was cited as objectionable in part. The pictures and their classification follow.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "An Orphan Boy of Vienna," "Clipped Wings," "Hideaway," "It's All Yours," "Ein Madel mit Tempo," "Sea Racketeers," "Sweetheart of the Navy," "Thin Ice," "Varsity Show," "Where There's a Will." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Die Nacht mit dem Kaiser." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938."

PARAMOUNT EXHIBITORS FORM BUYING COMBINE

UMPTO Committee Authorized to Bargain for New Contracts in Boycott Dispute

While awaiting a court ruling on their battle with Paramount over an alleged breach of contract, independent exhibitors in the Philadelphia area this week moved to apply a new weapon in the controversy. The plan, formation of a buying combine, was revealed at a meeting of the United Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware at the Broadwood Hotel in Philadelphia.

With approximately 85 members present, it was disclosed that the operators of 127 theatres, said to have an aggregate Paramount film bill of $500,000, have signed a power of attorney, giving a UMPTO committee the right to bargain for them for the 1937-38 Paramount product.

It is stipulated that the terms of the contract shall be better or no worse than those in the 1936-37 agreements. It is last year's agreements that the UMPTO charges Paramount violated.

The theatre owners assert that six pictures listed on the 1936-'37 contracts were not delivered by Paramount, but instead were held over and are now being sold in new contracts. In retaliation, the UMPTO declared a boycott against Paramount, and Paramount now seeks in federal court a permanent injunction restraining UMPTO from carrying out its boycott plans.

Decisions Still Awaited

Oliver B. Dickinson, federal judge, who has the petition and UMPTO's answer under consideration, has given no indication as to when he will render a decision.

Paramount has brought a similar action in Minneapolis, seeking to restrain exhibitors there from carrying out a proposed "buyers' strike." Hearing on the petition, postponed twice because of the illness of J. P. Devaney, chief counsel for Allied Theatre Owners of the Northwest, was scheduled to be held this week with Gunnar H. Nordbye, federal judge, presiding.

A bulletin issued by Allied pointed out that 85 theatres were represented at a recent meeting and that a vote was taken to determine sentiment in the controversy. Each member present was called upon and each said "he would continue to refuse to give dates to Paramount and would not negotiate for the new product."

Urges Action on Ads

P. J. Wood, secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, is asking independent exhibitors, especially those involved in the Paramount battle, to petition the Federal Trade Commission for immediate action on the application of Abram F. Myers, Allied general counsel, for a complaint against Paramount for "false and misleading advertising."

The request is included in a bulletin which states Mr. Myers' application reveals to the Commission for the first time the reasons why pictures promised for delivery are held back.

No decision was reached at a special meeting of the Independent Theatre Owners of Northern California, which was called to discuss a proposed playdate strike. The meeting was adjourned after a heated discussion.

PREMIUMS, NOT SHOW, WHAT THEY WANTED

E. E. Webber, of the Mary Lou Theatre, independent subsequent-run house in Kansas City, was never an advocate of the practice of giving away premiums, but other theatres did, so Mr. Webber adopted a similar policy a few weeks ago. The exhibitor voiced his opinion on the policy by telling what happened in one night. He said:

"In six instances women stood in line to buy tickets, accepted their premiums and left. One pair of ladies arrived in a taxicab, bought tickets, tucked their premiums under their arms, climbed back in the taxi and departed."

Missouri Gambling Ban Seen Boon to Box Office

Theatre men in Missouri and especially in Kansas City expect box office receipts to improve following the order of Governor Lloyd C. Stark and Attorney General Roy McKittrick to Kansas City prosecutors to proceed at once against all places with slot machines. Accompanying the letter to prosecutors was the promise to institute ouster proceedings against those law enforcement officers who did not act to enforce the Governor's order.

Slot machines immediately began to disappear all over Kansas City and throughout Jackson County, as well as other city and country beer places and road houses over the state. A conservative estimate places the amount of the "take" in Jackson County alone at $1,000,000 annually, four-fifths of it from Kansas City proper.

To Discuss Premiums

Varied angles of the premium situation will be discussed at round table meetings of the Atlantic Coast Premium Exposition to be held at the Hotel Astor in New York from September 28 to the 30th. Howard Dunk is secretary. Among the speakers will be: Professor Howard T. Hovde, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Pauline Beery Mack, director of Home Economics Research and professor of textile chemistry, Pennsylvania State College, and Jules Dundes of the Columbia Broadcasting System sales promotion staff.

Consent Decrees Seen Abandoned In Trust Suits

by FRANCIS L. BURT
in Washington

Department of Justice officials this week were reported to be considering a tightening up of anti-trust enforcements, involving the abandonment of the consent decrees which, in the past, have been accepted to terminate many prosecutions.

The apparent ease and regularity with which consent decrees are evaded widely after the publicity attendant upon a Government prosecution dies down was said to be the underlying factor in the situation.

The matter was recently brought to the fore by the action of the department in investigating alleged violation of a consent decree entered into five years ago by California oil companies.

Officials of the department showed no disposition to discuss the proposed change, which was made known through publication last week by Representative John M. Coffee of Washington of a letter he wrote to the attorney general congratulating him for abandoning the consent-decree practice.

Department executives, however, refused to admit the accuracy of reports that they were developing legislation to be submitted to Congress in January, tightening up the anti-trust laws as a preliminary to a nationwide campaign against the film, oil, steel, cement and other large industries.

Rumors continue to persist, though, that the department will undertake such a drive, based on the known fact that government agents are now making investigations in several of those industries.

Hearing in October on Legion's Nebraska Appeal

The American Legion's appeal in the lost Beatrice, Neb., Sunday show election will be heard in district court there in October. City Attorney H. F. Mattoon ruled the July election lost to advocates of the blue law appeal when a 1,553 tie vote resulted. The Legion, which, along with other patriotic and civic organizations, sponsored the election, holds that the 67 last minute mail ballots which killed an apparent victory for Sunday shows were illegally counted.

No Morris Successor Chosen

H. M. Addison had declared that no manager will be named for the present to replace Victor Morris at Loew's Orpheum in Boston. Arthur Tuohy, former assistant to Mr. Morris, and Frank Murphy, formerly assistant at Loew's State, are dividing duties at the theatre for the present.

Detroit Club Has Outing

The Variety Club of Detroit had its final golf tournament and outing of the season on Monday at the Franklin Hills Country Club. Committee in charge consisted of Irving and Adolph Goldberg, Irving Belinsky, Bob Fisher, Lester Sturm, Jack Stewart, Charles Perry, Frank Downey, Carl Buermele and Moe Dudelson.

ONE OF THE YEAR'S TRULY EXCEPTIONAL MOTION PICTURES

» » » » and 20th says that with your boxoffice in mind!

For every WIFE whose husband works with pretty women!

For every HUSBAND whose wife waits and wonders!

For every GIRL whose boss is handsome . . . and married!

Drama with a twinkle in its eye . . .
for anybody and everybody who seeks the outstanding in entertainment!

PRINTED IN U. S. A.

LORETTA YOUNG

WARNER BAXTER

"WIFE, DOCTOR

She wanted to be a "modern" wife... and yet—?

He needed and wanted them both ... but how—?

ALL THAT YOUR AUDIENCES EVER THRILLED TO IN THESE GRAND STARS

. . . in this gaily romantic tale of three who tried to out-smart love!

with

JANE DARWELL • MAURICE CASS
SIDNEY BLACKMER • MINNA GOMBELL • MARGARET IRVING

Directed by Walter Lang

Associate Producer Raymond Griffith

Screen play by Kathryn Scola, Darrell Ware and Lamar Trotti

20th CENTURY FOX

Darryl F. Zanuck
in Charge of Production

IT'S ONE OF THE BIGGEST OF 20TH'S BIG ONES!

20th's canny sense of entertainment values shows to its greatest advantage in "WIFE, DOCTOR AND NURSE"... bright, witty, penetrating romance in the mood of today. Brilliantly written, gloriously played by its triple-sure-fire stars . . . backed by one of the swellest marquee titles ever . . . this grand production is a certainty for extended runs everywhere! And that's a promise!

Loretta Warner

YOUNG · BAXTER

Virginia

BRUCE

in

"WIFE, DOCTOR AND NURSE"

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

STUDIO PUBLICITY PERSONNEL UP TO COPE WITH QUICKENED DEMAND

Increases Up to 40%; Guff-and-Gush Days Are Over; Newspapers, Magazines in Quest of Basic Material

Hollywood studio publicity departments, habitually depicted in the motion pictures as gaudy dens populated by slick and professionally unprincipled young fellows forever fabricating mischievous canards complicating the private lives and romances of virtuous ladies and gentlemen of the cinema, are, in unromantic, box office fact, toiling at full tilt and with no prospect of letdown in behalf of a season foreseen by all hands as the biggest, on all counts, in history.

Personnel of the Hollywood studio publicity departments is up by as much as 40 per cent, in some cases, from the September, 1936, level.

Outlets supplied by this augmented personnel have multiplied more than proportionately during the same 12 months.

Increased demand on the part of publications generally for reliable source of information, reflecting a definite swing of reader interest away from the guff-and-gush type of fan fodder, coupled with augmented allocations of space by first line newspapers account for the mounting employment and sharply improved output.

Veterans among the Hollywood publicity department heads, themselves almost without exception experienced in newspaper and magazine publication, attribute the present uptrend to a number of more or less unrelated but commonly fortuitous developments inside and outside of the industry.

Beginnings of the editorial discrimination now spurring studios to employment of more and better writing men are traced by some to the sharp and not untroubled swing toward a more substantial kind of production subject matter following intervention of the Legion of Decency and implementation of the Production Code Authority. Just as the sounder screen works brought out after these happenings found a sincerer public interest, so, they say, did they find a new and deeper interest on the part of newspaper and magazine editors in information relative to the genesis, auspices and personnel of product in prospect.

Reader Interest Revived

More or less directly to the same causation may be traced, in the opinion of some, a general revival of public interest in the better grade fan publications, most of which had languished forlornly prior to this time, survivors showing an upcurve in circulation coinciding roughly with the change in character of requests for informational material.

To Life, Look and their train, the innumerable pictorials which, commencing on whatever keynote, swerve more or less completely toward motion picture material, is accredited a tremendously augmented and specialized demand for stills, location shots, studio photographs of all kinds, together with caption data of equally varied and stipulated kinds.

Concurrent with this development is the coming of newsprint color into its long deferred own. Still expensive and of debated, if not debatable, usefulness, the various processes have been seized upon by major metropolitan newspapers as weapons of circulation warfare, the competition for supremacy in subjective interest impelling art editors, in consequence of the 90,000,000 weekly attendance figure, to make exacting and, incidentally, expensive demands upon Hollywood. Color photographs, once regarded as slightly ridiculous affectations, now are being made up regularly on every major lot.

New Condition Prevails

Out of all these and concurrent developments have come conditions unpredictable and sometimes unmanageable, but wholesome. In addition to the 157 permanently resident Hollywood newspaper, magazine and wire service correspondents, the studios are being visited this summer by an unprecedented procession of visiting editors, feature writers and columnists, paying their own way in significant contrast to a now happily abandoned practice of earlier years. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's Don McElwaine counted 150 such guests, with the goats weeded out, in 1936, and is well past that figure for 1937, with the final quarter still to go. Statistics from other sources jibe.

This would be about the place to say something about Mohammed and the mountain, but the analogy is not quite complete. It is true that the studio publicity departments are less wooer and more wooed than in what are called the old days, but they are by no means lolling back in blissful surrender to their suddenly importunate and proportionately exacting suitors. Mohammed has come to the mountain to get certain definite things and wants them right now.

25% More Writers at MGM

The MGM publicity personnel is up 25 per cent as compared with a year ago. This means writers. It does not mean photographers or clerical help, and it does not include part-time men added to take care of this or that bulge in activity. It also means versatile writers, men able to knock out a magazine story for this or that monthly or weekly in the style thereof and before a frequently hairtrigger deadline.

Like others in the area, the MGM publicity department is organized as a newspaper is organized, and turns out enough copy daily to fill a goodsized one. Operation is geared more or less to demand, naturally, but an overall consideration is the timing of material, special or general, photographic or text, to break, far and near, coincidentally with release of product. With publication deadlines varying from overnight to four months, this may be said to constitute a neat trick, but the department does it.

The 20th Century-Fox department, functioning like a Swiss watch under direction of Harry Brand, has increased its personnel 15 per cent in the twelvemonth. Here, as elsewhere, the editorial demand for specific material on designated subjects, and at once, has brought about a high degree of individual versatility which obtains without sacrifice of co-ordination or efficiency.

The increase in number and size of fan publications is cited by Mr. Brand as perhaps the thing most directly responsible, of the many factors accounting for the increased personnel. As to whether it all pays, he quotes company branch managers, who in turn quote exhibitors, in emphatic affirmative.

Paramount Enlarges Staff

Christopher J. Dunphy's finely integrated Paramount publicity staff is 10 per cent larger than a year ago, and a measure of this added talent is engaged in cultivating the relatively unploughed terrain of church, school and college activity by means of what are called visual education shorts. Another service feature added during the past year is a compact and uncolored "Book of Facts," furnishing in convenient brevity and without underscoring of what is known as the "angle," essential data customarily come upon by hard pressed journalists only after exhaustive search beneath sprawling superlatives.

A 5 per cent increase is noted in Howard Benedict's department at RKO-Radio, where the Melrose-Gower feature, handled in the manner of syndicated column, is an added institution, and where particular attention is being paid to photographic needs. A special mail service has been established for rotogravure editors, and still photographers, running as many as three on a set when need requires, purvey to the mounting demand for photo-synopses of impending releases.

Columbia's department, recently taken over by Fred Stanley, reports no personnel increase. Here the trend is toward refinement and specialization. Color and tint still photography has been added to the routine of operation and exclusive photographs are to be had on any and all subjects and personalities.

Universal Has Color Expert

Marc Lachmann's staff has been augmented by 25 per cent to cope with the widespread demand for news pertaining to the New Universal, as it is called in all releases. Ray Jones, color photography expert, has been placed in charge of that new development, and expansion of effort is notable in that direction.

With Samuel Goldwyn deep into his $10,000,000 production program, Jock Lawrence has increased the manpower of his hard-hitting organization 40 per cent. His own a fine talent for crashing Page One, his departmental aides are concentrating just now on the production of distinguished still photographs, plain and colored, and that too often forgotten thing, the exploitation of the second run. In this he has the whole sympathy and direct co-operation of the resourceful Mr. Goldwyn himself, whose contribution of even date is the idea of supplying to second- and subsequent-run theatres, the costly color lobby displays (manufactured at $250 the panel) used for first-run openings.

Today studio publicity departments are, in reality, plainly furnished places where shirt-sleeved gifted people bend over beaten typewriters committing profitable copy to be permissibly plagiarized by columnists, cinema editors and plain reporters the world around—to be translated, finally, into the coin of this or that realm and to come to rest at last in the coffers of the industry.

Richard A. Rowland has succeeded Sam Arnow as talent scout for Republic.

OBJECT LESSON FOR STARLINGS

Stalwart, stern Berton Churchill, 61, in pictures since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary and behind footlights in distinguished company before that, has seen himself in exactly one picture. That one was "Taxi" and he didn't get back to normal for quite a spell afterward. His record of consistent employment is one of the best in Hollywood.

AMBASSADOR SCHEDULES MILLION FOR 36 FILMS

Reorganized Company Lists Plans for Production and Public Stock Issue with SEC

Financing plans of the recently reorganized firm of Ambassador Pictures, Inc., laid before the Securities and Exchange Commission last week in a registration statement, show that the company proposes to produce 36 pictures during the coming season, at a cost of $1,100,000. The statement covers the proposed issuance of 1,025,000 shares of $1 par capital stock.

As in the past, the pictures will be issued to distributors under five-year franchise contracts, on a straight percentage basis. The new company was formed May 3, 1937, by the merger of Ambassador Pictures, Conn Pictures, Melody Pictures and Conn Studios. Maurice Conn, president, owns all of the present outstanding stock, consisting of 151,000 shares.

The statement filed with the SEC shows that of the 1,025,000 shares of new stock to be issued, 600,000 shares will be offered the public through C. B. Ewart & Co., Inc., New York, and Maurice Conn, at $2.50 per share. From this, the company will net $2, giving it a total of $1,200,000.

In addition, 425,000 shares are reserved for options, 125,000 shares going to Ewart & Co., as part compensation, 150,000 shares to Mr. Conn, 25,000 shares to Robert W. Morris, treasurer; 25,000 shares to the Marks & Malcolm Trading Company, which assisted in the financing; 37,500 shares to Hays, Podell & Sherman, counsel; 12,500 shares to Harold A. Lerman, attorney, and 50,000 shares to employes and distributors.

These options will be good until October 1, 1942, and the stock will be available to option holders at $3 per share to October 1, 1938, increasing $1 per year thereafter to $7 during the final year.

The company's statement disclosed that expenditures during the coming year are estimated at $1,675,000. In addition to the $1,100,000 for production, $100,000 has been allocated to distribution and overhead, $50,000 to advertising and sales promotion, $25,000 to purchase of release prints, and $175,000 to payment of deferred liabilities, including advances by Marks & Malcolm Trading Company.

$1,317,770 for Columbia

Net earnings of Columbia Pictures Corporation for the full year, ended June 26, were $1,317,770.92. This is equivalent to approximately $3.26 per share on 340,944 shares of common stock outstanding after deducting dividends on outstanding preferred stock.

This compares with earnings for the corresponding period ended June 27th, 1936, of $1,568,860.92, which was equal to approximately $4 earned on a similar number of common shares then oustanding after allowance for payment of preferred stock dividends.

The balance sheet as of June 26 shows current assets of $11,557,626.11, of which approximately $1,448,000 is represented by cash. The total current liabilities amount to $1,669,856.87, and working capital approximately $9,887,000.

Twentieth-Fox Pays 37½ Cents

The board of directors of Twentieth Century-Fox on Wednesday declared a cash dividend of 37½ cents per share for the third quarter of 1937 on outstanding preferred stock, payable September 30th, 1937, to stockholders of record September 15th, 1937. The board also declared a cash dividend of 50 cents per share on the outstanding common stock of the corporation, payable under the same conditions.

See RCA Earning 50c a Share

In New York current indications were that earnings of the Radio Corporation of America for the final six months of this year would exceed the first half-year period which surpassed all of 1936, the Wall Street Journal says. This suggests earnings for the full year of more than 50 cents a share, it is believed.

The National Broadcasting Company, RCA's chief source of revenue, is currently showing sales of paid time about 20% ahead of last year, states the Journal. For the first half of this year, the net profit of RCA was $4,467,386, higher than all of last year, and the second half-year period is expected to be better than the first.

Loew's Pays Extra $3

An extra $3 dividend was paid to all Loew's, Inc., common stockholders last week.

At the same time, Pathe's board of directors declared a quarterly dividend of $1.75 a share on the $7 convertible preferred stock. Pathe dividend is payable October 1.

The Roxy Theatres Corporation announced a profit for the 52 weeks ending August 19th of $270,686.32, an increase of 69.77 per cent over the same period last year. Average weekly attendance showed an increase of more than 15 per cent over the previous year.

Warners earnings for the fiscal year ending August 28th are expected to show considerable gains when the annual report is issued November 15th.

General Outdoor Advertising Company showed a quarterly profit of $589,180 for the period ending June 30th. This compares with a loss of $256,606 for the preceding quarter and a profit of $358,300 in the June quarter of last year.

See GTE Net Lower

Earnings of General Theatre Equipment Corporation for the third quarter are not expected to equal the net for the previous quarter. The usual seasonal decline during the summer months and increasing labor costs are the reasons, it is said.

Earnings in the six months ending June 30th were $614,667, or $1.13 a share on 541,161, of which 59 cents was earned in the June quarter, the balance in the March period.

N. L. Nathanson Buys Interest in "U" of Canada

N. L. Nathanson, president of Famous Players Canadian Corporation, has become associated with Universal through his purchase of a substantial number of shares in Universal Film Company, Ltd., operating six exchanges in Canada.

The new arrangement is not expected to affect the autonomy of Universal's distributing system. The exchanges will continue to operate independently, it is stated, but it is likely that Mr. Nathanson will play an important part in their management.

Universal's six Canadian exchanges are located in Toronto, Montreal, Calgary, St. John, Vancouver and Winnipeg.

The understanding is that Universal will distribute through Empire Films, Ltd., of which Mr. Nathanson is believed to have control. His son, Paul, is vice-president of Empire.

Harmon Appointed Code Head in East

Francis S. Harmon, who joined the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America last March, has been appointed eastern head of the Production Code Administration.

The appointment is understood to be in anticipation of increased work expected to result from the operation of the new British quota laws. The eastern office reviews British imports as well as features and shorts produced in eastern studios.

Mr. Harmon returned from the west coast last week, where he had been studying the operation of the code administration under Joseph I. Breen for the last four months.

He will continue to serve as general assistant to Will H. Hays during incumbency of his new office. Mr. Harmon is a former assistant attorney general of Mississippi and was at one time publisher of Hattiesburg, Miss., American.

WPA Theatre Held Wasteful

"The most wasteful and least satisfactory experiment ever indulged in," was the characterization made of the Federal Theatre Projects last week by Professor Glenn Hughes in speaking at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California. Mr. Hughes, professor of dramatic arts at the University of Washington, was one of the several speakers at the California university's annual conference on the drama.

Field Day Held in Boston

The Boston film district had its field day at the Pemberton Inn on Monday. Exchanges closed early for those employees who attended. Over four dozen prizes were awarded for the various events. Herman Konnis and James Kennedy were in charge of the program for the Motion Picture Salesmen's Club of Boston.

INDUSTRY INTEREST IN 16 MM FIELD FOLLOWS TECHNICAL IMPROVEMENTS

Product for Entertainment Purposes Meagre, Though Three Distributors Authorize Reduction of Features from 35mm.

Development of 16 mm. equipment has reached a point where it is now practical to use the film in a 600-seat auditorium without noticeable loss of quality in sound or photography, but product for entertainment purposes has not kept pace with the advancement.

There is a dearth of pictures for theatrical exhibition, despite the fact that three of the leading producing companies—Paramount, Gaumont British and Universal — authorize reduction of their 35mm. pictures within six months to a year after their release to theatres using standard equipment. Officials of a fourth company, Columbia, are considering entering the 16mm. field, according to Samuel Liggett, head of the non-theatrical department, but, as yet, the plan "is still in the conversation stage."

While permitting reduction of their pictures, the three companies, that have taken the leadership in the field, sanction the distribution of the smaller prints only where they will not prove competitive to theatres.

As for equipment, Herman A. DeVry, pioneer equipment manufacturer, believes the 16 mm. equipment in use today is better than the 35 mm. equipment used six years ago. He pointed out that 16 mm. equipment is still somewhat in the toy stage, but predicted it will be but a few years until equipment of this type will be comparable in performance to the present 35 mm. equipment.

"Development of the 16 mm. equipment is coming along as fast, or faster, than the development of the standard size equipment," Mr. DeVry declared. "Some manufacturers may not agree with this, but my own experience shows that it is true."

Newsreel Use Cited

Mr. DeVry stated many theatres are now shooting their own newsreels on 16 mm. film and showing them in theatres and also that many theatremen are buying 16 mm. equipment to expand this type of work. The results have been very gratifying to date, Mr. DeVry added.

The DeVry plant is at present perfecting a projector for 16 mm. film with a new type intermittent sprocket attachment. This new machine will be made to stand the wear and tear given the standard size projectors. Up to now 16 mm. projectors have not been of a quality to stand the severe strain that a 35 mm. projector gets. Mr. DeVry believes that his concern has found the right idea and that the building of a machine of untold performance is not too far distant.

The use of 16 mm. is very suitable to small theatres, Mr. DeVry pointed out. It has been developed to such a state that the getting of a 12-foot picture on the screen is not too difficult and that it has a half-tone effect that is better than some of the effects gotten by the standard machines which show up the grain in the film more strongly, especially to those seated in the front rows of a theatre.

Many halls and auditoriums which previously had used 35 mm. equipment are now installing 16 mm. machines, Mr. DeVry stated, as the cost for operation is much less and the choice of subjects, outside of entertainment films, is much larger.

Competition Checked

As a check against entertainment films being used in competitive situations, each of the three large producing companies insists upon individual approval of applications for rental of the films from the distributor, Films Incorporated.

Each of the three companies investigates applications in virtually the same manner. Hennan Stearn, head of Universal's non-theatrical department, explained the procedure with an example:

"A person desiring to rent one of Universal's 16 mm. pictures forwards his application to Films Incorporated, which, in turn, sends it to Universal. The company then notifies the exchange in the territory where the applicant plans to show the film.

"Should the exchange reply that rental of the film would result in competition to a theatre, the application is disapproved."

In rare instances, G. P. Bassett of Films, Incorporated, pointed out, a picture is shown in a competitive situation, but, he continued, a complaint is usually filed almost immediately with the producing company and this blocks the approval of any further applications from the same source.

There are other cases, Mr. Bassett declared, when neither the producer nor the distributor can be held responsible for exhibition of 16 mm. prints of leading pictures. Occasionally, he explained, a stolen print is used.

Applications which are most likely to be approved come from three sources, Mr. Bassett said:

1. Atlantic liners.
2. Civilian Conservation Corps camps.
3. Hospitals and other "shut-in" institutions.

As for town halls, and auditoriums in communities where there are no theatres, an application probably would be approved if there were no theatres within a 50-mile radius, Mr. Bassett explained. He also stated that merely because an application came from one of the three general sources would not be definite assurance that the petition would be approved. Extenuating circumstances have to be considered, he declared.

Circumstances which probably would lead to disapproval of a request to rent a film, he continued, could include the fact that 35 mm. equipment was available on a liner or that a theatre is located near a CCC camp.

Market Growing

Despite the restrictions the market for 16 mm. films has grown steadily during the last few years and at present Films, Inc., has a library of approximately 375 features.

They include "many of the pictures" produced by GB, Paramount and Universal, Mr. Bassett said.

William Berry, who has charge of 16 mm. films for GB, revealed that 20 of his company's features have been reduced already and contracts have been signed for an additional 10 which will include such features as "King Solomon's Mines." Among the 20 already available, with restrictions, and the time they were released on 35 mm. film for theatres are "Alias Bulldog Drummond," 1935; "Born for Glory," 1935; "Boys Will be Boys," 1935; "Camels Are Coming," 1934; "The Clairvoyant," 1935; "Chu Chin Chow," 1934; "Man Who Lived Again," 1936.

The catalog issued by Films Incorporated does not list the names of the Paramount pictures available, but carries a prefactory note explaining:

"Programs by Paramount available under special contract provisions to shut-in or restricted audiences."

Ten Universal productions are listed. Among them, with the time of release to theatres, are "Great Expectations," October, 1934; "The Invisible Man," November, 1933; and "Moonlight and Pretzels," August, 1933. Others on the list date back further than 1933.

The remainder of the feature pictures offered were produced by independent companies. They include "Black Beauty," Monogram; "Broken Dreams," Monogram; "Border Romonce," Tiffany; "Hot Off the Press," Victory; "I'll Name the Murderer," Puritan; "Kelly of the Secret Service," Victory; "Marrying Widows," Tower; "The Phantom Express," Majestic.

The Universal and the GB product probably will be eliminated from the next issue of the catalog, Mr. Bassett declared, because prospective applicants often become vexed when they find out they cannot rent the films that are advertised.

Entertainment Field Small

Although all of the pictures named are reductions from 35 mm. productions, originally made for entertainment purposes in theatres, this phase of the 16 mm. field is in the minority, according to Donald Hyndman, president of the New York Division of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers. Mr. Hyndman, who is associated with Eastman Film Company, estimated that 80 per cent of the 16 mm. film used is for industrial and educational pictures.

The industrial pictures, he explained, are for advertising purposes.

Mr. Hyndman believes 16 mm. films have a bright future. He estimated the sale of film in 1937 will double that of 1936 and explained that the sale last year was double that of 1935.

Cost of equipment, although small compared to 35 mm. equipment, has hampered development in the amateur field, Mr. Hyndman said. A sound projector, he continued, sells for between $350 and $750, while a similar machine for 35 mm. film runs from $1,200 up.

One of the major developments in the smaller film field, he asserted, would be perfection of a

(Continued on following page)

JAPANESE TOBIS SETS PRODUCTION

The Tobis Film Company of Japan has announced plans for a second production in the class of "The New Earth," recently completed. The picture, as yet untitled, will be made in cooperation with Shigemunre Productions. The technical staff will include Le Borg, assistant to Jacques Feyder; Richard Angust, cameraman for "The New Earth" and Tomu Uchida, Japanese director.

THEATRICAL COMPETITION MINIMIZED

(Continued from preceding page)

16 mm. sound camera. Research departments have been experimenting with this, but to date have not been entirely successful. However, Mr. Hyndman is confident that within the next two or three years they will produce a camera comparable to the 35 mm. sound camera of today.

All 16 mm. sound pictures, at present, have to be reduced from 35 mm. films. Up until three years ago, Mr. Hyndman explained, the chief difficulty was in perfecting a printer which would reduce the film without losing its sound or photographic qualities.

Advantages Listed

Only a small majority of persons are able now to detect the difference in sound on a carefully handled 16 mm. film and the sound on the larger film, Mr. Hyndman said. The few who can, he explained, are those who are musically inclined.

Chief advantages of 16 mm. film over 35 mm., Mr. Hyndman believes, include:

They can be sent by parcel post.

They do not have to be exhibited in compliance with the majority of fire and safety laws and regulations that were designed for the larger films.

An operator does not have to be experienced; he can learn to operate a 16 mm. projector in 15 or 20 minutes.

16 mm. projectors are portable; they can be picked up and carried by one man.

Union operators do not have to be employed.

On this latter point, Mr. Hyndman expressed the opinion that the projectors' union, naturally, would step in and demand union operators should the field advance to the stage where it might be a threat to 35 mm. exhibitions.

The serious consideration which Columbia Pictures is giving to entering the 16 mm. field is revealed in an advertisement appearing in "1,000 and One," a "blue book of non-theatrical films," published by the Educational Screen.

It is stated in the ad that feature pictures and shorts are "available in 16 and 35 mm." However, Mr. Liggett said the catalog, advertised in the same ad, lists only 35 mm. films. The 16 mm. was mentioned merely on the chance that Columbia would be permitting reductions by the end of the year, Mr. Liggett said.

Subjects Vary

Also included in the "blue book" is a list of 220 producers and distributors, offering films in both 16 and 35 mm. The number of pictures offered for distribution, excluding those for regular theatres, ranges from a lone film to more than 1,000.

Subjects, in addition to strictly entertainment pictures, include religious pictures, production in numerous industries, medicine, botany, dentistry, travel and a variety of scientific subjects.

Kodascope talking Film Library offers pictures with such players as Don Alvarado, George K. Arthur, Mischa Auer, Wesley Barry, Lina Basquette, Lionel Belmore, Sally Blane, Hobart Bosworth, William Boyd, William (stage) Boyd, Mae Busch, Mary Carr, Lew Cody, June Collyer, Bing Crosby, John Darrow, Frankie Darro, Alec B. Francis, Kenneth Harlan, Jean Hersholt, Edwin C. Hill, Benita Hume, Ralph Kirbery, Lila Lee, Montague Love, Ken Maynard, Warner Oland, Vivienne Osborne, Franklin Pangborn, Irving Pichel, Ginger Rogers, Jackie Searl, Lyle Talbot, Thelma Todd, Ernest Torrence, Tom Tyler, H. B. Warner, Bryant Washburn and Alice White.

One of the conceded purposes of producers entering the 16 mm. field is for the additional revenue derived even after a picture has outlived its usefulness in theatres.

In the case of the three companies already in the field, they are paid a flat sum per print for each picture, by Films Incorporated. Rental prices to "exhibitors" vary from $7.50 to $20 per day, the average being about $15.

With the exception of Columbia, none of the other leading producers have given any indication of invading the 16 mm. field. Should Universal, GB and Paramount cease their activities, product would still be available from the independent producers, Mr. Stearn pointed out.

Product from independent producers has its drawbacks, though, according to Mr. Hyndman. Their pictures are not as carefully produced, Mr. Hyndman explained, and when the sound is reduced from the 35 to the 16 mm. film it often brings poor results.

Release, $100,000 Sought by Capra

A long brewing rift between Frank Capra and Columbia Pictures was brought into the open last week when the director's attorney, Lloyd Wright, filed suit in superior court in Los Angeles, asking a declaratory release from his contract on the ground that the company had withheld, in spite of repeated demands, $100,000 in compensation held to be overdue since February 16th when Mr. Capra notified Columbia he considered his contract terminated.

The director set forth, as further evidence of breach of contract that the company released, through its British subsidiary, the picture "If You Could Only Cook," advertised as a Capra production although he maintained he had no part in its production.

Columbia issued the following statement after news of the filing of the suit was published:

"Columbia Pictures Corporation does not desire to try the legal action filed by Mr. Capra through a newspaper controversy. We regret that a difference has arisen between ourselves and a valued employee of the organization and we trust that the differences will be cleared up either legally or through a clarification of the present misunderstanding. The company will set out its position in the answer it will file shortly."

Judge Lester W. Roth of Columbia's Hollywood legal counsel, told a MOTION PICTURE HERALD reporter the company's reply to the suit will set forth that Columbia repeatedly offered Mr. Capra payment of the compensation both before and since the episode of February 16th. At the Columbia convention in Los Angeles June 13th delegates were told that the company had Mr. Capra under contract for three productions but the announcement did not specify what season or seasons they would be released.

Imperial in Atlanta

J. U. McCormick in Atlanta has been signed to a five year Imperial franchise to cover the Georgia, Alabama, and Florida territories. The exchanges will operate under the Imperial name.

Hertz Sells; Now Holds Only 5000 Paramount--SEC

Disposition by John D. Hertz, former chairman of Paramount's finance committee, in July of 32,000 3¼ per cent Paramount 1947 debentures, wiping out his holdings in that class, and 500 shares of six per cent convertible second preferred stock, reducing his holdings to 5,000 shares, was reported by the Securities and Exchange Commission in its semi-monthly review of stock transactions September 1.

The only other transaction by an officer or director of Paramount reported was the disposition by Maurice Newton, through Hallgarten and Company, of 2,000 six per cent 1955 sinking fund debentures, of which he still held 95,000 at the close of the month.

A report on the holdings of principal stockholders when Paramount's registration became effective July 26th was filed by the Manufacturers Trust Company, New York, reporting 3,000,000 3¼ per cent 1947 debentures.

A report on Twentieth Century-Fox showed sales during July by the Chase National Bank, New York, of 560 shares of $1.50 cumulative preferred and 280 shares of common under escrow agreement. At the close of the month the bank still held 692,422 shares of the preferred and 346,111 shares of common.

Transactions reported by officers and directors of other companies during the month included the following:

Educational Pictures: Disposition by Bruno Meyers, New York, of 240 warrants for common stock, leaving him with 1,000 at the close of the period.

Grand National Films: Acquisition by A. Pam. Blumenthal, New York, of 400 shares of common, bringing his holdings to 5,402 shares, and by Kirk W. Todd, Pittsburgh, of 1,200 shares, bringing his holdings to 16,200 shares.

Loew's Boston Theatres: Acquisition by Loews', Inc., of 545 shares of common, bringing the company's holdings to 97,622 shares.

Loew's, Inc.: Disposition by David Bernstein, New York, of 900 shares of common, reducing his holdings to 9,280 shares.

Pathe: Acquisition by O. Henry Briggs, New York, as compensation, of 800 shares of common, and purchase by T. P. Loach, New York, of 14 shares, bringing the latter's holdings to 21 shares.

Warner Brothers: Disposition by Samuel Carlisle, New York, of 200 shares of common, reducing his holdings to 1,100 shares.

A report on the equity holdings of persons becoming officers or directors of corporations was filed by A. P. Blumenthal, showing the possession of 5,002 shares of Grand National Films common on June 30, last.

Torre Signs With Judell

Luis Rojas de la Torre, producer of "Man Hunters of the Caribbean," has completed a deal with B. N. Judell, Inc., giving the latter the distributing rights for the territory of Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Indianapolis. Deals are expected to be closed this week for the Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C., and New England territories.

THE WONDER AND THE LOVELINESS OF IT have never been equalled before!
"THIN ICE" TOPS 20TH'S
GREATEST MUSICALS IN ALL
THREE PRE-RELEASE SHOWINGS!
t the DENVER THEATRE, DENVER, opening days eat "One in a Million," "On the Avenue," "Wake p and Live." At the MINNESOTA, MINNEAPOLIS, eads "Wake Up and Live"..despite terrific opposition!
t the MAJESTIC, PROVIDENCE, way ahead of "You an't Have Everything," "On the Avenue," "One in a Million." And that history is going to be repeated wherever "Thin Ice" plays!

ONLY THE GREATEST OF HITS COULD WIN PRAISE SUCH AS THIS!

"Smash! Certain of shattering box-office reception. Gorgeous production numbers." —Hollywood Reporter

"Will bring another golden shower to the pay windows! 80 minutes of tight-packed entertainment. Spectacular... has elegance and class." —Daily Variety

"A honey! Should do smash business at the boxoffice. One of the best and biggest production efforts since the inception of talking pictures." —Film Daily

"Another big hit! You'll be crazy about Sonja and Tyrone gets more and more romantic! Magnificently staged!" —L. A. Examiner

"I don't know when I have seen a more refreshing movie! The whole family should see this must-see picture!" —says the famous Jimmie Fidler in his weekly broadcast to which the whole world listens

"A winning picture under any circumstances. Surpasses 'One in a Million' . . . ice ballets topping everything of this nature ever filmed." —Boxoffice

"Far superior to One in a Million.' Sonja Henie whirls to applause." —L. A. Times

"If it doesn't equal or surpass 'One in a Million' as a money-maker, Hollywood can throw away its statistics and get a ouija board!" —M. P. Daily

Sonja HENIE Tyrone POWER

in

"Thin Ice"

with

ARTHUR TREACHER
RAYMOND WALBURN
JOAN DAVIS · Sig Rumann
Alan Hale · Leah Ray · Melville Cooper · Maurice Cass · George Givot · Directed by SIDNEY LANFIELD

Associate Producer Raymond Griffith. Screen play by Boris Ingster and Milton Sperling. From the play "Der Komet" by Attila Orbok. Hit songs by Pollack and Mitchell and another by Gordon and Revel. Dances by Harry Losee. DARRYL F. ZANUCK in Charge of Production.

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

Location Holiday

It is said of the late Edgar Wallace, Britain's fantastically prolific writer of mystery novels, that he never looked back at a word he'd written. Maybe one of the reasons was that, at some time in his gangling years, he'd found such an inaccuracy as that committed on this page of the August 21st issue in announcing William Keighley as director of Warner Brothers' "Gold Is Where You Find it." Anyway, he isn't directing the picture, and Michael Curtiz is, as this chronicler has especially good reason to know.

Michael Curtiz was busily and excitedly directing "Gold Is Where You Find It" against many and divers odds in a wheatfield 90 miles up San Fernando Valley on an overheated Saturday morning about a fortnight back when this vagabond scribe rolled up to the location in Harry E. Nichols' mountain-climbing trailer. It was in the nature of a holiday trek for Skipper Nichols, the world-girdling subscription vendor, and his guest penman, but no lark for Mr. Curtiz. Two crystal clear morning hours had been lost by reason of an undiscoverable dynamo operating somewhere in the area, with disastrous results in the sound truck, and another had been sacrificed to the purposes of technicians attending a temperamental Technicolor camera.

Actors Up to Ankles

At the moment of arrival John Litel, Claude Rains and Willie Best were literally ankle deep in a marsh sequence reiterating, for the steenth time, dialogue having to do with the woeful effect of hydraulic mining upon the fertility of adjacent acres under tillage. This had been going on since sunup and now the box lunches were an hour late. (Mr. Curtiz fumes eloquently and sometimes in the native Hungarian.)

It is at such a place and in such straits that a subscription vendor with 250,000 distinctly miscellaneous miles behind him knows the answers other people don't. At mention of chicken afrying in the trailer the Curtiz temperature subsided. A few more reiterations of the tattered dialogue, a telephone call to the home lot, and the director who really is directing "Gold Is Where You Find It" was cooling out slowly across table between nibbles of fowl and nips of schnapps, with Sol Polito, who used to crank a camera for D. W. Griffith in the days when every set was adorned with its AB, squatting Indian fashion on the floor alongside relishing a verboten cigarette.

Like Gold, Like Wheat

Not only gold, but wheat, it appeared, is where you find it, and this patch of the stuff that bread and pictures are sometimes made of was the last unharvested crop this side of Seattle. Unit manager "Dolly" Madison, a Chicago exhibitor when this publication was a stripling, had been compelled to buy three acres of the standing grain to save it from the scythe. Now, said the studio, the shooting would have to continue until finished, weekend or no weekend. a thermometer on the shady side of the trailer read 110 as this news came in.

Yes, the picture would be big, and good. It would tell the story of California, from gold rush days down to now, and it had the right cast for just that, George Brent, Olivia De Haviland and Margaret Lindsay—fortunately not required for these shots—in addition to those mentioned and others. They'd have to be on hand at Weaverville, though, the practically undisturbed scene of hydraulic mining's ascendancy, and that place would be, according to averages extracted from weather bureau records, perhaps 10 degrees hotter than this.

The company is at Weaverville now, but the subscription vendor and the reporter are not going there to pour fried chicken or chilled beer upon the troubled mercury. There is no doubt, though, that Michael Curtiz, and not William Keighley, is directing "Gold Is Where You Find It," which is what this item set out to say in the first place.

TALENT DEVELOPER LOCKS BARN IN TIME

It has fallen to the lot of the Brothers Warner, as to whom not else, to walk down such a street as Broadway and see in blazing electrics the names of players who started their careers on the Warner lot and somehow slipped away.

And so, for the Warners do things about things like that, it has fallen to the lot of Maxwell Arnow, employed as New York talent scout in 1932 and transferred subsequently to the coast as casting director, to see that the barn door is locked hereafter before the horse (begg'n y'r pardon, folks) is stolen.

His title is "talent developer" and he haunts sets, scans rushes, eavesdrops politely when necessary and puts in a full day, not to mention evenings spent at cinemas in looking out to see he hasn't overlooked anything, at a job without parallel in Hollywood.

Interview Intime

Cool as a creamed cucumber, W. Ray Johnston hangs one flanneled knee over another and lifts a rounded voice just high enough to carry over a monotone of industrious noises seeping in from sets athrob with Monogram production activity. Technicians broil when the Hollywood thermometer passes 90, and actors aren't fit company for human beings, but the president of a company that will have half of its season's product completed by October 1 imparts that impressive information unexcitedly to a perspiring reporter and slips on to other topics.

Yes, the sales meeting in Chicago 10 days and a plane ride back revealed stimulating data, not only the contractual kind but also the box office variety. And it is true that in addition to the 19 pictures promised for October two more will have been completed. (A long cowboy clanking passed the open door in unplainsmanlike haste may be on his way to do his bit about that.) No, this isn't really warm, but New York, on August 14th, now—that was something.

On to Sales Meet

Yes, it will take about another week to wind up the present session of projection room sittings, and then a day or two each for sales sessions in San Francisco, Seattle and Portland, whence back to New York on about the 10th. But this weekend for a bit of hardearned loafing, aboard Buck Jones' yacht, with Buck and the Scott R. Dunlaps in the party and business matters checked at the dock. No, no deep sea fishing, thanks, but a spot of golf of a morning to be sure, and no golf like California's.

But, to get back to pictures, "Boy of the Streets," particularly well thought of and featuring Jackie Cooper with Maureen O'Connor of the Eddie Cantor broadcasts, goes into production September 8, as do "The Country Beyond" and "Federal Bullets." Already finished are "Legion of Missing Men," "Outer Gate," "Luck of Roaring Camp," "Blazing Barriers," "Bride for Henry," "Hoosier Schoolboy," "Paradise Isle," "Thirteenth Man," "Riders of the Dawn," "Under Arizona Skies," "God's Country and the Man," "Atlantic Flight" and "Thirteenth Chair."

Monogram, a limp journalist gathers, is marching on, and so, at about this point, does the singularly unsunkissed Mr. Johnston.

Finish 7; Start 6

Thirty-five pictures were before the cameras at weekend, seven having been finished and six started during the period.

Interest of the production center turns most sharply to "The Goldwyn Follies," long in preparation and subject about a year back, of a much discussed statement by Samuel Goldwyn anent three-hour pictures, of which this was, and possibly still is, to be his first. It was Mr. Goldwyn's point, it may be recalled, that the single sure way of putting an end to the double feature bill is to make the top picture not only so good but so long that there will be no place, time or need for the bottom picture.

Other features started are "The Last Gangster," MGM; "Hold 'Em, Navy," Paramount; "It Never Happened Before," RKO; "Borrowing Trouble," Twentieth Century-Fox, and "The Patient in Room 18," Warner Brothers.

Maurice Conn's first of five productions, "Roaring Six Guns," has been completed. The other four, "Trooper X-13," "Thanks for Listening'," "Song of the Vigilantes" and "Reckless Chances," will be finished this month, Mr. Conn said.

Charles MacArthur, formerly literary team-mate of Ben Hecht, has signed a term contract with MGM as associate producer on at least three pictures a year. The first will be "Only Unto Three."

Sylvan Simon, Universal test director, has been promoted to feature director.

CLOSED SHOP DEADLINE FOR EAST IS POSTPONED

Screen Actors Guild Rescinds September 1st as Date for East; Hollywood Hits CIO

The Screen Actors Guild postponed for the second time this week its deadline for the closed shop in eastern studios. After deferring its original effective date from August 1 to September 1, the Guild announced postponement again, without setting a new date.

It is believed that designation of the new deadline is awaiting the anticipated conclusion of agreements with March of Time and Educational. In this case, it is probable a date will not be set for another month.

Hollywood producers, meanwhile, served notice on labor, in a veiled but unmistakable manner, that it will not tolerate entrance of the CIO in the industry. This was made clear by the insertion of a clause in the agreement with the motion picture painters' local that affiliation of the union with any group other than the American Federation of Labor would give the producers the option of cancelling the contract.

Anticipating legal snarls with the producers, the Screen Directors Guild retained Barry Brennan, prominent Los Angeles attorney, as its permanent counsel. Hiring of Mr. Brennan is believed inspired by the producers' refusal to enter into collective bargaining with the directors except as two separate groups, one representing the directors and the other the assistant directors.

Directors Turn Militant

Aroused at this stand, which the directors feel completely defeats the effectiveness of their organization, the union held a meeting Monday night to consider their next offensive. The meeting, at which John Ford and Eddie Sutherland officiated, resolved that there will be no dissolution of the two groups and that collective action will be taken if the producers refuse to enter into a unified working agreement.

In the directors' reply to the producers, the provisions of the Wagner (Labor) Act were declared to be flagrantly violated. Quoting the Act, the letter stated:

"The board of directors believe your position untenable. There are no conditions on our right to self-organization. We may bargain collectively or otherwise engage in concerted activities through representatives of our choosing, and neither directors nor assitant directors and unit managers may be prevented from joining a particular organization or be penalized in any way if they do. It may be helpful in this regard if attention is called to the broad language of the Labor Act."

IATSE Drive in Three Weeks

Lou Krouse, secretary-treasurer of the IATSE & MPMO, announced that negotiations between major circuits and the new "front - of - the - house" unions, including ushers, cashiers and the like, will begin in almost 100 cities in about three weeks.

The IA's Local 306, New York projectionist union, resumed discussions with the large circuits in New York relating to the demand for wage increases ranging from 35 to 45 per cent. Joseph Basson, president of the local, met with the circuits, whose spokesmen are C. C. Moskowitz and Marvin Schenck, Loew's; Leslie E. Thompson, RKO; Robert Weitman, Paramount; Irving Lesser, Roxy theatre; Frank Phelps, Warners, and Al Reid of the Si Fabian circuit.

The conference is being held in line with the stipulations of the master agreement signed between the projectionists and the circuit in 1935, providing for two-year adjustments, if demanded, in the original contract.

See Closed Shop a Factor

Although both sides are understood to be deadlocked, with the circuits asserting that the wage demands are exorbitant, and the projectionists replying that they approximate the salary slashes suffered in 1933, no labor strife is expected to result. The master agreement provides for arbitration of differences in the event that informal conferences fail.

Another IATSE body, Local 52, the technicians' and mechanics' union, met with eastern producers to discuss demands for wage increases in New York. The producers are understood to be unopposed to the demand of a 10 per cent wage rise and a 40 hour week, but are said to object on other unspecified grounds. Source of their objection is believed to relate to the closed shop question.

Other labor developments of the week were:

In Chicago conferences between exhibitors and the projectionists' union were begun. The contract governing their relations expired September 1, but the projectionists will continue on present terms pending the new agreement, with which they seek a 20 per cent wage increase.

In Boston reports of the imminent formation of a theatre managers' union circulated this week. Exchange and theatre workers are already organized and the managers are believed to be the next group to affiliate with labor.

Boston ushers, through their representative and counsel, James O'Brien, are seeking recognition of their group in conferences currently held with the circuits. The ushers seek restoration of a 15 per cent wage slash.

Projectionists of the Kameo theatre in uptown New York, owned by the Richard Herbert Company, continued their sit-down strike for the eleventh day, in the projection rooms of the theatre. The Stadium, in Harlem, and the Granada on East 72nd Street, are also scenes of projectionists' strikes. A sit-down called by projectionists of the Heights, New York, uptown theatre, was of brief duration when a contract was signed soon after it began.

Report CIO Charter Sought

In St. Louis a group of projectionists are reported to have requested the CIO for a charter in opposition to Local 143, a branch of the AFL-affiliated IATSE. Exhibitors are said to favor entrance of the CIO in the belief that a factional dispute will relax labor's grip in St. Louis.

In New Haven representatives of the AFL exchange employes journeyed to the RKO New Haven office to plead the cause of Homer Downey, discharged postal clerk and shipper. Mr. Downey was dismissed on charges of inefficiency, which the union ridicules in view of his five years of continuous employment with the company.

For the first time in Seattle, theatres there will be closed for two hours on Labor Day to enable employes to participate in a holiday parade. Seattle, militantly labor-conscious, has 1,000 organized theatre employes.

MEXICO WORKERS DEMAND MORE PAY

Wage increases of from 30 to 35 per cent are being demanded by the employees of the large American motion picture producers in Mexico, with the threat that unless the increases are granted there will be a strike. The producers are Warner Brothers, Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer, Universal, United Artists, Paramount, Radio, Columbia and 20th Century-Fox.

The workers also are stipulating that the raises be scaled in accordance with workers' classifications and terms of service.

Tri - States Plans Omaha Expansion; Blank Is Honored

Outlining expansion moves for the Tri-States Theatre Corporation, A. H. Blank, president, revealed that the circuit planned construction of several first run theatres in Omaha and acquisition of other theatres in the territory.

The announcement was made at a testimonial dinner Sunday at the Hotel Fontenelle, Omaha, honoring Mr. Blank on the 25th anniversary of his entrance into showbusiness. It was also held in connection with the inauguration of a three-month exploitation campaign on the circuit's theatres, opening September 3.

Mr. Blank further said that the Central States, in which Paramount is a partner, and Tri-States will continue to operate as separate circuits.

Ralph Branton, Tri-States manager, said that admission price increases are contemplated in the circuit, but that the theatres to be affected have not been decided on as yet.

Approximaely 45 executives attended the banquet and business sessions which preceded it.

The expansion plans, as revealed by Mr. Blank, recalled his statement, made in New York recently, that he planned to increase his circuit to 100 theatres soon by adding about 25 houses.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

The Prisoner of Zenda

(United Artists-Selznick)

Melodrama

As book and play, this veteran fiction has thrilled adults and adolescents of this sort and that with rare unanimity and a seemingly complete indifference to place, time and circumstance. Book sales are conservatively computed at a million and the piece is part and parcel of the footlight fame that illumines the names of E. H. Sothern, James K. Hackett (who also played it for the camera at about the time when Sarah Bernhardt was perpetuating her "Queen Elizabeth" before the lens) and many another stage immortal. Showmen setting out to notify the multitude of its present availability are not likely to find themselves lacking things to say about it, nor attentive listeners.

Ronald Colman is the present performer of the dual role after which have been patterned, with varying results, perhaps a thousand dual roles in more or less verdant memory. Mr. Colman makes no pointlessly theatrical effort to differentiate between the parallel portrayals and, although he twice shakes hands with himself, no feats of technical legerdemain are indulged in. As is judicious in the case of an actor who appears on the screen so infrequently and in such uniformly upper bracket productions, Mr. Colman simultaneously portrays Mr. Colman, which is doubtlessly as a fat majority of his legion followers would have it.

Other names to unfurl in behalf of the box office are Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who plays the rascally Rupert of Hentzau almost as Britishly as Mr. Colman plays the lead, and Madeleine Carroll, whose Flavia might well be advertised as her best performance to date. Mary Astor's name is also available for marquee use, although her role is small, and there is a good publicity story in the fact that C. Aubrey Smith, topping the supporting cast, has played in his lifetime on stage and screen all of the male roles in the piece, to which may be added the statement that this explains the impressive effectiveness of his masterful performance in this version.

In the interests of those theatregoers who shop not by stellar names alone, a thoroughgoing showman will find prominent place also for notation of the sponsoring personality. David O. Selznick's name has come to mean to the thoughtful theatregoer a guarantee of certain definite total qualities, production standards and story levels possessed in common by such pictures as "David Copperfield," "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and "A Star Is Born." It is by reference to these, in this commentary as in theatre promotional effort of the subtler kind, that the "feel" of the present picture can best be communicated to the prospective observer.

John L. Balderston's screen play takes no undue liberties with Anthony Hope's tried and trustworthy novel, but the dialogue has been circumspectly modernized. John Cromwell's direction dallies not with didoes and the photography by James Wong Howe in the sepia platinum process credited to John M. Mickolaus is worthy of place in the showman's list of things to tell the customers about. William H. Wright is down as assistant to the producer and the adaptation is by Wells Root. Settings, staging, costuming, trappings and impedimentiae are without exception appropriate, painstaking, considered and in the grand manner.

Previewed August 27th at the Chinese theatre, Hollywood. Conducted in a manner befitting the product and tradition, the preview brought out an extraordinarily distinguished attendance which gave the picture uncharacteristically wrapt attention and appeared to think extremely well of it.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Produced by David O. Selznick. Distributed by United Artists. Assistant producer, William H. Wright. Director, John Cromwell. Assistant director, Frederick A. Spencer. From the novel by Anthony Hope and the play by Edward Rose. Adaptation by Wells Root. Screen play by John L. Balderston. Additional dialogue by Donald Ogden Stewart. Art direction by Lyle Wheeler. Technical advisers, Prince Sigvard Bernadotte and Colonel Ivar Enhorning. Musical score by Alfred Newman. Film editor, James E. Newton, P. C. A. Certificate No. 3356. Release date, September 3, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 88 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Rudolf Rassendyll, King Rudolf V	Ronald Colman
Princess Flavia	Madeleine Carroll
Rupert of Hentzau	Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.
Antoinette de Mauban	Mary Astor
Colonel Zapt	C. Aubrey Smith
Black Michael	Raymond Massey
Fritz von Tarlenheim	David Niven
Marshal Strakencz	Lawrence Grant
Cardinal	Ian Maclaren
Johann	Byron Foulger
Josef	Howard Lang
Bersonin	Ralph Faulkner
Detchard	Montague Love
Kraftstein	William von Brincken
Lauengram	Philip Sleeman
De Gautet	Alexander D'Arcy
British Ambassador	Ben Webster
British Ambassador's wife	Evelyn Beresford
Master of ceremonies	Boyd Irwin

Something to Sing About

(Grand National)

Musical Comedy

" . . . James Cagney's "Something to Sing About" is the best independent picture made and has plenty to please every Cagney fan, for this one-man musical is better entertainment than many which are studded with high-priced vaudeville bills. . . . "—SIDNEY SKOLSKY in the New York Daily News.

James Cagney's current contribution to the Cagney saga is full of things for showmen to tell their customers about. Perhaps the first thing to mention is that the fiery and fistic young man they have liked to see knock people about does some of that in characteristic manner about midway through the picture. More in the nature of news, however, is the fact that he enters the picture as a hoofer and leaves it as a motion picture actor after having explored at considerable length and in some detail the ramifications of both professions.

It is to be said, too, that no double does his hoofing for him, nor his singing, and that if it isn't he who leads the band it might as well be. There are five songs to speak about, two of them the kind that probably will make themselves heard on the radio, and there is much informative material, not too seriously presented, having to do with operations commonly carried on in motion picture studios.

There is more than adequate reason for the billing, too, of Victor Schertzinger, veteran director, who is down not only as producer and director of this work, but likewise as author of the original story and creator of the music and lyrics. That, to the thinking type of motion picture shopper, is at once a guarantee of workmanship and a decidedly sound reason for buying a ticket to the show.

Evelyn Daw, who sings both high and clear, is opposite the star, while William Frawley, as a studio press agent, has the role of next importance. After these are ranked Mona Barrie, as a temperamental screen star, Gene Lockhart, as a producer, and others of repute.

Mr. Cagney plays Terry Rooney, band leader and hoofer, drafted by Hollywood for a picture, told it is terrible, for purposes of contract bargaining, who runs away on an unannounced honeymoon. Returning to find himself famous, he consents to keep his marriage a secret and be seen about, for publicity purposes, with a waning star. Domestic estrangement follows, but he breaks it up by flying across country to join his deserting wife and tell all.

Although the romantic side of the story is handled seriously enough, the treatment throughout is toward the comedy side. Mr. Schertzinger has manipulated change of pace to immense advantage and there is never a tendency toward overemphasis or disguised hokum. The picture, in whole, may be declared distinctly unusual and refreshing diversion, a kind of merchandise favored in the present market.

Previewed at the Chinese theatre, Hollywood, August 26th. A capacity audience composed in about equal parts of press, public and studio observers was manifestly pleased and impressed. —W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Grand National. A Victor Schertzinger production, produced by Zion Myers, directed by Victor Schertzinger from a story with music and lyrics by himself. Assistant director, John Sherwood. Production manager, Harold Lewis. Orchestral arrangements, Myrl Alderman. Photographed by John Stumar. Film editor, Gene Milford. Dance director, Harland Dixon. Screen play by Austin Parker. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3628. Release date, September 3, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 90 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Terry Rooney	James Cagney
Rita Wyatt	Evelyn Daw
Hank Meyers	William Frawley
Stephanie Hajos	Mona Barrie
Bennett O. Regan	Gene Lockhart
Soloist with orchestra	James Newill
Pinky	Harry Barris
Soloist	Cully Richards
Fuzzy	Candy Candido
Cafe manager	William Davidson
Blaine (director)	Richard Tucker
Farney	Marek Windheim
Easton	Dwight Frye

The Spanish Earth

(Prometheus Pictures)

Spanish Civil War Film

Press stories reporting the session of the Institute of Human Relations held this week at Williams College have devoted considerable space to the discussion by prominent clergymen, civic leaders and educators on the matter of the modern day screen as an agent of propaganda. Aware of the potency of the motion picture as a powerful pictorial pulpit for the pleading of particular principles, sympathizers and advocates of the "Loyalist" cause in the Spanish civil war have phrased into this documentary film a powerful and prejudiced plea for the defense of Spanish "democracy." The film's reception has been a warm and enthusiastic one in "liberal" and art circles. It is reported that the picture was shown to President and Mrs. Roosevelt at what may be classed as a command performance. When screened for a group of film folk, the persuasive message of the work touched their easily touchable heart and purse strings.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

Contemporary historians are sponsoring the exhibition of the work which was produced under the supervision of Joris Ivens. The written commentary and spoken narration are executed by Ernest Hemingway who has become an outstanding spokesman on things Spanish due to the fact of a few trips made to that country and the penning of a tome on bull fighting. It will be remembered that it was the recent doubt of Mr. Hemingway's pectoral virility that almost resulted in a death in the afternoon. The language of Hemingway's script is couched in verbiage that drips biting venom and is delivered in tones that hiss indignation and hate. Assisting Mr. Hemingway as his collaborators were Archibald MacLeish, one time Pulitzer Prize poet and now associated with the editorial concerns of Fortune Magazine and Lillian Hellman, author of the widely discussed play "The Children's Hour" and the screen play of "Dead End." The photography which is the film's chief merit is credited to John Ferno. An effective musical background fashioned from some old Spanish folk tunes has been scored by Marc Blitzstein and Virgil Thompson.

The story, if such it can be called, begins with the efforts of the inhabitants of the town of Fuenteduena, situated twenty-five miles from the besieged city of Madrid, to irrigate the arid surrounding land. Such a move is needed to meet the demand for raising food for the government armies. It is in this first portion of the film that the work's technical and artistic excellence is found. In a series of startlingly beautiful and expertly photographed scenes, the farm people are pictured at their arduous labor against a wide sweep of sky and flat, barren countryside. Several glimpses of individual peasant folk seemed like animated painted canvasses. From this rural scene, the camera shifts to the battle front of the beleaguered city and it is at this point of transition that the work loses its unique and different quality. Despite the superlative camera work, the remaining footage of the film follows familar newsreel reporting. There are conventional shots of the city under fire, bombed buildings, long bread lines, soldiers drilling raw recruits, aerial attacks and artillery fire. Shots of the harried countenances of the populace under a bombardment, a young boy closeted in a barricaded room and writing home, the gruesome remains of a bookkeeper killed on his way to work and the death of a group of street urchins are treated in a dramatically self-conscious style. There is not a scene in the entire film of a desecrated church, a butchered nun or a murdered priest. Reference is made to the foreign support given to the rebel forces by Germany and Italy. However, there are some soldiers in the Loyalist ranks who look suspiciously non-Iberian.

The picture is too stark, bitter and brutal to please the general audience. Its partisanship and propagandistic non-objectivity tend to vitiate whatever message it may carry.

Reviewed at the 55th St. Playhouse, an arty and intimate cinema playhouse. A large evening audience followed the film's appeal with silent but interested attention.—JOSEPH F. COUGHLIN, New York.

Presented by Contemporary Historians, Inc. Distributed by Prometheus Pictures. Produced by Joris Ivens. Commentary and narration, Ernest Hemingway. Photography, John Ferno. Film editor, Helen Van Dongen. Musical arrangements, Marc Blitzstein, Virgil Thompson. Sound, Irving Reis. Collaborators, Archibald MacLeish, Lillian Hellman. Running time, 58 minutes. Release date, August 20, 1937. Adult audience classification.

Jericho

(Buckingham Film)

Desert Drama

Authentic backgrounds of the Soudan, shown to magnificent effect in distance shots of the "salt caravan" trailing through the immense wastes of sand, are an outstanding feature of this picture, produced for a Max Schach British company by an American, Walter Futter, directed by another, Thornton Freeland, and offering the American name values of Paul Robeson, Henry Wilcoxon and Wallace Ford. There is another striking pictorial effect showing thousands of Arabs grouped in mourning about the grave of a white airman. An authentic Soudanese beauty in "Princess" Kouka is a good publicity value.

During the war a troopship carrying colored American troops is torpedoed. "Jericho," a corporal, kills a sergeant in rescuing his comrades. Captain Mack, the white officer, stands parole for Jericho while an appeal against his death sentence is lodged at Washington. Jericho makes a getaway in a stolen fishing boat with a white doughboy also escaping from the police. They reach the African coast and strike into the interior.

Jericho, a medical student, saves the leg of the chief of an Arab tribe and the wanderers are accepted by the nomads. In due time Jericho becomes chief, marrying a beautiful native girl. In leading his tribe in a battle with a marauding band, Jericho attracts the attention of an exploring party, who film him and his followers.

Captain Mack has served several years in a military prison, for his responsibility of Jericho's escape. His one obsession is to track down the man he thinks has betrayed his trust. In a cinema he recognizes Jericho in the travelogue of the Arab tribe, and sets out by plane to find him in the desert. He succeeds, but soon realizes that Jericho's escape was made without knowledge that he was endangering his white friend. Jericho's wife plans to kill Mack. Jericho, to save him, agrees to fly with him in the plane, but at the last moment lets the white man start alone. A bullet from one of the tribe kills him. He is given a desert burial and Jericho remains in the wilds.

There are considerable realism, humor and drama in the opening shipboard scenes, with effective singing by Robeson. The African backgrounds have already been praised; they are used for scenes of battle and travel on a very large scale. Wallace Ford's wisecracking as the white fugitive is a feature. There is plenty to exploit in the story, cast and unusual locale.

Dramatically it was found weak at the London trade show, but the originality and impressiveness of many of the backgrounds was generally praised.—BRUCE ALLAN, London.

Produced by Walter Futter for Buckingham Film Productions. Distributed in England by General Film Distributors, Ltd. Directed by Thornton Freeland. Running time, 77 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

"Jericho" Jackson	Paul Robeson
Captain Mack	Henry Wilcoxon
Mike Clancy	Wallace Ford
Gara	Princess Kouka
Hassan	John Laurie
Major Barnes	James Carew
Private Face	Laurence Brown
Sergeant Gamey	Rufus Fennell
Tag	Ike Hatch
Colonel Lake	Frank Cram
Agouba	Frank Cockrane

Fit for a King

(RKO Radio)

Comedy

First, this is a Joe E. Brown picture, his third under the colors of David L. Loew. The wide-mouthed comedian is the dominating factor in this as he has been in previous productions and, considering his fifth place spot in the last "Fame" poll, that is to be expected and is a showmanship asset. A story peculiarly fitted for the comedian's special talents allows him to display his bag of tricks, which if well-known by now still manages to get the laughs.

The picture builds up to an exciting climax which also has the picture's funniest moments. A little judicial cutting would help to speed up the action as it drags in spots. While probably not up to the standard set in his previous release, this should be found generally pleasing, especially so to the inveterate Brown fan, and many are they. With Brown a newspaperman the locale shifts from New York to Paris and sundry other spots in Europe.

Supporting the comedian as a rival newspaperman is Paul Kelly. A slight romance develops between Brown and Helen Mack with Brown still avoiding that kiss.

Brown as "Virgil Jones," nephew of a newspaper publisher and considered a pest by the editor, is assigned to cover the attempted assassination of Archduke Julio. The trail leads to Europe where "Jones" meets "Jane Hamilton" (Helen Mack). "Briggs" (Paul Kelly) is covering the same story and scoops "Jones" when he spends his time in "Jane's" company. "Jane" turns out to be a princess of Latvan who is being groomed as the future queen.

"Jones" learns of the plot to make "Jane" queen and overthrow the present Latvan government and convinces her to accept the offer. Later "Jones" and "Briggs" are captured and locked up in the cellar of the castle. When he finally escapes "Jones" is appalled to learn that the princess is to be killed so an unscrupulous former prime minister will regain power. "Jones" starts for the border. His manner of getting there is the funniest part of the picture.

Reviewed at a trade showing in the Astor theatre, New York. The audience's reaction was lukewarm for the greater part of the running with most of the laughs coming near the end.—PAUL C. MOONEY, JR.

Produced and distributed by RKO Radio. Producer, David L. Loew. An Edward Sedgwick Production. Screen play by Richard Flournoy. Photographed by Paul C. Vogel. Art director, John Ducasse Shulze. Film editor, Jack Ogilvie. Recording director, Tom Carman. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3,588. Running time, 73 minutes. Release date, October 15, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Virgil Jones	Joe E. Brown
Jane Hamilton	Helen Mack
Briggs	Paul Kelly
Archduke Julio	Harry Davenport
Count Strunsky	Halliwell Hobbes
Otto	John Qualen
Prince Michael	Donald Briggs
Kurtz	Frank Reicher
Mr. Hardwick	Russell Hicks
Mr. Marshall	Charles Trowbridge

Big City

(MGM)

Melodrama

No doubt it is superfluous to say of a picture costarring Luise Rainer and Spencer Tracy that it has in these names two of the liveliest inducements to attendance available at this time and any place. But it is not superfluous to point out that their names have not been left to stand alone as reasons for inspecting Norman Krasna's first offering as a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer producer. On the contrary, a roster of 15 sports idols ranging from Jack Dempsey to Taski Hagio is thrust into the exploitation hopper along with the usual MGM abundance of upper case supporting players.

Probably it is important, too, for advertising copy, to mention that Mr. Tracy and Miss Rainer are seen this time as plain people working out their destinies against the familiar background of the contemporary American scene, specifically New York, he as a taxi driver and she as his immigrant wife. Something of a change from recent assignments of both stars, this information may have definite box office value.

The story, an original by Mr. Krasna, concerns a taxi war fomented by gangsters and

(Continued on page 43)

BIG CITY is coming!

"Hold tight to your seats! We're going around the curve of thrills!"

RED HOT!

That's why movies were born! The public is crying for high-voltage entertainment (after a diet of wisecracks) M-G-M with shrewd showmanship gives the screen an electrifying change of pace with the year's most exciting film.

"BIG CITY"

Perfect team-work for Luise Rainer, Spencer Tracy!

ALSO IN THE CAST: CHARLEY GRAPEWIN, JANET BEECHER, EDDIE QUILLAN, VICTOR VARCONI. A FRANK BORZAGE PRODUCTION. Screen Play by Dore Schary and Hugo Butler. Directed by Frank Borzage. Produced by Norman Krasna.

(Continued from page 40)

effects of same upon the families of independent drivers. City authorities elect to avert prolonged street warfare by deporting Anna Benton, wife of an independent, assumed responsible for a bombing outrage perpetrated by the gangsters. Her husband, Joe, learning the truth as her boat is about to sail, appeals to the mayor, found at Jack Dempsey's restaurant addressing a banquet for veterans of the squared circle, who takes his guests to the wharf, allows them to beat up the gang's hired sluggers and takes the wife off of the boat in time for her to have her baby in an ambulance instead of the steerage.

The screen play by Dore Schary and Hugo Butler and direction by Frank Borzage combine to hold the narrative snugly on the beat until time for what may be termed the blowoff, which occurs when the boxers and wrestlers, playing themselves, leave the banquet table and go to work on the mobsters, from which point to the end of the picture action is fast, furious and slapstick. Handling of the childbirth incident here, together with earlier dialogue pertaining to its imminence, suggest that it may be as well to leave the kiddies out of exploitation plans.

Previewed at the Uptown theatre, Los Angeles, August 24th, with perhaps half of the houseful present representing studio and press. Save for a bit of restiveness just before the final fisticuffs, this audience seemed to be having a good time.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Norman Krasna, producer. Directed by Frank Borzage. Original story by Norman Krasna. Screen play by Dore Schary and Hugo Butler. Assistant director, Lew Borzage. Musical score by Dr. William Axt. Film editor, Frederick Y. Smith. Photographed by Joseph Ruttenberg. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3613. Release date, September 3. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 80 minutes. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Anna Benton	Luise Rainer
Joe Benton	Spencer Tracy
The mayor	Charley Grapewin
Sophie Sloane	Janet Beecher
Mike Edwards	Eddie Quillan
Paul Roya	Victor Varconi
John C. Andrews	Oscar O'Shea
Lola Johnson	Helen Troy
Beecher	William Demarest
Buddy	John Arledge
Jim Sloane	Irving Bacon
Danny Devlin	Guinn Williams
Fred Hawkins	Regis Toomey
Tom Reilly	Edgar Dearing
District Attorney Gilbert	Paul Harvey
Inspector Matthews	Andrew J. Tombes
Grandpa Sloane	Clem Bevans
Mary Reilley	Grace Ford
Peggy Devlin	Alice White
Jack Dempsey	Man Mountain Dean
James J. Jeffries	Gus Sonnenberg
Jimmy McLarnin	George Godfrey
Maxie Rosenbloom	Joe Rivers
Jim Thorpe	Cotton Warburton
Frank Wykoff	Bull Montana
Jackie Fields	Snowy Baker
Taski Hagio

She Asked for It

(Paramount-Schulberg)

Comedy-Drama

Showmen expert in the art of selling the unusual have in this far from routine story a bit of sales merchandise to whet their talent. A little light in the matter of sure fire names, although it has William Gargan, Vivienne Osborne, Richard Carle and Tully Marshall for well known identities, the picture depends in extraordinary degree upon a plot directly comparable to nothing offered in recent production but related, as a type, to the "Thin Man" school of screen fare. It has, also, in the feminine lead, Orien Heyward, a personable lass fresh from the studois of New York's swank commercial photographers and widely known, by face but not name, to readers of smart advertising, a circumstance around which profitable publicity may be built up.

The story, told with the light touch and never a letdown in behalf of the moron fringe, is about a young man who, left penniless by the death of his uncle, takes up the writing of mystery novels with tongue in cheek and makes a sensational success of it. Sickening of the work, he breaks publisher contracts which enmesh him in legal complications from which he extricates himself by impersonating the fictional character he has created and, as such, obtaining an injunction against himself. The impersonation leads him to discovery of a murder syndicate and ultimate capture of the criminals, solution of his legal difficulties, resumption of his writing and reconciliation with his wife. (The story is a good deal gayer than that sounds.)

Frederick Jackson, Theodore Reeves and Howard Irving Young wrote the screen play, which moves along as though on greased runners, and Erle C. Kenton directed with a nice sense of values. Associate Producer George Auerbach provided adequately all along the production line.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, Cal., August 25th. Lay, press and studio observers in attendance, the second and third named expectant of something in the nature of "B" entertainment, got many a hearty laugh and a genuine surprise kick out of the picture.—W. R. W.

Produced by B. P. Schulberg. Distributed by Paramount. Associate producer, George Auerbach. Directed by Erle C. Kenton. Assistant director, Leon Jaffe. Screen play by Frederick Jackson, Theodore Reeves and Howard Irving Young. Film editor, Robert Bischoff. Photographed by Leon Shamroy. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3577. Release date, September 10, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 80 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Dwight Stanford	William Gargan
Penelope Stanford	Orien Heyward
Celia Stettin	Vivienne Osborne
Ted Hoyt	Richard Carle
Randolph Stettin	Roland Drew
Mr. Switch	Harry Beresford
Conrad Norris	Alan Birmingham
Jenkins	Harry Fleischmann
Old Man Stettin	Tully Marshall
Kaito	Miki Morita

The Man Who Cried Wolf

(Universal)

Melodrama

This is an ingeniously fabricated murder story, with the audience in the know, dependent upon novelty of idea and construction rather than stellar names for drawing power. Lewis Stone, Tom Brown and Barbara Read are the top principals, Forrester Harvey and Robert Gleckler standing out in support.

The story, based on an idea by Arthur Rothafel, concerns Lawrence Fontaine, actor, who has planned a murder for 20 years and has made it a practice meanwhile to promptly confess to every killing that occurs in the community, thus becoming known to the police as a slightly demented but harmless publicity seeker. He confesses also to the murder he does commit, but is scoffed at by the police, as planned. When his son is charged with the crime, though, he confesses genuinely, providing details of proof, but, lacking the necessary murder weapon, is again scoffed at for that reason and succeeds, barely in time to save his boy from execution, in recovering the gun and proving his own guilt.

Production is on a practical plane, with story values relied upon to accomplish the picture's purpose, rather than costly incidentals.

Previewed at the Pantages theatre, Hollywood, August 28. A Saturday night audience sitting over from "Make a Wish" and "Flight From Glory" accorded the unbilled picture interested attention.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Universal. Associate producer, Efe Asher. Directed by Lewis R. Foster. Screen play by Charles Grayson and Sy Bartlett, based on an original idea by Arthur Rothafel. Film editor, Frank Gross. Production designed by John Harkrider. Photographed by George H. Robinson. P. C. A. certificate No. 3519. Release date, August 29, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 77 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Lawrence Fontaine	Lewis Stone
Nan	Barbara Read
Tommy	Tom Brown
Jocko	Forrester Harvey
George Bradley	Jameson Thomas
Amelia Bradley	Marjorie Main
Captain Reid	Robert Gleckler
Halligan	Billy Wayne

Forty Naughty Girls

(RKO Radio)

Melodrama

According to publishers' reports, circulation of pulp paper detective story magazines has increased tremendously since the depression, when many of them closed down or were merged. There is a great army of readers for detective fiction, and Stuart Palmer is one of the most prolific of the writers. RKO has taken his story, "The Riddle of Forty Naughty Girls," another Oscar Piper narrative, and again placed James Gleason as Inspector Piper, aiming at that multitude of pulp magazine fans.

"Forty Naughty Girls" (which was set by the studio as the title) is an aptly presented version, containing music, dancing and comedy which the screen delineates more presentably than the written word. There is action for those who crave it; there is comedy for others. Gleason again gives his typical performance, and ZaSu Pitts, of the double jointed wrists, is Hildegarde Withers, his foil and assistant in solving the drama.

Piper and Miss Withers are attending a show, when word reaches them that Windy, a blackmailing and philanderous press agent, is murdered. After rounding up several suspects, Piper is stumped when they all prove to be innocent. Hildegarde falls into a series of clues, which, after several hilarious incidents, lead to detection of the murderer.

Previewed at the RKO Hillstreet theatre, Los Angeles, July 27, where the audience gave indications throughout the screening that they were enjoying it.—VANCE KING.

Produced and distributed by RKO Radio. Produced by William Sistrom. Directed by Edward Cline. Screenplay by John Grey. Story by Stuart Palmer. Musical director, Roy Webb. Photographed by Russell Metty. Art director, Van Nest Polglase. Associate, Feild M. Gray. Costumes by Renie. Edited by John Lockert. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3,562. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 63 minutes. Release date, September 24, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Oscar Piper	James Gleason
Hildegarde Withers	Zasu Pitts
June	Marjorie Lord
Bert	George Shelley
Rita	Joan Woodbury
Jeff	Frank M. Thomas
Casey	Tom Kennedy
Ricky	Alan Edwards
Tommy	Alden Chase
Windy	Edward Marr
Lil	Ada Leonard
Call boy	Donald Kerr
Alice	Barbara Pepper

Make a Wish

(RKO-Radio)

Musical Comedy

Bobby Breen's is of course the top billing name involved in this unusual offering, but it is not by any means the only one. It is backed up, on the musical side, by that of Marion Claire, and in the straight cinema department by those of Basil Rathbone, Henry Armetta, Leon Errol, Ralph Forbes, Herbert Rawlinson, Donald Meek, Billy Lee and others. The St. Luke's Choristers also figure importantly in the musical content.

The simple story, by Gertrude Berg, opens with Chip, young son of a retired opera star, on vacation at a boys' camp, where he meets John Selden, composer, who is working on an operetta. The two become friends and when the boy's mother, tentatively engaged to a wealthy suitor opposed to her stage career, comes to see the boy, the composer falls in love with her, building his operetta around her voice and personality. They are separated and, when the third act of the operetta is lost and the composer has run away, the boy and his mother supply the music from memory and appear in the show, with the composer returning on opening night to claim his love.

Considerable emphasis is placed upon the boys' camp activities, with the operetta material taking on mounting importance as the picture progresses. The mature romance, although seriously handled, is not unduly underscored. Miss Claire's singing is utilized at intervals early in the picture and formally in the staging of the operetta at the finish. Mr. Rathbone plays the romantic composer.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

Four of the five featured songs are by Oscar Strauss, with lyrics by Paul Webster and Louis Alter, the fifth being credited to these gentlemen exclusively.

Previewed at the Pantages theatre, Hollywood, August 24. Reaction of the preponderantly adult representation of press, public and profession in attendance was, so to speak, mixed, but your informant has the enthusiastic word of his 11-year-old daughter and favorite oracle, reiterated at frequent intervals in none too suppressed whisper from the seat alongside, that the picture is swell.—W. R. W.

Produced by Sol Lesser. Distributed by RKO-Radio. Associate producer, Edward Gross. Directed by Kurt Neuman. Screen play by Gertrude Berg, Bernard Schubert and Earle Snell from an original story by Gertrude Berg. Comedy sequences by Al Boasberg. Music by Oscar Strauss and Louis Alter. Lyrics by Paul Webster and Louis Alter. Musical direction by Hugo Reisenfeld. Dance direction, Lawrence Ceballos. Art direction, Harry Oliver. Designing of operetta, Willy Pogany. Photographed by John Mescall. Film editor, Arthur Hilton. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3545. Release date, August 27, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 70 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Chip	Bobby Breen
Selden	Basil Rathbone
Irene	Marion Claire
Moretta	Henry Armetta
Mays	Ralph Forbes
Brennan	Leon Errol
Pee Wee	Billy Lee
Joseph	Donald Meek
Dr. Stevens	Herbert Rawlinson
Moe	Leonid Kinskey
Minstrel	Fred Scott
Wagner	Charles Richman
Mr. Grant	Richard Tucker
Antoine	Johnny Arthur
Secretary	Barbara Barondess
Phone operator	Dorothy Appleby

St. Luke's Choristers

Sophie Lang Goes West

(Paramount)

Melodrama

Crime melodramas have been tried and proved as material for program pictures made on limited budgets, as witness the various series of stories such as the 20th Century-Fox "Moto" and Warner "Torchy Blane" groups. While Paramount's "Sophie Lang" pictures do not exactly fall into the category of a series by virtue of the first, "The Notorious Sophie Lang," having been produced in 1934 and the second, "The Return of Sophie Lang," in 1936, the fact that there has been much continuity in story thread running throughout the two past and the current offerings, and Gertrude Michael again is seen as "Sophie Lang," place the pictures into the sequel class.

This picture is standard for the type of audience that it is aimed at. Sophie Lang is tossed into a background of Hollywood film making this time and the theft of a huge jewel, property of a foreign potentate who wishes the gem to be pilfered in order to collect insurance, complicates her love interest for a film writer, who once was a criminal.

Previewed at the Alexander Theatre, Glendale, California, where a mixed audience apparently liked the comedy situations and the story.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. General Office production. Directed by Charles Riesner. Based on stories by Frederick Irving Anderson. Screenplay by Doris Anderson, Brian Marlow and Robert Wyler. Film editor, Chandler House. Art directors, Hans Dreier and Robert Odell. Musical direction, Boris Morros. Costumes by Edith Head. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3,585. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 60 minutes. Release date, Sept. 10, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Sophie Lang	Gertrude Michael
Eddie Rollyn	Lee Bowman
Helga Roma	Sandra Storme
Steve Clayson	Larry Crabbe
Archie Banks	Barlowe Borland
Curley Griffin	Robert Cummings
J. H. Blaine	Jed Prouty
Sultan of Padaya	C. Henry Gordon
Laj	Rafael Cario
Inspector Parr	Guy Usher

MGM HIRES SIX ACTORS SIGHT UNSEEN

Six invisible actors have been signed by M-G-M to long-term contracts.

With the company's cartoon plans in full swing, these six artists will provide the off-screen voices for "The Captain and the Kids," animated feature based on the newspaper comic strip.

Two stories have been approved for the new series. Harry Hershfield, creator of "Abie Kabibble," is working on the third story. Work will start on the completion of MGM's new cartoon building this month.

Escape by Night

(Republic)

Melodrama

Republic recently signed as a writer-producer Harold Shumate, veteran screen writer, who at other studios had turned out 28 screenplays and originals, 27 of them by himself, since 1934. He was set to work on an original screenplay which was to be the first production he would guide. Then Republic borrowed William Hall, who has been given an extensive buildup by Universal, and from Warners, pretty Anne Nagle, who recently was elevated to leading roles for the leads. Steffi Duna, Dean Jagger, and other reliable character players were signed to support them. Hamilton MacFadden, veteran of many pictures, got the directing job.

The result is "Escape by Night," gratifying to those at the studio responsible for the selection of Mr. Shumate as writer-producer. Melodrama, it seems from the records, is Mr. Shumate's forte. And in "Escape by Night," the story is handled delicately around those histrionic points which either can cause audiences to react unfavorably or go away pleased.

William Hall is cast as a stranger in the city, who becomes innocently involved with a desperado gang. In a getaway from a police raid, the gangster kills a man and goes to a hideout alone. The hero, with other aides of Jagger, flee to a farm and are regenerated by the voluntary working of the land, owned by the heroine and her blind father, whose constant companion is a German shepherd dog. In a series of stimulating sequences all save the head gangster achieve redemption.

Injection of the dog, trained by Earl W. Johnson, as the guide for the blind father, jumps the gun on several other pictures now being planned by other studios featuring the "seeing eye" dogs and opens the way for novel exploitation of the picture, which, of course, has many other angles. The cast and the direction are highly commendable.

Previewed at the RCA projection room, Hollywood, before a press and studio audience, whose combined reaction immediately following indicated that the picture was far above their respective expectations.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by Republic. Produced by Harold Shumate. Directed by Hamilton MacFadden. Original screenplay by Harold Shumate. Photographed by Edward Snyder. Supervising editor, Murray Seldeen. Film editor, W. Donn Hayes. Musical director, Alberto Colombo. Art director, John Victor MacKay. Costumes by Eloise. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3,610. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 72 minutes. Release date, September 17, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Nick	William Hall
Linda	Anne Nagel
Capper	Dean Jagger
Jo	Steffi Duna
Spudsy	Ward Bond
Red	Murray Alper
Pop	Charles Waldron
Fred	George Meeker
Mike	Anthony Warde
Big George	Ralph Sanford
Sheriff	Arthur Aylesworth

Jungle Menace

(Columbia)

Serial

With "Jungle Menace" Columbia enters the serial field for the first time. Produced with an eye towards the adult trade as well as the juvenile the chapters are bound together by plot structure and story content that allows for more smoothness and continuity than is usually the case. Too, a large and marquee-attractive cast has been assembled including such names as Frank Buck, Reginald Denny, Esther Ralston, Charlotte Henry, William Bakewell, Clarence Muse, Willie Fung and Sasha Siemel, the tiger man. Unfortunately as much cannot be said for the action, which is the backbone of a serial. The emphasis, seemingly, has been placed on the story as a whole with little emphasis on suspense or the building up of an action sequence to a desired climax. The setting is Malayan and the story concerns itself with the rubber industry. Two factions representing the honest and also criminal interests are intent on becoming the dominant factor in the business. As a side issue but still part of the story, Frank Buck of "Bring 'Em Back Alive" fame exhibits his prowess with the lions, tigers, snakes and other animals in his compound. Produced by Louis Weiss. Directed by George M. Melford and Harry Fraser. Approximate running time of each chapter, 20 minutes.

Hawaiian Holiday

(Disney - RKO Radio)

Very Good

Mickey Mouse and his cohorts, Donald Duck, Pluto, Goof and Minnie Mouse, have traveled to far off Hawaii, where, amid such pleasant surroundings one would think these sterling performers could relax. But, regardless of locale Mickey and his retinue frolic with the same old abandon which fortunately is always a pleasure to watch. Pluto and the Goof are the chief disturbers of the quiet beach scene what with the mutt getting mixed up with a starfish, a crab and other sundry impedimentia and the Goof attempting to ride a surfboard, a feat apparently impossible against the aroused waves. Running time, 8 minutes.

Rhythm In A Night Court

(RKO Radio)

Very Good

A group of vaudeville acts cleverly presented through the burlesquing of a night court scene this is above the average of such affairs chiefly by the presence of Al Bernie, an accomplished mime. In a combined court room scene Bernie is defendant, defense attorney, prosecutor and judge, mimicking in the process Charles Laughton, Groucho Marx and W. C. Fields. Sylvia Manon and Company, adagio dancers; Harry Rose, "The Broadway Jester"; Frances McCoy, singer; Sid Marion, comic, and Jeannie Parrillo, child tap dancer, round out the subject. Running time, 9 minutes.

Murder In Swingtime

(RKO Radio)

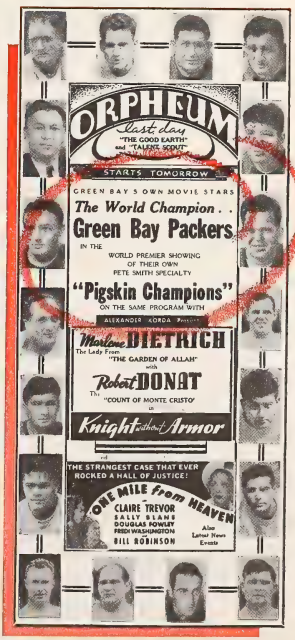
Band Presentation

From the torrid rhythm of Les Hite and His Orchestra in a night club the scene shifts to Les Hite and His Orchestra in a night court. The all-sepia cast are intent on finding out "Who Killed Dinah?" Each player's defense is his playing and when it is apparent that an innocent man is to be convicted of the crime the real culprit, a piccolo player, confesses. It is only a bad dream, however, as the piccolo player finds out when he is rudely awakened. June Richmond sings. A Condor subject. Running time, 10 minutes.

LEO IS FIRST!

(as usual)

THE WORLD PREMIERE!



The World Premiere of "Pigskin Champions," M-G-M's amazingly different and FIRST football picture of the year, was a RIOT at the Orpheum Theatre, Green Bay, Wis. It was the opening gun in the greatest campaign that ever launched a Short Subject.

Book it fast! Capitalize on the publicity!

And now newspapers are flooded with publicity about the Season's FIRST FOOTBALL GAME at Soldiers Field, Chicago:

(COLLEGE ALL STARS versus GREEN BAY PACKERS)
(Stars of "Pigskin Champions")

Tag on to this marvelous advance plug! Make tie-ups with Sports Pages. The first one always gets the break. The nation will soon be football hungry and you've got a swell dish all ready!

LOOK! Advertised above TWO Features!

ADMISSION PRICE RISE AND UNION CURB URGED

Rocky Mountain Owners Also Hear Tax Action Plea; Other Theatre Convention News

A two-fold plan to aid exhibitors financially was urged by Rick Ricketson, director of the Theatre Owners and Managers of the Rocky Mountain Region, when the organization held a one-day convention in Denver Monday

Mr. Ricketson urged that admission prices be increased and used the quality of present-day product and the rising prices of commodities generally as the basis for his suggestion. The second part of his proposal was that exhibitors exert influence upon congressmen to raise tax exemptions to 65 cents.

No resolutions were adopted at the session, but those in attendance were urged to oppose any further unionization of theatre employees.

Harry Huffman warned against the dangers of daylight saving time, declaring that many theatres would have to close if it were put into effect in the Rocky Mountain region.

Name Officers for Year

Virtually the same slate of officers was reelected. They are: A. P. Archer, president; Charles Gilmour, first vice-president; Harold Rich, second vice-president; Louis Finske, third vice-president; Buzz Briggs, treasurer; and Emmett Thurmon, counsel and secretary.

Directors are Mr. Ricketson, Howard Federer, Mickey Gross, John Greve, Charlie Klein, Russell Hardwick, Dave Davis, Dave Cockrill, B. P. McCormick and Ed Schulte.

Fox Holds Two Meetings

Rising costs of picture production were stressed by Al Hanson when he addressed 200 Fox West Coast zone, district and house managers meeting in Los Angeles. Mr. Hanson, assistant to Charles P. Skouras, Fox executive, declared increased production costs make larger box office returns imperative.

Mr. Skouras spoke on various theatre operation problems.

In Kansas City, Fox Midwest managers assembled to draft plans for an annual managers' convention of the circuit. The meeting will be held at the Hotel President September 9th and 10th.

Managers of Commonwealth Amusement Corporation are planning an annual meeting in Kansas City September 15 and 16. The first day of the convention will be devoted to discussion of a drive for increased business in the circuit's 28 theatres in Kansas, Missouri and Iowa, while the second day will be for recreation.

Evert R. Cummings, district manager for Tri-States, called a district theatre managers' meeting in Omaha last week.

Twentieth Century-Fox has acquired an 80 x 130-foot site in New Haven on which a new exchange building will be constructed.

ADMISSION GAINED WITH ODD STORY

A well-dressed, middle-aged woman hurried into the lobby of the Jayhawk theatre, Topeka, Kan., recently. The doorman held out his hand for a ticket, but the woman started to brush by him. He stopped her and insisted that she produce a ticket, whereupon she demanded to see the manager, Phil Hill.

Her story to Mr. Hill, it is more or less reliably reported, was that she she had been in the theatre the previous day, but since as she had only good eye, she had seen only half the the show. Now, she said, she wanted to see the other half.

Mr. Hill admitted her, but advised her that the next time she should sit through the show twice!

Dedicate Rogers Shrine Labor Day Amid Great Pomp

Dedication of the Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun, memorial to the late humorist on Cheyenne Mountain, near Colorado Springs, will be held Labor Day morning amid ceremonies believed unequalled in elaborateness.

Actual dedicatory services will be preceded by a colorful three-day rodeo. It will feature, in addition to the usual equine performance, a parade through Colorado Springs and a Cowboy Ball at the Hotel Broadmoor in which cowboys and elite will participate.

Dedication of the shrine will be carried by the National Broadcasting Company over a nation-wide hookup. Services will start with a processional up Cheyenne mountain to the accompaniment of western songs and the sounding of chimes and vibraharp. One of the songs will be "Old Faithful" which was sung at Mr. Rogers' funeral.

Edwin C. Johnson, U. S. Senator from Colorado, will introduce Thurston J. Davies, president of Colorado College, who will deliver a eulogy to the late humorist.

Following unveiling of the Jo Davidson bust of Will Rogers, a sodium light, nocturnally visible from a distance of 125 miles, will be lighted. It will burn perpetually.

As a cowboy band plays the national anthem, a squadron of airplanes will encircle the shrine and drop blossoms from the heavens as a tribute from Will Rogers' friends of the sky.

Six United Circuit houses in Long Island have been acquired by Interboro Theatres, Inc.

Most of Shanghai Branches Closed

Although dispatched before the bombing of an American steamship and subsequent critical events, a cablegram received by John W. Hicks, head of Paramount's foreign department, revealed that John Perkins, branch manager, does not intend to evacuate his offices in war-torn Shanghai.

Mr. Perkins, in the cablegram, stated that "conditional on certain possible developments Shanghai theatres may be able to reopen in a few weeks. Do not consider the situation hopeless."

However, home office executives of other leading American distributing companies have announced their branch offices in Shanghai are closed and that business is at a standstill. Harold Dunn, manager for Warner Brothers in China and Japan, has left his Shanghai offices for Manila. Columbia has ordered its manager, Prouse Knox, from Shanghai to Hong Kong to attempt to consolidate activities of the company.

LeRoy Brauer, Universal's manager in Shanghai, left for Manila on board the President McKinley. The officials of the company became concerned over the safety of another employe, Harold Dudorf, when they received no word from him and could not locate him with the aid of the State department.

Mr. Dudorf ended the suspense himself by cabling to Charles Ford, editor of Universal newsreel, sending the message from Tientsin to ask Mr. Ford if he should commission a native Chinese cameraman to shoot scenes of the fighting.

The scenes will augment those taken by George Krainukov and Howard Winner in Shanghai. These include the bombing of the Hotel Cathay, during which Mr. Krainukov was wounded by shrapnel, and the explosion which wrecked the city's two largest department stores.

Capra Is a Pain To Soul of Nazis

Nazi Germany has now placed Columbia's "Lost Horizon" under its expanding ban. The London office of Columbia Pictures Corporation has advised the New York home office that the official censorship department of the Hitler government in Berlin in rejecting "Lost Horizon," the Frank Capra production based on James Hilton's popular novel, for German consumption, has issued the pronunciamento: " 'Lost Horizon' offends our most sacred feelings and also our artistic souls."

Just previous to the "Lost Horizon" incident, the Nazi Government banned another Capra production, "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" on the ground that non-Aryan actors had participated in the "Deeds" picture.

"Lost Horizon" recently closed an eighteen-week run at the Tivoli Theatre in London—the longest West End run in more than eight years, according to Columbia. It ran for fifteen weeks on Broadway, for seventeen weeks in Los Angeles, for twelve in San Francisco, for eight in Philadelphia and for five in both Detroit and Boston.

RUN!

(don't walk!)

to your nearest M-G-M Branch and get two eyes full of 949 feet of glamour and facts and thrills and Box-Office Build-up on M-G-M's Greatest Hit Line-up for 1937-38!

FREE OF CHARGE!
M-G-M's REEL ON NEW SEASON PRODUCT is Gratis! Just part of our service. (Use copy below to advertise it!)

SPECIAL ATTRACTION!

This Theatre Has Signed for the Great Entertainments of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in the New Season 1937-38.

BY EXCLUSIVE ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PRODUCER WE NOW PRESENT

"The ROMANCE of CELLULOID"

A Brilliant Preview of coming M-G-M Pictures in the Making, Featuring All the famed Stars of the Greatest Studio on Earth!

ATTENTION FIRST RUNS!
Book This Unique Reel Now!

BOX OFFICE PRECEDENT

FOR "IN OLD CHICAGO"

A PICTORIAL PREVIEW

by WILLIAM R. WEAVER
in Hollywood

THAT San Francisco disturbance of 1906 (one doesn't say earthquake this side of the Rockies) and the Johnstown flood, Galveston's tidal wave and Miami's hurricane, were, in their day and way, calamities of consequence, thrusting their respective cities of visitation violently into headline prominence and leaving them, when the muck had been cleared away and lethal totals forgotten, civic beneficiaries of priceless publicity and, therefore, prime motion picture material—for it has been written that disaster is box office.

Consider, then, Chicago, calamity's favorite stamping ground, and gain—just like that—an appreciation of Darryl Zanuck's justly proclaimed genius for picking popular cinema subjects. Chicago is no one night stand for tragedy. It was there that the S. S. Eastland capsized at its wharf, drowning some 1,100 excursionists, and it was there that the Iriquois theatre inferno forged, at comparable cost, the code of safety laws under which indoor entertainment goes forward and it was there that a Mrs. O'Leary's more or less legendary cow kicked over a lantern which may or may not have had something to do with starting the Fire of '71 but got blamed for it.

Mr. Zanuck hasn't confided that his picture, "In Old Chicago," is the fruit of precisely these calculations, but it is of record that, on a certain day, he summoned to his sanctum Mr. Niven Busch, who had written such pictures as "The Big Shakedown" and "Babbitt," saying unto him, go forth and write me a story that will wind up with the Chicago fire. Whereupon Mr. Busch immersed himself in the flood of lore kept on tap for just such purposes by the faithful Chicago Historical Society and came up with a piece of fiction in which Mr. Zanuck decided to invest a million and a half Twentieth Century-Fox dollars. Not to underwrite Mr. Zanuck's nor anybody's investment recklessly, your reporter, after spending a sizzling half day on the Westwood acres where State, Randolph and other streets are waiting to be burned down when Alice Brady's broken ankle mends, is offering the formal 8 to 5—one $2 ticket to a customer—that the picture draws like a blast furnace from Golden Gate to Nantucket Lightship. (This offer expires on release date of the film, tentatively New Year's.)

Naturally, your reporter doesn't go around offering odds without reason. He knows, for instance, that Henry King, the director of this production, did himself proud in reproducing old London for "Lloyds of London" and wartime Paris for "Seventh Heaven," which ought to guarantee fidelity and all that sort of thing in this case. And he knows that Mr. Busch's story was given to Lamar Trotti and Sonya Levien, he having written playscripts for such period pictures as "Steamboat 'Round the Bend" and "Ramona," she having exercised her talent for blending scene, time and manners over such widespread territory as "Cavalcade," "State Fair," "So This Is London" and "They Had to See Paris."

On the player side, not to run too far down a long roster, there are Tyrone Power, Don Ameche and Tom Brown as sons of Alice Brady's Molly O'Leary, and there are Alice Faye, Phyllis Brooks and June Storey for them to fall in and out of love with between the political riots (not designated Haymarket), hectic goings on in a music hall (pointedly and fictitiously designated "The Senate") and, of course, the stockyards stampede and the flight from the flames.

83 CIRCUITS' CONTRACTS LISTED

(Continued from page 14)

Circuits	Number of Theatres Contracting and Locations	Product Under Contract (All 1937-38 contracts, for complete feature programs, unless otherwise specified)
Robb & Rowley	75, California, Oklahoma, Texas	MGM Paramount RKO Universal
	First runs in Oklahoma and Texas	20th-Fox
Rome Enterprises	11, Maryland	Columbia MGM Paramount 20th-Fox Universal
Saenger Theatres	114, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas	MGM Paramount Warner
Saxe Amusement	11, Wisconsin	Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Schine	96, New York, Ohio	Columbia MGM 20th-Fox Universal
Shea, M. A.	45, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania	Columbia MGM Monogram Paramount RKO
	34,	Universal
	All but New York and New Jersey	20th-Fox
Shearer	4, Alaska	RKO
Simons	53, New York, New Jersey	Columbia Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Sparks, E. J.	74, Florida	Columbia Grand National MGM Paramount 20th-Fox Universal
Stevenson	6, North and South Carolina	RKO 20th-Fox
T. & D., Jr., Enterprises	21, California, Nevada	MGM Universal
Thalheimer	6, Virginia	Columbia MGM Paramount 20th-Fox RKO
Theatrical Managers	21, Indiana	Columbia RKO 20th-Fox
Tri-State	17, Oregon, Washington	Columbia MGM Monogram Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Tri-State	27, Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska	Columbia MGM Paramount (long term franchise) RKO
	Nebraska and Iowa	20th-Fox
United Detroit	12, Detroit	MGM Paramount
Warner	446, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin	Columbia RKO MGM Paramount Warner
	402,	Universal
	300,	20th-Fox
Waters	9, Alabama	RKO
Western Massachusetts	14, Massachusetts	MGM Paramount RKO 20th-Fox
Wilby-Kincey	121, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama	MGM Paramount 20th-Fox Warner
	80,	Universal
Wilmer & Vincent	20, Pennsylvania, Virginia	Columbia MGM Paramount 20th-Fox
Wometco	13, Florida	Columbia Grand National 20th-Fox United Artists

PENNER and PARKY and HELEN and VIC
NO WONDER
IT'S TITLED
THE LIFE OF THE PARTY...

FOUR FAMOUS CUTUPS . . . and a thrilling team of madcap romantics. . going to town in the screen's outstanding riot-and-rhythm show! . . . Music and laughs and love for the heart! . . . Glamor and glitter and glow for the eye! . . . Singing and dancing and crackling gags! . . . It's dizzy, delightful, goofy and gay! . . . A show hand-tailored to pull and please the widest range of fans your theatre ever reached! . . .

TURN THE PAGE AND READ THE FIRST TRADE PREVIEW REPORT . . . IT'S YOUR KIND OF SHOW TALK!

JOE PENNER

GENE RAYMOND

PARKYAKARKUS

VICTOR MOORE

HARRIET HILLIARD

HELEN BRODERICK

The LIFE harm

HERBERT MAGIDSON and ALLIE WRUBEL

that great new team of tunesmiths, deliver some more of the top-ten tunes . . . "Yankee Doodle Band"—"Let's Have Another Cigarette"—"So You Won't Sing"—"Life of the Party"—"Chirp a Little Ditty" . . . also lyrics for "Roses in December," music by Ben Oakland.

of the PARTY

with BILLY GILBERT
ANN MILLER

Expect reviews like this from your local critics!

MOTION PICTURE DAILY'S HOLLYWOOD PREVIEW

"The Life of the Party"

(RKO)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 20.—Here is as mad and as merry a potpourri of melodies, personalities, forthright foolishness and miscellaneous amusement as has come from a carefree camera to enliven the cinema calendar in ready memory. The picture has a plot and the players work it out without sacrificing the identities they have established nationally as themselves.

Parkyakarkus, for instance, is cast as a house detective named Parkyakarkus, and plays both the role and himself. Joe Penner is cast as Joe Penner of the Park Avenue Penners, and that is simply that. Gene Raymond and Harriet Hilliard, as the boy and girl of the story, step in and out of the character at will and with excellent result, while Victor Moore and Helen Broderick are their screen and radio selves in roles tailored to their measure.

Out of all this comes a tremendous lot of sheer entertainment and by some strange alchemy the story is kept rolling along fresh grooves to a satisfying conclusion.

A preview audience at the Dome theatre in ribald Ocean Park laughed its head off and went out trying to whistle "Chirp a Little" and the title song, either or both of which have hit possibilities.

William A. Seiter directed the Edward Kaufman production from a screenplay whipped up by Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby and Viola Brothers Shore from a story by Joseph Santley. Five of the songs are by Herbert Magidson and Allie Wrubel and a sixth is by Magidson George Jessel and Ben Oakland.

Gene Raymond is at his best in the light lead and Joe Penner is in the pink throughout. Billy Gilbert, Franklin Pangborn and Ann Miller stand out in the support.

The story is about a romantic young millionaire and a socialite with stage ambitions. But the ways and means of their getting together to the required clinch are different and do not include, the world will be glad to hear, the heroic raising of funds to back a show. There is every reason to believe that exploitation concentrated on names and a general promise of assorted amusement will pack 'em in and send 'em away happy.

Running time, 79 minutes. "G."

DIRECTED BY WILLIAM A. SEITER
PRODUCED BY EDWARD KAUFMAN
Screen play by Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby and Viola Brothers Shore.

RKO RADIO PICTURES

LITHO U.S.A.

"Lew Clarke, manager of the Dome Theatre, Ocean Park Cal. (where picture was previewed), said, 'I'd be glad to replay that picture.' Asked why, he said, 'It's the kind of entertainment the people who come to this house want.' You heard them in there.' . . We had heard 'them' and it has been a long time since we noted an audience so thoroughly enjoy a picture . . . a picture of Annapolis midshipman life that several times caused them to break out in applause."

—Motion Picture Herald

OBITUARIES

Sales Manager For ERPI Dies

Private funeral services for Robert Horn, assistant eastern division sales manager for Electrical Research Products, Inc., were held September 1 from his late residence, Ridge Crest Terrace, Brooklyn. Mr. Horn, who was 49 years old, died August 28 at Bay Ridge Hospital, Brooklyn, of complications which set in after an operation.

He had been associated with ERPI for the last nine years. Previously he was with Pathe for more than 14 years. Other organizations with which he was associated in the industry included the Powers Projector Company and International Projector Corporation.

Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Brooklyn.

James McIntyre, Comedian, Succumbs

James McIntyre, black-face comedian for more than 60 years, died recently at his summer home, Tiana, on Noyback Bay, Long Island. He was eighty years old. Thomas K. Heath, who played Henry to Mr. McIntyre's Abraham, in their famous vaudeville skit "The Ham Tree," is seriously ill himself and has not been informed of his former partner's death.

W. W. Watts

W. W. Watts, who at one time operated four motion picture theatres in Springfield, Illinois, was killed recently when his automobile was struck by an Illinois Central train near the city limits of Springfield.

Robert W. Marks

Robert W. Marks, 84, associated with show business for 56 years, died recently in Perth Hospital, Perth, Ontario. Mr. Marks at one time was manager of the Marks Brothers Theatrical Company.

Alice Endres

Funeral services for Alice Endres, 73, an actress who died in St. Luke's Hospital, New York, were held Monday. Miss Endres was born in London and came to the United States when she was 15 years old. She appeared with Catherine Lewis and for several seasons played in "Potash and Perlmutter."

Ralph Schoenstadt

Ralph Schoenstadt, manager of the People's Theatre, Chicago, committed suicide by shooting himself. His body was found Tuesday morning. Mr. Schoenstadt, 32 years old, left a note saying he was tired of life.

August S. Lambrigger

August S. Lambrigger, 78, former theatrical and circus executive, died last week at his home in Orville, Ohio, after a brief illness. He sold the Grand Theatre in Orville after operating it for 27 years.

Disney Feature To Be Sold Separately

Walt Disney's first cartoon feature, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," will be sold as an individual production and not as part of the regular RKO Radio contract, Ned E. Depinet, RKO vice president, affirmed this week.

Mr. Depinet's statement followed reports that the film would be included in the regular RKO program and would not be roadshown.

A new color treatment will be used in the Disney feature cartoon, it is stated. Subtle shadings, in contrast with the bright tones of his short cartoons, will subdue the effect as a means of aiding characterization.

Gatelee Reelected

John Gatelee, business manager of the local operators' union in Springfield, Mass., has been re-elected head of the New England chapter of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Gatelee is acting as representative of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees at conferences with distributors for union contracts with local exchanges, in Lowell, Mass.

Jewish Products Formed

Jewish Products, Inc., has been formed by Moe Goldman, for distribution of six pictures made in Europe. Mr. Goldman is president and Julius Charnow vice-president. The first two releases will be "Alchet" (I Have Sinned) and "Freiliche Kobconim" (Happy Beggars).

Law Lectures Filmed

Two film lectures on law have been produced by the Film Foundation of America, Inc., and will be made available to lawyers and students on either 16 or 35 mm film. The lectures are by Harvard law professors and have an introduction by Felix Frankfurter, formerly of Harvard.

Mexico Plans Network

The press and publicity department of the Mexican government is preparing to form a national network of the 102 radio stations operating in the country. The move is designed to eliminate the overlapping of programs.

Columbia Units Formed

Incorporation charters have been issued to Columbia Films of Netherland Indies, Ltd., and Columbia Films of Malaya, Ltd., in Delaware. Each company listed capital of $5,000.

Gwirtz To Make Four Shorts

Irvin Gwirtz, of Musical Shorts, Inc., plans to produce a series of four shorts featuring children he has signed from auditions held by the Central Artists Bureau.

Hans Torkelson

Hans Torkelson, who retired several years ago after operating two theatres in Tacoma, died recently at a Tacoma hospital. He was 77.

Mrs. George Phillips

Mrs. George Phillips, wife of the owner of the Schiller Park Theatre, Syracuse, died recently.

IN COURTS

Interstate Case Put on Calendar

An anti-trust action brought against the Interstate Circuit and several distributing companies will go to trial in Federal court, Dallas, September 20.

George Wright, counsel for the defendant companies, had planned to request that the trial be adjourned, but the court has placed the case on the calendar and ordered it tried this month. Principal witnesses for the government are expected to be several subsequent run exhibitors.

Playwrights Ordered To Appear in Court

Edward Sheldon and Margaret Ayer Barnes, authors and playwrights, have been ordered to appear in the United States circuit court of appeals September 25th, in connection with an appeal from the interlocutory judgment they obtained against the Moredall Realty Corporation, owners of the Capitol, New York. The authors obtained the judgment in the United States district court, requiring Moredall to account for all profits realized from the exhibition of "Letty Lynton," which they asserted was an infringement on their copyrighted play "Dishonored Lady."

Two Writers Seek $150,000 Damages

Henry Barsha and Dave Weisman, writers, have instituted suit against Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, the Marx Brothers, Loew's, Inc., and others connected with the production of "A Day at the Races," charging plagiarism. They seek to collect $150,000 damages. The plaintiffs contend the picture contains portions of their story, "High Fever," which, they claim, was submitted to the studio in 1935.

Counsel Seeks $2,500 Fee

A request for an additional $2,500 fee has been filed in United States district court by Louis Lorens, special tax counsel, for the Flatbush Avenue and Nevins Street Corporation, owners of the Brooklyn Fox, which recently went through reorganization proceedings.

General Denial Filed

A General denial to a $5,000 breach of contract suit instituted by Principal Film Exchange, Inc., has been filed by J. D. Kendis and Jay Vee Kay Producers, defendants in the action. The plaintiff claims it received exclusive rights to distribute "Crusade Against Rackets."

Extend Fabian-Paramount Deal

The operating contract under which Si Fabian operates the Brooklyn Paramount has been extended one year, effective on the expiration of the present agreement on September 1st. Y. Frank Freeman handled negotiations for Paramount.

THE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Running times are those supplied by the companies. Asterisk indicates running time as made known by West Coast studio before announcement by home office in New York. Variations also may be due to local censorship deletions. Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1937-38 season.

ADVANCE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
Dawn to Dusk	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Nov.	1,'37†
Squadron "B"	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Sept.	15,'37†

AMBASSADOR-CONN-MELODY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Anything for a Thrill	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	June	15,'37
Born to Fight	Frankie Darro-Jack La Rue	Nov.	3,'36
Devil Diamond, The	Kane Richmond-Frankie Darro	Jan.	15,'37
Fighting Texan, The	Kermit Maynard-Elaine Shepard	June	22,'37
Galloping Dynamite	Kermit Maynard-Ariane Allen	Dec.	30,'36
Headline Crasher	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Dec.	25,'36
Phantom Patrol	Kermit Maynard-Joan Barclay	Oct.	30,'36
Racing Blood	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Nov.	15,'36
Sing While You're Able	Pinky Tomlin	Mar.	20,'37	66
Thanks for Listening	Pinky Tomlin	July	12,'37
Tough to Handle	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Mar.	24,'37
Valley of Terror	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	Jan.	20,'37
Whistling Bullets	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	May	3,'37
Wildcat Trooper	Kermit Maynard-H. Bosworth	Oct.	16,'36
Wild Horse Roundup	Kermit Maynard-Dickie Jones	Nov.	20,'36
With Love and Kisses	Pinky Tomlin-Toby Wing	Dec.	20,'36
Coming
Reckless Chances	Kermit Maynard
Roaring Six Guns	Kermit Maynard-Mary Hayes
Young Dynamite	Frankie Darro

CELEBRITY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
For Love of You	F. Foresta-Riscoe and Wayne		60
Kiss Me Goodbye	M. Schneider-Riscoe and Wayne		62

CHESTERFIELD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
House of Secrets	Leslie Fenton-Muriel Evans	Oct.	26,'36	67
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Red Lights Ahead	Andy Clyde-Lucille Gleason	Dec.	29,'36

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure in Manhattan (G)	Jean Arthur-Joel McCrea	Oct.	8,'36	73. Oct. 31,'36
Code of the Range	Charles Starrett-Mary Blake	Oct.	9,'36	55
Come Closer, Folks	James Dunn-Marian Marsh	Nov.	7,'36	61
Counterfeit Lady (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Joan Perry	Dec.	31,'36	60. Jan. 23,'37
Cowboy Star, The	Charles Starrett-Iris Shunn	Nov.	20,'36	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 10,'36.)
Craig's Wife (G)	John Boles-Rosalind Russell	Oct.	1,'36	75. Sept. 19,'36
Criminals of the Air	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Apr.	30,'37	61
(See "Honeymoon Pilot." "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 27,'37.)
Dangerous Adventure, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	Aug.	1,'37	59
Devil is Driving, The (G)	Richard Dix-Joan Perry	June	25,'37	68. July 24,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78.)
Devil's Playground (A)	Dolores Del Rio-Richard Dix	Jan.	24,'37	74. Feb. 27,'37
Fight to the Finish, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	June	30,'37	59
(See "Taxi War." "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Find the Witness (G)	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Jan.	8,'37	57. Mar. 6,'37
Frame Up, The	Paul Kelly-Jacqueline Wells	May	1,'37	59
(See "Right Guy," "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Girls Can Play	Chas. Quigley-Jacqueline Wells	June	21,'37	60
I Promise to Pay (G)	Leon Carrillo-Chester Morris	Apr.	21,'37	65. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 64.)
It Can't Last Forever (G)	Betty Furness-Ralph Bellamy	July	15,'37	68. Aug. 14,'37
It's All Yours (G)	Francis Lederer-M. Carroll	Sept.	1,'37†	80. Aug. 7,'37
Killer at Large (G)	Mary Brian-Russell Hardie	Oct.	1,'36	58. Nov. 7,'36
Lady from Nowhere	Mary Astor-Charles Quigley	Nov.	21,'36	60
Law of the Ranger	Bob Allen-Elaine Shepard	Feb.	26,'37	57
League of Frightened Men (G)	Walter Connolly-Irene Hervey	May	25,'37	65. July 24,'37
Legion of Terror (G)	Marguerite Churchill-B. Cabot	Nov.	1,'36	60. Nov. 7,'36
Let's Get Married (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Ida Lupino	Mar.	25,'37	69. May 29,'37
Lost Horizon (A)	Ronald Colman-Jane Wyatt	Sept.	1,'37†	118. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Sept. 5,'36, p. 75; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; May 22,'37, p. 92; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, pp. 96, 100.)
More Than a Secretary (G)	Jean Arthur-George Brent	Dec.	24,'36	77. Dec. 28,'36
Motor Madness	Rosalind Keith-Allen Brook	Apr.	5,'37	62
(See "Speed Mad," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 20,'37.)
North of Nome (G)	Jack Holt-Evelyn Venable	Nov.	14,'36	63. Oct. 31,'36
One Man Justice	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	July	1,'37	59
Outlaws of the Orient	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Aug.	20,'37†	61
Parole Racket (G)	Paul Kelly-Rosalind Keith	Mar.	4,'37	62. Apr. 10,'37
Pennies from Heaven (G)	Bing Crosby-Madge Evans	Nov.	25,'36	83. Dec. 18,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 8,'37, p. 72; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 81, 82; Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 96.)
Racketeers in Exile (G)	George Bancroft-Evelyn Venable	Mar.	31,'37	67. Apr. 3,'37
Ranger Courage	Bob Allen-Martha Tibbetts	Oct.	30,'36	58
Rangers Step In, The	Bob Allen-Eleanor Stewart	Aug.	8,'37†	58
Reckless Ranger	Bob Allen-Louise Small	May	30,'37	56
Rio Grande Ranger	Bob Allen-Iris Meredith	Dec.	11,'36	54
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Roaring Timber (G)	Jack Holt-Grace Bradley	July	4,'37	65. Aug. 28,'37
Speed to Spare	Dorothy Wilson-Chas. Quigley	May	4,'37	60
(See "Racing Luck," "In the Cutting Room, Feb. 13,'37.)
Theodora Goes Wild (G)	Irene Dunne-Melvyn Douglas	Nov.	12,'36	95. Nov. 14,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 81.)
Thunder in the City (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Luli Deste	Apr.	25,'37	76. Feb. 13,'37
Trapped	Charles Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Mar.	5,'37	55
Trouble in Morocco (G)	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Mar.	22,'37	62. Mar. 20,'37
Tugboat Princess	Walter C. Kelly-Edith Fellows	Oct.	15,'36	69
Two Fisted Sheriff	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	June	15,'37	59
Two Gun Law	Chas. Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Apr.	7,'37	56
Venus Makes Trouble	James Dunn-Patricia Ellis	May	14,'37	58
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 3,'37.)
Westbound Mail	Chas. Starrett-Rosalind Keith	Jan.	22,'37	54
When You're in Love (G)	Grace Moore-Cary Grant	Feb.	27,'37	104. Feb. 20,'37
Woman in Distress (G)	May Robson-Irene Hervey	Jan.	17,'37	68. Feb. 13,'37
Women of Glamour (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce	Jan.	28,'37	72. Mar. 20,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)
Coming
All American Sweetheart	Scott Colton-Patricia Farr
Awful Truth, The	Irene Dunne-Cary Grant	Oct.	7,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Carnival Lady	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth
Counsel for Crime	Otto Kruger-Jacqueline Wells	Sept.	14,'37†	62
(See "The Man Behind the Law," "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)
Freshmen Follies	Jimmy Durante-Joan Perry
Game That Kills, The	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Sept.	21,'37†
I'll Take Romance	Grace Moore-M. Douglas	Oct.	28,'37†
(See "In the Cuting Room," July 24,'37.)
I Married an Artist	John Boles-Luli Deste
In Old Wyoming	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks
It Happened in Hollywood	Richard Dix-Fay Wray	Sept.	7,'37†	67
(See "Once a Hero," "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 17,'37.)
Life Begins with Love	Jean Parker-D. Montgomery	Oct.	14,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Night Before, The	Mary Astor-Richard Arlen
Park Avenue Dame	Fay Wray-Richard Arlen	Oct.	21,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)
River of Missing Men	Jack Holt-Wynne Gibson	Oct.	31,'37†
There's Always a Woman	Loretta Young-Randolph Scott
Women of the Night	Don Terry-Jacqueline Wells

CRESCENT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Battle of Greed (G)	Tom Keene-Gwynne Shipman	Jan.	18,'37	65. Jan. 9,'37
Drums of Destiny (G)	Tom Keene-Edna Lawrence	June	12,'37	*60. June 19,'37
Law Commands, The	Tom Keene-Lorraine Hayes	May	12,'37	60
Old Louisiana (G)	Tom Keene-Rita Cansino	Mar.	1,'37	64. Mar. 20,'37
Raw Timber	Tom Keene-Peggy Keys	July	6,'37	63
Rebellion (G)	Tom Keene-Rita Cansino	Oct.	27,'36	60. Oct. 17,'36
Under Strange Flags	Tom Keene-Luana Walters	Apr.	12,'37	64

DANUBIA

(Hungarian Dialogue)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blue Danube Romance	Zita Perczel	Jan.	20,'37	85
Car of Dreams	Torzs-Perczel	Oct.	10,'36	90
Dreams of Love	Frank Taray	Jan.	3,'37	103
(English titles)
Friendly Expression	Radey-Szoke	Nov.	1,'36	65
Hungarian Village	Travelogue	Dec.	25,'36	20
(English titles)
Man of Gold	Maria Egri-F. Kiss	Apr.	12,'37	92
Man Under the Bridge	Csortos-Lazar	Nov.	15,'36	82
Salary $200 Monthly	Javor-Felop	Dec.	31,'36	82
Scotchman in Hungary	Radey-Orosi	Apr.	12,'37	95
Sister Mary	Szorenyi-Sved	Mar.	29,'37	91
Sons of the Steppes	Kiss-Komcar	Dec.	26,'36	85
Storm on the Pusta	Kiss-Komcar	Apr.	5,'37	78
Three Spinsters	Emile Markus-Rajnay	Dec.	1,'36	84
Coming
I Married for Love	Kabos-Radai	Sept.	15,'37†	84
My Daughter Is Different	Turay-Kabos	Oct.	20,'37†	88
Tempest in a Charda	Javor-Lazar	Oct.	20,'37†	90
Texas Mammy	Fedak	Octt.	25,'37†	89

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Vicki (Country Ball)	Javor-Rose Barsony	Sept.	25,'37†	87
Yellow Roses	Kabos	Oct.	30,'37†	90

DuWORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crimson Circle	Noah Beery	Jan.	1,'37	74
Kilou, The Killer	Technicolor	Oct.	1,'36†	60 June 1,'35
Mysteries of Notre Dame		Oct.	1,'36	58
Opera of Paris	Georges Thill	Oct.	1,'36	50

FIRST NATIONAL

(See also Warner Brothers)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain's Kid, The (G) 167	Guy Kibbee-Sybil Jason	Nov.	14,'36	72 Sept. 19,'36
Case of the Black Cat (G) 170. (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79.)	Ricardo Cortez-June Travis	Oct.	31,'36	66 Oct. 9,'36
Case of the Stuttering Bishop, The, 176	Donald Woods-Ann Dvorak	June	5,'37	70
Cherokee Strip 178	Dick Foran-Jane Bryan	May	15,'37	55
Confession (A) 158	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Aug.	28,'37	*85 July 24,'37
Danes, Charlie, Dance (G) 165	Stuart Erwin-Jean Muir	Aug.	14,'37	64 May 1,'37
Draegerman Courage (G) 168.	Jean Muir-Barton MacLane	May	15,'37	58 Aug. 29,'36
Empty Holsters 179	Dick Foran-Patricia Walthall	July	10,'37
Ever Since Eve (G) 162	Marion Davies-R. Montgomery	July	17,'37	79 June 26,'37
Gold Diggers of 1937 (G) 151. (Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 100; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; Mar. 6,'37, p. 90.)	Dick Powell-Joan Blondell	Dec.	26,'36	101 Dec. 12,'36
Green Light (G) 154. (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, pp. 78, 81; Apr. 3,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, p. 90; May 29,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Errol Flynn-Anita Louise	Feb.	20,'37	85 Jan. 9,'37
Guns of Pecos 960	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Jan.	2,'37	65
Here Comes Carter (G) 169	Ross Alexander-Anne Nagel	Oct.	24,'36	60 Dec. 12,'36
Her Husband's Secretary (A) 173	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Mar.	20,'37	61 Mar. 6,'37
Marked Woman (A) 156	Bette Davis-H. Bogart	Apr.	10,'37	96 Mar. 6,'37
Men in Exile 174 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)	Richard Purcell-June Travis	Apr.	4,'37
Mountain Justice (A) 161	Josephine Hutchinson-G. Brent	Apr.	24,'37	82 May 22,'37
Mr. Dodd Takes the Air (G) 159	Kenny Baker-Jane Wyman	Aug.	21,'37	*80 July 31,'37
Once a Doctor (G) 171	Donald Woods-Jean Muir	Jan.	23,'37	65 Mar. 6,'37
Penrod and Sam (G) 172	Billy Mauch-Henry Watson	Feb.	28,'37	64 Jan. 16,'37
Prince and the Pauper, The (G) 152 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 66; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Mauch Twins-Errol Flynn	May	8,'37	120 Apr. 17,'37
San Quentin (G) 163	Pat O'Brien-Humphrey Bogart	Aug.	7,'37	70 Apr. 3,'37
Sing Me a Love Song (G) 160. (Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 70.)	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	Jan.	9,'37	79 Oct. 17,'36
Stolen Holiday (G) 157	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Feb.	6,'37	80 Dec. 26,'36
Talent Scout (G) 166	Donald Woods-Jeanne Madden	July	24,'37	62 June 12,'37
That Man's Here Again (G) 175	Mary Maguire-Tom Brown	Apr.	17,'37	58 Mar. 27,'37
Three Men on a Horse (G) 151. (Exploitation: Dec. 12,'36, p. 81; Dec. 19,'36, p. 89; Dec. 26,'36, p. 70; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; May 1,'37, p. 83.)	Frank McHugh-Joan Blondell	Nov.	21,'36	85 Dec. 5,'36

Coming

Adventurous Blonde	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane
Alcatraz Island	John Litel-Ann Sheridan
Back in Circulation (A) 266	Joan Blondell-Pat O'Brien	Sept. 25,'37† 82 Aug. 7,'37
Cornered (G) 164. (Reviewed under the title, "War Lord.")	Boris Karloff-Beverly Roberts	*85 July 17,'37
First Lady (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Kay Francis-Preston Foster
Gold Is Where You Find It	George Brent-O. de Havilland
Great Garrick, The. (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Brian Aherne-O. de Havilland
Hollywood Hotel	Dick Powell-Frances Langford
It's Love I'm After (G)	Leslie Howard-Bette Davis	*87 July 31,'37
Larger Than Life	Frank McHugh-Ann Sheridan
Life of Emile Zola, The (G)	Paul Muni-Gale Sondergaard	Oct. 2,'37† 120 July 10,'37
Prairie Thunder 180	Dick Foran-Ellen Clancy	Sept. 11,'37
Return from Limbo	Kay Francis
Sergeant Murphy	Ronald Reagan-Mary Maguire
That Certain Woman (A) 254	Bette Davis-Henry Fonda	Sept. 18,'37† *94 Aug. 7,'37

FRANK NORTON

(Greek Dialogue, English Titles)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Astero	Miss Kyvell	Feb.	21,'37	90
Drustalo	Nina Afentaki	Oct.	11,'36	95
Far from the Crowd	Mary Tsagonis	Apr.	7,'37	82
Sarcos and the Eagle	Olympia Dees	Oct.	18,'36	118

Coming

Athea Toy Mpoam	Vasoula Manolidoy	Sept.	5,'37†	90
Kainourgea Zoe	Rita Karmen	Nov.	7,'37†	115
Reborn	Elene Papadake	Dec.	5,'37†	90
True Love	Sophea Damogloy	Oct.	3,'37†	85

GB PICTURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Backstage 3614	Anna Neagle-Arthur Tracy	Mar.	15,'37	65
Everybody Dance (G) 3613	Ernest Truex-C. Courtneidge	Feb.	15,'37	70 Sept. 12,'36
Gangway (G)	Jessie Matthews-Nat Pendleton	Sept.	1,'37†	88 Aug. 28,'37
Head Over Heels in Love (G) 3604 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78.)	Jessie Matthews-Louis Borrell	Feb.	20,'37	81 Feb. 13,'37
King Solomon's Mines (G) 3618 (See production article, May 22,'37, p. 16.)	Cedric Hardwicke-Roland Young	Aug.	26,'37	76 July 3,'37
Living Dangerously (A) 3617	Otto Kruger-Leonora Corbett	Dec.	1,'36	69 Mar. 31,'36
Love In Exile (A) 3623	Clive Brook-Helen Vinson	Nov.	15,'36	63 May 30,'36
Man of Affairs (G) 3606 (Reviewed under the title, "His Lordship.") (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, p. 88.)	George Arliss-Rene Ray	Jan.	20,'37	71 Nov. 28,'36
River of Unrest (G) 3621 (Reviewed under the title, "Ourselves Alone.")	John Lodge-John Loder	Jan.	15,'37	69 May 18,'36
Silent Barriers (G) 3608 (See "The Great Barrier," production article, Feb. 6,'37, p. 20; exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; May 1,'37, p. 81; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 17,'37, p. 90; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, p. 94.)	Richard Arlen-Lilli Palmer	Apr.	29,'37	83 Feb. 27,'37
Strangers On a Honeymoon (G) 3615	C. Cummings-Noah Berry	Dec.	15,'36	67 Jan. 9,'37
Talk of the Devil (G) 3607	Ricardo Cortez-Sally Eilers	June	1,'37	76 May 22,'37
Tenth Man, The (G) 3622	John Lodge-Antoinette Collier	May	15,'37	65 Aug. 29,'36
Two of Us 3619	Jack Hulbert-Gina Malo	July	10,'37	64
Where There's a Will 3624	Will Hay	July	26,'37	74
Woman Alone, The (G) 3601 (Reviewed under the title, "Sabotage.")	Sylvia Sidney-John Loder	Jan.	12,'37	76 Jan. 2,'37
You're In the Army Now (G) 3620 (Reviewed under the title, "O. H. M. S.")	Wallace Ford-Anna Lee	Mar.	1,'37	73 Feb. 20,'37

Coming

Dr. Syn	Geo. Arliss-Margaret Lockwood
Girl Was Young, The	Nova Pilbeam
Look Out for Love	Anna Neagle-T. Carminati
Non Stop New York	Anna Lee-Desmond Tester
Sailing Along	Jessie Matthews-Jack Whiting

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Days (G) 147	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Jan.	30,'37	52 Feb. 13,'37
Bank Alarm 139	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	June	25,'37	63
Boots of Destiny 204	Ken Maynard-Claire Dodd	July	23,'37†
Captain Calamity 128	George Houston-Movita	Nov.	29,'36	66
Forever Yours (G) 155	Benjamino Gigli	May	15,'37	70½ June 12,'37
Girl Loves Boy 124	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	27,'37	77
Girl Said No, The (G) 201	Robt. Armstrong-Irene Hervey	July	16,'37†	76½ May 29,'37
Gold Racket, The (G) 138	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Apr.	10,'37	65½ May 1,'37
Great Guy (G) 101 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 74; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 74, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81; May 22,'37, p. 88.)	James Cagney-Mae Clarke	Jan.	2,'37	73 Dec. 19,'36
Hats Off (G) 108	Mae Clarke-John Payne	Dec.	6,'37	66½ Jan. 2,'37
Headin' for the Rio Grande (G) 146	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Dec.	20,'36	61 Dec. 12,'36
Hideout in the Alps 199 (Reviewed under the title, "Dusty Ermine.")	Jane Baxter-Anthony Bushell	July	23,'37	75 Oct. 10,'36
Hittin' the Trail 149	Tex Ritter-Jerry Bergh	Apr.	3,'37	58
Juggernaut (A) 154	Boris Karloff-Joan Wyndham	Apr.	30,'37	64 Oct. 17,'36
Killers of the Sea (G) 135	Capt. Wallace Casewell	May	8,'37	49 May 15,'37
Love Takes Flight (G) 206	Bruce Cabot-Beatrice Roberts	Aug.	13,'37†	71 Aug. 7,'37
Man in the Mirror, The (A) 112	E. E. Horton-Genevieve Tobin	Apr.	24,'37	71½ Jan. 16,'37
Mystery of the Hooded Horsemen 151	Tex Ritter-Iris Meredith	Aug.	6,'37
Navy Spy 137	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Mar.	13,'37	56
Riders of the Rockies 150	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	July	2,'37
Romance and Riches (G) 153 (Reviewed under the title, "The Amazing Quest.")	Cary Grant-Mary Brian	Feb.	27,'37	58½ Aug. 28,'36
Scotland Yard Commands (G) 152	Clive Brook-V. Hopper	Jan.	23,'37	61 Feb. 20,'37
Shadow Strikes, The (G) 202	Rod La Rocque-Lynn Anders	July	9,'37†	63 July 17,'37
Sing, Cowboy, Sing (G) 145	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	May	22,'37	59 June 5,'37
Small Town Boy, The 205	Stuart Erwin-Joyce Compton	July	30,'37†
Something to Sing About 210	James Cagney-E. Daw	Sept.	3,'37†
Song of the Gringo (G) 144	Tex Ritter-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	22,'36	62 Nov. 14,'36
Sweetheart of the Navy 123	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	June	18,'37
Trailing Trouble 208	Ken Maynard	Aug.	27,'37†
Trouble in Texas (G) 148	Tex Ritter	Mar.	6,'37	63 Mar. 13,'37
Two Who Dared (A) 113 (Reviewed under the title, "A Woman Alone.")	Anna Sten-Henry Wilcoxon	May	8,'37	73 June 6,'36
23½ Hours Leave (G) 103	James Ellison-Terry Walker	Mar.	20,'37	72½ Mar. 6,'37
We're in the Legion Now (G) 129 (Reviewed under the title, "Rest Cure.")	Reginald Denny-Esther Ralston	Jan.	16,'37	55½ Feb. 15,'36
White Legion, The (G) 120	Tala Birell-Ian Keith	Oct.	25,'36	81 Oct. 24,'36
Yellow Cargo (G) 136	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Nov.	8,'36	63 Nov. 14,'36

Coming

Damaged Goods 175	Pedro de Cordoba			60 July 10,'37
Death Takes a Cruise
Face the Facts	Stuart Erwin
Gorgeous	Anna Sten
Here's Flash Casey 211	Eric Linden-Boots Mallory	Sept.	10,'37†
Honolulu Honeymoon
King of the Sierras 207	Thunder-Rex	Oct.	1,'37†
Law of the Golden West	Tex Ritter
Love Me Again	Anna Sten
Love Runs Into Money
Make Up (G)	Nils Asther-June Clyde			70 July 10,'37
Murder at the Rancho	Ken Meynard
Orchid Girl	Anna Sten
Painter in the Sky
Photo Finish	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt
Renfrew of the Royal Mounted 212	Jimmy Newell-Carol Hughes	Sept.	17,'37†
Snow Covered Wagons
Spy of Napoleon (G)	R. Barthelmess-D. Haas			98 Oct. 10,'36
Stars and Stripes
Tex Rides with the Boy Scouts 214	Tex Ritter	Sept.	24,'37†
Wallaby Jim of the Islands 213	Geo. Houston-Ruth Coleman	Sept.	24,'37†

Capitol is Opened After Re-Modeling

The refurbished Capitol, New York, which has been closed a week for a complete overhauling and remodeling, was reopened to the public September 2nd after a spectacular invitation premiere the preceding evening.

With Graumanical fanfare, the premiere took place in surroundings of sputtering kleig lights and newsreel and radio heraldry. The first attraction in the redecorated theatre, whose improvements cost $300,000, is "Broadway Melody of 1938."

Among those invited to attend the premiere were M. H. Aylesworth, Jules Brulatour, Mayor and Mrs. Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Governor and Mrs. Herbert H. Lehman, Herbert Bayard Swope, David Sarnoff, Carl Laemmle and Adolph Zukor.

In the public notice column of the New York Times, the Capitol placed the following ad: "Wanted: information as to the identity and whereabouts of the person who purchased the first ticket at the opening of the Capitol Theatre on October 24th, 1919."

The Capitol was opened as "the world's first luxurious mass-appeal theatre.

Price Rise Seen For Kansas City

Increased admissions, together with a decrease in giveaways and the continuation of double features, are the policy highlights foreshadowed for Kansas City theatres during the coming season.

With the average admission at 18 cents and both operating and film costs certain to be increased, a general rise in admissions is regarded as a surety. Some exhibitors have already jumped their admissions in anticipation of the problem.

J. F. Rigney, who operates the independent Westport, has raised his price from 20 to 25 cents on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to cover the big weekend pictures, and reports that patronage did not suffer. At the same time he has reduced the number of premium nights from four to one a week without loss. Jay Means, of the Oak Park, has similarly increased his admissions to 25 cents.

Other exhibitors have found that eliminating premium decreases attendance but slightly and increases the box office net. An example is Ed Burgan, operator of the Tenth Street, who abolished giveaways a year ago with satisfactory results.

Double features are firmly in the saddle. Kansas City theatres reached a new all-time high in the offering of multiple features on August 29th when the 50 theatres that advertise in the newspapers billed a total of 103 films.

Loew-Fay Pact in Effect

Loew's partnership arrangement with Ed Fay in Providence is now in effect. "Stella Dallas," the first picture to be shown under the deal, is at the Carlton, having been moved over from Loew's State. There is no change in prices for the moveover run.

ERPI NOW LICENSOR ONLY; GRANTS TO 2

International Projector and Motiograph Contract for Rights in Western Electric Devices

Arrangements for the discontinuance of Electrical Research Products, Inc., as an organization selling and servicing sound reproduction equipment in the United States, were completed in New York this week. The Western Electric Company subsidiary, while maintaining its foreign sales and service operations, becomes in this country merely a licensor, granting rights to and receiving royalties from manufacturers desiring to employ devices covered by patents controlled through Erpi.

Foreign operations are undisturbed, the domestic change coming in anticipation of a Federal Trade Commission interpretation of Erpi's former functions as activities improper to a public utility, Western Electric being a subsidiary of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company.

Almost simultaneously with the establishment of its new function in this country, Erpi entered into contracts with the International Projector Corporation, New York, and Motiograph, Inc., Chicago, under the terms of which rights in Western Electric sound reproduction devices are granted those projector manufacturers.

Acquisition of these rights place these companies in a position to produce unit type sound-and-image projector mechanisms employing soundheads of late Western Electric type. It is pointed out that such unit design will permit simplification of both projector head and soundhead designs through the elimination sprockets and other elements required in the designing of soundheads as projector attachments.

While licenses would be available for the manufacturer of other parts of the sound system, it is stated that both International Projector and Motiograph intend, at least for the time being, to confine themselves to a soundhead. At least International Projector, according to an official of General Theatres Equipment, Inc., holding company controlling the projector concern, will begin manufacture of a new unit sound projector as soon as plant operations permit.

Joseph B. Kleckner, president of Motiograph, Inc., in New York for the negotiations, could not be reached for comment on the immediate plans of his company.

Erpi's position in the recording field, it is pointed out, remains unchanged, the restrictions being confined to sound reproduction.

CAPITOL RECEIVES 100-POUND CAKE

As its contribution to the reopening of the redecorated Capitol theatre in New York, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer forwarded a three-layer, 100-pound cake to the management. The cake, approximately 5 feet in height, was autographed by MGM players.

ASCAP Labor Tie Seen 'Trust' Purge

The most significant benefit accruing to the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers in the proposed affiliation with the American Federation of Musicians is its immunity from the charge of monopoly, it was pointed out in legal circles this week.

ASCAP is considering joining the AFM as an affiliated labor body in an effort to obtain the union's support in combating the wave of adverse legislation leveled against it.

In this event, the society, as a labor union, would bring itself within the collective bargaining privileges defined in the Federal anti-trust laws, attorneys point out. The allegations of monopoly would automatically be checkmated with the reply that the society is simply a union formed to protect the interests of musical and literary "workers."

The actions brought against ASCAP by the Federal government and attempted in 18 states have been largely based on the contention that the composers' body is a monopoly and thus subject to penalties under anti-trust laws.

Nominations Made for SMPE Officers

Nominations for officers for the year 1938 have been issued by the Society of Motion Picture Engineers. The election will be held during the fall convention in New York in October. Those nominated are:

K. F. Morgan, for executive vice-president; L. A. Jones, engineering vice-president; E. A. Williford, financial vice-president; J. Frank, Jr., secretary, and L. W. Davee, treasurer. Those named for the board of governors are A. S. Dickinson, R. E. Farnham, H. Griffin, A. C. Hardy, W. A. Mueller and G. F. Rackett.

Seltzer With Roach

Frank Seltzer, formerly associated with Pathe, has been appointed publicity director at the Hal Roach studios in California.

Crittenden Company Operates New Theatre

The Crittenden, new theatre erected at West Memphis, Ark., by the Jackson Company, Inc., at a cost of $75,000 will be operated by the Crittenden Amusement Company, of which Wils Davis is president.

Norval E. Packwood will manage the house, which seats 600.

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

GUARANTEED

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Badge of Honor	Buster Crabbe	Oct.	1,'36
Crime Patrol	Ray Walker-Geneva Mitchell	Mar.	1,'37	63
Oil Raider, The	Buster Crabbe	Nov.	1,'36
Phantom Ship	Bela Lugosi-Shirley Grey	Oct.	15,'36	66
White Ivory	Jack Mulhall	Dec.	1,'36	69

Coming

Early Bird, The	Richard Hayward
Irish and Proud of It	Richard Hayward

HOFFBERG

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Calling All Cars	Jack LaRue-Lillian Miles	Feb.	10,'37	62 Jan. 26,'35
Fire Trap, The	Norman Foster-Evalyn Knapp	Jan.	10,'37	58 Dec. 7,'35
Girl from Maxim's	Leslie Hensen-Frances Day	Oct.	1,'36	65 Oct. 14,'33
Inyaah	Borneo Expedition	Nov.	15,'36†	70
Phantom of Santa Fe	Nina Quartaro-Norman Kerry	Aug.	1,'37†	75
Rescue Squad	Ralph Forbes-Sheila Terry	Feb.	10,'37	82
Tenderfoot Goes West, A	Jack LaRue-Russell Gleason	Oct.	15,'36	82
Uncle from America	Czeck Film	Dec.	15,'36	90
Wedding of Palo, The (G)	Rasmussen's Eskimo Drama	Mar.	1,'37	85 Mar. 20,'37

Coming

Ada Don't Do That	Polish Film
Business in Distress	Czeck Film
I Give My Heart (A)	Gitta Alpar		85	Nov. 16,'35
Invitation to the Waltz (G)	Lilian Harvey		80	Nov. 16,'35
Kathleen Mavourneen	Sally O'Neil-Irish Cast
Maid of the Mountains, The (G)	Harry Welchman		80	Apr. 22,'33
Song of the Lark	Czeck Film
Student's Romance, The (G)	Patric Knowles		78	Aug. 10,'35
Voice of India	Hoefler Expedition	Oct.	1,'37†	70

HUNGARIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Exception Granted	Imre Raday-Klari Tolnay	June	11,'37	9 rls.
Extra, Extra!	Gy. Kabos	Feb.	20,'37	8 rls.
Honeymoon On Cut-Rate	Paul Javor-I. Agai	Feb.	6,'37	8 rls.
Pay, Madame	Paul Javor	May	30,'37	8 rls.

Coming

Affair of Honor	Gy. Kabos	Sept.	11,'37†	9 rls.
All Men Are Wild	Paul Javor	Oct.	21,'37†	9 rls.
Anniversary	Imre Raday-Ida Turay	Dec.	10,'37†	10 rls.
Bride from Toroeko	Paul Javor	Oct.	1,'37†	10 rls.
Eighty Miles an Hour	Gy Kabos-M. Erdely	Nov.	19,'37†	8 rls.
Hotel Springtime	Gy Kabos-Anna Tokes	Nov.	30,'37†	10 rls.
I Picked You for My Husband	Paul Javor	Nov.	4,'37†	9 rls.
It Happened in Budapest	Gy Kabos-Zita Perczel	Sept.	21,'37†	9 rls.
Sport of Love, The	Gy Kabos-Ida Turay	Dec.	24,'37†	8 rls.
Two Prisoners	Paul Javor	Oct.	12,'37†	10 rls.

IMPERIAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broken Blossoms (A)	Dolly Haas-E. Williams	Dec.	1,'36	80 June 6,'36
High Hat	Frank Luther-Dorothy Dare	Jan.	1,'37	90
Rich Relations	Ralph Forbes-Frances Grant	Feb.	1,'37	90
She Shall Have Music	Jack Hylton-June Clyde	Nov.	1,'36	90 Dec. 1,'35
With Pleasure, Madame	Conrad Nagel-Marta Labarr	Apr.	15,'37	90

Coming

Back from Reno
Beauty Racket
Dead March, The	Boake Carter			Sept. 15,'37†
Deerslayer
Honor Among Women
I Demand Payment	Betty Burgess-Jack LaRue
Night of Crime
Sky Girl

INVINCIBLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ellis Island	Donald Cook-Peggy Shannon	Nov.	5,'36	96

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
After the Thin Man (G) 713	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Dec.	25,'36	112 Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; May 1,'37, p. 80; June 5,'37, p. 64.)
All American Chump (G) 705	Stuart Erwin-Betty Furness	Oct.	16,'36	64 Sept. 5,'36
April Romance (G) 706	Richard Tauber	Nov.	20,'36	82 Feb. 13,'37
Bad Guy (G) 743	Bruce Cabot-Virginia Grey	Aug.	27,'37	69 Aug. 28,'37
Between Two Women (G) 737	Virginia Bruce-Franchot Tone	July	9,'37	89 July 3,'37
Big City 801	Spencer Tracy-Luise Rainer	Sept.	3,'37†	80
(See "In the Cutting Room." Aug. 14,'37.)
Born to Dance (G) 709	Eleanor Powell-James Stewart	Nov.	27,'36	108 Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 23,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, p. 77.)
Broadway Melody of 1938 (G) 739	Eleanor Powell-Robt. Taylor	Aug.	20,'37	110 Aug. 21,'37
Camille (A) 639	Greta Garbo-Robert Taylor	Jan.	1,'37	108 Dec. 19,'36
(See production article, Dec. 24,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 8,'37, p. 107; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78; Mar. 27,'37, p. 78.)
Captains Courageous (G) 717	F. Bartholomew-Spencer Tracy	June	25,'37	116 Apr. 3,'37
(See production articles, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 91, 92; Aug. 21,'37, pp. 76, 78; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97.)
Dangerous Number (G) 718	Robert Young-Ann Sothern	Jan.	22,'37	71 Feb. 6,'37
Day at the Races, A (G) 730	Marx Brothers-Allan Jones	June	11,'37	111 June 19,'37
(See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 86; July 17,'37, p. 89; Apr. 7,'37, p. 91.)
Emperor's Candlesticks, The (G) 733	William Powell-Luise Rainer	July	2,'37	89 July 3,'37
Espionage (G) 723	Edmund Lowe-Madge Evans	Feb.	26,'37	67 Mar. 6,'37
Family Affair, A (G) 632	Lionel Barrymore-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	12,'37	69 Mar. 20,'37
General Spanky (G) 714	Spanky McFarland-P. Holmes	Dec.	11,'36	72 Oct. 31,'36
Good Earth, The (A) 741	Paul Muni-Luise Rainer	Aug.	6,'37	139 Feb. 6,'37
(See production article, July 11,'36, p. 76; exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 69; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92.)
Good Old Soak (G) 728	Wallace Beery-Betty Furness	Apr.	23,'37	76 Apr. 24,'37
(Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67; June 26,'37, p. 121.)
Heli Divers (re-issue) (G)	Clark Gable-Wallace Beery	June	4,'37	109 Dec. 26,'31
Last of Mrs. Cheyney, The 719	Joan Crawford-William Powell	Feb.	19,'37	98 Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 94; June 12,'37, p. 92.)
Libeled Lady (G) 648	Jean Harlow-William Powell-Myrna Loy-Spencer Tracy	Oct.	9,'36	98 Oct. 17,'36
London By Night (G) 740	George Murphy-Rita Johnson	July	30,'37	69 July 24,'37
Longest Night, The (G) 704	Robert Young-Florence Rice	Oct.	2,'36	51 Oct. 31,'36
Love on the Run (G) 654	Clark Gable-Joan Crawford	Nov.	20,'36	81 Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 64; Mar. 27,'37, p. 82.)
Mad Holiday (G) 706	Elissa Landi-Edmund Lowe	Nov.	13,'36	71 Nov. 14,'36
Mama Steps Out (G) 721	Guy Kibbee-Alice Brady	Feb.	5,'37	65 Feb. 8,'37
Manhattan Melodrama (re-issue) (G)	C. Gable-M. Loy-W. Powell	July	2,'37	90 Apr. 28,'34
Man of the People (G) 716	Joseph Calleia-Florence Rice	Jan.	29,'37	81 Jan. 30,'37
Married Before Breakfast (G) 736	Robt. Young-Florence Rice	June	18,'37	70 June 26,'37
Maytime (G) 720	J. MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Mar.	26,'37	132 Mar. 13,'37
(Musical analysis: Mar. 27,'37, p. 15; exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 64; Apr. 17,'37, p. 78; May 22,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, pp. 68, 69; July 24,'37, p. 80.)
Mister Cinderella 707	Jack Haley-Betty Furness	Oct.	23,'36	78
Naughty Marietta (re-issue) (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-N. Eddy	Aug.	6,'37	105 Mar. 2,'35
Night Must Fall (A) 727	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Apr.	30,'37	117 Apr. 10,'37
Nobody's Baby (G) 729	Patsy Kelly-Robt. Armstrong	Apr.	23,'37	67 Feb. 6,'37
Parnell (G) 722	Clark Gable-Myrna Loy	June	4,'37	119 June 12,'37
(See production article, Feb. 13,'37, p. 16.)
Personal Property (G) 725	Jean Harlow-Robert Taylor	Mar.	19,'37	84 Mar. 20,'37
(Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 79; June 12,'37, p. 93.)
Pick a Star (G) 735	Jack Haley-Patsy Kelly	May	21,'37	70 Apr. 24,'37
Romeo and Juliet (G) 1100	Norma Shearer-Leslie Howard	Apr.	16,'37	127 July 18,'36
(See production article, Mar. 28,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Jan. 23,'37, p. 79; Jan. 3,'37, p. 83; Feb. 6,'37, p. 77; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 79; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 80; May 8,'37, p. 74; May 29,'37, p. 70; June 26,'37, pp. 118, 119, 123; July 3,'37, pp. 69, 70; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Saratoga (G) 742	Clark Gable-Jean Harlow	July	23,'37	94 July 24,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)
Sinner Take All (A) 712	Bruce Cabot-Margaret Lindsay	Dec.	18,'36	74 Dec. 18,'36
Song of the City (G) 724	Dean Jeffries-Margaret Lindsay	Apr.	2,'37	69 Mar. 27,'37
Tarzan Escapes (G) 711	J. Weissmuller-M. O'Sullivan	Nov.	8,'36	89 Nov. 7,'36
(Exploitation: Nov. 28,'36, p. 96; Dec. 26,'36, p. 75; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85.)
They Gave Him a Gun (A) 731	S. Tracy-G. George-F. Tone	May	14,'37	94 May 15,'37
Thirteenth Chair, The (G) 732	Madge Evans-Henry Daniell	May	7,'37	66 May 8,'37
Topper (G) 738	Constance Bennett-Gary Grant	July	16,'37	97 July 17,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)
Trader Horn (re-issue) (G)	Harry Carey-Edwina Booth	May	reissue	120 Jan. 24,'31
Under Cover of Night (G) 715	Edmund Lowe-Florence Rice	Jan.	8,'37	72 Jan. 9,'37
Way Out West (G) 734	Laurel and Hardy	Apr.	16,'37	64 Jan. 2,'37
(Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 92.)

Coming

Bride Were Red, The	Joan Crawford-Franchot Tone	Sept.	24,'37†
Conquest	Greta Garbo-Charles Boyer	Oct.	1,'37†
Double Wedding	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Oct.	15,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)
Firefly, The (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-Allan Jones		138	July 24,'37
Last Gangster, The	E. G. Robinson-Andrea Marion
Live, Love and Learn	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Oct.	29,'37†
Madame X	Gladys George-Warren William	Oct.	22,'37†
My Dear Miss Aldrich	Edna May Oliver-W. Pidgeon	Sept.	17,'37†
Women Men Marry, The 802	J. Hutchinson-George Murphy	Sept.	10,'37†

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Atlantic Flight	Dick Merrill-Paula Stone	Aug.	25,'37†
Blazing Barriers	Edw. Arnold, Jr.-F. McKinney	July	4,'37†
God's Country and the Man	Tom Keene	Sept.	2,'37†
Hoosier Schoolboy (G)	Mickey Rooney-Anne Nagel	July	7,'37†	62 July 3,'37
Legion of Missing Men	Ralph Forbes	July	28,'37†
Outer Gate	Ralph Morgan-Kay Linaker	Aug.	4,'37†
Paradise Isle (G)	Warren Hull-Movita	July	21,'37†	73 Aug. 14,'37
Riders of the Dawn (G)	Jack Randall-Peggy Keys	July	14,'37†	55 Aug. 21,'37
Shadows of the Orient (G)	Regis Toomey-Esther Ralston	Aug.	18,'37†	65 Feb. 15,'36
Thirteenth Man	Weldon Heyburn-I. Courtney	June	30,'37†

Coming

Boy of the Streets	Jackie Cooper	Nov.	10,'37†
Bride for Henry, A	Anne Nagel-Neil Hamilton	Sept.	29,'37†
Country Beyond, The	Tom Keene	Oct.	13,'37†
Danger Valley	Jack Randall	Nov.	3,'37†
Federal Bullets		Oct.	6,'37†
Land of the Sky Blue Water	Movita
Luck of Roaring Camp	Owen Davis, Jr.-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	17,'37†
Marines Are Here, The
Numbered Woman		Oct.	20,'37†
Romance of the Limberlost
Stars Over Arizona	Jack Randall-Kathleen Eliot	Sept.	22,'37†
Telephone Operator

THE STAR OF STARS
THE CAST OF CASTS
THE STORY OF STORIES
THE DIRECTOR OF DIRECTORS

for THE PICTURE OF PICTURES!

HERE SHE IS!
THE MAGIC OF HER CHARM AN

This time she comes to you in an even more outstanding story than "THREE SMART GIRLS" and surrounded by a wealth of the screen's greatest personalities.

THE NEW UNIVERSAL PRESENTS

DEANNA DURBIN

100 MEN and a GIRL

AND LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI

WITH ADOLPHE MENJOU

ALICE BRADY · EUGENE PALLETTE · MISCHA AUER

BILLY GILBERT · ALMA KRUGER · CHRISTIAN RUB

JACK SMART · JED PROUTY · GERALD O. SMITH

Original story by Hans Kraly Screen play by Charles Kenyon, Bruce Manning and James Mulhauser

Directed by HENRY KOSTER · Assoc. Prod. JOSEPH PASTERNAK

CHARLES R. ROGERS Executive Producer

WE THANK YOU!

To everybody in the New Universal studio connected with the production of 100 MEN AND A GIRL, our deepest thanks. It's the swellest job we've ever seen!

THE NEW UNIVERSAL

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time	Reviewed
Accusing Finger (G) 3614	Paul Kelly-Marsha Hunt	Oct.	23,'36	62 Nov. 31,'36
Along Came Love (G) 3616	Irene Hervey-Chas. Starrett	Nov.	6,'36	66 Feb. 20,'37
Artists and Models (G) 3702	Jack Benny-Gail Patrick	Aug.	12,'37†	97 Aug. 7,'37
Big Broadcast of 1937, The (G) 3612	Jack Benny-Burns & Allen	Oct.	9,'36	100 Oct. 16,'36
Borderland (G) 3688	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Feb.	26,'37	82 Feb. 13,'37
Blonde Trouble 3701	Johnny Downs-E. Whitney	Aug.	6,'37†	67 Aug. 7,'37
Bulldog Drummond Escapes (G) 3626	Ray Milland-Heather Angel	Jan.	22,'37	65 Mar. 13,'37
Champagne Waltz (G) 3628	Gladys Swarthout-F. MacMurray	Jan.	29,'37	85 Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, pp. 79, 80; July 3,'37, p. 79; July 10,'37, p. 87.)
Clarence 3632	Roscoe Karns-Charlotte Wynters	Feb.	12,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 26,'36.)
College Holiday (G) 3623	Jack Benny-Burns & Allen	Dec.	25,'36	87 Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, pp. 88, 92; Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)
Crime Nobody Saw, The (G) 3635	Lew Ayres-Ruth Coleman	Mar.	12,'37	60 Apr. 17,'37
Doctor's Diary, A (G) 3627	John Trent-Helen Burgess	Jan.	15,'37	77 Jan. 30,'37
Easy Living (G) 3652	Jean Arthur-Edw. Arnold	July	30,'37	88 July 10,'37
Easy to Take 3617	Marsha Hunt-John Howard	Nov.	6,'36	67
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)
Exclusive (G) 3653	F. MacMurray-Frances Farmer	July	30,'37	85 July 31,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)
Forlorn River (G) 3650	June Martel-Larry Crabbe	July	2,'37	56 July 3,'37
Girl from Scotland Yard 3638	Karen Morley-Robert Baldwin	Apr.	2,'37	61
Go West, Young Man (A) 3618	Mae West-Randolph Scott	Nov.	13,'36	80 Nov. 14,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 72; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 30,'37, p. 84.)
Great Gambini, The (G) 3648	Akim Tamiroff-Marian Marsh	June	25,'37	70 July 24,'37
Her Husband Lies (A) 3636	Ricardo Cortez-Gail Patrick	Mar.	19,'37	76 Mar. 20,'37
Hideaway Girl (G) 3619	Martha Raye-Robt. Cummings	Nov.	20,'36	72 Nov. 14,'36
Hills of Old Wyoming (G) 3669	William Boyd-George Hayes	Apr.	16,'37	79 Apr. 17,'37
Hopalong Cassidy Returns (G) 3666	William Boyd-Evelyn Brent	Oct.	23,'36	75 Aug. 22,'36
Hopalong Rides Again (G) 3753	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept.	3,'37†	65 Aug. 21,'37
Hotel Haywire (G) 3645	Lee Carrillo-Mary Carlisle	June	4,'37	66 May 22,'37
I Met Him in Paris (G) 3644	Claudette Colbert-M. Douglas	May	28,'37	86 May 29,'37
Internes Can't Take Money (A) 3639	Barbara Stanwyck-Joe McCrea	Apr.	9,'37	79 Apr. 17,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)
John Meade's Woman (A) 3630	Edw. Arnold-Francine Larimore	Feb.	26,'37	87 Feb. 27,'37
Jungle Princess, The (G) 3620	Ray Milland-Dorothy Lamour	Nov.	27,'36	84 Nov. 28,'36
King of Gamblers (A) 3640	Lloyd Nolan-Claire Trevor	Apr.	23,'37	78 Apr. 24,'37
Last Train from Madrid (G) 3646	Lew Ayres-Dorothy Lamour	June	11,'37	77 June 12,'37
Let's Make a Million (G) 3622	Edward Everett Horton	Dec.	18,'36	80 Feb. 27,'37
Maid of Salem (G) 3634	C. Colbert-Fred MacMurray	Feb.	19,'37	86 Jan. 30,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Apr. 24,'37, p. 92; May 22,'37, p. 89.)
Make Way for Tomorrow (G) 3641	Beulah Bondi-Victor Moore	Apr.	30,'37	92 May 1,'37
(Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 82.)
Midnight Madonna (G) 3649	Warren William-Mady Correll	July	2,'37	65 June 12,'37
Mind Your Own Business (G) 3625	Charles Ruggles-Alice Brady	Jan.	8,'37	75 Dec. 19,'36
Mountain Music (G) 3647	Bob Burns-Martha Raye	June	18,'37	77 June 19,'37
(Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 89; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92.)
Murder Goes to College (G) 3633	Roscoe Karns-Marsha Hunt	Mar.	5,'37	71 Mar. 6,'37
Night of Mystery, A (A) 3643	Roscoe Karns-Ruth Coleman	May	21,'37	75 May 22,'37
North of the Rio Grande (G) 3670	William Boyd-George Hayes	June	25,'37	70 June 26,'37
On Such a Night (A)	Karen Morley-Grant Richards	Aug.	27,'37†	73 Aug. 21,'37
Outcast (G) 3629	Warren William-Karen Morley	Feb.	5,'37	79 Feb. 6,'37
Plainsman, The (G) 3624	Gary Cooper-Jean Arthur	Jan.	1,'37	113 Nov. 28,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 20,'37, p. 82; Feb. 27,'37, p. 83; Mar. 6,'37, p. 91; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 80, 82, 83; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 24,'37, p. 93; May 29,'37, p. 68; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)
Rustlers' Valley (G) 3671	William Boyd-George Hayes	July	23,'37	60 July 10,'37
Scrooge (G) 3527	Seymour Hicks-Donald Calthrop	Dec.	27,'36	73 Dec. 21,'35
She's No Lady (G)	Ann Dvorak-John Trent	Aug.	20,'37†	62 Aug. 7,'37
Souls at Sea (G)	Gary Cooper-George Raft	Sept.	3,'37†	92 Aug. 14,'37
(See production article, Jan. 30,'37, p. 16.)
Swing High, Swing Low (G) 3634	Carole Lombard-F. MacMurray	Mar.	12,'37	97 Mar. 20,'37
(Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67.)
Trail Dust (G) 3667	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Dec.	11,'36	77 Jan. 2,'37
Turn Off the Moon (G) 3642	Chas. Ruggles-Eleanore Whitney	May	14,'37	80 May 29,'37
Valiant Is the Word for Carrie (A) 3611	Gladys George-Arline Judge	Oct.	2,'36	109 Sept. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)
Waikiki Wedding (G) 3637	Bing Crosby-Shirley Ross	Mar.	26,'37	89 Apr. 3,'37
(Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 81; May 15,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, pp. 92, 93, July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 80; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 83; Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)
Wedding Present (G) 3613	Joan Bennett-Cary Grant	Oct.	16,'36	81 Oct. 8,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 78.)
Wild Money 3651	Edward Everett Horton	July	9,'37	69

Coming

Title	Star
Angel	Marlene Dietrich-H. Marshall
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Barrier, The	Jimmy Ellison-Jean Parker
Blossoms of Broadway	Edward Arnold-Shirley Ross
Born to the West	John Wayne-Marsha Hunt
Buccaneer, The	Fredric March-Franciska Gaal
Bulldog Drummond Comes Back	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell
City Hall Scandal	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell
Double Or Nothing (G)	Bing Crosby-Mary Carlisle
Ebb Tide	Oscar Hamolka-Frances Farmer
High, Wide and Handsome (G)	Irene Dunne-Randolph Scott
Hold 'Em Navy	Lew Ayres-Mary Carlisle
Love on Toast	Stella Ardler-John Payne
Partners in Crime	Lynne Overman-Roscoe Karns
Rider of the Panamints	Gilbert Roland-Marsha Hunt
She Asked for It	Wm. Gargan-Orien Heyward
Sophie Lang Goes West	Gert. Michael-Larry Crabbe
Texas Trail	William Boyd-George Hayes
This Way Please	C. (Buddy) Rogers-Betty Grable
Thrill of a Lifetime	Eleanore Whitney-Johnny Downs
Wells Fargo	Joel McCrea-Frances Dee
You and Me	Sylvia Sidney-George Raft

RAY KIRKWOOD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time	Reviewed
Adventurous Rogue	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Jan.	3,'37
El Justiciero	Ernesto Guillen	Jan.	3,'37
Fighting Vagabonds	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Feb.	19,'37
Masked Devil, The	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Apr.	4,'37

RELIABLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time	Reviewed
Ambush Valley	Bob Custer	Nov.	1,'36	56
Santa Fe Rides	Bob Custer	Feb.	25,'37	58
Silver Trail	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Rex Lease	Feb.	28,'37	56
Vengeance of Rannah	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Bob Custer	Nov.	6,'36	56

Coming

Title	Star
Apache Trail	Bob Custer
Frontier Fury	Bob Custer
Outlaw River	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.
Prairie Terror	Bob Custer
Thundering Stampede	Bob Custer

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time	Reviewed
Affars of Cappy Ricks, The (G) 6027	Walter Brennan-Mary Brian	May	24,'37	56 June 5,'37
Bar Z Bad Men 6323	Johnny Mack Brown-L. January	Jan.	20,'37	51
Beware of Ladies (G) 6011	Donald Cook-Judith Allen	Dec.	21,'36	61 Feb. 13,'37
Big Show, The 6301	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov.	16,'36	70
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 24,'36.)
Bill Cracks Down (G) 6028	Grant Withers-Beatrice Roberts	Mar.	22,'37	58 Mar. 27,'37
Bold Caballero, The (G) 6101	Bob Livingston-Heather Angel	Jan.	18,'37	71 Dec. 5,'36
Boothill Brigade 6328	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Aug.	2,'37	53
Border Phantom 6333	Bob Steele-Harley Wood	Dec.	28,'36	58
Bulldog Drummond at Bay (G) 6025	John Lodge-Dorothy Mackaill	July	31,'37	62 July 31,'37
Cavalry 6331	Bob Steele-Frances Grant	Oct.	14,'36	60
Circus Girl 6014	June Travis-Bob Livingston	Mar.	1,'37	62
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 13,'37.)
Come On, Cowboys (G) 6317	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May	24,'37	57 May 29,'37
Country Gentlemen (G) 6010	Olsen and Johnson	Nov.	9,'36	68 Oct. 31,'36
Dangerous Holiday (G) 6026	Ra Hould-Hedda Hopper	June	7,'37	57 July 31,'37
Doomed at Sundown 6337	Bob Steele-Lorraine Hayes	June	7,'37	53
Gambling Terror, The 6324	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Feb.	15,'37	53
Ghost Town Gold 6312	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Oct.	26,'36	55
Git Along Little Dogies (G) 6302	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Mar.	22,'37	62 Apr. 3,'37
Gun Lords of Stirrup Basin 6336	Bob Steel-Louise Stanley	May	10,'37	53
Gun Ranger, The 6332	Bob Steele-Eleanor Stewart	Nov.	19,'36	49
Gunsmoke Ranch 6316	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May	5,'37	56
Guns in the Dark 6326	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Apr.	14,'37	56
Happy-Go-Lucky (G) 6013	Phil Regan-Evelyn Venable	Dec.	14,'36	68 Dec. 12,'36
Hit Parade, The (G) 6002	Frances Langford-Phil Regan	Apr.	26,'37	83 Apr. 10,'37
(Exploitation: July 10,'37, p. 86.)
Hit the Saddle 6315	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Mar.	3,'37	57
It Could Happen to You 6016	Alan Baxter-Andrea Leeds	June	28,'37	64
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 15,'37.)
Jim Hanvey, Detective 6005	Guy Kibbee-Tom Brown	Apr.	5,'37	67 Mar. 27,'37
Join the Marines (G) 6003	June Travis-Paul Kelly	Jan.	25,'37	67 Feb. 6,'37
Larceny on the Air (G) 6030	Grace Bradley-Bob Livingston	Jan.	11,'37	60 Jan. 16,'37
Lawless Land 6322	Johnny Mack Brown-L. Stanley	Nov.	23,'36	55
Law Man Is Born, A 6327	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	June	21,'37	61
Lightnin' Crandall 6335	Bob Steele-Lois January	Mar.	24,'37	60
Man Betrayed, A (G) 6012	Eddie Nugent-Kay Hughes	Dec.	28,'36	50 Jan. 16,'37
Mandarin Mystery, The (G) 6031	Eddie Quillan-Charlotte Henry	Dec.	7,'36	63 Nov. 29,'36
Meet the Boy Friend (G) 6018	Carol Hughes-David Carlyle	July	12,'37	63 July 31,'37
Michael O'Halloran (Spec.)	Wynne Gibson-Warren Hull	May	15,'37	67
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)
Navy Blues (G) 6015	Mary Brian-Dick Purcell	Apr.	19,'37	68 May 1,'37
Old Corral, The 6305	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Dec.	21,'36	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Paradise Express (G) 6029	Grant Withers-Dorothy Appleby	Feb.	22,'37	58 Mar. 13,'37
President's Mystery, The (G) 6007	Henry Wilcoxon-Betty Furness	Oct.	8,'36	78 Oct. 8,'36
Public Cowboy No. 1 7105	Gene Autry-Ann Rutherford	Aug.	23,'37†
Range Defenders (G) 6318	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	June	30,'37	56 July 24,'37
Red Rope, The 6338	Bob Steele-Lois January	July	19,'37	60
Rhythm in the Clouds (G) 6017	Warren Hull-Patricia Ellis	June	21,'37	62 July 3,'37

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Riders of the Whistling Skull
6314	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Jan.	4,'37	55
Roarin' Lead 6313	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Dec.	9,'36	53
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Rootin' Tootin Rhythm (G)
6307	Gene Autry-Armida	May	12,'37	60. May 8,'37
Round-up Time in Texas 6306	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb.	28,'37	58
Sea Racketeers (G) 6019	Weldon Heyburn-Jeanne Madden	Aug.	16,'37	64. Aug. 14,'37
Trail of Vengeance 6325	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Mar.	29,'37	54
Trusted Outlaw, The 6334	Bob Steele-Lois January	Feb.	1,'37	52
Two Wise Maids (G) 6004	Alison Skipworth-Polly Moran	Feb.	15,'37	68. Feb. 6,'37
Yodelin' Kid from Pine Ridge (G) 6308	Gene Autry-Betty Bronson	June	14,'37	60. June 26,'37

Coming

All Over Town (G) 6020	Olson and Johnson	Sept.	8,'37	*60 Aug. 28,'37
Arizona Gunfighter 7121	Bob Steele-Jean Carmen	Sept.	20,'37†
Boots and Saddles	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Oct.	4,'37†
Escape by Night	Wm. Hall-Anne Nagel	Sept.	20,'37†
Heart of the Rockies 7111	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Sept.	6,'37†
Manhattan Merry-Go-Round	Phil Regan-Ann Dvorak
Portia on Trial 6001	Frieda Inescort-Walter Abel
Sheik Steps Out, The (G) 6006	Ramon Novarro-Lola Lane	Sept.	6,'37	*66. July 31,'37
Treasure Hunt	Richard Cromwell-Helen Mack	Sept.	30,'37†
Trigger Trio 7112	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Oct.	18,'37†
Trouble for Two 6022	Gordon Oliver-Marian Marsh	Oct.	4,'37

RKO RADIO

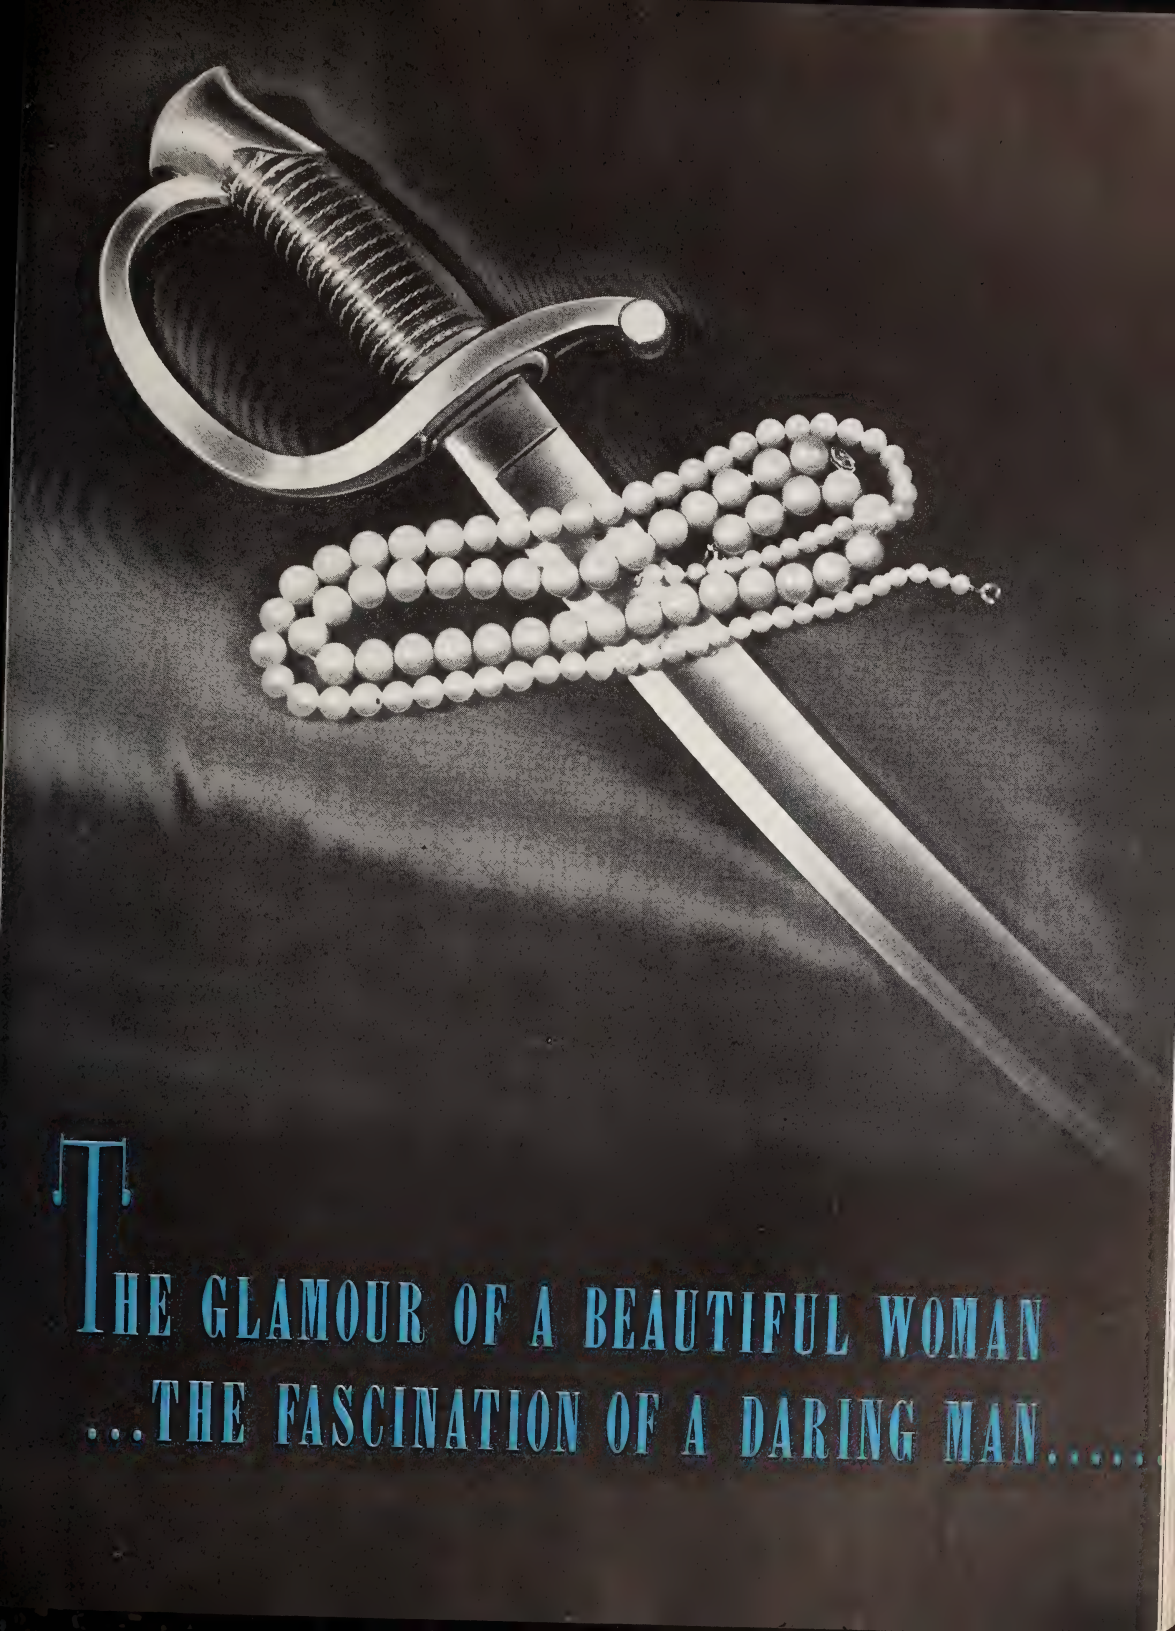
Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Behind the Headlines (G) 727	Lee Tracy-Diana Gibson	May	14,'37	58. June 12,'37
Big Shot, The (G) 735	Guy Kibbee-Cora Witherspoon	July	23,'37	60. July 31,'37
Border Cafe (G) 730	John Beal-Armida	June	4,'37	67. May 29,'37
China Passage (G) 718	Constance Worth-V. Haworth	Mar.	12,'37	65. Apr. 24,'37
Criminal Lawyer (G) 713	Lee Tracy-Margot Grahame	Jan.	29,'37	72. Apr. 10,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)
Don't Tell the Wife (G) 720	Guy Kibbee-Una Merkel	Mar.	5,'37	62. Feb. 27,'37
Flight from Glory (G)	Chester Morris-Whitney Bourne	Aug.	20,'37	*60. Aug. 14,'37
Hideaway (G)	Fred Stone-Marjorie Lord	Aug.	13,'37	*60. July 31,'37
Hollywood Cowboy (G) 733	George O'Brien-Cecilia Parker	May	28,'37	64. July 31,'37
Life of the Party, The (G) 801	Gene Raymond-Harriet Hilliard	Sept.	3,'37†	*79. Aug. 28,'37
Make a Wish 745	Bobby Breen-Marion Claire	Aug.	27,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Make Way for a Lady (G) 705	Anne Shirley-Herbert Marshall	Nov.	13,'36	65. Dec. 19,'36
Man Who Found Himself, The (G) 722	John Beal-Joan Fontaine	Apr.	2,'37	67. Mar. 13,'37
Meet the Missus (G) 729	Victor Moore-Helen Broderick	June	4,'37	60. May 29,'37
New Faces of 1937 (G) 732	Joe Penner-Harriet Hilliard	July	2,'37	100. July 10,'37
Night Waitress (G) 711	Margot Grahame-Gordon Jones	Dec.	18,'36	57. Jan. 2,'37
On Again—Off Again (G) 725	Wheeler and Woolsey	July	9,'37	68. July 17,'37
Outcasts of Poker Flat, The (G) 710	Preston Foster-Jean Muir	Apr.	16,'37	68. Mar. 20,'37
Park Avenue Logger (G) 787	George O'Brien-Beatrice Roberts	Feb.	26,'37	65. Jan. 30,'37
Plot Thickens, The (G) 641	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts	Dec.	11,'36	69. Nov. 21,'36
Plough and the Stars, The (G) 640	Barbara Stanwyck-P. Foster	Jan.	15,'37	67. Jan. 2,'37
(See production article, Aug. 22,'36, p. 16.)
Quality Street (G) 709	Kath. Hepburn-Franchot Tone	Mar.	26,'37	84. Mar. 30,'37
Racing Lady (G) 707	Ann Dvorak-Smith Bellew	Jan.	29,'37	59. Dec. 12,'36
Rainbow on the River (G) 714	Bobby Breen-May Robson	Dec.	25,'36	88. Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 71.)
Riding On Air (G) 771	Joe E. Brown-Florence Rice	June	18,'37	71. June 12,'37
Sea Devils (G) 714	Victor McLaglen-Preston Foster	Feb.	19,'37	88. Feb. 20,'37
Shall We Dance (G) 724	Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers	May	7,'37	116. May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 85; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Soldier and the Lady, The (A) 717	Anton Walbrook-Eliz. Allan	Apr.	9,'37	85. Feb. 27,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Michael Strogoff.") (Exploitation: Mar. 13,'37, p. 79.)
Super Sleuth (G) 734	Jack Oakie-Ann Sothern	July	16,'37	70. July 17,'37
That Girl from Paris (G) 712	Lily Pons-Gene Raymond	Jan.	22,'37	105. Dec. 19,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)
There Goes My Girl (G) 728	Ann Sothern-Gene Raymond	May	21,'37	74. June 5,'37
They Wanted to Mary (G) 715	Gordon Jones-Betty Furness	Feb.	5,'37	60. Dec. 26,'36
Toast of New York (G) 719	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	July	30,'37	109. July 17,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 96.)
Too Many Wives (G) 723	Anne Shirley-John Morley	Apr.	9,'37	61. Apr. 17,'37
Wanted: Jane Turner 643	Gloria Stuart-Lee Tracy	Dec.	4,'36	67
(See "General Delivery," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)
We're on the Jury (G) 716	Helen Broderick-Victor Moore	Feb.	12,'37	71. Jan. 23,'37
We Who Are About to Die (G) 639	Preston Foster-Ann Dvorak	Jan.	6,'37	82. Oct. 17,'36
When's Your Birthday? (G) 770	Joe E. Brown-Marian Marsh	Feb.	19,'37	77. Feb. 20,'37
Windjammer 783	George O'Brien-Constance Worth	Aug.	6,'37	58
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 29,'37.)
Without Orders (G) 704	Sally Eilers-Robt. Armstrong	Oct.	23,'36	64. Oct. 10,'36
Winterset (G) 703	Burgess Meredith-Margo	Nov.	20,'36	77. Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 80; Jan. 30,'37, p. 83; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.
Woman I Love, The (G) 721	Paul Muni-Miriam Hopkins	Apr.	23,'37	88. Apr. 24,'37
Woman Rebels, A (A) 642	Kath. Hepburn-H. Marshall	Nov.	8,'36	88. Oct. 31,'36
You Can't Beat Love (G) 731	Preston Foster-Joan Fontaine	June	25,'37	62. June 5,'37
You Can't Buy Luck (G) 726	Vinton Haworth-Helen Mack	Apr.	30,'37	61. May 1,'37

Coming

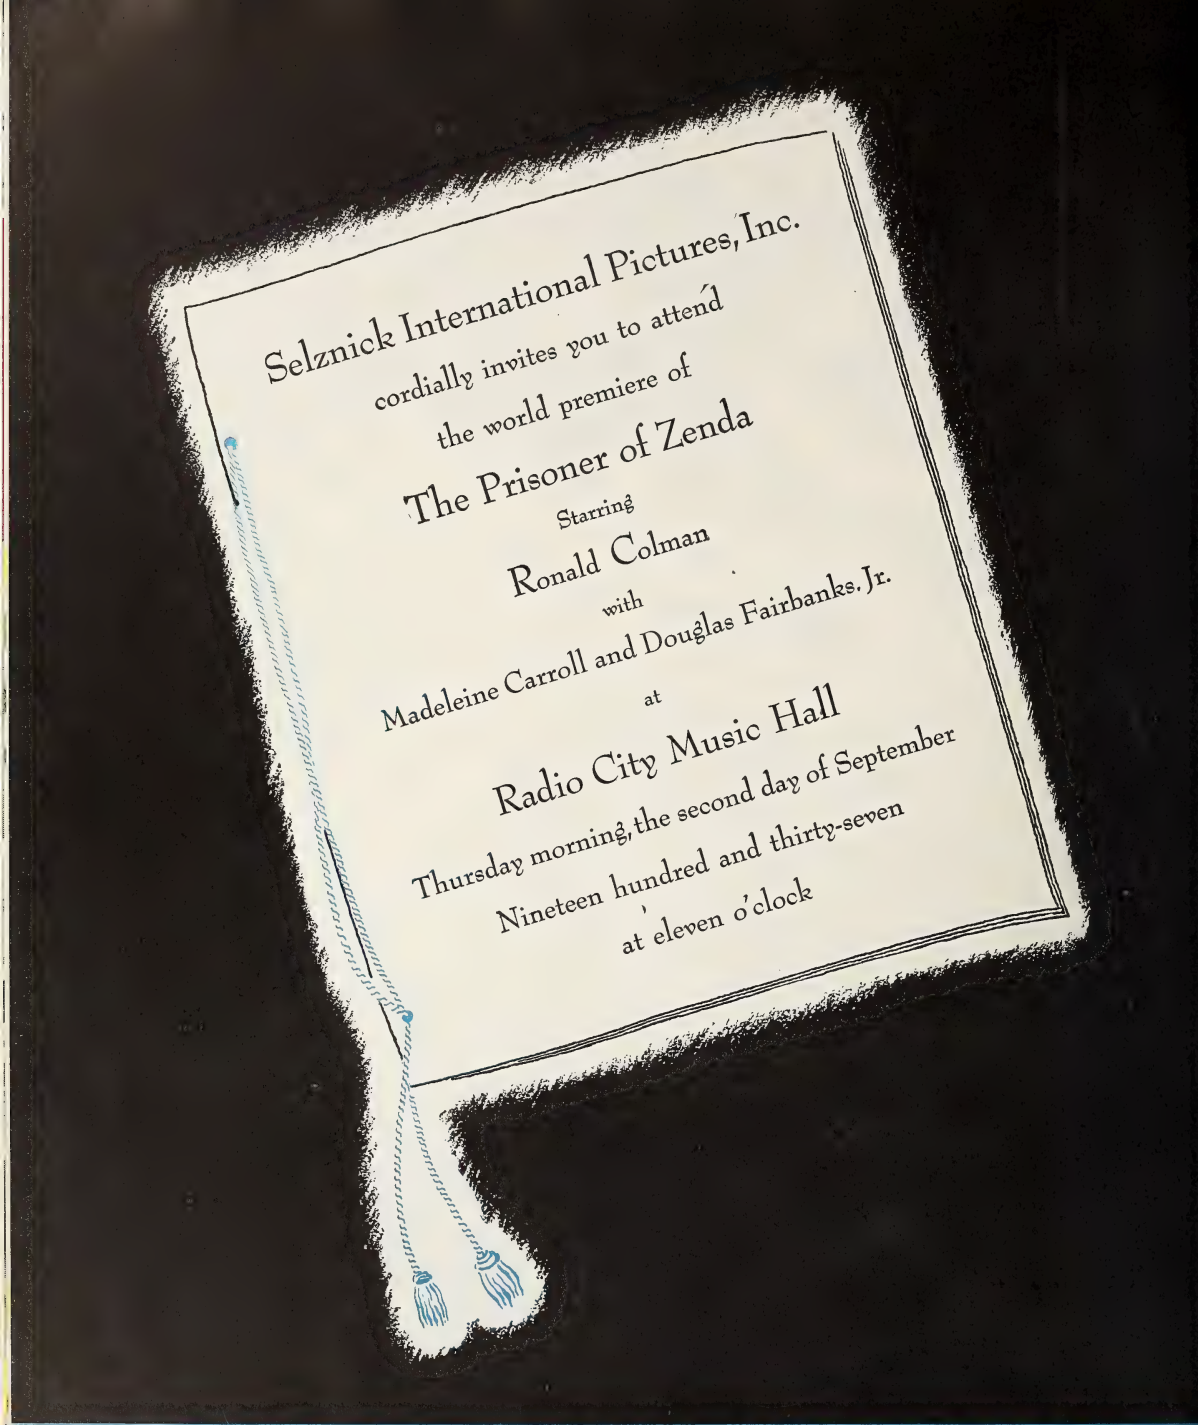
Annapolis Salute (G) 802	James Ellison-Marsha Hunt	Sept.	10,'37†	*60. Aug. 21,'37
Breakfast for Two 737	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall	Oct.	22,'37†
Damsel In Distress, A	Fred Astaire-Joan Fontaine
Don't Forget to Remember 807	Burgess Meredith-Ann Sothern	Oct.	29,'37†
Fit for a King	Joe E. Brown-Helen Mack	Oct.	15,'37†
(See "In the Cuting Room," July 10,'37.)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Forty Naughty Girls 803	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts		Sept.	24,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Here Comes the Groom	John Boles-Ida Lupino
High Fliers	Wheeler and Woolsey
Love in a Basement	James Dunn-Whitney Bourne
Music for Madame 804	Nino Martini-Joan Fontaine		Oct.	8,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Saturday's Heroes 805	Van Heflin-Marian Marsh
Stage Door 806	Kath. Hepburn-Ginger Rogers		Oct.	8,'37†
(See production article, Aug. 14,'37, p. 16.)
Victoria the Great 861	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook		Sept.	17,'37†
Vivacious Lady	Ginger Rogers-James Stewart

STATE RIGHTS



Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Melody of the Plains (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Apr.	15,'37	*55. Apr. 10,'37
Singing Buckaroo, The	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan.	15,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)
Three Legionnaires (G)	Robt. Armstrong	General	June	15,'37	*60. Mar. 27,'37
What Price Vengeance? (G)	Lyle Talbot	Rialto	June	1,'37	57. June 12,'37



Coming

Heroes of the Alamo (G)	Earl Hodgins	Sunset	Aug.	19,'37	*75. Aug. 7,'37
Zamboanga (G)	Native Cast				*65. July 17,'37

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Holiday (G) 754	Jane Withers-Robert Kent	June	4,'37	71. May 8,'37
As You Like It (G) 711	Elis. Bergner-Laurence Olivier	Jan.	8,'37	96. Sept. 19,'36
(See production article, June 13,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 79.)
Banjo On My Knee (G) 726	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Dec.	4,'36	95. Dec. 5,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 88.)
Big Business (G) 759	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	June	18,'37	61. Apr. 17,'37
Born Reckless (G) 758	Rochelle Hudson-Brian Donlevy	July	9,'37	58. June 26,'37
Cafe Metropole (G) 750	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	May	7,'37	83. May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 84.)
Californian, The (G) 753	Ricardo Cortez-Marjorie Weaver	July	16,'37	58. July 10,'37
Can This Be Dixie? (G) 723	Jane Withers-Slim Summerville	Nov.	13,'36	70. Nov. 14,'36
Career Woman (G) 728	Claire Trevor-Michael Whalen	Dec.	18,'36	77. Nov. 28,'36
Charlie Chan at the Olympics 752	Warner Oland-Kath. DeMille	May	21,'37	71
(See "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 6,'37.)
Charlie Chan at the Opera (G) 730	Warner Oland-Boris Karloff	Jan.	8,'37	68. Nov. 29,'36
Crack-Up (G) 727	Peter Lorre-Brian Donlevy	Jan.	15,'37	70. Jan. 16,'37
David Harum (G) 769 (re-Issue)	Will Rogers-Evelyn Venable	May	14,'37	85. Mar. 3,'34
Doctor Bull (G) 768 (re-Issue)	Will Rogers-Marian Nixon	Feb.	5,'37	79. Oct. 14,'36
Fair Warning (G) 740	Betty Furness-John Payne	Mar.	5,'37	68. Jan. 23,'37
Fifty Roads to Town (G) 748	Don Ameche-Ann Sothern	Apr.	16,'37	81. Apr. 3,'37
(Exploitation: May 8,'37, p. 70.)
Great Hospital Mystery, The 751	Sally Blane-Thomas Beck	May	14,'37	59. Mar. 6,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Dead Yesterday.")
Handy Andy (G) 871 (re-Issue)	Will Rogers-Robt. Taylor	Aug.	13,'37†	81. May 8,'34
Holy Terror, The (G) 734	Jane Withers-Anthony Martin	Feb.	5,'37	67. Jan. 9,'37
It Happened Out West 745	Paul Kelly-Judith Allen	May	7,'37	56
King George VI Coronation 870	Technicolor Special	July	15,'37†	28
Lady Escapes, The (G) 747	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	July	23,'37	63. June 5,'37
Laughing at Trouble 724	Jane Darwell-Lois Wilson	Dec.	11,'36	67
(See "Glory," "In the Cutting Room." Oct. 17,'36.)
Lloyds of London (G) 735	F. Bartholomew-M. Carroll	Jan.	29,'37	117. Nov. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 108; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 79, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 65, 71; May 8,'37, p. 74; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Love Is News (G) 729	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	Feb.	26,'37	78. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)
Love Under Fire (G) 803	Loretta Young-Don Ameche	Aug.	20,'37†	75. Aug. 14,'37
Midnight Taxi (G) 744	Brian Donlevy-Frances Drake	Apr.	2,'37	73. Mar. 27,'37
Nancy Steele Is Missing (G) 738	Victor McLaglen-Peter Lorre	Mar.	12,'37	84. Mar. 20,'37
Off to the Races (G) 736	Jed Prouty-Shirley Deane	Feb.	19,'37	57. Jan. 16,'37
On the Avenue (G) 732	Dick Powell-Madeleine Carroll	Feb.	12,'37	89. Feb. 13,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82; June 19,'37, p. 84.)
One in a Million (G) 722	Sonja Henie-Adolphe Menjou	Jan.	1,'37	94. Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82.)
One Mile from Heaven (G) 802	Claire Trevor-Sally Blane	Aug.	13,'37†	68. July 24,'37
Reunion (G) 717	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt	Nov.	20,'36	81. Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 27,'37, pp. 90, 91.)
Secret Valley (G) 731	Richard Arlen-Virginia Grey	Jan.	15,'37	57. Feb. 13,'37
Seventh Heaven (G) 742	Simone Simon-James Stewart	Mar.	26,'37	102. Mar. 27,'37
(Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 84.)
She Had to Eat (G) 757	Rochelle Hudson-Jack Haley	June	11,'37	74. Aug. 7,'37
Sing and Be Happy 756	Anthony Martin-Dixie Dunbar	June	25,'37	64
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Slave Ship (G) 748	Wallace Beery-Warner Baxter	July	2,'37	92. June 19,'37
(See production article, Mar. 13,'37, p. 16.)
Step Lively, Jeeves (G) 739	Arthur Treacher-Patricia Ellis	Apr.	9,'37	69. Jan. 30,'37
Stowaway (G) 725	Shirley Temple-Robt. Young	Dec.	25,'36	86. Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)
That I May Live (G) 755	Rochelle Hudson-Robert Kent	Apr.	30,'37	70. Mar. 6,'37

THE GLAMOUR OF A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN
...THE FASCINATION OF A DARING MAN.....

Or contact your local United Artists' exchange and they will arrange a screening for you

(THE RELEASE CHART--CON'T)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Thin Ice (G) 805	Sonja Henie-Tyrone Power	Sept.	3,'37†	78. Aug. 28,'37
Think Fast, Mr. Moto (G) 804	Peter Lorre-Virginia Field	Aug.	27,'37†	66. Apr. 17,'37
This Is My Affair (G) 721	Barbara Stanwyck-Robt. Taylor	May	28,'37	99.
Time Out for Romance (G) 741	Claire Trevor-Michael Whalen	Mar.	19,'37	72. Feb. 20,'37
Under the Red Robe (G) 743	Conrad Veidt-Annabella	May	21,'37	82. June 12,'37
Under Your Spell (G) 720	Lawrence Tibbett-Wendy Barrie	Nov.	6,'36	63. Nov. 14,'36
Wake Up and Live (G) 749 (Exploitation: July 3,'37, p. 69; July 10,'37, pp. 85, 86.)	Walter Winchell-Ben Bernie	Apr.	23,'37	91. Apr. 17,'37
Wee Willie Winkie (G) 760 (Exploitation: July 10,'37, p. 88; Aug. 7,'37, p. 92.)	Shirley Temple-V. McLaglen	July	30,'37	99. July 3,'37
Western Gold 781 (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Smith Ballew-Heather Angel	Aug.	27,'37†
White Hunter (G) 719 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Warner Baxter-June Lang	Nov.	27,'36	65. Dec. 5,'36
Wild Brian Kent (G) 718	Ralph Bellamy-Mae Clarke	Nov.	6,'36	57. Oct. 31,'36
Wings of the Morning (G) 737	Annabella-Henry Fonda	Feb.	19,'37	87. Mar. 20,'37
Woman-Wise (G) 733	Rochelle Hudson-Michael Whalen	Jan.	22,'37	70. Feb. 13,'37
You Can't Have Everything (G) 801	Alice Faye-Don Ameche	Aug.	3,'37†	99. July 31,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ali Baba Goes to Town (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Eddie Cantor-June Lang	Oct.	29,'37†
Boots and Saddles	Smith Ballew	Oct.	8,'37†
Borneo	Mr. & Mrs. Martin Johnson	Sept.	10,'37†	75½
Borrowing Trouble	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Charlie Chan on Broadway (G)	Warner Oland-Joan Marsh	Oct.	22,'37†	65. Aug. 7,'37
Danger—Love at Work (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Ann Sothern-Jack Haley	Oct.	15,'37†
Dangerously Yours	Cesar Romero-Phyllis Brooks
45 Fathers	Jane Withers-Thomas Beck
Heidi (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	Shirley Temple-Jean Hersholt	Nov.	5,'37†
Hot Water (G)	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	Sept.	24,'37†	58. July 17,'37
In Old Chicago	Tyrone Power-Alice Faye	Dec.	31,'37†
Lancer Spy (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Peter Lorre-Dolores Del Rio	Oct.	8,'37†
Life Begins in College (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Ritz Bros.-Gloria Stuart	Oct.	1,'37†
Look Out, Mr. Moto	Peter Lorre-Rochelle Hudson
Roll Along Cowboy	Smith Ballew-Cecilia Parker
Wife, Doctor and Nurse (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter	Sept.	17,'37†
Wild and Wooly (G)	Jane Withers-Walter Brennan	Sept.	10,'37†	64. July 24,'37

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Accused (A)	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-D. Del Rio	Jan.	8,'37	86. Aug. 8,'36
Beloved Enemy (G)	Merle Oberon-Brian Aherne	Dec.	25,'36	88. Dec. 19,'36
Come and Get It (A) (Exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Nov. 28,'36, p. 99; Dec. 5,'36, pp. 83, 84; Dec. 19,'36, p. 94; Jan. 30,'37, p. 82; Feb. 13,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 82.)	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	Nov.	6,'36	99. Nov. 7,'36
Dark Journey (G)	Vivien Leigh-Conrad Veidt	July	2,'37	82. Mar. 6,'37
Dead End (G)	Sylvia Sidney-Joel McCrea	Aug.	27,'37†	93. Aug. 7,'37
Dreaming Lips (A)	Elis. Bergner-Raymond Massey	Mar	28,'37	78. Mar. 6,'37
Elephant Boy (G) (Exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 96; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Native Cast	Apr.	23,'37	80. Mar. 13,'37
Fire Over England (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 79.)	Laurence Olivier-Flora Robson	Mar.	5,'37	89. Jan. 16,'37
Garden of Allah, The (A) (See production article, June 6,'36, p. 14; exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 76, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 80; Mar. 13,'37, p. 83; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 67, 68, 69.)	Marlene Dietrich-Charles Boyer	Nov.	20,'36	78. Nov. 7,'36
History Is Made at Night (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 64, 71; Apr. 10,'37, pp. 91, 92; Apr. 17,'37, p. 82; Apr. 24,'37, pp. 91, 92; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 8,'37, p. 72; May 22,'37, pp. 88, 90; June 12,'37, p. 93.)	Charles Boyer-Jean Arthur	Apr.	2,'37	97. Mar 13,'37
Knight Without Armour (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78.)	Marlene Dietrich-Robt. Donat	July	23,'37†	107. June 19,'37
Love from a Stranger (A)	Ann Harding-Basil Rathbone	May	14,'37	87. Feb. 13,'37
Man Who Could Work Miracles, The (G)	Roland Young-Jean Gardner	Feb.	19,'37	82. Aug. 22,'36
Men Are Not Gods (A)	Miriam Hopkins-Gert. Lawrence	Jan.	22,'37	82. Jan. 2,'37
Prisoner of Zenda (See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)	Ronald Colman-M. Carroll	Sept.	3,'37†
Rembrandt (G)	Chas. Laughton-Gert. Lawrence	Nov.	27,'36	83. Nov. 21,'36
Star Is Born, A (G) (See production article, Oct. 31,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Dec. 19,'36, p. 88; Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84.)	Janet Gaynor-Fredric March	Apr.	30,'37	111. May 1,'37
Star Is Born, A (G) (Exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 81.)	Barbara Stanwyck-John Boles	Aug.	6,'37†	104. July 31,'37
Walt Disney's Academy Award Revue	5 Award Winners	June	18,'37†	44.
When Thief Meets Thief (A) (Reviewed under the title, "Jump for Glory.")	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-V. Hobson	June	4,'37	87. May 8,'37
Woman Chases Man (G) (See production article, Apr. 17,'37, p. 12; exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 92; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Miriam Hopkins-Joel McCrea	May	7,'37	71. May 1,'37
You Only Live Once (A) (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 80; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 76, 78; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 71; June 26,'37, p. 123; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 21,'37, p. 74.)	Sylvia Sidney-Henry Fonda	Jan.	29,'37	86. Jan. 30,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Action for Slander (A)	Clive Brook-Ann Todd			80. Aug. 14,'37
Adventures of Marco Polo	Gary Cooper-Sigrid Gurie	Nov.	12,'37†
Adventures of Tom Sawyer	Tommy Kelly-Walter Brennan	Oct.	29,'37†
Divorce of Lady X, The	Merle Oberon-Laurence Olivier	Oct.	15,'37†
52nd Street (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Ian Hunter-Pat Paterson	Sept.	24,'37†
Goldwyn Follies, The	Phil Baker-Ritz Bros.	Dec.	25,'37†
Hurricane, The (See production article, Aug. 7,'37, p. 16.)	Dorothy Lamour-Jon Hall	Nov.	10,'37†
I Met My Love Again	Joan Bennett-Henry Fonda	Oct.	8,'37†
Mutiny in the Mountains	Vivien Leigh-Paul Lucas	Nov.	5,'37†
Nothing Sacred (See production article, Aug. 21,'37, p. 16.)	Carole Lombard-Fredric March	Nov.	19,'37†
Stand-In	Leslie Howard-Joan Blondell
Storm in a Teacup (G)	Vivien Leigh-Rex Harrison			82. June 12,'37
Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938 (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 74.)	Warner Baxter-Joan Bennett	Sept.	17,'37†	108. Aug. 7,'37

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Armored Car (G) 1004	Robert Wilcox-Judith Barrett	June	20,'37	64. Aug. 14,'37
As Good as Married (G) 1012	John Boles-Doris Nolan	May	9,'37	81. May 1,'37
Boss Rider of Gun Creek 1042	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Nov.	1,'36	64.
Breezing Home (G) 1035	Binnie Barnes-Wm. Gargan	Jan.	31,'37	64. Mar. 27,'37
California Straight Ahead (G) 1030	John Wayne-Louise Latimer	May	2,'37	67. Apr. 3,'37
Conflict (G) 1036	John Wayne-Jean Rogers	Nov.	29,'36	61. Dec. 5,'36
Empty Saddles (G) 1043	Buck Jones-Louise Brooks	Dec.	20,'36	62. Oct. 24,'36
Flying Hostess (G) 1023 (Exploitation: Dec 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74.)	Judith Barrett-Wm. Hall	Nov.	22,'36	66. Nov. 14,'36
Four Days' Wonder (G) 1019	Jeanne Dante-Kenneth Howell	Jan.	3,'37	80. Jan. 23,'37
Girl Overboard (G) 1021	Gloria Stuart-Walter Pidgeon	Feb.	28,'37	58. May 29,'37
I Cover the War (G) 1016	John Wayne-Gwen Gaze	July	4,'37	68. July 10,'37
Left Handed Law (G) 1045	Buck Jones	Apr.	18,'37	63. May 1,'37
Let Them Live (G) 1035	Nan Grey-John Howard	Apr.	25,'37	73. Apr. 24,'37
Love in a Bungalow (G) 1009	Kent Taylor-Nan Grey	June	27,'37	66. July 10,'37
Love Letters of a Star (A) 1028	Henry Hunter-Polly Rowles	Nov.	8,'36	66. Nov. 14,'36
Luckiest Girl in the World (G) 1014	Jane Wyatt-Louis Hayward	Nov.	15,'36	72. Oct. 31,'36
Man I Marry, The (G) 1026	Doris Nolan-Michael Whalen	Nov.	1,'36	76. Nov. 7,'36
Man in Blue, The (G) 1020	Robert Wilcox-Nan Grey	May	30,'37	67. May 22,'37
Man Who Cried Wolf, The 2023	Tom Brown-Barbara Read	Aug.	29,'37†	66.
Mighty Treve, The (G) 1034	Noah Beery, Jr.-Barbara Read	Jan.	17,'37	69. Apr. 10,'37
Mysterious Crossing (G) 1025	James Dunn-Jean Rogers	Dec.	27,'36	56. Feb. 13,'37
Night Key (G) 1024 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Boris Karloff-Jean Rogers	May	2,'37	67. Apr. 24,'37
Oh, Doctor! (G) 1013 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Edward Everett Horton	May	16,'37	67. Apr. 24,'37
Reported Missing (G)	Wm. Gargan-Jean Rogers	Aug.	15,'37	63. Aug. 7,'37
Road Back, The (G) 1005	Richard Cromwell-John Kline	Aug.	1,'37	103. June 26,'37
Sandflow (G) 1044 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 16; exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 80.)	Buck Jones-Lita Chevret	Feb.	14,'37	58. Feb. 6,'37
She's Dangerous 1031	Cesar Romero-Tala Birell	Jan.	24,'37	68.
Smoke Tree Range 1046	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	June	6,'37	59.
Three Smart Girls (G) 1029 (Exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, pp. 73, 74; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 67; Apr. 10,'37, p. 94; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 80, 82; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 82; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99.)	Deanna Durbin-Ray Milland	Dec.	20,'36	84. Jan. 30,'37
Top of the Town (G) 1007 (See production article, Jan. 23,'37, p. 16; exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 91; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, pp. 86, 87; June 5,'37, p. 70; June 12,'37, p. 92; June 19,'37, pp. 82, 85.)	George Murphy-Doris Nolan	Apr.	18,'37	86. Apr. 3,'37
We Have Our Moments (G) 1017	Sally Eilers-James Dunn	Mar.	28,'37	67. Apr. 3,'37
West Bound Limited 1008	Lyle Talbot-Polly Rowles	July	11,'37	66.
When Love Is Young (G) 1018	Virginia Bruce-Kent Taylor	Apr.	4,'37	76. Apr. 24,'37
Wildcatter, The 1015	Scott Colton-Jean Rogers	June	6,'37	58.
Wings Over Honolulu (G) 1011	Wendy Barrie-Ray Milland	May	23,'37	78. May 15,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure's End	John Wayne-Diana Gibson
Behind the Mike	Wm. Gargan-Judith Barrett	Sept.	26,'37†
Black Aces 2050	Buck Jones-Kay Linaker	Sept.	5,'37†	58.
Blonde Dynamite	Noah Beery, Jr.-Dorothea Kent
Carnival Queen	Dorothea Kent-Robert Wilcox	Oct.	3,'37†
Idol of the Crowds 2037 (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	John Wayne-Judith Barrett	Oct.	10,'37†
Lady Fights Back, The 2025	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Sept.	19,'37†	58.
Law for Tombstone 2051	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Oct.	10,'37†	59.
Merry-Go-Round of 1938 (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Bert Lahr-Alice Brady	Oct.	24,'37†
Mightier Than the Sword	Wendy Barrie-Walter Pidgeon
100 Men and a Girl 2001 (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Deanna Durbin-Adolphe Menjou	Sept.	12,'37†	84.
Sudden Bill Dorn	Buck Jones-Evelyn Brent
That's My Story (See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)	Claudia Morgan-Wm. Lundigan	Oct.	31,'37†
Trouble at Midnight	Noah Beery, Jr.-Cath. Hughes

VICTORY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cheyenne Rides Again	Tom Tyler-Lucille Browne	Jan.	7,'37
Fued of the Trail	Tom Tyler-Harlene Wood	May	1,'37

HERE ARE THE ACTUAL DA
FIRST WEEK AT THE RADIO
CITY MUSIC ~~HALL~~! Haul!

WARNER BAXTER
JOAN BENNETT

in

"Walter Wanger's

Vogues OF 1938"

IN TECHNICOLOR

with

HELEN VINSON • MISCHA AUER • ALAN MOWBRAY • JEROME COWAN

MARJORIE GATESON • DOROTHY McNULTY • ALMA KRUGER • POLLY ROWLES

THE WALTER WANGER MODELS "THE MOST PHOTOGRAPHED GIRLS IN THE WORLD"

Directed by IRVING CUMMINGS

Original Screenplay by Samuel and Bella Spewack • Released thru United Artists

...AND THE FIRST DAY OF SECOND

Y-BY-DAY RECEIPTS OF ITS

WEEK BEAT OPENING DAY BY $379.

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Flying Fists	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	July	1,'37
Mystery Range	Tom Tyler-Jerry Bergh	May	1,'37
Phantom of the Range	Tom Tyler-Beth Marion	Nov.	28,'36
Silks and Saddles	Herman Brix-Toby Wing	Dec.	14,'36
Sky Racketeers	Herman Brix-Joan Barclay	Sept.	1,'37†
Two Minutes to Play	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	Nov.	2,'36

Coming

Brothers of the West	Tom Tyler
Lost Ranch	Tom Tyler
Orphans of the Pecos	Tom Tyler
Roaring Motors	Herman Brix
Winning Stroke, The	Herman Brix

WARNER BROTHERS

(See also First National)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Another Dawn (A) 108	Kay Francis-Errol Flynn	June 26,'37	73	Apr. 10,'37
(See production article, Mar. 6,'37. p. 16.)
Black Legion (A) 108	H. Bogart-E. O'Brien-Moore	Jan. 30,'37	83	Jan. 9,'37
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 80, 83; Mar. 20,'37, p. 82; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 10,'37, p. 95; July 17,'37, p. 89.)
Blazing Sixes 129	Dick Foran-Helen Valkis	June 12,'37	55
California Mail 930	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Nov.	14,'36	56
Call It a Day (G) 113	Olivia de Havilland-I. Hunter	Apr. 17,'37	89	Mar. 13,'37
Charge of the Light Brigade (G) 901	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland	Nov.	7,'36	115 Oct. 24,'36
(See production article, July 25,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 111; Jan. 15,'37, p. 78; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74; Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; Apr. 10,'37, p. 92.)
Devil's Saddle Legion, The 130	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Aug.	14,'37
Fly-Away Baby (G) 125	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	June	19,'37	60 June 12,'37
Footloose Heiress 123	Craig Reynolds-Ann Sheridan	Aug.	21,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)
Fugitive in the Sky (G) 120	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Nov.	28,'36	58 Oct. 31,'36
God's Country and the Woman (G) 105	George Brent-Beverly Roberts	Jan.	16,'37	85 Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, pp. 84, 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 80.)
Go Getter, The (G) 115	George Brent-Anita Louise	May	22,'37	92 June 19,'37
Great O'Malley, The (G) 110	Pat O'Brien-Sybil Jason	Feb.	13,'37	71 Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)
Kid Galahad (G) 102	Edw. G. Robinson-Bette Davis	May	29,'37	101 May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64.)
King and the Chorus Girl (G) 104	Fernand Gravet-Joan Blondell	Mar.	27,'37	95 Mar. 6,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; June 26,'37, p. 118.)
King of Hockey (G) 121	Anne Nagel-Richard Purcell	Dec.	19,'36	55 Nov. 14,'36
Land Beyond the Law 128	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Mar.	13,'37	54
Marry the Girl (G) 116	Hugh Herbert-Mary Boland	July	1,'37	68 Aug. 14,'37
Melody for Two (G) 117	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	May	1,'37	60 Jan. 16,'37
Midnight Court (G) 124	Ann Dvorak-John Litel	Mar.	6,'37	60 Mar. 13,'37
One Way Passage (G)	Kay Francis-William Powell	Dec.	12,'36	69 July 30,'32
(Reissue)
Polo Joe (G) 111	Joe E. Brown-Carol Hughes	Dec.	5,'36	65 Sept. 26,'36
Public Wedding 126	Jane Wyman-William Hopper	July	10,'37	58
Ready, Willing and Able (G)	Lee Dixon-Ruby Keeler	Mar.	6,'37	93 Feb. 6,'37
(Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 78.)
Singing Marine, The (G) 101	Dick Powell-Doris Weston	July	3,'37	105 July 10,'37
(Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80.)
Slim (G) 114	Pat O'Brien-Henry Fonda	June	12,'37	80 July 3,'37
Smart Blonde (G) 122	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Jan.	2,'37	59 Dec. 5,'36
Varsity Show (G)	Dick Powell-Fred Waring	Sept.	4,'37†	*120 Aug. 21,'37
(See production article, July 24,'37, p. 16.)
White Bondage (G) 125	Jean Muir-Gordon Oliver	June	19,'37	60 Mar. 13,'37

Coming

Adventures of Robin Hood	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland
Don't Pull Your Punches (G) 123	Barton MacLane-June Travis *80 Jan. 30,'37
Expensive Husbands	Beverly Roberts-Patric Knowles
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Love Is On the Air	Ronald Regan-June Travis
Missing Witnesses	Dick Powell-Jean Dale
One More Tomorrow	Dick Foran-June Travis
Over the Goal	William Hopper-June Travis
Patient in Room 18, The	Ann Sheridan-Patric Knowles
Perfect Specimen, The	Errol Flynn-Joan Blondell
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)
Sh! the Octopus	Hugh Herbert-Marcia Ralston
She Loved a Fireman	Dick Foran-Ann Sheridan
Submarine D-1	Pat O'Brien-George Brent
They Won't Forget (A)	Gloria Dickson-Claude Rains *90 June 19,'37
(See production article, "The Deep South," May 8,'37, p. 16.)
Tonight's Our Night	Claudette Colbert-Charles Boyer
Wine, Women and Horses (G)	Barton MacLane-Ann Sheridan Sept. 11,'37† 64 July 24,'37
Without Warning 218	Boris Karloff-Marie Wilson

WILLIAM STEINER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
From Nine to Nine	Ruth Roland-Roland Drew	Dec. 21,'36	6 rls.
I Cover Chinatown	Norman Foster	Nov. 18,'36	7 rls.
Masquerade in Vienna (A)	Paula Wessely	Jan. 28,'37	95 Feb. 13,'37

WORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	Mar. 31,'37	79
Slalom (G)	Skiing Film	Dec. 15,'36	60 Jan. 23,'37
Trene Populare	Italian Feature	Dec. 25,'36	62

Coming

Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe
Aurora Sul Mare	Italian Feature 67
Chanson D'Amour	Tito Schipa
Itte	Simone Berriau
Life and Loves of Beethoven	Harry Baur
Love on Skis	Walter Rimil
Monks, The
Ninety Degrees South	Antarctic Film
Second Bureau	Jean Murat-Diana Korene
Secrets of Stamboul	Valerie Hobson 79
Ski Chase	Sept. 1,'37† 84
Street Without a Name	Constant Remy-Pola Illary
Song of Ceylon	Basil Wright 39
Tendre Ennemie	Simone Berriau

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Pit, The (A)	Amedo Nazzari			June	26,'37
Amphytrion (A)	Henri Garat	Globe	Mar. 23,'37	103 Apr.	3,'37
Beethoven Concerto (G)	V. Gardin	Amkino	Mar. 23,'37	90 Apr.	10,'37
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	British Lion		73 July	10,'37
Carnival in Flanders (A) (Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")	Francoise Rosay	American Tobis	Sept. 22,'36	98 Oct.	5,'36
Dominant Sex, The (A)	Phillips Holmes	Assoc. British		82 Feb.	26,'37
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	British I. E. Co.		80 Aug.	14,'37
Emil Und Die Detektive	Fritz Rasp	International		77
Episode (A)	Paula Wessely	Metropolis	May 15,'37	90 June	5,'37
Eternal Mask, The (A)	Mathias Wieman	Mayer-Burstyn	Jan. 12,'37	70 Jan.	23,'37
Farewell Again (G)	Leslie Banks	United Artists		80 May	22,'37
Flying Doctor, The (G)	Charles Farrell	20th Century-Fox		92 Dec.	19,'36
Fury Over Spain (G)		Modern Film		55 Aug.	14,'37
Gang Show, The (G)	Ralph Reader	General		May	1,'37
Glamorous Night (G)	Mary Ellis	Assoc. British		80 May	15,'37
Gobsek (A)	Leonid Leonidov	Amkino		74 Aug.	14,'37
Golem, The (A)	Harry Baur	Metropolis	Mar. 20,'37	88 Mar.	27,'37
Great Call, The (G)	Camille Pilotto	United Artists		90 Dec.	5,'36
Gypsy (A)	Roland Varno	Warner		Feb.	13,'37
It Isn't Done (G)	Cecil Kellaway	British Empire		90 Mar.	27,'37
It's You I Want (A)	Seymour Hicks	British Lion		70 Nov.	21,'36
Janosik (G) (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 86.)	Pale Bielik	French	Nov. 24,'36	82 Dec.	5,'36
Kimiko (A)	Sachiko Chiba	International	Apr. 12,'37	73 Apr.	24,'37
King's People, The (G)	John Drinkwater	Mindlin	May 11,'37	70 May	22,'37
La Damigella di Bard (G)	E. Gammatica	Artisti		85 Jan.	9,'37
La Grande Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	Realization d'Art Cinematographique		120 July	3,'37
Last Night, The (G)	I. R. Peltser	Amkino	Apr. 27,'37	90 May	8,'37
Late Mattia Pascal, The (A)	Pierre Blanchar			Apr.	10,'37
Les Petits (G)	Alice Tissot	France-American	Dec. 29,'36	90 Jan.	23,'37
Let's Make a Night of It	Buddy Rogers	Assoc. British		80 July	10,'37
Mademoiselle Docteur (A)	Dita Parlo	United Artists		105 May	1,'37
Merry Comes to Town (G)	Zasu Pitts	Sound City		77 June	5,'37
Mill on the Floss, The (G)	Frank Lawton	National		90 Feb.	13,'37
Moonlight Sonata (G)	Paderewski	United Artists		90 Mar.	13,'37
Ora Penciane (G)	Chucho Selorzano	Prod. Soria		105 May	15,'37
Orphan of the Wilderness	Gwen Munro	British Empire	Jan. 20,'37	85 Mar.	6,'37
Our Fighting Navy (G)	H. B. Warner	General		75 May	8,'37
Pagliacci (G) (See production article, Jan. 9,'37, p. 16.)	Richard Tauber	United Artists		90 Feb.	6,'37
Pearls of the Crown (A)	Sascha Guitry	Tobis		115 June	5,'37
Pepe Le Moko (A)	Jean Gabin	Paris Film		100 Mar.	20,'37
Prisoners (G)	A. I. Chaban	Amkino	Feb. 16,'37	93 Feb.	27,'37
Pygmalion (G)	Lily Bouwmeester	Filmex Cinetone		Apr.	17,'37
Razumov (G)	Pierre Fresnay	Garrison	Mar. 8,'37	95 Mar.	27,'37
Revolutionists (G)	V. V. Schukin	Amkino	Dec. '36	100 Feb.	6,'37
"Said O'Reilly to McNab" (G)	Will Mahoney	Gainsborough-GB		84 July	17,'37
Sensation (A)	John Lodge	Wardour		75 Jan.	23,'37
Silver Blaze (G)	Arthur Wontner	Assoc. British		70 July	17,'37
Sol Over Danmark (G)	Henrik Malberg		Apr. 13,'37	73 Apr.	24,'37
Southern Mail (A)	Richard-Wilm	Solar		100 Feb.	20,'37
Spain in Flames (A)		Amkino	Jan. 28,'37	63 Feb.	13,'37
Thank You, Madam (G)	Jan Kiepura	American Tobis	Apr. 25,'37	85 May	1,'37
Thirteen, The (A)	Ivan Novoseltsev	Amkino		85 July	17,'37
30 Seconds of Love (G)	Elsa Merlini	E. J. A.		80 Jan.	2,'37
This'll Make You Whistle (A)	Jack Buchanan	Wilcox		78 Jan.	9,'37
Tsar to Lenin (A)		Lenauer Intern'l	Mar. 6,'37	68 Mar.	27,'37
Wave, The (G)	Native Cast	Garrison	Apr. 20,'37	60 May	1,'37
White Squadron (G)	Antonio Centa	E. N. I. C.		85 Dec.	26,'36
World's In Love, The (A)	Marta Eggerth	Viennese	May 18,'37	90 May	29,'37
Yiddle with His Fiddle	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Dec. 31,'36

WE THOUGHT LAST WEEK WAS BIG... THIS WEEK IT'S terrific!

The "success story" of a great picture sweeping the country

... Now in general release!

BOX-OFFICE RECORDS ARE WRITING THIS ADVERTISING

ASK THESE EXHIBITORS

Hal Neides wires from

FRISCO

"HORIZON" SMASHES ALL ORPHEUM THEATRE OPENINGS . . . BUILDING SENSATIONALLY! THIS IN FACE OF 12-WEEK ROAD-SHOW THERE!

George Landers flashes from

HARTFORD

THAT BUSINESS AT LOEW'S IS TOPS, WHICH IS AMAZING IN VIEW OF THE PREVIOUS SMASH ROAD-SHOW ENGAGEMENT IN THIS TOWN!

OPENING TWICE AS BIG AS "DEEDS"!

WITH A SECOND DAY STILL BIGGER IS THE GRAND AND GLORIOUS NEWS COMING FROM THE . . . .
—Palace, Worcester, Mass.

Walter E. Stanzel declares in

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

S.R.O. SMASH IN SPITE OF RAINY WEATHER! CROWDS ACCLAIM PICTURE AS MAGNIFICENT!

"DEEDS" TOPPED BY 100 PERCENT!

AND BUSINESS BUILDING HANDSOMELY ARE THE GLAD TIDINGS IN A WIRE FROM THE . . .
—Palace, Youngstown, Ohio

THESE ARE ONLY THE FIRST ENGAGEMENTS OF THIS PICTURE

WHO HAVE PLAYED IT!

Ed Miller comes through from

CLEVELAND

WITH THE NEWS THAT THE OPENING AT THE HIPPODROME WAS A SMASH, WITH SUBSEQUENT RECEIPTS TOPPING UNFORGETTABLE "MR. DEEDS"!

Al Sobler announces from

SAN DIEGO

THAT SENSATIONAL GROSSES 25 PERCENT GREATER THAN "DEEDS" WERE PILED UP AT THE SPRECKLES WHICH PLAYED THE ROAD-SHOW!

FRANK CAPRA'S MIGHTIEST PRODUCTION RONALD COLMAN

LOST HORIZON

JANE WYATT · JOHN HOWARD · MARGO · THOMAS MITCHELL
EDW. EVERETT HORTON · ISABEL JEWELL · H. B. WARNER · SAM JAFFE

From the novel by James Hilton • Screen play by ROBERT RISKIN • A Columbia Picture

NEW-STYLE CHAPTER PLAY SMASH IN ACE . . . FIRST-RUN THEATRE!

BALTIMORE FIRST-RUN

HIPPODROME
THEATRE
BALTIMORE .. MARYLAND

August 19th, 1937

Columbia Pictures Corp.
729 Seventh Avenue
New York City

Dear Sirs:

I know that you will be gratified to learn of the tremendous opening we got here Saturday morning, August 14th, for the first chapter of "Jungle Menace", and I am enclosing herewith photographs which are self-explanatory.

In conjunction with our regular Saturday morning shows, we advertised the showing of the serial for 9:15 A.M. Saturday morning. We opened the cash box at 8:30 A.M. and by 9:05 A.M. had sold 1700 admissions.

The first chapter was very well received and I am quite confident that the interest and drawing power will be sustained throughout the serial.

If you will recall, I was very hesitant about putting the serial in here, as I did not think that a first-run, down-town house was the place for it, but I am glad I changed my mind and put it in.

Sincerely yours,

I.M.Rappaport

FRANK BUCK
in Jungle Menace

with

SASHA SIEMEL
The Tiger Man

REGINALD DENNY • CHARLOTTE HENRY • ESTHER RALSTON • WILLIAM BAKEWELL • CLARENCE MUSE

A Columbia Picture

Produced by Louis Weiss

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-1-36) August 1, 1936.]

CELEBRITY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
COMICOLOR CARTOONS
Happy Days	Sept.30,'36

COLUMBIA

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
BROADWAY COMEDIES
Ay Tank Ay Go (1-23-37) (All Star)	Dec. 4,'36	16½
Back to the Woods (3 Stooges)	May 14,'37	19½
Bury the Hatchet (8-21-37)	Aug. 6,'37	19
Calling All Doctors	July 22,'37	19½
Dizzy Doctors (4-17-37) (3 Stooges)	Mar. 19,'37	17½
Fibbing Fibbers (12-5-36) Walter Catlett	Oct. 19,'36	18
Free Rent (1-30-37) (All Star)	Dec. 20,'36	18
From Bad to Worse Charlie Chase	June 4,'37	17
Goofs and Saddles	July 2,'37	17½
Grand Hooter (6-5-37) Charlie Chase	May 7,'37	19½
Grips, Grunts and Groans (3 Stooges) (3-27-37)	Jan. 15,'37	19
Knee Action (2-27-37) Andy Clyde	Jan. 9,'37	17
Ledge Night Andy Clyde	June 11,'37	18
Love Comes to Mooneyville (1-2-37)	Nov. 14,'36	18
My Little Feller Andy Clyde	May 21,'37	18
New News (4-17-37) (Collins-Kennedy)	Apr. 1,'37	17½
Oh, Duchess (11-21-36) Polly Moran	Oct. 9,'36	17
Sailor Maid Polly Moran	Feb. 12,'37	19
Slippery Silks (2-20-37) (3 Stooges)	Dec. 27,'36	17½
Stuck in the Sticks Andy Clyde	Mar. 26,'37	18
Super Snooper, The El Brendel	Feb. 25,'37	19½
Three Dumb Clucks (3 Stooges)	Apr. 17,'37	17
Wrong Miss Wright, The Charlie Chase	June 18,'37	17
COLOR RHAPSODIES
Birds in Love (11-14-36)	Oct. 28,'36	7½
Bon Bon Parade	Nov. 26,'36	8½
Boy and His Dog, A (1-9-37)	Dec. 23,'36	7
Foxy Pup, The (6-5-37)	May 21,'37	6½
Gifts from the Air	Jan. 1,'37	7½
Indian Serenade	July 16,'37	8
Let's Go (4-17-37)	Apr. 10,'37	7½
Merry Mannequins	Mar. 19,'37	6½
Merry Mutineers (11-7-36)	Oct. 2,'36	7
Mother Hen's Holiday	May 7,'37	7
Novelty Shop, The (9-5-36)	Aug. 15,'36	7
Scary Crows	Aug. 20,'37
Skeleton Frolic (2-20-37)	Jan. 29,'37	7½
Spring Festival (8-21-37)	Aug. 6,'37	8
Stork Takes a Holiday, The	June 11,'37	8
Swing, Monkey, Swing	Sept. 10,'37
Two Lazy Crows (11-28-36)	Nov. 26,'36	7
COLUMBIA TOURS
Gold Quest of the Ages (2-27-37)	Jan. 28,'37	10
Fifty Years of Barter	May 28,'37	9½
Haiti's Black Napoleon (8-21-37)	Aug. 6,'37	9
Pirate Parts of the Caribbean	July 2,'37	9
When the West Was Young (3-20-37)	Mar. 12,'37	9
COURT OF HUMAN RELATIONS
Runaway Marriage, The (1-16-37)	Dec. 18,'36	11
Wedding Deal, The	Feb. 26,'37	11½
FEATURETTES
Community Sing (No. 1) (2-27-37)	Jan. 17,'37	10
Community Sing (No. 2)	Feb. 19,'37	11
Community Sing (No. 3) (6-5-37)	May 20,'37	10
Community Sing (No. 4)	June 18,'37	10½
Community Sing (No. 5)	July 24,'37	10½
Herald of the Skies	Apr. 2,'37	9½
Story of Norton I, Emperor of the United States (2-6-37)	Dec. 18,'36	9
HAPPY HOUR
Goose Girl, The	May 30,'37	3 rls.
Old Woman in the Woods, The	Apr. 23,'37	3 rls.
KRAZY KAT CARTOONS
15. Krazy's Newsreel (11-7-36)	Oct. 24,'36	7
16. Merry Cafe (1-23-37)	Dec. 26,'36	7
17. Lyin' Hunter, The (3-27-37)	Feb. 12,'37	7
18. Krazy's Race of Time (6-26-37)	May 6,'37	7
19. Masque Raid, The	June 25,'37	7
NEW WORLD OF SPORT SERIES
Fishing Thrills (2-13-37)	Jan. 22,'37	9
Fit to Win (6-12-37)	May 7,'37	9½
Fleet Hoofs (4-17-37)	Mar. 5,'37	10
Fun in the Water (4-17-37)	Apr. 10,'37	10
Future Stars	Aug. 30,'37
Golf Magic	Aug. 16,'37
Plane Devils (1-9-37)	Nov. 28,'36	9½
Riding the Waves	June 4,'37	10
Scrambled Legs (3-27-37)	Feb. 22,'37	9
Skiing Is Believing (11-14-36)	Oct. 26,'36	10
Sport of the Seasons	June 25,'37	9
Sport's Greatest Thrills (8-21-37)	Aug. 3,'37	9
SCRAPPY CARTOONS
I Want to Be an Actress	Nov. 28,'36	7
Dizzy Ducks (12-19-36)	July 18,'37	6½
Puttin' Out the Kitten	Mar. 26,'37	7
Scrappy's Band Concert	Apr. 29,'37	7
Scrappy's Music Lesson	June 4,'37	7
SCREEN SNAPSHOTS (New Series)
No. 2—(11-21-36)	Oct. 23,'36	10
No. 3—(1-9-37)	Nov. 28,'36	10
No. 4—(2-6-37)	Dec. 18,'36	10
No. 5—(2-27-37)	Jan. 22,'37	10
No. 6—	Feb. 19,'37	10
No. 7—	Mar. 23,'37	9½
No. 8—(5-29-37)	Apr. 30,'37	9½
No. 9—	May 22,'37	10
No. 10—	June 4,'37	9
No. 11—	June 25,'37	10½
No. 12—	Aug. 13,'37
No. 13—	Sept. 10,'37
SPECIAL
Belgium (3-6-37)	Dec. 25,'36	8½
Castle Town of France (2-20-37)	Nov. 1,'36	8½
Old Paris and Berne (2-20-37)	Dec. 18,'36	8½

DuWORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Story of the Rose, A (1-16-37)		10
Sus-Ti Ka (12-19-36)		10
Utah Picture Book (1-9-37)		10

EDUCATIONAL
[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
SONG AND COMEDY HITS
Dental Follies (4-10-37)	Feb. 26,'37	11
Gifts in Rhythm	Oct. 23,'36	10
Pink Lemonade (9-24-36)	Sept.18,'36	11
Play! Girls	Nov. 6,'36	11
Pot Luck (8-14-37)	Aug. 6,'37	11
See Uncle Sol (2-6-37)	Jan. 29,'37	11
Strike! You're Out (1-9-37)	Dec. 11,'36	11
TERRY-TOONS
Big Game Hunt, The	Feb. 19,'37	7
Book Shop, The (1-30-37)	Feb. 5,'37	6
Bug Carnival (4-17-37)	Apr. 16,'37	7
Bully Frog, A (10-10-36)	Sept.18,'36	6
Cleaning Day	Sept.17,'37	1 rl.
Farmer Al Falfa in the Health Farm	Sept. 4,'36	6
Farmer Al Falfa in Trailer Life	Aug.20,'37	6
Farmer Al Falfa's Twentieth Anniversary	Nov. 27,'36	7
Flying South	Mar. 19,'37	7
Homeless Pup, The	July 23,'37	7
Kike Foils the Fox (11-7-36)	Oct. 2,'36	6
Kiko the Kangaroo in a Battle Royal (11-21-36)	Oct. 30,'36	7
Kiko the Kangaroo in Skunked Again	Dec. 29,'36	7
Hay Ride, The	Apr. 2,'37	6
Mechanical Cow, The	June 25,'37	7
Ozzie Ostrich Comes to Town	May 28,'37	7
Paper Hangers, The (8-14-37)	July 30,'37	7
Pink Elephants	July 9,'37	7
Play Ball	June 11,'37	6
Puddy the Pup in Cats in a Bag (12-26-36)	Dec. 11,'36	7
Puddy's Coronation	May 14,'37	7
Puddy the Pup in Sunken Treasures	Oct. 16,'36	6
Red Hot Music	Mar. 5,'37	6
Robin Hood in an Arrow Escape (11-21-36)	Nov. 13,'36	7
Salty McGuire	Jan. 6,'37	7
School Birds	Apr. 30,'37	7
Tin Can Tourist, The (2-6-37)	Jan. 22,'37	7
Villain Still Pursued Her, The	Sept. 3,'37	1 rl.
TREASURE CHEST
Chesapeake Bay Retriever, The (12-26-36)	Dec. 13,'36	11
Crystal Ballet	May 28,'37	11
Feminine Form (8-29-36)	Aug. 7,'36	10
How to Ski	Aug.20,'37	11
Krazi-Inventions (10-31-36)	Oct. 9,'36	11
Legend of the Lei (1-2-37)	Dec. 4,'36	11
Nature's Songsters (9-23-36)	Sept. 4,'36	8
Ornamental Swimming	June 4,'37	10
Private Life of the Gannets	Sept.10,'37
Songs of the Danube	May 7,'37	9
Sports in the Alps (10-10-36)	Sept.11,'36	9
Symphony in Snow (11-7-36)	Oct. 16,'36	9
TWO-REEL COMEDIES
Affairs of Pierre, The (7-31-37)	Aug. 6,'37	19
Amuse Yourself	Nov. 27,'36	20
Any Old Port (1-2-37)	Nov. 6,'36	18
Bashful Ballerina	Sept.17,'37
Big Courtship, The	Feb. 19,'37	17
Chemist, The (9-24-36)	Oct. 9,'36	19
Comic Artist's Home Life (4-3-37)	Apr. 9,'37	18
Ditto	Feb. 12,'37	17
Freshies	May 7,'37	17
Fun's Fun (2-6-37)	Feb. 5,'37	19
Girls Ahoy!	June 11,'37	17
Hamlet and Eggs	June 18,'37	16
Her Accidental Hero	May 21,'37	17
High-C Honeymoon	Jan. 1,'37	21
His Pest Girl	Apr. 30,'37	18
Hi-ya Doc?	Apr. 23,'37	20
Holding the Bag	May 14,'37	19
Hold It	Jan. 29,'37	17
Jail Bait	Jan. 8,'37	19
Just the Type	Dec. 4,'36	20
Love in Arms	May 28,'37	18
Love Nest on Wheels	Mar. 26,'37	18
Man to Man	Feb. 26,'37	17
Melody Girl	Apr. 16,'37	17
Mixed Magic (12-9-36)	Nov. 20,'36	17
Modern Home (11-28-36)	Nov. 13,'36	19
Montague the Magnificent (8-14-37)	Aug. 27,'37	17
Off the Horses (4-10-37)	Mar. 5,'37	19
Pixilated	Mar. 19,'37	18
Practically Perfect (1-30-37)	Jan. 15,'37	21
Rah Rah Rhythm (11-21-36)	Oct. 23,'36	18
Ready to Serve (4-10-37)	Mar. 12,'37	15
Screen Test, The (12-19-36)	Dec. 13,'36	19
Slacks Appeal	Aug. 13,'37	19
Smart Way, The	Sept. 3,'37	15
Spring Is Here	Oct. 30,'36	20
Sweeties	Sept. 3,'37	15
That's the Spirit	June 25,'37	17
Timid Ghost, The	Sept.24,'37
Transatlantic Love	Dec. 25,'36	20
Uncle Sol Solves It
Who's Crazy?	Aug. 20,'37
Whose Baby Are You? (11-7-36)	Oct. 2,'36	18
Will You Stop!	Sept.10,'37

HOFFBERG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baltimore, Home of Wally Simpson
Bamboo (5-29-37)	July 16,'37	10
Broadway Dance Parade	June 15,'37	10
Busy Spots in Florida	Jan. 20,'37	12
Floridian Curiosities (5-29-37)	Jan. 10,'37	11
Hollywood Magic (5-29-37)		10
In Shanghai (6-5-37)	July 16,'37	12
Isle of Paradise	July 30,'37	20
Spanish Interlude, A	June 15,'37
Sport of Flying	Sept.12,'36

IMPERIAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
EDGAR GUEST POETIC GEMS
Boyhood		8
Old Prospector, The		8
Early in the Mornin'		8
NOVELTIES
Nero		8
Hobo Hero		9
PORT O' CALL
City of the Sun		9
Last Resort		9
Seventh Wonder		9
WORLD IN COLOR
Beneath Coral Seas		8
Dream Harbor		8
Under the Southern Cross		8

MGM

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
CRIME DOESN'T PAY
No. 9—Torture Money (2-27-37)	Jan. 2,'37	20
No. 10—It May Happen to You (8-14-37)	June 5,'37	21
No. 11—Soak the Poor	Aug.21,'37	16
FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS
Colorful Bombay (5-8-37)		8
Colorful Islands (1-2-37)	Nov. 14,'36	9
Glimpses of Java and Ceylon (4-10-37)	Mar. 6,'37	9
Floral Japan	July 24,'37	8
Glimpses of Peru
Hong Kong, Hub of China (6-26-37)	May 1,'37	8
India on Parade	Feb. 6,'37	9
Oriental Paradise	Nov. 14,'36	8
Picturesque South Africa (2-20-37)	Jan. 9,'37	9
Quaint Quebec	Sept.12,'36	9
Rocky Mountain Grandeur (7-24-37)	June 26,'37	8
Serene Siam (6-26-37)	May 29,'37	9
Yellowstone Park (12-19-36)	Oct. 24,'36	9
HARMAN-ISING (Happy Harmonies)
26—Pups' Christmas (12-26-36)	Dec. 12,'36	8
27—Circus Daze	Jan. 16,'37	9
28—Swing Wedding	Feb. 13,'37	8
29—Bosko's Easter Eggs (4-3-37)	Mar. 20,'37	8
30—Bosko and the Pirates (5-8-37)	May 1,'37	8
31—Hound and the Rabbit, The (6-26-37)	May 29,'37	8
32—Wayward Pups (8-14-37)	July 10,'37	9
No. 33—Bosko and the Cannibals	Aug. 28,'37	10
M-G-M MINIATURES
Great American Pie Company	Nov. 9,'36	11
Have Courage (7-24-37)	June 12,'37	10
Hollywood: Second Step (2-20-37)	Dec. 5,'36	10
How to Be a Detective (1-23-37)	Oct. 17,'36	9
How to Vote (9-5-36)	Sept. 5,'36	10
Pacific Paradise
Romance of Digestion	Mar. 13,'37	11
What Do You Think?	Jan. 23,'37	10
MUSICAL COMEDIES
Carnival in Paris (6-26-37)	May 29,'37	21
Girl's Best Years, A (2-20-37)	Dec. 25,'37	19
Hollywood Party (5-8-37)	Apr. 3,'37	21
No Place Like Rome (11-7-36)	Sept.26,'36	19
Some Time Soon (4-10-37)	Mar. 6,'37	20
Violets in Spring (9-5-36)	Sept. 5,'36	21
OUR GANG
Fishy Tales	Aug. 28,'37
Glove Taps (4-10-37)	Feb. 20,'37	11
Hearts Are Thumps	Apr. 3,'37	11
Night 'n' Gales	July 24,'37	11
Reunion In Rhythm	Jan. 9,'37	11
Roamin' Holiday (7-31-37)	June 12,'37	11
Rushin' Ballet (6-26-37)	Apr. 24,'37	11
Spooky Hooky (3-6-37)	Dec. 5,'36	11
Three Smart Boys (5-8-37)	Mar. 13,'37	11
Two Too Young (11-7-36)	Sept.26,'36	10

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title Rel. Date Min.

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Star-Rae's Night Out.....Feb. 27,'37..10....
Dexterity (2-27-37) .....Jan. 16,'37..9....
Equestrian Acrobatics .....Aug. 14,'37..8....
Gliding the Lily.....Feb. 6,'37..8....
Golf Mistakes (6-26-37)....June 12,'37..10....
Grand Bounce, The
(6-26-37) .....May 22,'37..11....
Hurling (1-9-37) .....Nov. 14,'36..10....
Olympic Ski Champions
(11-7-36) .....July 3,'37..10....
Penny Wisdom (5-8-37)....Apr. 10,'37..10....
Pigskin Champions .....Aug. 14,'37.....
Ski Skill (4-10-37).....10....
(Reviewed under the title, "Ski Thrill")
Sports on Ice.....July 24,'37..10....
Tennis Tactics (5-8-37)....May 1,'37..10....
Wanted—A Master (1-2-37) .Dec. 26,'36..10....
ROBERT BENCHLEY
How to Start the Day.....10....
SPECIAL
Servant of the People
(3-20-37) .....Apr. 9,'37..21....
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 87.)
TABLOID MUSICALS
Bars and Stripes (5-8-37)..Feb. 20,'37..11....
Dancing on the Ceiling....Jan. 2,'37..9....
Little Maestro (4-17-37)...Mar. 27,'37..11....
Song of Revolt (7-24-37)...May 29,'37..11....
Swing Bandltry (9-5-36)...Sept.19,'36..11....

PARAMOUNT

Title Rel. Date Min.

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Be Human .....Nov. 20,'36..7....
Candid Candidate, The.... Aug. 27,'37†..1 rl..
Ding Dong Doggie.....July 23,'37†..7....
Grampy's Indoor Outing.. .Oct. 16,'36..7....
House Cleaning Blues.....Jan. 15,'37..7....
Hot Air Salesman, The
(3-20-37) .....Mar. 12,'37..7....
Impractical Joker, The
(7-3-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
Making Friends .....Dec. 18,'36..7....
Pudgy Takes a Bow-Wow...Apr. 9,'37..7....
Pudgy Picks a Fight
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37..8....
Service With a Smile.....Sept.24,'37†..7....
Whoops! I'm a Cowboy.....Feb. 12,'37..7....
COLOR CLASSICS
Bunny-Mooning (3-13-37)..Feb. 12,'37..7....
Car-Tune Portrait, A
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37..7....
Chicken a la King.....Apr. 16,'37..8....
Christmas Comes But Once
a Year .....Dec. 4,'36..8....
Peeping Penguins .....Aug. 27,'37†..7....
Play Safe .....Oct. 16,'36..7....
HEADLINERS
Blue Velvet Music.....Apr. 9,'37..10....
Mark Warnow and Orch.
Frimi Favorites (7-3-37)..June 4,'37..11....
Rudolf Frimi, Jr., and Orch.
Hollywood Star Reporter,
No. 2 .....Oct. 29,'37†..1 rl..
Hula Heaven .....Oct. 1,'37†1.. .
Eddie Peabody
Installment Collector, The...July 24,'37..10....
Fred Allen
Let's Go Latin.....Sept.10,'37†11....
Xavier Cugat and Orch.
Musical Charmers .....Oct. 9,'36..11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Music by Morgan.....Feb. 12,'37..11....
Russ Morgan and Orch.
Music, Music Everywhere...Dec. 18,'36..11....
Clyde Lucas and Orch.
Night in Manhattan.....July 30,'37..11....
Queen of Harmony .....Aug. 20,'37†11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Rah, Rah, Football.....Oct. 30,'36..10....
Will Osborne and Orch.
Song Hits on Parade.....Jan. 15,'37..10....
Freddie Rich & Orch.
Star Reporter in Hollywood
(11-21-37) .....Nov. 20,'36..9....
Ted Husing-Bennie Bartlett-Dorothy Lamour
Star Reporter, The, No. 2
(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,'37..11....
Vincent Lopez and Orch.
Boswell Sisters
Swing, Hutton, Swing.....May 7,'37..11....
Ina Ray Hutton and Orch.
MUSICAL ROMANCE
(Technicolor)
In Old Wyoming (2-27-37).Jan. 15,'37..8....
Schubert's Serenade .....July 23,'37..9....
Song of the Islands.....
(5-22-37) .....May 21,'37.10....

Title Rel. Date Min.

Trees (3-20-37) .....Mar. 19,'37..9....
Western Sketches .....Nov. 20,'36.10....
PARAGRAPHICS
Aviator Shorty .....July 23,'37.10....
Broadway Highlights, No. 8.Dec. 11,'36.10....
Broadway Highlight, No. 9.....10....
Circus Comes to Town, The
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37.10....
Cowboy Shorty .....Oct. 8,'37†..1 rl..
Game Trails .....Apr. 30,'37.10....
It's a Good Stunt.....Sept.10,'37†10....
It's a Living.....Mar. 5,'37.11....
Killer of the Tonto.....Aug. 13,'37†10....
Nobody Home .....Apr. 2,'37.10....
Rhythm of the River.....Oct. 9,'36.10....
Safety in the Air
(5-22-37) .....May 28,'37.10....
Sailor Shorty .....Oct. 23,'36.10....
That's Their Business.....Nov. 13,'36.11....
Where Champions Meet
(2-20-37) .....Jan. 8,'37..9....
Where Snow Is King.....Feb. 5,'37..9....
PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL
No. 3 — Miss Christopher Columbus—Take a Number—Keep Out! Lions....Oct. 16,'36.10....
No. 4—A Modern Monster — Furs on Parade — All Aboard .....Nov. 13,'36.11....
No. 5 — Bamboo—Clamdiggers' Rodeo — Vienna Boys' Choir .....Dec. 11,'36.10....
No. 6—Cornering a Killer — Twilight — Let's All Learn to Ski.....Jan. 8,'37..9....
No. 7 — Magic Caverns — Albert Payson Terhune—Swing Fashions .....Feb. 12,'37..9....
No. 8 — Tides of Fundy—Home of the Rainbow—Meet the Lorlas.....Mar. 12,'37.10....
No. 9—Moonlight and Shadows — Rooftops of Manhattan—Blackie and Brownie .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
No. 10 — Sailboat Time — Twilight on the Trail—Magnetic Music (5-22-37).May 7,'37.10....
No. 11—Fishing Highlights.June 4,'37.11....
No. 12—(7-3-37) .....July 2,'37.10....
NEW SERIES
No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†..1 rl..
No. 2 .....Sept. 3,'37†..1 rl..
No. 3 .....Oct. 1,'37†..1 rl..
POPEYE THE SAILOR
Hold the Wire.....Oct. 23,'36..7....
Hospitality .....Apr. 16,'37..7....
I Like Babies and Infints..Sept.17,'37†..7....
I'm in the Army Now.....Dec. 25,36..7....
I Never Change My Altitude .....Aug.20,'37†..7....
Lost and Foundry.....July 16,'37..7....
Morning, Noon and Night Club (6-26-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
My Artistical Temperature..Mar. 19,'37..7....
Organ Grinder's Swing
(3-6-37) .....Feb. 19,'37..7....
Paneless Window Washer, The (2-27-37).....Jan. 22,'37..7....
Popeye the Sailor Meets Sinbad the Sailor
(11-14-36) .....Nov. 27,'36..7....
(Technicolor special)
Spinach Roadster, The.....Nov. 27,'36..7....
Twisker Pitcher, The.....May 21,'37..7....
PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS
Two Editions Weekly
POPULAR SCIENCE
(Cinecolor)
No. 2 (11-28-36).....Oct. 30,'36.10....
No. 3 .....Dec. 25,'36.11....
No. 4 (3-2-27).....Feb. 26,'37.11....
No. 5 .....Apr. 30,'37.11....
No. 6 .....July 2,'37.11....
NEW SERIES
No. 1 .....Sept. 3,'37†..1 rl..
SCREEN SONGS
Never Should Have Told You (3-6-37) .....Jan. 29,'37..8....
Nat Brandwynne and Orch.
Please Keep Me in Your Dreams (5-22-37).....May 28,'37..8....
Henry King and Orch.
Talking Through My Heart .Nov. 27,'36..7....
Dick Stabile and Orch.
Twilight on the Trail.... .Mar.26,'37..7....
The Westerners
Whispers in the Dark.... .Sept.24,'37†..1 rl..

Title Rel. Date Min.

You Came to My Rescue....July 30,'37..8....
Shep Fields and Orch.
GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS
(NEW SERIES)
No. 29—Fighting Marlin....Oct. 2,'36.10....
No. 30—Sporting Quiz, The
(11-21-36) .....Nov. 6,'36.10....
No. 31—Chimp Champs....Dec. 4,'36.10....
No. 32—Sporting Pals .....Jan. 1,'37.10....
No. 33—Underwater Romance, An (3-6-37).....Jan. 29,'37.10....
No. 34—On the Nose
(3-13-37) .....Feb. 26,'37.10....
No. 35—King Soccer .....Mar.26,'37.10....
No. 36—Wrestling (It's a Laugh) .....Apr. 23,'37.10....
No. 37—Swing Stars
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37.10....
No. 38—Pan-American Champions (7-3-37) .....June 11,'37.10....
No. 39—Rhythm of the Game (7-10-37) .....July 9,'37.10....
No. 40—Aquabats .....Aug.13,'37†10....
No. 41—Picking Pets.....Sept.10,'37†11....
UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS
(Cinecolor)
No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†..1 rl..
No. 2 .....Oct. 8,'37†..1 rl..

RKO RADIO

Title Rel. Date Min.

CONDOR MUSICALES
Frozen Affair, A (8-28-37) .Sept.17,'37†10....
Murder in Swing Time....Sept.27,'37†10....
HEADLINER SERIES
1—Latapaloosa .....Nov. 20,'36.16....
2—Singing in the Air.....Feb. 19,'37.19....
3—Rhythm on the Rampage
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 2,'37.18....
4—Swing Fever .....July 25,'37.19....
EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES
Bad Housekeeping (4-10-37).Mar. 5,'37.19....
Dumb's the Word.....June 11,'37.18....
Hillbilly Goat (1-23-37)...Jan. 15,'37.18....
Locks and Bonds.....Apr. 16,'37.19....
Morning Judge .....Sept.24,'37†.....
Tramp Trouble .....Aug. 6,'37.16....
MARCH OF TIME
No. 3 .....Nov. 3,'36.21....
No. 4 (12-12-36).....Nov. 27,'36.22....
No. 5 .....Dec. 25,'36.19....
No. 6 .....Jan. 22,'37.19....
No. 7 .....Feb. 10,'37.21....
No. 8 .....Mar. 19,'37.20....
No. 9 (4-17-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.21....
No. 10 .....May 14,'37.18....
No. 11 .....June 11,'37.18....
No. 12 .....July 9,'37.18....
No. 13 .....Aug. 6,'37.....
1937-38
No. 1 .....Sept. 3,'37†.....
MICKEY MOUSE
Clock Cleaners, The
(8-28-37) .....8....
Hawaiian Holiday.....
NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS
Rhythm in a Night Court..Sept.24,'37†.9....
PATHE NEWS
Released twice a week
PATHE PARADE
No. 1 .....Sept.10,'37†.....
PATHE REVIEWS
Released once a month
PATHE TOPICS
Released seven times a year
RADIO FLASH COMEDIES
Don't Be Like That
(1-30-37) .....Dec. 4,'36.18....
Horse Play (4-3-37).....Mar. 19,'37.16....
RADIO MUSICAL COMEDIES
Deep South (1-23-37).....Jan. 1,'37.17....
Mississippi Moods
(7-31-37) .....July 23,'37.17....
That Man Samson.....May 28,'37.19....
SMART SET
Grandma's Buoys (1-2-37)..Dec. 18,36.16....
Inlawful .....Apr. 30,'37.17....
SPECIAL
Day With the Dionne Quintuplets, A (4-24-37) .Mar.26,'37.18....
SPORTS WITH BILL CORUM
Beach Sports .....June 4,'37..9½..
Big League .....May 7,'37.11....
Foreign Sports .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Golf Timing (8-21-37).....July 23,'37.11....
Iceman, The .....Jan. 15,'37..9....
Ladies' Day .....Dec. 18,'36.11....
Putting On the Dog.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Royal Steeds .....July 2,'37.10....
Saratoga Summers

Title Rel. Date Min.

(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,'37..10....
Singing Wheels (12-26-36) .Nov. 20,'36.11....
STRUGGLE TO LIVE
Deadly Females .....Nov.13,'36..9½..
Desert Land .....Apr. 16,'37..8....
Forest Gangsters (1-23-37) .Jan. 8,'37..9....
Jungle Playmate .....July 30,'37..9....
SUPERBA COMEDIES
Bridal Grief .....Feb. 5,'37.19....
One Live Ghost.....Nov. 6,'36.21....
Wife Insurance (8-14-37). .July 9,'37.16....
Wrong Romance, The.....May 14,'37.19....
WORLD ON PARADE
California Missions
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.11....
Circus Winter Quarters.....May 14,'37.11....
Florida Cowboy .....June 11,'37..9½..
Gold Mania (1-16-37).....Dec. 25,'36.11....
Graveyard of Ships (1-2-37) .Nov. 27,'36.11....
Heart of the Sierras.....Nov. 6,'36.11....
Manhattan Waterfront
(3-27-37) .....Feb. 19,'37.11....
Mt. Vernon .....Mar. 19,'37.10....
Romantic Mexico .....Jan. 22,'37.10....
Trinidad .....Sept.11,'36.10....
Workshops of Old Mexico..July 9,'37.11....

STATE RIGHTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

ALEXANDER
Trailing the Seashore
(1-9-37) .....11....
AMERICAN RED CROSS
Behind the Flood Headlines
(5-8-37) .....11....
ASTOR
Carmen (5-29-37) .....9....
Halt! Who Goes There?
(5-29-37) .....9....
DYNAMIC
Wonderland of Gaspe
(6-13-36) .....11....
FILM EXCHANGE
Ski-Esta (1-2-37).....10....
MATSON
Coronation Preview
(3-27-37) .....10....
ROGERS SPECIAL
Lest We Forget (5-1-37).....1 rl..
U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE
I Pledge My Heart (8-7-37).....11....

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Title Rel. Date Min.

ADVENTURES OF THE NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN
Bone Bender Parade
(8-14-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Dogging It Around the World .....Nov. 13,'36.10....
Looking for Trouble.....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Pacing the Thoroughbreds..Sept.25,'36.....
Ski Parade, The.....Feb. 5,'37.....
Sports Headliners of 1936
(11-21-36) .....Oct. 30,'36.10....
MAGIC CARPET SERIES
Land of Genghis Kahn
(2-6-37) .....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Philippine Fantasy
(11-7-36) .....Sept.25,'36.....
Portraits of Portugal
(8-7-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Touring Brazil (12-18-36)..Nov. 13,'36.10....
Western Grandeur (4-3-37) .Feb. 5,'37..9½..

UNITED ARTISTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

MICKEY MOUSE
103. Alpine Climbers
(8-22-36) .....Oct. 28,'36†.9½..
104. Mickey's Circus
(8-15-36) .....Nov. 11,'36†..8....
105. Donald and Pluto
(11-14-36) .....Dec. 12,'36†..8....
107. Mickey's Elephant
(11-14-36) .....Feb. 19,'37†..9....
108. Don Donald (1-16-37).....8½..
109. Worm Turns, The
(1-23-37) .....Apr. 17,'37† 8½..
110. Magician Mickey ....June 17,'37† 8½..
111. Mickey's Amateurs
(6-19-37) .....1 rl.
112. Moose Hunters .....Aug. 5,'37†..9....
SILLY SYMPHONIES
106. Three Blind Mouseketeers (11-28-36)...Jan. 28,'37† 7....
108. Country Cousin, The
(11-21-36) .....Dec. 17,'36† 6½..
109. Mother Pluto
(11-21-36) .....Mar. 6,'37† 6½
110. More Kittens (1-9-37) .Mar.27,'37† 8½..

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
#1. Woodland Cafe (8-28-37)		1 rl.
#2. Little Hiawatha (6-26-37)		1 rl.
#3. Modern Inventions (6-26-37)		1 rl.

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
GOING PLACES with LOWELL THOMAS
No. 28 (10-17-36)	Oct. 19,'36	8
No. 29	Oct. 26,'36	9
No. 30	Nov. 23,'36	10
No. 31	Dec. 21,'36	9
No. 32 (2-6-37)	Feb. 1,'37	9½
No. 33 (3-27-37)	Mar. 15,'37	9
No. 34 (4-17-37)	Mar. 22,'37	8
No. 35 (4-17-37)	Apr. 12,'37	7
No. 36 (5-15-37)	May 10,'37	9½
No. 37 (5-15-37)	June 7,'37	9½
No. 38 (7-24-37)	July 26,'37	10
No. 39
MEANY-MINY-MOE CARTOONS
Air Express	Sept. 20,'37	6
Big Race, The (3-13-37)	Mar. 3,'37	7
Country Store (8-7-37)	July 5,'37	7
Fireman's Picnic	Aug. 16,'37	6½
Golfers, The (2-13-37)	Jan. 11,'37	8½
House of Magic (2-13-37)	Feb. 8,'37	8
Knights for a Day (1-9-37)	Dec. 28,'36	7
Lumber Camp (3-20-37)	Mar. 15,'37	7
Ostrich Feathers	Sept. 6,'37	†7
Rest Resort	Aug. 23,'37	7
Steel Workers (5-15-37)	Apr. 26,'37	7
Stevedores, The	May 24,'37	7
Turkey Dinner	Nov. 30,'36	8
MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES
Alpine Cabaret (8-14-37)	Aug. 4,'37	10
Bargain Matinee (3-20-37)	Apr. 14,'37	10
Cocktail Party, The (5-15-37)	May 12,'37	10
Fun Begins at Home	Feb. 17,'37	10
Fun in the Fire House (11-7-36)	Oct. 28,'36	10
Hawaiian Capers	Sept. 8,'37	†9
It's on the Record	Mar. 17,'37	10½
Royal Cafe	Nov. 25,'36	10
School for Swing (2-6-37)	Jan. 20,'37	10
Shoes with Rhythm (5-15-37)	June 9,'37	10
Singing Bandit, The (7-3-37)	July 7,'37	10
Teddy Bergman's Bar-B-Q	Oct. 6,'37	†9
Television Highlights	Dec. 23,'36	10
OSWALD CARTOONS
Birthday Party, The	Mar. 29,'37	6½
Duck Hunt (3-13-37)	Mar. 8,'37	7
Everybody Sings (1-30-37)	Feb. 22,'37	7
Gopher Trouble	Nov. 30,'36	7
Night Life of the Bugs (10-3-36)	Oct. 9,'36	8
Playful Pup, The (7-31-37)	July 12,'37	7
Puppet Show (10-13-36)	Nov. 2,'36	8
Trailer Thrills (5-15-37)	May 3,'37	7
Unpopular Mechanic (10-17-36)	Nov. 6,'36	8
Wily Weasel, The	June 7,'37	7
STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES
No. 28—Novelty (9-24-36)	Oct. 12,'36	8½
No. 29—Novelty (9-24-36)	Nov. 9,'36	8½
No. 30—Novelty (12-26-36)	Dec. 7,'36	10
No. 31—Novelty (1-2-37)	Jan. 4,'37	9
No. 32—Novelty (1-30-37)	Feb. 1,'37	9
No. 33—Novelty (2-13-37)	Mar. 1,'37	9
No. 34—Novelty (4-17-37)	Mar. 29,'37	9
No. 35—Novelty (4-17-37)	Apr. 26,'37	9
No. 36—Novelty (4-17-37)	May 24,'37	8
No. 37—Novelty (7-3-37)	June 21,'37	8½
No. 38—Novelty (5-15-37)	July 19,'37	9
No. 39—Novelty (7-24-37)	Aug. 16,'37	9
UNIVERSAL SPECIAL
Hollywood Screen Test (8-14-37)	Aug. 30,'37	†21
King Edward the VIIIth	Dec. 14,'36	9½
You Can't Get Away With It	Nov. 30,'36	25

VITAPHONE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
BIG TIME VAUDEVILLE REEL
Vitaphone Internationals—Heitz-Lee	Oct. 17,'36	11
Vaudeville Is Back—Johnny Perkins	Nov. 14,'36	11
Vaude-Villians—Marty May	Dec. 12,'36	10
Reel Vaudeville (1-30-37)—Harry Rose	Jan. 2,'37	11
Bed-Time Vaudeville (2-20-37)	Jan. 30,'37	11
Bring On the Girls—Edgar Bergen	Mar. 6,'37	11
Vitaphone Diversions—Smith and Dale	Apr. 3,'37	10
Nickel Lowdown—Charles Kemper	May 1,'37	10
Vitaphone Funsters (6-12-37)—Johnny Burke	May 29,'37	11
Vaude-Festival—Fritz and Jean Hubert	June 26,'37
Vaudeville Hits—Elaine Arden	July 17,'37
Vitaphone Broadwayites—Medley-Dupree	Aug. 21,'37
BROADWAY BREVITIES
Joe Palooka in "The Choke's on You" (9-19-36)—Shemp Howard-Robert Norton	Sept. 12,'36	21
Backyard Broadcast, The (9-5-36)	Sept. 26,'36	21
Say It with Candy—Virginia Verrill	Oct. 3,'36	20
Sheik to Sheik—Georges Metaxa	Oct. 10,'36	21
Can't Think of It—Ken Murray-Oswald	Oct. 24,'36	18
Captain Bluebird—Georgie Price	Feb. 13,'37
Sunday Round-Up, The—Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Oct. 31,'36	18
Sweethearts and Flowers—Regis-Toomey-Preisser Sisters	Nov. 7,'36	20
That's Pictures (8-29-36)—Jay C. Flippen	Nov. 21,'36	21
Joe Palooka in "The Blonde Bomber"—Shemp Howard-Robert Norton	Nov. 28,'36	21
Here Comes the Circus—"Poodles" Hanneford	Dec. 5,'36	18
"Give Me Liberty"—John Litel	Dec. 19,'36	22
It's All Over Now (2-6-37)—Dan Healy	Dec. 26,'36	20
Joe and Asbestos in "A Horse's Tale" (2-13-37)—Harry Gribbon-Hamtree Harrington	Jan. 9,'37	20
Pretty Pretender, The (2-13-37)—Bernice Claire	Jan. 23,'37	21
Joe Palooka in "Kick Me Again" (3-6-37)—Shemp Howard-Robert Norton	Feb. 6,'37	21
Captain Blueblood—Georgie Price	Feb. 3,'37	21
Swing for Sale (3-13-37)—Hal LeRoy	Feb. 27,'37	22
Under Southern Stars—Fred Lawrence-J. Bryan	Feb. 20,'37	18
Hotel a la Swing—Eddie Foy, Jr.	Mar. 13,'37	20
Mail and Female—Ken Murray	Mar. 27,'37	21
Play Street (4-10-37)—Preisser Sisters	Apr. 3,'37	21
Romance of Robert Burns (4-10-37)—Owen King-Linda Perry	Apr. 10,'37	16
Lifers of the Party, The—Yacht Club Boys	Apr. 17,'37	21
Joe Palooka in "Taking the Count"—Shemp Howard-Robert Norton	Apr. 24,'37	21
Movie Mania—Dave Apollon	May 8,'37	20
Musical Operation, A—Frank Gaby-Virginia Verrill	May 15,'37	20
Day at Santa Anita—Sybil Jason	May 22,'37	18
Sound Defects (6-12-37)—Rufe Davis	June 5,'37	22
Joe Palooka in "Thirst Aid"—Robt. Norton-Beverly Phalen	June 12,'37
Rhythm Roundup, The—Estelle Taylor	June 19,'37
Little Pioneer, The (7-10-37)—Sybil Jason	July 3,'37
Newsboys Nocturnes (7-10-37)—Lane, Tree & Edwards	July 10,'37
Flowers from the Sky (8-21-37)—Josephine Huston	July 24,'37	22
Cut Out for Love—Donald Novis-Dorothy Dare	Aug. 2,'37
Du Barry Did All Right—Irene Bordoni	Aug. 7,'37
COLORTOUR ADVENTURE (Cinecolor)
Colorful Occupations (9-19-36)	Oct. 3,'36	10
Northern Lights	Oct. 31,'36	10
Along the Mediterranean	Dec. 5,'36	10
Hollanders, The (1-23-37)	Jan. 2,'37	10
Nice Work (2-13-37)	Jan. 30,'37	10
Land of the Midnight Sun (3-13-37)	Feb. 27,'37	10
Nature the Artist (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37	10
Cradle of Civilization	Apr. 17,'37	10
Alpine Grandeur	May 15,'37	1 rl.
Gateway to Africa (6-12-37)	June 12,'37	10
Land of the Magyar (7-10-37)	July 3,'37
Crossing the Sahara	Aug. 14,'37
LOONEY TUNES
No. 28—Village Smithy, The	Nov. 14,'36	7
No. 29—Porky of the Northwoods (1-9-37)	Dec. 19,'36	7
No. 30—Porky the Wrestler	Jan. 9,'37	7
No. 31—Porky's Road Race	Feb. 6,'37	7
No. 32—Picador Porky (2-27-37)		8
No. 33—Porky's Romance	Apr. 17,'37	8
No. 34—Porky's Duck Hunt	Apr. 17,'37	8
No. 35—Porky and Gabby (6-12-37)	May 15,'37	8
No. 36—Porky's Building	June 19,'37	8
No. 37—Porky's Super Service (7-10-37)	July 3,'37	8
No. 38—Porky's Railroad (8-14-37)		7
MELODY MASTERS
Emil Coleman and Orch. (7-11-36)	Oct. 17,'36	11
Leon Navara and His Orch. (9-19-36)	Nov. 7,'36	11
Clyde McCoy and Orch. (8-29-36)	Nov. 28,'36	10
Jimmie Lunceford and Orch. (1-23-37)	Dec. 19,'36	10
George Hall and Orch.	Jan. 9,'37	10
Louisiana Kings	Jan. 23,'37	10
Roger Wolfe Kahn and Orch.	Feb. 6,'37	10
Cab Calloway and Orch. (3-13-37)	Feb. 20,'37	10
Peter Van Steeden and Orch.	Mar. 6,'37	10
Jacques Fray and Orch. (4-10-37)	Mar. 27,'37	10
Jam Session, The—Clyde McCoy and Orch.	Apr. 17,'37	11
Rimac Orchestra, The	May 8,'37	1 rl.
Jack Denny and Orch.	May 29,'37	1 rl.
Eliseo Grenet and Orch. (6-19-37)	June 19,'37	10
Lennie Hayton and Orch. (7-10-37)	July 10,'37	10
David Mendoza and Orch. (8-21-37)	July 31,'37	10
MERRIE MELODIES (In Color)
No. 27—Boulevardier of the Bronx	Oct. 10,'36	7
No. 28—Don't Look Now	Nov. 7,'36	7
No. 29—Cocoonut Grove	Nov. 28,'36	7
No. 30—He Was Her Man	Jan. 2,'37	7
No. 31—Pigs Is Pigs (1-16-37)	Jan. 30,'37	7
No. 32—I Only Have Eyes for You (3-6-37)	Mar. 6,'37	8
No. 33—The Fella with the Fiddle (4-10-37)	Mar. 27,'37	8
No. 34—She Was an Acrobat's Daughter	Apr. 10,'37	8
No. 35—Ain't We Got Fun	May 1,'37	8
No. 36—Clean Pastures	May 22,'37
No. 37—Uncle Tom's Bungalow	June 5,'37
No. 38—Streamlined Greta Green (6-12-37)	June 19,'37	8
No. 39—Sweet Sioux (7-10-37)	June 26,'37	8
No. 40—Egghead Rides Again	July 17,'37
No. 41—Speaking of the Weather (8-21-37)		7
PICTORIAL REVIEWS
No. 4—Southern Wear—Aviation (1-23-37)	Dec. 26,'36	11
No. 5—Sports Afloat (2-6-37)	Jan. 16,'37	10
No. 6—Swimming — Wood Carving	Feb. 13,'37	10
No. 7—Phonograph Records—Lipsticks (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37	11
No. 8—Coiffeurs—Shoes	Apr. 10,'37	10
No. 9—Hats—Bathing Suits	May 11,'37	10
No. 10—Dancing-Leather (6-5-37)	May 22,'37	10
No. 11—Milk—Rugs	June 19,'37
No. 12—Pianos-Art (8-14-37)	July 17,'37	10
No. 13—Books—Furs	Aug. 28,'37
VITAPHONE NOVELTIES
Nut Guilty—(6-27)	Nov. 21,'36	10
Oklahoma As Is—Cal Tinney	Dec. 19,'36	11
Poets of the Organ (8-22)—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crawford	Jan. 16,'37
Whale Ho (7-14)	Feb. 13,'37	10
Medium Well Done—Hardeen	Mar. 6,'37	10
Ghost to Ghost Hookup, A—Radio Ramblers	Apr. 3,'37	11
Home Run on the Keys (4-3-37)—Babe Ruth	Apr. 24,'37	9
Check Your Cash—Louis Zingone	May 22,'37	10
Double Talk (6-5-37)—Edgar Bergen	June 26,'37	10
Palm Beach Knights—Charles Ahearn	July 31,'37
Lyin' Tamer, The (7-11-36)—George Jessel	Aug. 28,'37

WM. STEINER

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eagle's Vengeance, The	July 29,'37	†20

WORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Battling Bettas	July 8,'37	†10
Men of Ships	Sept. 10,'37	†9

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

REPUBLIC

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dick Tracy 6401 (2-27-37)—Ralph Byrd-Kay Hughes (15 episodes)	Feb. 20,'37	†
Painted Stallion, The 6421—Ray Corrigan-Hoot Gibson	June 5,'37	†
Robinson Crusoe of Clipper Island 3583—Mala-Mamo Clark (14 episodes)	Nov. 14,'36
S. O. S. Coast Guard 6441—Ralph Byrd-Maxine Doyle	Aug. 29,'37	†
Zorro Rides Again 6461—Zorro Rides Again (Weiss-Mintz-Serials)	Nov. 20,'37	†

STAGE and SCREEN

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Black Coin, The—Ralph Graves-Ruth Mix (15 episodes)	Sept. 1,'36	(1st episodes, 3 rls., followed by 14 two-reel episodes.)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Jungle Jim (12-26)—Grant Withers-Betty Jane Rhodes	Jan. 18,'37	2 rls. (each)
Radio Patrol—Grant Withers-Cath. Hughes	Oct. 4,'37	†2 rls. (each)
Secret Agent X9—Scott Kolk-Jean Rogers	Apr. 12,'37	2 rls. (each)
Wild West Days (6-26-37)—Johnny Mack Brown (13 episodes)	July 5,'37	†2 rls. (each)

VICTORY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Blake of Scotland Yard—Ralph Byrd-Herbert Rawlinson (15 episodes—also feature version)	Apr. 15,'37
Shadows of Chinatown—Bela Lugosi-Herman Brix (15 episodes—also feature version)	Oct. 10,'36

She stepped out with Ramon

The SHEIK STEPS OUT

The critics step out in their praises with "One of the best offerings from Republic."—Variety. "Enjoyable romantic comedy bringing back Novarro should be well received."—Film Daily. "Colorful."—Hollywood Reporter. "Here is the best picture from Republic in a long time."—Jay Emanuel Pub.

★ ★ ★ ★

with* LOLA LANE
GENE LOCKHART
KATHLEEN BURKE
STANLEY FIELDS
and* BILLY BEVAN

Directed by* IRVING PICHEL • Original story and screen play by ADELE BUFFINGTON
Associate producer* HERMAN SCHLOM

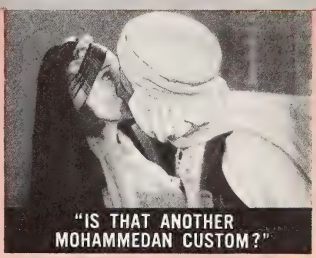
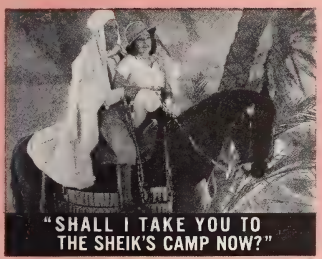
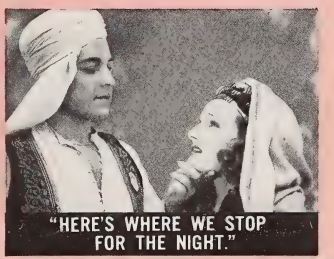
The SHEIK



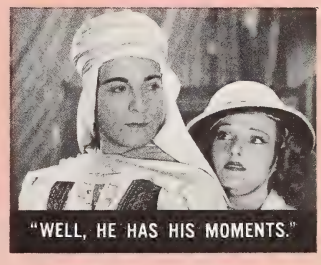
NOVARRO



"ONE MORE PEEP OUT OF YOU."

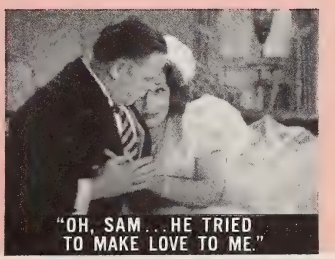


"YOU PACKHORSE . . ."



"IS THAT ANOTHER MOHAMMEDAN CUSTOM?"

"SHALL I TAKE YOU TO THE SHEIK'S CAMP NOW?"



"HERE'S WHERE WE STOP FOR THE NIGHT."

"WELL, HE HAS HIS MOMENTS."

"YOU ARE BEAUTIFUL."

"OH, SAM . . . HE TRIED TO MAKE LOVE TO ME."

"HE COULDN'T BE THAT MUCH OF A BARBARIAN—TO CUT OUR THROATS."

REPUBLIC

J. C JENKINS—HIS COLYUM

Ida Grove, Iowa

Dear Herald:

This is the town that owes a whole lot of its importance to Harry Day. That is to say that it was here that Harry built the King theatre and the King theatre is the bright spot of Ida Grove and the King is the gathering place for all those who like to be entertained. Ida Grove has a very nice swimming pool and that probably accounts for why Harry always had such a clean appearance. We understand he took a bath there regularly every three months whether he needed it or not.

Harry sold the King to a lady from Tekamah, Neb., and we understand he now has a theatre in southwestern Wisconsin, and Wisconsin, you know, is where they make so much brick cheese, and brick cheese and "The beer that made Milwaukee famous" is what put Wisconsin on the map. But then maybe that Lee of Schulesburg and Roob of Pt. Washington and their theatres had something to do with it.

Mr. Stipp is now the manager of the King, and, while we only had a few minutes to visit with him, it is our opinion that the King is managed up to its former reputation, and that ought to be good enough for anybody.

▽

Iowa Falls is a pretty good town. The corn that surrounds the town is so tall that if it weren't for the roads that lead out of the town you wouldn't know which way to go. Here is where E. O. Elsworth operates the Metropolitan theatre. We stopped there and had a very delightful visit with him, just as we always do, and we also had a fine visit with our old friend, Frank Foster. Frank used to correspond with a number of theatrical papers, and he's the guy who used to pan us through the Opera House Reporter, but he always did it in a nice way. It is a pleasure to meet these old friends and then get out of town without being arrested.

As we understand it, Mr. Elsworth used to be in the Iowa legislature, and it is our belief that Iowa should keep him there, but then if she did, what would Iowa Falls do for entertainment? Jevver think of that, Axel?

Here we found that another "agent" had given Mr. Elsworth a few leaves from our biography. He told him that we had been retired on a pension of 200 dollars a month. Good gosh, 200 dollars a month is more money than Uncle Sammy would have given us if we had had both legs and both arms shot off and two or three stomachs shot out over in France. It has always been our belief that nobody had license to lie except those who had returned home from a fishing trip.

We got a letter from Grandmaw Smith back on the Kankakee river in Indiana wanting to know if the government was still in the market for dogs for its shelterbelt. She says that Zeb, her husband, has two ablebodied beagle hounds he wants to sell, and she says why build dams for irrigating purposes when dogs are so cheap.

Clarion is surrounded by Iowa's tall corn; in fact, it is so tall around there that you can't see the town until you get into it and here is where W. F. Smith operates the Colonial theatre.

We had a very delightful visit with Mr. Smith and his son, and we always look forward to a grand visit with them when we are headed for Clarion. Mr. Smith is going to build a theatre that Clarion will be proud of and he expects to have it opened by December, and our guess is that when he gets it opened the folks of Clarion will have something to be proud of. Here an "agent" tore out another leaf from our history. He told Mr. Smith that we had been confined to the counties bordering on the Missouri river and that he had been sent out, as a special representative of the HERALD, to cover our territory. Wasn't that lovely of him to inform the boys? By gosh, we are going to leave this locality before they get us married off to a squaw with seven or eight papooses and a skydoodle pup.

▽

Every little ways, as we drive over the country, we pass sucker camps. But maybe you don't know what a sucker camp is. It is a camp where those who are sucking the public teat gather for their feed. The farmers around these camps are having trouble to get help to harvest their crops and put up their hay, for these suckers say that if they get off relief rolls once they can't get back on. The government ought to build more camps.

▽

Holstein is another town that is surrounded by Iowa's "tall corn," and, as we remarked once before, we don't know where there will be a market for this crop. They can't feed corn to a tractor or a truck and there are but few hogs and cattle left on the farms, and they can't use all of it for "white mule," but the farmers around Holstein are exceptionally fortunate in having a fine theatre to go to where they can see the cream of the market.

We called there to see Mr. Kugel, who operates the State theatre, and it was our bad luck to find that he was away billing his show. We did, however, meet Mrs. Kugel at her home and had a very delightful visit with her. She seemed very anxious to make a trip to the Black Hills, especially since reading what little we had to say about it in one of our former letters.

She was so interested in what we had to say that we gave her a little booklet we once wrote called "Some of the Beauty Spots of the Black Hills" and it is our guess that they will make a trip to the Hills, mainly to see whether we told the truth or not. It certainly is a pleasure to meet such folks as Mrs. Kugel; it's what makes traveling in the hot weather worth while.

▽

We would have liked very much to have gotten over to Cherokee to see Dale Goldie, and over to Sheldon to see Kerberg, and over to Rock Valley to see Bill Bogart, but, doggone it, we can't visit all the boys, but we can remind you again to not worry about your subscriptions to the HERALD; the HERALD will send you a notice when your subscriptions expire, and so now—

"Sally and Sue,
Don't get blue;
For we're shoving right off,
We're shoving right off,
We're shoving right off
For home again."

COLONEL J. C. JENKINS
The HERALD's Vagabond Columnist

The HERALD covers the FIELD like an April SHOWER.

IN THE NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 100, Vol. 19.—Shoshone National Forest swept by fire....Whaling is profitable once more....Otomi Indians in ancient dance of the flying pole....Rodeo in Montana....Prince Konoye....Daniel Frohman....August Heckscher....Fashions....Aviation....Lew Lehr....Sports....Harvest Moon Ball held on Broadway.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 101, Vol. 19.—Marines sail for China....3,000 twins of all ages compete for best "look-alikes"....Plane lands on running car, then takes off....Mussolini speaks for British amity....Roosevelt's mother takes the cure at Austria spa ....Italian King launches battleship....Sports....Andrew Mellon....Anthony Eden....Koki Hirota....Iron industry speeds recovery....Lew Lehr.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 298, Vol. 8.—Tokyo's air raid defenses tested in fear of reprisals....Budge and Mako in thrilling Tennis Match....Wonder boy, 11, stars at swim meet....Big town hoofers in dance derby....The Woman's Page....Dethroned rulers attend royal wedding....Mexican Indians stage a sky ride.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 299, Vol. 8.—Marines sail for China to protect Americans in peril....Big fight experts wrong again....Foreign tennis stars defeat Americans in big upset....Yankee clippers in Bermuda race....Mellon's vast riches to charity....New million dollar blast furnace speeds up industry ....Uncle Sam's Navy grows....Twins hold convention....Plane crasher dives through house, comes up smiling.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 7.—W.P.A. marchers hear firing is all over....Grandmother's spinning wheel contest....14 dead in Soshone National Park fire....Football squad trains on coconuts....'Mysterious Mr. Montague" returns east....Maine fights shrinkage in lobster crop....School days call millions back to desks....Peiping falls to Japanese.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 8.—Saratoga's big closing stake to "Sky Larking"....Perfect score gives "Rookie" traps title....Last rites for Andrew Mellon ....Navy airmen show skill....3,000 twins hold annual convention....Marines sail to guard U. S. rights in east.

PATHE NEWS—No. 11, Vol. 9.—War causes defended ....A. F. L. policy outlined....Pearls found in Iowa ....WPA union protests....Golden wheat harvest....Ancient Aztec rites....Crowd braves driving rain to watch horse race.

PATHE NEWS—No. 12, Vol. 9.—Marines off to China ....John L. Lewis urges unity....Johnny Goodman wins amateur golf crown....Laying velvet railroad ....Ghost ships sail again....Models of endurance ....Crashes plane into barn....Skylarking wins Hopeful Stakes.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 592, Vol. 9.—China's envoy talks of war....Rocket bike ends in crash....Amateur yachtsmen compete.... ....Indians try merry-go-round....Thousands march on capital....Archery girls handle bows....Wedding held near a dam....Dog group proves training.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 593, Vol. 9.—U. S. Marines off for China....Goodman takes golf crown....Legless swimmer sets mark.... Flier smashes into house....3,000 twins get together ..Floods swamp lake district....Naval cadet wins $100,000....Italy gets big new warship....U. S. high in foreign games....Deer girls sprout antlers.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

DEVIL IS DRIVING, THE: Richard Dix, Joan Perry—This is a well-executed piece of drama. The play is essentially a preachment against combining alcohol with gasoline, but the author of the play seems to admit that preaching will do no good by having the drinking driver tried for murder twice a short time apart for identical offenses. It is a good sermon but our market for sermons seems to be very limited. As a Big Special it proved to be a Big Flop. Running time, 68 minutes. Played August 10-11.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

MOTOR MADNESS: Rosalind Keith, Allen Brook—It's all been done before and this is no better nor worse than its predecessors. Played July 13.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MOTOR MADNESS: Allen Brook, Rosalind Keith—If you double feature, this picture is not important enough to merit more than a perfunctory "and second attraction" in the ads. It is not strong enough to single.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

First National

CHEROKEE STRIP: Dick Foran, Jane Bryan—A fine western plus expert soloing by Foran. Especially good was his rendition of the popular cowboy song "My Little Buckaroo." Played July 17.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

CHEROKEE STRIP: Dick Foran, Jane Bryan—Very good story of the opening of Indian Territory in 1889, which I booked for the fiftieth anniversary of this town. Plenty of action and some singing by Dick Foran. Running time, 55 minutes. Played August 11-12.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

EVER SINCE EVE: Robert Montgomery, Marion Davies—Good comedy drama. Davies not the drawing card she used to be.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

GUNS OF THE PECOS: Dick Foran, Anne Nagel—Dick Foran's voice is marvelous, it holds me spellbound, even from the box office, but his face is not the type the girls like to rave about. However, the picture did average business, and we heard no particular kicks.—Erma L. Raeburn, Arcade Theatre, Newell, S. D. Small town patronage.

HERE COMES CARTER: Ross Alexander, Anne Nagel—A splendid program picture that did nothing in the way of increased receipts, but did send those who came away satisfied. Played July 6.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PENROD AND SAM: Billy Mauch, Henry Watson—This is the kind of picture that pleases all the kids from eight to eighty. It is swell entertainment in the full sense of the word. Business on this Sunday a good average for a warm, sunny Sunday and a little above average Monday, which means favorable word of mouth advertising.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

PUBLIC ENEMY'S WIFE: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay—Old, but a fine little picture; interesting and well done. Everyone pleased on bank night.—Erma L. Raeburn, Arcade Theatre, Newell, S. D. Small town patronage.

Grand National

GIRL LOVES BOY: Eric Linden, Cecilia Parker—We cannot help but disagree with our patrons who were so very pleased with this programer. It is cheaply produced and mediocre in every respect. Yet the audience reaction could not have been better. The story is syrupy, the acting ham and the direction blah but the picture made us new friends and money.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

SINS OF CHILDREN: Eric Linden, Cecilia Parker—Of all the independent pictures we have played this year this and "23½ Hours Leave" received the finest audience response. The somewhat sexy title of the Linden-Parker co-starring film gave it box office strength but the wholesome quality and sincerity of the story made the patrons forget all expectations of sensationalism. Generally speaking, our patrons are somewhat noncommittal but in this instance they did not hesitate to stop and praise the picture.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

23½ HOURS LEAVE: James Ellison, Terry Walker—It did us good to stand at the back of the auditorium and listen to the contented guffaws of the patrons as they watched this clever picture, which gives James Ellison a well deserved break. To our knowledge there was not a single complaint and the word-of-mouth helped at the box office. Terry Walker's appearance in this is more affecting than in the more recent "Mountain Music."—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

A DAY AT THE RACES: Marx Bros.—Crazy Marx Bros. is right. They may be OK for two reel comedies, but for features, nix! Grownups get tired watching them. Too silly.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

BETWEEN TWO WOMEN: Franchot Tone, Virginia Bruce, Maureen O'Sullivan—Another hospital picture. This is very good, but very much like other doctor stories we've played.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS: Spencer Tracy, Freddie Bartholomew—Excellent. Cast gives excellent performance. Spencer Tracy walks away with the honors.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

EMPEROR'S CANDLESTICKS: William Powell, Luise Rainer—A very fine picture, with a grand cast, but no drawing power. Don't know why.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

GOOD OLD SOAK: Wallace Beery, Una Merkel, Betty Furness—Another excellent family picture from Metro. Wish they would give Una Merkel more and bigger parts for she is the tops. The entire cast is good, including Peter, the Parrot. Running time, 76 minutes. Played August 13-15.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

HELL DIVERS (Re-Issue): Clark Gable, Wallace Beery—This re-issue found an excellent welcome awaiting it by our fans and they were on hand to see it. The trailer is better on this than most that have been made up for the new stuff. It packs a terrific sales punch. The print is perfect. Played July 18-19.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

NIGHT MUST FALL: Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell—This is something in the way of real out of the ordinary story material for the screen. Thrilling and exciting with fine playing by all the cast. Business was moderate and some ladies found it distasteful. Played July 11-12.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PICK A STAR: Jack Haley, Patsy Kelly—Hokum, gags and music cooked up into a very satisfactory dish. I think this will go over well in almost any theatre. Played August 17-18.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

ROMEO AND JULIET: Norma Shearer, Leslie Howard—A distinct and complete failure in our house. Nothing anyone could do would have made this popular with our patrons. Played July 4-5.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SARATOGA: Clark Gable, Jean Harlow—Fans will go to see Jean Harlow, but picture not very strong.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

SARATOGA: Jean Harlow, Clark Gable—Good show in any spot. Not big, but entertaining. Running time, 94 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

THEY GAVE HIM A GUN: Spencer Tracy, Gladys George, Franchot Tone—The war angle killed this for us. Too bad, because it is thrilling entertainment. Played July 22-23.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TOPPER: Cary Grant, Constance Bennett—Not the big comedy sensation Metro would have you believe. Story too improbable altogether.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

Monogram

BLAZING BARRIERS: Edward Arnold, Jr., Junior Coghland, Florine McKinney—Another "sleeper" from Monogram in that it holds appeal for practically all types of audiences. Unusual tie-up possibilities and we made the best of them by entertaining three entire C.C.C. camps during the showing. It is a true picture of C.C.C. life with a dramatic climax that carries a wallop. Members of the audience outspoken in their praises of this Monogram picture.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

Paramount

BIG BROADCAST OF 1937: Jack Benny, Burns & Allen—This picture drew well and apparently pleased. —Erma L. Raeburn, Arcade Theatre, Newell, S. D. Small town patronage.

BORDERLAND: William Boyd, Jimmy Ellison—A worthwhile western. Played July 24.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

EASY LIVING: Jean Arthur, Edward Arnold—Fair.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

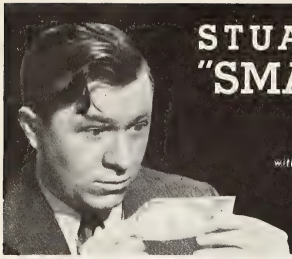
EASY LIVING: Jean Arthur, Edward Arnold—Didn't stand up for two days. Movie critics in our part of country overrated this. People who came to see an exceptionally good picture were disappointed. Wasn't much to picture except lots of yelling and hollering. Jean Arthur wasn't so good in this. Was a trifle bit too dumb for us. A few did enjoy it—a few. Running time, 87 minutes. Played August 15-16.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

EXCLUSIVE: Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer—Just fair.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

JOHN MEADE'S WOMAN: Edward Arnold, Francine Larrimore—This started in an interesting manner and finishes with a dull thud. These directors and script writers or whoever it is that want to give pictures a sort of arty ending give me a pain in the neck or in the pocketbook for this drew even below the summer average. At the end, Edward Arnold is shot and he is left on the floor and you don't know whether he will live or die. That is a swell dish to offer those who came out to be entertained.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

JUNGLE PRINCESS: Ray Milland, Dorothy Lamour—Done well on this one. Small Friday night crowd but enough to pack house Saturday night. Everyone well pleased. Running time, 84 minutes. Played August 6-7.—H. G. Kraus, Tolley Theatre, Tolley, N. D. Small town patronage.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC: Bob Burns, Martha Raye—Terrible. It will draw the first night, then you better close up.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.



NORTH OF THE RIO GRANDE: Bill Boyd, George Hayes, Bernadene Hayes—The production excellence of the "Hopalong Cassidy" westerns has made the series the best in the field. Judicious casting and original interpretation of familiar situations

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to —

What the Picture Did for Me

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Rockefeller Center, New York

STUART ERWIN "SMALL TOWN BOY"

with JOYCE COMPTON
JED PROUTY
A ZION MYERS Production
"A RIOT OF MIRTH"

"The SHADOW STRIKES"

with ROD LA ROCQUE and LYNN ANDERS
Produced by
MAX and ARTHUR ALEXANDER

"The Shadow has thrilled millions over the air and in magazines"

BRUCE CABOT "LOVE TAKES FLIGHT"

with BEATRICE ROBERTS
A CONDOR Production
Produced by GEORGE A. HIRLIMAN

"Blazing Romance of the Airways"

"HERE'S FLASH CASEY"

with ERIC LINDEN
BOOTS MALLORY
Produced by
MAX and ARTHUR ALEXANDER

"Fiction's daring news photographer"

"RENFREW of the ROYAL MOUNTED"

with JAMES NEWILL and CAROL HUGHES
Produced and directed by
AL HERMAN

"Radio and Fiction's famous hero now on the screen"

"WALLABY JIM of the ISLANDS"

with GEORGE HOUSTON and RUTH COLMAN
Produced by BUD BARSKY

"Collier Magazine's most colorful sea adventurer"

GRAND NATI

EDWARD L. ALPERSON presents

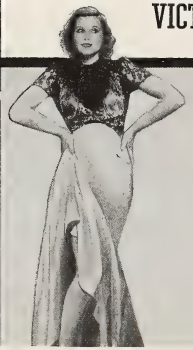
JAMES CAGN

DANCING . . . ROMANCING . . .
REAL WALLOP IN HIS GREAT

SOMET TO SIN ABOU



A VICTOR SCHERTZINGER PRODUCTION

with EVELYN DAW • WILLIAM

MONA BARRIE • GENE LOCKHART • JAMES NEWILL
CULLY RICHARDS • CANDY CANDIDO • William Tucker • Marek Windheim • Johnny Arthur • Dwight

Screenplay by Austin PARKER Orchestra Conductor C. BAKALEINKOFF Dances Arranged by Original story, music and direction by VICTOR SCHERTZINGER • PRODUCED BY ZION

"THE

Romance of a Broadway

Featuring—IRENE HERVEY • ROBERT YORK GILBERT & SULLIVAN Players ROGERS and Others • Produced and Presented by EDWARD L. ALPERSON

ONAL Delivers DURING SEPTEMBER

EY

PACKING A
EST ROLE!

HING
G
T♪

FRAWLEY

HARRY BARRIS
Davidson Richard
Frye • Philip Ahn
Harland DIXON

MYERS

Hear These NEW SCHERTZINGER
SONG HITS
"Loving You"
"Right or Wrong"
"Something To Sing About"
"Out Of The Blue"
"Any Old Love"

GIRL SAID NO"

Wise Guy Who Fell In Love With a Dime-a-Dance Siren

ARMSTRONG • PAULA STONE • ED BROPHY • And an All Star Cast of the Original NEW WILLIAM DANFORTH • VERA ROSS • VIVIAN HART • FRANK MOULAN • with ALLAN
Directed by ANDREW L. STONE • Screenplay by BETTY LAIDLAW and ROBERT LIVELY GILBERT & SULLIVAN ON THE SCREEN FOR THE FIRST TIME • HEAR AGAIN:
"Three Little Maids from School" • "Poor Little Buttercup" • "The Wandering Minstrel" • "The Mikado's Song" and many others gives them a freshness that is almost completely lacking in all other action pictures of this type. Bernadene Hayes' blonde loveliness and acting ability made her the most talked about member of the cast of this highly entertaining western.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

TRAIL DUST: William Boyd, Jimmy Ellison—Just another western and not entertainment for college people, but it will sell itself to persons of limited mentality and, having a plethora of such people, there seems to be nothing for us to do except to give them what they want. Running time, 77 minutes. Played August 13-14.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

TURN OFF THE MOON: Johnny Downs, Eleanore Whitney, Charles Ruggles—Excellent light musical. Johnny Downs and Eleanore Whitney make a nice dance team. Played July 10.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

WAIKIKI WEDDING: Bing Crosby, Shirley Ross, Martha Raye, Bob Burns—Everyone well pleased with this. Good combination of stars. Running time, 90 minutes. Played August 13-14.—H. G. Kraus, Tolley Theatre, Tolley, N. D. Small town patronage.

Republic

DANGEROUS HOLIDAY: Ra Hould, Hedda Hopper, Guinn "Big Boy" Williams—Some day Republic is going to wake up to the fact that names, even in double feature pictures, mean something. Just how many theatregoers, or exhibitors for that matter, have heard of Ra Hould? This newcomer might not be half bad if given a chance to be himself instead of being forced to emulate Freddie Bartholomew who obviously inspired this story of a talented child whose relatives value him because of his financial worth. Sound and photography are adequate.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

HIT THE SADDLE: Bob Livingston, Ray Corrigan—Double featured this with "The Great Hospital Mystery," Twentieth Century-Fox. Had a good combination and both pictures pleased. Played August 13-14.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

HIT PARADE, THE: Frances Langford, Phil Regan—There's a lot of stuff in this one. I guess that is what is wrong with it—too much of it is "just stuff." It's the sort of a picture that a person would sit through once but would put up a fight if you tried to make him do it again. Republic claims it to be a Big Special and evidently spent a lot of money on it, but spending money does not always result in entertainment. Running time, 83 minutes. Played August 20-21.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

NAVY BLUES: Dick Purcell, Mary Brian—This light and nameless program picture held up surprisingly well as part of a double program and seemed to please. The story is far from being original but it has been produced with more care than several of the other Republic releases.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

RKO Radio

BORDER CAFE: John Beal, Armida—Just a passable programmer. Running time, 66 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

DANIEL BOONE: George O'Brien, Heather Angel, Ralph Forbes—George O'Brien as a star has ceased to mean much as an attraction but his pictures draw well at our theatres because of their action. This adventure story, done somewhat in the small time manner and being far from an epic, received a good audience reaction; a few patrons commented on the bad makeup of Ralph Forbes and several other members of the cast. They looked like a cosmetic advertisement.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard—Were we sorry we played this picture! The eight Marx Bros. terrible, this beats anything we ever played. Might please a few kiddies who can laugh at anything, but others, no.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard—Nothing to brag about. Some liked it and others didn't.—John A. Milligan, Broadway Theatre, Schuylerville, N. Y. Small town patronage.

ON AGAIN—OFF AGAIN: Wheeler and Woolsey—This is doubtless one of the best the boys have made in years and demonstrates that, with the story and the direction they are still box office. Belonging to the fast passing Keystonish (?) type of comedy, there's a spot on any theatre manager's program for a picture like this. More power to the Wheeler-Woolsey team and may they keep 'em coming through. —Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

PARK AVENUE LOGGER: George O'Brien, Beatrice Roberts—This story of logging camp intrigue held up well at the box office and satisfied our patrons who were attracted by the title and subject rather than the star.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

SEATTLE THEATRES FACE SUNDAY CLOSING

Seattle theatres and other places of amusement will be closed on Sundays, if beer parlor operators are successful in a legal action now pending. Resenting the invoking of a 1909 "blue law" ordinance prohibiting the sale of beer on Sunday, tavern proprietors are attempting a retaliatory closing of every type of business and amusement enterprise on the same ground. Prosecuting Attorney B. Gray Warner has the case under advisement.

QUALITY STREET: Katharine Hepburn, Franchot Tone—Excellent for what it is. The only fault is only a very small percentage cared to find out what it was and the resulting gross proves it's not what our folks want. Played July 15-16.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

THERE GOES MY GIRL: Ann Sothern, Gene Raymond—Satisfactory comedy feature. Played July 7.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

WHEN'S YOUR BIRTHDAY?: Joe E. Brown, Marian Marsh—This is about on a par with the usual Joe E. Brown pictures, if they like the antics of this star. He is given full opportunity to do his stuff but somehow this did not do any extra business that one expects from a Joe E. Brown picture. To hold the popularity of this star it may be necessary to give him better material.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

WOMAN I LOVE, THE: Paul Muni, Miriam Hopkins—A superb cast of players were utterly wasted in this melodramatic war story of aeronautics. Especially miscast was Miss Hopkins, while Muni was lacking in any suitable opportunities.—Played July 8-9.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

YOU CAN'T BUY LUCK: Vinton Haworth, Helen Mack, Onslow Stevens—Just a lightweight programmer. Played July 21.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Showmen

BEYOND BENGAL: (Harry Schenck producer)—Here is a picture that "out-Bucks" anything that Frank Buck ever made. Backed by a whirlwind campaign, we sprung this in a midweek spot and the results were very gratifying. Title possesses selling power and the lobby displays are unusually good. In these days of formula made movies it is indeed a rare treat to be able to present a production of this type. You can stand back of everything the press book claims. It is in this picture. Running time, 78 minutes.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre Washington, Ind. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ANGEL'S HOLIDAY: Jane Withers, Robert Kent—Better than some of her recent ones. Played July 24.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

DAVID HARUM: Will Rogers, Evelyn Venable—Reissue with Will Rogers. Very entertaining. Running time, 83 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

GREAT HOSPITAL MYSTERY, THE: Sally Blane, Thomas Beck—Double featured this with "Hit the Saddle," Republic. Had a good combination and both pictures pleased. Played August 13-14.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

IT HAPPENED OUT WEST: Paul Kelly, Judith Allen—Doubled featured this with "When Thief Meets Thief," United Artists. Wasn't so hot, although did good business first night. Patrons enjoyed "When Thief Meets Thief," but "It Happened Out West" didn't appeal to majority. Played August 20-21.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

MIDNIGHT TAXI: Brian Donlevy, Frances Drake —A very good action picture with a fairly original story. Our patrons were well pleased and due to the title as well as the names came in profitable numbers. —J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

ON THE AVENUE: Dick Powell, Madeleine Carroll—Well received. Musicals do not go over big here, but was well received and worth playing.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING: Alice Faye, Ritz Bros., Don Ameche—Good show.—John A. Milligan, Broadway Theatre, Schuylerville, N. Y. Small town patronage.

United Artists

A STAR IS BORN: Fredric March, Janet Gaynor—Not up to expectations. Why so many drinking scenes for a wonderful actor like March. Gaynor very good. —Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

BELOVED ENEMY: Merle Oberon, Brian Aherne—This picture brought us divided opinions, but proved box office value for the first of the week. Enjoyed it. —Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

GAY DESPERADO, THE: Nino Martini, Ida Lupino, Leo Carrillo, Mischa Auer—It is difficult to believe that a United Artists picture would be suitable for a Friday-Saturday date, but this Pickford-Lasky production is perfectly at home on an action day. Briefly, it is nothing more than a glorified western that most cowboy film stars dream of being starred in but seldom are. The highly effective comedy of Carrillo and Mischa Auer successfully camouflages the operatic angle contributed by Martini to such an extent that the debunkers of high brow music came out praising the star and his voice.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

KNIGHT WITHOUT ARMOUR: Marlene Dietrich, Robert Donat—Heavy drama. Very interesting.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

KNIGHT WITHOUT ARMOUR: Robert Donat, Marlene Dietrich—Not so hot. Played August 22-23.—John A. Milligan, Broadway Theatre, Schuylerville, N. Y. Small town patronage.

LAST OF THE MOHICANS: Randolph Scott, Binnie Barnes, Heather Angel—We expected bigger business than we enjoyed, but have no regrets as these pictures make customers.—Harland, Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

WHEN THIEF MEETS THIEF: Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Valerie Hobson—Double featured with "It Happened Out West," Twentieth Century-Fox. Patrons enjoyed this picture but "It Happened Out West" didn't appeal to majority. Played August 20-21.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

Universal

LET THEM LIVE: John Howard, Nan Grey—Okay entertainment but no draw. Play July 10.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

NIGHT KEY: Boris Karloff, Jean Rogers—In this Boris Karloff plays the part of a kindly inventor. It holds the interest all the way and finishes in an unusual, thrilling manner. It can easily be classed as a much better than the average melodrama. This did a good average Summer Sunday business.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

TOP OF THE TOWN: George Murphy, Doris Nolan—They certainly worked hard enough and spent money enough to make this a box office winner but somehow it didn't jell. There is much in this to entertain and it keeps moving at a lively pace and as a whole you can class it as above average entertainment. For us this did just a fair average business for this time of the year.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

WE HAVE OUR MOMENTS: Sally Eilers, James Dunn—So it has. Most everyone liked it. Average attendance for the day. Played July 20.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

WINGS OVER HONOLULU: Wendy Barrie, Ray Milland—One of Universal's best this season. Ray Milland is liked. Wish more had seen it. Played July 27.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Warner Brothers

CALL IT A DAY: Olivia de Havilland, Ian Hunter—Fine for sophisticates; silly for the rest. Played July 14.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

KID GALAHAD: Edward G. Robinson, Joan Blondell—Excellent but it failed to warrant top rental. Played July 25-26.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

GO GETTER, THE: George Brent, Anita Louise—Good movie fare. Played July 17.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

(Continued on page 90)

MODERN

TODAY'S splendid motion picture quality can be completely protected... perfectly reproduced... with Eastman Fine-Grain Duplicating Films. For the simple reason that these new materials are capable of making duplicates actually indistinguishable from originals. With them the duplicating process goes definitely modern. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N.Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago, Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Fine-Grain

DUPLICATING FILMS

(Continued from page 88)

SINGING MARINE, THE: Dick Powell, Doris Weston—Plenty of zip. A good show in any spot. Running time, 105 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

Short Features

Educational

BOOK SHOP, THE: Terry-Toons—Fair cartoons.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

COMIC ARTIST'S HOME LIFE: Two-Reel Comedies—This series fast becoming the only good two-reelers Educational is turning out.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

CRYSTAL BALLET: Treasure Chest—Amateurs at screen technique, this froup of skaters know their stuff when it comes to the skates, however. It would have been fine without the attempt at dramatization.—Fair.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

LOVE NEST ON WHEELS: Two-reel Comedies—Gets by but no belly laughs.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

OFF THE HORSES: Bert Lahr—Funny. L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PIXILATED: Harry Gribbon—How we hate to see this stars' name appear. He's just terribly unfunny. He shows a good singing voice in this.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SALTY McGUIRE: Terry-Toons—Fair cartoon.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BARS AND STRIPES: Tabloid Musicals—Fair musical offering.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

COLORFUL BOMBAY: FitzPatrick Travel Talks—Splendid color travelogue.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Shoot out your releases by Railway Express...the complete day and night rush service for producer and exhibitor. Top-speed by rail. Super-speed by Air Express...2500 miles overnight. Nation-wide. Low cost. Real economy. Prompt, receipted delivery. 23,000 offices. For service, phone the nearest RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY, INC.

NATION-WIDE RAIL-AIR SERVICE

OHIO SHOWS FILMS URGING HIGHWAY CARE

Employing a trailer equipped with projector and sound facilities, the Ohio State Safety Council presented a two-hour outdoor program at North Lake Park, Mansfield, Ohio, recently, showing films sponsored by the Mansfield Traffic Safety Council, appealing for highway safety.

HOLLYWOOD PARTY: Musical comedies—Plenty of entertainment in this two-reel. All color short featuring the stars of Hollywood. Running time, two reels.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

SONG OF REVOLT: Tabloid Musicals—The history of La Marseillaise song most suitable in our 70 per cent French town.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

SWING WEDDING: Harman-Ising—A hot, jazzy cartoon that will entertain the grownups more than the kiddies.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TORTURE MONEY: Crime Doesn't Pay Series—A very gruesome picture on how people torture themselves to collect accident claims from insurance companies.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

TWO TOO YOUNG: Our Gang—Another scream from the Our Gang kids. It is worth the price of the short to hear Alfalfa recite Charge of the Light Brigade. Running time, 11 minutes.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?: M-G-M Miniatures—This is excellent and different. It deals with mental telepathy and ends up by letting the folks draw their own conclusions. It will make them think, too. They liked it.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Paramount

INSTALLMENT COLLECTOR, THE: Fred Allen—So bad it will wreck any show and did ours. It's not the Fred Allen of today but something he made when the gals were wearing their dresses above the knee.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

KING SOCCER: Grantland Rice Sportlights—Not as good as other Sportlights. Running time, 10 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

LOST AND FOUNDRY: Popeye the Sailor—All enjoyed it. Running time, 8 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

LOVERS' PARADISE: Musical Romance—A lovely to look at subject with nice Hawaiian music.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MUSIC BY MORGAN: Russ Morgan and His Orchestra—Good orchestra short.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TWILIGHT ON THE TRAIL: Screen Songs—Excellent Screen Song but we received a poor print, which hurts these reels worse than it does some others.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TWISTER PITCHER, THE: Popeye the Sailor—The ball fans will get a big kick out of this.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

WRESTLING (IT'S A LAUGH): Grantland Rice Sportlights—Good sporting reel.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

RKO Radio

DAY WITH THE DIONNE QUINTUPLETS, A: Special—This has the things needed to bring in some extra patrons. Get behind it. Advertsie it like a big feature and those who follow the careers of these little girls will be more than satisfied.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

MARCH OF TIME: NO. 10—Usual hullabaloo about things in general.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

LOOKING FOR TROUBLE: Adventures of the Newsreel Cameraman—Good action reel.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

United Artists

MOOSE HUNTERS: Mickey Mouse—Very good Mickey Mouse.—John A. Milligan, Broadway Theatre, Schuylerville, N. Y. Small town patronage.

THREE LITTLE WOLVES: Silly Symphonies—One of the outstanding Disney's.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Universal

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY WITH IT: Special—A credit to Universal, showing the workings of G-Men.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Vitaphone

GIVE ME LIBERTY: Broadway Brevities—Excellent for your better class audience night.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

JACQUES FRAY AND ORCHESTRA: Melody Masters—Good musical. Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PALM BEACH KNIGHTS: Charles Ahearn—A tramp's camp which burlesques one of the leading resorts. Quite a laugh.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

PICTORIAL REVIEWS: No. 2.—How to cook Irish stew, furs in color, learning to dance. A good filler.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

PORKY'S ROMANCE: Looney Tunes—Okay cartoon in a mild way.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SHE WAS AN ACROBAT'S DAUGHTER: Merrie Melodies—Amusing cartoon. Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

Miscellaneous

FEED THE MULTITUDE: Good but the advertising is obvious and therefore spoils the effect somewhat.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

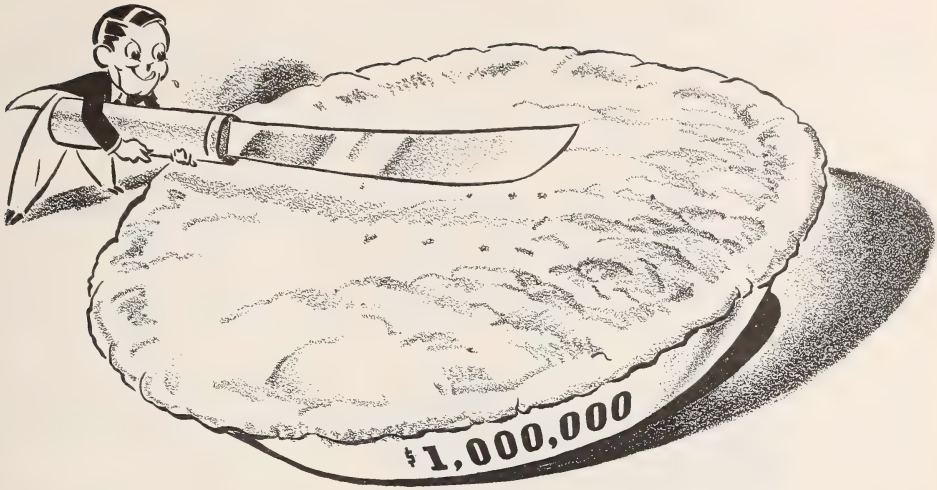
Chesterfield to Handle 29

Chesterfield Pictures, St. Louis, will distribute 29 Ace Pictures product for the St. Louis territory under terms of a deal made between Nat Saland, president of Ace, and Robert Taylor of Chesterfield. The pictures contracted for include Tom Keene and Tom Tyler films and several action features.

African Theatre Opened

The Metro theatre, in Durban, South Africa, was opened last week in line with MGM's international expansion policy. The house has a seating capacity of 2,000 and air conditioning facilities. Other MGM theatres recently built abroad include houses in Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo and Lima, Peru.

McBride in Kansas City



C. M. McBride, formerly associated with the Warner Brothers exchange in Kansas City, has returned as office manager and city salesman. For the last five and a half years, Mr. McBride has been working with the company in San Francisco.

To Distribute Trailer Product

Independent Film Distributors, Kansas City, will distribute Theatre Trailer Corporation product for Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska. The concern is headed by Homer Blackwell.

Obtain Distribution Rights

Principal Film Exchange, Inc., has obtained the distribution rights to "Crusade Against Rackets" for New York and northern New Jersey territories.

Would You Like A Part of $1,000,000

- WITHOUT EXTRA INVESTMENT
- WITHOUT EXTRA OPERATING COST

Over 6500 theaters share in big extra income supplied by General Screen Advertising, Inc.

These Prominent

Film Companies are our co-distributors . . . ready to serve you as a connecting link with General Screen Advertising, Inc. These are the ONLY advertising film distributors within our set-up!

ALEXANDER FILM CO.
Colorado Springs, Colo.

GREEN'S ADVERTISING AGENCY
San Francisco, Cal.

MOTION SKREENADZ LTD.
Vancouver, B. C.

RAY-BELL FILMS, INC.
St. Paul, Minn.

SCREEN ADETTES
Portland, Ore.

SCREENAD EXCHANGE
Binghamton, N. Y.

TAD SCREEN ADVERTISING, INC.
Dallas, Texas

Through our New York and Chicago offices (where national advertising appropriations grow thickest) we create and sell Minute Movie campaigns—ninety foot national screen ads—for more than 6500 theaters from coast to coast including Canada.

We hope you are one of our theaters—serviced and contacted by one of our co-distributor members (names appear on the left). No advertising film distributor except these listed are a part of the General Screen Advertising set-up.

Big national advertisers such as Chevrolet, Alka-Seltzer, Hubinger, Bauer & Black, Procter & Gamble, etc. are General Screen Advertising accounts. No wonder we cut a big melon for theater owners in the past twelve months—no wonder we can say the next twelve months will show billing well in excess of $1,000,000. Write today for further information.

GENERAL SCREEN ADVERTISING, Inc.

WRIGLEY BLDG. CHICAGO, ILL.

. . . and now we come to the application of materials in correcting acoustic faults . . .

C. C. POTWIN

The absorption characteristics of the various types of acoustic treatment materials, how to apply them efficiently to correct specific kinds of faults, and decoration without impairing sound reception—all of them matters about which nearly every theatre owner, manager and architect at some time seeks expert counsel—will be discussed by C. C. Potwin in the two concluding articles of his current series in Better Theatres, "Theatre Acoustics Today." C. C. Potwin, who is attached to the technical consulting staff of Erpi, has been dealing with acoustic problems continuously since the inception of sound pictures. His first discussion of the efficient application of materials (series' fifth article) will appear in the September 18th issue of

BETTER THEATRES

Cash Award Game Insurance Under Fire in Two Places

The newest outgrowth of chance games—"bank night insurance" which enables a winner to collect even if he is not present at the theatre during the drawing, was ordered discontinued in Cleveland and Wisconsin this week. At the same time, "surprise nights," a modified "grab-bag" game, was declared punishable under the Missouri lottery laws by the Attorney General's office in Jefferson City.

Labeling bank night a lottery, Cleveland's assistant police prosecutor, David C. Meck, ordered dissolution of the "Dependable Pay Plan" recently introduced as "bank night insurance." Promoters were warned to cease operations or face charges of promoting a scheme of chance.

District Attorney Oscar M. Edwards, in Racine, Wis., similarly warned the Racine Novelty Company to halt selling bank night insurance, declaring that it violates the State lottery laws.

Selling the insurance at 15 cents a week, the Racine company is reported to agree to pay the "policy holder" the total amount he would have received had he been at the theatre during the time of the drawing.

Declaring "surprise nights" illegal, Franklin E. Reagan, assistant attorney general of Missouri, asserted that a lottery is a scheme "wherein anything of value is, for a consideration, allotted by chance." The requirement that patrons must register their names in a book in the lobby was sufficient to constitute a consideration, he said.

Ten-O-Win Amusement Company, San Francisco firm nationally distributing a theatre promotional game, was victorious in federal court recently in a copyright infringement suit against the Rolleo Company, another novelty concern, and Blumenfeld Theatre Circuit.

In Marion, Ohio, hearings were started on the prosecution of George Planck, manager of the Palace, in that city, for operation of a chance game. Co-defendants with Mr. Planck are three employes, all girl cashiers, who were seized when police raided the theatre as 1,000 patrons watched a sweepstakes drawing.

Swedish Film Wodehouse

A Swedish film version of P. G. Wodehouse's story, "Summer Lightning," is being produced in Stockholm. The story has been rewritten to fit Swedish customs by Hans Ekman, son of the Swedish actor, Gosta Ekman.

Chase Gets Franchise

Maurice Chase, former Cincinnati film salesman, has obtained the franchise of Imperial Pictures in that city. O. W. Holthaus, associated with Ross-Federal Service since 1930, is in charge of sales and bookings.

Paul Fine Joins GB

Paul Fine, formerly with Universal, has been named manager of GB's Des Moines branch, succeeding Lester Rosenthal.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE CLUB

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

TODAY AND TOMORROW

Get talking to any theatreman and sooner or later the subject gets around to the two things that concern him most—enough of a salary to make possible a comfortable living and a bit of a savings account, first, and security for the future, second. In return for the usual job the capable manager turns in and the lengths he is willing to go to hold up his end, these aims and ambitions seem far from fantastic. But to be wondered at is that in so many situations theatremen seem to have no great store of optimism in looking forward to these objectives.

The need of intelligent, ingenious showmanship permeates every branch of the motion picture industry from production to exhibition—especially exhibition. And showmanship being a delicate thing, it would seem that those who are possessed of it should be relieved of such damaging personal fears that must if not eliminated affect not only their livelihood but also their grosses.

To look on the brighter side it can be said and gratefully that the entire picture is not a black one; that there are theatre executives here and about who regard the welfare of personnel as of the greatest importance, who list protection and security of workers high among the economic "musts." And since these instances are not dishearteninly few, since those who nourish manpower are obviously profiting thereby, it is to be deduced that in time if not immediately others in position to do so must be impressed with the boxoffice logic of making similar conditions possible.

* * *

Because of this department's close contacts with executives and theatremen of the circuit, your Chairman has for some years been allowed the welcome opportunity of observing the advantages of such harmony between bossman and manager in the operations of Famous Players-Canadian. The circuit numbers some 200 or more houses that reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific but the thousands of miles that separate individual managers from home office are narrowed down to a handspan through the warm and personal relationships of employer and employee.

Famous Players-Canadian managers' sharing plan, free life policies and further low-cost insurance created by the forethought of headmen N. L. Nathanson and J. J. Fitzgibbons have been detailed here before. Aimed to make possible adequate remuneration and security for the future, these arrangements at once clear away most dangerous obstacles in the path of the theatreman who wants to devote all of his time and his mind to his work, who cannot do so unless he is relieved of rent and old-age worries.

It is significant to note at the last convention that Mr. Fitzgibbons, saddled with a thousand and one affairs of circuitwide importance, nevertheless in his address before the assemblage found time to speak of the company's responsibility as had to do with the future, the security of managers within the fold.

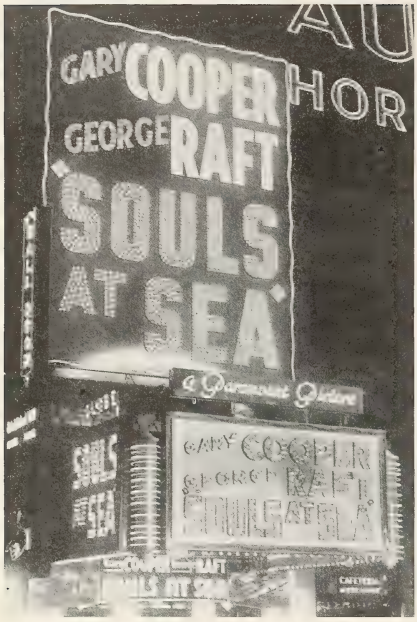
Every Famous Players-Canadian theatreman in attendance must have returned to his situation with high resolve to do a good job even better for the coming year, in return at least for this laudable recognition. There is every reason to feel that the same much to be desired relationship between executive and manager in other situations is within reach of those willing to regard as matters of great importance, the necessity of a fair shake for the manager tomorrow as well as today.

▽ ▽ ▽

IN PRAISE OF GOOD WORK

One hears many stories of managers who squawk all over the lot when the opposition puts over an unusual newspaper tiein or otherwise. It seems that execution of a high-power idea by one theatreman is often the signal for remonstration instead of admiration. Little consideration is evidently given to the thought that an idea put over by one man may react in favor of every other theatre in that spot.

Luckily, the hammer is not employed universally. There are managers about who do not hesitate to speak up when the other fellow turns in a noteworthy job and among those may be listed Otus Bowes, of the Grand Theatre, in Regina, Canada, who writes in to praise a recent job of work on "Elephant Boy" put over by Larry Graburn, at the opposition Metropolitan. Mr. Bowes is nice enough to say: "Graburn deserves a lot of credit for his work. . . I only hope that some day I will be able to send in a campaign as good."



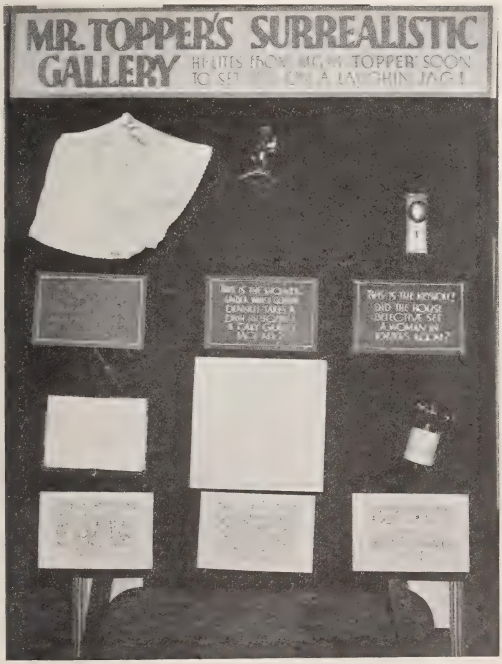
It's a cinch that grosses are generally better in those situations where managers take time out to sing the praises of smart exploitation, opposition or otherwise.

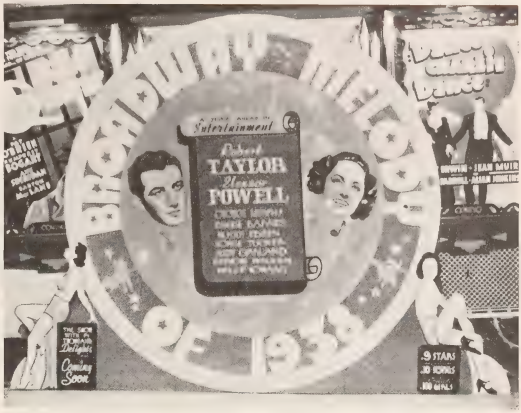
A. Mike Vogel

Round Table Pictures

FOR date on "Go Getter," Manager Art Wartha, Roxy Theatre, LaPorte, Ind., tied his campaign effectively to the annual statewide bathing beauty contest for the title of "Miss Indiana." As part of the elimination contests held on the Roxy stage, Wartha had girls hold letters to spell out title. Picture was also sold by giant letters attached to curtain as shown. . . . Electric display covering entire front was used on Paramount's campaign for "Souls At Sea" at the New York Globe.

Persuading Governor Bailey to issue a proclamation in favor of "The Good Earth" ahead of the date in Little Rock, Ark., topped the campaign put on by Ralph Noble, Robb & Rowley city manager, with the help of Jimmie Thames, MGM exploiteer. In addition, theatremen were allowed to plant signs such as shown on the State Capitol grounds. . . . Tiein with local Scottish societies was featured by Warnerites Miller and Pearlstein on "Wee Willie Winkie" at the Hippodrome, Cleveland, with special costumed party for Scot lassies and parents.





DORY carried atop truck and carrying men in oilskins was top street stunt put on by Manager A. S. Murch, Jr., for "Captains Courageous" at the North Shore, Gloucester, Mass. . . . Giant lobby setpiece created by B. B. Hamilton, Palace, Norwich, Conn., for "Broadway Melody," was made of 4 by 12 beaverboard.

A 1907 model auto was the jallopy used by Manager Walter De Witt for his "Mountain Music" street bally for the date at Loew's Victory, Evansville, Ind. . . . Another surrealistic display for "Topper" fashioned by Manager J. G. Samartane at Loew's Palace, Meriden, Conn. Items on the board were all promoted from local shops.

Reported to have been flown especially from the Coast for the opening at the Palace, Saratoga, N. Y., print of "Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" is shown about to be delivered by Ed Clifford, local pilot, at airport to Mayor Addison Mallery, Hizzoner acting as the head of the reception committee for Manager Herrington.

QUICK REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

"Star" Contest

To exploit "A Star Is Born," Dave Dallas, Grand, Holdenville, Okla., staged a "Do you want to be a star" contest 10 days ahead of opening. Planted in local dailies teaser copy carried such catchlines as "do you want to be a movie star," "can you act," "can you sing, dance," etc. "If so, register now for our contest and receive guest tickets."

Some 30 contestants responded with typical amateur talent. Mike and master of ceremonies together with special Hollywood set was used on the stage and a number of girls appeared in Hollywood fashions depicting well known stars.

Anniversary

Special first anniversary program was distributed by Frank Mangham, Phoenix Theatre, Phoenix, Ariz., featuring merchants' congratulatory ads, cuts of house personnel together with pictures of cooling system, projection booth, etc. Regular feature of Frank's program is weekly set of gag etiquette rules which he reports receiving considerable comment.

Fight Bally

Promoted truck from local car dealer was used as street bally by Harry Schlinker, Warner Theatre, San Pedro, Cal., for "Kid Galahad." Two ushers dressed as boxers were planted on touring bannered truck, lads sparring as they covered neighborhoods. Oversized cutout head of Ed Robinson was attached to back of truck, and display board was constructed for lobby with fight scene stills, playdates, etc.

Tieup

Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine, on "Day at the Races" through tieup with local dairy distributed colored heralds carrying small cuts of each of the Brothers with gag instructions on how to properly eat ice cream cones. Copy ended with "we don't know what kind of cream the boys are eating, but if it is ours," etc., etc.

Dietrich Cup

Dietrich cup for valor awarded by Nate Cohen for his theatres in Atlantic City in connection with "Knight Without Armor" was deemed sufficiently news-worthy to break local papers, wire services, etc. Cup was awarded to the life guard who was selected for performing the outstanding feat of valor.

SUBSEQUENTS ELIGIBLE FOR "STELLA" PRIZES

Theatremen in the subsequent runs desirous of entering campaigns in United Artists' "Stella Dallas" $1,000 prize contest will have an equal chance at the money, according to Monroe Greenthal, since the competitions are open until November 1st. Entrants are assured all campaigns will be given equal consideration regardless of situation.

Railroad Front

Effective lobby display was conceived by Louie Charninsky, Capitol, Dallas, Texas, on "Silent Barriers" in which he dressed his boxoffice to represent the front of a railroad engine. Miniature electric train was kept in motion beside display.

Lobbyman was dressed as brakeman and victrola played train records.

Windows

Local merchant cooperated with Abner Pinanski's "Make Way for Tomorrow" date at the Modern, Boston, by featuring window displays of young men's model graduation clothes. Background consisted of cutout letters spelling out title while front of the window contained numerous stills with credit copy. Audience reaction cards were distributed, comments received used on lobby display boards.

Medallions

At the Stanley, Philadelphia, on opening day of "Saratoga" so great was the crowd that it was deemed worthy of news story featured prominently by local papers. Souvenir Jean Harlow medallions were distributed to the first 1,500 in line proved to be one of the highlights in the campaign, also being mentioned by papers.

Rose Trellis

In a beautiful scenic effect, P. G. Travers, La Scala Theatre, Paisley, Scotland for "Romeo and Juliet" dressed his lobby depicting the famous lobby scene, with nine-foot cutouts of Norma Shearer and Leslie Howard. Over main stairways were archways of green trellis work completely covered with rambling roses. Department stores cooperated by featuring window displays of specially tinted scene stills.

Psychology

Myrtle Elrod, publicist, Fox Midland Theatre, Pittsburg, Kan., for "Night Must Fall" used candid cameraman on streets, distributing heralds offering passes to those whose pictures appeared on easel in front of theatre opening day. Myrtle further contacted professor of psychology at Kansas State Teachers College enlisting his cooperation in selling the picture to summer students.

Review

Carrying out the financial idea featured in "Toast of New York," Johnnie Barcroft and Harry Schreiber, respectively publicity chief and city manager of RKO houses in Columbus, planted a stockticker in actual operation in front of the Palace Theatre. Financial editors and local financiers were invited to a special screening and tieups included distribution of stage money heralds, Toast of New York Night at dance halls, etc.

Animation

Special front was constructed by Arden Rootes, Olympic Theatre, Utica, N. Y., on "Slave Ship," predominating color being light sky blue with water green at bottom. Portholes at either side of box-office were transparent with flashing light behind each. Large panel at right contained figure of Warner Baxter at steering wheel, which was driven by motor to provide animation.

Benefit

Three column cut and story on "Captains Courageous" at the Capitol, Wilkes Barre, Pa., was the reward of Al Coxe for special showing to patients at local hospital. Busses bannered with giant signs were sent out by Al to cover entire drawing area and stop at factories, mills, etc., to catch attention of employees at lunch and quitting time.

Slogan Contest

To launch his "Devil Is Driving" campaign at the De Soto, DeSoto, Mo., Louie Collins planted contest in paper offering tickets to those submitting best slogans for the city's "safety week." Stories were run together with slogans submitted and winners' names. Mayor issued safety week proclamation and parade with police escort marched to theatre headed by men in devil costume driving car bannered with title and playdates.

"FIRST MENTION" JULY CAMPAIGNS STRESS EFFECTIVE EXPLOITATIONS

Winning Theatremen in Indiana, Ohio, Massachusetts Arrange Contests and Tieins of Many Kinds for "Awards" Honors

Highly successful was newspaper contest planted in the Cleveland Press by Manager Ed Miller and publicist Manny Pearlstein at Warner's Hippodrome in connection with the opening of "Wee, Willie Winkie." Week ahead ad was run with cut of Shirley and wire received from starlet announcing the coloring contest and that she would present dolls to the winners. Extensive art and reader breaks were secured in all dailies and underlines were used in theatre ads.

Tying in with annual fashion show held at leading hotel, the boys secured five little girls and the latest Temple dresses which the children modeled. Total cost to the theatre was one Shirley Temple doll as a door prize and autographed photos with theatre imprint on back. Through tieup with Beeman's sticks of gum were promoted and distributed with theatre, picture and playdate credits.

Robert Bowie, head of the Ohio Scots, and Lincoln Dickey, general manager of the Great Lakes Exposition, talked to Shirley via telephone on Scots Day which was arranged at the Exposition the opening day of the picture. The conversation was carried over the loudspeakers on the Expo grounds to the thousands of visitors listening in. The continuity was written so as to include credits for the picture and theatre and stories together with photos were used by all local dailies.

Party for Scotch Lassies

Cards were posted in all Cleveland playgrounds two days ahead and continuing currently with the theatre offering passes for prizes in connection with games at these recreation centers. Department store ran large ad with theatre credits and devoted window display to Temple dresses, 22 to 28 cards were planted on all busses at the Great Lakes Exposition and special front constructed for display at other Warner house.

Another highlight of the campaign which netted additional publicity was party for Scotch lassies and their parents which was held at the theatre. Further publicity was secured in the "Night Owl," which has a circulation of 10,000 and is distributed among hotels and night clubs, paper using large cut of the starlet together with story on the picture.

Murch Plants Nautical Stuff On "Captains Courageous" Date

One of the major stunts on "Captains Courageous" used by Art Murch at the North Shore Theatre, Gloucester, Mass., was a boat bally, back end of which was built up level with the roof. Through cooperation of local Fisheries, Art promoted use of a fishing dory which was placed on the truck and appropriately bannered. Two men dressed in oilskins and so-wester hats sat in the dory while it paraded through the main streets and covered all the beaches on the Cape, the "fishermen" passing out imprinted envelopes of promoted candy.

Five-and-ten cooperated with window display consisting of beach equipment and nautical wear. Colored poster was planted in center of window with proper credits, large and small photos scattered around the display and throughout the store.

Three men paraded through main streets and around wharfs dressed in oilskins with back banners plugging the attraction. A reported first time in the history of the town was cruising of 20-foot motor boat with p.a. system around nearby shore resorts calling attention to the opening. Week ahead of premiere lobby was decorated with life savers, each of which carried picture copy. Ticket taker dressed in fisherman costume and entire staff wore the so-wester imprinted hats. Through tieup with the Gloucester Record contest was planted with tickets going to those correctly answering list of questions on the picture, paper running followup story with winners' names and addresses. Daily also ran serialization of the picture, concluding chapter being run opening day. Added break was full page story on "Men who go down to the sea in ships" with addition of art and theatre credits.

FOUR DAYS REMAIN FOR AUGUST AWARDS

Deadline for Quigley Awards August entries having been set for midnight of Wednesday, September 8th, four days yet remain to get in those last-minute entries for this month's competitions. To be stressed again is that all campaigns to be eligible for August must be at Quigley Headquarters by that time. Photos of July entries detailed on this page will be found in the Round Table photo section.

Wartha Ties Statewide Contest To Campaign for "Go Getter"

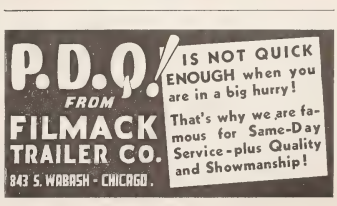
Top stunt in Art Wartha's "Go Getter" campaign at the Roxy, La Porte, Ind., was tieup with Montgomery-Ward plugging new bike line especially directed to La Porte's young "go-getters." Parade of kids was held with store awarding bike for the best decorated cycle and other prizes including merchandise plus smaller gifts of bats, gloves, footballs, dolls, etc. Immediately after the parade all entrants were admitted to the theatre as guests of cooperating merchant who paid for each admission.

Through cooperation of circus officials playing local date Wartha secured permission to banner elephant with credits, thus getting his message before thousands attending the circus. Every summer the Roxy holds a bathing contest which is tied in with statewide "Indiana Days," event in which girls from all over the state representing their particular towns compete for the title of "Miss Indiana." Using the elimination contest to plug his forthcoming attraction, Art had the girls parade across the stage each holding a cutout letter spelling out the picture title.

Other outdoor ballys comprised bannered plane flying over city dropping heralds and boat with lettered sail plied the nearby beaches during boat races. Sidewalk stencils were used and Wartha also promoted a full page of co-op ads from leading merchants.

"Tell Us What You Did"

Leighton and Reisman Report Smart Campaigns on "Topper"



Employing many devices of the "screwiest" nature to put over their dates on "Topper," Warnerites Bert Leighton, Grand, Lancaster, Pa., and Jules Reisman, Capitol, York, Pa., reported ace results on this unusual picture. In both situations, particular attention was paid to running copy in all ads emphasizing that the picture be seen from the beginning. Another line that piqued curiosity was "Shame on You—if you give away the secret! It's the most unusual and different story idea the movies have had in years—so don't spoil it for your friends."

Invisible gold fish gag was found to command attention. Ornate aquarium filled with water, pebbles, etc., was placed in lobby with sign reading: "Invisible goldfish used in the production of 'Topper.' If you think this is screwy, wait till you see," etc. Kettle steaming on ice worked by placing dry ice inside kettle and steam created by water dripping on ice, proved good enough to stop the folks, similar copy used to tiein the date.

Boy place on prominent corner fishing from aquarium bowl filled only with water, was another gag of the same nature and hooked to the picture with "screw" copy. Reisman even dug up what he termed a left-handed monkey wrench for a window display calling it the only one of its kind in town in the tiein copy. Lost articles of apparel apparently lost by patrons while laughing at the picture were placed in a showcase and prominently displayed in his foyer by Leighton.

Classified "chuckle" contest, "tall story" radio contest and gag teaser ads were among other effective slants worked by both managers.

"Tell Us What You Did"

CAMPAIGNS ON FRIDAY THE 13TH DO BUSINESS FOR ROUND TABLERS

George Limerick, Joe Stribling Put Over "Jinx Prevues" and Milt Harris Ties the 13th to Contest on "Stella Dallas"

Friday, the 13th, may be regarded generally with apprehension, but for theatremen it's a grand spot for exploitation. Among the members who found the date an excellent one to aid in putting over their attractions current with famed Friday, George Limerick and Joe Stribling did fancy jobs by sponsoring what they termed a "Jinx Prevue." Limerick put on his own in conjunction with "Supersleuth" and Stribling with "Prevue Murder Mystery."

For the event at the Yale, Cleburne, Tex., George effected a number of smart exploitations, inaugurating tiein with leading insurance man for good results. The insurance man, a member of the national "Black Cat" society composed of those who have sold 13 accident policies on Friday, the 13th, desired to duplicate the performance and with this in mind mailed some 200 letters to prospects offering free tickets to the Jinx Prevue to all purchasing a policy on that day. Insurance merchant also took large co-op ad and reserved the entire 13th, row of the theatre for his guests at the Prevue.

Cut-out cat, measuring six feet high, was displayed in lobby two weeks ahead. Cat figure colored black was supplied with green cellophane eye-slits which worked with flashers behind, and "dare you to attend" copy on poster.

Plants Bed in Foyer

Another display in foyer was a bed and poster reading: "Afraid to throw your hat on the bed? We dare you to attend," etc. Over the bed was placed large shadow box in form of magnifying glass covered with clear cellophane with picture and Prevue copy in the aperture. Outside of shadow box was covered with green-eyed black cats. Color scheme of entire lobby was in green for ghost effect, horse shoes were placed over doors and archways, mirrors marked with soap to make them appear broken. Black cat cutouts were hung from chandeliers, pasted on entrance doors and box-office windows.

The cat theme was carried out further in outdoor advertising and in windows. Lettered cutout cats were planted around the business district, shadow boxes placed on marquees on prominent corners, sidewalks stenciled. Same idea was utilized in special window displays dimly lighted with "dare you" and other theatre copy included.

Newspaper copy was stressed, of course, first ad, one-column on five inches reading: "Don't look at this ad if your tongue is Jinxed, but if you are a nimble enunciator you can easily win a free ticket," etc. Ad went on to invite patrons to walk up to the doorman and say "Supersleuth" 13 times in six seconds, tickets going to the first 13 who did so without slipping. Following ads carried out the superstition idea and for the topper, Limerick worked out a nice page co-op tiein copy reading: "Supersleuth Comes to Cleburne in Search of Super Values." Center of page was given over to the Prevue (see below for example of Limerick's ads).

Stribling Does Likewise

The details of Limerick's 1936 Prevue served as sufficient inspiration for Joe Stribling for an effective Friday, the 13th, performance at the Kiowa, in Hobart, Okla. Starting with teaser ads of the "dare you" variety, Stribling worked up to a three-column smash day ahead which plugged his Prevue and also the attraction, "Prevue Murder Mystery." Big ad was headed by a Friday, the 14th, cut with following copy reading: "Are you superstitious? Are you afraid to walk under ladders? Are you afraid to cross a black cat's trail? If you are then don't attend our Jinx Prevue because you'll have to walk under ladders, break mirrors, not only cross a black cat's trail, but pull his tail," etc. Joe had the ad also made up as a herald for wider distribution.

Another slick gag was a want ad asking for 13 black cats for lobby display and Stribling reports felines from far and near in answer.

At the theatre, shadow box backed with green crepe paper was placed on the stage and lighted at intervals. For lobby, cutout black cat was created with similar "dare" copy. Ladder and broken mirror were used in lobby ahead, announcements made at skating rink, ballrooms and other gathering spots.

All the gags arranged for were put on at the Prevue. Master of ceremonies invited patrons to come up on the stage and help violate the popular superstitions in exchange for guest tickets. One patron was asked to remove one shoe and walk up to the stage, another to walk under a ladder, a third to spill salt and not throw any over his shoulder, a fourth to break a mirror.

The payoff, believe it or not, reports Joe was that after all the superstitions were kicked apart, lightning struck the lighting plant transformer and left the house in darkness. So as an extra feature not scheduled, Stribling called for dancers, singers and musicians from among the audience. All in all the party was quite a success with business considerably above the average.

SCHOOL OPENING'S AROUND THE CORNER

For those theatremen who have yet to conclude their arrangements for tieins with schools and students for the opening of the new season, there is still time to use this angle for tieins. Imprinted book covers, special heralds, attendance prizes, essay contests, etc., are among the slants already set and recommended further.

Harris Makes 13th A Very Lucky Day

The exploitation-provocating 13th, in Cleveland marked the opening day of "Stella Dallas" at Loew's State, so with the hearty support of Manager Ev Steinbuch and Frank Loftus, United Artists exploiteer, Milt Harris, rigged up a gag on the date that brought plenty of cooperation from leading merchants along Euclid Avenue, leading shopping district.

Within a half-hour after the birth of the idea, reports Milt, some 17 of the stores invited came in on the tiein worked as follows. Small imprinted envelopes were distributed, copy reading: "Sh-h-h! Friday, the 13th, May Be Your Lucky Day. (Do Not Open in Public.)" One side of numbered card inside read: "Stella Dallas Says Friday, the 13th, May Be Your Lucky Day. If the number on this card appears in the windows of the leading stores listed on the other side you will receive a gift from Barbara Stanwyck," etc. Each store in on the stunt contributed a gift for the winner and used windows to announce the contest in addition to listing the individual winning number.

Girl attired in costume similar to one worn by star in picture worked the downtown streets distributing the envelopes. Stunt proved highly effective, reports Harris, with thousands of locals going from store to store hunting lucky numbers.

Success of the store treasure hunt as put on by the Clevelanders follows basic appeal of the tiein and makes the stunt applicable for other dates.

"Tell Us What You Did"

Two-Column Limerick Prevue Ad

Chairman Visits Members On Both Sides of Border

Attends Famous Players-Canadian Convention; Stops at Hamilton, Rochester, Syracuse

by A-MIKE VOGEL

Featured by a visit to Toronto to attend the annual Famous Players-Canadian circuit's Eastern Managers convention, last week was taken up and with great pleasure by an expedition out in the field wherein your Chairman also made stops at Hamilton, Canada, and on this side of the border at Rochester and Syracuse.

Honored for the third successive year with an invitation by headman J. J. Fitzgibbons, director of theatre operations, to be present at the General Meeting that climaxed the convention and the picnic that followed, your reporter on arrival at the King Edward Hotel found early evidence of that always-reliable Canadian hospitality. Telephone greetings came from "swell person" Jim Nairn, circuit ad head, and almost immediately added to in person by Howard Knevels, who hurried over with the keys-to-the-city. Then with Jim and Howard to the final meeting where the managers and home office heads were continuing enthusiastically under the supervision of genial Clarence Robson, aided and abetted by executives Morris Stein, R. W. Bolstad, Ben Geldsaler, among others.

Highlights of the session as to be expected, were the presentation of the managers' sharing plan checks by N. L. Nathanson, president, his address before the gathering and the talk made by Mr. Fitzgibbons. Mr. Nathanson indicated the progress made in the past year and touched upon plans made for the future.

Endorses Motion Picture Herald

In his address the general manager of circuit operations emphasized the necessity of continued showmanship for the coming year and referred to the responsibility felt by the circuit's heads for protection of the managers, pointing out that the low-cost group insurance made available to the theatremen in addition to the $5,000 individual life policies for which the company paid the premiums. Mr. Fitzgibbons further reviewed the various talks on operation and maintenance made by department heads at previous sessions. He also made mention of the importance of MOTION PICTURE HERALD and the value of contributing to Managers' Round Table Club.

Lunch followed the final session and then in Jim Nairn's car to the big picnic held this year at the Circle M Ranch, where the folks, many in typical cow-country costume, mounted the range ponies and conducted themselves in correct ranch fashion. Other activities included swimming, games and such extra special events as lucky number contests, choice of the best-dressed manager, etc. During the day your observer had occasion to visit with many of the boys, greeting old friends and new, taking part in group discussions on general showmanship and other pertinent angles of showbusiness.

TOM SORIERO MAKES RADIO TRANSCRIPTIONS

A recording room in the United Artists Theatre, Los Angeles, designed by Manager Thomas D. Soriero is utilized for the manufacture of radio transcriptions made up of imaginary conversations between patrons and cashiers, etc., on coming and current attractions. Transcriptions are broadcast on local radio stations.

In the evening an informal outdoors barbecue took the place of the usual dinner and the rest of the program was given over to dancing and further good-fellowship. The next day was spent in visiting at some of the Toronto houses and the home offices, then with "time marching on," your Chairman, thankful for a marvelous party turned in the direction of home, making his first stop at Hamilton especially to see old friend John Purves, convalescing at his home from a bad attack of illness. Russ McKibbon, skipper of Tivoli, stood by at the station and after lunch drove us out to Jack's house, where we visited with the ailing member who, incidentally, is coming along in fine shape and looks forward to being up and about shortly. A quick look at some of the other Famous Players-Canadian spots in Hamilton with McKibbon before train time and en route again, winding up the day in Rochester where Round Tabler Les Pollock was on hand with the Silver Cornet band and address of welcome.

Rochester Situation Favorable

Headquarters at the Sagamore by the smooth-functioning Pollock, the evening was devoted to visits at the various theatres and their skippers known to the readers through their contributions to this journal. Loew's, where Les holds forth, was the first stop and from there to see Lou Mayer, at the Temple, doing his bit for Rochester after a long spell of usefulness at the Main-street, in Kansas City. Mayer is turning in his usual smart job in the new spot and found business holding up nicely. With Pollock leading the way, we dropped in on Bill Cadoret, who holds forth for the RKO and Comerford Theatres in Rochester and an "enjoyable time was had by all" in talking over old times and new. Charley Freeman, manager of the Century, came in for greetings and then on to the Palace, to say "how" to Walter Risley, who took time out to host us at the Elks Club.

In all, the Rochester situation is a favorable one. The city is well placed industrially, the streets crowded, the stores doing business and the theatres likewise. Theatremen in the main houses are alert, and the operation in all spots leaves little to chance. Advertising and exploitation is up to scratch with merchants as well as the public show-conscious which is shown in the consistently fine campaigns the local showmen put on. A bit of a rest to catch up a bit and then the next day found your reporter, sent on his way by Pollock to Syracuse where Round Tabler Ed McBride awaited with not only the key-to-the-city but with half the fire department on hand to greet the "visiting fireman."

With the able assistance of Fire Marshal Charles Wilkes, our faltering steps were guided to the Chief's big red wagon in which the party was speeded up to Loew's State, which functions in McBride's able hands. There your Chairman was given the Big Surprise of the entire trip when on behalf of Mayor Marvin, Chief Wilkes presented us with a gold badge suitably inscribed which notifies the world (and traffic cops, we hope) that your observer is now a member in good standing of His Honor's official staff. It is of course to be suspected that Ed McBride had something to do with the whole idea.

Syracuse Called Good Show Town

The badge having been properly admired and securely attached to this person, a lot of quick visiting was on tap in order that the last "sleeper" to New York be made. A phone call to Keiths to Jay Golden to make a later appointment, and then with Ed to the Eckels for a bit of a chat with Buddy Freeman, brother of the Rochester Freeman and member of the famed showbusiness-family of that name. From there McBride guided us to the Strand to say hello to William Weber, another contributor to these pages. Last but far from the least was a stop back at Keith's to greet Gus Lampe, Schine Theatres City Manager, and Mrs. Lampe.

Train-time neared and until then there was a "breather" filled in with a sandwich and such while McBride detailed the low-down on the status of the theatre in Syracuse. The same high level of showmanship apparent in Rochester is in evidence in Syracuse and what the boys are doing to attract attention to their bookings has been and is being told frequently in the Round Table. It's a good show town and remains so under the able ministrations of the local theatremen, who intend keeping it so. In all spots enthusiasm over the coming product was rife with theatremen looking forward to the new season's pictures.

Thus ended this year's annual journey to Canada and way points and a fine trip it was, indeed. To all those who helped make the occasion so highly enjoyable, our hearty thanks, and to those, if any, we missed in the short time available, we'll see you next time.

personalities

ROBERT J. HALEY
is the new manager of the Liberty Theatre, New Orleans, La., succeeding NOEL D. SMITH, resigned.

▽

GAIL EGAN
son of Round Tabler Pete Egan, announced his marriage to Miss Bernice Eileen Ethredge on August 17th.

▽

LOUIE CHARNINSKY
of the Interstate Dallas Theatres came by to pay us a long anticipated visit. Come again, Louie.

▽

WALLACE ELLIOTT
who has been managing Warner's Ohio, Canton, has been named city manager at Lima. He is succeeded at Canton by BEN SCHWARTZ, who was previously in charge of the Ohio at Lima.

▽

ED SHEA
formerly with the Ohio Valley theatres, has been named manager of the Columbia, East Liverpool, Ohio.

▽

VERNON KELSO
has opened the New Zephyr Theatre, Portland, Ore.

▽

HARRY MILSTEIN
has acquired the Elite, Los Angeles, Cal.

▽

FRED B. MILLER
has succeeded EDWARD BONNVILLE as manager of the Dexter, Detroit.

▽

FRED WILCOX
has purchased the Cozy at Lockwood, Mo., from MRS. L. D. METCALF.

▽

FRESTLE CHENOWETH
formerly resident manager of the Rigney, Albany, Mo., has been appointed manager of the Noll and Roxy Theatres, Bethany, Mo., in addition to the Rigney, headquartering in Bethany.

▽

PAUL BINSTOCK
former manager of the Republic, Brooklyn, has been transferred to the Marlboro there with LOUIS SHAPIRO assisting him. Other Randforce changes include HERMAN SEMEL from the Marlboro to the Claridge; with JOSEPH REISNER, former assistant at the Marlboro now at the Benson; MURRAY ALPER transferred from the Claridge to the Benson; DON WILLIAMS from the Colonial to the Carlton, and HARRY MARGOLESKY has been transferred from the Carlton to the Leader.

▽

EDWARD DERRICK
has been promoted to assistant manager of Loew's Orpheum, Boston.

▽

ROBERT J. HALEY
has succeeded NOEL D. SMITH as manager of the Liberty, New Orleans, La.

▽

HAL SHERIDAN
has left the State, Cedar Rapids, Ia., to headquarter at the Paramount, though he will also serve as city manager in Cedar Rapids. RAY WERNIMONT has succeeded him at the State.

THOMAS WILSON, to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Michael; weight, 7 pounds; born August 16th. Daddy manages the Best Theatre, Freeburn, Ky.

▽

AL DUMOND
is now house manager of the Paramount, Cedar Rapids; BILL MURIN, formerly assistant at the State, moves in the same capacity. RICHARD STODDARD has been transferred to the Capitol, Davenport. ELY E. SEFF, formerly at the Spencer, Rock Island, goes to the Garden in Davenport, and JOHN KRIER replaces him at the Spencer.

▽

RICHARD WELCH
projectionist at the Comique Theatre, Camden, N. J., married Cora M. Whitney on August 20th. Congratulations folks.

Birthday Greetings

Herman B. Abrams
Richard L. Albin
Nat Allentuck
Urban R. Anderson
Edwin G. Austin
Earle N. Bailey
Rockwood D. Bailey
Richard Baucke, Jr.
Joe Bean
Morton M. Bratter
Ben Broskie
Wilford G. Brown
George Clarke
Frank L. Cost
George N. Dana
Vincent Daniels
Norman L. Davis
Russell Edwin
Charles Ferguson
Alfons Galwas
Bert Gildersleeve
Melvin L. Gold
Meyer Golding
C. A. Grissinger
Herbert Hairrell
Lyle Harding
Lewis J. Hartman
John P. Hassett
Alfred E. Hewitt
Sydney J. Hobbs
Rossiter J. Hodkirk
Fred E. Irion
Jack L. Johnson
James A. Kakley
C. W. Kelly
Carl L. Krueger
Stan Krueger
Roy Laurie
Maurice H. Leahy
Morty Lightstone
Tom Malloy
L. I. McMullen
Jerome Marx
Al Mayes
Martin Messinger
Michael S. Milo
Seymour L. Morris
Fred Naify
Stewart North
Millard Ochs
Edward J. Oliver
Tom Olsen
Ernest Patrick
George Patterson
Robert G. Patterson
Irving Pearlman
Pierce Rawling
Ralph C. Ressler
Howard W. Robarge
L. O. Robertson
Sam Rotshtein
Joseph M. Rubenfeld
J. B. Seager
Harry Sefton
Edward Shuker
Morris Simms
Donald L. Smith
Frank D. Solomont
S. F. Sutaria
Fred A. TerraNova
John B. Tucker
Clarence A. Turbin
Frank Weatherford
Art Weber

ELLWOOD ROBINSON
has been appointed manager of the Yorkville Theatre, Yorkville, Ohio.

▽

ALBERT TOTH
is now managing the Palace at Tiltonville, Ohio.

▽

JIMMY SAVAGE
is the publicity director for the new Cine Theatre, Chicago.

▽

JOHN KINKAID
has been promoted from assistant at the Capitol, Grand Island, Neb., to manager of the remodeled Iowa at Sioux City, Ia.

▽

AUSTIN MOON
of the Colony Theatre, Miami Beach, Fla., paid us a visit with his wife.

▽

T. B. NOBLES
manager of the State, Oklahoma City, Okla., is erecting a new theatre there.

▽

JAMES F. BROSIUS
manager of the Colonial, Kansas City, Mo., has replaced HERBERT E. WALTERS, who goes into the home office as accountant.

▽

JOSEPH GREEN
is now managing the Tivoli, Kansas City, and THOMAS GARRETT is now at the Strand.

▽

VICTOR MORRIS
formerly at Loew's Orpheum, Boston, has become assistant to EDWARD MANNIX, in Hollywood.

▽

RICHARD McKAY
former M & P publicist and later of the managerial staff, has resigned to go to Hollywood to get into the production end.

▽

O. A. FOSSE
has acquired a theatre in Ridgeway, Iowa.

▽

JAMES O'LAUGHLIN
assistant at the Warner Palace, Lawrence, Mass., has been named manager of the Strand, Amesbury. JOSEPH LISS will be transferred from Amesbury to the Strand, Clinton, and CHRISTOPHER McHALE goes to the Broadway, Lawrence.

▽

FRED SIEGEL
will reopen his long dark Fulton Theatre in Oakland, Cal.

▽

J. N. ALLISON
has opened the Strand, New Harmony, Ind.

▽

JACK KANE
is opening the Keith Theatre, Indianapolis, Ind.

▽

F. J. HASTINGS
has sold the Roxy, Lu Verne, Ia., to J. W. MOORE.

▽

HADLEY HULL
has been named manager of the Flora, Flora, Ind.

TECHNOLOGICAL

The Bluebook School

Conducted by

F. H. RICHARDSON

ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 83

Bluebook School Question No. 83 was: (A) Why is it now necessary to substitute the theory that current flow is from negative to positive for the older positive-to-negative theory? (B) Why is knowledge of electrical theory helpful in practical work? (C) What are atoms? Of what are they composed? Have we knowledge of anything electrical except what we term negative?

The following made acceptable replies: C. Rau and S. Evans; G. E. Doe; T. F. Bochert; Oscar H. Schmidt; J. R. Prater; H. Edwards; L. Cimikoski; C. Champney; J. A. Zachritz; C. Oldham; W. Limmroth; W. H. Edmonds; H. B. Smith; P. and L. Felt; L. F. Hayes; C. Lonie; C. L. Loft; L. M. Roberts; L. H. Kelley; F. L. and L. Savlor; K. L. Brant; C. H. Lowrie; D. and W. Porter; S. R. Hewitt; J. H. Morton; F. H., S. and P. Dalbey; A. W. Baxter; L. F. and G. Brown; F. W. Brandenburg; S. H. Billings; R. H. Carter; S. L. Maxwell; B. and M. Walker; D. D. Roberts; W. B. Myers and L. G. Dillon; E. Exline; M. D. McGuire; R. E. Bullard and J. K. Robinson; R. Tomby and D. Hornbeck; D. A. Shea, M. O'Connell and H. T. Plum; H. T. Watkins and N. S. Reid; M. Dey and H. Lathrope; T. W. Redhouse; T. and W. Turk; E. F. and M. Wentworth; B. L. Cooper and B. L. Kent; F. B. Chilshome; H. T. Tood and L. E. Dodson; A. H. Bradley; H. T. Billings; T. B. Brown and W. V. Henderson; M. Samuels and O. L. Goldstein; W. R. Matthews and J. R. Davidson; G. L. Goss; M. F. Robinson and L. A. Beachwood; D. Dennis; G. T. Jones and A. Lenoard; D. Coates; F. M. Brown and R. Davis; P. F. Maxwell and S. U. Lamont; A. D. Lonby; A. C. Greene; W. C. Bant; R. S. Welch; H. Bunker; R. R. Robbins and W. Wingler; R. R. Jacobs and B. B. Hornstein; C. Caldwell; W. R. Davis and B. L. Bunt; H. A. Ames and F. E. Dorp; D. L. Strobey; F. D. Scanlon; H. T. Randolph.

Replying to Section A, M. and J. Devoy say, "Such substitution became necessary when sound was introduced, employing vacuum tubes in which the negative filament emits negatrons which were attracted to and passed into the positive plate. The old positive-to-negative theory could no longer stand. In the beginning, and until the vacuum tune action was observed, there was no means known by which direction of current flow could be judged with certainty. The positive-to-negative conception probably had its root in the apparent action of the d. c. electric arc. Lacking means for sure judgment, the old theory stood until proof of its error was found in the vacuum tube."

H. Bunker says, "The necessity for substitution of the theory that electrical action or 'flow' is from negative to positive came about through observed action in vacuum tubes employed in amplifiers. It was known that the positively charged plate gave off nothing except a surrounding positive field. It was known that the negatively charged filament emitted negatrons. It was evident these negatrons passed from negative filament to positive plate, since otherwise there could not possibly be any electrical action or flow through the attached circuit.

"The fact of this action was incontrovertible, and if current action is from negative to positive in one set of conditions, it certainly stands to reason that it must be and is so in all circumstances. It therefore was up to scientists and electricians to reverse their thought engine and adopt the view that electrical action is from negative to positive."

(B) J. R. Prater says, "A goodly store of knowledge of electrical theory is most helpful in practical work, for the reason that all electrical apparatus, regardless of how complicated it may be, functions in accordance with certain basic principles of electrical and magnetic action. This being true, that one who has thorough understanding of these principles will be able to apply them to any equipment he may be called upon to handle. Equipped with such knowledge, step by step analysis will enable their application to and a more complete understanding of even quite complicated equipment."

H. Edwards says, "It is impossible for any man to handle electrical equipments in the best manner, causing them to work at maximum efficiency, unless he not only understands both their mechanical construction and the theory or theories upon which they operate. Every electrical device is planned and constructed to do certain things, and in performing those functions electrical energy is employed.

"This being true, it follows that the man who understands the theory upon which the operation is based will be able to cause them to work very much better than one who does not. That seems self-evident and should require no argument in support of its truth. Thorough basic knowledge of electrical theories enables a man to apply them to apparatus, and by so doing to analyze their mode of operation understandingly. Without such knowledge a man in charge of electrical apparatus merely gropes in the dark in the attempt to handle it properly."

(C) After consideration I am going to sidestep this one. Something like 400 "students" answered this section to the effect that all the electricity we work with is negative, which we accept as true, but it carries with it very puzzling questions. But to go into them here, I have decided, would be to make them even more puzzling, since space could not be available for anything like an adequate discussion—even if it were, the subject would take us far from the field in which we here are immediately interested.

BLUEBOOK SCHOOL QUESTION NO. 88

(A) Upon what basic law does an electric generator (dynamo) depend for its action? Either quote the law or explain its action.

(B) Why does the rotation of a generator armature generate voltage?

(C) Explain, in detail, why only a.c. can be generated in an armature?

—

To join the Bluebook School merely send in answers. Place name and question number upon first sheet. Address F. H. Richardson, No. 3 Tudor Lane, Scarsdale, N. Y.

F. H. Richardson's BLUEBOOK of PROJECTION

• New sixth edition. Projection, sound reproduction and trouble-shooting all in one handy volume. Also features quick-finding index system for instant reference. Order today.

$6.25 Postpaid

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP

Rockefeller Center New York

National Screen to Handle MGM Displays

National Screen Accessories will make special lobby displays for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures during the new season, it was revealed at a meeting of eastern managers and salesmen of National Screen Service in New York last week. Details of the deal and plans for the displays were outlined to the meeting by William F. Rogers, MGM general sales manager. Indications are that similar deals may be closed with other distribution companies in the near future.

In addition to Mr. Rogers, speakers at the meeting included William B. Brenner, general executive of National Screen Service; George Dembrow and Charles Casanave. About 50 men from the company's eastern offices attended the meeting. A meeting for the central and western branch men was held in Chicago on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Radio Equipment Up 10%

A 10 per cent increase in radio production in the first six months of 1936, compared with the same period last year, has been reported by the Radio Manufacturers Association.

Cocalis Takes Hudson Site

Sam Cocalis this week took title to a site at Hudson, N. Y., where he will immediately begin building a new theatre in opposition to Walter Reade. Mr. Cocalis also is negotiating for a number of other properties in New Jersey.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

NEW EQUIPMENT

ANIMATION, TIME LAPSE AND GENERAL cinema apparatus. E. S. RINALDY, Chester, N. J.

PICK A STAR—PICK THE S.O.S. SUPER-ARC low amperage reflector arc lamps for modern, brilliant light. Latest tubular type, with giant 10¼ inch Bausch and Lomb elliptical reflector, Westinghouse motor, Weston Ammeter, numerous other improvements, and only $147.70. Liberal trades. S.O.S., 636-AJ Eleventh Avenue, New York.

GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SPECIAL SALE: EXCITER LAMPS $4.25 PER dozen. Roth motor generator set $75. Sound film amplifier, $25. THEATRE SOUND SERVICE, Box 395, Rochester, N. Y.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING AT CUT prices—unless you buy here. 50 ampere rectifiers, made by Forest, brand new, ideal for Suprex, $74.75. Super photocells, 71A, guaranteed 3 years, $4.95. Safety steel film cabinets, $1.79 section. 10¼-inch reflector conversion units for Peerless, $19.95. Loads of other bargains actually in stock. Get out warehouse clearance bulletins. S. O. S., 636-AJ Eleventh Avenue, New York.

BOOKS

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$3 postage prepaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 736 pages of up-to-the-minute text, charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

WORTHWHILE BOOKS AT WORTHWHILE savings.—3 books, 600 pages, only $1.49, consisting of Sloane's "Motion Picture Projection," Mancall's "Servicing Projection Equipment" and Benson's "Fundamentals of Television." Any one book 49c. Plenty others. Ask S. O. S., 636-AJ Eleventh Avenue, New York.

REPAIR SERVICE

GOLD SEAL OR SIMPLEX TICKET REGISTERS rebuilt, factory guaranteed, $15 per unit, including parts. "Loaners" furnished. Details from S. O. S., 636-AJ Eleventh Avenue, New York.

USED EQUIPMENT

UNUSUAL BARGAINS IN USED OPERA chairs, sound equipment, motion picture machines, screens, spotlights, stereopticons, etc. Projection machines repaired. Catalog H free. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, LTD., 844 So. Wabash Ave., Chicago.

ACME PORTABLE SOUND PROJECTOR 2,000 foot magazines, $150. Holmes portable sound 4,000 foot magazines, $250. DION, 78 Amber, Buffalo, N. Y.

1,000 VENEER SEATS VERY GOOD CONDITION at $.75 each. 600 re-conditioned spring seats, veneer back at $2.50 each. AMUSEMENT SUPPLY CO., INC., 341 W. 44th St., N. Y. C.

REAL VALUES—QUARTER SIZE LENSES, $10 pair, half size, $32 pair, popular makes, sizes limited; B & H splicers, $3.95; speakers from $7.95; baffles from $5.95; hearing aid amplifiers with monitor speaker and tubes, $15, handles up to 30 seats. Lots more—write now! CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

SACRIFICING—TALKIE AND SILENT—PORTable and theatre projectors, equipment, supplies, etc. Chance lifetime. Lists free. TOM AUSTIN, 470 8th Ave., New York.

TAKE 'EM AWAY, BOYS, WE NEED THE room, our $250,000 stock at slashed prices. Good used Forest rectifiers $24.50, projection lenses, all sizes, $4.95 up. Robbins and Meyers ¼ h.p. sync. motors, very fine, worth $45, special $19.95. Morelite, Peerless carbon arcs, from $39.50. Everything advertised actually in stock. S. O. S., 636-AJ Eleventh Avenue, New York.

THEATRE CHAIRS—1600 PANEL BACK SPRING seat chairs at $1.25, two lots. 1,500 fully upholstered spring seat chairs at $1.65. Photographs sent on request. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., 358 W. 44th Street, New York.

THEY CAN'T BEAT US ON OUR SEATS. REAL bargains—all types veener and upholstered chairs, refinished, reconditioned, 15,000 from 75c up. Nationally known makes. List 15M free. S. O. S., 636-AJ Eleventh Avenue, New York.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

MAN OR WOMAN WITH CAPITAL TO TAKE interest in established story and talent agency. Prefer someone interested in theatrical work. With or without services. State everything in letter for interview with principal. BOX 790A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

TRAINING SCHOOL

THEATRE EMPLOYEES: ADVANCE TO BETter theatre positions. Free booklet shows you how. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington St., Elmira, N. Y.

WANTED TO BUY

8 OR 16 MM. MOVIE CAMERA AND PROJECTOR. Used, but in good condition. Will pay cash. BOX 789A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD

BEST PRICES PAID FOR RCA SOUNDHEADS, Simplex, Powers projectors, arc lamps, rectifiers, generators, lenses, all equipment. Send list to BOX 914, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

350 GOOD USED UPHOLSTERED CHAIRS FOR Wisconsin theatre. Quote price. BOX 911, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITIONS WANTED

ACCOUNTANT, TAX CONSULTANT. Thoroughly experienced handling theatrical chains. Desires private position. BOX 913, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

THEATRES

WANTED—THEATRE IN SUMMER RESORT, not more than 300 seats, for play tryouts. Will take long term lease if reasonable. BOX 788A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FILMARTE THEATRE, CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, California. Strictly class patronage. Three year lease for sale, $2,500.

THEATRE AND BUILDING. BEST BUY IN Florida. County seat. Only theatre in county. $10,000 cash, balance five years. BOX 912, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

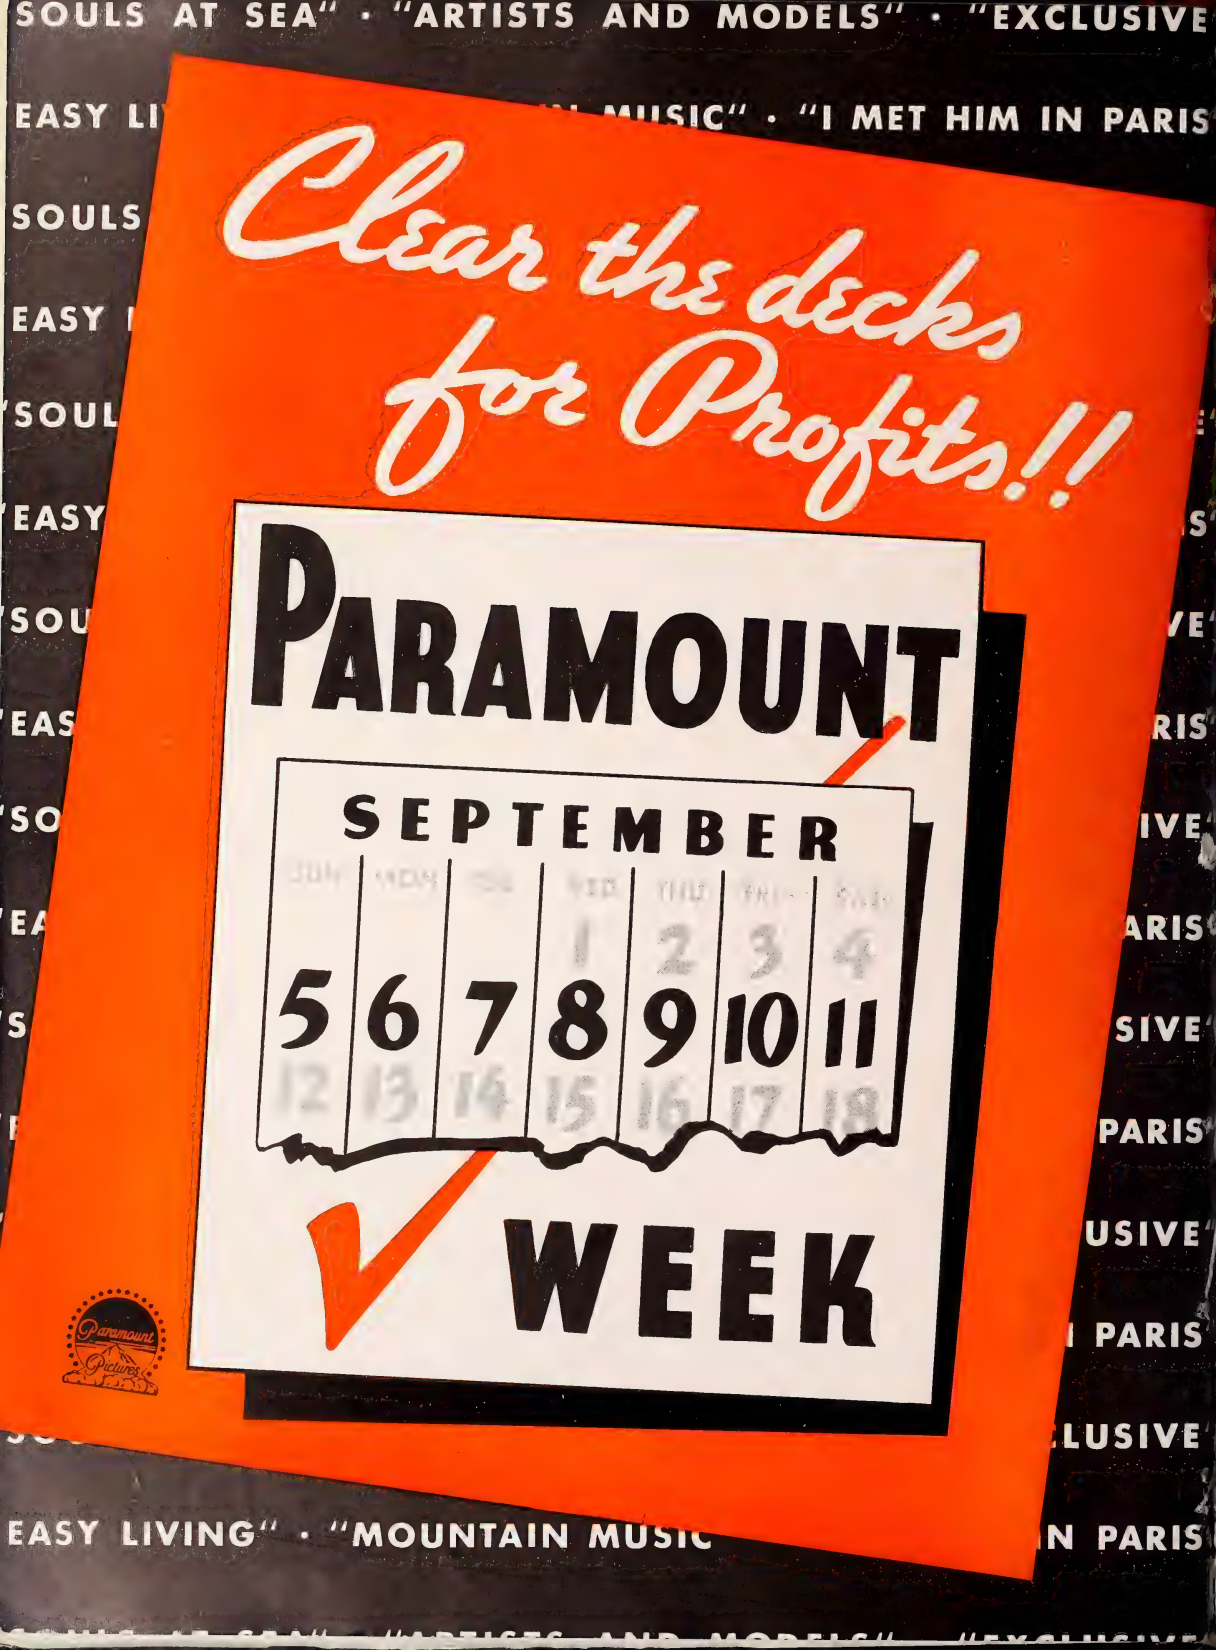
MODERN THEATRE FOR SALE, CONSISTING of two stores and seven offices. Seating capacity 1,450. Fully equipped with Western Electric Sound System. Large stage and dressing-rooms, to produce any stage play. Operating daily, (all year round), and has been, since the first opening, in the year of 1926, formerly managed by the Keith-Albee Amusements Corp. Will sacrifice for quick sale. Terms. UPTOWN THEATRE, Providence, R. I.

HELP WANTED

PROJECTIONIST THOROUGHLY EXPERIenced Simplex Western Electric equipment, sign writer, capable do repairing, good salary, be temperate, good character. Bank, business and theatre reference. Write LIBERTY THEATRE, Wolf Point, Montana.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

SOS



3 FT. x 10 FT. BANNER
Available at all Republic Exchanges means

S.R.O.

A REPUBLIC
SERIAL IN 12 EPISODES

SOULS AT SEA" · "ARTISTS AND MODELS" · "EXCLUSIVE EASY LI
MUSIC" · "I MET HIM IN PARIS SOULS
EASY
SOUL
EASY
SOU
EAS
SO
EA
S
Clear the decks for Profits!!
PARAMOUNT
SEPTEMBER
5 6 7 8 9 10 11
WEEK
Paramount Pictures
EASY LIVING" · "MOUNTAIN MUSIC
N PARIS

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

STUDIOS NOMINATE TOMORROW'S STARS

FRENCH UNION TO PUNISH TALENT DESERTING TO U. S.

60% OF STORIES BOUGHT IN MONTH ARE ORIGINALS

VOL. 128, NO. 11 SEPTEMBER 11, 1937

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, New York. Subscription, $3.00 a year. Single copies, 25 cents.

HOLD EVERYTHING!

(Telegram from California!)

"WILLIAM POWELL AND MYRNA LOY RING OUT THE 'DOUBLE WEDDING' BELLS IN THEIR NEW PICTURE SNEAK PREVIEWED LAST NIGHT STOP THEY'RE MADDER THAN THE MARXES AND DRIVE THE AUDIENCE NUTS STOP M-G-M's 'DOUBLE WEDDING' IS SOMETHING TO YELL ABOUT!"

(Okay, California, we're still yelling about Luise Rainer, Spencer Tracy in "Big City" but we'll start yelling also about William Powell, Myrna Loy in "Double Wedding" because it looks like the yell of a Fall season for M-G-M showmen!)

Varsity Show

Check the key city grosses today or tomorrow or when ever you darn well please during its run--then address your thanks to Warner Bros. for delivering as per schedule one genuine musical sockorola from Maine to California!

Such Songs!

'Have You Got Any Castles, Baby?'
'You've Got Something There!'
'Moonlight On The Campus'
'Love Is On The Air Tonight'
'Old King Cole'
'On With The Dance'
'We're Working Our Way Thru College'

By Dick Whiting and Johnny Mercer

Such a Cast!

DICK POWELL
and
FRED WARING
and His Pennsylvanians in
"VARSITY SHOW"

with Ted Healy • Priscilla Lane • Rosemary Lane
Walter Catlett • Johnny Davis • Buck & Bubbles
Directed by William Keighley

Screen Play by Jerry Wald, Richard Macauley, Sig Herzig and Warren Duff • From an Original Story by Warren Duff and Sig Herzig • Finale Created and Directed by Busby Berkeley

ALL IN 4 WEEKS!

Kay Francis in 'Confession' • 'Varsity Show' • Bette Davis and Henry Fonda in 'That Certain Woman' • Pat O'Brien, Joan Blondell and Margaret Lindsay in 'Back In Circulation'

And for the 5th Wonder Week You'll Get . . . . (Over) . . .

MUNI'S MIGHTY MASTERPIECE!

RED KANN, Editor, M. P. DAILY

"It is our ambition for 'Zola,' as it must of necessity be for anyone in the business who recognizes that merit deserves its reward, that it slays, wows and panics 'em up and down the land!"

Critics say so! Editorials say so! Patrons by the million say so with the biggest $2-top attendance in 7 years!

RECORD ROAD-SHOW RUNS!

Advance sale records! Summer records! House records! Campaign records! Newspaper space records in every single one of the 17 sensational prestige-creating roadshowings!

NEW YORK (Since Aug. 11)
'ZOLA' STILL SELLOUT IN 3rd WEEK!

CHICAGO (Since Aug. 29)
'Zola' Sold Out!

PITTSBURGH (Since Aug. 29)
'ZOLA' TOPS EVERYTHING!

WASHINGTON (Since Aug. 26)
'ZOLA' SRO!

DETROIT (Since Aug. 26)
'ZOLA' A MOP-UP!

PAUL MUNI in "THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA" with GALE SONDERGAARD • JOSEPH SCHILDKRAUT • Gloria Holden • Donald Crisp • Erin O'Brien-Moore • Henry O'Neill • Morris Carnovsky • Louis Calhern • Directed by William Dieterle • Screen Play by Norman Reilly Raine, Heinz Herald • Story by Heinz Herald and Geza Herczeg • Music by Max Steiner

POPULAR-PRICE PRESENTATION POWERFULLY PRE-SOLD!

Yours in October after the spontaneous billion-dollar publicity build-up by more top-bracket magazines then ever sponsored a picture before, including TIME (the cover!) • LIFE (4 pages) • LIBERTY (full page) • RED BOOK (full page) • McCALL'S (full page) • NEWS-WEEK (full page) • THE DIGEST (full page) • HOUSEHOLD (full page) • PARENTS' (full page • STAGE (4 pages) • BOYS LIFE (full page)!

Starts This Week!
The tremendous 24-sheet drive
—in 1500 cities for 30 days!

WARNERS...WONDERFUL!

SEPTEMBER

CONFESSION
(KAY FRANCIS, Ian Hunter, Basil Rathbone, Jane Bryan, Donald Crisp, Mary Maguire)

VARSITY SHOW
(DICK POWELL, FRED WARING and His Pennsylvanians, Ted Healy, Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane, Walter Catlett)

THAT CERTAIN WOMAN
(BETTE DAVIS, HENRY FONDA, Ian Hunter, Anita Louise, Donald Crisp)

BACK IN CIRCULATION
(Pat O'Brien, Joan Blondell, Margaret Lindsay)

OCTOBER

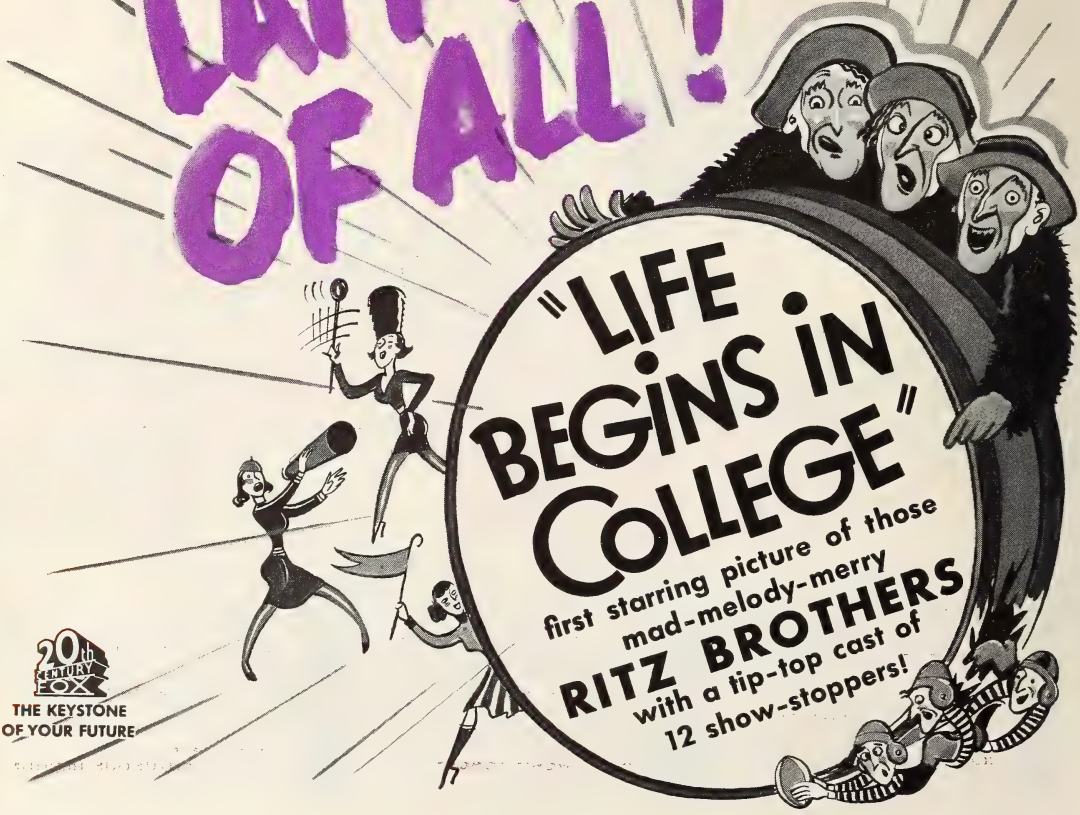
THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA

THE PERFECT SPECIMEN
(ERROL FLYNN, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Edw. Everett Horton, May Robson)

THE GREAT GARRICK
(BRIAN AHERNE, OLIVIA de HAVILLAND, Edw. Everett Horton, Melville Cooper, Lionel Atwill, Henry O'Neill, Louis Alberni)

THEY WON'T FORGET
(Claude Rains, Gloria Dickson, Lana Turner)

NOVEMBER



SUBMARINE D-1
(Pat O'Brien, George Brent, Wayne Morris)

ALCATRAZ ISLAND
(A Giant Cosmopolitan Production)

IT'S LOVE I'M AFTER
(LESLIE HOWARD, BETTE DAVIS, OLIVIA de HAVILLAND, Patric Knowles, Eric Blore)

Torchy Blane
THE ADVENTUROUS BLONDE
(Glenda Farrell, Barton MacLane)

MAKE WAY FOR THE LAFFINGEST LAFF-MUSICAL OF ALL!

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 128, No. 11 — September 11, 1937

MESSAGE vs. SHOW

NOW when the motion picture and its screen are subject to so many pressures from special pleaders and the propagandists of social causes, special interest attends examination of what is happening in that sector of the drama of the stage devoted to the workers, the militants and the proletariat.

This drama is essentially of New York, but not of Broadway and what is known as the theatre of Broadway, despite its residence on the side streets.

Now as the new season opens it is to be discovered that the Theatre Union, so vigorous three or four years ago, with such socially conscious pieces as "Stevedore," has faded from the scene. Its place has been taken by the Federal Theatre, and the Federal Theatre has in turn given rise to a newly announced "Mercury Theatre," a more private enterprise without governmental subsidy.

Observations of Mr. Brooks Atkinson of the New York Times appear, the while, to discover that the theatre of protest is found lacking consistent appeal, even among the masses.

"We know now," he writes, "that audiences cannot be mustered satisfactorily according to their economic and political creed. . . .

"APART from the competition of the Federal Theatre, which blundered into the 'people's theatre' field, the Theatre Union was hamstrung by the working class program. On their nights of theatregoing, the workers are inclined to tire of strikes and revolution before the intellectuals do. For the fact seems to be that proletarian drama has difficulty in escaping from a formula. As a topic for the drama, labor insurgence is not abundantly endowed with variation. . . .

"For proletarian audiences, as well as for economic royalists, there is nothing like a vigorous drama boldly acted on the stage. Only the intellectuals insist on being parochial-minded seven nights a week. . . . "

Mr. Atkinson does find that the Federal Theatre has developed an audience "not conditioned by Broadway," that is receptive to stage entertainment at a 55-cent top admission price. He suggests, too, that it is not an audience "out of which a fortune can be made."

All in all, on this expert testimony, it would seem that there are no overwhelming significances for the motion picture in the manifestations of the alleged "theatre of the masses."

△ △ △

TO THE PROPAGANDISTS

THE eminent Los Angeles Times, with much appreciated enthusiasm, sets down editorial page comment on the remarks of Mr. Martin Quigley, editor-in-chief of Quigley Publications, before the Williamstown forum, saying:

Every motion-picture fan in America should rise from his seat and make a profound bow in the direction of Martin Quigley.

Quigley, as editor of the Motion Picture Herald, has just told the whole film industry bluntly something that it needed to be told. This is that films must be kept free of propaganda. This warning comes at a timely moment.

There have been evidences from time to time to the untrained eye that supposedly "entertainment" films had a deeper purpose, that of attempting to influence thought or passion. Within reason and along the lines of good morals and good ethics, as universally recognized, pictures "with a purpose" perhaps cannot be criticized.

But it is very easy to go on into the field of actual propaganda for racial, religious or political effect.

Such attempts should be condemned not only by men in positions of influence in the industry itself like Quigley, but by the theatre-going public as well.

The films have been the greatest entertainment device in history. They should remain so. Propaganda is too plentiful as it is.

However, it chances that when Mr. Quigley was up at Williamstown he was not addressing himself to the motion picture makers on the subject of propaganda, but, most decidedly to the contrary, was voicing the motion picture industry's anti-propaganda policy to the propagandists there in convention assembled.

△ △ △

IT IS STILL "IT"

IT was inevitable that the psychologists would get around to it, and now there is a scientific research into what they call "P.Q.," the laboratory abbreviation for "personality quotient." Just at this writing, although they call it a quotient there seems to be no agreement about what the factors may be. It is entertaining, however, to be told that, so far, intelligence seems to have nothing to do with it. Data on three thousand persons, mostly high school students, were examined before the American Psychological Association in Minneapolis the other day. It proved nothing, but seems to have twisted out of the assembled psychologists an admission that persons with "personality plus" could also often be described as "beautiful but dumb." Likely as not, when the scientists get down to the residue in the test tube it will be found to be just what that eminent psychologist, Elinor Glyn, called "It," in a scientific report from the great Hollywood personality plant some years ago.

△ △ △

WHEN Mr. Andy Roy, manager of Albany's Strand theatre, sat down to do a guest column job for the Knickerbocker News the other day, he remarked, "The customer is always right . . . but what does he want? Actually movie fans do not know what they want." We move to amend Mr. Roy's observation: the customer always knows what he wants, exactly—just after he has had it.

This Week

Seven Year Records

Theatre executives gleefully totaling Labor Day weekend receipts lifted their green eyeshades momentarily to give out statements the theme of which generally was "biggest since 1929" and the sum total of which indicated that attendance and gross figures had climed beyond all memory of the lean years. Barney Balaban, Paramount president, said box office receipts of circuits affiliated with the company ran from five to 20 per cent higher than last year. Indicative of the national totals were three examples in New York. A telegram from the United Artists publicity office proclaimed that "Prisoner of Zenda" brought $21,400 to the Music Hall on Sunday and $22,109 on Monday, marks untouched on any day without a midnight show in six years since the house opened. Twentieth Century-Fox was not far behind in announcing that "Thin Ice" gave the Roxy its biggest Sunday in seven years and grossed the highest four day receipts since 1929. Paramount claimed a total of 152,000 admissions for "Double or Nothing" at its Paramount theatre for the week including the holiday, said to be an 11 year high.

Into Feature Field

Production of five or six feature length comedies during the 1937-'38 season is being considered by Educational Pictures. Although the plans are reported to be well underway a distribution agreement has not yet been decided upon.

The comedies would be produced in New York and would be of the musical revue type. Headliners on the stage and radio would be employed if arrangements are completed.

Although Twentieth Century-Fox distributes Educational pictures, it would not automatically become distributor for the feature length comedies.

Technicolor Options

New stock options authorized at a meeting of stockholders of the Technicolor company Wednesday will bring in $5,000,000, if all are exercised, Dr. Herbert T. Kalmus, president and general manager, said. The sum is in addition to a potential $2,500,000 in cash which would be paid in to the company if options now outstanding are exercised.

Net profit of $132,000 was reported for August for the Technicolor Corporation compared with $54,500 the same month last year. Net profit before Federal taxes for the first eight months of the year was given as $567,600, compared with $460,800 the same period in 1936. Positive print footage for the first eight months was reported at 26,500,000, a gain of 5,000,000 feet over a year ago.

WE—ERPI

Western Electric this week decided to stop manufacturing motion picture sound reproducing apparatus in the United States as a further step towards the withdrawal of itself and its subsidiary, Electrical Research Products, Inc., from the theatre equipment field in this country. No plans were announced for supplying the foreign market, but a large part of that market lies in the British Empire, and the company possesses immediate plant facilities in the Northern Electric Company, Ltd., of Canada, in which it has a large financial interest. Various schemes for the formation of a sales and service company to absorb a substantial part of the Erpi personnel were discussed in New York and elsewhere this week, but none has yet been decided upon.

Release Chart	Page 59
Editorial	Page 7
In the Cutting Room	Page 34
Earnings Reports	Page 28
The Hollywood Scene	Page 29
Technological	Page 39
This Week in Pictures	Page 10
Showmen's Reviews	Page 40
In the Newsreels	Page 89
Managers' Round Table	Page 81
Short Subjects on Broadway	Page 54
Theatre Receipts	Page 74
J. C. Jenkins' Colyum	Page 89
What the Picture Did for Me	Page 77

Exodus

The French industry, alarmed over the "exodus" of French stars, has decided upon two principles to govern stars and technicians in an attempt to stop them from signing up with Hollywood producers. The two restrictions are that actors and technicians must make no more than one film a year in a foreign country and that during that year they must make at least one picture in France. "Punitive measures" are threatened for those who do not conform to the principles.

Pierre Autre discusses the principles and their effects on the industry in an article on page 21.

Blue Eagle's Voice

The Associated Press says Percy Patrick Posey of Tucson, Arizona, thinks he has a job again. He is leaving for Hollywood and a film audition. He has been unemployed since the demise of the NRA. His job then was to imitate the cry of the blue eagle on radio broadcasts.

Ban Rejected

A request made by a representative of the German Consulate that Universal's "The Road Back" be banned by officials of the city of Montevideo has been rejected. The German representative made the request after viewing the picture, in company with the chief of police, at the Cine theatre.

45 Stories

A total of 45 properties were purchased by 13 producers during August, with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer taking the lead through acquisition of four original stories, three plays, three books and one magazine serial. Plays, out of the limelight in June and July when only one was purchased, moved back to a prominent position when producers bought 12 of them. RKO Radio made four purchases and all were plays.

A complete list of the purchases during August appears on page 23.

Poliomyelitis

Threatened, at first, with an order to close their theatres to all patrons, Chicago exhibitors conferred with health authorities and agreed on a compromise, a ruling prohibiting children from attending theatres. The order, which will remain in effect until further notice, is an attempt to stop the spread of infantile paralysis. It is estimated theatre owners will lose a total of about $750,000 in grosses during September. Similar bans have been issued in Omaha, Milwaukee, and Wauwatosa and Waukesha, Wisconsin.

Details are included in a story on page 24.

Boo

The Society for the Booing of Commercial Advertising in Motion Picture Theatres, widely publicized in the nation's press, is not a gag. It was started by a group of young people in Little Rock, Ark., who are accustomed to meet occasionally and informally in a local restaurant for discussions or just plain conviviality, and all of whom attest to the seriousness of their present purpose.

Protestation of the SBCAMPT's permanence is made and the story of its interesting beginnings is told in a letter from M. C. Blackman, its secretary, on page 27.

Newsreels of War

Special newsreel issues, showing the full horror of the bombardment of Shanghai, were released this week by Universal and News of the Day. Cameramen for both companies were in the Chinese city during the heaviest part of the siege and secured close shots of the scenes in the streets during and after the destruction of two department stores and two hotels by aerial bombs and artillery fire.

The sequences are described on page 30.

Bank Night Appeals

Appeals will be heard in two states next week on decisions declaring Bank Night illegal. In Nebraska, the Omaha Bank Night injunction granted against Fox Midwest Theatres will be challenged by the Exhibitors Association of Omaha. In Connecticut, Ernest Dorau, manager of the Place, Middletown, will contest his recent conviction on the charge of violating the state lottery law, for which he was fined $10.

See page 33.

Net Profits

Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation and subsidiaries were shown to have a net profit of $1,448,783 for a 26 week period, Famous Players Canadian Corporation reported a profit of $426,045 for six months and a quarterly dividend of $1.25 was voted by the United Artists circuit.

Analyses of these companies' figures and Columbia's statement for its fiscal year appear on page —.

Injunction Refused

Application for a permanent injunction to prevent picketing by Philadelphia exhibitors who are demonstrating against the withdrawal of six pictures from the 1936-37 schedule was refused to Paramount in a lengthy Federal court opinion which dismissed the suit for lack of jurisdiction. Exhibitors concerned in the dispute were undecided on resumption of picketing activities.

See page 17.

Forearmed

Although it is a full twelvemonth before the proposed new British Quota Law can become operative American companies not too quietly have announced plans under which they will be prepared to fulfill its provisions in the most stringent form in which they are likely to be applied. A speculative survey of these same plans indicates their consummation will guarantee no damage to the companies' British business, and may bring increased profits.

Such a survey is on page 36.

Screen School

The School of Education of New York University has made a permanent fixture of a course on motion pictures, conducted jointly with the National Board of Review. Plans for this year include arrangements for speakers, prominent in various branches of the industry, to address the students.

The curriculum is outlined on page 33.

After 23 Years

Joseph Sanfilippo, projectionist, was congratulated this week by Pathe News executives on the completion of his 23rd year with the company. Mr. Sanfilippo said the most outstanding even in his career was the filming of "The Horrors of War," four-reeler which Henry Ford took aboard the historic peace mission.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone CIrcle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Ravelstad, Managing Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. 8. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, 366 Adelaide Street West, Toronto 2, Ontario, J. A. Cowan, representative. London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W I, Bruce Allan, cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 29, Rue Marsoulan, Paris 12, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-12 Paris; Rome Bureau, via Lovanio 1, Rome, Italy, Vittorio Malpassuti, representative, Italcable, Malpassuti, Rome; Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague I, Czechoslovakia, Harry Knopf, representative; Budapest Bureau, 3, Kaplar-u, Budapest, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Shanghai Bureau, 142 Museum Road, Shanghai, China, J. P. Koehler, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, H. Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, K. G. Gidwaney, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, 87 Waalstraat, Amsterdam Z., Holland, Philip de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna VII, Hans Lorant, representative; Chile Bureau, Calle Estado 260, Oficina 306 Santiago de Chile, A. Weissmann, representative; Copenhagen Bureau, Vesterbrogade 20, Copenhagen V, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1937 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Día, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

Stars Are Born

Fame, elusive and intangible, is the goal of an uncounted army of aspirants who clamor insistently at the gates of Hollywood. The portals are opened momentarily to a chosen few who seem to possess the indefinable qualities which might enable them to travel that road to its golden end but many, even of these, glimmer briefly and unnoticed, fail. The studios, dealing daily and familiarly with the stuff of which fame is made, alone of those who would install themselves as arbiters of the public's choice for the heights, would seem qualified to place in nomination a group large enough and promising enough to justify a tentative dictum that from these there will emerge a star or stars.

On page 12 and following there are recorded the names and faces, the talent and probabilities of such a group.

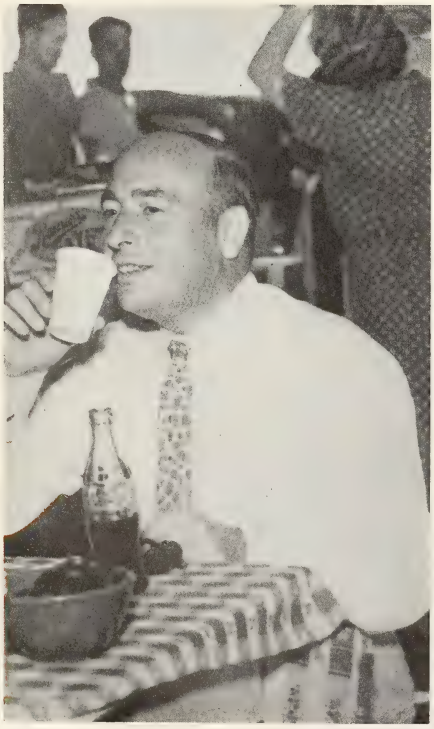
Payrolls Increase

Dayton theatres are being benefited by improved industrial conditions, according to the results of a survey showing a 38 per cent increase in payrolls for the first eight months of 1937 as compared to the corresponding period in 1936. Payrolls this year totaled $63,281,115, which is $6,000,000 more than for the entire year of 1935, A. C. Wolf, secretary and manager of the Dayton Clearing House Association, said.

Decibel Gains

Motion picture engineers have perfected and studios are using to an increasing extent, push pull recording, a method which substantially reduces the noise level and allows a gain of three decibels in reproduction volume.

George Schutz, editor of Better Theatres explains the method, its significance and the extent of its application in an article on page 16.



Sales Increase

Monogram Pictures has had an increase of $832,000 in sales so far this year as compared to the same period in the company's last year of operation, W. Ray Johnston, president, disclosed before departing from Hollywood for visits to San Francisco, Portland and Seattle. "I firmly believe," Mr. Johnston asserted, "that Monogram will wind up the 1937-'38 season with sales of $1,500,000 in excess of last year. Sales have greatly exceeded our expectations. This is due not only to the improved quality of our product but also to the increased number of theatres in operation and the improved business being done by the theatres." Production already has been completed for Monogram's September releases, Mr. Johnston said, and the production schedule has been set to January 1st.

This Week in Pictures

AT the Fox Intermountain Theatres convention at the Park Lane Hotel, Denver, about 60 home office representatives from Denver and Salt Lake City and theatre managers from Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, New Mexico, Idaho and Montana were present. In the center of the front row, wearing a gray suit, is Rick Ricketson, division manager, and to his left Harry Huffman, Denver city manager; Fred Glass, southern district manager, and Ray Davis, northern district manager.

"More than 10,000 studio workers and stars" attended the annual Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studio Club picnic at the Valley Park Country Club, hard by Hollywood. Al Lichtman, executive assistant to Nicholas Schenck, is shown at his picnic lunch.

Exhibitors and other film men to the number of 300 sponsored an Aaron Saperstein Day at the Nippersink Country Club, Chicago, one of the largest outings ever held by independent theatre men in the territory. The president of Allied Theatres of Illinois is pictured, left, talking to Clyde Eckhardt, Johnny Mendico and Walter Immerman.

Fred Cannata, manager of the Horowitz Theatres in Houston, Texas, on a tour of Hollywood made a special point of visiting the Universal studios to meet Nan Grey, one of that company's candidates for stardom whose home town is Houston.

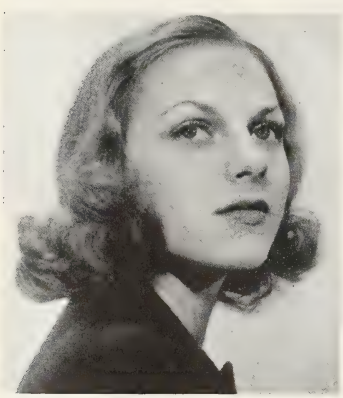
The town of Zenda, Canada, was closed and boarded up while its inhabitants, totaling 12 persons, emigrated by plane to New York, their first trip to the metropolis. The mass migration, no accident, added much to the human interest news value of the opening of Selznick International's "The Prisoner of Zenda." Mayor Vernon Fewster, in the picture to the left, was no whit flustered at some of the metropolitan sights to be seen in and around the night club sector.

Practical evidence of England's interest and faith in color on the screen is provided by the new Technicolor, Ltd., laboratories in the outskirts of London. Designed by the Austin Company, the plant has a capacity for finishing up to 24,000,000 feet of color film a year.

STARS OF TOMORROW

MARGARET TALLICHET

¶ Wherein are weighed the talent and probabilities of Hollywood's newest and most cherished nominations for the accolade of fame to be conferred by the public, ever eager for new screen idols but inconstant and unpredictable in its choice.



by GUS McCARTHY
in Hollywood

AJAX'S feat of defying the lightning was child's play. The boy standing on the burning deck when all the rest had fled was in no danger at all. The "Valiant 600" enjoyed a pleasant horseback ride. Perils and hazards known to none of those heroes strew the pathway of the daring one who takes it upon himself to suggest who the picture stars of tomorrow may be.

A lot of people have tried it. None of them has met with much success. Clark Gable was around a long time before anyone gave him much more than a quick look. So was Tyrone Power. Robert Taylor was a popular star long before the company paying his salary realized it. Sonja Henie achieved the goal of every tyro—she crashed the gates of Hollywood in her first attempt Nevertheless the list of flamboyantly acclaimed "going-to-be-greats" who flashed and faded is much longer than the roster of those who remained to establish themselves.

There's an army of aspirants for screen fame gathered in Hollywood. Each one dreams that one day his or her name will be that glamorous magnetic attraction that shines in thousands of theatre marquees. The host has been recruited from schools and colleges, from the legitimate stage, little theatres and European countries, from beauty contests, the more prosaic walks of life, and some were only extras not so long ago.

It is quite likely that the public, which, after all, alone controls the making and the destiny of a star, will be of the opinion that a star was born when it sees "Souls at Sea." The potentiality is Olympe Bradna. An 18 year old French girl who began her

ZORINA

OLYMPE BRADNA

JOAN FONTAINE

TOMMY KELLY

GLORIA DICKSON

MARLA SHELTON

FRANCISKA GAAL

career as a dancer and who idolizes Claudette Colbert, she handled the sole role in the film to which sympathy accrued with the finesse of an artiste. A brunette, with dark brown eyes, who speaks English with an intriguing accent, she was seen earlier in "Three Cheers for Love," "College Holiday," and several other pictures. Paramount has no immediate assignment for her but she will be tutored for important parts.

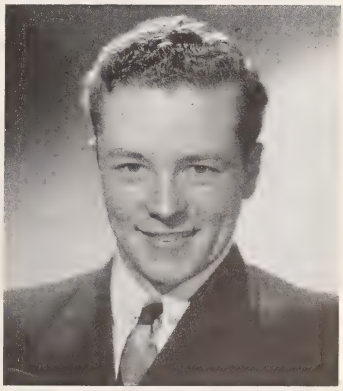
Though Paramount discovered her and featured her in "The Jungle Princess" and "Last Train from Madrid," it remained for Samuel Goldwyn to give Dorothy Lamour her big chance in "Hurricane." Her brunette beauty first won attention in a beauty contest in 1931 in which she was nominated "Miss New Orleans." Combining singing ability through which she achieved eminence on several radio programs, with acting talent, Miss Lamour looms as likely to go a long way.

Termed by Cecil B. DeMille, who certainly should know what he is talking about, "a combination of Helen Hayes, the early Mary Pickford, Elisabeth Bergner and Clara Bow," a Hungarian actress, Franciska Gaal, whose ability to charm European audiences won her medals, will make her American screen debut in "Buccaneer." Miss Gaal started her career as a ballad singer in a Budapest cabaret. On the European stage she appeared in Ferenc Molnar's "Violet" and "The Good Fairy" and "The Church Mouse." She enacted screen roles for Universal in Berlin, Budapest and Vienna before attracting Hollywood attention.

RKO-Radio gave Joan Fontaine a bit in "Quality Street." Then "The Man Who Found Himself" was previewed and Jesse Lasky said, "Greatness will be hers. That's all I can tell." A year ago she was unknown. Today she is well on the road to stardom.

Mervyn LeRoy probably heard Kenny Baker on the Jack Benny radio hour, or he may have seen him in "Turn Off The Moon." Anyway, he featured him in "Mr. Dodd Takes The Air." Then the singing Mr. Baker, presently learning the ropes of screen acting, was signed to a long term contract.

The screen hasn't seen Sigrid Gurie yet. But Samuel Goldwyn, no doubt mindful of the disaster that followed upon his Anna Sten experiment, did not keep this Norwegian miss in hiding. He put her right into "The Adventures of Marco Polo" in the role of a Chinese princess opposite Gary Cooper and, rather than theoretical, her glorifying process will be practical.



One of Columbia's talent scouts noted a professional model in New York. Brought to Hollywood to make her screen debut in "The Case Of The Missing Men," Joan Perry went through the training school of "B" pictures until the critics and public began to talk about her following her appearance opposite Richard Dix in "The Devil Is Driving." Columbia does not have very many contract stars, but Miss Perry is included in the list.

At MGM, where they need more stars just about as much as the average man needs to wear two hats at the same time, plans are underfoot to add more to the "More stars than there are in heaven" slogan. It's a long jump from a Milwaukee lumber yard to a role in "The Great Ziegfeld," and a place with the late Jean Harlow in "Suzy," interspersed with appearances in "Old Hutch" and "Piccadilly Jim," but Stanley Morner made it, with stops on radio and in opera. He is one of few male players who may be prominent.

Under the name "Virginia Reid," a soft

JOAN PERRY

TIM HOLT

Continued on following page

STUDIOS NOMINATE NEW

NAN GREY

SIGRID GURIE

DEANNA DURBIN

LOUISE PLATT

ALAN MARSHAL

voiced auburn haired southern girl had a walk-on role in "Penthouse." "Maytime" was previewed and everybody wondered who the girl was to whom Jeanette MacDonald told the story of her tragic romance. The credit sheets said Lynne Carver. Critics couldn't find words fancy enough to describe Miss Carver, the public seemed to like her, and she no longer is worrying about her future in pictures.

Darryl F. Zanuck has enlisted a regiment of newcomers under the 20th Century-Fox banner. Several, Tyrone Power, Sonja Henie, and Don Ameche, have proved themselves. From an ultra-respectable British family to which the theatre was anathema came Virginia Field. She went through the kindergarden of minor roles in "Thank You, Jeeves," "Ladies In Love" and "Little Lord Fauntleroy," from whence she graduated into an important role in "Lloyds Of London." A second possibility, comedienne Joan Davis, was trained in the hard school of depression era vaudeville. Noted by Zanuck's scouts in an insignificant role in Paramount's "Millions In The Air," she almost did the difficult thing of stealing the show from Jane Withers in "The Holy Terror," had a good part in "Nancy Steele Is Missing" and now is a fixture in the studio's musicals.

Norma Shearer came from Canada. A little girl named Edna Mae Durbin was pretty much bewildered as she roamed about the MGM lot. Nobody paid her any attention. Charles R. Rogers moved into Universal and a picture called "Three Smart Girls" was started. It was earmarked as a "B." Then the daily rushes came flowing in, the budget was upped and Deanna Durbin became a sensation. She is now the Universal prize package. "100 Men And A Girl" should find her blossoming as a full fledged star.

Up in Sacramento, General Sutter's own bailiwick, "Sutter's Gold" was given its world premiere. Despite the presence of a host of notables, the Sacramento populace had eyes only for the girl who played the role of Sutter's daughter. Miss Nan Grey, who in the intervening months had had a full allotment of not so good pictures, was, like Deanna Durbin, one of the "Three Smart Girls."

From the Little Theatre of St. Joe, Missouri, via radio, Jane Wyman who likes such strenuous sports as ice hockey and polo came to Hollywood. She was fortunate enough to land a bit role in "My Man Godfrey." Admission to the Warner Brothers stock company followed, as did experience in "Cain and Mabel" and "The Singing Marine." Then came "Mr. Dodd Takes The Air" and commentators were as enthusiastic in applauding Miss Wyman as they were Kenny Baker.

Gloria Dickson came from Pocatello, Idaho, and a Federal Theatre Project. She had a Warner screen test. Mervyn LeRoy saw it and signed her for one of the dramatic plums of the present season, the feminine lead in "They Won't Forget."

That specialist in signing stars and then letting them work for some one else more often than they do for him, Walter Wanger, has three candidates whose qualifications admit them to nomination for positions on the stellar heights. Already acclaimed as one of the greatest screen finds in years, Marla Shelton, part Indian, made her debut for Mr. Wanger in "Vogues of 1938" and immediately moved up into an important role in "52nd Street." In 1936 she appeared in "The Phantom

PERSONALITIES FOR FAME

VIRGINIA FIELD

DOROTHY LAMOUR

JANE WYMAN

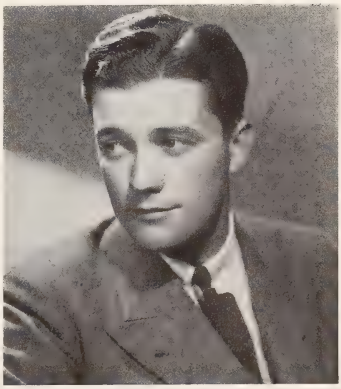
Rider," "Postal Inspector," "Nobody's Fool" and "Flying Hostess" for Universal and in 1937 in "Under Cover," "Dangerous Number" and "Personal Property" for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

"I Met My Love Again" has not yet been completed, nor has Louise Platt yet been seen on the screen. A stock company player, she finally landed on Broadway in roles in "Spring Dance" and "Promise." Broadway reviewers of those plays predicted a bright future for her.

Although a great many new young men have been brought to the screen, few have made an impression that would lead one to believe that they might be future greats. But, as the high school graduating class prophets say, Tim Holt, son of Jack Holt and thus born to the art, has a good chance to succeed. He was the radio operator in "History Is Made At Night" and will be in other Wanger pictures.

Far be it for Samuel Goldwyn to be any place but in the van of any parade. Recouping from the flattering comments bestowed upon "Stella Dallas" and "Dead End," getting his second wind for what he knows will be said about "Hurricane," he hasn't started "Goldwyn Follies" yet. When he does, exotic Zorina will be one of its big features. A Norwegian by birth, nineteen years old, former premiere ballerina of the Monte Carlo Ballet and star in the London production of "On Your Toes," Zorina seems to possess that indescribable something that lifts people out of the common herd.

David O. Selznick scoured the country for a "Tom Sawyer" and found him in that rural section of New York called the Bronx. Tommy Kelly, twelve years old, whose only previous ambition was to play baseball with the New York Giants, is the boy. Thrilled as any boy could be who suddenly finds himself transported 3,000 miles from home to a legendary land, he is making the man who discovered Freddie Bartholomew think he will have another youngster who will win high honors.



The story of Margaret Tallichet reads very much like that told in "A Star Is Born," the first picture in which she appeared. Nobody invited Miss Tallichet to come to Hollywood. She came from Texas on her own accord and with only her ambition and talent as introduction. For a while all she met with were rebuffs and disillusionments. Then came her chance in the Janet Gaynor-Fredric March picture, the title of which, in her case, is prophetic.

Selznick's contract list is sharply limited, but Alan Marshal is on it. On the stage with Eva Le Gallienne and George Arliss, he came into pictures as Captain DeTrevignac in "The Garden of Allah," supporting Marlene Dietrich and Charles Boyer. He also was in "Parnell" and "Night Must Fall" and is featured in Greta Garbo's forthcoming "Conquest."

There are scores of others in the race to be tomorrow's stars. People never heard of may flash into the sky and endure brilliantly. It is no certainty that any of those here listed will attain the fame of the Garbos, Dietrichs, Shearers, Coopers, Taylors, Powells, Colberts, Crawfords and MacDonalds of the present. Application of the only sharply defined standard ingredient, the possession of actual and potential talent, shows that they may. The rest lies in the hands of the inconstant and unpredictable public who, through the box office, alone build up that fame or snatch it out of reach.

JOAN DAVIS

STANLEY MORNER

FIVE STUDIOS ADOPT PUSH-PULL RECORDING; GENERAL USE NEAR

Total Gain of Three Decibels Made in Effective Volume Range, but Further Experiments Are Underway

by GEORGE SCHUTZ
Editor of Better Theatres

With five studios already using push-pull recording, and with all others signifying an immediate practical interest in it, general adoption of this method by Hollywood producers as a means of attaining finer sound quality in the standard single sound track is indicated at an early date.

Such use of push-pull — merely to produce the two balanced tracks for dubbing a single track on the secondary master from which the release prints are produced — is today regarded as the only one likely to be made of the method, since few theatre sound systems are capable of handling two tracks, and the cost of effectively adapting the remainder scarcely would be warranted, it is pointed out, by the amount of improvement the change in theatre apparatus would achieve.

Adaptation of recording equipment to push-pull, however, is relatively simple, and its use has so far reduced the noise constant to a value representing a total gain of three decibels, or enough to be readily appreciated by the average person, in the effective volume range. In the continual quest for the reduction of noise level, so that the limit of usable sound may extend closer to the limit of audible sound in reality, every decibel gained is regarded by studio technicians as worthwhile if attainable at a reasonable cost.

First in "Romeo and Juliet"

Although employed over a year ago by MGM for "Romeo and Juliet," push-pull recording remained in obscurity, except in studio technical circles, until rather recently. Briefly and in its essentials, the method is one in which two film records are made of the same sound elements, each occupying just half the space of the standard sound track. In making these twin tracks, the recording light beam is so controlled by a valve that when it is transmitted to one track it is cut off from the other. Thus transparent areas of one track are cancelled by more or less opaque areas of the other, and any emulsion elements or other film blemishes, which would otherwise be reproduced, are cancelled.

In the making of secondary masters for push-pull release prints, the two tracks are retained by employing, in dubbing, the same beam-splitting process used in making the original twin records. In producing a secondary master record from which a standard single track release print is to be made, the dubbing process is the same as that used for ordinary recordings—that is, without splitting the light beam—and the two original tracks may be said to be combined. But being a record of sound from which the noise represented by film blemishes was substantially eliminated by the push-pull cancellation method, this single track is correspondingly noiseless and therefore is adapted to a higher volume level than otherwise would be the case.

While the two-track method of recording for dubbing single tracks has been put into substantial use and probably will be generally employed before long, further pursuit of the precious decibel in volume gain is now underway on several experimental fronts. Research is being conducted in the application of new types of sound tracks, particularly with respect to special efficacy in the recording of specific bands of frequencies, and it is believed highly probable that other optical forms than those of the present standard variable density and variable area tracks will come into commercial studio practice.

It is pointed out that definite determination of the special adaptation of certain optical forms to particular groups of frequencies would lead to more or less regular use of combinations of sound track types in producing primary masters from which the print master was dubbed. With three or more sound track types employed in producing the primary sound records, the photographic forms of the ultimate single track represent such "squeezing" of the original tracks that the ratio between them and the noise-producing elements of the film emulsion are far greater than it now normally is, resulting in still further extension of the effective volume range towards the audible levels of reality. Applied according to the noise-cancellation technique of push-pull, this multiple-track method captures yet another decibel or two.

The Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has in preparation a booklet on the characteristics of various types of sound tracks now in use commercially and experimentally, to be issued in October.

300 Theatres Equipped

It is estimated that about 300 theatres are equipped today with reproducing facilities adaptable to two-track pickup, probably all of them made in preparation for eventual adoption of push-pull tracks in many if not all releases, and, it is pointed out, two-track releases are not likely to be regular and general for a long time, if ever. The continued installation of two-track pickups and transformer coils would, however, place an increasing number of theatres in a position to take advantage of socalled binaural recording without complete replacement of their sound systems.

Binaural demonstrations, made by Electrical Research Products, Inc., a year ago with apparatus developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories, were repeated at the national convention of the Fox-Skouras circuit in Colorado Springs in August, and ERPI, it is reported, has in production a film consisting in a series of dramatic episodes which is being recorded binaurally. This film is scheduled for exhibition at the fall meeting of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers in New York in October.

Two Microphones Used

The method, employing two microphones in place of one in any recording setup, with these so located in relation to each other that they correspond aurally to the two ears in normal hearing, permits the development of auditory effects analogous with the illusion of stereoscopy. A sensation of depth may be achieved that separates the apparent source of a sound from its real source at variable distances—a kind of mechanical ventriloquism. This can be carried to extreme lengths, and, so employed, binaural sound could endow "horror" pictures with effects likely to rattle the teeth of the most calloused devotee of that class of product.

Binaural sound is rather to be looked upon, however, as yet another means of enhancing the naturalness of mechanical sound, since, it is pointed out, sound thus recorded and reproduced on a dual system has a greater apparent number of the overtones giving a specific sound the characteristics by which we usually know it in reality.

Introduced at MGM

Push-pull recording for single track dubbing was first instituted as a regular practice at MGM, following experiments conducted by Douglas Shearer, director of sound. This producer is now employing push-pull for all original recording, of both dialogue and music.

For some pictures, MGM also is making up two-track secondaries for push-pull prints, particularly on roadshow productions.

Universal is now using push-pull for recording all music, but so far has not issued any two-track prints.

Recording on Both Tracks

Twentieth Century-Fox is following the practice of recording all music on both standard and push-pull tracks and selecting the better record from either one type or the other for the print master.

United Artists is similarly employing push-pull in all recording of music (with three channels), while the effects as well as music of the "Goldwyn Follies" and "Hurricane" are being recorded push-pull, with the possibility that some releases, particularly for certain key-theatre showings, will carry two tracks.

At Paramount four-channel push-pull recording is the general practice for all music.

Equipment for push-pull recording is now being installed at the RKO plant, and while plans are indefinite, it is expected that this method will be used soon for the original musical recordings of at least a portion of the production schedule.

Neither Warner-First National nor Columbia has yet employed push-pull, the former being without the necessary technical facilities. Both companies report an active interest in the method, however, with Columbia stating that its sound department has been experimenting with it.

Grand National has signed Wallace Ford to star in four pictures a year to be produced by Dave Diamond. The first will be "He Wanted to Marry."

SEPARATE TRACKS FOR SIX ORCHESTRA UNITS

In recording the orchestral music of "100 Men and a Girl," for which Leopold Stokowski conducted, Universal carried the multiple channel method somewhat farther than theretofore in motion picture sound, employing a separate track for each of six instrumental divisions of the orchestra—violin, woodwind, brass, 'cello and bass, harp, and percussion.

The original recordings were made at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, using RCA ultra-violet, push-pull equipment. In mixing the six tracks, Stokowski himself "conducted" at the control panel. "The reproductions are superior to the original renditions from which they are taken," he is reported to have said.

PARAMOUNT TO APPEAL DECISION PERMITTING EXHIBITORS TO PICKET

Philadelphia Operators Free to Conduct Demonstrations in Dispute with Distributor; Briefs Are Filed in Minneapolis Suit

Philadelphia exhibitors who have been agitating a "buyers' strike" against Paramount for what they claim was a breach of contract by the distributor have won the legal right to use picketing as a weapon in their boycott under a Federal Court decision which dismissed an application by Paramount for a permanent injunction. The company immediately announced it would appeal from the decision.

Agnew Protests Decision

"Of course the decision of Judge Dickinson is a surprise because it was unexpected on the undisputed facts proved," said Neil F. Agnew, vice-president in charge of sales.

"I have read the opinion of the court and it is plain to me, even as a layman, that in it there is an apparent misconception of the facts.

"The court, in its opinion, states that the contract for the 1936-37 product expired by its terms on July 31, 1937. The contract plainly provides otherwise, and establishes the July 31 date as being the last date within which a picture must be generally released to be deliverable under the 1936-37 contract.

"Exhibitors know that pictures which are generally released prior to July 31 are deliverable under the contract regardless of the fact that they are to be exhibited after July 31.

"Our lawyers advise that the opinion has misinterpreted the Sherman Anti-trust laws in a manner that is unprecedented and that the decision cannot stand on appeal.

"Therefore, they are filing their papers on appeal at once and they will be ready to argue the matter in the circuit court of appeals as quickly as the court will permit."

Following the decision leaders of the movement expressed some doubt as to whether picketing would be resumed by exhibitors who are demonstrating against the withdrawal of six pictures from the 1936-37 schedule.

Paramount's suit for a permanent injunction against the exhibitors was instituted after the company obtained a temporary restraining order August 1st and was dismissed without prejudice in a lengthy opinion handed down by Federal Judge Oliver B. Dickinson, the conclusions being:

"The effect of a refusal to exhibit films of the plaintiff upon transactions in interstate commerce is too indirect and remote to be within the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law, or its supplements, so as to confer jurisdiction upon this court to enjoin the commission of the acts complained of.

"The bill should be dismissed without costs, for lack of jurisdiction but without prejudice."

The facts contained in the opinion were essentially:

"The effect of the acts complained of, as alleged, is to stop all dealings of exhibitors with the plaintiff as a producer and distributor of films. If no picture films of the plaintiffs are exhibited there will be none shipped in interstate commerce."

—

Under an order issued last week by Judge Gunnar H. Norbye in Minneapolis final briefs were filed by both Paramount and counsel for independent exhibitors against whom Paramount is seeking a permanent injunction to prevent the continuance of the "buyers' strike" against the purchase of its product.

FILM MATINEE ENDS CHILDREN'S PICKETING

The weekly matinee of a local motion picture theatre served as "strike-breaker" last week when the picketing of 300 Bronx school children for a play street ended within ten minutes after the theatre opened its doors.

The child pickets, who ranged in age from seven to 14, paraded for two days in the Bronx, carrying signs proclaiming "The right to play is the child's right. For that right we fight" and "Thousands of children are killed yearly. We want a playground."

The demonstration ended abruptly with word that it was 2 P. M. and the "pitchers was on."

Congressmen Seek Film Inquiry Jobs

by FRANCIS L. BURT
in Washington

Reports this week that members of Congress were jockeying for positions on a committee to investigate the motion picture industry lent weight to indications that a Congressional inquiry into activities of the industry next year is inevitable.

It is expected that the House rules committee, which last session refused to approve investigations of any nature, will relent next January and report a number of measures for inquiries of various matters, including motion pictures and, possibly, broadcasting.

While a considerable number of investigations of one sort or another are provided for in measures now pending in Congress, the motion picture and broadcasting industries are seen as best lending themselves to political necessities of the Administration because of their intimate connection with the daily life of every person in the country.

Major controversies in the next session will be those over the wage and hour, farm and tax legislation, and Administration leaders in Congress will be grateful for anything that diverts the attention of the people and stops, if only temporarily, the howl of protest which they expect to go up when the proposed tax revision measure is brought in.

Another factor which will tend to encourage a Congressional investigation is the maintained interest of the Department of Justice in the picture situation. Agents of the department are scattered throughout the country studying not only the motion picture situation, but the oil, steel and other industries; complaints regarding these industries are said to be coming in to the department in a steady flow, and the Government is actually in the midst of a determined campaign against what are claimed to be monopolistic practices in the oil industry, which could easily spread to other trades.

The whole situation is very involved, as is all of the Government's activity in the industrial field, but there are enough indications to lead competent observers in Washington to believe that much time and effort next session will be devoted to exploration of industrial operations, with the motion picture one of the most fertile fields.

California, Boston Officials Questioned

Albert J. Law, special assistant to Homer Cummings, United States attorney general, was in Los Angeles this week accompanied by two assistants for the reported purpose of continuing an anti-trust inquiry begun there some months ago. Mr. Law has been in Washington during the last two months studying information obtained during the earlier questioning.

Questioning of motion picture executives in Boston the last few weeks brought the following statement from the sectional headquarters of Allied States Association of Motion Picture Exhibitors:

"So far nothing but informal questioning has taken place, but it is hoped that the result of these conferences will be an anti-trust suit, broad enough in scope to crush the monopoly in the motion picture industry, if the alleged conspiracies and unfair trade practices are found to exist."

Dallas Trial Set For September 20th

The Federal Government's anti-trust case against the Interstate circuit of Texas and eight distributors will start definitely on September 20th it was reported this week with an assurance from Federal Judge W. H. Atwell that there will be no further postponements. Two delays have marked the proceedings since the action was instituted last spring.

John Erhard, district attorney, was denied a motion, filed last week, asking that the distributor defendants, Twentieth Century-Fox, RKO, Vitagraph, United Artists, Columbia, Universal, Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, as well as Interstate, be compelled to supply letters and memoranda passing between them for court study.

Answers Awaited In Divorce Test

Date for a hearing of a test case instituted in Fargo, North Dakota, by Paramount against the state law compelling distributors to divest themselves of theatre holdings will not be set until state officials who are defendants in the action have filed answering briefs.

Paramount's complaint charges that the "divorce" measure, which would make it unlawful for any producing or distributing company to own or operate theatres in the state, violates both the Federal Constitution and the North Dakota Constitution in several mayor respects. Among these are the charges that it would deprive the plaintiffs of their property without due process of law; that it would require the impairment of contractual obligations and that it imposes arbitrary restrictions on lawful business and arbitrarily invades property rights. It is also charged that the measure denies the plaintiffs equal protection under the law by unlawful discrimination against them and that it has no relation to the public welfare and is not a valid exercise of the police power of the state.

(Continued on following page)

SEEK FILM INQUIRY JOBS

(Continued from preceding page)

The complaint sets forth that while the bill does not become effective until next March 15, the plaintiffs are entitled to immediate legal relief inasmuch as damage to their business has or may be done by the presence of the measure in the statutes. It points out that the theatres operated in the state by its affiliates may be injured by the reluctance of distribution companies to enter into contracts with them for new season product while the validity of the "divorce" measure remains undetermined, and that the same handicap applies as well to other contracts or agreements which the theatres might wish to enter into with equipment companies or contractors for necessary supplies or improvements.

The theatres listed in the complaint as being affected by the state measure are the State, Orpheum and Strand at Minot; the Dakota and Paramount at Grand Forks; the Fargo, Grand and State at Fargo, and the Opera House and Star at Jamestown. All of these except the State, Minot, which is owned outright, are under leases of from five to 20 years duration, and some with options for renewal. The charges that the state law would impair the contractual obligations of the plaintiffs in violation of the Federal and state constitutions is based primarily on the existence of these leases.

In establishing the potential damages to the plaintiffs from enforcement of the "divorce" measure, the Paramount complaint related that the value of the capital stock held by Paramount in Minnesota Amusement on Jan. 2 of this year was "in excess of $290,000," and that on last Dec. 4 a dividend of $325,000 was declared on this stock by Minnesota. It is also stated that Paramount licensed and distributed to Minnesota and American Amusement 4,186 features, shorts and newsreels for a total income of $124,898 for the four-year period from Aug. 1, 1932, to Aug. 1, 1936. The company's revenue from North Dakota theatres other than its affiliates during the same four-year period is given as $264,613 from a maximum of 102 theatres using a total of 32,794 Paramount films.

The value of Minnesota Amusement's investment in North Dakota theatres is given as "in excess of $123,000," as of last Jan. 2. Minnesota, it is stated, is the sole stockholder in American Amusement and received as a dividend on the capital stock of the latter company $92,000 on Dec. 18, 1935, and $75,000 on Nov. 23, 1936. The value of American's investments in North Dakota theatres is given as in "excess of $169,000."

The defendants in the action have 20 days after being served in which to file their answers to Paramount's complaint. A hearing date will be set thereafter.

KANSAS PRESS FEUD OVER FIRST-RUNS

The first-run problem in Kansas brought the municipal rivalries of two Kansas cities into the open recently with two newspapers the spokesmen for local prides.

Commenting on the campaign of Kansas City, Kan., to obtain first-run pictures, the Hutchinson News gibed: "Fate is against Kansas City, Kan. No matter how large it grows, it is still a suburb."

Indignantly retorted the Kansas City Kansan: "A perfect thumb-twiddler's philosophy."

To Try Theatre Bill At Special Session

An attempt to introduce a chain theatre measure in the special session of the Wisconsin legislature will be made by the Independent Theatres Protection Association of that state when the law-making body meets September 13th.

The special session was called by Governor Phillip M. LaFollette for enactment of relief measures.

Holy Name Society Pickets "Ecstasy"

Forty members of the Holy Name Society of St. Mel Roman Catholic Church picketed the Hamlin theatre in Chicago when "Ecstasy" was the attraction. Manager Morris Salkin changed the program after Monsignor F. A. Purcell protested and the pickets were removed.

This is the first time any objection has been shown by demonstration against "Ecstasy" in Chicago.

Wm. Fox Petition Denied

Federal Judge Martin T. Manton denied last week the application of William Fox and Hiram Steelman, his trustee in bankruptcy, for leave to reargue the petition of Milton C. Weisman, as equity receiver for the Fox Theatres Corporation, for instruction regarding the distribution of a second and interim dividend to creditors. The court also granted Mr. Fox an extension until Monday of the time in which he is required to file a statement of his liabilities.

Catholic Guild Cruise

The Catholic Actors Guild began its New York activities for the new season Wednesday with its annual moonlight cruise on the Hudson River, aboard the steamer "Americana." Besides the dancing, Dan Healey, president, presented a variety program, with talent from the screen, stage and radio.

Bayonne Strand Robbed

During a recent performance of "The Crime Nobody Saw" at the Strand, Bayonne, N. J., two men thrust pistols through the box-office window, held up Edward Rowe, manager, and escaped with $450.

Harry J. Gell, until recently managing director for Twentieth Century-Fox in Central Europe, is en route to survey film conditions abroad for undisclosed interests. Mr. Gell will be gone four months.

ZINC POISONING FROM TAX TOKENS; NO REDRESS

Replying to the inquiry of L. O. Honig of Fox Midwest Theatres, Kansas City, the state Kansas compensation commission held this week that no compensation is provided for theatre cashiers contracting zinc poisoning from the handling of sales tax tokens.

Mr. Honig made his inquiry after several of his cashiers contracted mild poisoning. Complaints concerning the tokens have been frequent since the impost went into effect last June.

Fox Midwest Raises Prices in 85 Houses

A general admission increase for 85 rurally-located theatres of the Fox Midwest circuit in the Kansas City area went into effect Labor Day.

The new policy calls for an average increase of five cents. Sunday and holiday matinee prices are raised to the level of those charged for evening performances, and bargain balcony admissions are eliminated.

Higher prices apply only to rural theatres, but it is expected that an urban price rise will follow shortly, not only in the Fox but in other circuits in the district.

The Midland first adopted a 25 cent night balcony price several years ago after suburban subsequent-run theatres had cut prices and the trend of theatre attendance toward suburbans had set in. On two or three occasions since, the house has raised to a straight 40 cent night price on big pictures.

Ontario Increases Now Confronting Exhibitors

Theatre circuits and independent exhibitors of Ontario are in a quandary over the question of increases in admission prices for the fall and winter season. With operating and other costs on the rise, there is an obvious need for a raise in admissions, but the problem is to do so without running foul of the Ontario Government, headed by Premier M. F. Hepburn, which abolished the entire amusement tax only three months ago under the assurance that the tax reduction would be passed on to the public.

This was gladly done by the theatre operators in nearly all cases but now increased expenses, such as coal and labor, have to be met.

Craig Reelected Club Head

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's studio club has reelected W. K. Craig to the presidency. Other officers are: Fred Gabourie, first vice-president; W. S. Van Dyke, second vice-president; Jack Melbourne, treasurer, and Ida M. Koverman, secretary. Chosen for the board of governors were: Mr. Van Dyke, W. P. Hendry, Jack Coffee, Orville Fouce, "Pop" Arnold and Homer Henry.

A nationwide billboard campaign in which 1,500 twenty-four sheets will be posted is an integral part of Warner Brothers' exploitation plans for "The Life of Emile Zola," scheduled for release October 2nd. The billboards are yellow and white lettered on a blue background.

BROADWAY'S SENSATIONAL STAGE SUCCESS BECOMES THE OUTSTANDING HIGHLIGHT OF ALL THE SCREEN'S NEW BIG PICTURES!

Authored by two of the greatest living playwrights, EDNA FERBER and GEORGE S. KAUFMAN . . . Thrillingly directed by the genius behind "My Man Godfrey," GREGORY LA CAVA . . . Glamorously produced by Hollywood's ace picture-maker, PANDRO S. BERMAN . . . Intimately played by stars daringly cast to sweep your fans off their feet with curiosity—and satisfaction! . . . At last the picture you simply MUST give extra time!

FRENCH INDUSTRY ACTS TO PREVENT WHOLESALE EXODUS TO HOLLYWOOD

Actors and Technicians Are Restricted to One Foreign Film a Year; At Least One Picture Must Be Made in France

by PIERRE AUTRE
in Paris

Employment of French film stars and technicians by Hollywood producers has caused so much concern within France's motion picture industry that the production section of the French General Cinema Confederation has released a communication setting forth two principles and warning that violation of them will result in punitive action.

Under the edict, actors and technicians must consent to:

1. Accept no business engagements abroad except for one film per year, at the most.

2. Collaborate on at least one film made in France during this same period.

The communication was released to newspapers and was forwarded to the Professional Association for Artists and Technicians. In reviewing the situation the letter stated:

"Considering that the situation created by the systematic departure for foreign countries of French artists and technicians, constitutes an incontestible harm to the interests of the French cinema,

That all French producers are thus deprived of the legitimate counterpart of their efforts, and, considering the risks and the efforts taken for the formation and improvement of these artists and technicians,

"That the interests of distributors and exhibitors also are at stake because it is by their help, combined with that of the producers, that these artists and technicians attain recognition.

"That the public, without which there could be no success possible, is justified in considering itself as the holder of a trust, which consists of, for the artists and technicians, the moral obligation of consecrating their talents to the creation of films made in the spirit and in the language of this public,

"It is decided that, henceforth, punitive measures will be taken with regard to artists and technicians who do not conform to the two principles."

Agreeable at First

In support of the stand, producers who decided upon "punitive measures" advanced the argument that the French industry is going to lose all of its stars. They also pointed out that at first it was agreeable to learn that French actors have an international appeal and to realize that their films would be excellent world-wide propaganda for France.

"But," they continued, "to stop on this point would be very short sighted reasoning. One may be very flattered and thank our American friends for the honor they do us in selecting our best actors for their films but French producers become uneasy when they see the French studios being gradually drained of all young blood, of the talents French producers have discovered, built up and launched, often at great expense, and upon whom they relied and hoped for the future of the French production."

The producers called attention to the fact that engagement of French stars by American producers was noticeable during the first days of talking pictures. But then, the producers said, the stars played in French versions of American pictures and then returned to France.

"It is a different matter," they asserted, "when French stars are engaged to play in American talking pictures; they really take a chance. A few succeed but many fail and return to their own country absolutely depreciated.

Greatest Danger Seen

As examples of those who have attained success, the producers named Charles Boyer, Simone Simon and Fernand Gravet but in each case it is pointed out that the success of American made films in France cannot be compared to that of the French films with the same stars.

The greatest danger to the French cinema, as seen by the producers, is the fact that Hollywood producers are willing and able to pay high salaries.

"French stars are the object of international competition and have a tendency to ask for salaries in proportion to those of American stars."

This is seen as disastrous for French producers because there is not the market for their product that there is for English speaking pictures.

The producers also expressed regret over the fact that "players who were excellent in France, often are used in America in pictures which are unsuitable to their temperament and their mentality." Fear also was expressed that the "French cinema will undergo the same fate as the Swedish cinema. Twelve years ago all the best stars, all the best directors of the cinema in Sweden, were engaged by Hollywood and, with the exception of Greta Garbo, what has happened to all the others?

"That was the end of the Swedish cinema."

Boycott Films?

It seems almost impossible to resolve the problem. The French Syndical Chamber threatens to take measure against stars and technicians who accept more than one contract per year out of France and who do not make at least one film in France during the same period.

What measures will they take? Boycott films to which French stars or technicians have contributed?

It is practically impossible to boycott the films and the stars. So what can be done?

The question affects the stars more seriously than the directors and technicians. The success of a French star in an American film may be doubtful because of language reasons but this is not true for directors. A good film, made anywhere, will always be a good film.

General opinion is that both sides of the matter are understandable. French producers, who made the French stars do not want to lose them, just when they become famous but, on the other hand, stars and technicians do not want to refuse good contracts and wages and the security for work, which they cannot get in France.

Many French actors and technicians are obliged to remain idle several months as the French production system does not allow for long term contracts and after each film the stars and technicians, have to look for other positions.

French producers make, at the most, one or two pictures each year and some producing companies are formed just for the purpose of making a single picture.

Technicians' Viewpoint

The point of view of French technicians engaged by foreign countries, England as well as America, was expressed in an interview given by the director, Abel Gance, famous for his silent film "The Wheel," and "J'Accuse."

"It is not because I had trouble with my producers that I have decided to work out of France," he said. "It is becoming more and more difficult to make big pictures over here. Above certain figures, production does not pay.

"If I leave France, it is because, for a director who has the habit of making films of some importance, the French cinema market does not offer sufficient outlets."

Marcel L'Herbier, another director and also secretary of the French Cine-Technicians Association, said he agrees on certain points with the decision made by the producers but does not agree that liberty of action should be taken from stars and directors.

"I think freedom of exchange is very important," he declared. "If a French actor or director leaves France he will still be serving his country. If he goes to work in foreign countries just for the sake of money, he will not be successful and no sanction will be necessary."

Maurice Chevalier is of the opinion that "too much fuss is being made about nothing. Out of all the French actors engaged by Hollywood, only two or three, at the most, will make a real hit with the American public. The others will come back, quickly.

Public's Opinion

As for the public, the French people think it is not right to prevent anyone from taking a good position, in a foreign country.

But the way that French audiences will receive American or British pictures, English speaking but with French stars, to be considered. It is a well known fact that up to now not one American film, staring a French actor has been a success in France, whether in original version or dubbed in French.

French patrons who go to theatres, showing American and English films in original speaking versions, find it odd to hear French actors speaking English. They prefer American or English actors. It is still worse for dubbed versions. French patrons cannot get used to the idea, or accept an American film, starring such well known French film stars, such as Charles Boyer, Simone Simon, Fernand Gravet or Annabella, and in the dubbed versions of which, they would hear voices which are not theirs.

The only Charles Boyer American film which was a success in France was "The Garden of Allah" in which Charles Boyer dubbed his own role. The French dubbed version was a great success as compared to the original American version which was very badly received. In the same way, Annabella dubbed herself in "Wings of the Morning," Fernand Gravet, himself in

(Continued on following page)

MINSKYS REUNITE, BUT STRIP TEASE IS OUT

The Minsky brothers, who split into two factions in 1932 when one, Abe, was accused by the other two of "going highbrow," have reunited to produce the "Oriental French Follies," which is the Minsky's offering as a successor to burlesque in New York.

The reunion, however, does not alter the ban on strip tease and similar acts and, while the brothers, Morton, Herbert K. and Abe, are producing the show they are still prohibited from using the name Minsky in show business.

FRENCH ORDER FINES TO KEEP TALENT

the "King and the Chorus Girl," and Simone Simon in "Seventh Heaven."

However, it is clear French audiences do not like to hear their stars speaking another language. They may find it amusing for five minutes, but they soon tire of it, and want their stars to speak their own language, directly, without dubbing, and this is very understandable.

American producers ought not to think the presence of a French star in an American film will give it more chances of success in France.

Universal Moves Headquarters

Universal European headquarters, which was moved to London in 1934, will be returned to the French capital. The new office will be established under the title of "Compagnie Universal S. A." at the 33 Champs Elysées, in the building Marignan. Ernest Koenig, formerly chief of the French branch of Warner Brothers and Twentieth Century-Fox, will manage business of Universal in France and Belgium.

New Chief for Columbia

Under the title "Columbia Film, S. A.", Columbia Pictures have opened new offices in Paris, 33 Champs Elysées. Alexandre Stein, previously general manager of the French organization of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, has been appointed general manager and supervisor for the Continent. Until last year, Columbia pictures were distributed in France through the French company Osso. At the present time the new Columbia organization has only released original versions of its new production, including "The Lost Horizon," which made a first run of 11 weeks on the Champs Elysées.

Reisman in Paris

The foreign chief of RKO Radio pictures, Phil Reisman, has arrived in Paris, coming from London where he attended the European convention of Radio Pictures.

Huisman Opens Offices

René Huisman, president of the Best Film Company, of New York, is going to open offices in Paris for the exploitation and the distribution of the Mexican film "The Wave," for which he has European rights.

Cinema Season Opens

After three months of a hard summer, Paris motion picture theatres are going to open the new season with some outstanding French productions. After 14 weeks, Jean Renoir's film, "The Great Illusion," will be replaced on the screen of the Marivaux Theatre by Julien Duvivier's latest film, "Un Carnet de Bal" (Dance Programme).

The Paramount Theatre will open its season on September 2nd with the French dubbed version of "The Knight Without Armour." At the same time the English speaking original version will be shown in a specializing cinema of the Champs Elysées.

No details have been already given on the first runs of American product.

French Productions Notes

The French director, Jacques Feyder, has started in Germany, at Munich, the production on "Ceux Du Voyage" (Touring People), a film on circus life which will be made in French and German speaking versions.

The young French director Pierre Billon will direct "Sarajevo," a film based on the famous tragedy which was the start of the World War, from an original story by Joseph Kessel.

On the French Riviera, Erich Pommer is producing the outdoor scenes of the first Mayflower productions: "A Man and His Dog," from Somerset Maughan's novel "The Vessel of Wrath." Charles Laughton and Elsa Lanchester co-star in this film.

On a rough island off French Britanny, Jean Epstein is shooting "La Femme Au Bout Du Monde" (The Woman at the End of the World), with Charles Vanel, Jean-Pierre Aumont and Germaine Rouer.

The French actor, Pierre Blanchar, will be the star of "Thomas L'Agnelet," a romantic and adventure picture taken from the novel by the famous French writer Claude Farrère. The film will be produced in Italy, in both French and Italian speaking versions.

It is Marcel l'Herbier, not the Russian director Fedor Ozep as announced previously, who directs the French talking version of "The Cheat." The cast includes Sessue Hayakawa, Victor Francen and Lise Delamare.

Two Firms Delay Their Stock Issues

Two film companies held up their proposed stock issues in the Securities and Exchange Commission last week when Cinecolor, Inc., requested postponement of the effective date of its registration and Hollywood Famous Pictures sought withdrawal for the second time of its application.

The Cinecolor registration, originally filed August 9th, covered the proposed issuance of 407,000 shares of $1 par common stock, of which 167,000 shares were to be offered the public at $1.50 and the balance issued for the assets of Cinecolor's predecessor company.

Additional time was requested to permit the company to file additional information by the commission.

The original application of Hollywood Famous Pictures, filed September 8th, 1936, covered 50,000 shares, each, of preferred and common stock. Both at $1 par value, they were to be offered to the public in units of two shares of preferred and one of common at $2.50 per unit with the remaining 25,000 shares of common to be issued to promoters of the company. Withdrawal of the statement was originally requested July 23rd, the latest application being supplementary to it.

James Cagney, who drew $100,000, received the highest salary paid by Grand National Films, Inc., during the fiscal year which ended April 3rd, according to the company's annual report, filed this week with the Commission.

Edward L. Alperson, president, received $48,000 and in addition was to receive 17,550 shares of common stock, 15,000 of which had been issued to him and the remaining 2,550 had accrued. Edward J. Peskev, vice president, received $11,000 and 950 shares of common stock, accrued but not issued; Jack Barnstvn, vice-president in charge of foreign distribution, drew $6,600; Carl N. Leserman, vice-president from April 25th to October 31st, 1936, $11,500, and Crafath, deGersdorff, Swaine and Wood, counsel, $22,500.

Victor Schertzinger, producer, received $27,000.

Labor Troubles Threaten Majors' Mexican Branches

by JAMES LOCKHART
in Mexico City

Labor trouble again threatens American distributors in Mexico. With employees making demands for salary increases ranging from 30 to 35 per cent, strike murmurs are being felt by the eight large companies having Mexican branches.

Recent wage increases granted by MGM and Paramount have relieved the tension to some degree, but dissatisfaction still remains.

Unlike previous labor policy, companies are being approached individually. This is a marked departure from the policy of demands made upon producers collectively followed in the strike of two years ago which resulted in a four-month tieup of motion picture activity here.

There is indication that official action may be taken if the situation becomes more pronounced. Government intervention has averted difficulties in the mining and petroleum industries, encouraging belief that disturbances may also be avoided in the film field.

On the other side of the picture, Mexican business continues favorable. Improved conditions are particularly noticeable in Guadalajara, Mexico's second largest city, and in Monterrey, a highly Americanized town near the U. S. border. The Rex, a modern 1,200-seat house equipped with air-conditioning, is being built in Monterrey by Gonzala Gaza, an enterprising young showman.

Also under construction is a theatre in Hermosillo, prosperous northwestern state. Two modern houses are soon to be opened in Morelia.

Tri-State MPTO Meets in October

The fall convention of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennesee will be held October 3rd at the Hotel Chisca, Memphis.

R. X. Williams, Jr., is president of the tri-state organization. Other officers are W. H. Baker, L. F. Haven and W. F. Ruffin, regional vice presidents; Y. D. Moore, secretary-treasurer.

M. A. Lightman, formerly head of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America, is chairman of the board of directors.

Warner Club Plans Tourney

A committee consisting of Arthur Sachson, Gene Warner, and Leonard Palumbo, are drafting plans for the New York Warner Club's annual golf tournament, which will be held at Old Oaks Country Club, Purchase, September 24th.

ORIGINALS COMPRISE 60 PER CENT OF STORY PURCHASES IN AUGUST

Forty-Five Items Added to Feature Material Stock of 13 Producers; MGM Leads with 11; RKO Acquires Four Plays

A total of 45 story properties were purchased during August by 13 producers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer buying the largest number taken by a single company, with the acquisition of 11.

As in former months, original stories proved the favorite. Of the 45 purchases, a total of 27, or 60 per cent of the properties, were originals. Two were magazine stories, four were novels and 12 were plays.

As compared with the previous two months, June and July (see accompanying tabulation), August saw the sale of 12 stage productions, but the sale of books and magazine stories took a proportionate drop, from 13 for the two-month period, to six for August.

MGM's purchases were varied. The company bought four original stories, three plays, three books and one magazine serial.

Sources of the other properties were: 20th Century-Fox, five originals and two plays; Paramount, two plays, three originals and one novel; RKO Radio, four plays; Principal Productions, Inc., four originals; Warner Brothers, two originals and one play; Grand National, two originals, one magazine story; Republic, two originals, and Alexander Korda, Samuel Goldwyn, Walter Wanger, Universal, and Major Pictures, one original each.

The titles of the 45 properties bought by producers together with all available production credits are as follows:

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED, original by Walter Sullivan, bought by Warner Brothers to Star Pat O'Brien.

AMAZING DR. CLITTERHOUSE, play, bought by Warner Brothers.

AND SO—VICTORIA, novel by William Vaughn Wilkins, bought by MGM for production in England.

BABY MELODY OF 1938, original by Edgar Allan Woolf and Florence Ryerson, bought by MGM.

BABY OF THE FAMILY, THE, original story by Sophia Cleugh, bought by MGM.

BALALAIKA, play produced in London, bought by Paramount.

BENEFITS FORGOT, short story by Honore Willsie Morrow, bought by MGM.

CHECKERS, play by Henry M. Blossom, produced several years ago, bought by 20th Century-Fox as a starring vehicle for Jane Withers. Frank Fenton and Lynn Root will do the adaptation.

COLLEGE FOR SALE, original, bought by Warner Warner Brothers.

DEBURAU, play by Sacha Guitry, bought by MGM.

GIRL OF THE BOARDWALK, THE, original by Ben Hecht and Charles Lederer, bought by Samuel Goldwyn as a starring vehicle for Merle Oberon. Release will be through United Artists.

HAVING WONDERFUL TIME, current Broadway play by Arthur Kober, bought by RKO Radio. Pandro S. Berman will produce and Ginger Rogers will be starred.

HAWK OF THE DESERT, original by Albert M. Treynor, bought by 20th Century-Fox as a vehicle for Cesar Romero.

HE WAS HER MAN, original by James Edward Grant, bought by 20th Century-Fox as a vehicle for Gracie Fields.

HIGH FLYERS, play by Victor Mapes, bought by RKO as a starring vehicle for Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey.

INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENT, original story, "Shanghai Deadline," by Gregory Ratoff, bought by 20th Century-Fox. Frank Fenton and Lynn Root are writing the screen play. Sol M. Wurtzel will produce.

IVOR, GERTIE AND ME, original by Gene Towne, bought by Walter Wanger Productions as a starring vehicle for Leslie Howard. Tay Garnett will direct. Release will be through United Artists.

KING OF THE NEWSBOYS, original story by Samuel Ornitz and Horace McCoy, bought by Republic.

LIGHTS OUT, play by Paul Dickey and Mann Page, bought by RKO Radio.

LINGER LONGER LETTY, play by Nichols and Edward E. Rose, bought by Paramount to star Martha Raye.

LITTLE DEVIL, original story by A. H. Z. Carr, bought by Republic. Bernard Vorhaus will produce.

Buy Novel of 1887

LITTLE PRINCESS, play by Frances Hodgson Burnett, based on the novel, "Sara Crewe," by the same author, bought by 20th Century-Fox. Play produced in 1902 in London and in 1903 in New York. Novel originally published in the St. Nicholas Magazine in 1887.

YEAR'S COMPARISON OF STORY PURCHASES

Month	Originals	Books	Plays	Totals
September	40	32(b)	2	74
October	38	22(c)	10	70
November	34	16(d)	9	59
December	31	12(e)	3	46
January, 1937	55	23(f)	15	93
February	42	17(g)	9	68
March	42	16(h)	5	63
April	25	11(i)	8	44
May	42	10(j)	9	61
June	28	8(k)	1	37
July	21	5(l)	0	26
August	27	6(m)	12	45
TOTALS FOR 12 MONTHS	425	178(n)	83	686

(b) Including 7 published magazine stories.
(c) Including 7 published magazine stories.
(d) Including 5 published magazine stories.
(e) Including 5 published magazine stories.
(f) Including 7 published magazine stories.
(g) Including 5 published magazine stories.
(h) Including 3 published magazine stories.
(i) Including 1 published magazine story.
(j) Including 4 published magazine stories.
(k) Including 7 published magazine stories.
(l) Including 1 published magazine story and 2 radio serials.
(m) Including 2 published magazine stories.
(n) Including 56 published magazine stories.

LOVE ME AGAIN, original story by Victor Schertzinger, bought by Grand National to star Anna Sten. Mr. Schertzinger will produce and direct.

LUCKY DAY, original story by F. Hugh Herbert, bought by Universal.

MARRY AN ORPHAN, original story by James Edward Grant, bought by 20th Century-Fox.

MONEY FROM HOME, story by Damon Runyon, bought by Paramount. Bob Hope and Shirley Ross will have leading roles.

NO POCKETS IN A SHROUD, novel by Horace McCoy, bought by MGM.

OVER THE MOON, original by Robert Sherwood, bought by Alexander Korda, as a starring vehicle for Merle Oberon. Release will be through United Artists.

PETEY SIMMONS, novel by George Fitch, bought by Paramount.

RAZZLE DAZZLE, serial to be published in the Saturday Evening Post, by Francis Wallace, bought by MGM.

RENFREW RIDES AGAIN, original by Charles Logue, bought by Grand National. James Newell will be featured.

Mae West in Own Original

SAPPHIRE SAL, original by Mae West, bought by Major Pictures as a starring vehicle for Mae West. Eddie Sutherland will direct. Jo Swerling did the screenplay.

SIGNALS OVER, magazine story by Dudley Early, bought by Grand National. Stuart Erwin will be starred.

SING WHILE YOU SLEEP, original by Eddie Cantor, bought by 20th Century-Fox as a starring vehicle for Eddie Cantor.

SOME LIKE IT HOT, unproduced play by Peter Arno, bought by RKO Radio.

STRANGE FASCINATION, original by Andrew L. Stone and Eve Greene, bought by Paramount as a starring vehicle for George Raft.

THE 79'ERS, original story by Goldie Weisberg, bought by Principal Productions, Inc., to star Smith Ballew. Release will be through 20th Century-Fox.

THEY SEEK A COUNTRY, novel by Francis Brett Young, bought by MGM. Merian C. Cooper will produce.

TRIP THROUGH THE PLANT, A, original story by Stanley Rauh, bought by MGM.

VACATION FROM LOVE, original story by Harlan Ware and Patterson McNutt, bought by Paramount. Harlan Thompson will produce.

UNTITLED ORIGINAL, hill-billy story bought by Principal Productions as a starring vehicle for Bobby Breen. Release will be through RKO.

UNTITLED ORIGINAL, by Gertrude Berg, bought by Principal Productions to star Bobby Breen. Release will be through RKO.

UNTITLED ORIGINAL, by Earle Snell bought by Principal Productions as a starring vehicle for Bobby Breen. Release will be through RKO.

WHEEL, THE, play by Cesare Vico Lodovici, bought by MGM.

WILD MAN OF BORNEO, play by Marc Connelly and Herman Mankiewicz, bought by MGM.

Paramount Signs Technicolor Contract

Paramount has signed a contract with Technicolor for six color pictures to be made at the rate of two annually for the next three years.

The agreement is in addition to present commitments, among which are "Beau Geste," "Ebb Tide" and "Men with Wings."

THEATRES BAR CHILDREN TO CHECK PARALYSIS

Chicago Exhibitors Expected To Lose $750,000 in Month; Omaha Under Similar Order

Chicago theatre owners are expected to lose $750,000 in grosses this month as the result of a board of health ruling, prohibiting children of 16 years of age and under from attending theatres. The edict, handed down last week and scheduled to remain in effect until further notice, was issued in an attempt to check the marked increase in infantile paralysis cases.

The disease is not considered to have reached epidemic proportions but the increase has been of sufficient size to warrant the taking of every precaution to prevent its spread.

Similar bans have been issued in Omaha where Dr. Floyd Kinyoun ordered all theatre managers to bar children under 18, in Milwaukee where children under seven are barred from all public gatherings, and in Wauwatosa and Waukesha, Wisconsin. In Wauwatosa the order affects children under seven and in Waukesha no children under nine are admitted. In Toronto no official ban has been declared but fear of the disease has had a disastrous affect on attendance.

First Order Bars All

Before Chicago authorities ordered children barred, theatre owners were threatened with an order to close their houses to all. The first move made by the health group, of which Dr. Herman N. Bundesen is president, was to halt the opening of city schools on September 8th. The order affected 700,000 children and aroused a deluge of comment from civic and medical leaders who took opposite sides on the value of the move. Among those who declared the situation did not warrant such drastic action was Dr. Morris Fishbein, editor of the Medical Journal of the American Medical Association.

The day after the school order was issued, Dr. Bundesen called a meeting of exhibitor leaders and informed them the board of health planned to close all theatres until it was advisable for schools to reopen.

The theatremen declared they willingly would cooperate with city officials but to close all theatres was being too strict. They pointed out that other businesses were not affected and theatres should not be the only ones to suffer from such an order.

It was then proposed that children of 16 and under be kept out of the theatres until the number of cases of illness declines. This was agreed upon immediately and plans for carrying out the order were quickly drafted.

Bookings Changed

As a result the bookings in many theatres were changed as the order took effect immediately and many houses had special children's matinees and films with a great deal of child appeal on their programs. As the situation now stands all children's matinees have been abandoned. Pictures that are of special interest to children will be booked in after the health order has been rescinded.

According to the latest announcement from Dr. Bundesen the ruling will remain in effect until October 1st, at least. Present indications point to no cessation in the spread of the disease. There are an average of about 12 new cases and two fatalities daily.

In southern Illinois and many of the cities surrounding Chicago, it is reported that the number of infantile paralysis cases is far below the normal average for this time of year. Many of the cases reported in Chicago have been traced to children's camps in Wisconsin and Michigan where groups of children gathered during the hot weather. Youngsters returning from some of these camps have been isolated until any chance of them having the disease or spreading it has been removed.

Dr. Bundesen explained that Chicago theatres, with modern ventilation and careful handling of crowds, are not considered dangerous places for the spreading of the disease but, he added, when schools were closed the protests that resulted were so strong that theatres had to be affected too.

The disease did not reach epidemic proportions in Kansas. In Kansas City, Missouri, though, some exhibitors reported the "scare" decreased business over the holiday weekend.

PERSISTENT MOTHER PROVES HER POINT

Although a ban on children, caused by an infantile paralysis scare in Omaha, has brought low grosses and complaining patrons, theatre managers report the order has resulted in several humorous incidents.

Bill Miskell, manager of the Orpheum, reluctantly refused to sell tickets to a woman who was accompanied by her two daughters. The woman hastened away from the box office and returned a short time later with birth certificates, proving her daughters were not affected by the ban on children under 18 years of age.

Air Express Marks 11th Anniversary

Air express, offspring of 98-year-old Railway Express Agency, began its eleventh year of operation September 1st by flying 1,666 shipments of express 200,116 miles, it was announced last week by the Air Express division of the company.

In the first four months of its existence, the air express averaged 43 shipments a day. In 1928, the first full year of operation, it carried 17,006 shipments weighing approximately 32 tons. In 1936, the last full year, it transported 465,727 shipments weighing 1,886 tons.

DOCTOR'S SHOW BOAT WINS MODEL CONTEST

Dr. N. Philip Norman, 19 East 88th Street, New York, not only advises patients to cultivate a hobby but he also follows the advice himself. As a result of his hobby of building scale models of early American western river steamboats, Dr. Norman has been awarded a round trip ticket to France aboard the Normandie.

Dr. Norman won the prize for his model of Captain Andy Hawks' cotton palace "show boat" which is used in Universal's screen version of the operetta "Show Boat." The contest was sponsored by Model Builders, Inc., of Hempstead, Long Island.

Radio Men to Meet On Strike Issue

Urging them to cooperate in efforts to mediate the threatened strike of the American Federation of Labor, called against broadcast studios for September 16th, the committee representing independent network affiliates sent a letter to unaffiliated stations inviting them to attend a meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, Friday.

The committee, which represents the National Association of Broadcasters, discussed the problem with the AFM August 23rd and 24th in an attempt to arrive at a solution to the problem, but lacked authority to conclude an agreement. The AFM threatens a general strike unless a program to increase the employment of musicians is adopted by the radio industry. The broadcasters adjourned after passing a resolution to re-convene September 10th.

It is this meeting that the unaffiliated stations were invited to attend in the hope that a final settlement could be reached.

Expressing the hope that a "formula" can be arrived at, the letter states, "It will be up to the industry to decide whether it chooses to bear the cost and interruption of service caused by a strike, or to accept the burden imposed by the agreement and avoid hostilities. . . .

"The committe calls upon all broadcasters to cooperate with the committee in the solution of this difficult problem."

Theatre Tax Faces St. Louis As Collections Fall Short

St. Louis collections of delinquent taxes up to September 1st, totaling only $4,711,483.97, fell short of the $7,000,000 estimated by Mayor Dickmann as necessary to abolish the need for special taxes, including one on theatres.

Four special-tax bills passed the Board of Aldermen several weeks ago, but were recalled at the request of the Mayor, who wished to give the taxpayers a chance to make up the deficit by payment of delinquent taxes. The pending bills would levy taxes on theatre admission, newspaper advertising, cigarettes and gasoline.

GLAMOROUSLY PRODUCED BY HOLLYWOOD'S
ACE PICTURE-MAKER, PANDRO S. BERMAN

Intimately played by stars daringly cast to sweep your fans off their feet with curiosity—and satisfaction . . . At last the picture you simply MUST give extra time . . . Broadway's sensational stage success . . . now the outstanding highlight of all the screen's new big pictures . . . Authored by two of the greatest living playwrights, EDNA FERBER and GEORGE S. KAUFMAN . . . Thrillingly directed by the genius behind "My Man Godfrey," GREGORY LA CAVA.

EXPLOITATION DYNAMITE!
BOX OFFICE TNT!
HEPBURN AND ROGERS TOGETHER!

"How and Why We Organized To Boo Screen Advertising"

Not a gag, but a unique and altogether serious body of film fans, is the Society for the Booing of Commercial Advertisements in Motion Picture Theatres, recently formed in Little Rock, Arkansas. It has a president and a secretary, and the latter, M. C. Blackman, tells about it here » » »

Here is a first-hand exposition of how movements are born, also one of those rare occasions when audience reaction becomes positively explicit and articulate.

A prior issue of MOTION PICTURE HERALD presented a news article about the uprising of displeased patrons of a Little Rock, Arkansas, theatre, annoyed with what they considered too much commercial invasion of the amusement time they paid for at the box office. That story, by the way, went around the world on the press association wires, and was widely and enthusiastically published. Just as an aside observation, and probably of no immediate bearing in this case, it may be said that not infrequently the newspaper press has a certain zest for news that is not entirely favourable to other advertising media, like the screen and radio.

Now the HERALD has a letter, lucid and unfevered, from one of the personages of the Little Rock movement, presented here as a special article, from the inside.

—THE EDITOR.

by M. C. BLACKMAN

THE Society for the Booing of Commercial Advertisements in motion picture theatres is a spontaneous organization that came into being in the following manner:

A group of young people in Little Rock, aged 25 to 35, of both sexes, some married and some not, meet occasionally in a local restaurant to drink beer and talk. Usually there are from 12 to 16 present. At one such informal gathering some one noticed and mentioned that no one was drinking Falstaff beer, which is good beer.

Instantly there was a chorus of explanations. It seemed that practically every one present had privately and individually boycotted that brand because of resentment of the advertisement that had been shown regularly and monotonously at every program in all the local motion picture houses. It developed also that every one present felt that it was an imposition to have paid commercial advertisements thrust upon them after having paid for entertainment. A few short, snappy ones with some sparkle of originality or novelty might be tolerated, if not approved. But from seven to 10 long, dull ones, such as had been the custom here, were too many.

So we organized the Society on the spot.

William Bell, a civil engineer, was elected president, and I was named secretary, simply because our names appeared first on the alphabetical list. My name has appeared more prominently than the others, because, being a former newspaper man, I have handled all the publicity. (I am now State director of publicity, but my activities with the Society are not connected with my official position.)

And Then They Had a "Booing Party"

We set a date for a "booing party." We tried to advertise it in the morning newspaper, but after it was accepted, paid for and set up in type, it was withdrawn without notice, because, I am told, the manager of the local theatres learned of it and objected to it. That annoyed us, so we printed a few hundred handbills and distributed them ourselves.

The Associated Press carried an advance story, and a staff man covered the "party." One local paper ignored us entirely; the other buried the A. P. story of the affair, which was not at all exciting. We simply sat quietly through the feature picture and the shorts, then booed in chorus as each commercial advertisement was flashed on the screen.

Since the original party we have compiled a mailing list of 150 names from telephone calls, telegrams and letters volunteering support—all local people. We have also received a few dozen letters and telegrams from other sections, from California to New York—bitter denunciations of commercial advertisements. If these were prompted by special interests, such as rival advertising mediums, I failed to discern them. They seemed to be from ordinary people like ourselves who simply dislike the things.

We have had one other "official" party, which was moderately successful; that is, others in the audience were beginning to join in when the advertisements were discontinued after one had been shown. I have been informed that there has been some sporadic, spontaneous booing without our leadership, but I doubt if there is much of that. Most people will stand a great deal of annoyance rather than risk being conspicuous.

MR. BLACKMAN GIVES THE SIGNAL

Who Members Are— And a Suggestion

My interest is without ulterior motive. None of our group has any special interest in the matter; we are lawyers and writers and engineers and secretaries and draftsmen. We have no passes to the theatres and we have no grudges against the management; we like the motion picture entertainment when it is good and we say nothing when it is bad, which happens not too often. But we think the paid advertisements in first-run picture houses that charge 50 cents admission are an imposition, and we believe nearly every other patron thinks so.

I have been personally acquainted and friendly with Ralph Noble, manager of the local houses, for a dozen years, and I suggested that he do one thing to satisfy himself about the attitude of his patrons—employ a disinterested investigator to stop a hundred or a thousand or any number of persons on the street and ask these two questions:

1. Do you go to picture shows?
2. Do the commercial advertisements annoy you?

I think the answers would be illuminating.

RKO Net Profit Shows Increase To $1,448,783

A profit of $1,448,783 in a period of 26 weeks by the Radio-Keith-Orpheum Corporation and subsidiaries, a net profit of six months of $426,045 by the Famous Players Canadian Corporation, and payment of a quarterly dividend of $1.25 by the United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., were reported this week.

The RKO profit for the 26 week period ended July 3rd was computed before possible surtax on undistributed profits and compared with $734,492 for the corresponding period in 1936. The statement was the fifth report of the Irving Trust Company, trustee in reorganization proceedings.

The total included $757,804 earnings of theatre operating companies, exclusive of Orpheum subsidiaries, which compares with a net profit for the 26 weeks ended June 27, 1936 of $383,097. The operations of RKO Radio Pictures, Inc., and subsidiaries for the 26 weeks ended July 3, 1937, resulted in a net profit of $476,491 which compares with a net profit of $256,944 for the corresponding period in 1936.

Pathe News, Inc., for the same 26 weeks, reported a net profit after all charges, including the interest accrual of $6,601.92 on indebtedness to RKO, of $2,080.77, which compares with a net profit for the reel of $3,165.34 for the same period in 1936.

The RKO corporation income for the period, as indicated in the consolidated statement of profit and loss, included theatre admissions of $10,595,892.42; film rentals and sales, $13,243,772.60, and rents and other income of $1,357,467.39.

The report stated that during the period from January 1, 1937, to July 3, 1937, the fixed indebtedness of RKO was reduced to $1,337,592.56, including the payment of $350,000 principal amount of RKO's secured six per cent gold notes, and interest on indebtedness was paid in the aggregate amount of $626,416.38.

The cash of RKO and subsidiaries declined from an aggregate of $7,928,810.69 on Dec. 31, 1936, to $5,633,148.75 on July 3, 1937. It was noted in the report that in addition to the debt reduction during the period of $1,337,592.56, Stadium paid $700,000 for the assets of Orpheum and the inventory of films, stores and continuities increased approximately $1,500,000.

The Famous Players net profit was after all charges and is equal to $1.07 per share on 397,524 no par shares of capital stock.

A quarterly dividend of $1.25 on the preferred stock was voted by the board of directors of United Artists Theatres, payable September 15th to stockholders of record September 1st.

Gibbons, McCarthy Attend Vitaphone Preview, Lunch

Floyd Gibbons and Clem McCarthy were guests at a luncheon held at Warner Brothers' home office last Thursday. Norman H. Moray, in charge of sales for Vitaphone short subjects, was host at the luncheon, which was attended by trade paper representatives and which was followed by a preview of eight of Vitaphone's short subjects, including two in which the guests appeared. Also present at the luncheon was Major Albert Warner.

Columbia Statement for Fiscal Year Shows Net Profit of $1,317,770

The net profit of $1,317,770 shown below in the Columbia Pictures consolidated statement of operations and earned surplus for the fiscal year ended June 26, 1937, compares with earnings of $1,568,860 for the corresponding period ended June 27, 1936, after similar deductions. The statement, isued to stockholders this week, follows:

Gross income from rentals and sales of film and accessories		$19,066,100.42
Deduct:
Amortization of production costs	$10,033,457.03
Share to producers and participants	717,395.98
Cost of accessories and prints	448,742.05
		11,199,595.06
		$ 7,866,505.36
General, administrative and selling expenses (see Note A)		6,346,651.53
		$ 1,519,853.83
Other income (net), including profit or loss on foreign exchange, discount on merchandise purchases, excess duties recovered, interest (net), recoveries from obsolete prints, etc.		97,917.09
(See Note B)		$ 1,617,770.92
Provision for Federal taxes:
Income taxes (estimated)	$210,000.00
Surtax on undistributed profits (estimated)	55,000.00
Capital stock taxes	35,000.00
		300,000.00
Net profit		$ 1,317,770.92
Earned surplus at June 27, 1936	$4,018,463.09
Deduct:
Additional provision for investment in Spanish subsidiary company	15,000.00
		4,003,463.09
		$5,321,234.01
Deduct: Dividends:
On $2.75 preferred convertible stock	$206,260.41
On common stock:
Cash	$478,475.50
Stock	215,890.67
	694,366.17
		900,626.58
Earned surplus at June 26, 1937, per balance sheet		$ 4,420,607.43

Note A: Including depreciation on furniture in head office and branches of $66,861.27. Depreciation on studio buildings and equipment of $174,335.80 has been capitalized as production cost and is being written off as film amortization.

Note B: The figures shown above combine the operations of both the domestic and foreign territories, instead of showing separately the figures relating to each division as was the practice previous to this twelve months period.

Booers Cheered at Suit's Withdrawal

The $10,000 damage suit threatened against Local No. 3 of the Society for the Booing of Commercial Advertisements in Motion Picture Theatres and a Tifton, Ga., newspaper publisher for supporting it has been withdrawn by the R. E. Martin interests, operators of the Tifton theatre. The suit was threatened on the charge that the activities of the Society and the support given it by John Herring, publisher of the Tifton Gazette, caused patronage damages.

On the petition of R. E. Martin, theatre manager, a temporary restraining order had been issued against the oral outbursts of the Society's local chapter by Superior Judge R. Eve the end of last month.

Defending the position of the Society, executive secretary M. C. Blackman said, "It has been the inalienable right of theatre patrons since the days of the early Greek drama to express disapproval of any performance that displeased them."

Mr. Blackman said that the Little Rock chapter, staging mass boos twice a month, had succeeded in reducing from half a dozen to one the number of commercial advertisements shown at leading theatres there.

MGM Signs New Zealand Boy

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has placed Ronnie St. Clair, 13-year-old New Zealand boy, under contract. He will appear in "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry."

Minnie Swift, manager of the London office of Guaranteed Pictures, Inc., returned to England this week after spending two months in New York and Hollywood.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

12 Films Start

Preceding the long Labor Day weekend holiday, Hollywood bestirred itself to the extent of putting twelve new productions into work. Not all the material is the run-of-the-mill stuff that might be expected when picture manufacturing minds are more directly concentrated on what to do at the seashore, in the mountains or on airplane dashes to far corners. On the contrary, at least two of the new efforts are productions which will demand close attention.

The busiest studio in town was that of Warner Brothers. There three films went before the cameras. "Return from Limbo" will star Kay Francis. Thurston Hall, Ralph Forbes, Grant Mitchell, John Eldredge have been assigned to the principal support roles and Stanley Logan is directing. For "Accidents Will Happen," comedy which William Clemens is directing, Ronald Regan, Gloria Blondell, Dick Purcell, Hugh O'Connell, Sheila Bromley and Addison Richards have been chosen for the important parts. Leading players in "The Patient in Room 18" will be Ann Sheridan, Patric Knowles and the studio's new discovery, Dorothy Day, who for screen purposes has the name "Vicki Lester" which was Janet Gaynor's cast name in "A Star is Born."

20th-Fox Launches Two

Two pictures started at Twentieth Century-Fox. "Borrowed Trouble," an addition to the "Jones Family" series, will feature Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Shirley Deane, Russell Gleason, June Carlson, Billy Mahan, Florence Roberts, George Ernest and Douglas Fowley. As usual, Frank Strayer will direct. Under the guidance of Walter Lang, "Second Honeymoon" also went into work. Loretta Young is starred.

Universal, likewise, started two productions. "Courage of the West," an outdoor action adventure story, will present Bob Baker, Lois January, J. Farrell MacDonald, Fuzzy Knight and Carl Stockdale. Joe Lewis is directing. Although only the leading pair of players, Frankie Thomas and Frances Robinson, are working, the studio also started "Tim Tyler's Luck," with Ford Beebe and Wyndham Gittens co-directors.

MGM looks with optimism upon its two new entries. For its picturization of the operetta, "Rosalie," which W. S. Van Dyke is directing, the company has named to the top roles Eleanor Powell, Nelson Eddy, Ray Bolger, Ilona Massey, Frank Morgan, Edna May Oliver, Reginald Owen, Virginia Grey, George Zukko and Janet Beecher. With Ronnie St. Clair succeeding Freddie Bartholomew, the Culver City plant rang the bell for "Thoroughbreds Don't Cry," also expected to be important.

Under Sam Katzman's production and direction, Victory started "Brothers of the West." The cast is made up of Tom Tyler, Lois Wilde, Bob Terry, Jim Corey, Roger Williams, Tiny Lipson and Dorothy Short.

Goldwyn Starts "Follies"

Of his "Goldwyn Follies," allotted an expanded budget and to be made in Technicolor, Samuel Goldwyn long ago became sublimely confident that the new production would take equal rank with any number in his parade of hits, and that is no mean anticipation when "Stella Dallas," "Dead End" and the forthcoming "Hurricane" and "The Adventures of Marco Polo" are considered. The "Follies" will present Kenny Baker, Andrea Leeds, Adolphe Menjou, Helen Jepson, the Ritz Brothers, Charles Keillman, Phil Baker, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Zorina, Bobby Clark, Ella Logan, William Dollar and Balanchine's American Ballett, and a host of other talent. George Marshall won the directing assignment.

RKO-Radio's contribution to the new work is "It Never Happened Before." The cast includes Lily Pons, Jack Oakie, Gene Raymond, Eric Blore, Edward Everett Horton and Eduardo Cianelli. Raoul Walsh is directing.

Seven Films Completed

Two of the seven completed films are credited to Twentieth Century-Fox. Five companies shared the others. The spectacular semi-tropical historical, "In Old Chicago," will present Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Alice Brady, Andy Devine, Tom Brown, Brian Donlevy, Phyllis Brooks, Berton Churchill, June Storey, Paul Hurst, Tyler Brooke, J. Anthony Hughes and Gene Reynolds. Henry King directed. The second feature, "Dangerously Yours," which Malcolm St. Clair directed, has Cesar Romero, Phyllis Brooks, Jane Darwell, Alan Dinehart, Natalie Garson, John Harrington, Douglas Wood and Albert Conti.

Columbia completed "I'll Take Romance." A romance with music, the cast includes Grace Moore, Melvyn Douglas, Stuart Irwin, Andre Beranger, Helen Westley,

For Paramount release, Major Pictures completed "Love on Toast." Stella Ardler, John Payne, Grant Richards, Katherine (Sugar) Cane, Isabel Jewell and Lewis Alberni are featured. E. A. Dupont directed.

Its cast headed by Noah Beery, Jr., Dorothea Kent, William Gargan and Nan Grey, Universal completed "Blonde Dynamite," which Milton Carruth directed.

"Young Dynamite," a Maurice Conn production for Monogram, came off the line. It features Frankie Darro, Kane Richmond, Charlotte Henry, Davis Sharp and Willy Castella. Les Goodwins directed the Peter B. Kyne story.

Last of the finished productions is Republic's "Portia on Trial." Walter Abel, Frieda Inescort, Neil Hamilton, Ruth Donnelly and Heather Angel are the important players. George Nicholls, Jr., directed.

"IT" GIRL REVEALS IMPORTANT NEWS

There was a great deal of speculation among newspapermen in Los Angeles and Hollywood recently when they received telegrams from Clara Bow and her husband, Rex Bell, inviting them to cocktails to hear "something important."

All tried to break the "news" by checking with studios to determine if Miss Bow had signed a contract. But the attempts brought no success and it was not until Miss Bow and Mr. Bell arrived at the cocktail party that the "news" broke.

The "something important" was that the "It" girl of the screen was returning to Hollywood to operate Clara Bow's and Rex Bell's "IT" cafe.

Extra-Curricular

Usually the previewer's life is prosaic. He sees from 275 to 300 pictures in the year. He gets a two weeks' vacation. If he's wise he gets as far away from Hollywood as possible, knowing that although the town may do lots of foolish things, it not yet has come to the point where it holds previews in wide spots in the road.

Returning from such a vacation, we drew the assignment to cover a preview in Huntington Park, a fast fifty minute ride from Hollywood. A humdrum smart newspaper woman-super scintillating detective film was unveiled. The bathing beauties didn't look so alluring, so we started home. Against red lights and boulevard stop signs a car roared past. A flash, a crash and incineration as the machine hit an oil tanker trailer. Two lives were snuffed out. We skipped the drama by turning right to a side street.

Boone Mancall came along with us to Huntington Park the following night to see a G-man picture that should give J. Edgar Hoover ideas, said it didn't take so long to get home, bade us good night. Something that sounded like a couple of backfires cracked the quiet of a moonless Southern California night. The car went into the garage. A voice said, "A dame got shot." In bed a little while later we were just getting interested in a Damon Runyon story, when sirens began to scream. Oddly, we remembered what the voice had said. Clad only in the bottoms of our pajamas (it's been hot), we walked up the street. Sure enough there was a body, a crowd and a cop who, looking at us, said, "Go back to bed."

Yes, extra-curricular.

EASTERN STUDIO STRIKE THREATENED BY GUILD

September 17th Made Deadline for Producers to Sign Closed Shop Agreements

The Screen Actors Guild this week set September 17th as the deadline for the signing of closed shop agreements in eastern studios and, at the same time, warned producers that unless the demand is met a strike will be called.

Mrs. Florence Marston, eastern representative of the Guild, issued the ultimatum and pointed out that "practically everybody" who works in New York studios has joined the Guild. She estimated the membership at 300.

The action is aimed at the smaller companies, according to Mrs. Marston who said the leading film concerns already have signed contracts. In setting the deadline, Mrs. Marston declared:

"Everybody will be pulled out that can be if those producers who have not signed contracts do not agree to the guild closed shop."

Originally the deadline had been set for August 1st, but it was postponed until September 1st, and on that date it was postponed indefinitely.

Exhibitors Held Responsible

Nor have employee problems and controversies been limited to the eastern studios. The Bureau of Internal Revenue, seeking to clarify the status of musicians under the Social Security Act, ruled that exhibitors using orchestras, engaged under union or other contracts, are deemed to be the employers if they retain the right to "hire or fire" and, as such, they are responsible for payment of old age pension and unemployment taxes.

The International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees concluded its negotiations with distributing companies by obtaining contracts for Chicago and Los Angeles exchange employees. The agreements were the last to be signed for 33 exchange centers and wage and hour schedule now have been agreed upon for approximately 10,000 employees.

Chicago Negotiations Still On

Motion picture projectionists in Chicago, whose contract expired August 31st, have continued to work under the terms of the old agreement while negotiating with theatre leaders for a 20 per cent increase in wages.

Differences between motion picture operators and theatre owners in the vicinity of Paterson, New Jersey, were settled with the signing of a contract providing for a 10 per cent wage increase for the operators over a three year period.

A two year wage scale agreement with the operators' union in Cleveland, was unanimously ratified by the Cleveland Motion Picture Exhibitors' Association. Working conditions, established in an old agreement, are virtually unchanged but the new contract provides for a 10 per cent increase in wages.

Threats of labor trouble at the Consolidated Film Industries' plant at Fort Lee, were dispelled when differences between the Film Technicians' Independent Union and the IATSE were settled through conferences. William Vermont, financial secretary of the FTIU, announced the two unions had reached an agreement under which 200 consolidated employees will return to the IATSE from his union. About 800 members of the insurgent union in New York also will return, he said.

When the Internal Revenue Department issued its order on orchestras it was explained that there are several ways in which arrangements for the employment of musicians are made. In some instances the "contractor" is a leader, in others a musician, and in still others, he is a party performing no musical service.

Under the regulations, it is held that where the "purchaser" has the right to employ and discharge musicians or direct and control the performance of the contract, he is the employer of the individual musicians, including the leader.

In case of "name" orchestras, however, the purchaser is not the employer, but a user of music cannot escape classification as an employer simply by giving the orchestra a name.

An orchestra, it was held, will be considered a "name" orchestra only when, in addition to being designated by a name, it has a fixed personnel extending from engagement to engagement and holds itself out to the public as a permanent business organization, and when the leader contracts with the members of the orchestra for their services at a fixed salary without reference to the discharge of the purchaser's obligation.

Demand 20% Increase

In demanding a 20 per cent increase in salary, Chicago projectionists point out that a pay cut suffered in 1932 has never been restored. The cost of living has increased, the operators contend, and now is the time the pay cut should be restored.

Exhibitor leaders, on the other hand, point out that the inception of double features has given the projectionists a great deal of overtime and has increased their wages by a considerable margin.

The theatremen also stress the point operators' wages are greater in Chicago than in many other cities. The average wage for operators is about $97 a week.

The contract for the coming year has been discussed at several meetings of the theatre and union officials and preliminary details have been worked out.

A two year contract has been signed between Sparks Theatres and the Union of Theatre Operators and Stage Employees of Florida, providing for a 10 per cent wage increase.

Kansas City and Detroit projectionists have signed two-year contracts. The Kansas City agreement provides for a five per cent wage increase for operators in the downtown houses this year and another five per cent next year, which also will be received by suburban operators. Detroit projectionists won a 7½ per cent raise in salary.

Two Newsreels Show Scenes of War in Shanghai

Two special newsreel issues depicting the horror of war scenes in Shanghai, rushed through laboratory processes after a race against time across the Pacific and the continent, were released this week by Universal and News of the Day.

Universal has approximately 900 feet of the material, culled carefully by Charles E. Ford, editor of the reel, and his staff from the 7,000 feet which came to them from Shanghai. Two men were responsible for the films, George Krainukov, Universal's staff cameraman in the Far East, and Howard Winner, who was dispatched from New York and who caught the last available boat from San Francisco to Shanghai.

The News of the Day material was filmed by "Newsreel" Wong and T. Taguchi, Chinese and Japanese cameramen for the company respectively. Negatives addressed to both newsreels were loaded on a steamer in Shanghai when a typhoon delayed the start of the China Clipper on which it had been intended to ship them. The ship arrived in San Francisco only a few minutes after a trans-continental plane had left for New York but a specially chartered plane made connection with the regular air liner at Salt Lake City.

Both issues cover approximately the same scenes, showing the aerial bombing of two large department stores and two hotels, the flight of refugees and the removal of hundreds of dead and wounded soldiers and civilians from the streets after the bombardment. The Universal pictures are preceded by a "shock" foreword warning the squeamish not to look. George Krainukov who was on his way to the Cathay Hotel when that building and the Palace Hotel were destroyed by bombs and artillery fire, in a cable to his home office describing his film material said, "I was hit on the shoulder and right side of my head by parts of human bodies and splashed with blood but otherwise unhurt."

"Victoria the Great" Wins Cup of Nations Award

"Victoria the Great," British production soon to be released in this country by RKO, has won the Cup of Nations Award at the Fifth International Exhibition of Cinematographic Art, current in Venice. The picture was selected from 70 entrants by unanimous vote of the board.

The prize for the best short subjects went to Walt Disney for the fourth consecutive time. The productions entered were "Alpine Climber," "Country Cousin," "The Old Mill," and "Hawaiian Holiday."

Anna Neagle, the star of "Victoria the Great," and Herbert Wilcox, producer, will come to the United States this month, bringing the cup with them. After a series of road show openings in Canadian cities, the producer and star will come to New York for the film's premiere at the Music Hall.

Peter Witt, former general manager for Twentieth Century-Fox in the Near East, has been appointed general European representative for Samuel Goldwyn.

Stage Door

THRILLINGLY DIRECTED BY THE GENIUS BEHIND
"MY MAN GODFREY"....GREGORY LA CAVA

Glamorously produced by Hollywood's ace picture-maker, PANDRO S. BERMAN... Intimately played by stars daringly cast to sweep your fans off their feet with curiosity—and satisfaction! ... The picture you simply MUST give extra playing time! ... Authored by two of the greatest living playwrights, EDNA FERBER and GEORGE S. KAUFMAN ... Broadway's sensational stage success ... now the outstanding highlight of all the screen's new big pictures.

WAIT TILL YOU SEE HEPBURN AND ROGERS TOGETHER!

RKO RADIO PICTURES

New Film Course At Columbia "U"

A new course on the motion picture will be inaugurated by the Department of Fine Arts, Columbia University, late this month at the Museum of Modern Art Film Library, New York. The course, to be called "The History, Aesthetic and Technique of the Motion Picture," will consist of lectures and the showing of motion pictures of all types gathered from several countries and periods.

Included in the subjects to be studied is the history of films from 1895 to the present time. Motion picture technique, ranging from the scenario to editing, will be examined together with the social significance of the screen and the corporate history of the film industry.

The course will be conducted by John Abbott, director of the Film Library, and Iris Barry, its curator, assisted by Paul Rotha, English film director, historian and critic. The Museum of Modern Art Film Library was founded in 1935 by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation.

Indian Dedicates Rogers Memorial

The Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun on Cheyenne Mountain, near Colorado Springs, was dedicated by Chief Fred Lookout of the Osage tribe on Labor Day in the presence of relatives of the cowboy philosopher and about 1,000 of his friends.

Mrs. W. S. McSpadden, of Chelsea, Okla., Mr. Rogers' sister; Mrs. Lasca Lane Luckett of Pueblo, Col., a niece; Gunter Lane, of Claremore, Okla., a nephew, and W. M. Gulager, of Muskogee, Okla., a cousin, unveiled a bust of the humorist before Chief Lookout made the dedication in his native tongue. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, Spencer Penrose, Colorado Springs mining man who built the shrine, pressed a button to light a sodium vapor flare in the pink granite tower of the shrine.

The Will Rogers' Memorial Commission will meet in Oklahoma City September 13th to decide whether to proceed with the memorial or wait until the next session of Congress.

President Roosevelt vetoed a bill appropriating $500,000 for the erection of the memorial with the suggestion that Congress pass a bill outlining the specific kind of memorial to be built. With $250,000 in state and private funds now available, the commission will decide whether to proceed at once or await the next congressional decision.

368 Attend Denver's Screen Club Picnic

Golf and bridge tournaments featured a picnic held at Cherry Hills Country Club, Denver, by the Rocky Mountain Screen Club. It was attended by 368 persons. R. H. Ricketson was master of ceremonies. Jack Langan, Universal exchange manager, captured the golf honors.

National Decency Legion Classifies 16 Productions

Of 16 new pictures reviewed and classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week 13 were approved for general patronage and three were listed as unobjectionable for adults. The pictures and their classification follow.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Annapolis Salute," "Borneo," "Geschichten aus dem Weiner Wald," "Heart of the Rockies," "Hopalong Rides Again," "The Lady Fights Back," "The Life of the Party," "Make a Wish," "On Such a Night," "Prisoner of Zenda," "The Sheik Steps Out," "Sophie Lang Goes West," "Trailing Trouble." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Bad Guy," "Dark Journey," "Intermezzo."

Test 2 States On Bank Night

Appeals on two decisions regarding the legality of Bank Night will be heard in Nebraska and Connecticut next week. In Lincoln, the supreme court will hear the appeal of the Omaha Bank Night injunction, temporarily granted some months ago. In Middlesex County, Connecticut, the superior court will consider the appeal of Ernest Dorau, manager of the Palace, Middletown, found guilty of violation of the state lottery law and fined $10.

Attacking Bank Night as a menace to good business practice, Nebraska's Assistant Attorney General Francis Robinson said in his brief that "merchandising should be on the merits of goods and services, and not an appeal to the gambling instincts and cupidity of its patrons."

The Nebraska appeal is being brought by the Exhibitors Association of Omaha on the injunction granted against Fox Midwest Theatres in Beatrice. Decision that Bank Night was violation of the state lottery law was handed down last spring by District Judge Fred W. Messmore. Since that time, Judge Messmore has been elevated to the supreme bench, but in view of his earlier ruling will be unable to participate in the review of the case.

Although notified for the second time that they must cease operation of cash games by September 1st, Connecticut exhibitors have ignored the warning and are awaiting the outcome of the appeal of Mr. Dorau's conviction.

Meanwhile, an investigation into the legality of Bank Night was started in Charlotte, N. C. this week by Solicitor General John G. Carpenter.

Dr. R. S. Marcus Joins General Foreign Sales

Dr. Robert S. Marcus, former rabbi and member of the executive committee of the Joint Council of the American Jewish Congress, has joined the General Foreign Sales Corporation, of New York, as director of sales and publicity.

Dr. Marcus' first assignment was a campaign for "An Orphan Boy of Vienna," which opened in New York last week at the Belmont.

NYU Has Course On Motion Pictures

The School of Education of New York University has announced that again this year it will offer its course on motion pictures, under the joint auspices of the university and the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures.

Speakers from all branches of the motion picture industry will address the classes, which will meet Thursday evenings from 8:15 to 10 o'clock, starting September 23. The complete title of the course is "The Motion Picture: Its Artistic, Educational and Social Aspects."

In a pamphlet describing the study, NYU points out that "the course is especially useful to the teacher, to the social worker, and to the layman working in community motion picture programs because it discusses practical problems of schools, social agencies and community organizations in relation to films, both of entertainment and of educational types."

The university also calls attention to the announcement made by Mark A. May, at the annual meeting of the National Education Association, that the industry's "best films" will be avalaible to schools for visual education purposes.

Among the speakers who will appear in this year's course are:

George Antheil, composer and advisor of producers; Dr. V. C. Arnspiger, Erpi Picture Consultants; Wilton A. Barrett, executive, National Board of Review; Dr. A. A. Brill, psychiatrist; Dr. Walter Clark, Eastman Research Laboratories; Howard S. Cullman, Roxy Theatre Corporation; Louis de Rochemont, cameraman and director; Arthur H. DeBra, Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America; Dr. Raymond L. Ditmars, authority on reptiles; Max Fleischer, creator of "Popeye the Sailor"; George Freedley, director, Theatre Collection, New York Public Library; Dr. H. A. Gray, Erpi Picture Consultants; Arthur Garfield Hays, Civil Liberties Union; Albert S. Howson, Warner Brothers; Alice V. Keliher, Progressive Education Association.

Others are: A. B. Lewis, Central H. S. Photoplay Club, Newark; William Lewin, National Council of the Teachers of English; Pare Lorentz, Resettlement Administration; Dr. Joseph F. Montague, pioneer in medical films; Louis Nizer, New York Film Board of Trade; Jean B. Pinney, American Social Hygiene Association; Terry Ramsaye, editor, MOTION PICTURE HERALD; Grace Fisher Ramsey, American Museum of Natural History; William L. Rogers, Religious Motion Picture Foundation; and H. M. Warner, president, Warner Brothers.

The evening and extension division of New York's Hunter College also will offer a course on motion pictures during its coming term. Classes will be held on Tuesday evenings from 6:45 to 8:25 o'clock, starting September 21. Guest speakers and the topics for the first four sessions are:

Terry Ramsaye, editor of MOTION PICTURE HERALD, "The Origin and History of the Motion Picture," September 21.

Arthur H. DeBra of the MPPDA, "The Process of Motion Picture Production," September 28.

Albert Hewson, scenario editor of Warner Brothers, "Story Material for Motion Pictures and the Motion Picture as a Fine Art," October 5.

Harold F. Hendee, director of research for RKO Radio, "Research for Authenticity in Motion Picture Production," October 19.

"IN THE CUTTING ROOM"

The Great Diamond Robbery

(20th Century-Fox)

Deceptive Mystery

Two men and a woman, the cleverest crooks of sea separated continents, match wits aboard an ocean liner for possession of the world's most valuable blue white diamond. Hearts necessarily are trumps, but also necessarily, if there is to be a picture, diamonds are at stake.

The studio publicity department says, "It will be fascinating entertainment with a splendid cast. It has new and thrilling twists that will puzzle audiences at every turn. Spectators are going to get some real sensations and surprises. Men will enjoy it for the drama and thrills; women for the romance." The kids, for some reason or other, seem to have been forgotten.

Maybe. But anyway the title and the foregoing few gleanings from an advance announcement establish the character.

If it is as the advance also claims a "deceptively concocted mystery," it wouldn't be altogether fair to reveal the plot. That would be depriving exhibitors of labelling it "Unsolvable," which would be a very good exploitation lead.

The original screen play is a product of the imagination of Lou Breslow and John Patrick, who have given their talents to either the creation or adaptation of many pictures for this company. It is being directed by Malcolm St. Claire under the production guidance of Sol M. Wurtzell.

The active cast concerned with what happens during this diamond robbery include Phyllis Brooks, Cesar Romero, Jane Darwell, Alan Dinehart, Natalie Garson, John Harrington, Douglas Wood, Earle Fox, Leon Ames, and Clara Kimball Young.

Release date to be determined.

Conquest

(MGM)

Greta Garbo vs. Napoleon

This will be the 24th MGM picture in which Greta Garbo has appeared. Even if considered only from the viewpoint of the discussions which they precipitate, any Garbo picture is of more than ordinary interest to exhibitors and theatre-goers. Because of the type of story it tells, the star who appears opposite her, the importance of the players who are to be seen in support, the quality of production, the previous accomplishments of writers and director, there is reason to believe that "Conquest" also will attract considerable attention.

"Conquest" is a picturization of one of the several romantic chapters in the life of Napoleon. It is the story of a Polish countess who forces her wiles upon the Emperor and forces him to fall in love with her for the purpose of gaining his aid in liberating Poland from the iron claw of Russian despotism. Based on historical fact, it recreates many of the most glamorous figures and intriguing incidents of the Napoleonic era.

Settings for the story call for some of the biggest exteriors and interiors which MGM ever built for a picture. Included are a Polish village in a forest of pines, the inside and outside of several palaces, the grand ballroom in Warsaw, Napoleon's headquarters there, his palace residences; his final haven at Elba and numerous other historical locales.

Succeeding "Flesh and the Devil," "Anna Christie," "Woman of Affairs," "Romance," "Inspiration" and "Anna Karenina," it is the seventh picture in which Clarence Brown has directed Garbo.

The role of Napoleon is assumed by Charles Boyer, lately in "The Garden of Allah" and "History Is Made at Night." The lengthy support includes such screen notables as Reginald Owen, Alan Marshal, Henry Stephenson, Leif Erickson, Dame May Whitty, C. Henry Gordon, Maria Ouspenskaya, Claude Gillingwater, George Zucco, Henry Kolker, Bodil Rosing, Oscar Apfel, Betty Blythe and Robert Warwick. Less widely known players who will be seen are George Houston, Noble Johnson, Scotty Beckett, Ivan Lebedeff, Lois Meredith, Ralph Harolde and Vladimir Sokoloff.

The picture was in production for five months. During that time every effort was exerted to assure its becoming not only one of Garbo's best, but also one of MGM's best films.

Release date, October 1, 1937, tentatively.

45 Fathers

(20th Century-Fox)

Jane Withers Funfest

Forty-five members of the Explorers' Club adopt Jane Withers. They draw lots with pool balls to see who shall become her foster father. Richard Carle wins. Then the real fun begins. It races around and through the decks of an ocean liner, in the custom house, through a dignified Fifth Avenue Club, all over the swanky mansion, along with speeding autos, through ballrooms and dancing salons into a court room. It pauses momentarily to permit Jane to permit love to run in its true path and concludes in a courtroom where a pair of ventriloquists climax the hilarity by throwing their voices to expose snobbish society fakirs.

As Jane is starred, the supporting cast lists Carle, Thomas Beck and Louise Henry, who are the centers of the romantic content, Nella Walker, John Rogers and the ventriloquists Paul and Grace Hartman as the most active personalities.

Based on a story by Mary Bickel and Ethel Sparks, the screenplay is by Francis Hyland and Albert Ray. The director, James Tinling, made "Pepper," "Angel's Holiday" and "The Holy Terror," which also starred little Miss Withers.

Her rapidly rising popularity, indicating the great interest which theatre goers have in Miss Withers, keynotes showmanship technique.

Release date, October 22, 1937.

Stand-In

(UA-Walter Wanger)

Hollywood Satirized

It is Walter Wanger's intention that this shall be the picture about Hollywood that will climax all pictures about Hollywood. It is to be a farce comedy. Briefly it is a fictional and imagination of a factual circumstance which has made trade and newspaper headlines for years—the probably honestly intended but never quite realized effort of eastern financial interests to bring some sense of sanity into the operation of the film manufacturing colony. Directly it concerns what happens to an eastern banker, a human adding machine who tries to do that. Tossed into a bunch of characters who are the replica of all the weird characters who are, and hold to the traditions, that have caused Hollywood to be considered the dizziest place on earth, he is given the works and falls for it just as has happened time after time to many an expert in real life.

The story is by Clarence Budington Kelland and it appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. It was adapted by Gene Towne and Grahame Baker. Wanger permitted them to let their imaginations have full play. It is quite likely that following the screen play the writers will find themselves persona non grata in both New York and Hollywood. But the picture is being made to entertain audiences and not guild any lilies. It is being directed by Tay Garnett, who has not been hesitant in expressing his opinion that things Hollywood do not always make sense.

The soon to be deluded banker is Leslie Howard. Those who make his life miserable include Joan Blondell, Humphrey Bogart, Alan Mowbray, Marla Shelton, C. Henry Gordon, Jack Carson, J. C. Nugent, Tully Marshall and William V. Mong.

Release date to be determined.

Look Out, Mr. Moto

(20th Century-Fox)

Mystery Adventure

This will be the second in the series of pictures dealing with the experiences of Mr. Moto, Japanese detective. It is based on the J. P. Marquand stories which appear in the Saturday Evening Post. The locale is the jungles of Cambodia, Indo-China. Natives, threatening an uprising, create the motivation for the exciting action. Mr. Moto, an American girl around-the-world flier, a newsreel camera man and his assistant find themselves in a precarious situation, many of them in fact. A rajah wants to include the girl in a harem, the camera man falls in love with her. Natives threaten the safety of the little group with all sorts of death-dealing devices. But Moto, aided by his clever disguises, by jiu jitzu, hypnotism, magic, sorcery, knives and machine guns, defeats one and all.

Peter Lorre again assumes the role of Mr. Moto. The love interest is shared by Rochelle Hudson and Robert Kent, who were similarly engaged in "The Country Beyond," "Reunion" and "Born Reckless." J. Edward Bromberg is the rajah. Chick Chandler, George Regas, Al Kikime, Gloria Roy and Fredrik Vogeding are the remaining principals. As an added attraction to emphasize the story's weirdness, Thunderbolt, an Indian fire eater, supplies thrills by enjoying repasts of lighted cigarettes, hot coals and sundry other fiery materials, topping the whole thing off with a long drink of flame from an acetylene torch.

The screen play is by Lou Breslow and John Patrick and Norman Foster is directing.

Release date, October 15, 1937.

IN THE STUDIO CUTTING ROOM

Courage Of The West

(Universal)

Action and Adventure

The title should not permit anyone to mistake the classification of the picture, which is being molded in a familiar pattern. Before a bandit dies in his own son's arms, and it would not be good theatre were the son aware of the relationship, a lot of things happen.

The story runs from having President Lincoln and his cabinet doing their utmost to bring a halt to robberies of gold trains, during a period in the Civil War when the North needs bullion, to a bank robbery and bandit roundup 20 years later. In the meantime, the homeless son of the bandit is adopted by a government agent. Growing up, he becomes ranch foreman for a girl with whom he falls in love.

An original screen play by Norton S. Parker, it is being directed by Joseph H. Lewis, and Paul Malvern is associate producer.

The cast is a mixture of new and old screen names. Bob Baker is featured in the leading role and the girl is Lois January. The more experienced players are J. Farrell MacDonald, Fuzzy Knight, Carl Stockdale, Harry Woods, Albert Russell, Charles French, Thomas Monk, Buddy Cox and Jack Montgomery.

Release date, October 3, 1937.

The Bride Wore Red

(MGM)

Continental Comedy Romance

The stars of this forthcoming production are Joan Crawford, Franchot Tone and Robert Young. The supporting players, practically all of whom are principals, include Billie Burke, Reginald Owen, Lynn Carver, George Zucco, Mary Phillips, Paul Porcasi, Dickie Moore and Frank Puglia, and all are well known.

The story is by Ferenc Molnar and from the play which bore the title "The Girl from Trieste." It has been acclaimed his greatest stage success since "Liliom" and "The Guardsman." It is being directed by Dorothy Arzner, Hollywood's sole woman director of major rank, who was at the helm of "Craig's Wife." The producer is Joseph Mankiewicz, who made "Love on the Run," "Georgeous Hussy" and "Fury."

Being given the benefit of production support, which MGM accords its quality productions, the locales are a smart cafe and waterfront dive in Trieste and the swank spas in Toreno, Italy. In general character, the story, while essentially comedy romance, is the detailing of an amazing deception. A cabaret entertainer is inveigled into posing as an aristocratic socialite. As she plays hob with dignified traditions she manages to involve herself in romance with a scion of nobility and the town's handy man. It is anticipated that not only will the picture be one in which Miss Crawford, Young and Tone appear to best advantage, but also one that will be a worthy blending of all necessary entertainment and box office ingredients.

Release date, September 24, 1937.

The Westland Case

(Universal)

A "Crime Club" Mystery

This production will make a hero of the kind of detective the New York police are very mad at, a philandering, drinking cop, who has more lives than a cat, knows all the answers before the questions are asked, but one who in his dereliction of duty can solve the most baffling crimes and save a convicted suspect from the electric chair just as they get ready to pull the switch.

It is based on a "Crime Club" novel by Jonathan Latimer, with Robertson White doing the screen play and Christy Cabanne directing.

The showmanship possibilities being just as formula with the multiple suspect plot hemmed in by a lot of anticipation preventing complications, the principal exploitation value seems to be confined to the quality of the cast. Although one never can tell any more than the sport writing experts did about Joe Louis and Tommy Farr, the cast looks more worthy than either story idea or any production twists it might be given.

Preston Foster is the detective who comes to the rescue of "Robert Westland," who, although he seems to be the most important figure in the story, is not listed as appearing. Though it eventually will be revealed that George Meeker is the killer and his motive explained, others in the cast who either help or hinder the unorthodox detective are Carol Hughes, Barbara Pepper, Frank Jenks, Astrid Allwyn, Theodore von Eltz, Clarence Wilson, Russell Hicks, Rollo Lloyd, Selmar Jackson and Thomas Jackson.

Release date, September 20, 1937.

Youth on Parole

(Republic)

Human Interest

The story of two young persons in trouble, a boy and a girl who have the cards stacked against them, always has been considered pretty good motion picture material. The telling of such a story makes it possible to bring in an aura of persecution, a circumstance that provokes sympathy for the unfortunate pair. Persecution that provokes sympathy is the essence of this forthcoming production, second to cast personalities in its showmanship potentialities.

The picture will feature Marian Marsh and Gordon Oliver, recently in principal roles in several Warner pictures. The featured support lists Margaret Dumont, Peggy Shannon, Miles Mander, Sarah Padden, Wade Boteler and Theodore von Eltz. Minor roles, either character or atmosphere performers, include Mary Kornman, Joe Caits, Milburn Stone, Harry Tyler, Ula Love and Paul Stanton.

The original screen play is by Hershel Rebuas. It is being directed by Phil Rosen, whose most recent pictures are "Roaring Timber," "It Could Happen to You" and "Jim Haney, Detective."

Release date, October 4, 1937.

The Wrong Road

(Republic)

Money Doesn't Buy Happiness

The plot of this production is unique; it features several highly regarded players; a pair of accomplished writers prepared it, and it is being directed by a man who has proved his ability. The combination, at this time, indicates considerable entertainment and commercial value.

A boy and a girl consider that a few years in jail is a cheap price to pay for $100,000. Pleaded with to return the money, they hold to their plan. Out of prison, complications set in. It is difficult to trace the instrument in which they hid the loot; a companion jail bird is more determined than they to get it; their old but friendly nemesis, a bank detective, is on their trail. In general, things do not look so rosy. They forego stolen wealth that they may find happiness.

Richard Cromwell and Helen Mack are featured as the boy and girl and Lionel Atwell is the detective. Horace MacMahon is not only the menace to the possession of the stolen wealth, but to their lives as well. The quality supporting cast includes Russ Powell, Billy Bevan, Marjorie Main, Rex Evans, Joseph Crehan, Arthur Hoyt, Syd Saylor, Selmer Jackson and Chester Clute.

The story is an original by Gordon Rigby, who collaborated in the preparation of "Gentleman from Louisiana" and "Hitch Hike Lady." He and Eric Taylor, recently associated with "Navy Blues," "Jim Haney, Detective" and "Happy Go Lucky," did the screen play.

Direction is by James Cruze, noted for his handling of some of the screen's finest pictures, with "Sutter's Gold" his most recent credit.

Release date, September 30, 1937.

Pathe News Plans Series of Changes To Modernize Reel

A series of changes designed to bring about a closer working arrangement between Pathe News and its parent company, RKO Radio, is planned for the newsreel organization. The first issue of the "modernized" reel is scheduled for release late in October.

RKO is cooperating with Pathe by making available its Hollywood studio facilities, its foreign organization and some of its executive personnel.

Changes will include the addition of a staff of announcers, each to be assigned to the various classifications of news subjects; organization of a writing staff to prepare scripts; use of RKO Radio's studio music library of 250,000 feet of recorded music for background in the reel; increased length of the reel; use of a new main title for the reel; new recording and camera equipment; renovation of the company's headquarters in the Pathe Building, and possible installation of a laboratory.

Phil Reisman, RKO export manager, is to make cooperative arrangements for the reel with RKO distribution offices abroad. The writing staff is being organized by Joseph Johnston, formerly on the staff of the New York Daily News. Allyn Butterfield, editor, is conducting auditions for the staff of announcers. Clem McCarthy, who will handle sports, is the only one of the announcers who has been decided upon.

Trotta is Pageant Judge

For the third year, Vincent Trotta, Paramount art director, has been chosen as one of the judges in the Atlantic City pageant to select Miss America. He left for Atlantic City Tuesday. The contest will end Saturday night. Mr. Trotta was a member of the committee on plans for the selection of Miss Bronx and Miss New York.

AMERICAN PRODUCERS FOREARMING FOR NEW BRITISH QUOTA DEMANDS

Present Production Plans in England Will Care for Any Obligations Likely To Be Imposed by New Cinema Act

by BRUCE ALLAN
in London

Rather more than three months before the Cinematograph Films Act of 1938 can even be introduced in the House of Commons, a good half year ahead of the earliest date at which it is likely to become law, a full twelve months before it can become operative, American companies are set to operate the new quota provisions, in the most stringent form in which they are likely to be applied, in a manner which will guarantee no damage to their British business, and may bring them increased profits in this market.

That summary is not one hundred per cent true, of course. There are U. S. companies which have not shaped their plans to meet the probable new conditions, and will not do so until they know exactly what they will be faced with. There are others which, owing to the modest scale of their operations, view any increase of quota with disquiet. But of the majors it is true to say that they have either made plans anticipating the worst the British government can do, or that they are ready to do so.

The American answer to the Minimum Cost Clause is major production for profit in England. Expecting that they will be asked to make £15,000 British pictures, companies like Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Twentieth Century-Fox and RKO will make, or have made for them, £50,000-£100,000 pictures which they will release to the world. It is true that Paramount, Columbia, and one or two others have made no announcement, but there is little doubt that these companies also will fall in, in due course, with the policy of making worth while pictures in England.

Already opinion in the trade, and to some extent in the general press, shows signs of swinging from one extreme to another. Abused for making cheap pictures, the Americans are now being accused of capturing the British production industry by making expensive ones.

The danger seen is that, through such American-controlled organizations as Metro-British Studios and New World, U. S. companies will dominate the British studio field. Elstree, Denham and Iver as suburbs of Hollywood, controlled from there, officered from there up to the limits permitted by law, making pictures from scripts written or adapted there, with stars also brought from the Coast—this is the new danger to British films which we may expect to see publicised, hear denounced in Parliament.

All that will take care of itself in due course. At this time it is interesting to record that, on top of the direct production plans announced by MGM and Twentieth-Fox, another American company, RKO, has committed itself to the big picture policy—and will draw its product from the British producer, Herbert Wilcox.

Mr. Wilcox plans four or five pictures a year for Radio release. He will spend £100,-000 to £150,000 on each of them. He will have a call on Radio stars—even, he told us at his welcome party at the Savoy this week, on Ginger Rogers.

The British producer returned with a new idea or two. One of them is that it is useless to make, or try to make, international pictures. America, he says, wants British pictures for England. So all of his first four features are to be period pieces, and two of them are to be in color. That is one of the things which New York's favorable advance reception of "Victoria the Great" taught the director of "Nell Gwyn." Which picture he only mentioned to say that America had apparently forgiven him for it and its infraction of the Production Code. For the Code also, a good word; it had increased American attendances forty per cent, he told us.

Mayflower Factor

Another angle on the Anglo-American situation is provided by the activities of Mayflower Pictures, the Erich Pommer-Charles Laughton combination which is to make £100,000 pictures for British release by Associated British Pictures, which has invested substantially in the company.

Mayflower will make its studio scenes at ABP's (old BIP) studio at Elstree, but it will not use the Ambiphone sound system invented and installed by that company. A special Western Electric (Erpi) channel will be installed for Mayflower, for which currently Charles Laughton is making exteriors, in the South of France, for "Vessel of Wrath," its first production from a Somerset Maugham story.

Mayflower comes into the quota situation in this way. ABP, which will handle its pictures in England, already has a surplusage of British product, of its own making, over and above any probable call for coverage for its very few American pictures. The Mayflower output, therefore, is open to American distributors on the basis of the suggested provision in the new Films Act that, investing £20,000 in the American rights of a British picture, a U. S. company will acquire quota coverage in England to the full footage of the picture.

Mayflower, Mr. Erich Pommer told me this week, already has open to it a wide choice of American distribution—which is not surprising having regard to the reputation of its producer, leading star (and joint managing director) and the scope of its program. It is of interest, however, that its plan of operations promises to provide the first instance of a producing company which is in a position to sell American rights, with their accompanying privileges in respect of British quota, unembarrassed by the fact that a film sold on such a basis cannot also be used to provide quota cover by means of British distribution.

Simplifying which statement, if "The Vessel of Wrath" is sold to America with the condition that its U. S. purchasers acquire the quota value attaching to it, it will not be a quota picture, for a distributor in England, though it will rank for exhibitor's quota. Which, with the qualification that there are many pictures sold on this basis, seems to be a partial answer at least to the theatre men's complaint that the White Paper proposals threaten a shortage of British films. Mayflower's pictures will be available as quota to exhibitors in England without "carrying" their percentage of American films, which therefore must be covered by other British pictures.

But, of course, very few producing concerns will be in the favorable condition of Mayflower, in possessing British distribution through an organization which does not require quota value in any additional British pictures it may acquire.

Demand Good Pictures

Louis B. Mayer, in England to supervise Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's British production, told an audience of 400 at a luncheon at the Savoy given in his honor that the new quota provisions would be useless unless pictures are produced which people want to see. He expressed the hope that the new law would have sufficient elasticity to meet production experience as it develops.

"We have contempt for quota films," he said. "We have quota films in America without a law compelling them, and we have contempt for them." All the companies in the United States combined could not make enough "A" pictures to meet the demand, he added, and pictures of this class from British producers are always welcome.

The celebrities at the luncheon included Lord Semphill, Lord Lee of Fareham, Sir William Jury, Capt. Richard Norton, Alexander Korda, Louis Golding, Lord Elton, Lord Strabolgi, Gordon Selfridge, Jack Conway, director; Robert Taylor and Maureen O'Sullivan, who will appear in Metro's first British film, "A Yank at Oxford." Also present were Basil Dean and A. P. Herbert, Member of Parliament. Also, all leading producers, distributors, exhibitors and the chief newspapers were represented. Sam Eckman presided as chairman.

A wire from John Maxwell, A.B.P. head, in Austria, welcomed Metro to England, calling it a "splendid stimulus to British producers." Lord Semphill declared that Metro, with 150 distribution centers, now has two production centers instead of one.

To a question of how many pictures Metro would make in England, Mr. Mayer said it would be from one to 50 according to the speed with which British writers and other talent could be discovered. He said he would rather make one good than 50 bad films.

20TH-FOX TO MAKE FOUR IN ENGLAND

Four important pictures will be made by Twentieth Century-Fox in England in addition to one now in production starring Gracie Fields, Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of directors, told reporters in London before he sailed for New York this week. The four pictures will be budgeted at £100,000 each, he said, with Robert T. Kane in charge of production. Negotiations are now being carried on for rental of studio space at the Pinewood plant.

AUTHORED BY TWO OF THE GREATEST LIVING PLAY-WRIGHTS, EDNA FERBER and GEORGE S. KAUFMAN

Thrillingly directed by the genius of the man behind "My Man Godfrey," GREGORY LA CAVA . . . Glamorously produced by Hollywood's ace picture-maker, PANDRO S. BERMAN . . . Intimately played by stars daringly cast to sweep your fans off their feet with curiosity — and satisfaction! . . . Broadway's sensational stage success . . . now the outstanding highlight of all the screen's new big pictures.

THE GREATEST STROKE OF SHOWMANLY CASTING IN YEARS . . . HEPBURN and ROGERS IN ONE PICTURE!

RKO RADIO PICTURES

TECHNOLOGICAL

The Bluebook School

Conducted by

F. H. RICHARDSON

ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 84

Bluebook School Question No. 84 was: (A) What is your reaction with regard to importance of having inspection charts displayed on projection room wall, with specified inspections for each day?

The following made acceptable answers: C. Rau and S. Evans; H. Edwards; J. R. Prater; C. Oldham; L. Cimikoski; T. F. Bochert; P. and L. Felt; K. L. Brant; O. H. Schmidt; C. Champney; F. H. S. and P. Dalbey; C. Champney; J. A. Zachritz; S. R. Hewitt; H. B. Smith; C. H. Lowrie; R. R. Lee; L. F. Hayes; T. W. Redhouse; C. Lonie; W. Edmonds; E. F. and M. Wentworth; F. L. and L. Savlor; R. D. Billings; T. H. Logan; A. D. Lonby; D. Dennis; D. and W. Porter; A. H. Bradley; M. Dey and H. Lathrope; A. Leonard and G. T. Jones; N. S. Reid, D. D. Roberts and H. T. Watkins; G. L. Daniels; E. Exline; R. H. Carter; F. B. Kresel; G. and L. F. Brown; H. T. Randolph; T. and W. Turk; F. W. Brandenburg; T. Lavenburg; R. E. Bullard and J. K. Robinson; M. F. Robinson and L. A. Beachwood; H. Burgin; F. B. Chilshome; E. M. Brown and R. Davis; B. and M. Walker; M. D. McGuire; F. D. Scanlon; W. C. Bant and L. M. Roberts; W. R. Davis and B. L. Blunt; D. A. Shea, M. O'Connell and H. T. Plum; H. A. Ames and F. E. Dorp; R. S. Welch; J. H. Morton; R. W. Singleton; M. Samuels and O. L. Goldstein; S. H. Billings; W. R. Matthews and J. R. Davidson; S. N. Lockhard; H. T. Todd and L. E. Dodson; D. Coates; R. R. Robbins and W. Winkler; T. L. Kent and B. L. Cooper; R. Tomby and D. Hornbeck; C. Caldwell; S. U. Lamont and P. F. Maxwell; H. Bunker; M. L. Grahame; A. W. Baxter; T. B. Brown and W. V. Henderson; R. R. Jacobs and R. B. Hornstein; W. B. Myers; S. L. Maxwell; E. L. Sanford.

J. R. Prater answers as follows: "I regard it as impossible to maintain the modern, complex projection equipment of today in condition to deliver first-class, dependable, efficient service without a carefully prepared inspection chart displayed upon the projection room wall, with specified inspections for each day.

"No matter how careful and conscientious a projectionist may be, he cannot be sure of remembering every one of the many items that should have inspection, some of them daily, others weekly or semi-weekly and still others monthly or semi-annually. It would require a very remarkable memory to take care of that without daily prompting of an inspection chart.

"May I also say that the projection room records should show when each part inspected was installed and its cost, with notation of condition of part when last inspected, if such examinations be far apart. Also, the name and address of the dealer from whom it was purchased. Even were a projectionist able to remember all that, such information would be of large value to the relief man were he for any reason (illness, for example) be absent.

"Moreover, a record of this sort is the only means of checking which equipments or parts give satisfactory service and which do not. Specified inspections, some daily, some weekly, some monthly or semi-annually that are recorded are the only truly dependable way of caring for equipments without danger of slip-ups. They also are the only fool-proof way of checking upon needed repairs before actual break-down occurs.

"Supplied with spare parts by the management as inspection shows the probability of their coming need, any projectionist will be able to produce excellence in results with a minimum of trouble. And believe me, a proper projection chart with record of regular inspections is a great help in convincing managers that spare parts are needed to guard against trouble and possible shut-downs. Friend manager will have a whole lot more respect for your suggestions and requests and for your answers to his questions if you are able to show him actual written proof that you are doing your stuff."

May I compliment Brother Prater. His suggestion of a written record of inspections has very real value, though of course that is not intended to apply to daily ones, except when something requires it. He is absolutely correct in saying managers will have very, very much more respect for the man who can show him neatly kept records such as have been suggested. And keeping them really involves but little trouble, once the initial records are made. A suitable book can be had at almost any ten cent store. As to the chart itself, secure from a print shop a sheet of stiff white paper of size determined as appropriate after laying out the inspections in pencil on a sheet of wrapping paper.

The sheet should be laid out in sections, one marked daily, containing Monday, Tuesday and so on for each working day, with space for recording the inspections to be made each day. In another section of the sheet, list weekly inspections and the day upon which they are to be made. In still other spaces list semi-weekly, with notation of day upon which they are to be made. Then list monthly and other inspections, with date upon which they are due, transferring them to the before named sheet of still, white paper neatly, using pen and, preferably black ink.

Secure an ordinary lath and a suitable size sheet of glass. Cut the lath the same length as the horizontal length of the glass. Nail one piece to the wall and half way down its width drive two short nails wtih large heads, such as are used to attach paper roofing shingles. Set the lower edge of the glass on the nails behind the heads (the nails not having been driven clear in). At the top of the glass nail the other lath so that the glass will overlap its surface one half and drive in two more simliar nails, not sufficiently close to bind the glass. You may now slide the glass in back of the nail heads and the paper in back of the glass, whence it may be removed at any time you desire to add to its records. This may of course be done in many ways, but what I have suggested is cheap, simple and answers every purpose.

B. and M. Walker answer thus: "Our good Scotch brothers say, 'Many mickle make a muckle,' meaning many little things make a big thing. Regular periodic inspections, without miss or fail, serve to correct little faults before they become large ones which in time may cause very serious trouble.

"In the modern projection room are many equipments and equipment parts, a regular, periodic inspection of which is necessary if consistent excellence of operation is to be expected. Some require daily examination, while others only need it once a week, once or twice a month, and some even once each six months.

"To insure that these inspections will be made at regular, necessary intervals, some notation is essential, and the one 'Dad' has suggested, namely a chart on the wall where it may be examined every morning, seems perfect. I have one and, since its installation not once have I missed fire on an inspection. I got the idea from the Bluebook School about two years ago. More power to the 'school,' which I believe has worked wonders, particularly in two things—first, in showing some of our crack men how much they still have to learn; second, in increasing interest in study. Again I say: More power to the MOTION PICTURE HERALD, BETTER THEATRES and that Grand Old Man of Projection, our 'Dad.'"

Surely I should not let that pass without expression of thanks to Bob and Merle Walker, two Wisconsin men.

BLUEBOOK SCHOOL QUESTION NO. 89

(A) Describe the "voice" or "speech" coil; by what is it powered?

(B) Explain why a "horn" is used in connection with dynamic speakers.

(C) Explain why cones may be used by magnetic loudspeakers, whereas horns are required by the dynamic type.

To join the Bluebook School merely send in answers. Place name and question number upon first sheet. Address F. H. Richardson, No. 3 Tudor Lane, Scarsdale, N. Y.

Mining Spurs Theatre Building in Quebec

The rapid expansion of the mining industry and the creation of many new mining towns has opened a new theatre territory in northern Ontario and Quebec.

One new house has already been opened in Amos, Quebec, by Alfred Roy and another is being completed in Rouyn by D. Korman. Both towns were practically unknown two years ago. In addition, several small houses are being opened at Senneterre and Malarctic where many valuable mineral deposits have been discovered.

RKO Proctor Corporation will be the operating company for the Central, Parkhill and Broadway, all of Yonkers, recently acquired from Sam Cocalis and Herman Sussman by RKO.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

One Hundred Men and a Girl

(Universal)

Musical

There is no truth in the rumor that Universal called into Hollywood conference all the showmen who played "Three Smart Girls" and asked them what to do next with the sensationally popular Deanna Durbin (there is, in fact, no such rumor) but if there were, and if all the ideas submitted by all these showmen had been thrust into a rotary hopper and spun until the cream of them came to the top, the studio would have turned out "One Hundred Men and a Girl." It is long and long since a production so strikingly fitted to the great American box office has come out of Hollywood or anywhere.

Any showman who played "Three Smart Girls" would have told Charles R. Rogers, executive producer, that Miss Durbin should be given plenty of chances to sing in her next picture, and she is. She sings again and again, on dais and off, in this circumstance and that, and always she sings songs that children usually don't and as few adults can.

It would have been a bold and resourceful showman who suggested contracting Leopold Stokowski and his symphony orchestra, not only to supply the music but to appear in the picture, but he and his brethren would have had for their pains, and have, the immense and unexplored exploitation advantages of just that arrangement.

Several, or all, would have advised casting of Mischa Auer in a comedy role not too unlike his assignment in the first Durbin picture, and the names of Alice Brady, Eugene Pallette and Adolphe Menjou would have popped up in quick association about them. To these have been added those of Billy Gilbert, Alma Kruger, Jed Prouty, Howard Hickman and Jack Mulhall for good measure and to telling purpose.

Probably no such convention of showmen could have produced the idea on which the new picture is based. It remained for Hans Kraly to furnish that, and for Bruce Manning, James Mulhauser and Charles Kenyon to make from it a screen play that compares to nothing of recent or remote record but will be compared, no doubt, for such is the course of industry, to many works in kind which may be expected to go into production any day now.

The idea is this: A daughter of an unemployed symphony orchestra trombonist extracts from a dowager who doesn't really mean it a promise to sponsor a 100-piece symphony orchestra, to be recruited by her father from the ranks of unemployed musicians, and to feature the same on her wealthy husband's radio program. Jubilation and dejection ensue in sequence as the idle musicians commence rehearsals and learn that the enterprise is without genuine foundation. Then the young lady who started it all, and has had several incidental meetings with Stokowsky, who appears as himself in the story, inadvertently causes publication of a newspaper story to the effect that the great conductor will direct the unemployed men in one concert. After further misunderstandings, and so forth, he does so. Happiness and prosperity for all result.

As directed by Henry Kostner and set up by Associate Producer Joe Pasternak the story and the musical performances which occur during its narration are so snugly integrated as to leave no lines of demarcation such as have marred many a less happily chosen subject. Characterization goes hand in hand with score from the spectacular opening presenting Stokowsky and his orchestra on the concert dais to the closing which presents the men as the now happily employed unemployed.

It is not within the province of this reporter to pass upon the musical caliber of the production, naturally, but neither is that a proper concern of the showman who has the guarantee of Stokowsky's presence as ample warrant for the use of superlatives in advertising. This would be about the place, though, to mention that other names of musical significance available for use are those of Charles Previn, associate musical director; Frederick Hollander and Sam Coslow, writers of "It's Raining Sunbeams," and Andres de Segurola, vocal instructor.

Neither is your correspondent a sound technician, nor what is referred to in impolite circles as a reproduction crank, but certain unusual things done in bringing into aural focus, as it were, the music of successively closeupped sections of the symphony orchestra instrumentation, impelled him to ascertain that a process called multiple channel recording was worked out by RCA engineers in collaboration with M. Stokowsky and used to produce results which may turn out to be one of the precedential aspects of the production.

Previewed for the press at the Warner theatre in Beverly Hills, Cal. There had been a deal of advance talk about the picture. This gathering of newspaper, magazine, trade journal, foreign, domestic and generously assorted correspondents, fagged of eye, ear, nerve and vocabulary by a rash of some 19 previews within a 10*-day period, were more or less dubious as to whether* (1) any picture could be as good as this one was said to be and (2) any follow-up on "Three Smart Girls" could be better than a bad second. The picture, to use a phrase showmen love, killed both doubts.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Produced and distributed by Universal. Charles R. Rogers, executive producer. Associate producer, Joe Pasternak. Directed by Henry Koster. Screen play by Bruce Manning, Charles Kenyon and James Mulhauser, based on an idea by Hans Kraly. Assistant director, Frank Shaw. Director of Photography, Joseph Valentine. Song, "It's Raining Sunbeams," by Frederick Hollander with lyrics by Sam Coslow. Associate musical director, Charles Previn. Vocal instructor, Andres de Segurola. Film editor, Bernard W. Burton. Sound, Joseph A. Lapis and Bernard B. Brown. Production designed by John Harkrider. Sets, Jack Maetin Smith and Scollards Maas. Gowns, Vera West. P.C.A. certificate No. 3468. Release date, September 5. Running time, when seen in Beverly Hills, 83 minutes. General audience classification.

THE PLAYERS

Patricia Cardwell	Deanna Durbin
John Cardwell	Adolphe Menjou
Mrs. Frost	Alice Brady
John G. Frost	Eugene Pallette
Michael	Mischa Auer
Garage Owner	Billy Gilbert
Mrs. Tyler	Alma Kruger
Stage Doorman	Jack Smart
Bitters	Jed Prouty
Russell	Jameson Thomas
Johnson	Howard Hickman
Taxi Driver	Frank Jenks
Brandstetter	Christian Rub
Stevens	Gerald Oliver Smith
Rudolph	Jack Mulhall

with

LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI

Conducting music from Wagner's "Lohengrin," Tschaikowsky's "5th Symphony," Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody," Mozart's Motet "Exultate Jubilate," Verdi's "La Traviata."

The Adventurous Blonde

(Warner-F. N.)

Melodrama

The primary purpose of any motion picture is to entertain, but it is also supposed to include showmanship potentialities which exhibitors may use to interest their patrons. When both objectives are attained, the chances are favorable that the show will please and make money for those most directly concerned.

The New York and other police departments currently are irritated by the manner in which policemen, of all strata, are portrayed on the screen. Producers don't want to incur the ire of any police department any more than they desire to go out of their way to satisfy their vanity. They have loads of trouble trying to stay within the strictures of mandates laid down upon them by foreign nations and various organized groups who don't care to have their representatives made to look ridiculous or to be shown in an unfavorable light. They are making pictures which they assume will provide the maximum amount of amusement and satisfy the maximum number of persons. They also have an eye to financial returns.

Spokesmen for New York's "finest" are quite wrought up because screen writers, producers and directors prefer to have some handsome hero, heroine, or even nitwit, solve a crime in a manner that makes the arms of the law look stupid. Whether or not anybody else is, they probably will be quite interested in "The Adventurous Blonde."

All the picture does is do what the police quite evidently don't want pictures to do. In ways customary to the screen, a run of the mill plainclothes cop is made to look silly while a blonde newspaper woman outdoes all the real sleuths of factual history and visionary imagination in solving a complicated crime.

According to preview audience reaction the picture did this in an amusing manner. The crowd, by the way, wasn't lured to the theatre so much by the promise of a preview as it was by the fact that a bathing beauty contest was being staged. The studio officials who ignored the showing might have been made quite happy had they been around to note the enthusiasm and hear some of the favorable comment made by the patrons.

These people, naturally not holding to the

(Continued on page 47)

THE AVALANCHE

OF PRAISE THUNDERS IN FROM ALL SIDES!

1 CLANG!
2 CLANG!
3 CLANG!
4 CLANG!
5 CLANG!

5 SECOND TIME IN HISTORY!

BELLS from Jimmie Fidler!

"A UNIVERSAL picture

September 3, 1937 THE Hollywood REPORTER

U's '100 MEN AND A GIRL' A SENSATIONAL TRIUMPH

Smash Attraction In All Departments

"100 MEN AND A GIRL"
(Universal)

Well, boys and girls, here's one that will get the shouts, and the tears, of the exhibitors, the press, the public, with additional shouts by Universal and the whole picture business, for it's a great picture and will do a great business, whether it's in New York or London, Chicago or Paris, Oshkosh or Bagdad. It's a Universal picture for the universe. "100 Men and a Girl" is one of the really fine contributions to the motion picture industry and should take a prominent place in the history of this business.

It will make you laugh and make you cry; not a cry of sadness, but one inspired by thrills. It will jump you around in your seat because of its spots of frivolity, then raise you to heights of extreme ecstasy through the placement and rendition of its musical magnificence. It will give you one of the grandest evenings you ever spent in a theatre through an entertainment born of honesty of story, its presentation and enactment of characters, most all of whom you seem to know.

"100 Men and a Girl" is a triumph, for Charles Rogers and his organization; for Joseph Pasternak, its producer; Henry Koster, its director; Leopold Stokowski and his marvelous direction of some of the finest music the screen has ever had; for Deanna Durbin, Adolphe Menjou and a brilliant cast. It will be the same triumph for the exhibitors who play it and the audiences who see it.

The story is centered around a little girl, Deanna Durbin, her father, Adolphe Menjou, and her effort to get work for a hundred hungry musicians who have been out of work too long. Her search, her disappointment and her eventual success present as fine a piece of screen writing, direction and playing as has ever been photographed.

This little girl's strife brings her in contact with Leopold Stokowski and his orchestra and brings to the screen symphonic renditions of Wagner's "Lohengrin," Tschaikowsky's "5th Symphony"; Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody," Mozart's "Exultate Jubilate," and Verdi's "La Traviata," played as music has never before been played for camera and sound. It opens pictures to a field that has, heretofore, been considered too highbrow even to imagine, much less attempt.

Certainly the lion's share of the credit must go to Charles Rogers for permitting what must have been such a wild gamble. After this you must toss your bouquets to Henry Koster, the director, and Joseph Pasternak, its producer. Theirs is a job that must be given great consideration and industry praise. Then to Hans Kraly for his story idea, and its writing by Manning, Kenyon and Mulhauser. The work of Leopold Stokowski and his musicians, and Stokowski himself by his enactment of Stokowski, made much of this great picture possible.

Deanna Durbin reaches new heights and further proves her right to star billing and industry importance. Adolphe Menjou is superb as the father and creates his best picture role to date. Eugene Pallette, as John R. Frost, the radio magnate, will leave an impression that will not soon be dimmed. Alice Brady in a brief part is excellent, as is Mischa Auer in one of those characterizations that only Mischa Auer can play.

The rest of the cast, which includes Billy Gilbert, Alma Kruger, Jack Smart, Jed Prouty, Jameson Thomas, Frank Jenks, Howard Hickman, Christion Rub, Gerald Oliver Smith and Jack Mulhall, give performances that are a credit to such a fine picture.

Joseph Valentine accounted for the photography, which is perfect in every detail. The Harkrider sets are in keeping with the excellence of the entire production. A special musical number, "It's Raining Sunbeams," will be played and sung for months to come.

The motion picture business is fortunate in having such a great show. "100 Men and a Girl" will enrich every branch of this industry and certainly must be classified as an outstanding hit.

THIS ONE IS SOCKO!

Deanna Durbin, whose comet streaked across the film sky a year ago in Universal's 'Three Smart Girls,' is a bright, luminous star in her second picture, One Hundred Men and a Girl,' which is something new in entertainment, and a box office attraction way up among the leaders of the early season. Its originality rests on a firm and strong foundation. craftsmanship which has captured popular values from Wagner, Tschaikowski, Liszt, Morart and Verdi. This new film, produced by Joe Pasternak and directed by Henry Koster, opens new vistas and reveals means of winning greater picture audiences.

The Durbin girl is so improved over her previous appearance that she is a cinch for a starring career of major money importance to film theatres. Histrionically, she does everything like a veteran, scores with her comedy, charms with her naivete, and registers at the tear-ducts with her persuasive emotional passages. Although the story is written to her pattern, her achievement as a performer is none the less remarkable. She motivates the entire action, keeps the situations alive with her spontaniety, and tops off with superlative vocal contributions.

Universal wisely has given her excellent support in Leopold Stokowski, director of the Philadelphia symphony orchestra, who plays a lengthy film role with surprising ease and conviction, and Adolphe Menjou, who gives one of his best characterizations, a role quite different from his usual type of parts. In addition to these two, Alice Brady breezes three a short sequence in high glee, and Eugene Pallette, Mischa Auer and Billy Gilbert have important things to do and do them well.

This one is socko. It augurs much for Miss Durbin's future. She's arrived.

—Flin.

SOCK $21,000 IN PHILLY!

Fox (3,000; 40-55-65)—'100 Men and a Girl' (U). Rave notices and a big week indicated. Stokie's following here is doing its share. Probably $21,000. Last week 'Souls at Sea' [illegible]

VARIETY

The New Universal's

for the UNIVERSE!"

FLASH!

Broadway Theatre, Portland, Oregon! Sensational first three opening days top "My Man Godfrey" playing same theatre and same holiday week-end last year!

AND LOOK AT THESE RAVES!

"THUNDEROUS OVATION!"

"For the first time in our reviewing experience we heard a Portland crowd offer a thunderous ovation as the end flashed across the screen. By all means you must see this picture!"
—JOSEPH MILTON, News-Telegram

"THE FINEST SCREEN PRODUCTION I'VE EVER SEEN!"

"This is not only a review but a plea for every Oregonian to see and hear that charming fourteen-year-old artist, Deanna Durbin, in '100 MEN AND A GIRL'! I truthfully say it is the finest musical screen production I have ever seen!"
—HERBERT L. LARSON, Portland Oregonian

BREAKS 3-DAY HOUSE RECORD IN SARATOGA!

NH 4 27 EJ NEW YORK NY SEP 8 926 A
F J MCCARTHY UNIVERSAL PICTURES INC
DEANNA DURBIN ONE HUNDRED MEN AND A GIRL OPENED TO SMASH LABOR DAY BUSINESS AT MAYFAIR ASBURY PARK AND COMMUNITY SARATOGA ESTABLISHING NEW THREE DAY HOUSE RECORD IN SARATOGA
WALTER READE JR.

100 MEN AND A GIRL

AND STILL THEY

A GREAT, GREAT PICTURE!

"'100 MEN AND A GIRL'—A five bell picture! It is a great, great motion picture. The finest that it has ever been my good fortune to see and hear. I wish I had minutes instead of seconds to tell you how truly magnificent it is and to say again and again DON'T MISS IT!

"It gave me thrill after thrill—as Stokowski's music throbbing with life swept across the screen. Time and again I was so carried away that I hardly knew whether to laugh or to cry. I realize I am raving like a wild press agent, but I don't mind turning press agent for a picture such as this. I think this is because in '100 MEN AND A GIRL' the screen story gives the music personality. It is a clean, fresh, new story about a little girl, Deanna Durbin, and her courageous efforts to obtain work for a hundred out of work musicians. How she gets them jobs and how she persuades the great Stokowski to conduct them will make you want to reach right out to the screen and hug her close to your heart. Adolphe Menjou, Eugene Pallette, Alice Brady, Mischa Auer, Frank Jenks and every member of the cast must be praised for their individual contributions, but to Deanna Durbin and her freshness —the loveliness of her smile—and to Leopold Stokowski, who lends dignity and his vast knowledge of music, must go the major share of credit. On my word you will miss a picture that will be remembered in screen history if you fail to see '100 MEN AND A GIRL'!"

JIMMIE FIDLER

SEASON'S BEST!

"One of the best films of the season! Will do plenty of business!"

MARK HELLINGER, N.Y. Daily Mirror

UNBEATABLE!

"Deanna Durbin and Stokowski form an unbeatable combination in '100 Men and a Girl'!"

FRANK DAUGHERTY, New York Times

BOX OFFICE!

"Will attract millions to the box office. Many people will see the picture more than once. It's that kind of a picture. It definitely elevates Deanna Durbin to shining stardom!"

J. D. SPIRO, Screen and Radio Weekly

A DELIGHT!

"A marvelous picture! It surprised and delighted me. I enjoyed every moment of it!"

HUBBARD KEAVY, Associated Press

COME-ON AND ON-

"I CRIED LIKE A BABY!"

"In years of reviewing I have never seen a picture that moved me like '100 Men and a Girl.' I cried like a baby. It is the best picture I have ever seen!"

JESSIE HENDERSON, Baltimore Sun

UNEQUALLED!

"Universal's '100 Men and a Girl' is an excellent and entertaining picture which emphasizes Deanna Durbin's marvelous voice and personality and Leopold Stokowski's unequalled screen music!"

RALPH B. JORDAN, International News Serv.

MARVELOUS!

"Deanna Durbin demonstrates in '100 Men and a Girl' that she is the greatest singing star on the screen. Leopold Stokowski's music is truly marvelous. The entire production was skilfully handled!"

A. de BERNARDI, Jr., Denver Post

WONDERFUL!

"It's wonderful!"

PETE HARRISON, Harrison's Reports

TOPFLIGHT!

"Topflight entertainment!—Deanna is a sweetheart and so is the picture!"

FREDERICK C. OTHMAN, United Press

BETTER THAN "GODFREY"!

"Deanna Durbin's '100 Men and a Girl' is smarter than 'Three Smart Girls' and funnier than 'My Man Godfrey'!"

OBERA H. RAWLES, Central Press

GRAND!

"'100 Men and a Girl' is really a grand picture that will appeal to every type of motion picture audience!"

KAY CAMPBELL, Chicago Times

REALLY SPLENDID!

"Marvelous entertainment presenting a combination of really splendid acting and great symphony music!"

FRANCES MORRIN, Detroit Free Press

BEST OF YEAR!

"The Academy could do no better than acclaim this fine picture the best one of the year!"

ALEXANDER KAHN, United Press

100 MEN AND A GIRL

...WITHOUT END!

A TRULY MAGNIFICENT PICTURE!

"At last a picture I can sincerely rave about. Beginning with the overture it soars to heights of artistry and sheer entertainment. The singing of Deanna Durbin is superb and she reveals herself as a brilliant young actress. The music and performances combine to achieve a truly magnificent picture. It will appeal not only to diamond horseshoe society but to every class. Expert direction blends tender pathos with top flight comedy and drama. The picture has everything!"

RUTH WATERBURY, Photoplay Magazine

INSPIRING!

"The most superb presentation of symphonic music that has ever reached the screen. A truly great picture that has distinction, beauty, superb music and inspiring singing by Deanna Durbin. It will charm millions!"

GRACE WILCOX, Detroit Free Press

SUPERB!

"'100 Men and a Girl' not only matches but surpasses 'Three Smart Girls'. It is filled with skilled entertainment and superb music. It must be counted among the major cinema exploits of the year!"

WHITNEY BOLTON,
N. Y. Morning Telegraph — Newark Evening News and Philadelphia Enquirer

100% ENTERTAINMENT!

"One of the finest pictures to come out of Hollywood in many a day . . . It is one hundred percent entertainment for the entire family . . . The picture is a triumph for the New Universal studios. I suggest that you place 'One Hundred Men and a Girl' on your must see list . . . You will never regret it."

WARREN STOKES,
Jay Emanuel Publications and Hollywood Commentator California Radio System.

WILL CAPTIVATE MILLIONS!

"Deanna Durbin's '100 Men and a Girl' is artistic and clever entertainment that will captivate millions of movie fans!"

MAURICE SAVAGE, San Diego Union

KNOCKOUT!

"'100 Men and a Girl' is a knockout. A splendid picture all the way through and will appeal especially to women and children and all lovers of fine symphony music!"

LLEWELLYN MILLER, Fawcett Publications

HOLLYWOOD'S BEST!

"The best musical picture to come out of Hollywood! Deanna Durbin is even better in voice and personality than she was in 'Three Smart Girls'. Stokowski is superb as a conductor and actor. You must see this picture!"

SHEILAH GRAHAM,
North American Newspaper Alliance

TRIUMPH!

"Marvelous! Brilliant presentation of Deanna Durbin as well as of Leopold Stokowski. A triumph of story and direction!"

ELSA SCHALLERT, Los Angeles Times

A NEW STANDARD OF ENTERTAINMENT!

"Deanna Durbin and Leopold Stokowski combine with masterly direction in Universal's '100 Men and a Girl' to set a new standard of musical entertainment. A brilliant piece of screen craft, beautifully mounted and exquisitely presented!"

ROBBIN COONS, Associated Press

THRILLING!

"The most thrilling and emotional picture I have ever seen and not a love scene in it. I enjoyed it more than anything I have seen in months!"

ALMA WHITAKER, Los Angeles Times

INCOMPARABLE!

"By far the greatest picture ever to come out of Hollywood. The singing and acting of Deanna Durbin are breath-taking. This Universal masterpiece will be heralded by the world. There has never been anything comparable with it!"

GILBERT SUTO, "Cinegraf"

TUGS AT THE HEART!

"Deanna Durbin's '100 Men and a Girl' tugs at the heart strings. Stokowski reveals himself to be a fine actor as well as a distinguished musician!"

EARL THIESEN, Des Moines Register-Tribune

SPARKLING!

"Deanna Durbin's '100 Men and a Girl' combines the high quality of 'Three Smart Girls' with the sparkling humor of 'My Man Godfrey'!"

MILTON HARKER, Int'l News Service

A BLUE-RIBBON IMPORTANT!

THE NEW UNIVERSAL'S

100 MEN AND A GIRL

(Continued from page 40)

same philosophies now exciting the police forces, and who undoubtedly never heard that the New York cops were taking up arms to do something about it, seemed to feel that the show was worth their time and money.

Not concerned with ethics, the patrons were not only interested in how "Torchy Blane" proved herself a better detective than "Steve McBride," but also in the ways in which she outhoaxed a bunch of jealous newspaper rivals who tried to hoax her out of a wedding, and in the manner in which she hoaxed an unsuspected culprit into confessing himself a murderer.

The picture talks a lot, but it bristles with smart dialogue and wise cracks which, combined with sufficient action, lessened the evil of explanatory conversation. As a matter of fact there is usually something doing on the screen, which, even though it requires some imagination stretching to comprehend, provokes laughter, suspense and surprise.

Previewed in the Warner theatre, Huntington Park, a neighborhood house which is typical of the types of theatres in which the picture was made to play. We don't know whether the audience had seen any of the preivous numbers in the "Torchy" series, but it gave evidence by its attention to the film and applause upon the finale that "The Adventurous Blonde" amused it.—G. M.

A First National picture. Produced and distributed by Warner Bros. Brian Foy, associate producer. Directed by Frank McDonald. Original screen play by Robertson White and David Diamond. Photographed by Arthur Todd. Dialogue director, Harry Seymour. Frank McGee, film editor. Jesse Hibbs, assistant director. P.C.A. Certificate, No. 3479. General audience classification. Running time 65 minutes when seen in Huntington Park. Release date, September 17, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Torchy Blane	Glenda Farrell
Steve McBride	Barton MacLane
Grace Brown	Anne Nagel
Gahagan	Tom Kennedy
Pete	George E. Stone
Theresa Gray	Natalie Moorhead
Matt	William Hopper
Hugo Brand	Anderson Lawlor
Dud	Charley Foy
Mugsy	Bobby Watson
Mortimer Gray	Charles Wilson
Mrs. Hammond	Virginia Brissac
Harvey Hammond	Leland Hodgson
Maxie	Raymond Hatton
Captain McTavish	Frank Shannon
Dr. Bolger	James Conlon
Dr. Nolly	Granville Owen
Lawyer	Walter Young
Sergeant	George Guhl
Herman	Al Herman

Expensive Husbands

(Warner)

Comedy

Since the amazing success of Columbia's "It Happened One Night" and other similar light comedies there has been a spasmodic trend toward that type of picture. "Expensive Husbands" is an attempt at light comedy in the lower budget bracket. For top names it offers Patric Knowles, who, unfortunately, resembles Errol Flynn, a better known player on the Warner contract list, and Beverly Roberts, a personable young woman who started her film career in 1936.

The director is Bobby Connolly, better known for his dance ensemble direction in many of Warners' musicals. He retains some of his initial film training in this by injecting three songs into the picture—"Shall We Dream?", "Five Little Maids," and "Echo Mountain." The introduction of one of the song numbers come when a quintet of chambermaids walks into the palace's bridal suite to make up the bed for the prince and his bride, and sings a song while they do it. Half of those witnessing the preview expected the camera to turn around in the chamber to take in a huge production number at one end of the room. But it didn't.

"Laurine Lynne" is a film star who, finding her fame waning, goes to Europe and marries an apparently impoverished prince for his title. The ensuing publicity awakens interest in her and she again skyrockets to fame in the films. However, she discovers that she loves the Prince and goes to Vienna to be with him. In the meantime, he comes into his inheritance.

Previewed at the Forum theatre, Los Angeles, where a restless audience composed of studio people, press and the payees emitted little applause, almost all of the claque variety. —Vance King.

Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Associate producer, Frank Mandel. Directed by Bobby Connolly. Screenplay by Lillie Hayward, Jean Negulesco and Jay Brennan. Original story by Kyrill deShishmareff. Photography by James Van Trees. Film editor, Lou Hesse. Art Director, Hugh Reticker. Gowns by Howard Shoup. Dialogue director, Jay Brennan. Music and lyrics by M. K. Jerome and Jack Scholl. P.C.A. Certificate No. 3537. Running time, when previewed, in Los Angeles, 60 minutes. Release date November 27, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Prince Rupert	Patric Knowles
Laurine Lynne	Beverly Roberts
Joe Craig	Allyn Joslyn
Ricky Preston	Gordon Oliver
Trommy	Eula Guy
Joseph	Robert C. Fischer
Herr Meyer	Fritz Feld
Andrew Brenner	Vladimir Sokoloff
Savage	John Butler
Maria	Ann Codee
Giovanni	George Humbert
Franz	Otto Fries

Wife, Doctor and Nurse

(20th Century-Fox)

Triangle Comedy

In its selection of a title for this manifestly major offering, Twentieth Century-Fox appears to have subscribed unequivocally to the belief that public interest in stories dealing with the domestic problems of the professional man, his wife and his office associate, is still alive after the many rather thorough efforts made to quench it during the past and previous seasons. Showmen sharing that belief are confronted with no problem greater than that of identifying Loretta Young, Warner Baxter and Virginia Bruce with the characters designated in the title and adding assurances of quality, excellence, etc., plus the information that emphasis is on the comedy side in this instance.

Showmen feeling otherwise about the matter, because of recent bookings in the same general vein or for other reasons, have their work cut out for them but nothing, probably, to worry very much about. Already at hand, and piling up daily, are critical reviews and comments, written after the press preview of the picture, packed with quotable copy. By a judicious borrowing and liberal broadcasting of this effective thunder it should be possible for the stymied showman to focus attention so markedly upon player, performance, comedy, production, novelty, etc., as to offset the locally uninspiring title.

The story is, in bare outline, about a popular doctor, loved by his wife and his office associate, a nurse, in about equal and equally ethical, measure. When his nurse leaves him he takes to drink and when his wife leaves him he is unhappy. The ladies talk it over a number of times and strike a sort of bargain satisfactory to all if not precisely clear to the audience. A bare outline, however, does not and cannot convey the tone of the production, the blithe manner, brisk dialogue, smart narration and overall polish which are, in unusual degree, contents of prime importance.

There is about the whole a suavity reminiscent of Associate Producer Raymond Griffith's personal performances in his acting days. Darrell Ware, who brings to screen writing a flair well known to magazine readers, Kathryn Scola and Lamar Trotti are jointly responsible for a screen play that keeps the story from bogging down on the romantic side, skidding emotionally or turning into outright slapstick, although it does end with a triple pratfall of rare effectiveness. Walter Lang's direction is in kind and key, while stars and supporting players manifest complete congeniality with all and sundry.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, Calif. Audience response was spontaneous, continuous, honestly appreciative and prophetic of box office profits.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Twentieth Century-Fox, Associated producer. Raymond Griffith. Directed by Walter Lang. Assistant director, Gene Bryant. Screen play by Darrell Ware, Kathryn Scola and Lamar Trotti. Photographed by Edward Cronjager. Film editor, Walter Thompson. P.C.A. certificate No. 3571. Release date, September 17, 1937. Running time, when seen in Glendale, 84 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Ina	Loretta Young
Dr. Judd Lewis	Warner Baxter
Steve	Virginia Bruce
Mrs. Krueger	Jane Darwell
Dr. Therberg	Sidney Blackmer
Pompout	Maurice Cass
Constance	Minna Gombell
Mrs. Cunningham	Margaret Irving
Bruce Thomas	Gordon Elliott
Glen Wylie	Elisha Cook, Jr.
Specialty	Brewster Twins
Bill	Paul Hurst
Dr. Hedges	Hal K. Dawson
Red	George Ernest
Nick	Georges Renavent
Uncle	Spencer Charters
Miss Farrell	Claire Du Brey
Chauffeur	Lon Chaney, Jr.
Chef	Charles Judels
Delivery Man	Stanley Fields
Doorman	Olin Howard
Supt. of Nurses	Jan Duggan

My Dear Miss Aldrich

(MGM)

Comedy

The studio gives Edna May Oliver top billing in this appearance and her crisp, characteristic comedy is so directly relied upon for audience response as to suggest that showmen do likewise. Other names available for use are those of Maureen O'Sullivan, Walter Pidgeon, Rita Johnson and Janet Beecher, with Guinn Williams and J. Farrell MacDonald, playing bits, on tap for those communities where they have drawing power.

Miss Oliver plays "Martha Aldrich's" crusty aunt, from Nebraska, who distrusts New Yorkers with whom she is thrown in contact and conflict when "Martha" inherits the city's biggest newspaper, goes to work on it as a girl reporter and makes its city editor, who hates women, seem a very stupid fellow by getting stories his best men can't. Naturally, they marry in the fadeout.

The story is an original by Herman J. Mankiewicz, who also wrote the screen play, and direction is by George B. Seitz, whose handling of certain episodes recalls his notable success in the serial field a good many years back.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, California. Miss Oliver's performance drew laughs puncturing an otherwise stilly night.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Directed by George B. Seitz from an original story and screen play by Herman J. Mankiewicz. Assistant director, Edward Babille. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Film editor, William S. Gray. Photography, Charles Lawton. P.C.A. certificate No. 3621. Release date, September 17, 1937. Running time, 77 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Mrs. Atherton	Edna May Oliver
Martha Aldrich	Maureen O'Sullivan
Ken Morley	Walter Pidgeon
Ellen Warfield	Rita Johnson
Mrs. Sinclair	Janet Beecher
Mr. Sinclair	Paul Harvey
Mr. Warfield	Charles Waldron
Mr. Talbot	Walter Kingsford
Ted Martin	Roger Converse
An Attendant	Guinn Williams
A Waiter	Leonid Kinskey
Gregory	Brent Sargent
"Doc" Howe	J. Farrell MacDonald
The Major Domo	Robert Greig

Western Gold

(20th Century-Fox - Principal)

Western

This introduces Smith Ballew as a western star in a singing cowboy role. It is the first of the new series of stories credited to Harold Bell Wright and Zane Grey which Sol Lesser of Principal Productions will produce for 20th

(Continued on page 50)

'THIN ICE' PROVING FAR AND THE GREATEST OF 20th's

"Thin Ice" is blasting the daylights out of boxoffice highs set up by every one of 20th's smash parade!

Ask them in PITTSBURGH, SYRACUSE, BOSTON, SAN FRANCISCO, BALTIMORE, SALT LAKE CITY, ST. LOUIS, SPRINGFIELD, KANSAS CITY, INDIANAPOLIS, RICHMOND, LOS ANGELES, NEW YORK, anywhere!

And in many cases, 4 or 5 days of "Thin Ice" are beating the entire first week of hits like "You Can't Have Everything," "On the Avenue," "One in a Million."

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

Roxy (5,836; 25-45-55-75)—'Thin Ice' (20th) and stage show. Twentieth-Fox took over operation of house with this picture, which was picking its shots perfectly as house marches out to do the biggest gross in seven years. $68,000. Holds.

'Thin Ice' Sock $8,000, Hix (?) Help Ind. Biz

Indianapolis, Sept. 7.

Thousands of rural visitors in the city for the state fair are boosting downtown theatre grosses considerably. 'Thin Ice' is taxing the capacity of the small Apollo and is sure to hold over for a second week. Its starting pace is surpassing anything the house has done in two years.

Estimates for This Week

Apollo (Fourth Ave.) (1,100; 25-40) —'Thin Ice' (20th). Best week since 'Steamboat Round the Bend' in 1935. Sure to hold over, with opening week promising big $8,000.

AWAY RECORD SHATTERERS

'THIN ICE' THICK $15,000 IN K. C.

Kansas City, Sept. 7.

Week-end was one lobby wait after another for 'Thin Ice' at the Fox. Fox (Fox) (2,200; 25-35-40)—Formerly Tower, house this week bows in under its new tag. 'Thin Ice' (20th) smacked out best Friday and Saturday biz this location has ever done. Beat former opening day record made by 'Magnificent Obsession' by $400. Week's biz should shoot to great $15,000.

Henie's Smash $11,250 in Pitt

Pittsburgh, Sept. 7.

Fulton (Shea-Hyde) (1,750; 25-40)—'Thin Ice' (20th). Henie becomes top-notch b.o. name with only her second picture. Smashing marks daily and will hang up new house record, around $11,250 to better previous mark, made when house top was 10c higher, by $1,000. Will stick three weeks.

IN BUFF; 'ICE' HOT 14G

Buffalo, Sept. 7.

Estimates for This Week
Buffalo (Shea) (3,600; 30-40-50)—'Thin Ice' (20th). May go to $14,000 c.k.

Boston, Sept. 7.

Keith Memorial (RKO) (2,900; 25-40-55)—'Thin Ice' (20th) and 'Annapolis Salute' (RKO), dual. Smash $30,000 on the way. Already set for holdover of at least one more stanza.

'ICE' TOPS IN LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Sept. 7.

Rialto (Fourth Ave.) (3,000; 15-33-40)—'Thin Ice' (20th) and 'Mr. Moto' (20th), dual. Sure-fire b. o. draw, particularly with the younger element; fine $8,000 in view.

House Records Fall Under $42,700 Pounding by 'Thin Ice'

Los Angeles, Sept. 7.

Chinese (Grauman) (2,028; 30-40-55-75)—'Thin Ice' (20th) and 'Hot Water' (20th) dual. Smash opening and exceptionally heavy trade over the three-day holiday giving a terrific $18,700, topping previous high set by 'Mutiny On the Bounty' and equalling biz of 'After the Thin Man' which had New Year's eve trade.

State (Loew-Fox) (2,024; 30-40-55-75)—'Thin Ice' (20th) and 'Hot Water' (20th) dual. Set new house record for opening day, held strong throughout and with smash holiday biz will finish around $24,000, tops for house.

and of course,
HELD OVER AT ROXY, N.Y., AFTER BREAKING 7-YEAR RECORD!

Clippings from Variety

(Continued from page 47)

Century-Fox. Ballew, a singer whose film experience has been rather limited, is to be built up by Principal as a western star to take the place on Principal's production schedule of Richard Arlen, featured in a previous series of outdoor pictures which Mr. Lesse made for 20th Century-Fox. Heather Angel, British actress, is again cast in a frontier girl role as in "The Last of the Mohicans," "Daniel Boone" and "The Gold Caballero."

Laid in the west and having as a basis the Wells Fargo attempts to send shipments of gold through to Union forces in the Civil War, the picture contains a maximum of outdoor scenery.

Sergeant "Bill Gibson," played by Mr. Ballew, is commissioned by President Lincoln, portrayed on the screen again by Frank McGlynn, Sr., to find out why the gold shipments, sorely needed, are not coming through. "Gibson" travels to the Wells Fargo office, meets a boyhood chum, "Fred Foster," and "Jeannie Thatcher," daughter of the Wells Fargo office head. After a series of events, Gibson discovers that Foster is the robber chieftain who is preying on the shipments and leads the townspeople to wipe out the robber gang.

Previewed at the Orpheum theatre, Los Angeles, where the picture received a modicum of applause, almost all of which came from the section reserved exclusively for the studio workers and the press. Members of the press did not applaud.—VANCE KING.

Produced by Principal Productions. Distributed by 20th Century-Fox. Producer, Sol Lesser. Directed by Howard Bretherton. Story by Harold Bell Wright. Screenplay by Earle Snell and Forrest Barnes. Photography by Harry Neumann. Art director, Frank Sylos. Costume supervision, Albert Deanno. Film editor, Carl Pierson. Assistant director, George Sherman. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3684. Release date, Sept. 10, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 56 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Bill Gibson	Smith Ballew
Jeanie Thatcher	Heather Angel
Fred Foster	Leroy Mason
Thatcher	Howard Hickman
Holman	Alan Bridge
Steve	Bud Osborne
Jasper	Victor Potel
Jake	Otis Harlan
Bud	Wesley Girard
Ezra	Lew Kelly
Clem	Tom London
Lincoln	Frank McGlynn, Sr.
Squatter	Horace Murphy
Bart	Ben Alexander

The River of Missing Men

(Columbia - Larry Darmour Prod.)

A G-Man's Triumph

It may not be of any showmanship importance that in this picture Jack Holt wears makeup for the first time in his career. It should be of some showmanship importance, however, that in this Larry Darmour production he gives one of his best performances of his career. Jack has been around a long time. Age was beginning to show on him. But, when he felt like it, he still was a good actor. Why he wore makeup, only in the interior sequences, nobody except himself knows. But why he delivered a good performance everybody knows. When he wants to, he can.

It's a foregone conclusion that no trade ads will ever appear boasting of what "The River of Missing Men" did in the Music Hall or the Carthay Circle for the simple reason that the picture will never be shown in either house. Producers, for some odd reason, hard to understand because there are so many of them, never publish figures about what a picture did in the hinterland theatres. Sometimes the "What The Picture Did For Me" section remarks about it though.

In this organ that section is probably the only other medium that will have anything to say about this picture. The possibilities are that the comment will be favorable, for the material is of that brand and caliber that interests the patrons of theatres which are not Music Halls or Carthay Circles.

Once again a G-man (Holt) is called upon to forfeit his identity. It is necessary that a band of dangerous public enemies be rounded up. Becoming a convict pal of a criminal the custody of which the F.B.C.I. desires very much, Holt, not without much danger to his own being becomes pal to a lot of underworld characters. Naturally, he with some assistance from the girl in the story, Wynne Gibson, rounds 'em up.

He does so to the tune of a logically contrived jail break, a canoe ride down the rapids which in its spectacular and thrilling quality is a refreshing relief from the formula chase idea, a series of sensibly contrived situations in a mountain isolated bandit hide-out and with some capable assistance on the part of the supporting cast.

A differently visioned story of the familiar G-man versus gangster plot, this picture should prove satisfactory entertainment along the highways and byways. Patrons of metropolitan houses also may look upon it kindly, as it sticks to the simple premise for which it undoubtedly was made—to entertain the masses who are not very often interested in the study of any human question. Persons who like to see a moving picture that moves should like to see this one. That identification establishes its exploitation on potentialities. In addition to Holt and Miss Gibson, creditable performances are contributed by Jack LaRue, Edward Brophy, C. Henry Gordon, William Pawley, Arthur Hohl, William Bakewell, Eleanor Stewart, Frank Darien and Robert Emmett O'Connor in order of their importance.

Previewed in Warner Theatre, Huntington Park. A Giveaway Night audience made Larry Darmour think after all that his efforts in this instance had not been in vain, by the manner in which it received the picture.—G. M.

Distributed by Columbia. Produced by Larry Darmour. Directed by Lewis D. Collins. Original story by Bernard McConnville. Screenplay by Tom Patrick. Photographed by James S. Brown, Jr. P.C.A. certificate number 3668. Running time when seen in Huntington Park, 60 minutes. Release date, October 4, 1937. General audience classification.

Bill Donovan / Martin Galloway	Jack Holt
Alice	Wynne Gibson
Kilgour	C. Henry Gordon
Drake	Jack LaRue
Lefty	Edward Brophy
Grady	William Pawley
Blackie	Arthur Hohl
Jim	Robert Emmet O'Connor
Dick	William Bakewell
Nancy	Eleanor Stewart
Fingers	Charles Lane
Dad Higbee	Frank Darien
Franzy	Lucian Prival
Conover	Richard Tucker
Smith	George Cleveland
Warden	Wallis Clark

The Women Men Marry

(MGM)

Problem Play

While newspaper folk and others who make the news are featured, this is not a newspaper picture according to the precepts of formula 7-A. It has one general motivation, but as three writers participated in the story preparation, and there is evidence that producer, and director, and sometimes the cast, had separate and individual ideas as to how the piece should be brought to screen, there's half a dozen different offshoots of the main plot that make for a complicated story. Some of the material in situations, action, dialogue and characterizations has definite audience entertainment and commercial value. Some of it, obivously inserted for padding purposes, although the film's running time is comparatively short, has neither. Yet the picture stacks up as an average attraction which patrons who are not too particular in their amusement demands may enjoy.

Given a dash of topical interest and including a not too tasteful exhibition of how a murderer is hung, the story is merely another exemplification of how a triangle problem is solved. Reporter "Raeburn," attempting to expose a fake cultist, succeeds only in getting "Jerry Little" killed and "Brother Nameless" convicted of murder. While so occupied, "Raeburn's" boss, "Wiley" and his ("Raeburn's") wife, "Claire," carry on a clandestine romance. Of course their duplicity and an outraged husband catch up with them. But before "Raeburn" can apply the unwritten law, he has to witness the good "Brother's" hanging, which is carried out in grisly and frightening detail.

Difficult to comprehend up to this point, the continuance is more complicated as, after "Wiley," whose aim is no better than his morals, misses "Raeburn" and wounds "Claire," he disappears from the picture, the wife is sent to Reno for a divorce, and the wronged husband awaits the moment he can marry "Jane," which everybody should understand very early will be the climax.

Previewed in the Uptown theatre, Los Angeles. Patrons of the house, who seldom are accorded an advance examination of anything but secondary features, apparently knew what to expect. A few walked out. It was difficult to determine which qualities of the picture those who remained enjoyed most. Conversation in the lobby indicated that they did not regard the hanging episode very highly; consensus of opinion being that its inclusion negated the worth of the other values.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Produced by Michael Fessier. Directed by Errol Taggart. Screen play by Harry Ruskin, Donald Henderson Clarke and James E. Grant. Story by Matt Taylor. Photographed by Lester White. George Boemler, film editor. Marvin Stuart, assistant director. P.C.A. certificate No. 3662. Adult audience classification. Running time 65 minutes when seen in Los Angeles. Release date, Sept. 10, 1937. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Bill Raeburn	George Murphy
Jane Carson	Josephine Hutchinson
Claire Raeburn	Claire Dodd
Walter Wiley	Sidney Blackmer
Jerry Little	Cliff Edwards
Brother Nameless	John Wray
Mary Jane	Peggy Ryan
Sister Martin	Helen Jerome Eddy
Peter Martin	Rollo Lloyd
Brother Lamb	Edward McWade
Sugar	Toby Wing
Quinn	Leonard Penn
"Pop"	Walter Walker

The Dead March

(Imperial)

Anti War Film

As timely and pointed as this morning's news headlines is this picturized preachment that "war is hell," dramatically projected in a cycloramic indictment of modern warfare. However, due to the specialized nature of the work, the principal appeal of the production's merit may be restricted to those organizations interested in the promotion of peace, to religious and educational circles and that select group of adults who do not demand that the element of entertainment be the foremost factor.

The text of the pacific sermon is aimed at both the eye and the ear. A series of war scenes carefully collected from the archives of the newsreels, together with some special camera work, illustrate the brutality and the horror of modern carnage. Boake Carter, whose radioed commentary is given an attentive and nationwide hearing, reads a trenchant narrative. Mr. Carter's style of crisp, curt delivery blends harmoniously with the brittle staccato of the accompanying gunfire. An effective musical background has been scored by Erno Rapee.

Beginning with a world review of the state of war and peace today, particular points of conflict are shown in various countries.

Brief shots are screened of the recent conquests by the Italian armies in Ethiopia, the Japanese invasion into China, the fratricidal fury of the Spanish civil war, and the Chaco dispute down in South America. From this pictorial panorama of current strifes, audience is given to various governmental rulers and dictators mouthing and gesturing their allegiance to the cause of peace. Particularly impressive are the famous "I Hate War" words of President Roosevelt. Following this are presented the latest preparations by the leading nations in the race for rearmament. The second half of the film is given to scenes from the World War. The shots are mostly stock material and familiar to newsreel audiences, but none the less effective by repetition. The concluding parts of the film, wherein the ghostly figures of the unknown soldiers of Germany, France, Italy, Great Britain and the United States rise up from their shrouds to declaim the jingoistic and parochial propaganda of their respective countries, are confusing and illogical to the picture's original purpose.

Seen at a press screening in New York.—JOSEPH F. COUGHLIN, New York.

Presented and distributed by Imperial Pictures. A "Bud" Pollard Production. Directed by "Bud" Pollard. Text by Samuel Taylor Moore. Narrated by Boake Carter. Musical score, Erno Rapee. Special photography, Dal Clawson. Process photography, Lang Brothers. Musical supervisor, Max Manne. Film editor, Ed Fitz. Studio supervisor, Earle I. Sponable. Special settings, Al Panci. Property technician, Jules Canter. Sound recording, Walter Hicks. Running time, 73 minutes. Release date, September 15, 1937. Adult audience classification.

Bulldog Drummond Comes Back

(Paramount)

Melodrama

This is another Bulldog Drummond picture and probably that's the sure, simply way to bill it. There may be useful exploitation copy, also, in the fact that John Barrymore plays Inspector Nielson of Scotland Yard, this time, and displays his proficiency in the art of make-up by donning various disguises. John Howard plays the name character and Reginald Denny is again his friend and coadventurer.

The story is about the brother and wife of a felon, executed for a crime proved against him by "Bulldog Drummond," and their decision to take his life in revenge. To this end they rig up a series of more or less poetic messages of instruction, some typed and others dictated to singularly convenient gramaphones, which the hero obeys in hope of having his sweetheart, held prisoner by his enemies. This goes on all night, Inspector Nielson busying himself with disguises the while, and winds up at dawn with a timely rescue.

Original title of the story by H. O. (Sapper) McNeille was "The Female of the Species."

Previewed quietly on the otherwise uneventful evening of August 31st at the Tower theatre in far-off (from Hollywood) Compton, California, where an audience composed principally of townspeople were audibly unimpressed. —W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Directed by Louis King. Assistant director, Holly Morse. Screen play by Edward T. Lowe. Edited by James Smith. Photographed by William C. Mellor. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3586. Release date, September 24th. Running time, 58 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Colonel Nielson	John Barrymore
Capt. Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond	John Howard
Phyllis Clavering	Louise Campbell
Algy Longworth	Reginald Denny
Tenny	E. E. Clive
Mikhail Valdin	J. Carroll Naish
Irena Soldanis	Helen Freeman
Effie	Zeffie Tilbury
Sanger	John Sutton
Barmaid	Rita Page

First Lady

(Warner)

Conversation Piece

Yardage off a new bolt, sap from a far tree, entertainment of a rare and sheerly humorous (as distinguished from comic) kind is neatly packaged and handed to the exhibitor, here, with sales copy tagged to every corner of it. To index a few of these:

It is Kay Francis in a new, light, subtle characterization.

It is backstage Washington as the better columnists paint it and cartoonists don't dare.

It is a play by George S. Kaufman and Katharine Dayton with most of the sophisticated dialogue and hairtrigger repartee left in.

It is a polished spoofing of politics, stuffshirted eminence, tea table intrigue, feminism and chain journalism.

It is not an avowed picturization of a feminine rivalry whispered about fervently of late years, but it is not too different from what such a picturization might be from the standpoint of word-of-mouth publicity.

It is notably cast, briskly played, cunningly plotted and, of course, totally lacking in what is generally understood to be meant by the word action.

Miss Francis is cast as wife of the secretary of state and Veree Teasdale as wife of a supreme court justice. Both do what they can about getting their respective husbands the presidential nomination, and what they do, in concert with party leaders, a publisher with 20,000,000 readers and a clubwoman with 5,000,000 affiliates, is for the dialogue and not this reporter to tell.

The tone is lightly satirical throughout. Barbs are loosed at a dozen institutions without malice. The whole is non-partisan. The time is the present, but the subject matter is timeless. (Quite incidentally, and beside the point, radio advertising comes in for a quietly devastating panning.)

Previewed August 30 at Warners' Hollywood theatre. The dialogue had press, profession and public in stitches time after time, laughter occasionally drowning out speeches but indicating, beyond question, that this admittedly sophisticated audience was having a grand time.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Hal B. Wallis, executive producer. Harry Joe Brown, associate producer. Directed by Stanley Logan. Screen play by Rowland Leigh from a play by George S. Kaufman and Katharine Dayton. Film editor, Ralph Dawson. Photography, Sid Hickoz. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3395. Running time, 82 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Lucy Chase Wayne	Kay Francis
Stephen Wayne	Preston Foster
Emmy Page	Anita Louise
Carter Hibbard	Walter Connolly
Irene Hibbard	Verree Teasdale
Gordon Keane	Victor Jory
Belle Hardwicke	Marjorie Rambeau
Sophy Prescott	Marjorie Gateson
Lavinia Mae Creevey	Louise Fazenda
George Mason	Henry O'Neill
Ellsworth T. Ganning	Grant Mitchell
Tom Hardwicke	Eric Stanley
Mrs. Ives	Lucille Gleason
Mrs. Mason	Sara Haden
Charles	Harry Davenport
Gregoravich	Gregory Gaye
Cleeker	Olaf Hytton

The Squeaker

(London Films-U. A.)

Crime Thriller

An Edgar Wallace novel and play showing that author at his best as a contriver of ingenious and thrilling crime stories has been adapted to the screen with a pleasant leavening of humorous relief to vary and give realism to a story essentially belonging to the realm of lurid melodrama. Convincing characterization makes it plausible. The suspense is retained and it culminates in a really strong last scene. Edmund Lowe is well cast, whimsical and attractive, and the direction of William K. Howard has paid obvious attention to American requirements in the way of plentiful incident and speed of action.

"The Squeaker" is a mysterious receiver of stolen goods, particularly of the proceeds of jewel robberies, and succeeds in keeping his identity secret from Scotland Yard, British detective headquarters, despite his habit of handing over the actual thieves to the police, by anonymous warnings, when they become awkward. The task of identifying and capturing him is entrusted to ex-detective Barrabal, who lost his job at the "Yard" through drunkenness.

Through a crime reporter Barrabal gets a job with Frank Sutton, a shipping magnate who has a reputation of giving a chance to men with "pasts." Detective headquarters sees that Sutton is duly advised that his new employees is a man with a bad criminal record. The fact does not disturb Sutton, but it troubles his fiancee Carol Stedman. Larry Graeme, betrayed to the Police by "the Squeaker" after a jewel robbery, breaks out of Scotland Yard and plans to kill Frank Sutton, thereby putting us on to the identity of the mysterious masterthief. Barrabal also gets on to the trail but when Graeme instead of Sutton is found shot he has a difficulty in pinning the crime on the latter. He eventually solves it by a cross-examination at Scotland Yard in a darkened room followed by a confrontation of Sutton with the body of his victim, which forces a hysterical confession. The happy culmination is the marriage of Barrabal and Carol after the former's reinstatement.

Edmund Lowe's excellent performance is backed by good work from Ann Todd as the girl, Sebastian Shaw as the plausible villain, and by Stewart Rome, Alistair Sim, Tamara Desni and Robert Newton.

The original has selling value and individual scenes offer good exploitation possibilities.

Viewed at a trade show at Piccadilly Theatre, London. It held as a mystery story and the incidental humor was obviously appreciated. —BRUCE ALLAN.

Produced by Alexander Korda for London Film Productions and Distributed by United Artists. From the Edgar Wallace novel and play. Directed by William K. Howard. Scenario by Bryan Wallace. Screen play by Edward O. Berkman. Camera, Georges Perinal. Setting, Vincent Korda. Songs by William Kernell and Edward O. Berkman. Recording director, A. W. Watkins. Musical score, Miklos Rosza. Film editor, Russell Lloyd. Running time, 77 mins. General audience classification.

CAST

Barrabal	Edmund Lowe
Frank Sutton	Sebastian Shaw
Carol Stedman	Ann Todd
Tamara	Tamara Desni
Larry Graeme	Robert Newton
Inspector Eiford	Allan Jeayes
Joshua Collie	Alistair Sim
Superintendent Marshall	Stewart Rome
Mrs. Stedman	Mabel Terry-Lewis
Mr. Field	Gordon McLeod

March of Time, No. 1

(RKO Radio)

News Dramatization

Presented in the forthright style that has distinguished "March of Time's" dramatization of the news behind the headlines, the first issue of volume four reviews two widely separated topics, each important in its own right.

The first is of particular interest to the farm regions. It concerns the efforts of the Department of Agriculture, in Washington, to rid the country of insects destroying crop and trees. A particularly active year of the pests has been answered by a campaign by the Department with millions already spent and more millions expected to be used.

The undeclared war in China is the other topic. Two-thirds of the issue is devoted to it and the events leading up to it. The camera illustrates various aspects in the life of the Chinese before 1927, with that year seeing the rise to power of Chiang Kai-Shek. Under Chiang's regime a new era of building and production was begun, great strides being made in the 10 years up to 1937, but during these years China and Japan warred intermittently, with Japan entering Manchukuo, Korea and other areas. Bringing the history up to date, the camera traces the events leading up to the current strife, followed by scenes of the aftermath of the bombings of Chinese cities.

Running time, 17 minutes.

Golf Magic

(Columbia)

Good

Golf as it should be played is aptly illustrated here by a group of professional golfers who rate at the top of the heap. There is Sam Snead, Sammy Byrd, Craig Wood, Paul Runyon, Johnny Revolta, Denny Shute, Jimmy Thompson, Joe Kirkwood and on the distaff

(Continued on page 54)

APPLAUDING CRITICS FORECAST ANOTHER 20TH MONEY SMASH!

"An achievement in which Darryl F. Zanuck and the entire 20th-Fox organization may take profound pride. One of those rare revelations of what the film medium can achieve. As completely satisfying a film as the most exacting audience could ask for!"—Variety Daily

•

"Packed with boxoffice elements. Will play to fat grosses in all runs. Loretta Young, Warner Baxter and Virginia Bruce will lure them in. A-1 throughout!"
—Hollywood Reporter

•

"A picture that absolutely screams boxoffice. Dramatic, subtle, with delicious comedy, it is one of the most thoroughly delightful comedy dramas of the season!"
—Los Angeles Examiner

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

Preview Flash— "PASADENA SNEAK PREVIEW AUDIENCE HAILED IT THE GAYEST, Loretta

YOUNG

Warner
BAXTER

Virginia
BRUCE

in

WIFE, DOCTOR and NURSE

with

JANE DARWELL • SIDNEY BLACKMER • MAURICE CASS
MINNA GOMBELL • MARGARET IRVING

Directed by Walter Lang

Associate Producer Raymond Griffith

Screen Play by Kathryn Scola, Darrell Ware and Lamar Trotti

Darryl F. Zanuck in Charge of Production

SMARTEST COMEDY OF THE YEAR! CERTAIN OF BIGGEST WORD-OF-MOUTH BUILD-UP EVER!"

(Continued from page 51)

side, Patty Berg. Kirkwood, said to be the cleverest of all golf magicians, entertains with his tricks. There is also a four-year-old boy who is so well grounded in the game that he never misses even when blindfolded. Narrative by Jack Kofoed. Described by Ford Bond. Running time, 9½ minutes.

The Littlest Diplomat
(Vitaphone)
Entertaining

"Diplomacy pays" is the general theme of this picture in which Sybil Jason has the leading role. She visits her grandfather, a colonel of a garrison in the Far East. The colonel, a hardened soldier, is strongly in favor of discarding diplomacy and resorting to guns to conquer the Khan's warriors. However, Sybil runs away from the garrison and is taken into custody by the Khan's men. She prevails upon him to stop warring with her grandfather and as a result the two become friends. One of the features is the group singing of the soldiers. Running time, 20 minutes.

Scary Crows
(Columbia)
Scrappy Cartoon

A farmer boy and his dog, awakened by the first rays of the morning sun, set out to the fields to do the day's chores. A flock of hungry crows swoop down on the field and as fast as the boy plants a seed the crows devour it. The boy and his dog chase the crows, but outnumbered as they are and much slower the boy and dog are harrassed and finally routed. Goaded into action by a little girl, the boy starts all over again but finds surcease only when the waning sun drops beyond the horizon and he climbs wearily into bed. The little man has had a busy day. Running time, eight minutes.

A Neckin' Party
(Vitaphone)
Diverting

Already a success on the radio, Edgar Bergen is given an opportunity to exhibit his ventriloquial ability with the aid of his well known dummy, Charlie McCarthy. One of the highlights of the short subject is a scene in which the dummy is heard singing to the accompaniment of harmonica music played by Mr. Bergen. The picture opens in a Broadway night club with Mr. Bergen carrying on a conversation with Charlie. The locale changes to a ranch and Charlie, left to his own resources, flirts with a senorita. Her jealous "boy friend" interrupts the scene and starts to stage a "neckin' party" for Charlie, but he is saved from being hanged when Mr. Bergen points out the senorita is flirting with another man. Running time, 11 minutes.

Community Sing No. 5
(Columbia)
Tuneful

With Gene Morgan as master of ceremonies and Donald Grayson the leader of song, accompanied by a chorus, the "Community Sing" crew sail down to Dixie on a packet. The tunes are all from the south and include "Are You From Dixie," "Carolina," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Mammy," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny" and "Dixie.' Running time, 10½ minutes.

Attic of Terror
(Vitaphone)
Adventure

Taken from the true story of Eddie Capps, a former salesman for a tobacco company, this picture is the first in a series of short subjects entitled "Your True Adventures" with Floyd Gibbons as the narrator. The film also serves as the announcement of a "true adventure" contest. Eddie Capps (Chester Stratton) starts on a selling expedition through mountainous country when he is caught in a severe rainstorm. He seeks a night's lodging and food at a mountaineer's cabin. He is told he can sleep in the attic, but learns a corpse occupies a bed there, too. During the night he is awakened by voices and hears his hosts plotting to kill and rob him. He foils the plan by changing places with the dead man, who turns out to be a rival salesman. The killers club the corpse, thinking they are murdering Eddie. Later, Eddie escapes when, while the killers are playing cards, he hurls a pitcher at them and dashes out into the rain. The picture ends with Mr. Gibbons explaining that the actual killer was hanged and that the mountaineer and his wife were sentenced to life imprisonment and Mr. Gibbons then presents the real Mr. Capps with a check for the story. Running time, 12 minutes.

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of September 4

CAPITOL
Glimpses of Peru ..... MGM

CENTRAL
Love in Arms ..... Educational Ornamental Swimming .... Educational

CRITERION
Queens of Harmony ..... Paramount
Postal Union ..... Vitaphone
The Lyin' Tamer ..... Vitaphone

PARAMOUNT
Song of the Islands ..... Paramount
Morning, Noon and Night Club ..... Paramount

RIALTO
Romance of Digestion ..... MGM
Bone Bender Parade ..... Twentieth Century-Fox

RIVOLI
Mickey's Amateurs ..... United Artists
Comical Oddities of Ye Goode Olde Days ..... Carl S. Clancy

ROXY
Montague the Magnificent. Educational
Mexican Mural ..... Twentieth Century-Fox
Farmer Al Falfa in Trailer Life ..... Educational

STRAND
Long Bright Land ..... Vitaphone

Puppet Love
(Vitaphone)
Fairly Entertaining

Filmed in color, Salici's puppets are seen in a complete show. The only other characters in the picture are three boys and the manager of the theatre in which the show is staged. The boys attempt to bore a hole through the wall to witness the puppet's antics. Two of them are caught by the manager, who admits them to the theatre. At the end, the curtain on the puppet stage is raised and the manipulators of the figures are seen. Running time, 10 minutes.

Cash and Carry
(Columbia)
Funny

Those three madcaps, the stooges, offer their distinctive brand of slapstick in another harebrained adventure. In this Moe, Curly and Larry hunt for buried treasure in the basement of an old brownstone house. Furious digging accompanied by the usual multiple slapping of faces finds them against a stone wall. Blasting a hole in the wall they enter a room laden with money. Thinking it the treasure, they gather as much as possible and are about to leave when the door opens and Federal men arrest the stooges for robbing the United States Treasury. When next seen the stooges are asking clemency of the President. Running time, 18½ minutes.

Arnold Johnson and His Orchestra
(Vitaphone)
A Melody Master

Discussion of a radio program by Arnold Johnson and his director serves as the reason for the Johnson musicians to transform such classics as Schubert's "The Bee" into swing music and for the presentation of singing and dancing acts. The Three Sirens and the Three Orchids harmonize and Siroy and Weaver go through a dance routine. The orchestra and the acts are introduced through pictures on the wall coming to life. Running time, 10 minutes.

Community Sing No. 1
(Columbia)
Songful

The initial offering of the new series of "Community Sings" has a pullman train background and the songs have been chosen for their relationship to towns or sections of the country. Gene Morgan is the master of ceremonies and Donald Grayson leads the singing. Songs include "The Sidewalks of New York," "Chicago," "Mobile Bay," "Missouri Waltz," "St. Louis Blues," "Springtime in the Rockies" and "California, Here I Come." Running time, 10 minutes.

Long Bright Land
(Vitaphone)
Interesting

One of the colortour adventure series, this short subject describes a trip to New Zealand. The landmarks of the country, the Auckland War Memorial and the Wellington Carillon Tower, are shown along with shots of the Kiwi, which is described as practically the national bird. Boiling wells, geyser, sulphur caves and other phenomena of nature are seen along with shots of the natives performing their daily tasks and doing their ceremonial dances. Running time, 11 minutes.

Drug Store Follies
(Columbia)
Variety Short

Featuring Roscoe Ates, comic stutterer, this presents a variety program with a drug store setting. Ates enters the store to purchase a cure for his lumbago and finds everything but drugs. Carolyn Marsh sings "Star Dust;" the Leslies, a dancing trio, do a rhythm dance; George Moore juggles, and the Lone Star Cowboys play and sing. Ates finally makes himself understood, a plaster is recommended, and he gets it, from the ceiling. Running time, 9½ minutes.

Pictorial Revue
(Vitaphone)
Variety

From the opening of Bing Crosby's new race track, this short switches to an exhibition of wrestling, described by Clem McCarthy, and then concludes with the story of the making of Gruyere cheese in Switzerland. The various stages of cheese production are in color and Basil Ruysdael is the narrator. At the race track there are glimpses of several motion picture stars. Running time, 10 minutes.

WHEN A SOCK BECOMES A

Knock-out

Read!
Learn!
Marvel!

at box office history →→→

•Ask these exhibitors

JOHN H. HARRIS of the Alvin Theatre

PITTSBURGH Says

"LOST HORIZON GAVE US BIGGEST OPENING DAY HISTORY ALVIN THEATRE FOLLOWED BY BIGGEST FRIDAY SINCE OPENING OF HOUSE!"

A. C. HAYMAN
of the Lafayette Theatre

BUFFALO Says

"LOST HORIZON OPENED HERE TODAY TO BIGGEST GROSS ON RECORD DESPITE TEMPERATURE 98 DEGREES LOOK FOR HOUSE RECORD FOR RUN TO BE BROKEN!"

SAN DIEGO
"LOOKS LIKE TWO MORE WEEKS. THIS MOST OUTSTANDING RUN IN 5 YEARS!"

FRESNO
"LOST HORIZON SIX DAYS GROSS BEATS THEATRE'S RECORD WEEK!"

SACRAMENTO
"LOST HORIZON OPENING BEATS ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS!"

CLEVELAND
"SMASHES ALL HOUSE RECORDS IN EXTENDED ENGAGEMENT!"

LOST HORIZON

NOW IN GENERAL RELEASE
AT POPULAR PRICES

who have played it!

I. M. RAPPAPORT
of the Hippodrome Theatre

BALTIMORE Says

"IN 4 DAYS LOST HORIZON HAS TOPPED MR. DEEDS' GROSS FOR ENTIRE WEEK. BUSINESS IS SENSATIONAL. IT'S A SMASH!"

ARTHUR FRUDENFELD of the RKO Shubert Theatre

CINCINNATI Says

"IN SPITE OF ADVERSE WEATHER CONDITIONS LOST HORIZON OPENED YESTERDAY RKO SHUBERT TO ABSOLUTE CAPACITY!"

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.
"LOST HORIZON SETS ALL-TIME ATTENDANCE AND RECEIPTS RECORDS!"

ERIE, PA.
"LOST HORIZON OPENS TO CAPACITY BUSINESS. EXPECT NEW RECORD!"

DUBUQUE
"HOTTEST DAY OF YEAR. HORIZON SMASHES OPENING RECORDS!"

INDIANAPOLIS
"DESPITE TERRIFIC HEAT LINES AT OPENING. LOOKS LIKE HOLDOVER!"

Says RECORDS ARE MADE TO BE BROKEN!

. . . . and just around the corner ⟶

"HELLO AMERICA! IRENE DUNNE SPEAKING! WATCH OUT FOR THE MADDEST, MERRIEST WHIRL SINCE 'THEODORA' RAN WILD! IT'S 'THE AWFUL TRUTH'!"
"YEA-A-A MAN! LEO McCAREY HAS DELIVERED A COMEDY SOCKEROO THAT WILL MAKE AMERICA ROAR. THAT'S THE TRUTH, THE WHOLE TRUTH AND NOTHING BUT 'THE AWFUL TRUTH'!"
IRENE DUNNE
CARY GRANT
THE Awful Truth
A LEO McCAREY PRODUCTION with Ralph Bellamy
Alexander D'Arcy Cecil Cunningham Robert Allen
Screen Play by Vina Delmar
Associate Producer Everett Riskin
Directed by Leo McCarey
A COLUMBIA
. . . And almost immediately after . .
GRACE MOORE in
I'll Take Romance
with MELVYN DOUGLAS

THE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Running times are those supplied by the companies. Asterisk indicates running time as made known by West Coast studio before announcement by home office in New York. Variations also may be due to local censorship deletions. Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1937-38 season.

ADVANCE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
Dawn to Dusk	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Nov.	1,'37†
Squadron "B"	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Sept.	15,'37†

AMBASSADOR-CONN-MELODY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Anything for a Thrill	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	June	15,'37
Born to Fight	Frankie Darro-Jack La Rue	Nov.	3,'36
Devil Diamond, The	Kane Richmond-Frankie Darro	Jan.	15,'37
Fighting Texan, The	Kermit Maynard-Elaine Shepard	June	22,'37
Galloping Dynamite	Kermit Maynard-Ariane Allen	Dec.	30,'36
Headline Crasher	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Dec.	25,'36
Racing Blood	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Nov.	15,'36
Sing While You're Able	Pinky Tomlin	Mar.	20,'37	66
Thanks for Listening	Pinky Tomlin	July	12,'37
Tough to Handle	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Mar.	24,'37
Valley of Terror	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	Jan.	20,'37
Whistling Bullets	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	May	3,'37
Wild Horse Roundup	Kermit Maynard-Dickie Jones	Nov.	20,'36
With Love and Kisses	Pinky Tomlin-Toby Wing	Dec.	20,'36
Coming
Fighting Cadet	Frankie Darro
Gentleman Must Live, A	Pinky Tomlin
Reckless Chances	Kermit Maynard
Roaring Six Guns	Kermit Maynard-Mary Hayes
Young Dynamite	Frankie Darro

CELEBRITY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
For Love of You	F. Foresta-Riscoe and Wayne		60
Kiss Me Goodbye	M. Schneider-Riscoe and Wayne		62

CHESTERFIELD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Red Lights Ahead	Andy Clyde-Lucille Gleason	Dec.	28,'36

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Come Closer, Folks	James Dunn-Marian Marsh	Nov.	7,'36	61
Counterfeit Lady (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Joan Perry	Dec.	31,'36	60 Jan. 23,'37
Cowboy Star, The (See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 10,'36.)	Charles Starrett-Iris Shunn	Nov.	20,'36	56
Criminals of the Air (See "Honeymoon Pilot." "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 27,'37.)	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Apr.	30,'37	61
Dangerous Adventure, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	Aug.	1,'37	59
Devil Is Driving, The (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78.)	Richard Dix-Jean Perry	June	25,'37	68 July 24,'37
Devil's Playground (A)	Dolores Del Rio-Richard Dix	Jan.	24,'37	74 Feb. 27,'37
Fight to the Finish, A (See "Taxi War," "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	June	30,'37	59
Find the Witness (G)	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Jan.	8,'37	57 Mar. 6,'37
Frame Up, The (See "Right Guy." "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)	Paul Kelly-Jacqueline Wells	May	1,'37	59
Girls Can Play	Chas. Quigley-Jacqueline Wells	June	21,'37	60
I Promise to Pay (G) (Exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 64.)	Leon Carrillo-Chester Morris	Apr.	21,'37	65 Feb. 27,'37
It Can't Last Forever (G)	Betty Furness-Ralph Bellamy	July	15,'37	68 Aug. 14,'37
It Happened in Hollywood (See "Once a Hero," "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 17,'37.)	Richard Dix-Fay Wray	Sept.	7,'37†	67
It's All Yours (G)	Francis Lederer-M. Carroll	Sept.	1,'37†	80 Aug. 7,'37
Lady from Nowhere	Mary Astor-Charles Quigley	Nov.	21,'36	60
Law of the Ranger	Bob Allen-Elaine Shepard	Feb.	26,'37	57
League of Frightened Men (G)	Walter Connolly-Irene Hervey	May	25,'37	65 July 24,'37
Legion of Terror (G)	Marguerite Churchill-B. Cabot	Nov.	1,'36	60 Nov. 7,'36
Let's Get Married (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Ida Lupino	Mar.	25,'37	69 May 29,'37
Lost Horizon (A) (Exploitation: Sept. 5,'36, p. 75; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; May 22,'37, p. 92; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, pp. 96, 100.)	Ronald Colman-Jane Wyatt	Sept.	1,'37†	118 Feb. 27,'37
More Than a Secretary (G) (See "Speed Mad," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 20,'37.)	Jean Arthur-George Brent	Dec.	24,'36	77 Dec. 28,'36
Motor Madness (See "Speed Mad," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 20,'37.)	Rosalind Keith-Allen Brook	Apr.	5,'37	62
North of Nome (G)	Jack Holt-Evelyn Venable	Nov.	14,'36	63 Oct. 31,'36
One Man Justice	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	July	1,'37	59
Outlaws of the Orient	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Aug.	20,'37†	61
Parole Racket (G)	Paul Kelly-Rosalind Keith	Mar.	4,'37	62 Apr. 10,'37
Pennies from Heaven (G) (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 8,'37, p. 72; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 81, 82; Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 86.)	Bing Crosby-Madge Evans	Nov.	25,'36	83 Dec. 18,'36
Racketeers in Exile (G)	George Bancroft-Evelyn Venable	Mar.	31,'37	67 Apr. 3,'37
Rangers Step In, The	Bob Allen-Eleanor Stewart	Aug.	8,'37†	58
Reckless Ranger	Bob Allen-Louise Small	May	30,'37	56
Rio Grande Ranger (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)	Bob Allen-Iris Meredith	Dec.	11,'36	54
Roaring Timber (G) (See "Racing Luck," "In the Cutting Room, Feb. 13,'37.)	Jack Holt-Grace Bradley	July	4,'37	65 Aug. 28,'37
Speed to Spare	Dorothy Wilson-Chas. Quigley	May	4,'37	60
Theodora Goes Wild (G) (Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 81.)	Irene Dunne-Melvyn Douglas	Nov.	12,'36	95 Nov. 14,'36
Thunder in the City (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Luli Deste	Apr.	25,'37	76 Feb. 13,'37
Trapped	Charles Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Mar.	5,'37	55
Trouble in Morocco (G)	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Mar.	22,'37	62 Mar. 20,'37
Tugboat Princess	Walter C. Kelly-Edith Fellows	Oct.	15,'36	69
Two Fisted Sheriff	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	June	15,'37	59
Two Gun Law	Chas. Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Apr.	7,'37	56
Venus Makes Trouble (See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 3,'37.)	James Dunn-Patricia Ellis	May	14,'37	58
Westbound Mail	Chas. Starrett-Rosalind Keith	Jan.	22,'37	54
When You're in Love (G) (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Grace Moore-Cary Grant	Feb.	27,'37	104 Feb. 20,'37
Woman in Distress (G)	May Robson-Irene Hervey	Jan.	17,'37	68 Feb. 13,'37
Women of Glamour (G) (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce	Jan.	28,'37	72 Mar. 20,'37
Coming
All American Sweetheart	Scott Colton-Patricia Farr
Awful Truth, The (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Irene Dunne-Cary Grant	Oct.	7,'37†
Carnival Lady	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth
Counsel for Crime (See "The Man Behind the Law," "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)	Otto Kruger-Jacqueline Wells	Sept.	14,'37†	62
Freshmen Follies	Jimmy Durante-Joan Perry
Game That Kills, The	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Sept.	21,'37†
I'll Take Romance (See "In the Cuting Room," July 24,'37.)	Grace Moore-M. Douglas	Oct.	28,'37†
I Married an Artist	John Boles-Luli Deste
Life Begins with Love (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Jean Parker-D. Montgomery	Oct.	14,'37†
Night Before, The	Mary Astor-Richard Arlen
Old Wyoming Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks
Park Avenue Dame (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Fay Wray-Richard Arlen	Oct.	21,'37†
River of Missing Men	Jack Holt-Wynne Gibson	Oct.	31,'37†
There's Always a Woman	Loretta Young-Randolph Scott
Women of the Night	Don Terry-Jacqueline Wells

CRESCENT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Battle of Greed (G)	Tom Keene-Gwynne Shipman	Jan.	18,'37	65 Jan. 9,'37
Drums of Destiny (G)	Tom Keene-Edna Lawrence	June	12,'37	60 June 19,'37
Law Commands, The	Tom Keene-Lorraine Hayes	May	12,'37	60
Old Louisiana (G)	Tom Keene-Rita Cansino	Mar.	1,'37	64 Mar. 20,'37
Raw Timber	Tom Keene-Peggy Keys	July	6,'37	63
Under Strange Flags	Tom Keene-Luana Walters	Apr.	12,'37	64

DANUBIA

(Hungarian Dialogue)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blue Danube Romance	Zita Perczel	Jan.	20,'37	85
Dreams of Love (English titles)	Frank Taray	Jan.	3,'37	103
Friendly Expression	Radey-Szoke	Nov.	1,'36	65
Hungarian Village (English titles)	Travelogue	Dec.	25,'36	20
Man of Gold	Maria Egri-F. Kiss	Apr.	12,'37	92
Man Under the Bridge	Csortos-Lazar	Nov.	15,'36	82
Salary $200 Monthly	Javor-Folop	Dec.	31,'36	82
Scotchman In Hungary	Radey-Oresi	Apr.	12,'37	95
Sister Mary	Szorenyi-Sved	Mar.	28,'37	91
Sons of the Steppes	Kiss-Komcar	Dec.	26,'36	85
Storm on the Pusta	Kiss-Komcar	Apr.	5,'37	78
Three Spinsters	Emile Markus-Rajnay	Dec.	1,'36	84
Coming
I Married for Love	Kabos-Radai	Sept.	15,'37†	84
My Daughter Is Different	Turay-Kabos	Oct.	20,'37†	88
Tempest in a Charda	Javor-Lazar	Oct.	20,'37†	90
Texas Mammy	Fedak	Oct.	25,'37†	89
Vicki (Country Ball)	Javor-Rose Barsony	Sept.	25,'37†	87
Yellow Roses	Kabos	Oct.	30,'37†	90

DuWORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crimson Circle	Noah Beery	Jan.	1,'37	74

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

FIRST NATIONAL

(See also Warner Brothers)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain's Kid, The (G) 167	Guy Kibbee-Sybil Jason	Nov.	14,'36	72.Sept. 19,'36
Case of the Stuttering Bishop, The, 176	Donald Woods-Ann Dvorak		5,'37	70
Cherokee Strip 178	Dick Foran-Jane Bryan	May	15,'37	55
Confession (A) 158	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Aug.	28,'37	*85.July 24,'37
Dance, Charlie, Dance (G) 165	Stuart Erwin-Jean Muir	Aug.	14,'37	64.May 1,'37
Dragerman Courage (G) 168	Jean Muir-Barton MacLane	May	15,'37	58.Aug. 29,'36
Empty Holsters 179	Dick Foran-Patricia Walthall	July	10,'37
Ever Since Eve (G) 162	Marion Davies-R. Montgomery	July	17,'37	79.June 26,'37
Gold Diggers of 1937 (G) 151	Dick Powell-Joan Blondell	Dec.	26,'36	101.Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 100; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; Mar. 6,'37, p. 90.)
Green Light (G) 154	Errol Flynn-Anita Louise	Feb.	20,'37	85.Jan. 9,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, pp. 78, 81; Apr. 3,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, p. 90; May 29,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 3,'37, p. 68.)
Guns of Pecos 960	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Jan.	2,'37	65
Her Husband's Secretary (A) 173	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Mar.	20,'37	61.Mar. 6,'37
Marked Woman (A) 156	Bette Davis-H. Bogart	Aug.	10,'37	96.Mar. 6,'37
Men in Exile 174	Richard Purcell-June Travis	Apr.	4,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)
Mountain Justice (A) 161	Josephine Hutchinson-G. Brent	Apr.	24,'37	82.May 22,'37
Mr. Dodd Takes the Air (G) 159	Kenny Baker-Jane Wyman	Aug.	21,'37	*80.July 31,'37
Once a Doctor (G) 171	Donald Woods-Jean Muir	Jan.	23,'37	65.Mar. 6,'37
Penrod and Sam (G) 172	Billy Mauch-Henry Watson	Feb.	28,'37	64.Jan. 16,'37
Prairie Thunder 180	Dick Foran-Ellen Clancy	Sept.	11,'37
Prince and the Pauper, The (G) 152	Mauch Twins-Errol Flynn	May	8,'37	120.Apr. 17,'37
(Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 66; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 3,'37, p. 68.)
San Quentin (G) 163	Pat O'Brien-Humphrey Bogart	Aug.	7,'37	70.Apr. 3,'37
Sing Me a Love Song (G) 160	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	Jan.	9,'37	79.Oct. 17,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 70.)
Stolen Holiday (G) 157	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Feb.	6,'37	80.Dec. 26,'36
Talent Scout (G) 166	Donald Woods-Jeanne Madden	July	24,'37	62.June 12,'37
That Man's Here Again (G) 175	Mary Maguire-Tom Brown	Apr.	17,'37	58.Mar. 27,'37
Three Men on a Horse (G) 151	Frank McHugh-Joan Blondell	Nov.	21,'36	85.Dec. 5,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 12,'36, p. 81; Dec. 19,'36, p. 89; Dec. 26,'36, p. 70; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; May 1,'37, p. 83.)

Coming

Accidents Will Happen ..... Ronald Reagan-Gloria Blondell
Adventurous Blonde ..... Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane
Alcatraz Island ..... John Litel-Ann Sheridan
Back in Circulation (A) 266 ..... Joan Blondell-Pat O'Brien ..... Sept. 25,'37† ..... 82.Aug. 7,'37
Cornered (G) 164 ..... Boris Karloff-Beverly Roberts ..... *65.July 17,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "War Lord.")
First Lady ..... Kay Francis-Preston Foster
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)
Gold Is Where You Find It .. George Brent-O. de Havilland
Great Garrick, The ..... Brian Aherne-O. de Havilland
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Hollywood Hotel ..... Dick Powell-Frances Langford
It's Love I'm After (G) ..... Leslie Howard-Bette Davis ..... *87.July 31,'37
Larger Than Life ..... Frank McHugh-Ann Sheridan
Return from Limbo ..... Kay Francis-Pat O'Brien
Sergeant Murphy ..... Ronald Reagan-Mary Maguire
That Certain Woman (A) 254 .. Bette Davis-Henry Fonda ..... Sept. 18,'37† .. *94.Aug. 7,'37

FRANK NORTON

(Greek Dialogue, English Titles)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Astero	Miss Kyvell	Feb.	21,'37	90
Far from the Crowd	Mary Tsagonis	Apr.	7,'37	82

Coming

'tohea Toy Mpoam ..... Vasoula Manolidoy ..... Sept. 5,'37† 90
Kainourgea Zoe ..... Rita Karmen ..... Nov. 7,'37† 115
Reborn ..... Elena Papadake ..... Dec. 5,'37† 90
True Love ..... Sophea Damogloy ..... Oct. 3,'37† 85

GB PICTURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Backstage 3614	Anna Neagle-Arthur Tracy	Mar.	15,'37	65
Everybody Dance (G) 3613	Ernest Truex-C. Courtneidge	Feb.	13,'37	70.Sept. 12,'36
Gangway (G)	Jessie Matthews-Nat Pendleton	Sept.	1,'37†	88.Aug. 28,'37
Head Over Heels in Love (G) 3604	Jessie Matthews-Louis Borrell	Feb.	20,'37	81.Feb. 13,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78.)
King Solomon's Mines (G) 3618	Cedric Hardwicke-Roland Young	Aug.	26,'37	76.July 3,'37
(See production article, May 22,'37, p. 16.)
Living Dangerously (A) 3617	Otto Kruger-Leonora Corbett	Dec.	1,'36	69.Mar. 31,'36
Love In Exile (A) 3623	Clive Brook-Helen Vinson	Nov.	15,'36	63.May 30,'36
Man of Affairs (G) 3606	George Arliss-Rene Ray	Jan.	20,'37	71.Nov. 28,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "His Lordship.") (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, p. 88.)
River of Unrest (G) 3621	John Lodge-John Loder	Jan.	15,'37	69.May 18,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "Ourselves Alone.")
Silent Barriers (G) 3608	Richard Arlen-Lilli Palmer	Apr.	29,'37	83.Feb. 27,'37
(See "The Great Barrier," production article, Feb. 6,'37, p. 20; exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; May 1,'37, p. 81; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 17,'37, p. 90; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, p. 94; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)
Strangers On a Honeymoon (G) 3615	C. Cummings-Noah Berry	Dec.	15,'36	67.Jan. 9,'37
Talk of the Devil (G) 3607	Ricardo Cortez-Sally Eilers	June	1,'37	76.May 22,'37
Tenth Man, The (G) 3622	John Lodge-Antoinette Cellier	May	15,'37	65.Aug. 29,'36
Two of Us 3619	Jack Hulbert-Gina Malo	July	10,'37	64
Where There's a Will 3624	Will Hay	July	26,'37	74
Woman Alone, The (G) 3601	Sylvia Sidney-John Loder	Jan.	12,'37	76.Jan. 2,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Sabotage.")
You're In the Army Now (G) 3620	Wallace Ford-Anna Lee	Mar.	1,'37	73.Feb. 20,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "O. H. M. S.")

Coming

Dr. Syn ..... Geo. Arliss-Margaret Lockwood
Girl Was Young, The ..... Nova Pilbeam
Look Out for Love ..... Anna Neagle-T. Carminati
Non Stop New York ..... Anna Lee-Desmond Tester
Sailing Along ..... Jessie Matthews-Jack Whiting

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Days (G) 147	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Jan.	30,'37	52.Feb. 13,'37
Bank Alarm 139	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	June	25,'37	63
Boots of Destiny 204	Ken Maynard-Claire Dodd	July	23,'37†	56
Captain Calamity 128	George Houston-Movita	Nov.	29,'36	66
Forever Yours (G) 155	Benjamino Gigli	May	15,'37	70½.June 12,'37
Girl Loves Boy 124	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	27,'37	77
Girl Said No, The (G) 201	Robt. Armstrong-Irene Hervey	July	16,'37†	76½.May 29,'37
Gold Racket, The (G) 138	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Apr.	10,'37	65½.May 1,'37
Great Guy (G) 101	James Cagney-Mae Clarke	Jan.	2,'37	73.Dec. 19,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 74; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 74, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81; May 22,'37, p. 88.)
Hats Off (G) 108	Mae Clarke-John Payne	Dec.	6,'37	66½.Jan. 2,'37
Headin' for the Rio Grande (G) 146	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Dec.	20,'36	61.Dec. 12,'36
Here's Flash Casey 211	Eric Linden-Boots Mallory	Sept.	10,'37†
Hideout in the Alps 199	Jane Baxter-Anthony Bushell	July	23,'37	75.Oct. 10,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "Dusty Ermine.")
Hittin' the Trail 149	Tex Ritter-Jerry Bergh	Apr.	3,'37	58
Juggernaut (A) 154	Boris Karloff-Joan Wyndham	Apr.	30,'37	64.Oct. 17,'36
Killers of the Sea (G) 135	Capt. Wallace Casewell	May	8,'37	49.May 15,'37
Love Takes Flight (G) 206	Bruce Cabot-Beatrice Roberts	Aug.	13,'37†	71.Aug. 7,'37
Man In the Mirror, The (A) 112	E. E. Horton-Genevieve Tobin	Apr.	24,'37	71½.Jan. 16,'37
Mystery of the Hooded Horsemen 151	Tex Ritter-Iris Meredith	Aug.	6,'37	60
Navy Spy 137	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Mar.	13,'37	56
Riders of the Rockies 150	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	July	2,'37	66
Romance and Riches (G) 153	Cary Grant-Mary Brian	Feb.	27,'37	58½.Aug. 28,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "The Amazing Quest.")
Scotland Yard Commands (G) 152	Clive Brook-V. Hopper	Jan.	23,'37	61.Feb. 20,'37
Shadow Strikes, The (G) 202	Rod La Rocque-Lynn Anders	July	9,'37†	61.July 17,'37
Sing, Cowboy, Sing (G) 145	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	May	22,'37	59.June 5,'37
Small Town Boy, The 205	Stuart Erwin-Joyce Compton	July	30,'37†	61
Something to Sing About (G) 210	James Cagney-E. Daw	Sept.	3,'37†	*90.Sept. 4,'37
Song of the Gringo (G) 144	Tex Ritter-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	22,'36	62.Nov. 14,'36
Sweetheart of the Navy 123	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	June	18,'37	61
Trailing Trouble 208	Ken Maynard	Aug.	27,'37†
Trouble In Texas (G) 148	Tex Ritter	Mar.	6,'37	63.Mar. 13,'37
Two Who Dared (A) 113	Anna Sten-Henry Wilcoxon	May	8,'37	73.June 6,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "A Woman Alone.")
23½ Hours Leave (G) 103	James Ellison-Terry Walker	Mar.	20,'37	72½.Mar. 6,'37
We're in the Legion Now (G) 129	Reginald Denny-Esther Ralston	Jan.	16,'37	55½.Feb. 15,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "Rest Cure.")
White Legion, The (G) 120	Tala Birell-Ian Keith	Oct.	25,'36	81.Oct. 24,'36
Yellow Cargo (G) 136	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Nov.	8,'36	63.Nov. 14,'36

Coming

Damaged Goods 175 ..... Pedro de Cordoba ..... 60.July 10,'37
Death Takes a Cruise
Gorgeous ..... Anna Sten
He Wanted to Marry ..... Wallace Ford-Isabel Jewell
Honolulu Honeymoon
King of the Sierras 207 ..... Rex-Shiek ..... Oct. 1,'37†
Law of the Golden West ..... Tex Ritter
Love Me Again ..... Anna Sten
Love Runs Into Money
Make Up (G) ..... Nils Asther-June Clyde ..... 70.July 10,'37
Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel ..... Stuart Erwin-Helen Chandler
Murder at the Rancho ..... Ken Meynard
Orchid Girl ..... Anna Sten
Painter in the Sky
Photo Finish ..... Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt
Renfrew of the Royal Mounted 212 ..... Jimmy Newell-Carol Hughes ..... Sept. 17,'37†
Snow Covered Wagons
Spy of Napoleon (G) ..... R. Barthelmess-D. Haas ..... 98.Oct. 10,'36
Stars and Stripes
Tex Rides with the Boy Scouts 214 ..... Tex Ritter ..... Sept. 24,'37†
Wallaby Jim of the Islands 213 ..... Geo. Houston-Ruth Coleman ..... Sept. 24,'37†

GUARANTEED

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Badge of Honor	Buster Crabbe	Oct.	1,'36
Crime Patrol	Ray Walker-Geneva Mitchell	Mar.	1,'37	63
Oil Raider, The	Buster Crabbe	Nov.	1,'36
Phantom Ship	Bela Lugosi-Shirley Grey	Oct.	15,'36	66

Samuel Goldwyn's

PRODUCTION OF

"DEAD END"

in its first 3 days at the United Artists Theatre in Chicago broke both attendance and money records established in recent years.

Samuel Goldwyn's

PRODUCTION OF

"DEAD END"

at the Rivoli Theatre in New York City, after a first week that shattered attendance records as far back as Christmas, 1929, now in its third week broke all second week attendance records in the history of the theatre.

Released thru UNITED ARTISTS

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
White Ivory	Jack Mulhall	Dec.	1,'36 69

Coming

Early Bird, The	Richard Hayward
Irish and Proud of It	Richard Hayward

HOFFBERG

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Calling All Cars	Jack LaRue-Lillian Miles	Feb.	10,'37 62	Jan. 26,'35
Fire Trap, The	Norman Foster-Evalyn Knapp	Jan.	10,'37 58	Dec. 7,'35
Girl from Maxim's	Leslie Hensen-Frances Day	Oct.	1,'36 65	Oct. 14,'33
Inyaah	Borneo Expedition	Nov.	15,'36† 70
Phantom of Santa Fe	Nina Quartaro-Norman Kerry	Aug.	1,'37† 75
Rescue Squad	Ralph Forbes-Sheila Terry	Feb.	10,'37 82
Tenderfoot Goes West, A	Jack LaRue-Russell Gleason	Oct.	15,'36 82
Uncle from America	Czeck Film	Dec.	15,'36 90
Wedding of Palo, The (G)	Rasmussen's Eskimo Drama	Mar.	1,'37 85	Mar. 20,'37

Coming

Ada Don't Do That	Polish Film
Business in Distress	Czeck Film
I Give My Heart (A)	Gitta Alpar		85	Nov. 16,'35
Invitation to the Waltz (G)	Lilian Harvey		80	Nov. 16,'35
Kathleen Mavourneen	Sally O'Neil-Irish Cast
Maid of the Mountains, The (G)	Harry Welchman		80	Apr. 22,'33
Song of the Lark	Czeck Film
Student's Romance, The (G)	Patric Knowles		78	Aug. 10,'35
Voice of India	Hoefler Expedition	Oct.	1,'37† 70

HUNGARIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Exception Granted	Imre Raday-Klari Tolnay	June	11,'37 9	rls.
Extra, Extra!	Gy. Kabos	Feb.	20,'37 8	rls.
Honeymoon On Cut-Rate	Paul Javor-I. Agai	Feb.	6,'37 8	rls.
Pay, Madame	Paul Javor	May	30,'37 8	rls.

Coming

Affair of Honor	Gy. Kabos	Sept.	11,'37† 9	rls.
All Men Are Wild	Paul Javor	Oct.	21,'37† 9	rls.
Anniversary	Imre Raday-Ida Turay	Dec.	10,'37† 10	rls.
Bride from Toreske	Paul Javor	Oct.	1,'37† 10	rls.
Eighty Miles an Hour	Gy Kabos-M. Erdely	Nov.	19,'37† 8	rls.
Hotel Springtime	Gy Kabos-Anna Tokes	Nov.	30,'37† 10	rls.
I Picked You for My Husband	Paul Javor	Nov.	4,'37† 9	rls.
It Happened In Budapest	Gy Kabos-Zita Perezel	Sept.	21,'37† 9	rls.
Sport of Love, The	Gy Kabos-Ida Turay	Dec.	24,'37† 8	rls.
Two Prisoners	Paul Javor	Oct.	12,'37† 10	rls.

IMPERIAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broken Blossoms (A)	Dolly Haas-E. Williams	Dec.	1,'36 80	June 6,'36
High Hat	Frank Luther-Dorothy Dare	Jan.	1,'37 90
Rich Relations	Ralph Forbes-Frances Grant	Feb.	1,'37 90
She Shall Have Music	Jack Hylton-June Clyde	Nov.	1,'36 90	Dec. 1,'35
With Pleasure, Madame	Conrad Nagel-Marta Labarr	Apr.	15,'37 90

Coming

Back from Reno
Beauty Racket
Dead March, The	Boake Carter	Sept.	15,'37†
Deerslayer
Honor Among Women
I Demand Payment	Betty Burgess-Jack LaRue
Night of Crime
Sky Girl

INVINCIBLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ellis Island	Donald Cook-Peggy Shannon	Nov.	5,'36 96

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
After the Thin Man (G) 713	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Dec.	25,'36 112	Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; May 1,'37, p. 80; June 5,'37, p. 64.)
All American Chump (G) 705	Stuart Erwin-Betty Furness	Oct.	16,'36 64	Sept. 5,'36
April Romance (G) 708	Richard Tauber	Nov.	20,'36 82	Feb. 13,'37
Bad Guy (G) 743	Bruce Cabot-Virginia Grey	Aug.	27,'37 69	Aug. 28,'37
Between Two Women (G) 757	Virginia Bruce-Franchot Tone	July	9,'37 89	July 3,'37
Big City (A) 801	Spencer Tracy-Luise Rainer	Sept.	3,'37† 80	Sept. 4,'37
Born to Dance (G) 709	Eleanor Powell-James Stewart	Nov.	27,'36 108	Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 23,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, p. 77.)
Broadway Melody of 1938 (G) 739	Eleanor Powell-Robt. Taylor	Aug.	20,'37 110	Aug. 21,'37
Camille (A) 639	Greta Garbo-Robert Taylor	Jan.	1,'37 108	Dec. 19,'36
(See production article, Dec. 24,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 8,'37, p. 107; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78; Mar. 27,'37, p. 78.)
Captains Courageous (G) 717	F. Bartholomew-Spencer Tracy	June	25,'37 116	Apr. 3,'37
(See production articles, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 91, 92; Aug. 21,'37, pp. 76, 78; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 95, 96, 97.)
Dangerous Number (G) 718	Robert Young-Ann Sothern	Jan.	22,'37 71	Feb. 6,'37
Day at the Races, A (G) 730	Marx Brothers-Allan Jones	June	11,'37 111	June 19,'37
(See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 86; July 17,'37, p. 89; Apr. 7,'37, p. 91.)
(G) 733	William Powell-Luise Rainer	July	2,'37 89	July 3,'37
Espionage (G) 723	Edmund Lowe-Madge Evans	Feb.	26,'37 67	Mar. 6,'37
Family Affair, A (G) 632	Lionel Barrymore-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	12,'37 69	Mar. 20,'37
General Spanky (G) 714	Spanky McFarland-P. Holmes	Dec.	11,'36 72	Oct. 31,'36
Good Earth, The (A) 741	Paul Muni-Luise Rainer	Aug.	6,'37 139	Feb. 6,'37
Emperor's Candlesticks, The (See production article, July 11,'36, p. 76; exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 69; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92.)	Myrna Loy-Spencer Tracy	Apr.	23,'37 76	Apr. 24,'37
Good Old Soak (G) 728	Wallace Beery-Betty Furness	Apr.	23,'37 76	Apr. 24,'37
(Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67; June 26,'37, p. 121.)
Hell Divers (re-issue) (G)	Clark Gable-Wallace Beery	June	4,'37 109	Dec. 26,'31
Last of Mrs. Cheyney, The 719	Joan Crawford-William Powell	Feb.	19,'37 98	Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 94; June 12,'37, p. 92.)
Libeled Lady (G) 648	Jean Harlow-William Powell-Myrna Loy-Spencer Tracy	Oct.	9,'36 98	Oct. 17,'36
London By Night (G) 740	George Murphy-Rita Johnson	July	30,'37 69	July 24,'37
Longest Night, The (G) 704	Robert Young-Florence Rice	Oct.	2,'36 51	Oct. 31,'36
Love on the Run (G) 654	Clark Gable-Joan Crawford	Nov.	20,'36 81	Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 64; Mar. 27,'37, p. 82.)
Mad Holiday (G) 706	Elissa Landi-Edmund Lowe	Nov.	13,'36 71	Nov. 14,'36
Mama Steps Out (G) 721	Guy Kibbee-Alice Brady	Feb.	5,'37 65	Feb. 8,'37
Manhattan Melodrama (re-issue) (G)	C. Gable-M. Loy-W. Powell	July	2,'37 90	Apr. 28,'34
Man of the People (G) 716	Joseph Calleia-Florence Rice	Jan.	29,'37 81	Jan. 30,'37
Married Before Breakfast (G) 736	Robt. Young-Florence Rice	June	18,'37 70	June 26,'37
Maytime (G) 720	J. MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Mar.	26,'37 132	Mar. 13,'37
(Musical analysis: Mar. 27,'37, p. 15; exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 64; Apr. 17,'37, p. 78; May 22,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, pp. 68, 69; July 24,'37, p. 80.)
Mister Cinderella 707	Jack Haley-Betty Furness	Oct.	23,'36 78
Naughty Marietta (re-issue) (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-N. Eddy	Aug.	6,'37 105	Mar. 2,'35
Night Must Fall (A) 727	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Apr.	30,'37 117	Apr. 10,'37
Nobody's Baby (G) 729	Patsy Kelly-Robt. Armstrong	Apr.	23,'37 67	Feb. 6,'37
Parnell (G) 722	Clark Gable-Myrna Loy	June	4,'37 119	June 12,'37
(See production article, Feb. 13,'37, p. 16.)
Personal Property (G) 725	Jean Harlow-Robert Taylor	Mar.	19,'37 84	Mar. 20,'37
(Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 79; June 12,'37, p. 93.)
Pick a Star (G) 735	Jack Haley-Patsy Kelly	May	21,'37 70	Apr. 24,'37
Romeo and Juliet (G) 1100	Norma Shearer-Leslie Howard	Apr.	16,'37 127	July 18,'36
(See production article, Mar. 28,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Jan. 23,'37, p. 79; Jan. 3,'37, p. 83; Feb. 6,'37, p. 77; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 79; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 80; May 8,'37, p. 74; May 29,'37, p. 70; June 26,'37, pp. 118, 119, 123; July 3,'37, pp. 69, 70; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Saratoga (G) 742	Clark Gable-Jean Harlow	July	23,'37 94	July 24,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)
Sinner Take All (A) 712	Bruce Cabot-Margaret Lindsay	Dec.	18,'36 74	Dec. 18,'36
Song of the City (G) 724	Dean Jeffries-Margaret Lindsay	Apr.	2,'37 69	Mar. 27,'37
Tarzan Escapes (G) 711	J. Weissmuller-M. O'Sullivan	Nov.	8,'36 89	Nov. 7,'36
(Exploitation: Nov. 28,'36, p. 96; Dec. 26,'36, p. 75; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85.)
They Gave Him a Gun (A) 731	S. Tracy-G. George-F. Tone	May	14,'37 94	May 15,'37
Thirteenth Chair, The (G) 732	Madge Evans-Henry Daniell	May	7,'37 66	May 8,'37
Topper (G) 738	Constance Bennett-Gary Grant	July	16,'37 97	July 17,'37
Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 75; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 95, 97.)
Trader Horn (re-issue) (G)	Harry Carey-Edwina Booth	May	reissue 120	Jan. 24,'31
Under Cover of Night (G) 715	Edmund Lowe-Florence Rice	Jan.	8,'37 72	Jan. 9,'37
Way Out West (G) 734	Laurel and Hardy	Apr.	16,'37 64	Jan. 2,'37
(Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 92.)
Women Men Marry, The 802	J. Hutchinson-George Murphy	Sept.	10,'37†

Coming

Bride Wore Red, The 804	Joan Crawford-Franchot Tone	Sept.	24,'37†
Conquest	Greta Garbo-Charles Boyer	Oct.	1,'37†
Double Wedding	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Oct.	15,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)
Firefly, The (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-Allan Jones		138	July 24,'37
Last Gangster, The	E. G. Robinson-Andrea Marion
Live, Love and Learn	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Oct.	29,'37†
Madame X	Gladys George-Warren William	Oct.	22,'37†
My Dear Miss Aldrich 803	Edna May Oliver-W. Pidgeon	Sept.	17,'37†
Rosalie	Eleanor Powell-Nelson Eddy
Thoroughbreds Don't Cry	Mickey Rooney-Sophie Tucker

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Atlantic Flight	Dick Merrill-Paula Stone	Aug.	25,'37†
Blazing Barriers	Edw. Arnold, Jr.-F. McKinney	July	4,'37†
God's Country and the Man	Tom Keene		52	2,'37†
Hoosier Schoolboy (G)	Mickey Rooney-Anne Nagel	July	7,'37†	62 July 3,'37
Legion of Missing Men	Ralph Forbes	July	28,'37†
Outer Gate	Ralph Morgan-Kay Linaker	Aug.	4,'37†
Paradise Isle (G)	Warren Hull-Movita	July	21,'37†	73 Aug. 14,'37
Riders of the Dawn (G)	Jack Randall-Peggy Keys	July	14,'37†	55 Aug. 21,'37
Shadows of the Orient (G)	Regis Toomey-Esther Ralston	Aug.	18,'37†	65 Feb. 15,'36
Thirteenth Man	Weldon Heyburn-I. Courtney	June	30,'37†

Coming

Boy of the Streets	Jackie Cooper	Nov.	10,'37†
Bride for Henry, A	Anne Nagel-Neil Hamilton	Sept.	29,'37†
Code of the Range	Tim McCoy	Oct.	13,'37†
Country Beyond, The	Tom Keene
County Fair, The
Danger Valley	Jack Randall	Nov.	3,'37†
Federal Bullets		Oct.	6,'37†
Land of the Sky Blue Water	Movita
Last Frontier, The	Jack Randall
Luck of Roaring Camp	Owen Davis, Jr.-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	17,'37†
Marines Are Here, The
Numbered Woman		Oct.	20,'37†
Romance of the Limberlost
Stars Over Arizona	Jack Randall-Kathleen Eliot	Sept.	22,'37†
Telephone Operator

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Accusing Finger (G) 3614	Paul Kelly-Marsha Hunt	Oct.	23,'36	62.Nov. 31,'36
Along Came Love (G) 3616	Irene Hervey-Chas. Starrett	Nov.	6,'36	66.Feb. 20,'37
Artists and Models (G) 3702	Jack Benny-Gail Patrick	Aug.	12,'37†	97.Aug. 7,'37
Big Broadcast of 1937, The (G) 3612	Jack Benny-Burns & Allen	Oct.	9,'36	100 Oct. 10,'36
Borderland (G) 3608	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Feb.	26,'37	62.Feb. 13,'37
Blonde Trouble 3701	Johnny Downs-E. Whitney	Aug.	6,'37†	67.Aug. 7,'37
Bulldog Drummond Escapes (G) 3626	Ray Milland-Heather Angel	Jan.	22,'37	65.Mar. 13,'37
Champagne Waltz (G) 3628 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, pp. 79, 80; July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 87.)	Gladys Swarthout-F. MacMurray	Jan.	29,'37	85.Dec. 12,'36
Clarence 3632 (See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 26,'36.)	Roscoe Karns-Charlotte Wynters	Feb.	12,'37
College Holiday (G) 3623 (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, pp. 88, 92; Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)	Jack Benny-Burns & Allen	Dec.	25,'36	87.Dec. 26,'36
Crime Nobody Saw, The (G) 3635	Lew Ayres-Ruth Coleman	Mar.	12,'37	60.Apr. 17,'37
Doctor's Diary, A (G) 3627	John Trent-Helen Burgess	Jan.	15,'37	77.Jan. 30,'37
Easy Living (G) 3652	Jean Arthur-Edw. Arnold	July	30,'37	88.July 10,'37
Easy to Take 3617 (See "In the Cutting Room." Oct. 3,'36.)	Marsha Hunt-John Howard	Nov.	6,'36	67
Exclusive (G) 3653 (See "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)	F. MacMurray-Frances Farmer	July	30,'37	85.July 31,'37
Forlorn River (G) 3658	June Martel-Larry Crabbe	July	2,'37	56.July 3,'37
Girl from Scotland Yard 3638	Karen Morley-Robert Baldwin	Apr.	2,'37	61
Go West, Young Man (A) 3618 (Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 72; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 30,'37, p. 84.)	Mae West-Randolph Scott	Nov.	13,'36	80.Nov. 14,'36
Great Gambini, The (G) 3648	Akim Tamiroff-Marian Marsh	June	25,'37	70.July 24,'37
Her Husband Lies (A) 3636	Ricardo Cortez-Gail Patrick	Mar.	19,'37	76.Mar. 20,'37
Hideaway Girl (G) 3619	Martha Raye-Robt. Cummings	Nov.	20,'36	72.Nov. 14,'36
Hills of Old Wyoming (G) 3669	William Boyd-George Hayes	Apr.	16,'37	79.Apr. 17,'37
Hopalong Cassidy Returns (G) 3666	William Boyd-Evelyn Brent	Oct.	23,'36	75.Aug. 22,'36
Hopalong Rides Again (G) 3753	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept.	3,'37†	65.Aug. 21,'37
Hotel Haywire (G) 3645	Leo Carrillo-Mary Carlisle	June	4,'37	66.May 22,'37
I Met Him in Paris (G) 3644	Claudette Colbert-M. Douglas	May	28,'37	86.May 29,'37
Interns Can't Take Money (A) 3639 (Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Apr.	9,'37	79.Apr. 17,'37
John Meade's Woman (A) 3630	Edw. Arnold-Francine Larimore	Feb.	26,'37	87.Feb. 27,'37
Jungle Princess, The (G) 3620	Ray Milland-Dorothy Lamour	Nov.	27,'36	84.Nov. 28,'36
King of Gamblers (A) 3640	Lloyd Nolan-Claire Trevor	Apr.	23,'37	78.Apr. 24,'37
Last Train from Madrid (G) 3646	Lew Ayres-Dorothy Lamour	June	11,'37	77.June 12,'37
Let's Make a Million (G) 3622	Edward Everett Horton	Dec.	18,'36	80.Feb. 27,'37
Maid of Salem (G) 3634 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Apr. 24,'37, p. 92; May 22,'37, p. 89.)	C. Colbert-Fred MacMurray	Feb.	19,'37	86.Jan. 30,'37
Make Way for Tomorrow (G) 3641 (Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 82.)	Beulah Bondi-Victor Moore	Apr.	30,'37	92.May 1,'37
Midnight Madonna (G) 3649	Warren William-Madg Correll	July	2,'37	65.June 12,'37
Mind Your Own Business (G) 3625	Charles Ruggles-Alice Brady	Jan.	8,'37	75.Dec. 19,'36
Mountain Music (G) 8647 (Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 89; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92; Sept. 4,'37, p. 95.)	Bob Burns-Martha Raye	June	18,'37	77.June 19,'37
Murder Goes to College (G) 3633	Roscoe Karns-Marsha Hunt	Mar.	5,'37	71.Mar. 6,'37
Night of Mystery, A (A) 3643	Roscoe Karns-Ruth Coleman	May	21,'37	75.May 22,'37
North of the Rio Grande (G) 3670	William Boyd-George Hayes	June	25,'37	70.June 26,'37
On Such a Night (A)	Karen Morley-Grant Richards	Aug.	27,'37†	73.Aug. 21,'37
Outcast (G) 3629	Warren William-Karen Morley	Feb.	5,'37	79.Feb. 6,'37
Plainsman, The (G) 3624 (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 20,'37, p. 82; Feb. 27,'37, p. 83; Mar. 6,'37, p. 91; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 80, 82, 83; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 24,'37, p. 93; May 29,'37, p. 68; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Gary Cooper-Jean Arthur	Jan.	1,'37	113.Nov. 28,'36
Rustlers' Valley (G) 3671	William Boyd-George Hayes	July	23,'37	60.July 10,'37
Scrooge (G) 3527	Seymour Hicks-Donald Calthrop	Dec.	27,'36	73.Dec. 21,'35
She Asked for It (G)	Wm. Gargan-Orien Heyward	Sept.	10,'37†	80.Sept. 4,'37
She's No Lady (G)	Ann Dvorak-John Trent	Aug.	20,'37†	62.Aug. 7,'37
Sophie Lang Goes West (G) 3706	Gert. Michael-Larry Crabbe	Sept.	10,'37†	60.Sept. 4,'37
Souls at Sea (G) (See production article, Jan. 30,'37, p. 18.)	Gary Cooper-George Raft	Sept.	3,'37†	92.Aug. 14,'37
Swing High, Swing Low (G) 3634 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67.)	Carole Lombard-F. MacMurray	Mar.	12,'37	97.Mar. 20,'37
Trail Dust (G) 3667	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Dec.	11,'36	77.Jan. 2,'37
Turn Off the Moon (G) 3642	Chas. Ruggles-Eleanore Whitney	May	14,'37	80.May 29,'37
Valiant Is the Word for Carrie (A) 3611 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)	Gladys George-Arline Judge	Oct.	2,'36	109.Sept. 26,'36
Waikiki Wedding (G) 3637 (Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 81; May 15,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, pp. 92, 93, July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 80; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 83; Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)	Bing Crosby-Shirley Ross	Mar.	26,'37	89.Apr. 3,'37
Wedding Present (G) 3613 (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 78.)	Joan Bennett-Cary Grant	Oct.	16,'36	81.Oct. 8,'36
Wild Money 3631	Edward Everett Horton	July	9,'37	69

Coming

Title	Star
Angel (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Marlene Dietrich-H. Marshall
Barrier, The	Jimmy Ellison-Jean Parker
Blossoms of Broadway	Edward Arnold-Shirley Ross
Born to the West	John Wayne-Marsha Hunt
Buccaneer, The	Fredric March-Franciska Gaal
Bulldog Drummond Comes Back	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell
City Hall Scandal	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell
Double Or Nothing (G) 3707	Bing Crosby-Martha Raye
Ebb Tide	Oscar Hamolka-Frances Farmer
High, Wide and Handsome (G)	Irene Dunne-Randolph Scott
Hold 'Em Navy	Lew Ayres-Mary Carlisle
Love on Toast	Stella Ardler-John Payne
Partners in Crime	Lynne Overman-Roscoe Karns
Riders of the Panamints	Gilbert Roland-Marsha Hunt
Texas Trail	William Boyd-George Hayes
This Way Please	C. (Buddy) Rogers-Betty Grable
Thrill of a Lifetime	Eleanore Whitney-Johnny Downs
True Confession	C. Lombard-Fred MacMurray
Wells Fargo	Joel McCrea-Frances Dee
You and Me	Sylvia Sidney-George Raft

RAY KIRKWOOD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventurous Rogue	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Jan.	3,'37†
El Justiciero	Ernesto Guillen	Jan.	3,'37†
Fighting Vagabonds	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Feb.	19,'37†
Masked Devil, The	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Apr.	4,'37†

RELIABLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush Valley	Bob Custer	Nov.	1,'36	56
Santa Fe Rides	Bob Custer	Feb.	25,'37	58
Silver Trail	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Rex Lease	Feb.	28,'37	56
Vengeance of Rannah	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Bob Custer	Nov.	6,'36	56

Coming

Title	Star
Apache Trail	Bob Custer
Frontier Fury	Bob Custer
Outlaw River	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.
Prairie Terror	Bob Custer
Thundering Stampede	Bob Custer

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Cappy Ricks, The (G) 6027	Walter Brennan-Mary Brian	May	24,'37	56.June 5,'37
All Over Town (G) 6020	Olson and Johnson	Sept.	8,'37	60 Aug. 28,'37
Bar Z Bad Men 6323	Johnny Mack Brown-L. January	Jan.	20,'37	51
Beware of Ladies (G) 6011 (See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 24,'36.)	Donald Cook-Judith Allen	Dec.	21,'36	61.Feb. 13,'37
Big Show, The 6301	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov.	16,'36	70
Bill Cracks Down (G) 6028	Grant Withers-Beatrice Roberts	Mar.	22,'37	59.Mar. 27,'37
Bold Caballero, The (G) 6101	Bob Livingston-Heather Angel	Jan.	18,'37	71.Dec. 5,'36
Boothill Brigade 6328	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Aug.	2,'37	53
Border Phantom 6333	Bob Steele-Harley Wood	Dec.	28,'36	58
Bulldog Drummond at Bay (G) 6025	John Lodge-Dorothy Mackaill	July	31,'37	62.July 31,'37
Cavalry 6331	Bob Steele-Frances Grant	Oct.	14,'36	60
Circus Girl 6014 (See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 13,'37.)	June Travis-Bob Livingston	Mar.	1,'37	62
Come On, Cowboys (G) 6317	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May	24,'37	57.May 29,'37
Country Gentlemen (G) 6010	Olsen and Johnson	Nov.	9,'36	68.Oct. 31,'36
Dangerous Holiday (G) 6026	Ra Hould-Hedda Hopper	June	7,'37	57.July 31,'37
Doomed at Sundown 6337	Bob Steele-Lorraine Hayes	June	7,'37	53
Gambling Terror, The 6324	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Feb.	15,'37	53
Ghost Town Gold 6312	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Oct.	26,'36	55
Git Along Little Dogies (G) 6302	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Mar.	22,'37	62.Apr. 3,'37
Gun Lords of Stirrup Basin 6336	Bob Steel-Louise Stanley	May	10,'37	53
Gun Ranger, The 6332	Bob Steele-Eleanor Stewart	Nov.	19,'36	49
Gunsmoke Ranch 6316	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May	5,'37	56
Guns in the Dark 6326	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Apr.	14,'37	56
Happy-Go-Lucky (G) 6013	Phil Regan-Evelyn Venable	Dec.	14,'36	68.Dec. 12,'36
Heart of the Rockies 7111 (Expleitation: July 10,'37, p. 86.)	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Sept.	6,'37†
Hit the Saddle 6315	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Mar.	3,'37	57
It Could Happen to You 6016 (See "In the Cutting Room," May 15,'37.)	Alan Baxter-Andrea Leeds	June	28,'37	64
Jim Hanvey, Detective 6005	Guy Kibbee-Tom Brown	Apr.	5,'37	67.Mar. 27,'37
Join the Marines (G) 6003	June Travis-Paul Kelly	Jan.	25,'37	67.Feb. 6,'37
Larceny on the Air (G) 6030	Grace Bradley-Bob Livingston	Jan.	11,'37	60.Jan. 18,'37
Lawless Land 6322	Johnny Mack Brown-L. Stanley	Nov.	23,'36	55
Law Man Is Born, A 6327	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	June	21,'37	61
Lightnin' Crandall 6335	Bob Steele-Lois January	Mar.	24,'37	60
Man Betrayed, A (G) 6012	Eddie Nugent-Kay Hughes	Dec.	28,'36	56.Jan. 16,'37
Mandarin Mystery, The (G) 6031	Eddie Quillan-Charlotte Henry	Dec.	7,'36	63.Nov. 29,'36
Meet the Boy Friend (G) 6018	Carol Hughes-David Carlyle	July	12,'37	63.July 31,'37
Michael O'Halloran (Spec.) (See "In the Cuting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)	Wynne Gibson-Warren Hull	May	15,'37	67
Navy Blues (G) 6015	Mary Brian-Dick Purcell	Apr.	19,'37	68.May 1,'37
Old Corral, The 6305 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Dec.	21,'36	56
Paradise Express (G) 6029	Grant Withers-Dorothy Appleby	Feb.	22,'37	58.Mar. 13,'37
President's Mystery, The (G) 6007	Henry Wilcoxon-Betty Furness	Oct.	8,'36	78.Oct. 8,'36
Public Cowboy No. 1 7105	Gene Autry-Ann Rutherford	Aug.	23,'37†
Range Defenders (G) 6318	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	June	30,'37	56.July 24,'37
Red Rope, The 6338	Bob Steele-Lois January	July	19,'37	60

DAVID O.

THE Prisoner

AT RADIO CITY

on SUNDAY, September

on MONDAY, September

For the Week . . . . .

RELEASED THRU

SELZNICK'S

r of Zenda

MUSIC HALL

5th $21,400

Broke every Sunday record for both attendance and cash that the theatre has ever enjoyed.

6th $22,109

The largest day's receipts that the theatre ever had where it did not include a midnight show.

. 'way Over $125,000

UNITED ARTISTS

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Rhythm in the Clouds (G)
6017	Warren Hull-Patricia Ellis	June 21,'37	62	July 3,'37
Riders of the Whistling Skull
6314	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Jan. 4,'37	55
Rearin' Lead 6313	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Dec. 9,'36	53
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Rootin' Tootin Rhythm (G)
6307	Gene Autry-Armida	May 12,'37	60	May 8,'37
Round-up Time in Texas 6306	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb. 25,'37	58
Sea Racketeers (G) 6019	Weldon Heyburn-Jeanne Madden	Aug. 16,'37	64	Aug. 14,'37
Sheik Steps Out, The (G) 6006	Ramon Novarro-Lola Lane	Sept. 6,'37	*66	July 31,'37
Trail of Vengeance 6325	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Mar. 29,'37	54
Trusted Outlaw, The 6334	Bob Steele-Lois January	Feb. 1,'37	52
Two Wise Maids (G) 6004	Alison Skipworth-Polly Moran	Feb. 15,'37	68	Feb. 6,'37
Yodelin' Kid from Pine Ridge (G) 6308	Gene Autry-Betty Bronson	June 14,'37	60	June 26,'37

Coming

Arizona Gunfighter 7121	Bob Steele-Jean Carmen	Sept. 20,'37†
Boots and Saddles	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Oct. 4,'37†
Duke Comes Back, The	Allen Lane-Heather Angel
Escape by Night (G) 7015	Wm. Hall-Anne Nagel	Sept. 20,'37†	*72	Sept. 4,'37
Manhattan Merry-Go-Round	Phil Regan-Ann Dvorak
Portia on Trial 6001	Frieda Inescort-Walter Abel
Trigger Trio 7112	Ray Corrigan-Max Terhune	Oct. 18,'37†
Wrong Road, The	Richard Cromwell-Helen Mack	Sept. 30,'37†
Youth on Parole 6022	Gordon Oliver-Marian Marsh	Oct. 4,'37

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Annapolis Salute (G) 802	James Ellison-Marsha Hunt	Sept. 10,'37†	*60	Aug. 21,'37
Behind the Headlines (G) 727	Lee Tracy-Diana Gibson	May 14,'37	58	June 12,'37
Big Shot, The (G) 735	Guy Kibbee-Cora Witherspoon	July 23,'37	60	July 31,'37
Border Cafe (G) 730	John Beal-Armida	June 4,'37	67	May 29,'37
China Passage (G) 718	Constance Worth-V. Haworth	Mar. 12,'37	65	Apr. 24,'37
Criminal Lawyer (G) 713	Lee Tracy-Margot Grahame	Jan. 29,'37	72	Apr. 10,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)
Don't Tell the Wife (G) 720	Guy Kibbee-Una Merkel	Mar. 5,'37	62	Feb. 27,'37
Flight from Glory (G)	Chester Morris-Whitney Bourne	Aug. 20,'37	*60	Aug. 14,'37
Hideaway (G)	Fred Stone-Marjorie Lord	Aug. 13,'37	*60	July 31,'37
Hollywood Cowboy (G) 733	George O'Brien-Cecilia Parker	May 28,'37	64	July 31,'37
Life of the Party, The (G) 801	Gene Raymond-Harriet Hilliard	Sept. 3,'37†	*79	Aug. 28,'37
Make a Wish (G) 745	Bobby Breen-Basil Rathbone	Aug. 27,'37	*70	Sept. 4,'37
Make Way for a Lady (G) 705	Anne Shirley-Herbert Marshall	Nov. 13,'36	65	Dec. 19,'36
Man Who Found Himself, The (G) 722	John Beal-Joan Fontaine	Apr. 2,'37	67	Mar. 13,'37
Meet the Missus (G) 729	Victor Moore-Helen Broderick	June 4,'37	60	May 29,'37
New Faces of 1937 (G) 732	Joe Penner-Harriet Hilliard	July 2,'37	100	July 10,'37
Night Waitress (G) 711	Margot Grahame-Gordon Jones	Dec. 18,'36	57	Jan. 2,'37
On Again—Off Again (G) 725	Wheeler and Woolsey	July 9,'37	68	July 17,'37
Outcasts of Poker Flat, The (G) 710	Preston Foster-Jean Muir	Apr. 16,'37	68	Mar. 20,'37
Park Avenue Logger (G) 787	George O'Brien-Beatrice Roberts	Feb. 26,'37	65	Jan. 30,'37
Plot Thickens, The (G) 641	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts	Dec. 11,'36	69	Nov. 21,'36
Plough and the Stars, The (G) 640	Barbara Stanwyck-P. Foster	Jan. 15,'37	67	Jan. 2,'37
(See production article, Aug. 22,'36, p. 16.)
Quality Street (G) 709	Kath. Hepburn-Franchot Tone	Mar. 26,'37	84	Mar. 30,'37
Racing Lady (G) 707	Ann Dvorak-Smith Ballew	Jan. 29,'37	59	Dec. 12,'36
Rainbow on the River (G) 714	Bobby Breen-May Robson	Dec. 25,'36	88	Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 71.)
Riding On Air (G) 771	Joe E. Brown-Florence Rice	June 18,'37	71	June 12,'37
Sea Devils (G) 714	Victor McLaglen-Preston Foster	Feb. 19,'37	88	Feb. 20,'37
Shall We Dance (G) 724	Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers	May 7,'37	116	May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 85; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Soldier and the Lady, The (A) 717	Anton Walbrook-Eliz. Allan	Apr. 9,'37	85	Feb. 27,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Michael Strogoff.") (Exploitation: Mar. 13,'37, p. 79.)
Super Sleuth (G) 734	Jack Oakie-Ann Sothern	July 16,'37	70	July 17,'37
That Girl from Paris (G) 712	Lily Pons-Gene Raymond	Jan. 22,'37	105	Dec. 19,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)
There Goes My Girl (G) 728	Ann Sothern-Gene Raymond	May 21,'37	74	June 5,'37
They Wanted to Mary (G) 715	Gordon Jones-Betty Furness	Feb. 5,'37	60	Dec. 26,'36
Toast of New York (G) 719	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	July 30,'37	109	July 17,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 96; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)
Too Many Wives (G) 723	Anne Shirley-John Morley	Apr. 9,'37	61	Apr. 17,'37
Wanted: Jane Turner 643	Gloria Stuart-Lee Tracy	Dec. 4,'36	67
(See "General Delivery," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)
We're on the Jury (G) 716	Helen Broderick-Victor Moore	Feb. 12,'37	71	Jan. 23,'37
We Who Are About to Die (G) 639	Preston Foster-Ann Dvorak	Jan. 6,'37	82	Oct. 17,'36
When's Your Birthday? (G) 770	Joe E. Brown-Marian Marsh	Feb. 19,'37	77	Feb. 20,'37
Windjammer 783	George O'Brien-Constance Worth	Aug. 6,'37	58
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 29,'37.)
Winterset (G) 703	Burgess Meredith-Margo	Nov. 20,'36	77	Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 80; Jan. 30,'37, p. 83; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.
Woman I Love, The (G) 721	Paul Muni-Miriam Hopkins	Apr. 23,'37	88	Apr. 24,'37
Woman Rebels, A (A) 642	Kath. Hepburn-H. Marshall	Nov. 8,'36	88	Oct. 31,'36
You Can't Beat Love (G) 731	Preston Foster-Joan Fontaine	June 25,'37	62	June 5,'37
You Can't Buy Luck (G) 726	Vinton Haworth-Helen Mack	Apr. 30,'37	61	May 1,'37

Coming

Breakfast for Two 737	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall	Oct. 22,'37†
Damsel In Distress, A	Fred Astaire-Joan Fontaine
Fight for Your Lady	John Boles-Ida Lupino
Fit for a King (G)	Joe E. Brown-Helen Mack	Oct. 15,'37†	73	Sept. 4,'37
Forty Naughty Girls (G) 803	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts	Sept. 24,'37†	*63	Sept. 4,'37
High Flyers	Wheeler and Woolsey
Love In a Basement	James Dunn-Whitney Bourne
Music for Madame 804	Nino Martini-Joan Fontaine	Oct. 8,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Saturday's Heroes 805	Van Heflin-Marian Marsh
Stage Door 806	Kath. Hepburn-Ginger Rogers	Oct. 8,'37†
(See production article, Aug. 14,'37, p. 16.)
There Goes the Groom 807	Burgess Meredith-Ann Sothern	Oct. 29,'37†
Victoria the Great 851	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook	Sept. 17,'37†

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Melody of the Plains (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Apr. 15,'37	*55	Apr. 10,'37
Singing Buckaroo, The	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan. 15,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)
Three Legionnaires (G)	Robt. Armstrong	General	June 15,'37	*60	Mar. 27,'37
What Price Vengeance? (G)	Lyle Talbot	Rialto	June 1,'37	57	June 12,'37

Coming

Heroes of the Alamo (G)	Earl Hodgins	Sunset	Aug. 19,'37	*75	Aug. 7,'37
Zamboanga (G)	Native Cast			*65	July 17,'37

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Holiday (G) 754	Jane Withers-Robert Kent	June 4,'37	71	May 8,'37
As You Like It (G) 711	Elis. Bergner-Laurence Olivier	Jan. 8,'37	96	Sept. 19,'36
(See production article, June 13,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 79.)
Banjo On My Knee (G) 726	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Dec. 4,'36	95	Dec. 5,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 89.)
Big Business (G) 759	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	June 18,'37	61	Apr. 17,'37
Borneo	Mr. & Mrs. Martin Johnson	Sept. 10,'37†	75½
Born Reckless (G) 758	Rochelle Hudson-Brian Donlevy	July 9,'37	58	June 26,'37
Cafe Metropole (G) 750	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	May 7,'37	83	May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 84.)
Californian, The (G) 763	Ricardo Cortez-Marjorie Weaver	July 16,'37	58	July 10,'37
Career Woman (G) 728	Claire Trevor-Michael Whalen	Dec. 18,'36	77	Nov. 28,'36
Charlie Chan at the Olympics 752	Warner Oland-Kath. DeMille	May 21,'37	71
(See "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 6,'37.)
Charlie Chan at the Opera (G) 730	Warner Oland-Boris Karloff	Jan. 8,'37	68	Nov. 28,'36
Crack-Up (G) 727	Peter Lorre-Brian Donlevy	Jan. 15,'37	70	Jan. 16,'37
David Harum (G) 769	Will Rogers-Evelyn Venable	May 14,'37	85	Mar. 3,'34
(re-issue)
Doctor Bull (G) 768	Will Rogers-Marian Nixon	Feb. 5,'37	79	Oct. 14,'36
(re-issue)
Fair Warning (G) 740	Betty Furness-John Payne	Mar. 5,'37	68	Jan. 23,'37
Fifty Roads to Town (G) 748	Don Ameche-Ann Sothern	Apr. 16,'37	81	Apr. 3,'37
(Exploitation: May 8,'37, p. 70.)
Great Hospital Mystery, The 751	Sally Blane-Thomas Beck	May 14,'37	59	Mar. 6,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Dead Yesterday.")
Handy Andy (G) 871 (re-issue)	Will Rogers-Robt. Taylor	Aug. 13,'37†	81	May 8,'34
Holy Terror, The (G) 734	Jane Withers-Anthony Martin	Feb. 5,'37	67	Jan. 9,'37
It Happened Out West 745	Paul Kelly-Judith Allen	May 7,'37	56
King George VI Coronation 870	Technicolor Special	July 15,'37†	28
Lady Escapes, The (G) 747	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	July 23,'37	63	June 5,'37
Laughing at Trouble 724	Jane Darwell-Lois Wilson	Dec. 11,'36	67
(See "Glory," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 17,'36.)
Lloyds of London (G) 735	F. Bartholomew-M. Carroll	Jan. 29,'37	117	Nov. 28,'36
(Exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 108; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 79, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 65, 71; May 8,'37, p. 74; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Love Is News (G) 729	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	Feb. 26,'37	78	Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)
Love Under Fire (G) 803	Loretta Young-Don Ameche	Aug. 20,'37†	75	Aug. 14,'37
Midnight Taxi (G) 744	Brian Donlevy-Frances Drake	Apr. 2,'37	73	Mar. 27,'37
Nancy Steele Is Missing (G) 738	Victor McLaglen-Peter Lorre	Mar. 12,'37	84	Mar. 20,'37
Off to the Races (G) 736	Jed Prouty-Shirley Deane	Feb. 19,'37	57	Jan. 16,'37
On the Avenue (G) 732	Dick Powell-Madeleine Carroll	Feb. 12,'37	89	Feb. 13,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82; June 19,'37, p. 84.)
One In a Million (G) 722	Sonja Henie-Adolphe Menjou	Jan. 1,'37	94	Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82.)
One Mile from Heaven (G) 802	Claire Trever-Sally Blane	Aug. 13,'37†	68	July 24,'37
Reunion (G) 717	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt	Nov. 20,'36	81	Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 27,'37, pp. 90, 91.)
Secret Valley (G) 731	Richard Arlen-Virginia Grey	Jan. 15,'37	57	Feb. 13,'37
Seventh Heaven (G) 742	Simone Simon-James Stewart	Mar. 26,'37	102	Mar. 27,'37
(Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64.)
She Had to Eat (G) 757	Rochelle Hudson-Jack Haley	June 11,'37	74	Aug. 7,'37
Sing and Be Happy 756	Anthony Martin-Dixie Dunbar	June 25,'37	64
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Slave Ship (G) 748	Wallace Beery-Warner Baxter	July 2,'37	92	June 19,'37
(See production article, Mar. 13,'37, p. 16.)
Step Lively, Jeeves (G) 739	Arthur Treacher-Patricia Ellis	Apr. 9,'37	69	Jan. 30,'37
Stowaway (G) 725	Shirley Temple-Robt. Young	Dec. 25,'36	86	Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)
That I May Live (G) 755	Rochelle Hudson-Robert Kent	Apr. 30,'37	70	Mar. 6,'37
Thin Ice (G) 805	Sonja Henie-Tyrone Power	Sept. 3,'37†	78	Aug. 28,'37
Think Fast, Mr. Moto (G) 804	Peter Lorre-Virginia Field	Aug. 27,'37†	66	Apr. 17,'37

AMERICA IS WAITING!

THE SEASON'S FIRST BIG SMASH HIT!

Jeanette MacDONALD in THE Firefly

BOX-OFFICE

SEATS ON SALE 6 WEEKS IN ADVANCE

ASTOR

ALLAN JONES · WARREN WILLIAM
BILLY GILBERT · DOUGLAS DUMBRILLE and CAST OF THOUSANDS

IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN!

Wherever you go they're singing the praises of M-G-M's newest eyeful and earful of screen thrill! It's the biggest show that stage or screen has ever known! The dream of film producers has at last been realized. Here is the first great romantic, dramatic musical spectacle. 2½ hours of glorious entertainment!

A GALA M-G-M TRIUMPH STARTS THE NEW SEASON

It's a pleasure to watch that thrilled Astor Theatre audience. They're literally sitting on the edge of their seats with each suspenseful moment. Never has there been a musical picture with such a thrilling story to hold you spell-bound and so romantic! You simply must see it!

YOU'LL BE AMAZED.

Behind the mighty scenes of carnival, battlefield, fiesta, two lovers lift their yearning voices in heart-song.

CALL UP YOUR SWEETHEART!

She'll hold your hand during the love songs which include these Friml Favorites: Sympathy, Giannina Mia, Love is Like a Firefly, A Woman's Kiss, He Who Loves and Runs Away.

SHE SHINES WITH A NEW BRILLIANCE

Brilliant dancer as well as captivating song-bird! See Jeanette MacDonald do the beautiful and provocative "Dance of the Flame" in the boisterous drinking scene with the French officers.

DISCOVER ROBT. SPINDOLA!

He's the little fellow who appears with Allan Jones in the delightful "Donkey's Serenade" number.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH! LAVISH MUSICAL — Sun
VASTLY ENTERTAINING . . . RARE SINGING — Journal
STUNNING IN ITS GRANDEUR — Mirror
A ROMANTIC STORY . . . MISS MacDONALD AND ALLAN JONES IN A TREAT — News
STARTS FALL SEASON WITH A BANG! — Brooklyn Eagle

with Allan Jones
Warren William
Billy Gilbert
Douglas Dumbrille
Directed by
Robt. Z. Leonard
Produced by Hunt Stromberg
An M-G-M Picture

ASTOR
BROADWAY & 45th ST.

Twice Daily, 2:40, 8:40. Sun. 3, 6, 8:40. Mats. 50c to $1. Eves. 50c to $2. Sat. & Holiday Mats., Saturday Midnite, Sunday & Holiday 6 P.M. 50c to $1.50. (Plus Tax).

(THE RELEASE CHART--CON'T)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
This Is My Affair (G) 721	Barbara Stanwyck-Robt. Taylor	May	28,'37 99
Time Out for Romance (G) 741	Claire Trevor-Michael Whalen	Mar.	19,'37 72	Feb. 20,'37
Under the Red Robe (G) 743	Conrad Veidt-Annabella	May	21,'37 82	June 12,'37
Under Your Spell (G) 720	Lawrence Tibbett-Wendy Barrie	Nov.	6,'36 63	Nov. 14,'36
Wake Up and Live (G) 749 (Exploitation: July 3,'37, p. 69; July 10,'37, pp. 85, 86.)	Walter Winchell-Ben Bernie	Apr.	23,'37 91	Apr. 17,'37
Wee Willie Winkie (G) 760 (Exploitation: July 10,'37, p. 88; Aug. 7,'37, p. 92; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 94, 97.)	Shirley Temple-V. McLaglen	July	30,'37 99	July 3,'37
Western Gold 781 (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Smith Ballew-Heather Angel	Aug.	27,'37†
White Hunter (G) 719 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Warner Baxter-June Lang	Nov.	27,'36 65	Dec. 5,'36
Wild Brian Kent (G) 718	Ralph Bellamy-Mae Clarke	Nov.	6,'36 57	Oct. 31,'36
Wings of the Morning (G) 737	Annabella-Henry Fonda	Feb.	19,'37 87	Mar. 20,'37
Woman-Wise (G) 733	Rochelle Hudson-Michael Whalen	Jan.	22,'37 70	Feb. 13,'37
You Can't Have Everything (G) 801	Alice Faye-Don Ameche	Aug.	3,'37† 99	July 31,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
All Baba Goes to Town (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Eddie Cantor-June Lang	Oct.	29,'37†
Borrowing Trouble	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Charlie Chan on Broadway (G)	Warner Oland-Joan Marsh	Oct.	22,'37† 68	Aug. 7,'37
Danger—Love at Work (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Ann Sothern-Jack Haley	Nov.	5,'37†
Dangerously Yours	Cesar Romero-Phyllis Brooks	Nov.	12,'37†
45 Fathers	Jane Withers-Thomas Beck	Dec.	10,'37†
Heidi (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	Shirley Temple-Jean Hersholt	Oct.	15,'37†
Hot Water (G)	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	Sept.	24,'37† 58	July 17,'37
In Old Chicago (See production article, Sept. 4,'37, p. 48.)	Tyrone Power-Alice Faye	Jan.	15,'38†
Lancer Spy (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Peter Lorre-Dolores Del Rio	Oct.	8,'37†
Life Begins in College (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Ritz Bros.-Gloria Stuart	Oct.	1,'37†
Look Out, Mr. Moto	Peter Lorre-Rochelle Hudson	Nov.	26,'37†
Roll Along Cowboy	Smith Ballew-Cecilia Parker	Oct.	8,'37†
Second Honeymoon	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power
Wife, Doctor and Nurse (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter	Sept.	17,'37† 85
Wild and Wooly (G)	Jane Withers-Walter Brennan	Sept.	10,'37† 64	July 24,'37

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Accused (A)	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-D. Del Rio	Jan.	8,'37 86	Aug. 8,'36
Beloved Enemy (G)	Merle Oberon-Brian Aherne	Dec.	25,'36 88	Dec. 19,'36
Come and Get It (A) (Exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Nov. 28,'36, p. 99; Dec. 5,'36, pp. 83, 84; Dec. 19,'36, p. 94; Jan. 30,'37, p. 82; Feb. 13,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 82.)	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	Nov.	6,'36 99	Nov. 7,'36
Dark Journey (G)	Vivien Leigh-Conrad Veidt	July	2,'37 82	Mar. 6,'37
Dead End (G)	Sylvia Sidney-Joel McCrea	Aug.	27,'37† 93	Aug. 7,'37
Dreaming Lips (A)	Ells. Bergner-Raymond Massey	May	28,'37 78	Mar. 6,'37
Elephant Boy (G) (Exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 96; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Native Cast	Apr.	23,'37 80	Mar. 13,'37
Fire Over England (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 79.)	Laurence Olivier-Flora Robson	Mar.	5,'37 89	Jan. 16,'37
Garden of Allah, The (A) (See production article, June 6,'36, p. 14; exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 76, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 80; Mar. 13,'37, p. 83; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 67, 68, 69.)	Marlene Dietrich-Charles Boyer	Nov.	20,'36 78	Nov. 7,'36
History Is Made at Night (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 64, 71; Apr. 10,'37, pp. 91, 92; Apr. 17,'37, p. 82; Apr. 24,'37, pp. 91, 92; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 8,'37, p. 72; May 22,'37, pp. 89, 90; June 12,'37, p. 93.)	Charles Boyer-Jean Arthur	Apr.	2,'37 97	Mar 13,'37
Knight Without Armour (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78.)	Marlene Dietrich-Robt. Donat	July	23,'37† 107	June 19,'37
Love from a Stranger (A)	Ann Harding-Basil Rathbone	May	14,'37 87	Feb. 13,'37
Man Who Could Work Miracles, The (G)	Roland Young-Joan Gardner	Feb.	19,'37 82	Aug. 22,'36
Men Are Not Gods (A)	Miriam Hopkins-Gert. Lawrence	Jan.	22,'37 82	Jan. 2,'37
Prisoner of Zenda (G)	Ronald Colman-M. Carroll	Sept.	3,'37† 88	Sept. 4,'37
Rembrandt (G) (See production article, Oct. 31,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Dec. 19,'36, p. 88; Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84.)	Chas. Laughton-Gert. Lawrence	Nov.	27,'36 83	Nov. 21,'36
Star Is Born, A (G) (See production article, Feb. 27,'37, p. 16; exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 86; May 29,'37, pp. 67, 69; June 5,'37, pp. 64, 67, 70; June 19,'37, p. 84; June 26,'37, pp. 120, 121, 122; July 10,'37, p. 87; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Janet Gaynor-Fredric March	Apr.	30,'37 111	May 1,'37
Stella Dallas (A) (Exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 81.)	Barbara Stanwyck-John Boles	Aug.	6,'37† 104	July 31,'37
Walt Disney's Academy Award Revue	5 Award Winners	June	18,'37† 44
When Thief Meets Thief (A) (Reviewed under the title, "Jump for Glory.")	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-V. Hobson	June	4,'37 87	May 8,'37
Woman Chases Man (G) (See production article, Apr. 17,'37, p. 12; exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 92; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Miriam Hopkins-Joel McCrea	May	7,'37 71	May 1,'37
You Only Live Once (A) (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 80; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 76, 78; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 71; June 26,'37, p. 123; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 21,'37, p. 74.)	Sylvia Sidney-Henry Fonda	Jan.	29,'37 86	Jan. 30,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Action for Slander (A)	Clive Brook-Ann Todd		80	Aug. 14,'37
Adventures of Marco Polo	Gary Cooper-Sigrid Gurie	Nov.	12,'37†
Adventures of Tom Sawyer	Tommy Kelly-Walter Brennan	Oct.	29,'37†
Divorce of Lady X, The	Merle Oberon-Laurence Olivier	Oct.	15,'37†
52nd Street (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Ian Hunter-Pat Paterson	Sept.	24,'37†
Goldwyn Follies, The	Phil Baker-Ritz Bros.	Dec.	25,'37†
Hurricane, The (See production article, Aug. 7,'37, p. 16.)	Dorothy Lamour-Jon Hall	Nov.	10,'37†
I Met My Love Again	Joan Bennett-Henry Fonda	Oct.	8,'37†
Mutiny in the Mountains	Vivien Leigh-Paul Lucas	Nov.	5,'37†
Nothing Sacred (See production article, Aug. 21,'37, p. 16.)	Carole Lombard-Fredric March	Nov.	19,'37†
Stand-In	Leslie Howard-Joan Blondell
Storm in a Teacup (G)	Vivien Leigh-Rex Harrison			82 June 12,'37
Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938 (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 74.)	Warner Baxter-Joan Bennett	Sept.	17,'37† 108	Aug. 7,'37

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Armored Car (G) 1004	Robert Wilcox-Judith Barrett	June	20,'37 64	Aug. 14,'37
As Good as Married (G) 1012	John Boles-Doris Nolan	May	9,'37 81	May 1,'37
Black Aces 2050	Buck Jones-Kay Linaker	Sept.	5,'37† 58
Boss Rider of Gun Creek 1042	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Nov.	1,'36 64
Breezing Home (G) 1033	Binnie Barnes-Wm. Gargan	Jan.	31,'37 64	Mar. 27,'37
California Straight Ahead (G) 1030	John Wayne-Louise Latimer	May	2,'37 67	Apr. 3,'37
Conflict (G) 1036	John Wayne-Jean Rogers	Nov.	29,'36 61	Dec. 5,'36
Empty Saddles (G) 1043	Buck Jones-Louise Brooks	Dec.	20,'36 62	Oct. 24,'36
Flying Hostess (G) 1023 (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74.)	Judith Barrett-Wm. Hall	Nov.	22,'36 66	Nov. 14,'36
Four Days' Wonder (G) 1019	Jeanne Dante-Kenneth Howell	Jan.	3,'37 60	Jan. 23,'37
Girl Overboard (G) 1021	Gloria Stuart-Walter Pidgeon	Feb.	28,'37 58	May 29,'37
I Cover the War (G) 1016	John Wayne-Gwen Gaze	July	4,'37 68	July 10,'37
Left Handed Law (G) 1045	Buck Jones	Apr.	18,'37 63	May 1,'37
Let Them Live (G) 1035	Nan Grey-John Howard	Apr.	25,'37 73	Apr. 24,'37
Love in a Bungalow (G) 1009	Kent Taylor-Nan Grey	June	27,'37 66	July 10,'37
Love Letters of a Star (A) 1028	Henry Hunter-Polly Rowles	Nov.	8,'36 66	Nov. 14,'36
Luckiest Girl in the World (G) 1014	Jane Wyatt-Louis Hayward	Nov.	15,'36 72	Oct. 31,'36
Man I Marry, The (G) 1026	Doris Nolan-Michael Whalen	Nov.	1,'36 76	Nov. 7,'36
Man in Blue, The (G) 1020	Robert Wilcox-Nan Grey	May	30,'37 67	May 22,'37
Man Who Cried Wolf, The (G) 2023	Tom Brown-Barbara Read	Aug.	29,'37† 66	Sept. 4,'37
Mighty Treve, The (G) 1034	Noah Beery, Jr.-Barbara Read	Jan.	17,'37 69	Apr. 10,'37
Mysterious Crossing (G) 1025	James Dunn-Jean Rogers	Dec.	27,'36 56	Feb. 13,'37
Night Key (G) 1024 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Boris Karloff-Jean Rogers	May	2,'37 67	Apr. 24,'37
Oh, Doctor! (G) 1013 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Edward Everett Horton	May	16,'37 67	Apr. 24,'37
Reported Missing (G)	Wm. Gargan-Jean Rogers	Aug.	15,'37 63	Aug. 7,'37
Road Back, The (G) 1005 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 16; exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 80.)	Richard Cromwell-John King	Aug.	1,'37 103	June 26,'37
Sandflow (G) 1044	Buck Jones-Lita Chevret	Feb.	14,'37 58	Feb. 6,'37
She's Dangerous 1031	Cesar Romero-Tala Birell	Jan.	24,'37 68
Smoke Tree Range 1046	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	June	6,'37 59
Three Smart Girls (G) 1029 (Exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, pp. 73, 74; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 67; Apr. 10,'37, p. 94; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 80, 82; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 82; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99.)	Deanna Durbin-Ray Milland	Dec.	20,'36 84	Jan. 30,'37
Top of the Town (G) 1007 (See production article, Jan. 23,'37, p. 16; exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 91; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, pp. 86, 87; June 5,'37, p. 70; June 12,'37, p. 92; June 19,'37, pp. 82, 85.)	George Murphy-Doris Nolan	Apr.	18,'37 86	Apr. 3,'37
We Have Our Moments (G) 1017	Sally Eilers-James Dunn	Mar.	28,'37 67	Apr. 3,'37
West Bound Limited 1008	Lyle Talbot-Polly Rowles	July	11,'37 60
When Love Is Young (G) 1018	Virginia Bruce-Kent Taylor	Apr.	4,'37 76	Apr. 24,'37
Wildcatter, The 1015	Scott Colton-Jean Rogers	June	6,'37 58
Wings Over Honolulu (G) 1011	Wendy Barrie-Ray Milland	May	23,'37 78	May 15,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure's End	John Wayne-Diana Gibson
Behind the Mike	Wm. Gargan-Judith Barrett	Sept.	26,'37†
Blonde Dynamite	Noah Beery, Jr.-Dorothea Kent
Carnival Queen	Dorothea Kent-Robert Wilcox	Oct.	3,'37†
Courage of the West	Bob Baker-Lois January
Girl with Ideas, A	Wendy Barrie-Walter Pidgeon
Idol of the Crowds 2037 (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	John Wayne-Judith Barrett	Oct.	10,'37†
Lady Fights Back, The 2025	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Sept.	19,'37† 58
Law for Tombstone 2051	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Oct.	10,'37† 59
Merry-Go-Round of 1938 (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Bert Lahr-Alice Brady	Oct.	24,'37†
100 Men and a Girl 2001 (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Deanna Durbin-Adolphe Menjou	Sept.	12,'37† 84
Sudden Bill Dorn	Buck Jones-Evelyn Brent
That's My Story (See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)	Claudia Morgan-Wm. Lundigan	Oct.	31,'37†
Trouble at Midnight	N. Beery, Jr.-Catherine Hughes
Westland Case, The	Preston Foster-Carol Hughes

VICTORY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cheyenne Rides Again	Tom Tyler-Lucille Browne	Jan.	7,'37
Fued of the Trail	Tom Tyler-Harlene Wood	May	1,'37

MODERN

TODAY'S splendid motion picture quality can be completely protected... perfectly reproduced... with Eastman Fine-Grain Duplicating Films. For the simple reason that these new materials are capable of making duplicates actually indistinguishable from originals. With them the duplicating process goes definitely modern. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N.Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago, Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Fine-Grain

DUPLICATING FILMS

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Flying Fists	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	July	1,'37
Mystery Range	Tom Tyler-Jerry Bergh	May	1,'37
Phantom of the Range	Tom Tyler-Beth Marion	Nov.	28,'36
Silks and Saddles	Herman Brix-Toby Wing	Dec.	14,'36
Sky Racketeers	Herman Brix-Joan Barclay	Sept.	1,'37†
Two Minutes to Play	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	Nov.	2,'36

Coming

Title	Star
Brothers of the West	Tom Tyler
Lost Ranch	Tom Tyler
Orphans of the Pecos	Tom Tyler
Roaring Motors	Herman Brix
Winning Stroke, The	Herman Brix

WARNER BROTHERS

(See also First National)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Another Dawn (A) 106	Kay Francis-Errol Flynn	June	26,'37....73. Apr.	10,'37
(See production article, Mar. 6,'37. p. 16.)
Black Legion (A) 108	H. Bogart-E. O'Brien-Moore	Jan.	30,'37....83. Jan.	9,'37
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 80, 83; Mar. 20,'37, p. 82; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 10,'37, p. 95; July 17,'37, p. 89.)
Blazing Sixes 129	Dick Foran-Helen Valkis	June	12,'37....55
California Mail 930	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Nov.	14,'36....56
Call It a Day (G) 113	Olivia de Havilland-I. Hunter	Apr.	17,'37....89. Mar.	13,'37
Charge of the Light Brigade (G) 901	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland	Nov.	7,'36....115. Oct.	24,'36
(See production article, July 25,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 111; Jan. 15,'37, p. 78; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74; Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; Apr. 10,'37, p. 92.)
Devil's Saddle Legion, The 130	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Aug.	14,'37
Fly-Away Baby (G) 125	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	June	19,'37....60. June	12,'37
Footloose Heiress 123	Craig Reynolds-Ann Sheridan	Aug.	21,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)
Fugitive in the Sky (G) 120	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Nov.	28,'36....58. Oct.	31,'36
God's Country and the Woman (G) 105	George Brent-Beverly Roberts	Jan.	16,'37....85. Dec.	26,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, pp. 84, 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 80.)
Go Getter, The (G) 115	George Brent-Anita Louise	May	22,'37....92. June	19,'37
(Exploitation: Sept. 4,'37, pp. 94, 97.)
Great O'Malley, The (G) 110	Pat O'Brien-Sybil Jason	Feb.	13,'37....71. Dec.	12,'36
(Exploitation: Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)
Kid Galahad (G) 102	Edw. G. Robinson-Bette Davis	May	29,'37....101. May	8,'37
(Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)
King and the Chorus Girl (G) 104	Fernand Gravet-Joan Blondell	Mar.	27,'37....95. Mar.	6,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; June 26,'37, p. 118.)
King of Hockey (G) 121	Anne Nagel-Richard Purcell	Dec.	19,'36....55. Nov.	14,'36
Land Beyond the Law 128	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Mar.	13,'37....54
Life of Emile Zola, The (G) 203	Paul Muni-Gale Sondergaard	Oct.	2,'37†...116. July	10,'37
Marry the Girl (G) 116	Hugh Herbert-Mary Boland	July	1,'37....68. Aug.	14,'37
Melody for Two (G) 117	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	May	1,'37....60. Jan.	16,'37
Midnight Court (G) 124	Ann Dvorak-John Litel	Mar.	6,'37....60. Mar.	13,'37
One Way Passage (G)	Kay Francis-William Powell	Dec.	12,'36....69. July	30,'32
(Reissue)
Pole Joe (G) 111	Joe E. Brown-Carol Hughes	Dec.	5,'36....65. Sept.	26,'36
Public Wedding 126	Jane Wyman-William Hopper	July	10,'37....58
Ready, Willing and Able (G)	Lee Dixon-Ruby Keeler	Mar.	6,'37....93. Feb.	6,'37
(Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 78.)
Singing Marine, The (G) 101	Dick Powell-Doris Weston	July	3,'37....105. July	10,'37
(Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80.)
Slim (G) 114	Pat O'Brien-Henry Fonda	June	12,'37....80. July	3,'37
Smart Blonde (G) 122	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Jan.	2,'37....59. Dec.	5,'36
Varsity Show (G)	Dick Powell-Fred Waring	Sept.	4,'37†..*120. Aug.	21,'37
(See production article, July 24,'37, p. 16.)
White Bondage (G) 125	Jean Muir-Gordon Oliver	June	19,'37....60. Mar.	13,'37
Wine, Women and Horses (G)	Barton MacLane-Ann Sheridan	Sept.	11,'37†....64. July	24,'37

Coming

Title	Star
Adventures of Robin Hood	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland
Expensive Husbands	Beverly Roberts-Patric Knowles
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Kid Comes Back, The (G) 123	Wayne Morris-June Travis *60. Jan. 30,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Don't Pull Your Punches.")
Love Is On the Air	Ronald Reagan-June Travis
Missing Witnesses	Dick Powell-Jean Dale
One More Tomorrow	Dick Foran-June Travis
Over the Goal	William Hopper-June Travis
Patient in Room 18, The	Ann Sheridan-Patric Knowles
Perfect Specimen, The	Errol Flynn-Joan Blondell
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)
Sh! the Octopus	Hugh Herbert-Marcia Ralston
She Loved a Fireman	Dick Foran-Ann Sheridan
Submarine D-1	Pat O'Brien-George Brent
They Won't Forget (A)	Gloria Dickson-Claude Rains *90. June 19,'37
(See production article, "The Deep South," May 8,'37, p. 16.)
Tonight's Our Night	Claudette Colbert-Charles Boyer
Without Warning 218	Boris Karloff-Marie Wilson

WILLIAM STEINER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
From Nine to Nine	Ruth Reland-Roland Drew	Dec.	21,'36....6 rls
I Cover Chinatown	Norman Foster	Nov.	18,'36....7 rls
Masquerade in Vienna (A)	Paula Wessely	Jan.	28,'37....95. Feb.	13,'37

WORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	Mar.	31,'37....79
Slalom (G)	Skiing Film	Dec.	15,'36....6 rls. Jan.	23,'37
Trono Popolare	Italian Feature	Dec.	25,'36....62

Coming

Title	Star
Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe
Aurora Sul Mare	Italian Feature 67
Chansen D'Amour	Tito Schipa
Itto	Simone Berriau
Life and Loves of Beethoven	Harry Baur
Love on Skis	Walter Rimil
Monks, The
Ninety Degrees South	Antarctic Film
Second Bureau	Jean Murat-Diana Kerene
Secrets of Stambeul	Valerie Hobson 79
Ski Chase	Hannes Schneider Sept. 1,'37†....84
Street Without a Name	Constant Remy-Pola Illery
Song of Ceylon	Basil Wright 39
Tendre Ennemie	Simone Berriau

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Pit, The (A)	Amedeo Nazzari			June	26,'37
Amphytrion (A)	Henri Garat	Globe	Mar.	23,'37..103. Apr.	3,'37
Beetheven Concerte (G)	V. Gurdin	Amkino	Mar.	23,'37...90. Apr.	10,'37
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	British Lion		73. July	10,'37
Carnival in Flanders (A)	Francoise Rosay	American Tobis	Sept.	22,'36...98. Oct.	9,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")
Dominant Sex, The (A)	Phillips Holmes	Assoc. British		82. Feb.	26,'37
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	British I. E. Co.		80. Aug.	14,'37
Emil Und Die Detektive	Fritz Rasp	International		77
Episode (A)	Paula Wessely	Metropolis	May	15,'37...90. June	5,'37
Eternal Mask, The (A)	Mathias Wieman	Mayer-Burstyn	Jan.	12,'37...70. Jan.	23,'37
Farewell Again (G)	Leslie Banks	United Artists		80. May	22,'37
Flying Doctor, The (G)	Charles Farrell	20th Century-Fox		92. Dec.	19,'36
Fury Over Spain (G)		Modern Film		55. Aug.	14,'37
Gang Show, The (G)	Ralph Reader	General		May	1,'37
Glamorous Night (G)	Mary Ellis	Assoc. British		80. May	15,'37
Gobsek (A)	Leonid Leonidow	Amkino		74. Aug.	14,'37
Golem, The (A)	Harry Baur	Metropolis	Mar.	20,'37...88. Mar.	27,'37
Great Call, The (G)	Camille Pilette	United Artists		90. Dec.	5,'36
Gypsy (A)	Roland Young	Warner		Feb.	13,'37
It Isn't Done (G)	Cecil Kellaway	British Empire		90. Mar.	27,'37
It's You I Want (A)	Seymour Hicks	British Lion		70. Nov.	21,'36
Janosik (G)	Pale Bielik	French	Nov.	24,'36...82. Dec.	3,'36
(Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 86.)
Jericho (G)	Paul Robeson	General		77. Sept.	4,'37
Kimiko (A)	Sachiko Chiba	International	Apr.	12,'37...73. Apr.	24,'37
King's People, The (G)	John Drinkwater	Mindlin	May	11,'37...70. May	22,'37
La Damigella di Bard (G)	E. Gammatica	Artisti		85. Jan.	9,'37
La Grande Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	Realization d'Art Cinematographique		120. July	3,'37
Last Night, The (G)	I. R. Peitser	Amkino	Apr.	27,'37...90. May	8,'37
Late Mattia Pascal, The (A)	Pierre Blanchar			Apr.	10,'37
Les Petits (G)	Alice Tissot	France-American	Dec.	29,'36...90. Jan.	23,'37
Let's Make a Night of It	Buddy Rogers	Assoc. British		80. July	10,'37
Mademoiselle Docteur (A)	Dita Parlo	United Artists		105. May	1,'37
Merry Comes to Town (G)	Zasu Pitts	Sound City		77. June	5,'37
Mill on the Floss, The (G)	Frank Lawton	National		90. Feb.	13,'37
Moonlight Sonata (G)	Paderewski	United Artists		90. Mar.	13,'37
Ora Penciane (G)	Chuche Selerzane	Prod. Soria		105. May	15,'37
Orphan of the Wilderness	Gwen Munro	British Empire	Jan.	20,'37...65. Mar.	6,'37
Our Fighting Navy (G)	H. B. Warner	General		75. May	8,'37
Pagliacci (G)	Richard Tauber	United Artists		90. Feb.	6,'37
(See production article, Jan. 9,'37, p. 16.)
Pearls of the Crown (A)	Sascha Guitry	Tobis		115. June	5,'37
Pepe Le Moko (A)	Jean Gabin	Paris Film		106. Mar.	20,'37
Prisoners (G)	A. I. Chaban	Amkino	Feb.	10,'37...93. Feb.	27,'37
Pygmalion (G)	Lily Bouwmeester	Filmex Cinetone		Apr.	17,'37
Razumov (G)	Pierre Fresnay	Garrison	Mar.	8,'37...95. Mar.	27,'37
Revolutionists (G)	V. V. Schuklin	Amkino	Dec.	'36...100. Feb.	6,'37
"Said O'Reilly to McNab" (G)	Will Mahoney	Gainsborough-GB		84. July	17,'37
Sensation (A)	John Lodge	Wardour		75. Jan.	23,'37
Silver Blaze (G)	Arthur Wontner	Assoc. British		70. July	17,'37
Sol Over Danmark (G)	Henrik Malberg		Apr.	13,'37...73. Apr.	24,'37
Southern Mail (A)	Richard-Wilm	Solar		100. Feb.	20,'37
Spain in Flames (A)		Amkino	Jan.	28,'37...63. Feb.	13,'37
Spanish Earth, The (A)		Prometheus	Aug.	20,'37...58. Sept.	4'37
Thank You, Madam (G)	Jan Kiepura	American Tobis	Apr.	26,'37...85. May	1,'37
Thirteen, The (A)	Ivan Novoseltsev	Amkino		85. July	17,'37
30 Seconds of Love (G)	Elsa Merlini	E. J. A.		80. Jan.	2,'37
This'll Make You Whistle (A)	Jack Buchanan	Wilcox		78. Jan.	9,'37
Tsar to Lenin (A)		Lesauer Intern'l	Mar.	6,'37...66. Mar.	27,'37
Wave, The (G)	Native Cast	Garrison	Apr.	26,'37...66. May	1,'37
White Squadron (G)	Antonio Canta	E. N. I. C.		85. Dec.	26,'36
World's In Love, The (A)	Marta Eggerth	Viennese	May	18,'37...90. May	29,'37
Yiddle with His Fiddle	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Dec.	31,'36

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-1-36) August 1, 1936.]

CELEBRITY

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

COMICOLOR CARTOONS

Happy Days ..... Sept.30,'36.....

COLUMBIA

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Ay Tank Ay Go (1-23-37) (All Star) . Dec. 4,'36. 16½..

Back to the Woods (3 Stooges) ..... May 14,'37. 19½..

Big Squirt, The (Charlie Chase) ..... Sept.17,'37†. 2 rls.

Bury the Hatchet (8-21-37) . Aug. 6,'37. 19....

Calling All Doctors ..... July 22,'37. 19½..

Cash and Carry (3 Stooges) ..... Sept. 3,'37†18½..

Dizzy Doctors (4-17-37) (3 Stooges) .... Mar. 19,'37. 17½..

Free Rent (1-30-37) (All Star) ..... Dec. 20,'36. 18....

From Bad to Worse (Charlie Chase ..... June 4,'37. 17....

Goofs and Saddles ..... July 2,'37. 17½..

Grand Hooter (6-5-37) (Charlie Chase ..... May 7,'37. 19½..

Grips, Grunts and Groans (3 Stooges) .. Jan. 15,'37. 19....

Knee Action (2-27-37) (Andy Clyde ..... Jan. 9,'37. 17....

Lodge Night (Andy Clyde ..... June 11,'37. 18....

Love Comes to Mooneyville (1-2-37) . Nov. 14,'36. 18....

My Little Feller (Andy Clyde ..... May 21,'37. 18....

New News (4-17-37) (Collins-Kennedy) ..... Apr. 1,'37. 17½..

Sailor Maid (Polly Moran ..... Feb. 12,'37. 19....

Slippery Silks (2-20-37) (3 Stooges) .... Dec. 27,'36. 17½..

Stuck in the Stieks (Andy Clyde ..... Mar. 26,'37. 18....

Super Snooper, The (El Brendel ..... Feb. 25,'37. 19½..

Three Dumb Clucks (3 Stooges) ..... Apr. 17,'37. 17....

Wrong Miss Wright, The (Charlie Chase ..... June 18,'37. 17....

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Bon Bon Parade ..... Nov. 26,'36. 8½..

Boy and His Dog, A (1-9-37) ..... Dec. 23,'36. 7....

Foxy Pup, The (6-5-37) ..... May 21,'37. 6½..

Gifts from the Air ..... Jan. 1,'37. 7½..

Indian Serenade ..... July 16,'37. 8....

Let's Go (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 10,'37. 7½..

Merry Mannequins ..... Mar. 19,'37. 6½..

Mother Hen's Holiday ..... May 7,'37. 7....

Scary Crows ..... Aug. 20,'37. .....

Skeleton Frolic (2-20-37) .. Jan. 29,'37. 7½..

Spring Festival (8-21-37) . Aug. 6,'37. 8....

Stork Takes a Holiday, The . June 11,'37. 8....

Swing, Monkey, Swing ..... Sept. 10,'37. .....

Two Lazy Crows (11-28-36) . Nov. 26,'36. 7....

COLUMBIA TOURS

Gold Quest of the Ages (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 23,'37. 10....

Fifty Years of Barter ..... May 28,'37. 9½..

Haiti's Black Napoleon (8-21-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37. 9....

Pirate Parts of the Caribbean ..... July 2,'37. 9....

When the West Was Young (3-20-37) ..... Mar. 12,'37. 9....

COMMUNITY SING

(2nd Series)

No. 1 ..... Aug.20,'37†10....

No. 2 ..... Sept.17,'37†10....

COURT OF HUMAN RELATIONS

Runaway Marriage, The (1-16-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36. 11....

Wedding Deal, The ..... Feb. 26,'37. 11½..

FEATURETTES

Community Sing (No. 1) (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 17,'37. 10....

Community Sing (No. 2) .. Feb. 19,'37. 11....

Community Sing (No. 3) (6-5-37) ..... May 20,'37. 10....

Community Sing (No. 4) .. June 18,'37. 10½..

Community Sing (No. 5) .. July 24,'37. 10½..

Herald of the Skies ..... Apr. 2,'37. 9½..

Story of Norton I, Emperor of the United States (2-6-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36. 9....

HAPPY HOUR

Goose Girl, The ..... May 30,'37. 3 rls.

Old Woman in the Woods, The ..... Apr. 23,'37. 3 rls.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

16. Merry Cafe (1-23-37) .. Dec. 26,'36. 7....

17. Lyin' Hunter, The (3-27-37) ..... Feb. 12,'37. 7....

18. Krazy's Race of Time (6-26-37) ..... May 6,'37. 7....

19. Masque Raid, The ..... June 25,'37. 7....

NEW WORLD OF SPORT SERIES

Fishing Thrills (2-13-37) .... Jan. 22,'37. 9....

Fit to Win (6-12-37) ..... May 7,'37. 9½..

Fleet Hoofs (4-17-37) ..... Mar. 5,'37. 10....

Fun in the Water (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 10,'37. 10....

Future Stars ..... Aug. 30,'37. .....

Golf Magic ..... Aug. 16,'37. .....

Plane Devils (1-9-37) ..... Nov. 28,'36. 9½..

Riding the Waves ..... June 4,'37. 10....

Scrambled Legs (3-27-37) .. Feb. 22,'37. 9....

Sport of the Seasons ..... June 25,'37. 9....

Sport's Greatest Thrills (8-21-37) ..... Aug. 3,'37. 9....

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Canine Capers ..... Sept.16,'37†. 6½..

I Want to Be an Aetress .. Nov. 28,'36. 7....

Dizzy Ducks (12-19-36) ... July 18,'37. 6½..

Puttin' Out the Kitten .... Mar. 26,'37. 7....

Scrappy's Band Concert .... Apr. 29,'37. 7....

Scrappy's Music Lesson .... June 4,'37. 7....

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

No. 3—(1-9-37) ..... Nov. 28,'36. 10....

No. 4—(2-6-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36. 10....

No. 5—(2-27-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37. 10....

No. 6— ..... Feb. 19,'37. 10....

No. 7— ..... Mar. 23,'37. 9½..

No. 8—(5-29-37) ..... Apr. 30,'37. 9½..

No. 9— ..... May 22,'37. 10....

No. 10— ..... June 4,'37. 9....

No. 11— ..... June 25,'37. 10½..

No. 12— ..... Aug. 13,'37. .....

No. 13— ..... Sept. 10,'37. .....

(New Series)

No. 1— ..... Sep.17,'37†. 1 rl..

SPECIAL

Belgium (3-6-37) ..... Dec. 25,'36. 8½..

Castle Town of France (2-20-37) ..... Nov. 1,'36. 8½..

Old Paris and Berne (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36. 8½..

DuWORLD

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Story of the Rose, A (1-16-37) ..... 10....

Sus-Ti Ka (12-19-36) ..... 10....

Utah Picture Book (1-9-37) ..... 10....

EDUCATIONAL

[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Dental Follies (4-10-37) ... Feb. 26,'37. 11....

Gifts in Rhythm ..... Oct. 23,'36. 10....

Pink Lemonade (9-24-36) .. Sept.18,'36. 11....

Play! Girls ..... Nov. 6,'36. 11....

Pot Luck (8-14-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37†. 11....

See Uncle Sol (2-6-37) .... Jan. 29,'37. 11....

Strike! You're Out (1-9-37) . Dec. 11,'36. 11....

TERRY-TOONS

Big Game Hunt, The ..... Feb. 19,'37. 7....

Book Shop, The (1-30-37) .. Feb. 5,'37. 6....

Bug Carnival (4-17-37) .... Apr. 16,'37. 7....

Bully Frog, A (10-10-36) .. Sept.18,'36. 6....

Cleaning Day ..... Sept.17,'37†. 1 rl..

Farmer Al Falfa in the Health Farm ..... Sept. 4,'36. 8....

Farmer Al Falfa in Trailer Life ..... Aug.20,'37†. 6....

Farmer Al Falfa's Twentieth Anniversary ..... Nov. 27,'36. 7....

Flying South ..... Mar. 19,'37. 7....

Homeless Pup, The ..... July 23,'37. 7....

Kike Fells the Fox (11-7-36) ..... Oct. 2,'36. 6....

Kike the Kangaroo in a Battle Royal (11-21-36) .. Oct. 30,'36. 7....

Kike the Kangaroo in Skunked Again ..... Dec. 29,'36. 7....

Hay Ride, The ..... Apr. 2,'37. 6....

Mechanical Cow, The ..... June 25,'37. 7....

Ozzie Ostrich Comes to Town ..... May 28,'37. 7....

Paper Hangers, The (8-14-37) ..... July 30,'37. 7....

Pink Elephants ..... July 9,'37. 7....

Play Ball ..... June 11,'37. 6....

Puddy the Pup in Cats in a Bag (12-26-36) .... Dec. 11,'36. 7....

Puddy's Coronation ..... May 14,'37. 7....

Puddy the Pup in Sunken Treasures ..... Oct. 16,'36. 6....

Red Hot Music ..... Mar. 5,'37. 6....

Robin Hood in an Arrow Escape (11-21-36) ..... Nov. 13,'36. 7....

Salty McGuire ..... Jan. 6,'37. 7....

School Birds ..... Apr. 30,'37. 7....

Tin Can Tourist, The (2-6-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37. 7....

Villain Still Pursued Her, The ..... Sept. 3,'37†. 1 rl..

TREASURE CHEST

Chesapeake Bay Retriever, The (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 13,'36. 11....

Crystal Ballet ..... May 28,'37. 11....

Feminine Form (8-29-36) .. Aug. 7,'36. 10....

How to Ski ..... Aug. 20,'37†. 11....

Krazi-Inventions (10-31-36) . Oct. 9,'36. 11....

Legend of the Lei (1-2-37) . Dec. 4,'36. 11....

Nature's Songsters (9-23-36) ..... Sept. 4,'36. 8....

Ornamental Swimming .... June 4,'37. 10....

Private Life of the Gannets . Sept.10,'37†. .....

Songs of the Danube ..... May 7,'37. 9....

Sports in the Alps (10-10-36) ..... Sept.11,'36. 9....

Symphony in Snow (11-7-36) ..... Oct. 16,'36. 9....

TWO-REEL COMEDIES

Affairs of Pierre, The (7-31-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37†19....

Amuse Yourself ..... Nov. 27,'36. 20....

Any Old Port (1-2-37) .... Nov. 6,'36. 18....

Bashful Ballerina ..... Sept.17,'37†. .....

Big Courtship, The ..... Feb. 19,'37. 17....

Chemist, The (9-24-36) ... Oct. 9,'36. 19....

Comic Artist's Home Life (4-3-37) ..... Apr. 9,'37. 18....

Ditto ..... Feb. 12,'37. 17....

Freshies ..... May 7,'37. 17....

Fun's Fun (2-6-37) ..... Feb. 5,'37. 19....

Girls Ahoy! ..... June 11,'37. 17....

Hamlet and Eggs ..... June 18,'37. 18....

Her Accidental Hero ..... May 21,'37. 17....

High-C Honeymoon ..... Jan. 1,'37. 21....

His Pest Girl ..... Apr. 30,'37. 18....

Hi-ya Doc? ..... Apr. 23,'37. 20....

Holding the Bag ..... May 14,'37. 19....

Hold It ..... Jan. 29,'37. 17....

Jail Bait ..... Jan. 8,'37. 19....

Just the Type ..... Dec. 4,'36. 20....

Love in Arms ..... May 28,'37. 18....

Love Nest on Wheels ..... Mar. 26,'37. 18....

Man to Man ..... Feb. 26,'37. 17....

Melody Girl ..... Apr. 16,'37. 17....

Mixed Magic (12-9-36) ..... Nov. 20,'36. 17....

Modern Home (11-28-36) ... Nov. 13,'36. 19....

Montague the Magnificent (8-14-37) ..... Aug. 27,'37†7....

Off the Horses (4-10-37) .... Mar. 5,'37. 19....

Pixilated ..... Mar. 19,'37. 18....

Practically Perfect (1-30-37) . Jan. 15,'37. 21....

Rah Rah Rhythm (11-21-36) . Oct. 23,'36. 18....

Ready to Serve (4-10-37) ... Mar. 12,'37. 15....

Screen Test, The (12-19-36) . Dec. 13,'36. 19....

Slacks Appeal ..... Aug. 13,'37†19....

Smart Way, The ....

Spring is Here ..... Oct. 30,'36. 20....

Sweeties ..... Sept. 3,'37†15....

That's the Spirit ..... June 25,'37. 17....

Timid Ghost, The ..... Sept.24,'37†. .....

Transatlantic Love ..... Dec. 25,'36. 20....

Uncle Sol Solves It ....

Who's Crazy? ..... Aug. 20,'37†. .....

Whose Baby Are You? (11-7-36) ..... Oct. 2,'36. 18....

Will You Stop! ..... Sept.10,'37†. .....

HOFFBERG

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Baltimore, Home of Wally Simpson ....

Bamboo (5-29-37) ..... July 16,'37. 10....

Broadway Dance Parade .... June 15,'37. 10....

Busy Spots in Florida ..... Jan. 20,'37. 12....

Floridian Curiosities (5-29-37) ..... Jan. 10,'37. 11..

Hollywood Magic (5-29-37) ..... 10....

In Shanghai (6-5-37) ..... July 16,'37. 12....

Isle of Paradise ..... July 30,'37. 20....

Spanish Interlude, A ..... June 15,'37. .....

Sport of Flying ..... Sept.12,'36. .....

IMPERIAL

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

EDGAR GUEST POETIC GEMS

Boyhood ..... 8....

Old Prospector, The ..... 8....

Early in the Mornin' ..... 8....

NOVELTIES

Nero ..... 8....

Hobo Hero ..... 9....

PORT O' CALL

City of the Sun ..... 9....

Last Resort ..... 9....

Seventh Wonder ..... 9....

WORLD IN COLOR

Beneath Coral Seas ..... 8....

Dream Harbor ..... 8....

Under the Southern Cross ..... 8....

MGM

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

No. 9—Torture Money (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 2,'37. 20....

No. 10—It May Happen to You (8-14-37) ..... June 5,'37. 21....

No. 11—Soak the Poor .... Aug.21,'37. 16....

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Colorful Bombay (5-8-37) ..... 8....

Colorful Islands (1-2-37) .. Nov. 14,'36. 9....

Floral Japan ..... July 24,'37. 8....

Glimpses of Java and Ceylon (4-10-37) ..... Mar. 6,'37. 9....

Glimpses of Peru ....

Hong Kong, Hub of China (6-26-37) ..... May 1,'37. 8....

India on Parade ..... Feb. 6,'37. 9....

Oriental Paradise ..... Nov. 14,'36. 8....

Picturesque South Africa (2-20-37) ..... Jan. 9,'37. 9....

Quaint Quebec ..... Sept.12,'36. 9....

Rocky Mountain Grandeur (7-24-37) ..... June 26,'37. 8....

Serene Siam (6-26-37) ..... May 29,'37. 9....

Yellowstone Park (12-19-36) ..... Oct. 24,'36. 9....

HARMAN-ISING

(Happy Harmonies)

26—Pups' Christmas (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 12,'36. 8....

27—Circus Daze ..... Jan. 16,'37. 9....

28—Swing Wedding ..... Feb. 13,'37. 8....

29—Bosko's Easter Eggs (4-3-37) ..... Mar. 20,'37. 8....

30—Bosko and the Pirates (5-8-37) ..... May 1,'37. 8....

31—Hound and the Rabbit, The (6-26-37) ..... May 29,'37. 8....

32—Wayward Pups (8-14-37) ..... July 10,'37. 9....

No. 33—Bosko and the Cannibals ..... Aug. 28,'37. 10....

M-G-M MINIATURES

Great American Pie Company ..... Nov. 9,'36. 11....

Have Courage (7-24-37) .... June 12,'37. 10....

Hollywood: Second Step (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 5,'36. 10....

How to Be a Detective (1-23-37) ..... Oct. 17,'36. 9....

How to Vote (9-3-36) ..... Sept. 5,'36. 10....

Pacific Paradise ....

Romance of Digestion ..... Mar. 13,'37. 11....

What Do You Think? ..... Jan. 23,'37. 10....

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Carnival in Paris (6-26-37) . May 29,'37. 21....

Girl's Best Years, A (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 25,'37. 19....

Hollywood Party (5-8-37) ... Apr. 3,'37. 21....

No Place Like Rome (11-7-36) ..... Sept.26,'36. 19....

Some Time Soon (4-10-37) .. Mar. 6,'37. 20....

Violets in Spring (9-5-36) .. Sept. 5,'36. 21....

OUR GANG

Fishy Tales ..... Aug. 28,'37. .....

Glove Taps (4-10-37) ..... Feb. 20,'37. 11....

Hearts Are Thumps ..... Apr. 3,'37. 11....

Night 'n' Gales ..... July 24,'37. 11....

Reunion in Rhythm ..... Jan. 9,'37. 11....

Roamin' Holiday (7-31-37) . June 12,'37. 11....

Rushin' Ballet (8-28-37) ... Apr. 24,'37. 11....

Spooky Hooky (3-6-37) ..... Dec. 5,'36. 11....

Three Smart Boys (5-8-37) . Mar. 13,'37. 11....

Two Too Young (11-7-36) .. Sept.26,'36. 10....

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title Rel. Date Min.

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Star-Rac's Night Out.....Feb. 27,'37.10....
Dexterity (2-27-37) .....Jan. 16,'37..9....
Equestrian Acrobatics ....Aug. 14,'37..8....
Gilding the Lily.....Feb. 6,'37..8....
Golf Mistakes (6-26-37)....June 12,'37.10....
Grand Bounce, The
(6-26-37) .....May 22,'37.11....
Hurling (1-9-37) .....Nov. 14,'36.10....
Olympic Ski Champions
(11-7-36) .....July 3,'37.10....
Penny Wisdom (5-8-37)....Apr. 10,'37.10....
Pigskin Champions .....Aug. 14,'37.....
Ski Skill (4-10-37).....10....
(Reviewed under the title, "Ski Thrill")
Sports on Ice.....July 24,'37.10....
Tennis Tactics (5-8-37)....May 1,'37.10....
Wanted—A Master (1-2-37).Dec. 26,'36.10....

ROBERT BENCHLEY

How to Start the Day.....10....

SPECIAL

Servant of the People
(3-20-37) .....Apr. 9,'37.21....
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 87.)

TABLOID MUSICALS

Bars and Stripes (5-8-37)..Feb. 20,'37.11....
Dancing on the Ceiling....Jan. 2,'37..9....
Little Maestro (4-17-37)...Mar. 27,'37.11....
Song of Revolt (7-24-37)...May 29,'37.11....
Swing Bandity (9-5-36)...Sept.19,'36.11....

PARAMOUNT

Title Rel. Date Min.

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Be Human .....Nov. 20,'36..7....
Candid Candidate, The....Aug. 27,'37†.1 rl..
Ding Dong Doggie.....July 23,'37†.7....
Grampy's Indoor Outing..Oct. 16,'36..7....
House Cleaning Blues.....Jan. 15,'37..7....
Hot Air Salesman, The
(3-20-37) .....Mar. 12,'37..7....
Impractical Joker, The
(7-3-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
Making Friends .....Dec. 18,'36..7....
Pudgy Takes a Bow-Wow...Apr. 9,'37..7....
Pudgy Picks a Fight
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37..8....
Service With a Smile.....Sept.24,'37†.7....
Whoops! I'm a Cowboy.....Feb. 12,'37..7....

COLOR CLASSICS

Bunny-Mooning (3-13-37)..Feb. 12,'37..7....
Car-Tune Portrait, A
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37..7....
Chicken a la King.....Apr. 16,'37..8....
Christmas Comes But Once
a Year .....Dec. 4,'36..8....
Peeping Penguins .....Aug. 27,'37†.7....
Play Safe .....Oct. 16,'36..7....

HEADLINERS

Blue Velvet Music.....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Mark Warnow and Orch.
Friml Favorites (7-3-37)..June 4,'37.11....
Rudolf Friml, Jr., and Orch.
Hollywood Star Reporter,
No. 2 .....Oct. 29,'37†.1 rl..
Hula Heaven .....Oct. 1,'37†11....
Eddie Peabody
Installment Collector, The...July 24,'37.10....
Fred Allen
Let's Go Latin.....Sept.10.'37†11....
Xavier Cugat and Orch.
Musical Charmers .....Oct. 9,'36.11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Music by Morgan.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Russ Morgan and Orch.
Music, Music Everywhere..Dec. 18,'36.11....
Clyde Lucas and Orch.
Night in Manhattan.....July 30,'37.11....
Queens of Harmony.....Aug. 20.'37†11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Rah, Rah, Football.....Oct. 30.'36.10....
Will Osborne and Orch.
Song Hits on Parade.....Jan. 15,'37.10....
Freddie Rich & Orch.
Star Reporter in Hollywood
(11-21-37) .....Nov. 20,'36..9....
Ted Husing-Bennie Bart-
lett-Dorothy Lamour
Star Reporter, The, No. 2
(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,'37.11....
Vincent Lopez and Orch.
Boswell Sisters
Swing, Hutton, Swing.....May 7,'37.11....
Ina Ray Hutton and Orch.

MUSICAL ROMANCE
(Technicolor)

In Old Wyoming (2-27-37).Jan. 15,'37..9....
Schubert's Serenade .....July 23,'37..9....
Song of the Islands.....
(5-22-37) .....May 21,'37.10....

Title Rel. Date Min.

Trees (3-20-37) .....Mar. 19,'37..9....
Western Sketches .....Nov. 20,'36.10....

PARAGRAPHICS

Aviator Shorty .....July 23,'37.10....
Broadway Highlights, No. 8. Dec. 11,'36.10....
Broadway Highlight, No. 9.....10....
Circus Comes to Town, The
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37.10....
Cowboy Shorty .....Oct. 8,'37†.1 rl..
Game Trails .....Apr. 30,'37.10....
It's a Good Stunt.....Sept.10,'37†10....
It's a Living.....Mar. 5,'37.11....
Killer of the Tonto.....Aug. 13,'37†10....
Nobody Home .....Apr. 2,'37.10....
Rhythm of the River.....Oct. 9,'36.10....
Safety in the Air
(5-22-37) .....May 28,'37.10....
Sailor Shorty .....Oct. 23,'36.10....
That's Their Business.....Nov. 13,'36.11....
Where Champions Meet
(2-20-37) .....Jan. 8,'37..9....
Where Snow Is King.....Feb. 5,'37..9....

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL

No. 3 — Miss Christopher
Columbus—Take a Number—Keep Out! Lions....Oct. 16,'36.10....
No. 4—A Modern Monster
— Furs on Parade — All
Aboard .....Nov. 13,'36.11....
No. 5 — Bamboo—Clamdig-
gers' Rodeo — Vienna
Boys' Choir .....Dec. 11,'36.10....
No. 6—Cornering a Killer
— Twilight — Let's All
Learn to Ski.....Jan. 8,'37..9....
No. 7 — Magic Caverns —
Albert Payson Terhune—
Swing Fashions .....Feb. 12,'37..9....
No. 8 — Tides of Fundy—
Home of the Rainbow—
Meet the Lorias.....Mar. 12,'37.10....
No. 9—Moonlight and
Shadows — Rooftops of
Manhattan—Blackie and
Brownie .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
No. 10 — Sailboat Time —
Twilight on the Trail—
Magnetic Music (5-22-37).May 7,'37.10....
No. 11—Fishing Highlights.June 4,'37.11....
No. 12—(7-3-37) .....July 2,'37.10....

NEW SERIES

No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†.1 rl..
No. 2 .....Sept. 3,'37†.1 rl..
No. 3 .....Oct. 1,'37†.1 rl..

POPEYE THE SAILOR

Hold the Wire.....Oct. 23,'36..7....
Hospitaliky .....Apr. 16,'37..7....
I Like Babies and Infants..Sept.17,'37†.7....
I'm in the Army Now.....Dec. 25,'36..7....
I Never Change My
Altitude .....Aug.20,'37†.7....
Lost and Foundry.....July 16,'37..7....
Morning, Noon and Night
Club (6-26-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
My Artistical Temperature..Mar. 19,'37..7....
Organ Grinder's Swing
(3-6-37) .....Feb. 19,'37..7....
Paneless Window Washer,
The (2-27-37).....Jan. 22,'37..7....
Popeye the Sailor Meets
Sinbad the Sailor
(11-14-36) .....Nov. 27,'36..7....
(Technicolor special)
Spinach Roadster, The.....Nov. 27,'36..7....
Twisker Pitcher, The.....May 21,'37..7....

PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS

Two Editions Weekly

POPULAR SCIENCE
(Cinecolor)

No. 2 (11-28-36).....Oct. 30,'36.10....
No. 3 .....Dec. 25,'36.11....
No. 4 (3-2-27).....Feb. 26,'37.11....
No. 5 .....Apr. 30,'37.11....
No. 6 .....July 2,'37.11....

NEW SERIES

No. 1 .....Sept. 3,'37†.1 rl..

SCREEN SONGS

Never Should Have Told
You (3-6-37) .....Jan. 29,'37..8....
Nat Brandwynne and Orch.
Please Keep Me In Your
Dreams (5-22-37).....May 28,'37..8....
Henry King and Orch.
Talking Through My Heart.Nov. 27,'36..7....
Dick Stabile and Orch.
Twilight on the Trail.....Mar.26,'37..7....
The Westerners
Whispers in the Dark.....Sept.24,'37†.1 rl..

Title Rel. Date Min.

You Came to My Rescue...July 30,'37..8....
Shep Fields and Orch.

GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS
(NEW SERIES)

No. 30—Sporting Quiz, The
(11-21-36) .....Nov. 6,'36.10....
No. 31—Chimp Champs....Dec. 4,'36.10....
No. 32—Sporting Pals.....Jan. 1,'37.10....
No. 33—Underwater Re-
mance, An (3-6-37).....Jan. 29,'37.10....
No. 34—On the Nose
(3-13-37) .....Feb. 26,'37.10....
No. 35—King Soccer .....Mar.26,'37.10....
No. 36—Wrestling (It's a
Laugh) .....Apr. 23,'37.10....
No. 37—Swing Stars
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37.10....
No. 38—Pan-American
Champions (7-3-37) .....June 11,'37.10....
No. 39—Rhythm of the
Game (7-10-37) .....July 9,'37.10....
No. 40—Aquabats .....Aug.13,'37†10....
No. 41—Picking Pets.....Sept.10,'37†11....
No. 42—Four Smart Dogs..Oct. 8,'37†.....

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS
(Cinecolor)

No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†.1 rl..
No. 2 .....Oct. 8,'37†.1 rl..

RKO RADIO

Title Rel. Date Min.

CONDOR MUSICALES

Frozen Affair, A (8-28-37).Sept.17,'37†10....
Murder in Swing Time
(9-4-37) .....Sept.27,'37†10....

HEADLINER SERIES

1—Lalapaloosa .....Nov. 20,'36.16....
2—Singing in the Air.....Feb. 19,'37.19....
3—Rhythm on the Rampage
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 2,'37.18½..
4—Swing Fever .....July 25,'37.20....

EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES

Bad Housekeeping (4-10-37).Mar. 5,'37.19....
Dumb's the Word.....June 11,'37.18....
Hillbilly Goat (1-23-37)...Jan. 15,'37.18....
Locks and Bonds.....Apr. 16,'37.19....
Morning Judge .....Sept.24,'37†.....
Tramp Trouble .....Aug. 6,'37.16....

MARCH OF TIME

No. 3 .....Nov. 3,'36.21....
No. 4 (12-12-36).....Nov. 27,'36.22....
No. 5 .....Dec. 25,'36.19....
No. 6 .....Jan. 22,'37.19....
No. 7 .....Feb. 19,'37.21....
No. 8 .....Mar. 19,'37.20....
No. 9 (4-17-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.21....
No. 10 .....May 14,'37.18....
No. 11 .....June 11,'37.18....
No. 12 .....July 9,'37.18....
No. 13 .....Aug. 6,'37.18....
1937-38
No. 1 .....Sept. 3,'37†.....

MICKEY MOUSE

Clock Cleaners, The
(8-28-37) .....8....
Hawaiian Holiday
(9-4-37) .....8....

NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS

Rhythm in a Night Court
(9-4-37) .....Sept.24,'37†.9....

PATHE NEWS

Released twice a week

PATHE PARADE

No. 1 .....Sept.10,'37†.....

PATHE REVIEWS

Released once a month

PATHE TOPICS

Released seven times a year

RADIO FLASH COMEDIES

Don't Be Like That
(1-30-37) .....Dec. 4,'36.18....
Horse Play (4-3-37).....Mar.13,'37.18....

RADIO MUSICAL COMEDIES

Deep South (1-23-37).....Jan. 1,'37.17....
Mississippi Moods
(7-31-37) .....July 23,'37.17....
That Man Samson.....May 28,'37.19....

SMART SET

Grandma's Buoys (1-2-37)..Dec. 18,36.16....
Inlawful .....Apr. 30,'37.17....

SPECIAL

Day With the Dionne
Quintuplets, A (4-24-37) .Mar.26,'37.18....

SPORTS WITH BILL CORUM

Beach Sports .....June 4,'37..9½..
Big League .....May 7,'37.11....
Foreign Sports .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Golf Timing (8-21-37).....July 23,'37.11....
Iceman, The .....Jan. 15,'37..9....
Ladies' Day .....Dec. 18,'36.11....

Title Rel. Date Min.

Putting On the Dog.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Royal Steeds .....July 2,'37.10....
Saratoga Summers
(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,37.11....

SINGING WHEELS

Singing Wheels (12-26-36) .Nov. 20,'36.11....

STRUGGLE TO LIVE

Deadly Females .....Nov.13,'36..9½..
Desert Land .....Apr. 5,'37..9....
Forest Gangsters (1-23-37).Jan. 8,'37..9....

SUPERBA COMEDIES

Bridal Grief .....Feb. 5,'37.19....
One Live Ghost.....Nov. 6,'36.21....
Wife Insurance (8-14-37). .July 9,'37.18....
Wrong Romance, The.....May 14,'37.19....

WORLD ON PARADE

California Missions
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.11....
Circus Winter Quarters.....May 14,'37.11....
Florida Cowboy .....June 11,'37..9½..
Gold Mania (1-16-37).....Dec. 25,'36.11....
Graveyard of Ships (1-2-37) .Nov. 27,'36.11....
Heart of the Sierras.....Nov. 6,'36.11....
Jungle Playmate .....July 30,'37..9....
Manhattan Waterfront
(3-27-37) .....Feb. 19,'37.11....
Mt. Vernon .....Mar. 19,'37.10....
Romantic Mexico .....Jan. 22,'37.10....
Trinidad .....Sept.11,'36.10....
Workshops of Old Mexico. July 9,'37.11....

STATE RIGHTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

ALEXANDER

Trailing the Seashore
(1-9-37) .....11....

AMERICAN RED CROSS

Behind the Flood Headlines
(5-8-37) .....11....

ASTOR

Carmen (5-29-37) .....9....
Halt! Who Goes There?
(5-29-37) .....9....

FILM EXCHANGE

Ski-Esta (1-2-37).....10....

MATSON

Coronation Preview
(3-27-37) .....10....

ROGERS SPECIAL

Lest We Forget (5-1-37).....1 rl..

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

I Pledge My Heart (8-7-37).....11....

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Title Rel. Date Min.

ADVENTURES OF THE
NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN

Bone Bender Parade
(8-14-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Dogging It Around the
World .....Nov. 13,'36.10....
Looking for Trouble.....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Paeing the Thoroughbreds..Sept.25,'36.....
Ski Parade, The.....Feb. 5,'37.....
Sports Headliners of 1936
(11-21-36) .....Oct. 30,'36.10....

MAGIC CARPET SERIES

Land of Genghis Kahn
(2-6-37) .....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Philippine Fantasy
(11-7-36) .....Sept.25,'36.....
Portraits of Portugal
(8-7-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Touring Brazil (12-18-36)..Nov. 13,'36.10....
Western Grandeur (4-3-37).Feb. 5,'37..9½..

UNITED ARTISTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

MICKEY MOUSE

103. Alpine Climbers
(8-22-36) .....Oct. 28,'36†.9½..
104. Mickey's Circus
(8-15-36) .....Nov. 11,'36†.8....
105. Donald and Pluto
(11-14-36) .....Dec. 12,'36†.8....
107. Mickey's Elephant
(11-14-36) .....Feb. 19,'37†.9....
108. Don Donald (1-16-37).....8½..
109. Worm Turns, The
(1-23-37) .....Apr. 17,'37†.8½..
110. Magician Mickey ....June 17,'37†.8½..
111. Mickey's Amateurs
(6-19-37) .....1 rl..
112. Moose Hunters .....Aug. 5,'37†.9....

SILLY SYMPHONIES

106. Three Blind Mouseketeers (11-28-36)...Jan. 28,'37†.7....
108. Country Cousin, The
(11-21-36) .....Dec. 17,'36†.6½..
109. Mother Pluto
(11-21-36) .....Mar. 6,'37†.6½..
110. More Kittens (1-9-37) .Mar.27,'37†.8½..

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
111. Woodland Cafe (6-26-37)		1 rl..
112. Little Hiawatha (6-26-37)		1 rl..
113. Modern Inventions (6-26-37)		1 rl..

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
GOING PLACES with LOWELL THOMAS
No. 29	Oct. 26,'36..	9....
No. 30	Nov. 23,'36.	10....
No. 31	Dec. 21,'36..	9....
No. 32 (2-6-37)	Feb. 1,'37..	9½..
No. 33 (3-27-37)	Mar. 15,'37..	9....
No. 34 (4-17-37)	Mar. 22,'37..	8....
No. 35 (4-17-37)	Apr. 12,'37..	7....
No. 36 (5-15-37)	May 10,'37..	9½..
No. 37 (5-15-37)	June 7,'37..	9½..
No. 38 (7-24-37)	July 26,'37.	10....
No. 39
No. 40
MEANY-MINY-MOE CARTOONS
Air Express	Sept. 20,'37†	6....
Big Race, The (3-13-37)	Mar. 3,'37..	7....
Country Store (8-7-37)	July 5,'37..	7....
Fireman's Picnic	Aug. 16,'37..	6½..
Golfers, The (2-13-37)	Jan. 11,'37..	8½..
House of Magic (2-13-37)	Feb. 8,'37..	8....
Knights for a Day (1-9-37)	Dec. 28,'36..	7....
Lumber Camp (3-20-37)	Mar. 15,'37..	7....
Ostrich Feathers	Sept. 6,'37†	7....
Rest Resort	Aug. 23,'37..	7....
Steel Workers (5-15-37)	Apr. 26,'37..	7....
Stevedores, The	May 24,'37..	7....
Turkey Dinner	Nov. 30,'36..	8....
MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES
Alpine Cabaret (8-14-37)	Aug. 4,'37.	10....
Bargain Matinee (3-20-37)	Apr. 14,'37.	10....
Cocktail Party, The (5-15-37)	May 12,'37.	10....
Fun Begins at Home	Feb. 17,'37.	10....
Hawaiian Capers	Sept. 8,'37†	9....
It's on the Record	Mar. 17,'37.	10½..
Royal Cafe	Nov. 25,'36.	10....
School for Swing (2-6-37)	Jan. 20,'37.	10....
Shoes with Rhythm (5-15-37)	June 9,'37.	10....
Singing Bandit, The (7-3-37)	July 7,'37.	10....
Teddy Bergman's Bar-B-Q	Oct. 6,'37†	9....
Television Highlights	Dec. 23,'36.	10....
OSWALD CARTOONS
Birthday Party, The	Mar. 29,'37..	6½..
Duck Hunt (3-13-37)	Mar. 8,'37..	7....
Everybody Sings (1-30-37)	Feb. 22,'37..	7....
Gopher Trouble	Nov. 30,'36..	7....
Night Life of the Bugs (10-3-36)	Oct. 9,'36..	8....
Playful Pup, The (7-31-37)	July 12,'37..	7....
Puppet Show (10-13-36)	Nov. 9,'36..	8½..
Trailer Thrills (5-15-37)	May 3,'37..	7....
Unpopular Mechanic (10-17-36)	Nov. 6,'36..	8....
Wily Weasel, The	June 7,'37..	7....
STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES
No. 29—Novelty (9-24-36)	Nov. 9,'36..	8½..
No. 30—Novelty (12-26-36)	Dec. 7,'36.	10....
No. 31—Novelty (1-2-37)	Jan. 4,'37..	9....
No. 32—Novelty (1-30-37)	Feb. 1,'37..	9....
No. 33—Novelty (2-13-37)	Mar. 1,'37..	9....
No. 34—Novelty (4-17-37)	Mar. 29,'37..	9....
No. 35—Novelty (4-17-37)	Apr. 26,'37..	9....
No. 36—Novelty (4-17-37)	May 24,'37..	8....
No. 37—Novelty (7-3-37)	June 21,'37..	8½..
No. 38—Novelty (5-15-37)	July 19,'37..	9....
No. 39—Novelty (7-24-37)	Aug. 16,'37..	9....
No. 40—Novelty	Sept. 6,'37†	9....
No. 41—Novelty	Oct. 4,'37†	9....
No. 42—Novelty	Nov. 1,'37†	9....
UNIVERSAL SPECIAL
Hollywood Screen Test (8-14-37)	Aug. 30,'37†	21...
King Edward the VIIII	Dec. 14,'36..	9½..
You Can't Get Away With It	Nov. 30,'36.	25....

VITAPHONE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
BIG TIME VAUDEVILLE REEL
Vitaphone Internationals	Oct. 17,'36.	11....
Holtz-Lee
Vaudeville Is Back	Nov. 14,'36.	11....
Johnny Perkins
Vaudo-Villians	Dec. 12,'36.	10....
Marty May
Reel Vaudeville (1-30-37)	Jan. 2,'37.	11....
Harry Rose
Bed-Time Vaudeville (2-20-37)	Jan. 30,'37.	11....
Bring On the Girls	Mar. 6,'37.	11....
Edgar Bergen
Vitaphone Diversions	Apr. 3,'37.	10....
Smith and Dale
Nickel Lowdown	May 1,'37.	10....
Charles Kemper
Vitaphone Funsters (6-12-37)	May 29,'37.	11....
Johnny Burke
Vaude-Festival	June 26,'37.	.....
Fritz and Jean Hubert
Vaudeville Hits	July 17,'37.	.....
Elaine Arden
Vitaphone Broadwayites	Aug. 21,'37.	10....
Medley-Dupree
BROADWAY BREVITIES
Say It with Candy	Oct. 3,'36.	20....
Virginia Verrill
Sheik to Sheik	Oct. 10,'36.	21....
Georges Metaxa
Can't Think of It	Oct. 24,'36.	18....
Ken Murray-Oswald
Captain Bluebird	Feb. 13,'37.	.....
Georgie Price
Sunday Round-Up, The	Oct. 31,'36.	18....
Dick Foran-Linda Perry
Sweethearts and Flowers	Nov. 7,'36.	20....
Regis-Toomey-Preisser Sisters
That's Pictures (8-29-36)	Nov. 21,'36.	21....
Jay C. Flippen
Joe Palooka in "The Blonde Bomber"	Nov. 28,'36.	21....
Shemp Howard-Robert Norton
Here Comes the Circus	Dec. 5,'36.	18....
"Poodles" Hanneford
"Give Me Liberty"	Dec. 19,'36.	22....
John Litel
It's All Over Now (2-6-37)	Dec. 26,'36.	20....
Dan Healy
Joe and Asbestos In "A Horse's Tale" (2-13-37)	Jan. 9,'37.	20....
Harry Gribbon-Hamtree Harrington
Pretty Pretender, The (2-13-37)	Jan. 23,'37.	21....
Bernice Claire
Joe Palooka in "Kick Me Again" (3-6-37)	Feb. 6,'37.	21....
Shemp Howard-Robert Norton
Captain Bluebloed	Feb. 3,'37.	21....
Georgie Price
Swing for Sale (3-13-37)	Feb. 27,'37.	22....
Hal LeRoy
Under Southern Stars	Feb. 20,'37.	18....
Fred Lawrence-J. Bryan
Hotel a la Swing	Mar. 13,'37.	20....
Eddie Foy, Jr.
Mail and Female	Mar. 27,'37.	21....
Ken Murray
Play Street (4-10-37)	Apr. 3,'37.	21....
Preisser Sisters
Romance of Robert Burns (4-10-37)	Apr. 10,'37.	16....
Owen King-Linda Perry
Lifers of the Party, The	Apr. 17,'37.	21....
Yacht Club Boys
Joe Palooka in "Taking the Count"	Apr. 24,'37.	21....
Shemp Howard-Robert Norton
Movie Mania	May 8,'37.	20....
Dave Apollon
Musical Operation, A	May 15,'37.	20....
Frank Gaby-Virginia Verrill
Day at Santa Anita	May 22,'37.	18....
Sybil Jason
Sound Defects (6-12-37)	June 5,'37.	22....
Rufe Davis
Joe Palooka in "Thirst Aid"	June 12,'37.	20....
Robt. Norton-Beverly Phalen
Rhythm Roundup, The	June 19,'37.	21....
Estelle Taylor
Little Pioneer, The (7-10-37)	July 3,'37.	19....
Sybil Jason
Newsboys Nocturnes (7-10-37)	July 10,'37.	20....
Lane, Tree & Edwards
Flowers from the Sky (8-21-37)	July 24,'37.	22....
Josephine Huston
Cut Out for Love	Aug. 2,'37.	.....
Donald Novis-Dorothy Dare
Du Barry Did All Right	Aug. 7,'37.	.....
Irene Bordoni
COLORTOUR ADVENTURE (Cinecolor)
Colorful Occupations (9-19-36)	Oct. 3,'36.	10....
Northern Lights	Oct. 31,'36.	10....
Along the Mediterranean	Dec. 5,'36.	10....
Hollanders, The (1-23-37)	Jan. 2,'37.	10....
Nice Work (2-13-37)	Jan. 30,'37.	10....
Land of the Midnight Sun (3-13-37)	Feb. 27,'37.	10....
Nature the Artist (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37.	10....
Cradle of Civilization	Apr. 17,'37.	10....
Alpine Grandeur	May 15,'37.	10....
Gateway to Africa (6-12-37)	June 12,'37.	10....
Land of the Magyar (7-10-37)	July 3,'37.	.....
Crossing the Sahara	Aug. 14,'37.	.....
LOONEY TUNES
No. 28—Village Smithy, The	Nov. 14,'36..	7....
No. 29—Porky of the Northwoods (1-9-37)	Dec. 19,'36..	7....
No. 30—Porky the Wrestler	Jan. 9,'37..	7....
No. 31—Porky's Road Race	Feb. 6,'37..	7....
No. 32—Picador Porky (2-27-37)		8....
No. 33—Porky's Romance	Apr. 17,'37..	8....
No. 34—Porky's Duck Hunt	Apr. 17,'37..	8....
No. 35—Porky and Gabby (6-12-37)	May 15,'37..	8....
No. 36—Porky's Building	June 19,'37..	8....
No. 37—Porky's Super Service (7-10-37)	July 3,'37..	8....
No. 38—Porky's Bad Time Story	July 24,'37..	7....
No. 39—Porky's Railroad (8-14-37)	Aug. 7,'37..	7....
No. 40—Get Rich Porky	Aug. 28,'37	.....
No. 41—Porky's Garden	Sept. 11,'37	.....
MELODY MASTERS
Emil Coleman and Orch. (7-11-36)	Oct. 17,'36.	11....
Leon Navara and His Orch. (9-19-36)	Nov. 7,'36.	11....
Clyde McCoy and Orch. (8-29-36)	Nov. 28,'36.	10....
Jimmie Lunceford and Orch. (1-23-37)	Dec. 19,'36.	10....
George Hall and Orch.	Jan. 9,'37.	10....
Louisiana Kings	Jan. 23,'37.	10....
Roger Wolfe Kahn and Orch.	Feb. 6,'37.	10....
Cab Calloway and Orch. (3-13-37)	Feb. 20,'37.	10....
Peter Van Steeden and Orch.	Mar. 6,'37.	10....
Jacques Fray and Orch. (4-10-37)	Mar. 27,'37.	10....
Jam Session, The	Apr. 17,'37.	10....
Clyde McCoy and Orch.
Rimac Orchestra, The	May 8,'37.	10....
Jack Denny and Orch.	May 29,'37.	10....
Eliseo Grenet and Orch. (6-19-37)	June 19,'37.	10....
Lennie Hayton and Orch. (7-10-37)	July 10,'37.	10....
David Mendoza and Orch. (8-21-37)	July 31,'37.	10....
MERRIE MELODIES (In Color)
No. 27—Boulevardier of the Bronx	Oct. 10,'36..	7....
No. 28—Don't Look Now	Nov. 7,'36..	7....
No. 29—Cooeoonut Grove	Nov. 28,'36..	7....
No. 30—He Was He' Man	Jan. 2,'37..	7....
No. 31—Pigs Is Pi's (1-16-37)	Jan. 30,'37..	7....
No. 32—I Only Have Eyes for You (3-6-37)	Mar. 6,'37..	8....
No. 33—The Fella with the Fiddle (4-10-37)	Mar. 27,'37..	8....
No. 34—She Was an Acrobat's Daughter	Apr. 10,'37..	8....
No. 35—Ain't We Got Fun	May 1,'37..	8....
No. 36—Clean Pastures	May 22,'37.	.....
No. 37—Uncle Tom's Bungalow	June 5,'37.	.....
No. 38—Streamlined Greta Green (6-12-37)	June 19,'37..	8....
No. 39—Sweet Sioux (7-10-37)	June 26,'37..	8....
No. 40—Egghead Rides Again	July 17,'37..	8....
No. 41—Plenty of Money and You	July 31,'37..	7....
No. 42—Sunbonnet Blue	Aug. 21,'37.	.....
No. 43—Speaking of the Weather (8-21-37)	Sept. 4,'37..	7....
No. 44—Dog Daze	Sept. 18,'37.	.....
PICTORIAL REVIEWS
No. 4—Southern Wear—Aviation (1-23-37)	Dec. 26,'36.	11....
No. 5—Sports Afloat (2-6-37)	Jan. 16,'37.	10....
No. 6—Swimming — Wood Carving	Feb. 13,'37.	10....
No. 7—Phonograph Records —Lipsticks (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37.	11....
No. 8—Coiffeurs—Shoes	Apr. 10,'37.	10....
No. 9—Hats—Bathing Suits	May 11,'37.	10....
No. 10—Dancing-Leather (6-5-37)	May 22,'37.	10....
No. 11—Milk—Rugs	June 19,'37.	10....
No. 12—Pianos-Art (8-14-37)	July 17,'37.	10....
No. 13—Books—Furs	Aug. 28,'37.	.....
VITAPHONE NOVELTIES
Nut Guilty—(6-27)	Nov. 21,'36.	10....
Oklahoma As Is	Dec. 19,'36.	11....
Cal Tinney
Poets of the Organ (8-22)	Jan. 16,'37.	.....
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crawford
Whale Ho (7-14)	Feb. 13,'37.	10....
Medium Well Done	Mar. 6,'37.	10....
Hardeen
Ghost to Ghost Hookup, A	Apr. 3,'37.	11....
Radio Ramblers
Home Run on the Keys (4-3-37)	Apr. 24,'37..	9....
Babe Ruth
Check Your Cash	May 22,'37.	10....
Louis Zingone
Double Talk (6-5-37)	June 26,'37.	10....
Edgar Bergen
Palm Beach Knights	July 31,'37.	.....
Charles Ahearn
Lyin' Tamer, The (7-11-36)	Aug. 28,'37.	.....
George Jessel

WM. STEINER

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eagle's Vengeance, The	July 29,'37†	20....

WORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Battling Bettas	July 8,'37†	10....
Men of Ships	Sept. 10,'37†	9....

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Jungle Menace (9-4-37) ..... 20....
Frank Buck-C. Henry (each)
(15 episodes)

REPUBLIC

Dick Tracy 6401 (2-27-37) Feb. 20,'37† .....
Ralph Byrd-Kay Hughes
(15 episodes)
Painted Stallion, The 6421 June 5,'37† .....
Ray Corrigan-Hoot Gibson
Robinson Crusoe of Clipper Island 3583 ..... Nov. 14,'36. .....
Mala-Mamo Clark
(14 episodes)
S. O. S. Coast Guard 6441 ..... Aug. 29,'37† .....
Ralph Byrd-Maxine Doyle
Zorro Rides Again 6461 ... Nov. 20,'37† .....
John Carroll

UNIVERSAL

Jungle Jim (12-26) ..... Jan. 18,'37.. 2 rls.
Grant Withers-Betty Jane Rhodes (each)
Radio Patrol ..... Oct. 4,'37† 2 rls.
Grant Withers-Cecil Hughes (each)
Secret Agent X9 ..... Apr. 12,'37.. 2 rls.
Scott Kolk-Jean Rogers (each)
Wild West Days (6-26-37) July 5,'37† 2 rls.
Johnny Mack Brown (each)
(13 episodes)

VICTORY

Blake of Scotland Yard ... Apr. 15,'37 .....
Ralph Byrd-Herbert Rawlinson
(15 episodes—also feature version)
Shadows of Chinatown ..... Oct. 10,'36 .....
Bela Lugosi-Herman Brix
(15 episodes—also feature version)

THEATRE RECEIPTS

The total of theatre receipts for the calendar week ended September 4, 1937, from 100 theatres in 17 major cities of the country was $1,146,006, a decrease of $6,898 from the total for the preceding week ended August 28, 1937, when 96 theatres in 16 large cities aggregated $1,152,904.

(Copyright, 1937. Reproduction of material from this department without specific written permission from MOTION PICTURE HERALD expressly forbidden.)

Theatres	Seats	Price	(Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937) Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week — Picture	Gross	Previous Week — Picture	Gross
Boston
Boston	3,246	25c-65c	$17,700	"The Man Who Cried Wolf" (Univ.) and "Way Out West" (MGM)	8,000	"I Cover the War" (Univ.) and "One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox)	8,000
Fenway	1,382	30c-50c	5,300	"Artists and Models" (Para.) and.. "She's No Lady" (Para.)	5,000	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox)	4,500
RKO Memorial	2,907	25c-65c	13,600	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	13,000	"It's All Yours" (Col.) and "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	17,000
Loew's Orpheum	2,970	35c-65c	14,500	"Topper" (MGM) and "Between Two Women" (MGM)	18,000	"Stella Dallas" (U. A.) and "The Devil Is Driving" (Col.) (2nd week)	14,000
Loew's State	3,537	35c-65c	13,100	"Topper" (MGM) and "Between Two Women" (MGM)	15,000	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and "The Devil Is Driving" (Col.) (2nd week)	12,500
Metropolitan	4,332	35c-75c	26,200	"Confession" (F.N.) (stage: Harriet Hayes)	16,000	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (stage: Nick Long, Jr.)	22,000
Paramount	1,793	25c-50c	8,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) and.. "She's No Lady" (Para.)	8,000	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox)	7,000
Buffalo
Buffalo	3,489	30c-50c	14,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.)	14,766	"Stella Dallas" (U. A.)	18,700
Century	3,000	25c	7,000	"Four Aces" (Ind.) and "Off Again—On Again" (RKO)	5,123	"Hell Divers" (MGM) and "The Great Hospital Mystery" (20th Cent.-Fox)	8,600
Great Lakes	3,000	25c-40c	10,100	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,285	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (1st week)	18,600
Hippodrome	2,500	25c-40c	9,000	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.)	6,950	"Ever Since Eve" (F.N.) and "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop" (F.N.)	6,200
Lafayette	3,300	25c	8,300	"King Solomon Mines" (GB) and.. "Girls Can Play" (Col.)	5,500	"Rhythm in the Clouds" (Rep.) and "Jim Hanvey, Detective" (Rep.)	5,600
Chicago
Apollo	1,400	35c-75c	7,100	"Trader Horn" (MGM)	6,800	"Saratoga" (MGM) (2nd week)	5,500
Chicago	4,000	35c-75c	35,500	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (stage: Jack Denny and Orch.)	45,000	"Confession" (F. N.) (stage: Rudy Vallee and Orch.)	52,000
Erlanger	1,200	50c-$1.50	11,000	"The Life of Emile Zola" (F.N.)..	14,800	"The Firefly" (MGM) (3rd week)	5,000
Garrick	900	35c-75c	6,800	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	6,000	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) (1st week)	8,000
Oriental	3,490	35c-55c	17,500	"It's All Yours" (Col.) (stage: Jack La Rue-Vince Barnett)	18,000	"One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox) (stage: Lou Holtz)	13,000
Palace	2,509	35c-75c	19,900	"Make a Wish" (RKO) (stage: Red Norvo and Band)	20,000	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (stage: Barto and Mann)	19,000
Roosevelt	1,591	35c-75c	13,000	"Captains Courageous" (MGM) (2nd week)	11,500	"Captains Courageous" (MGM) (1st week)	16,000
State-Lake	2,776	20c-40c	14,800	"Reported Missing" (Univ.) (plus stage show)	13,200	"Hell Divers" (MGM) (stage: Verne Buck and revue)	15,000
United Artists	1,700	35c-75c	17,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (3rd week)	10,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (2nd week)	12,000
Cleveland
Allen	3,300	30c-42c	5,700	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	5,500	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) (1st week)	8,500
Hippodrome	3,800	30c-42c	12,700	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)	16,000	"Confession" (F. N.)	11,500
RKO Palace	3,100	30c-60c	17,800	"It's All Yours" (Col.) (stage: Roscoe Ates and vaudeville)	16,500	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus vaudeville)	17,000
State	3,400	30c-42c	17,200	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	19,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM)	22,000
Stillman	1,900	30c-42c	5,200	"The Good Earth" (MGM)	7,500	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.)	6,500
Denver
Aladdin	1,500	25c-50c	3,400	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)	5,000	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox)	3,000
Broadway	1,500	25c-40c	2,300	"Platinum Blonde" (Col.) and "A Dangerous Adventure" (Col.) (3 days) "Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (4 days)	800 2,000	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox)	2,500
Denham	1,500	25c-40c	6,700	"Blonde Trouble" (Para.)	3,500	"No Man of Her Own" (Para.)	4,000
Denver	2,500	25c-50c	9,600	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage band)	18,000	"Lost Horizon" (Col.) (plus stage band)	19,000
Orpheum	2,500	25c-40c	7,300	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "Border Cafe" (RKO)	12,000	"Topper" (MGM) and "Between Two Women" (MGM)	10,000
Paramount	2,000	25c-40c	3,400	"One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Armored Car" (Univ.)	3,500	"Born Reckless" (20th Cent.-Fox).. "Michael O'Halloran" (Rep.) (3 days) "Outlaws of the Orient" (Col.) and "Fight to the Finish" (Col.) (4 days)	800 1,700

[THEATRE RECEIPTS--CONT'D]

Theatres	Seats	Price	Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week — Picture	Current Week — Gross	Previous Week — Picture	Previous Week — Gross
Hollywood			(Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937)
Chinese	2,500	30c-55c	11,600	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox)	12,427	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	17,977
Pantages	3,000	30c-65c	8,100	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	6,000	"Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox) "Riding on Air" (RKO) and "Night Key" (Univ.)	5,900
W. B. Hollywood	3,000	30c-65c	10,400	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and "Talent Scout" (F.N.) (2nd week)	9,800	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and "Talent Scout" (F.N.) (1st week)	15,000
Indianapolis
Apollo	1,100	25c-40c	4,400	"Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	2,500	"One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox)	3,800
Circle	2,800	25c-40c	6,300	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and "Blonde Trouble" (Para.)	7,000	"The Toast of New York" (RKO) and "Big Shot" (RKO)	6,000
Loew's	2,800	25c-40c	8,200	"Dead End" (U.A.) and "It Can't Last Forever" (Col.)	10,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM)	9,800
Lyric	2,000	25c-40c	9,300	"Confession" (F.N.) (stage: Eddy Duchin and Orch.)	16,000	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show)	11,000
Kansas City
Empress	1,500	25c	....	"Backstage" (GB) and "The Great Hospital Mystery" (20th Cent.-Fox) (6 days)	1,800	"Damaged Goods" (G.N.) and "Killers of the Sea" (G.N.) (6 days-2nd week)	2,800
Fox	2,200	25c-40c	7,400	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show)	11,000	.....
Mainstreet	3,100	25c-40c	9,300	"Confession" (F.N.) and "Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" (F.N.) (6 days)	4,700	"The Toast of New York" (RKO) and "Fly-Away Baby" (W.B.)	8,700
Midland	4,000	25c-40c	12,000	"Topper" (MGM) and "Men Are Not Gods" (U.A.)	12,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM)	14,300
Newman	1,900	25c-40c	7,380	"The Great Gambini" (Para.) and "Dance, Charlie, Dance" (F.N.) (5 days)	3,200	"Artists and Models" (U. A.)	5,700
Uptown	2,000	25c-40c	4,500	"Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox)	4,000	"Platinum Blonde" (Col.) (5 days)	1,500
Los Angeles
Carthay Circle	1,518	50c-$1.50	11,800	"High, Wide and Handsome" (Para.) (3rd week)	4,000	"High, Wide and Handsome" (Para.) (2nd week)	5,500
Four Star	900	50c-$1.50	4,000	"The Firefly" (MGM) (4th week)	8,400	"The Firefly" (MGM) (3rd week)	9,300
Grand International	750	35c-40c	2,100	"Under Falsk Flagg" (Scandinavian)	1,700	"Paris Commune" (Amkino) (6 days)	2,200
Hillstreet	2,700	30c-65c	8,000	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	6,400	"Riding on Air" (RKO) and "Night Key" (Univ.)	6,500
Loew's State	2,500	30c-55c	14,700	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox)	12,561	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox)	21,542
Paramount	3,595	30c-55c	18,400	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (stage: Senator Murphy and revue)	24,500	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (plus stage show) (2nd week)	16,000
W. B. Downtown	3,400	30c-65c	10,700	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and "Talent Scout" (F.N.) (2nd week)	11,800	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and "Talent Scout" (F.N.) (1st week)	15,000
Minneapolis
Century	1,600	25c-40c	5,200	"Artists and Models" (Para.)	3,000	"Ever Since Eve" (F.N.)	3,800
Minnesota	4,000	25c-55c	12,200	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox)	13,000	"Artists and Models) (Para.)	13,000
RKO Orpheum	2,900	25c-40c	7,200	"Married Before Breakfast" (MGM) (stage: Rudy Vallee and Orch.) (5 days) (35c-55c)	21,000	"The Road Back" (Univ.)	4,500
State	2,400	25c-40c	5,600	"The Case of Stuttering Bishop" (F.N.) and "Wild Money" (Para.)	5,500	"Born Reckless" (20th Cent.-Fox) "Super Sleuth" (RKO)	3,000
World	400	25c-35c	2,700	"King Solomon's Mines" (GB)	1,700	"Dreaming Lips" (U.A.)	1,800
Montreal
Capitol	2,547	25c-60c	9,300	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox)	9,500	"Wee Willie Winkie" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "King George VI Coronation" (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	6,500
Loew's	3,115	25c-40c	11,000	"Midnight Madonna" (Para.) and "North of Nome" (Col.)	4,500	"Ever Since Eve" (F.N.) and "White Bondage" (W.B.)	6,000
Palace	2,600	25c-65c	10,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (2nd week)	5,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (1st week)	7,000
Princess	2,272	25c-65c	7,600	"The Toast of New York" (RKO) and "On Again—Off Again" (RKO)	6,500	"Exclusive" (Para.) and "Sing and Be Happy" (20th Cent.-Fox)	6,000
New York
Astor	1,142	55c-$2.20	15,600	"The Firefly" (MGM) (4 days)	6,844	"High, Wide and Handsome" (Para.) (6th week)	4,500
Criterion	1,700	25c-75c	12,000	"Dance, Charlie, Dance" (F.N.)	5,000	"Talent Scout" (F.N.)	4,500
Globe	1,400	55c-$2.20	17,800	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (4th week)	6,500	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (3rd week)	9,600
Hollywood	1,430	55c-$2.20	....	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.) (3rd week)	20,000	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.) (2nd week)	25,800

[THEATRE RECEIPTS--CONT'D]

Theatres	Seats	Price	Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week — Picture	Current Week — Gross	Previous Week — Picture	Previous Week — Gross
New York (Continued)			(Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937)
Paramount	3,700	25c-99c	36,100	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (stage: Phil Spitalny's Girl Orch.) (4th week)	32,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (stage: Phil Spitalny's Girl Orch.) (3rd week)	35,000
Rialto	594	25c-55c	7,700	"Bad Guy" (MGM)	10,000	"Roaring Timber" (Col.)	6,500
Rivoli	2,200	25c-99c	23,100	"Dead End" (U.A.) (2nd week)	45,100	"Dead End" (U.A.) (1st week)	52,000
RKO Music Hall	6,200	40c-$1.65	79,600	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.) (plus stage show) (2nd week)	88,000	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.) (plus stage show) (1st week)	106,135
Roxy	5,954	25c-75c	35,400	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show)	44,500	"Gangway" (GB) (plus stage show)	26,000
Strand	3,000	40c-99c	20,800	"Confession" (F. N.) (2nd week)	13,500	"Confession" (F.N.) (1st week)	16,000
Oklahoma City
Criterion	1,700	10c-40c	5,300	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox)	4,200	"The Toast of New York" (RKO)..	4,000
Liberty	1,500	10c-25c	2,900	"Woman Wise" (20th Cent.-Fox).. and "Mountain Justice" (F.N.) (4 days) "Meet the Missus" (RKO) and.... "Off to the Races" (20th Cent.-Fox) (3 days)	1,900 500	"The Thirteenth Chair" (MGM) and "Michael O'Halloran" (Rep.) (4 days) "Laughing at Trouble"..... (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Fugitive in the Sky" (W.B.) (3 days)	2,200 700
Midwest	1,500	10c-55c	4,300	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	7,200	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox)	6,500
Tower	1,100	10c-35c	....	"Elephant Boy" (U.A.)	2,500	"When Love Is Young" (Univ.).... (plus Jack Caldwell at organ)	2,900
Omaha
Brandeis	1,200	25c-40c	4,900	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	3,600	"Dance, Charlie, Dance" (F.N.) and "Confession" (F.N.)	3,700
Omaha	2,200	25c-40c	6,900	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "White Bondage" (W.B.) (8 days)	7,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM) and.... "Big Business" (20th Cent.-Fox) (3 days-2nd week)	3,600
Orpheum	3,000	25c-40c	9,200	"The Emperor's Candlesticks"..... (MGM) and "Wings Over Honolulu" (Univ.)	5,700	"The Singing Marine" (W.B.).... (stage: Stephin Fetchit) (35c-55c)	17,800
Philadelphia
Aldine	1,300	40c-65c	9,200	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.)	19,000	.....	.....
Boyd	2,400	40c-65c	14,800	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.)	13,000	"Confession" (F.N.)	10,500
Earle	2,000	25c-55c	14,400	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (stage: Will Osborne and Orch.)	13,500	"The Girl Said No" (G.N.) (stage: Jimmy Dorsey and Orch.) (6 days)	15,000
Fox	3,000	40c-65c	17,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (10 days)	17,000	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox)	13,000
Karlton	1,000	25c-40c	2,700	"Confession" (F.N.)	2,300	"The Toast of New York" (RKO)	2,700
Keith's	2,000	30c-50c	2,800	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox)	3,200	"Artists and Models" (Para.)	3,500
Stanley	3,700	40c-65c	15,700	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (2nd week)	10,500	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (1st week)	19,000
Stanton	1,700	30c-50c	6,400	"King Solomon's Mines" (GB)....	5,000	"One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox)	5,200
San Francisco
Clay	400	15c-40c	1,100	"Amphytrion" (French) (2nd week)	800	"Amphytrion" (French) (1st week)	900
Fox	5,651	15c-75c	11,000	"San Quentin" (F.N.) and..... "Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox)	19,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) and.. "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop" (F.N.) (2nd week)	12,000
Golden Gate	2,850	15c-55c	16,600	"Big Shot" (RKO) (stage: Gene Autry)	14,500	"Border Cafe" (RKO) (stage: Sybil Jason and revue)	16,000
Orpheum	2,440	15c-55c	8,200	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)	18,000	"It Happened in Hollywood" (Col.) "Dangerous Adventure" (Col.)	7,600
Paramount	2,670	15c-75c	13,300	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "She's No Lady" (Para ,2nd week)	15,000	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) "She's No Lady" (Para.) (1st week)	24,000
St. Francis	1,470	15c-75c	6,900	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,400	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (1st week)	7,000
Warfield	2,680	15c-75c	15,300	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and..... "Blonde Trouble" (Para.)	19,000	"They Won't Forget" (W.B.) and.. "Marry the Girl" (W.B.)	14,000
Seattle
Blue Mouse	950	15c-35c	3,700	"Rose Marie" (MGM) (re-issue) and "Hell Divers" (MGM) (re-issue)	5,100	"Love in a Bungalow" (Univ.) and "Armored Car" (Univ.)	3,100
Fifth Avenue	2,500	30c-55c	7,700	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	9,200	"Wee Willie Winkie" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Sing and Be Happy" (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	6,800
Liberty	1,800	25c-55c	7,700	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (2nd week)	7,000	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (1st week)	11,000
Music Box	950	30c-55c	3,500	"Wee Willie Winkie" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Sing and Be Happy" (20th Cent-Fox)	3,850	"Artists and Models" (Para.)	3,400
Orpheum	2,450	30c-55c	6,000	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Midnight Madonna" (Para.) (3rd week)	4,800	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Midnight Madonna" (Para.)(2nd week)	6,450
Palomar	1,500	15c-35c	4,700	"Meet the Boy Friend" (Rep.).... (plus stage show)	4,650	"The Frame-Up" (Col.) (plus stage show)	4,100
Paramount	3,050	30c-55c	5,200	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,750	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (1st week)	8,900

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

British Lion

SONG OF FREEDOM: Paul Robeson—We haven't enough space to lament for the playing of this picture. If you play this picture, look for a good cornfield, so you can get into it after the show, and get everything off your chest. You'll curse 'till midnight. Our neighbor has just had a stroke and it looks like I'm next if we have to play such pictures as these. I asked everybody on the street to come into the show to take the bareness out of the theatre.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Chesterfield

HOUSE OF SECRETS: Leslie Fenton, Muriel Evans—Fairly good melodrama. Proved satisfactory on a midweek date.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

Columbia

DEVIL IS DRIVING, THE: Richard Dix, Joan Perry—Our box office did a nose dive on this one although perhaps it was no fault of the picture. This type of picture should be shown gratis, so more people would see it, but my cash customers don't pay to be educated, they want to be entertained and I don't blame them. Running time, 68 minutes. Played August 14-15.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town patronage.

DEVIL IS DRIVING, THE: Richard Dix, Joan Perry—Nice programer in any spot. Running time, 68 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

MORE THAN A SECRETARY: Jean Arthur, George Brent—Very well made and entertaining comedy drama. It didn't do so well on a hot Sunday night.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason Mich. Small town patronage.

RACKETEERS IN EXILE: George Bancroft, Evelyn Venable—This was double-billed with "Rhythm in the Clouds." We book with greater assurance when the word "racket" is in a title as our patrons always respond to the suggestion of action and hard-boiled thrills in a picture. This story of a racketeer who hit upon the plan of using the church as a front for his unlawful activities, and his gradual reformation through religion is not as tough as some might expect, but its originality pleased our patrons.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

ROARING TIMBER: Jack Holt, Grace Bradley—Just about on a par with the other Holt pictures, the story is pretty thin. Although Holt is as good as ever, even he can't make a show out of nothing. Running time, 65 minutes. Played July 31-August 1.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

SPEED TO SPARE: Dorothy Wilson, Charles Quigley—So-so action drama. Played August 3.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

First National

CHEROKEE STRIP: Dick Foran—Dick goes over big with the ladies here. The western fans like him very much. We're always glad to play him.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

CHEROKEE STRIP: Dick Foran, Jane Bryan—Just another western which pleased just so-so. It seems that good high class western stories cannot be made any more. These are always so short that you have to book extra shorts or have a short program, yet they always charge as much as a regular feature. Running time, 55 minutes. Played August 13-14.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

GOLD DIGGERS OF 1937: Joan Blondell, Dick Powell—Very good. My patrons go for musicals in a big way. Running time, 101 minutes. Played March 7-8-9.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

THREE MEN ON A HORSE: Frank McHugh, Joan Blondell—Just terrible. More walk-outs than any other program. Running time, 9 reels. Played Aug. 19.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural patronage.

In this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to —

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

Gaumont British

LIMELIGHT: Arthur Tracy—I've never heard such a fine voice on the screen. It was a musical that surprised everyone. We played it with Dick Foran and did nice business on the week-end.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BROADWAY MELODY OF 1938: Robert Taylor, Eleanor Powell—Entertainment of the first degree. Top ranking musical resulting in well pleased audience and record breaking business. Next time out, Judy Garland will be big at box office. Running time, 110 minutes. Played August 22-23.—Peter Panagos, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind. General patronage.

CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS: Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore—Record breaking business. All of my records previous to this broken. Receipts went sky high. Theatre mobbed. Audience touched by picture. Everyone unusually well satisfied. Excellent from every angle.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

DEVIL IS A SISSY, THE: Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper, Mickey Rooney—A great show. This is the first show of this kind we have ever run and wish to say that this is the kind of a story that gets them and holds 'em on the seat till the final fadeout. Don't be afraid to face the customers after the show is over and that is saying a lot as you can't get them this good very often. Running time, 9 reels. Played Aug. 22-23.—Rudolf Duba, Royal Theatre, Kimball, S. D. Small town patronage.

EMPEROR'S CANDLESTICKS: William Powell. Luise Rainer—Went over fairly good. Receipts above average.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

GORGEOUS HUSSY, THE: Joan Crawford, Robert Taylor—Picture well liked. Running time, 105 minutes. Played Jan. 3-4.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

"We are making these reports because we like this department. It is a real help, and all exhibitors should make reports. Don't sit back and read the other exhibitors reports and never make any yourself. Let's cooperate and get some real benefit from this department."—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas.

GREAT ZIEGFELD, THE: Luise Rainer, William Powell, Myrna Loy, Fanny Brice—This is a really wonderful picture, but about an hour too long. Just fair Sunday business.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

GREAT ZIEGFELD, THE: Willian Powell, Luise Rainer—Bucked bad weather on this, but did well in spite of it. Picture well liked, although too long. Running time, 180 minutes. Played Jan. 17-18-19.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

MAYTIME: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy—Excellent picture but not as good as her former performances. Running time, 132 minutes. Played July 18-20.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

NIGHT MUST FALL: Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell—Metro should be awarded the leather medal for this. No good at any time. Running time, 117 minutes. Played August 16-17.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

NOBODY'S BABY: Patsy Kelly, Robert Armstrong—Pretty silly. Patsy needs better comedy plots than this one. Only a stretched out two reeler. Played July 31.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

OUR RELATIONS: Laurel and Hardy—I have seen better comedies than this, but there were no complaints from the audience.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

PARNELL: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy—In spite of the fact that this certainly is not a small town picture, we had a fair crowd to see it and generally it satisfied very much. Personally thought it a grand picture with Gable and Myrna Loy (who could help liking her?) doing swell jobs of acting. Running time, 119 minutes. Played August 15-16.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

PARNELL: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy—Went over good. Ladies here go for Clark. Picture well liked.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

PICK A STAR: Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley—Well they dragged in everything on the Roach lot for this one. And in our opinion Laurel and Hardy about saved it from a complete failure. They were really at their best. Played August 5-6.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SONG OF THE CITY: Dean Jeffries, Margaret Lindsay—Our folks liked this okay on Derby Night. Low box office on its own, however. Played July 28.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TRADER HORN (REISSUE): Harry Carey, Edwina Booth—this repeat didn't do so well. The ladies spurned it. Played August 7.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TRADER HORN (REISSUE): Harry Carey, Edwina Booth—Played this reissue and it pleased.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

Monogram

THIRTEENTH MAN, THE: Inez Courtney, Weldon Heyburn—We have forgiven Monogram for producing "Blazing Barriers" since playing "The Thirteenth Man," which is the best mystery film to emerge from an independent studio in a long time. The patrons came to see the other feature played with this, but it was the mystery film which they came out praising. Were it not for its marquee weakness almost any theatre could play this picture to profitable results. The photography is of major company caliber.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

Paramount

ARTISTS AND MODELS: Jack Benny—Something went wrong here. Lavishly produced musical that didn't please. A little more theme, and less vaudeville may have been the solution. Business was OK from past performances, but will have to watch the next one. Running time, 97 minutes. Played August 29-September 1.—Peter Panagos, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind. General patronage.

BIG BROADCAST OF 1937: Jack Benny, Burns & Allen—Very good. Patrons well pleased. Running time, 95 minutes. Played May 2-3.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

CHAMPAGNE WALTZ: Gladys Swarthout, Fred MacMurray.—Good picture and drew capacity houses both days. Running time, 89 minutes. Played June 20-21.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

EASY LIVING: Jean Arthur, Edward Arnold—Smart little comedy drama with a grand cast. Don't give it too big buildup as it might not hit. Running time, 88 minutes. Played August 20.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

EXCLUSIVE: Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer—Nice picture in any spot but will not stand extended time. Running time, 78 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

HIDEAWAY GIRL: Martha Raye—Our patrons seemed to fall for Martha Raye and consequently "Hideway Girl" got by nicely. Played August 21.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

HILLS OF OLD WYOMING: William Boyd, George Hayes—A very poor Hopalong Cassidy. Bill Boyd OK. They are not in the same class as Gene Autry or Tex Ritter.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

HOTEL HAYWIRE: Leo Carrillo, Mary Carlisle—No one liked it. Nothing to it. Running time, 65 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

I MET HIM IN PARIS: Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young—Splendid entertainment for every member of the family. Running time, 87 minutes. Played August 22-24.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

JUNGLE PRINCESS, THE: Ray Milland, Dorothy Lamour—A very entertaining picture that did an unusual Saturday business.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

KING OF GAMBLERS: Claire Trevor, Lloyd Nolan, Akim Tamiroff—Good picture; not a special by any means, but good entertainment. Did only average business. Not exactly suitable for Sunday, but was well liked. Running time, 74 minutes. Played August

Grown up and nation-wide, AIR EXPRESS now speed master of 500 giant super-swift transport planes, zooms America's shipments north, south, east, west—2500 miles overnight! Complete day and night service to 216 cities, and all points between, in the United States and Canada. Direct to Latin-America, Honolulu, and the Far East. Low cost. True, modern economy. For service, telephone any office of Railway Express and say "AIR EXPRESS DIVISION!"

15-16.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. Small town patronage.

LAST TRAIN FROM MADRID: Lew Ayres—A Grand Hotel type of story. Some liked and some didn't. No special draw. Played August 11.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MAID OF SALEM: Claudette Colbert, Fred MacMurray—This is a starkly realistic costume melodrama which did not draw any too large a crowd on Sunday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS: Charles Ruggles, Alice Brady—Good comedy drama. Did fairly well on Saturday against W. L. S. Barn Dance Competition.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

RUSTLERS' VALLEY: William Boyd, George Hayes—Fair western. Running time, 60 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

WAIKIKI WEDDING: Bing Crosby, Shirley Ross, Bob Burns, Martha Raye—All that an exhibitor could ask for. It's a mortgage lifter. Played August 8-10.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. Small town patronage.

WAIKIKI WEDDING: Bing Crosby, Martha Raye, Shirley Ross, Bob Burns—Drew capacity crowds and lots of favorable comment. Running time, 87 minutes. Played July 25-26.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

WILD MONEY: Edward Everett Horton—Did not please, will not please. Running time, 70 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

Republic

BILL CRACKS DOWN: Grant Withers, Beatrice Roberts—We found this satisfactory for a double program but too weak in name value to single.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

CIRCUS GIRL: June Travis, Bob Livingston—Although produced in a small time manner, this story manages to overcome its production handicaps and offer the patrons a thrill or two. Our artist gave the theatre front and marquee a gala appearance in the style of a circus poster and the box office reacted in a most encouraging manner. An unsophisticated clientele cannot help but like the film.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

JIM HANVEY, DETECTIVE: Guy Kibbee, Tom Brown—As a program picture obviously concocted for double bills, this routinely done mystery film is adequate. It's companion feature was no stronger than it, so the patrons had little to say concerning either.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

JOIN THE MARINES: June Travis, Paul Kelly—Fairly good action drama; held up one end of a double bill on Saturday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

JOIN THE MARINES: June Travis, Paul Kelly—This obvious quickie is certainly not our idea of entertainment, but the patrons enjoyed it as part of a double program.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

RHYTHM IN THE CLOUDS: Patricia Ellis, Warren Hull—This is distinctly one of the better releases from this company. The sets are far above average, the sound and photography are good, and the casting is satisfactory. Its musical comedy plot is no worse or better than that of the usual tune-film, but it has been produced in a spirited style which makes it an excellent companion feature to a heavier film. Our patrons are not particularly fond of musicals, so they had little to say.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

RKO Radio

BEHIND THE HEADLINES: Lee Tracy, Diana Gibson—A dandy action picture and a great Saturday night bill for small towns.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

CRIMINAL LAWYER: Lee Tracy, Margot Grahame—This one got by successfully on a midweek date.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

CRIMINAL LAWYER: Lee Tracy, Margot Grahame—Double-billed with "Star is Born." Guess which they came to see? OK in a spot where you have to run twins. Tracy chatters through picture and comes out all right for a doubleton. Running time, 72 minutes. Played Aug. 20-23.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo. Neighborhood patronage.

LAST OUTLAW, THE: Harry Carey, Hoot Gibson—Good western, except that our patrons are looking for more music in the western features. Running time, 8 reels. Played Aug. 12.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural patronage.

12 EXHIBITORS JOIN REPORTING CORPS

New contributors to What the Picture Did for Me Department include the following:

L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre Eufaula, Okla.

M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas.

W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Col.

Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D.

Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine.

H. G. Kraus, Tolley Theatre, Tolley, N. D.

John A. Milligan, Broadway Theatre, Schuylerville, N. Y. (after a year's absence).

Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind.

Peter Panagos, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind.

Walter McLaughlin, Empire Theatre, Port Henry, N. Y. (after more than a year's absence).

Harry Weber, Rialto Theatre, Hood River, Ore.

W. D. White, Palace Theatre, Exira, Iowa.

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard—A very good vaudeville show. Disconnected. Some liked it, some did not. Business poor. Does not seem to have draw.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

RACING LADY: Ann Dvorak, Smith Bellew—Like all other racing pictures, this didn't mean a thing in my town; however, it is a well made and entertaining picture.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

RAINBOW ON THE RIVER: Bobby Breen—Swell picture. Bobby Breen sure has a wonderful voice. Some sat through both shows and complimented very highly when they came out. Running time, 87 minutes. Played Feb. 14-15.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

SHALL WE DANCE: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers—The same old stuff. Fred and Ginger start out with the usual misunderstanding and get it all straightened out in the end, but it gets the business and after all, that's what we are in business for. The roller skating scene is outstanding, but the songs are not to be compared with the songs written by Jerome Kern. Running time, 116 minutes. Played August 21-22.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town patronage.

SHALL WE DANCE: Ginger Rogers, Fred Astaire—A very good picture, but a disappointment alongside previous Astaire-Rogers pictures at the box office. Played August 8-9.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SHALL WE DANCE: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers—Flopped here and at our second run house. Complaints: "See them in one and you've seen 'em in all." Running time, 85 mintes. Played July 30-Aug. 2.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo. Neighborhood patronage.

SHALL WE DANCE: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers—Musicals and dancing is right down my alley, but I think Astaire and Rogers should change their story, too much sameness. Running time, 104 minutes. Played April 18-19.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

THAT GIRL FROM PARIS: Lily Pons, Gene Raymond—Pleasing picture. Did just fairly well on Sunday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

THERE GOES MY GIRL: Gene Raymond, Ann Sothern—Gene is still one of the better box office bets for me. We played to better than average business with this one. Running time, 74 minutes.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

THAT GIRL FROM PARIS: Lily Pons, Gene Raymond—Another wonderful singer. Good picture from every standpoint. Running time, 105 minutes. Played March 1-2.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

WE WHO ARE ABOUT TO DIE: Ann Dvorak, Preston Foster—The best story of its kind that I have played. Many good comments on the different characters that was used in same. Exceptionally well done. Play it. Running time, 9 reels. Played Aug. 5.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural and small town patronage.

Twentieth Century - Fox

BANJO ON MY KNEE: Joel McCrea, Barbara Stanwyck—Paid Fox for this picture and asked them to put it on the shelf several months ago, but read so many praises of it in this department, had them ship it to us, and did nice business. If you haven't played it, do so. Played August 24-25.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. Small town patronage.

CALIFORNIAN, THE: Ricardo Cortez, Katherine DeMille, Marjorie Weaver—Long before the doors were opened on Sunday a block-long line waited patiently to see this picture, and less than an hour after the house was opened every seat was filled. We had anticipated good business but not so amazingly large as it was. Ricardo Cortez does not have the slightest drawing power with us so the picture's strength can only be ascribed to its title and subject, plus the sales appeal of the advance trailer.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

CAN THIS BE DIXIE?: Jane Withers, Slim Summerville—A good picture. A little exciting for the smaller kiddies, but the grownup ones like to watch Jane go through a real performance. Good enough for any night. Played Aug. 20-21.—Rudolf Duba, Royal Theatre, Kimball, S. D. Small town patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN AT THE OLYMPICS: Warner Oland—About on a par with the other Chans. Played July 31.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN AT THE OLYMPICS: Warner Oland, Katherine DeMille—We hope the "Mr. Moto" series from this company featuring Peter Lorre will be as consistent in drawing power and as patron-pleasing as the Chan pictures. This clever oriental has never forced us to put out the S.R.O. sign but not once have we lost money on his pictures which we find have greater appeal to an older clientele than the majority of program pictures.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN AT THE OPERA: Warner Oland, Boris Karloff—This did O.K. on Saturday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

DOCTOR BULL (REISSUE): Will Rogers—Some said that this was Will's best picture and some said it wasn't. The important thing was that it gave a good account of itself against county fair opposition.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

GREAT HOSPITAL MYSTERY, THE: Sally Blane, Thomas Beck—Good programer. Running time, 59 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

ONE IN A MILLION: Sonja Henie—Truly this is "One In A Million." Everybody more than satisfied. We did some extra advertising which helped in the matter of receipts. Played August 18-19.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

ON THE AVENUE: Madeleine Carroll, Dick Powell—A real production, and satisfied those who attended. We were a little disappointed in the total receipts. Played August 25-26.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

SHE HAD TO EAT: Rochelle Hudson, Jack Haley—Did not please and will not please.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

SLAVE SHIP: Warner Baxter, Wallace Beery—Only went over fair in this town. Hot weather hurts us a lot. People who saw it considered it a good show.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

THIS IS MY AFFAIR: Robert Taylor, Barbara Stanwyck, Victor McLaglen—This picture is outstanding in so many ways that it cannot help but please almost all classes of theatregoers. The music hall sequences are a delight with their appropriateness and authenticity and can well be especially advertised. The story is completely convincing; the acting leaves nothing to be desired; and the photography is just plain swell. The patrons did not hesitate to say a word of praise for it.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty & Ideal Theatres, Fort Worth, Texas. General patronage.

WAKE UP AND LIVE: Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Alice Faye, Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley—This one is rated well up, but I do not see that it is particularly good. Quite lively and plenty of action, but just a good picture. Played July 31.—George Lodge, Green Lantern Theatre, Claymont, Del. Small town patronage.

WEE WILLIE WINKIE: Shirley Temple, Victor McLaglen—Smash business. Unusual film. Not as good as Shirley's usual, but liked by everyone.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

WINGS OF THE MORNING: Annabella, Henry Fonda—A wonderful production that made the first of the week look like week-end business.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING: Alice Faye, Ritz Brothers, Don Ameche, Louise Hovick—If this is a sample of what 20th Century is going to give us in 1937-38, we are setting pretty with 20th Century-Fox contracts. This one has about what it takes to get the business. Good for your best playing time. Running time, 99 minutes. Played August 22-23.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. Small town patronage.

United Artists

COME AND GET IT: Edward Arnold, Frances Farmer—GAY DESPERADO: Nino Martini, Ida Lupino—Two as good pictures as you could ask for. If you live on the border, "Gay Desperado" is a natural. Played August 22-24 and 20-21.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. Small town patronage.

DODSWORTH: Walter Huston, Ruth Chatterton, Mary Astor, Paul Lukas—A little highbrow but we had fair business in spite of bad weather. Running time, 101 minutes. Played Jan. 24-25.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

A STAR IS BORN: Fredric March, Janet Gaynor—A very fine picture. The acting of March and Gaynor unbeatable. And does that Gaynor girl have glamour? Technicolor certainly doesn't hurt her a bit. Running time, 111 minutes. Played August 22-23.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb.

A STAR IS BORN: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—The best attraction from all counts that United Artists has delivered this season. Played August 1-2.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

A STAR IS BORN: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—Gave us best week of summer business in face of strong competition. Double-billed but could have taken

(Continued on following page)

Even if a cushion department would pay . . . your theatre would not. Profits are in providing luxuriously comfortable American Seating Company Chairs.

Ask us
ABOUT RESEATING YOUR THEATRE

American Seating Company

Public Seating for Every School, Theatre, Church, Auditorium and Bus Requirement
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN. Branch Offices and Distributors in All Trade Areas

COMFORT: THE GREATEST STAR OF THEM ALL

same money on single. Only disappointments heard were death of March in picture. Great color will bring Gaynor back into top spots. March demand will double here, we predict. Running time, 111 minutes. Played Aug. 20-23.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo. Neighborhood patronage.

A STAR IS BORN: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—Went through with flying colors. Big take at box office. Over emotional and deeply touched audiences. Wonderful acting, superb colors. Everyone more than pleased and raving about this one. Best business for weeks.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

WOMAN CHASES MAN: Miriam Hopkins, Joel McCrea—Continues the United Artists' parade of excellent attractions so far as entertainment goes. At the box office, here a flop, nevertheless. Played July 29-30.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Universal

AS GOOD AS MARRIED: John Boles, Doris Nolan—The porest John Boles picture we've ever seen. A washout and Doris Nolan is most unpopular locally as the lead. No business. Played August 4.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

DRACULA'S DAUGHTER: Otto Kruger, Gloria Holden—Just a program, can't see why they should produce horror pictures and show some of the opposite thinking people how to go about murdering people by being murdered themselves to the end. Running time, 8 reels. Played Aug. 17-18.—Rudolf Duba. Royal Theatre, Kimball, S. D. Small town patronage.

LEFT HANDED LAW: Buck Jones—An acceptable Jones offering; good for Saturday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

LOVE LETTERS OF A STAR: Henry Hunter, Polly Rowles—A well made mystery drama. Pleased a fair midweek audience.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

MAN IN BLUE, THE: Robert Wilcox, Nan Grey—No complaints from a crowd who really came out to see and hear a personal appearance of the Yankee Network Stars, George and Juanita. So guess they liked it. We couldn't see anything beyond the commonplace to the story, however. Played August 10.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SANDFLOW: Buck Jones—Just another western. Did good Saturday business.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

THREE SMART GIRLS: Deanna Durbin, Ray Milland—Very good. A down-to-earth picture that was made to order for any small town. Running time, 84 minutes. Played May 9-10.—Julius Overmoe, Gem Theatre, Hillsboro, N. D. Rural patronage.

WE HAVE OUR MOMENTS: Sally Eilers, James Dunn—This picture has something but couldn't get big business. Lots of laughs in it but doesn't have much carbonation to make it sparkle like it oughta. Fair business. Running time, 76 minutes. Played Aug. 13-16.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo. Neighborhood patronage.

WE HAVE OUR MOMENTS: Sally Eilers, James Dunn—The Eilers-Dunn fans were satisfied. Business was normal. Played August 14.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

WHEN LOVE IS YOUNG: Virginia Bruce, Kent Taylor—If pictures must be made especially for the double feature market they should all be as good as this not too expensive little flicker. Virginia Bruce, our idea of what a blonde female should be like and seldom is, seems at home in the role of a Swedish farm girl who disproves the high school class prophecy by becoming a glamorous stage star instead of the queen of the county fair. Our patrons liked it a lot.—J. W. Noah, New Liberty and Ideal Theatres, Ft. Worth, Texas. General patronage.

Warner Bros.

BLACK LEGION, THE: Humphrey Bogart, Erin O'Brien-Moore—Stark melodrama that hit right home to my community.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

BLAZING SIXES: Dick Foran—Good western. Running time, 55 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

GOD'S COUNTRY AND THE WOMAN: George Brent, Beverly Roberts—A very beautiful color picture that did well on Sunday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

GO GETTER, THE: George Brent, Anita Louise, Charles Winninger—A dandy comedy drama. Running time, 92 minutes. Played August 18-19.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

GREAT O'MALLEY, THE: Pat O'Brien, Sybil Jason—A dandy picture for week-ends. Business up for Thursday and Friday. Give us more like this one. Played August 19-20.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. Small town patronage.

KID GALAHAD: Edward G. Robinson, Bette Davis—This one has everything needed for small town. Business above average. Played August 15-16.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. Small town patronage.

> "I wish to thank you for your blanks on "What the Picture Did for Me." I filled them out in my frank and unbiased opinion, and I do hope they may prove useful for I know that contributions from other exhibitors have proven very useful to me."—PETER PANAGOS, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind.

KING AND THE CHORUS GIRL, THE: Fernand Gravet, Joan Blondell, Edward Everett Horton—A pleasing musical which got by nicely on Sunday.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

ONE WAY PASSAGE (REISSUE): Kay Francis, William Powell—This is an unusually good picture that did well on a midweek date.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

SINGING MARINE, THE: Dick Powell, Doris Weston—Business very good. People liked picture better than usual run of government men pictures.—Pearce Parkhurst, New Star Theatre, Dover-Foxcroft, Maine. Small town patronage.

SLIM: Pat O'Brien, Henry Fonda, Margaret Lindsay—A grand action picture with a swell cast and something doing all the time. We didn't buy Warners for the coming year and one of the little girls we are going to miss the most is beautiful Margaret Lindsay. We think she's swell. Running time, 80 minutes. Played August 21.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

OH, DUCHESS: Polly Moran—This is the first one we played of this star, but believe you me it won't be the last. Play this with some of the weak pictures Columbia has been putting out this season and it might make them forget the feature. Running time, two reels.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town patronage.

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS: Screen Snapshot Series—Audience hasn't become excited over this series yet. They can take it or leave it.—Running time, 10 minutes.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo.

STORK TAKES A HOLIDAY, THE: Color Rhapsodies—A swell take-off on the strike situation.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Educational

BIG GAME HUNT, THE: Terry-Toons—A fair cartoon.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

CHEMIST, THE: Buster Keaton—Buster has made funnier pictures than this, but the audience thought it was O. K. Running time, 2 reels.—Roy W. Adams, Mason Theatre, Mason, Mich. Small town patronage.

HIS PEST GIRL: Two-Reel Comedies—Very, very poor.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

HI-YA, DOC?: Buster West, Tom Patricola—Fair comedy. Our folks like Buster and Tom, but wish they could have funnier script with more generous sprinklings of their dance talent.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

HI-YA, DOC?: Buster West, Tom Patricola—A dandy slapstick comedy. Play it.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

PRACTICALLY PERFECT: Sisters of the Skillet—Nothing could be worse than this.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

OLYMPIC SKI CHAMPIONS: Pete Smith Specialties—The class of the sport shorts. Play it on your best days.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN GRANDEUR: Fitz-Patrick Travel Talks—A fine colored travel and good for any man's theatre.—Charles Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

SKI SKILL: Pete Smith Specialties—The best action sport reel of the year; the skiing is breath-taking and everyone enjoyed it immensely.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Paramount

MORNING, NOON AND NIGHT CLUB: Popeye The Sailor—Usual Popeye antics. Pleased most all.—L. A: Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PLEASE KEEP ME IN YOUR DREAMS: Screen Songs—A good Screen Song.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SAFETY IN THE AIR: Paragraphics—Something different in shorts. Informative, educational and entertaining. Running time, 10 minutes.—Peter Panagos, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind. General patronage.

SWING STARS: Grantland Rice Sportlights—Golf again! Interesting enough.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TREES: Musical Romance Series—The most beautiful short we've used all year. The musical score is grand and the scenes are glorious. A triumph for all nature lovers.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

RKO Radio

DUMBBELL LETTERS: Dumbbell Series—Five time we have used this series. Audience reaction fine to these cheerfully "different" shorts. N. G. for the kiddies. Welcome relief in this natural comedy. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo.

DUMB'S THE WORD: Edgar Kennedy—Good comedy.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MANHATTAN WATERFRONT: World On Parade Series—Fine short of interest to the majority.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Twentieth Century - Fox

MOVIETONE NEWS: I believe this is the best of the newsreels. Very interesting. Covers the entire field.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. Small town patronage.

United Artists

MICKEY'S AMATEURS: Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck—Failed to get the customary Disney encore here. Animation in sequence of "Goofy" and his one-man band didn't put across in simple enough animation the good humor it contained. Running time, 9 minutes.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo.

MORE KITTENS: Silly Symphonies—As good in entertainment as "Country Cousin." Helped our program immensely. Up to the usual Disney mastery. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo.

WORM TURNS, THE: Mickey Mouse and Pluto—Mickey in scientist role pleases kids immensely. Rather far fetched for audience to swallow whole. Audience appeal fine. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo.

Vitaphone

PICTORIAL REVIEW: No. 4—Very instructive. Proud to have played it. Played it with "Song of Freedom." Only thing that was good.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

SWEETHEARTS AND FLOWERS: Broadway Brevities—Nothing to brag about. Just fair.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

VILLAGE SMITHY, THE: Looney Tunes—An average cartoon that made up the show. Good filler.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Serials

Republic

DICK TRACY: Ralph Byrd, Kay Hughes, Smiley Burnette—This one is a complete washout. Badly miscast and badly directed. Playing 14th episode and will be glad when it's over. Not up to Republic standard of serials.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. Small town patronage.

Universal

JUNGLE JIM: Grant Withers, Betty Jane Rhodes—An honest serial! Slightly impossible but audience likes it. Better response on this type serial than one that carries mystery man through 12 rather unexciting episodes. A "Jungle Tribe Club" tie-up will get you money as it did us. Running time, 20 minutes each episode.—W. C. Lewellen, Federal Theatre, Denver, Colo.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE CLUB

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

IT CAN BE DONE, IT'S BEING DONE

Encountered on our recent trip in the field was an old hand, a long-experienced theatreman who summed up his opinion on the status of showmanship today by saying:

"There isn't any more wallop."

The defender of sockeroo in showbusiness expanded his remarks to indicate that guided by executive restrictions or made hesitant by a general acceptance of the conventional in advertising, colorful showmen endowed by temperament to carry on the tradition of exploitation greatness are forced to bend their heads and go along with the tide.

There is something in that, no doubt. Whatever the reasons for its absence, the old-time bing and bang seems to have been pushed into the wings. Regimentation of exploitation and publicity appears to be the order of the day in too many sectors. None can say the sources of unusual publicity or the men to tap these sources are unavailable, for every now and then someone cracks through with a piece of business that stands out like the nose on an ant-eater.

That United Artists crowd, for instance, have just got through rigging up a deal that cracked plenty of space for "Prisoner of Zenda." Smoked up by Russ Birdwell, Selznick studio publicity head, and followed through by Monroe Greenthal's crew, the entire population of Zenda, Canada (12), was flown to New York to see the town and the premiere of the picture at the Music Hall, meet the mayor and go through all the other space-grabbing exercises. All in all, it was a job of work that smacked of the old-time technique and the results speak for themselves.

* * *

Now, the stunt got all it deserved and took a lot of bows. And the fact that it did go over so well leads one to inquire, why don't we have more like it? The possibilities are evident and the industry still lists showmen able and rarin' to go if they were allowed to shake off the halter.

Opinion in some quarters holds that the more conservative policy is favored because of a general disinclination to tangle with stunts that run into money without any assurance of guaranteed returns. And if this is an answer, then when did showbusiness ever claim or look forward to guarantees from exploitations that depended with everything else equal upon chance as well as other factors to get over?

There are plenty of big-time ballys still honored in the showmanship hall of fame, but there were just as many and more slants as promising that died in infancy from unknown causes. But that never stopped the boys from trying again. No one threw in his chips because the dice rolled wrong, now and then.

Showbusiness was built on change, novelty, glamour, excitement. People haven't changed. They still can be lured in profitable numbers with the old prescription, perhaps slightly refined, but compounded of the same basic ingredients.

▽ ▽ ▽

THE INDIVIDUAL EFFORT

The pictures already released, those on their way and in preparation give every indication of backing up Hollywood's claim that this is to be a big boxoffice year. Further support in the field is supplied by the business top attractions have been doing during August and currently. Folks are flocking to the ticket-windows to be entertained by first-grade attractions and, for the most part, theatremen have reason to feel that the new releases allow plenty of latitude for powerful exploitation.

However, the grosses each big picture rates depend to an appreciable extent, as always, upon the efforts of the manager in milking each date of its possibilities. And what may be expected of the individual theatreman this year more than ever is contained, and pithily, in the message from Joseph Bernhard, general manager, Warner Bros. Theatres, to the circuit's executives and managers. Stressing the fine quality of the new product, Mr. Bernhard writes further and from which we quote:

"Let us prepare in advance for the new season . . a season which will bring to your theatre the finest pictures since the beginning of sound. . . . To bring your patrons into your theatre more times . . in the coming season . . should be your principal aim. . . . It is not enough for the pictures to click with the public. You, too, must click in order to clinch this patronage for your theatre."

In the final analysis, backed by the unquestioned strength of 1937-1938 product, the degree of skilled showmanship exercised by the theatreman will tell everything.

A. Mike Fogel

Round Table In Pictures

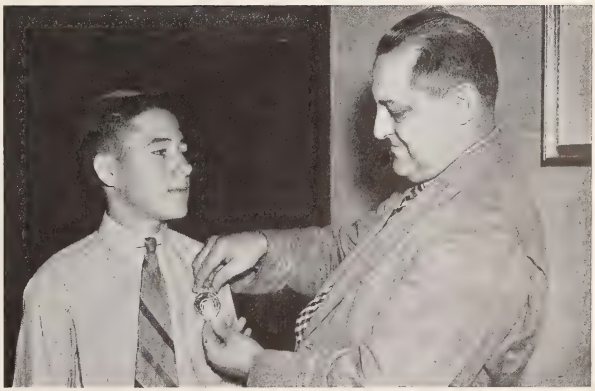
INCLUDED in the widespread campaign put on for "Shall We Dance" at the Lyric Theatre, Manila, Philippine Islands, was artistically decorated lobby, the music notes conveying the background of the picture. Campaign was executed under the supervision of Manager G. F. Corneby.

Introduction of the coming season's attractions booked for showing at the Midland Theatre, Newark, Ohio, was arranged by means of highly artistic lobby display by Manager Frank V. King. Exhibit was 28 feet in length and 10 feet high, seven producers being represented in individual spaces.

Since the music department in leading five-and-ten is one of the more popular gathering spots in Harrisburg, Pa., Manager Sam Gilman, Loew's Regent, finds of great advantage the placing of permanent banner signs atop music counter. Space on each end is left for transparencies to advertise his current and coming attractions.

In connection with local showings of Walter Wanger's "Vogues of 1938" prominent stores are tying in the models to style shows and other fashion displays. For date at the Boyd, Philadelphia, Warnerman Julian Seltzer arranged with Gimbel's for striking display of furs shown in the picture.

Attention to the date on "Woman Chases Man" at the Pavillion Theatre, London, was attracted strongly in the manner here illustrated. Highwire duo was employed to put on a sensational chase act atop theatre roof. Stunt was reported to be a traffic stopper, and was arranged under the supervision of Edwin Quarry, United Artists publicity manager in London.



Exploitation for "Earthworm Tractors" and a plug for local industry were incorporated in the campaign on the picture at the Roxy Theatre, Parramatta, Australia, by Manager Fred R. W. Burr and publicist Albert Livermore. Australian-made tractor was used for the exhibit in the lobby with newspapers carrying photo and stories of the tie-in.

Before taking off for New York to see the sights, Louis Charninsky cracked the Dallas papers with photo and story showing the Capitol Theatre's skipper presenting the first "Secret Agent X-9" badge to tie-in with the showing of the opening chapter of the serial of that name.

Effective institutional advertising for Paramount Pictures and a direct plug for "Waikiki Wedding" was planted at highly popular movie charity ball in Sydney, Australia, by Hermann Flynn, advertising director of the Prince Edward Theatre. The decorations were mounted upon and alongside of the tables reserved for the local Paramount forces.

QUICK REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Artist Window

Day ahead of "Make Way for Tomorrow," Mel Morrison, Strand, Dover, N. H., planted local high school boy in window of leading clothing store drawing pictures of the leads. Photos were later used as part of lobby display with playdates and picture copy. Minister attending opening used picture for text of sermon, urging his congregation to see the show.

Tieup was arranged with Montgomery Ward whereby guest tickets were given to customers who held lucky number sales tickets. Store spotted cards about various departments selling the tieup.

Chivalry Contest

From out front at Loew's, Providence, Howard Burckhardt arranged on "Knight Without Armor" to have local radio inquiring reporter run a "chivalry contest" for two nights, distributing tickets for best accounts of modern knights without armor. Special noon-day broadcast was devoted to production from the Russian angle, during which local critic interviewed a former member of the Russian nobility.

Tieups

For date on "Toast of New York" at the Keith Theatre, Washington, D. C., Hardie Meakin ushered the engagement in with a three-way tiein embracing local charitable organization, leading socialites and newspaper. As part of promotion, Meakin had paper advertise for four-in-hand tallyho in which costumed debs and their squires drove to the theatre.

Two contests clicked, the first a "who's the toast of Washington" and the second for best 100-word amateur reviews on the picture. Prizes were rings offered by local jeweler.

Safety Week

In connection with the opening of "The Devil Is Driving" at the Suffolk, Holyoke, Mass., Paul Kessler contacted local police officials and the Mayor, the latter issuing a proclamation inaugurating Safety Week concurrent with the opening of the picture. Huge parade was staged with American Legion, Boy Scouts, Veterans of Foreign Wars et al attending. Wrecked car properly bannered was towed along and boys from the theatre dressed in devils' outfits were also in line. Paul further promoted store window in which displays on safety secured from local insurance company were planted.

UNIVERSAL'S CAMPAIGN FOR NEWSREEL SUBJECT

Exhibitors are urged by Universal to take full advantage of that company's newsreel special of the recent Shanghai bombing by getting behind the exploitation campaign laid out by Joe Weil. Complimentary 38 by 50 two-color posters are available in addition to a flock of tiein ideas and newspaper stories.

Refrigeration

Unusual style of double truck was run in the Michigan City News by H. Rubin, Tivoli Theatre, Michigan City, Ind., in connection with the opening of the refrigeration plant. Paper reproduced front page in the center of the section with flash heads across top reading, "Theatre cooler than beaches; Tivoli now refrigerated," etc., etc. Mayor Fedder started the apparatus and photos of Hizonner turning on the switch were planted together with congratulatory ads from leading merchants. Institutional copy on the theatre equipment, personnel, coming attractions, etc., was also included.

Parade

Walter Hinks, Alex Cinema, Paisley, Scotland, for "Mysterious Avenger" planned a street parade of wild-west riders followed by a large covered wagon, driver dressed as settler, complete with beard, gun across knees and chewing tobacco. Lettered on either side of the wagon was large black hand and copy "Beware of the Mysterious Avenger." Behind this was another truck on which was five-piece girl band in evening clothes. Bally was also used as part of annual fete day parade.

Mayor Helps

An attraction getter that is reported to have stopped them was stunt pulled by Happy Hasselo, Royal Theatre, Le Mars, Ia., for "This is My Affair," when he pasted a 24-sheet on main street of town. Mayor fined him and issued orders for its immediate removal. In order to get some publicity, Happy, himself, went out with pail and bucket attempting to remove the sheet and reporter from local daily ran story together with photo. As gag giveaways, imprinted envelopes containing matches were distributed, copy reading "free cigarette lighter, compliments of Robert Taylor in" etc., etc.

Steerometer

For a week ahead of opening of "Devil Is Driving" Lester Stallman, College Theatre, Bethlehem, Pa., effected tieup with insurance company which planted a Steerometer in theatre lobby with which patrons could test their driving capabilities, chart indicating results. Company issued rubber-stamped booklets together with heralds on the picture to all. Trailer was run during performances inviting patrons to make the test copy reading "how good are you when the devil is driving?"

Supplementing teaser campaign, side of mountain overlooking the city was painted with 30-foot title letters, visible from all sections of the city. Mayor of Philadelphia loaned one of his safety cars in conjunction with local campaign. Car, painted white and equipped with amplifiers, toured streets with speaker calling attention to driving errors. Driver of car delivered letter from Mayor of Philadelphia to Mayor of Bethlehem, which was photographed and used as basis of co-op ad at no cost to theatre.

Shakespeare

C. L. Hollister, Winter Garden, Jamestown, N. Y., planted a contest for "Romeo and Juliet" in local daily for tickets offered to those submitting correct list of quotations from Shakespeare spotted in various merchants' ads. Paper ran stories together with winners' names. Personal letters were mailed to all organizations and club leaders, fountain banners were planted in drug stores and bookmarks were distributed in libraries.

Doubles Contest

Jack Arthur, Uptown, Toronto, Ont., tied in with the Toronto Globe on a movie doubles contest running current with the opening of his "Hollywood Screen Test," Universal short. Contest announcements carried plug for the attraction and Toronto reviews singled out the picture advising readers to see it.

Radio Tiein

Outstanding in Sam Gilman's "Knight Without Armor" date at Loew's in Harrisburg, Pa. was radio contest conducted over local station wherein entrants sent in sentences composed from letters of Marlene Dietrich's name. Gilman also arranged for local artist to paint the star's portrait in oil in window of leading art shop, picture awarded as first prize in the letter contest.

Licensing System Limits Vienna Theatre Growth

Three Exclusive First-Run Houses Listed in Austrian Capital for Top Pictures

by DR. ADOLF NICHTENHAUSER in Vienna

Governmental decree evidently has much to do with the operation of theatres in Vienna. For instance, theatre owners must belong to one of two exhibitor bodies; children under 16 may see only films found acceptable by the censor or Ministry of Education. Minimum admission price agreements are in force and if an exhibitor offers admissions at less than the prescribed minimum, distributors are prohibited from doing business with him. Every theatre must give one performance a week for children at reduced prices.

However, word-of-mouth advertising is said to be as potent in Vienna as it is on this side, according to our correspondent, who in this article details the status of the theatre in Vienna, which continues the Showman's Travelogue series now current in the Round Table.

Until the breaking up of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy in 1918, Vienna was the capital of a huge realm with 54 million inhabitants. This city predominated in the trade and commerce of the country and was its most famous art exponent. Today, as the 1,860,000 population capital of the small Austrian Republic with its six and a half million residents, it still plays a rôle in the enterprises of the large number of independent countries which now comprise the former monarchy. It has remained one of the world's leading cities in art and culture and the business center for southeast Europe. Despite the present economic and political conditions it is, because of its history and great beauty, still the metropolis of this section of the world. Of no less importance is the rôle it is playing as the springboard in the film industry of the world for a great number of film people.

The residents of Vienna count among their numbers 476,000 industrial workers, 280,000 white-collar workers, and 155,000 professional and independent people. The world crisis has the more intensely affected this city because of its physical severance from the large area which formerly automatically gravitated towards this center. 180,000 unemployed are listed at the employment-agency, of which only 110,000 receive direct relief, but there exist no statistics of the total sum of people out of work, so that we can estimate their number much higher. Wages and salaries are very low in Austria and especially since 1933 have there been large pay-cuts, although the costs of living have increased. The vast majority of white-collar workers receive between 80 and 200 Austrian schillings ($15-38) monthly; non-skilled workers 30-35 sch. ($5.70-6.60), skilled workers up to 80 sch. ($15) per week. These figures definitely indicate that the wages listed allow a very small sum for amusement, if any.

Licenses Are Obligatory

An analysis of the Vienna movie situation must start from the consideration that the opening and running of a motion picture house is not a free trade in Austria, but is dependent on an obligatory license, issued by the authorities, and this fact is the key to its peculiarities. As in 1926 a new Viennese cinema law was about to be enacted, forces concerned with the progress of the cinema joined in the attempt to urge the legislature to abolish the law requiring licenses. Not only were these protests ignored, but the existing law has been handled even more strictly since, so that since 1926 less than a dozen new licenses have been issued of which all but four newly built smaller houses resulted in the remodelling only of existing localities so as to serve as cinemas.

It is therefore not surprising that the Vienna movies, in respect to architecture, lay-out and equipment, are antiquated and inadequate. Of the existing 179 cinemas not less than twenty date from the time from 1896 to 1906, and sixty from between 1907 and 1912. Most of these resulted from the uniting of two or more stores so as to produce frequently halls disproportionately long with a seating capacity of 200 to 400. The exits lead either directly on to the street, or into a back-yard connected with the street through an alley. The interiors of these theatres contain narrow rows of wooden seats which, owing to the lowness of many halls, do not gradually decline towards the rather small screens, so that the last rows, still the most expensive as they were in the very early stages because of flickering, afford an especially poor vision. These old respectable gentlemen can be but little bettered by renovation.

Another large group of cinemas originated in 1912-1914. These theatres, with an average seating capacity of 300 to 500, are mostly situated in the basements of houses built in those years. All the first run theatres of the center of Vienna belong to this category. These movies, too, show to a lesser extent the previous shortcomings, with several screens located so high that those sitting in the first rows require an acrobatic neck to sit through a performance with the head tilted backwards, whereas the sideseats distort the picture.

Since 1918 only thirty-three new movies have opened their doors, mostly with a seating capacity of 500 to 600, a few up to 900 and more. These, too, for the most part are not individual buildings, but rather built into existing houses or are alterations of existing localities. Only six houses in Vienna have a seating capacity of over 1,000 (maximum 1,769), one of which replaced a former circus, one a former equestrian school, and two former legitimate theatres. Sound and vision are in the better movie houses above reproach (especially those which had before the Paris Soundfilm Agreement of 1930 supplied themselves with American apparatuses). The only theatre possessing smoking rooms is the "Apollo," a former pure vaudeville house.

There are no circuits in Vienna, although there are a few men who possess two or three houses. Some are distributors at the same time. The only circuit that ever existed here was the one established by the Social-democratic "Arbeiterbank" (Workers' Bank) comprising 12 of the more important movie houses, which, after the February days of 1934 was taken over by new hands. All but four of this chain were sold. No American company either possesses or has leased any cinema in Vienna. The theatre-owners have two organizations: one comprises the larger and first run houses (104 members); the other is composed of the smaller houses (75 members). In 1933 the "Gremium der Lichtspielunternehmer Oesterreichs" (Official Organization of Austrian Exhibitors) was established by governmental decree, which necessitates that every Vienna cinema house belong to one of these two groups. The entertainment tax is fixed either according to ticket prices or the status of the movie and amounts to three to 20 per cent of the turnover. Children under 16 may see only those films which the censor or the Ministry of Education have accepted as suitable.

Only Three First Runs

The lack of huge cinemas has resulted in special arrangements for first run films. There are only three motion picture houses with exclusive first runs: the "Apollo" (seating 1,440), the "Schwedenkino" (654), and the "Kreuzkino" (245), the latter showing only American thrillers. Occasionally the "Krugerkino" (209) shows a film that no other movie has the courage to try out. All other first run theatres are divided into groups (this season there are five such groups and in each group there are two or five members) and the members of the respective groups simultaneously show the film, usually for one or two weeks. Two groups show American and occasionally also French and English films, one group shows only German, one German and Austrian, two groups films of all countries. Whereas therefore in other big cities every picture is first run in one large house only, it appears in Vienna in several medium and smaller houses at the same time. Foreign films are produced in the original language with the exception of a few first run theatres, lying outside of the city proper, where dubbed versions are given when obtainable. In many subsequent houses of the inner districts the American film has first place, while in outlying districts German and Austrian are preferred and American films shown in dubbed versions, if possible.

(Continued on following page)

MORE ON VIENNA THEATRES

(Continued from preceding page)

There is an official minimum price agreement governing every type of house and seat. The cheapest seats, which may not include more than four rows, must not be sold at less than the stipulated minimum. In the first run houses in the city proper the lowest price is 1.10 sch. (21c); in outlying districts one sch. (19c); in second week houses 80 groschen (15c); in third week houses 70 groschen (13c), and in subsequent houses 50 or 60 groschen (10 or 11c). In the same way the most expensive seats must not cost less than from 2.30 to 1.10 sch. (43 to 21c), respectively, but are much higher in most first run houses.

If an exhibitor offers seats at prices below the prescribed minimum, every distributor is prohibited from providing that exhibitor with any more films. Should a distributor fail to do this, then may every other cinema-owner deduct 50 per cent from the sum due that distributor for any films borrowed at the time of the offense. Every cinema may give one performance per week for children at reduced prices. The purchasing power of the dollar is much higher in Austria than in the U. S. A.

Performances Are Short

Considering the economic conditions of today as well as the programs of the Viennese cinemas, the average price of the seats (about 1.80 sch. or 33c.) at the first run houses is rather high. The performances are comparatively short. At the time of the silent film they lasted 75 to 100 minutes so that most films had to be shortened and often run at an extremely high speed. Since the arrival of the talkies performances last as much as two hours but in many cinemas, including first run ones, only 105 minutes, so that even today many films are either shortened or shown at a speed higher than 24 pictures per second. The features are shown with the compulsory Austrian newsreel prescribed by the government and one or two short subjects. Often there are no short films at all and only advertisements (which incidentally are always shown in every movie), advertising slides or films and trailers which take up ten to twenty minutes of the allotted short time. Double features are prohibited. Only "Apollo" has a stage number as well as its Christie organ and spot lights for stage illumination. Apart from this one finds one stage number occasionally in suburban houses. It seems that the Viennese public does not attach much importance to these by-programs. The first run houses have four, the subsequent houses three non-continuous performances daily, which begin from 3:30 to 5 o'clock and end at 10:45 to 11:30. In 1935 an average of only 73,000 people went to the movies daily, and since the total seating capacity of all the theatres is about 70,000, it follows that only a little over one performance a day is sold out in each theatre.

Since all Viennese cinemas are conducted in the same fashion, the transportation situation plays no important role. The first run theatres in the inner districts, especially those showing films in foreign languages, do indeed get customers from all parts of the city, but these people compose only a fraction of the entire movie-going population. The vast majority of people with limited incomes attend almost exclusively the cheaper neighboring houses, which offer exactly the same entertainment as the first run theatres. The chief means of travel is street cars with fares from 10 to 35 goschen (2-6.5c). The automobile is still in Austria obtainable by the upper middle-class only, which fact eliminates parking problems. The large drawing area plays no role since the idea would hardly occur to anyone beyond the city to ride into Vienna just to see a particular picture.

Advertising, insofar as it relates to first runs, is handled by the distributors and not by the individual movie house. The most important means are newspaper advertising and street posters. The newspaper ads are small, with little text and ordinarily without drawings or pictures. Sometimes contests are organized in collaboration with newspapers or larger department stores; occasionally there is a gala or charity performance with or without native or German stars. Street or window exploitation is rare. The total advertising expenses are borne by the distributor and only recently has the attempt been made by several American branches to get the exhibitors to bear a part of the costs. (To date only MGM has had some success in this.)

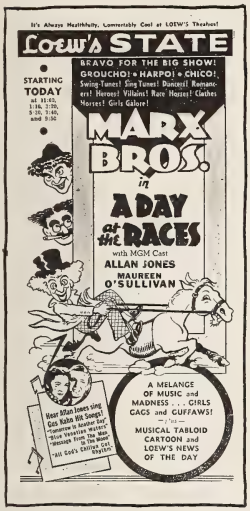
Newspaper Publicity Generous

The more important movies advertise the running film at their own cost in the program columns of the daily papers and on the posters found in all coffee-houses, hotels, and at street car stations. Many subsequent houses have their program posters hanging in specific places, usually billboards, or together with stills in neighboring store windows. The front advertising of the theatres is of quite the same pattern everywhere and draws but little attention. It consists of picture posters, stills and a painted sign with the film title at the entrance. Any type of individual and efficient or tricky lobby display is almost unknown.

The local newspapers give very much space to affairs of the film, including short notes, articles, photos from the press sheets and campaign books of the distributors, film gossip. Syndicated articles are, however, rare. The reviews, seldom signed with the full name of the reviewer, are in some papers definitely colored by advertising considerations and are of no value to the theatres since the public pays no attention to them. In other papers the criticism is more independent but even in the few dailies where the reviewer seems to be free to say what he pleases, the criticisms are often not quite satisfactory because there are too few really capable and expert movie critics.

American companies in Vienna are obliged to produce rather excellent and original advertising work because of the constant introduction of new stars to whom strong publicity must be given since the public at large cannot even properly pronounce the English names. The so-called "American" methods are as yet unknown in Vienna. Not to be underestimated is the effect produced by the opinion passed from mouth to mouth ("Mundreklame"), which means of "advertising" has in many cases been the deciding factor in the fate of a picture.

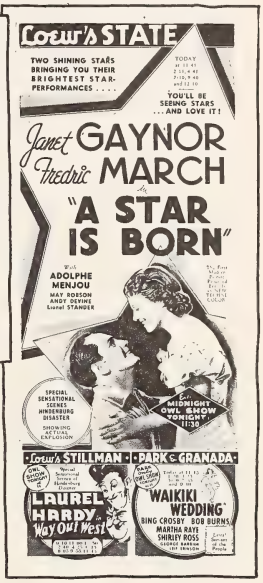
Winter Sports Hurt Shows



Among the factors which give competition to motion picture theatres, the coffee-houses play an important role. Here the Viennese sits for hours reading many newspapers and periodicals, meeting friends or talking shop with business men. Although the once famous legitimate Viennese theatres have suffered greatly through the crisis and from the competition of film and radio, there still remain about fifteen stages, which, however, are too expensive for the masses and are therefore no real competition. Similarly, the cinemas are not considerably hurt by the competition of concerts, radio broadcasts, and the rather widely spread cultural and educational public institutions, nor by the sporting events, which mostly take place on Sunday afternoons. The winter sports do, however, draw intensely from the movie-going public, especially on Saturday and Sunday, the best days, when 150,000 to 200,000 residents leave Vienna for skiing in the mountains.

Summer is the worst season. During the pleasant days the people are out in the open. From the middle of May until the end of August chiefly weak films open. This fact in turn further discourages movie-goers, as well as the lack of air-conditioning, so that most houses are closed during one summer month. (Closing for more than one month is prohibited.)

The Viennese like the movies and it would certainly be possible to increase the daily number of movie-goers to some extent despite the crisis. It would be necessary to modernize the houses and differentiate more strongly through richer, fuller and more changing programs as well as through certain price reductions. For such a development there is now little chance because the existing cinemas are, in spite of all their shortcomings, profitable, and the licensing system which hinders the opening of more modern theatres and the influx of new enterprising energies has eliminated real competition and further progress within the field. The attempt to do away with the licensing system or even to moderate it, would be met with the united opposition of all the exhibitors. This force, along with several other factors seems to make any modification of existing laws impossible at present.



LOEW CLEVELAND THEATRE ADS

Represented on this page are newspaper ads from Milt Harris, Loew-Cleveland Theatres publicity director, which continues the Round Table individual ad men series. Displays are drawn by Edward J. Heugle of Harris' staff.

• personalities

ED SIEGAL
former manager of the Consolidated Jerome Theatre, Bronx, N. Y., has left to assume the managerial reins of the Randforce Maspeth Theatre, Maspeth, L. I.

▽

EUGENE OCHS
is managing the New Beach Cliff Theatre, Cleveland, Ohio.

▽

DON JACOBS
manager of the Lyric, Portsmouth, goes into the Lake, Cleveland, in the same capacity, with IRVING LAMM assisting him. DICK CRUSIGER, manager of the Plaza, Sandusky, replaces Jacobs in Portsmouth and CLARENCE SLETZ is promoted from assistant to manager of the Sandusky house.

▽

WILLIAM JOHN
assistant at Loew's Stillman, Cleveland, has been transferred to Loew's Valentine, Toledo, with HOWARD MICHAEL promoted from chief of staff at Loew's State, Cleveland, to assistant at the Stillman.

▽

JAMES SKELLY
assistant at Warner's Madison, Mansfield, Ohio, has been transferred to the Ohio, Canton, in the same capacity.

▽

BARNEY KILBRIDE
has opened his new Beverly Theatre in Detroit, Mich.

▽

ALBERT REYNOLDS
has been made manager of the Metropolitan Theatre, Houston, Tex., relieving HAROLD CUNYUS, who will be assigned another Interstate post.

▽

FRANK AYDELOTTE
is managing the new Tower Theatre, Drumright, Okla., with MAX GRIFFIN assisting him.

▽

JACK KRAMER
manager of the Alameda, Denver, has been transferred to the Santa Fe to replace GEORGE SANDSTROM, who has gone to the Egyptian. FRED EISLE of the Egyptian will take care of the Grand at Littleton, Colorado.

▽

HARRY S. McLEOD
is again at the St. Charles, New Orleans, after an absence of several months with NOEL SMITH, formerly manager of the Liberty as his assistant.

▽

FRED EISLE
promotion manager and manager of the Egyptian, has taken over the Grand at Littleton, Colo.

▽

RAY QUADY
has opened up the new Aqua Theatre, Minocqua, Wis.

▽

LESLIE GLEASON
formerly at the Park, Chicago, has been named manager of the B. & K. Trivoli at Downers Grove and KENNETH EDGERLEE has been moved from the State to the Park.

On Monday, September 6th, Raleigh Sharrock to Jenwyl Dean Massey. Raleigh is skipper of the Centenary Theatre, Shreveport, La.

JAMES G. HOWE has opened the New Richland Theatre, Carrollton, Ky. SCOTT PRESTON manages.

▽

DICK EASSON
formerly of the Trenton, Lynchburg, Va., has switched posts with CALVIN H. BALL at the Isis.

▽

HOWARD KNEVELS
has been shifted to Loew's, Montreal. Other Famous Players Canadian shifts include LARRY GRABURN to the Capitol in Halifax, BILL NOVAK to the Metropolitan in Regina, LEN BISHOP to the Tivoli in Hamilton and RUSS McKIBBON to the Royal in Guelph.

▽

M. H. HARMAN
has been named advertising manager for the Warner-Saxe Theatres, Milwaukee, Wis., with EUGENE ARNSTEIN succeeding him at the Garfield as manager and JOE REYNOLDS going into the Egyptian.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE CLUB

Rockefeller Center, N. Y.

Name .....
(PRINT)

Position .....

Theatre .....

Address .....

Circuit .....

City .....

State .....

Absolutely No Dues or Fees!

FRANK HENSON
manager of Loew's Broad, Columbus, has been transferred to Loew's at Canton, and is succeeded by CLINTON G. WANDER, former assistant at the Ohio, Columbus. ROBERT V. KAIL, assistant at the Broad, is given the same post at the Midland, Kansas City, where JOHN HARDGROVE is transferred to Columbus to assist RUSSEL BOVIM at the Ohio. ROBERT BYERS, student assitant at the Broad, succeeds Kail.

▽

VAUGHN MANN
has purchased the Roanoke, Kansas City, Mo.

▽

HERBERT E. WALTERS
manager of the Colonial, Kansas City, Mo., has been promoted to accountant in the central offices of the Mutual Theatres there. Walters succeeds T. D. STILES, resigned, and J. F. BROSIUS is the new manager of the Colonial. THOMAS GARRETT has been named manager of the Strand, another Mutual house.

▽

ROSCOE DRISSEL
of Loew's Parkway, Wilmington, Del., has been transferred to Loew's State, Norfolk, Va.

▽

JAMES SKELLY
assistant of Warner's Madison, Mansfield, Ohio, has been transferred to the Ohio at Canton in the same capacity, succeeding BEN SCHWARTZ, recently transferred to Canton.

▽

SIMON GALITZKI
Topeka, Kan., operator will open his new theatre in College Hill district, calling it the Co-Ed.

▽

JESS BINNEY
has sold his theatre in Pattonsburg, Mo., to EARL BINNEY, his brother.

▽

EDWIN BEHRENDT
former owner of the Cozy, Cambridge, has taken over the State in Casson, Minn.

▽

ROBERT GROUND
has been transferred from the Palace, Danville, Ill., to the Apollo in Peoria, succeeding EDWARD PELTZ, who goes to the Great Lakes Theatre at Peru.

▽

L. H. PETERSON
has acquired the Lyric Theatre, Browerville, Minn.

▽

TED BOSSIMEAUZ
formerly at the Garrick, Chicago, has been transferred to the Terminal and AL BACHMAN goes to the Harding as manager.

▽

GUS COATES
has been transferred by Wilby from the Empire, Montgomery, Ala., to the Tiger at Auburn, Ala.

▽

T. J. NICKEN
will manage the Pantages Theatre, Birmingham, Ala., when it reopens in November.

J. C JENKINS—HIS COLYUM

Omaha, Nebraska

Dear Herald:

We don't know why it is, but every time we come to this village and walk down film row everybody runs for the back room of the offices and locks the door. It must be that we are regarded as some kind of a pestilence. Walter Green of the "Pepco Advertising Co." rushed home and untied his bulldog and told Mrs. Green to keep all of the doors locked. Walter Creel of the Beacon theatre got his girl and went out of town, Bob Ballantyne and Gus Harms of the Ballantyne Theatre Equipment Co. went and got vaccinated again. H. A. Van Husan of the Western Theatre Supply Co. called up the chief of police and says "Send down the whole force; he's here again," and every time we go up to the Variety Club the manager calls the Fontinel hotel office and tells them to send up a tub of ice water.

Doggone the doggone luck, anyhow. We are going to cut this town off of our visiting list and let 'em go to thunder; then we will see how they like that. The only person we met who wasn't afraid of us was O. E. Ringler of the Monogram Co. from Des Moines. O. E. sat down and was real chatty with us. He said he wasn't afraid of us because all Des Moines people were immune from everything anyhow. That's the way they treat a fellow here who votes the wrong ticket.

▽

We stopped here on invitation of Clarence Olson, branch manager for Warner Brothers, to witness the screening of several of their new pictures. We can't mention all of them because it would take up too much space and Ernie might kick about it, but we would like to call your attention to a couple, viz., Dick Powell in "Varsity Show." Outside of its length, we would say that this one would please the average audience immensely. Dick is exceptionally good and the drill scenes we believe are the best we ever saw. You ought to play it, but don't play anything with it; this one is long enough; it makes a full evening performance.

Paul Muni in "The Life of Emile Zola" is an excellent dramatic performance, and Paul Muni is simply superb in this one.

If your audience likes real acting of an interesting theme, we would surely advise playing this one, but we doubt if it will please the hairoil Charlies and gumchewing Lizzies of your audience, and you will find that there is no cross-legged shanty jazz in it, and that alone will be a relief. We thank Mr. Olson for inviting us to this screening; it was very nice of him and we were very highly entertained. Several exhibitors from out of town were also invited to attend, and a whole lot of the boys were here, too. Among them we noted Dick Kerburg from Sheldon, Iowa. Mr. Brown from Harlan, "Brownie" from Avoca (we wish that boy would stay at home when we call), Morrie Cohen of Council Bluffs, Mr. Kuhl from Corning, Mr. and Mrs. Bogart from Rock Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sartorius of Hartly, all of Iowa. Nebraska was pretty well represented also. Bob Booth of Auburn, Wes Booth of Nebraska City, Mr. Kuhl from Seward, Mr. Metzger from Beaver City, Bert Beams from Red Cloud, C. J. Kremer from Stanton, Schoonover from Aurora (although we didn't get to see him) and a whole lot more of the boys who wouldn't talk to us because they hadn't been vaccinated.

We were told that crops around Stanton are almost a total failure. Corn is practically burned up. Stanton is about 12 miles from Norfolk and Norfolk has protection over Stanton. It takes money to buy tickets to a theatre and it takes crops to get money to buy tickets and when there is neither then a theatre might as well be located in the Fiji Islands.

On top it all we are told that anthrax has broken out among the cattle around Stanton and many are dying; also that a new disease known as "sleeping sickness" is taking many of the horses in that community. From a financial outlook it really looks bad for Stanton, and Kremer is a darn swell guy.

▽

We have just received a letter from Mr. John M. Fox of the New Loup theatre at Scotia, Neb., enclosing a check and asking us to enter his subscription to the HERALD. We also got a letter from our old friend, Sherm Fitch, branch manager for RKO at Sioux Falls enclosing a check and asking that we send the HERALD to William Amacher of the Justright theatre at Castlewood, S. D.

Thanks, boys; we'll do it. Outside of a couple of pieces of huckelberry pie, we know nothing better than an order for the HERALD. Of course, this doesn't include bass fishing.

▽

Miss Gertrude Merriam of the HERALD office at Rockefeller Center, New York, writes us and thanks us for getting theatre passes from the boys for her collection. She says, "You're a peach." By gosh, that made goose pimples break out on us as big as walnuts, and now, if you boys want to do something nice, you will send her a theatre pass for her collection, or send it to us.

▽

Every once in a while we see, or hear, something in a theatre that is really funny. A few nights ago we attended a theatre and they were playing a western. There were a bunch of gangsters hiding in an old shack in the woods in what was called "ghost town."

A woman in the back seat got so excited she began to squirm around and presently the hero shot one of the gangsters; he dropped his gun and crumpled up and fell over and the woman jumped up and shouted so the whole audience heard her, "There, by gosh, he got that one." That battle was as real to that woman as though it was the real thing. If ever a person got the worth of their money in a theatre she did.

▽

We are going to stop now and go home and see if the grasshoppers have left anything around our garden; if they have, it is an oversight, and we doubt if they have, for a grasshopper never overlooks anything.

COLONEL J. C. JENKINS
The HERALD's Vagabond Colyumist
The HERALD covers the FIELD like an April SHOWER.

IN THE NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 102, Vol. 19.—The fighting in China....President Roosevelt attends Dutchess County Fair....Florida has first big storm of the year....Cotton picking time arrives in southland....Spawning salmon battle rapids....Hula hula girls of Honolulu pose for candid camera fiends....Aviation ....U. S. aquatic stars meet Japan's best at Toyko ....Tommy Farr grants an interview....Lew Lehr.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 103, Vol. 19.—Dramatic highlights in the battle for Shanghai....President Roosevelt tries fishing off Montauk Point....French couple dance at their platinum wedding celebration ....Religious ceremony climaxed by mass immersion ....College football training season in full swing.... Count and Countess von Reventlow....Frank Fuller ....King Victor Emmanuel....Army's newest bombing planes.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 300, Vol. 8.—America lines up against bigotry....1936 winner repeats in Canada's water marathon....Both Louis and Farr want return bout....Football's just around the corner ....War flashes from Shanghai....The woman's page ....Russian World War ace crashes....The President goes to the Fair.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 301, Vol. 8.—The bombing of Shanghai....First U. S. refugees home from China....Salvation seekers in final rush....Living tower saves Italy's boys....English girls hail Robert Taylor....Barbara Hutton, home, gets big welcome.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 9.—Budge-Mako lose doubles in big upset....Harvest Moon full for the Indian tribes....Sports festival brings Russian youths to Red Square....Mechanical cow demonstrated in Berlin....Malcolm Campbell shatters water speed record....Kid accordion wizards hold tuneful meet.... Guns bring down plane run by radio....'J' boats and full-riggers in yacht news....Big fight is over, but not the talk.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 10.—Fuller breaks west-to-east flying record....F. D. R. goes fishing, gets bad weather....Wins typewriting title....Motorized scissors cut down trees....Rookie hits 18 homers in month....Princess Juliana and husband take yacht trip....Stay ravages of time on old cathedral.... Liners land notables as summer nears end....Gypsies hold coronation in Britain....Football training on.

PATHE NEWS—No. 13, Vol. 9.—War feeds on U. S. iron....Betty coed's wardrobe....25,000 N. Y. Nazis rally....New organ of democracy....Horses round up fish....New "fool proof" plane....Accordian fad spreads....Symphony in swimming.

PATHE NEWS—No. 14, Vol. 9.—Lewis warns new deal....Barbara Hutton home....War refugees in U. S.....Pigskin parade starts....New Bendix air marks....Mrs. Roosevelt in Paris....Beavers work for U. S.....Blasts rock Phoenix....Kids ride model train....Thrilling water rodeo.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 594, Vol. 9.—General Butler warns U. S. in east.... Argentines lose first polo game....Cadets try real Army life....New plane runs on roadway....Babies find place in sun....Joe Louis is "glad he won"....Huge salmon catch seined....Enormous dish of mashed potatoes served to crowd....Wax pants conquer the heat.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 595, Vol. 9.—The bombing of Shanghai.

Frank Alexander Dead

Frank ("Fatty") Alexander, contemporary of Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle and other rotund comedians of the silent screen, died Wednesday in Los Angeles of a heart attack. Mr. Alexander, who was 58 and weighed 465 pounds, played in Sennett, Hal Roach and Keystone comedies for 20 years.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

NEW EQUIPMENT

ANIMATION, TIME LAPSE AND GENERAL cinema apparatus. E. S. RINALDY, Chester, N. J.

WANT MORE LIGHT? GET IT WITH THE Super-Arc. See this modern, tubular low amperage reflector arc lamp at only $147.70. Complete with giant 10¼ inch Bausch & Lomb elliptical mirror, Westinghouse motor, Weston Ammeter, loads of other features. Liberal trade-in offer. S. O. S., 636-AK Eleventh Ave., New York.

GENERAL EQUIPMENT

MIRRoroid, SILVER-WHITE SOUND SCREEN (patented). Gives brilliancy, depth, reflection and clarity. Unequalled for Technicolor. FREESE, 147 Water St., Newburgh, N. Y.

WAR ON CARBONS! COMPETITION DEFIED. 200,000 sets international brand. first quality, guaranteed for beautiiul snow white projection. 7/10, $4.85 hundred sets; 8/12, $5.75 hundred sets. 10% discount 1,000 sets. Buy a year's supply at these sacrifice prices and save. Bargains in all theatre equipment. S. O. S., 636-AK Eleventh Ave., New York.

BOOKS

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$3 postage prepaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 736 pages of up-to-the-minute text, charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKS MEANT TO BE READ—RICHARDSON'S 5th Edition, Volume 3 (not the latest), with Questions and Answers Index, $1.95; Book bundle—3 books, 600 pages, only $1.39, consisting of Sloane's "Motion Picture Projection," Mancall's "Servicing Projection Equipment" and Benson's "Fundamentals of Television." Any one book 49c, plenty others. S. O. S., 636-AK Eleventh Ave., New York.

REPAIR SERVICE

GOLD SEAL OR SIMPLEX TICKET REGISTERS rebuilt, factory guaranteed, $15 per unit, including parts. "Loaners" furnished. Details from S. O. S., 636-AK Eleventh Ave., New York.

USED EQUIPMENT

EVERYONE SHARES IN THESE PRIZES. Warehouse clearance our $250,000 stock, sacrifice prices. Powers 6A projectors, good $69.50. Reflector arc lamps, famous makes, entirely complete, from $49.50. Forest rectifiers, $24.50. Generators, $49.50 up. Optical systems, good, standard makes, from $4.95. Hundreds of bargains in our Clearance Bulletins. S. O. S., 636-AK Eleventh Ave., New York.

UNUSUAL BARGAINS IN USED OPERA chairs. sound equipment, motion picture machines, screens, spotlights, stereopticons, etc. Projection machines repaired. Catalog H free. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, LTD., 844 So. Wabash Ave., Chicago.

REAL VALUES—QUARTER SIZE LENSES, $10 pair, half size, $32 pair, popular makes, sizes limited; B & H splicers, $3.95; speakers from $7.95; baffles from $5.95; hearing aid amplifiers with monitor speaker and tubes, $15, handles up to 30 seats. Lots more—write now! CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

SACRIFICING—TALKIE AND SILENT—PORTable and theatre projectors, equipment, supplies, etc. Chance lifetime. Lists free. TOM AUSTIN, 470 8th Ave., New York.

THEATRE CHAIRS—1600 PANEL BACK SPRING seat chairs at $1.25, two lots. 1,500 fully upholstered spring seat chairs at $1.65. Photographs sent on request. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., 358 W. 44th Street, New York.

TAKE IT FROM US—OUR SEATS ARE BETter. 18,000 used veneer and upholstered chairs, American Seating, Ideal, other famous makes, reconstructed, refinished, from 75c. Bargain list 15M free. S. O. S., 636-AK Eleventh Ave., New York.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

MAN OR WOMAN WITH CAPITAL TO TAKE interest in established story and talent agency. Prefer someone interested in theatrical work. With or without services. State everything in letter for interview with principal. BOX 790A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

TRAINING SCHOOL

THEATRE EMPLOYEES: ADVANCE TO BETter theatre positions. Free booklet shows you how. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington St., Elmira, N. Y.

FOR RENT

DESK SPACE AVAILABLE FOR PRESS AGENT or public stenographer active in theatrical work. Reasonable rent for complete service. BOX 915A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

WANTED TO BUY

8 OR 16 MM. MOVIE CAMERA AND PROJECTOR. Used, but in good condition. Will pay cash. BOX 789A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD

WANT USED RCA SOUNDHEADS, SIMPLEX, Powers projectors, arc lamps, rectifiers, generators, lenses. Top money paid. BOX 917, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITIONS WANTED

MANAGER—YOUNG, ALERT, DEPENDABLE with 13 years experience. Will accept good proposition anywhere. Write MOTION PICTURE HERALD, BOX 920.

PROJECTIONIST DESIRES CHANGE, PREFER California. Good references, experience on Simplex and Western Electric Sound, also Simplex Acme. JOHN DRIGGS, Pine Bluffs, Wyo.

WELL KNOWN THEATRE MANAGER WITH years of experience in all departments of theatre operation desires a new managerial connection immediately. Excellent record and references. Prefer Pennsylvania or New York, but will go anywhere. BOX 919, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

THEATRES

THEATRE AND BUILDING. BEST BUY IN Florida. County seat. Only theatre in county. $10,000 cash, balance five years. BOX 912, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MODERN THEATRE FOR SALE, CONSISTING of two stores and seven offices. Seating capacity 1,450. Fully equipped with Western Electric Sound System. Large stage and dressing-rooms, to produce any stage play. Operating daily, (all year round), and has been, since the first opening, in the year of 1926, formerly managed by the Keith-Albee Amusements Corp. Will sacrifice for quick sale. Terms. UPTOWN THEATRE, Providence, R. I.

WILL BUY OR LEASE THEATRE IN SMALL town under 5,000. Full particulars first letter. BOX 918, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

TRANSLATION SERVICE

WILL MAKE FRENCH AND SPANISH TRANSlation of advertising literature at nominal cost. Can supply complete advertising layout and printing facilities also. Rates quoted upon request if sample submitted. BOX 916A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

IT'S THE BIG SHOW MONTH IN SHOWMANSHIP SHORTS, TOO

Great new features mark a big new season. And the shorts are stepping out also. Big new names. More laughs. Timely topics.

These Showmanship Shorts from Educational keep new season programs up to high pitch all the way through.

WILLIE HOWARD
A laugh sensation everywhere in his first comedy
"THE AFFAIRS OF PIERRE"

TIM and IRENE
(Antony) (Cleopatra) in another of their uproarious burlesques
"WILL YOU STOP"

IMOGENE COCA
Hit of New York stage and club shows in her first film featurette
"BASHFUL BALLERINA"

"THE BIG APPLE"
A Song and Comedy Hit with the ARTHUR MURRAY DANCERS demonstrating the new dance all the country is talking about

JEFFERSON MACHAMER and his "Gags and Gals" starting their second hit season in
"SILLY NIGHT"

CHARLES KEMPER and EARL GILBERT with ghosts on strike for more love and laughs in
"THE TIMID GHOST"

Presented by E. W. HAMMONS

Educational Pictures
"THE SPICE OF THE PROGRAM"
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Distributed in U.S.A. by 20th Century-Fox Film Corporation

3 SMASH HITS from PARAMOUNT in the first 4 weeks of the new season!

"ARTISTS AND MODELS"—42 key city runs—42 holdovers. 4 weeks first run, New York Paramount and Newark Paramount; 3 weeks, first run, Chicago, Detroit, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Seattle; 2 weeks, first run, Denver, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Salt Lake City, Louisville and countless other keys, all to record breaking business.

"SOULS AT SEA"—5 weeks at Globe Theatre, New York, at S. R. O. 3 weeks first run San Francisco to tremendous business; 3 weeks first run Philadelphia to smashing business; 2 weeks Paramount, New Haven to year's top gross.

"DOUBLE OR NOTHING"—Paramount Theatre, New York, first day's business equals house record for attendance. First two days' business at Paramount, Newark, indicates "Double or Nothing" will surpass the sensational business of "Artists and Models" at this house.

That's PARAMOUNT PERFORMANCE

Paramount Pictures

MOTION PICTURE
HERALD

Better Theatres

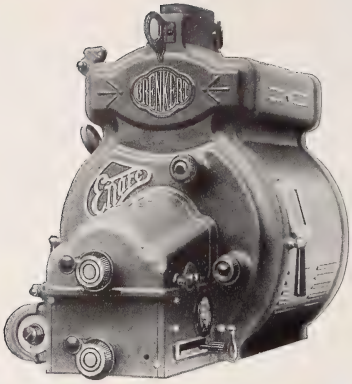
A Portfolio of Recent Designs

OWEN THEATRE, BRANSON, MO.

VARSITY THEATRE, AUSTIN, TEX.

10th ST. THEATRE KANSAS CITY, KANS.

TOWER THEATRE, DALLAS, TEX.



CINE ELCANTRO, MEXICO, D. F.

Planning for Economical Heating

Selection of Acoustic Materials

Next Issue:
THE FALL
BUYERS NUMBER

SEPTEMBER 18, 1937
In Two Sections — Section 2

INCREASED INCOME AT THE BOXOFFICE

A good show! That's the talk, the thought, of every Theatre owner. To bring the bigger income!

Better light on the screen is the key to a fine show—the key to back rows filled—the key to increased income at the boxoffice.

Simplified high intensity projection guarantees this top quality show—the show that pleases every person in your audience—brings them back—and brings their friends.

BRENKERT ENARC is "simplified high intensity" in its most modern, most practical, most economical form. Ask the efficient, thoroughly experienced and willing-to-serve Brenkert dealer about easy terms on this profit-making equipment.

BRENKERT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

SIMPLIFIED High Intensity PROJECTION

FASTEST INCREASING INSTALLATIONS

BRENKERT Light PROJECTION COMPANY

ENGINEERS AND MANUFACTURERS · · · DETROIT, MICHIGAN U·S·A

Your competitors pay the bill

FOR YOUR NEW PITTCO FRONT!

SALES PERSONALITY PLUS is what a new Pittco Front gives to a theatre. Here's an example in Danville, Ill. The Pittco Front was designed by C. B. Rubens and D. N. Sandine, Architects and Engineers. Which theatre would you expect to attract the biggest audiences . . . the old or the new? Make a Pittco Front a profitable salesman for your theatre . . . and boost your profits.

MAYBE your competitors don't actually sign the check for your new Pittco Theatre Front. But they pay for it, all the same . . . because its modern, inviting appearance draws patrons from their theatres to yours. And the profit from this new business . . . the box office you take away from your competitors . . . pays for your remodeling. Your competitors' loss is your gain.

Remodel your theatre with a Pittco Front . . . now. It will widen the area from which you draw. Increase your box office. Build up your profits.

When modernizing, consult an architect to assure a well-planned, economical job. Our staff of store front experts will be glad to cooperate with him in planning a Pittco Front to suit your needs. Meanwhile, send the coupon for our free book containing complete information about Pittco modernization, together with many photographs of successful installations.

Be sure to see the Pittco Store Front Caravan, now on a nation-wide tour. Contact our local branch for specific information as to when it will visit your territory.

PITTSBURGH TIME PAYMENT PLAN

Take up to 2 years to pay for your new Pittco Front. Pay 20% down, then settle the balance out of income.

PITTCO STORE FRONTS
glass . . . metal . . . paint

CARRARA STRUCTURAL GLASS · PITTCO STORE FRONT METAL · PITTSBURGH PAINTS
PITTSBURGH MIRRORS · PITTSBURGH POLISHED PLATE GLASS · TAPESTRY GLASS

Paint · PITTSBURGH · Glass
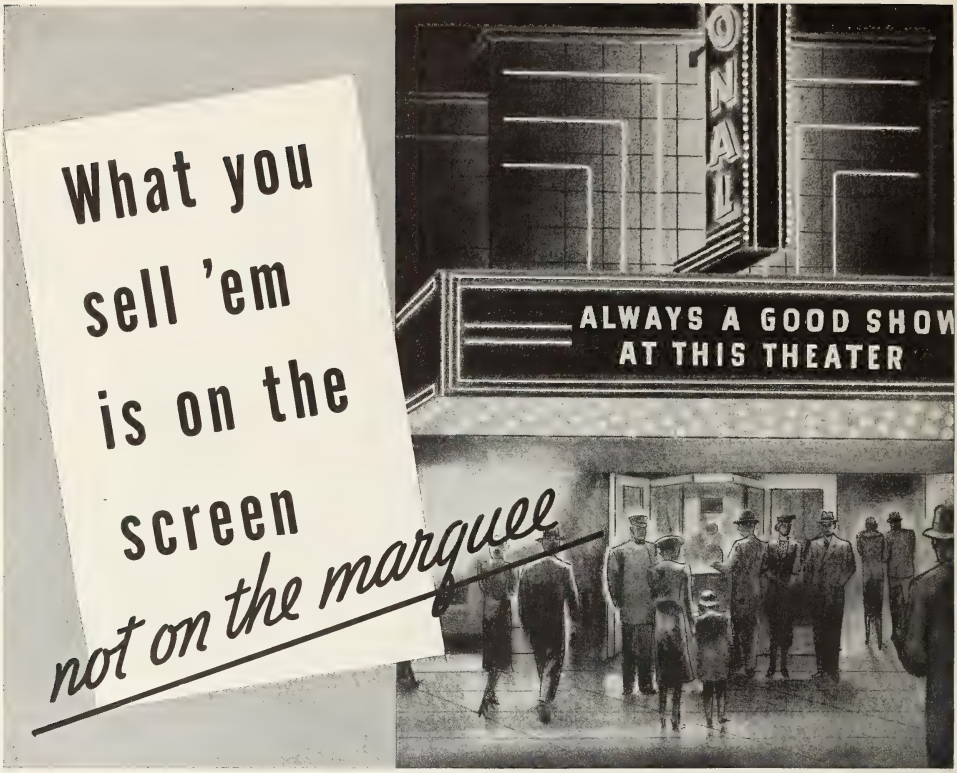
PLATE GLASS COMPANY



Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company,
2242 Grant Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Please send me, without obligation, your new book entitled "Producing Bigger Profits with Pittco Store Fronts."

Name.....

Street.....

City.....State.....

High intensity projection is not a luxury which the smaller theater must forego. It has become a competitive necessity. Two or three years ago only ten per cent of all theaters were using high intensity projection — today 5000 theaters have it.

SIMPLIFIED—

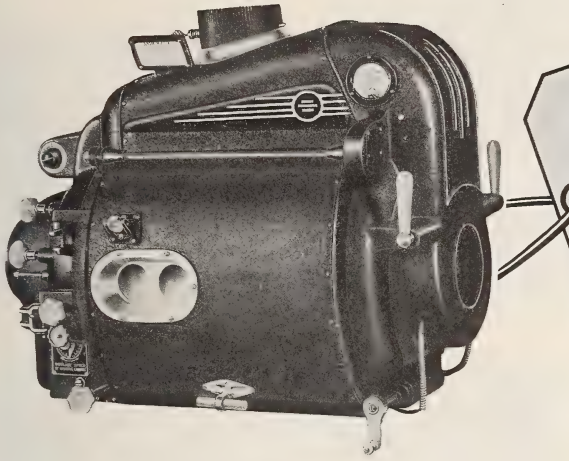
1-SIMPLIFIED LAMP MECHANISM 2-FEWER LAMP PARTS 3-LOWER ARC CURRENT

The new SIMPLIFIED HIGH INTENSITY projection is true economy. It gives you two to three times as much light on the screen as you can get from low intensity projection. Yet the cost per light unit on the screen is so much less that all this extra light and improved projection can be covered by one admission per show.

This new projection provides snow-white light essential for satisfactory color reproduction and gives any theater modern, eye comfort projection that is as good as that of the big de luxe houses.

Write for the new, free, illustrated book—"The Eternal Triangle In Picture Projection."

SIMPLIFIED
High Intensity
PROJECTION
WITH "NATIONAL" "SUPREX" CARBONS



ECONOMICAL AND MODERN

NATIONAL CARBON COMPANY, INC.
Unit of Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation
CARBON SALES DIVISION, CLEVELAND, OHIO
General Offices: 30 East 42nd Street, New York, N. Y.
BRANCH SALES OFFICES: NEW YORK PITTSBURGH CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO

Copyright 1937, National Carbon Company, Inc.

FROM SHANGHAI TO SANDUSKY

ASHCRAFT Suprex LAMPS

over 1,000 SOLD during first 8 months • 1937

. . . and HERE'S WHY!

25 features, incorporated in every Ashcraft Suprex Lamp, guarantee – better projection, more light per ampere and the best of workmanship. This superiority in design and operation to any competitive lamp lowers maintenance costs . . .

Remember, Suprex Lamps are manufactured only by

ASHCRAFT

SHANGHAI, Sandusky, Calcutta, Stockholm, London, Buenos Aires, New York, cities and towns the world over use Ashcraft Suprex Lamps——for better projection.
You, too, can keep 'Patron Satisfaction' by giving absolute efficiency, precision of operation and guaranteed Suprex performance.

FOR YOUR APPROVAL—
Only progressive and responsible dealers represent the Ashcraft Manufacturing Corporation. These dealers are instructed and will gladly install Ashcraft Suprex Lamps in your theatre, without obligation. We welcome the opportunity to prove that the Ashcraft Suprex Lamp is the . . .

WORLD'S FINEST PROJECTION LAMP

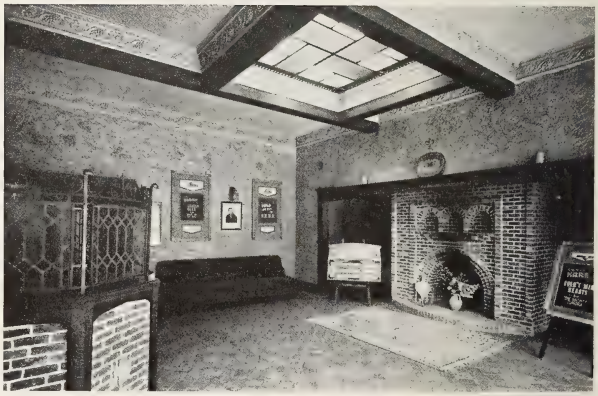
Distributed in Canada: Dominion Sound Equipments, Ltd., Montreal, Quebec

ASHCRAFT SUPREX
REG. U. S. PAT. OFFICE

C. S. ASHCRAFT MANUFACTURING CORPORATION

47-31 THIRTY-FIFTH STREET • LONG ISLAND CITY • NEW YORK

In a Monastery Garden of the 15th Century



The auditorium.

The entrance (manager's residence in background).

The theatre as seen from High Street.

The foyer.

Looking up High Street from the theatre.

A MOTION picture theatre curiously distinguished for the charm and history of its setting is the New Cinema in the ancient town of Chipping Norton, Oxfordshire, England. Its very site, as well as its surroundings, is of the stuff that screen stories are made of. It occupies the ground on which a medieval monastery once stood, with its garden known to have flourished in the 15th Century. The village of Chipping Norton was incorporated on February 27, 1606, but it was really established in prehistoric times. Also in the garden is a great stone house 300 years old. It has a secret tunnel which Cromwell is said to have used to escape from the soldiers of King Charles I. The house is used as a residence for the manager of the theatre, which adjoins it. The cinema entrance, which is on the ancient High Street of the town, is reached through a short garden walk. It is styled in old Cotswold architecture, but the interior of the theatre is essentially modern. The seating capacity of this unique playhouse (which, incidentally, supplies its own electric current with Diesel-powered generators) is 506, and there are parking accommodations for 70 cars. Sydney Hall, who began his career in showbusiness as a candy hawker in a Manchester theatre, is the managing director.

CONSTRUCTION • OPERATION

Better Theatres

MAINTENANCE • EQUIPMENT

VOLUME 128 SEPTEMBER 18, 1937 NUMBER 12

Change in Erpi Status Seen Uncertain

WITH DEVICES controlled by Western Electric made available to the International Projector Corporation and Motiograph, Inc., for use in the manufacture of motion picture sound reproducing apparatus, speculation concerning the disposition of Electrical Research Products, Inc., as a sales and service organization in the United States, has been taking many turns. Searching inquiry, however, fails to reveal a basis for anything except the suspicion that the WE subsidiary may be doing business at the same old stand for quite some time.

Erpi, at this writing, is still selling theatre sound equipment, apparently with no lapse in vigor, since sales last week, it has been authoritatively stated, were greater than in any week since the introduction of the present "Mirrophonic" system.

Service contracts were also involved in these sales, while expiration of many of the service contracts previously entered into will not come until 1940.

If the granting of rights in WE—which is to say, A. T. & T.—patents constitutes a satisfactory reply to the Government's insistence that the telephone group has been conducting a monopoly in fields where it has no business doing so, there is no substantial reason, it is pointed out, for the position of Erpi in the motion picture industry to be essentially disturbed so long as the selling and servicing of sound equipment proves profitable.

Neither International Projector nor Motiograph have decided on how much manufacturing operations will be extended as a result of their acquisition of rights in the WE devices. Motiograph already has a model of projector with soundhead incorporated in the design, and International has indicated that its professional Simplex projector heads will be similarly co-ordinated. Other parts of the sound system might be added later, or purchased from other manufacturers whom Erpi added later, or purchased from other manufacturers whom Erpi might license.

Panoramic Projection At Paris Exposition

THE ADJECTIVE colossal, frequently applied to matters cinematic, is put to particularly valid use in reports concerning "panoramic projection" at the Paris Exposition.

On the facade of the Pavilion of Illumination, facing the Eiffel Tower from one end of the exposition grounds, is stretched a screen approximating 325 feet long by 33 feet high. Here five nights a week are projected panoramic motion pictures.

The pictures carry the illusion of open country and space and are visible to at least 4000 people. The screen is directional, its maximum reflection power limited to an angle of about 45°. It is surfaced with minute spherical glass-beads on a coating of adhesive varnish.

Two Simplex projectors are used, and the panoramic effect is obtained through the use of special optical devices. Similar devices were also employed in the cameras in filming the pictures.

Each projector projects one half of the image, the right half by the projector to the left. Joining of the two images on the screen is achieved by means of a special filter.

Projection light is by a Hall & Connolly lamp with carbons revolving and advancing under thermostatic control. Shutter ventilators allow 250 amperes under 70 volts. Bausch & Lomb extra-luminous condensers are used.

The stunt, for it is admittedly no more than that, is the result of collaboration between J. Frank Brockliss, Ltd., international distributor of theatre equipment in Europe, with headquarters in London, and several French scientists and motion picture producers.

As the Capitol theatre on Broadway, once the motion picture's most celebrated edifice, opened its doors to the public following extensive remodeling. The improvements, made under the supervision of Harry Moskowitz of Loew's, Inc., included 5,400 new full-spring, mohair-covered seats, by the American Seating Company; new thick-pile Wilton carpeting throughout, new display frames especially made by the Froehlich Cabinet Works of New York, and a marquee (by Artkraft-Strauss) extending across the entire front of the building, carrying opal glass attraction board letters, the largest of which are 36 inches high.

• • •

FEATURES OF THIS ISSUE

	Page
Cinema in a Monastery	6
Owen Theatre, Branson, Mo.	8
Varsity Theatre, Austin, Tex.	10
10th St. Theatre, Kansas City, Kan.	11
Tower Theatre, Dallas, Tex.	12
Cine Elcantro, Mexico, D. F.	14
About People of the Theatre	16
Heating Plant Requirements By J. T. Knight, Jr.	20
Maintenance Tabs	22
Theatre Acoustics Today By C. C. Potwin	31
F. H. Richardson's Comment	36
Planning the Theatre	40

Better Theatres is published by the Quigley Publishing Company, Inc., Rockefeller Center, New York, every fourth week as Section Two of Motion Picture Herald. Martin Quigley ,publisher and editor-in-chief. George Schutz, editor. Colvin Brown, general manager. Ray Gallo, advertising manager. C. B. O'Neill, Western advertising manager, 624 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago. Consultants: J. T. Knight, Jr., physical operation; Ben Schlanger, architectural form.

Owners Now Seek Own "Standards" in Planning

THAT THEATRE owners and managers themselves have been experimenting during the last few years in an effort to improve upon practices long followed as "standard" in theatre planning, is indicated in the questionnaires returned to the Theatre Structures Committee of the SMPE, which is conducting studies expected to result in official recommendations on theatre forms.

Data given by theatre managements in the returned questionnaires show, for example, that since 1931 screens have been located much higher than established practice called for—in some instances more than 8 feet above the auditorium floor—whereas approximately 5 feet has been the generally accepted distance.

Also since 1931, the questionnaires are reported to show, the depth of the auditorium has been increasing, with the ratio between width and depth widening, resulting in conditions more specifically adapted to motion picture exhibition. Many of the most costly and prominent theatres erected during the 1920's have auditoriums as wide as they are deep—in some cases wider.

Of 2000 questionnaires issued, about 650 have been returned, and approximately a thousand returns are desired before the committee begins to compile data.

Mayor Owen's Theatre Deep In the Ozarks

Jim Owen's genuine hillbilly cinema—and that's the proprietor himself, second from left, in the snapshot displaying another of the Owen activities, which include even politics.

[Of the five theatres described in this group of pages, the first, while less suggestive of schemes to be adopted elsewhere, is certainly the most unique. It is unique enough in itself. Then there is the town, which lies in storied country. And of course, there's its owner, Jim Owen, popular host to Americans from far as well as near, as both exhibitor and mayor. The following description of the theatre, with some notes on Jim himself, is by Robert O. Boller, widely known theatre architect (himself an occasional dweller among Missouri's hill folk) who helped him design and build it.—THE EDITOR.]

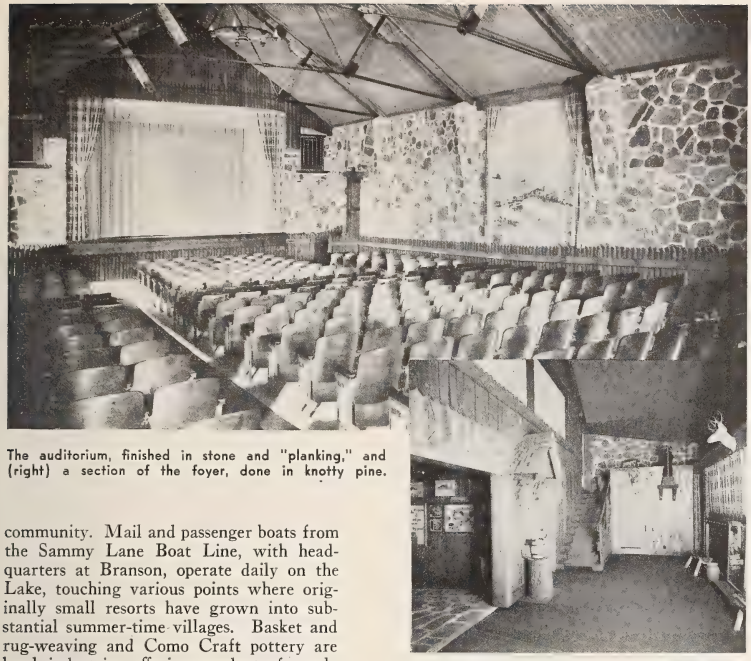
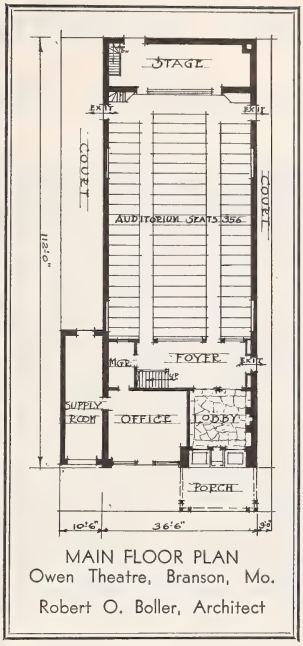
THE NEW Owen theatre, located in the heart of the summer playground of the Ozark mountains in Southwestern Missouri, is owned and operated by Jim M. Owen, who, besides being a well-known exhibitor in those parts, is also the mayor of Branson.

This little community, located at the upper end of Lake Taneycomo, in Taney County, Missouri, is a resort town of approximately 1200 population, which in summer leaps to a figure between 4000 and 5000, as neighboring summer cottages and cabins fill with sportsmen and vacationing families, who return annually to enjoy the relaxation to be found in this picturesque mountain country.



View of the lobby.

The staunchness, honesty, and stability of the Ozark mountain folk is traditional. It was not until 1905, however, that Harold Bell Wright (then an iterant preacher), inspired by the primitive beauty of the region and by the lives of the rugged hillfolk, immortalized the section in "The Shepherd of the Hills," a novel read by millions.



This famed story has its setting in the Mutton Hollow and Dewey Bald neighborhoods near Branson. The desire to visit the locale of this tale and to surrender to the lure of steep, forest-covered hills, sparkling streams and mysterious caverns, yearly brings thousands of visitors to the immediate vicinity of the new showhouse. The lower White river, on the banks of which Branson is located, is nationally noted for its small-mouthed bass fishing. The float trips conducted by experienced guides from this and other nearby points are a Missouri institution to be found nowhere else in the United States.

River conditions are broadcast daily from radio station KWTO in the nearby city of Springfield, and the fishing opportunities in five rivers, two creeks and Lake Taneycomo make a visit to Branson an annual high spot in the life of many nationally known sportsmen. Deer, wild turkey, quail and duck, as well as squirrels and other small game, attract hunters in season.

In the thirty-two years since the story of the Old Shepherd first brought Branson to the notice of the outside world, the district has been transformed into a playground for the entire nation. Two well-paved highways, 65 and 78, have pushed over the rocky ridges and through the valleys of this interesting section, to intersect at the little village. A nearby aeroplane field and a branch of the Missouri Pacific railroad also offer means of access to the

The auditorium, finished in stone and "planking," and (right) a section of the foyer, done in knotty pine.

MAIN FLOOR PLAN
Owen Theatre, Branson, Mo.
Robert O. Boller, Architect

community. Mail and passenger boats from the Sammy Lane Boat Line, with headquarters at Branson, operate daily on the Lake, touching various points where originally small resorts have grown into substantial summer-time villages. Basket and rug-weaving and Como Craft pottery are local industries offering products for sale to visiting tourists.

Into this rustic setting, four years ago, came Jim M. Owen, genial newspaperman from St. Louis, Missouri. He fell in love with the mountain region, and like the Old Shepherd in the Wright novel, decided to make the Ozarks his permanent home. With his parents and sister he became part-owner of a Branson drug store, and on his own behalf started the operation of one of the most popular float trip lines in the vicinity. A small picture show was his next investment, this business being carried on in a small rented building seating 209.

Owen's increasing popularity soon brought about his election as mayor of Branson. (It may be recalled, from the "Asides and Interludes" page of the MOTION PICTURE HERALD, that Jim is the exhibitor who frequently accepts fish worms from young patrons in payment for theatre admissions, since his unusual combination of business interests make this a workable policy.) Co-operating with local townsfolk, with the tourist trade, and with regional religious bodies on nearby Presbyterian Hill, his little theatre became a community center, always available for local entertainments and cooperative efforts, and offering to an enthusiastic patronage a wide variety of screen fare.

Increasing patronage necessitated the frequent turning-away of potential patrons, some of whom had driven forty miles by motor car to visit the Branson theatre. Owen realized that the time was ripe for the erection of a larger and more efficient building, yet he did not feel that he could afford a large expenditure.

Working with an eye to the combined factors of imperative economy and a desire to make use of a traditional Ozark background, and motivated by an urge to get completely away from the "shooting gallery" type of small-town showhouse, Owen and his architect worked out a plan for the new motion picture theatre.

Jim said, in starting the design for his new house, "I want to giev the Shepherd of the Hills country a theatre so unique and different that it can't be forgotten."

And this is how Jim did it:

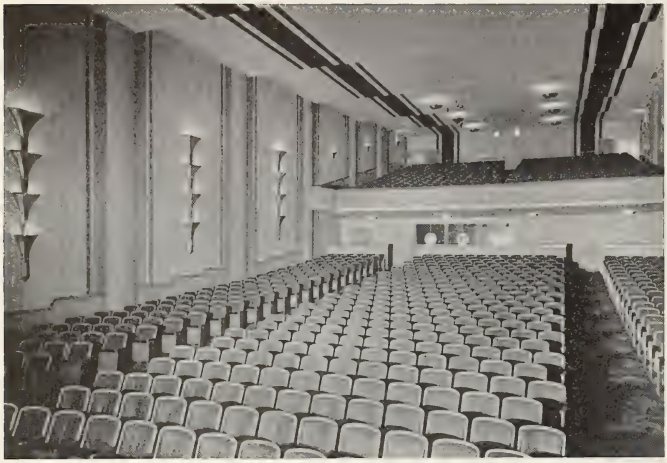
GENERAL PLAN

Under a general contract handled by Lloyd Eiserman, Branson builder, a theatre and commercial building 36 feet 6 inches by 112 feet, overall, was erected. In addition to an auditorium seating 356, the structure contains the Owen Boat Line office (17 feet 6 inches by 20 feet), supplemented by an attached warehouse (10 feet 6 inches by 32 feet) used for storing equipment used on the river float trips.

EXTERIOR

Side and rear walls of the building are of stone in the "crazy quilt" pattern most popular and economical in the Ozark country. The front, however, is of stone laid in broken ashlar, with the upper portion of peeled slabs in a gray stained finish, brightened by touches of red on the dowel pin heads holding each slab in place. The rough barn door effect has been used in the warehouse entrance and elsewhere throughout the theatre.

Instead of the usual marquee, a porch, 19 feet by 12 feet, has been built over the vestibule entrance to the theatre, supported by the same type of roughly hewn timbers which are used extensively throughout the building. A small outside balcony and two window treatments in the front follow the motif of pigeon houses frequently found in the hay barns of the region. The attraction board is surrounded by peeled cedar poles. Roofs over marquee porch, window features, and all other portions of the building, are of genuine Ozark "shakes" or clapboards, split out of timber from the surrounding forests and mounted over heavy felt to prevent any possible leakage. Bulkheads under windows of the boat line office are of heavy planks, V-jointed at each edge and laid diagonally.



The sidewalk across the entire front is of large flagstones. Lighting under the porch consists of a large wagon wheel fixture wired for lamps.

VESTIBULE

The vestibule, measuring 14x4 feet, has recessed floor panels to receive link mats, and also contains a box office which fol-

(Continued on page 42)

A Two-Floor Theatre Costing $45 Per Seat

The auditorium, with walls of both standard and acoustic plaster.

Exterior, with general finish in stucco.

THE VARSITY theatre in Austin, Tex., is one of several new structures which Interstate Theatres have added to their important group of Southwestern properties during the past year. It is located opposite the campus of Texas University. W. Scott Dunne was the architect.

The building is 53x148 feet, including a theatre and a 22x50-foot corner store. The building does not cover the entire site, 25 feet having been reserved at the rear for future extension of the auditorium. The general architectural style of interior and exterior is modern.

The exterior is finished in white stucco with inset rustications in horizontal lines. The front, over the theatre entrance area, is finished in porcelain enamel of brown and orange. The box office and vestibule walls and all street front bases are of the same finish.

The foyer has plaster walls with mural decoration. The ceiling is finished in acoustic plaster to lower the noise level at this point. An open mezzanine lounge overlooks the foyer and gives access to toilet rooms and to the balcony stairs.

The balcony is provided with standee area behind the seating as on the main floor to relieve traffic congestion that might occur on the lower level, and also to eliminate the usual crossover space.

Auditorium walls are of standard and acoustic plaster in a floated finish. Pilasters are rounded and faded into the color scheme of the walls. Pylon fixtures of original modern design provide auditorium illumination.

The ceiling is stepped, and in the fascias of these steps are located the air outlets. Air supply is by a duct system with air washers and recirculation, mechanical refrigeration to be added later.

Seating, by the International Seat Corporation, is spaced 32 inches both on main floor and in the balcony. Main floor chairs are 20 inches wide, those in the balcony 19 inches. The total capacity is 1,030, with 416 seats in the balcony.

The Varsity was erected at a cost of $46,000, or $45 per seat.

The foyer, which has acoustic laster ceiling.

New Plan and Style for A 15-Year-Old Theatre

MODERN lines and materials characterize the majority of theatres that have been remodeled or newly constructed in Western Missouri and Kansas since the depression, and in keeping with that trend is the style in which Ed F. Burgan's Tenth Street theatre in Kansas City, Kan., has been remodeled. The architects were Besecke & Swanson.

Mr. Burgan had operated the theatre several years when he finally purchased the ground and building and began his plans for remodeling. Built 15 years ago on an inside lot, the 50x118-foot house possessed several of the faults of theatre construction of that period and it was practically torn down to make way for modernization.

The backwall was underpinned and a basement excavated under an enlarged stage. The basement, something the theatre did not have before, is large enough to accommodate a new oil-burner boiler and fan and washer equipment. Previously the theatre was heated by two castiron furnaces, one on each side of the stage. The new unit, with the insulation installed in remodeling, is expected to lead to a saving of approximately 20% in heating. A large damper, located at the elbow where the duct branches to go into the boiler and into the washer chamber, effects change from cooled to heated air, and vice versa. A squirrel cage fan provides circulation for both. The duct moves from the basement to the top of the proscenium arch, where a branch extends each way to the exit openings, one on each side of the stage. Above the standee rail are two exhausts that go through the roof. Directly below the stage floor a battery of return grilles carry air back into the washer. Fresh air is taken from the alley.

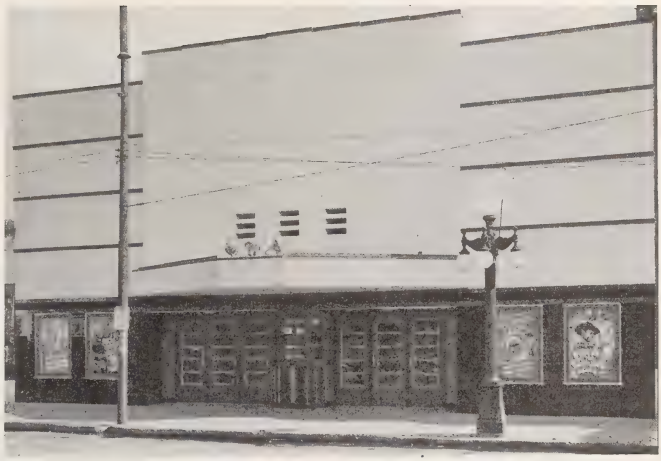
The stage was 8 feet deep and 14 feet wide; it now is 16x32 feet, large enough for vaudeville or amateur shows.

Rear exit space was inadequate, consisting of two 3½-foot doors leading into the alley. Now each side of the stage, at an alley, are exits 6½ feet wide, reached by concrete ramps flanking the stage. Openings from the auditorium are draped in blue velvet.

AUDITORIUM

Plastered side walls and ceilings created an unfavorable acoustical condition in the theatre before remodeling. The architects left the original plaster, but put on 1x2-inch stripping, and then, with both glue and nails, applied temlock over the stripping to create insulating air space.

The ceiling is double bordered, with the outside 30 inches of ash-colored temlock, the inside 24 inches of walnut-colored temlock. The latter blends into the three strips down the entire length of the ceiling center. The 2½-foot center strip is of walnut, the 2-foot strip on each side is of ash shading into a cream field.



The auditorium formerly was lighted by eight drop lights. Now it is done indirectly by sidewall fixtures with interchangeable lights, and glare is eliminated. Fixtures, which were designed and executed by Mr. Burgan, are 4 feet long, adding to the sense of height in the ceiling. Forward the ceiling has a fan design.

Sidewalls from 4½ feet above the floor are cream-colored temlock in 4x8 sheets. As the drop of the floor permits, the sheets

(Continued on page 41)

The auditorium, with its new walls of furred veneer.

The new front, restyled in smooth stucco and glass.

A Modern Theatre Built in Existing

View of lobby, looking into foyer.

THE TOWER theatre, newest of Interstate Theatres houses, extends from Elm Street to Pacific Avenue, in the heart of Amusement Row in Dallas, Texas, and is the result of remodeling a fomer cafe in the ground floor of an office building and a parking garage at the rear, also including an intervening light court. The cafe was 16x58 feet, the light court 22x65 feet, and the garage 65x120 feet.

The cafe ceiling was 16 feet high, the light court was limited in height by exposed office windows in the office building. The garage had a height of 21 feet under the bottom of roof trusses. Very little change could be made in the space available in the cafe; however, some room was gained at the rear, but structural columns and spandrels in the office building could not be economically removed. The main stairs, which are of very easy pitch were schemed around the existing structural members, giving access to mezzanine floor and balcony. The cafe area was used for entrance lobby, vestibule and foyer.

The light court area was utilized for standee, janitor's space and rest rooms on first floor and lounge, offices and rest rooms on mezzanine, also projection room, fan room and ushers' room on the top floor which was on the approximate level of the second floor of the office building and neccessitated a light court between the back of these rooms and the office building windows. The garage was utilized for the auditorium and second platform, with the air conditioners above this second platform. The garage roof was raised and portions of the existing walls were re-used, with new steel work and roof framing and slab. The result was a modern functional styled, fireproof theatre, seating 978 on lower floor and 358 in a balcony W. Scott Dunne was the architect.

The vestibule floor is in various colors of terrazzo divided with wide top white metal strips in symbolic forms. The wall base is of structural glass. Walls are finished in gold and blue mirrors in deep tones, divided with small aluminum mold This mirror treatment is enhanced with black structural glass plaques with silver inlays. Poster frames are of aluminum and are recessed for indirect illumination.

Mirrors also line the back of the box office which is set at side of entrance, and treated same as walls of lobby to obscure a large structural column at this position. The outside piers at main entrance are faced in porcelain enamel iron with aluminum trim. The ceiling is in porcelain enameled iron with mercury lamp strip at center behind opal glass.

The marquee face is trimmed with chrome metal and neon, the soffit paneled in opal glass with lights at back. The attraction board is "V" type, trimmed in porcelain enamel and chrome, and carries Wagner silhouette letters.

The lobby has a carpeted floor, and alternate blue and gold mirrors on side walls from base to ceiling similar to vestibule but in lighter tones, with orange colored structural glass plaques with silver inlay. In each corner is a light pocket with two outlets and Major reflectors that furnish the entire illumination for the room. The ceiling is in acoustical plaster tinted in bright orange with silver leaf overlay in modern motif.

The wall mirrors wall i[illegible]oth the lobby and vestibule were set wit[illegible] pitched face for additional reflection an[illegible] the result was a maze of depth and colo[illegible] reflecting the "Facade" treatment given the rear of building.

Structures

ceiling and side walls which gave size to both spaces.

The foyer was finished in simple motifs to lend size to this area. Light pockets were used in rounded corners for effective height and uniform illumination. The floor is carpeted, and walls are plastered in troweled finish, ceiling in acoustical plaster. The main stair to mezzanine and balcony rises from this room to permit an easy split of the patrons before entering standee area. This stair is carpeted and has aluminum handrails at walls and at center. The center rail is illuminated with neon, the light thrown on steps defines each riser and tread. From foyer to standee area is an entry with an illuminated aquarium at one side, an innovation by Irwin Waite, the house manager.

The standee area is really a roomy lounge with rest rooms opening off one end. The rest rooms have carpeted floors and are fitted with especially made leather furniture. These rooms are also illuminated by light pockets at the sides.

Auditorium from balcony. Illumination is architectural, with automatic control.

AUDITORIUM

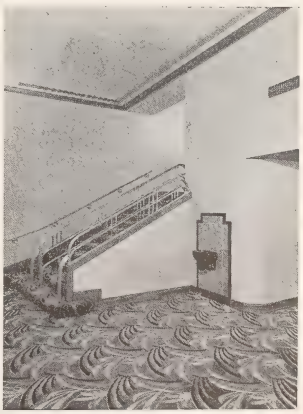
The auditorium has colored cement floors and carpeted aisles, with smooth plaster dadoes and pilasters and acoustical plaster side wall and ceiling panels.

Seating area under balcony overhang is lighted by cove toward front. The rear part of this seating area is lighted by suspended plaster light strip in truncated ceiling dome.

The balcony is lighted by two light pockets at rear wall at the quarter points. The lower floor seating forward of the balcony is lighted by metal light strips bracketed-out from wall about 13 inchres. All auditorium lighting (excepting emergency lighting) is controlled by pre-set induction dimmers to permit varying degrees of illumination, and all of the circuits are automatically controlled.

The major interior concealed light sources were designed as a component part of the architecture, along functional lines.

The Tower represents an investment of about $100,000, with equipment, which includes Simplex projectors and RCA Photophone sound system, general projection equipment and accessories by National Theatre Supply Company, carpeting by Alexander-Smith, auditorium seating by International Seat Corporation, marquee and signs by Texlite.



Vestibule with box office at side.

REAR "FACADE"

The rear of the Tower faces on a prominent traffic-way suggesting a "facade" for the rear. A porcelain enamel dado was used, with a border enclosing a 24-sheet billboard at the center, over which was placed a "V" type attraction board. The upper wall is finished in white stucco with a cast stone coping. Fresh air openings are set at sides in upper walls, giving direct supply to the air-conditioning system.

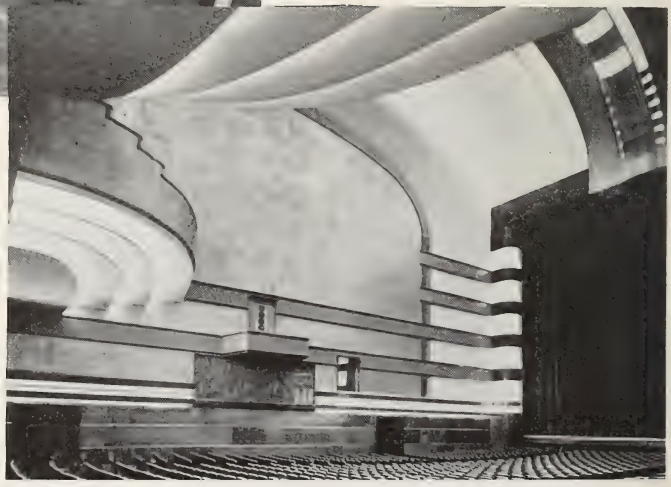
AIR SUPPLY

The Tower adjoins the Melba Theatre, and the Melba conditioning plant was supplemented to supply this new theatre, also the new electrical services were extended to main switchboard in Melba theatre basement. Steam for heating the new theatre is taken off the Melba theatre boiler and extended to coils at the conditioners, and a fan driven steam heating unit is installed in the vestibule, fed from office building boiler, to check cold air infiltration at front doors that might reach the foyer.

Foyer, showing stairs to mezzanine.

Mexico's Cine Elcanto, Decorated with Light

THE CINE ELCANTO, in Mexico, D. F., is one of the most pretentious ventures in motion picture exhibition in all Latin America. It seats 4,000 in a main and two balcony levels. But it is probably most interesting here for its bold and altogether pleasing (though perhaps unduly complex) expression of modern ideas in theatre interior treatment.



Although the side wall finish has some decorative value, the design of the auditorium largely depends upon illumination. The proscenium arch is bordered in blue granite, and at the sides this material alternates with flashed opal light boxes, set flush. Extending across the top of the proscenium arch is a panel of indirect neon lighting, while above this are lamps in reflectors directing light upon the side walls. Extending from the center of the arc to the rear of the first balcony is a suspended ceiling trough of copper along which at intervals are prismatic glass light boxes. These boxes provide white light for general house illumination; the other sources carry amber lamps for decorative effect and low-level lighting during performances.

The side walls are finished in Acousti-Celotex tiles, furred out 12 inches over gypsum blocks. The tiles are tinted a copper color, matching the running light.

The foyer is spacious and is given an unusual form by the exposure of the underside of the first balcony risers, which is lighted from concealed sources. Light is otherwise used as a major decorative medium, the design being dominated by a great rectangular arch formed by two prismatic glass panels covering light troughs. Flanking these panels are series of mirrors, each about 2½ feet wide, which add still further to the effect of spaciousness.

The Cine Elcanto is quite elaborate in its auxiliary facilities. There are, for examples, large and handsomely appointed lounges and toilet rooms off the lobby, a soda fountain at the entrance, a tropical garden with fountain overlooking the foyer, and further toilet provisions on the third balcony level.

The owners and operators are Arturo Ceballos and Julio A. Castro. Francisco J. Serrano was the architect.

Views of the foyer and auditorium which show spectacular use of luminous elements.

A PORTFOLIO OF RECENT THEATRE DESIGNS

ACOUSTONE

Permits Voice and Music to Be Heard Without Distortion—Adds New Beauty

Acoustone-treated walls and ceiling in the Buckingham Theater, Chicago

■ Shown here is one of many theatre interiors, large and small, which have been benefited overnight by the use of Acoustone*, USG fireproof acoustical tile. Consider what it will do for your theatre.

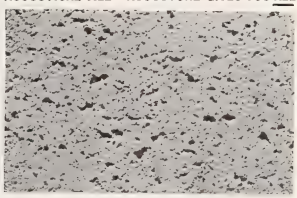
Quickly applied to new or old walls or ceilings, without loss of business time, Acoustone absorbs the sound that makes overlapping reverberation—that "blurs" singing and orchestral music and competes with the spoken word. It allows voice and music to be heard throughout the auditorium. The result is greater audience appreciation of each show—and logically increased receipts!

Acoustone requires no further decorating. Its rich integral colors and high light-reflecting surface add much to the appearance of the theatre interior. Its beauty is kept fresh by simple vacuum cleaning at a fraction of the cost of painting. Yet painting does not reduce its ability to absorb sound. Lasting efficiency and maintenance considered, Acoustone is actually low in cost. Send for full information—now!

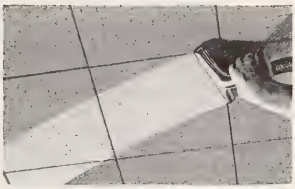


There's a USG Acoustical Material to Solve Every Sound-Control Problem

USG sound-control service includes absorption treatments and materials to clarify hearing and reduce noise—also sound-insulation to reduce the travel of objectionable noise from room to room. USG acoustical engineers are always available to assist you in an advisory capacity, without obligating you in any way.

SEND FOR BOOKLET ON SOUND CONTROL

*Registered trade-mark



CHECK THESE FIVE ESSENTIALS OF EFFICIENT ACOUSTICAL TILE—ACOUSTONE GIVES YOU ALL

1. LASTING BEAUTY OF INTEGRAL COLORS
2. INCOMBUSTIBILITY

3. ABSORBS THE SOUND THAT MAKES OVERLAPPING REVERBERATION

4. LASTING EFFICIENCY—VACUUM CLEANED AT LOW COST—ALSO PAINTABLE

5. HIGH LIGHT-REFLECTION CUTS COST OF LIGHTING

UNITED STATES GYPSUM CO.
300 West Adams St., Chicago, Ill.
In Canada, Canadian Gypsum Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ontario

☐ Please send booklet, "Quiet"
☐ Please send an Acoustical Engineer

Name .....

Address .....

BT-9-18

ENGINEERING SALES DIVISION
UNITED STATES GYPSUM COMPANY
OTHER USG SOUND CONTROL PRODUCTS ARE:—PERFATILE • QUIETILE AND SABINITE

About People of the Theatre

NEWS OF THEIR ACTIVITIES REPORTED FROM ALL SECTIONS AND BRIEFLY TOLD

North Carolina Theatres, Inc., have acquired the Reed property on N. Union Street, Concord, N. C., for a consideration said to be in excess of $25,000. No formal announcement has been made by the theatre firm, beyond plans to "develop" the property.

V. P. Loftis, Charlotte, S. C., contractor, was low bidder at $81,646 for construction of a new theatre at the corner of King and Market streets, Charleston. Bids were opened by Albert Scottile, president of the Pastime Amusement Company.

Southwestern Theatre Equipment, Houston, Tex., has been organized with capital of $15,000. The principals include A. Mortensen, George H. Heck and J. W. Hill.

The Bryson theatre, Bryson City, N. C., was opened September 2. The theatre has been extensively remodeled.

Arthur P. Barry, manager of Lucas & Jenkins' theatres in Macon, Ga., will direct the education and publicity bureau of the Community Chest campaign in October.

The Hollywood theatre, York, S. C., has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffin to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fleming of Live Oak, Fla., and the latter have taken active charge of the theatre.

Albert H. Reynolds, formerly manager of theatres in Austin, Tex., has succeeded Harold Cunyus as manager of the Metropolitan theatre in Houston, Tex. Mr. Cunyus is reporting to the Dallas office of Interstate Theatres for a new assignment.

The Orpheum theatre, Memphis, Tenn., was reopened September 19 with an entirely local group financing its operations. The house will be operated by Tri-State Amusement Company with Chalmers Cullins having full direction of the theatre.

The breeze theatre, Beaufort, S. C., is now in a new location. A large warehouse, purchased by Ira Smith, proprietor of the theatre, has been remodeled into a modern theatre much larger than the former Breeze.

Robert J. Haley has assumed his new duties as house manager of the Liberty theatre in New Orleans, La., succeeding Noel D. Smith, who resigned. Mr. Haley was formerly connected with Mort H. Singer theatres in Minneapolis, Minn., and Marshallton, Ia.

Remodeling of the former Strand, Sylvania, Ga., has been started by Mrs. Peter Kittles, manager. The theatre will be renamed the Sylvan.

The J. A. Jones Construction Company has begun work on remodeling a Charlotte, N. C., building at a cost of approximately $10,000, for RKO.

D. McDermon is operating the Norwood theatre, Birmingham, Ala., which has been reopened after being dark for more than a year.

J. E. Massey, owner of the Park theatre, Waynesville, N. C., has purchased a half interest in the Lyric theatre at Sylva, N. C., from Dr. Grover P. Wilkes.

Joseph G. Mullen, Jr., has been named manager of the new Bellevue theatre in Richmond, Va.

J. R. Long has been appointed manager of the new Ritz theatre recently opened in Bridgeport, Ala.

The new Varsity theatre, with a seating capacity of 500, has been opened in Norman, Okla. The new house is located in the building formerly occupied by the University theatre. Lou A. Chatham, manager of the Sooner theatre, is managing the Varsity.

WAS IT REALLY NAZI OR WAS HE NUTSY?

He really didn't know for quite awhile. Leo Cimikoski, projectionist at the Strand theatre in Norwich, Conn., continued to stare at the strange figure in the upper left-hand corner of the image on the screen. Surely it was a Nazi swastika! He called his partner over, and he could only confirm what Cimikoski had beheld. Moreover, the patrons themselves, in passing out, remarked about the strange presence of a swastika on the screen.

An investigation was begun immediately. And this is what it disclosed: The night was very warm. Ushers had opened the fire escape doors. In the configurations of the fire escape railing was a design closely resembling a swastika, and light from a street lamp, passing through the railing, had silhouetted a swastika upon the screen.

The Strand is a Rothenberg & Morse circuit house.

Harry Waldron, owner and operator of the Blue Moon and Fox theatres in Lindsay, Okla., has begun work on remodeling the Blue Moon.

T. E. Wilhoit is building a new theatre in Plattsburg, Mo. William Weare is the superintendent of construction, and Robert O. Boller of Kansas City is the architect.

The Illinois theatre, Jacksonville, Ill., will undergo extensive alterations. The house is owned by the Fox Midwest Agency Corporation. Plans and specifications for the improvements were prepared by Robert O. Boller.

The Tower, Drumright, Okla., owned by Consolidated Theatres, Inc., has been opened. The house replaces the Strand theatre, destroyed by fire last year. Frank Aydelotte is manager.

A number of improvements have been started at the Saenger theatre in Pine Bluff, Ark., and present plans include the installation of new RCA Photophone sound equipment and complete redecoration of the interior.

The Capitol theatre in New Orleans, one of the United Theatres units recently destroyed by fire, will be rebuilt, it is announced.

Cooling equipment, Motiograph projectors and Brenkert Enarc projection lamps have been installed in the Ideal theatre, Ponchatoula, La. The equipment was furnished by Louisiana Motion Picture Equipment Company.

The McKinley theatre, Niles, Ohio, built about twelve years ago and used for the past ten years as a church, will again become a theatre. The property has been purchased by A. G. Constant. Alterations are expected to be completed by November 1.

The Dover, Camden, O., owned by Orville Wood, will be extensively remodeled. A hundred additional seats will be installed.

The new Chakeres-Xenia theatre, Xenia, Ohio, was opened on September 9. The house, completed at a cost of approximately $50,000 by Chakeres Theatres, Inc., of

The all steel, streamline chair shown to the left (O.C. 983) is fitted with the squared type of streamline edge which some buyers prefer because of the larger apparent metal surface which frames in the back. Both the H-W squared and rounded Streamline Edges are made from heavy, cold rolled steel to assure lifetime protection.

THEY'LL Pay AT Your BOX OFFICE!

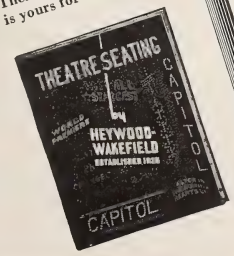
ACTUAL TESTS PROVE that Heywood Streamline Theatre Seats are top notch attractions that actually pay dividends at the box office. In several instances, working in close cooperation with owners and managers, we have installed H-W Streamline Chairs in the front orchestra only, always the last section of the straight picture house to "fill." Yet despite nearness to the screen; despite the usual difficulty in "filling" . . . these front Heywood Streamline Seats were actually "rushed" by patrons. Such severe tests furnish undeniable evidence that Heywood Streamline Chairs will pay you dividends at your box office too! May we tell you in detail about these swanky, streamline theatre chairs?



HEYWOOD - WAKEFIELD

Established 1826

GARDNER, MASS.

Streamline Theatre Seating

Our beautiful new theatre seating catalogue, printed in 10 colors, shows many Heywood Streamline TheatreChairs. A copy is yours for the asking.

LEADERS

Among Theatres use the Cutawl

to make them the

LEADERS

A cutout entrance display is the most attention-compelling form of advertising that a theatre can use.

The Cutawl keeps down the cost of cutout displays and makes them the most effective advertising media for any theatre.

Let us send you special theatre literature.

INTERNATIONAL REGISTER CO.

21 S. Throop St., Chicago, Ill.

9-37

INTERNATIONAL REGISTER CO.
21 S. Throop St., Chicago, Ill.

Please send me Cutawl literature.

Name.....

Address.....

City..... State.....

Better Theatres Service

J. T. Knight, Jr., will be glad to answer your questions about equipment, maintenance, operating problems with respect to the physical theatre.

Peter M. Hulsken will be glad to advise concerning the planning of your theatre project or the remodeling of your present theatre.

Merely write:

BETTER THEATRES
ROCKEFELLER CENTER - NEW YORK

Springfield, Ohio, headed by Phil Chakeres, replaces the former Bijou theatre there. James Hibbert, former proprietor of the Bijou, is manager, with Ralph Winters of the Chakeres circuit as assistant.

Louis Anger, who recently purchased the Alcazar theatre, Naugatuck, Conn., has formed an operating company with Stephen Martin of Bridgeport, and George F. and Donald F. Babbott of Naugatuck. The house will be reopened after extensive alterations.

B. E. Hoffman, Warner executive, has set October 1 as the date of the reopening of the Circle, South Manchester, Conn., and the Capitol, New Britain, Conn., both dark for many years. The Alhambra, Torrington, Conn., closed for the summer, will also be reopened then.

Harry Blume, lessee of the Plaza theatre, New Haven, Conn., for the past 25 years, has purchased the building, which includes the theatre and two stores, from H. L. Witstein.

Steve Panoras, recent purchaser of the Jodoin theatre, Baltic, Conn., has reopened the house. Emmanuel Panoras is the manager.

James O'Laughlin, assistant at the Palace, Lawrence, Conn., has been named manager of the Strand, Amesbury, Conn., succeeding Joseph Liss, who has been transferred to the Strand in Clinton, Conn. Christopher McHale, who managed the Clinton house, has been named manager of the Broadway in Lawrence, taking the post left vacant by the resignation of Tom Brown.

Leo Ricci, operator of the Capitol, Meriden, Conn., for the past four years, will take over the Loew lease on the 1000-seat Poli theatre. Loew's have kept the theatre dark for two years, operating only the Palace.

Charles W. Woodall, who has operated the Princess at Guntersville, Ala., for several years, recently opened the Ritz, a new house, at South Guntersville.

C. W. Wade of Calera, Ala., is remodeling the Wadesonian theatre at Clanton, Najeeb Maloof has reseated his Serf theatre, Las Vegas, N. M., with chairs by the Ideal Seating Company, Grand Rapids, Mich., supplied through Graham Brothers.

R. E. Conrad has reopened the Ritz theatre, Burlingame, Kans. The house, which was closed for several months, has RCA Photophone sound equipment.

C. L. Miller is opening a theatre at Rossville, Kans., where his traveling show has been headquartering.

The State at Cherryvale, Kans., which was acquired recently by H. C. Musgrave from A. C. Wooten, has been redecorated and remodeled.

James Justice, operator of the Pickfair theatre in Kernersville, N. C., has installed Ideal Seating Company chairs in the house. Standard Theatre Supply Company made the installation.

G. F. Moore's theatre bearing his name, in Plainville, Kans., has been reopened. It was closed for two weeks following a fire.

Frank Cooper's Princess theatre, Scandia, Kans., has been reopened. E. L. Kiev has permanently closed the Opera House in Courtland, Kans.

T. H. Slothower has under way a new $25,000 theatre to seat 550, at Oxford, Kans., where he now operates one. He also operates the State in Wichita, which he has completed remodeling at a cost of around $8,000.

G. C. Hooper's new $30,000 Mystic theatre, seating 600, Carthage, Mo., is scheduled for late September opening.

Sam L. Sosna is remodeling his Sosna theatre in Manhattan, Kans. He is installing Western Electric sound equipment, new screen and a new marquee.

Henry Popkin, owner of the Burbank theatre, Los Angeles, Calif., has installed new auditorium chairs, supplied by the International Seat Corporation, Union City, Ind.

Harold Koplar has been awarded the contract for remodeling the Montgomery theatre, St. Louis, Mo. The work will cost about $10,000 and is to include a new front, wood veneer auditorium walls, a new concrete floor, new seats and foyer changes. The house is owned by the Montgomery Investment Company, which is controlled by the Koplar family, pioneers in the St. Louis motion picture exhibition field.

G. E. Eubeck has remodeled his Capitol theatre, Mt. Gilliard, Ohio, putting in 325 fully upholstered chairs, redecorating, installing a new screen, Western Electric sound system and well water cooling facilities.

W. L. Marshall, formerly advertising manager of RCA-Victor, has been appointed advertising manager of Mohawk Carpet Mills, Inc.

The recently built Capital theatre in Brownburg, Quebec, has opened. E. A. Fassio is the operator.

W. A. Neill has been appointed manager of engineering and sales activities of the Holyoke, Mass., plant of the Worthington Pump and Machinery Corporation.

Herman Cohen, operator of the United Artists theatre in San Francisco, has closed the house for extensive remodeling. The Embassy, subsequent-run house operated by Mr. Cohen, will also be overhauled. Some $75,000 will be spent, it is understood.

Remodeling is going forward in San Francisco on the American, scheduled to open soon, and the Castro, recently damaged by fire. Both houses are operated by Nasser Brothers.

The Golden State circuit in San Francisco anticipates shortly to open both the Uptown and Milano, which have been extensively remodeled.

Morris Gallos is spending several thousand dollars on his Majestic theatre in the Mission district, San Francisco, and Robert Kirshner plans alterations to his Balboa there.

Alterations to be made on the Richmond theatre, Richmond, Calif., include the removal of the balcony, construction of a new front, foyer changes and installation of a new marquee. Estimated cost is $11,000. The house is owned by Fox West Coast Theatres.

The Studio Company has taken over the Roxy theatre, Everett, Wash.

Tom C. Martin, theatre owner of Pullman, Wash., died recently.

Al Adolph has succeeded Ed Lewis as owner of the State theatre at Salem, Ore.

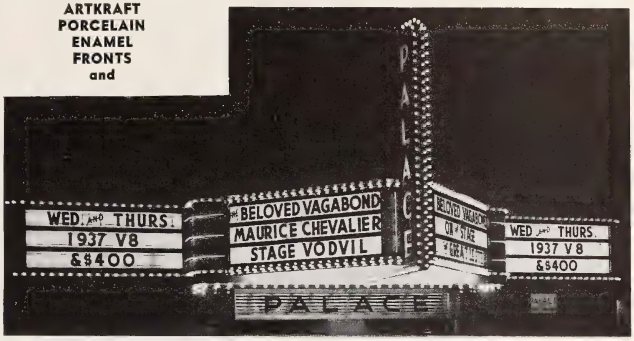
G. F. Wallace has purchased the projection equipment of the Peter Pan theatre, Cloverdale, Calif., from John L. Moore and will operate the house.

El Cerrito Theatres, Inc., has been incorporated at San Francisco, with a capital stock of $50,000, by D. C. Herkner, L. E. Morrison and L. J. Bloom. The concern operates in an East Bay suburb.

Ferdinand Stamm of the El Campanil theatre, Antioch, Calif., and a veteran Northern California exhibitor, died recently.

Alfred J. Olander has purchased the fixtures and equipment of the Cameo theatre, Montebello, Calif., from L. H. Lewis.

H. H. Milstein and M. A. Ansehl have purchased the Elite theatre, Beverly Hills, Calif., from J. P. Neist.



B. J. Callahan will operate the theatre being erected at Seaside, Ore., by G. M. Grimes.

L. A. Moore has purchased the Star theatre, Goldendale, Wash., from Lyman Ward.

Joe Enos, veteran theatre manager, is now with Ackerman & Borg, managing the Ellis theatre in San Francisco.

WHAT THE WELL DRESSED THEATRES ARE WEARING

ARTKRAFT PORCELAIN ENAMEL FRONTS and

The ARTKRAFT ZEPHYR PRE-FABRICATED MARQUEE

for Style—Quality—Distinctiveness—the Appearance of Prosperity

Artkraft Creations are Always Up-to-the Minute

Such characteristics are magnets to the box office of any theatre.

And your theatre—any theatre—can afford them, but can't afford to be without them!

Standardization of basic parts and mass production methods of Artkraft, the world's largest manufacturers of all types of signs, now make possible inexpensive front modernization and a marquee of quality heretofore impossible at such a low price.

Elimination of the old style marquee front permits 100% efficiency of abundant attraction copy space as against 20%-60%.

Choice of a variety of effects, color schemes, ornamental trims and uses of neon are combined to create fronts of real individuality. Made in any style.

Comes with several hundred modern Artkraft everlasting silhouette letters.

Write for literature, prices and terms, giving width of front, width of sidewalk and name of theatre. We also invite your inquiry on Extruded Aluminum Poster Frames, Climax Reflectors, and Climax Reflector Flush Border Construction.

The STANDARD THE ARTKRAFT SIGN CO. of COMPARISON

150 Sales Offices Throughout America and Abroad

LIMA, OHIO
U. S. A.

ARTKRAFT SIGNS BEAR THE FOUR UNION LABELS

[Technical descriptions of products of specific manufacturers appear in this department without distinction between projection and other functions]

The Basis of Your Planning For an Efficient Heating Plant

● Don't depend on casual estimates of what is needed—determine your particular requirements exactly, considering well the factors discussed here

THERE ARE still many theatres throughout this country that are sending some of their hard earned grosses up the smoke stack because of inefficient heating plants. Others suffer losses because the theatre is not comfortable in cold weather; while still other theatre owners and managers are spending unwisely to try and improve the winter heat problem, basing the expenditures upon the recommendations of some uninformed person. Such monies spent are in many instances totally wasted.

During the past few years, probably because of the developments in summer cooling, the heating of theatres has developed from a problem of merely raising the temperature inside the auditorium as measured by a thermometer (dry-bulb) to the broader considerations of moisture and air movement. Proper heating today is based upon maintaining a proper effective heat or temperature, which depends upon temperature, relative humidity, and movement of air (all terms with which you have become familiar in connection with summer cooling or air-conditioning.) Comfort and economy demand an adequate control of heat, a minimum supply of heat in mild weather, and a maximum supply in cold weather.

HEAT ACTION AND CONTROL

IN APPROACHING the subject of heating of theatres it must be kept in mind that the theatre is a specialized building for conducting a specialized business. Therefore, though the general problem and underlying principles are the same for theatres as for other commercial buildings, the application of the principles and the methods of solution of the problem are distinctly different in the case of the theatre.

The four outstanding points of consideration must be, first, the supply of the necessary quantity of artificial heat; second, the regulation of the moisture content of the air; third, the air motion required to give uniformity of temperature; and fourth, some means or method of effective control of the foregoing three considerations.

A heating system designed without all four of these points properly considered and incorporated is an inadequate system. Right at this point answer for yourself these two questions:

Is the heating plant in your theatre, judging by the four points of consideration, adequate for the needs it must serve?

In which one of the four points does it fall short?

If there were some way of obtaining a quick tabulation of all these answers, I believe that it would be determined that 85% of the heating plants in theatres are inadequate and should in one or more respects be redesigned. We seem to have no hesitancy in making an investment of from five to twenty thousand dollars for seats in a theatre, and the primary consideration in dealing with the problem, is comfort. Heating is also a question of comfort—comfort plus health. Even a $15 seat is uncomfortable if a person is too warm or too cold, or subjected to draughts.

A heating system must first of all provide healthful and comfortable conditions, must be economical to operate, easy to maintain, and readily controlled.

WHAT HEAT IS

Scientists tell us that heat is the result of motion of the molecules of which all substances, whether gas, liquid or solid, are composed. Such molecules are always in motion and the violence of such motion determines, or is evidence of, the intensity of heat (temperature) of the substance. If the molecules are moving very slowly, the substance is cold; if they are moving very rapidly, the substances is hot. Heat is measured by intensity (temperature) and by quantity (B.T.U.).

Temperature is the measure of heat intensity and, therefore, a measure of the velocity of the movements of molecules.

Heat, not being a substance, cannot be measured as to quantity, in pounds, in bushels or in quarts; but the effect that it produces can be measured. To demonstrate the heat unit of quantity, take a pan and weigh it, then put into the pan exactly one pound of water. Now put some cracked ice into that pan and let it melt until the water is at 32° F. (measured by an ordinary thermometer). Then remove the ice if any remains and pour out any excess water, so that only one pound of water at 32° F. remains in the pan.

Now put the pan over a gas burner, and with the thermometer still submerged in the water, heat the water to 212° F. (212 minus 32 equals 180). The water in the pan has been raised 180° F. If the total quantity of heat required to raise the one pound of water 180° (to 212° deg. F.) is assumed, then (one divided by 180) of that assumed quantity would be the quantity of heat required to raise one pound of water one degree Fahrenheit. That quantity of heat required to raise one pound of water one degree Fahrenheit is called a British Thermal Unit, or B.T.U. Therefore, it can be seen that in raising the temperature of one pound of water from 32° F. to 212° F., or through a range of 180°, the quantity of heat required is 180 B.T.U.

SPECIFIC HEAT

There is another term which is very frequently heard in reference to heating, particularly in reference to materials of construction and the metals of which all sorts of heating surfaces and radiators are made —Specific Heat. Understanding this term also helps one to understand the relation between temperature and B.T.U. Specific Heat is the number of B.T.U.'s (quantity of heat) required to raise one pound of a substance one degree Fahrenheit. The number of B.T.U.'s varies considerably for different substances. Applying this definition to water, we learned above that it required one B.T.U. to raise one pound of water 1° F.; the specific heat of water is 1°.

So that you can see how the specific heat of substances varies, the following materials have been chosen, because we are familiar with their use in radiators, heating coils and boilers:

Substance	Specific Heat
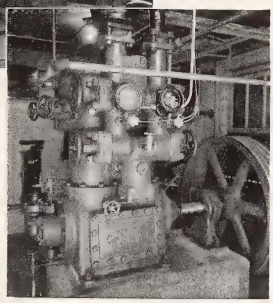
Water	1.0000
Cast Iron	0.1298
Copper	0.0951
Tin	0.0569
Air at constant pressure	0.2415

When interpreting these quantities, it will be seen that it takes four times as much heat to raise one pound of water one degree as it does to raise one pound of air one degree. Or one pound of castiron, at the same temperature as one pound of water, contains only one-eighth as much heat as the water contains. Therefore, if the same quantity of heat were applied to one pound of castiron and one pound of water, starting at the same temperature, and the heat applied simultaneously, the intensity or temperature of the iron would be eight times that of the water.

Heat passes, is transmitted, or "flows," from one body or substance to another when the temperature (intensity) of the receiving body is lower than the temperature of the transmitting body. There are three ways in which heat is transmitted—conduction, convection and radiation.

CONDUCTION



Conduction is the transmission of heat in any direction from particles of higher to those of lower temperature in the same body. For instance, place one end of an iron rod into a flame and hold on to the other. Pretty soon the end that is being held will become uncomfortably warm. The heat is being transmitted from the end in the fire to the end being held—by conduction. In connection with conduction, we frequently refer to, or hear, the term coefficient of conduction. The coefficient of conduction of a substance or material is the quantity of heat (measured in B.T.U.) which will "flow" or be transmitted in a unit of time (usually one hour) through a unit of cross sectional area (usually for metals one square inch, for building materials one square foot) and unit thickness (usually one inch) for each degree difference between the hot and cold sides, or ends. Such coefficients of conduction for many metals and many combinations of building materials have been determined by experiments. Tables of such coefficients are available. The coefficient of conduction for building materials or combination of building materials is very important and always used in calculating heat losses through roofs and attic spaces, floors and walls of theatres.

CONVECTION

Convection, the second means by which heat is transmitted, is a method by which

Virginia Theatre, Champaign, Illinois . . . air conditioned with Carbondale equipment

Carbondale 10"x7" Freon Compressor, in the Virginia Theatre air conditioning system

AIR CONDITIONED by CARBONDALE

Carbondale equipment for theatre air conditioning possesses new and valuable capacity control features.

A Carbondale representative will be glad to explain these features and discuss your requirements. There is no obligation.

Ask for literature

COMPLETELY CARBONDALE EQUIPPED means UNDIVIDED RESPONSIBILITY

CARBONDALE DIVISION
WORTHINGTON PUMP AND MACHINERY CORPORATION

ATLANTA BOSTON BUFFALO CHICAGO CINCINNATI CLEVELAND DALLAS DENVER DETROIT EL PASO HOUSTON KANSAS CITY
General Offices: HARRISON, NEW JERSEY
Representatives in Principal Cities of Foreign Countries
LOS ANGELES NEW ORLEANS NEW YORK PHILADELPHIA PITTSBURGH ST. LOUIS ST. PAUL SAN FRANCISCO SEATTLE TULSA WASHINGTON

CA7-49

BETTER PICTURE PROJECTION
WITH BALDOR'S New Type RECTIFIER

RECT-O-LITE
A BETTER RECTIFIER

FOR SUPREX CARBON ARC

No. 45-M Expertly designed and engineered to provide smooth Direct Current, resulting in Bright, Clear, Flickerless pictures. No hum or other sound interference. Low current cost. No maintenance. May be used also for low intensity carbon arc. $135.00 (less bulbs)

BALDOR ELECTRIC CO., 4367 DUNCAN AVE., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Write for Descriptive Bulletin—Now

MOVING SCREENS: Here is a law of physics that seems to be frequently forgotten by both managers and projectionists in moving screens back and forth in theatres:

The light intensity at any point distant from a source varies inversely as the square of the distance.

Suppose you want to move the screen in your theatre just 10 feet back in order to get a slightly larger picture. Suppose the throw is 100-feet to begin with. By the above law you won't have the same light intensity on your screen —you will lose about 1/6 of the light intensity at 110 that you had at 100 feet.

•

HYDRAULICS TERMS: I have had occasion to discuss with a number of managers this past summer the subject of pumps and air washers and water in general. I have found a general confusion in the use of terms such as water pressure, head, gallons per minute (g.p.m.).

Water pressure is always expressed in pounds per square inch, therefore a water pressure of 40 pounds means 40 pounds per square inch.

"Head" of water is expressed in feet. For instance, a pump may be said to deliver 160 g.p.m. against a 50-foot head. This means that the pump will deliver 160 gallons of water per minute through a pipe and at an elevation of 50 above the location of the pump.

Though "head" is always in terms of feet, and pressure in terms of pounds per square inch, there is a relation between head and pressure. A column of water 1-inch square and 12-inches high weighs .434 pounds. In this particular instance there is a pressure of .434 pounds per square foot and a "head" of 1 foot. Consequently, Pressure in pounds per square foot equals .434 times head in feet, or head in feet equals

$$\frac{1}{.434} \text{ pressure in pounds per square foot, or } 2.3 \text{ pressure.}$$

•

INSULATION: Effective insulation of theatres is not new—it has been highly effective during the past few years. There are great reductions in the conduction of heat outward in winter and inward in summer, secured by the proper installation of insulating material.

Frequently an undersized boiler plant will prove much more satisfactory, or the operating hours of both heating and refrigeration equipment can be reduced; certainly, any type of automatic controls function with greater accuracy when insulation has been installed. The first step toward curing heating ills or installing air-conditioning is proper and adequate insulation. It pays its way.

•

CHANGING LETTERS: When changing the letters on your attraction boards don't permit your electrician to burn the entire outside display; if possible only light the sign that is being worked on.

If the present wiring system does not permit this, perhaps it can be accomplished by backing out the fuses on certain circuits.

If possible, switches might be installed to segregate the various circuits on the marquee. Sometimes such switches can be installed inexpensively right in the flasher box. The installation of proper switches will in most instances save their costs in a very short time.

heat is transported by first heating gas, air or liquid, then transporting the gas, air, or liquid to another location, where it gives up its heat. The ordinary radiation is an example of heat being transmitted by convection. The steam, or hot water in the radiator heats the castiron of the radiator, the radiator becomes uniformally warm by conduction. Then the air in the room is brought in contact with the radiator. The air becomes warm, and as it becomes warmer it becomes lighter and rises and is replaced by colder air. The process continues, the heated air circulating and giving up its heat to colder air in other parts of the room. Radiators of modern design, made of copper, bronze, brass or white metal, are frequently referred to as convectors.

RADIATION

The third way in which heat is transmitted is by radiation. Radiation has reference to heat rays. For example, most of the feeling of warmth that is experienced by sitting in front of an open fire is transmited by radiation. Rays of heat flow from all bodies and are received by other bodies very much as the rays of the sun carry heat to the earth. Heat rays flow in straight lines and do not materially affect the medium through which they flow. But when they are intercepted by a solid body or substance they are retarded in their progress in passing through that substance or body.

This may be crudely observed by focusing the sun's rays on a piece of tin. The moment that the focused ray falls on the tin one can feel little or no change of temperature on the under side of the tin, but in only a few minutes the heat comes through with great intensity. The tin only serves as a resistance to the flow of the heat rays. Such substances as dry gases and some glass are transparent to radiated heat, and the heat rays pass through without appreciably warming them; other substances, such as iron, wood, bricks and water absorb these heat rays and become appreciably warmed by them.

Pure air is not heated to any great extent by the heat rays of the sun. You have experienced this in late fall and early spring, when standing in the sun you felt comfortably warm, but the moment that a slight breeze blew it felt cold and uncomfortable. However, air laden with water vapor or dust or both will absorb the heat of radiation from the sun and become very uncomfortable. In general, white objects absorb heat slowly; the aluminum paints that have been put on the market recently absorb heat slowly, but rough or dark objects absorb heat very freely.

HEATING PROBLEM OF THE THEATRE

ALL OF THE foregoing has a direct bearing on the heating problem of a theatre. In the first and final analysis, insofar as heat is concerned, the problem of heating a theatre resolves itself into two steps or phases:

First, to bring the auditorium, foyers, lobbies, etc., up to the required temperature.

Second, to maintain the auditorium, foyers, lobbies, etc., at a pre-determined temperature.

The first phase is relatively simple and in most every instance it is only a question of time. This can generally be accomplished, depending upon the heating equipment, the air circulating and recirculating systems. However, there are still theatres that have to fire heating systems for five or six hours before the theatres open in order to have a warm theatre. This is entirely too much time and it indicates inadequate heating equipment.

As to the second phase of the heating problem, that of maintaining the temperature, the system must be sufficiently large and capable of delivering heat into the theatre at least as fast as heat escapes from the theatre. This definitely presents some problems, as heat escapes in many ways from buildings.

In the foregoing it has been indicated that heat will pass through any construction material; consequently, it will escape from the best and most modern constructed building. Due to differences in temperature inside and outside, the heat is lost from the theatre faster on a cold day than on a warm day, as indicated in the definition of conductance given earlier in this article.

HEAT LOSS

Where fresh air is introduced into the theatre, that air definitely represents a large part of the total load on the heating plant of the theatre. How much of the total load the fresh air represents will depend on the exact quantity and the outside temperature. Besides the heat loss represented by the fresh air for ventilation purposes, the next largest drain on the heating plant is supplying or replacing the heat that is lost from the theatre by transmission through the walls and roof of the theatre, when the temperature outside is colder than the temperature inside. Of course, it is a known fact that lights, mechanical equipment and people give off heat, and in calculating the actual heat loss for some types of commercial buildings, these factors can be considered and deducted from the gross heat loss as calculated. However, experience has taught that this is not good practice in theatre heating, so the heat given off by lights, people and mechanical equipment should be disregarded.

We now come to a brief discussion of the coefficient of heat transmission. Please note that earlier we mentioned the coefficient of conduction. The coefficient of conduction had reference to a homogeneous material or substance, while the coefficient of transmission is generally applied to a heterogeneous or composite substance. Otherwise the terms have the same general significance. Therefore, the coefficient of transmission of any building wall, or floor, or roof is the number of B.T.U.'s per hour per square foot per degree Fahrenheat difference in temperature, from inside to outside, which will be transmitted.

It is obvious that different combinations of building materials will have widely varying coefficients. Complete tables showing coefficients of transmission are available generally at no cost from many of the manufacturers of insulating materials.

Among heating and ventilating men, the coefficient of transmission is referred to as the factor "U." So should you ever hear an engineer say, "I used .34 for U on the west wall," he means that from his tables he determined, after investigating the construction of the wall, that the coefficient of transmission for that wall was .34. This means that for every square foot of that wall there will be lost, each hour, .34 B.T.U.'s for every degree difference in temperature between the inside and outside temperatures.

For example, let's assume a wall forming one side of a theatre to be 125 feet long, 30 feet high, and 12 inches of solid brick, with ½ inch plaster on the inside. Let's assume a temperature of 35° F. outside, and 72° F. inside. By reference to tables, the coefficient of transmission for a 12 inch solid brick wall with ½ inch plaster on

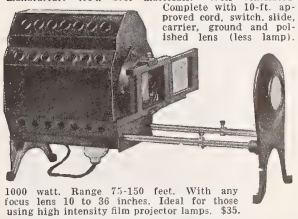
America's Foremost Theatres

. . . in fostering keen buying habits, have ruled Ideal Chairs a decided favorite.

Unsurpassed values—transcendent beauty—unexcelled comfort make them universally popular.

The name of your nearest dealer and the Ideal catalog will be sent on request.

THE IDEAL SEATING COMPANY
GRAND RAPIDS • MICHIGAN



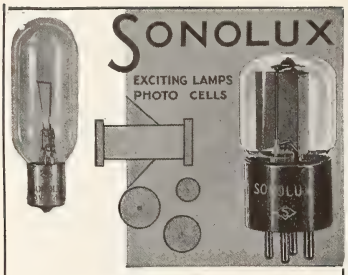
MODERN, BRILLIANT LIGHT
•
SUPER-ARC
THE NEW, LOW AMPERAGE PROJECTION LAMP BY S. O. S.

- Completely round 10¼" Bausch and Lomb elliptical reflector
- Special Westinghouse Motor
- Weston Ammeter
- Unusually low in price

Trade in your old lamps. Get our special offer.

SALES ON SOUND CORPORATION
636-BT 11TH AVENUE NEW YORK

"BEST" SLIDE PROJECTORS—are just that!
They embody highest engineering skill and careful manufacture from best materials. Well ventilated. Complete with 10-ft. approved cord, switch, slide, carrier, ground and polished lens (less lamp).



1000 watt. Range 75-150 feet. With any focus lens 10 to 36 inches. Ideal for those using high intensity film projector lamps. $35.

500 watt "Besteropticon" Range up to 75 feet. With any focus lens 10 to 30 inches. $23.

At your dealers.

BEST DEVICES COMPANY
10516 Western Avenue Cleveland, Ohio

NOW...
SPECIFY SONOLUX SPECIALTIES

EXCITER LAMPS . RECTIFIER BULBS
. PHOTOELECTRIC CELLS .

MIS-MATCHED sound lamps weaken the heart of your sound system! Sonolux products are standard equipment. The best results are obtained by following the leading makers of sound systems who use and specify Sonolux equipment.

Your equipment deserves the advantage of the high standard created in the Sonolux laboratories, recognized specialists in tube manufacturing.

Send now for price list—take advantage of present prices before new increases—
ORDER NOW.

THE SONOLUX COMPANY
Est. 1932
East Newark - New Jersey

Next Issue: BUYERS NUMBER

the inside is .34. Therefore, 125 times 30 equals 3750 square feet of wall; 72 minus 35 equals 27° F. difference in temperature inside to outside; then 3750 times 37 times .34 equals B.T.U.'s per hour lost by transmission through that wall, which equals 47,175 B.T.U.'s per hour.

A boiler horse power is the equivalent of generating 33,471.9 B.T.U.'s per hour. Therefore, the wall above represents a load on the heating plant of about 1¼ boiler horsepower. In other words, that wall represents a definite source of heat loss which must be calculated and taken care of in sizing the heating plant.

If those persons interested in this reasoning in connection with theatre heating plants, would obtain for themselves some of the data usually distributed without cost by leading boiler or furnace manufacturers, and "U" tables from the manufacturers of insulating materials, they would find it well worth while.

FRESH AIR LOAD

There is just one more part of the plant load that I would like to analyze for you (it was mentioned earlier), and that is the fresh air load for ventilation purposes. It was stated that the specific heat of air, the B.T.U. required to raise one pound of air one degree F., is .2415. A cubic foot of air at 70° F. weighs (by reference to a handbook) .0749 pounds. Then—

$$1 \text{ B.T.U will raise } \frac{1}{.2415 \times .0749} \text{ or } 55.2 \text{ cubic Ft. of air } 1° \text{ F.}$$

Let's assume that an ordinance in your city requires a minimum of 5 cubic feet of fresh air per minute per seat whenever the theatre is operating. Further assume that there are 1000 seats in the theatre. Then the fresh air ventilation load would be 5,000 cubic feet per minute, or 30,000 cubic feet per hour. Assume further that the outside temperature is 35° F., and the inside temperature is 72° F.

$$\text{Heat required (in B.T.U. per hr)} = \frac{\text{cubic ft. per hr.} \times (\text{inside temp.} - \text{outside temp.})}{55.2}$$ equals

$$\frac{30{,}000 \times 37}{55.2} = \frac{1{,}110{,}000}{55.2} = 20{,}108 \text{ B.T.U. per hour.}$$

In this case the fresh air introduced into the theatre represents about two-thirds of a boiler horse power.

These few thoughts have been presented here in more or less detail for two purposes: First, that some theatre managers will see the simplicity of the reasoning with regard to heating problems, and be inspired to dig further into the subject; and second, to try and show how impossible it is to diagnose a bad heating plant on the spur of the moment. Therefore, these heating men who come in and just convert more radiators to a boiler already overloaded, or speed up a fan to pass more air over the heating coils when the heating coils are already undersized, just waste the theatre man's money. —J.T.K.

Look for this Emblem

If it bears this emblem, you can buy it with confidence

. . . it is an identification mark for quality in equipment and supplies. It means you are getting the benefits of many years of practical experience in the design, distribution and application of theatre apparatus. It is your assurance of controlled quality, engineered for service, honestly represented and rightly priced. Look for it at your supply dealer —or consult with us—before you buy.

J. E. ROBIN, INC.
334 West 44th Street, New York, N. Y.

WOLVERINE
DIRECT SHOT BLOWERS
for cooling, ventilating or exhaust. Quiet Ball Bearings. Variable Speed Control belt and motor pulley. 6 sizes. $47.50 up.
Also inquire about cooling coils.
WOLVERINE BLOWER WORKS
412 Prospect Ave. N.E. Grand Rapids, Mich.

Equipment Used In Downlighting For the Theatre

ALTHOUGH THERE have been effective applications of directional lighting—so-called "downlighting"—to theatres, the further development of this method of interior illumination during the past year has taken place almost entirely in non-theatrical fields, such as stores and display rooms. "Downlighting" is to be regarded, however, as eminently suited to theatres, particularly auditoriums, where complete control of light direction is extraordinarily important because of necessity to avoid interference with the screen.

When applied to theatres, "downlighting" refers to installations of light sources that are usually concealed behind or set flush with the ceiling. There are many types of units available, but all, with slight variations, fall into one of the following three classifications: (1) Fresnel lens type units, (2) louvred reflector type units, and (3) lens units projecting a beam, the shape of which can be controlled.

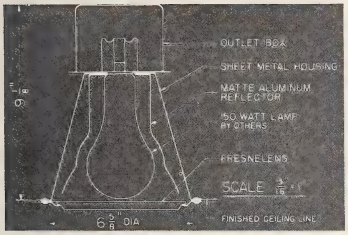

Figure 1. Fresnel lens unit showing relative positions of lamp, lens and reflector, and indicating the recessed mounting of the unit.

The Fresnel lens type units (Fig. 1) are used where a wide spread is desired with no sharp edges to the light beam.

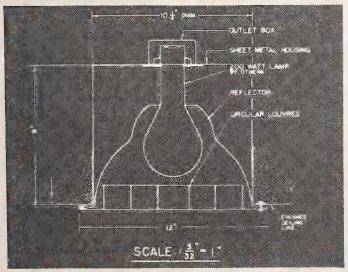

Figure 2. Louvre light showing arrangement of louvres and method of mounting in ceiling.

Such units, properly spaced, give a soft and uniform illumination. However, it is impossible to conceal the lens from which the light emanates. This unit contains a sphero-parabolic reflector which directs the

TODAY'S OUTSTANDING INVESTMENT IN CHANGEABLE LETTERS!

ADLER
"Streamline"
CAST ALUMINUM
SILHOUETTE LETTERS and STAINLESS STEEL
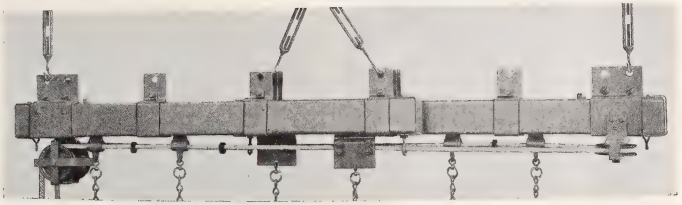
SUPPORTING FRAMES
With ADLER REFLECTING BEVELS AND BROAD STROKES

When you buy changeable letters, choose the letters that give you the biggest return on your investment.

ADLER SILHOUETTE LETTERS provide the most modern, brilliant program display—easily readable under all conditions—brings people in and keeps them coming—pays its way in increased trade.

The letters are quickly changeable—permit easy sign maintenance. There is no upkeep—GUARANTEED UNBREAKABLE. Ask for information on ADLER SILHOUETTE and SOLID BACK LETTERS for all methods of installation.



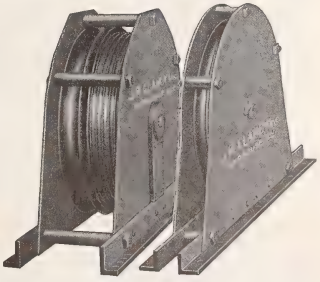
New — 12-INCH SILHOUETTE LETTERS NOW AVAILABLE

FULLY PATENTED—ADLER "Streamline" SILHOUETTE LETTERS with BEVELED EDGES AND SUPPORTING FRAMES are fully covered by U. S. Patents No. 2,038,978 granted April 28, 1936, and 1,989,855 granted February 5, 1935. Infringers will be prosecuted.

PROTECTED BY NATIONAL PATENT CORPORATION CHICAGO

MANUFACTURED BY
ADLER SIGN LETTER CO.
720-B SO. DEARBORN ST., CHICAGO 1457-B BROADWAY, N. Y. CITY
CHICAGO—NEW YORK—TORONTO, CAN.—LONDON, ENG.

CLANCY Offers You—



Every Item of Stage Equipment

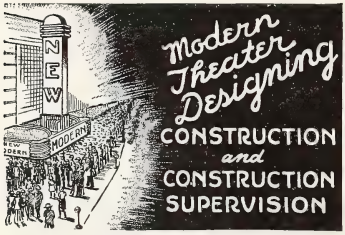
From the most complete installation of rigging to the smallest item of hardware, rope or cable, we can supply you quickly. We are the world's largest manufacturer of stage equipment—producing over 600 separate items for stage use.

To assure immediate service, we maintain a complete stock of finished and semi-finished equipment as well as a supply of raw material for special items.

Take advantage of our 52 years experience in stage designing. Let us plan your stage. This engineering service is available to you without cost.

Write for a copy of our complete stage equipment catalog.

J. R. CLANCY, Inc.
1010 W. Belden Ave., Syracuse, N. Y.



MAKE THE MOST OF STAR ATTRACTIONS!

Show Them at Their Brightest on a New

DA-LITE SCREEN

Give patrons perfect presentation and they will come to your theatre not only for the super features but for the regular daily attractions. If your screen is soiled or yellow, replace it now with a bright new Da-Lite Screen of the proper type. See your dealer today or write for catalogue.

DA-LITE SCREEN CO., Inc.
2725 NORTH CRAWFORD AVE. - CHICAGO

MODERN THEATERS GET THE CROWDS

THEATERS Designed and Constructed By F. & Y.
WESTMONT
Columbus, O.
Arlington, Columbus
Avalon, Marysville
Fifth Ave., Columbus

We are specialists in theater designing. Plans prepared and actual construction either completed or supervised.

WRITE for complete details.

CONSTRUCTION COMPANY
Columbus, Ohio

EZY-RUG Colored Rubber Link
MATTING
Write for folder and prices.
AMERICAN MAT CORP., 1715 Adams St., Toledo, O.

light from the lamp to the lens. Features of this type of unit are a high efficiency, attractive appearance, low cost of operation and maintenance.

Extremely interesting and dramatic installations can be accomplished with Fresnel lens units in the theatre for underbalcony and general lobby illumination.

Louvred lights (Figure 2) provide a less uniform field than the Fresnel lens units, but have the advantage of allowing little or no "spill light." In these units, the louvres are so arranged that no light is projected past a predetermined angle. Characteristics of this type of lighting unit are high efficiency and low operation and maintenance costs.

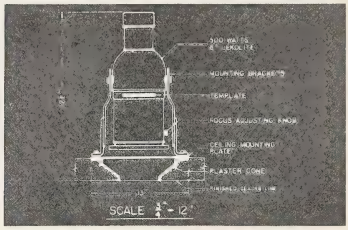


Figure 3. Lens type unit showing mounting arrangement. This unit sends its beam, controlled by the shape of the template, through the ceiling as indicated in the diagram.

Louvred lighting is best employed where it is desired to use a recessed unit that will direct light down, but away from walls which may be specially decorated and require other types of lighting units.

Lens type units projecting a beam of controlled shape (as in Figure 3) consist of a lamp placed with its filament at the principal focus of an ellipsoidal reflector. This arrangement causes the rays to converge and pass through an aperture placed at the secondary focus of the ellipse. An objective lens (or system of lenses) projects an image of the aperture.

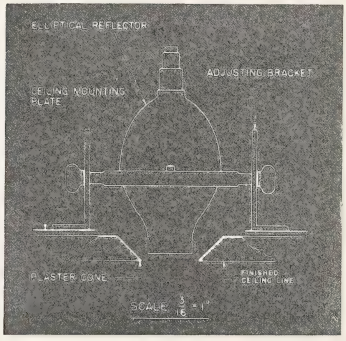

Figure 4. A 6-volt, 50-candlepower "downlight" for short throws. This unit needs only a small port in the wall or ceiling through which to project its beam.

[Data and diagrams for the above article were generously supplied by the Century Lighting Company, New York.—THE EDITOR.]

Track End Type Curtain Machine

A NEW TYPE of curtain machine designed for attachment to the end of the curtain track with which it is operated, has recently been developed by Automatic Devices Company of Allentown, Pa. On many stage installations, it is necessary or desirable for the draw-curtain track to be lifted entirely out of sight at times when the stage is to be cleared or the setting changed. In other cases even where the equipment is immovable, lack of stage-floor space makes it essential that the automatic machine be mounted at or on the curtain track.

This can be readily accomplished on automatically operated curtains without disconnecting machine or wiring by the use of this curtain control. This equipment has the features of the same manufacturer's "Autodrape" curtain machine, with modifications for attachment to the maker's "Silent-Steel" curtain track. In this manner, both machine and track are installed as shown in the illustration and operated as a unit by pressing a button in any part of the house.

CORRECTION

In two tables of figures in the article by J. T. Knight, Jr., "Would It Be Wise for You to Install an Electric Power Plant?" in the August 21st issue of Better Theatres, occurred the following typographical errors:

In the tabulation for two engine-generators, at the bottom of the second column on page 13, the third item should have read 3130 Kwh. (instead of 2130).

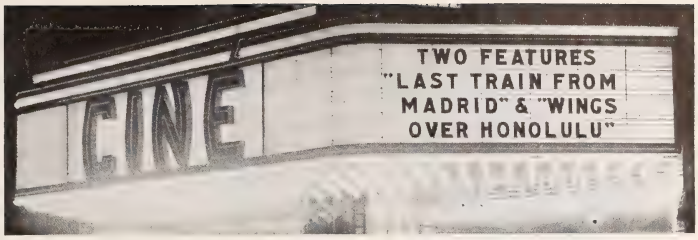
In the summary of annual costs for Diesel engine operation, on page 16, the figure for the total annual plant cost adds to $8,989.98.

News Notes on the • THEATRE EQUIPMENT MARKET •

• The Allen B. DuMont Laboratories, Inc., manufacturers of oscillographs, cathode-ray tubes and allied products, have appointed Fred E. Stable, Inc., Denver, Colo., representatives in Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico.

• A three-story building at 314 E. 35th Street, New York, on a plot 50x100 feet, has been purchased by the Raven Screen Company. The property is assessed at $58,000, and it is reported that the new owners will spend about half that amount in altering the building for the manufacture of motion picture screens.

• The National Theatre Company has made arrangements with the Doehler Metal Furniture Company, Inc., New York, for the national distribution of the latter's line of modern furniture for theatre lounges and foyers.



• Special displays of new styles in carpeting of all types will be conducted by retailers and jobbers throughout the nation, under the auspices of the Institute of Carpet Manufacturers of America, from September 24 to October 16.

• A new booket on the selection of screens according to dimensions of auditoriums and projection equipment, on methods of installation, and containing actual samples of the manufacturer's various screen types, has been issued by the Theatre Screen Corporation of Roosevelt, Long Island.

• A note in these columns, in the August 21st issue, concerning the removal to new quarters of the Kneisley Electric Company, gave the city as Chicago. This company, manufacturers of projection light source and rectification equipment, is located in Toledo, at 16 S. St. Clair Street.

• H. Stanley McLeod, who has resigned as manager of the National Theatre Supply Company's Seattle office, will enter the theatre equipment business for himself. He is being succeeded temporarily at the National branch by Robert P. Haase. After January 1, the office will be in charge of Heaton Randall, now manager of the National branch in Salt Lake City. Mr. Randall is a Seattle man formerly associated with the B. F. Shearer concern.

• Ned W. Kimball, Cherie Hooper and Clare Bell have formed a new theatre supply company in Seattle, known as General Theatre Supply Company, with offices and display room at 1127 41st Street.

(Wagner 3-in-1 installation of Semi-bevel letters in Ciné Theatre, Chicago)

WAGNER'S 3-in-1 UNIT —the ONLY Practical Mounting Unit for 3 or 4 Line Installations

The glass is contained in the frames in individual sections for each line—this eliminates breakage from wind-pressure. The frames interlock easily and quickly. Have your architect write us for details.

Our Structures Are All Covered by THE PATENT PROTECTION CORPORATION

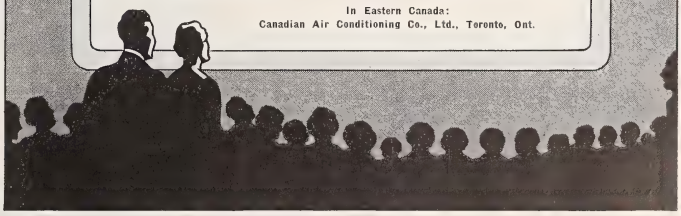
PROTECTED BY CONTRACT WITH THE PATENT PROTECTION CORPORATION

WAGNER SIGN SERVICE, Inc.

218 S. Hoyne Avenue.....CHICAGO
123 W. 64th Street.....NEW YORK
706 E. Hancock Avenue.....DETROIT

Los Angeles Sales Office: 1957 S. Vermont Avenue • Pittsburgh Territory Representative: FLEXLUME SALES CORPORATION, Pittsburgh, Pa. • Southeastern Representative: FLEXLUME SOUTHERN CORPORATION, Atlanta, Ga. • West Coast Representative: B. F. SHEARER COMPANY, Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles and San Francisco

YEAR 'ROUND Comfort!



Cooling for hot weather alone isn't enough! Your patrons expect fresh sweet air . . . uniform, healthful comfort in your theatre . . . ALL the time, summer AND winter.

Kooler-Aire ALL-SEASON SYSTEM

is the most advanced development in year 'round air conditioning . . . the only system with Perfected Atmospheric Balance. Good ventilation and even heat in cold weather—no drafts, chilly spots, or overheated areas. Get a Kooler-Aire survey of your theatre now . . . no cost, no obligation. Write today.

U. S. AIR CONDITIONING CORPORATION
2117 Kennedy St., N. E. Minneapolis, Minn.

In Eastern Canada:
Canadian Air Conditioning Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

EQUIPMENT and OPERATION

. . . a department in Better Theatres conducted by J. T. Knight, Jr., essentially as a service. Unbiased, expert counsel will be gladly given you in your maintenance and related problems. Write Better Theatres, Rockefeller Center, New York.

A SIZE AND TYPE TO FIT EVERY PURSE AND PURPOSE

STABILARC

Motor Generator

The most complete line of projection motor generators on the market.

42-60-80 volt Multiple
35 volt Unitwin

Stabilarc offers lowest first cost . . . highest operating efficiency . . . sparkless commutation . . . constant voltage at every arc.

AUTOMATIC DEVICES CO.

739 HAMILTON ST. ALLENTOWN, PA.
Also manufacturers of Allentown Steel Curtain Tracks and Curtain Machines

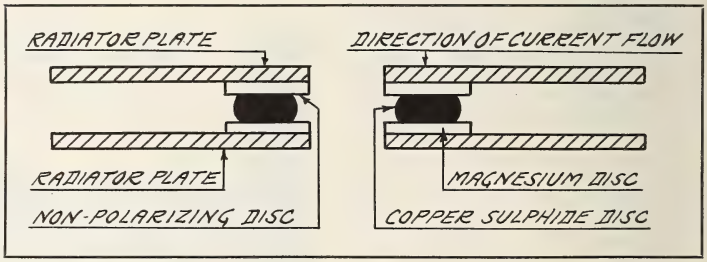
BLOWER AND FURNACE FANS
Priced from $18.50 Up
PROGRESSIVE REELTONE CORP.
Grand Rapids, Mich.

REMODELING SERVICE

Covering every phase of the theatre — its architecture and equipment. Merely write to

BETTER THEATRES
Rockefeller Center New York

NEW AND USED OPERA CHAIRS
of all kinds at lowest prices. Also repair parts for all makes of veneer and upholstered Opera Chairs. Projection Machines, Sound Equipment and Accessories.
Write for catalogue "E"
MOVIE SUPPLY CO., Ltd.
844 S. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.



GENERAL SEATING COMPANY CHICAGO

Dry Type Rectifier Using Magnesium and Copper Sulphide

A RECTIFIER for supplying the projection arc, employing magnesium copper sulphide units, has been developed by the Forest Manufacturing Company of Belleville, N. J. In a description of this new type projection arc rectifier, J. K. Elderkin, chief engineer of the company, gives its characteristics as follows:

"The magnesium copper sulphide rectifier is a dry disc type of rectifier, all metal in construction, containing no fibre or phenol insulators, no glass, no liquid and no moving parts. It is entirely noiseless in operation and produces no radio interference. The rectifier consists of an assembly of magnesium discs, copper sulphide discs and a combination of terminal and radiator plates which assist in dissipating the heat developed in the process of rectification.

"The rectifying action occurs at the junction interface and, being electronic in nature, assures permanence and stability of the rectifying elements and no odors or gases are liberated at any time. Current will flow freely in the direction of the arrow [see schematic drawing] or from the copper sulphide disc to the magnesium disc, but the resistance to the flow of current in the reverse direction—that is, from the magnesium disc to the copper sulphide disc—is very great, thus the rectifier serves practically as a uni-directional conductor or valve. A commercial rectifier of this type consists of a number of these junctions stacked in series on a steel bolt or stud. The voltage output required determines the number of junctions in any one stack.

CAPACITY OF DISCS

"The magnesium copper sulphide rectifier discs are made in several sizes capable of handling a few amperes up to several hundred amperes per disc, thus rectifiers of a very large ampere capacity can be made without resorting to connecting a number of rectifying junctions in multiple.

"The operating life of any dry disc rectifier is directly related to the temperature at which the rectifier is normally operated. One of the outstanding features of the magnesium copper sulphide rectifier is its ability to operate continuously at much higher temperatures than other types of dry disc rectifiers without destroying those characteristics essential to long operating life. . . .

"Magnesium copper sulphide rectifiers are made in sizes and capacity that require only a single section to carry the required current instead of a large number of sections connected in multiple.

TEMPERATURE

"As already stated, the life of a metallic type of rectifier depends upon the temperature it is subjected to in service. The normal operation temperature of the magnesium copper sulphide rectifier for maximum life should not exceed 180° F. . . . Although not recommended for maximum life expectancy an operating temperature as high as 265° F. is permissible for a short period of time without damage to the unit.

HUMIDITY

"The magnesium copper sulphide rectifier is sealed internally as well as externally by a special compound which entirely protects it against external conditions such as high humidity, dust and oil.

"The magnesium copper sulphide rectifier junction has a self-healing characteristic. The rectifier is designed with the proper number of junctions to assure long continued service with regard to the applied voltage and to withstand the voltage surges commonly experienced under ordinary service conditions. If an abnormal surge is applied to the magnesium copper sulphide rectifier it may possibly break down for an instant, but will reform immediately with no apparent interruption of the output current and with no damage to the rectifier.

"Sulphide rectifiers have a very low internal resistance in the conducting direction. This characteristic results in excellent regulation of the rectifier output voltage over a wide range of load conditions. With a correctly designed transformer the output voltage can be held to an almost constant value.

"The output of the sulphide rectifier decreases little or none. Throughout their life, and also over wide ranges of load and ambient and operating temperatures the efficiency remains practically constant. Another characteristic is that no time is required for the rectifier output to build up. The output will be practically the same at temperatures from 40° F. below zero to 300° F. above zero, regardless of age. . . .

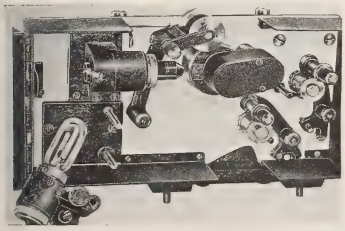
APPLIED TO ARC

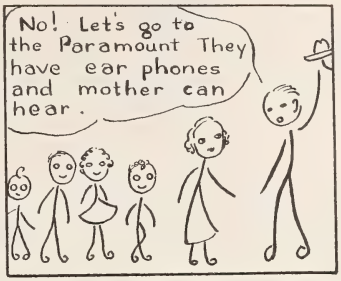
"A rectifier for arc supply will consist of a 3-phase transformer of proper design, protective fuses between the transformer and rectifier units, remote control switches, circulating blower fan and the rectifying units. . . .



"The magnesium copper sulphide rectifier as built and recommended by the manufacturer for projection arc supply consists of six half-way sections with a pair of sections mounted on a common bolt, bridge-connected to a 3-phase supply, giving full-wave rectification on all three phases. Each of the six half-wave sections is a single rectifier having fourteen rectifying junctions in series. . . .

"While the requirements for carbon arc supply rarely exceed currents of 65 amperes at the present time, it is of interest to note that in other commercial applications, such as heavy current railway battery chargers and arc welders, these magnesium copper sulphide rectifier units have been successfully used where the current output is many times that required by the carbon arc application and at comparable voltages."

New Complete Sound System In Three Types



A COMPLETE sound system, in three types varying in amplification and speakers according to the output requirements, has been developed by the Ballantyne Company of Omaha. The soundhead in all types is the same and incorporates in the design future adaptation to push-pull reproduction.

Film travel through the soundhead is entirely on rotating surfaces travelling with Ballantyne soundhead.

the film, which passes the scanner on a drum and filter assembly driven only the moving film. The optical system is mounted to permit removal for cleaning and focus

TRIMM HEARING AIDS

The Paramount, like many another theatre, has found that a Trimm installation costs less, gives better service, pleases the customers, and brings repeat business. What more could anyone ask?

Furthermore, the hard of hearing don't attend the theatre alone — they bring their families and their friends along. It will pay you to look into the matter.

TRIMM THEATRE HEARING AIDS

Estimates without obligation.

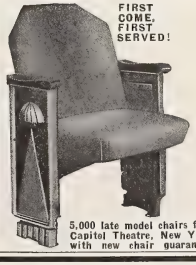
Large or small installations receive the same attention.

TRIMM RADIO MFG. CO.

1770 BERTEAU AVENUE — Dept. T-2A CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

HURLEY

EVEN-LITE



GRADATIONALLY PERFORATED SCREENS

A Scientifically different sound screen that will snap-up and pep-up your picture!

RECENT INSTALLATIONS: Saenger-Richards Circuit . Texas Consolidated Circuit . Griffith Amusement Co. . Lucas & Jenkins Circuit . Sparks Circuit . Lichtman Circuit . Wometco Circuit.

HURLEY SCREEN COMPANY

24-15 FORTY-THIRD AVE., LONG ISLAND CITY, N. .Y.

5,000 late model chairs from Capitol Theatre, New York, with new chair guarantee.

Ask the man who has bought—

Stream-Ease THEATRE CHAIRS

Recent Installations:

Alcazar, Naugautuck, Conn. Rivoli, Belmar, N. J.
Palace, Salem, N. J. Savoy, Bronx, N. Y.
Lawndale Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa. Rivoli, West New York, N. J.

AMERICA'S OUTSTANDING VALUE!

ONE OF THE BEST MAKES WITH LATEST IMPROVEMENTS THAT LAST FOREVER

Write for Information

EASTERN SEATING COMPANY

49-10 Metropolitan Ave. Brooklyn, N. Y.

A newly revised EQUIPMENT INDEX—next issue

Easy to Carry Hard to Upset

(Made in Cincinnati)

Wide leg-spread, correctly angled back assembly, properly spaced steps, wide platform with safety guard rail, plus scientifically placed steel bracings make the Dayton Safety Ladder a standard for safety. Yet it is easily folded, and light in weight. Daytons outlast ordinary ladders — thus reduce ladder costs. Sizes 3 to 16 ft. Moderately priced.

Write Dept. BT-9

THE DAYTON SAFETY LADDER CO.

121-123 West Third St., Cincinnati, Ohio

DAYTON Safety Ladder

(Patented)

Send for our new catalog No. 5 showing a complete line of accident prevention equipment.

—BLOWERS—

Capacities from 1000 to 10,000 C.F.M.
All-Steel Construction

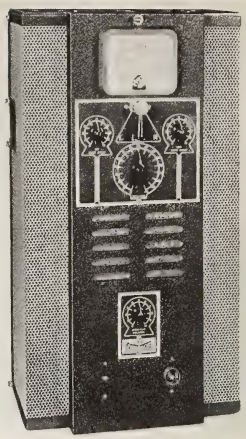
Prices from 18.95 up

Write for Complete Details

TAYLOR MFG. CO.

804 Wealthy St., S.E., Grand Rapids, Mich.

without disturbing the axis of the mechanical slit. The exciter lamp's carriage is removable and adjustable, and a spare carriage is supplied for the maintenance of an exciter lamp in readiness for emergency insertion. The scanning beam provided for is 84/1000's of an inch wide, or 1/1000 of of an inch over the width of the standard track. The height of the scanning beam is approximately 85/100,000 of an inch.



The drive motor, which is of ¼-h. p., is built in. The worm and gear which couple the sound feed sprocket shaft and motor are hardened and ground and run in a sealed oil bath.

Amplifiers for the "Standard" and "Senior" types are of similar design, with changeover on the input circuit, photoelectric cell connections made through low-capacity cable with heavy series locking connectors, volume control calibrated in 17 steps of 3 decibels each, pre-set tone controls, hum filtering provisions consisting in chokes and transformers of balanced astatic construction, and taps for hearing aid equipment, for which a separate tube is provided.

The "Senior" model amplifier is of dual channel type of wall cabinet rack and panel construction, and adaptation has been made in the exciter lamp and changeover circuit to the use of CC-type remote control changeover switches.

The system includes copper oxide rectification of exciter lamp current. Separate current adjustments are provided for each lamp, and the current may be observed for each independently on the meter.

Speaker and horn system is of the two-way type, with the frequencies from 500 down fed into a dynamic unit coupled to a folded exponential horn, and the high's fed into a cellular unit consisting in a number of exponential horns.

Ballantyne amplifier panel.

The "Junior" system, designed for small theatres, follows the same basic design of the larger types, with the soundhead, as stated previously, identical. The "Junior" speaker system, however, consists in a reproducer unit mounted with a low-frequency baffle.

The Ballantyne Company has also brought out a newly developed non-synchronous reproducer for coupling with the theatre sound system.

modernization & replacement recent installations of theatre equipment, furnishings, etc., reported by exhibitors, local dealers and manufacturers.

• Installations of new lighting fixtures are reported by T. O. Tuttle, New Orleans representative of the Elaine Electric Products Corporation of Minneapolis, in the State, Bogalusa; Chimes, Baton Rouge; and the Ashton and Casino in New Orleans. Installations of new display frames are also reported for the State in Bogalusa, the Chimes in Baton Rouge, and the La Famous theatre in New Orleans.

• Theatres named in a report from the Amusement Supply Company, Inc., of New York, as having been reseated with auditorium chairs by the International Seat Corporation of Union City, Ind., are the Strand in North Tarrytown, N. Y.; Oakland, Warwick, N. Y.; Liberty, Plainfield, N. J.; Proctor's, Yonkers, N. Y.; and the RKO Roosevelt theatre in New York City.

Other theatres recently reseated with International chairs are the Denham, Fox Intermountain house in Denver, Colo.; Balaban & Katz' new Cine theatre in Chicago; Saenger Theatres' Rex in Shreveport, La.; the Fox Palace in Milwaukee, and the Palace in Superior, Wis., Minnesota Amusement Company house.

• Installation of new auditorium seating is reported by the Ideal Seating Company of Grand Rapids, Mich., in the following Warner theatres:

Ardmore, Ardmore, Pa.; Lyric, Lexington, Va.; Fulton, Fulton, Ky.; Aldine, Philadelphia; State, Lexington, Va.; and the Capitol in Dunkirk, N. Y.

The same company reports seating installations in the McDonald Amusement Company's Wyoming theatre in Torrington, Wyo., made through Graham Brothers; Gore Brothers' Lido in Los Angeles, made through J. Franz Fishter; and Frisch & Rinzler's Gotham theatre in New York City, made through Joe Hornstein, Inc.

MODERN PROJECTION

PROJECTION • SOUND REPRODUCTION • ACOUSTICS

THEATRE ACOUSTICS TODAY
5. Characteristics of Acoustic Materials

● The fifth article of a series on acoustic provisions in construction and remodeling, and the first of two concluding articles on corrective materials

By C. C. POTWIN

AS AN APPROACH to the selection of a material to be used for acoustic treatment, the four fundamental factors to be considered are:

(1) Its sound absorbing efficiency in relation to the particular surfaces to be treated.

(2) Its general appearance relative to the architectural features of the theatre interior.

(3) Its decorative possibilities with respect to general appearance, maintenance and redecoration.

(4) Its structural properties, with consideration of permanence, fire resistance and other requirements either directly or indirectly controlled by design and by local building regulations.

Sound absorbing efficiency and appearance have been conflicting elements in many instances in the past, for the reasons that until recently the choice and number of materials adaptable for theatre treatment were somewhat limited; and secondly, that there has been a strong tendency in the field to fit arbitrarily the acoustic material to a predetermined decorative scheme rather than to blend this material into the original design of the interior. Consequently, if the type and amount of sound absorption necessary for certain surfaces was found to limit the treatment to a few specific materials, it was not uncommon practice to disregard the requirements and to install a material which would conform with the decorative scheme proposed.

The exhibitor will agree that if the material used fell considerably short of the acoustic requirements, the result might well be one of ultimately sacrificing good acoustic conditions for the appearance of the theatre interior.

Today there is no reason why sound absorbing efficiency or good acoustic conditions should be sacrificed for the sake of appearance, or vice versa. If careful attention is given to the design principles of sound control, new theatres can be planned to require a minimum of acoustic treatment, thus virtually eliminating any restrictions on either the original or future decoration of surfaces.

Furthermore, with the large number of materials now available, types having the correct quantity and quality of sound absorption for specific areas can be obtained in numerous forms and in a wide variety of surface textures and finishes, offering unlimited possibilities for the decoration both of new and existing theatres.

A working knowledge of these materials and of their sound absorption characteristics, together with experience in their actual selection and adaptation, are essential, however, to ensure that the acoustic treatment and decorative scheme for a given theatre will blend in the most harmonious manner.

ACOUSTIC ACTION OF MATERIALS

ALL MATERIALS used for acoustical correction have certain inherent characteristics upon which they are dependent for their absorption of sound at various frequencies. For example, plastic deformability (flexibility with internal resistance) in a material, contributes to the absorption of sound at the low frequencies, whereas porosity on or within the outer surface of the material, effects its absorption of the higher frequencies. The air-cell structure within the body of a material produces a restricted amount of sound absorption at the low frequencies but has its greatest effect on the high frequencies.

Considered as independent elements, these properties vary in their proportionate amounts in different types of materials. One material, for instance, may have a greater amount of surface porosity than another type, whereas either plastic deformability, or air-cell structure, may be more prominent in the second material. As a result, the sound absorbing efficiency of two materials may vary widely, depending upon which one or more of these distinct qualities is predominant in each type.

ABSORPTION TESTS

Today practically every acoustic material is tested for its efficiency by a recognized laboratory before it is marketed as a sound absorbent. These tests are usually made for frequencies ranging at octave intervals from 128 to 4,096 cycles per second, certain laboratories extending the testing range to frequencies an octave above and an octave below these limits.

The sound absorbing efficiency of a material at a certain frequency, as determined by these tests, is expressed as its "coefficient of absorption." The assumption that one square foot of open window area absorbs 100% of the sound energy striking its opening, serves as a basis for measuring and establishing the coefficients for a material. In acoustical terminology this unit of measurement is called a sabin.

If the test report for a certain material shows that it has a coefficient of .40 at 128 cycles per second, this means that one square foot of the material absorbs 40% of the amount of sound energy absorbed by one square foot of open window area at this particular frequency. It therefore follows that 2½ square feet of the material will be required to produce an amount of sound absorption equivalent to the one square foot of open window area, or one sabin, at 128 cycles per second.

These test data, showing the coefficients of absorption at the low, the middle range, and the high frequencies for various materials, are indispensable in planning acoustic treatment. The individual manufacturers of acoustic materials, as well as a group of the leading manufacturers, known as the Acoustic Materials Association, with offices at 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, make these data available to the public without charge. No material should even be considered for treatment until assurance is made that its coefficients will meet the requirements at all frequencies for the theatre and for the particular surfaces to be treated.

CLASSIFICATION OF MATERIALS

WITHIN THE scope of these articles it will be impossible to discuss each one of the many types of material available for purposes of acoustical correction. Consequently, it is proposed to divide these materials into their seven general classifications; namely, Blankets, Boards, Felts, Plasters, Stones, Tiles, and the "Special" types, and to discuss the sound absorbing qualities typical of each class, their methods of mounting and application for maximum efficiency, and their manner of decoration to avoid impairing or destroying their acoustic properties—all subjects of vital importance, since they bear directly on the selection and actual use of acoustic materials.

BLANKETS

Under this particular classification, the most common type of material used for acoustic treatment is rock wool blanket. In general, this material has a relatively high sound absorption value at the low and middle range of frequencies, with a slightly tapering characteristic at the extremely high end of the sound spectrum. Properly mounted, it offers an efficient form of treatment for surfaces, subject to a high level of direct sound energy.

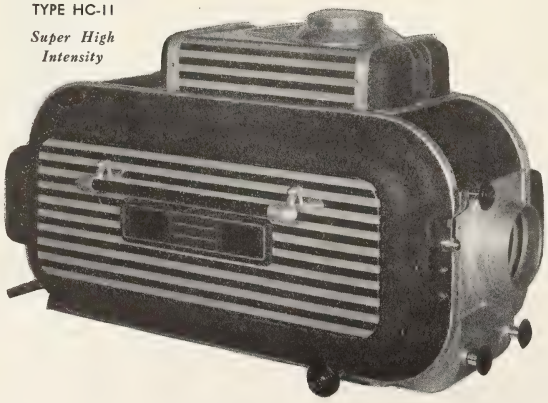
Blankets manufactured of a selected grade of wood fibre are also available. These blankets are rather selective in absorption at the higher frequencies, and as a consequence, in cases where large amounts of acoustic treatment are required, they should be used only in conjunction with other types of materials which will complete the absorption requirements at the low frequencies.

As a matter of interest, a material manufactured in England, made of a silky fibre taken from the pod of the tropical ceiba tree, is another type of material falling under this classification. This material has a frequency absorption characteristic very similar to that of rock wool and has been used rather extensively in Europe.

If the blanket form of material is to be used for theatre treatment, it is imperative that the type selected be properly reinforced to prevent settling. The settling action, if it takes place in the material as a result of structural vibration, direct impact or other causes, will tend to change the frequency absorption characteristic per unit area of the material. Therefore, the more compact forms of blanket materials should be obtained in forms sewn through or "box quilted" at intervals of a few inches, to offset the effect of settling.

In the case of rock wool blanket, the types having a muslin covering and a wire reinforcement on both sides should be used, particularly when this material is to be finished with a fabric for decorative purposes.

BOARDS



In cases where a comparatively inexpensive method of construction of the nonfireproof type is proposed, acoustic boards of wood or cane fibre composition offer a very economical form of treatment for surfaces requiring only a moderate amount of sound absorption distributed over a wide area. This form of treatment does not provide sufficient absorption for surfaces such as rear walls, which are subject to a high level of direct sound energy, in that it will not adequately reduce the intensity of first reflections.

There are, however, many cases in which these boards may be used on other surfaces, and in conjunction with other materials, very effectively to obtain the requisite sound absorption characteristic and proper distribution of treatment. The method of mounting plays a very important part in the use of these materials and will be discussed in the next article.

Felts, especially of the woven hair variety, were used to a large extent for Once More Take a Step H&C Inc. Projection Lamps Forward . . . .

TYPE HC-11
Super High Intensity

This time it is a long step that will leave all competition far behind.

Write TODAY for the most interesting information.

HALL & CONNOLLY, INC.
24 Van Dam Street
New York City

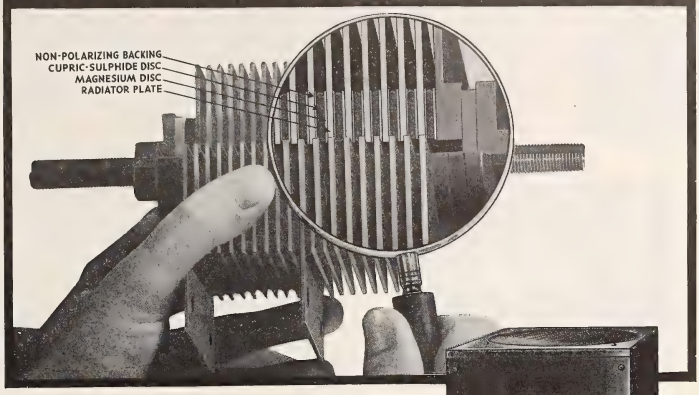
acoustic treatment during the early era of sound reproduction in theatres, because at that time they appeared to offer an economical and practical solution to the problem. Since the frequency range response of early types of sound systems was not as broad as that of present-day systems, the deficiencies inherent in this form of treatment were not so perceptible.

Today, however, there are few cases where this material can be used successfully, even in small quantities or unusual thicknesses, for acoustic treatment of the auditorium surfaces. Hair felts offer an effective form of damping for the reduction of impact noise and may be used satisfactorily as a lining for carpet. Used alone as sound absorbing agents, however, they have the characteristic of providing a much greater degree of absorption at the high than at the low frequencies.

Hair felts are often used as a form of stage draping for the area immediately behind the horns. Here, of course, the conditions of use, methods of application, and final effects are considerably different from those to be fulfilled in the treatment of the auditorium proper.

PLASTERS

From an architectural point of view, acoustic plaster is perhaps one of the most appealing classes of materials because it presents a surface for new construction which is not only sound absorbent but also uniform in texture as well as in appearance. Generally speaking, acoustic plasters are sound absorbents of comparatively moderate efficiency. For this reason, in cases in which large amounts of treatment are necessary, and in which certain areas, such as rear walls, are particularly objectionable from the standpoint of sound reflection, the use of acoustic plaster alone, even when it is applied in exceptionally heavy coats, is frequently insufficient, materials of higher average efficiency being required for the more objectionable surfaces.



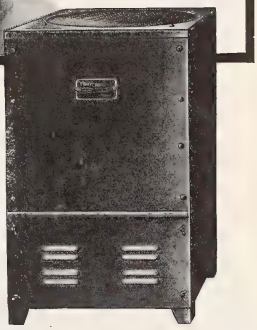
There are two very important considerations regarding the use of this material, and these are its method of mounting and manner of application. The method of mounting is of fundamental importance because of its effect on absorption of the low frequencies and will be discussed at length in the next article.

Most types of acoustic plasters must be applied in several individual coats, each coat being properly dried before application of the succeeding one in order that the moisture may be completely absorbed and the correct porosity and natural cellular structure formed on the surface and within the body of the material. Since acoustic plasters, ordinarily, are subject to variations in efficiency with the care used in their application, they should be installed by contractors who are thoroughly familiar with the correct procedure, or should at least be checked during installation by the manufacturer's representative.

STONES

Within the past few years a material which, for purposes of this discussion, we

New DEPENDABILITY



Magnesium-Copper Sulphide Rectifiers

Several years of extensive laboratory and booth experimentation by Forest engineers in cooperation with P. R. Mallory Co., Inc., Indianapolis, Indiana, have produced this new heavy-duty dependable and economical Magnesium-Copper Sulphide Rectifier.

This new rectifier as presented by Forest, demonstrated in practice and theory, is the solution to the problems encountered in other types of rectifiers and power sources for suprex projection.

Illustrated is the perfect mechanically constructed Mallory Magnesium-Copper Sulphide rectifying unit similar to those used in the New Forest Rectifier for projection.

Single or Twin Type—50 and 65 Amperes Capacity.

★ TEMPERATURE:
A superior feature in this rectifier is that, no time is required for the rectifier output to build-up because the output is practically the same at temperatures from 40° F. below zero to 300° F. above zero, regardless of age.

★ SELF-HEALING AND VOLTAGE OVERLOAD:
The self-healing characteristic of the rectifying junction causes an immediate re-formation of the rectifying film if abnormal voltage surges occur.

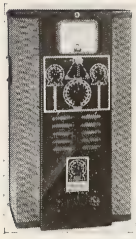
★ CURRENT OVERLOAD:
This rectifier has withstood overloading to a temperature of 660° F. at brief intervals without failure. This fact proves that this rectifier can be overloaded to many times its rated capacity should abnormal conditions or emergencies arise, at the same time assuring complete dependability.

★ REGULATION AND AGING:
Magnesium-copper Sulphide Rectifiers have a very low internal resistance in the conducting direction. This characteristic results in excellent regulation of the rectifier output voltage over a wide range of load conditions. There is no change in the characteristics of this rectifier as a result of aging therefore the output of the Magnesium Rectifiers decreases little or none.

SEND FOR NEW ILLUSTRATED CATALOG!

FOREST MAGNESIUM-COPPER SULPHIDE RECTIFIERS
BELLEVILLE NEW JERSEY

Goldé

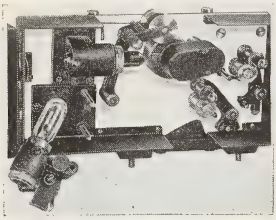


Specify GoldE Standard Products and know you have the best in Spotlights, Rewinds, Rewind Tables, Film Cabinets, New Aluminum Magazines, Stereopticons, Cleaner Stands, New Roto-Chrome Color Spotlight, Change-over, Take-ups, etc.—New Catalog.

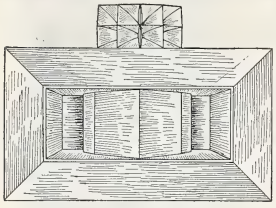
GOLDE MFG. CO., 1214-22 W. Madison St., Chicago, Ill.

Kaplan PROJECTORS
729 SEVENTH AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY

"La Vezzi"
Intermittent Movements
Sold by dealers everywhere
LAVEZZI MACHINE WORKS
180 N. WACKER DRIVE CHICAGO
ESTABLISHED 1908



News in Advertising
● Advertisements are invaluable sources of information. For the reader's convenience an index of advertisers appears on page 42.



DUO SOUND MASTER

THE GOLDEN VOICE of the SILVER SCREEN

The Complete Sound System — Constant Axis Optical System Carriage—The Gyrofilter—Prefocused Ex Light Carriage—"DC" Exciter Supply—Calibrated Volume Control and two-Way Horn System.

THE BALLANTYNE CO.
219 NORTH 16TH STREET... OMAHA, NEBR.
EASTERN SALES OFFICE 53 PARK PLACE, NEW YORK CITY

SUPER-LITE LENSES
PRO-JEX SOUND UNITS are giving universal satisfaction . . . reason enough for their universal popularity!

A TRY-OUT WILL CONVINCE YOU

Projection Optics Co., Inc.
330 Lyell Ave., Rochester, N. Y., U. S. A.

HEAVY PROJECTOR BASE for Simplex or MOTIOGRAPH
16" and 18" Magazines
Parts for Peerless Lamps, Simplex, Motiograph, Powers
Manufactured by
EDW. H. WOLK
1018 S. WABASH AVE.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

will classify as a stone, has been manufactured and marketed as a combined building unit and sound absorbent for new fireproof construction and has a relatively high heat insulating value. This material is available in several different forms, and is designed as a building block for use in actual wall construction, its natural porous surface and non-uniform cellular structure contributing to the absorption of sound at specific frequencies.

For the most part, such materials are comparatively moderate absorbents, several types being rather selective in absorption at the middle range and high frequencies. For this reason, in the design of new theatres where fairly large quantities of acoustic treatment are required and the use of this material is proposed, care must be exercised in selecting the type of block for construction to insure that its frequency absorption characteristic will combine favorably with the more efficient form of treatment required for the objectionable sound reflecting surfaces.

With respect to new construction, this material offers some interesting possibilities for use with other materials where angular surfaces lend themselves favorably to the acoustic design and architectural treatment.

TILES

Perhaps the greatest diversity in type, number, efficiency and appearance of materials is to be found under this classification. There are numerous types of wood and cane fibre tiles on the market, with surfaces varying from a practically smooth and uniform finish to a rough textured or perforated surface. Also, there are a number of tiles of mineral fibre and plastic composition having surfaces which resemble a porous cut stone or travertine in appearance. Tiles presenting a perforated surface of metal or hard-board backed with mineral wool or asbestos fibre elements are also available.

With the exception of a certain few of the wood and cane fibre materials, most types of tiles falling under this classification are fireproof.

Tiles differ widely in their sound absorbing efficiencies at selected frequencies, and in their over-all absorption characteristics throughout the frequency range. Some types, in the lesser thicknesses, for example, provide a very moderate but relatively uniform degree of absorption over the entire frequency range. Other types have a high absorption value within the crucial range of frequencies, while a few are very selective in absorption for a limited part of the frequency range.

A number of tiles, particularly those of the wood and cane fibre varieties, are obtainable in various thicknesses, thus making it possible in some cases to secure the proper gradation of absorption over the auditorium surfaces with the use of several different thicknesses of the same material. The low frequency absorption of most tiles, particularly of these latter varieties, is dependent to a considerable extent upon their method of mounting.

Here again the actual selection of the type and thickness of tile for treatment will be governed by the specific requirements of the individual theatre, the more efficient forms being confined at least to those areas which are subject to a high level of direct sound energy.

"SPECIALS"

The materials falling under this classification are designed either to fulfill particular frequency absorption requirements or to permit of a special method of application.

For example, one material resembling an ornamental tile in appearance is designed to absorb a greater percentage of sound energy at the low than at the high frequencies, and can be used to good advantage in certain cases where a high compensation for the potential lack of absorption at the low frequencies is required.

Another type of material, of asbestos fibre composition, is installed by a special process of application, using a so-called "spray-gun," with which layers of different thicknesses of the material can be built up on wall or ceiling surfaces to meet the absorption demands of definite areas.

VARIETY IN ACOUSTIC MATERIALS

IN CONSIDERING the subject of materials in general, it is believed that the future will show a marked increased in the type and number of sound absorbents adaptable for theatres, possibly allowing even greater variations in the architectural treatment of interiors. Actually, several new materials are now in the process of development and may offer some unusual and interesting departures from the more prevalent forms of surface textures and finishes.

There is one fact that must be stressed at this point; namely, that no single type nor thickness of sound absorbing material available today will completely fulfill the needs of every theatre. While a specified material may be entirely satisfactory for use in one case, it may be totally inadequate for another, even though the two theatres appear to have very similar physical characteristics.

This is a consideration which cannot be emphasized too strongly, since the author frequently finds that if an exhibitor or his architect has been successful with one type of material in one case, he may plan to use the same material in many of his future projects, when actually that material may provide either too much or too little sound absorption for similar surfaces in the other houses, or perhaps may even produce an incorrect balance of absorption relative to the frequency range.

[In his next and concluding article, Mr. Potwin will explain how different types of acoustic material should be mounted for maximum low frequency absorption, how they may be decorated without impairing their sound absorbing efficiency, and how they may be used to the best advantage from the architectural viewpoint. Mr. Potwin is a member of the technical consulting staff of Electrical Research Products, Inc., dealing with acoustic problems. —THE EDITOR.]

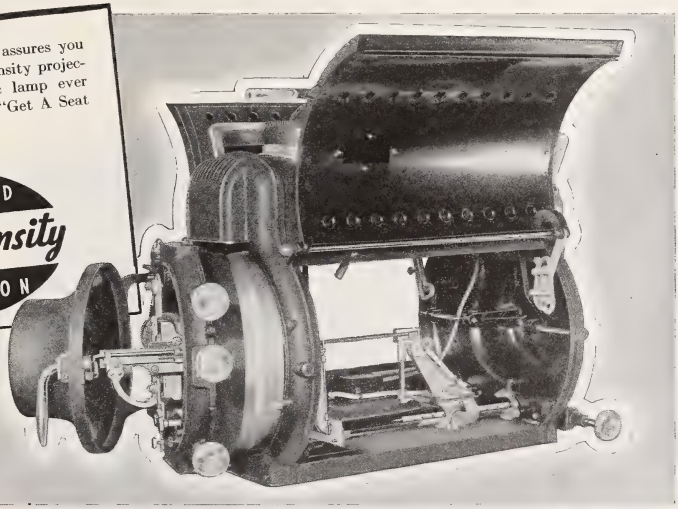
HEED THE HANDWRITING ON THE SCREEN

The Day of High Intensity is here!



● Now that one theatre in every three has high intensity projection, every theatre owner without it faces a new situation. Theatres using high intensity have 75 per cent of the country's total seating capacity. They also are the theatres best attended and paying the most profitable return.

Obviously, if thousands of theatres have installed high intensity projection, high intensity projection cannot be expensive. Its really low cost will surprise you. Peerless Magnarc Lamps produce 200 to 300 per cent more light on the screen for the same current cost as low intensity.

You need high intensity projection not only to hold, but to increase your patronage.

Get the facts. Peerless Magnarc assures you of every advantage that high intensity projection affords. It's the finest arc lamp ever built. Write for the new folder, "Get A Seat On The Bandwagon."

SIMPLIFIED High Intensity PROJECTION

Peerless MAGNARC

TRADE MARK REG.

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. McAULEY MFG. CO., 552-554 W. ADAMS ST., CHICAGO

Sold by National Theatre Supply Co.

COMMENT ON PROJECTION AFFAIRS

and answers to inquiries . . . By F. H. RICHARDSON

WHEN PROJECTION STAFFS NEED A RESPONSIBLE HEAD

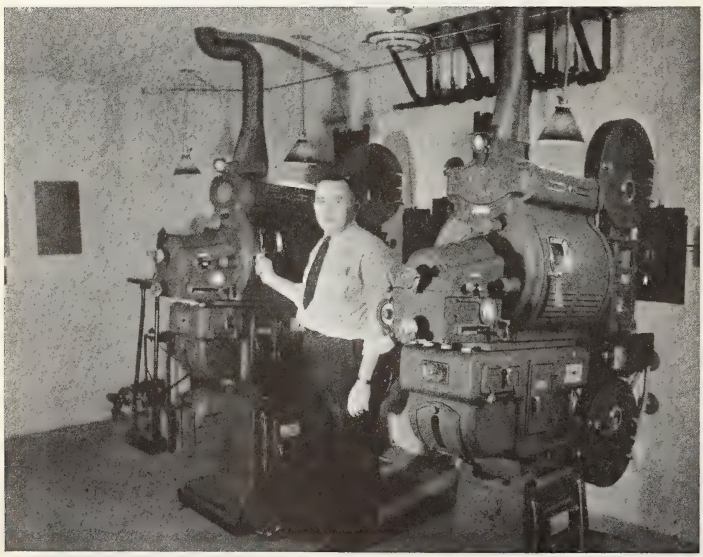
A FEW WEEKS ago, in a certain eastern city, a situation came under my observation that struck me as an excellent example of the kind of buck-passing which is bound to happen quite often under the practice of conducting two- and three-men projection rooms without having one of the men act as chief projectionist—as a foreman. A single theatre is referred to, all of the incidents cited occurred within a period of ten days, and the projectionists are union men.

A hurry-up call was made for a service engineer on complaint of complete loss of sound. In this projection room are two amplifiers and three projectors, all wired for sound, hence complete loss of sound was unlikely. Upon his arrival, the engineer found sound to have been restored and functioning normally. Not one of the crew of three men was able to offer explanation as to why the sound was lost or what happened to restore it. It was therefore evident to the engineer that either some one had failed to close a switch or something quite rare had happened to the equipment.

The sound engineer had not left the theatre before the sound was lost again. Rushing back up to the projection room he found that a wrong reel had been threaded in and the show stopped to make the change. Most emphatically those men cannot be said to be overworked, since there are five shifts of three men each in that theatre.

A few days later a service engineer was sent for because the emergency amplifier refused to function, blowing the fuse instead. By the time the engineer had arrived, another crew was on duty and by installing a whole new set of tubes, had cleared up the trouble. The previous shift had done nothing except to demand an engineer. The engineer inserted the old tubes one by one until a fuse blew, installed a new one in its place and that was that.

Trouble No. 3 of this batch proved so simple that a projectionist in the smallest village theatre might be expected to locate it almost instantly. It was a hissing sound when one of the amplifiers was in use. Nothing more or less than a typical "tube rush." Since it was fairly loud it was evidently strongly amplified and must perforce be in one of the first tubes of the amplifier. Installing a new tube in the input socket was all that was required—yet a sound engineer was demanded.



The point I wish to make is that each was a case where no one man was responsible.

Let George do it—and George was the sound engineer.

Can you imagine any responsible manufacturer operating a factory in which men are employed without any responsible foreman over them? What would be your opinion of a merchant who placed the departments in his store under no responsible head that was expert in handling the class of goods sold in each department? Yet that is precisely what takes place in many theatres who employ two or three men in one shift. Go into a projection room of this class and ask, "Who is in charge here?" The answer frequently will be, in effect, no one! And not only do theatre owners and managers accept that setup, but some local unions insist upon it.

Some unions have even refused to permit the owner to appoint one of the men as chief projectionist. Now unions have certain perfectly legitimate rights, which rights should and must be respected, but union rights have limits, and when an employer is told he cannot place a responsible foreman in direct charge of work in one of the most important departments, the union so doing has exceeded its rights. That is an inherent privilege and prerogative of any employer.

The wise manager of a theatre in which two or more shifts of projectionists are employed will create the title of chief projectionist and appoint one of the men to that position with some suitable advance in pay. The chief, even though standing shift the same as the other men, should be held responsible for all equipment and results.

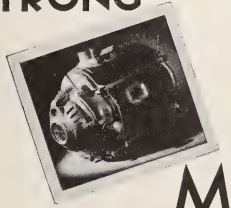
Projection room of the new Kuhn theatre in Lebanon, Ore., owned and operated by R. Kuhn, with Projectionist Ivan Cooper posed (pretty proudly, too) beside his new projectors. They are Motiographs, equipped with Brenkert Enarc lamps, which are supplied from Brenkert copper oxide rectifiers. All of the equipment for the Kuhn, except the sound system, which is RCA Photophone, was supplied through the B. F. Shearer Company of Seattle. Cooper projects an 18-foot picture at 110 feet.

SOME OBSERVATIONS UP CONNECTICUT WAY

POINTING MY gas buggy toward Connecticut the other day, I struck out for Norwich and my feet were presently parked under the bountiful table of Charles Oldham, who also had Leo Cimikoski as a guest. Both of these gentlemen are Norwich projectionists and, I should like to add, loyal "students" of the Bluebook School in MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Later I called at the Palace theatre, a Warner house managed by R. B. Hamilton. Charles Oldham and Albert Fairbanks

NOW . . . A NECESSITY IN EVEN THE SMALLEST HOUSE



SIMPLIFIED
High Intensity
PROJECTION

But any theatre can afford it!

Simplified High Intensity Projection affords real economy, giving two to three times as much light as your low intensity at a greatly reduced cost per unit of light.

Only High Intensity Projection provides the white light essential to satisfactory projection of new color pictures which are being shot under lights having the same characteristics.

THE STRONG

MOGUL

. . . is the lamp that delivers this tremendously increased volume of light without a corresponding increase in operating costs—steady, brilliant light, distributed uniformly over the complete screen area, projecting a picture full of depth and definition which possesses a sparkling daylight effect.

An Invitation!

Write for interesting catalog and name of your nearest Independent Theatre Equipment Dealer. He will, without obligation, arrange to demonstrate the Strong lamp in your theatre.

The STRONG ELECTRIC Corp.

2501 LAGRANGE ST. TOLEDO, OHIO, U. S. A.

EXPORT OFFICES:

ROOM 2002, 220 W. 42nd ST., NEW YORK, N. Y.

man the projection room. I noted that a new high-powered fan had been installed in the ceiling, and it occurred to me that such a fan should be controlled by a switch that would automatically be pulled shut and its speed controlling device (if any) pulled to full power when the port fire shutters are dropped. This would offer added protection for the audience in case of fire, since the fan would thus automatically be turned on full speed to pump out gases and smoke the instant a fire started.

The Strand in Norwich is where Brother Cimikoski works. It is a second-run theatre seating 945, one link of the extensive Rothenberg and Morse chain. It is managed by Samuel Ruff, with whom I had a most pleasant visit. Projection is by two two-man shifts. Besides Cimikoski, the staff consists of Howard Benjamin, Leslie R. Nowell and Norman E. Soules. Equipment includes Simplex projectors, Brenkert low-intensity lamps and RCA sound system.

Warner's Broadway in Norwich was installing RCA sound equipment at the time of my visit. Brothers James Buea and Anthony are the regular projectionists. The relief man on duty at the time of my visit was Andrew H. Miller.

And now for some constructive criticism, which should be received in the friendly spirit in which it is given and considered upon its merits. It is based on observations made in Norwich, but I submit it here because it may be applied to conditions noticed elsewhere.

As we all well know, one important duty of projectionists is to keep batteries powering sound equipments scrupulously clean. That is a duty, as all must and will admit. Yet I entered one well lighted room and was confronted by two shelves of batteries, set so low that they were in plain view. The tops of those batteries were literally coated with a layer of dust and dirt that surely could not have been touched in at least two weeks. My guess is a month. Yet five minutes work every day or two would keep those battery tops in fine condition.

At another theatre, when I entered, the screen illumination was quite dim and very decidedly amber. Glancing at the screen as I was leaving, I found the illumination to be very much brighter and the objectionable yellowish tone to have disappeared. Now there is always the possibility that the fault might be chargeable to a poor print, but I am convinced that during my stay an added bundle of amperes had been chucked into those carbons. If so, may I suggest that saving current by cutting down on screen illumination to a point where the beauty of the screen image is made to suffer, is never a true saving. The current bill will be less, yes, but in the long run the box office intake will be less also. Then, too, when a patron buys a ticket, he does so on the assumption that the theatre will provide proper facilities for presenting the picture to the best advantage. And the patron has a right to expect just that.

From Norwich I drove to New London, thirteen miles away, calling at the Empire theatre, which is managed by I. M. Berg, who also is district manager for the Rothenberg and Morse circuit. Mr. Berg is well seasoned in theatre management. In the course of our chat he said, in effect, "I fully realize that this theatre principally has for sale the screen image and sound. Excellence in projection therefore is of major importance to the box office."

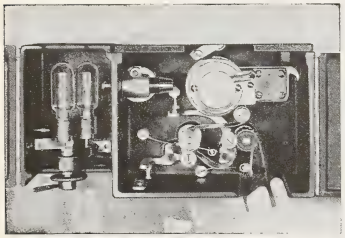
Mr. Berg conducted me to the projection room, manned by James Patti and Anthony Settee. The lens port cover glasses were in need of attention. Dust covered glasses cause light loss and to some extent reduce screen image definition. Port cover glasses should be kept scrupulously clean.

At the Crown theatre in New London, I contacted Brother W. W. Lucas, president of the New London local union. It is probable that a meeting of projectionists, theatre owners and managers of Norwich, New London and Willimantic presently will be arranged. If so I have agreed to drive up and address the gathering.

ALL-METAL REFLECTOR

FOR QUITE some time there have been inquiries as to why it is not possible to have all-metal reflectors for use with projector arc light sources. Inquiries have failed to obtain any very satisfactory answer. It was known that all-metal re-

TransVerteR



when all factors are considered, provides the best all-around means of converting alternating current to a suitable D.C. supply for projection arc service

Ask for the type of Transverter designed to meet YOUR needs.

Sold through The National Theatre Supply Co.

MANUFACTURED BY THE HERTNER ELECTRIC COMPANY
12690 ELMWOOD AVE. CLEVELAND, OHIO, U. S. A.

SYNCROFILM
MODEL ABH SOUND HEADS
ADAPTABLE TO PUSH-PULL RECORDINGS

MANUFACTURED AND DESIGNED FOR Perfect Sound Reproduction
★ INCORPORATING THESE EXCLUSIVE FEATURES ★
Rotating film drum + ball bearing film rollers + cushion starting, free from shock + new optical system designed by one of the world's leading manufacturers for the new type film recordings.
Ask about Syncrofilm Projectors and the new DR SOUND HEADS
WEBER MACHINE CORPORATION
59 Rutter Street Rochester, N. Y.
Export: 100 Varick Street, N. Y. C. Cable Address: "Romos"

GARVER KURRENT CHANGERS

Operate more economically, saving 20%-30% changing A.C. to D.C. Assure the steady current (15 to 30 amps.) necessary to a stable arc. Permit undetectable changeovers. The quietest made. Set up no interference... $82 up. At your dealer's or write Garver Electric Co., Union City, Ind.

flectors failed to provide as high a percentage of reflected light as did the glass ones, to which objection there appeared to be no satisfying answer.

The other day I visited the factory of Heyer & Shultz, Inc., in Montclair, N. J., and examined an all-metal reflector which that company has been developing for the last three years. I watched a practical demonstration of it and came away well satisfied that the new reflector fully justifies thorough investigation and test by the industry at large. At present only models suitable for use with Suprex arcs using diameters of 10, 10¼, 13½ and 14 inches are available.

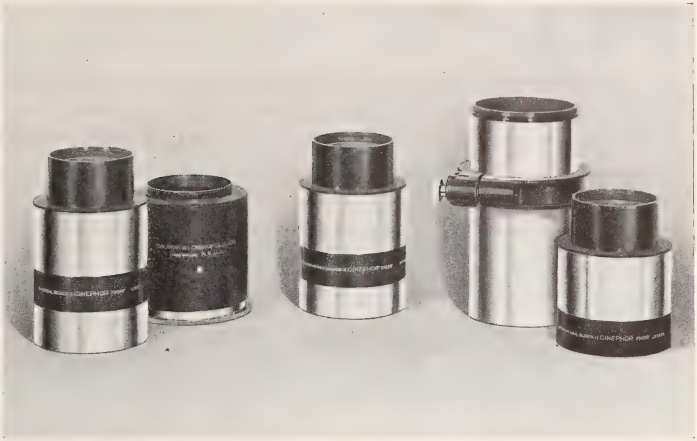
The reflection surface is of Rhodium, the melting point of which is given as 3600° F. It is a rare and extremely hard metal upon which incandescent particles of copper or carbon apparently have no effect.

PEN FOR FILM CEMENT APPLICATION

W. LEMKE, projectionist of Antioch, Ill., writes, "I have found a type A-O speed ball pen better than the usual glass applicator supplied with each bottle of film cement. I attach the pen to the glass applicator with sewing thread, leaving it in the bottle when not in use. It works just fine. Possibly you may wish to pass the hint along."

Certainly. Glad to have little (or big) hints which you men find to be of value. Possibly some others may not fancy them, while others will. Anyhow, experiments that cost little are always interesting.

HUM CAUSED BY RECORDING LIGHT FLARE



FRANCIS S. KEY of Anderson, Ind., sends in a film clip, with a letter saying:

"In the June 26th BETTER THEATRES appears the odd case presented by Alvin E. Wheeler, Fairy Theatre, Knox, Indiana. Herewith I submit a film sample. You will note defects in emulsion around the sprocket holes on the sound track side, which same extend over into the sound track itself. Because of these faults this print delivers something closely resembling an a.c. hum.

"I have seen many prints containing similar faults, though not lately. Think likely such faults are due either to too fast development or drying too quickly. Possibly Wheeler's film was a newsreel that was rushed out too fast. What do you think?"

Examination of the sample indicates that the white areas opposite the sprocket holes are due to sprocket hole reflections in recording caused by the light employed in recording hitting the edges of the sprocket holes in the negative, producing a slight flare in the film. This develops black in the negative and of course shows white in the positive print. It is reproduced in the sound as a hum of sprocket hole frequency, rather closely resembling the a.c. hum.

A wavy black area along the sprocket holes adjacent to the sound track probably is the result of a scratch on the negative.

GOOD PROJECTION IS GOOD PROMOTION

A Super-Cinephor Projection Lens often helps in boosting Box Office revenue. The remarkable covering power, flatness of field and superior brilliance impresses audiences and does what ballyhoo doesn't—brings them back again with their friends.

A Super-Cinephor is a profitable investment for any theater catering to critical audiences—"One new patron a day will pay for a Super-Cinephor in a year."

For complete details of these lenses, condensers and reflectors, write Bausch & Lomb Optical Co., 679 St. Paul St., Rochester, New York.

BAUSCH & LOMB
SUPER-CINEPHOR

PORTABILITY
ACCESSIBILITY
MODERN DESIGN
PLUS

a new design in the high reactance transformer employed, makes

KNI-TRON
PORTABLE RECTIFIERS

the most outstanding unit in the field. Furnishes 15 amperes direct current from 110 volt A.C. Lines. Write for Bulletin LK to

THE KNEISLEY ELECTRIC CO.,
TOLEDO, OHIO

PLANNING THE THEATRE

A SERVICE DEPARTMENT DEALING WITH ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN AND MATERIALS, DECORATION AND FURNISHINGS

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES: One of the principal functions of this department is to answer inquiries pertaining to preliminary considerations in the planning of a new theatre or the remodeling of an existing one. All questions receive the personal attention of Peter M. Hulsken, A.I.A., contributing editor of this department and a practicing architect who long has specialized in theatre design. He will be glad to offer advice, suggestions and criticisms. Working plans, however, cannot be supplied. All communications intended for this department should be addressed to Better Theatres, Rockefeller Center, New York. In publishing replies, only initials are used for identification.

THE QUESTION:

I AM contemplating a few changes in this theatre and would appreciate your comments:

Auditorium: 60 feet long, 24 feet wide, 21 feet over ceiling, 256 seats in two banks, three narrow aisles, carpet, felt sound padding on walls.

Balcony: 55 seats, projection booth back of balcony, 68 feet throw.

Combination lobby and foyer: 10 feet deep by 24 feet wide, except for steps and storage closet; closed from auditorium by glass, glass doors, and curtains. Nine feet high.

Front: Nine-foot ceiling by 8 feet wide, marquee over sidewalk, box office and entrance doors set back 7 feet from sidewalk. Brick front above marquee 15 feet by 24 feet.

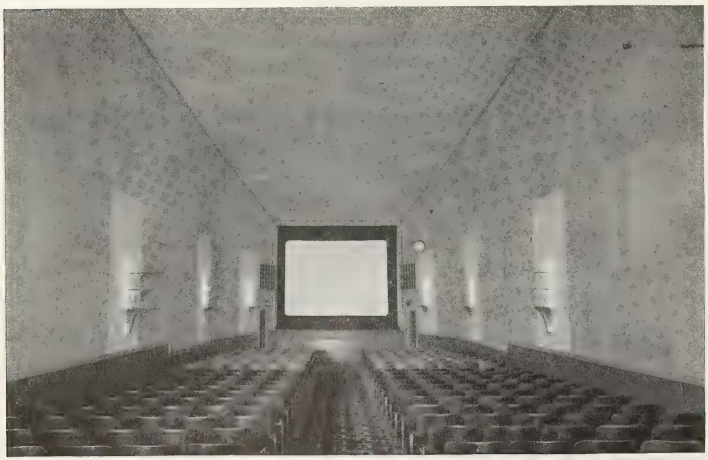
I plan to remove carpet felt from side walls and pad back of auditorium completely. Sound very good at present everywhere except in balcony. I also plan to throw seats into one bank with wide carpeted side aisles, install six lumiline lighting fixtures, three on each side, and put indirect lighting in lobby; repaint auditorium, foyer and entire front, above and below marquee. We would like to use blues, whites and silvers, with perhaps orange added to the windows, etc., of the front above the marquee in order to set off the solid white front.

Would white trimmed in deep blue with deep blue paneled doors and box office be in good taste below the marquee? What colors do you suggest for the lobby-foyer, and for the auditorium?—J.H.C.

THE ANSWER:

WE PRESUME that the present walls are covered with carpet felt. A nice effect may be obtained by the installation of dyed waffle fabric. The walls should be stripped and wood moulded strips should be applied to cover joints in fabric. Place these strips horizontally according to the width of the fabric, which should result in a pleasing modern design. The fabric should be dyed in varied shades, starting with the darkest shade at the bottom panel above wainscoting. Apply one-inch rockwool backing between furring strips; treat the rear wall in balcony similarly.

A single-bank scheme for seating would be a great improvement, as a center aisle takes the place of the best seats in the house. The annoyance of patrons walking in a center aisle and interfering with vision will also be eliminated.



The suggested lighting scheme will be satisfactory.

We do not advise the use of white in a theatre color scheme. It soils too easily. A lemon yellow or tangerine will go very well with blue. Use silver only for striping or mouldings.

We do not know what the material or finish of the wall above the marquee is, but white may be used in that space—it will accentuate the colors of the lower parts.

For the lobby and foyer use a soft pale green, trimmed with silver; or coral trimmed with blue. For more daring colors, tangerine, blue and pompeian red may be used.

If you intend to carry out the auditorium scheme suggested, use a fabric having various shades of blue, with orange for wood moulding strips. Paint the ceiling in deep ivory or soft yellow.

Auditorium of the Ritzfield theatre in Sweetwater, Texas, as finished in Blendtex, a new material added to the Weatherwood line of insulating interior finishes manufactured by the United States Gypsum Company of Chicago. Blendtex is a wood base material and can be worked like lumber. The only tools in applying are a hammer and a saw, and on such bases as plaster, it can be applied with a standard adhesive. It has texture of decorative value and is available ready for use in packages with colors assorted in the proper proportions for the color treatment required. In addition, this material has sound-absorbent qualities. Blendtex is manufactured in tile and plank. The tile has tongue and groove edges; the plank is shiplapped in application.

THE QUESTION:

I INTEND to slope the floor of the auditorium in a small town theatre and would appreciate hearing from you as to how much to raise it. The auditorium is 39 feet wide and 72 feet long. First row of seats is 20 feet, last row 72 feet, from screen, which is flush to rear wall with speakers mounted on each side. Platform is 4 feet, 6 inches above present auditorium floor.—W.P.M.

THE ANSWER:

WITH THE first row of seats 20 feet and the last row 72 feet from screen, you have 52 feet for seats, so I presume there are 21 rows. Leave the floor under the first three rows near screen level, raise the floor under the next six rows 9 inches, the next six rows 12 inches, and the last six rows 15 inches.

Should this make the slope too high to comply with other existing conditions, you may leave the floor under the first six rows level and raise the balance of floor a total of 24 inches. However, the first suggestion will give the best results.

You will also be able to obtain a suitable slope by stepping up the last three rows of seats above the aisles so as to gain 10 inches, but of course seating area higher than the aisles is not desirable.

●

THE QUESTION:

WE ARE contemplating erection of new theatre. Our lot is 50x100 feet. We would like to have two stores on front if we can without taking too much from theatre seating capacity. How high should ceiling be for best sound?

Can you send me small sketch showing arrangement of lobby and number of seats with aisle on each side and size of stage for this size building. Also show where we can place grilles for air-conditioning.—C.M.T.

THE ANSWER:

I AM SORRY that this department is not permitted to furnish sketches, but we will endeavor to describe a plan for you.

You did not state the required seating capacity, and the depth of the stores will depend entirely on this requirement. The lobby should be at least 16 feet wide. This will allow a store on each side of the lobby 15 feet wide. Placing the box office at the sidewalk line, the entrance doors should stand 3 feet, 6 inches back, making the lobby 12 feet deep. The stores could have a depth of 16 feet, as a minimum.

Behind the lobby should be a foyer, which should be at least 8 feet wide. The men's and women's rooms could be built behind the stores, on each end of the foyer.

The stage does not have to be more than 15 feet in depth, so there will be left in the auditorium space enough for 20 rows of seats. For the width of your theatre, the best seating arrangement will be a center section of twelve seats with an aisle on each side and two wall banks, each of six seats across, making 24 seats across the width of the auditorium; so the seating capacity will be 480 seats. The ceiling height should be at least 17 feet above the high point of the auditorium floor.

The location of grilles for air conditioning depends entirely on what layout the air conditioning engineer recommends. For the type of theatre yours appears to be, we believe the most economical plan would be to run a single duct along the middle of the ceiling. This should be provided with louvres to diffuse the air properly. However, you may find it possible to locate grilles in flared walls flanking the proscenium arch, one grille on each side. If you want more advice concerning a ventilating system or air conditioning, we suggest that you again write BETTER THEATRES, giving full particulars about the plan and construction of the building.

New Plan and Style for an Old Theatre

(Continued from page 11)

become 4x12 feet. These are stripped over the joints with a wooden mould to create a paneling effect. At the intersection of ceiling and sidewall is a modernistic scallop.

Sidewalls circle into the stage. This circular field has 2-foot strips of cream temlock running ito a 1½-inch red moulding over the joints, a 6-inch band of silver and, another 1½-inch band of red. The 4½-foot wainscoting is of decorated cement plaster in a deep blue.

All the wood stripping in the auditorium is red, including the sidewalls. The scalloped cornice also is red, but the mould against the ceiling is blue. The chair rail is red with orange and black stripping. The blue from stage to auditorium floor is relieved by silver grilles over air outlets.

The old auditorium floor was of wood, mounted on 4x4-foot wooden sleepers which rested on the ground, and improperly sloped. The new floor is of concrete, and excavation has allowed a pitch of approximately ¾-inch per foot.

Seats by Heywood-Wakefield, are of walnut, with gold and red trim. Aisles between seats are carpeted in the same general color scheme as the theatre. In spite of a deeper stage, the theatre has 150 more seats, to bring the total to 877. Previously the seats had been arranged in straight rows across the theatre. A radial plan provided space for added chairs.

Vestibule walls are of texture plaster in pink and gold. The ceiling was treated in the same way. Woodwork in the lobby is red striped with black, and trim is in chrome, orange, black and red. Entrance doors on the inside are red, trimmed with black, and the floor is red tile with black joints. The vestibule is 6 feet deep and 28 feet wide.

The same textured plaster treatment was used in the foyer, except that it has a cream cast, and over it was applied a glaze of blue with silver background to create silver and blue sidewalls and ceiling. The latter is sand-finished.

The old front was torn out and an entirely new one installed. Originally a plain, colorless gray stucco, the upper portion now is smooth stucco with 3½-foot vertical white breaks directly over the marquee, and with horizontal red bands on each side of the breaks. Below the marquee black structural glass has been applied, banded in red. Two 48x60-inch display cases on each side of the box office, giving the theatre four in all, are flush with the wall and are trimmed in chrome. —Kenneth Force.

Added Prestige for THEATRES

Royalchrome DISTINCTIVE FURNITURE

The lobby is the one place where theatres may add prestige.

Patrons appreciate the style, beauty and distinction of a ROYALCHROME furnished lobby or lounge. The efficient manager recognizes the value of tailored, guaranteed TUF-TEX upholstery — exclusively a ROYAL leatherette. For style, strength and durability assurance, demand to see the ROYAL tag on every piece.

ROYAL METAL MFG. CO.
1150 S. Michigan Ave.
CHICAGO
New York Los Angeles
Toronto

CHAIRS
STOOLS
SETTEES TABLES

Royal

"Metal Furniture Since '97"

Mayor Owen's Theatre Deep in the Ozarks

(Continued from page 9)

lows the general rustic design, even to the presence of a sunbonneted ticket seller. The ushers, by the way, wear blue overalls and hickory hats, with red bandana neckerchiefs, to further the rural atmosphere.

The atmosphere of homey quaintness which permeates the entire building grips the patron the moment he steps into the lobby, which is 16 feet square. Roughly squared logs overhead form beams below a ceiling of V-jointed diagonal flooring, a single thickness of boards serving as ceiling for lobby and floor for lounges above. Walls are paneled full height in native knotty pine.

A flagstone floor leads to the hearth of a huge stone fireplace which sparkles with large insets of quartz brought from nearby caverns, below a ponderous hand-hewn walnut lintel and shelf.

Accessories which held to create traditional charm in the lobby are an ox-yoke of considerable age which hangs above an antique mantel clock, firearms of a long-past day, traps, deer antlers, and enormous pine cones found in the neighborhood. Kindling for the fire is held in a split hickory basket of local manufacture, and the fireplace is equipped with the heavy andirons, iron pots, teakettle and swinging crane of primitive Ozark cookery.

Even the doorman's ticket box is built of split logs, in keeping with the general air of rusticity. One of the guns hung on rough tree forks is the original rifle belonging to Old Matt of "Shepherd of the Hills" fame.

Leaving the lobby, the patron enters a 26-foot foyer. Walls in this section are of knotty pine with a frieze of peeled slabs, stained dark brown with touches of red. The standing rail is built of rough planks of native lumber, stained brown and draped with henna homespun. Benches are of huge split cedar logs, smoothed and varnished to bring out the natural beauty of the wood.

A popular feature of the foyer is the old-fashioned iron-bound well bucket which is mounted permanently on a large stump under a well-house stoop containing a genuine well wheel and rope. The guard dipper hanging from the stoop is a reminder of the days when modern plumbing had not yet made possible the efficient ice water bubbler installed within the oak bucket.

Directional sign in the Owen theatre.

Wall decorations in the foyer and other sections of the building include mounted specimens, such as deer heads, a young cinnamon bear, a wild hog, wild turkeys, a large eagle shot on a nearby ranch, and numerous deer skin rugs. Fish plaques made by Elsie Bates, a local artist, are used in considerable numbers.

The simple rustic effect is continued in the auditorium, which is 33 feet wide and 64 feet long, from foyer to stage front. The rough stone walls of crazy quilt pattern are broken by draped panels containing four murals by Elsie Bates, depicting local scenes. Two of the murals are "Sammy's Lookout" and "The Trail that Is Nobody Knows How Old," painted from the actual spots made famous by Harold Bell Wright's story.

The auditorium ceiling is of V-jointed Celotex boards, simulating a rough plank effect, but with greater acoustical value. The proscenium opening, 22x15 feet, is of stone and slabs, and is draped with homespun henna drapes and dressed with a gold close-in curtain. The stage front is also of slabs and heavy timbers.

Roof trusses are composed of huge adzed timbers, held together with heavy iron rods and eye-bolts, all resting in the walls and they are further supported by stone corbels.

The entire seating area, up to the stage front, is surrounded by a heavy farmyard fence of rough slabs, notched and doweled for an ornamental effect. Exit doors are of heavy-braced, barn door construction.

The auditorium floor is of concrete, with carpeted aisles. The 356 seats are arranged in three banks with two aisles (new seating by the Ideal Seating Company).

Auditorium lighting fixtures are old wheels purchased from a Springfield, Mo., wagon company and adapted to lighting requirements by the Keens Forging Company of Sedalia, Mo. Riding lights, for use during the screen showing, are concealed in the wheel hubs.

The stage measures 33x12 feet, large enough to accommodate small acts or entertainments staged by local amateurs. The screen is 14x12 feet.

The erection of this unique motion picture theatre is a convincing proof that a showhouse perpetuating local tradition can be erected at a cost no greater than the average small "store show" having far less appeal.—Robert O. Boller.

INDEX TO ADVERTISERS

Adler Sign Letter Co. 25
American Mat Corp. 26
Amperite Co. 30
Artkraft Sign Co., The 19
Ashcraft Mfg. Corp., C. S. 5
Automatic Devices Co. 28

Baldor Electric Co. 21
Ballantyne Co., The 34
Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. 39
Best Devices Co. 23
Brenkert Light Projection Co. Second Cover

Clancy, Inc., J. R. 25

Da-Lite Screen Co., Inc. 26
Dayton Safety Ladder Co., The 30

Eastern Seating Co. 29

F & Y Construction Co. 26
Forest Manufacturing Corp. 33

Garver Electric Co. 38
General Seating Co. 28
GoldE Manufacturing Co. 33

Hall & Connolly, Inc. 32
Hertner Electric Co., The 38
Heywood-Wakefield Co. 17
Hoover Mfg. & Sales Co., Inc. 24
Hurley Screen Co. 29

Ideal Seating Co., The 23
International Projector Corp. Third Cover
International Register Co. 18

Kaplan Mfg. & Supply Co., Sam. 33
Kneisley Electric Co. 39

Lavezzi Machine Works 33

McAuley Mfg. Co., J. E. 35
Movie Supply Co., Ltd. 28

National Carbon Co., Inc. 4
National Theatre Supply Co. 24

Ozone-Air, Inc. 19

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. 3
Progressive Reeltone Corp. 28
*Projection Optics Co. 34

RCA Manufacturing Co., Inc. Fourth Cover
Robin, Inc., J. E. 24
Royal Metal Mfg. Co. 41

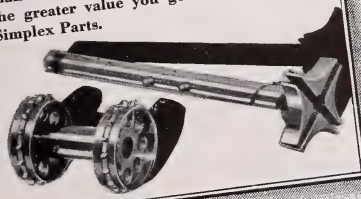
S. O. S. Corp. 23
Sonolux Co., The 24
Strong Electric Corp., The 37

Taylor Mfg. Co. 30
Trimm Radio Mfg. Co. 29

U. S. Air Conditioning Corp. 27
U. S. Gypsum Co. 15
Union Carbide & Carbon Co. 4

Wagner Sign Service Co. 27
Weber Machine Corp. 38
Wolk, Edw. H. 34
Wolverine Blower Works 24
Worthington Pump & Machinery Corp., Carbondale Division 21

Smiles of Satisfaction MEAN DOLLARS TO YOU!



ONLY GENUINE SIMPLEX PARTS ASSURE PERFECT PROJECTION!

USE GENUINE Simplex PARTS EXCLUSIVELY

5 TO 6 TIMES MORE Safe SERVICE

Genuine Simplex Hardened and Ground Parts give 5 to 6 times more safe service than ordinary parts. This is an example of the greater value you get from Genuine Simplex Parts.

PLEASED PATRONS keep the coinometers clicking. And in these days of increasingly high standards and keen competition only the finest projection will KEEP them pleased.

You can't afford to impair the original fine projection qualities of your Simplex Projectors by using imitation parts—for, IMITATION PARTS GIVE IMITATION RESULTS.

Insist on Genuine Simplex Parts when you have your projectors repaired. Then—and only then—will you get parts which possess the extreme accuracy and wear resistance which are absolutely essential for perfect projection.

Genuine Simplex Parts are now sold at 36% off list. Their cost is so small that you can't afford to take a chance with imitations.

INTERNATIONAL PROJECTOR CORP., 88-96 Gold St., New York, N.Y.

DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY

AT WARNER BROS. HOLLYWOOD THEATRE ON NEW YORK'S GREAT WHITE WAY

THE MAGIC VOICE OF THE SCREEN

PLEASES THOUSANDS EVERY DAY!

MAGIC VOICE OF THE SCREEN OFFERS 10 PROOFS OF SUPERIORITY!

ROTARY STABILIZER...CELLULAR SPEAKERS...LOW COST MAINTENANCE, LIBERAL SERVICE...SIMPLE OPERATION..ECONOMICAL OPERATION..PUSH-PULL ADAPTABILITY...HIGH FIDELITY REPRODUCTION...SIMPLE INSTALLATION...ACCESSIBILITY...SOLE OWNERSHIP.

PUT BROADWAY'S FAVORITE SOUND IN YOUR THEATRE at Low Cost!

No matter how big or small it is—there's RCA equipment to suit it—at a price to suit you!

OVER half the theatres on New York's Great White Way are RCA Photophone equipped! Every day, more and more houses all over the land are joining the swing to this superior sound apparatus. Five big movie companies are using Photophone for recording.

The trend today is RCA because RCA Photophone's Magic Voice of the Screen means better sound. And better sound means better box office.

Your theatre can offer patrons the Magic Voice of the Screen—the very same sound that New Yorkers enjoy at Warner's Hollywood Theatre! And at low cost! For Photophone equipment is available to theatres of every size, at prices to suit your own requirements. Cash in on RCA's sound experience—win more patrons with the Magic Voice of the Screen. It's a "sound" investment!

RCA Photophone

THE MAGIC VOICE OF THE SCREEN

RCA MANUFACTURING CO., INC., CAMDEN, N. J. • A SERVICE OF RADIO CORPORATION OF AMERICA

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Film Broadcasts

MGM Will Produce Shows For Sponsors; Begin Nov. 4

Admission Prices

Movement Toward Increases Gaining Speed in Circuits

Music in Films

Translated to Human Terms In New Stokowsky Picture

Television

On British Theatre Program; U. S. Stations Making Plans

Trade Practices

Appeal Against Picketing by Exhibitors Up October 4th

Stage "Revival"

40 Film Theatres Opening Doors to Musical Comedies

Taxation

Broadcasters Facing New Federal Tax Next Session

Unions

IATSE in Hollywood Pushes Plea for "One Big Union"

VOL. 128, NO. 12 In Two Sections—Section One SEPTEMBER 18, 1937

WHAT ARE THE FACTS ABOUT THE FILM INDUSTRY TODAY?

THERE ARE so many claims and counter-claims in the trade press that some exhibitors far removed from sources of verification must indeed be confused.

THE PURPOSE of this advertisement is not so much to sell contracts for 1937-38 product (since the majority of M-G-M exhibitors have already renewed) . . .

THE REASON for this ad is simply to make you happy that you have bought M-G-M again for the new season.

ONE HIT—or even two or three—do not make a dependable source of picture supply for a long twelve months! The element of chance gives practically every company big and small a certain average of success but nowadays that average is not enough.

ONLY M-G-M by virtue of its resources in stars, studio, writers, directors and personnel is geared for the continuous delivery of important, big-size and big-budget, star-blessed attractions.

WE PROVED during this past summer that we could keep up M-G-M hit-delivery even at a time of the year which has always been considered an off-season.

THERE IS NO such thing as an off-season to the public. They wanted entertainment during July and August and we gave them "Day at the Races," "Captains Courageous," "Saratoga," "Good Earth," "Broadway Melody" to mention just a few. What a remarkable line-up! Millions of dollars of screen diversion which would really make a commendable full year's showing for any company . . . but it was just the summer group from M-G-M!

WHAT FOLLOWS in the Fall is really unbelievable in the sense that never before, not even by M-G-M, has there been maintained such a tempo of big-time hit-production.

SO much so that there is wisdom in an observation often made by the trade press that "M-G-M is an industry by itself."

CROWDING into September and October are such attractions as: "Big City" starring Luise Rainer, Spencer Tracy (powerfully human, humorous and dramatic); . . . a stirring production of "Madame X" with Gladys George; . . . the best Joan Crawford picture in years "The Bride Wore Red" with Franchot Tone, Robert Young; . . . a history-making comedy by the "Thin Man" stars—William Powell, Myrna Loy in "Double Wedding". . . and "Conquest" the costliest production in M-G-M history starring Greta Garbo with Charles Boyer, a truly remarkable entertainment;..."Live, Love and Learn" with Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell . . . and the popular-price release of the Road-Show Jeanette MacDonald in "The Firefly". . .

THAT'S just a brief survey of what comes from the mighty studios of M-G-M up to the beginning of November, barely two months of the season 1937-38!

IT'S TRUE Leo's roaring louder than ever—and pridefully!

In OCTOBER

PAUL MUNI
THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA

(Gale Sondergaard • Joseph Schildkraut • Gloria Holden • Donald Crisp • Erin O'Brien-Moore • Henry O'Neill • Morris Carnovsky • Louis Calhern)

ERROL FLYNN
THE PERFECT SPECIMEN

(JOAN BLONDELL • Hugh Herbert • Edward Everett Horton • Dick Foran • Beverly Roberts May Robson • Allen Jenkins)

BRIAN AHERNE
OLIVIA de HAVILLAND
THE GREAT GARRICK

(Edward Everett Horton • Melville Cooper • Lionel Atwill • Henry O'Neill • Luis Alberni Lana Turner • Marie Wilson)

THEY WON'T FORGET

(Claude Rains • Gloria Dickson • Edward Norris Otto Kruger • Allyn Joslyn • Lana Turner)

A Read Rel

WARNERS ARE 'WAY A
. . . WARNERS

REMEMBER SEPTEMBER! Kay Francis in Confession Donald Crisp, Mary Maguire) • Dick Powell and Fred Wa (Ted Healy, Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane, Wa Bubbles) • Bette Davis and Henry Fonda in That Louise, Donald Crisp) • Back In Circulation Pat O'Br ll

y for ease

HEAD
WILL STAY AHEAD!

Ian Hunter, Jane Bryan, Basil Rathbone,
ing and His Pennsylvanians in Varsity Show ter Catlett, Johnnie Davis, Buck and Certain Woman (Ian Hunter, Anita en, Joan Blondell and Margaret Lindsay)

In NOVEMBER

LESLIE HOWARD
BETTE DAVIS
OLIVIA de HAVILLAND
IT'S LOVE I'M AFTER
(Patric Knowles • Eric Blore
George Barbier)

SUBMARINE D-1
(PAT O'BRIEN • GEORGE BRENT • WAYNE MORRIS • Frank McHugh Doris Weston)

TORCHY BLANE • THE ADVENTUROUS BLONDE
(GLENDA FARRELL • BARTON MacLANE
Anne Nagel • Tom Kennedy
Natalie Moorhead)

BORIS KARLOFF
WEST OF SHANGHAI
(Beverly Roberts • Ricardo Cortez)

"THIN ICE" SETS NEW 20TH HOLDOVER MARK!

already

RECORD FIRST-RUN CROWDS FORCE ~~41~~ 46 THEATRES TO DOUBLE USUAL PLAYING TIME!

During its first week of national release alone... ~~25~~ 30 houses hold over "Thin Ice" for 2nd week... while 16 theatres extend normal 4-day runs to a full week! A new high even for your most consistent maker of holdover attractions!

FULL WEEK HOLDOVERS

(at press time)

NEW YORK
INDIANAPOLIS
RICHMOND (2)
SAN FRANCISCO
LOUISVILLE
WASHINGTON
PHILADELPHIA
BALTIMORE
LOS ANGELES
HOLLYWOOD
BOSTON
KANSAS CITY
ST. LOUIS
PROVIDENCE
MIAMI
DENVER
PITTSBURGH
LAWRENCE
WORCESTER
LONG BEACH (Cal.)
SAN DIEGO
ATLANTIC CITY
AKRON UTICA

5 more just came in!

Sweet it marvelous how "Ice" is topping great hits with greater ones!

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 128, No. 12 — September 18, 1937

ADVERTISING CODE

IT is not recorded who brought up the subject, but anyway an "international code of advertising ethics" has been approved by the International Chamber of Commerce. The document was prepared by a committee representing England, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Poland and the United States. This seems to be the only thing that these assorted powers have agreed upon recently. The code, as recorded by "Printers' Ink," seems to boil down to a suggestion that advertising should be moderately honest and for honest purposes and not make itself ridiculous any more than necessary.

Unfortunately it does seem that in the present state of pseudo civilization the arts and industries appear called upon every once in a while to proclaim a decent intent—a process which may have reminder value to the institution concerned but which otherwise tends to appear to some observers as self-indictment and confession.

EXAMINATION of the advertising pages of the publications which pile up in hectic disarray on the editor's desk brings a conviction that here for once America has indeed standards of which to be proud.

Meanwhile, the editor of Motion Picture Herald regards with a special interest and approval section IV, article 4 of the international advertising code, which says:

"The purchaser of advertising space in any publication is entitled to know the number, general character, and distribution of the persons likely to be reached by his advertisement. Any misrepresentation as to these matters is injurious to the advertiser, unfair to competitors, and damaging to advertising as a whole."

Those facts pertaining to Motion Picture Herald—number, general character and distribution of the persons likely to be reached—as established by an external audit and continuous periodical examinations of the records, are constantly available, presenting a consistent performance without parallel or approach in this industry and most rarely to be discovered in the journalism of any industry.

Of this issue of Motion Picture Herald 17,200 copies are printed to serve a net paid circulation of 16,238 of whom 12,708 are in the exhibition branch.

△ △ △

AGENTS of TROUBLE

ABUNDANT and increasing are the evidences that much of the vehement advocacy of social and economic and political change, not to say revolution, has its origin among those who see their main chance for a ride on a wave of trouble, or who would have things kicked to pieces so that they can get some of the pieces. In pressures, real or attempted, on the motion picture institution, this becomes peculiarly manifest.

Touching on these phenomena in his remarks before the Williamstown forum the other day, in a previously unreported portion of his discussion, Mr. Martin Quigley observed:

"In the prevalent crop of political, social and economic messiahs there are those who bitterly condemn the romantic and sentimental in motion pictures. As "the opium of religion" is condemned, so also is the opium of entertainment. These propagandists resent the happiness and contentment which the screen brings to the vast millions which are its audience. They want only realism, the more stark and shocking the better. Discontent is the necessary pre-requisite, in their philosophy, to their long-range objective of revolution. Their policy, though seldom acknowledged, is not difficult to perceive.

"The amusement industry, however, has no quarrel with them that is not of their own making. It does not seek to oppose or hinder their ambitions. It simply says that its use of the motion picture medium for entertainment only is a public trust and that it shall not be perverted to the service of their ambitions."

INTERESTING and unintended contribution arrived the next Sunday in the dramatic section of the New York Times in a piece by Mrs. Hallie Flanagan, director of the Federal Theatre Project, Russophile and administrator of the New Deal propaganda on the stage. In the course of her discussion of "ardent exploration of the American scene," as exemplified for instance by her theatre's attack on the judiciary in "Injunction Granted," she steps forth with: "There is an obligation upon us, since we are playing before audiences many of whom will gain their first conceptions of plays acted on a stage, to show a many sided theatre, including not only serious plays but straight entertainment. . . ."

It is not so very long ago that Moscow also announced that there would be some address at entertainment in the theatre.

Both announcements are sensational—"straight entertainment"—for a departure!

JUST incidentally, there was once upon a time an impression that the Federal Theatre project was to make work for unemployed actors and craftsmen of the theatre. In her "Prologue to a Season" we find no discussion of that from Mrs. Flanagan, no report on attainment on anything save "messages" in thin guise of entertainment. And while she speaks of "audiences many of whom will gain from us their first conception of plays acted on a stage" she has nothing to say of how many of her playwrights and players were also getting the first conception of the footlights and audiences. There has been no report on the process by which under the guise of made-work for the people of the stage their competition has been increased by the enlistment of novices alien to the sector of alleged relief.

Only by reason of a complex technology and a closely integrated commercial structure has the motion picture so far escaped like propagandist invasion. And plans for that are in the making.

△ △ △

GADGETRY item: New Jersey fruit growers have acquired a machine to take the fuzz off peaches. Anyone who won't eat a peach with the fuzz on is a coward.

This Week

Gangplank News

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is not financing Alexander Korda in his projected purchase, with Samuel Goldwyn, of United Artists shares held by Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks and Charlie Chaplin, Joseph M. Schenck told reporters on the crowded French Line pier in New York when he debarked from the Normandie after a trip to Europe. His denial was confirmed by Dr. A. H. Giannini, chairman of the UA board and president, who was a fellow passenger on the ship. Dr. Giannini added there was nothing new on the Goldwyn-Korda purchase. Mr. Schenck, more expansive, said his trip had been nice, that Twentieth Century-Fox would resume negotiations for the purchase of the Chase National Bank stock interest in the company, that the contemplated British quota could be improved a bit and that, having once made a deal with Isidore Ostrer which was not consummated, he would not enter into further negotiations with that gentleman.

MGM on the Air

Considered a unique development in the sometimes strained but always close relations between radio and the screen is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's plan for the production, by one of its contract producers and with its talent roster and studio material for cast and script, of a radio show for General Foods Corporation, at an estimated cost to the sponsor of $2,000,000. Recurring rumors of such a plan, current for the last year, have mentioned various sponsors and reasons for delay and have been a not inconsiderable factor in exhibitor protests against the general use of film stars and material in broadcasting.

Details of the project and a history of the events which have surrounded its development are in the story which appears on page 13.

Uncensored

An uncensored print of the picture, "Heart of Spain," was shown at the Detroit Art Institute although police at first ruled the film could not be exhibited unless deletions were made. Police Commissioner Heinrich Pickert and his film censor, Sergeant Charles W. Snyder, had objected to certain references in the picture to Hitler and Mussolini. The Michigan chapter of the Medical Bureau to Aid Spanish Democracy, sponsor of the showing, sought an injunction against police and an hour before a hearing was to be held on the petition, police withdrew their objections.

Divorcement Aid

Governor William A. Langer, of North Dakota, has invited Abram F. Myers, Allied States counsel, to join his legal staff in defense of the state divorcement law, now under attack by Paramount. The divorcement act prohibits any producer or distributor from owning any theatre in the state. Paramount is seeking to enjoin state officials from enforcement of the law.

Release Chart	Page 95
Editorial	7
In the Cutting Room	Page 48
In British Studios	Page 71
Deaths of a Week	Page 68
In the Courts	Page 68
The Hollywood Scene	Page 59
Technological	Page 67
This Week in Pictures	Page 10
Showmen's Reviews	Page 42
In the Newsreels	Page 105
Managers' Round Table	Page 79
Short Subjects on Broadway	Page 32
Theatre Receipts	Page 74
J. C. Jenkins' Colyum	Page 105
What the Picture Did for Me	Page 93

Hollywood Invasion

British independent producers are uniting in opposition to the Government proposal for a new Films Act on the ground that closer Government control of the industry than that suggested is necessary to prevent an invasion of the British studio field by Hollywood stars, directors and technicians and the passing of production control to American hands.

Bruce Allan writes from London on this and other pertinent industry news on page 65.

Mayer Honored

Louis B. Mayer, executive vice-president of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, has been made an officer of the French Legion of Honor. He was presented with the award at President Lebrun's residence at Rambouillet and later was guest of honor at a dinner presided over by the minister of commerce. Mr. Mayer plans to return to New York on board the Normandie, sailing from France September 22nd.

Paramount Record

Paramount Week, annual weekly sales drive, closed Saturday with the company obtaining $1,000,000 in rentals, surpassing the previous record week in 1930.

The sales campaign in Australia and New Zealand was also the biggest since 1930, according to reports cabled to John W. Hicks, foreign sales manager.

$3,000,000 for Music

Representatives of the Independent Radio Network Affiliates, meeting in New York, adopted a plan for submission to the American Federation of Musicians under which $1,500,000 a year would be spent by 258 stations for staff musicians in addition to the $1,500,000 present yearly expenditure. A three year standard form of contract would bind the agreement which the AFM demanded to insure employment, with a strike as the alternative.

Contractual details are explained on page 32.

Admissions Up

Following the general swing toward higher admission prices, Fox Intermountain circuit this week put five cent increases into effect in 50 houses. Raises also were installed in theatres located in Connecticut, Kansas, Ohio, Colorado and Minnesota.

Admission prices are discussed in a story on page 31.

Action Not Strike

The Screen Actors Guild will not call a strike against eastern producers who do not sign closed shop contracts but Guild members employed in the studios involved will be instructed to "stop working." Mrs. Florence Marston, eastern head of the guild, differentiated between the two courses of action by explaining that she "hopes to avoid a strike." It has been decided, tentatively, that the studios must sign the contracts by Monday or face the Guild action. Mrs. Marston explained the course of action to be followed by pointing out that workers who do not stop working, if and when the order is given, will be liable to suspension.

The guild's stand is explained on page 53.

"Snow White" Cost

Cost of the new Walt Disney feature length cartoon, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," has exceeded $1,100,000 to date, Roy Disney, business manager of the Disney studios, said Wednesday in New York, where he is spending a month on vacation and in conferences with RKO-Radio.

A second cartoon feature, "Bambi," will follow "Snow White," which is to be completed in December.

Editorial Praise

Martin Quigley, editor in chief of Quigley Publications, addressing the Williamstown Institute of Human Relations on August 31st advanced and explained the motion picture industry's thesis that its sole responsibility is to the art of entertainment and that it is and must remain free of any entanglements with organizations and groups which would have it dedicate itself to the advancement of myriad special interests. His address received wide attention in the press of the land and occasioned treatment by editorial writers unanimous in praise of the thesis and its presentation.

A collection of such editorial comment is presented on page 16.

CBS Television

The Columbia Broadcasting System will construct this fall a new experimental television studio in the Grand Central Terminal Building, New York. The design has already been completed for what will be the largest television studio in this country. Gilbert Seldes, noted critic and newspaperman, has been appointed to head the new CBS television experiment.

Recent highlights in the television field will be found in a story on page 56.

Shaw Again

The public wants "flats, cinemas and garages" and is unwilling to give a "brass farthing" for a national theatre, George Bernard Shaw, said this week in a letter to the London Times. The playwright's comment was reminiscent of the Shavian outburst of last winter when in an exclusive interview published in the 1937 edition of "Fame, the Box Office Check-Up," he characterized adaptors as "office boys" and "bell boys." Mr. Shaw advocated a state subsidy for the oft-discussed national theatre of the stage.

Mr. Shaw's comment is quoted in a story on page 54.

Paralysis Checked

Exhibitors, suffering heavy losses in grosses because of fear of infantile paralysis, adopted a more optimistic viewpoint this week when health officials generally predicted a steady decline in the number of cases. A ban on the admission of children to Chicago theatres has cost theatre owners an estimated 50,000 admissions. Despite the ban, though, Bobby Breen, child actor kept a personal appearance engagement in the city.

Reports on the disease from various sections of the country are contained in an article on page 32.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Rovelstad, Managing Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, 366 Adelaide Street West, Toronto 2, Ontario, J. A. Cowan, representative. London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W I, Bruce Allan, cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 29, Rue Marsoulan, Paris 12, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-12 Paris; Rome Bureau, via Lovanio I, Rome, Italy, Vittorio Malpassuti, representative, Italcable, Malpassuti, Roine; Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague I, Czechoslovakia, Harry Knopf, representative; Budapest Bureau, 3, Kaplar-u, Budapest, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Shanghai Bureau, 142 Museum Road, Shanghai, China, J. P. Koehler, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, H. Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, K. G. Gidwaney, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, 87 Waalstraat, Amsterdam Z., Holland, Philip de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna VII, Hans Lorant, representative; Chile Bureau, Calle Estado 260, Oficina 306 Santiago de Chile, A. Weissmann, representative; Copenhagen Bureau, Vesterbrogade 20, Copenhagen V, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1937 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Dia, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

No More Tramp

Charles Chaplin, whose screen career as a tramp with baggy pants, enormous shoes and a small mustache, dates back to 1913, is planning to appear in another picture as an entirely different character. Mr. Chaplin made the announcement himself and said he would, for the first time, have a talking part in the film. "I cannot say how soon the story will be ready—a year perhaps," Mr. Chaplin said. The nature of the new character and the story are being kept secret. Miss Paulette Goddard, Mr. Chaplin said, will appear with him in the picture.

Plays, Concerts

Advocates of vaudeville were encouraged by the announcement from National Theatres that it will open from 40 to 50 of its houses to plays, musical comedies and concerts. Aubrey Schenck, who will head the company's new department, predicted "there'll be a revival of legitimate shows." Bookings, under National Theatres' new policy, will be chiefly one night stands.

Further details of the plan are included in a story on page 61.

Sees Exhibitor Aid

Theo. H. Fligelstone, president of the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association, London, expressed the belief this week that the proposed quota act of the British government will be of benefit to the American exhibitor. Mr. Fligelstone calculates that with production of quality pictures in England assured, theatres here will have a wider selection of American product than previously. He made his remarks in an interview prior to his return to England after a five-week visit to this country.

See page 61.

Appeal, Suit, Inquiry

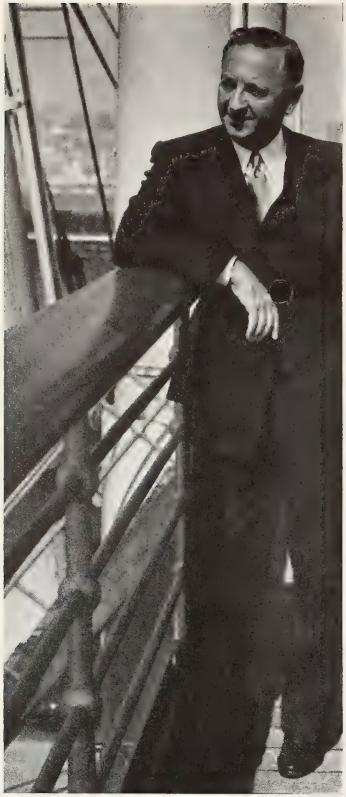
Paramount filed an appeal from a Philadelphia federal court dismissal of its application for a permanent injuncton against demonstrations by exhibitors who are agitating a "buyers' strike." Preliminaries leading up to the Government's anti-trust action against the Interstate circuit in Dallas and eight distributors were completed and a Department of Justice official said, "There will be a showdown on charges of Independent exhibitors that Fox West Coast and major companies are violating the Clayton and Sherman anti-trust laws." An investigation of major proportions was indicated.

Anti-trust laws, their invocation and application are the theme on page 30.

To the multiplying signs that good times are at hand can be added the increasing gate recorded for successive Hollywood premieres. Business is so good that kibitzing at the theatre entrance has become an art all its own. Treated by Los Angeles newspapers as spectacular in a degree regarded as spectacular even in spectacular Hollywood was the opening of Warner Brothers' "The Life of Emile Zola" at the Carthay Circle. Jack L. Warner is pictured above broadcasting his remarks over a coast to coast network and below is a view of the crowded bleachers facing the theatre entrance.

This Week in Pictures

CLEAR-EYED and clear-voiced Deanna Durbin, 14-year-old Canadian girl who has become one of Universal's greatest assets, proudly wore her first evening ensemble to the premiere of her newest picture, "100 Men and a Girl." She is shown paying her respects to the radio audience.



At the sixth annual convention of the Fox Midwest Theatres in Kansas City 125 delegates, representing 110 theatres, discussed admission increases, reported favorable public reaction to those already consummated, talked of theatre operation and economy in general. At the table in the foreground are, left to right, Lon Cox, film buyer for the circuit; E. C. Rhoden, president and general manager; H. E. Jameyson, district manager, and Howard White.

Hollywood, instead of Niagara Falls is, naturally enough, the honeymoon mecca of exhibitors and thence Gail Egan, Calgary, Canada, theatre owner, took his bride. On the Paramount lot Benny Baker was not averse to giving advice.

Howard W. McCoy of Saenger Theatres, New Orleans, and Mrs. McCoy, in Hollywood for the first time in five years, visited Ben Blue on a Paramount studio set where Mr. Blue is appearing with Eleanore Whitney and Johnny Downs in "Thrill of a Lifetime."

DAVE LEWIS, recently appointed manager for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in Argentina, was welcomed by the press at the Continental Hotel, Buenos Aires, the day of his arrival. Mr. Lewis and Stuart Dunlap, South American manager for MGM, are standing fourth and fifth from the left.

Sol Lesser, president of Principal Productions, visited Hawaii's blue washed shores for a vacation and to view the locale of a forthcoming Bobby Breen picture, "Stowaways in Paradise." From his pleased expression on his arrival in Los Angeles, he accomplished both objectives.

J. Ray Cook and John W. Price of the Missouri theatre, Maryville, Mo., were completely surrounded by the Yacht Club Boys, who helped them fulfil the Missouri tradition of being shown, when they visited the Paramount lot during a Hollywood tour. In the mob scene are, left to right, Mr. Cook, Billy Mann and Jimmie Kern of the Boys; George Archainbaud, their director; George Kelly, also of the Boys; Mr. Price and Charlie Adler, fourth member of the comedy quartet.

MGM SELLS RADIO SHOW USING STUDIO MATERIAL

Producing Company Contracts for General Foods Program to Start November 4th Over NBC; To Cost $2,000,000

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer radio program, using studio talent, facilities and material and sponsored by General Foods Corporation, will go on the air November 4th over a National Broadcasting Company network, it was reported this week after months of deliberation, rumors and delay. The program will mark an important and unique step in relations between radio and the motion picture industry over which speculation and controversy have waxed and waged in increasing degree since broadcasting became an important factor in the entertainment field.

Although exchange of talent between the two mediums has been free and frequent with the film industry in the position of an all important reservoir for personalities and material, only one company, Paramount, has gone on the air with a supervised regular program from its studios and over a national network.

The almost daily appearance of Hollywood stars on programs emanating from Hollywood and the frequent use of screen material in broadcasts sponsored by commercial advertisers has been marked by continuing protests from exhibitors, individually and in organization, although theatre men themselves have frequently used broadcast tie-ins during show hours.

The new program will be under the direct and sole control of the MGM studio and will emanate from the NBC broadcasting studios in Hollywood. It is tentatively scheduled for Thursday nights. Under the direction of Billy Bacher, who produced the original Maxwell House Showboat for General Foods and more recently the Campbell Soup Hollywood Hotel program, it will be constructed as a variety show with the entire roster of MGM talent on tap. Pictures will be previewed but not as a regular feature, high ranking individual stars will appear for interviews or bits and music and comedy will be drawn freely from MGM pictures, present and future.

Mr. Bacher was placed in charge of all radio activities of the studio when he was signed as a producer recently. He was in New York last week to arrange details of the deal with Benton and Bowles, advertising agency for General Foods, and has returned to Hollywood to prepare for the advent of the series.

The program will cost General Foods approximately $2,000,000 a year for talent and radio time, it is understood, but it is not known how much of this will be paid to MGM for producing the show.

A radio show sponsored by MGM has been in the rumor stage for almost a year. Last fall it was reported such a program would be sponsored by the Ford Motor Company. Later a report that negotiations were under way with the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Company was followed by a story that the project had been dropped because of MGM's insistence that the studio have full control and supervision of the content of the program.

Recurrence of the rumor last March brought a wave of exhibitor protest which, coupled with the already strong feeling among exhibitor groups that the appearance of Hollywood personalities as guest stars and the frequent Hollywood programs of various types were in direct competition with theatres, culminated in the passage of a formal resolution of opposition at the Motion Picture Theatre Owners convention in Miami.

The MPTOA protest was followed by a telegram sent by P. J. Wood, secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, to Nicholas M. Schenck, MGM president, which read, "Have heard indirectly that you contemplate permitting stars to broadcast regularly. If such is your intention on behalf of members of the ITO of Ohio I vigorously protest. . . . You, like us, are in the theatre business. Let's stay there."

In the MPTOA resolution of protest it was set forth that the appearance of stars on radio programs reduced the public interest in them and that many such programs, because of their timing, were in direct competition with theatres. The protest concluded:

"Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America believes that those distributors who encourage star appearances, particularly in skits from current or future material, are guilty of an appalling error of judgment. . . and that the consensus of those assembled at the convention is that this practice must cease."

Regulation Attempted

A committee was appointed by Edward Kuykendall, MPTOA president, to confer with radio officials and with film producers on the subject. After several meetings at which representatives of both industries promised to cooperate the committee's study concluded on the optimistic note that action was awaited on assurances by producers and distributors that efforts would be made to regulate the broadcasts so as to minimize competition with theatres.

Before the committee met nearly all studios had appointed executives to supervise the radio appearances of their stars and the use of their story material, and several, among them MGM, adopted a policy of refusing to sanction the broadcasting of any shows in which previews would reveal the plot and main story situations of current films. Almost universal, however, has been the practice of employing special tie-ups for exploitation of important pictures and publicity departments freely distribute scripts adapted for radio use and negotiate with various program sponsors for exploitation. All these policies are in increasing use.

As a result of a survey published in Motion Picture Herald January 23, 1937, which established Hollywood as the most important source of radio talent, it was estimated that radio networks were paying approximately $3,000,000 a year for motion picture talent in direct arrangements between the advertisers and stars with producers and exhibitors as witnesses gaining a slight advantage through publicity for pictures. These arrangements included the appearance of virtually every name star in Hollywood as guests on hundreds of daily and weekly hours and the presentation of at least three major programs built entirely around motion picture talent and material.

Paramount Show Short-Lived

Last February Paramount announced plans for a weekly program to emanate from its studios, the first attempt by a producer to conduct such an hour for a national network. "Paramount on Parade," announced as a sustaining program, went on the air Sunday, March 28th. The broadcasts were planned to obtain the maximum advertising value for the studio and at the same time to overcome two objections on which opposition to the use of radio for film exploitation was based, that the time of most such broadcasts conflicted with the best hours for theatre attendance and that synopsized versions of current pictures which revealed the entire plot killed interest in the film.

The program which went on the air at 12 noon on Sundays featured visits to studio stages on which various pictures were being filmed with Lynne Overman and Mary Carlisle acting as guides for the microphone. Boris Morros, head of the studio music department, produced the shows under the supervision of C. J. Dunphy, publicity and advertising head.

At the end of April the company announced the programs would be discontinued because of the change from Eastern Standard to Daylight Saving Time and because of the advent of warm weather. Broadcast in the east at noon, the programs originated in Hollywood at 9 A.M. and under Daylight Time the actors would have had to face the microphone at 8 A.M. No announcement of a resumption of the shows has been made.

A similar plan for broadcasting from studio stages, announced for sponsorship by General Mills, underwent several postponements and was never brought to fruition. Under it 15 minute broadcasts were to be made daily from the stages of nine major studios, using a different set each day. The program, definitely scheduled to start several times, was finally abandoned. In its place General Mills now uses a part of its daily NBC hour for a "Hollywood in Person" program on which guest stars and a screen commentator are featured.

REOPENING SHANGHAI HOUSE OVER PROTEST

The Shanghai municipal government has permitted one of Shanghai's largest theatres to reopen, despite complaints of danger to 2,500 persons in the event of bombardment.

The city is plastered with warnings against congregating in large numbers.

The title of the first attraction booked for the reopening was "Easy Living".

ACTS TO REDUCE BABY ATTENDANCE

In an effort to discourage infant attendance, the Rialto, second-run theatre at Hamilton, Ohio, requires a child's ticket for every child, regardless of age.

"BARRIER" SHERMAN'S

A HERALD PICTORIAL PREVIEW

by GUS McCARTHY
in Hollywood

IT HAS been Harry Sherman's seven-year dream that one day he would cause Rex Beach's stirring story of melodrama and romance in the Alaskan northland during the gold rush days to live again on the screen. Of recent years, although concentrating on the production of the "Hopalong Cassidy" series, he never has forgotten his ambition.

Now his ambition has been practically accomplished. A new "The Barrier" is coming to realism. It has reached that stage in ways that are not ordinary in Hollywood. Usually the greatest forces influencing the efforts of personalities engaged in making a picture, no matter what their function may be, are a pecuniary interest in the size of the pay check and a selfish consideration of egotistic vanity. No such disposition motivated James Ellison, Jean Parker, Leo Carillo, Robert Barrat, Otto Kruger, Sarah Haden, Addison Richards and Andy Clyde, the important players, in this case. Neither did such thought creep into the minds of Bernard Schubert, who wrote the screen play, Harrison Jacobs and Mordaunt Shairp, who supplied additional dialogue, the photographer, George Barnes, or Lesley Selander, the director.

Instead, an inspiration, born of affection for a man, an esprit de corps and a determination that they would not let "Pop" Sherman down in his greatest undertaking, impelled them to give of their talents as few artists have ever given before. The force of such resolution presages a sterling motion picture property.

The theme of Mr. Beach's novel may be tersely summarized as a red blooded melodrama and a vivid, rugged love story. It is the story of a half-Indian girl, reared in the belief that she was white, taken from a brutal father, recovered by him again, but rescued by a courageous lover who weds her.

The film is a genuine outdoor picture, recorded against the scenic grandeur of Mount Baker National Park. It does not include a single process shot. The beauty of its scenery led Mr. Sherman to remark, "What Rockwell Kent has achieved in the field of art, George Barnes has done with his lens in 'The Barrier'." Yet scenic beauty is not being depended upon to bear the whole burden. Boisterous as is the story, it will offer to women a tender love story that runs the gamut of heart-tugging emotions. It is crowded with those incidents of thrill and action that send the red corpuscles racing through the veins of men. Always it blends rough physical action in plenty with the charm of romantic allure.

SEVEN YEAR AMBITION

Old-timers describe the fight sequences between Carrillo and Richards as "the greatest screen scrap since the memorable brawl in 'The Spoilers'." Other people may recall that Lionel Barrymore and Norman Kerry staged a sensational battle in MGM's 1926 verison of the story.

Harry Sherman has stinted in neither expense nor effort to make this seven-year dream come true. He has packed his venture with all the necessary ingredients in personnel, story and production values. He has crowded it with excitement and melodramatic wallop. He awaits its release, by Paramount, midway in November, with confidence.

THE PRESS ENDORSES "ENTERTAINMENT ONLY" the policy of the motion picture industry enunciated before the Williamstown forum by Martin Quigley

WHEN Martin Quigley, editor-in-chief and publisher of Motion Picture Herald and Motion Picture Daily, went before the Institute of Human Relations forum at Williamstown in Massachusetts a fortnight ago, it was to make a dispassionate statement of the neutrality of the motion picture industry in a world distraught with controversy, and of the dedication of this industry to the cause of tending strictly to its own business, which is entertainment.

However, it developed that the forum at Williamstown, with its great array of educators, publicists and propagandists, was itself a congress of controversialists and a focus of controversy. They were prepared to be neutral, objective, dispassionate about nothing. All of those forces which would make the motion picture their tool and the theatre screen their soapbox gave voice there vociferously.

In consequence of that vociferation the declaration by Mr. Quigley of the motion picture industry's policy of presenting the amusement seeking public with amusement, and that only, was given the emphasis and spotlight of contrast, resulting in a wide, spontaneous and approving attention from the public press. Excerpts from the expressions of newspapers in various sections are presented here.

Baltimore (Md.) Sun

September 2, 1937

Industry Within Rights

. . . It is certainly no longer debatable that the motion picture ranks with the church and the school as a conditioner of human behavior; and any earnest and intelligent effort to meet its problems deserves investigation. Certainly an outstanding contribution has been made by Martin Quigley . . . who told the institute: "There are those who damn the motion-picture industry for an alleged lack of social consciousness—for failure to give pictorial expression to the great political, social and economic issues of the day. These critics deny or ignore the deliberately expressed policy of the entertainment film, which, simply stated, is to entertain.

"They ignore or deny also," Mr. Quigley continued, "that the industry is upon thoroughly solid and proper grounds in centering upon this policy. The companies of the organized motion-picture industry are engaged in the business of providing entertainment. The executives of these firms do not envisage themselves as teachers, statesmen, churchmen or economists. They are showmen—or at least they seek to be . . ."

This is a sound position and one that gets too little attention. But the other side also was presented at the institute in the address of Fred Eastman . . .

"We want to see the production of pictures remotivated so we may have fewer and better films; pictures that interpret life, and so not simply escape from it; pictures that tell the truth about war and dictators and do not bow the knee to Hitler and Mussolini in order to have a sale in Germany and Italy."

Doubtless there is much truth in both these stands. They are combined intelligently in another paper, this time by Dr. Edgar Dale . . .

This point that the moving picture is an art that pays its own way is a good one to keep in mind, with all the talk about the movies not having a social consciousness, or not expressing an adult point of view. Mr. Quigley touches upon it when he says if there are others who would use the motion pictures to express their ideas their course is to get a camera. . . .

Meanwhile, the advantage of having pictures centered in the hands of men whose main idea is to dish up entertainment rather than to convey a message is not to be sneezed at. Entertainment which is good box office is not necessarily juvenile. As better pictures are produced, it is reasonable to expect the public to demand more of the same.

Hackensack (N. J.) Bergen Eve. Record

September 4, 1937

Movies

Motion pictures are made and exhibited for mass entertainment. Attempts to turn them to any other purpose should be sternly resisted both by the industry and by the millions of persons who patronize the films. The Institute of Human Relations at Williams College heard it urged that the cinema should be educational as well as entertaining. The motion picture as a medium of education has its place, but that place is not in the motion picture theatre.

Martin Quigley, publisher of the trade journal of the industry, put it succinctly when he said the only mandate which the motion picture industry has any right to assume it has received from the public is to produce entertainment films.

New Haven (Conn.) Journal-Courier-Times

September 2, 1937

In Defense of Entertainment

It was but natural that the verbal spanking administered the motion picture industry by assorted religious leaders at the Williamstown Institute . . . should provoke rather sharp defense . . . Demands were made for "educational" films—films propagandizing particular social and economic ideas . . . One would think that the present producers, whose pictures arouse such contempt, would be the last persons selected by these religious leaders to educate the world. Yet it is precisely the present producers who were called upon to assume the role of educators. Of such paradoxes is much of the modern so-called liberalism composed.

That the producers would definitely reject the suggestion was obvious from the start. They avoid controversial subjects precisely because they cannot afford to antagonize segments of the population. The appeal of their pictures must be as universal as possible . . . Martin Quigley . . . made the proper reply . . .

. . . The Williamstown critics make the mistake of confusing the entertainment film, which is merely one use of the medium, with the medium itself. They do not condemn publishing firms which specialize in popular novels for failure to print textbooks . . . Educators should make educational films. Religious groups should make religious films. Scientists should make scientific films. That they have not as yet done much in that direction is simply proof that they have failed to appreciate and make use of one of the finest mediums yet developed for instruction and inspiration.

Miami (Fla.) Herald

September 4, 1937

Film Propaganda

. . . There will be universal agreement with the statement, made by Martin Quigley, publisher of the "Motion Picture Herald," to the Institute of Human Relations at Williams College, which recognizes public resentment of propaganda.

The publisher told the institute that he opposed "any scheme which involves the theatre screen in propaganda of any character." This is sound common sense. Such a policy would keep the motion picture theatre in the medium for which it is supposedly operated.

The whole attitude of the public was neatly summarized by the publisher in the conclusion that "the only mandate which the motion picture industry has any right to assume that it has received from the public is to produce entertainment films."

That is eminently right. Motion picture patrons hope to buy entertainment when they purchase a ticket to a theatre. At times the entertainment may not be of the best. But that is the risk which must be taken with every theatre performance.

The public will quickly sense when it is being lured to a motion picture presentation under guise of entertainment to be subjected to propaganda.

If the motion picture industry permits itself to be beguiled into foisting propaganda through one subterfuge or the other or to further its own pecuniary interests, it will soon find the public's answer at the box office.

Its mandate from the public is indeed solely one to produce entertainment.

Dayton (Ohio) Herald

September 7, 1937

Must the Movies Educate

Among the many controversial subjects being discussed pro and con by the national conference of Jews and Christians, meeting at Williamstown, Mass., the question of whether moving pictures should be made more educational was fiercely debated. The consensus among the religious groups present was that film producers should produce more pictures of an educational nature, not only informational films but entertainment pictures in which the values portrayed were more in accord with life and less indicative of the Cinderella motif. Speakers complained that the movies do not truthfully reflect life, and that there were not enough pictures having a moral lesson.

The view was opposed vigorously by representatives of the industry, on the ground that producers do not consider themselves teachers, statesmen, churchmen or economists, but showmen. Experiments with educational films have not been encouraging, the conference members were told, and the suggestion was made that those who want the pictures to present a message should "get a camera and go to work."

WORCESTER (MASS.) TELEGRAM

September 2, 1937

HONORABLE BUSINESS OF ENTERTAINMENT

. . . Martin Quigley . . . said some highly pertinent things about those who criticize the screen for failure to put greater emphasis on educational, political, social and economic questions . . .

The producers and exhibitors are not under obligation to provide goody-goody films, to educate, to inform, or to uplift the audiences. Often a film, a genuinely popular film, will be wholly serious. It may deal with a vital problem. It may stimulate valuable discussion. But all of that would be largely coincidence rather than design, so far as Hollywood is concerned . . . It can be safely assumed that the thing most wanted by the great majority of movie patrons is genuine entertainment, diversion, amusement . . . It simply means that as a rule, people go to the movies to be entertained, and that the movie producers and exhibitors are engaged in the perfectly honorable business of providing entertainment.

Bridgeport (Conn.) Telegram

September 2, 1937

Hurrah for the Idea

Martin Quigley . . . said something which we are glad to second, at the Institute of Human Relations . . .

"The only mandate which the motion picture industry has any right to assume that it has received from the public is to produce entertaining films."

Hurrah for that idea and more of it . . .

It is all right to uplift the stage or screen provided one does not depress the audience at the same time and unfortunately that is what most of our propagandists do.

Elkhart (Ind.) Truth

September 4, 1937

Education Not Film Object

Patrons of the film—and who are not?—should be interested in a discussion about them the other day at the Institute of Human Relations being conducted at Williamstown, Mass.

Prominent men in the film industry rejected the role of educators and maintained their chief mission was to entertain.

Most others at the conference did not agree with them, for they felt greater emphasis should be placed on the educational possibilities of the movies.

It must be admitted at the outset that most people go to the picture shows to be entertained, and not to be instructed. They even want entertainment in the news reels which are supposed to be more educational than the comedies and the dramas. W. P. Montague, editor of the Paramount News, argued that the news reels were first of all entertainment.

Leaders of the film industry informed the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish groups represented at the conference that if any of them wanted to use films to propagate "deliberate ideas of religion, society, politics or economics" they were free to get their cameras and go to work, but so far as the industry was concerned, it would stick to entertainment. However, most of the large audience seemed to feel that motion pictures need educational guidance.

"Motion picture executives do not envision themselves as teachers, statesmen, churchmen or economists," said Martin Quigley, of the "Motion Picture Herald." "They are showmen; at least they seek to be." And Carl Milliken, secretary of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, said he desired to point out "that experiments with educational films so far have not been encouraging, because they have neglected the fact that children are also customers, and just like adults at the movies, they want to be entertained."

Augusta (Me.) Journal

September 2, 1937

Mission of Movies

At the Institute of Human Relations, now being held at Williamstown, Mass., a demand that more educational features be presented in the movies was answered by Martin Quigley, publisher of the "Motion Picture Herald," with the statement: "The only mandate which the motion picture industry has any right to assume that it has received from the public is to produce entertainment films." Had he qualified this by inserting "clean and wholesome" before entertainment he would have been exactly right . . .

So long as movie producers keep their productions clean they should be permitted to cater to the masses which they know so well how to do and as they please. They know what the great American public enjoys most and that enjoyment is full justification for them. Those who dispute this should have some educational films made and see how far they can get with them.

[Continued on following page]

[Continued from preceding page]

Detroit (Mich.) Free Press

September 2, 1937

Wise to Avoid Issues

Again there's agitation for the propaganda pictures. In fact, Martin Quigley . . . had to jump up at the Institute of Human Relations at Williams College in opposition to turning the movies into propaganda. It seems the folks down there thought that the movies should do some educating as well as entertaining . . .

What always puzzled us about propaganda pictures is "Whose propaganda is it going to be?" Just think about poor, old Hollywood if it went pacifist. Then all the little militarists would stay home and sulk. Of course, vice versa . . .

Hollywood has been doing its own crusading for years. It has made bums out of the gangsters and ripped all the glamor away from them. But, even at the time, Hollywood wasn't thinking of educating the public to look at the gangster as something with a sociological significance . . .

Saginaw (Mich.) News

September 7, 1937

Sympathy for the Producers

. . . at the Williamstown Institute . . . The attack upon the movies was carried on by several speakers who contended that the films are educational in some direction whether they are so intended or not . . . Hence, argued the educators, there should be some effort to make that picture a correct one.

To this representatives of the movie industry replied that they do not propose to have the role of educators thrust upon them. They are interested primarily in entertaining the people, not in promulating social theories . . .

One confesses a good deal of sympathy for the position of the producers in this argument . . .

The public has a right to demand that the movies stay within the accepted limits of common decency, but that they should make themselves propagandists for somebody's theories of social improvement is a different matter . . .

Raleigh (N. C.) News & Observer

September 6, 1937

The Fun's the Thing

In a sharp conflict of opinion with educators at the Institute of Ruman Relations . . . representatives of the motion picture industry definitely declined the proposal pressed by pedagogues and theologians that they assume the role of educators themselves . . . "Motion picture executives . . . are showmen; at least, they seek to be." Their purpose is only to entertain.

And long may that continue to be their purpose. Far more to be desired are entertaining educators than educational entertainers . . . The movies are far from perfect; so are the schools. But so far as possible let's keep the entertainment of the movies free from the solemn uplift of those who would use every form of human pleasure for the promotion or propagation of something or other besides straight fun.

Schenectady (N. Y.) Union Star

September 2, 1937

A Suitable Come-Back

Put on the spot by religious and educational leaders in the Institute of Human Relations . . . spokesmen for the motion picture industry contended that their business is to purvey entertainment; and that education and religion belong in other spheres.

In a sense, it was the turning of the worm, because motion picture producers have been the target of attack from parent-teacher associations, church bodies and social reformers so many times that it comes to mean, to them, that these people are trying to run their business. It seems to us an altogether suitable come-back . . .

People go to theaters to be entertained, not to be taught or preached at; but many a drama carries a moral, all the stronger because it is unuttered. Many a film is of high educational value; but the educational factor must be incidental to entertainment . . .

Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel

September 2, 1937

Studies and Surveys

The Correct Attitude

. . . the Institute of Human Relations has been debating quite heatedly the proper function of the motion picture. Several representatives of the industry have stoutly denied that the producers are under any obligations to propagate "deliberate ideas of religion, society, politics or economics." If there are groups "who seek to use this medium for a message . . . the obvious course for them is to get a camera and go to work." Motion picture executives "do not envision themselves as teachers, statesmen, churchmen or economists; they are showmen, at least they seek to be."

That would seem to be the correct attitude. Incidentally the screen has been a great educator. Motion picture audiences have hardly needed to travel to learn how other peoples live; what the latest mechanical inventions have effected. They have been brought in touch with literature of a type thousands would never have thought to associate with through the printed page . . . On the other hand, let the public once become convinced that the producers on the one hand or the theater managers on the other are attempting deliberately to "improve" their minds or to influence their religious or political convictions, and there will be an immediate falling off in attendance the country over . . .

Dutch Attendance In Further Slump

by PH. de SCHAAP
in Amsterdam

Dutch film attendance continues to decline, according to figures released here recently, further substantiating the unhealthy condition of Holland's motion picture industry in general. Attendance for the three-month period from April 1st to June 30th dropped to 2,195,787 as compared with 2,199,362 for the corresponding period in 1936.

▽

At a press demonstration of television held by the Phillips Manufactories recently, it was shown that while technically adequate, commercial television is still some distance off. It will be some time before the device is manufactured on a wide scale, with its present price far beyond the reach of the Dutch public. The cost is now between $500 and $750.

▽

The first Dutch East Indian newsreel, released some months ago, was suddenly withdrawn owing to the refusal of Dutch exhibitors to show the reel. The quality of the reel was said to be so low that it was not suitable for even Holland audiences. Manager Roem, of Profilti, the company introducing the reel in Holland, flew to India for reorganization of Algemeen Nederlanrsch-Indisch Filmsyndicaat, producers of the Dutch newsreel.

High Tobacco Market Cheers Dixie Theatres

With millions of dollars to be turned loose within the next few months in one of the highest tobacco markets in years, Southern theatres are preparing for record patronage.

Danville, Va., theatres are already feeling the spurt from the sums being paid farmers by early buyers.

Chicago Oriental Changes Policy

After operating for 10 years on a combined stage show - "B" picture policy, the Oriental, Balaban & Katz house in Chicago, has changed to a new policy of first-run "A" pictures, plus augmented stage shows. Admissions have been raised from 55 cents to 75 cents.

With "Stella Dallas" as the first attraction under the new program, $35,000 gross was indicated for the first week, twice the average of the theatre.

The changed policy leaves the State-Lake, partly owned by B & K, as the only theatre in Chicago with a stage show at the reduced price level.

General attendance has dropped 40 per per cent as a result of the infantile paralysis epidemic.

WHAT ARE THEY INTERESTED IN?

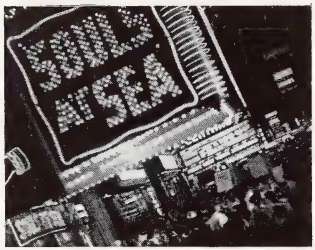
Grim Tragedy? Stark Realism?
Shakespeare? Mother Love?
Autobiography? Soil Conservation?

A THOUSAND TIMES NO!

They want Paramount Pictures!

LOOK →

They want



Typical line-up of patrons trying to get in to see "ARTISTS AND MODELS" at the Chicago Theatre, Chicago.

Paramount's

"ARTISTS AND MODELS"

as four weeks of smash business at the New York Paramount and Newark Paramount and 35 holdovers in 35 key cities and record-breaking engagements prove.

They want

Mob scene at world premiere of "SOULS AT SEA" at Globe Theatre, New York.

Paramount's

"SOULS AT SEA"

as six weeks of SRO business at the Globe Theatre, New York and record-breaking business in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Denver, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Boston, New Orleans and countless other key cities prove. All key engagements headed for holdovers.

They want

Record crowd at opening of "DOUBLE OR NOTHING" at New York Paramount Theatre.

Paramount's

"DOUBLE OR NOTHING"

as the smashed all-time attendance record at the New York Paramount (127,000 people) and the Newark Paramount proves.

... and more than these they want ➡

Paramount's

"HIGH, WIDE and HANDSOME"

New York, smash opening of "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME."

...and this is why ➡

They want—

"High, Wide and Handsome"

because from coast to coast they have read reviews like these:

NEW YORK—"Richly produced, spectacular, melodious. Moves surely into ranks of season's best. The best show in town."
—Frank Nugent, N. Y. Times

NEW YORK—" 'High, Wide and Handsome' real thriller." —N. Y. Daily News

NEW YORK—" 'High, Wide and Handsome' is show that is best described by its own title. Spectacular and exciting."
—Howard Barnes, N. Y. Herald-Tribune

NEW YORK—" 'High, Wide and Handsome' magnificent entertainment. A superb piece of picture telling."
—W. Boehnel, World-Telegram

PITTSBURGH—"A great story. Randolph Scott's best."
—Kasper Monahan, Pittsburgh Press

CHICAGO—"Marvelous entertainment. You'll love Irene Dunne."
—Maxine Smith, Chicago American

DALLAS—"Music, drama, suspense, excitement. What we all want in entertainment." —John Rosenfield, Dallas News

SAN FRANCISCO—"A grand film from start to finish."
—Jack Hobart, San Francisco Chronicle

COAST-TO-COAST—"'High, Wide and Handsome' is a gusher of entertainment."

—Warren Stokes, Radio Commentator

HOLLYWOOD—"Greater than 'The Plainsman'."

—Elizabeth Yeaman, Hollywood Citizen News

NATION-WIDE—"Music with a reason in a stirring, highly adventurous picture."

—Robin Coons, Associated Press

LOS ANGELES—"Zooming action, stirring drama, colorful music, in short, great entertainment."

—Los Angeles Illustrated News

NATION-WIDE—"A breath-taking epic."

—Sara Hamilton, Photoplay

NATION-WIDE—"Best picture of the month."

—Red Book Magazine

NATION-WIDE—"Entertainment spelled with a capital E."

—Erskine Johnson, Universal Service

TWENTY-SEVEN CITIES—"'High, Wide and Handsome' is two great pictures rolled into one."

—Clark Wales, Screen and Radio Weekly

NATION-WIDE—"Picture has magnificent sweep."

—Whitney Bolton, Literary Digest

COAST-TO-COAST—"The picture gushes superlative entertainment."

—George Fisher, Movie Commentator for Mutual Broadcasting

COAST-TO-COAST—"It's High, Wide and Handsome Entertainment."

—Dan DeLuce, Associated Press

...They want "High, Wide and Handsome" because from coast to coast they have heard comments like these:

"We are glad we saw the picture. Tom liked the action, the fights and Irene Dunne's singing. I liked the romance between Randy Scott and Irene Dunne and the lovely Kern-Hammerstein music," say Tom White, 88 Freeport Ave., Point Lookout, L. I. and Marion Semler, 3429—80th Street, Jackson Heights, L. I.

"A fine picture. Certainly deserves all the fine criticisms and comments I have heard about it. I am glad I saw it. It has the sweep of 'Cimarron' and some of the glamorous background of 'Show Boat'," says James Gallagher, 729—8th Avenue, New York City.

"Randolph Scott is just grand in this marvelous picture, and so is Miss Dunne," says Mrs. Robert Kent, Homer, Louisiana.

"Swell entertainment, Irene Dunne is gorgeous," says Kenneth K. Cole, 1922½ N. Hoover St., California.

"I think it is one of the best pictures I have seen in a long time. I wish there were more like it. Randolph Scott has the best part of his career and Irene Dunne was lovely and her voice charming," say Ray Thorne, 37 Gibson Ave., Great Kills, S.I. and Edna Blue, 50-05 43rd St., Woodside, L. I.

"It's easily one of the year s outstanding pictures, and more than worth anyone's time," says Larry Kelly, 100-15 — 210th Street. Queens Village, L. I.

"I think 'High, Wide and Handsome' was grand. You can talk about your Gables and Robert Taylors but give me Randolph Scott after seeing this picture. He gave me a big thrill," says Harriet Dillon, 2470 Tremont Ave., Bronx, N.Y.

"'High, Wide and Handsome' is strong and virile entertainment, a musical and dramatic triumph," says Charles Chambers, 8 W. 16th Street, New York.

"Everything in the picture is grand. I was particularly pleased with the performance of Randolph Scott and the lovely Kern-Hammerstein music," says Rita Ryan, 5927 Lisliz Avenue, Riverdale, N.Y.

"It was a great pleasure to be able to see as fine a picture as 'High, Wide and Handsome.' It is magnificent. Randolph Scott has his best part," says Esther E. Nobles, 1927 So. Hanna St., Fort Wayne, Indiana.

"Really topnotch entertainment! I recommend it highly! Music is superb — picture has great sweep," says Levon E. Horton, New York City.

"I haven't had such an enjoyable afternoon in the theatre in a long time. I came because I read the criticism in the New York Times. Mr. Nugent said it was the best show in town and I agree with him," says Edla Dale, 3321 — 85th St., Jackson Heights, L. I.

"I drove up from San Diego just to see 'High, Wide and Handsome' and it was more than worth the trip," says Frank W. Chambers, San Diego Hotel, San Diego, Cal.

"Boy, it is really a whale of a picture. It has more sweep and scope than any picture I have seen since 'Cimarron.' Those fights are the real thing. I thought Scott great and Irene Dunne never more beautiful," says Charles Roberts, 510 W. 110th Street, New York City.

They want "High, Wide and Handsome" for from coast to coast they have heard the Kern-Hammerstein score nightly on the air

GUY LOMBARDO This great orchestra from the Waldorf and on the famous Bond Bread Program has played the "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" music many times to millions of delighted fans.

RAY NOBLE has a tremendous listening audience on the Grapenuts Program who have heard Noble's marvelous arrangements of the "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" score.

WAYNE KING "The Waltz King" and one of the top orchestras on the air, on his Lady Esther Program has a huge listening audience. Wayne has gone to town with the great Kern-Hammerstein numbers from the "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" score.

CHESTERFIELD'S TWO GREAT ORCHESTRAS . . . ANDRE KOSTELANETZ and HAL KEMP have one of the biggest radio audiences today, and the "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" music has been their favorite score.

AL DONAHUE and his Rainbow Room band have done the "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" music in high, wide and handsome style for their millions of delighted listeners.

OZZIE NELSON and his No. 1 band have been the most enthusiastic of all "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" pluggers. "Can I Forget You?" has made a tremendous hit with Ozzie and the vast multitude of people for whom he plays.

TOMMY DORSEY and his great swing band on the Raleigh Program and from the Pennsylvania Hotel, New York and the Steel Pier in Atlantic City has sold his countless fans on "HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME" —10 Dorsey plugs in 8 weeks to millions of people.

700 RADIO PLUGS

by the leading orchestras and singers of the air

350 on "CAN I FORGET YOU?"

228 on "FOLKS WHO LIVE ON THE HILL"

Guy Lombardo (Waldorf—Bond Bread) . . . Tommy Dorsey (Raleigh—Pennsylvania Hotel, Steel Pier)...Wayne King (Lady Esther)...Ozzie Nelson (Astor Hotel)...Ray Noble (Grapenuts) Andre Kostelanetz (Chesterfield) . . . Hal Kemp (Chesterfield)

They want Paramount's "HIGH, WIDE and HANDSOME"

so announce it to your public in your Highest, Widest and Handsomest terms and you will do the HIGHEST, WIDEST and HANDSOMEST business in the history of your theatre!

The Biggest Press Book Paramount has ever made! Get it and make your plans for a big campaign.

Paramount Pictures

100 Musicians Can't Be Wrong; New Film Breaks with Tradition

Music Translated into Human Terms in Durbin-Stokowsky Picture, Says O'Sullivan

by JOSEPH O'SULLIVAN

When a musical mob storms the citadel of the mighty and demands in stentorian symphonic voice the right to be heard, somebody is going to listen; for a hundred piccolo players, fiddlers, trombonists, et al, are not to be ignored when they decide to unite in a musical assault.

Ostensibly, "100 Men and a Girl" is a medium for the exposition of the versatile talents of the very gifted Deanna Durbin, the musical genius of the illustrious Leopold Stokowsky, the artistry of Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Eugene Pallette, Mischa Auer and an organized group of musicians; and it achieves that purpose with distinction and eclat.

But it achieves something more, in reality; for it announces a fundamental theme of human experience and aspiration that has an intimate relation to that Greater Symphony —Life; and in the exposition of the very human elements that motivate the story, an army of piccolo players, fiddlers, trombonists, et al, emerge from their obscurity into the white light that beats upon the elect, to take their place among the principal characters in a Symphony Humaine, voicing their yearnings in a great human fugue— 100 men and a girl demanding the right to be heard; and through it all the mighty maestro, Stokowsky, moves as a dominant contrapuntal figure.

Speaking in terms of the drama and of music, "100 Men and a Girl" begins with a tonal thesis, develops through fugual conflict, and climaxes with a musical onslaught that leads to a triumphal coda.

In the progress of this sinfonica eroica, the Girl (Deanna Durbin)—a musical Joan of Arc—clarions the call to arms of the distraught horde of minstrels and demands life, liberty and the pursuit of harmony for the unemployed musicians. She crashes the salon of a society butterfly and exacts a promise of sponsorship for her symphonic band. When the butterfly flits to Europe, forgetful of her promise, the Girl, her father (Adolpe Menjou, an unemployed trombone player who has taken up the baton), and the unemployed troubadours are "out on a limb."

Undaunted, Deanna invades the great concert hall where the mighty Maestro (Stokowsky) is rehearsing his own battalion of piccolo players, fiddlers, trombonists, and all, bursts into the lyric strains of Mozart's "Alleluja" with the orchestra, and evokes the admiration of the great Maestro but not his consent to lead her unemployed band. Desperate but undefeated, Deanna musters her lyric legion, storms the home of the Maestro, incites her followers to a last desperate tonal tour de force—the stirring Second Rhapsody of Liszt—played by the 100 musicians distributed at random on a giant spiral staircase—and wins the Maestro's whole-hearted allegiance to her cause.

"SECOND RHAPSODY" - - - by LISZT

Deanna musters her legion of unemployed musicians, leads them to the home of the mighty Maestro Stokowsky, distributes her band on the spiral staircase in the mansion, and literally storms the great musician with Liszt's stirring Second Rhapsody, winning his consent to direct her band.

In the triumphant finale, the dynamic Deanna appears on the concert stage with Stokowsky directing her band, and sings an aria from Verdi's "La Traviata" to tumultuous acclaim.

Tone Perspective Kept In Recording Symphony

Many momentous musical episodes occur during the unfolding of this symphonic saga. Mr. Stokowsky is revealed leading his symphonic band in the playing of Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony, the Prelude to the Third Act of 'Lohengrin," the "Rakoczy March" of Berlioz and Herold's "Zampa" Overture, in addition to the Mozart "Alleluja" and the Traviata selection. Mr. Stokowsky's masterful reading of these works has been expertly recorded with due regard to tone perspective, as well as to depth of volume and flexibility. This was made possible by Stokowsky's own new method of recording music for the screen, a specialized form of the system known as "multiple channel recording," used for the first time in this Universal production.

"ALLELUJA" - - - by MOZART

When Patsy (Deanna Durbin) invades the concert hall where Stokowsky is rehearsing his orchestra, to plead with the great Maestro to conduct her symphony band of unemployed musicians, she bursts into the strains of Mozart's "Alleluja" with the orchestra, much to Stokowsky's amazement and admiration.

28 Microphones Catch Choirs of Instruments

At various points among the group of musicians, 28 microphones were placed, each microphone being so spotted as to catch a particular choir of instruments. The volume of sound from each microphone was controlled as it was transmitted to a sound track, eight different tracks being used. The multiple sound recorders were operated separately, giving individual values to the brasses, strings, wood-winds and other sections of the orchestra. The finished sound tracks were reproduced simultaneously.

Hear Instruments as Stokowsky Heard Them

That the effect of this multiple channel recording is to permit the audience to hear each instrument in relation to its distance from the conductor, just as Stokowsky heard the music when he conducted it, is a technical achievement worthy of note.

It is also noteworthy that Mr. Stokowsky, in portraying himself with the ease and dignity of the great artist and speaking his lines with the assurance of a seasoned actor, enhances the inspired interpretation of the music with the poetry of motion of eloquent hands in directing—a synchrony of sound and motion happily recorded by the veracious camera.

Music Speaks Out In Its Own Fashion

However, technical achievement, eloquent renditions of great musical works, appealing lyric contributions by Miss Durbin (which include two popular numbers, "It's Raining Sunbeams," by Frederick Hollander and Sam Coslow, and "A Heart That's Free," by Alfred G. Robyn and Thomas T. Railey), piccolo peccadillos by Mischa Auer, and surreptitious slides on the trombone by Adolphe Menjou, are not the musical sum and substance of this unusual production. It goes beyond mere content of tone and lyric by breaking away from a formula that is fast becoming a tradition—the prima donna-virtuoso type of musical romance and drama. It translates music into human terms, with the inalienable right to speak out loud in its own way. Whether or not it speaks one's language one cannot but feel that it is saying something vital—something that stirs a responsive chord in one's inner self——and saying it with sincerity and conviction.

Henry Koster, director, and Joseph Pasternak, producer, with musical director Charles Previn, are responsible for a vital, moving production.

PARAMOUNT APPEAL UP OCTOBER 4 IN SUIT FOR PICKETING INJUNCTION

Court Allows Rehearing but Withholds Decision on Temporary Order Enjoining Exhibitors Pending Disposition

Paramount's legal staff this week was preparing briefs for an appeal of the Philadelphia federal court decision under which a permanent injunction against picketing by exhibitors was refused. The new hearing will be held October 4th.

After an all-day session in the court on Monday during which lawyers for Paramount argued for a rehearing of the application, the court allowed the appeal but withheld action on a request for another temporary restraining order to enjoin picketing and other demonstrations pending final disposition of the appeal.

Before the court hearing this week a committee of the United Motion Picture Theatre Owners, leaders in the "buyers' strike" against Paramount for what they consider a breach of contract, announced they would not use the weapon placed in their hands by last week's decision.

A "persuasion" committee has been formed by the theatre owners' organization to contact exhibitors and maintain a front in the dispute in which they claim that Paramount violated its contracts by selling on its 1937-38 program six pictures originally scheduled for 1936-37.

Ruling Questioned

In asking the court to again restrain the independent exhibitors, former attorney general William A. Schnader charged that the case came within the interpretation of the Sherman act, although Judge Dickinson, in his opinion, said the boycotting of film exhibitions was "too indirect and remote to be within the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law."

"The interstate business of Paramount would dry up," Mr. Schnader argued, "if the demands of these people were to succeed." He further said exhibitors were trying to jam a contract of their own making down Paramount's throat.

When former Congressman Benjamin Golder, counsel for the UMPTO, said Paramount was asking unreasonably higher prices for their products, and further charged non-delivery of promised pictures under last year's contract, Mr. Schnader pointed out that higher prices were necessary because of the increased cost of production. But the independents are shutting their eyes to the factors increasing costs and continue to insist upon buying pictures on old rates, he said.

Mr. Golder accused Paramount of being "dictatorial, stubborn and arrogant" in their dealings with the independent exhibitor.

"Paramount cannot sell a single one of its films to independent exhibitors in this district," he said. "But I can sell every one of their pictures tomorrow if they would be reasonable in this matter."

His contention was based on the fact that the individual member exhibitors of UMPTO had given him power of attorney in buying Paramount's product for the 1937-'38 season.

While the judges refused to grant a temporary restraining order, they did not deny the motion, rather deciding to hold the resolution under advisement. Although the action is hardly probable, the judges may, and can, issue a temporary injunction at any time before October 4th, when the appeal will be heard.

SEEKS TO STOP BILLS WITH FIVE FEATURES

"Severe measures" to stop the practice of showing five feature pictures on one program are urged by newspapers in Buenos Aires in an attempt to change the policy of the Metropolitan theatre. The admission price to the theatre is 60 cents in Argentine money, which is about 15 cents in in United States money.

Minneapolis Ruling Awaited Next Week

Decision is expected next week on an application for a similar injunction applied for by Paramount in Minneapolis against Allied Theatre Owners of the Northwest and various individual exhibitors. Final briefs were filed in the case last week.

Allied members, meeting last week, voted to cut down product changes outside the Twin Cities to two a week.

U. S. Inquiry Indicated For FWC and Distributors

On his arrival in Los Angeles to resume an investigation of distribution practices Albert J. Law, special assistant attorney general, told newspapermen, "This will be a showdown on charges of independent exhibitors that Fox West Coast and major companies are violating the Clayton and Sherman anti-trust laws. Two special Federal Bureau of Invertigation agents and four accountants will aid us in the investigation which will either prove the falsity of the charges or result in Grand Jury action."

Mr. Law was accompanied from Washington by Harold Collins, also a special assistant attorney general.

Fox West Coast, Universal, United Artists, Paramount, Warner Brothers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Twentieth Century-Fox, RKO and Columbia have agreed to give investigators full access to the books and the audit will take several weeks, Mr. Law continued.

Both Sides Ready in Dallas Action

Stipulations covering approximately 80 per cent of the evidence regarded by attorneys as admissible in the Government's action attacking the contracts entered into by distributors with the Interstate circuit in Dallas have been completed by lawyers for both sides. The trial is to open in the United States district court Monday and may be concluded within three or four days.

The action involves the legality of film contracts made by Interstate with eight distributors in which the distributors agree not to sell any product which has played certain houses at a specified minimum admission to any other theatre which does not maintain a specified minimum admission. Through the stipulations agreed upon with the Government attorneys the defendants admit entering into the contracts individually, but deny that they constitute conspiracy or restraint of trade.

Paramount Seeks Suit Settlement

Stanton Griffis, chairman of the Paramount executive committee, told reporters this week that "serious negotiations have been held and are under way" looking toward a settlement of two suits instituted against 1927-1931 officers and directors of the company by reorganization trustees. Settlement terms were not discussed by Mr. Griffis and he said no final agreement has been reached.

The first of the two suits, which together seek an aggregate of $12,000,000 from the defendants is scheduled for trial in the New York supreme court September 27th. The two actions seek the recovery of losses alleged to have been incurred by Paramount as a result of the company's repurchase of its own stock at guaranteed redemption prices which were in excess of prevailing market prices, after the stock had been issued for the acquisition of theatres and other properties in the company's expansion moves from 1927 to 1932. Also sought is recovery for what is claimed was "excessive" compensation paid to officers during that period.

Mr. Griffis also said Paramount will extend the theatre interests abroad and already has under consideration several proposals for acquiring either control of or a substantial interest in several British theatre circuits.

Chinese Embassy Sees "Time" Reel

The Chinese ambassador and 20 members of the embassy staff were guests of honor Tuesday at a special showing of "War in China," current release of March of Time, held at the Carleton Hotel, Washington.

Prior to the showing, a reception was tendered the ambassador by Louis De Rochemont, producer of March of Time, at Hotel Carleton. Other guests included Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, Secretary of Commerce Daniel Roper, Secretary of the Interior Ickes, Senator William Borah, Assistant Secretary of State Summer Wells, Admiral William T. Leahy, chief of naval operations, Chairman Jesse Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, William Phillip Sims, foreign editor of Scripps Howard Newspapers, Mr. and Mrs. Drew Pearson, and one hundred members of Army, Navy and Diplomatic Corps.

The Chinese ambassador said: "Never before has the cinema portrayed so faithfully the struggle and difficulties of a people seeking to become an independent nation. The only existing picture of the China that was being created by Chiang Kai Shek is contained in this historic documentary film."

50 FOX HOUSES RAISE ADMISSION PRICES AS MOVE GAINS MOMENTUM

Intermountain Circuit Adopts Five Cent Increase; Rise Is General in Chicago; Experiments Elsewhere

The general tendency to increase admission prices continued to gain favor this week, raises being put into effect in theatres located in Connecticut, Kansas, Ohio, Colorado and Minnesota.

Fifty houses were affected by the decision of Fox Intermountain circuit to raise prices five cents in houses under the 40 cent mark. Four Denver houses, the Aladdin, Broadway, Paramount and Tabor, are included in the 50 theatres. The Tabor continued 25 cent matinees but evening prices for the subsequent run house were raised to 35 cents. At each of the other theatres, the 25 cent charge for balcony seats in the evening was discontinued and a uniform 40 cent scale for the entire house was installed.

A ten cent increase was scheduled to go into effect in Eddie Rubin's theatres in Minnesota this week. There was no indication as to whether other theatre owners would follow Mr. Rubin's plan but Charles Winchell, of the Minnesota Amusement Company, said the general tendency in the Northwest is to increase prices. The Paramount in St. Paul recently lifted its top price from 40 to 50 cents.

Admission increases was one of the chief topics of discussion when 125 Fox Midwest executives and managers, representing 110 theatres in Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, and Illinois, met in Kansas City.

Raises from 25 to 30 cents were adopted by Glen W. Dickinson at Ellsworth, Kansas, and at the Golden Bell, his competitor. At Topeka, all but one theatre has increased children's admissions from five to 10 cents and at A. C. McKinney's house and J. E. Pennington's two theatres prices have been advanced from 15 to 20 cents on Sunday and Monday.

James Coston, zone manager for Warner Brothers in Chicago, reported theatre admissions in Chicago have increased about five cents during the last year but said he does not believe there will be further rises. However, Nat Wolf, Ohio zone manager for the same company, has announced a price increase of five cents for both matinee and evening performances at the Strand, Akron, and the Ohio in Sidney. He said the raises are an experiment and if they prove successful increases will be made in other Ohio locations.

Jerry Mascoli and Fred Van Doren, operators of the Carroll and Hamilton Theatres in Waterbury, Connecticut, have raised prices five cents.

STUB MUST BEAR ADMISSION PRICE

Theatre tickets must be stamped with the admission price on the stub, under a new rule effective October 1st, the Bureau of Internal Revenue has notified exhibitors.

Under the order, the total price must now appear on both halves of the ticket instead of in the middle as heretofore.

Ohio Bank Night Legality in Doubt

Despite the acquittal last week of Robert E. Planck, manager of the Palace, Marion, Ohio, of a lottery charge in the operation of Bank Night, doubt was expressed whether the outcome determines the legality of Bank Night in Ohio.

Bank Night, as operated by Mr. Planck, differed from the usual procedure in that a patron's participation was not contingent upon the purchase of a theatre ticket. It was on this point that Mr. Planck's exoneration was chiefly based. Moreover, Ralph E. Carhart, city solicitor, is contemplating an appeal to a higher court, pending which Bank Night equipment seized in the raid of the Palace is being impounded.

Meanwhile, Bank Night will continue in New Haven, Fairfield and Litchfield counties, Conn., pending the outcome of the test case against Ernest Dorau, manager of the Palace, Middletown. Temporary resumption is the result of negotiations between theatre men and local authorities.

The new test case in Connecticut has given Bank Night fresh impetus, many theatres, once signed and subsequently dropped out, having signed new contracts with Adolph Johnson, local representative for Affiliated Enterprises, New England distributors.

The nature of the argument on which the validity of the Omaha Bank Night decision would be challenged was indicated in a brief filed Tuesday with the Nebraska Supreme Court by W. H. Wright, counsel for the Fox Beatrice Theatre Corporation.

Replying to the brief of the state attorney Mr. Wright said the state had failed to prove that in the drawings there was an actual money payment for the chance of winning.

Eastman To Increase Employees' Insurance

Eastman Kodak Company is offering its 18,000 employees an opportunity to add about $15,000,000 to the $25,000,000 group life insurance coverage now in effect.

The additional insurance is to become effective October 1st, provided 75 per cent of the eligible employees apply for it by that time. Workers employed for at least six months are eligible for the insurance which would be paid for on a cooperative basis, employees contributing 6 cents a month for each $100 of new insurance.

SAYS FILM INFLUENCE EXCEEDS MINISTERS'

"It is sad but true that Clark Gable and Gary Cooper have come to have more powerful influence on much of public opinion than the average minister anywhere."

With this comment, Dean Charles McAllister inaugurated the showing of motion pictures in the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Episcopal church in Spokane.

The church, one of the most prominent and richest in the city, was filled to capacity for the showing of newsreel pictures of share croppers, strike breakers and Committee for Industrial Organization and American Federation of Labor activities. Dean McAllister delivered a running commentary with the film on the topic "The Church and the Economic Situation."

Kondolf to Head Theatre Project

Following several recent changes in the administration of the WPA Theatre Project, appointment of George Kondolf as director for New York City was announced this week by Hallie Flanagan, national director. Mr. Kondolf comes to New York from Chicago where he held a similar position for the past 18 months.

Also announced was the appointment of three assistant directors: Phillip W. Barber as chairman of the production board; James R. Ullman, executive assistant and Archie Hill, administrative assistant.

The Federal Theatre plans to have 36 productions in Greater New York during the fall and winter. The circuit will open October 19th with four plays operating on a rotating system.

Hearing Scheduled On ASCAP Action

Hearing on a suit brought by the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers to test the constitutionality of Nebraska's anti-ASCAP law will be held Saturday in the statutory court, Omaha.

ASCAP will institute actions in both Florida and Tennessee to test the constitutionality of anti-ASCAP legislation enacted in those states, according to E. C. Mills, chairman of the administrative committee.

A statewide conference on the educational uses of radio and motion pictures will be held in Atlanta October 15th to 16th under the sponsorship of the Audio-Visual Education Association.

RADIO MEN TO DOUBLE MUSIC EXPENDITURES

Plan to Add $1,500,000 to Present Payroll Offered in Answer to AFM's Recent Demands

Delegates to a conference called by the Independent Radio Network Affiliates, meeting in New York this week, adopted two resolutions under which approximately 250 stations agree to spend a total of $3,000,000 per year on salaries of staff musicians, a plan proposed to meet the demands of the American Federation of Musicians which has demanded that the broadcasters act to bring about reemployment of musicians in the radio industry, with a musicians' strike as the alternative.

Approval of the plan by the radio representatives came Monday, only three days before the deadline set by the AFM. While the union did not immediately grant formal approval its international council indicated the plan was acceptable. If finally adopted the agreement will take effect October 1st.

The first resolution, recommending the expenditure of $1,500,000 per year by all the stations in addition to the approximately $1,500,000 present yearly expense, included also recommendations for a standard form of contract with the AFM. The second resolution suggested means of allocating the total $3,000,000 expenditure among the stations, the recommended basis being an increase by each station of five per cent of its gross revenue.

Negotiation of a standard form of contract with the AFM was recommended, such a contract to be uniform for all agreements between stations and union locals except as to hours, wages and local working conditions. Provisions suggested included a waiver of requirement of union membership for acknowledged virtuosos, amateurs other than band groups and novelty performers; free right for employers to select musicians and control programs; a satisfactory clause for cancellation in the event of emergencies; the right to book staff bands for outside engagements at commissions not in excess of the legal rate, and a clause providing for arbitration of differences between a station and a local.

The musicians' union was reported opposed to the inclusion of such an arbitration clause.

The broadcasters did not decide on a plan for allocation of the additional payroll expense but of several methods proposed the most favored was one under which each station would pay weekly three and one half times its published quarter hour rate. The National and Columbia broadcasting systems, whose stations except for key points in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles are included in the Affiliates, offered to assume 10 per cent of the total amount to be added to music payrolls instead of the allotted five per cent.

BOY CARRIES DOCUMENT TO PROVE AGE AT MOVIES

There is nothing more troublesome to Phillip Lane, overgrown 11-year-old Tulsa (Oklahoma) boy, than being doubted by theatre managers when he asks for a half-price ticket.

Last week he took the problem in his own hands by spending 50 cents for a copy of his birth certificate attesting that he is 11 years, 8 months—not 12.

"They can't argue when I show 'em this," he says triumphantly. "I'll save the cost of this thing in three movies."

Doyle's Plans Await Return

With his present plans vague, Stuart F. Doyle, Australian theatre circuit executive, said this week that his future in the theatre business will be decided on his return to Sydney. Mr. Doyle made his statement upon his arrival in New York from the west coast, the visit being part of a world survey of show business.

"I have not completely severed my association with the theatre business in Australia," he said. "I retain an interest in several small companies, but whether I will get into active operation or build another circuit will be decided after I return to Sydney."

Mr. Doyle said that his Australian ventures will not affect the location of his headquarters, which will be in London. He is now building two theatres in Piccadilly which are nearing completion. He will fly once a month from Australia to England, keeping in close touch with both offices.

During his stay in New York, Mr. Doyle will make his headquarters in the Greater Union Theatres' office in the Loew Building, prior to his London sailing September 23d to survey the two theatre projects.

New Exchange System Planned

Plans are being drafted in Hollywood for a national company to provide exchanges in key cities for the product of several independent producers. Under the plan, the product of producers now using the state rights system would be grouped under one organization controlling bonded exchanges.

Herbert Silverberg, Buffalo attorney, has drawn up the plans and the first company to accept them was Reliable Pictures, which is planning to release 30 pictures during the 1937-'38 season.

Mr. Silverberg declined to discuss the plan but said he will leave shortly for a tour of key centers to line up exchanges.

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of September 11

CAPITOL
Glimpses of Peru ..... MGM

CENTRAL
His Pest Girl ..... Educational Strike! You're Out ..... Educational

CRITERION
Queens of Harmony ..... Paramount
Postal Union ..... Vitaphone
The Lyin' Tamer ..... Vitaphone

MUSIC HALL
March of Time, No. 1 ..... RKO Radio

PARAMOUNT
Song of the Islands ..... Paramount
Morning, Noon and Night Club ..... Paramount

RIALTO
The Affairs of Pierre ..... Educational Swing Wedding ..... MGM

RIVOLI
Mickey's Amateurs ..... United Artists
Comical Oddities of Ye Goode Olde Days ..... Carl S. Clancy

ROXY
Montague the Magnificent ..... Educational
Farmer Al Falfa in Trailer Life ..... Educational Mexican Mural ..... Twentieth Century-Fox

STRAND
Long Bright Land ..... Vitaphone

Paralysis Cases Seen Decreasing

Exhibitors in areas swept with fear of infantile paralysis epidemics looked forward to a return to normal grosses within the near future after health officials this week reported a widespread decline in the number of new cases of the disease.

There were only a few places in Kansas where schools did not open on schedule and the State Board of Health allayed many fears by announcing that there were approximately 25 cases under quarantine whereas in 1930 about 60 new cases were being reported weekly.

Chicago exhibitors failed in their efforts to lift the ban on theatre attendance by children under 16 in conferences with health authorities who said precautions must remain, although the number of cases has declined.

Ontario health officials announced steady improvement in the poliomyelitis situation can be expected. The opening of schools has been deferred in several communities until September 20th and the ban against admission of children to theatres in London, Barrie and Simcoe is to be continued until the same date.

Because of loss of business, three houses in Omaha closed. Operators of the downtown houses reported business had dropped off 50 per cent.

Business has been affected similarly in Illinois and Wisconsin, according to James Coston, theatre zone manager for Warner Brothers.

Discovery of a single case of the disease in Muskegon, Michigan resulted in children being barred from theatres.

Wherever you go....

THE AIR RINGS WITH THE NEWS...

This year's SMASH HITS are from

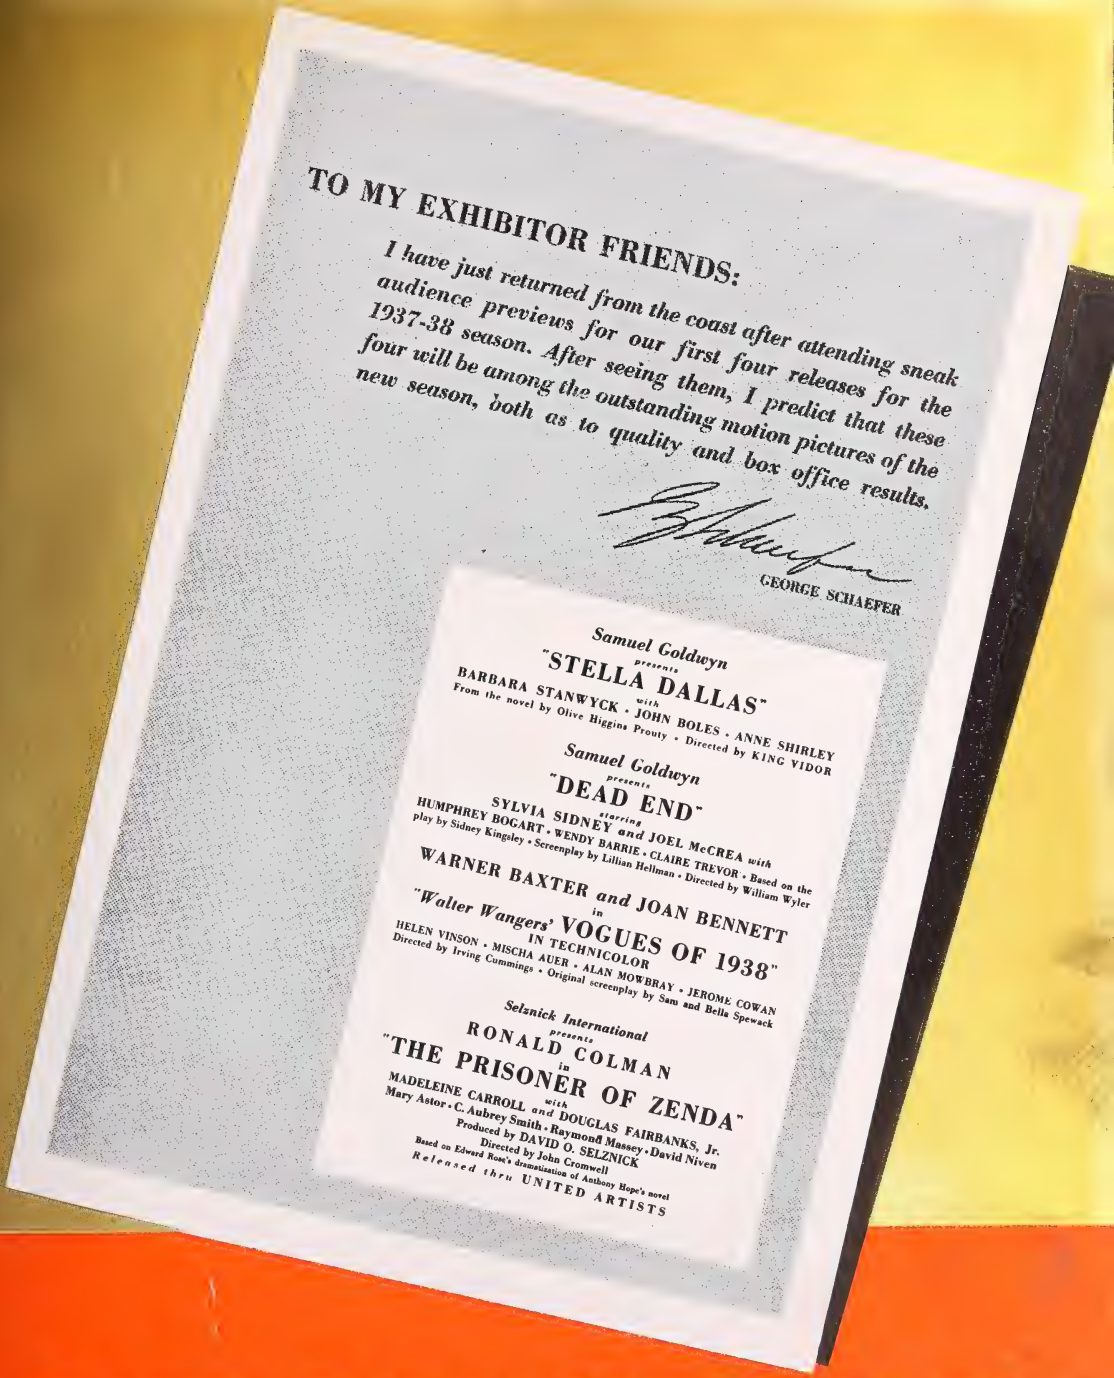
UNITED ARTISTS

WE KNOW IT'S NOT POLITE TO BOAST...

We know it's rude to say "We told you so!"



But...ten weeks ago we ran this advertisement. In it was a prediction of QUALITY and BOX-OFFICE RESULTS.

Today we give you the PROOFS IN PERFORMANCE!

COUNT THEM GENTLEMEN

Just as we said...

FOUR HITS IN A ROW...

The Boys are giving each other the glad low-down on AMERICA'S HOLD-OVER GIRL

Extended playing time in every single spot where she's been dated, including New York, Boston, Rochester, New Orleans, Niagara Falls, Houston, Pittsburgh, Atlantic City, Reading, Dayton, Los Angeles, Providence, Buffalo, Troy, Charleston, W. Va., Cleveland, Lawrence, Bridgeport, Pittsfield, Louisville, St. Louis and Dallas. In San Francisco the United Artists Theatre wasn't big enough so she's in day-and-date at the the Embassy too. Second week at both houses and breaking every known money record. Third smash week at the Liberty in Seattle! Third week Aldine in Philadelphia—already more than 472 extra playing days for "Stella," and she's just started!

SAMUEL GOLDWYN presents

STELLA DALLAS

with BARBARA STANWYCK • JOHN BOLES • ANNE SHIRLEY

ALAN HALE • BARBARA O'NEIL

Directed by KING VIDOR

Written by OLIVE HIGGINS PROUTY • Dramatization by HARRY WAGSTAFF GRIBBLE and GERTRUDE PURCELL

Screen Play by Victor Heerman and Sarah Y. Mason

They're Shouting from the Housetops...

At the Rivoli in New York the biggest first week since 1929. When 17,500 people buy tickets in a single day at a 2,000 seat house, you can do your own mathematics. Fourth week and still turning 'em away. In Chicago it topped any previous U. A. release by $7,000 for its first seven days at the United Artists Theatre where it's now in its second tremendous week. And the same success story repeated in Saratoga, Atlantic City, Chicago and Milwaukee. Its spectacular performance forced hold-overs too in Hartford, New Haven, Louisville, and thirty other cities.

SAMUEL GOLDWYN presents

DEAD END

Starring

SYLVIA SIDNEY • JOEL McCREA

with

HUMPHREY BOGART • WENDY BARRIE • CLAIRE TREVOR • ALLEN JENKINS

Based on the play by SIDNEY KINGSLEY • As produced by NORMAN BEL GEDDES • Screen play by LILLIAN HELLMAN • Directed by WILLIAM WYLER

That Roaring Ovation You Hear is for

Into the tills of Radio City Music Hall it clicked $105,359 in seven short days . . . with the second week hold-over figure not far behind the first victorious stanza. And it's set some stunning new styles in records at its pre-release runs in Saratoga — Atlantic City — Asbury Park — Denver. National release date September 17th . . . then watch it in other situations, large and small!

WARNER BAXTER • JOAN BENNETT

WALTER WANGER'S VOGUES OF 1938

IN TECHNICOLOR

with

HELEN VINSON • MISCHA AUER
ALAN MOWBRAY • JEROME COWAN
MARJORIE GATESON • ALMA KRUGER • POLLY ROWLES
VICTOR YOUNG and his orchestra • Directed by IRVING CUMMINGS
THE WALTER WANGER MODELS "The Most Photographed Girls in the World"

This year's SMASH HITS are from
UNITED ARTISTS

Business is Booming!

...even louder than it did when David O. Selznick gave you "A Star Is Born". For now you've got

HIT NO. 4

This year's SMASH HITS are from UNITED ARTISTS

RONALD COLMAN

in

THE PRISONER OF ZENDA

with

MADELEINE CARROLL

MARY ASTOR
C. AUBREY SMITH
DAVID NIVEN
RAYMOND MASSEY

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, Jr.

Based on Edward Rose's dramatization of Anthony Hope's novel • Presented by Selznick International

Produced by DAVID O. SELZNICK • Directed by JOHN CROMWELL

AT Radio City Music Hall its take of $21,400 on its first Sunday set a new Sunday record in both attendance and cash. And the next day its $22,109 established the all time record for a single day's receipts when a midnight show was not included . . . 'Way over $125,000 for the first week. Terrific business in Oklahoma City, Dallas, Atlantic City. Held over in every spot where it has opened so far. Destined to be one of the giant grossers of all time!

....RIGHT NOW 4 in a row...and immediately following them 3 MORE to prove again that...This year's SMASH HITS are from UNITED ARTISTS

Leslie HOWARD Joan BLONDELL

in

"STAND-IN"

with HUMPHREY BOGART

ALAN MOWBRAY • MARLA SHELTON • C. HENRY GORDON • JACK CARSON

DIRECTED BY TAY GARNETT • Screenplay by Gene Towne and Graham Baker

Based on the Sat. Eve. Post Story by Clarence Budington Kelland

A WALTER WANGER PRODUCTION

"52nd STREET"

with

IAN HUNTER • LEO CARRILLO • PAT PATERSON

ELLA LOGAN • SID SILVERS • ZASU PITTS

MARLA SHELTON • DOROTHY PETERSON

COLLETTE LYONS • AL SHEAN and

KENNY BAKER

Directed by Harold Young

A WALTER WANGER PRODUCTION

Carole LOMBARD Fredric MARCH

in

"NOTHING SACRED"

with CHARLES WINNINGER • WALTER CONNOLLY

Produced by David O. Selznick • Directed by William Wellman

Adapted by Ben Hecht from the Cosmopolitan Magazine Story by James H. Street

In Technicolor

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

Carl Brisson May Star In Danish Production

by KRIS WINTHER
in Copenhagen

Carl Brisson, Danish actor who has worked chiefly in England and United States, may star in a Danish picture, it was revealed upon the return from London of Arne Weel, producer associated with Asa Production Company.

Should negotiations be consummated, it is considered likely that the picture would be produced in cooperation with a Swedish producer, as Mr. Brisson is quite popular in Sweden.

NBC Time Sales Up 15% for August

Time sales of the National Broadcasting Company network for August increased 15 per cent over the same month last year and 2.9 per cent over the preceding month for this year.

This year's August sales totaled $2,784,977 as compared with $2,422,431 for August, 1936, and $2,707,450 for July, 1937. At the same time total sales for the first eight months of 1937 ran 21.6 per cent above the corresponding period last year.

Elliott-Ward Acquires Two More, Remodels Others

Elliott-Ward Enterprises of Lexington, Ky., has purchased the Palace and leased the Grand, both of Aurora, Ind., Anna Bell Ward of the company announces. The circuit has also purchased property in Shelbyville, Ind., on which it plans construction of an 800-seat house.

The company is also remodeling several of its other theatres: the Kentucky, Somerset, at a cost of $23,000; the Glenn, Georgetown, Ky., $7,500; the Lyric, Versailles, $5,000. It will also spend about $15,000 on the recently acquired Grand and Palace.

Andrea Leeds Gets Lead

Andrea Leeds, who had been loaned to RKO for "Stage Door" after a controversy with Samuel Goldwyn, has been assigned to the romantic lead in "The Goldwyn Follies." Miss Leeds had declined a role in "Woman Chases Man," Goldwyn production. Her first role under the Goldwyn banner was in "Come and Get It."

UA Plan Under Way

A new rental plan for accessories has been inaugurated by United Artists. Savings of from 35 to 50 per cent can be effected on the advertising matter that is included in the new plan, according to Harry D. Buckley, vice-president.

Theatres in Feud with Press

The battle between newspapers and theatres in Lincoln, Neb., is still raging with the latest offensive an eight-page throwaway called "Movie News," being distributed by the theatres for their publicity.

At the suggestion of Boyd Martin, motion picture critic of the Louisville Courier-Journal, United Artists' year book was placed in the library of the University of Louisville.

In Better Theatres Issue This Week

In a Monastery Garden of the 15th Century: Art page on a unique British theatre.

A Portfolio of Recent Theatre Designs: Five theatres in various sections of the country, described and pictured.

How Air Systems Should Provide for Proper Distribution.

Maintenance Tabs.

Equipment for Auditorium Down-Lighting.

A New Model Suprex Projection Arc Lamp.

A New Type Curtain Control Machine.

A Complete Sound System in Three Models.

Increased Efficiency in Copper Oxide Rectification Units.

Selection and Application of Acoustic Materials.

Philadelphia Educators To Adapt Films for Classrooms

An experimental adaptation of the motion picture to classroom-instruction of pupils in the early and mid-'teens will be tried out during the current academic year in three schools in the Philadelphia area. The program is sponsored by the Progressive Teachers Association and will be introduced at the Friends' Central School, Oak Lane School and the Cheltenham Township High School.

Selected sequences from regularly distributed motion pictures, it is announced, will be shown to "help adolescents solve their personal problems and develop a keen insight into human relations and needs."

Dietrich Ohio Censor

E. N. Dietrich, assistant state director of education, has been named head of the state censor board of Ohio. He succeeds E. L. Bowsher, who resigned to accept supervision of the Toledo public schools.

MGM Assigns Doyle

Larry Doyle, formerly known in Hollywood as Edward Flanagan, has been assigned to the romantic lead opposite Virginia Bruce in MGM's "Bad Man of Brimstone."

Jungle Film To Be Released

"Manhunters of the Caribbean," jungle drama which has been more than two years in production, is ready for release by Inter-Continent Film Corp., controllers of its distribution in this country.

Staff Increased

Charles Levy, Sidney Gans, and Elliott Stark, former newspapermen, have been added to United Artists exploitation force. Mr. Levy and Mr. Gans were recently associated with the New York American and Mr. Stark was with WNYC.

Academy Casting Directory Makes Fourth Appearance

The fourth issue of the Players Directory Bulletin, published every two months by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, includes the photographs and credits of 910 free lance artists in addition to the term contract players of the 19 studios participating in the current issue. All told there are more than 1900 photographs, representing about two-thirds of all artists currently engaged in production at both major and independent studios, says the foreword, by Donald Gledhill, executive secretary of the Academy.

Jack H. S. Fuld is New York representative of the Directory.

LeRoy Joins Ranks Of Color Producers

Mervyn LeRoy has announced that he is joining the ranks of producers who have turned to Technicolor, "Food for Scandal," which gets under way this month with Carole Lombard and Fernand Gravet in the top roles, will be the first of LeRoy's Technicolor pictures.

A. H. Blank Regains Paramount, Omaha

Following settlement of differences, control of the Paramount, Omaha, which has been closed and in receivership since last May, has returned to A. H. Blank Theatre Corporation, Harry Monsky, attorney, said last week.

The Omaha National Bank became receiver for the house last spring on the charge that the Blank Corporation of Omaha was in default on $250,000 in bonds, owed $7,500 in rent to Creighton University, owed $12,600 on back taxes and was $5,000 in arrears on the bond sinking fund.

Peskay Predicts High Sales for Grand National

Grand National observed its first anniversary last week with the prediction by Edward J. Peskay, vice-president, that the company's domestic sales for the 1937-38 season would total $10,000,000.

The concern expects to have half the season's 65 releases ready by December 1st, Mr. Peskay said. Work has been completed on the new studio at Santa Monica Boulevard, Hollywood, enabling the company to make eight pictures simultaneously.

Acquire Foreign Films' Rights

Arthur Mayer and Joseph Burstyn have acquired the American release rights to eight foreign pictures. The films will be offered during the first half of the '37-'38 season. The titles of six of the eight pictures are: "The Lower Depths," "Girls' Club," "Whirlpool," "Shadows of the Past" "War for Button," and "Sacred India."

Markey Is Associate Producer

Gene Markey will be associate producer for "Sally, Irene and Mary," which will be produced this month by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Imperial Pictures has named George Moesser sales head in Buffalo and Albany. He is former branch manager for United Artists in Buffalo.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

Stage Door

(RKO Radio)

Human Interest

In MOTION PICTURE HERALD, August 14, in an article anticipating this production, was written:

"There is a formula which, when properly applied, presages—or so Hollywood believes—a successful motion picture. Its principal components are: a good story, a quality cast, skillful direction and intelligent production. RKO-Radio is compounding these elements into its screen version of the Broadway stage play, 'Stage Door.'"

Continuing, the article read:

"Thematically the photoplay deals with the drama, romance, humor, ecstasy and tragedy of girls who hitch their wagons to the star of theatrical fame. It crystalizes the struggles of 20 girls, rich and poor, talented and otherwise, all aflame with the desire to succeed. The spotlight is focused most sharply upon two."

Further it remarked:

"A few words may be appropriate in regard to Miss Hepburn's attitude toward her present assignment. Since 'Little Women,' and with the exception of 'Alice Adams,' she has appeared either as the suffering woman or in costume pictures. This time her role bears a marked resemblance to the one she had in 'Morning Glory,' which won her the 1933 Academy Award. A realization has come to Miss Hepburn that her popularity has ebbed; also has come a determination to recoup her lost prestige."

The observations were made at a time when the picture had reached about the halfway mark in production. They were made when a series of visits and conversations on the "Stage Door" set led to the conviction that a great picture was in the process of manufacture.

Tuesday evening, September 7, the same observer witnessed a public preview of "Stage Door" at the Pantages theatre, Hollywood. It must be reported that in composition the elements stated as necessary to a picture were included in a manner that precludes criticism. The plot is as described with one exception—the spotlight is focused upon a third girl, and Andrea Leeds, who, in addition to endowing the picture with a spiritual quality that reaches into the most sympathetic human emotions, emerges as a star who should win a high place.

The comment concerning Miss Hepburn becomes a concrete fact. Her inspired work in this film eradicates memory of all the flat, mechanical performances that have intervened since her first brilliant appearances.

Fine as is Miss Hepburn's work, Ginger Rogers' is equally good. Accepting this screening as a standard and an incentive, too, Miss Rogers needs no Astaire nor dancing shoes for companions of her future screen career. A dramatiste with a wastrel comedy flair, she has been born anew, as was Miss Hepburn, and with the same impressiveness that Miss Leeds arose to her opportunity.

"Stage Door" may be expected to prove a popular and profitable attraction for the simple reason that it includes the kind of understandable, believable human interest entertainment that the vast majority likes to see on the screen. That quality is its inherent showmanship. Not only is it what the sophisticates think they want, but it is what the common, ordinary folk know they want. Otherwise a preview audience, composed predominantly of common ordinary folk, would not have interrupted the flow of the film so many times with applause appreciative of some finely delineated lines of dialogue, situation or characterization. Nor would an audience of common, ordinary folk come so close to raising the roof with applause upon the finale had not the picture been what they knew they wanted.

Tersely, "Stage Door" approaches the essence of universal screen entertainment. It's not a prestige picture. Rather it is a combination of those elements which justify any exhibitor in announcing that he has an attraction which he is proud to present. Any exhibitor who knows why he is in the business should know how to sell it so that it will produce the maximum amount of audience satisfaction and the consequent expanded financial returns.—GUS MCCARTHY.

Produced and distributed by RKO-Radio. Produced by Pandro S. Berman. Directed by Gregory LaCava. Screen play by Morrie Ryskind and Anthony Veiller. From the play by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman. Photographed by Robert de Grasse. Musical director, Roy Webb. Art director, Van Nest Polglase. Set dressing by Darrell Silvera. Recorded by John L. Cass. Edited by William Hamilton. James Anderson, assistant director. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3486. Running time, 90 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date, October 8, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Terry Randall	Katharine Hepburn
Joan Maitland	Ginger Rogers
Anthony Powell	Adolphe Menjou
Linda Shaw	Gail Patrick
Catherine Luther	Constance Collier
Kayo Hamilton	Andrea Leeds
Henry Sims	Samuel S. Hinds
Judith Canfield	Lucille Ball
Harcourt	Franklin Pangborn
Bill	William Corson
Richard Carmichael	Pierre Watkin
Butch	Grady Sutton
Stage director	Frank Reicher
Hattie	Phyllis Kennedy
Eve	Eve Arden
Annie	Ann Miller
Mary Lou	Margaret Early
Dizzy	Jean Rouverol
Mrs. Orcutt	Elizabeth Dunne
Olga Brent	Norma Drury
Ann Braddock	Jane Rhodes
Susan	Peggy O'Donnell
Madeline	Harriett Brandon

Cast of stage play—
Katharine Alexander, Ralph Forbes, Mary Forbes, Huntley Gordon.

This Way Please

(Paramount)

Girl-Meets-Boy

In idea this is light, romantic, musical comedy. The major locale is a theatre featuring a stage show, where the usherettes are regimented with military precision. A girl, seeking a chorus job, lands in the service corps. The band leader-master of ceremonies sees her, his romantic inclinations are piqued and, noting that she has talent, he demands that she be given a chance. A sour-faced publicity director and a sympathetic head usherette skip in and out, and the result is that the girl is fired and the band leader quits. Business slumps, but the publicity man and the head usherette suggest the girl have an opportunity and they plan a stage wedding to reunite the pair for love and the theatre's financial welfare. But the boy and girl quarrel. It looks as though the stage wedding is going to be a bust, until the boy suffers a change of heart and lets love find its way.

For names, the film presents Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Betty Grable, Ned Sparks, Porter Hall, Lee Bowman and Mary Livingstone, who, in her debut, is not the picture's star. Assisting them are the radio personalities, Fibber McGee and Molly, Rufe Davis, whose vocal imitations of sound effects provoked the most spontaneous applause, Cecil Cunningham, Wally Vernon, Romo Vincent and Jerry Bergen.

Though the entertainment quality of the film is not of such high grade as to cause anyone to go around boasting, it is fairly amusing. Besides names, the show includes several potentially effective exploitation possibilities.

Previewed in the Paramount theatre, Los Angeles. The crowd, which had been watching "Souls at Sea," did not evidence much interest in the picture as a picture. If it expected something special from Mary Livingstone it did not get it. It did, however, appear appreciative of the efforts of Fibber McGee and Molly and Rufe Davis.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Produced by Mel Shauer. Directed by Robert Florey. Joseph Youngerman, assistant director. Screen play by Grant Garret, Seena Owen and Howard J. Green. Based on a story by Maxwell Shane and Bill Thomas. Music and lyrics by Frederick Hallander, Sam Coslow, Al Siegel and Jack and George Gray. Ann Bauchens, film editor. Photographed by Harry Fishbeck. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3533. General audience classification. Running time, 70 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date, September 17, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Brad Morgan	Charles "Buddy" Rogers
Jane Morrow	Betty Grable
Inky Wells	Ned Sparks
Fibber McGee and Molly	Jim and Marian Jordan
S. J. Crawford	Porter Hall
Stu Randall	Lee Bowman
Miss Eberhardt	Cecil Cunningham
Bumps	Wally Vernon
Trumps	Romo Vincent
Mumps	Jerry Bergen
Sound effects man	Rufe Davis
Maxine Barry	Mary Livingstone

Music for Madame

(RKO Radio)

Nino Martini Musical

Nino Martini's singing is the dominating entertainment and showmanship asset of this picture. Though well produced to include some novel twists in situations and dialogue, and to permit the delivery of several above average character performances, the story is a formula affair. Even at that it stacks up as satisfactory amusement for the masses as Martini's singing should prove attractive to the more intelligent strata.

The locales are Hollywood and environs. The plot concerns a young immigrant Italian singer and a girl and the experiences which befall both when they become romantically attached. Innocently involved in a jewel theft, with fear of gang vengeance preventing him from revealing his identity, the boy cannot sing without exposing himself. Meantime, the girl finds her efforts to win recognition as a composer blocked at every turn.

Treated in light, airy fashion, the show assumes a definite Hollywood background, yet

(Continued on page 44)

The

ONLY pictures to be held over for three weeks in the past year at Radio City Music Hall, N. Y.

were

DAVID O. SELZNICK'S PRODUCTION OF A STAR IS BORN

and

DAVID O. SELZNICK'S PRODUCTION OF

The PRISONER OF ZENDA

Both released thru

UNITED ARTISTS

(Continued from page 42)

at the same time does not become a typical Hollywood picture. To help the girl attain her ambitions as a composer and for a screen career, the singer would willingly give himself up in order that the girl might claim the $25,000 reward offered for his capture and thus finance himself. But complications ensue which bring in a radio broadcasting vocal duel and an appearance at a Hollywood Bowl concert, before the singer clears himself, the girl's abilities are recognized and the real crooks captured.

Previewed in the Village theatre, Westwood. While handling of the sound control apparatus during the early reels of the film caused Martin's voice to sound distorted, the audience overlooked this and applauded all his numbers. Though impressed by the quality of production, the audience gave indication that the story did not always hold its attention. Nevertheless, the film should prove satisfactory in the majority of cases, especially if patrons are not led to expect too much.—G.M.

Produced and distributed by RKO-Radio. Jesse L. Lasky producer. Directed by John Blystone. Screen play by Gertrude Purcell and Robert Harari. Original story by Robert Harari. Music and lyrics by Rudolf Friml, Gus Kahn, Herbert Magidson, Allie Wrubel, Nathaniel Shilkret and Edward Cherkose. Nathaniel Shilkret, musical director. Van Nest Polglase, art director. Desmond Marquette, film editor. Edward Donahue, assistant director. Photographed by Joseph August. Special effects by Vernon L. Walker. P. C. A. certificate number 3500. Running time, 75 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date, Oct. 8, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Tonio Maretti	Nino Martini
Jean Clemens	Joan Fontaine
Nora Burns	Lee Patrick
Rodowski	Alan Mowbray
Tenor	Erik Rhodes
Rollins	Bradley Page
Harding	Frank Conroy
Fleugelman	Alan Hale
Krause	Billy Gilbert
District Attorney	Grant Mitchell
Goodwin	Lee Patrick

Baltic Deputy

(Amkino)

Melodrama

The emphasis upon scientific biography toward which Hollywood lately has been turning has crossed the Pacific to impress Russian minds in "Baltic Deputy." This picture, called Russia's greatest domestic success since "Chapayev" and reported to have been seen by 80,000,000 Russians since its release last spring, may be called the Russian "Zola" or "Pasteur." Although handicapped by the usual Asian technical defects, it is a moving and creditable biography of a Bolshevik scientist and a notable advance for the Soviet screen. Reversing their customary technique, the Soviet film-makers have subordinated propaganda to entertainment and, in doing so, have achieved better results. Propaganda is by no means absent, but it is done deftly and to dramatic advantage such as the telephone conversation the scientist has with Lenin, and the speech he makes before a Communist gathering upon being elected political delegate by the sailors of the Baltic Fleet.

"Baltic Deputy" is primarily a portrait of a scientist with whatever revolutionary messages to be delivered given through the personalized medium which biography affords. It is based on the life of Klement Timiriazev, Soviet plant physiologist, who joined the Revolution at the price of scorn from his colleagues and danger to his career. The picture is primarily episodic, carrying its chief character through his desertion by friends and students to recognition of his service by the Soviet state. In the portrayal of the 75-year-old scientist, the performance of 32-year-old Nikolai Cherkassov is distinguished, depicting a character more than twice his own age. The awe in which he, as a great scientist in his own right, is made to stand at the mention of Lenin's name injures the strength of the character, but political thought-controls are inevitable in Russian pictures.

"Baltic Deputy" is marred by a somewhat jerky and fitful continuity which seemed more the fault of editing than scenarists' treatment. The film is further damaged by inferior photography, which resembles early American efforts in many episodes.

The supporting cast responds well to the direction of Alexander Zarkhi and Joseph Heifeitz, hitherto unknown in Soviet film circles, and is nicely paced and intelligent. Particularly important to a foreign picture, the subtitling is good.

Reviewed at the Cameo Theatre, New York, which has an all-Russian film policy. An audience, composed of what seemed left-wing sympathizers, was attentive.—KERMIT KAHN.

Produced by Lenfilm and distributed by Amkino. Directors, Alexander Zarkhi and Joseph Heifeitz. From the story by Leonid Rakhmanov. Scenario by David Deli, Miss Rakhmanov, Mr. Zarkhi and Mr. Heifeitz. Musical score by Nikolai Timofeev. Release date, September 5, 1937. Running time, 94 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Professor Polezhayev	Nikolai Cherkassov
His wife	Martha Domasheva
Bocharov	Boris Livanov
Vorobiev, tutor in the university	Otto Zhakov
Kuprianov	Alexander Melnikov

Saturday's Heroes

(RKO Radio)

Football Story

Fall months without football pictures would be similar to and as unreal as a summer without sun. As the sports pages begin to feed their readers reams of detailed copy as to the heroes and goats, picture production hitches its wagon to the excitement. Most of the hitchings in past years have proved entertaining, a lot of them have made money. There doesn't seem to be any reason why this season's crop should fare otherwise.

RKO-Radio is first in the field with the annual topical feature. In most ways "Saturday's Heroes" is pretty much the same as its ancestors. The player who gets big headed, openly scalps tickets, and is tossed out of college, is there. So are the hard boiled coach, the girl who can't understand it all, the stock shots of spectacular plays in real games, and the finale in which the derided underdogs wallop the favorites. One thing is novel and timely. The film comes out boldly and begs colleges to cease being unethically respectable and pay the boys who draw the big gates.

Regardless of the merits of the players in the show, and those of some of them are commendable, the preachment looms as the most important exploitation lead. Intended to stir up controversy, those exhibitors who know how to stir up controversy have an ideal subject with which to deal. Properly treated, the argument that can be whipped up on the pros and cons of direct financial subsidization can attract more attention than any other element in the film.

Previewed at the RKO-Hillstreet theatre, Los Angeles, September 10. As soon as the audience saw the main title and first few shots, it knew what it was in for. It seemed to like what was delivered, for as far as this observer could notice, there was only one walkout and that was an old lady who, naturally, could not be expected to have much interest in football or what happened to any of Saturday's heroes.—G.M.

Produced and distributed by RKO-Radio. Produced by Robert Sisk. Directed by Edward Killy. Screen play by Paul Yawitz, Charles Kaufman and David Silverstein. Story by George Templeton. Photographed by Nicholas Musuraca. Frederic Knudtson, film editor. P. C. A. certificate number 3560. General audience classification. Running time, 59 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date: Sept. 23, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Val	Van Heflin
Frances	Marian Marsh
Red Watson	Richard Lane
Burgeson	Alan Bruce
Doc Thomas	Minor Watson
Dubrowsky	Frank Jenks
Sam	Willie Best
Coach Banks	Walter Miller
Baker	Crawford Weaver
President Hammond	George Irving
Calkins	John Arledge
Freshman	Dick Hogan
Andy Jones	Al St. John
President Mitchell	Charles Trowbridge

The Mutiny of the Elsinore

(Argyle-ABP British)

Sea Melodrama

Jack London's novel is extremely well known, has been filmed in silent film form, and its subject matter is colorful and offers action plus. In these facts and the further one that the producers of this British adaptation have achieved very fine pictorial effects by the use of a genuine "windjammer" are the main box-office values.

The pictures of the ship under full sail in fine weather, and fighting its way through a gale while its crew furl sail, are impressive and beautiful. Clever camera work also shows just what work was done in the rigging and at the masthead of these sailing ships. Dramatically, the production does not reach anything like a comparable level and the sea-brutes whom London described seem very much tamer on the screen.

Jack Pathurst, a novelist, takes a trip on the sailing ship Elsinore, in search of local color for his next book. He finds it in plenty when, after a sailor has gone mad, the Captain is mysteriously stabbed, the hard-driving first mate, Pike, is shot, and the writer is left in charge of the ship, and the captain's daughter, with only one or two loyal men to help him against a crew in mutiny, and encouraged by the second mate, old enemy of Pike's. Of course, he wins through, after pistol battles with the crew and surprise and counter-surprise in abundance.

Over and above the fighting, there is special interest in the characterization by Michael Martin-Harvey of a "sea lawyer" among the crew. Lyn Harding's Pike is a very mild version of the tough described by London. Paul Lukas is the novelist and Kathleen Kelly the girl.

Viewed at a trade show, Piccadilly Theatre, London. Some unintentional humor was found, but the pictorial values were enthusiastically recognized.—BRUCE ALLAN.

Produced by Argyle British Productions and distributed in U.K. by Associated British Pictures. From the Jack London novel. Directed by Roy Lockwood. Screen play by Beaufoy Milton. Camera, Bryan Langley. Recordist, Frank Midgley. Running time, 77 mins. General audience classification.

CAST

Jack Pathurst	Paul Lukas
Pike	Lyn Harding
Margaret West	Kathleen Kelly
Bert Rhyne	Clifford Evans
Charles Davis	Michael Martin-Harvey
O'Sullivan	William Devlin
Mr. Mellaire	Ben Soutten
Captain West	Conway Dixon
Murphy	Pat Noonan
Shorty	Tony Sympson
Twist	Hamilton Keene
Benson	Alec Fraser
Wada	Jiro Soneya

Orphan Boy of Vienna

(General Foreign Sales)

Musical Drama

A simple, spontaneous and softly sentimental note is struck by the Vienna Choir Boys in this cinematic recital of their internationally famed musical talents. The historic background of this scholar cantorum and the educational training of the youthful choristers are impressive. Originally founded in the year 1498 by royal edict of the Emperor Maximilian of Austria for the purpose of enhancing religious services, the institution has nurtured the training of many gifted musicians, among them Franz Schubert. Suspended for the period of the World War, the school resumed its existence and reputation under the sponsorship of Dr. Joseph Schmidt, philanthropist, and since has won worldwide recognition. It is reported that the group of singers contemplate a concert in the United States next January.

In their high, fresh voices the boys sing the music of Mozart, Schubert, Haendel and Brahms with an effective accompaniment by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. Moreover, the acting of the children is as effective and as ef-

(Continued on page 46)

Will be back soon
Just had to see
"52nd St."
Love
Butch

(Continued from page 44)

fortless as their vocal renditions. Seen in their school and on their vacation trip in the Tyrolean Alps, the students are revealed in a series of situations that are disarmingly appealing in their natural revelations of child character. Particularly captivating are the two youngsters, Toni, who plays the title role, and Hansi, who acts as his faithful, tiny friend and who will remind American audiences of "Spanky" McFarland. The juveniles are given superlative assistance in the understanding and adult performances of Ferdinand Meyerhofer, Hans Olden and Julia Janssen.

The orphaned boy Toni is adopted by a puckish vagabond street singer, who discovers the boy's singing ability. The lad is enrolled by his guardian in the Vienna Choir Boys School. Here he begins his training and here he finds in the motherly ministrations of Sister Maria the parental affection that his lot had forestalled. Accompanying his companions on a holiday jaunt to the wonderland of the Tyrol, the young Toni is the happiest he has ever been. It is in this portion of the story that the film reaches its best moments of song and beauty. When Sister Maria misses some money from the accounts, Toni's blessed state vanishes. In his youthful spirit of devotion, he bravely strives to protect his beloved foster-mother by assuming the blame. Dismissed from the school, the lad runs away and in his escape tumbles into a roaring mountain stream. Rescued and nursed back to health, Toni learns that the money has been found, and soon he is well enough to join the choir as they embark on a concert tour of the United States.

Particular interest points to musical groups and Catholic Church societies for whom the strong religious feeling, the portions of the Mass sung inside a Cathedral and in the fields and the wayside shrines carry additional meaning. A series of English titles is readable for the story's outline but hardly adequate. There is also simple appeal for the average audience.

Seen at a trade showing in New York.—Joseph F. Coughlin, New York.

Produced by Meteorfilm, Vienna. Distributed in the United States by General Foreign Sales Corp. Director, Max Neufe'd. Musical score, Dr. George Gruber. Photographed by Hans Theyer. Story, Hermann Heinz Ortner. Running time, 90 minutes. Release date, September 8, 1938. General audience classification.

CAST

The Rector.....Ferdinand Meyerhofer
Bluemel.....Hans Olden
Brunner.....Franz Schafheitlin
Sister Maria.....Julia Janssen
Schmidt.....Otto Hartmann
Stepfather.....Rudolph Teubler

and

THE VIENNA CHOIR BOYS, ACCOMPANIED BY THE VIENNA PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA
Excerpts from Mozart, Schubert, Haendel, Brahms

Doctor Syn

(Gainsborough-Gaumont British)

Period Adventure Melodrama

Russell Thorndike, in the opinion of many English readers, has come closer to the atmosphere of Robert Louis Stevenson than any other modern writer in the stirring novel of smuggling in the days of knee-breeches, piracy and wigs which is adapted in this production of the G.-B. Gainsborough unit. The film, like the book, has the authentic atmosphere of blood-curdling adventure, the plentiful sensational incident and well maintained suspense and the refreshing freedom from sex and modernity which makes one feel young again in a world of lurid but happy make-believe. Anyone who can still relish "Treasure Island" should find "Doctor Syn" screen entertainment of a very stimulating kind.

With George Arliss exceptionally well cast as a village clergyman who was once a famous pirate, story values which offer many chances for stunting, and an exceptionally realistic atmosphere of England in the days when smuggling was a major industry, "Dr. Syn" appears an offering which, in the right localities, can be sold as a really original and colorful picture from England.

A detachment of sailors, acting as revenue officers under the command of a hard-bitten sea Captain, who has fought his frigate against the French, comes searching for smugglers in the historic village of Dymchurch, on Romney Marsh in Essex. Real head of the smuggling organization is the saintly Doctor Syn, vicar and benefactor of the village, which he has raised from poverty and endowed with schools out of his share of the profits of illegal liquor.

The love interest is subsidiary. The murder of the village schoolmaster, to prevent him betraying the smugglers, is one of many sensational incidents, apart from the main plot. There is good comedy relief by Graham Moffatt, G.-B.'s youthful discovery, as a village simpleton. Backgrounds of the old village, its inn, the marshes and the ancient church are admirably convincing.

A very typically English picture and for that reason likely to interest the American public which wants something different from London.

At a London Piccadilly theatre trade show its rapid incident, originality and authenticity of atmosphere and strong suspense value held throughout and the final applause was hearty. B. A.

Produced by Gainsborough Pictures. Distributed by Gaumont-British. From the novel by Russell Thorndike. Directed by Roy William Neill. Scenario, Roger Burford. Dialogue, Michael Hogan. Camera, Jack Cox. Recording, A. Cameron. Running time, 81 mins. General audience classification.

CAST

Doctor Syn.....George Arliss
Imogene.....Margaret Lockwood
Denis.....John Loder
Captain Collyer.....Roy Emerton
Jerry Jack.....Graham Moffatt
Rash.....Frederick Burtwell
Mipps.....George Merritt
Squire Cobtree.....Athole Stewart
Doctor Pepper.....Wilson Coleman
The Bos'un.....Wally Patch
The Mulatto.....Meinhart Maur
Mrs. Waggetts.....Muriel George

Radio Patrol

(Universal)

Serial

There should be juvenile jubilation when once it is noised around that the popular, syndicated newspaper comic strip as designated in the title of this serial has been given rich and exciting handling in film form.

The elaboration of the plot is done with a sense of what will appeal to the discriminating and exacting standards of the country's legion of youthful action fans. There is fast movement, a baffling mystery supplied by a missing scientific formula and a spy counter-spy motif, a hard fisted and nimble footed officer, and not too much of the young lady heroine. Most important of all, there are a faithful and clever dog and a young lad, just the age of the most ardent serial followers, who figures prominently in the plot manipulations. The action, well seasoned with thrill packed situations easily calculated and followed, begins with the murder of a scientist who has just devised a formula for the manufacture of flexible steel. Various groups implicated number a wily band of dark hued rascals, an unscrupulous industrialist, the heroine's brother and even that little lady herself. It is the problem of the Radio Patrol to unravel the whole mess. Grant Withers shoulders this assignment. He is assisted by Mickey Rentschler, as the son of the murdered inventor and his dog pal, Silver Wolf. Catherine Hughes is the misunderstood girl. Each chapter approximates 20 minutes.—Release date, Oct. 4, 1937.

Popular Science, No. 1

(Paramount)

Excellent

The "Popular Science" subjects in this new series continue their high grade of excellence, presenting interesting material pleasingly illustrated and photographed in beautiful color. In California a new industry, angora rabbit ranching, is viewed with the camera recording the shearing, weaving and the finished product as illustrated by girl models. Other subjects treated are the newest achievements in maritime safety devices for a modern passenger liner, kitchen gadgets ranging from a hard boiled egg opener to a cocktail shaker rolling pin, cultivation of roses by a man who has developed 256 new varieties, and the removal of foreign objects from human bodies. A comic presentation of a patented hair restorer winds up the reel. Running time, 11 minutes.

Stranger Than Fiction, No. 40

(Universal)

Interesting

A further supply of odds and ends, calculated to draw from the spectator words of surprise, shows, for one thing, the weird house of George Raynor who at no extra cost but much effort and ingenuity has built his home from the salvage of an automobile graveyard. New York's Borough of Brooklyn plays into the wits' hands by having a fire hydrant in the middle of the floor of a retail liquor store. Also, it seems that there is a parrot by the name of Jimmy down in Atlantic City that likes his beer, and a pet hen (name unknown) who delights in riding on the handle bars of her master's bicycle. Finally, to vindicate homo sapiens, clever Mr. Gunnar Ugland exhibits his delicately done wood carving, and Mrs. Lillian Greneker is credited with the ingenious invention of useful gadgets to be fixed to the finger tips for varied uses from beautification to bottle opening. Running time, 9 minutes.

Paramount Pictorial, No. 2

(Paramount)

Very Interesting

Unveiling some interesting statistics about the horse, the camera, to the accompaniment of Ward Wilson's narrative, visits all manner of breeds in all kinds of endeavors. A pictorial study of plunging surf against the rugged coastline of Nova Scotia is enhanced by the ever pleasing voice of David Ross. And finally in the field of science and industry the camera follows step by step the making of a gramophone record. Duke Ellington and his orchestra provide the rhythm that is perpetuated in wax. Running time, 10 minutes.

Hawaiian Capers

(Universal)

Uninteresting

A generally haphazard and weakly interesting collection of vaudeville turns has been incorporated into the makeup of this short subject. Spotted in a night club setting, the talent parades its usual song and dance act routine. Jean Sargent and Ralph Kirbery, both from the radio waves, sing some uninspired tunes. There is a portion of anaemic comedy supplied by Harry Savoy. Marshall Montgomery and his ventriloquistic dummy foil will not alienate many of "Charlie McCarthy's" devoted public. The Leslies, together with Marion Wilkins and Jack Walters, offer none too distinguished dance steps. Lei Keli, with an undulating grass skirt, and the softly strumming Tahitians, are the local color necessary for the title's caption. Running time, 17 minutes.

Peeping Penguins

(Paramount)

Polar Cartoon

Four inquisitive penguins come upon a deserted house in the polar regions and against the warnings of an older penguin they enter the house through the chimney, and run into plenty of trouble. The climax comes when a box of fireworks is set off. Ducking and hiding from the bombardment the four penguins find haven in a stove, only to have a rocket come through the pipe and carry them through the roof. They wind up in the snow. A moving object attracts their attention. On investigation the object proves to be a huge bear, and the penguins are inquisitive no more. Running time, 10 minutes.

RCA LOSES ROUND IN PHILCO TILT; PATENT PACT STANDS, SAYS COURT

Chancellor's Ruling Bars Radio Corporation from Terminating License Agreement with Storage Battery Company

by GEORGE L. PATZER in Wilmington

An opinion prohibiting the Radio Corporation of America from terminating a licensing agreement with the Philadelphia Storage Battery Company, parent organization of the Philco Radio and Television Corporation, whereby the storage battery concern has the use of basic patents in the radio industry held by RCA, was handed down by Chancellor Josiah O. Wolcott in United States district court last week end.

The decision was of utmost importance to the future of PSB, Philco, and Transitone Automobile Radio Corporation, involving an investment of upwards of $14,000,000 and employment of more than 11,000 persons. Termination of the agreement would have put PSB out of business, and been a blow to Philco, which distributes its products through subsidiaries in New York, Illinois and California, and also through Transitone.

In the 70-page opinion covering both the original suit and crossbill, the chancellor ruled there was no breach of contract in the organization of Philco as a sales subsidiary of PSB, as had been charged by RCA, that Philco was not an agent of PSB, that the parent company received no dividends nor shared in the benefits of Philco, and that PSB does not have to pay royalties on complete radio receiving sets. The basis on which royalties should be computed was one of the larger issues of the action. The chancellor ruled royalties must be paid on the PSB selling price to Philco and not Philco's sale price to the distributor. RCA had charged PSB with organizing Philco in order to reduce royalty payments to RCA.

Accounting Ordered

Chancellor Wolcott also ordered an accounting of the manufacture of radio sets by PSB which was requested by both PSB and RCA.

Ruling on RCA's claims that Philco and PSB were the same entity, organized for the purpose of reducing the basis on which royalties should be computed, Chancellor Wolcott declared that Philco and PSB are not "in reality one" although the assembly work is done in the PSB plant in Philadelphia, salaries of officials were the same, relations with distributors were identical as were contracts with distributors, conferences and meetings were held jointly and selling prices were determined through joint conferences.

"My conclusion is that Philco is neither an agent, instrumentally, alter ego, or sales department of PSB, subject to its control and domination. Therefore royalty is not computable on the selling price which Philco Radio and Television Corporation receives from its distributors. It is to be computed on PSB's selling price to Philco."

"I am unable to see wherein it can be said to be a fraud on the licensor if the licensee fixes a price he conceives to be most helpful to his business," the chancellor wrote.

Ruling on the question as to whether PSB is guilty of any breach of contract, of having committed any default of payment of royalties, Chancellor Wolcott declared, "There is no contention that any apparatus has been sold to any purchaser who has owned a controlling interest in PSB. Therefore the clause of the paragraph preceded by "(1)" may be ignored."

The paragraph is paragraph 3 of the supplemental license agreement of Oct. 31, 1930 which reads:

"8. In the event that any apparatus licensed under said License Agreement as hereby modified shall be sold either (1) to a corporation, firm or association which, or individual who, shall own a controlling interest in your corporation by stock ownership or otherwise, or (2) to a corporation, firm or association in which you or the stockholders of your corporation shall own a controlling interest by stock ownership or otherwise, the royalties to be paid under said License Agreement in respect of such apparatus shall be based upon the invoice price at which such purchaser resells such apparatus rather than upon your invoice price."

"You" and "your" in the paragraph refer to the storage battery company.

"It is understood by RCA, however," the Chancellor said, "that the clause preceded by "(2)" has been violated.

Traces Organization

"In 1932, PSB organized PRT (Philco) with an authorized and issued capital of 250 shares, PSB owned all but three of the shares which qualifying shares were held by directors. It really owned the entire issue. So long, therefore, as that situation obtained it is plain that the base on which PSB was required to pay royalties was the invoice price at which PRT resold the purchased apparatus. PRT was organized as the sales subsidiary of PSB for home radio sets. Transitone was organized as a subsidiary of PSB, but not wholly owned, to sell automobile radio sets. So long as that relationship continued, PSB paid royalties on PRT's selling price, thus complying with the requirements of paragraph eight of the supplemental agreement. But in the case of Transitone, from Jan. 1, 1932, to July 30, 1934, it paid royalties on the basis of its sales to Transitone, which were at cost, and not on the latter's sales to the trade. PSB finally paid on the basis of Transitone's sales during those years, after demand by RCA but under protest."

Suit Brought in May, 1935

Ruling that PSB is not required to make royalty payments on complete radio receiving sets, Chancellor Wolcott said, "RCA contends that from 1928, when the Murdock license was granted, down to the present date, the original agreement and its subsequent modifications are to be interpreted as requiring the licensee to pay royalties on the selling price of complete radio receiving sets. I do not so interpret the writings. The phrase 'complete set' does appear in RCA's letter of Oct. 29, 1929, in relation to cabinet allowances; and in its letter of May 29, 1931, it speaks of a chassis and loud speaker as an 'incomplete set.' But the phrases are RCA's. These expressions do not appear in any agreements to which PSB subscribed. What 'complete set' may mean is open to misunderstanding. In one sense a receiver and speaker constitute a complete set.  A complete radio receiving set includes the cabinet and its accessories. A complete radio receiving set may also be spoken of as a complete set. Thus 'complete set' is susceptible to more than one meaning. It is of ambiguous import. If it occurred in the language of the contract and was shown to be the language of RCA, the general rule would require that it be construed most strongly against its author.

"But it does not appear in the contract."

"I look to the language of the contract for interpretative guidance," the chancellor said.

Philco Made Separate Company

PSB brought suit against RCA in May, 1935, asking for a restraining order to prevent RCA from terminating the licensing agreement which allowed PSB to use RCA patents. RCA, in a cross-suit, maintained PSB violated the agreement since July 30, 1934, when Philco, until then a 100 per cent subsidiary of PSB, was organized as a separate corporation and charged PSB with dividing patent rights with Philco.

RCA asked the battery company be adjudged as having failed to pay royalties in accordance with the agreement, that it is in default and that it be required to account for the full amount of royalties up to the date on which the agreements might be terminated. The defendant corporation at the time, PSB charged, had declared its intention of exercising its right to forfeit the agreement within 30 days.

PSB asked the court to decree that it had not violated any of the provisions of its license agreement in the manufacture and sale of radio apparatus to Philco and Transitone and that RCA be made to account for all money paid to it "under protest and duress" because of the threat of cancellation of the agreement.

Chancellor Wolcott later issued a rule on the defendant corporation directing it to appear to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued. In the meantime the court issued an order restraining RCA from taking any further steps towards cancelling the agreement.

FOREIGN BUSINESS FOR 1936 SETS RECORD

Motion picture export business set a record for 1936 with foreign revenues estimated at $110,000,000 as compared with $80,000,000 for 1935, the Department of Commerce reports.

Last year represented a favorable trade balance of $104,000,000 over foreign producers. American payment for the use of foreign films increased from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 over the 1935 level.

Butterfield To Rebuild

Plans to rebuild the Garden theatre at Flint, Mich., are announced by E. C. Beatty, president of the W. S. Butterfield Theatres, Inc. A new long-term lease was signed by the circuit with A. M. Davison, owner of the property. Work on the theatre will begin in March.

Yiddish Operettas Planned

Six Yiddish film operettas are being planned by Eron Pictures Corporation, formed by Arthur Block and Samuel M. Segal. Sidney M. Goldin will direct.

Merian C. Cooper, who did "Grass" and "Chang," will produce "They Seek a Country," Francis Brett Young's historical novel of the Boer trek, for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

IN THE CUTTING ROOM

All American Sweetheart

(Columbia)

College Heroics

There is not a great deal of glamour associated with college boat racing, although of recent years the public has become more familiar with the excitement of the water sport. In this production, Columbia is endeavoring to include those elements and make them desirable entertainment. The pattern hews quite closely to that adapted in the topical football pictures.

There's the star oarsman who would rather study than row, the girl who does a lot of underhanded things to force him to, the college navy that meets one debacle after another, the weakling who causes trouble, the gamblers who try to get this 100 per cent amateur sport in their clutches, the big fight, and, of course, the spectacular regatta in which the stroke who should have been in the hospital flashes his shell to sensational victory to confound the gamblers, reinstate himself in the girl's affections and win the undying gratitude of the student body and alumni.

The production is based on a story by Robert E. Kent for which Grace Neville, Fred Niblo, Jr., and Michael Simmons, all of whom have been associated with the writing of Columbia Pictures' stories, did the screen play. Lambert Hillyer is directing.

Scott Colton is the hero and Patricia Farr the campus queen. Other principals are Gene Morgan, James Eagles, Arthur Loft, Joe Twerp, Ruth Hilliard, Donald Briggs, Louis DaPron and Frank C. Wilson.

Release date Oct. 15, 1937.

Tim Tyler's Luck

(Universal)

Jungle Adventure

Based on Lyman Young's cartoon strip with which King Features Syndicate serves many newspapers, this production is being aimed directly at the youngsters but is not being made in such a juvenile fashion that it might prove unattractive to adults.

Highly imaginative, it is, thematically, of adventures in the jungle encountered by Tim Tyler. Other than having to contend with fierce beasts whom he eventually makes his friends and allies, Tim is up against the villainies of a lot of jungle bad men, black and white. But in the end he is a proper hero; not only finding his missing father, who dies in his arms, but being the central figure of an army which rounds up a regiment of diamond thieves and ivory safari robbers, and discovering the fabulous long lost burial ground of the elephants.

Production technique will vision the spectacular quality of the cartoon and the action and dialogue of the screen play, prepared by Wyndham Gittens, Norman Hall and Ray Trampe, will closely follow the character of the cartoon story.

Frankie Thomas, accomplished adolescent stage player, previously seen in RKO-Radio's "Wednesday's Child" and "A Dog of Flanders," will appear as Tim. Other players are Frances Robinson, Norman Willis, Anthony Warde, Earl Douglas, Alan Gregg, Edward Parker, Kenneth Harlan, Jack Mulhall, William Benedict and Al Shean. Forde Beebe and Wyndham Gittens are directing.

Release date Oct. 29, 1937.

Thrill of a Lifetime

(Paramount)

Comedy, Music, Dancing

The Yacht Club Boys, Judy, Anne and Zeke Canova and Ben Blue, who were in "Artists and Models," will be in "Thrill of a Lifetime." That should establish the production's entertainment character and cue the type of exploitation. Also in the player roster are Betty Grable, presently featured in "This Way Please," Johnny Downs, Eleanor Whitney, Leif Erikson and Larry Crabbe. Their presence suggests there will be no lack of romance.

Being spun out of girls, gags, music and dancing, with several specialties tossed in for good measure, the production comes under the production guidance of Fanchon, who made "Turn Off the Moon."

The action takes place in a summer camp and all that happens promises to be fresh and lively. The persons attending the summer camp all have definite reasons for being there. Some have an eye to business; others either want to get married themselves or have someone else married. The show culminates with the presentation of a musical comedy show which lands everybody on Broadway.

The piece is based on a story by Seena Owen and Grant Garrett, who had the assistance of Paul Gerard Smith in transcribing it for screen purposes. The group is noted for its ability to concoct gay, airy situations and dialogue. Not all the music credits are in yet, but several of Paramount's foremost composers and lyricists had a hand in preparing the tunes. George Archainbaud is directing.

Release date: To be determined.

Madame X

(MGM)

A Favorite Tearjerker

Twice, at least, "Madame X" has been the subject of motion picture attention. The legitimate stage has seen it innumerable times. Great actresses have appeared in the title role in metropolitan productions. In stock, in the Little Theatre movement and as a vehicle for amateurs, everyone who aspired to be a great tragedienne has been eager to have a whack at being the woman who suffered so much for an innocent escapade.

Now MGM is unveiling the hardy old perennial again. It may be, at the moment, that the seemingly ageless story will be timely. Maybe, by the time this re-creation is ready for release, the public will have wearied of the round of musicals and comedies and once again will be in the mood to hear and see a melodrama of suffering.

With pathos as its keynote, "Madame X" is an exposition of the axiom that it's the woman who pays. Directly it is the story of a woman who lived a life of sin though with a spark of honor and decency glowing however faintly. That the happiness of those she loved should not be shattered, she paid the supreme sacrifice, went to death an unknown woman.

It appears that MGM has placed responsibility for a quality reproduction of Alexandre Bisson's play in capable hands. Sam Wood, who is directing, has done other things than make the recent Marx Brothers' films. His flair for melodrama is demonstrated by his direction of "Within the Law," "The Unguarded Hour" and "Stamboul Quest." The adapter, John Meehan, is no novice in the field of vivid human interest. His treatments of "The Divorce," "A Free Soul" and "Strangers May Kiss" did much to elevate Norma Shearer to peerdom on the screen.

The problem of casting, likewise, appears to have been solved. As "Carrie" in "Valiant is the Word for Carrie," Gladys George proved that she is adept in handling the role of a woman who finds all the cards stacked against her. Her role in "They Gave Him a Gun" fitted her to become the latest in the long line who have played "Madame X." The parts of "Fleuriot" and "LaRoche" will present Warren William and Henry Daniel. John Beal is her son. Others in the list are Reginald Owen, William Henry, Phillip Reed, Lynne Carver, Emma Dunn, Luis Alberni, George Zucco, Cora Witherspoon and Jonathan Hale.

With due respect to the significance of all credits, creative or interpretative, "Madame X" always has been and probably again will be a woman's picture, which requires the application of special showmanship technique.

Release date: Oct. 27, 1937.

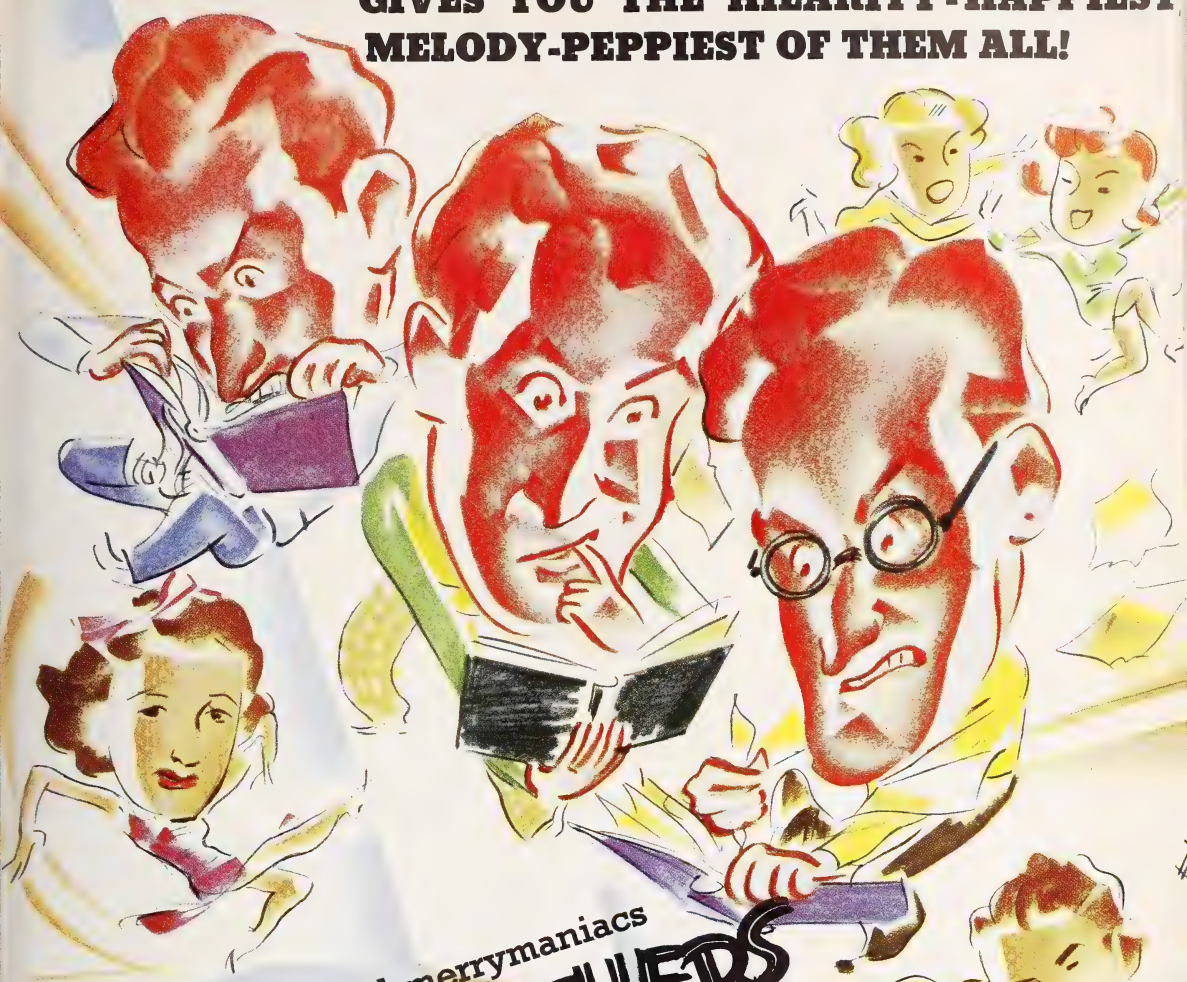
I Met My Love Again

(UA-Wanger)

Woman Trouble

Women are difficult for men to understand. Aware of the psychological condition, women take advantage of it. Yet most of man's symbols, Peace, Justice, Truth, even the Statue of Liberty, are represented by women. Only the villain, Mars, is of the male gender.

A man's inability to understand women and the manner in which he is imposed upon is the thematic substance of this quadrangular romance. Although the subject is being given a light treatment which should assure considerable comedy content, it is also being made to include several serious moments ere the problem of untangling four lives is resolved.



The production is based upon the story "Summer Lightning," which ran serially in a popular magazine and has been published as a book. Author of the novel is Allene Corless. The screen play was prepared by David Hertz and Arthur Ripley and Joshua Logan shared responsibilities of direction.

Featured players are Joan Bennett, presently in "Vogues of 1938;" Henry Fonda, last in "Slim;" Alan Marshal, featured in "The Garden of Allah" and "The Firefly;" Louise Platt, one of Walter Wanger's younger contract players, and Dame May Whitty, who was seen in "Night Must Fall." Minor but nevertheless important players are Alan Baxter, Tim Holt, Dorothy Stickney, Florence Lake, Gene Hall and Alice Cavenna.

Release date: Oct. 8, 1937.

(Continued on page 53)

20th .. MAKER OF YOUR MUSICAL HITS .. NOW GIVES YOU THE HILARITY-HAPPIEST MELODY-PEPPIEST OF THEM ALL!

Those mad merrymaniacs

The RITZ BROTHERS

in their first starring picture

"LIFE BEGINS IN COLLEGE"

with a big-name sparkling joy-jubilant cast!

THE FUNNIEST, FASTEST, TUNIEST EVER LET LOOSE ON A LAUGH

Whoops! Look what the Ritzes brought with them . . . that universal-jointed, slug-nutty siren songstress of "Thin Ice" . . . JOAN DAVIS!

TUNES THAT MAKE LIFE BEGIN ANEW:

"Why Talk About Love"
"Big Chief Swing It"
"The Rhumba Goes Collegiate"
"Our Team Is On The Warpath"
"Fair Lombardy"

by Lew Pollack and Sidney D. Mitchell

LOVE BEGINS IN COLLEGE, TOO!

LAFFA-PALOOZA
TER-LOVING WORLD... EVEN BY 20TH!

The RITZ BROTHERS in "LIFE BEGINS IN COLLEGE"

...and this glo-roarious cast of fun-makers:

JOAN DAVIS • TONY MARTIN • GLORIA STUART

FRED STONE • NAT PENDLETON
ED THORGERSEN • DICK BALDWIN
JOAN MARSH • DIXIE DUNBAR
JED PROUTY • MAURICE CASS
MARJORIE WEAVER • J. C. NUGENT

Directed by William A. Seiter

Associate Producer Harold Wilson. Screen play by Karl Tunberg and Don Ettlinger. Suggested by a series of stories by Darrell Ware. Ritz Brothers Specialty Routines by Sam Pokrass, Sid Kuller and Ray Golden.
Dances staged by Nick Castle and Geneva Sawyer.

20th CENTURY FOX

Darryl F. Zanuck
in Charge of Production

THOSE RAVING RITZES AND THEIR FUN-FRENZIED CREW WILL STOP AT NOTHING SHORT OF NEW RECORDS FOR YOU!

20th's flair for brilliant laugh-and-music hits at its boxoffice best! A perfect pandemonium of uproarious, furorious fun . . . such as only 20th can concoct! Campaign it with extended runs in mind . . . and give it the best dates on the calendar. It's that kind of show!

"LIFE BEGINS IN COLLEGE"

FOOTBALL all balled-up, screwier by far than in "Pigskin Parade". If you're in a gridiron-crazy town at the gridiron-crazy time, play it up! There's a special section of press-book ads just for that!

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

PRINTED IN U. S. A.

Six Distributors In Product Deals With 24 Circuits

Distributors' deals with circuits for 1937-38 product made during the last two weeks include the following:

COLUMBIA—Jefferson Amusement Company, Texas, covering 12 situations.

MONOGRAM—The Rapf - Rudin - Lederer-Harris circuit, covering 11 situations in the New York area. Interstate circuit, Texas, covering 12 situations. Schine circuit for 10 situations in upstate New York. Smalley circuit for 10 situations for upstate New York. E. K. Taylor-C. W. Simons circuit covering seven situations in Montana and Idaho. Warner Brothers, upstate New York, covering five situations. Harris-Voeller circuit, covering four theatres in Idaho. DeMordaunt-Drennan circuit covering three houses in Idaho. Schrieber circuit in Detroit and the United Detroit Theatres circuit in Detroit and Birmingham.

REPUBLIC—Publix-Kincey circuit for all 30 situations, largely in North Carolina. Gibraltar circuit for 40 situations in the Denver territory. G. W. Haynes circuit for all 17 situations from Philadelphia to Louisville. Anderson Theatre circuit for all nine situations in North Carolina. Southwestern Theatres, Oklahoma, for all four situations.

RKO-RADIO—Loew's for seven situations, five in Connecticut and two in Massachusetts.

UNITED ARTISTS—Durkee circuit, Baltimore, Kincey circuit, in the Carolinas, and Interstate circuit, Texas, covering 77 situations in all.

WARNER—M. A. Lightman circuit, in Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee, for all 47 situations. Minnesota Amusement Company for all 83 situations in Minnesota, South Dakota, North Dakota and Wisconsin. Shea circuit for all 45 theatres in Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania, Maine and New Hampshire circuit for all 29 theatres in New England. Wilmer and Vincent circuit for all 20 theatres in Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Circuit Acquires Theatre

Farrar and Turner, Illinois circuit, has purchased the Grand, Sparta, and recently opened the Grand, Vienna.

The circuit is not planning to build a theatre in Marion, Ill., as previously reported.

Schine Acquires House

The Shreffler theatres in Shelby, Ohio, have been acquired by the Schine Theatrical Company. The Castawaba Theatre is now being remodeled and enlarged and will be opened soon under Schine operation.

National Screen Opens Branch

National Screen Service has opened an office in Des Moines to relieve the Chicago branch in coverage of the midwest.

Jack Benny has been signed to a four-year contract by Paramount under which he is reported to make two pictures annually at $100,000 a picture.

IN THE STUDIO CUTTING ROOM

(Continued from page 48)

Ebb-Tide

(Paramount)

South Sea Adventure

For its first attempt in Technicolor production, Paramount has chosen a story of rugged adventure in the South Seas. The story concerns desperate and dangerous men on a perilous mission, also a hero and a heroine.

Based on a story by Robert Louis Stevenson, whose sea yarns have thrilled successive generations, but with certain modernizing touches applied by Lloyd Osbourne, the production will feature a limited cast. It is of more than ordinary interest from a personal showmanship point, as it will mark the American screen debut of Oscar Homolka, who created the memorable character of "Oom Paul" Kruger in "Rhodes." The other important players are Frances Farmer and Lloyd Nolan, both of whom were outstanding in "Exclusive," Ray Milland, last seen in "Easy Living," and Barry Fitzgerald, an Abbey player seen in "Parnell."

The screen play is by Bertram Millhauser, recently credited with the screen play of "The Crime Nobody Saw," "The Magnificent Brute," and authorship of "Under Cover of Night." Direction is in the hands of James Hogan, who did "The Last Train from Madrid" and "Bulldog Drummond Escapes."

Melodramatic in character although not without a romantic story of a boy and girl whose love was born in fear and peril, the picture has been given the benefit of a healthy production budget that should enable it to take its place in Paramount's group of better films.

Release date: Oct. 29, 1937.

Bad Guy

(MGM)

Melodrama

When the cast of a production is not overly strong in name value, it becomes necessary for showmanship-minded exhibitors to look for other angles on which to build exploitation. This is particularly true when a picture like "Bad Guy" is included in B classification. The two elements most readily presenting themselves for consideration are character of story and quality of sustaining production, with some little notice taken of the personnel behind the venture.

For name value the picture will offer Bruce Cabot, Edward Norris, Virginia Grey, Jean Chatburn, Charley Grapewin, Warren Hymer and John Hamilton, all of whom have roles synchronizing with their known screen characters.

In theme the story is action melodrama, with thrill and suspense, to appeal to the masses. The action centers interest on a "bad guy." An electrical trouble-shooter is sentenced to death, but his term is commuted to life imprisonment and he is paroled for an act of heroism when he prevents breaking high tension wires from causing mass electrocution of fellow convicts. Not above two timing his pal when on the outside, he is rearrested for parole violation. Plotting to escape by melting the jail bars with electricity, he is a victim of his own dangerous idea when he is trapped in an inferno of flaming power.

Based on a screen play on which Earl Felton, Harry Ruskin, Leonard Lee and Walter Wise collaborated, the film is being directed by Eddie Cahn, who gained prominence with his "Crime Doesn't Pay" series of short subjects.

Release date: August 20th.

Guild to Take Action Similar To Strike Call

Although expressing an antipathy for the term "strike," Mrs. Florence Marston, eastern head of the Screen Actors' Guild, has drafted plans for action against eastern studios that do not sign closed shop agreements by Monday.

Mrs. Marston emphasized the point that the deadline is "very, very tentative," but added that the course of action to be followed if signatures are not forthcoming, while not being named a strike, would be tantamount to one. All Guild members employed in the studios involved, she said, would be instructed to cease working.

"Members will be liable to suspension if they continue to work after the order is issued," she explained.

Mrs. Marston said she expects no serious difficulties. She planned to confer with a number of the smaller producers and expressed the opinion that the majority of them would sign the contract. "They have had two months to mull over the contracts," Mrs. Marston said, "and I have told them that when the time arrives for the Guild to take action they may not receive more than 24 or 36 hours' notice."

Originally the deadline for contract signing by producers was set at August 1st but it was postponed until September 1st, at which time it was put off indefinitely. Last week Mrs. Marston was reported as stating she had decided upon September 17th as the deadline. She amplified the statement this week by explaining that she had said action would be taken in "about ten days." The statement was made September 7th.

Mrs. Marston said that the Guild is now recognizing paid up cards of the Associated Actors and Artistes of America, which embraces Actors Equity Association, Chorus Equity, the American Federation of Actors and the American Federation of Radio Artists.

Extras employed in Hollywood received more than 10 per cent above the 1936 rate of pay during June and July, the first two months of Screen Actors Guild shop rule, according to guild figures.

In June Central Casting made 22,226 placements among major studios using its services. Total wages paid were $239,906.36, making the average daily wage $9.32, which is 12.8 per cent more than they received in 1936. A total of $32,751.36 of this amount was paid in overtime and adjustments.

Placements in July totaled 29,786, while wages aggregated $310,844.18, making an average daily rate of $10.43. Of the total $32,873.18 was for overtime and adjustments.

Less than $200 complaints have arisen under the guild contract and of these a number has been adjusted and conciliated. Fewer than 100 claims were referred to the arbitration machinery as provided for in the pact.

Scripps-Howard Picks "Good Earth"

"The Good Earth" has been selected by the Scripps-Howard newspapers as their choice for the best release for August.

SHAW SAYS PUBLIC PREFERS THE FILM

"Flats, Cinemas and Garages" Preferred, National Theatre Needs Subsidy, Writer Says

The public prefers "flats, cinemas and garages" to the theatre of the stage, and the one method to obtain a national theatre is to float it with a state subsidy, George Bernard Shaw declared in London this week. Last winter, in an exclusive interview in the 1937 edition of "Fame, the Box Office Check-Up," the British playwright characterized motion picture adaptors as "office boys."

The dramatist's latest verbal fling was in a letter to the London Times, challenging objections voiced by its dramatic critic, Charles Morgan, to a site recently purchased in the "museum district" for a national theatre.

"The South Kensington site is an ideal one," Mr. Shaw wrote, proposing that the neighboring museums and leading art galleries be razed and their sites occupied by "piles of residential flats and shops, with conversion of the almost disused city churches into garages and cinemas."

As in the "Fame" interview, Mr. Shaw took occasion to refer to Shakespeare. He told a "Fame" reporter that he had not refused offers to film his plays but that he had refused "offers for the use of my name to attract audiences to demonstrations of how some crude and nameless amateur thinks my plays ought to have been written. . . ."

Called Adaptors "Bunglers"

He characterized adaptors as "unqualified and unknown bunglers who do not know the A. B. C. of the art of telling a story dramatically."

In answer to a query as to whether the big producing companies would permit such things, Mr. Shaw retorted:

"Look around you. They never do anything else. They will go to any expense to secure the most skillful camera artists, electricians, painters, scene-builders and film stars. If the machinery breaks down they do not send for the office boy to repair it; they send for the appropriate expert. But it has not yet occurred to them that drama is a skilled trade.

"When anything is needed in that department, for instance when a play of Shakespeare's is to be adapted to the screen, they send for the office boy. The office boy, not being Shakespeare, takes great pains to spoil Shakespeare's work in the conviction that he is improving it . . . "

In answer to the next question, he qualified his classification of adaptors: "It is too often evident that the adaptor could not hold down a job as office boy for a week. I perhaps should have said the bell boy."

Says State Must Pay for It

In his letter to the Times, the playwright declared the public is not willing to "give a brass farthing" for the national theatre, that the project must be carried out with state aid. An unspoken but inferred comparison of Shakespeare and himself foliowed in the words " . . . the national theatre won't be able to create a Shakespeare or a—well, leave it at that."

Mr. Shaw proceeded to develop his cherished thesis that the British public is opposed to the fine arts, particularly the theatre, and that culture has to be imposed upon it.

Pleading for the drama as an institution of culture, Mr. Shaw continued: "For that we must have a visible national monument as imposing as our architects can make it, in a fitting situation; and the state must support it, even if it be attended by only one dreaming boy or girl in the gallery, let in for nothing. I haven't forgotten how often I was alone in the Dublin National Gallery when I was a dreaming boy."

In connection with his proposal that churches be converted into "garages and cinemas," Mr. Shaw declared:

"There is a good deal to be said for such a transformation. The British nation does unquestionably want flats, cinemas and garages. It is equally unquestionable that it does not want a national theatre, though no doubt if one opened freely a few people could always be depended on to stroll in, as they do into the national gallery."

The proposed theatre has created wide discussion since purchase of the Kensington site from the government for $365,000 was announced. This leaves only about the same amount in the treasury, considerably less than will be required to build the theatre. The committee plans a new fund raising drive, but with reaction unfavorable, it is considered likely that a state subsidy will be requested as Mr. Shaw proposed.

Alley Flies to Shanghai To Aid "U" Cameramen

Norman W. Alley, who has been in charge of the Hollywood office of Universal Newsreel, has taken the China Clipper for Shanghai to consolidate the work of George Krainukov and Howard Winner, Universal cameramen covering the Sino-Japanese war.

Samuel Savitt, formerly in charge of the Chicago office, will manage the Hollywood office in Mr. Alley's absence.

Ed Sullivan Succeeds Skolsky in Hollywood

Ed Sullivan, Broadway columnist of the New York Daily News, has succeeded Sidney Skolsky as Hollywood columnist of the publication. Dan Walker, who at various times has covered theatre, concert, opera and radio for the News, takes over the Broadway column.

Mr. Skolsky declined an assignment to return to New York in a transfer with Mr. Sullivan, and has signed a contract for a series of radio broadcasts beginning October 6th.

Sylvan Drown, former editor of Zit's, has joined the publicity staff of Artists Management Bureau, succeeding Ed Hurley, resigned.

Mexico to Expand Turkish Exchanges; Trade Brisk There

by JAMES LOCKHART
in Mexico City

Turkey is the latest country to favor Mexican-made pictures. Gratified at the report of its consul in Ankara that the Turkish citizenry are showing partiality to Mexican films, the government is taking steps to set up exchanges in Stamboul and other key cities to assure wider distribution of Mexican product.

▽

A copyright dispute has arisen for the producers of "Ora Ponciano" ("Come On, You Ponciana"), Producciones Soria, A. en P. The company has asked the Mexican Composers' Union to discipline Lorenzo Barcelata and Ernesto Cortaza, noted composers and showmen, for alleged infringement by selling to RCA Victor and Brunswick recording companies disc rights to part of the score which they composed for the film. The composers contend that the contract does not grant the producer exclusive rights to the score of the picture.

▽

An exploitation novelty for Mexico, commercial plugs over the radio, is being tried in connection with "La Paloma" ("The Dove") and is attracting American tourists to the film. The radio announcements are being made over XEW, owned by the management of the Alemeda, where the picture is playing.

Winnipeg Builds Central Exchange

The new film exchange building which will house the eight Winnipeg branches of large Canadian distributors is under construction.

Construction, which is being financed by the Hudson Bay Company, will be at a cost of $100,000. When completed, it will be the headquarters for the eight distributors' exchanges servicing Manitoba and Saskatchewan. The building is being erected at Colony Street and Memorial Boulevard, in Winnipeg, by the Carter-Halls-Aldinger contracting firm.

Two new neighborhood theatres are soon to be erected in Winnipeg. Irvine Brown plans one in the suburb of Norwood at a cost of $30,000 and another will be built by H. Triller, veteran operator, at a cost of $60,000.

Hicks Sails for England To Discuss Production

John W. Hicks, Jr., Paramount vice-president in charge of foreign distribution, sailed for England on board the Normandie to confer with Adolph Zukor and J. C. Graham on the company's British producing plans.

While in England he will conduct the company's annual foreign sales convention, which will be held in London September 25th and 26th. Mr. Zukor is planning to return to New York on board the Queen Mary, which sails September 29th.

THE NEWEST OF 20TH'S SMASH PARADE STARTS SHOWERING GOLD AND GLORY UPON THE NATION'S BOXOFFICES!★

★ Unanimously forecast by every show-wise critic who viewed it!

"Best picture of the week!"
—Jimmie Fidler

"A cinch to clean up at any boxoffice!"
—Showmen's Trade Review

"Audience response prophetic of box-office profits!"—Motion Picture Herald

"Absolutely screams boxoffice!"
—Los Angeles Examiner

"An achievement in which 20th may take profound pride!"—Daily Variety

"Will play to fat grosses in all runs!"
—Hollywood Reporter

You too will hail it the gayest, smartest comedy in years!

LORETTA YOUNG
WARNER BAXTER
VIRGINIA BRUCE
in
WIFE DOCTOR and NURSE
JANE DARWELL • SIDNEY BLACKMER • MAURICE CASS
MINNA GOMBELL MARGARET IRVING
Directed by Walter Lang
Associate Producer Raymond Griffith
Screen Play by Kathryn Scola, Darrell Ware and Lamar Trotti
Darryl F. Zanuck in Charge of Production

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

TELEVISION TO BE INTEGRAL PART OF PROGRAM IN LONDON THEATRE

Odeon to Use Scophony System As Part of the Regular Show; Exhibit Indicates Reduction in Price of Receivers

by BRUCE ALLAN
in London

The advent of television as commercial entertainment was forecast in an announcement by Oscar Deutsch, chairman and managing director of Odeon Theatres, Ltd., that television would be an integral part of the program at the new Odeon, Leicester Square, which will open in October. If the plan is successful, Mr. Deutsch told the press at a luncheon at which he was host, it will be adopted for all theatres in the circuit.

The circuit executive also said Odeon would invest in Scophony, Ltd., owners of a television system, of which he has been a director for some time. The indication that the Scophony system would be used at the Leicester Square house was of particular interest in view of the fact that the company has pioneered in large screen television. This summer, in a laboratory demonstration, a picture five feet wide and of fair cinema quality was shown and engineers have promised a picture 16 feet square for the near future.

Demonstration of television receiving sets by over a dozen manufacturers at Radiolympia, recent annual radio exhibit, foreshadowed major reductions in the price of the sets to the public this winter.

The cheapest receiver, a miniature showing a picture six inches wide and for which sound is supplied through any standard radio receiver, was priced at £35, and the price range in general ranged from £60 to the £100 which was the approximate average previously.

Television demonstrations were a popular feature of the exhibit, programs being shown three times daily in one hour sessions. These included regular afternoon transmissions through the Alexandra Palace Station of the British Broadcasting Company from the London Zoo, horse riding displays, power boat racing, fire fighting demonstrations and an open air meeting of the Women's Health movement. Newsreels and cartoons, including Mickey Mouse subjects, were evening features and variety acts, orchestral programs and dancing and skating displays were offered as evidence of the program fare which will be offered next winter.

An interesting combination of straight television and film technique is to be demonstrated from the B B C's Alexandra Palace station on September 28th. Under the title "Turn Round," a comedy will be presented, against the background of the arrival at and departure from Southampton of the liner Empress of Britain.

A series of film shots already have been made aboard the liner. They will be televised with linking scenes transmitted direct from the studio. It will be the first occasion on which film scenes will have been matched with directly transmitted studio scenes.

A further association between television and film production will be reflected in a series of transmissions from September 30th to October 5th. These will show the Pinewood studios in operation, introducing such stars as Jessie Matthews, Maurice Chevalier and Adele Astaire at work on the floor under the direction of Rene Clair, Lonnie Hale and others and covering the make-up and wardrobe departments.

CBS Plans Studio

Construction in New York of an experimental television studio operating under conditions of daily production will be begun shortly by the Columbia Broadcasting System. The new studio will be located in the Grand Central Terminal Building and will operate in conjunction with the powerful new CBS television transmitter to be located in the tower of the Chrysler Building.

Studio designs for the new television center have already been completed. The new quarters will be the largest of any television studio, measuring 225 feet in length and 60 feet in width. Provision has been made for the cutting and editing of motion picture films.

Announcement of the new studios came simultaneously with the appointment of Gilbert Seldes, noted critic and newspaper columnist, as director of the new television experiment. Mr. Seldes, who has already assumed his new duties, will be in charge of establishing television at the same standard of other amusement forms. He will shape up televised shows, using talent both from the outside and from the CBS artist roster.

The broadcasts will not be announced, but conducted on the same basis as the television broadcasts of the National Broadcasting Company, also experimental in nature.

Reports of television progress abroad were outlined by Dr. P. C. Goldmark, chief television engineer for CBS, on his return from a five-week tour of Europe recently.

Dr. Goldmark said that engineers in England are experimenting with the use of color in television with some amount of success. The British Broadcasting Company, he said, has developed panchromatic television which performs fairly well.

New French Standard

In France, Dr. Goldmark found television in a more experimental stage than in England. Broadcasts on the old 180-line standard have been abandoned and preparations are being made to transmit 441-line images over the Eiffel Tower transmitter recently completed.

In Germany, the price of television receivers is beyond the reach of the average consumer, with the exception of one set which was selling for $200, Dr. Goldmark said.

Television demonstrations have been featured at the Paris Exposition and the annual radio trade exhibition in London, the Radiolympia, which closed last week. At the Paris show, transmission over a 60-mile radius was reported, with images said to be small but clear.

Returning to the domestic television scene, a press demonstration of a new type of television—that designed for motion picture theatres—was held recently by Kolorama Laboratories, Irvington, N. J.

While not pretending that perfection had been reached, the Kolorama method gave indications of the greatest potentialities for large-screen reproduction, necessary for theatre use.

Although most television to date has been best reproduced on small screens, the new entry appears more suitable for large-screen presentation. Exhibition on a comparatively large screen—four feet by five—was the highlight of the exhibition. The need for much improvement is admitted, however, before it can become practical for commercial use.

The corporation is owned by New York and New Jersey men who deny that motion picture interests are financially involved. The possibility that such might be the case was suggested by the avowed purpose of the company to apply its new system primarily to theatre usage.

A. E. Kern, vice-president, is active manager of the concern and Frank Goldbach, formerly with DeForest, is chief engineer.

The ultimate need for wire relays in order to transmit televised programs into rural homes was seen last week by Joseph J. Weed, president of Weed & Company, station representatives.

"Big cities," he said, "will be the first to be equipped with transmitters.

"Hence there's the possibility that coaxial relays, perhaps under telephone company subsidy will 'pipe' the sight-and-sound programs directly into homes in various towns and villages where subscribers would necessarily have to pay a fee. This would be dependent, of course, on bringing down the now prohibitive cost of coaxial wire manufacture."

NEWS SERVICE SET FOR TELEVISION

Transradio Press Service has formed a subsidiary to make sound on film transcriptions of news events for the use of radio stations. Development of service which will supply two transcriptions daily to stations is planned and the ultimate aim of the company is to be prepared to supply complete sound films for television transmission when that medium is commercially available.

Incorporators of the new company are Herbert Moore, Transradio president, and Dixon Stewart and Wallace G. Quisenberry, vice-presidents.

NBC TO EXPERIMENT WITH TELEVISION

The National Broadcasting Company is planning to experiment with television, it was disclosed with the filing of an application with the Federal Communications Commission for a construction permit for an experimental station in the New York City-Camden area.

The new station will conduct experiments in two television channels. It will use 400 watts power for pictures and 100 watts for the accompanying sound.

THE GREATEST STROKE OF SHOWMANLY CASTING IN YEARS . . . HEPBURN AND ROGERS TOGETHER . . . in

RKO-RADIO'S
MOST IMPORTANT
SHOW BID FOR THE BEST AND LONGEST PLAYING TIME YOU EVER
GAVE A PICTURE . . .

WORLD PREMIERE RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL

SOON . . . OF

Stage Door

Expect record business for as long as you play it!.. Hollywood Reporter voices the word that's spreading like wildfire, with:

"Director La Cava has made a new Hepburn, has guided Ginger Rogers to a top spot she never even approached before, created a new star in Andrea Leeds, has given the screen a new Lucille Ball, helped Adolphe Menjou in another of his great roles, and has come out with A PICTURE THAT WILL BE THE TALK OF THE MOVIE UNIVERSE!"

RKO RADIO PICTURES

LITHO U.S.A.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

Finish 15; Start 13

As Hollywood approached the fall production season 13 new pictures went into work and 15 came off the active line. One who cares to give himself an idea as to the quality and importance of pictures that will be available for presentation within the next few months should find the list of completed pictures interesting. A season in which "The Adventures of Marco Polo," "Hurricane," "Life Begins in College," "Ali Baba Goes to Town" and "Hi Fliers," probably the last Wheeler and Woolsey picture, are due to appear, cannot be considered usual.

Universal finished three. "Courage of the West," a Trem Carr production, will present Bob Baker, Lois January, J. Farrell MacDonald, Fuzzy Knight, Carl Stockdale, Harry Woods and others. Joseph H. Lewis directed. "A Girl with Ideas," formerly "Mightier Than the Sword," features Wendy Barrie, Walter Pidgeon and Kent Taylor with Henry Hunter, George Barbier, Dorothea Kent, Hobart Cavanaugh, Samuel S. Hinds, Horace MacMahon. S. Sylvan Simon directed. "Merry Go Round of 1938," a B. G. DeSylva production which Irving Cummings directed, will present Joy Hodges, John King, Bert Lahr, Billy House, Mischa Auer, Jimmie Savo, Alice Brady, Barbara Reed, Louise Fazenda, Richard Carle, Howard Cantowine and Dave Apollon and his orchestra.

Finish Astaire Film

Two pictures were completed at RKO-Radio. Fred Astaire's solo picture, "A Damsel in Distress," will also include Joan Fontaine, Gracie Allen and George Burns, Ray Noble, Reginald Gardiner, Constance Collier, Montague Love, Harry Watson and Jack Carson. George Stevens directed. In Wheeler and Woolsey's "High Fliers," Lupe Velez, Marjorie Lord, Jack Carson, Charles Judels, Frank M. Thomas, George Irving, Margaret Dumont and Herbert Clifton will also be seen. Eddie Cline directed.

"City Hall Scandal" and "Blossoms on Broadway" were completed for Paramount. John Barrymore, Lynne Overman, Louis Campbell, Charles Bickford, Elizabeth Patterson, Evelyn Brent, Cecil Cunningham and Barlow Borland are in the cast of the first. The second, a B. P. Schulberg production, will present Edward Arnold, Shirley Ross, John Trent, Rufe Davis, Weber and Fields, William Frawley, Frank Craven, Kitty Kelly, John Arthur, Edward Brophy, Charles Halton, the Radio Rogues and Frederick Clarke. Richard Wallace directed.

Samuel Goldwyn completed two for United Artists. Principals in "Hurricane" are John Hall, Dorothy Lamour, Raymond Massey, Mary Astor, C. Aubrey Smith, Thomas Mitchell, Jerome Cowen, Kulei De Clercq, Mamo Clark and Movita. John Ford directed. Gary Cooper and Sigrid Gurie are the stars of "The Adventures of Marco Polo." Others who will be seen are Ernest Truex, Binnie Barnes, Basil Rathbone, George Barbier, Lotus Liu and Ferdinand Gottschalk. Archie Mayo directed.

The important players in MGM's "Live, Love and Learn" are Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell, Robert Benchley, Helen Vinson and Rita Johnson. George Fitzmaurice directed.

"All American Sweetheart," Columbia, will present Patricia Farr, Scott Colton, Gene Morgan, Jimmy Eagles, Arthur Loft, Joe Twerp, Ruth Hilliard, Donald Briggs, Louis DaPron, Allen Brook and Frank C. Wilson. Lambert Hillyer directed.

Cantor Picture Cutting

Eddie Cantor's first picture for 20th Century-Fox moved on to the cutting rooms. Directed by David Butler, June Lang, Roland Young, Louise Hovick, Tony Martin, John Carradine, Alan Dinehart, Douglas Dumbrille, Virginia Field, George Regas, Douglas Wood, Stanley Fields and Warren Hymer will also be seen.

Warners completed "Larger Than Life" in which Frank McHugh, Cora Witherspoon, Jane Wyman and Diane Lewis are the important personalities. Lewis Seiler directed.

The Grand National production group started three pictures. The cast of "He Wanted to Marry," which Ray Cannon is directing, will include Wallace Ford, Ray Mayer, Isabel Jewel, Mary Treen, Tully Richards and Max Hoffman, Jr. "Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel" will present Stuart Irwin, Helen Chandler, Toby Wing, Walter Byron, Spencer Charters and Milburn Stone. Gordon Wiles is directing. In "Tex Rides with the Boy Scouts" will be seen Tex Ritter, Snub Pollard, Horace Murphy, Heeber Snow, Charles King, Forest Taylor and Marjorie Reynolds. Ray Taylor is the director.

Universal started two films. Alice Faye, George Murphy, Charles Winninger and Andy Devine head the cast of "Young Man's Fancy." Others are Ken Murray, Oswald, Larry Blake, Harry Stockwell, Diamond Brothers, Casper Reardon, Marian and Irma and Frances Hunt. David Butler is directing. Stars of "Renegade Wranglers" are Bob Baker and Joan Barclay. Joseph H. Lewis is the director.

Warners Start Two

Two pictures started at Warners. "Too Much of Everything" will feature Dolores Costello, John Briggs and Bonita Granville. Arthur Lubin is directing. Cast for "Swing Your Lady" are Humphrey Bogart, Dorothy McNulty, Eddie Acuff, Louise Fazenda, Frank McHugh, Allen Jenkins, The Weaver Brothers and Elvira and Daniel Boone Savage. Ray Enright is directing.

Paramount also started two films. Harry Sherman's "Men Must Fight" features William Boyd, George Hayes and Russell Hayden with Gwen Gaze, Hilda Plowright, John Warburton, Al Bridge, Al Hill, Earl Hodgings and John Beach. Les Selander is directing. In "True Confession," which Wesley Ruggles is directing, Carole Lombard, Fred MacMurray, John Barrymore, Porter Hall, Edgar Kennedy, Richard Carle, John Murray, William Collier, Sr., Fritz Feld, Una Merkel and Tom Dugan will be seen.

Columbia's new production "Carnival Lady," will present Charles Quigley, Rita Hayworth, Donald Kirk, Dwight Frye, Marc Lawrence, Arthur Loft and Marjorie Main. C. C. Coleman, Jr., is the director.

"Navy Blue and Gold" was started at MGM with Sam Wood in the director's chair. Cast names are Robert Young, James Stewart, Tom Brown, Lionel Barrymore, Billie Burke, Barnett Parker and Alyn Curtis.

RKO-Radio started "Female of the Species" in which Miriam Hopkins, Ray Milland and Walter Abel are the featured players. Leigh Jason is directing.

Republic began work on "The Duke Comes Back." With Irving Pichel directing, Allan Lane, Heather Angel, Genevieve Tobin and Fanny McKim are the leading players.

DISNEY STUDIO ADOPTS MULTIPLANE CAMERA

Used without fanfare in production of the Silly Symphony, "The Old Mill", and approved on the basis of observations made, a multiplane camera process developed within the Walt Disney studio for the purpose of achieving an illusion of depth, or third dimension, has been adopted for further use and will be applied in production of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs".

Casting Voices

Lots of persons have been curious to know why in the Walt Disney studio, where all the picture characters come out of a bottle of ink or pot of paint, there should be such a thing as a casting department.

Advance news concerning the forthcoming "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" prompted us to ask the question, "What do you need a casting department for?"

In this particular studio, the proper voices are just as important as the proper physical types of actors are to regular motion picture companies. It took two years to find the perfect voice for the character of "Snow White" in the first Disney feature length production. In the search for voices fifty radio stations were combed for the heroine's voice. Hundreds of auditions were held for all the other characters. No voice was chosen until the voice casting director and everyone actively connected with the making of the film unanimously agreed that it was perfect.

Where regular casting departments look for pulchritude and personality to a great extent, it doesn't matter to Disney if a woman has cross eyes and a club foot or if a man has a face that would sour a pan of milk, as long as the voice is suitable.

In the case of such favorites as Donald Duck, Goof, Pluto and Clara Cluck, the individuals who lend their voices to these characters have been under contract since they first saw celluloid. Walt Disney himself is the voice of Mickey Mouse.

—

Republic will soon produce a serial to feature John Carroll, singer, whose sole film appearance to date has been in RKO's "Hi, Gaucho." The serial will be in 12 episodes and will be called "Zorro Rides Again." It will be directed by William Whitney and Jack English and supervised by Sol Siegel.

BROADCAST TAX SEEN AT THE NEXT CONGRESS

Treasury, Seeking New Income Sources, Also Looks to Radio; FCC Probe Would Hint Levy

by FRANCIS L. BURT

in Washington

Likelihood that special taxes will be levied on broadcasting stations at the next session of Congress is seen as the result of the desperate need of the Treasury Department for additional means of revenue.

Several plans for the taxing of broadcasting have been suggested in recent years, some by the Federal Communications Commission, and tax experts are understood to be giving attention to the proposals in their study of new sources of income.

Broadcast imposts are further seen to be inevitable in the event that the threatened investigation of the FCC is actually undertaken. In addition to the need for additional increment, the tax is justified by some on the ground of public welfare, there being an impression that a tax study would show that stations are making remarkable returns. It is also charged that many stations are over-capitalized and that the questionable sale of licenses, long a target, has resulted in huge profits to certain interests.

If the taxes serve no other purpose, it is advanced, they will at least put the FCC on a self-supporting basis, relieving the Treasury of many millions annually in administrative expense. It is further argued that the broadcasters should be required to bear, at least, the cost of regulation.

One plan for the taxation of broadcasters was introduced in the House of Representatives as recently as last April by Congressman Boylan, of New York. It is now before the Ways and Means Committee. Also in the Congressional files are reports made by the FCC, outlining tax schedules based on power, frequency and radio time from which revenues of from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 could be raised.

The Boylan Bill, embodying the suggestions of FCC members, would impose upon broadcasters taxes of $1 per watt for the first 1,000 watts of power authorized, $2 per watt for the next 9,000 watts and $3 per watt for all power in excess of 10,000 watts.

Under this tax rate, the Crosley station, WLW at Cincinnati, using 500,000 watts, would be taxed $1,489,000 annually. A 50,000-watt station would pay $139,000 and a 10,000-watt transmitter $19,000.

The rates prescribed in the Boylan bill are described in broadcast circles as entirely too high and widely prohibitive. If the measure is enacted, radio executives say that the smaller stations will be forced to suspend operations, leaving the field exclusively in control of the larger networks who alone can afford payment of such levies.

ARKANSAS "BANK NIGHT TAX" COLLECTIONS

Remittance of $1,077.77 in Arkansas "bank night" taxes during August increased total collections from that source since the law became effective last March to $4,214.41, N. E. Shuffield, department of revenue cashier, revealed last week.

Declaring that the cost of collection was "almost nothing," the cashier said, "As soon as we get all these merchandising schemes and 'free money' propositions catalogued, the tax should net the state between $1,500 and $2,000 a month."

Consolidated Change Blocked by Court

A proposed amendment to the certificate of incorporation of Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., was declared null and void in an opinion handed down Wednesday by Josiah O. Wolcott, chancellor of the chancery court in Wilmington. The action was brought by Norman Johnson, of New York City, a preferred stockholder. The chancellor ruled that a decreee be entered in favor of the complainoant, declaring the proposed amendment to be beyond the power of the corporation to adopt. The amendment would have increased the preferred stock issue and would have given preferred stockholders one-half of all dividends in excess of accumulated dividends.

Alfred Hitchcock Returns to England

Alfred Hitchcock, director for Gaumont British, has returned to England on board the Georgic after a two weeks' vacation in New York City. He was accompanied by his wife, the former Alma Reville; his assistant, Miss Joan Harrison, and his nine-year-old daughter, Pat. On his return to London, he plans to complete the editing of "The Girl Was Young," in which Nova Pilbeam is starred.

Ohio Board Reviews 575 Films for August

The Ohio censors reviewed a total of 575 reels for the month of August, from which 27 eliminations were ordered.

This compares with 485 reels and 15 deletions for July. In August, 1936, there was a total of 542 reels reviewed and 27 eliminations ordered.

Skouras Acquires 6 Springer Houses

Six theatres in New York City, formerly operated by the Springer interests, have been taken over by Skouras Theatres. They include the Seventy-seventh Street Theatre, the Stoddard, the Symphony, the Thalia, the Carlton and the Olympia.

EXHIBITORS STUDY TAVERN SHOWINGS

Exhibitor leaders have undertaken an investigation in Chicago to determine where tavern owners are obtaining films which they show in their establishment with portable projectors.

One theatre manager reported he informed police of the practice but that no action had been taken. A representative of the motion picture operators' union was expected to visit the taverns to determine conditions regarding union operators and fire hazards.

Estimate CBS Net Near $2,600,000

The Columbia Broadcasting System net income for the six months ended June 30th is expected to be reported at $2,600,000 after all charges, equal to about $1.50 a share on the 1,707,950 shares of the combined Class A and Class B stock. The figure would compare with a net income of approximately $2,150,000 for the corresponding period in 1936.

Directors of the company are planning to issue a six months interim statement to stockholders.

Cumulative billings of the network for the first eight months of 1937 amounted to $18,746,957, an increase of more than 36 per cent over the billings of $13,711,138 reported for the corresponding period a year ago. Time sales for August totaled $1,955,280, marking the highest August in CBS history, and representing an increase of more than 58 per cent over the $1,232,588 figure reported for the like month in 1936.

86 More Canadian Theatres in 8 Months

An increase of 86 Canadian theatres from January 1st to August 21st has been reported by the Canadian Film Boards of Trade.

During the period, 88 new houses were opened, 11 houses were reopened and 13 theatres were closed. There were 65 changes in ownership.

New Jersey Allied To Meet

Allied of New Jersey has deferred the start of its annual convention one day and will open the three-day meeting September 22nd at the Ritz-Carlton, Atlantic City, instead of a day earlier, as originally planned.

Laemmle to Make "Fight Back"

"Fight Back," an original story by Richard Schayer and Jerry Horwin, will be produced by Carl Laemmle, Jr., as his first picture under a recently signed contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Major Closes New York Office

Major Productions is closing its New York office at 42 West 45th Street. Ernie Gann, talent scout for the company, will remain east.

Quota Act a Boon To U.S. Theatres, Says Fligelstone

The proposed British Quota act is a well-intentioned measure which will prove of ultimate benefit to the American exhibitor, in the opinion of Theodore H. Fligelstone, president of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association, who returns to London this week after a five-week visit.

Mr. Fligelstone's argument was that the measure insures production of quality films of American standard, giving theatres here a wider selection of product.

"It can't possibly be a matter of competition as anyone knows who has seen Hollywood's superiority first-hand," he said.

Mr. Fligelstone spent nine days in Hollywood inspecting studios. He was impressed, he said, with Hollywood's efficiency and certain outstanding differences between British and American theatre policy. One of the most obvious differences is the American effort to make the patron feel his own importance, a point which British exhibitors would do well to imitate, he said.

"When I return, I plan to use the same means to achieve the same results," he said.

Mr. Fligelstone was both "amazed and pleased" at the good-will of American producers toward England. The one suggestion he had to make for the improvement of Anglo-American film relations was a plea for greater consideration of the needs of the English market. "There should be greater understanding between the foreign market and domestic production," he said. He added that 75 per cent of the pictures shown in his theatres were of American origin, a typical proportion.

Mr. Fligelstone, who was visiting Grand National's offices in the RKO Building in New York when interviewed, expressed the importance of the independent picture in England.

"In England, as in your country, there is always a shortage of good films," he said. "There is a great market in England for independent pictures."

Criterion Negotiations End

Paramount's negotiations to acquire a partnership interest in the Criterion theatre in New York have been dropped. The company had planned to use the house for extended runs, pictures to be shown there after business at the Paramount indicated that additional first-run time was warranted.

Bell Heads Screen Club

Chester Bell, Paramount exchange manager in Denver, has been elected president of the Rocky Mountain Screen Club, succeeding Harry Golub. Joseph H. Dekker was elected vice president and Frank Culp second vice president.

Signed for Yiddish Film

Arthur Block, president of Eron Pictures, has signed three members of the Yiddish Art Theatre for leading parts in "The Cantor's Son," Jewish film operetta, which will star Moihe Oysher, cantor. The picture, now in production, will open on Broadway late in September.

STAGE REVIVAL AIDED BY NATIONAL THEATRES

40 to 50 Houses Opened for Presentation of Plays, Musical Comedies and Concerts

The long awaited and frequently predicted revival of vaudeville has gained impetus from within the motion picture industry with the announcement from National Theatres, a Twentieth Century-Fox subsidiary, that it will open from 40 to 50 of its houses to plays, musical comedies and concerts.

Frank Gillmore, head of Affiliated Actors and Artists of America and one of vaudeville's leading champions, immediately acclaimed the move as one of the most important in theatrical developments in recent years. "I'm tickled to death," he declared. "I think they (National Theatres) are perfectly right. It's certainly very significant. It's fine."

The announcement was greeted generally as being indicative of a closer union between the motion picture industry and the stage.

Aubrey Schenck, assistant film buyer for National, will head the organization's road show and concert department. He explained the new policy was first tried out and proved successful in the Northwest. "There'll be a revival of legitimate shows," he declared.

In support of the statement he asserted residents of communities in which the company's theatres are located, already have expressed a desire for first-class concerts. Under the new policy, National Theatres will cooperate with the United Booking Office for the presentation of plays and musical comedies and with the National Broadcasting Company and the Columbia Broadcasting System for concerts.

"In many of the small towns where we have theatres there are no auditoriums and the people have turned to our theatres," he continued. We feel that being a community institution in those towns, we should open the doors to road shows and concerts on nights when it would not conflict with the presentation of films. For example, instead of running a double feature on both Wednesday and Thursday, we might present a stage show on Thursday."

The booking will be chiefly one night stands. Additional theatres will be added to the stage show circuit, Mr. Schenck said, if the plan is successful.

Among the shows which already have been booked are Billy Rose's "Show of Shows," "Anthony and Cleopatra," starring Tallulah Bankhead, and "The Ziegfeld Follies."

The Warner Brothers circuit, which announced plans two weeks ago, for the addition of about six houses to the five or six in which stage shows are now presented, took the first step in the plan by arranging for stage shows in the Capitol Theatre, Steubenville, Ohio, every Sunday during the Fall and Winter. The unit shows playing the company's house in Pittsburgh, will travel to Steubenville by bus for the Sunday shows.

The Grand Theatre in Albany started a new policy of presenting stage shows this week. The opening program offered "Major Bowes' International Revue" and the picture was "The Life of the Party."

QUESTION NEED FOR KANSAS CENSOR BOARD

Seconding the proposal of the Topeka State Journal to abolish the Kansas State censorship board, the Hutchinson (Kan.) News editorializes: "The elimination of the board would be a commendable action for the legislature to take at its next session.

"Only five states join Kansas in maintaining . . . boards of censorship. Probably the only reason any of them continue is that nobody has gone to the trouble of eliminating them. . . . The day of state boards of censorship is gone. Today they serve no more useful purpose than would a commission for the regulation of livery stables, ferry boats and toll roads."

Griffith Officials Meet Adams

Officials of the Griffith Amusement Company of Oklahoma City, and managers from 13 cities in which Griffith and affiliated theatres operate, conferred with Vernon Adams, RKO executive in the production of "March of Time," at Ardmore last week. The news reel is being booked into the Griffith and affiliated theatres, totaling more than 125.

Seeks Sessue Hayakawa

Negotiations are under way between Paramount and Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese actor formerly in American films, to have him play in "East of Shanghai," which will be the first Anna May Wong picture to be produced by the studio. Mr. Hayakawa is now appearing in French productions.

Rites for May Dean

Funeral services were held last week for May Dean, stage actress since childhood and recent player in motion picture shorts, in Queens, New York. Born in Peoria, Ill., she had been on the stage as dancer and comedienne for 41 years, starting her career at the age of six. She was the original "colored mammy" for Aunt Jemima pancake flour advertisements. Surviving is her widower, Robert Bernard.

Rites for Harry Schott

Funeral services were held last weekend for Harry Sayre Schott, vice president of the National Carbon Company, at his home in Montclair, N. J. Mr. Schott died the previous Tuesday in Mountainside Hospital, in that city.

Actor Heads Course

J. Farrell Macdonald, actor, will have charge of the University College cinematographic acting and expression course of the University of southern California. The University College is the evening course extension division of the university.

IATSE CLAIMS FULL STUDIO JURISDICTION

Film Editors Charge Usurpation, Threaten Appeal to Regional Board; Directors To Act

A drive launched last week by the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, to extend its labor jurisdiction to include all studio craft employed in the production of films, met with opposition this week when the Society of Film Editors threatened to bring before the Regional Labor Board what it described as an attempted usurpation of jurisdiction.

In addition, leaders of the Screen Directors' Guild answered the IATSE announcement by drafting plans for a joint meeting with the Writers' Guild for a possible united front against the movement.

The film editors have called a mass meeting for Monday night to discuss further action to be taken.

The claim of full jurisdiction in all branches of production was made in a letter sent to producers by William Bioff, IATSE head on the Coast, last Saturday. On Monday, Mr. Bioff conferred with E. J. Mannix and Victor Clark, of the producers' labor relations department, for four hours with the result that he announced organization of minor employees would start immediately. The inclusion of other studio workers is to be delayed until the return to Hollywood of Louis B. Mayer, vice-president in charge of production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of Twentieth Century-Fox, Mr. Bioff said.

Mr. Bioff's announcement to producers was accompanied by a demand that the emblem of the IATSE be used on pictures to "insure protection throughout the country by our projectionists."

The Committee for Industrial Organization has appointed Rudolph Kohl as organizer for the film industry and, at the same time, announced through C. H. Jordan, secretary of the Los Angeles Industrial Council, that the organizing move was "merely educational and the CIO is not attempting to disrupt the film industry labor situation." Mr. Kohl was business agent of the A F of L Motion Picture Painters' Local during the recent strike.

The Screen Writers Guild has been granted a hearing September 27th on its petition to the Regional Labor Board to be declared bargaining agent for all film writers. Screen Playrights already holds a bargaining agreement for writers.

Wage Terms Discussed

Representatives of Local 306, Motion Picture Operators Union, met in New York last week with officials of the large circuits to discuss wage terms for the next two years but no agreement was reached and the meetings were resumed this week.

New agreements with the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees have been made for all Loew's theatres outside of New York except for a few Poli houses in New England. Some of the contracts are for one year while others are for two and three years.

The IATSE is now seeking a uniform contract for service employees at all exchanges. Representatives are expected to confer with officials of the leading distributing companies in the near future.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS JOIN ACTORS GUILD

About 100 students at the University of Southern California have been unionized.

The students, including the University's football squad, were engaged to play in the Paramount picture, "Hold 'Em, Navy," which is a football story.

Since the Screen Actors' Guild demands that all persons who appear before cameras must be guild members, the students joined the guild.

A discussion as to whether there should be a union affiliation was held when Radio News Editors and Writers met at Hotel Sherman, Chicago.

N L R B Names AFL Unit

In Washington, the National Labor Relations Board ruled the Commercial Artists and Designers Union, AFL affiliate, had the right to act as exclusive bargaining agent for employees of the Max Fleischer Studios in New York. The ruling, the board announced, was based on the results of an election held August 16th over the protest of Mr. Fleischer.

Seeking to "solidify the forces of the theatre and to correct certain abuses existing in the ranks of the 'front office' workers," the Theatrical Managers, Agents and Treasurers Union is planning to merge with the IATSE, Theodore Mitchell, president, said. Both organizations are affiliates of the A F of L Mr. Mitchell said. The plan is to merge in New York City first and then throughout the country.

Although the situation on the labor front in Toronto became calm with the signing of an agreement by Famous Players Canadian Corporation and IATSE operators, trouble developed in Montreal and in Winnipeg. The Montreal issue centers aboun the replacing of operators in five theatres by members of the All-Canadian Congress of Labor, the All-Canadian Operators' Union being in opposition to the Montreal local of the IATSE. At Winnipeg, the International and All-Canadian operators are at odds with the "One Big Union."

The Motion Picture Projectionists' Union in Vancouver has threatened to call a strike unless theatre owners come to terms with the organization.

Union Rivalry Blamed

Labor rivalry was blamed by police for the exploding of stench and tear gas bombs in 21 New York City theatres Sunday night. Three separate investigations have been launched in police and the district attorneys' offices of the Bronx and Manhattan.

The houses affected included several in which one union's members are employed and others in which rival projectionists work. The unions are Local 306 and the Empire State Union.

Samuel J. Foley, Bronx district attorney, said that information gathered by his office indicated that no members of the rival unions were directly involved and that the men who set off the devices were "imported" from another city.

The investigations were under way only one day when two other attempts to fill theatres with acrid fumes were made.

Fifty persons suffered minor injuries in the Sunday night explosions, being sprayed with slivers of glass.

Bleachers Outside For Zola Premiere

When Warner Brothers presented "The Life of Emile Zola" at the Carthay Circle theatre in Los Angeles, bleachers erected opposite the theatre provided ease for the "fans"—and for the police. (Pictures in the pictorial section.)

George Jessel served as master of ceremonies for the broadcast of the premiere and, to insure continuity in the program, short speeches had been prepared for guests.

Adhering to its policy of dignity in the presentation of the Paul Muni film, Warner Brothers undertook no special exploitation with the exception of installing a special lighting system and the offering of music by the Vitaphone orchestra.

Among those attending the opening were Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Warner, H. M. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Hal B. Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Lubitsch, Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn LeRoy, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Berlin, Mr. and Mrs. David Selznick, Al Lichtman, Charles Rogers and Robert Riskin.

Loew-GB Deal Is Called "Dormant"

The proposed Loew-Twentieth Century-Fox-Gaumont British deal was described as "dormant" by David Bernstein, vice-president and treasurer, on his return last week from a two-month vacation abroad.

Mr. Bernstein said that the English situation was not discussed by MGM and Loew officials who went abroad recently in connection with British production activities. He said that Loew's plans no theatre expansion in England and that business was encouraging.

Mr. Bernstein, who visited London, Paris and Vichy, added that Louis B. Mayer will return from England in a few weeks.

Executives, Stars At Ampa Opener

Associated Motion Picture Advertisers, Inc., launched its "fall season with a luncheon Thursday at Sardi's restaurant, New York.

Among the invited guests were Walter Wanger, producer; Stuart F. Doyle, theatre circuit executive; Barbara Stanwyck, Gertrude Berg of the "Rise of the Goldbergs" radio program, and Agnes Meollo and Walter Cosden, winners of the "Harvest Moon" dancing contest of the New York Daily News.

Eight one-reel travelogues, depicting scenes in Ohio, have been released without rental or transportation cost to leading Ohio theatres, according to B. A. Aughinsbaugh, director of visual education.

WAIT TILL YOU SEE HEPBURN and ROGERS TOGETHER . . . in

THE BIGGEST ATTRACTION EVER PRESENTED BY RKO-RADIO

TO RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL'S SCREEN SOON COMES . . .

Stage Door

A picture that will sweep fans off their feet!...A show for you to advertise with wild enthusiasm and wider-than-ever coverage!...A mighty money attraction that demands your best and longest playing time ...with more extra time held open for additional big earnings!...A one-in-a-million box office sensation!...

EVERYBODY SAYS SO!...

RKO RADIO PICTURES

LITHO U.S.A.

BRITISH INDEPENDENTS FEAR INVASION OF STUDIOS BY AMERICAN COMPANIES

Films Act Opponents Say Close Government Control Is Needed to Prevent Seizure of Production by Hollywood Groups

by BRUCE ALLAN
in London

British independent producers, among them a large number whose energies are concentrated on the production of short subjects and documentary films, are uniting in strong opposition to what they believe is a threatened invasion of British studios by Hollywood stars, directors and technicians. Their objections, it is believed, will crystallize in demands for a greater measure of control over the industry by the Government than that outlined in the recent White Paper which detailed proposals for new Films Act legislation.

The argument, which to this extent is in line with the policy of the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association, is that a Films Act which incorporated the Board of Trade's suggestion that the present Advisory Committee be continued, would simply establish branch production organizations of Hollywood companies in England and place effective control of the British studio field in American hands.

This viewpoint has been most forcibly expressed by Mr. John Grierson, leader in the documentary field in this country and universally recognized as a gifted producer, and also as a militant controversialist. Mr. Grierson, in a letter published in the Times on August 21st complained that the White Paper made no differentiation between "foreign films made in Britain and British films made in Britain; place of manufacture and the employment of junior staff are sufficient to qualify a film for protection."

Following publication of the White Paper, said Mr. Grierson, "the first reaction of certain American companies has been to stage an invasion of producers and director which must, almost certainly, take creative control of a large part of British production."

Pointing out that the Minimum Cost clause will compel makers of short features to apply for Quota qualification to the Board of Trade (inasmuch as their expenditure will not reach the official minimum) Mr. Grierson asserted that this would give greatly increased importance to the Advisory Committee, upon which would rest, he said, the responsibility of "making the British film a bright and powerful medium of national expression."

He strongly criticized the Government rejection of the Moyne Committee's proposal for a Films Commission, saying, "No proposal in the White Paper is more calculated to dishearten those whose interests in the British cinema lie outside the combines."

The composition of the Advisory Committee was also attacked. Independent producers, he said, would be so placed that they would have "to beg a Quota pass from the very men with whom they might then be negotiating terms of business, ask a certificate of quality from the very men whose outlook has driven them into independence, and make a case on national or aesthetic standards before trade representatives who, in these or any other discussions, have seldom been accused of possessing either."

Mr. Grierson, in place of the present Advisory Committee composed of delegates of producing, exhibiting and distributing organizations, suggested a body "of the same authority and distinction as, say, the Exports Credits Advisory Committee."

Complaint of the "miserable pittance" of a 5 per cent quota of shorts exhibited, proposed in the White Paper, was another point made by Mr. Grierson, who asserted that makers of British shorts are "facing a dumped market in which American short films are 'thrown away with the feature.'"

This complaint was supported by Mr. H. Bruce Woolfe, known for his "Secrets of Nature" and other series, who in a Times letter on August 26 emphasized the fact that many theatres do not show shorts at all and said that the interest of the producers of British shorts should be represented on the Advisory Committee.

The fact that the British documentary is unique in the world and has "created something that is vainly copied in other countries" also was emphasized by Mr. Woolfe. He complained that "increasing numbers of foreign technicians find employment in the British film business because of the lack of first class British personnel, while the most suitable training ground of the future—the production of short films—lies neglected."

These expressions of opinion are regarded, in knowledgeable quarters of the British trade, as of considerable importance. They appear to indicate that the independent section of the British production industry will make common cause with exhibitors in demanding Government control of the industry as the only means by which to prevent Americanization of the studios. In view of the fact that this step was, in fact, proposed by the Government's own "Moyne" Committee, and that the CEA has already lined up a large number of Members of Parliament to advocate it during the discussions on the Films Act in the fall, it appears that an easy Parliamentary passage for that measure is less than ever a probability.

Oppose Higher Admissions

Daily press forecasts of an increase in cinema admission rates have been plentiful during the last few days. They appear to have had their immediate inspiration in a "Silly Season" trade press story which in its turn was inspired by stories coming from Hollywood and New York about greatly increased production costs and the necessity of recouping them somewhere, somehow.

That any definite policy of increasing admissions had even been considered by the exhibition side appeared to be very uncertain, on a reading of these stories. Now a statement from Mr. W. R. Fuller, general secretary of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association, makes it plain that they have no official foundation whatever.

"There are several reasons," said Mr. Fuller, "why prices should not be increased, except in the very ultimate and last result. What is worrying exhibitors is the increase in film rentals. . . . Wherever one goes today amongst exhibitors there is really only one topic."

"This problem goes in a cycle," he added. "One day film rentals are normal, comparatively or actually. Exhibitors next begin to pay a little bit extra to beat their opposition. Gradually the price creeps up until everyone is groaning that business is not worth while.

"The limit of economies on the exhibition side has been reached. It would be deplorable to try to reduce wages and employees in order to send more money to the U. S. A. The present fine weather, which looks like continuing, is a very good time to start a fresh campaign on the subject of film rentals. When there is very little business at the box-office, it can be considered in its true aspect."

Mr. Fuller concluded with a forecast that ventilation of the problems at the next meeting of the CEA General Council, in September, would create absorbed interest and possibly a new and definite campaign for the reduction of film prices on the part of the Association.

The average rental paid by the British exhibitor for his program has been estimated at 40 per cent as a minimum. The greater percentage of first features are played on percentages ranging from 25 to 50, or even 60. Second features and shorts are commonly bought on "straight" rentals, or supplied with the first feature, but there are cases where the exhibitor pays a percentage of takings for each of two features. Rentals have shown an upward tendency ever since percentages was introduced with the talkies.

Legal Quota Exceeded

British exhibitors showed 27.4 per cent of British films in the quota year ended Sept. 30, 1936, it is revealed in Board of Trade figures released this week. They showed 25.5 per cent in 1935. The legal quota is 20 per cent. The footage total was 39,735 million feet, of which 10,896 million feet were British.

Film Imports, Exports Drop

Figures for film imports and exports for the month of July, 1937, show a decrease under both headings.

The comparative export figures are:

JULY	FEET	VALUE
1937	1,714,423	£10,066
1936	1,893,546	£16,307
1935	2,545,122	£15,399

Here are the import figures:

JULY	FEET	VALUE
1937	1,608,168	£12,828
1936	2,011,256	£17,966
1935	1,937,175	£18,571

Imported blank film and re-exported film showed increases.

Taking features alone exhibitors showed 10,571 million British feet of a total of 35,900 million feet. The British percentage was 29.4 against 28.1 in 1935.

The figures already are being widely quoted

(Continued on following page)

FILM APPARATUS FOR 200 ENGLISH CHURCHES

Approximately 200 Eglish churches will be equipped with motion picture projectors before the end of October under the plan sponsored by the Religious Film Society in cooperation with Gaumont British.

Special studios for religious production will be opened September 28th at Norwood with the aim of accumulating a library of religious films.

Among the films to be made available under the new service are Bible readings, the Lord's Prayer, benedictions, "The Wandering Jew" and other appropriate subjects.

BRITONS OPPOSE RAISING ADMISSIONS

(Continued from preceding page)
by British production interests as showing the baselessness of fears of a product shortage under the proposed new Films Act, in which the exhibitor's quota is less than the distributors instead of an even figure as at present.

British Lion's £14,016 Loss

A loss of £14,016 was shown in the ninth annual report and accounts of British Lion Film Corporation, of which S. W. Smith is managing director and N. L. Nathanson, Andrew Holt and I. Charles Flower directors. British Lion handles the Republic output in England as well as its own Beacsonsfield made British films. Last year there was a net profit of £12,093, after a reconstruction of capital, but no dividend was paid.

The balance sheet showed sundry creditors at £57,413 and notes that $250,000 was due to be deposited with the Chemical Bank and Trust Company of New York as security for the Republic contract. There were certain contingent liabilities in connection with this contract. On the credit side was recorded the deposit of another $250,000 with the Chemical Bank and Trust Company. Films were valued at £77,017 and "Advances and payments on films to be recovered from owners' share of gross receipts" were figured at £60,805. The Beaconsfield studio was valued at £86,065 and sundry debtors were £53,272. The gross trading profit was given at £55,216 but expenses amounted to £54,527 and legal charges, depreciation, etc., brought the debit total to £69,232. Cash in hand and at the bank was only £236. Last year it was £29,977 and the profit and loss account at that date showed a credit of £26,449. During the year British Lion produced eight British films, three of them in conjunction with other interests.

Obligations of the company to Republic were the subject of a series of questions at the annual meeting. Mr. Smith, the chairman, told shareholders the $250,000 deposited in New York was to guarantee payment by British Lion of the proportion of British distribution receipts due Republic. It would revert to British Lion if the contract terminated. The second $250,000 he said had not been deposited but had been set aside in the event it should be requested.

Rotha Plans Showing Documentaries in U. S.

Through the instrumentality of the Rockefeller Foundation, Mr. Paul Rotha, a leader in the notable British field of "Documentary" film production, is to be in the United States for five months, on a special mission in connection with the Film Library at the Museum of Modern Art, New York. He leaves London on September 22nd.

Mr. Rotha will have with him a collection of films representative of the technique and social purpose of the Documentary film, which may be described as a production sponsored by a public or business organization and serving a propaganda purpose by means, usually, of exceptionally interesting and original methods of using the camera and sound track. The Documentary is, in the opinion of many, the most significant type of film at present made in England. In many respects it is regarded as ahead of the entertainment product and as holding out the best hopes of the development of a distinctive British film idiom.

Films which Mr. Rotha will have with him will include "The Future's in the Air," a just completed survey of air routes, sponsored by Imperial Airways; "Today We Live," a survey of the unemployment problem in British "distressed areas"; "We Live in Two Worlds," which deals with international communications, "Cover to Cover," which illustrates book production, "Air Outpost," shot on the Persian Gulf, and "Trade Tattoo," a Len Lye color film. These subjects are fairly representative of the Strand Film Co. and the G. P. O. Film Unit, the two organizations mainly responsible for the documentary type of film.

Mr. Rotha will lecture on these films. He will also cooperate on production in New York of a film entitled "The Technique of the Cinema," which will illustrate technical and artistic progress, using scenes from such subjects as "Dr. Caligari" and "The Covered Wagon" in the Film Library's store.

Mr. Rotha has been production supervisor of Strand Film Company for 18 months. He is the author of the books, "The Film Till Now," "Celluloid," "Documentary Film" and "Movie Parade," and produced or directed most of the films he will show in New York. During his absence his duties at Strand Film Company will be performed by Stuart Legg and Alexander Shaw.

New Release Plan

The opening of the new Odeon theatre, Leicester Square, in October will inaugurate a new release policy, Oscar Deutsch, managing director of the Odeon circuit, told the press at a luncheon. All United Artists films shown at the new house will be released immediately in other theatres of the circuit in provincial cities.

The policy is regarded as an important development in the British industry in which the prevailing practice is that general release does not occur until six months after West End presentation or trade showing. It is possible the move will begin a general trend in the direction of universal immediate release, since it is understood that UA films released through Odeon will be available on corresponding dates to other circuits providing reciprocal privileges are granted.

Mr. Deutsch saw in the immediate release principle aid to the British producer not merely by a speedier return of his investment but by an increase in attendance, because films intensively publicized in the general press on their West End presentation would be available to those who read about them in all parts of the country while they were new and news.

At the luncheon three Odeon theatre managers were presented with checks for new patron-winning ideas. They were R. C. Overs of Ashford; A. J. Harvey, Shirley, and L. Selway, York.

Alex Gottlieb, publicity director for Walter Wanger for the last eight months, has resigned.

CHINESE OFFER TO BUY NEWSREEL SHOTS

An offer was made to Universal Newsreel last week by a group of Chinese in San Francisco for the purchase of Shanghai war scenes for fund-raising purposes.

Charles Ford, editor, refused sale of the "shots" because of the company's desire to remain impartial in the international dispute, but replied that they may be rented in the usual manner.

Sound Films Made Of Body's Interior

Sound films of the interior of the human body were announced as a reality this week at the opening in Chicago of the Fifth International Congress of Radiology.

The discovery is hailed as a great aid to the treatment and diagnosis of disease and in assisting the instruction of medical students.

The new application of the motion picture technique is the result of the combined efforts of Dr. Russell Reynolds, of the Charing Cross Hospital, London, and Dr. W. H. Stewart of Columbia University. Dr. Reynolds' contribution was the adapting of motion picture principles to the interior of the body and Dr. Stewart added sound by applying the technique of the stethoscope to recording.

It remained for Dr. G. Schwartz of Vienna to add the essential "fast motion" principle, providing a picture of the slow functional processes at accelerated speed.

Saunders Forms Checking Service

A checking service for motion picture percentage bookings, traffic surveys, outdoor advertising displays and enumeration in general has been organized by Claud Saunders. New York offices have been opened at 8 West 40 Street, the company operating under the name of Claud Saunders Service. Checking of theatre admissions will be handled through the facilities of the Postal Telegraph & Cable Company and arrangements have been made for national coverage through representatives.

Mr. Saunders was formerly connected with the Ross Federal Checking Service as departmental head and co-operated in the organization of that company's early theatre checking service. Saunders also was exploitation director of Paramount.

Chicago Trade Board Plan Receives Setback

Plans for continuation or revival of the Film Board of Trade in Chicago were destroyed when one major company pulled out of the proposed setup on the board after agreeing to the continuance.

Four major companies and two independents had voted to continue the board, but the latest report is that no board will be established in Chicago after September 1. It is understood that the major companies were somewhat reluctant to have a board in Chicago while there is none in other cities, as a result of the considerable publicity which has occurred over the possible establishment of a Chicago board.

TECHNOLOGICAL

The Bluebook School

Conducted by

F. H. RICHARDSON

ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 85

Question No. 85 was: (A) What part does cool headedness and expert knowledge play when unexpected trouble bobs up during a show? (B) How would you compare the probability of rapid clearing up of some trouble, as between the man who has studied his profession (said study based upon text books, projection literature and manufacturer's instruction books) and the man who does not believe in that sort of thing, but depends wholly upon "practical experience"?

The following made acceptable replies, some of them very good indeed. S. Evans and C. Rau; G. E. Doe; J. R. Prater; C. Oldham; M. and J. Devoy; H. Edwards; O. H. Schmitt; T. F. Bochert; P. and L. Felt; C. L. Loft; W. H. Edmonds; T. W. Redhouse; G. L. Goss; M. Dey and H. Lathrope; F. H., S. and P. Dalbey; C. Lonie; J. A. Zachritz; C. Champney; H. B. Smith; R. R. Lee; D. and W. Porter; M. and E. F. Wentworth; S. R. Hewitt; T. L. Strobey; H. Bunker; S. G. Billings; J. K. Robinson and R. E. Bullard; R. S. Welch; B. B. Hornstein and R. R. Jacobs; T. Lavenmurg; T. and W. Turk; M. L. Daniels; D. Morgan; H. T. Abernathy; S. N. Lochhard and O. S. Mallaby; S. S. Brant; H. T. Plum; D. A. Shea; M. O'Connell and J. H. Morton; H. T. Todd and L. E. Dodson; K. N. Alberts; W. L. Morehouse; L. M. Roberts and W. C. Bant; T. A. Johnson and G. Johnson; A. D. Lonby; L. N. Schofield; S. T. Lomax; G. L. Trilon and L. N. Rasmon; A. H. Bradley; W. D. Hemmington; T. N. Kent and B. L. Cooper; H. D. Maxwell; F. H. Bolton; W. A. Kendal and V. F. Nutan; M. Samuels; D. Davis and E. M. Brown; W. C. Bant and L. M. Roberts; A. C. Greene; L. M. Grahame; E. Exline; W. M. Henderson; R. D. Hicks and P. F. Maxwell; O. L. Goldstein and J. H. Manheimer; S. N. Baxter and P. B. Marshall; G. T. Jones and A. Leonard; F. D. Scanlon; J. R. Davidson and W. R. Matthews; L. F. and G. Brown; W. Winkler and R. R. Bobbins; L. A. Beachwood and M. F. Robinson; S. R. Cuddy; A. E. Burlson.

J. R. Prater replies to section A thus: "When unexpected trouble bobs up while a show is running, cool headedness and expert knowledge means getting the show going quickly and normally again as against extended delay with possibility of having to dismiss the audience. The two qualities must go together because expert knowledge is of small value to the man who is or becomes too rattled to use it expertly. Nor is cool headedness of much value except when accompanied by expert knowledge. Without those two qualities in generous proportions a man has small chance of overcoming trouble quickly and well. True, the man without both these qualities might get the show going again and quickly. But also he might, and in fact would be as apt as not, to start doing that which would cause plenty more damage and delay."

M. and J. Devoy answer this way: "The man who lacks cool headedness is unreliable. Lack of cool headedness means excitability, and what a man who is excited will do only the Creator knows. We may therefore conclude that cool headedness is essential for men handling a show in which inflammable material passes through a high degree of heat, if on no other grounds.

"But that attribute is highly essential in a theatre projection room for other reasons. There is the possibility of show stoppage and loss of money.

"As to proceeding wholly along the lines of practical experience without study of text books and other projection publications, that we regard as about the top hole of foolishness. That man does not live who can become truly efficient that way in a profession now so complicated as is motion picture visual and acoustic projection. Such a man would merely learn to perform a certain rote of actions, often without even the most elementary knowledge of what lies behind those actions.

"Surely even the dumbest one would not presume to pronounce that as representing efficient work! To become efficient, as our "Dad" (may his shadow never grow less) has so often told us, we must combine intelligent study with practical work. Practical experience is necessary. One can get along with it after a fashion. But one cannot become a truly efficient motion picture-sound projectionist without study, and plenty of it, regardless of how long or how varied his practice may be. Study Better Theatres. It is good! Study the International Projectionist. It is worth its small price! Study Richardson's Bluebook of Projection; it is justly termed the 'Bible of Projection'."

(B) J. R. Prater submits an answer I feel I must use. First I favored the one by J. A. Zachritz, but his answer to both A and B, should, I feel, be combined in my "Comments" in Better Theatres where it will appear a bit later. Mr. Prater says: "The man who has studied his profession through good textbooks, projection literature, and manufacturers' instruction books is ready to either correct or temporarily get around nearly any trouble which may occur. He knows the purpose served by every piece of equipment and its effect on other parts of the system. He not only knows what to do to repair or eliminate the trouble, but also what is even more important in emergency work—what not to do. If it is impossible to carry on the show without replacements, he can tell the manager just what is needed and why.

"The man who does not believe in study but depends wholly upon 'practical experience,' is able to work with only those situations with which he has actually had experience, under which condition he very often does not know why something should be done, but merely that 'it worked that way before.' When a new situation arises he must begin like a bull in a china shop, trying this and that to see what happens. A fuse may blow or a thousand dollars' worth of equipment be completely ruined, but the least likely result is that the show will be restored promptly. Frankly, I know of no better way for projectionists to prepare themselves in advance for any emergency which may arise than to study your Bluebooks and to follow your Bluebook School and Comments in Better Theatres, Dad."

BLUEBOOK SCHOOL QUESTION NO. 90

(A) Explain the difference between variable density and variable area sound track recording, and explain what it is in each that raises and lowers volume. By that last I mean: What is it in the recording itself that controls volume?

(B) What does the photocell "see" and why would not the human eye see the same thing were it in the same position?

To join the Bluebook School merely send in answers. Place name and question number upon first sheet. Address F. H. Richardson, No. 3 Tudor Lane, Scarsdale, N. Y.

F. H. Richardson's BLUEBOOK of PROJECTION

• New sixth edition. Projection, sound reproduction and trouble-shooting all in one handy volume. Also features quick-finding index system for instant reference. Order today.

$6.25 Postpaid

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP

Rockefeller Center New York

Exhibitor Electrocuted Turning Off Fan

Cecil W. Cannon, owner-manager of the 250-seat Orpheum theatre in Elsberry, Missouri, was electrocuted last week when he attempted to turn off an electric fan while standing on a wet floor. A fire that started in the film rewinding room, had just been extinguished when Mr. Cannon attempted to turn the switch. The floor was wet from water used to extinguish the blaze.

Luncheon for Long

The staffs of the Loew theatres in Cleveland and Toledo tendered a luncheon last week at the Mayfair Casino, Cleveland, in honor of Colonel Harry E. Long, Loew division manager, to celebrate his 47th birthday.

Western Electric Dividend

A dividend of 75 cents per share on Western Electric common stock was declared Tuesday at a meeting of the directors.

IN COURTS

RKO Files Denial To Newburgh Charges

RKO and Big "U" Exchange have filed denials in U. S. District Court to a $225,000 multiple-damage suit brought by Orange County Theatres, operators of the Academy, Newburgh, N. Y.

The plaintiff charges conspiracy on the part of major producers to discriminate against it in favor of other Newburgh exhibitors. Named as defendants in the suit are: RKO, Paramount, Twentieth Century-Fox, Big Universal Film Exchange, United Artists, Joseph Lee, Eugene Levy, George Walsh and Netco Theatre Corporation.

"Henry the Eighth" Suit Ends in a Settlement

Settlement ended the suit of Francis Hackett, biographer of "Henry the Eighth," against United Artists, Alexander Korda and London Films, for alleged copyright infringement in the film, "The Private Life of Henry the Eighth," which starred Charles Laughton.

Hearings on the suit were discontinued following the settlement, whose amount was not disclosed.

Orpheum Decision Reversed

Robert T. Patterson, judge in the United States federal district court in New York, has reversed the order of Oscar W. Ehrhorn, referee, expunging the $8,609 claim of Electrical Products Company, Inc., against the Orpheum Circuit, Inc. The claim was sent back to the referee for a new hearing.

Action Dismissed

Vincent L. Leibell, federal judge, has dismissed a copyright infringement action brought by George A. Cogniat, who does business as the United Music Company, against Universal Pictures, Gem Pictures, Loew's, Inc., Consolidated Amusement Enterprises, Don Malkames, Morris I. Tropp, George Cochrane, Universal Film Exchanges, Big U Exchange, 981 Eighth Avenue, Inc., and the Woodside Operating Corporation.

Kay Francis to Get Reply

Warner Brothers began preparation of replies last week to the suit filed by Kay Francis for cancellation of her contract on the charge that she had been persuaded to renew her contract in 1935 by the understanding that she would be given the lead in "Tonight's Our Night," adapted from the stage play, "Tovarich." The role was instead given to Claudette Colbert, borrowed from Paramount. Under her new contract, Miss Francis is receiving $3,000, pyramiding to $5,000 over a four-year period.

Plagiarism Suit Filed

Phillip T. Clancy filed suit this week in U. S. district court against MGM and Robert Pirosch, writer, asking $250,000 damages and an accounting of profits of "A Day at the Races" on the charge that the film was plagiarized from his story, "Nuts to You."

Orpheum Review Opened

Hearings opened last week on the petition to review the order denied Philip J. Snyder, as principal creditor in the Orpheum Circuit, Inc., to compel intervention of Marcus Heiman, Orpheum trustee, in the mortgage foreclosure proceedings of a Seattle theatre and office building.

Mr. Snyder claims that a foreclosure decree on a Seattle theatre was granted in June, 1935, but that the theatre has not yet been sold. He feared a speedy sale would be made in order to enable Orpheum bondholders to share in the $700,000 dividend which is to be declared shortly for Orpheum creditors.

Grant Temporary Injunction

Federal Judge Robert T. Patterson granted last week a motion seeking to restrain American Color Films from disposing of the color invention known as the Wolff-Heide process pending trial of the suit. The original motion, which sought permanent injunction, was denied. Infringement of patent is charged by the plaintiffs, Emy and Ada Klamt, against the defendants, Bernhard Deltschaft, Albert Mueller, Harold and Paul Abbott, Richard G. Ausfitzer and the American Color Film Company.

Infringement Suit Dismissed

Declaring there was no basis for a claim of "literary larceny," John M. Woolsey, federal judge, dismissed a copyright infringement suit brought against RKO by Samuel Shipment and Clara Lipman. They claimed infringement of their play "Depend on the Woman," in the picture "I Dream Too Much."

To File Petition

Milton C. Weisman, equity receiver of the Fox Theatres Corporation, has been authorized by the United States District Court to file a voluntary petition for the reorganization of the Colwood Company in the Michigan Federal Court.

Inheritance Suit Settled

Settlement ended last week the three-year litigation in which Marion H. Kohn, former San Francisco exchange operator, sought inheritance from the will of his father, George H. Kohn. In the settlement, Mr. Kohn will receive $200,000 from the $1,000,000 estate left by his father to Attorney Jerome B. White and certain charities.

Loew, Ryan Case Settled

An action brought against E. M. Loew, a Boston exhibitor, by George S. Ryan, attorney, has been settled out of court. The lawyer had sued for legal services rendered during Mr. Loew's recent anti-trust litigation against Paramount.

Harry Moses

Harry Moses, co-producer of "Grand Hotel" on the stage, died last Tuesday at his home in New York of a heart ailment. He was 64. A native of Chicago, Mr. Moses was a manufacturer of pajamas until the age of 57, when he first became professionally interested in the theatre. For many years previously, he and Mrs. Moses had been active patrons of various amateur groups in Chicago and organizers of the Chicago Art Theatre. His widow, a son, John, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Jacobi, of Chicago, survive.

OBITUARIES

Joseph M. Johnston Dies; In Industry 25 Years

Joseph Maurice Johnston, 54, active in the industry for 25 years as producer and theatre operator, died Saturday at his home in Cincinnati after a week's illness.

Mr. Johnston was part owner of the Lyric, New Boston, Ohio, and at one time had an interest in Fisher Pictures Corporation, Cincinnati. He is survived by the widow and three daughters.

Rites for Charles Stalder

Funeral services were held Friday for Charles P. Stalder, for 18 years manager of the Nixon, Akron. Mr. Stalder died last week following complications from an operation. Surviving are his widow and three children.

Lynne Rodney

Lynne Rodney, young actress and stand-in for Grace Moore, was killed early this week when her automobile crashed into a tree in Los Angeles.

Arthur Coward

Arthur Coward, father of Noel Coward, playright and actor, died this week at his farm near London. He was 81. Mr. Coward was originally in the music trade in London. More recently he had been writing extensively for English publications.

Adeline Shard

Adeline Shard, 72, mother of Elmer Shard, operator of several Cincinnati theatres, died last week at her home there.

Frank Ferguson

Frank Ferguson, 74, actor, playwright and lecturer, died last week at the Home for Incurables, New York. Mr. Ferguson was well known as a lecturer at Columbia University, playwright of one-act plays and dramatic critic.

Harry McCoy Dead

Harry McCoy, 43, actor, director and composer, died September 1st in Hollywood of a heart attack. At the time of his death, Mr. McCoy was associated with the Walt Disney studios. He was Mabel Normand's first leading man.

Mrs. L. C. Pardee, mother of Walter Trumbull, assistant to Will H. Hays, died last week at her home in Winnetka, Ill. Mrs. Pardee was about 75.

Frederick Paulding, 78, actor, writer and lecturer on the drama, died September 6th at his home in Rutherford, N. J., of a heart attack.

W. T. Mitchell, operator of the Lincoln and Roxy, Petersburg, Ind., died recently after a year's illness.

Mrs. Olive Burkhart, operator of the Crescent, Jasonville, Ind., succumbed to a short illness.

MICKEY HANGS HIS HAT AT RKO!
MICKEY MOUSE
© W.D.P.

YOU'LL BE SEEING HIM AND ALL HIS FAMOUS PALS

. . . housewarming their new home with the biggest hits of their careers! . . .

PLAY THEM SOON IN

"PLUTO'S QUINPUPLETS"
"THE OLD MILL"
"CLOCK CLEANERS"
"HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY"
"LONESOME GHOSTS"
"DONALD'S OSTRICH"
"WYNKEN, BLYNKEN AND NOD"

WALT DISNEY PRODUCTIONS

IN Technicolor

Now DISTRIBUTED BY RKO-RADIO PICTURES

SCENE FROM "HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY"

IN THE BRITISH STUDIOS

by BRUCE ALLAN
in London

Laughton's "Ruggles"

That Charles Laughton, with the cooperation of producer Erich Pommer and director Bartlett Cormack, is aiming to make his first Mayflower feature a bigger and better British "Ruggles of Red Gap," is the story that comes over from St. Tropez, on the French Riviera, where first exterior shots of "Vessel of Wrath" have been completed. Elsa Lanchester plays opposite her husband in this Somerset Maugham comedy. Scenes are being made at Golfe Juan as well as at St. Tropez, where the Mediterranean shore, with the addition of a palm tree or two, has taken on the semblance of a tropic isle.

"Vessel of Wrath" is Cormack's first directorial effort; he is known of course as author of "Fury" and many another screen success.

That Laughton, joint managing director of Mayflower with Pommer, as well as its chief star, will develop into one of the most considerable of British producers is one of the possibilities inherent in the constitution of this new company. Pommer himself, who ranks in any first six of world producers, has gone on record that Laughton has all the qualifications to be one of those men behind the films who are regarded as Britain's main need at this stage.

"Citadel" Purchase

Purchase of the screen rights in Dr. A. J. Cronin's "The Citadel" by London Films is seen as one of the biggest current achievements of British production. For once, in a way, Hollywood has been beaten in a bidding contest which undoubtedly ran up to a very big total.

The auction started immediately after the sensational success of the Cronin novel, an exposure of medical graft, which has sold editions as fast as they can be turned off the press. Several large American companies were after it at once, and the price mounted with the sales of the book, which simultaneously was serialized by the Express. The story, obviously, was and is international in its appeal, though "Harley Street" happens to be the specific background. Victor Saville will both produce and direct at Denham.

Joan Gardner Chosen

London Films has cast Joan Gardner for the lead in "The Challenge," melodrama turning upon the first conquest of the Matterhorn, Alpine peak. A unit, directed by Milton Rosmer, already has been busy for three weeks in Switzerland.

Gunther Stapenhorst, producer, has received a complete sequence showing the famous ascent in which Hudson, Hadow and Lord Douglas lost their lives. They are portrayed by Frank Birch, Moran Caplat and Geoffrey Wardell. Edward Whymper, hero of the episode, is played by Robert Douglas. Swiss guides, born and bred within sight of the Matterhorn, play their counterparts of the last century. Benitz, specialist in Alpine photography, has supervised the shooting of these sequences.

Four weeks work on the floor at Denham will begin in November to complete the picture, which is from a story by Emmeric Pressburger and Patrick Kirwan. At a later stage Mary Clare will have an important part.

Hans Schwartz has completed night exteriors for "The Return of the Scarlet Pimpernel," at Denham. A sequel to Barry K. Barnes' showing in the title role is that he has a long-term London Films contract.

"The Drum," all-Technicolor, is on the floor, both Welsh and Indian exterior units having finished their work.

Louella Parsons and husband, Doctor Martin, Rouben Mamoulian and Lawrence Weingarten have been visitors to Denham sets this week.

Harold Schuster, director, and David Niven take a brief rest after production of New World's "Dinner at the Ritz," starring Annabella. The Robert T. Kane production, first titled "Follow the Sun" and later "Riviera," is now in the cutting room at Denham.

Thames Scenes

The first shots for the new GB Jessie Matthews vehicle, "Sailing Along," were taken at the London docks. Most of the first sequence is concerned with Jessie's adventures in charge of a barge, and where the background hasn't been plain River Thames it has been provided by a wharf near Greenwich. This has created the situation, new in British production, of a location unit setting out by water for its day's work. Every morning the star, with Barry Mackay, Roland Young and director Sonnie Hale, embarks at Westminster Bridge, just below the Houses of Parliament, in a steamer which is to be their hotel, dressing room and only home for a week or two. The catering orders are for 50 per meal. Leslie Laurier, son of the famous comedian Jay Laurier, plays a dock-hand whom Jessie throws into the river.

For "Owd Bob," currently in production for GB at the Gainsborough studio, they claim to have found a British Rin-Tin-Tin in "Storm," a 20-month-old black Alsatian, cast to play the savage four-footed companion of the old shepherd portrayed by Will Fyffe.

"A Shilling for Candles," now retitled "The Girl Was Young," is in the cutting room.

"Bank Holiday," Carol Reed directing a cast headed by Margaret Lockwood, is on location at Hastings and will go on the Gainsborough floor at once.

"The Rat" in Rafters

For the Ruth Chatterton-Anton Walbrook vehicle, "The Rat," for Herbert Wilcox, the set in use represents a garret among the roofs of Paris in which the "King" of the underworld, played by Walbrook, has his lair. At Pinewood it has been built high up among the gantries, with a bird's eye view of the floor. The roofs by which it is surrounded provide the scene of some of the most important episodes in the film.

PRODUCTIONS IN WORK

TITLE	WRITER AND DIRECTOR	CAST	STAGE OF PRODUCTION
COLUMBIA
"I Married an Artist"	Screen play, Gladys Lehman, Delmer Daves. Director: Marion Gering.	Luli Desto, John Boles, Helen Westley, Frances Drake, Thomas Mitchell, Jacqueline Wells.	Shooting
"Carnival Lady"	Original story, Milton Raison. Screen play, Lambert Hillyer, Arthur T. Horman. Director: C. C. Coleman, Jr.	Rita Hayworth, Charles Quigley, Marc Lawrence, Arthur Loft.	Shooting
GRAND NATIONAL
"Tex Rides with the Boy Scouts"	Original screen play, Edmund Kelso. Director: Ray Taylor.	Tex Ritter, Snub Pollard, Marjorie Reynolds, Horace Murphy.	Shooting
"He Wanted to Marry"	Original story, Percy Rowland. Screen play, Clarence Marks. Director: Raymond Cannon.	Wallace Ford, Isabel Jewell, Ray Mayer, Mary Treen, Cully Richards, Rex Lease.	Shooting
"Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel"	From the story by Clarence Budington Kelland. Screen play, Richard English. Director: Gordon Wiles.	Stuart Erwin, Helen Chandler, Toby Wing, Walter Byron, Spencer Charters, William Moore.	Shooting
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
"Live, Love and Learn"	Original, Helen Grace Carlyle. Screen play, Marion Parsonnet, Charles Brackett, Vincent Lawrence. Director: George Fitzmaurice.	Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell, Robert Benchley, Helen Vinson, Harlan Briggs, Maude Eburne, Monty Wooley, Charles Judels, E. E. Clive, June Clayworth, Ann Rutherford.	Shooting
"The Last Gangster"	Original, Robert Carson, William Wellman. Screen play, John Lee Mahin. Director: Edward Ludwig.	Edward G. Robinson, Andrea Marion, James Stewart, Lionel Stander, Louise Beavers, Sidney Blackmer, Douglas Scott.	Shooting
"Rosalie"	Original story, William Anthony McGuire, Guy Bolton. Screen play, William Anthony McGuire. Director: W. S. Van Dyke.	Eleanor Powell, Nelson Eddy, Ray Bolger, Alma Massey, Frank Morgan, Reginald Owen, Edna May Oliver, Virginia Grey, Ronald St. Clair, C. Aubrey Smith, Judy Garland, Mickey Rooney, Sophie Tucker, Forrester Harvey.	Shooting
"Thoroughbreds Don't Cry"	Original, J. Walter Ruben, Eleanore Griffin. Director: Alfred E. Green.		Shooting
PARAMOUNT
"Wells Fargo"	Story, Stuart N. Lake. Screen play, Paul Schofield, Gerald Geraghty, Fred Jackson. Director: Frank Lloyd.	Joel McCrea, Frances Dee, Bob Burns, Lloyd Nolan, Mary Nash, Ralph Morgan, Porter Hall.	Shooting
"Blossoms on Broadway"	Original, George Auerbach. Director: Richard Wallace.	Edward Arnold, Shirley Ross, John Trent, William Frawley, Weber and Fields.	Shooting
"Thrill of a Lifetime"	Screen play, Seena Owen, Grant Garrett, Paul Girard Smith. Director: George Archainbaud.	Eleanore Whitney, Johnny Downs, Betty Grable, Leif Erickson.	Editing
"The Buccaneer"	Producing Director: C. B. DeMille.	Fredric March, Franciska Gaal, Akim Tamiroff, Ian Keith, Margot Grahame, Douglass Dumbrille, Beulah Bondi.	Shooting
"Hold 'Em Navy"	Original, Albert Shelby Le Vino. Screen play, Erwin Gelsey, Lloyd Corrigan. Director: Kurt Neumann.	Lew Ayres, John Howard, Mary Carlisle, Benny Baker, Elizabeth Patterson.	Shooting
"True Confession"	Original story, Louis Verneuil, Georges Berr. Screen play, Claude Binyon. Director: Wesley Ruggles.	Carole Lombard, Fred MacMurray, John Barrymore, Porter Hall, Edgar Kennedy, Una Merkel, Richard Carle, Fritz Feld.	Shooting
REPUBLIC
"Manhattan Merry-Go-Round"	Original screen play, Harry Sauber. Director: Charles Reisner.	Phil Regan, Leo Carrillo, Ann Dvorak, James Gleason, Tamara Geva, Cab Calloway-Ted Lewis and their Orchestras, Henry Armetta, Joe Di Maggio.	Shooting
RKO RADIO
"Damsel in Distress"	Original, P. G. Wodehouse. Screen play, P. G. Wodehouse, Ernest Pagano, S. K. Lauren. Director: George Stevens.	Fred Astaire, Joan Fontaine, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Ray Noble, Reginald Gardiner.	Shooting
"Hitting a New High"	Story, Robert Harari, Maxwell Shane. Screen play, Gertrude Purcell, John Twist. Director: Raoul Walsh.	Lily Pons, John Howard, Jack Oakie, Eric Blore, Erik Rhodes, Edward Everett Horton.	Shooting
TWENTIETH CENT.-FOX
"Borrowing Trouble"	Screen play, Karen De Wolf, Robert Chapin. Director: Frank Strayer.	Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Florence Roberts, Shirley Deane, Billy Mahan, George Ernest.	Shooting
"Second Honeymoon"	Director: Walter Lang.	Loretta Young, Tyrone Power, Stuart Erwin, Lyle Talbot, Phyllis Brooks.	Shooting
UNITED ARTISTS
"The Adventures of Marco Polo"	Screen play, Robert Emmett Sherwood. Director: Archie Mayo.	Gary Cooper, Sigrid Gurle, Ernest Truex, Binnie Barnes, Basil Rathbone, George Barbier.	Shooting
"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer"	From the book by Mark Twain. Screen play, John V. A. Weaver. Director: Norman Taurog.	Tommy Kelly, Jackie Moran, Walter Brennan, May Robson, Ann Gillis, Victor Jory, David Jack Holt, Cora Sue Collins, Charles Richmond, Mickey Rentschler, Spring Byington, Victor Kilian, Margaret Hamilton, Nana Bryant, Hugh Chapman.	Shooting
"Goldwyn Follies"	Music, George and Ira Gershwin. Screen play, Ben Hecht. Director: George Marshall.	Adolphe Menjo, Phil Baker, Ritz Brothers, Helen Jepson, Edgar Bergen and "Charlie McCarthy," Bobby Clark, Ella Logan, Virginia Verrill, Charles Kullmann, Zorina, George Ballachine and his American Ballet, Goldwyn Girls.	Shooting
UNIVERSAL
"A Girl With Ideas"	Original, Bruce Manning. Screen play, Bruce Manning, Robert T. Shannon. Director: S. Sylvan Simon.	Wendy Barrie, Walter Pidgeon, Kent Taylor, Dorothea Kent, Hobart Cavanaugh, Samuel Hinds.	Shooting
WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL
"Tonight's Our Night"	From the play by Jacques Deval. Screen play, Casey Robinson. Director: Anatole Litvak.	Claudette Colbert, Charles Boyer. Basil Rathbone, Melville Cooper, Anita Louise, Isabelle Jean, Allan Conrad, Morris Carnovsky, Gregory Gaye, Montague Love, Kurt Bois, Christian Rub, May Boley.	Shooting
"Hollywood Hotel"	Original, Jerry Wald, Maurice Leo. Screen play, Jerry Wald, Maurice Leo, Richard Macauley. Director: Busby Berkeley.	Dick Powell, Benny Goodman and his Swing Band, Frances Langford, Ted Healey, Edgar Kennedy, Lola Lane, Rosemary Lane, Hugh Herbert, Johnnie Davis, Mabel Todd, Alan Mowbray, Allyn Joslyn, Eric Stanley.	Shooting
"Gold Is Where You Find It"	From the Cosmopolitan serial story by Clements Ripley. Screen play, Clements Ripley. Director: Michael Curtiz.	George Brent, Olivia de Havilland, Claude Rains, Margaret Lindsay.	Shooting
"Accidents Will Happen"	Original, George Bricker. Screen play, Anthony Coldeway, George Bricker. Director: William Clemens.	Ronald Reagan, Gloria Blondell, Dick Purcell, Hugh O'Connell, Sheila Bromley, Kenneth Harlan.	Shooting
"Return from Limbo"	From the Saturday Evening Post story by A. H. Carr. Screen play, Horace Jackson. Director: Stanley Logan.	Kay Francis, Pat O'Brien, Gordon Oliver, Herbert Rawlinson, Alan Mowbray, Ralph Forbes.	Shooting
"The Patient in Room 18"	Director: Bobby Connolly.	Patric Knowles, Ann Sheridan, Rosella Towne, Cliff Clark, Eddie Acuff, John Ridgley.	Shooting

THE RUBBER WALLS BUST!

Flash from Exhibitor Klinger playing "BROADWAY MELODY OF '38" at the Rialto, Lewistown, Pa.

"TO M-G-M:

I note that one of the major distributors advertise currently in the trade press the fact that one of their pictures played to one out of every four persons in a town in New York state and that the theatre must have had rubber walls.

Thought that you might be interested in knowing that "BROADWAY MELODY OF 1938" played to more than one-half the entire population of this town, breaking a fifteen year house record during its five day run.

This during five of the hottest days of the summer, too!"

PAUL O. KLINGER
The Rialto
Lewistown, Pa.

HILARIOUS "BROADWAY MELODY" HOLD-OVERS!
(More Every Minute)

Portland, Ore.
Detroit • Denver
New York
Harrisburg • Houston
New Orleans
Reading • Rochester
Wilmington • Buffalo
Salt Lake City
San Francisco
Pittsburgh • Louisville
Washington, D. C.
Nashville
Philadelphia
Los Angeles
Cincinnati
Spokane • Seattle
etc., etc.

THEATRE RECEIPTS

The total of theatre receipts for the calendar week ended September 11, 1937, from 105 theatres in 17 major cities of the country was $1,472,474, an increase of $326,468 over the total for the preceding week ending September 4, 1937, when 100 theatres in 17 large cities aggregated $1,146,006.

(Copyright, 1937. Reproduction of material from this department without specific written permission from MOTION PICTURE HERALD expressly forbidden.)

Theatres	Seats	Price	(Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937) Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week Picture	Current Week Gross	Previous Week Picture	Previous Week Gross
Boston
Boston	3,246	25c-65c	$17,700	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).... (stage: Ethel Merman) (25c-75c)	28,000	"The Man Who Cried Wolf"..... (Univ.) and "Way Out West" (MGM)	8,000
Colonial	1,643	55c-$1.65	9,600	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.)..	8,500	.....
Fenway	1,382	30c-50c	5,300	"Blonde Trouble" (Para.) and..... "King Solomon's Mines" (GB)	5,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) and.. "She's No Lady" (Para.)	5,000
RKO Memorial	2,907	25c-65c	13,600	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Annapolis Salute" (RKO)	26,500	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	13,000
Loew's Orpheum	2,970	35c-65c	14,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM).....	17,000	"Topper" (MGM) and..... "Between Two Women" (MGM)	18,000
Loew's State	3,537	35c-65c	13,100	"The Good Earth" (MGM).....	15,000	"Topper" (MGM) and..... "Between Two Women" (MGM)	15,000
Metropolitan	4,332	35c-75c	26,200	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (plus stage show)	27,500	"Confession" (F.N.) ..... (stage: Harriet Hayes)	16,000
Paramount	1,793	25c-50c	8,000	"Blonde Trouble" (Para.) and..... "King Solomon's Mines" (GB)	7,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) and.. "She's No Lady" (Para.)	8,000
Buffalo
Buffalo	3,489	30c-50c	14,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	18,500	"Artists and Models" (Para.).....	14,766
Century	3,000	25c	7,000	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Big Shot" (RKO)	12,700	"Four Aces" (Ind.) and..... "Off Again—On Again" (RKO)	5,123
Great Lakes	3,000	25c-40c	10,100	"Souls at Sea" (Para.).....	14,700	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,285
Hippodrome	2,500	25c-40c	9,000	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Wild Money" (Para.)	8,500	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.).....	6,950
Lafayette	3,300	25c	8,300	"Lost Horizon" (Col.).....	15,820	"King Solomon Mines" (GB) and.. "Girls Can Play" (Col.)	5,500
Chicago
Apollo	1,400	35c-75c	7,100	"The Good Earth" (MGM).....	6,800	"Trader Horn" (MGM)	6,800
Chicago	4,000	35c-75c	35,500	"Artists and Models" (Para.)..... (stage: Jack Denny and Orch.) (2nd week)	35,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.)..... (stage: Jack Denny and Orch.) (1st week)	45,800
Erlanger	1,200	50c-$1.50	11,000	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.).. (2nd week)	15,500	"The Life of Emile Zola" (F.N.).. (1st week)	14,800
Garrick	900	35c-75c	6,800	"Captains Courageous" (MGM)....	6,500	"You Can't Have Everything"..... (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	6,000
Oriental	3,490	35c-55c	17,500	"Wine, and Women and Horses".. (W.B.) (plus vaudeville revue)	16,000	"It's All Yours" (Col.) ..... (stage: Jack La Rue-Vince Barnett)	18,000
Palace	2,509	35c-75c	19,900	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).. (plus vaudeville revue)	19,000	"Make a Wish" (RKO) ..... (stage: Red Norvo and Band)	20,000
Roosevelt	1,591	35c-75c	13,000	"Varsity Show" (W.B.).....	18,000	"Captains Courageous" (MGM) .... (2nd week)	11,500
State-Lake	2,776	20c-40c	14,800	"On Again—Off Again" (RKO).... (plus stage show)	13,200	"Reported Missing" (Univ.) ..... (plus stage show)	13,200
United Artists	1,700	35c-75c	17,500	"Dead End" (U.A.).....	23,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM)..... (3rd week)	10,000
Cleveland
Allen	3,300	30c-42c	5,700	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)..... (30c-55c)	12,000	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	5,500
Hippodrome	3,800	30c-42c	12,700	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)..... (30c-55c)	15,000	"Lost Horizon" (Col.).....	16,000
Lake	800	25c-35c	....	"Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	2,500	.....
RKO Palace	3,100	30c-60c	17,800	"Make a Wish" (RKO)..... (plus Lillian Roth and vaudeville) (30c-75c)	19,000	"It's All Yours" (Col.)..... (stage: Roscoe Ates and vaudeville)	16,500
State	3,400	30c-42c	17,200	"Artists and Models" (Para.)..... (30c-55c)	18,500	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	19,000
Stillman	1,900	30c-42c	5,200	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (30c-55c)	7,800	"The Good Earth" (MGM).....	7,500
Denver
Aladdin	1,500	25c-50c	3,400	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	5,000	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)	5,000
Broadway	1,500	25c-40c	2,300	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)	4,000	"Platinum Blonde" (Col.) and..... "A Dangerous Adventure" (Col.) (3 days)	800
						"Love Under Fire"..... (20th Cent.-Fox) (4 days)	2,000
Denham	1,500	25c-40c	6,700	"Souls at Sea" (Para.).....	8,500	"Blonde Trouble" (Para.).....	3,500
Denver	2,500	25c-50c	9,600	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.) (plus stage band)	17,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox)..... (plus stage band)	18,000
Orpheum	2,500	25c-40c	7,300	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "Border Cafe" (RKO) (5 days-2nd week)	7,000	"Broadway Melody of 1938"..... (MGM) and "Border Cafe" (RKO) (1st week)	12,000
Paramount	2,000	25c-40c	3,400	"Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-.. Fox) and "Under the Red Robe" (20th Cent.-Fox)	3,500	"One Mile from Heaven" (20th.... Cent.-Fox) and "Armored Car" (Univ.)	3,500

24 SCRIPPS-HOWARD PAPERS PICK THE WINNER!

N.Y. WORLD-TELEGRAM—SEPTEMBER 8, 1937

"Good Earth" Best August Film, Say Scripps-Howard Critics

They All Unite in Praising the Picture Itself and Acting of Paul Muni and Luise Rainer

With an almost unanimous vote Scripps-Howard movie reviewers picked the August picture of the month—"Good Earth."

Bringing together "the greatest efforts of a great writer, Pearl Buck; an incomparable actress, Luise Rainer, and a magnificent character actor, Paul Muni, this picture stands alone" among August releases.

Here is what some of the reviewers said:—

Word from Columbus.

William S. Cunningham, of the Columbus Citizen:—"This is the cinema at its peak. There is power ahd majesty and beauty in its realistic re-creation of rural Chinese life. Thefe are superb performances by Luise Rainer and Paul Muni."

Edward Klingler, the Evansville Press:—"From every standpoint this film is a cinema achievement. It would be less than useless to undertake to enumerate the fine points that go to make this picture a triumph."

Laurie March, the Akron Times-Press:—"Luise Rainer, for the second time, becomes one of the screen's incomparable actresses; Paul Muni improves upon all recent characterizations; the film is faithful to the book, which was great also; the photography is exceptional; the sets are faithful, and the direction by Sidney Franklin is masterly."

Ray E. Glenn, the Birmingham Post:—"'Good Earth'" as a well-nigh perfect motion picture stands alone among August releases and rates not only the movie-of-the-month title but is a strong candidate for movie-of-the-year honors. Aside from the magnificent performances of Paul Muni and Luise Rainer, which were to be expected from two such distinguished luminaries, 'Good Earth' offered also an air of honesty and authenticity rare in a picture dealing with a matter so foreign to the lives of the American movie-goer. Its staging, from beginning to end, really merits the use, for once, of the ballyhooer's pet adjective—COLOSSAL!"

An Almost Perfect Film.

James Thrasher, Indianapolis Times:—"As nearly perfect a picture as ever came out of Hollywood. 'Good Earth' is my choice for the August hit picture performance. Direction and photography are of the highest order, and the spirit and style of the book have been captured completely."

AN INTERESTING NEW ANGLE!

Intelligent handling of War News from China enables showmen to indicate to patrons that "THE GOOD EARTH" shows China in all phases of peace and military activity, making comprehension of news from the Orient easier for the public. One more angle to exploit this remarkable production.

[THEATRE RECEIPTS--CONT'D]

Theatres	Seats	Price	Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week — Picture	Current Week — Gross	Previous Week — Picture	Previous Week — Gross
Hollywood
Chinese	2,500	30c-55c	11,600	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	21,698	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox)	12,427
Pantages	3,000	30c-65c	8,100	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).. and "Annapolis Salute" (RKO)	11,000	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	6,000
W. B. Hollywood	3,000	30c-65c	10,400	"Varsity Show" (W.B.) and..... "Wine, Women and Horses" (W.B.)	11,100	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and..... "Talent Scout" (F.N.) (2nd week)	9,800
Indianapolis
Apollo	1,100	25c-40c	4,400	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	9,000	"Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.... "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	2,500
Circle	2,800	25c-40c	6,300	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Hideaway" (RKO)	5,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and..... "Blonde Trouble" (Para.)	7,000
Loew's	2,800	25c-40c	8,200	"Lost Horizon" (Col.) and..... Louis-Farr Fight Film	11,000	"Dead End" (U.A.) and..... "It Can't Last Forever" (Col.)	10,000
Lyric	2,000	25c-40c	9,300	"Footloose Heiress" (W.B.)..... (plus stage show)	10,100	"Confession" (F.N.) ..... (stage: Eddy Duchin and Orch.)	16,000
Kansas City
Empress	1,500	25c	....	"Marihuana" (Roadshow Att.)..... (8 days)	8,700	"Backstage" (GB) and..... "The Great Hospital Mystery" (20th Cent.-Fox) (6 days)	1,800
Fox	2,200	25c-40c	7,400	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox)..... (plus stage show)	15,900	"Love Under Fire"..... (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show)	11,000
Mainstreet	3,100	25c-40c	9,300	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and..... Louis-Farr Fight Film (8 days)	11,700	"Confession" (F.N.) and..... "Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" (F.N.) (6 days)	4,700
Midland	4,000	25c-40c	12,000	"Dead End" (U.A.) and..... "It Can't Last Forever" (Col.)	13,800	"Topper" (MGM) and..... "Men Are Not Gods" (U.A.)	12,500
Newman	1,900	25c-40c	7,300	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	6,300	"The Great Gambini" (Para.) and "Dance, Charlie, Dance" (F.N.) (5 days)	3,200
Uptown	2,000	25c-40c	4,500	"Love Under Fire"..... (20th Cent.-Fox)	2,800	"Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox)	4,000
Los Angeles
Carthay Circle	1,518	50c-$1.50	11,800	"High, Wide and Handsome"..... (Para.) (6 days-4th week)	3,400	"High, Wide and Handsome" ..... (Para.) (3rd week)	4,000
Four Star	900	50c-$1.50	4,000	"The Firefly" (MGM)..... (5th week)	7,600	"The Firefly" (MGM)..... (4th week)	8,400
Grand International	750	35c-40c	2,100	"An Orphan Boy of Vienna"..... (General Foreign)	2,700	"Under Falsk Flagg"..... (Scandinavian)	1,700
Hillstreet	2,700	30c-65c	8,000	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).. and Annapolis Salute" (RKO)	12,500	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	6,400
Loew's State	2,500	30c-55c	14,700	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	25,421	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox)	12,561
Paramount	3,595	30c-55c	18,400	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (stage: Senator Murphy) (2nd week)	19,800	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (stage: Senator Murphy) (1st week)	24,500
W. B. Downtown	3,400	30c-65c	10,700	"Varsity Show" (W.B.) and..... "Wine, Women and Horses" (W.B.)	10,800	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) and..... "Talent Scout" (F.N.) (2nd week)	11,800
Minneapolis
Century	1,600	25c-40c	5,200	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.)	7,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.).....	3,000
Minnesota	4,000	25c-55c	12,200	"Souls at Sea" (Para.).....	11,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	13,000
RKO Orpheum	2,900	25c-40c	7,200	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox)	11,000	"Married Before Breakfast" (MGM) (stage: Rudy Vallee and Orch.) (5 days) (35c-55c)	21,000
State	2,400	25c-40c	5,600	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	5,000	"The Case of Stuttering Bishop".. (F.N.) and "Wild Money" (Para.)	5,500
World	400	25c-35c	2,700	"Damaged Lives" (Weldon).....	2,300	"King Solomon's Mines" (GB)....	1,700
Montreal
Capitol	2,547	25c-60c	9,300	"The Road Back" (Univ.).....	9,000	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox)	9,500
Loew's	3,115	25c-40c	11,000	"Gangway" (GB) and..... "Take My Tip" (GB)	7,000	"Midnight Madonna" (Para.) and.. "North of Nome" (Col.)	4,500
Palace	2,600	25c-65c	10,500	"Artists and Models" (Para.).....	11,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM)..... (2nd week)	5,500
Princess	2,272	25c-65c	7,600	"King Solomon's Mines" (GB) and "Take My Tip" (GB)	7,000	"The Toast of New York" (RKO).. and "On Again—Off Again" (RKO)	6,500
New York
Astor	1,142	55c-$2.20	15,600	"The Firefly" (MGM)..... (2nd week)	13,585	"The Firefly" (MGM)..... (4 days-1st week)	6,844
Capitol	4,700	25c-85c	33,400	"The Broadway Melody of 1938".... (MGM)	40,000	.....
Criterion	1,700	25c-75c	12,000	"Bulldog Drummond Comes Back" (Para.)	12,000	"Dance, Charlie, Dance" (F.N.)....	5,000
Globe	1,400	55c-$2.20	17,800	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (5th week)	7,500	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (4th week)	6,500
Hollywood	1,430	55c-$2.20	....	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.).. (4th week)	26,500	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.).. (3rd week)	20,000

BETTE DAVIS
and HENRY FONDA
in
"THAT CERTAIN WOMAN"

with
Ian Hunter • Anita Louise
Donald Crisp
Written and Directed by Edmund Goulding
Music by Max Steiner
A First National Picture

Didn't you notice in today's film ads that there is not a remote sign of a dramatic performance that can approach this one coming this week from WARNER BROS.?

(The Sensational News is Now Being Nationally Advertised with a 250,000-Line Newspaper Campaign!)

JUST GOES TO SHOW!

Fox, Frisco premiere beats 'Green Light', 'Galahad' and every Warner picture that ever played there!

[THEATRE RECEIPTS--CONT'D]

Theatres (Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937)	Seats	Price	Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week Picture	Current Week Gross	Previous Week Picture	Previous Week Gross
New York (Continued)
Paramount	3,700	25c-99c	36,100	"Double Or Nothing" (Para.) (stage: Shep Fields and Orch.)	61,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (stage: Phil Spitalny's Girl Orch.) (4th week)	32,000
Rialto	594	25c-55c	7,700	"Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox)	8,000	"Bad Guy" (MGM)	10,000
Rivoli	2,200	25c-99c	23,100	"Dead End" (U.A.) (3rd week)	29,000	"Dead End" (U.A.) (2nd week)	45,100
RKO Music Hall	6,200	40c-$1.65	79,000	"The Prisoner of Zenda" (U.A.) (plus stage show)	123,700	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.) (plus stage show) (2nd week)	88,000
Roxy	5,954	25c-75c	35,400	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show)	68,600	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show)	44,500
Strand	3,000	40c-99c	20,800	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)	22,000	"Confession" (F. N.) (2nd week)	13,500
Oklahoma City
Criterion	1,700	10c-40c	5,300	"The Prisoner of Zenda" (U.A.) (8 days)	6,500	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox)	4,200
Liberty	1,500	10c-25c	2,900	"Dance, Charlie, Dance" (F.N.) and Louis-Farr Fight Film (4 days)	2,500	"Woman Wise" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Mountain Justice" (F.N.) (4 days)	1,900
				"You Can't Buy Luck" (RKO) and "Fair Warning" (20th Cent.-Fox) (3 days)	600	"Meet the Missus" (RKO) and... "Off to the Races" (20th Cent.-Fox) (3 days)	500
Midwest	1,500	10c-55c	4,300	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (8 days)	6,400	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	7,200
Tower	1,100	10c-35c	....	"Ever Since Eve" (F.N.)	2,900	"Elephant Boy" (U.A.)	2,500
Omaha
Brandeis	1,200	25c-40c	4,900	"The Life of the Party" (RKO) and "The League of Frightened Men" (Col.)	4,800	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and... "Flight from Glory" (RKO)	3,600
Omaha	2,200	25c-40c	6,900	"Between Two Women" (MGM).. and "Married Before Breakfast" (MGM)	4,500	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "White Bondage" (W.B.) (8 days)	7,500
Orpheum	3,000	25c-40c	9,200	"You Can't Have Everything"..... (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Love from a Stranger" U.A.) (1 day) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox) (6 days)	5,600	"The Emperor's Candlesticks"..... (MGM) and "Wings Over Honolulu" (Univ.)	5,700
Philadelphia
Aldine	1,300	40c-65c	9,200	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (2nd week)	13,500	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (1st week)	19,000
Boyd	2,400	40c-65c	14,800	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox)	17,000	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.)	13,000
Earle	2,000	25c-55c	14,400	"Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox) (stage: Hal LeRoy and revue)	21,000	"Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox) (stage: Will Osborne and Orch.)	13,500
Fox	3,000	40c-65c	17,000	"100 Men and a Girl" (Univ.)	22,500	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (10 days)	17,000
Karlton	1,000	25c-40c	2,700	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.) (25c-50c)	3,800	"Confession" (F.N.)	2,300
Keith's	2,000	30c-50c	2,800	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)	3,700	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox)	3,200
Stanley	3,700	40c-65c	15,700	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)	19,000	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (2nd week)	10,500
Stanton	1,700	30c-50c	6,400	"They Won't Forget" (W.B.)	7,000	"King Solomon's Mines" (GB)	5,000
San Francisco
Clay	400	15c-40c	1,100	"Masquerade in Vienna" (World)	900	"Amphytrion" (French) (2nd week)	800
Embassy	1,400	15c-75c	3,800	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.)	9,000	.....	.....
Fox	5,651	15c-75c	11,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox)	23,000	"San Quentin" (F.N.) and... "Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox)	19,000
Golden Gate	2,850	15c-55c	16,600	"Make a Wish" (RKO) (plus stage show)	22,500	"Big Shot" (RKO) (stage: Gene Autry)	14,500
Orpheum	2,440	15c-55c	8,200	"Lost Horizon" (Col.) (2nd week)	15,000	"Lost Horizon" (Col.) (1st week)	18,000
Paramount	2,670	15c-75c	13,300	"Double Or Nothing" (Para.) and "London By Night" (MGM)	15,000	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "She's No Lady" (Para.), (2nd week)	15,000
St. Francis	1,470	15c-75c	6,900	"San Quentin" (F.N.) and... "Love Under Fire" (20th Cent.-Fox)	8,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,400
United Artists	1,200	15c-75c	6,900	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.)	14,000	.....	.....
Warfield	2,680	15c-75c	15,300	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and... "Blonde Trouble" (Para.) (2nd week)	13,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and... "Blonde Trouble" (Para.) (1st week)	19,000
Seattle
Blue Mouse	950	15c-35c	3,700	"Knight Without Armour" (U.A.) and "Talent Scout" (F.N.)	3,400	"Rose Marie" (MGM) (re-issue) and "Hell Divers" (MGM) (re-issue)	5,100
Fifth Avenue	2,500	30c-55c	7,700	"Broadway Melody of 1938"... (MGM) (2nd week)	6,750	"Broadway Melody of 1938"... (MGM) (1st week)	9,200
Liberty	1,800	25c-55c	7,700	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (3rd week)	4,700	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (2nd week)	7,000
Music Box	950	30c-55c	3,500	"The Good Earth" (MGM)	3,100	"Wee Willie Winkie" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Sing and Be Happy" (20th Cent-Fox)	3,850
Orpheum	2,450	30c-55c	6,000	"Topper" (MGM) and... "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox)	8,450	"You Can't Have Everything"... (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Midnight Madonna" (Para.) (3rd week)	4,800
Palomar	1,500	15c-35c	4,700	"Hoosier Schoolboy" (Mono.) (plus vaudeville)	4,650	"Meet the Boy Friend" (Rep.) (plus stage show)	4,650
Paramount	3,050	30c-55c	5,200	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and... "Blonde Trouble" (Para.)	6,200	"The Good Earth" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,750

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE CLUB

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

Of the Theatreman's Importance

Said a visiting brother during a recent vacation visit with your Chairman:

"I came in to express my appreciation personally for the publicity you have given me in the Round Table and which is responsible, undoubtedly, for my recent promotion to a bigger job."

To which we answered cheerfully that while the kind words were appreciated, our personal efforts contributed little to his advancement.

Now don't get us wrong, gentlemen. Your Chairman is no shrinking violet. We never have been less than willing to stand up and take our share of the bows. But, basically, the reason for the Round Tabler's promotion is that through his contributions to these pages he did his part in stressing, in strengthening the importance of the theatre manager in the industry structure.

And, by doing so, it follows that he advanced his own cause.

* * *

The main function of the Round Table is to act as a clearing house of boxoffice ideas submitted by the man in the field. It has long passed the day of the pat-on-the-back school of journalism. True, your observer finds frequent occasion to praise editorially, and takes pleasure in so doing, but essentially this department aims for general theatre enhancement and boxoffice betterment by reporting those things found by theatremen to be of benefit.

However, when these same things are detailed in the pages, they must call executive attention not only to the value of high-power showmanship but, as important, to the work of the theatreman who actually does the job. And when a wise manager chooses to forward his campaigns for publication at not too infrequent intervals, it can only be a question of time before his greater value is brought to the fore. In confirmation, the following is taken from a recent letter to this department, written by Jules J. Rubens, Publix Great States Theatres headman:

"There is absolutely no question in my mind but what the Managers' Round Table Club keeps the boys plenty hopped up to do their best, inasmuch as they realize that every bit of recognition through the Club may have a bearing on their future advancement in the business."

Although it should not be so, there is too much of a taking for granted the ability of good managers to handle, and at a moment's notice, everything under the theatre sun. Thus, often outstanding work, if not spotlighted and impressed upon executive consciousness, is neither rewarded nor even recognized.

Your Chairman is pleased to encourage this recognition through editorial praise, through the Quigley Awards and other effective means of advancing the interests of members. But, in the final analysis, it remains for theatremen themselves to aid in building their ever growing importance to the level it rates.

▽ ▽ ▽

THERE ARE OTHER FIELDS, ALSO

The creation of adequate and different lobby displays week in and week out is a problem, to be sure, and often applies to theatremen in the top situations with ample facilities as well as to the boys in the smaller spots. Variations of theatre display available to the man in the field only go so far, and thus showmen with a realization of these limitations utilize commendable ingenuity in casting about for slants that are unusual and inexpensive.

Up in Hartford, for instance, the quick-moving Jack Simons, able Loew's Poli skipper, does it very well by spotting the better window displays around town, many of which he is able to promote after the stores are through with them and reconstruct to fit his own requirements. Of course, Jack has the talent to make these "look like what they ain't," but, in the main, this sort of adaptation has its values.

Smart theatremen borrow freely of each other's boxoffice ideas. They should feel little hesitation in dipping into other fields for art suggestions or otherwise that have proven their worth as crowd-stoppers.

A. Mike Vogel

HITS THE COUNTRY

PHILADELPHIA--First week tops topping it 2nd....hold-over 3rd opening beats "Godfrey" and Girls"!...SAYS HOLLYWOOD RE every man in his organization was telling everyone at the Troc: gross business of the year and time!" "..You're right Mr. Lubitsch! MORE! First reports from LOUIS big towns...from SCHENECTADY, UTICA, WILKES-BARRE, NEW BED spots, confirm it! In big and small

IT'S A MONEY HURRICANE EVERYWHERE!

100 MEN

LIKE A CYCLONE!

"Godfrey" by $5,000! Keeps week!...LOS ANGELES--Sock almost triples "Three Smart PORTER: "Sam Goldwyn insisting see the picture!"..."Ernst Lubitsch
That picture will do the biggest one of the biggest grosses of all
..Hold-over in PORTLAND, BALTI-
VILLE, WASHINGTON and other
SCRANTON, SPRINGFIELD, (ILL.),
FORD, ALTOONA and smaller owns, villages and hamlets...

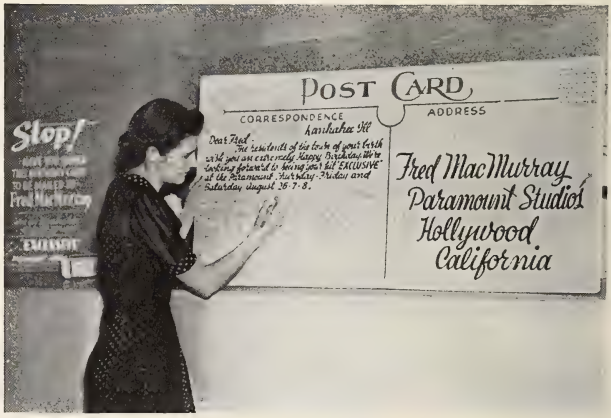
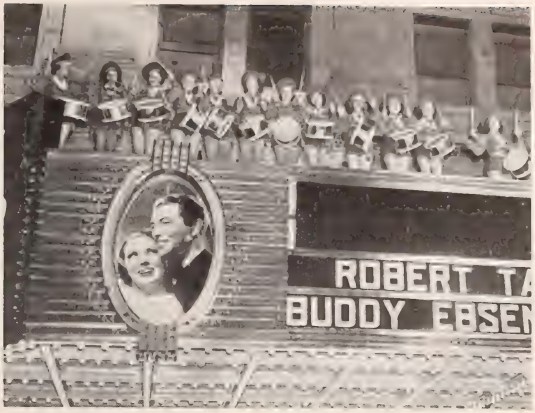
THE NEW UNIVERSAL'S



AND A GIRL

Round Table In Pictures

Signalizing the theatreman's winning of the Quigley Awards Bronze Plaque for June, Governor Carl E. Bailey of Arkansas (right) makes the presentation to W. Clyde Smith at the State Capitol, Little Rock. Smith won on his "Mountain Music" campaign at the Paramount, in Hot Springs. . . . Above right is reproduced lobby miniature of Chinese scene from "Good Earth" as conceived by Manager Albert Barfield for the date at Keith's, Philadelphia.



Discovering that the birthplace of Paramount's Fred MacMurray was Kankakee, Ill., Manager George C. Rice, of the Paramount in that spot, playing "Exclusive" coincidentally with the star's birthday, arranged for patrons to sign giant greetings card which was forwarded to the studios. Local paper ran the photo on page one with story and as a follow-up another shot showing the star reading the home-town daily together with an acknowledgment of MacMurray's thanks for his natal day salutations.

In keeping with the modernistic glass front of the Lux Theatre, Guatemala City, Guatemala, was the special electrical exhibit covering face of building on "Stolen Holiday." Giant painting of Kay Francis was featured in display arranged by Manager R. Cofino.

Highlight of Manager Stanley Brown's Fur Fahion Revue put on with "Artists and Models" at the West Coast, Long Beach, Cal., featured models displaying the new styles on stage and runway in front of theatre. Further details on following page. . . . Above right shows squad of girl drummers on new marquee of the New York Capitol, one of the stunts arranged by Ben Serkowich to publicize the reopening.

To emphasize his new season's bookings at the Westlake Theatre, Los Angeles, Manager W. C. "Rick" Ricord, Jr., planted a fully-decorated Christmas tree in his lobby, gaily-wrapped packages bearing names of the top shows to come. Cut-out of Santa Claus saying he could not wait until the Yuletide to present the entertainment gifts explained the stunt.

For Monogram's "Paradise Isle" at the Brooklyn-Strand, Manager Ted Trust arranged a display of Celotex boxes and frames explaining uses of that material against background of palm trees. Blowup of scene still showing stars seated on Celotex box was featured. . . . Principal highways around Bridgeport, Conn., were covered as illustrated by Manager Morris Rosenthal for his date on "Road Back" at the Majestic Theatre.

NEWSPAPER HEADLINES

Hold

ATLANTIC CITY – 3 weeks
DENVER – 4th week
CINCINNATI – Indefinite
PITTSBURGH
BALTIMORE
PORTLAND, Me.
STOCKTON, Cal. – Indefinite
HOUSTON
WASHINGTON, D. C.
WILKES BARRE
WORCESTER
PROVIDENCE
COLUMBUS
RICHMOND – 2 theatres
ESTES PARK, Col.
GLENS FALLS
WASHINGTON, N. J.

Coming — The Comedy Triumph . . . IRENE DUNNE and CARY GRANT in "THE AWFUL TRUTH"

WROTE THIS ADVERTISING

Over!

HARTFORD – 3 weeks
SAN DIEGO – 3 weeks
SAN FRANCISCO – 3rd week
ASBURY PARK
SACRAMENTO – Indefinite
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.
CLEVELAND
SCRANTON
TOLEDO
ERIE
NEWARK, O.
BRIDGEPORT
INDIANAPOLIS
BUFFALO
IPSWICH
TOMS RIVER, N. J.
WATERVILLE

— A Columbia Picture

...and just around the corner... GRACE MOORE in "I'LL TAKE ROMANCE" with MELVYN DOUGLAS

QUICK REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Corn Contest

Out where the tall corn grows, Dick Phillips, Charles Theatre, Charles City, Iowa, put on his yearly "tall corn contest" with local paper in connection with Gene Autry's "Yodelin' Kid from Pine Ridge," cash prize going to entrant submitting tallest cornstalk. Dick also promoted personal congratulatory wire from the star for the winner. Corn was stacked in front of shop adjoining theatre where the crowds gathered to view the specimens.

Dietrich Week

Opening gun of Bill Saxton's "Knight Without Armor" campaign at the Century, Baltimore, was tieup with leading chain shoe stores which featured a Dietrich Shoe Week during run of picture. Chain contributed ten complete windows for elaborate displays and arranged four daily broadcasts for several days ahead of opening. Stores also bought full page co-op ad on the amusement page.

Swimming Meet

Staged by Manager Johnny McManus, Loew's Midland, Kansas City, and W. P. Bernfield, United Artists exploiteer, was a "Dead End" swimming contest held at local pool. Swimming instructor arranged a program of eight events in which boys who were not members of any swimming teams were eligible. Twenty prizes were awarded by the theatre and cooperating merchants, and stunt was duly publicized in all the papers.

Jewelry Tieup

The gals of Memphis were invited to contend for the privilege of wearing thousands of dollars worth of jewelry in a promotion scheme engineered by publicist Fred Ford for the Malco Theatre date on "Toast of New York." Through radio tieup, contest was staged to find the girl who most closely resembled the star. Prize was privilege of wearing the jewelry furnished by the city's largest jeweler under guard in hotels, roof gardens and department stores.

SPEED! Is What You Want When You Need a Trailer QUICK . . . That's Why We're Famous For SAME DAY SERVICE
Our Work is of the Best
FILMACK TRAILER CO. 843 So. Wabash Chicago

PROMOTES BLIMP TO PLUG SHORTS

Coincidentally with showing of "Lifeguard Tubes" at the Park and Granada, Cleveland, Loewman Milt Harris promoted Goodyear to loan Company's advertising blimp to plug the short at National Air Races and other spots. Illuminated at night blimp covering the Exposition and other gatherings carried copy selling the short and crediting both theatres.

Merchant Aids

Trail, B. C. Canada, the city of smelting factories boasts a huge plant whose output is called "elephant brand" and to that product, Will Harper, Liberty Theatre tied his "Elephant Boy" date. Large downtown store window was secured and Harper promoted 50 small elephants from the factory which were planted in window, herd made to appear as though they were travelling with small cutouts of the Elephant Boy in the picture. Permission was also granted for Will to sell the elephants as lucky souvenirs.

Cool Stuff

Various stunts are reported by Tom Edwards, Ozark Theatre, Eldon, Mo. one of which was for "Mountain Music." Tom's operator and sign man cut out head of Martha Raye from 24 sheet and repainted her lips so that the mouth was large enough to place over boxoffice ticket window. Another stunt was picket in front of theatre with signboard reading "this theatre is unfair to hot weather. It has installed air conditioning to cool you off." Santa was also put on streets with sign "I came down from the North Pole to cool off at the Ozark and see" etc. etc.

Contest

One of the first stunts put over by Frank Boucher, Strand, Altoona, Pa. for "Three Smart Girls" was three way tieup with leading department store, radio station and two different newspapers which sponsored a contest to choose a "Miss Durbin" of that city. Store presented costumes to the winner, station offered broadcasting engagement over WFBG as did Boucher on the stage of the Strand and papers ran daily accounts of the contest. With the audience as sole judges, elimination contests were held at theatre thrice weekly.

Good Earth

For advance on "Good Earth," Lew Bray, Lyric, Brownwood, Texas, dumped five separate piles of earth in front of his theatre, each containing large cards on sticks calling attention to the picture opening and playdates. Entire stunt cost four passes for the hauling of the dirt to and from the theatre.

Windows

To publicize "Waikiki Wedding" at the Orpheum, Buena Vista, various merchants contributed window displays for Dave Goodenough. One music store devoted display to bazookas, sheet music and scene stills from the picture and dry goods store featured Hawaiian window with grass skirts and other paraphernalia. Local taverns cooperated by playing music from the picture on their electric phonographs and entire staff wore colored crepe paper leis ahead and during entire run.

Hawaiian Night

Frank Kennebeck, exploitation manager for Paramount in India, arranged a "Waikiki Wedding" night in leading Hotel in Bombay to plug that picture. Event was advertised by the hotel by transforming cabaret into Honolulu setting, the orchestra playing almost exclusively the music from the picture. Hula contest was put on with winner presented with silver cup by the management of Pathe Cinema.

Charity

"Old Shoes Day" was celebrated in Enid, Okla., by Carl Benefiel in which a pair of old shoes served as admission for all children under 12. Event was sponsored by the Enid Lions Club as part of their annual old clothes drive in cooperation with the Griffith Amusement Co. and the county welfare department. All shoes were turned over to the WPA repair shop and later to the Lions Club for distribution to the needy.

Safety Week

Hitting the front page of the Leominster Daily Chronicle, Maurice Jaffe, Metropolitan Theatre, Leominster, Mass., succeeded in planting box containing Mayor Harold W. Burdett's proclamation in connection with a safety week program tying in with "Devil Is Driving." Proclamation also called attention to the fact that the Chief of Police, George H. Smith, was cooperating with the manager.

MODERN

TODAY'S splendid motion picture quality can be completely protected... perfectly reproduced... with Eastman Fine-Grain Duplicating Films. For the simple reason that these new materials are capable of making duplicates actually indistinguishable from originals. With them the duplicating process goes definitely modern. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N.Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago, Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Fine-Grain

DUPLICATING FILMS

VOTE AUGUST PLAQUES TO DI PESA, DOBRANS

Boston Loew Man First in State to Win Quigley Top Honors; "Bronze" to M. & P. Manager

Blow the bugles and sound the cheers for New England.

By majority vote of the August Judging Committee, both Quigley Awards Plaques for the month go to theatremen in that sector.

To Joe Di Pesa, Boston Loew Publicist, is awarded the Silver for his worthy campaign on United Artists' "Stella Dallas," at the Orpheum and State theatres; to Barney Dobrans, the Bronze on his subsequent-run campaign for Paramount's "Make Way for Tomorrow," at the M. & P. Crown Theatre, in New London, Conn.

Di Pesa is further distinguished by being the first entrant from Massachusetts to be designated for Plaque honors and in landing this classification, generously credits his associate, Joe Longo, for a strong hand in putting the winning entry together.

Dobrans registers another "first" by taking down the initial Plaque for the Mullin and Pinanski theatres. His winning gives Connecticut the distinction of a third Plaque to be awarded theatremen in the Nutmeg State. Both entrants have earned previous Award Mentions.

Among the First Mentions voted in August, two of the three winners are known to the Competitions, Limerick especially for his Plaque campaign in 1936 at the Griffiths' Yale Theatre, in Cleburne, Texas. His current effort was on MGM's "Topper." Graburn is another familiar name, Larry having clicked before at Famous Players-Canadian Metropolitan Theatre, in Regina, Canada, where incidentally his "Elephant Boy" entry was his last before being promoted to the Capitol, in Halifax.

To be stressed also is the noteworthy job done by young Pearce Parkhurst, at the Graphic circuit's New Star Theatre, in Dover-Foxcroft, Me., on MGM's "Captains Courageous." Parkhurst is a newcomer to the Awards and earned his place for a fine endeavor in a community of some 3,000.

14 in Honorables List

Further first-timers in the Competitions and the Awards listings are found in the Honorable Mentions for August, some 14 theatremen sharing the 14 Certificates of this classification. And although Canada is represented in the "Firsts" column, entrants in this country divide all the August Honorables with communities big and small found in the list. The other sex is represented by Miss Mae Shively, who manages the Ritz Theatre, in Clearfield, Pa.

Names, positions of winning entrants and titles of pictures in the First and Honorable class will be found in another column on this page.

Deadline for September entries has been set for midnight of Saturday, October 9th, which as usual means that entries to be eligible must be received no later than that time.

FIRST MENTIONS

LARRY GRABURN, Manager, Metropolitan, Regina, Can., "Elephant Boy".

GEORGE LIMERICK, Manager, Yale, Cleburne, Tex., "Topper".

PEARCE PARKHURST, Manager, New Star, Dover-Foxcroft, Me., "Captains Courageous".

HONORABLE MENTIONS

RALPH H. AYER, Manager, Ute, Colorado Springs, Colo., "100 Men and a Girl".

WALLY CALDWELL, Manager, Loew's Valentine, Toledo, O., "Day at the Races".

BILL EXTON, Manager, Gateway, Kenosha, Wis., "Topper".

STANLEY GARTSIDE, Manager, Palace, Burkburnett, Tex., "Mountain Music".

C. H. GIBSON, Manager, Gibson, Greenville, Mich., "Mountain Music".

FRANK HENSON, Manager, Loew's Broad, Columbus, O., "Knight Without Armor".

SAM KRIMSTEIN, Manager, Logan, Chicago, Ill., "Star Is Born".

BERT LEIGHTON, Manager, Grand, Lancaster, Pa., "Topper".

ED MILLER, Manager, MANNY PEARLSTEIN, Publicist, Warner's Hippodrome, Cleveland, O., "Toast of New York".

J. H. ROBERTS, Manager, Star, Hereford, Tex., "Mountain Music".

HARRY SEFTON, Manager, Orpheum, Wichita, Kan., "Devil Is Driving".

W. CLYDE SMITH, Manager, Paramount, Hot Springs, Ark., "Road Back".

MISS MAE E. SHIVELY, Manager, Ritz, Clearfield, Pa., "Stella Dallas".

Members Report Fall Fur Reviews

Tying in with leading furriers for a gala fur stage show at the Paramount, Salem, Mass., Manager James A. Field brought wide advance notice to the presentation of a series of ads paid for by the store inviting local girls to serve as models. Backed by generous newspaper publicity, the ads brought inquiries from over 100 girls, 35 being selected for appearance in the show which was put on for two days early in August.

Publicity was started two weeks ahead and followed up daily including the days of the show. Details were also incorporated in the biweekly mailing list, heralds inserted in magazines and also distributed in the theatre lobby. Stores also cooperated in this wise by publicizing the show through their own mailing list, and papers ran group shots of the models in new styles.

Window cards plugging the show were planted in prominent store windows, further copy carried on lobby easels at the theatre and also at the store. Further interest was built up with trailer copy advertising that the model selected by audience applause would win the title of "Miss Fashion Queen" and would be presented with a new fur coat.

Fields reports store paying stage hand salary, for printing matter, newspaper advertising and half the cost of trailers, easels and special lobby display. Hairdressing of the models was promoted at no charge to the theatre, beauty shop being given plugs over the house p. a. system during the show, which played to capacity.

Brown's Outdoor Show

Subscriptions from 10 local furriers enabled Stan Brown to put on a smart fur fashion revue at the West Coast Theatre, Long Beach, Cal., in conjunction with "Artists and Models." Stage and runway erected immediately in front of the theatre and illustrated in the Round Table photo section of this issue was illuminated with lights and decorated with flowers supplied by the City Parks Department. Construction was completed day ahead of the show with posters placed around it to explain what it was all about.

Campaign also included series of three-column display ads and further publicity was obtained by a series of front-page stories and radio announcements. Furriers also decorated their windows and phoned all clients about the show. According to Brown the revue presented from 7:00 to 7:45 in the evening, did not hurt attendance, but, to the contrary, was found to help in packing the house to capacity before the finish.

"Tell Us What You Did"

Merchant Cooperation

Additional publicity was secured on "Elephant Boy" by Hal Bishop, Capitol, Winnipeg, by contacting feature editor of the Free Press to run story on Robert Flaherty, who, during his early youth, spent considerable time in and around Winnipeg. Further tieup was made with local coffee distributor whose trade mark is an elephant. Merchant sponsored a special Saturday morning matinee.

PLAN PIGEON RACES FOR "FIREFLY"

COLUMBIA

Special campaigns in work utilizing for front-page breaks the Cinderella aspect of this Madeline Carroll-Francis Lederer farce. Searches made in each situation for stenogs who want to know what it feels like to be a millionairess, a la Carroll. Girl is wined, dined and feted with newspaper co-sponsorship. Stunt is already reported to have clicked in New Orleans, Baltimore, Columbus and other towns.—"It's All Yours"—Francis Lederer, Madeleine Carroll.

▽

Set models of Shangri La Lamasary are being routed throughout the country under home office supervision to assist in special displays, news stories, etc. National campaign is under way for cooperation locally by Boards of Education including both elementary and upper grades and college exploitation. Arrangements have been made for mailing of postcards from Hollywood signed by Ronald Colman, cards at all Columbia exchanges to be addressed, stamped locally and mailed in parcel to coast for remailing.

Newspaper features have been prepared in mat form for local planting; six day illustrated serialization, six day pictorial serialization of film story, special Frank Capra strip showing him in candid-camera action on set with captioned biog of the director and full page mat all exchanges for planting in Sunday sections fully illustrated telling the story behind production of the picture.—"Lost Horizon."—Ronald Colman, Edward Everett Horton, Jane Wyatt, Margo.

▽

National promotion has been arranged on "Mr. Smith," wire-haired terrier with special section in campaign book devoted to dog angles. Exploitation tieup of Irene Dunne Alaska Seal Coat involving newspaper-dealer advertising, national magazine advertising, promotion brochures, etc.

Special series of articles by noted marital authority on psychological aspect of marriage are available for local newspaper planting. It is further suggested that ten couples be found in each city and treated enmasse in typical "Lady For a Day" fashion, to meet mayor, visit stores, attend luncheons, dinners, night spots, etc., under newspaper sponsorship. Stunt will be followed through personally by field exploiteers.—"The Awful Truth"—Irene Dunne, Cary Grant.

▽

Fay Wray and Richard Arlen are tied up with Ronson lighters for national magazine campaign, Vogue, Life, Cosmopolitan, etc., and for followup dealer merchandising campaign with day-and-date advertising, window displays, etc. Special Wonder Bread national campaign including window streamers, radio broadcasts, etc., for local theatre cooperation involving grocers throughout country. Special day-and-date Lucky Strike advertising on Richard Arlen.—"Park Avenue Dame"—Fay Wray and Richard Arlen.

PRODUCERS ARRANGE NEW SEASON TIEINS

To signalize the strength of the new season's pictures and to give theatremen in the field a closeup of what the home office ad departments are planning to aid managers in the advertising on coming pictures, this page and the two following carry outlines of some of the featured tieins already set and being prepared by the producers. Also listed are top exploitation ideas suggested by the admen.

Alphabetically arranged by companies, the various cooperations are put down briefly and followed by the titles of the pictures concerned and the stars appearing in them. Fuller information will be found in the press books of the attractions listed here. Further slants and tieins will be carried in next week's issue.

Campaign under way for broadcasts and general song plugging of music scheduled for late October release. Work now under way for dealer tieups on all companies' recordings. Nash tieup with Grace Moore involving radio, newspaper, magazine advertising and dealer displays, etc.—"I'll Take Romance"—Grace Moore, Melvyn Douglas.

▽

GRAND NATIONAL

American Airlines with whose cooperation the picture was made, is arranging to display scenes from the picture in each of its 60 offices and will also cooperate with exhibitors in offering visitors free transportation to and from its various flying fields. Bruce Cabot is featured in a car card advertising campaign sponsored by Affiliated Products Co., which appear in all principal cities of the country. Full mention will be given the picture as will also be the case in a Kissproof magazine campaign built around Bruce Cabot, mentioning picture and appearing in Silver Queen, Modern Screen, Modern Romances, Modern Radio, True Story, True Romances, True Experiences, Movie Mirror, Radio Mirror, Screen Book, Screen Play, Motion Picture and Hollywood magazine.

Astrid Allwyn, one of the feminine leads is the central figure in a big Lux soap newspaper campaign which credits the picture and a cooperative arrangement has been worked out with dealers handling Cord cars which is the make used by Bruce Cabot who is shown in a variety of poses with the car. Fan magazine breaks include display of art in September Cinéma Art plugs fictionization in the August issue of Screen Romances.—"Love Takes Flight"—Bruce Cabot, Astrid Allwyn.

▽

Dell Publishing Co. will display a 40 by 28 two-color poster on delivery trucks throughout the country advertising James Cagney's life story appearing in the October issue of Modern Screen magazine. Promotion also receives added advantage of full page plug in Foto, Screen Romances and Film Fun. Tieup has been arranged with Arthur Murray dance studios, whereby it is possible for exhibitors to offer free dancing lessons to fans presenting most original name for principal number contributed by Cagney consisting of a ballet-tap routine. Dance will be presented at the Fall convention of the National Academy of Social Dancing, as well as at dance teachers' convention in Boston, Chicago and New York.

Advertising tieups have also been made with commercial companies whose products appear in an outdoor street set used in the picture. These include Maytag Washing Machine Co., Hoover Vacuum Cleaner Co., Brown and Williamson Tobacco Co., Mission Dry Corporation, Curtiss Candy Co., RCA Victor, Guerlain Perfumes, Postal Telegraph, Remington Rand, Aubrey Moore and Wallace, manufacturers of "Italian Balm," White Rock beverages, Louis Sherry candies and American Airlines, etc.—"Something To Sing About."—James Cagney, Gene Lockhart.

▽

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Plans are underway to start a series of pigeon races between the various cities showing this road-show attraction. It is promised that this exploitation stunt will have the full cooperation of newspapers and local pigeon fanciers.

From time immemorial pigeons have been used as messengers in times of war, and the Napoleonic conflict which is the motivating force in "The Firefly" shows Jeannette MacDonald using them in her role of spy.—"Firefly"—Jeannette MacDonald, Allen Jones, Warren Williams.

▽

Cover of October Photoplay carries reproduction of Joan Crawford against a background of chrysanthemums. Tieup is a four-way proposition between Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, Western Union, Photoplay and M-G-M. 17 different cooperative angles have already been worked out awaiting the national release date, Sept. 24. "The Bride Wore Red."—Joan Crawford, Franchot Tone, Robert Young.

▽

Rosalind Russell is scheduled to appear in a series of radio broadcasts sponsored by the International Silverware. Much exhibitor advantage is expected to result from local station promotion and the nation-wide department stores carrying this product.—"Live, Love and Learn"—Rosalind Russell, Robert Montgomery.

▽

Coca-Cola will soon start a series of national advertisements in newspaper roto sections. Myrna Loy is one of the many M-G-M stars whose likeness will appear in them. Coca-Cola is preparing dealer helps, including big standees, counter displays, etc.—"Double Wedding"—Myrna Loy, William Powell.

FASHION TIEINS SET FOR "ANGEL"

MONOGRAM

It is suggested that exhibitors capitalize on the fact that picture was awarded the Parent's Magazine medal for the best family picture. Local PTAs should be of aid in connection with this recognition. A voting contest run in conjunction with a local newspaper with the showing of the film to decide the most popular teacher in the community would focus outstanding attention to the film. Plug Micky Rooney, who has risen to stardom in "Slave Ship," "Devil is a Sissy," "Captains Courageous" and "Family Affair."—"Hoosier Schoolboy"—Mickey Rooney, Ann Nagel, Frank Shields.

▽

National campaign embraces 10 national merchandise tieups, including I. Miller shoes and hosiery, Maxwell House Coffee, Moviematic camera, American Spice Association, Celotex, Coty Perfume, Williamsbridge Mills, Aviatrix shower and boudoir caps, Ben Hur hair ornaments, Kadin Handbags, Royal Robes, Cohn and Rosenberger jewelry, Gaber bathing suits. Everyone of these manufacturers have national retail outlets, so that one and more can be used wherever the picture plays. Romantic South Sea background of Samoa is also suggested for plugging.—"Paradise Isle."—Movita and Warren Hull.

▽

CCC camp background of picture is suggested for tieins. There are 2,002 CCC camps located in various sections of the U. S. where more than 350,000 boys are enlisted. The "Happy Days," national official newspaper of the CCC, carried a four chapter serialization. Picture was made with the official cooperation of the U. S. Forest Service and the Department of Agriculture.—"Blazing Barriers"—Edward Arnold, Jr.

▽

In lieu of the headlines and front page news on the war between China and Japan, this picture, dealing with the smuggling of Chinese into America, should be of outstanding interest to the public. Every alert showman can capitalize on the present situation in bringing attention to this film, with the Chinese leaving their own country and seeking safety elsewhere.—"Shadows of the Orient"—Esther Ralston, Regis Toomey, S. Blackmer.

▽

Work with local Bureau of Missing Persons or local police officials in getting from them a list of names and photos of people missing from your town or city in the past years. Contact your local newspaper in conducting an investigation as to the whereabouts of these missing persons, or their ultimate fate.—"Legion of Missing Men"—Ralph Forbes, Ben Alexander, Hala Linda.

▽

PARAMOUNT

Radio plugs by Mary Livingston on the Jack Benny Jell-O hour and tieup with the General Foods Corp., distributors for dealer promotions. Tieup with Johnson's floor polish in Fibber McGee and Molly, radio comedians for that account. Radio plugs on the Monday evening coast-to-coast NBC radio show, tiein also includes special dealer window display pieces. Further tieup with the Covered Wagon Company manufacturers of automobile trailers including colored poster, almost one-sheet size, already sent to dealers everywhere for display on showroom windows. Poster is illustrated by scenes from the production. Local playdate information space available to exhibitors.—"This Way Please"—Mary Livingston, Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Bette Grable, Ned Sparks, Fibber McGee and Molly.

▽

Tide Water Associated Oil Companies in large-scale national promotion. This tieup includes newspaper advertising approximately day and date in important key cities for first runs; gas station posting of one-sheets from the production, with local playdate strips supplied by exhibitor; distribution throughout the country at local Tydol stations of special four page rotogravure heralds jointly advertising the picture and Tydol, with local theatre imprint space, these heralds to be made available to exhibitors. Radio plugs over all stations used by Tide Water Associated, giving direct local theatre playdate and picture building.—"High, Wide and Handsome"—Irene Dunne, Randolph Scott, Elizabeth Patterson, Charles Bickford, Dorothy Lamour.

▽

Air plugs on the Jack Benny Jell-O radio show throughout Jack Benny session and during special summer Jell-O show. Plugs on Martha Raye's Rinso radio hour. Special musical presentation by Andre Kostelanetz and Louis Armstrong.

Two color window streamers jointly advertising Jack Benny in his Jell-O radio program and picture with local imprint space provided. Streamers available free to exhibitors at exchanges. Easy Washing Machine Company tieup, promotion consisting of dealer advertising mats for local insertion with space for local theatre plug, counter cards and two-color window streamers. Fashion promotion through Modern Merchandising Bureau, includes special 16 mm. fashion trailer for back-screen projection in department store windows or on counters. Max Factor promotion. Traveling makeup artists will be routed to cities showing the picture for department store displays based on Ida Lupino.—"Artists and Models"—Jack Benny, Gail Patrick, Ida Lupino, Richard Arlen, Ben Blue. Specialties by Martha Raye, Yacht Club Boys, Connie Boswell.

▽

Lucky Strike newspaper and magazine advertising on Gary Cooper. Packard Lektroshaver tieup with George Raft which also makes available blowups for window and counter displays.—"Souls at Sea"—Gary Cooper, George Raft, Frances Dee, Henry Wilcoxon.

▽

Large scale fashion tieup with Modern Merchandising Bureau, including fashion reel for stores, fashion reproductions of dresses, hats, costume jewelry. National advertising break in Time Magazine, October 11, of advertisement by Hammermill Bond paper.—"Angel"—Marlene Dietrich, Herbert Marshall, Melvyn Douglas.

▽

Max Factor tieup on Frances Farmer, including displays for cosmetic windows and cooperative dealer advertising. LaSalle men's hat tieup on Ray Milland. Display material for stores. Packard Lektroshaver and Packard Lektrolite tieup on Ray Milland, comprising window and counter display cards.—"Ebb Tide"—Oscar Homolka, Frances Dee, Ray Milland.

▽

20TH CENTURY - FOX

A complete promotion manual, including cooperative newspaper ads, an exceptional window display in full color, newspaper publicity stories, and spot radio announcements have been sent to every Servel refrigerator dealer in the United States, strongly urging them to cooperate with exhibitors when "Borneo" is released in their territories. The complete cost of this campaign is being footed by the Servel Co., and their dealers. —"Borneo"—Mr. & Mrs. Martin Johnson.

▽

Tieup has been made with the Nestor Johnson Mfg. Co., to manufacture a special Sonja Henie pleasure skate which will be sold in every department and sporting goods store in the United States. In addition, a special rate has been arranged for exhibitors wishing to purchase skates for use in local contests.

The second major exploitation arranged is series of four articles, illustrated with high speed camera shots, showing how Miss Henie performs her ice feats. To facilitate circulation, 20th Century-Fox is supplying free mats of each of the four articles to newspapers which tieup with exhibitors. Complete details of both promotions are included in the press book.—"Thin Ice"—Sonja Henie, Tyrone Power.

(Continued on following page)

NEWSGIRLS PROPOSED INSTEAD OF NEWSBOYS

For "Back in Circulation", starring Joan Blondell and Pat O'Brien, Warners' suggest getting a trio of shapely blondes to walk around town with placards on their backs reading: "We are back in circulation at the Blank Theatre". To dress up the stunt a little, house artist might paint it on their slickers in water colors. Add to the gag by writing up a number of limericks for the girls to recite ending with the line: "Now we're back in circulation".

Newsboys are ordinary, but newsgirls will attract. Two attractive girls around downtown streets yelling "Extra" might pass out flash heralds headlining "Editor Weds Star Reporter."

RADIO TO PUBLICISE "ALI BABA"

(Continued from preceding page)

Peter B. Kyne authored the serialized form of "Lloyds of London" and Governeur Morris that of "Slave Ship." Both of these were planted in more than 500 newspapers. Plans have already been formulated to have an equally well-known novelist write a serialization.—"In Old Chicago"—Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche.

▽

Texaco Gasoline, sponsors of Eddie Cantor's radio program are in on a tieup that promises cooperation from Texaco dealers throughout the country, as well as a barrage of radio exploitation. Details have not been completely worked out as yet, but the entire campaign will be included in the pressbook.—"Ali Baba Goes To Town"—Eddie Cantor, June Lang, Roland Young.

▽

Jack Haley has been signed as the star of the new Log Cabin radio program and mention of Haley's new pictures are expected to receive liberal plugs over the air. In addition, tieups with grocery stores are made available to exhibitors in their respective communities.—"Danger—Love At Work"—Ann Sothern, Jack Haley, Edward Everett Horton, Mary Boland.

▽

Woodbury's new Sunday night dramatic program will star Tyrone Power. A nation-wide campaign is currently in effect announcing the signing of Power as the star of the new broadcast, and arrangements have been worked out by which plugs of Power's new pictures will be broadcast on each of the programs. First pictures to benefit under this arrangement will be "In Old Chicago" and "Second Honeymoon."

▽

UNIVERSAL

National tieups have been arranged for Deanna Durbin fashions, including cotton, wool and silk dresses, hats, coats, complete sportswear, pajamas, robes and house coats, bathing suits, skirts, ski suits, etc. Stores are reported planning complete Deanna Durbin departments.

It is suggested that stores featuring these fashions cooperate in putting on a fashion show on theatre's stage, with stores supplying models and fashions running special newspaper ads and window displays. Further suggestions include Deanna Durbin resemblance contest at the fashion show, winner to wear complete outfit of Deanna Durbin fashions.

Decca Records have made exclusive recordings of "It's Raining Sunbeams" and "A Heart That Is Free" as sung by Deanna Durbin in the picture. They have also many other records containing popular songs sung by Miss Durbin. Victor Records have the exclusive recordings of Leopold Stokowski and his orchestra, playing the famous arias rendered in the picture. Lux Soap tieup ads will break in leading cities throughout the country on Deanna Durbin.

Special cash prize of $25 can be offered to be turned over to local charity for the first girl who brings 100 men with her to see the picture. Gag is launched two or three weeks in advance to give the girls time to line up their escorts and should have a special appeal in local schools, colleges, etc. —"100 Men and a Girl"—Deanna Durbin, Leopold Stokowski, Adolphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Eugene Pallette, Mischa Auer.

▽

Actual merry-go-round can be constructed as an advance display. Large caricature heads of the four zanies in the picture, mounted on tin doll bodies can be spotted prominently. Merry-go-round turns on a phonograph or other kind of turntable device. Records of typical calliope music played, interspersed with recordings of music from the film. Same idea can be adopted for use on a street ballyhoo truck, with merry-go-round turning by means of a motor-hook-up.

Swami in lobby stunt features a dummy or photo blow-up of Mischa Auer in the swami costume he wears in the film. A two-way mike hook-up with receiver and transmitter in the dummy at the other end, provides the means for passersby to ask questions and receive immediate answers. Person assigned to answer questions is located in a spot where he can be heard but not seen. Copy beneath swami figure plugs title and catchline.—"Merry-Go-Round of 1938"—Joy Hodges, John King, Bert Lahr, Billy House, Mischa Auer, Jimmy Savo, Alice Brady, Louise Fazenda, Dave Apollon and Orchestra.

▽

A real live-wire barker out front. A stand boxoffice is rigged up out front, from which the barker gives his spiel as he sells tickets. If a barker is impractical, the idea can be adopted for an attention-getting standee out front with copy lines on stand. Barker is a poster cut out of Robert Wilcox with megaphone in hand.—"Carnival Queen"—Robert Wilcox, Dorothea Kent, Hobart Cavanaugh.

FAMOUS WOMEN TIED TO "CERTAIN WOMAN"

For "That Certain Woman", starring Bette Davis and Henry Fonda, Warners' suggest a newspaper contest offering prizes for first 20 correct answers on "Certain Famous Women" idea being to list a number of famous women and have patrons tell for what each is well known.

Invite girls to step into lobby and be photographed gratis. Award free tickets to girls whose smile most resembles that of Bette Davis. Variations of the idea would be to send a truck with blowup of Bette's smile through streets, asking girls to step on bannered float and have their pictures taken there.

Man travels around town with a small mike concealed on his person. He mingles wherever crowds gather, and tries to pick up their conversations. After each bit he whispers into the mike: "This is your secret rover 'Behind the Mike,' bringing you chance bits of street conversation." At the beginning and end of broadcast he can mention the film and theatre. Radio station should be willing to sponsor the stunt as something out of the ordinary.—"Behind the Mike"—William Gargan, Judith Barrett, Don Wilson.

▽

UNITED ARTISTS

Tieup with Hart, Schaffner & Marx on a combined magazine, newspaper and display campaign, tying up with Henry Fonda. Campaign includes full pages in color in Esquire, Collier's, Saturday Evening Post; a full page in Life; 1,500 line ads day and date in conjunction with their 500 leading outlets; consumer circulars, style books, five-foot window displays, window cutouts and special local promotions which include free giveaway of suits in cooperation with local theatres.—"I Met My Love Again"—Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett.

▽

Exploitation based on Walter Wanger models, called "The Most Photographed Girls in the World." A series of five stunts included (a) scrambled features contest; (b) "find local models" idea; (c) Girlygrams contest—best alliterative adjectives describing the beauty of the models; (d) "match your figure with the models" lobby stunt—a full size figure of a representative model cut out on compo board, with invitation to girls to step in and see if their figures match the perfect proportions; (e) a full-page matted Sunday feature story entitled, "Most Photographed Girls in the World."—"Walter Wagner's Vogues of 1938."—Warner Baxter, Joan Bennett, Distributing reproductions of the Charlie McCarthy dummy, exact in every detail, to leading film critics and writers. Gulf Oil Co. is tieing up with six weeks of plugs through Phil Baker, featured in radio program. Dealers will display lithographed cards, one sheets and every dealer will distribute personally autographed cards from Baker in Hollywood. "The Goldwyn Follies.—Phil Baker, Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy, Helen Jepson, Zorina, Adolphe Menjou, Ritz Brothers.

▽

▽

Tieup with Auto-Lite Spark Plugs, including full page four color ads in Life and Liberty; day and date newspaper advertising; life size cutouts of Madeleine Carroll for lobby display; small-size cutouts of Madeleine Carroll for boxoffice display; material for dealers window display; distribution of fan photographs of Madeleine Carroll; and slip-sheeting of a four-page insert into Liberty Magazine in three hundred cities at the time the picture plays those spots.—"The Prisoner of Zenda."—Ronald Colman, Madeleine Carroll

personalities

CLARENCE BOSCH
is now managing the Lake, Milwaukee, and CARL KELLY goes to the Granada.

▽

ARNOLD SCHNEEBERGER
is the house manager of the new Princess Theatre, Kendallville, Ind.

▽

ARTHUR P. BARRY
Macon manager for Lucas and Jenkins, will direct the education and publicity bureau of the Community Chest campaign in October.

▽

JAMES O'BRIEN
and CHARLES MEKELBURG will open the Capitol in Monson, Mass.

▽

ALLEN T. SPARROW
has succeeded GEORGE ARTHUR JONES as manager of Loew's, Richmond, Va., the latter being shifted to Boston.

▽

MORRIS ZAIDINS
who has been manager of the credentials department at the Cleveland Great Lakes Expo will again manage the reopened Gayety Theatre, Cincinnati, O.

▽

S. LAIRD
has taken over the Madison, Kansas City, Mo., from J. D. WOODS.

▽

CLIFFORD KNOLL
will manage the Time Theatre, Mason City, Ia., for WATSON MOORE.

▽

E. A. EARHART
has sold his theatre in Odebolt, Ia., and bought the Strand in Milford from F. F. JUNGKUNZ, who retires from showbusiness.

▽

MR. AND MRS. TOM FLEMING
have purchased the Hollywood Theatre, York, S. C., from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. GRIFFIN.

▽

BRANDEN WARREN
is the manager of the reopened Lake Butler Theatre, Lake Butler, Fla.

▽

J. STUART CAGNEY
has been transferred from the Glove to Schine's Colonia Theatre, Norwich, Conn.

▽

JOE SIRKIN
formerly at the Culver Theatre, Brooklyn, has been transferred to the Duffield, another Randforce house.

▽

F. D. NESSEL
of the Jefferson Theatre, Goshen, Ind., paid us that long anticipated visit with his very charming wife.

▽

PAUL BLAUFOX
is now managing the Grand Opera House, Wilmington, Del.

▽

JAY GOLDEN
former manager of the RKO Palace, Rochester, has returned to that house from the Keith at Syracuse, replacing WALTER RISLEY, who plans to return to Hollywood.

Created by Bob Ewing, Mars Theatre, Lafayette, Ind., was this four by five foot poster on "Mountain Music" done in pastel crayon directly on compo board.

▽

C. G. HOLMES
has resigned as manager of the Royal Theatre, Guelph, Ont., Can., to return to England from which point his plans will later be announced.

▽

HARRY K. McWILLIAMS has taken over the post of assistant director of publicity at United Detroit Theatres, succeeding LYNDON YOUNG, who is now booker.

Birthday Greetings

George Marcus Aurelius	Charles A. Koerner
Al Bartolot	Joseph Levenson
J. Gordon Bason	Irving Levine
Harry Beencken	George E. Livingston
J. H. Berlinger	Thomas J. McCoy
Fred Bixby	H. B. McFarling
Ben W. Blackman	R. V. McGinnis
Charles Brown	Robert Menches
Frank Boucher	Howard Mercer
A. G. Buchanan	John Alford Mier
Burr W. Cline	Bill C. Miller
Nathan S. Cohen	Irvin A. Moffitt
Norman T. Cohen	Lee Naify
Al Cooper	J. Alan Peters
Arlie Crites	Clyde Pratt
Reid L. Crow	Jimmie L. Redmond
L. O. Daniel, Jr.	Max Reizes
J. Ramos Defontaine	Jarrell B. Rhea
Fred J. Dollinger	Dozier B. Roberts
Robert Duberstein	Robert O. Robison
Tom W. Edwards	G. O. Romine
Joseph Feldman	Robert J. Rydeen
W. A. Gallemore	Dave D. Samuels
Leonard Goldberg	Harry Sanders
Harold Goldman	Harry Sayer
Leonard Gordon	Sam Schiwetz
Wesley R. Griffith	Gerald Shaffer
J. Sidney Grill	Martin Simpson
Mike Guttman	J. E. Spencer
W. H. Hall	Harold C. Spero
Rotus Harvey	Norman Stancliffe
Harold Heller	Jim P. Stroud
R. H. Hightower	William Truesdell
C. L. Hollister	Harold Turner
Jack Huwig	Eric Van Dyck
Leon Edouard Junette	E. M. Waltz
Thomas R. King	Jack Zaitzow

JIM KEEFE
former advertising and publicity director for Fox Wisconsin Agency Corp., has been named manager of the circuit's Wisconsin, Milwaukee.

▽

MARTIN COOPERSMITH
will manage the Park, Greeley, Colo.

▽

E. B. ADELMAN
has opened a new house in Tulsa, Okla.

▽

WILLIAM BROWN
former house manager at RKO Albee, Providence, has been named managing director of the house with KEN ROCKWELL, formerly at RKO Fordham, as new house manager under Brown.

▽

GEORGE SETTOS
has acquired the Rialto and Royal Theatres in Tell City, Ind.

▽

DON JACOBS
has been promoted from manager of the Lyric, Portsmouth to the Lake, in Cleveland, with DICK CRUSIGER succeeding him, and CLARENCE SLETZ promoted from assistant to manager of the Plaza, Sandusky.

▽

JIM KNEVELS
has replaced ED SIEGAL at the Jerome Theatre, Bronx, N. Y.

▽

CAREY REEVES
has been made manager of the Warner Lake, Cleveland, with DON JACOBS going to the Hippodrome as assistant, succeeding GEORGE FRASER, who went to the Variety in the same capacity.

▽

J. R. FERGER
goes to the Embassy, Neenah, Wis., H. G. DIMMITT to the Brin at Menasha.

▽

GENE ARNSTEIN
has been named manager of the Warner-Saxe Garfield, Milwaukee, Wis., succeeding MILT HARMAN, who has been promoted to advertising manager of the circuit.

▽

FRANK MURPHY
assistant at Loew's Orpheum, Boston, has been upped to manager of the Broadway, Wilmington, Del.

▽

SPUD QUERY
manager of the Lincoln, Marion, Va., is planning on reopening the Rialto Theatre there.

▽

ED MATER
has replaced HERBERT GOLDBERG, resigned, as manager of the Isis Theatre, Kansas City, Mo., while MORRILL MOORE goes from the Rockhill to the Warwick and GLENN CARROLL leaves the Apollo to succeed Moore. RALPH WALLACE is transferred from the Linwood to the Gladstone, succeeding CHARL MORRILL, who goes to the Vista. JOHN CREAMER has been placed in charge of the Linwood, while THOMAS GARRISON goes to the Benton.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

DEVIL IS DRIVING, THE: Richard Dix, Joan Perry—A fairly good program picture. Nothing big, but good, clean entertainment that every crazy car driver should see. We had no complaints on this picture. Dix always goes over good here. Running time, 68 minutes. Played August 28-29.—Ray Bichler, Mattray Theatre, Strasburg, N. D. Small town patronage.

First National

EARTHWORM TRACTORS: Joe E. Brown—The funniest Joe E. Brown we've ever played. Laughs galore. Running time, 65 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

MARKED WOMAN: Bette Davis, Humphrey Bogart—A picture we were very proud to have played and brought us a lot of comment. Business average for weekend.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

MOUNTAIN JUSTICE: George Brent, Josephine Hutchinson, Guy Kibbee, Fuzzy Knight, Margaret Hamilton—Here is a splendid picture that did not do so well at the gate. Very rarely is anything but the "horse opry" successful on the Friday-Saturday spot in this town. Those who did comment on the picture spoke very favorably of it. Such comedy relief as is contained in an otherwise rather somber production is carried by Guy Kibbee, Fuzzy Knight and Margaret Hamilton. Running time, 82 minutes. Played September 3-4.—W. D. White, Palace Theatre, Exira, Iowa. Town and rural patronage.

Grand National

ARIZONA DAYS: Tex Ritter—Pretty good western. Running time, 60 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BETWEEN TWO WOMEN: Franchot Tone, Virginia Bruce, Maureen O'Sullivan—Intimated in both press and trailer that this was another "White Sister." They shot too high. It is just a program picture with Tone to head the cast and he is no pushover to sell the public.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

ESPIONAGE: Edmund Lowe, Madge Evans—Both Madge Evans and Lowe are very good, but the story is nothing to write home about. This team deserves a better story. Used this on a double feature. Running time, 67 minutes. Played August 21-22.—Gladys E. McArdle. Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

FAMILY AFFAIR, A: Lionel Barrymore, Cecilia Parker—Barrymore is just as good as usual in this one and that is what is wrong with it, in my judgment. I think he lacks versatility. In each part he plays he is just Lionel Barrymore with just the same appearance, the same voice and the same mannerisms. Our patrons seem to be tired of his work. Running time, 70 minutes. Played August 24-25.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

GOOD OLD SOAK: Wallace Beery, Betty Furness—A good program picture which drew average money. Berry well liked. Played August 12-14.—Rubel Hutchings, Allen Theatre, Allen, Neb. Small town patronage.

MAN OF THE PEOPLE: Joseph Calleia, Florence Rice—Just a program picture. Joseph Calleia has given some very good performances as a gangster, but he is not so good in the role of a reformer. Not many bricks but no bouquets on this one. Running time, 81 minutes. Played August 18-19.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

MAYTIME: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy—A wonderful picture, but n. g. in small town. Played August 5-7.—Rubel Hutchings, Allen Theatre, Allen, Neb. Small town patronage.

NIGHT MUST FALL: Robert Montgomery, Rosalind Russell—A fine cast wasted on a two-hour film with a story that is neither instructive nor entertaining. The best acting in the world will not make patrons like a gruesome story. Running time, 117 minutes. Played August 27-28.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to —

What the Picture Did for Me

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Rockefeller Center, New York

NOBODY'S BABY: Patsy Kelly, Robert Armstrong—A hokum comedy that got by satisfactory for the weekend date on a clientele that is not too critical.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

SARATOGA: Jean Harlow, Clark Gable—A good sendoff for the late Miss Harlow. Well produced and of course it did business, for it had a lot of advance publicity due to her death.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

SINNER TAKE ALL: Margaret Lindsay, Bruce Cabot—We played this the night of the fight to a very satisfactory house and received many favorable comments.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

THEY GAVE HIM A GUN: Spencer Tracy, Franchot Tone, Gladys George—This picture was well liked by my people. A little better than average business. Played August 26-28.—Rubel Hutchings, Allen Theatre, Allen, Neb. Small town patronage.

THEY GAVE HIM A GUN: Spencer Tracy, Gladys George, Franchot Tone—A war story, a love story and a gangster story rolled up together. It's a very well done job of directing and acting, but too much of a "thriller" to please people who merely desire to be amused. I believe this one will quite satisfy about 70 per cent of the usual run of movie goers. Running time, 94 minutes. Played September 3-4.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

TOPPER: Roland Young, Constance Bennett, Cary Grant, Billie Burke—Smooth comedy all the way. The two characters appear and disappear. Tailored to Roland Young's measure. The only false note was Billie Burke, whose fluttering and head bobbing belong back in East Lynne's time. Her acting is amateurish and outmoded. Not as long as I remember has she added anything to a picture. In fact, she detracts from it as she did in this one. It was the only place where there was any appearance of the razzberry in the audience—during the sequences she appeared in. The picture is novel and unusual.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

Monogram

HOOSIER SCHOOLBOY: Mickey Rooney, Anne Nagel—A very good picture with Mickey Rooney. Business fair. Played July 11-12.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCorry, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

Paramount

ARTISTS AND MODELS: Jack Benny, Ida Lupino, Gail Patrick—Excellent in any spot. Running time, 98 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

BULLDOG DRUMMOND ESCAPES: Ray Milland, Heather Angel—A good mystery, but a flop at the box office. Running time, 70 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

EASY LIVING: Edward Arnold, Jean Arthur, Ray Milland—This is a picture. Play it for all it is worth. No company has ever made a better one. Our patrons ate it up and the lobby comments were the tops. Played September 5-7.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. General patronage.

INTERNES CAN'T TAKE MONEY: Barbara Stanwyck, Joel McCrea—Good picture of its kind. Running time, 79 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

LAST TRAIN FROM MADRID: Lew Ayres, Dorothy Lamour—Pleasing programer. Running time, 77 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

MIDNIGHT MADONNA: Warren William, Mady Correll—Pleasing little picture in any spot. Running time, 60 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC: Bob Burns, Martha Raye—We don't have Bank Night any more in Texas, but thank the Lord we have Paramount. Keep it up, Adolph, you are going to town.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. Small town patronage.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC: Martha Raye, Bob Burns—Drew extra well at box office. Personally thought "Mountain Music" only a fair picture. Played August 19-21.—Rubel Hutchings, Allen Theatre, Allen, Neb. Small town patronage.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC: This picture came within an inch of bettering the all-time house record, yet was played in very hot weather. What more can anyone ask? Pleased everyone except a very few. Let's have another "Hillbilly Opry"; it's a great box office tonic! Played August 6-7.—Ted Stump, Elted Theatre, Absarokee, Mont. Rural patronage.

RUSTLERS' VALLEY: William Boyd, George Hayes—Good western. Running time, 60 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

WAIKIKI WEDDING: Bing Crosby, Shirley Ross, Martha Raye, Bob Burns—Excellent picture well constructed. Running time, 88 minutes. Played August 15-17.—Guy W. Cocklin, Strand Theatre, Walnut, Iowa. General patronage.

WAIKIKI WEDDING: Bing Crosby, Shirley Ross, Martha Raye, Bob Burns—Played this one on a return date after playing it June 10-11. The best in box office draw. Paramount sure is okay for small towns. Played August 13.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

Peerless

MAN THEY COULDN'T HANG, THE: Everyone is familiar with this story, especially the older people. It brought out people that as a rule never come, and I believe will have a tendency to make new customers. It was well received by sellout business. Opinions varied, but it did business. We are glad to have played it for the one night on our slow night. The print was in good condition and the sound was equally good.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Republic

BIG SHOW, THE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Nothing remarkable about this picture, as far as I can see. But the way they come to see these Autry pictures is remarkable. This one comes very near to a high for the past year. Running time, 70 minutes. Played August 31-September 1.—G. A. Van Fradenburg, Valley Theatre, Manassa, Col. Farming community patronage.

COUNTRY GENTLEMEN: Ole Olsen, Chic Johnson—Very poorly constructed. They have tried to build a whole show with two actors and ruined an otherwise good story. Running time, 69 minutes. Played August 22-24.—Guy W. Cocklin, Walnut, Iowa. General patronage.

RKO Radio

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard, Milton Berle—When bigger and better messes are made, this is one of them. If Joe Penner has any following, they were not apparent. They dragged in every gag they had on file and then did not make a picture.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

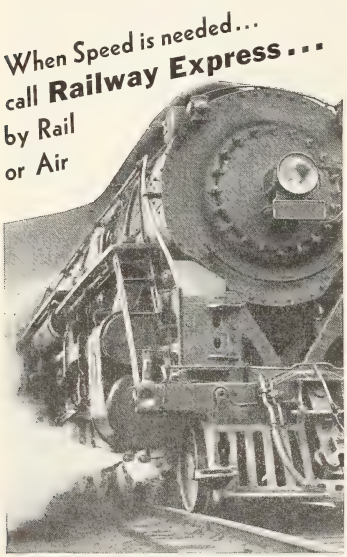
NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard—Not so hot. Only fair program picture. Running time, 98 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard, Milton Berle—First part of the picture slow, but picked up last half. Not enough Joe Penner. Business fair. Played July 18-19.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Harriet Hilliard, Milton Berle—This picture was the world's worst. Whenever producers think that the public goes for such trash, they had better send a questionnaire for audience reaction. Played September 1-2.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. General patronage.

RIDING ON AIR: Joe E. Brown, Florence Rice—The best Brown picture in a long time. Played July 7 in opposition to tent show. Business good.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

SOLDIER AND THE LADY, THE: Anton Walbrook, Elizabeth Allan—I won't play this one because I saw it first. Undoubtedly the most brutal story ever filmed.—C. E. Morrow, Morrow's Theatre, Decatur, Ill. General patronage.



SUPER SLEUTH: Jack Oakie, Ann Sothern—Good mystery picture. Running time, 65 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

SUPER SLEUTH: Jack Oakie, Ann Sothern—A swell comedy with Jack Oakie never better. Played too hot. Business not so good. Played July 25-26.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

TOAST OF NEW YORK: Edward Arnold, Frances Farmer—Excellent in any spot. Running time, 109 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ANGEL'S HOLIDAY: Jane Withers, Robert Kent—Pretty good program picture. Not near as good as "Holy Terror." Running time, 75 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

CALIFORNIAN, THE: Ricardo Cortez, Marjorie Weaver—Average action picture of the western type, a little more carefully produced than most of the westerns.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

FIFTY ROADS TO TOWN: Don Ameche, Ann Sothern—I hardly know how to report on this one. Personally I thought it the bunk and quite a number of patrons agreed with me. However, others thought it okay. Slim Summerville is good. Story is impossible. Running time, 81 minutes. Played August 25-26.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

LOVE IS NEWS: Loretta Young, Tyrone Power—Good picture.—A. G. Miller, Lyric Theatre, Atkinson, Neb. General patronage.

SEVENTH HEAVEN: Simone Simon, James Stewart—Good program picture. Running time, 102 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

WAKE UP AND LIVE: Alice Faye, Jack Haley, Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie—Good program picture. Running time, 95 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

WAKE UP AND LIVE: Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Alice Faye—Very good. Another box office hit from a company that appreciates the small town exhibitors' business.—A. G. Miller, Lyric Theatre, Atkinson, Neb. General patronage.

WAKE UP AND LIVE: Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Alice Faye, Jack Haley, Patsy Kelly—Excellent. Here's one with a little different plot and a much better story than usually found in musicomedies. Jack Haley's singing voice very good. Played August 29-31.—W. D. White, Palace Theatre, Exira, Iowa. Town and rural patronage.

WEE WILLIE WINKIE: Shirley Temple—A great picture. Fox gave this picture a supporting cast and a story which would have made this an excellent picture even without Shirley Temple. Shirley performs exceedingly well in a slightly older role. Heartily recommended. Played August 15-16.—Ted Stump, Elted Theatre, Absarokee, Mont. Rural patronage.

United Artists

MAN WHO COULD WORK MIRACLES, THE: Roland Young, Joan Gardner—Pass it up if you can. No story to it and the sound is poor. Running time, 82 minutes. Played September 1.—Ray Bichler, Mattray Theatre, Strasburg, N. D. Small town patronage.

STAR IS BORN, A: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—One of the best of the year. A great crowd getter and will satisfy everybody.—A. G. Miller, Lyric Theatre, Atkinson, Neb. General patronage.

STAR IS BORN, A: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—A beautiful picture, a fine story, a great cast. Attendance was above normal, but patrons seemed evenly divided between those who thought it one of the very best they had ever seen and those who called it a very fine picture. Played August 8-9.—Ted Stump, Elted Theatre, Absarokee, Mont. Rural patronage.

STAR IS BORN, A: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—Excellent. Second best grossing picture in three months. Not the standout attraction that we expected, but otherwise a really worthwhile production from all standpoints. Running time, 111 minutes. Played September 5-7.—W. D. White, Palace Theatre, Exira, Iowa. Town and rural patronage.

Universal

SEA SPOILERS: John Wayne, Nan Grey—A very good action picture suitable for dual bills. Did not do us any extra business, but proved satisfactory.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

TWO IN A CROWD: Joan Bennett, Joel McCrea—This was a very pleasing picture that failed to do business, but satisfied those who saw it.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Warner Bros.

GO GETTER, THE: George Brent, Anita Louise, Charles Winninger—Good comedy program picture. Running time, 92 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

GO GETTER, THE: Charles Winninger, George Brent, Anita Louise—A small town natural. Good story with thrills and comedy. Charles Winninger as Cappy Ricks is great. Personally I do not see why Anita Louise was given the lead. Think this one pleased them all. Running time, 92 minutes. Played August 28-29.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

KID GALAHAD: Edward G. Robinson, Bette Davis—A swell show, but no box office. Robinson doesn't mean anything here. Played August 8-9.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

KID GALAHAD: Bette Davis, Edward G. Robinson—Doesn't anyone want Bette Davis? Once again she walks away into the night—alone. While this picture didn't click at the box office, it is a mighty fine picture with some of the best fighting ever seen on the screen, plenty of action and a swell story. Definitely one of the better pictures which deserves a packed house. Played August 13-14.—Ted Stump, Elted Theatre, Absarokee, Mont. Rural patronage.

KID GALAHAD: Edward G. Robinson, Bette Davis, Wayne Morris—Most satisfactory Robinson vehicle to date in this town as far as audience reaction and gross are concerned. Very pleasing performance by this newcomer, Wayne Morris. The boy has something and several patrons volunteered their appreciation of his good work. Very few here go for Edward G. He's usual B. O. poison. Played September 1-2.—W. D. White, Palace Theatre, Exira, Iowa. Town and rural patronage.

KING AND THE CHORUS GIRL, THE: Fernand Gravet, Joan Blondell—Good picture. Has lots of entertainment value. It will please.—A. G. Miller, Lyric Theatre, Atkinson, Neb. General patronage.

MIDNIGHT COURT: Ann Dvorak, John Litel—A very good picture, good acting and good story. Double featured this one, but it is good enough for a single feature. Running time, 60 minutes. Played August 21-22.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Educational

SYMPHONY IN SNOW: Treasure Chest—Only fair. Running time, nine minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

SWING WEDDING: Happy Harmonies—Very good cartoon.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

Paramount

MAKING FRIENDS: Betty Boop Cartoons—Pretty good cartoon. It seems that the public is losing interest in these cartoons. Running time, nine minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

TWILIGHT ON THE TRAIL: Screen Songs—Good band act. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

RKO Radio

MELODY IN MAY: Good musical worthy of any spot.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural patronage.

RHYTHM ON THE RAMPAGE: Headliner Series—An excellent musical two reeler.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SWING IT: Radio Musical Comedies—Very good entertainment enjoyed by my patrons. Running time, two reels.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural patronage.

WAIF'S WELCOME, A: Rainbow Parade Cartoons—Very good colored reel.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural Patronage.

United Artists

MOTHER PLUTO: Silly Symphonies—Good. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

WORM TURNS, THE: Mickey Mouse—Good. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

Vitaphone

BACKYARD BROADCAST, THE: Broadway Brevities—These juvenile acts from Warners take the cake. They pack a feature wallop.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

BIG TIME VAUDEVILLE REEL: Vaudeville Act—Good. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

CAB CALLOWAY AND HIS ORCHESTRA: Melody Masters—Okay for Calloway followers. Not for me, although the young folks think he's okay.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

I ONLY HAVE EYES FOR YOU: Merrie Melodies—Good color cartoon. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

LOGGING ALONG: Vitaphone Novelties—Interesting. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

THE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Running times are those supplied by the companies. Asterisk indicates running time as made known by West Coast studio before announcement by home office in New York. Variations also may be due to local censorship deletions. Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1937-38 season.

ADVANCE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
Dawn to Dusk	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Nov.	1,'37†
Squadron "B"	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Sept.	15,'37†

AMBASSADOR-CONN-MELODY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Anything for a Thrill	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	June	15,'37
Born to Fight	Frankie Darro-Jack La Rue	Nov.	3,'36
Devil Diamond, The	Kane Richmond-Frankie Darro	Jan.	15,'37
Fighting Texan, The	Kermit Maynard-Elaine Shepard	June	22,'37
Galloping Dynamite	Kermit Maynard-Ariane Allen	Dec.	30,'36
Headline Crasher	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Dec.	25,'36
Racing Blood	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Nov.	15,'36
Sing While You're Able	Pinky Tomlin	Mar.	20,'37	66
Thanks for Listening	Pinky Tomlin	July	12,'37
Tough to Handle	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Mar.	24,'37
Valley of Terror	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	Jan.	20,'37
Whistling Bullets	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	May	3,'37
Wild Horse Roundup	Kermit Maynard-Dickie Jones	Nov.	20,'36
With Love and Kisses	Pinky Tomlin-Toby Wing	Dec.	20,'36
Coming
Fighting Cadet	Frankie Darro
Gentleman Must Live, A	Pinky Tomlin
Reckless Chances	Kermit Maynard
Roaring Six Guns	Kermit Maynard-Mary Hayes
Young Dynamite	Frankie Darro

CELEBRITY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
For Love of You	F. Foresta-Riscoe and Wayne		60
Kiss Me Goodbye	M. Schneider-Riscoe and Wayne		62

CHESTERFIELD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Red Lights Ahead	Andy Clyde-Lucille Gleason	Dec.	29,'36

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Come Closer, Folks	James Dunn-Marian Marsh	Nov.	7,'36	61
Counsel for Crime	Otto Kruger-Jacqueline Wells	Sept.	14,'37†	62
(See "The Man Behind the Law," "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)
Counterfeit Lady (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Joan Perry	Dec.	31,'36	60. Jan. 23,'37
Cowboy Star, The	Charles Starrett-Iris Shunn	Nov.	20,'36	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 10,'36.)
Criminals of the Air	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Apr.	30,'37	61
(See "Honeymoon Pilot," "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 27,'37.)
Dangerous Adventure, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	Aug.	1,'37	59
Devil Is Driving, The (G)	Richard Dix-Joan Perry	June	25,'37	68. July 24,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78; Sept. 11,'37, p. 84.)
Devil's Playground (A)	Dolores Del Rio-Richard Dix	Jan.	24,'37	74. Feb. 27,'37
Fight to the Finish, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	June	30,'37	59
(See "Taxi War," "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Find the Witness (G)	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Jan.	8,'37	57. Mar. 6,'37
Frame Up, The	Paul Kelly-Jacqueline Wells	May	1,'37	59
(See "Right Guy," "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Girls Can Play	Chas. Quigley-Jacqueline Wells	June	21,'37	60
I Promise to Pay (G)	Leon Carrillo-Chester Morris	Apr.	21,'37	66. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 64.)
It Can't Last Forever (G)	Betty Furness-Ralph Bellamy	July	15,'37	68. Aug. 14,'37
It Happened in Hollywood	Richard Dix-Fay Wray	Sept.	7,'37†	67
(See "Once a Hero," "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 17,'37.)
It's All Yours (G)	Francis Lederer-M. Carroll	Sept.	1,'37†	80. Aug. 7,'37
Lady from Nowhere	Mary Astor-Charles Quigley	Nov.	21,'36	60
Law of the Ranger	Bob Allen-Elaine Shepard	Feb.	26,'37	57
League of Frightened Men (G)	Walter Connolly-Irene Hervey	May	25,'37	65. July 24,'37
Legion of Terror (G)	Marguerite Churchill-B. Cabot	Nov.	1,'36	60. Nov. 7,'36
Let's Get Married (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Ida Lupino	Mar.	25,'37	69. May 29,'37
Lost Horizon (A)	Ronald Colman-Jane Wyatt	Sept.	1,'37†	118. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Sept. 5,'36, p. 75; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; May 22,'37, p. 92; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, pp. 96, 100.)
More Than a Secretary (G)	Jean Arthur-George Brent	Dec.	24,'36	77. Dec. 28,'36
Motor Madness	Rosalind Keith-Allen Brook	Apr.	5,'37	62
(See "Speed Mad," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 20,'37.)
North of Nome (G)	Jack Holt-Evelyn Venable	Nov.	14,'36	63. Oct. 31,'36
One Man Justice	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	July	1,'37	59
Outlaws of the Orient	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Aug.	20,'37†	61
Parole Racket (G)	Paul Kelly-Rosalind Keith	Mar.	4,'37	62. Apr. 10,'37
Pennies from Heaven (G)	Bing Crosby-Madge Evans	Nov.	25,'36	83. Dec. 18,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 8,'37, p. 72; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 81, 82; Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 96.)
Racketeers in Exile (G)	George Bancroft-Evelyn Venable	Mar.	31,'37	67. Apr. 3,'37
Rangers Step In, The	Bob Allen-Eleanor Stewart	Aug.	8,'37†	58
Reckless Ranger	Bob Allen-Louise Small	May	30,'37	56
Rio Grande Ranger	Bob Allen-Iris Meredith	Dec.	11,'36	54
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Roaring Timber (G)	Jack Holt-Grace Bradley	July	4,'37	65. Aug. 28,'37
Speed to Spare	Dorothy Wilson-Chas. Quigley	May	4,'37	60
(See "Racing Luck," "In the Cutting Room, Feb. 13,'37.)
Theodora Goes Wild (G)	Irene Dunne-Melvyn Douglas	Nov.	12,'36	95. Nov. 14,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 81.)
Thunder in the City (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Luli Deste	Apr.	25,'37	76 Feb. 13,'37
Trapped	Charles Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Mar.	5,'37	55
Trouble in Morocco (G)	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Mar.	22,'37	62 Mar. 20,'37
Tugboat Princess	Walter C. Kelly-Edith Fellows	Oct.	15,'36	69
Two Fisted Sheriff	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	June	15,'37	59
Two Gun Law	Chas. Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Apr.	7,'37	56
Venus Makes Trouble	James Dunn-Patricia Ellis	May	14,'37	58
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 3,'37.)
Westbound Mail	Chas. Starrett-Rosalind Keith	Jan.	22,'37	54
When You're in Love (G)	Grace Moore-Cary Grant	Feb.	27,'37	104. Feb. 20,'37
Woman in Distress (G)	May Robson-Irene Hervey	Jan.	17,'37	68. Feb. 13,'37
Women of Glamour (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce	Jan.	28,'37	72. Mar. 20,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)
Coming
All American Sweetheart	Scott Colton-Patricia Farr
Awful Truth, The	Irene Dunne-Cary Grant	Oct.	7,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Carnival Lady	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth
Forgotten Women	Wyn Cahoon-Scott Colton
Freshmen Follies	Jimmy Durante-Joan Perry
Game That Kills, The	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Sept.	21,'37†
Hollywood Round-up	Buck Jones
I'll Take Romance	Grace Moore-M. Douglas	Oct.	28,'37†
(See "In the Cuting Room," July 24,'37.)
I Married an Artist	John Boles-Luli Deste
Life Begins with Love	Jean Parker-D. Montgomery	Oct.	14,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Night Before, The	Mary Astor-Richard Arlen
Old Wyoming Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks
Park Avenue Dame	Fay Wray-Richard Arlen	Oct.	21,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)
River of Missing Men	Jack Holt-Wynne Gibson	Oct.	31,'37†
There's Always a Woman	Loretta Young-Randolph Scott
Women of the Night	Don Terry-Jacqueline Wells

CRESCENT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Battle of Greed (G)	Tom Keene-Gwynne Shipman	Jan.	18,'37	65. Jan. 9,'37
Drums of Destiny (G)	Tom Keene-Edna Lawrence	June	12,'37	*60. June 19,'37
Law Commands, The	Tom Keene-Lorraine Hayes	May	12,'37	60
Old Louisiana (G)	Tom Keene-Rita Cansino	Mar.	1,'37	64. Mar. 20,'37
Raw Timber	Tom Keene-Peggy Keys	July	6,'37	63
Under Strange Flags	Tom Keene-Luana Walters	Apr.	12,'37	64

DANUBIA

(Hungarian Dialogue)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blue Danube Romance	Zita Perczel	Jan.	20,'37	85
Dreams of Love	Frank Taray	Jan.	3,'37	103
(English titles)
Friendly Expression	Radey-Szoke	Nov.	1,'36	65
Hungarian Village	Travelogue	Dec.	25,'36	20
(English titles)
I Married for Love	Kabos-Radai	Sept.	15,'37†	84
Man of Gold	Maria Egri-F. Kiss	Apr.	12,'37	92
Man Under the Bridge	Csortos-Lazar	Nov.	15,'36	82
Salary $200 Monthly	Javor-Felop	Dec.	31,'36	82
Scotchman In Hungary	Radey-Oresi	Apr.	12,'37	95
Sister Mary	Szorenyi-Sved	Mar.	28,'37	91
Sons of the Steppes	Kiss-Komcar	Dec.	26,'36	85
Storm on the Pusta	Kiss-Komcar	Apr.	5,'37	78
Three Spinsters	Emile Markus-Rajnay	Dec.	1,'36	84
Coming
My Daughter Is Different	Turay-Kabos	Oct.	20,'37†	88
Tempest in a Charda	Javor-Lazar	Oct.	20,'37†	90
Texas Mammy	Fedak	Oct.	25,'37†	89
Vicki (Country Ball)	Javor-Rose Barsony	Sept.	25,'37†	87
Yellow Roses	Kabos	Oct.	30,'37†	90

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

DuWORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crimson Circle	Noah Beery	Jan.	1,'37	74

FIRST NATIONAL

(See also Warner Brothers)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain's Kid, The (G) 167	Guy Kibbee-Sybil Jason	Nov.	14,'36	72. Sept. 19,'36
Case of the Stuttering Bishop, The, 176	Donald Woods-Ann Dvorak	June	5,'37	70
Cherokee Strip 178	Dick Foran-Jane Bryan	May	15,'37	55
Confession (A) 158	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Aug.	28,'37	*85. July 24,'37
Dance, Charlie, Dance (G) 165	Stuart Erwin-Jean Muir	Aug.	14,'37	64. May 1,'37
Draegerman Courage (G) 168	Jean Muir-Barton MacLane	May	15,'37	58. Aug. 29,'36
Empty Holsters 179	Dick Foran-Patricia Walthall	July	10,'37
Ever Since Eve (G) 162	Marion Davies-R. Montgomery	July	17,'37	79. June 26,'37
Gold Diggers of 1937 (G) 151 (Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 100; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; Mar. 6,'37, p. 90.)	Dick Powell-Joan Blondell	Dec.	26,'36	101. Dec. 12,'36
Green Light (G) 154 (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, pp. 78, 81; Apr. 3,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, p. 90; May 29,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Errol Flynn-Anita Louise	Feb.	20,'37	85. Jan. 9,'37
Guns of Pecos 960	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Jan.	2,'37	65
Her Husband's Secretary (A) 173	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Mar.	20,'37	61. Mar. 6,'37
Marked Woman (A) 156	Bette Davis-H. Bogart	Apr.	10,'37	96. Mar. 6,'37
Men In Exile 174 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)	Richard Purcell-June Travis	Apr.	4,'37
Mountain Justice (A) 161	Josephine Hutchinson-G. Brent	Apr.	24,'37	82. May 22,'37
Mr. Dodd Takes the Air (G) 159	Kenny Baker-Jane Wyman	Aug.	21,'37	*80. July 31,'37
Once a Doctor (G) 171	Donald Woods-Jean Muir	Jan.	23,'37	65. Mar. 6,'37
Penrod and Sam (G) 172	Billy Mauch-Henry Watson	Feb.	28,'37	64. Jan. 16,'37
Prairie Thunder 180	Dick Foran-Ellen Clancy	Sept.	11,'37
Prince and the Pauper, The (G) 152 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 66; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Mauch Twins-Errol Flynn	May	8,'37	120. Apr. 17,'37
San Quentin (G) 163	Pat O'Brien-Humphrey Bogart	Aug.	7,'37	70. Apr. 3,'37
Sing Me a Love Song (G) 160 (Exploitation: Dec. 25,'36, p. 70.)	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	Jan.	9,'37	79. Oct. 17,'36
Stolen Holiday (G) 157	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Feb.	6,'37	80. Dec. 26,'36
Talent Scout (G) 166	Donald Woods-Jeanne Madden	July	24,'37	62. June 12,'37
That Certain Woman (A) 254	Bette Davis-Henry Fonda	Sept.	18,'37	*94. Aug. 7,'37
That Man's Here Again (G) 175	Mary Maguire-Tom Brown	Apr.	17,'37	58. Mar. 27,'37
Three Men on a Horse (G) 151 (Exploitation: Dec. 12,'36, p. 81; Dec. 19,'36, p. 89; Dec. 26,'36, p. 70; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; May 1,'37, p. 83.)	Frank McHugh-Joan Blondell	Nov.	21,'36	85. Dec. 5,'36

Coming

Accidents Will Happen	Ronald Reagan-Gloria Blondell
Adventurous Blonde, The (G)	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Nov.	13,'37†	*65. Sept. 11,'37
Alcatraz Island	John Litel-Ann Sheridan
Back in Circulation (A) 266	Joan Blondell-Pat O'Brien	Sept.	25,'37†	82. Aug. 7,'37
First Lady (G)	Kay Francis-Preston Foster			*82. Sept. 11,'37
Gold Is Where You Find It	George Brent-O. de Havilland
Great Garrick, The (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Brian Aherne-O. de Havilland
Hollywood Hotel	Dick Powell-Frances Langford
It's Love I'm After (G)	Leslie Howard-Bette Davis			*87. July 31,'37
Larger Than Life	Frank McHugh-Ann Sheridan
Return from Limbo	Kay Francis-Pat O'Brien
Sergeant Murphy	Ronald Reagan-Mary Maguire
West of Shanghai (G) 164 (Reviewed under the title, "War Lord.")	Boris Karloff-Beverly Roberts			*65. July 17,'37

FRANK NORTON

(Greek Dialogue, English Titles)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Astero	Miss Kyvell	Feb.	21,'37	90
Far from the Crowd	Mary Tsagonis	Apr.	7,'37	82
Ftohea Toy Mpoam	Vasoula Manoliday	Sept.	5,'37†	90

Coming

Kainourgea Zoe	Rita Karmen	Nov.	7,'37†	115
Reborn	Elene Papadake	Dec.	5,'37†	90
True Love	Sophea Damogloy	Oct.	3,'37†	85

GB PICTURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Backstage 3614	Anna Neagle-Arthur Tracy	Mar.	15,'37	65
Everybody Dance (G) 3613	Ernest Truex-C. Courtneidge	Feb.	15,'37	70. Sept. 12,'36
Gangway (G)	Jessie Matthews-Nat Pendleton	Sept.	1,'37†	88. Aug. 28,'37
Head Over Heels in Love (G) 3604 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78.)	Jessie Matthews-Louis Borrell	Feb.	20,'37	81. Feb. 13,'37
King Solomon's Mines (G) 3618 (See production article, May 22,'37, p. 16.)	Cedric Hardwicke-Roland Young	Aug.	26,'37	76. July 3,'37
Living Dangerously (A) 3617	Otto Kruger-Leonora Corbett	Dec.	1,'36	69. Mar. 31,'36
Love In Exile (A) 3623	Clive Brook-Helen Vinson	Nov.	15,'36	63. May 30,'36
Man of Affairs (G) 3606 (Reviewed under the title, "His Lordship.") (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, p. 88.)	George Arliss-Rene Ray	Jan.	20,'37	71. Nov. 28,'36
River of Unrest (G) 3621 (Reviewed under the title, "Ourselves Alone.")	John Lodge-John Loder	Jan.	15,'37	69. May 18,'36
Silent Barriers (G) 3608 (See "The Great Barrier," production article, Feb. 6,'37, p. 20; exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; May 1,'37, p. 81; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 17,'37, p. 90; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, p. 94; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Richard Arlen-Lilli Palmer	Apr.	29,'37	83. Feb. 27,'37
Strangers On a Honeymoon (G) 3615	C. Cummings-Noah Berry	Dec.	15,'36	67. Jan. 9,'37
Talk of the Devil (G) 3607	Ricardo Cortez-Sally Eilers	June	1,'37	76. May 22,'37
Tenth Man, The (G) 3622	John Lodge-Antoinette Cellier	May	15,'37	65. Aug. 29,'36
Two of Us 3619	Jack Hulbert-Gina Malo	July	10,'37	64
Where There's a Will 3624	Will Hay	July	26,'37	74
Woman Alone, The (G) 3601 (Reviewed under the title, "Sabotage.")	Sylvia Sidney-John Loder	Jan.	12,'37	76. Jan. 2,'37
You're In the Army Now (G) 3620 (Reviewed under the title, "O. H. M. S.")	Wallace Ford-Anna Lee	Mar.	1,'37	73. Feb. 20,'37

Coming

Dr. Syn	Geo. Arliss-Margaret Lockwood
Girl Was Young, The	Nova Pilbeam
Look Out for Love	Anna Neagle-T. Carminati
Non Stop New York	Anna Lee-Desmond Tester
Sailing Along	Jessie Matthews-Jack Whiting

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Days (G) 147	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Jan.	30,'37	52. Feb. 13,'37
Bank Alarm 139	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	June	25,'37	63
Boots of Destiny 204	Ken Maynard-Claire Dodd	July	23,'37†	56
Captain Calamity 128	George Houston-Movita	Nov.	29,'36	66
Forever Yours (G) 155	Benjamino Gigli	May	15,'37	70½. June 12,'37
Girl Loves Boy 124	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	27,'37	77
Girl Said No, The (G) 201	Robt. Armstrong-Irene Hervey	July	16,'37†	76½. May 29,'37
Gold Racket, The (G) 138	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Apr.	10,'37	65½. May 1,'37
Great Guy (G) 101 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 74; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 74, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81; May 22,'37, p. 88.)	James Cagney-Mae Clarke	Jan.	2,'37	73. Dec. 19,'36
Hats Off (G) 108	Mae Clarke-John Payne	Dec.	6,'37	66½. Jan. 2,'37
Headin' for the Rio Grande (G) 146	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Dec.	20,'36	61. Dec. 12,'36
Here's Flash Casey 211	Eric Linden-Boots Mallory	Sept.	10,'37†
Hideout in the Alps 199 (Reviewed under the title, "Dusty Ermine.")	Jane Baxter-Anthony Bushell	July	23,'37	75. Oct. 10,'36
Hittin' the Trail 149	Tex Ritter-Jerry Bergh	Apr.	3,'37	58
Juggernaut (A) 154	Boris Karloff-Joan Wyndham	Apr.	30,'37	64. Oct. 17,'36
Killers of the Sea (G) 135	Capt. Wallace Casewell	May	8,'37	49. May 15,'37
Love Takes Flight (G) 206	Bruce Cabot-Beatrice Roberts	Aug.	13,'37†	71. Aug. 7,'37
Man In the Mirror, The (A) 112	E. E. Horton-Genevieve Tobin	Apr.	24,'37	71½. Jan. 16,'37
Mystery of the Hooded Horsemen 151	Tex Ritter-Iris Meredith	Aug.	6,'37	60
Navy Spy 137	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Mar.	13,'37	56
Renfrew of the Royal Mounted 212	Jimmy Newell-Carol Hughes	Sept.	17,'37†
Riders of the Rockies 150	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	July	2,'37	66
Romance and Riches (G) 153 (Reviewed under the title, "The Amazing Quest.")	Cary Grant-Mary Brian	Feb.	27,'37	58½. Aug. 28,'36
Scotland Yard Commands (G) 152	Clive Brook-V. Hopper	Jan.	23,'37	61. Feb. 20,'37
Shadow Strikes, The (G) 202	Rod La Rocque-Lynn Anders	July	9,'37†	61. July 17,'37
Sing, Cowboy, Sing (G) 145	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	May	22,'37	59. June 5,'37
Small Town Boy, The 205	Stuart Erwin-Joyce Compton	July	30,'37†	61
Something to Sing About (G) 210	James Cagney-E. Daw	Sept.	3,'37†	*90. Sept. 4,'37
Song of the Gringo (G) 144	Tex Ritter-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	22,'36	62. Nov. 14,'36
Sweetheart of the Navy 123	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	June	18,'37	61
Trailing Trouble 208	Ken Maynard	Aug.	27,'37†
Trouble in Texas (G) 148	Tex Ritter	Mar.	6,'37	63. Mar. 13,'37
Two Who Dared (A) 113 (Reviewed under the title, "A Woman Alone.")	Anna Sten-Henry Wilcoxon	May	8,'37	73. June 6,'36
23½ Hours Leave (G) 103	James Ellison-Terry Walker	Mar.	20,'37	72½. Mar. 6,'37
We're in the Legion Now (G) 129 (Reviewed under the title, "Rest Cure.")	Reginald Denny-Esther Ralston	Jan.	16,'37	55½. Feb. 15,'36
Yellow Cargo (G) 136	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Nov.	8,'36	63. Nov. 14,'36

Coming

Damaged Goods 175	Pedro de Cordoba			60. July 10,'37
Death Takes a Cruise
Gorgeous	Anna Sten
He Wanted to Marry	Wallace Ford-Isabel Jewell
Honolulu Honeymoon
King of the Sierras 207	Rex-Shiek	Oct.	1,'37†
Law of the Golden West	Tex Ritter
Love Me Again	Anna Sten
Love Runs Into Money
Make Up (G)	Nils Asther-June Clyde			70. July 10,'37
Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel	Stuart Erwin-Helen Chandler
Murder at the Rancho	Ken Meynard
Orchid Girl	Anna Sten
Painter in the Sky
Photo Finish	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt
Snow Covered Wagons
Spy of Napoleon (G)	R. Barthelmess-D. Haas			98. Oct. 10,'36
Stars and Stripes
Tex Rides with the Boy Scouts 214	Tex Ritter	Sept.	24,'37†
Wallaby Jim of the Islands 213	Geo. Houston-Ruth Coleman	Sept.	24,'37†

GUARANTEED

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crime Patrol	Ray Walker-Geneva Mitchell	Mar.	1,'37	63

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Oil Raider, The	Buster Crabbe	Nov.	1,'36
White Ivory	Jack Mulhall	Dec.	1,'36	69

Coming

Early Bird, The	Richard Hayward
Irish and Proud of It	Richard Hayward

HOFFBERG

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Calling All Cars	Jack LaRue-Lillian Miles	Feb.	10,'37	52 Jan. 26,'35
Fire Trap, The	Norman Foster-Evalyn Knapp	Jan.	10,'37	58 Dec. 7,'35
Inyaah	Borneo Expedition	Nov.	15,'36†	70
Phantom of Santa Fe	Nina Quartaro-Norman Kerry	Aug.	1,'37†	75
Rescue Squad	Ralph Forbes-Sheila Terry	Feb.	10,'37	82
Uncle from America	Czeck Film	Dec.	15,'36	90
Wedding of Palo, The (G)	Rasmussen's Eskimo Drama	Mar.	1,'37	85 Mar. 20,'37

Coming

Ada Don't Do That	Polish Film
Business In Distress	Czeck Film
I Give My Heart (A)	Gitta Alpar		85	Nov. 16,'35
Invitation to the Waltz (G)	Lillian Harvey		80	Nov. 16,'35
Kathleen Mavourneen	Sally O'Neil-Irish Cast
Maid of the Mountains, The (G)	Harry Welchman		80	Apr. 22,'33
Song of the Lark	Czeck Film
Student's Romance, The (G)	Patric Knowles		78	Aug. 10,'35
Voice of India	Hoefler Expedition	Oct.	1,'37†	70

HUNGARIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Exception Granted	Imre Raday-Klari Tolnay	June	11,'37	9 rls.
Extra, Extra!	Gy. Kabos	Feb.	20,'37	8 rls.
Moneymoon On Cut-Rate	Paul Javor-I. Agai	Feb.	6,'37	8 rls.
Pay, Madame	Paul Javor	May	30,'37	8 rls.

Coming

Affair of Honor	Gy. Kabos	Sept.	11,'37†	9 rls.
All Men Are Wild	Paul Javor	Oct.	21,'37†	9 rls.
Anniversary	Imre Raday-Ida Turay	Dec.	10,'37†	10 rls.
Bride from Toroeko	Paul Javor	Oct.	1,'37†	10 rls.
Eighty Miles an Hour	Gy Kabos-M. Erdely	Nov.	19,'37†	8 rls.
Hotel Springtime	Gy Kabos-Anna Tokes	Nov.	30,'37†	10 rls.
I Picked You for My Husband	Paul Javor	Nov.	4,'37†	9 rls.
It Happened in Budapest	Gy Kabos-Zita Perczel	Sept.	21,'37†	9 rls.
Sport of Love, The	Gy Kabos-Ida Turay	Dec.	24,'37†	8 rls.
Two Prisoners	Paul Javor	Oct.	12,'37†	10 rls.

IMPERIAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broken Blossoms (A)	Dolly Haas-E. Williams	Dec.	1,'36	80 June 6,'36
Dead March, The (A)	Boake Carter	Sept.	15,'37†	73 Sept. 11,'37
High Hat	Frank Luther-Dorothy Dare	Jan.	1,'37	90
Rich Relations	Ralph Forbes-Frances Grant	Feb.	1,'37	90
She Shall Have Music	Jack Hylton-June Clyde	Nov.	1,'36	90 Dec. 1,'35
With Pleasure, Madame	Conrad Nagel-Marta Labarr	Apr.	15,'37	90

Coming

Back from Reno
Beauty Racket
Deerslayer
Honor Among Women
I Demand Payment	Betty Burgess-Jack LaRue
Night of Crime
Sky Girl

INVINCIBLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ellis Island	Donald Cook-Peggy Shannon	Nov.	5,'36	96

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
After the Thin Man (G) 713 (Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; May 1,'37, p. 80; June 5,'37, p. 64.)	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Dec.	25,'36	112 Dec. 12,'36
April Romance (G) 706	Richard Tauber	Nov.	20,'36	82 Feb. 13,'37
Bad Guy (G) 743	Bruce Cabot-Virginia Grey	Aug.	27,'37	69 Aug. 28,'37
Between Two Women (G) 737	Virginia Bruce-Franchot Tone	July	9,'37	89 July 3,'37
Big City (A) 801	Spencer Tracy-Luise Rainer	Sept.	3,'37†	80 Sept. 4,'37
Born to Dance (G) 709 (Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 23,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, p. 77.)	Eleanor Powell-James Stewart	Nov.	27,'36	108 Nov. 21,'36
Broadway Melody of 1938 (G) 739	Eleanor Powell-Robt. Taylor	Aug.	20,'37	110 Aug. 21,'37
Camille (A) 639 (See production article, Dec. 24,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 8,'37, p. 107; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78.)	Greta Garbo-Robert Taylor	Jan.	1,'37	108 Dec. 19,'36
Captains Courageous (G) 717 (See production articles, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 91, 92; Aug. 21,'37, pp. 76, 78; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 95, 96, 97.)	F. Bartholomew-Spencer Tracy	June	25,'37	116 Apr. 3,'37
Dangerous Number (G) 718	Robert Young-Ann Sothern	Jan.	22,'37	71 Feb. 6,'37
Day at the Races, A (G) 730 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 86; July 17,'37, p. 89; Apr. 7,'37, p. 91.)	Marx Brothers-Allan Jones	June	11,'37	111 June 19,'37
(G) 733	William Powell-Luise Rainer	July	2,'37	89 July 3,'37
Espionage (G) 723	Edmund Lowe-Madge Evans	Feb.	26,'37	67 Mar. 6,'37
Family Affair, A (G) 632	Lionel Barrymore-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	12,'37	69 Mar. 20,'37
General Spanky (G) 714	Spanky McFarland-P. Holmes	Dec.	11,'36	72 Oct. 31,'36
Good Earth, The (A) 741	Paul Muni-Luise Rainer	Aug.	6,'37	139 Feb. 6,'37
Emperor's Candlesticks, The (See production article, July 11,'36, p. 76; exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 69; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92.)	Wallace Beery-Betty Furness	Apr.	23,'37	76 Apr. 24,'37
Good Old Soak (G) 728 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67; June 26,'37, p. 121.)	Wallace Beery-Betty Furness	June	4,'37	109 Dec. 26,'31
Hell Divers (re-issue) (G)	Clark Gable-Wallace Beery	June	4,'37	109 Dec. 26,'31
Last of Mrs. Cheyney, The 719 (See production article, July 11,'36, p. 76; exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; May 15,'37, p. 94; June 12,'37, p. 92.)	Joan Crawford-William Powell	Feb.	19,'37	98 Feb. 27,'37
London By Night (G) 740	George Murphy-Rita Johnson	July	30,'37	69 July 24,'37
Love on the Run (G) 654	Clark Gable-Joan Crawford	Nov.	20,'36	81 Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 64; Mar. 27,'37, p. 82.)
Mad Holiday (G) 706	Elissa Landi-Edmund Lowe	Nov.	13,'36	71 Nov. 14,'36
Mama Steps Out (G) 721	Guy Kibbee-Alice Brady	Feb.	5,'37	65 Feb. 8,'37
Manhattan Melodrama (re-issue) (G)	C. Gable-M. Loy-W. Powell	July	2,'37	90 Apr. 28,'34
Man of the People (G) 716	Joseph Calleia-Florence Rice	Jan.	29,'37	81 Jan. 30,'37
Married Before Breakfast (G) 736	Robt. Young-Florence Rice	June	18,'37	70 June 26,'37
Maytime (G) 720 (Musical analysis: Mar. 27,'37, p. 15; exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 64; Apr. 17,'37, p. 78; May 22,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, pp. 68, 69; July 24,'37, p. 80.)	J. MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Mar.	26,'37	132 Mar. 13,'37
My Dear Miss Aldrich (G) 803	Edna May Oliver-W. Pidgeon	Sept.	17,'37†	73 Sept. 11,'37
Naughty Marietta (re-issue) (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-N. Eddy	Aug.	6,'37	105 Mar. 2,'35
Night Must Fall (A) 727	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Apr.	30,'37	117 Apr. 10,'37
Nobody's Baby (G) 729	Patsy Kelly-Robt. Armstrong	Apr.	23,'37	67 Feb. 6,'37
Parnell (G) 722 (See production article, Feb. 13,'37, p. 16.)	Clark Gable-Myrna Loy	June	4,'37	119 June 12,'37
Personal Property (G) 725 (Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 79; June 12,'37, p. 93.)	Jean Harlow-Robert Taylor	Mar.	19,'37	84 Mar. 20,'37
Pick a Star (G) 735	Jack Haley-Patsy Kelly	May	21,'37	70 Apr. 24,'37
Romeo and Juliet (G) 1100 (See production article, Mar. 28,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Jan. 23,'37, p. 79; Jan. 3,'37, p. 83; Feb. 6,'37, p. 77; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 79; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 80; May 8,'37, p. 74; May 29,'37, p. 70; June 26,'37, pp. 118, 119, 123; July 3,'37, pp. 69, 70; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 80.)	Norma Shearer-Leslie Howard	Apr.	16,'37	127 July 18,'36
Saratoga (G) 742 (Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)	Clark Gable-Jean Harlow	July	23,'37	94 July 24,'37
Sinner Take All (A) 712	Bruce Cabot-Margaret Lindsay	Dec.	18,'36	74 Dec. 18,'36
Song of the City (G) 724	Dean Jeffries-Margaret Lindsay	Apr.	2,'37	69 Mar. 27,'37
Tarzan Escapes (G) 711 (Exploitation: Nov. 28,'36, p. 96; Dec. 26,'36, p. 75; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85.)	J. Weissmuller-M. O'Sullivan	Nov.	8,'36	89 Nov. 7,'36
They Gave Him a Gun (A) 731	S. Tracy-G. George-F. Tone	May	14,'37	94 May 15,'37
Thirteenth Chair, The (G) 732	Madge Evans-Henry Daniell	May	7,'37	66 May 8,'37
Topper (G) 738 Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 75; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 95, 97.)	Constance Bennett-Gary Grant	July	16,'37	97 July 17,'37
Trader Horn (re-issue) (G)	Harry Carey-Edwina Booth	May	reissue	120 Jan. 24,'31
Under Cover of Night (G) 715	Edmund Lowe-Florence Rice	Jan.	8,'37	72 Jan. 9,'37
Way Out West (C) 734 (Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 92.)	Laurel and Hardy	Apr.	16,'37	64 Jan. 2,'37
Women Men Marry, The (A) 802	J. Hutchinson-George Murphy	Sept.	10,'37†	61 Sept. 11,'37

Coming

Bad Man of Brimstone	Wallace Beery-V. Bruce	Nov.	19,'37†
Bride Wore Red, The 804 (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Joan Crawford-Franchot Tone	Oct.	8,'37†
Conquest (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Greta Garbo-Charles Boyer
Double Wedding (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Oct.	15,'37†
Firefly, The (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-Allan Jones	Nov.	5,'37†	138 July 24,'37
Last Gangster, The	E. G. Robinson-Andrea Marion	Nov.	12,'37†
Live, Love and Learn	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Oct.	29,'37†
Madame X	Gladys George-Warren William	Oct.	1,'37†
Mannequin	Joan Craword-S. Tracy	Dec.	17,'37†
Rosalie	Eleanor Powell-Nelson Eddy
Thoroughbreds Don't Cry	Mickey Rooney-Sophie Tucker	Nov.	26,'37†
Ugly Duckling	Allan Jones-Judy Garland

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Atlantic Flight	Dick Merrill-Paula Stone	Aug.	25,'37†
Blazing Barriers	Edw. Arnold, Jr.-F. McKinney	July	4,'37†
God's Country and the Man	Tom Keene	Sept.	2,'37†
Hoosier Schoolboy (G)	Mickey Rooney-Anne Nagel	July	7,'37†	62 July 3,'37
Legion of Missing Men	Ralph Forbes	July	28,'37†
Outer Gate	Ralph Morgan-Kay Linaker	Aug.	4,'37†
Paradise Isle (G)	Warren Hull-Movita	July	21,'37†	73 Aug. 14,'37
Riders of the Dawn (G)	Jack Randall-Peggy Keys	July	14,'37†	55 Aug. 21,'37
Shadows of the Orient (G)	Regis Toomey-Esther Ralston	Aug.	18,'37†	65 Feb. 15,'36
Thirteenth Man	Weldon Heyburn-I. Courtney	June	30,'37†

Coming

Boy of the Streets	Jackie Cooper	Nov.	10,'37†
Bride for Henry, A	Anne Nagel-Neil Hamilton	Sept.	29,'37†
Code of the Range	Tim McCoy
County Fair, The
Danger Valley	Jack Randall	Nov.	3,'37†
Federal Bullets		Oct.	6,'37†
Land of the Sky Blue Water	Movita
Last Frontier, The	Jack Randall
Luck of Roaring Camp	Owen Davis, Jr.-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	17,'37†
Marines Are Here, The
Numbered Woman		Oct.	20,'37†
Romance of the Limberlost
Stars Over Arizona	Jack Randall-Kathleen Eliot	Sept.	22,'37†
Telephone Operator
Where Trails Divide	Tom Keene	Oct.	13,'37†

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Along Came Love (G) 3616	Irene Hervey-Chas. Starrett	Nov. 6,'36	66	Feb. 20,'37
Artists and Models (G) 3702	Jack Benny-Gail Patrick	Aug. 12,'37†	97	Aug. 7,'37
Blonde Trouble 3701	Johnny Downs-E. Whitney	Aug. 6,'37†	67	Aug. 7,'37
Borderland (G) 3668	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Feb. 26,'37	82	Feb. 13,'37
Bulldog Drummond Escapes (G) 3626	Ray Milland-Heather Angel	Jan. 22,'37	65	Mar. 13,'37
Champagne Waltz (G) 3628 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, pp. 79, 80; July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 87.)	Gladys Swarthout-F. MacMurray	Jan. 29,'37	85	Dec. 12,'36
Clarence 3632 (See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 26,'36.)	Roscoe Karns-Charlotte Wynters	Feb. 12,'37
College Holiday (G) 3623 (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, pp. 88, 92; Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)	Jack Benny-Burns & Allen	Dec. 25,'36	87	Dec. 26,'36
Crime Nobody Saw, The (G) 3635	Lew Ayres-Ruth Coleman	Mar. 12,'37	60	Apr. 17,'37
Doctor's Diary, A (G) 3627	John Trent-Helen Burgess	Jan. 15,'37	77	Jan. 30,'37
Double Or Nothing (G) 3707	Bing Crosby-Martha Raye	Sept. 17,'37†	95	Aug. 21,'37
Easy Living (G) 3652	Jean Arthur-Edw. Arnold	July 30,'37	88	July 10,'37
Easy to Take 3617 (See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)	Marsha Hunt-John Howard	Nov. 6,'36	67
Exclusive (G) 3653 (See "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)	F. MacMurray-Frances Farmer	July 30,'37	85	July 31,'37
Forlorn River (G) 3650	June Martel-Larry Crabbe	July 2,'37	56	July 3,'37
Girl from Scotland Yard 3638	Karen Morley-Robert Baldwin	Apr. 2,'37	61
Go West, Young Man (A) 3618 (Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 72; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 30,'37, p. 84.)	Mae West-Randolph Scott	Nov. 13,'36	80	Nov. 14,'36
Great Gambini, The (G) 3648	Akim Tamiroff-Marian Marsh	June 25,'37	70	July 24,'37
Her Husband Lies (A) 3636	Ricardo Cortez-Gail Patrick	Mar. 19,'37	76	Mar. 20,'37
Hideaway Girl (G) 3619	Martha Raye-Robt. Cummings	Nov. 20,'36	72	Nov. 14,'36
Hills of Old Wyoming (G) 3669	William Boyd-George Hayes	Apr. 16,'37	79	Apr. 17,'37
Hopalong Cassidy Returns (G) 3666	William Boyd-Evelyn Brent	Oct. 23,'36	75	Aug. 22,'36
Hopalong Rides Again (G) 3735	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept. 3,'37†	65	Aug. 21,'37
Hotel Haywire (G) 3645	Lee Carrillo-Mary Carlisle	June 4,'37	66	May 22,'37
I Met Him in Paris (G) 3644	Claudette Colbert-M. Douglas	May 28,'37	86	May 29,'37
Internes Can't Take Money (A) 3639 (Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Apr. 9,'37	79	Apr. 17,'37
John Meade's Woman (A) 3630	Edw. Arnold-Francine Larimore	Feb. 26,'37	87	Feb. 27,'37
Jungle Princess, The (G) 3620	Ray Milland-Dorothy Lamour	Nov. 27,'36	84	Nov. 28,'36
King of Gamblers (A) 3640	Lloyd Nolan-Claire Trevor	Apr. 23,'37	78	Apr. 24,'37
Last Train from Madrid (G) 3646	Lew Ayres-Dorothy Lamour	June 11,'37	77	June 12,'37
Let's Make a Million (G) 3622	Edward Everett Horton	Dec. 18,'36	80	Feb. 27,'37
Maid of Salem (G) 3634 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Apr. 24,'37, p. 92; May 22,'37, p. 89.)	C. Colbert-Fred MacMurray	Feb. 19,'37	86	Jan. 30,'37
Make Way for Tomorrow (G) 3641 (Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 82; Sept. 11,'37, p. 84.)	Beulah Bondi-Victor Moore	Apr. 30,'37	92	May 1,'37
Midnight Madonna (G) 3649	Warren William-Mady Correll	July 2,'37	65	June 12,'37
Mind Your Own Business (G) 3625	Charles Ruggles-Alice Brady	Jan. 8,'37	75	Dec. 19,'36
Mountain Music (G) 8647 (Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 89; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92; Sept. 4,'37, p. 95.)	Bob Burns-Martha Raye	June 18,'37	77	June 19,'37
Murder Goes to College (G) 3633	Roscoe Karns-Marsha Hunt	Mar. 5,'37	71	Mar. 6,'37
Night of Mystery, A (A) 3643	Roscoe Karns-Ruth Coleman	May 21,'37	75	May 22,'37
North of the Rio Grande (G) 3670	William Boyd-George Hayes	June 25,'37	70	June 26,'37
On Such a Night (A)	Karen Morley-Grant Richards	Aug. 27,'37†	73	Aug. 21,'37
Outcast (G) 3629	Warren William-Karen Morley	Feb. 5,'37	79	Feb. 6,'37
Plainsman, The (G) 3624 (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 20,'37, p. 82; Feb. 27,'37, p. 83; Mar. 6,'37, p. 91; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 80, 82, 83; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 24,'37, p. 93; May 29,'37, p. 68; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Gary Cooper-Jean Arthur	Jan. 1,'37	113	Nov. 28,'36
Rustlers' Valley (G) 3671	William Boyd-George Hayes	July 23,'37	60	July 10,'37
Scrooge (G) 3527	Seymour Hicks-Donald Calthrop	Dec. 27,'36	73	Dec. 21,'35
She Asked for It (G)	Wm. Gargan-Orien Heyward	Sept. 10,'37†	68	Sept. 4,'37
She's No Lady (G)	Ann Dvorak-John Trent	Aug. 20,'37†	62	Aug. 7,'37
Sophie Lang Goes West (G) 3706	Gert. Michael-Larry Crabbe	Sept. 10,'37†	*60	Sept. 4,'37
Souls at Sea (G) (See production article, Jan. 30,'37, p. 16.)	Gary Cooper-George Raft	Sept. 3,'37†	92	Aug. 14,'37
Swing High, Swing Low (G) 3634 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67.)	Carole Lombard-F. MacMurray	Mar. 12,'37	97	Mar. 20,'37
Trail Dust (G) 3667	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Dec. 11,'36	77	Jan. 2,'37
Turn Off the Moon (G) 3642	Chas. Ruggles-Eleanore Whitney	May 14,'37	80	May 29,'37
Valiant Is the Word for Carrie (A) 3611 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)	Gladys George-Arline Judge	Oct. 2,'36	109	Sept. 26,'36
Waikiki Wedding (G) 3637 (Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 81; May 15,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, pp. 92, 93; July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 80; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 83; Aug. 28,'37, p. 96; Sept. 11,'37, p. 83.)	Bing Crosby-Shirley Ross	Mar. 26,'37	89	Apr. 3,'37
Wedding Present (G) 3615 (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 78.)	Joan Bennett-Cary Grant	Oct. 16,'36	81	Oct. 8,'36
Wild Money 3631	Edward Everett Horton	July 9,'37	69

Coming

Angel (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Marlene Dietrich-H. Marshall	Oct. 15,'37†	93
Barrier, The	Jimmy Ellison-Jean Parker	Nov. 12,'37†
Blossoms of Broadway	Edward Arnold-Shirley Ross	Nov. 26,'37†
Born to the West	John Wayne-Marsha Hunt
Buccaneer, The	Fredric March-Franciska Gaal
Bulldog Drummond Comes Back (G)	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell	Sept. 24,'37†	*58	Sept. 11,'37
Ebb Tide	Oscar Hamolka-Frances Farmer	Oct. 19,'37†
High, Wide and Handsome 3710 (G)	Irene Dunne-Randolph Scott	Oct. 1,'37†	115	July 24,'37
Hold 'Em Navy	Lew Ayres-Mary Carlisle	Nov. 5,'37†
Love on Toast	Stella Ardler-John Payne
Night Club Scandal	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell	Nov. 26,'37†
Partners in Crime 3711	Lynne Overman-Roscoe Karns	Oct. 8,'37†
Riders of the Panamints	Gilbert Roland-Marsha Hunt	Oct. 22,'37†
Texas Trail	William Boyd-George Hayes	Nov. 26,'37†
This Way Please 3712	C. (Buddy) Rogers-Betty Grable	Oct. 29,'37†
Thrill of a Lifetime	Eleanore Whitney-Johnny Downs
True Confession	C. Lombard-Fred MacMurray
Wells Fargo	Joel McCrea-Frances Dee
You and Me	Sylvia Sidney-George Raft	Oct. 22,'37†

RAY KIRKWOOD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventurous Rogue	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Jan. 3,'37†
El Justiciero	Ernesto Guillen	Jan. 3,'37†
Fighting Vagabonds	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Feb. 19,'37†
Masked Devil, The	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Apr. 4,'37†

RELIABLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush Valley	Bob Custer	Nov. 1,'36	56
Santa Fe Rides	Bob Custer	Feb. 25,'37	58
Silver Trail	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Rex Lease	Feb. 28,'37	56
Vengeance of Rannah	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Bob Custer	Nov. 6,'36	56

Coming

Apache Trail	Bob Custer
Frontier Fury	Bob Custer
Outlaw River	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.
Prairie Terror	Bob Custer
Thundering Stampede	Bob Custer

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Cappy Ricks, The (G) 6027	Walter Brennan-Mary Brian	May 24,'37	56	June 5,'37
All Over Town (G) 6020	Olson and Johnson	Sept. 8,'37	*60	Aug. 28,'37
Bar Z Bad Men 6323	Johnny Mack Brown-L. January	Jan. 20,'37	51
Beware of Ladies (G) 6011	Donald Cook-Judith Allen	Dec. 21,'36	61	Feb. 13,'37
Big Show, The 6301 (See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 24,'36.)	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 16,'36	70
Bill Cracks Down (G) 6028	Grant Withers-Beatrice Roberts	Mar. 22,'37	59	Mar. 27,'37
Bold Caballero, The (G) 6101	Bob Livingston-Heather Angel	Jan. 18,'37	71	Dec. 5,'36
Boothill Brigade 6328	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Aug. 2,'37	53
Border Phantom 6333	Bob Steele-Harley Wood	Dec. 28,'36	58
Bulldog Drummond at Bay (G) 6025	John Lodge-Dorothy Mackaill	July 31,'37	62	July 31,'37
Cavalry 6331	Bob Steele-Frances Grant	Oct. 14,'36	60
Circus Girl 6014 (See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 13,'37.)	June Travis-Bob Livingston	Mar. 1,'37	62
Come On, Cowboys (G) 6317	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May 24,'37	57	May 29,'37
Country Gentlemen (G) 6010	Olsen and Johnson	Nov. 9,'36	68	Oct. 31,'36
Dangerous Holiday (G) 6026	Ra Hould-Hedda Hopper	June 7,'37	57	July 31,'37
Doomed at Sundown 6337	Bob Steele-Lorraine Hayes	June 7,'37	53
Gambling Terror, The 6324	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Feb. 15,'37	53
Ghost Town Gold 6312	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Oct. 26,'36	55
Git Along Little Dogies (G) 6302	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Mar. 22,'37	62	Apr. 3,'37
Gun Lords of Stirrup Basin 6336	Bob Steel-Louise Stanley	May 10,'37	53
Gun Ranger, The 6332	Bob Steele-Eleanor Stewart	Nov. 19,'36	49
Gunsmoke Ranch 6316	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May 5,'37	56
Guns in the Dark 6326	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Apr. 14,'37	56
Happy-Go-Lucky (G) 6013	Phil Regan-Evelyn Venable	Dec. 14,'36	68	Dec. 12,'36
Heart of the Rockies 7111	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Sept. 6,'37†
Hit Parade, The (G) 6002 (Exploitation: July 10,'37, p. 86.)	Frances Langford-Phil Regan	Apr. 26,'37	83	Apr. 10,'37
Hit the Saddle 6315	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Mar. 3,'37	57
It Could Happen to You 6016 (See "In the Cutting Room," May 15,'37.)	Alan Baxter-Andrea Leeds	June 28,'37	64
Jim Hanvey, Detective 6005	Guy Kibbee-Tom Brown	Apr. 5,'37	67	Mar. 27,'37
Join the Marines (G) 6003	June Travis-Paul Kelly	Jan. 25,'37	67	Feb. 6,'37
Larceny on the Air (G) 6030	Grace Bradley-Bob Livingston	Jan. 11,'37	60	Jan. 18,'37
Lawless Land 6322	Johnny Mack Brown-L. Stanley	Nov. 23,'36	55
Law Man Is Born, A 6327	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	June 21,'37	61
Lightnin' Crandall 6335	Bob Steele-Lois January	Mar. 24,'37	60
Man Betrayed, A (G) 6012	Eddie Nugent-Kay Hughes	Dec. 28,'36	56	Jan. 18,'37
Mandarin Mystery, The (G) 6031	Eddie Quillan-Charlotte Henry	Dec. 7,'36	63	Nov. 29,'36
Meet the Boy Friend (G) 6018	Carol Hughes-David Carlyle	July 12,'37	63	July 31,'37
Michael O'Halloran (Spec.) (See "In the Cuting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)	Wynne Gibson-Warren Hull	May 15,'37	67
Navy Blues (G) 6015	Mary Brian-Dick Purcell	Apr. 19,'37	68	May 1,'37
Old Corral, The 6305 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Dec. 21,'36	56
Paradise Express (G) 6029	Grant Withers-Dorothy Appleby	Feb. 22,'37	58	Mar. 13,'37
President's Mystery, The (G) 6007	Henry Wilcoxon-Betty Furness	Oct. 8,'36	78	Oct. 8,'36
Public Cowboy No. 1 7105	Gene Autry-Ann Rutherford	Aug. 23,'37†
Range Defenders (G) 6318	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	June 30,'37	56	July 24,'37
Red Rope, The 6338	Bob Steele-Lois January	July 19,'37	60

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Rhythm in the Clouds (G)
6017	Warren Hull-Patricia Ellis	June 21,'37	62	July 3,'37
Riders of the Whistling Skull
6314	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Jan. 4,'37	55
Roarin' Lead 6313	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Dec. 9,'36	53
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Rootin' Tootin Rhythm (G)
6307	Gene Autry-Armida	May 12,'37	60	May 8,'37
Round-up Time in Texas 6306	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb. 28,'37	58
Sea Racketeers (G) 6019	Weldon Heyburn-Jeanne Maddon	Aug. 16,'37	64	Aug. 14,'37
Sheik Steps Out, The (G) 6006	Ramon Novarro-Lola Lane	Sept. 6,'37	*66	July 31,'37
Trail of Vengeance 6325	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Mar. 29,'37	54
Trusted Outlaw, The 6334	Bob Steele-Lois January	Feb. 1,'37	52
Two Wise Maids (G) 6004	Alison Skipworth-Polly Moran	Feb. 15,'37	68	Feb. 6,'37
Yodelin' Kid from Pine Ridge
(G) 6308	Gene Autry-Betty Bronson	June 14,'37	60	June 26,'37
Coming
Arizona Gunfighter 7121	Bob Steele-Jean Carmen	Sept. 20,'37†
Boots and Saddles	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Oct. 4,'37†
Duke Comes Back, The	Allan Lane-Heather Angel
Escape by Night (G) 7015	Wm. Hall-Anne Nagel	Sept. 20,'37†	*72	Sept. 4,'37
Manhattan Merry-Go-Round	Phil Regan-Ann Dvorak
Portia on Trial 6001	Frieda Inescort-Walter Abel
Trigger Trio 7112	Ray Corrigan-Max Terhune	Oct. 18,'37†
Wrong Road, The	Richard Cromwell-Helen Mack	Oct. 11,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)
Youth on Parole 6022	Gordon Oliver-Marian Marsh	Oct. 4,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Annapolis Salute (G) 802	James Ellison-Marsha Hunt	Sept. 10,'37†	*60	Aug. 21,'37
Behind the Headlines (G) 727	Lee Tracy-Diana Gibson	May 14,'37	58	June 12,'37
Big Shot, The (G) 735	Guy Kibbee-Cora Witherspoon	July 23,'37	60	July 31,'37
Border Cafe (G) 730	John Beal-Armida	June 4,'37	67	May 29,'37
China Passage (G) 718	Constance Worth-V. Haworth	Mar. 12,'37	65	Apr. 24,'37
Criminal Lawyer (G) 713	Lee Tracy-Margot Grahame	Jan. 29,'37	72	Apr. 10,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)
Don't Tell the Wife (G) 720	Guy Kibbee-Una Merkel	Mar. 5,'37	62	Feb. 27,'37
Flight from Glory (G)	Chester Morris-Whitney Bourne	Aug. 20,'37	*60	Aug. 14,'37
Hideaway (G)	Fred Stone-Marjorie Lord	Aug. 13,'37	*60	July 31,'37
Hollywood Cowboy (G) 733	George O'Brien-Cecilia Parker	May 28,'37	64	July 31,'37
Life of the Party, The (G) 801	Gene Raymond-Harriet Hilliard	Sept. 3,'37†	*79	Aug. 28,'37
Make a Wish (G) 745	Bobby Breen-Basil Rathbone	Aug. 27,'37	*70	Sept. 4,'37
Make Way for a Lady (G) 705	Anne Shirley-Herbert Marshall	Nov. 13,'36	65	Dec. 19,'36
Man Who Found Himself, The
(G) 722	John Beal-Joan Fontaine	Apr. 2,'37	67	Mar. 13,'37
Meet the Missus (G) 729	Victor Moore-Helen Broderick	June 4,'37	60	May 29,'37
New Faces of 1937 (G) 732	Joe Penner-Harriet Hilliard	July 2,'37	100	July 10,'37
Night Waitress (G) 711	Margot Grahame-Gordon Jones	Dec. 18,'36	57	Jan. 2,'37
On Again—Off Again (G)
725	Wheeler and Woolsey	July 9,'37	68	July 17,'37
Outcasts of Poker Flat, The
(G) 710	Preston Foster-Jean Muir	Apr. 16,'37	68	Mar. 20,'37
Park Avenue Logger (G) 787	George O'Brien-Beatrice Roberts	Feb. 26,'37	65	Jan. 30,'37
Plot Thickens, The (G) 641	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts	Dec. 11,'36	69	Nov. 21,'36
Plough and the Stars, The (G)
640	Barbara Stanwyck-P. Foster	Jan. 15,'37	67	Jan. 2,'37
(See production article, Aug. 22,'36, p. 16.)
Quality Street (G) 709	Kath. Hepburn-Franchot Tone	Mar. 26,'37	84	Mar. 30,'37
Racing Lady (G) 707	Ann Dvorak-Smith Ballew	Jan. 29,'37	59	Dec. 12,'36
Rainbow on the River (G) 714	Bobby Breen-May Robson	Dec. 25,'36	88	Dec. 12,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 71.)
Riding On Air (G) 771	Joe E. Brown-Florence Rice	June 18,'37	71	June 12,'37
Sea Devils (G) 714	Victor McLaglen-Preston Foster	Feb. 19,'37	88	Feb. 20,'37
Shall We Dance (G) 724	Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers	May 7,'37	116	May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 85; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Soldier and the Lady, The (A)
717	Anton Walbrook-Eliz. Allan	Apr. 9,'37	85	Feb. 27,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Michael Strogoff.") (Exploitation: Mar. 13,'37, p. 79.)
Super Sleuth (G) 734	Jack Oakie-Ann Sothern	July 16,'37	70	July 17,'37
That Girl from Paris (G) 712	Lily Pons-Gene Raymond	Jan. 22,'37	105	Dec. 19,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)
There Goes My Girl (G) 728	Ann Sothern-Gene Raymond	May 21,'37	74	June 5,'37
They Wanted to Mary (G)
715	Gordon Jones-Betty Furness	Feb. 5,'37	60	Dec. 26,'36
Toast of New York (G) 719	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	July 30,'37	109	July 17,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 96; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)
Too Many Wives (G) 723	Anne Shirley-John Morley	Apr. 9,'37	61	Apr. 17,'37
Wanted: Jane Turner 643	Gloria Stuart-Lee Tracy	Dec. 4,'36	67
(See "General Delivery," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)
We're on the Jury (G) 716	Helen Broderick-Victor Moore	Feb. 12,'37	71	Jan. 23,'37
We Who Are About to Die
(G) 639	Preston Foster-Ann Dvorak	Jan. 6,'37	82	Oct. 17,'36
When's Your Birthday? (G)
770	Joe E. Brown-Marian Marsh	Feb. 19,'37	77	Feb. 20,'37
Windjammer 783	George O'Brien-Constance Worth	Aug. 6,'37	58
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 29,'37.)
Winterset (G) 703	Burgess Meredith-Margo	Nov. 20,'36	77	Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 80; Jan. 30,'37, p. 83; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.
Woman I Love, The (G) 721	Paul Muni-Miriam Hopkins	Apr. 23,'37	88	Apr. 24,'37
Woman Rebels, A (A) 642	Kath. Hepburn-H. Marshall	Nov. 8,'36	88	Oct. 31,'36
You Can't Beat Love (G) 731	Preston Foster-Joan Fontaine	June 25,'37	62	June 5,'37
You Can't Buy Luck (G) 728	Vinton Haworth-Helen Mack	Apr. 30,'37	61	May 1,'37
Coming
Breakfast for Two 737	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall	Oct. 22,'37†
Damsel in Distress, A	Fred Astaire-Joan Fontaine
Fight for Your Lady	John Boles-Ida Lupino

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Fit for a King (G)	Joe E. Brown-Helen Mack		Oct. 15,'37†	73	Sept. 4,'37
Forty Naughty Girls (G) 803	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts		Sept. 24,'37†	*63	Sept. 4,'37
High Flyers	Wheeler and Woolsey
Hitting a New High	Lily Pons-John Howard
Love in a Basement	James Dunn-Whitney Bourne
Music for Madame 804	Nino Martini-Joan Fontaine		Oct. 8,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Saturday's Heroes 805	Van Heflin-Marian Marsh
Stage Door 806	Kath. Hepburn-Ginger Rogers		Oct. 8,'37†
(See production article, Aug. 14,'37, p. 16.)
There Goes the Groom 807	Burgess Meredith-Ann Sothern		Oct. 29,'37†
Victoria the Great 861	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook		Oct. 22,'37†

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Melody of the Plains (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Apr. 15,'37	*55	Apr. 10,'37
Singing Buckaroo, The	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan. 15,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)
Three Legionnaires (G)	Robt. Armstrong	General	June 15,'37	*60	Mar. 27,'37
What Price Vengeance?
(G)	Lyle Talbot	Rialto	June 1,'37	57	June 12,'37
Coming
Heroes of the Alamo (G)	Earl Hodgins	Sunset	Aug. 19,'37	*75	Aug. 7,'37
Zamboanga (G)	Native Cast			*65	July 17,'37

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Holiday (G) 754	Jane Withers-Robert Kent	June	71	May 8,'37
As You Like It (G) 711	Elis. Bergner-Laurence Olivier	Jan.	96	Sept. 19,'36
(See production article, June 13,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 79.)
Banjo On My Knee (G) 726	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Dec.	95	Dec. 5,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 89.)
Big Business (G) 759	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	June	61	Apr. 17,'37
Borneo	Mr. & Mrs. Martin Johnson	Sept.	73½
Born Reckless (G) 758	Rochelle Hudson-Brian Donlevy	July	58	June 26,'37
Cafe Metropole (G) 750	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	May	83	May 8,'37
(Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 84.)
Californian, The (G) 753	Ricardo Cortez-Marjorie Weaver	June	58	July 10,'37
Career Woman (G) 728	Claire Trevor-Michael Whalen	Dec.	77	Nov. 28,'36
Charlie Chan at the Olympics
752	Warner Oland-Katherine DeMille	May	71
(See "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 6,'37.)
Charlie Chan at the Opera
(G) 730	Warner Oland-Boris Karloff	Jan.	68	Nov. 29,'36
Crack-Up (G) 727	Peter Lorre-Brian Donlevy	Jan.	70	Jan. 16,'37
David Harum (G) 769	Will Rogers-Evelyn Venable	May	85	Mar. 3,'34
(re-issue)
Doctor Bull (G) 768	Will Rogers-Marian Nixon	Feb.	79	Oct. 14,'36
(re-issue)
Fair Warning (G) 740	Betty Furness-John Payne	Mar.	68	Jan. 23,'37
Fifty Roads to Town (G) 748	Don Ameche-Ann Sothern	Apr.	81	Apr. 3,'37
(Exploitation: May 8,'37, p. 70.)
Great Hospital Mystery, The
751	Sally Blane-Thomas Beck	May	59	Mar. 6,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Dead Yesterday.")
Handy Andy (G) 871
(re-issue)	Will Rogers-Robt. Taylor	Aug.	81	May 8,'34
Holy Terror, The (G) 734	Jane Withers-Anthony Martin	Feb.	67	Jan. 9,'37
It Happened Out West 745	Paul Kelly-Judith Allen	May	56
King George VI Coronation
870	Technicolor Special	July	28
Lady Escapes, The (G) 747	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	July	63	June 5,'37
Laughing at Trouble 724	Jane Darwell-Lois Wilson	Dec.	67
(See "Glory," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 17,'36.)
Lloyds of London (G) 735	F. Bartholomew-M. Carroll	Jan.	117	Nov. 28,'36
(Exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 108; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 79, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 65, 71; May 8,'37, p. 74; July 31,'37, p. 80.)
Love Is News (G) 729	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	Feb.	78	Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)
Love Under Fire (G) 803	Loretta Young-Don Ameche	Aug.	75	Aug. 14,'37
Midnight Taxi (G) 744	Brian Donlevy-Frances Drake	Apr.	73	Mar. 27,'37
Nancy Steele Is Missing (G)
738	Victor McLaglen-Peter Lorre	Mar.	84	Mar. 20,'37
Off to the Races (G) 736	Jed Prouty-Shirley Deane	Feb.	57	Jan. 16,'37
On the Avenue (G) 732	Dick Powell-Madeleine Carroll	Feb.	89	Feb. 13,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82; June 19,'37, p. 84.)
One in a Million (G) 722	Sonja Henie-Adolphe Menjou	Jan.	94	Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82.)
One Mile from Heaven (G)
802	Claire Trevor-Sally Blane	Aug.	68	July 24,'37
Reunion (G) 717	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt	Nov.	81	Nov. 21,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 27,'37, pp. 90, 91.)
Secret Valley (G) 731	Richard Arlen-Virginia Grey	Jan.	57	Feb. 13,'37
Seventh Heaven (G) 742	Simone Simon-James Stewart	Mar.	102	Mar. 27,'37
(Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64.)
She Had to Eat (G) 757	Rochelle Hudson-Jack Haley	June	74	Aug. 7,'37
Sing and Be Happy 756	Anthony Martin-Dixie Dunbar	June	64
(See "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Slave Ship (G) 748	Wallace Beery-Warner Baxter	July	92	June 19,'37
(See production article, Mar. 13,'37, p. 16.)
Step Lively, Jeeves (G) 739	Arthur Treacher-Patricia Ellis	Apr.	69	Jan. 30,'37
Stowaway (G) 725	Shirley Temple-Robt. Young	Dec.	86	Dec. 26,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)
That I May Live (G) 755	Rochelle Hudson-Robert Kent	Apr.	70	Mar. 6,'37
Thin Ice (G) 805	Sonja Henie-Tyrone Power	Sept.	78	Aug. 28,'37
Think Fast, Mr. Moto (G)
804	Peter Lorre-Virginia Field	Aug. 27,'37†	66	Apr. 17,'37

(THE RELEASE CHART--CON'T)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
This Is My Affair (G) 721	Barbara Stanwyck-Robt. Taylor	May 28,'37	99
Time Out for Romance (G) 741	Claire Trever-Michael Whalen	Mar. 19,'37	72	Feb. 20,'37
Under the Red Robe (G) 743	Conrad Veidt-Annabella	May 21,'37	82	June 12,'37
Under Your Spell (G) 720	Lawrence Tibbett-Wendy Barrie	Nov. 6,'36	63	Nov. 14,'36
Wake Up and Live (G) 749 (Exploitation: July 3,'37, p. 69; July 10,'37, pp. 85, 86.)	Walter Winchell-Ben Bernie	Apr. 23,'37	91	Apr. 17,'37
Wee Willie Winkie (G) 760 (Exploitation: July 10,'37, p. 88; Aug. 7,'37, p. 92; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 94, 97.)	Shirley Temple-V. McLaglen	July 30,'37	99	July 3,'37
Western Gold (G) 761	Smith Ballew-Heather Angel	Aug. 27,'37†	*56	Sept. 11,'37
White Hunter (G) 719 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Warner Baxter-June Lang	Nov. 27,'36	65	Dec. 5,'36
Wife, Doctor and Nurse (G)	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter	Sept. 17,'37†	85	Sept. 11,'37
Wild and Wooly (G)	Jane Withers-Walter Brennan	Sept. 10,'37†	64	July 24,'37
Wild Brian Kent (G) 718	Ralph Bellamy-Mae Clarke	Nov. 6,'36	57	Oct. 31,'36
Wings of the Morning (G) 737	Annabella-Henry Fonda	Feb. 19,'37	87	Mar. 20,'37
Woman-Wise (G) 733	Rochelle Hudson-Michael Whalen	Jan. 22,'37	70	Feb. 13,'37
You Can't Have Everything (G) 801	Alice Faye-Don Ameche	Aug. 3,'37†	99	July 31,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ali Baba Goes to Town (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Eddie Canter-June Lang	Oct. 29,'37†
Borrowing Trouble	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Charlie Chan on Broadway (G)	Warner Oland-Jean Marsh	Oct. 22,'37†	68	Aug. 7,'37
Danger—Love at Work (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Ann Sothern-Jack Haley	Nov. 5,'37†
Dangerously Yours (See "The Great Diamond Mystery," "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Cesar Romero-Phyllis Brooks	Nov. 12,'37†
45 Fathers (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Jane Withers-Thomas Beck	Dec. 10,'37†
Heidi (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	Shirley Temple-Jean Hersholt	Oct. 15,'37†
Hot Water (G)	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	Sept. 24,'37†	58	July 17,'37
In Old Chicago (See production article, Sept. 4,'37, p. 48.)	Tyrone Power-Alice Faye	Jan. 15,'38†
Lancer Spy (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Peter Lorre-Dolores Del Rio	Oct. 8,'37†
Life Begins In College (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Ritz Bros.-Gloria Stuart	Oct. 1,'37†
Look Out, Mr. Moto (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Peter Lorre-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 26,'37†
Roll Along Cowboy	Smith Ballew-Cecilia Parker	Oct. 8,'37†
Second Honeymoon	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Accused (A)	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-D. Del Rio	Jan. 8,'37	86	Aug. 8,'36
Beloved Enemy (G)	Merle Oberon-Brian Aherne	Dec. 25,'36	88	Dec. 19,'36
Come and Get It (A) (Exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Nov. 28,'36, p. 99; Dec. 5,'36, pp. 83, 84; Dec. 19,'36, p. 94; Jan. 30,'37, p. 82; Feb. 13,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 82.)	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	Nov. 6,'36	99	Nov. 7,'36
Dark Journey (G)	Vivien Leigh-Conrad Veidt	July 2,'37	82	Mar. 6,'37
Dead End (G)	Sylvia Sidney-Joel McCrea	Aug. 27,'37†	93	Aug. 7,'37
Dreaming Lips (A)	Elis. Bergner-Raymond Massey	May 28,'37	78	Mar. 6,'37
Elephant Boy (G) (Exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 96; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Native Cast	Apr. 23,'37	80	Mar. 13,'37
Fire Over England (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 79.)	Laurence Olivier-Flora Robson	Mar. 5,'37	89	Jan. 16,'37
Garden of Allah, The (A) (See production article, June 6,'36, p. 14; exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 76, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 80; Mar. 13,'37, p. 83; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 67, 68, 69.)	Marlene Dietrich-Charles Boyer	Nov. 20,'36	78	Nov. 7,'36
History Is Made at Night (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 64, 71; Apr. 10,'37, pp. 91, 92; Apr. 17,'37, p. 82; Apr. 24,'37, pp. 91, 92; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 8,'37, p. 72; May 22,'37, pp. 89, 90; June 12,'37, p. 93.)	Charles Boyer-Jean Arthur	Apr. 2,'37	97	Mar. 13,'37
Knight Without Armour (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78; Sept. 11,'37, p. 84.)	Marlene Dietrich-Robt. Donat	July 23,'37†	107	June 19,'37
Love from a Stranger (A)	Ann Harding-Basil Rathbone	May 14,'37	87	Feb. 13,'37
Man Who Could Work Miracles, The (G)	Roland Young-Jean Gardner	Feb. 19,'37	82	Aug. 22,'36
Men Are Not Gods (A)	Miriam Hopkins-Gert. Lawrence	Jan. 22,'37	82	Jan. 2,'37
Prisoner of Zenda (G)	Ronald Colman-M. Carroll	Sept. 3,'37†	*88	Sept. 4,'37
Rembrandt (G) (See production article, Oct. 31,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Dec. 19,'36, p. 88; Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84.)	Chas. Laughton-Gert. Lawrence	Nov. 27,'36	83	Nov. 21,'36
Star Is Born, A (G) (See production article, Feb. 27,'37, p. 16; exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 86; May 29,'37, pp. 67, 69; June 5,'37, pp. 64, 67, 70; June 19,'37, p. 84; June 26,'37, pp. 120, 121, 122; July 10,'37, p. 87; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Janet Gaynor-Fredric March	Apr. 30,'37	111	May 1,'37
Stella Dallas (A) (Exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 81.)	Barbara Stanwyck-John Boles	Aug. 6,'37†	*104	July 31,'37
Walt Disney's Academy Award Revue	5 Award Winners	June 18,'37†	44
Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938 (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 74; Sept. 11,'37, p. 82.)	Warner Baxter-Joan Bennett	Sept. 17,'37†	108	Aug. 7,'37
When Thief Meets Thief (A)-- (Reviewed under the title, "Jump for Glory.")	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-V. Hobson	June 4,'37	87	May 8,'37
Woman Chases Man (G) (See production article, Apr. 17,'37, p. 12; exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 92; July 3,'37, p. 88; Sept. 11,'37, p. 83.)	Miriam Hopkins-Joel McCrea	May 7,'37	71	May 1,'37
You Only Live Once (A) (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 80; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 76, 78; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 71; June 26,'37, p. 123; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 21,'37, p. 74.)	Sylvia Sidney-Henry Fonda	Jan. 29,'37	86	Jan. 30,'37

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Aetion for Slander (A)	Clive Brook-Ann Todd		80	Aug. 14,'37
Adventures of Marco Polo	Gary Cooper-Sigrid Gurie	Nov. 12,'37†
Adventures of Tom Sawyer	Tommy Kelly-Walter Brennan	Oct. 29,'37†
Diamond Trust, The (Reviewed under the title, "The Squeaker.")	Edmund Lowe-Ann Todd		77	Sept. 11,'37
Divorce of Lady X, The	Merle Oberon-Laurence Olivier	Oct. 15,'37†
52nd Street (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Ian Hunter-Pat Paterson	Sept. 24,'37†
Goldwyn Follies, The	Phil Baker-Ritz Bros.	Dec. 25,'37†
Hurricane, The (See production article, Aug. 7,'37, p. 16.)	Dorothy Lamour-Jon Hall	Nov. 10,'37†
I Met My Love Again	Joan Bennett-Henry Fonda	Oct. 22,'37†
Mutiny in the Mountains	Vivien Leigh-Paul Lucas	Nov. 5,'37†
Nothing Sacred (See production article, Aug. 21,'37, p. 16.)	Carole Lombard-Fredric March	Nov. 19,'37†
Stand-In (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Leslie Howard-Joan Blondell	Oct. 8,'37†
Storm in a Teacup (G)	Vivien Leigh-Rex Harrison	Nov. 12,'37†	86	June 12,'37

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Armored Car (G) 1004	Robert Wilcox-Judith Barrett	June 20,'37	64	Aug. 14,'37
As Good as Married (G) 1012	John Boles-Doris Nolan	May 9,'37	81	May 1,'37
Black Aces 2050	Buck Jones-Kay Linaker	Sept. 5,'37†	58
Boss Rider of Gun Creek 1042	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Nov. 1,'36	64
Breezing Home (G) 1033	Binnie Barnes-Wm. Gargan	Jan. 31,'37	64	Mar. 27,'37
California Straight Ahead (G) 1030 (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74.)	John Wayne-Louise Latimer	May 2,'37	67	Apr. 3,'37
Conflict (G) 1036	John Wayne-Jean Rogers	Nov. 29,'36	61	Dec. 5,'36
Empty Saddles (G) 1043	Buck Jones-Louise Brooks	Dec. 20,'36	62	Oct. 24,'36
Flying Hostess (G) 1023 (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74.)	Judith Barrett-Wm. Hall	Nov. 22,'36	66	Nov. 14,'36
Four Days' Wonder (G) 1019	Jeanne Dante-Kenneth Howell	Jan. 3,'37	60	Jan. 23,'37
Girl Overboard (G) 1021	Gloria Stuart-Walter Pidgeon	Feb. 28,'37	58	May 29,'37
I Cover the War (G) 1016	John Wayne-Gwen Gaze	July 4,'37	68	July 10,'37
Left Handed Law (G) 1045	Buck Jones	Apr. 18,'37	63	May 1,'37
Let Them Live (G) 1035	Nan Grey-John Howard	Apr. 25,'37	73	Apr. 24,'37
Love in a Bungalow (G) 1009	Kent Taylor-Nan Grey	June 27,'37	66	July 10,'37
Love Letters of a Star (A) 1028	Henry Hunter-Polly Rowles	Nov. 8,'36	66	Nov. 14,'36
Luckiest Girl in the World (G) 1014	Jane Wyatt-Louis Hayward	Nov. 15,'36	72	Oct. 31,'36
Man I Marry, The (G) 1026	Doris Nolan-Michael Whalen	Nov. 1,'36	76	Nov. 7,'36
Man in Blue, The (G) 1020	Robert Wilcox-Nan Grey	May 30,'37	67	May 22,'37
Man Who Cried Wolf, The (G) 2023	Tom Brown-Barbara Read	Aug. 29,'37†	66	Sept. 4,'37
Mighty Treve, The (G) 1034	Noah Beery, Jr.-Barbara Read	Jan. 17,'37	69	Apr. 10,'37
Mysterious Crossing (G) 1025	James Dunn-Jean Rogers	Dec. 27,'36	56	Feb. 13,'37
Night Key (G) 1024 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Boris Karloff-Jean Rogers	May 2,'37	67	Apr. 24,'37
Oh, Doctor! (G) 1013 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Edward Everett Horton	May 16,'37	67	Apr. 24,'37
100 Men and a Girl (G) 2001	Deanna Durbin-Adolphe Menjou	Sept. 12,'37†	84	Sept. 11,'37
Reported Missing (G)	Wm. Gargan-Jean Rogers	Aug. 15,'37	63	Aug. 7,'37
Road Back, The (G) 1005 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 16; exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 80.)	Richard Cromwell-John King	Aug. 1,'37	103	June 26,'37
Sandflow (G) 1044	Buck Jones-Lita Chevret	Feb. 14,'37	58	Feb. 6,'37
She's Dangerous 1031	Cesar Romero-Tala Birell	Jan. 24,'37	68
Smoke Tree Range 1046	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	June 6,'37	59
Three Smart Girls (G) 1029 (Exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, pp. 73, 74; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 67; Apr. 10,'37, p. 94; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 80, 82; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 82; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99.)	Deanna Durbin-Ray Milland	Dec. 20,'36	84	Jan. 30,'37
Top of the Town (G) 1007 (See production article, Jan. 23,'37, p. 16; exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 91; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, pp. 86, 87; June 5,'37, p. 70; June 12,'37, p. 92; June 19,'37, pp. 82, 85.)	George Murphy-Doris Nolan	Apr. 18,'37	86	Apr. 3,'37
We Have Our Moments (G) 1017	Sally Eilers-James Dunn	Mar. 28,'37	67	Apr. 3,'37
West Bound Limited 1008	Lyle Talbot-Polly Rowles	July 11,'37	66
When Love Is Young (G) 1018	Virginia Bruce-Kent Taylor	Apr. 4,'37	76	Apr. 24,'37
Wildcatter, The 1015	Scott Colton-Jean Rogers	June 6,'37	58
Wings Over Honolulu (G) 1011	Wendy Barrie-Ray Milland	May 23,'37	78	May 15,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure's End	John Wayne-Diana Gibson
Behind the Mike	Wm. Gargan-Judith Barrett	Sept. 26,'37†	68
Carnival Queen	Dorothea Kent-Robert Wilcox	Oct. 3,'37†	66
Courage of the West (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Bob Baker-Lois January
Girl with Ideas, A	Wendy Barrie-Walter Pidgeon
Idol of the Crowds 2037 (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	John Wayne-Judith Barrett	Oct. 10,'37†	62½
Lady Fights Back, The 2025	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Sept. 19,'37†	58
Law for Tombstone 2051	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Oct. 10,'37†	59
Merry-Go-Round of 1938 (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Bert Lahr-Alice Brady	Oct. 24,'37†
Some Blondes Are Dangerous	Noah Beery, Jr.-Dorothea Kent
Sudden Bill Dorn	Buck Jones-Evelyn Brent
That's My Story (See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)	Claudia Morgan-Wm. Lundigan	Oct. 31,'37†
Tim Tyler's Luck	F. Thomas, Jr.-Frances Robinson
Trouble at Midnight	N. Beery, Jr.-Catherine Hughes	Oct. 17,'37†	68
Westland Case, The (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Preston Foster-Carol Hughes	Nov. 7,'37†

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

VICTORY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cheyenne Rides Again	Tom Tyler-Lucille Browne	Jan.	7,'37†
Fued of the Trail	Tom Tyler-Harlene Wood	May	1,'37
Flying Fists	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	July	1,'37
Mystery Range	Tom Tyler-Jerry Bergh	May	1,'37
Phantom of the Range	Tom Tyler-Beth Marion	Nov.	28,'36
Silks and Saddles	Herman Brix-Toby Wing	Dec.	14,'36
Sky Racket	Herman Brix-Joan Barclay	Sept.	1,'37†
Two Minutes to Play	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	Nov.	2,'36

Coming

Brothers of the West	Tom Tyler-Lois Wilde	Sept.	30,'37†
Lost Ranch	Tom Tyler
Orphans of the Pecos	Tom Tyler
Roaring Motors	Herman Brix
Winning Stroke, The	Herman Brix

WARNER BROTHERS

(See also First National)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Another Dawn (A) 108 (See production article, Mar. 6,'37, p. 16.)	Kay Francis-Errol Flynn	June	26,'37 73	Apr. 10,'37
Black Legion (A) 108 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 80, 83; Mar. 20,'37, p. 82; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 10,'37, p. 95; July 17,'37, p. 89.)	H. Bogart-E. O'Brien-Moore	Jan.	30,'37 83	Jan. 9,'37
Blazing Sixes 129	Dick Foran-Helen Vaikis	June	12,'37 55
California Mail 930	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Nov.	14,'36 56
Call It a Day (G) 113	Olivia de Havilland-I. Hunter	Apr.	17,'37 89	Mar. 13,'37
Charge of the Light Brigade (G) 901 (See production article, July 25,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 111; Jan. 15,'37, p. 78; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74; Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; Apr. 10,'37, p. 92.)	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland	Nov.	7,'36 115	Oct. 24,'36
Devil's Saddle Legion, The 130	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Aug.	14,'37
Fly-Away Baby (G) 125	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	June	19,'37 60	June 12,'37
Footloose Heiress 123 (See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)	Craig Reynolds-Ann Sheridan	Aug.	21,'37
Fugitive in the Sky (G) 120	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Nov.	28,'36 58	Oct. 31,'36
God's Country and the Woman (G) 105 (Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, pp. 84, 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 80.)	George Brent-Beverly Roberts	Jan.	16,'37 85	Dec. 26,'36
Go Getter, The (G) 115 (Exploitation: Sept. 4,'37, pp. 94, 97.)	George Brent-Anita Louise	May	22,'37 92	June 19,'37
Great O'Malley, The (G) 110 (Exploitation: Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)	Pat O'Brien-Sybil Jason	Feb.	13,'37 71	Dec. 12,'36
Kid Galahad (G) 102 (Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Edw. G. Robinson-Bette Davis	May	29,'37 101	May 8,'37
King and the Chorus Girl (G) 104 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; June 26,'37, p. 118.)	Fernand Gravet-Joan Blondell	Mar.	27,'37 95	Mar. 6,'37
King of Hockey (G) 121	Anne Nagel-Richard Purcell	Dec.	19,'36 55	Nov. 14,'36
Land Beyond the Law 128	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Mar.	13,'37 54
Life of Emile Zola, The (G) 203	Paul Muni-Gale Sondergaard	Oct.	2,'37† 116	July 10,'37
Marry the Girl (G) 116	Hugh Herbert-Mary Boland	July	1,'37 68	Aug. 14,'37
Melody for Two (G) 117	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	May	1,'37 60	Jan. 16,'37
Midnight Court (G) 124	Ann Dvorak-John Litel	Mar.	6,'37 60	Mar. 13,'37
One Way Passage (G) (Reissue)	Kay Francis-William Powell	Dec.	12,'36 69	July 30,'32
Polo Joe (G) 111	Joe E. Brown-Carol Hughes	Dec.	5,'36 65	Sept. 26,'36
Public Wedding 126	Jane Wyman-William Hopper	July	10,'37 58
Ready, Willing and Able (G) (Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 78.)	Lee Dixon-Ruby Keeler	Mar.	6,'37 93	Feb. 6,'37
Singing Marine, The (G) 101 (Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80.)	Dick Powell-Doris Weston	July	3,'37 105	July 10,'37
Slim (G) 114	Pat O'Brien-Henry Fonda	June	12,'37 80	July 3,'37
Smart Blonde (G) 122	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Jan.	2,'37 59	Dec. 5,'36
Varsity Show (G) (See production article, July 24,'37, p. 16.)	Dick Powell-Fred Waring	Sept.	4,'37† *120	Aug. 21,'37
White Bondage (G) 125	Jean Muir-Gordon Oliver	June	19,'37 60	Mar. 13,'37
Wine, Women and Horses (G)	Barton MacLane-Ann Sheridan	Sept.	11,'37† 64	July 24,'37

Coming

Adventures of Robin Hood	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland
Expensive Husbands (G)	Beverly Roberts-Patric Knowles	Nov.	27,'37† *60	Sept. 11,'37
Kid Comes Back, The (G) (Reviewed under the title, "Don't Pull Your Punches.")	Wayne Morris-June Travis		*60	Jan. 30,'37
Love Is On the Air	Ronald Reagan-June Travis
Missing Witnesses	Dick Powell-Jean Dale
One More Tomorrow	Dick Foran-June Travis
Over the Goal	William Hopper-June Travis
Patient in Room 18, The	Ann Sheridan-Patric Knowles
Perfect Specimen, The (See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.)	Errol Flynn-Joan Blondell
Shi the Octopus	Hugh Herbert-Marcia Ralston
She Loved a Fireman	Dick Foran-Ann Sheridan
Submarine D-1	Pat O'Brien-George Brent
They Won't Forget (A) (See production article, "The Deep South," May 8,'37, p. 16.)	Gloria Dickson-Claude Rains		*90	June 19,'37
Tovarich	Claudette Colbert-Charles Boyer
Without Warning 218	Boris Karloff-Marie Wilson

WILLIAM STEINER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
From Nine to Nine	Ruth Roland-Roland Drew	Dec.	21,'36 6 rls.
I Cover Chinatown	Norman Foster	Nov.	18,'36 7 rls.

WORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Masquerade in Vienna (A)	Paula Wessely	Jan.	28,'37 95	Feb. 13,'37
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	Mar.	31,'37 69
Slalom (G)	Skiing Film	Dec.	15,'36 66	Jan. 23,'37
Trene Populare	Italian Feature	Dec.	25,'36 62

Coming

Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe
Aurora Sul Mare	Italian Feature		67
Chanson D'Amour	Tito Schipa
Ito	Simone Berriau
Life and Loves of Beethoven	Harry Baur
Love on Skiis	Walter Rilmil
Monks, The
Ninety Degrees South	Antarctic Film
Second Bureau	Jean Murat-Diana Koreno
Secrets of Stamboul	Valerie Hobson		79
Ski Chase	Hannes Schneider	Sept.	1,'37† 84
Street Without a Name	Constant Remy-Pola Illery
Song of Ceylon	Basil Wright		39
Tendre Ennemie	Simone Berriau

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Pit, The (A)	Amedo Nazzari		June		26,'37
Amphytrion (A)	Henri Garat	Globe	Mar. 23,'37	103 Apr.	3,'37
Beethoven Concerto (G)	V. Gardin	Amkino	Mar. 23,'37	90 Apr.	10,'37
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	British Lion		73 July	10,'37
Carnival in Flanders (A) (Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")	Francoise Rosay	American Tobis	Sept. 22,'36	98 Oct.	8,'36
Dominant Sex, The (A)	Phillips Holmes	Assoc. British		82 Feb.	26,'37
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	British I. E. Co.		80 Aug.	14,'37
Emil Und Die Detektive	Fritz Rasp	International		77
Episode (A)	Paula Wessely	Metropolis	May 15,'37	90 June	5,'37
Eternal Mask, The (A)	Mathias Wieman	Mayer-Burstyn	Jan. 12,'37	70 Jan.	23,'37
Farewell Again (G)	Leslie Banks	United Artists		80 May	22,'37
Flying Doctor, The (G)	Charles Farrell	20th Century-Fox		92 Dec.	19,'36
Fury Over Spain (G)		Modern Film		55 Aug.	14,'37
Gang Show, The (G)	Ralph Reader	General		May	1,'37
Glamorous Night (G)	Mary Ellis	Assoc. British		80 May	15,'37
Gobsek (A)	Leonid Leonidov	Amkino		74 Aug.	14,'37
Golem, The (A)	Harry Baur	Metropolis	Mar. 20,'37	88 Mar.	27,'37
Great Call, The (G)	Camillo Pilotto	United Artists		90 Dec.	5,'36
Gypsy (A)	Roland Young	Warner		Feb.	13,'37
It Isn't Done (G)	Cecil Kellaway	British Empire		90 Mar.	27,'37
It's You I Want (A)	Seymour Hicks	British Lion		70 Nov.	21,'36
Jamosik (G) (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 86.)	Palo Bielik	French	Nov. 24,'36	82 Dec.	8,'36
Jericho (G)	Paul Robeson	General		77 Sept.	4,'37
Kimiko (A)	Sachiko Chiba	International	Apr. 12,'37	73 Apr.	24,'37
King's People, The (G)	John Drinkwater	Mindlin	May 11,'37	70 May	22,'37
La Damigella di Bard (G)	E. Gammatica	Artisti		85 Jan.	9,'37
La Grande Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	Realization d'Art Cinematographique		120 July	3,'37
Last Night, The (G)	I. R. Peltser	Amkino	Apr. 27,'37	90 May	8,'37
Late Mattia Pascal, The (A)	Pierre Blanchar			Apr.	10,'37
Les Petits (G)	Alice Tissot	Franco-American	Dec. 29,'36	90 Jan.	23,'37
Let's Make a Night of It	Buddy Rogers	Assoc. British		80 July	10,'37
Mademoiselle Docteur (A)	Dita Parlo	United Artists		105 May	1,'37
Merry Comes to Town (G)	Zasu Pitts	Sound City		77 June	5,'37
Mill on the Floss, The (G)	Frank Lawton	National		90 Feb.	13,'37
Moonlight Sonata (G)	Paderewski	United Artists		90 Mar.	13,'37
Ora Ponciano (G)	Chucho Solorzano	Prod. Sorla		105 May	15,'37
Orphan of the Wilderness	Gwen Munro	British Empire	Jan. 20,'37	85 Mar.	6,'37
Our Fighting Navy (G)	H. B. Warner	General		75 May	8,'37
Pagliacci (G) (See production article, Jan. 9,'37, p. 16.)	Richard Tauber	United Artists		90 Feb.	6,'37
Pearls of the Crown (A)	Sascha Guitry	Tobis		115 June	5,'37
Pepe Le Moko (A)	Jean Gabin	Paris Film		100 Mar.	20,'37
Prisoners (G)	A. I. Chaban	Amkino	Feb. 16,'37	93 Feb.	27,'37
Pygmalion (G)	Lily Bouwmeester	Filmex Cinetone		Apr.	17,'37
Razumov (G)	Pierre Fresnay	Garrison	Mar. 8,'37	95 Mar.	27,'37
Revolutionists (G)	V. V. Schukin	Amkino	Dec. '36	100 Feb.	6,'37
"Said O'Reilly to McNab" (G)	Will Mahoney	Gainsborough-GB		84 July	17,'37
Sensation (A)	John Lodge	Wardour		75 Jan.	23,'37
Silver Blaze (G)	Arthur Wontner	Assoc. British		70 July	17,'37
Sol Over Danmark (G)	Henrik Malberg		Apr. 13,'37	73 Apr.	24,'37
Southern Mail (A)	Richard-Wilm	Solar		100 Feb.	20,'37
Spain in Flames (A)		Amkino	Jan. 28,'37	63 Feb.	13,'37
Spanish Earth, The (A)		Prometheus	Aug. 20,'37	58 Sept.	4'37
Thank You, Madam (G)	Jan Kiepura	American Tobis	Apr. 26,'37	85 May	1,'37
Thirteen, The (A)	Ivan Novoseltsev	Amkino		85 July	17,'37
30 Seconds of Love (G)	Elsa Merlini	E. J. A.		80 Jan.	2,'37
This'll Make You Whistle (A)	Jack Buchanan	Wilcox		78 Jan.	9,'37
Tsar to Lenin (A)		Lenauer Intern'l	Mar. 6,'37	68 Mar.	27,'37
Wave, The (G)	Native Cast	Garrison	Apr. 20,'37	60 May	1,'37
White Squadron (G)	Antonio Conta	E. N. I. C.		85 Dec.	26,'36
World's In Love, The (A)	Marta Eggerth	Viennese	May 18,'37	90 May	29,'37
Yiddle with His Fiddle	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Dec.	81	38,'36

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-1-36) August 1, 1936.]

CELEBRITY

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

COMICOLOR CARTOONS

Happy Days ..... Sept.30,'36.....

COLUMBIA

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Ay Tank Ay Go (1-23-37) ..... Dec. 4,'36..16½..
(All Star)
Back to the Woods ..... May 14,'37..19½..
(3 Stooges)
Big Squirt, The ..... Sept.17,'37†..2 rls.
Charlie Chase
Bury the Hatchet (8-21-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37..19....
Calling All Doctors ..... July 22,'37..19½..
Cash and Carry (9-11-37) ..... Sept. 3,'37†18½..
(3 Stooges)
Dizzy Doctors (4-17-37) ..... Mar. 19,'37..17½..
(3 Stooges)
Free Rent (1-30-37) ..... Dec. 20,'36..18....
(All Star)
From Bad to Worse ..... June 4,'37..17....
Charlie Chase
Goofs and Saddles ..... July 2,'37..17½..
Grand Hooter (6-5-37) ..... May 7,'37..19½..
Charlie Chase
Grips, Grunts and Groans ..... Jan. 15,'37..19....
(3 Stooges) (3-27-37)
Knee Action (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 9,'37..17....
Andy Clyde
Lodge Night ..... June 11,'37..18....
Andy Clyde
Love Comes to Mooneyville ..... Nov. 14,'36..18....
(1-2-37)
My Little Feller ..... May 21,'37..18....
Andy Clyde
New News (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 1,'37..17½..
(Collins-Kennedy)
Sailor Maid ..... Feb. 12,'37..19....
Polly Moran
Slippery Silks (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 27,'36..17½..
(3 Stooges)
Stuck in the Sticks ..... Mar. 26,'37..18....
Andy Clyde
Super Snooper, The ..... Feb. 25,'37..19½..
El Brendel
Three Dumb Clucks ..... Apr. 17,'37..17....
(3 Stooges)
Wrong Miss Wright, The ..... June 18,'37..17....
Charlie Chase

BROADWAY FOLLIES

Drug Store Follies
(9-11-37) ..... Sept. 3,'37†..9½..

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Bon Bon Parade ..... Nov. 26,'36..8½..
Boy and His Dog, A
(1-9-37) ..... Dec. 23,'36..7....
Foxy Pup, The (6-5-37) ..... May 21,'37..6½..
Gifts from the Air ..... Jan. 1,'37..7½..
Indian Serenade ..... July 16,'37..8....
Let's Go (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 10,'37..7½..
Merry Mannequins ..... Mar. 19,'37..6½..
Mother Hen's Holiday ..... May 7,'37..7....
Scary Crows (9-11-37) ..... Aug. 20,'37..8....
Skeleton Frolic (2-20-37) ..... Jan. 29,'37..7½..
Spring Festival (8-21-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37..8....
Stork Takes a Holiday, The ..... June 11,'37..8 ...
Swing, Monkey, Swing ..... Sept.10,'37.....
Two Lazy Crows (11-28-36) ..... Nov. 26,'36..7....

COLUMBIA TOURS

Gold Quest of the Ages
(2-27-37) ..... Jan. 28,'37..10....
Fifty Years of Barter ..... May 28,'37..9½..
Haiti's Black Napoleon
(8-21-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37..9....
Pirate Parts of the Caribbean ..... July 2,'37..9....
When the West Was Young
(3-20-37) ..... Mar. 12,'37..9....

COMMUNITY SING
(2nd Series)

No. 1 (9-11-37) ..... Aug.20,'37†10....
No. 2 ..... Sept.17,'37†10....

COURT OF HUMAN RELATIONS

Runaway Marriage, The
(1-16-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36..11....
Wedding Deal, The ..... Feb. 26,'37..11½..

FEATURETTES

Community Sing (No. 1)
(2-27-37) ..... Jan. 17,'37..10....
Community Sing (No. 2) ..... Feb. 19,'37..11....

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Community Sing (No. 3)
(6-5-37) ..... May 20,'37..10....
Community Sing (No. 4) ..... June 18,'37..10½..
Community Sing (No. 5)
(9-11-37) ..... July 24,'37..10½..
Herald of the Skies ..... Apr. 2,'37..9½..
Story of Norton I, Emperor of the United States
(2-6-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36..9....

HAPPY HOUR

Goose Girl, The ..... May 30,'37..3 rls.
Old Woman in the Woods, The ..... Apr. 23,'37..3 rls.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

16. Merry Cafe (1-23-37) ..... Dec. 26,'36..7....
17. Lyin' Hunter, The
(3-27-37) ..... Feb. 12,'37..7....
18. Krazy's Race of Time
(6-26-37) ..... May 6,'37..7....
19. Masque Raid, The ..... June 25,'37..7....

NEW WORLD OF SPORT SERIES

Fishing Thrills (2-13-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37..9....
Fit to Win (6-12-37) ..... May 7,'37..9½..
Fleet Hoofs (4-17-37) ..... Mar. 5,'37..10....
Fun in the Water
(4-17-37) ..... Apr. 10,'37..10....
Future Stars ..... Aug. 30,'37.....
Golf Magic (9-11-37) ..... Aug. 16,'37..9....
Plane Devils (1-9-37) ..... Nov. 28,'36..9½..
Riding the Waves ..... June 4,'37..10....
Scrambled Legs (3-27-37) ..... Feb. 22,'37..9....
Sport of the Seasons ..... June 25,'37..9....
Sport's Greatest Thrills
(8-21-37) ..... Aug. 3,'37..9....

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Canine Capers ..... Sept.18,'37†..6½..
Dizzy Ducks (12-19-36) ..... July 18,'37..6½..
Puttin' Out the Kitten ..... Mar. 26,'37..7....
Scrappy's Band Concert ..... Apr. 29,'37..7....
Scrappy's Music Lesson ..... June 4,'37..7....

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

No. 4—(2-6-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36..10....
No. 5—(2-27-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37..10....
No. 6— ..... Feb. 19,'37..10....
No. 7— ..... Mar. 23,'37..9½..
No. 8—(5-29-37) ..... Apr. 30,'37..9½..
No. 9— ..... May 22,'37..10 ...
No. 10— ..... June 4,'37..9....
No. 11— ..... June 25,'37 10½..
No. 12— ..... Aug. 13,'37..10....
No. 13— ..... Sept. 10,'37.....
(New Series)
No. 1— ..... Sep.17,'37†..1 rl..

SPECIAL

Belgium (3-6-37) ..... Dec. 25,'36..8½..
Old Paris and Berne
(2-20-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36..8½..

STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM

Little Jack Horner ..... Sept.18,'37†..6½..

WORLD IN COLOR

Beautiful Bermuda ..... Sept. 10,'37†.....

DuWORLD

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Story of the Rose, A
(1-16-37) ..... 10....
Sus-Ti Ka (12-19-36) ..... 10....
Utah Picture Book
(1-9-37) ..... 10....

EDUCATIONAL
[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Ask Uncle Sol ..... Oct. 8,'37†..1 rl..
Big Apple, The ..... Sept.17,'37†..1 rl..
Dental Follies (4-10-37) ..... Feb. 26,'37..11....
Gifts in Rhythm ..... Oct. 23,'36..10....
Play! Girls ..... Nov. 6,'36..11....
Pot Luck (8-14-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37†11....
See Uncle Sol (2-6-37) ..... Jan. 29,'37..11....
Strike! You're Out (1-9-37) ..... Dec. 11,'36..11....

TERRY-TOONS

Big Game Hunt, The ..... Feb. 19,'37..7....
Book Shop, The (1-30-37) ..... Feb. 5,'37..6....
Bug Carnival (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 16,'37..7....
Cleaning Day ..... Sept.17,'37† 1 rl..
Close Shave, A ..... Oct. 1,'37†..1 rl..
Dancing Bear, The ..... Oct. 15,'37†..1 rl..
Farmer Al Falfa in Trailer Life ..... Aug.20,'37†..6....
Farmer Al Falfa's Twentieth Anniversary ..... Nov. 27,'36..7....
Flying South ..... Mar. 19,'37..7....

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Homeless Pup, The ..... July 23,'37..7....
Kiko the Kangaroo in Skunked Again ..... Dec. 29,'36..7....
Hay Ride, The ..... Apr. 2,'37..6....
Mechanical Cow, The ..... June 25,'37 ..7....
Miss Lonely Hearts ..... Sept.24,'37†..1 rl..
Ozzie Ostrich Comes to Town ..... May 28,'37..7....
Paper Hangers, The
(8-14-37) ..... July 30,'37..7....
Pink Elephants ..... July 9,'37..7....
Play Ball ..... June 11,'37..6....
Puddy the Pup in Cats in a Bag (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 11,'36..7....
Puddy's Coronation ..... May 14,'37..7....
Puddy the Pup in Sunken Treasures ..... Oct. 16,'36..6....
Red Hot Musie ..... Mar. 5,'37..6....
Robin Hood in an Arrow Escape (11-21-36) ..... Nov. 13,'36..7....
Salty McGuire ..... Jan. 6,'37..7....
Saw Mill Mystery, The ..... Oct. 29,'37†..1 rl..
School Birds ..... Apr. 30,'37..7....
Tin Can Tourist, The
(2-6-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37..7....
Villain Still Pursued Her, The ..... Sept. 3,'37†..6½..

TREASURE CHEST

Chesapeake Bay Retriever, The (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 13,'36..11....
Crystal Ballet ..... May 28,'37..11....
Feminine Form (8-29-36) ..... Aug. 7,'36..10....
How to Ski ..... Aug. 20,'37†11....
Legend of the Loi (1-2-37) ..... Dec. 4,'36..11....
Ornamental Swimming ..... June 4,'37..10....
Private Life of the Gannets ..... Sept.10,'37†11....
Songs of the Danube ..... May 7,'37..9....
Symphony in Snow
(11-7-36) ..... Oct. 16,'36..9....

TWO-REEL COMEDIES

Affairs of Pierre, The
(7-31-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37†19....
Amuse Yourself ..... Nov. 27,'36.20....
Any Old Port (1-2-37) ..... Nov. 6,'36.18....
Bashful Ballerina ..... Sept.17,'37†.....
Big Courtship, The ..... Feb. 19,'37.17....
Chemist, The (9-24-36) ..... Oct. 9,'36.19....
Comic Artist's Home Life
(4-3-37) ..... Apr. 9,'37.18....
Ditto ..... Feb. 12,'37.17....
Freshies ..... May 7,'37.17....
Fun's Fun (2-6-37) ..... Feb. 5,'37.19....
Girls Ahoy! ..... June 11,'37.17....
Going, Going, Gone ..... Oct. 8,'37†.....
Hamlet and Eggs ..... June 18,'37.16....
Her Accidental Hero ..... May 21,'37.17....
High-C Honeymoon ..... Jan. 1,'37.21....
His Pet Girl ..... Apr. 30,'37.18....
Hi-ya Doc? ..... Apr. 23,'37.20....
Holding the Bag ..... May 14,'37.19....
Hold It ..... Jan. 29,'37.17....
Jail Bait ..... Jan. 8,'37.19....
Just the Type ..... Dec. 4,'36.20....
Love in Arms ..... May 28,'37.18....
Love Nest on Wheels ..... Mar. 26,'37.18....
Man to Man ..... Feb. 26,'37.17....
Melody Girl ..... Apr. 16,'37.17....
Mixed Magic (12-9-36) ..... Nov. 20,'36.17....
Modern Home (11-28-36) ..... Nov. 13,'36.19....
Montague the Magnificent
(8-14-37) ..... Aug. 27,'37†17....
Off the Horses (4-10-37) ..... Mar. 5,'37.19....
Pixilated ..... Mar. 19,'37.18....
Practically Perfect (1-30-37) ..... Jan. 15,'37.21....
Ready to Serve (4-10-37) ..... Mar. 12,'37.15....
Screen Test, The (12-19-36) ..... Dec. 13,'36.19....
Silly Night ..... Oct. 1,'37†.....
Slacks Appeal ..... Aug. 13,'37†19....
Smart Way, The ....
Spring Is Here ..... Oct. 30,'36.20....
Sweeties ..... Sept. 3,'37†15....
That's the Spirit ..... June 25,'37.17....
Timid Ghost, The ..... Sept.24,'37†.....
Transatlantic Love ..... Dec. 25,'36.20....
Uncle Sol Solves It ....
Who's Crazy? ..... Aug. 20,'37†.....
Will You Stop! ..... Sept.10,'37†17....

HOFFBERG

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Baltimore, Home of Wally Simpson ....
Bamboo (5-29-37) ..... July 16,'37.10....
Broadway Dance Parade ..... June 15,'37.10....
Busy Spots in Florida ..... Jan. 20,'37.12....
Floridian Curiosities
(5-29-37) ..... Jan. 10,'37.11..
Hollywood Magic (5-29-37) ..... 10....
In Shanghai (6-5-37) ..... July 16,'37.12....
Isle of Paradise ..... July 30,'37.20....

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Spanish Interlude, A ..... June 15,'37.....

MAGNACOLOR

Catalina Island ....
Personalities on Parade ....
Yellowstone Park ....

IMPERIAL

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

EDGAR GUEST POETIC GEMS

Boyhood ..... 8....
Old Prospector, The ..... 8....

NOVELTIES

Nero ..... 8....
Hobo Hero ..... 9....

PORT O' CALL

City of the Sun ..... 9....
Seventh Wonder ..... 9....

WORLD IN COLOR

Dream Harbor ..... 8....
Under the Southern Cross ..... 8....

MGM

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

No. 9—Torture Money
(2-27-37) ..... Jan. 2,'37.20...
No. 10—It May Happen to You (8-14-37) ..... June 5,'37.21...
No. 11—Soak the Poor ..... Aug.21,'37.16....
No. 12—Give Till It Hurts ..... Sept. 18,'37.....

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Colorful Bombay (5-8-37) ..... 8....
Floral Japan ..... July 24,'37..8....
Glimpses of Java and Ceylon (4-10-37) ..... Mar. 6,'37..9....
Glimpses of Peru ..... Sept. 4,'37†.....
Hong Kong, Hub of China
(6-26-37) ..... May 1,'37..8....
India on Parade ..... Feb. 6,'37..9....
Picturesque South Africa
(2-20-37) ..... Jan. 9,'37..9....
Rocky Mountain Grandeur
(7-24-37) ..... June 26,'37..8....
Serene Siam (6-26-37) ..... May 29,'37..9....
Stockholm, Pride of Sweden ..... Oct. 2,'37†.....

HARMAN-ISING
(Happy Harmonies)

26—Pups' Christmas
(12-26-36) ..... Dec. 12,'36..8....
27—Circus Daze ..... Jan. 16,'37..9....
28—Swing Wedding ..... Feb. 13,'37..8....
29—Bosko's Easter Eggs
(4-3-37) ..... Mar. 20,'37..8....
30—Bosko and the Pirates
(5-8-37) ..... May 1,'37..8....
31—Hound and the Rabbit, The (6-26-37) ..... May 29,'37..8....
32—Wayward Pups
(8-14-37) ..... July 10,'37..9....
No. 33—Bosko and the Cannibals ..... Aug. 28,'37.10....

M-G-M MINIATURES

Boss Didn't Say Good Morning, The ..... Oct. 1,'37.....
Have Courage (7-24-37) ..... June 12,'37 10
Hollywood: Second Step
(2-20-37) ..... Dec. 5,'36.10....
How to Vote (9-5-36) ..... Sept. 5,'36.10
Pacific Paradise ..... Aug. 28,'37.....
Rainbow Pass ..... Oct. 9,'37.....
Romance of Digestion ..... Mar. 13,'37.11...
What Do You Think? ..... Jan. 23,'37.10....

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Carnival in Paris (6-26-37) ..... May 29,'37.21....
Girl's Best Years, A
(2-20-37) ..... Dec. 25,'37.19....
Hollywood Party (5-8-37) ..... Apr. 3,'37.21....
Some Time Soon (4-10-37) ..... Mar. 6,'37.20....

OUR GANG

Fishy Tales ..... Aug. 28,'37.11....
Framing Youth ..... Sept.11,'37†.....
Glove Taps (4-10-37) ..... Feb. 20,'37.11...
Hearts Are Thumps ..... Apr. 3,'37.11....
Night 'n' Gales ..... July 24,'37.11....
Reunion in Rhythm ..... Jan. 9,'37.11...
Roamin' Holiday (7-31-37) ..... June 12,'37.11...
Rushin' Ballet (6-26-37) ..... Apr. 24,'37.11...
Spooky Hooky (3-6-37) ..... Dec. 5,'36.11....
Three Smart Boys (5-8-37) ..... Mar. 13,'37.11....

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Dar-Rae's Night Out ..... Feb. 27,'37.10 ...
Decathlon Champion ..... Dec. 11,'37†.....
Dexterity (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 16,'37..9....
Equestrian Acrobatics ..... Aug 14,'37..8....
Gilding the Lily ..... Feb. 6,'37..8....
Golf Mistakes (6-26-37) ..... June 12,'37.10....
Grand Bounce, The
(6-26-37) ..... May 22,'37.11....

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title Rel. Date Min.

Jungle Juveniles .....Oct. 2,'37†.....
Minimaniacs .....Nov. 20,'37†.....
Olympic Ski Champions
(11-7-36) .....July 3,'37.10....
Penny Wisdom (5-8-37)....Apr. 10,'37.10....
Pigskin Champions .....Aug.14,'37.....
Romance of Radium.....Oct. 23,'37†.....
Ski Skill (4-10-37).....10....
(Reviewed under the title, "Ski Thrill")
Sports on Ice.....July 24,'37.10....
Tennis Tactics (5-8-37)....May 1,'37.10....
Wanted—A Master (1-2-37). Dec. 26,'36.10....

RE-ISSUES (1937-8)

Beau Hunks .....Sept.18,'37†37....
Blotto .....Oct. 30,'37†26....

ROBERT BENCHLEY

How to Start the Day.....Sept.11,'37†.....

SPECIAL

Servant of the People
(3-20-37) .....Apr. 9,'37.21....
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 87.)

TABLOID MUSICALS

Bars and Stripes (5-8-37)..Feb. 20,'37.11....
Dancing on the Ceiling....Jan. 2,'37..9....
Little Maestro (4-17-37)...Mar.27,'37.11....
Song of Revolt (7-24-37)...May 29,'37.11....

PARAMOUNT

Title Rel. Date Min.

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Be Human .....Nov. 20,'36..7....
Candid Candidate, The.... Aug. 27,'37†.1 rl..
Ding Dong Doggie.....July 23,'37†.7....
Grampy's Indoor Outing....Oct. 16,'36..7....
House Cleaning Blues.....Jan. 15,'37..7....
Hot Air Salesman, The
(3-20-37) .....Mar.12,'37..7....
Impractical Joker, The
(7-3-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
Making Friends .....Dec. 18,'36..7....
Pudgy Takes a Bow-Wow...Apr. 9,'37..7....
Pudgy Picks a Fight
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37..8....
Service With a Smile.....Sept.24,'37†.7....
Whoops! I'm a Cowboy.....Feb. 12,'37..7....

COLOR CLASSICS

Bunny-Mooning (3-13-37)..Feb. 12,'37..7....
Car-Tune Portrait, A
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37..7....
Chicken a la King.....Apr. 16,'37..8....
Christmas Comes But Once
a Year .....Dec. 4,'36..8....
Peeping Penguins .....Aug. 27,'37†.7....
Play Safe .....Oct. 16,'36..7....

HEADLINERS

Blue Velvet Music.....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Mark Warnow and Orch.
Friml Favorites (7-3-37)..June 4,'37.11....
Rudolf Friml, Jr., and Orch.
Hollywood Star Reporter,
No. 2 .....Oct. 29,'37†.1 rl..
Hula Heaven .....Oct. 1,'37†11....
Eddie Peabody
Installment Collector, The...July 24,'37.10....
Fred Allen
Let's Go Latin.....Sept.10,'37†11....
Xavier Cugat and Orch.
Musical Charmers .....Oct. 9,'36.11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Music by Morgan.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Russ Morgan and Orch.
Music, Music Everywhere,..Dec. 18,'36.11....
Clyde Lucas and Orch.
Night in Manhattan.....July 30,'37.11....
Queens of Harmony.....Aug. 20,'37†11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Rah, Rah, Football.....Oct. 30,'36.10....
Will Osborne and Orch.
Song Hits on Parade.....Jan. 15,'37.10....
Freddie Rich & Orch.
Star Reporter in Hollywood
(11-21-37) .....Nov. 20,'36..9....
Ted Husing-Bonnie Bartlett-Dorothy Lamour
Star Reporter, The, No. 2
(3-27-37) .....Mar.12,'37.11....
Vincent Lopez and Orch.
Boswell Sisters
Swing, Hutton, Swing.....May 7,'37.11....
Ina Ray Hutton and Orch.

MUSICAL ROMANCE
(Technicolor)

In Old Wyoming (2-27-37). Jan. 15,'37..9....
Schubert's Serenade .....July 23,'37..9....
Song of the Islands.....
(5-22-37) .....May 21,'37.10....
Trees (3-20-37) .....Mar. 19,'37..9....
Western Sketches .....Nov. 20,'36.10....

PARAGRAPHICS

Aviator Shorty .....July 23,'37.10....

Title Rel. Date Min.

Broadway Highlights, No. 8 Dec. 11,'36.10....
Broadway Highlight, No. 9.....10....
Circus Comes to Town, The
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37.10....
Cowboy Shorty .....Oct. 8,'37†.1 rl..
Game Trails .....Apr. 30,'37.10....
It's a Good Stunt.....Sept.10,'37†10....
It's a Living.....Mar. 5,'37.11....
Killer of the Tonto.....Aug. 13,'37†10....
Nobody Home .....Apr. 2,'37.10....
Rhythm of the River.....Oct. 9,'36.10....
Safety in the Air
(5-22-37) .....May 28,'37.10....
Sailor Shorty .....Oct. 23,'36.10....
That's Their Business.....Nov. 13,'36.11....
Where Champions Meet
(2-20-37) .....Jan. 8,'37..9....
Where Snow Is King.....Feb. 5,'37..9....

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL

No. 4—A Modern Monster
— Furs on Parade — All
Aboard .....Nov. 13,'36.11....
No. 5 — Bamboo—Clamdiggers' Rodeo — Vienna
Boys' Choir .....Dec. 11,'36.10....
No. 6—Cornering a Killer
— Twilight — Let's All
Learn to Ski.....Jan. 8,'37..9....
No. 7 — Magic Caverns —
Albert Payson Terhune—
Swing Fashions .....Feb. 12,'37..8....
No. 8 — Tides of Fundy—
Home of the Rainbow—
Meet the Lorias.....Mar. 12,'37.10....
No. 9—Moonlight and
Shadows — Rooftops of Manhattan—Blackie and
Brownie .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
No. 10 — Sailboat Time —
Twilight on the Trail—
Magnetic Music (5-22-37). May 7,'37.10....
No. 11—Fishing Highlights.June 4,'37.11....
No. 12—(7-3-37) .....July 2,'37.10....

NEW SERIES

No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†.1 rl..
No. 2 .....Sept. 3,'37†.1 rl..
No. 3—Let's Count Horses
—Novia Scotia Faces the
Sea—Record Making .....Sept. 3,'37†10....

POPEYE THE SAILOR

Hold the Wire.....Oct. 23,'36..7....
Hospitality .....Apr. 16,'37..7....
I Like Babies and Infants..Sept.17,'37†.7....
I'm in the Army Now.....Dec. 25,36..7....
I Never Change My
Altitude .....Aug.20,'37†.7....
Lost and Foundry.....July 16,'37..7....
Morning, Noon and Night
Club (6-26-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
My Artistical Temperature..Mar. 19,'37..7....
Organ Grinder's Swing
(3-6-37) .....Feb. 19,'37..7....
Paneless Window Washer,
The (2-27-37).....Jan. 22,'37..7....
Popeye the Sailor Meets
Sinbad the Sailor
(11-14-36) .....Nov. 27,'36..7....
(Technicolor special)
Spinach Roadster, The.....Nov. 27,'36..7....
Twisker Pitcher, The.....May 21,'37..7....

PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS

Two Editions Weekly

POPULAR SCIENCE
(Cinecolor)

No. 2 (11-28-36).....Oct. 30,'36.10....
No. 3 .....Dec. 25,'36.11....
No. 4 (3-2-27).....Feb. 26,'37.11....
No. 5 .....Apr. 30,'37.11....
No. 6 .....July 2,'37.11....

NEW SERIES

No. 1 .....Sept. 3,'37†10....

SCREEN SONGS

Never Should Have Told
You (3-6-37) .....Jan. 29,'37..8....
Nat Brandwynne and Orch.
Please Keep Me in Your
Dreams (5-22-37).....May 28,'37..8....
Henry King and Orch.
Talking Through My Heart..Nov. 27,'36..7....
Dick Stabile and Orch.
Twilight on the Trail.....Mar.26,'37..7....
The Westerners
Whispers in the Dark.....Sept.24,'37† 7....
You Came to My Rescue...July 30,'37..8....
Shep Fields and Orch.

GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS
(NEW SERIES)

No. 30—Sporting Quiz, The
(11-21-36) .....Nov. 6,'36.10....

Title Rel. Date Min.

No. 31—Chimp Champs....Dec. 4,'36.10....
No. 32—Sporting Pals .....Jan. 1,'37.10....
No. 33—Underwater Romance, An (3-6-37).....Jan. 29,'37.10....
No. 34—On the Nose
(3-13-37) .....Feb. 26,'37.10....
No. 35—King Soccer .....Mar.26,'37.10....
No. 36—Wrestling (It's a
Laugh) .....Apr. 23,'37.10....
No. 37—Swing Stars
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37.10....
No. 38—Pan-American
Champions (7-3-37) .....June 11,'37.10....
No. 39—Rhythm of the
Game (7-10-37) .....July 9,'37.10....
No. 40—Aquabats .....Aug.13,'37†10....
No. 41—Picking Pets..... Sept. 10,'37†10....
No. 42—Four Smart Dogs. Oct. 8,'37†10....

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS
(Cinecolor)

No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†.1 rl..
No. 2 .....Oct. 8,'37†.1 rl..

RKO RADIO

Title Rel. Date Min.

CONDOR MUSICALES

Frozen Affair, A (8-28-37) .Sept.17,'37†10....
Murder in Swing Time
(9-4-37) .....Sept.27,'37†10....

LEON ERROL COMEDIES

Should Wives Work.....Sept.10,'37†.....

HEADLINER SERIES

2—Singing in the Air....Feb. 19,'37.19....
3—Rhythm on the Rampage
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 2,'37.18½..
4—Swing Fever .....July 25,'37.20....

EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES

Bad Housekeeping (4-10-37). Mar. 5,'37.19....
Dumb's the Word.....June 11,'37.18....
Hillbilly Goat (1-23-37)...Jan. 15,'37.18....
Locks and Bonds.....Apr. 16,'37.19....
Morning Judge .....Sept.24,'37†.....
Tramp Trouble .....Aug. 6,'37.16....

MARCH OF TIME

No. 4 (12-12-36).....Nov. 27,'36.22....
No. 5 .....Dec. 25,'36.19....
No. 6 .....Jan. 22,'37.19....
No. 7 .....Feb. 19,'37.21....
No. 8 .....Mar. 19,'37.20....
No. 9 (4-17-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.21....
No. 10 .....May 14,'37.18....
No. 11 .....June 11,'37.18....
No. 12 .....July 9,'37.18....
No. 13 .....Aug. 6,'37.18....

1937-38

No. 1 (9-11-37) .....Sept. 3,'37†17....

MICKEY MOUSE

Clock Cleaners, The
(8-28-37) .....8....
Hawaiian Holiday
(9-4-37) .....8....

NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS

Rhythm in a Night Court
(9-4-37) .....Sept.24,'37†.9....

PATHE NEWS

Released twice a week

PATHE PARADE

No. 1 .....Sept.10,'37†.....

PATHE REVIEWS

Released once a month

PATHE TOPICS

Released seven times a year

RADIO FLASH COMEDIES

Don't Be Like That
(1-30-37) .....Dec. 4,'36.18....
Horse Play (4-3-37).....Mar.13,'37.18....

RADIO MUSICAL COMEDIES

Deep South (1-23-37).....Jan. 1,'37.17....
Mississippi Moods
(7-31-37) .....July 23,'37.17....
That Man Samson.....May 28,'37.19....

SMART SET

Grandma's Buoys (1-2-37)..Dec. 18,36.16....
Inlawful .....Apr. 30,'37.17....

SPECIAL

Day With the Dionne
Quintuplets, A (4-24-37) .Mar.26,'37.18....

SPORTS WITH BILL CORUM

Beach Sports .....June 4,'37..9½..
Big League .....May 7,'37.11....
Foreign Sports .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Golf Timing (8-21-37).....July 23,'37.11....
Iceman, The .....Jan. 15,'37..9....
Ladies' Day .....Dec. 18,'36.11....
Putting On the Dog.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Royal Steeds .....July 2,'37.10....
Saratoga Summers
(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,37.11....
Singing Wheels (12-26-36) .Nov. 20,'36.11....

Title Rel. Date Min.

STRUGGLE TO LIVE

Deadly Females .....Nov.13,'36..9½..
Desert Land .....Apr. 3,'37..9....
Forest Gangsters (1-23-37) .Jan. 8,'37..9....

SUPERBA COMEDIES

Bridal Grief .....Feb. 5,'37.19....
One Live Ghost.....Nov. 6,'36.21....
Wife Insurance (8-14-37). July 9,'37.16....
Wrong Romance, The.....May 14,'37.19....

WORLD ON PARADE

California Missions
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.11....
Circus Winter Quarters.....May 14,'37.11....
Florida Cowboy .....June 11,'37..9½..
Gold Mania (1-16-37).....Dec. 25,'36.11....
Graveyard of Ships (1-2-37). Nov. 27,'36.11....
Heart of the Sierras.....Nov. 6,'36.11....
Jungle Playmate .....July 30,'37..9....
Manhattan Waterfront
(3-27-37) .....Feb. 19,'37.11....
Mt. Vernon .....Mar. 19,'37.10....
Romantic Mexico .....Jan. 22,'37.10....
Workshops of Old Mexico..July 9,'37.11....

STATE RIGHTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

ALEXANDER

Trailing the Seashore
(1-9-37) .....11....

AMERICAN RED CROSS

Behind the Flood Headlines
(5-8-37) .....11....

ASTOR

Carmen (5-29-37) .....9....
Hail! Who Goes There?
(5-29-37) .....9....

FILM EXCHANGE

Ski-Esta (1-2-37).....10....

MATSON

Coronation Preview
(3-27-37) .....10....

ROGERS SPECIAL

Lest We Forget (5-1-37).....1 rl..

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

I Pledge My Heart (8-7-37).....11....

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Title Rel. Date Min.

ADVENTURES OF THE
NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN

Bone Bender Parade
(8-14-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Dogging It Around the
World .....Nov. 13,'36.10....
Looking for Trouble.....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Ski Parade, The.....Feb. 5,'37.....
Sports Headliners of 1936
(11-21-36) .....Oct. 30,'36.10....

MAGIC CARPET SERIES

Land of Genghis Kahn
(2-6-37) .....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Portraits of Portugal
(8-7-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Touring Brazil (12-18-36)..Nov. 13,'36.10....
Western Grandeur (4-3-37) .Feb. 5,'37..9½..

UNITED ARTISTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

MICKEY MOUSE

103. Alpine Climbers
(8-22-36) .....Oct. 28,'36†.9½..
104. Mickey's Circus
(8-15-36) .....Nov. 11,'36†.8....
105. Donald and Pluto
(11-14-36) .....Dec. 12,'36†.8....
107. Mickey's Elephant
(11-14-36) .....Feb. 19,'37†.9....
108. Don Donald (1-16-37).....8½..
109. Worm Turns, The
(1-23-37) .....Apr. 17,'37†.8½..
110. Magician Mickey ....June 17,'37†.8½..
111. Mickey's Amateurs
(6-19-37) .....1 rl..
112. Moose Hunters .....Aug. 5,'37†.9....

SILLY SYMPHONIES

106. Three Blind Mouseketeers (11-28-36)...Jan. 28,'37†.7....
108. Country Cousin, The
(11-21-36) .....Dec. 17,'36†.6½..
109. Mother Pluto
(11-21-36) .....Mar. 6,'37†.6½..
110. More Kittens (1-9-37) .Mar.27,'37†.8½..
111. Woodland Cafe
(6-26-37) .....1 rl..
112. Little Hiawatha
(6-26-37) .....1 rl..
113. Modern Inventions
(6-26-37) .....1 rl..

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
GOING PLACES with LOWELL THOMAS
No. 30	Nov. 23,'36	10....
No. 31	Dec. 21,'36	.9....
No. 32 (2-6-37)	Feb. 1,'37	.9½..
No. 33 (3-27-37)	Mar. 15,'37	.9....
No. 34 (4-17-37)	Mar. 22,'37	.8....
No. 35 (4-17-37)	Apr. 12,'37	.7....
No. 36 (5-15-37)	May 10,'37	.9½..
No. 37 (5-15-37)	June 7,'37	.9½..
No. 38 (7-24-37)	July 26,'37	10....
No. 39
No. 40
MEANY-MINY-MOE CARTOONS
Air Express	Sept.20,'37†	.6....
Big Race, The (3-13-37)	Mar. 3,'37	.7....
Country Store (8-7-37)	July 5,'37	.7....
Fireman's Picnic	Aug.16,'37	.6½..
Golfers, The (2-13-37)	Jan. 11,'37	.8½..
House of Magic (2-13-37)	Feb. 8,'37	.8....
Knights for a Day (1-9-37)	Dec. 28,'36	.7....
Lumber Camp (3-20-37)	Mar.15,'37	.7....
Ostrich Feathers	Sept. 6,'37†	.7....
Rest Resort	Aug.23,'37	.7....
Steel Workers (5-15-37)	Apr. 26,'37	.7....
Stevedores, The	May 24,'37	.7....
Turkey Dinner	Nov. 30,'36	.8....
MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES
Alpine Cabaret (8-14-37)	Aug. 4,'37	10....
Bargain Matinee (3-20-37)	Apr. 14,'37	10....
Cocktail Party, The (5-15-37)	May 12,'37	10....
Fun Begins at Home	Feb. 17,'37	10....
Hawaiian Capers	Sept. 8,'37†	9....
It's on the Record	Mar. 17,'37	10½..
Royal Cafe	Nov. 25,'36	10....
School for Swing (2-6-37)	Jan. 20,'37	10....
Shoes with Rhythm (5-15-37)	June 9,'37	10....
Singing Bandit, The (7-3-37)	July 7,'37	10....
Buddy Bergman's Bar-B-Q	Oct. 6,'37†	9....
Television Highlights	Dec. 23,'36	10....
OSWALD CARTOONS
Birthday Party, The	Mar.29,'37	.6½..
Duck Hunt (3-13-37)	Mar. 8,'37	.7....
Everybody Sings (1-30-37)	Feb. 22,'37	.7....
Gopher Trouble	Nov. 30,'36	.7....
Playful Pup, The (7-31-37)	July 12,'37	.7....
Puppet Show (10-13-36)	Nov. 2,'36	.8....
Trailer Thrills (5-15-37)	May 3,'37	.7....
Unpopular Mechanic (10-17-36)	Nov. 6,'36	.8....
Wily Weasel, The	June 7,'37	.7....
STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES
No. 29—Novelty (9-24-36)	Nov. 9,'36	.8½..
No. 30—Novelty (12-26-36)	Dec. 7,'36	10....
No. 31—Novelty (1-2-37)	Jan. 4,'37	.9....
No. 32—Novelty (1-30-37)	Feb. 1,'37	.9....
No. 33—Novelty (2-13-37)	Mar. 1,'37	.9....
No. 34—Novelty (4-17-37)	Mar.29,'37	.9....
No. 35—Novelty (4-17-37)	Apr. 26,'37	.9....
No. 36—Novelty (4-17-37)	May 24,'37	.8....
No. 37—Novelty (7-3-37)	June 21,'37	.8½..
No. 38—Novelty (5-15-37)	July 19,'37	.9....
No. 39—Novelty (7-24-37)	Aug.16,'37	.9....
No. 40—Novelty	Sept. 6,'37†	.9....
No. 41—Novelty	Oct. 4,'37†	.9....
No. 42—Novelty	Nov. 1,'37†	.9....
UNIVERSAL SPECIAL
Hollywood Screen Test (8-14-37)	Aug. 30,'37†	21....
King Edward the VIIIi	Dec. 14,'36	.9½..
You Can't Get Away With It	Nov. 30,'36	25....

VITAPHONE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
BIG TIME VAUDEVILLE REEL
Vaudeville Is Back	Nov. 14,'36	11....
Johnny Perkins
Vaude-Villians	Dec. 12,'36	10....
Marty May
Reel Vaudeville (1-30-37)	Jan. 2,'37	11....
Harry Rose
Bed-Time Vaudeville (2-20-37)	Jan. 30,'37	11....
Bring On the Girls	Mar. 6,'37	11....
Edgar Bergen
Vitaphone Diversions	Apr. 3,'37	10....
Smith and Dale
Nickel Lowdown	May 1,'37	10....
Charles Kemper
Vitaphone Funsters (8-12-37)	May 29,'37	11....
Johnny Burke
Vaude-Festival	June 26,'37	.....
Fritz and Jean Hubert
Vaudeville Hits	July 17,'37	.....
Elaine Arden
Vitaphone Broadwayites	Aug. 21,'37	10....
Medley-Dupree

BROADWAY BREVITIES

Sweethearts and Flowers	Nov. 7,'36	20....
Regis-Toomey-Preisser Sisters
That's Pictures (8-28-36)	Nov. 21,'36	21....
Jay C. Flippen
Joe Palooka in "The Blonde Bomber"	Nov. 28,'36	21....
Shemp Howard-Robert Norton
Here Comes the Circus	Dec. 5,'36	18....
"Poodles" Hanneford
"Give Me Liberty"	Dec. 19,'36	22....
John Litel
It's All Over Now (2-6-37)	Dec. 26,'36	20....
Dan Healy
Joe and Asbestos In "A Horse's Tale" (2-13-37)	Jan. 9,'37	20....
Harry Gribbon-Hamtree Harrington
Pretty Pretender, The (2-13-37)	Jan. 23,'37	21....
Bernice Claire
Joe Palooka in "Kick Me Again" (3-6-37)	Feb. 6,'37	21....
Shemp Howard-Robert Norton
Captain Blueblood	Feb. 3,'37	21....
Georgie Price
Swing for Sale (3-13-37)	Feb. 27,'37	22....
Hal LeRoy
Under Southern Stars	Feb. 20,'37	18....
Fred Lawrence-J. Bryan
Hotel a la Swing	Mar.13,'37	20....
Eddie Foy, Jr.
Mail and Female	Mar.27,'37	21....
Ken Murray
Play Street (4-10-37)	Apr. 3,'37	21....
Preisser Sisters
Romance of Robert Burns (4-10-37)	Apr. 10,'37	16....
Owen King-Linda Perry
Lifers of the Party, The	Apr. 17,'37	21....
Yacht Club Boys
Joe Palooka in "Taking the Count"	Apr. 24,'37	21....
Shemp Howard-Robert Norton
Movie Mania	May 8,'37	20....
Dave Apollon
Musical Operation, A	May 15,'37	20....
Frank Gaby-Virginia Verrill
Day at Santa Anita	May 22,'37	18....
Sybil Jason
Sound Defects (6-12-37)	June 5,'37	22....
Rufe Davis
Joe Palooka in "Thirst Aid"	June 12,'37	20....
Robt. Norton-Beverly Phalen
Rhythm Roundup, The	June 19,'37	21....
Estelle Taylor
Little Pioneer, The (7-10-37)	July 3,'37	19....
Sybil Jason
Newsboys Nocturnes (7-10-37)	July 10,'37	20....
Lane, Tree & Edwards
Flowers from the Sky (8-21-37)	July 24,'37	22....
Josephine Huston
Cut Out for Love	Aug. 2,'37	.....
Donald Novis-Dorothy Dare
Du Barry Did All Right	Aug. 7,'37	.....
Irene Bordoni
Doctor Cupid	Sept. 4,'37†	.....
Ken Murray-Oswald
Postal Union	Sept. 11,'37†	.....
Georgie Price
Littlest Diplomat, The (9-11-37)	Sept. 25,'37†	20....
Sybil Jason

COLORTOUR ADVENTURE
(Cinecolor)

Along the Mediterranean	Dec. 5,'36	10....
Hollanders, The (1-23-37)	Jan. 2,'37	10....
Nice Work (2-13-37)	Jan. 30,'37	10....
Land of the Midnight Sun (3-13-37)	Feb.27,'37	10....
Nature the Artist (4-10-37)	Mar.20,'37	10....
Cradle of Civilization	Apr. 17,'37	10....
Alpine Grandeur	May 15,'37	10....
Gateway to Africa (6-12-37)	June 12,'37	10....
Land of the Magyar (7-10-37)	July 3,'37	.....
Crossing the Sahara	Aug. 14,'37	.....
Long Bright Land (9-11-37)	Sept. 25,'37†	10....

FLOYD GIBBONS' "YOUR TRUE ADVENTURE"

Attic of Terror (9-11-37)	Sept. 18,'37†	12....

LOONEY TUNES

No. 28—Village Smithy, The	Nov. 14,'36	.7....
No. 29—Porky of the Northwoods (1-9-37)	Dec. 19,'36	.7....
No. 30—Porky the Wrestler	Jan. 9,'37	.7....
No. 31—Porky's Road Race	Feb. 6,'37	.7....
No. 32—Picador Porky (2-27-37)		.8....
No. 33—Porky's Romance	Apr. 17,'37	.8....
No. 34—Porky's Duck Hunt	Apr. 17,'37	.8....
No. 35—Porky and Gabby (6-12-37)	May 15,'37	.8....
No. 36—Porky's Building	June 19,'37	.8....
No. 37—Porky's Super Service (7-10-37)	July 3,'37	.8....
No. 38—Porky's Bad Time Story	July 24,'37	.7....
No. 39—Porky's Railroad (8-14-37)	Aug. 7,'37	.7....
No. 40—Get Rich Porky	Aug. 28,'37	.....
No. 41—Porky's Garden	Sept.11,'37	.....

MELODY MASTERS

Clyde McCoy and Orch. (8-29-36)	Nov. 28,'36	10....
Jimmie Lunceford and Oreh. (1-23-37)	Dec. 19,'36	10....
George Hall and Orch	Jan. 9,'37	10....
Louisiana Kings	Jan. 23,'37	10....
Roger Wolfe Kahn and Orch.	Feb. 6,'37	10....
Cab Calloway and Orch. (3-13-37)	Feb. 20,'37	10....
Peter Van Steeden and Orch.	Mar. 6,'37	10....
Jacques Fray and Orch. (4-10-37)	Mar.27,'37	10....
Jam Session, The	Apr. 17,'37	10....
Clyde McCoy and Orch.
Rimac Orchestra, The	May 8,'37	10....
Jack Denny and Orch	May 29,'37	10....
Eliseo Grenet and Orch. (6-19-37)	June 19,'37	10....
Lennie Hayton and Orch. (7-10-37)	July 10,'37	10....
David Mendoza and Orch. (8-21-37)	July 31,'37	10....
Russ Morgan and Orch	Sept. 11,'37†	.....
Milt Britton and Orch	Oct. 2,'37†	.....
Mal Hallett and Orch	Oct. 23,'37†	.....
Arnold Johnson and Orch. (9-11-37)	Nov. 11,'37†	10....

MERRIE MELODIES
(In Color)

No. 28—Don't Look Now	Nov. 7,'36	.7....
No. 29—Cococonut Grove	Nov. 28,'36	.7....
No. 30—He Was Her Man	Jan. 2,'37	.7....
No. 31—Pigs Is Pigs (1-16-37)	Jan. 30,'37	.7....
No. 32—I Only Have Eyes for You (3-6-37)	Mar. 6,'37	.8....
No. 33—The Fella with the Fiddle (4-10-37)	Mar.27,'37	.8....
No. 34—She Was an Acrobat's Daughter	Apr. 10,'37	.8....
No. 35—Ain't We Got Fun	May 1,'37	.8....
No. 36—Clean Pastures	May 22,'37	.....
No. 37—Uncle Tom's Bungalow	June 5,'37	.....
No. 38—Streamlined Greta Green (6-12-37)	June 19,'37	.8....
No. 39—Sweet Sioux (7-10-37)	June 26,'37	.8....
No. 40—Egghead Rides Again	July 17,'37	.8....
No. 41—Plenty of Money and You	July 31,'37	.7....
No. 42—Sunbonnet Blue	Aug. 21,'37	.....
No. 43—Speaking of the Weather (8-21-37)	Sept. 4,'37	.7....
No. 44—Dog Daze	Sept.18,'37	.....

PICTORIAL REVIEWS

No. 4—Southern Wear—Aviation (1-23-37)	Dec. 26,'36	11....
No. 5—Sports Afloat (2-6-37)	Jan. 16,'37	10....
No. 6—Swimming — Wood Carving	Feb. 13,'37	10....
No. 7—Phonograph Records—Lipsticks (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37	11....
No. 8—Coiffeurs—Shoes	Apr. 10,'37	10....
No. 9—Hats—Bathing Suits	May 11,'37	10....
No. 10—Dancing-Leather (6-5-37)	May 22,'37	10....
No. 11—Milk—Rugs	June 19,'37	10....
No. 12—Pianos-Art (8-14-37)	July 17,'37	10....
No. 13—Books—Furs	Aug. 28,'37	.....
(NEW SERIES)
No. 1—Racing — Wrestling—Cheese (9-11-37)	Sept.18,'37	10....
VITAPHONE NOVELTIES
Nut Guilty—(6-27)	Nov. 21,'36	10....
Oklahoma As Is	Dec. 19,'36	11....
Cal Tinney
Poets of the Organ (8-22)	Jan. 16,'37	.....
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crawford
Whale Ho (7-14)	Feb. 13,'37	10....
Medium Well Done	Mar. 6,'37	10....
Hardeen
Ghost to Ghost Hookup, A	Apr. 3,'37	11....
Radio Ramblers
Home Run on the Keys (4-3-37)	Apr. 24,'37	.9....
Babe Ruth
Check Your Cash	May 22,'37	10....
Louis Zingone
Double Talk (6-5-37)	June 26,'37	10....
Edgar Bergen
Palm Beach Knights	July 31,'37	.....
Charles Ahearn
Lyin' Tamer, The (7-11-36)	Aug. 28,'37	10....
George Jessel
VITAPHONE VARIETIES
Neckin' Party, A (9-11-37)	Sept. 4,'37†	11....
Edgar Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"
Puppet Love (9-11-37)	Oct. 2,'37†	10....
Salici's Puppets

WM. STEINER

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eagle's Vengeance, The	July 29,'37†	20....

WORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Battling Bettas	July 8,'37†	10....
Men of Ships	Sept.10,'37†	9....

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Jungle Menace (9-4-37)		20....
Frank Buck-C. Henry (15 episodes)		(each)

REPUBLIC

Dick Tracy 6401 (2-27-37)	Feb. 20,'37†	.....
Ralph Byrd-Kay Hughes (15 episodes)
Painted Stallion, The 6421	June 5,'37†	.....
Ray Corrigan-Hoot Gibson
Robinson Crusoe of Clipper Island 3583	Nov. 14,'36	.....
Mala-Mamo Clark (14 episodes)
S. O. S. Coast Guard 6441	Aug.28,'37†	.....
Ralph Byrd-Maxine Doyle
Zorro Rides Again 6461	Nov. 20,'37†	.....
John Carroll

UNIVERSAL

Jungle Jim (12-26)	Jan. 18,'37	.2 rls.
Grant Withers-Betty Jane Rhodes		(each)
Radio Patrol	Oct. 4,'37†	.2 rls.
Grant Withers-Cath. Hughes		(each)
Secret Agent X9	Apr. 12,'37	.2 rls.
Scott Kolk-Jean Rogers		(each)
Wild West Days (6-26-37)	July 5,'37†	.2 rls.
Johnny Mack Brown (13 episodes)		(each)

VICTORY

Blake of Scotland Yard	Apr. 15,'37	.....
Ralph Byrd-Herbert Rawlinson (15 episodes—also feature version)
Shadown of Chinatown	Oct. 10,'36	.....
Bela Lugosi-Herman Brix (15 episodes—also feature version)

J. C JENKINS—HIS COLYUM

Neligh, Nebraska

Dear Herald:

We have got back to "The Gateway." Just about every town in Nebraska is "The Gateway," and we presume this one is the gateway to something, but we don't know what. We note that the town has made considerable improvement since we have been gone; for instance, they have erected a sign at the entrance of the town, "Drive slow and see our city; drive fast and see our jail," and close to it is another one, "Speed limit 15 miles an hour. Keep cutout closed." The city council has put a bed in the city hall for the night watch and passed an ordinance prohibiting the grazing of cows on main street and the court house lawn. Yea, verily, we think we had better go away again.

▽

The other night we went and saw a picture—that is, they called it a picture. We understand that the crickets gave it a very high rating. We are not going to mention the name of it for various reasons, but to us it was just a lot of blah blah, but that was probably because we were too damdum to understand it, but you boys will know what one it was when you play it.

▽

If Walt Bradley wasn't a son-in-law of ours, and if you boys wouldn't think we were a little partial on that account, we'd tell you about the way he has lighted the front of his Moon theatre. We have seen a lot of theatre fronts in our time, in small towns and in large ones, but we have never seen a theatre front as well lighted with Neon lights as his, and you boys who contemplate lighting your marquees had better drive over here and see this one; it will pay you well to do it. But maybe we are a little partial because he called us "Dad."

▽

We have been thinking it over very carefully and we have come to the conclusion that that "shelterbelt" has some redeeming features. For instance when the trees get large enough, say along about 1986 (if they live that long), they will make a fine roosting place for the crows and, besides that, our great-great-grandchildren can have a lotta fun hunting rabbits in 'em. NOTE: If you have any dogs for sale notify the superintendent of the shelterbelt.

▽

Jevver have the seven-year itch? We've got the itch, but not the seven-year variety. We got the itch to go and see a lot of our friends, but we can't do it when the mercury is hovering around 104 in the shade and has been for two weeks and looks like it would continue for the next few weeks. We'd like to go and see Joe Hewitt of Robinson, Ill., a Polander by the name of Lee at Shulsburg, Roob of Pt. Washington, and Fred Hinds of White Cloud, Wis., Andy and Herb Anderson of Detroit Lakes, Bonnie Benfield of Morris, Minn., Mr. Brown of Nampa, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Jung of Glenrock, Wyo., Mr. and Mrs. Abbott of Arlington, P. G. Este of Parker, S. D., Mildred Early of the HERALD office in Hollywood (and Bill Weaver, too), Bob Smith of Mission, Zimmerman of San Marcus, Shine Mason of McAllen and J. C. Fanning of Brownsville, Texas, C. J. Hartman of Carnega and Harold Stetmund of Chandler, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. George Moore of Plainwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Musselman of Lincoln, Kan., and oh, gosh, gee whiz, we can't name all of them we ought to go and see.

▽

Probably it would be no use to say anything about it, as you wouldn't believe it anyhow, but when we got home we found that the grasshoppers had cleaned up everything in our garden and had held a mass convention and agreed unanimously to start working on our garage and cement sidewalk. If you doubt it we can prove it, as Uncle Rufus did when he told the boys how much the catfish weighed, and said, "Well, facks am facks and figgers am figgers, so thar you is."

▽

We recently received a letter from Mr. Fox of the Loup theatre at Scotia, Neb., enclosing a check and asking us to have the HERALD sent to him. Thanks, Mr. Fox, we have already done that and it is likely you will receive the HERALD from Denny before Ernie gets this in print.

▽

Last night we went to the Moon theatre and saw "Slave Ship" with Warner Baxter and Wallace Beery. From an historical point of view, this one may have been nearly correct, but we doubt very much if the stockmen from the ranges would have used their cattle as roughly in loading them into box cars for shipment as did these slave traders when lashing human beings into the hold of their ship. It was an exhibition of cruelty that serves no good purpose whatever.

Warner Baxter and Wallace Beery played their parts exceptionally well, but we doubt if either enjoys playing in such cruel roles. Maybe this will be classed as "entertainment," we don't know.

▽

Glory be, the weather has changed for the better. It had to be if it changed at all. Last night it rained pretty nearly all night and today it is nice and cool, which reminds us that it won't be long until we will have to go to buying oil for our heating system. It seems as though we get out of one mudhole just in time to jump into another one, which reminds us of what our sister said once. When she was a little girl she had gone over to a neighbor's to play with their children and when she came home she found that mother had gone to another neighbor's and she began to cry and said, "There, that's just the way it goes: I never get home in time to go any place."

▽

We feel that, pro bono publico, we should stop right here, and no doubt you will agree with us unanimously, for, as we look back over this manuscript, we find, as Bob Burns once said, that we have lost off our two hind wheels.

NOTE. We just got a letter from our old friend, R. R. Winship of the Majestic theatre at Philipsburg, Kan., enclosing his check and asking us to have his subscription to the HERALD renewed. He adds this note: "I certainly would be lost without the HERALD." Yeah, we'd be lost without it, too. Thanks, R. R., for your subscription and your invitation to us to come and see you again. We hope to do it, and when we do we will have some more bologna, and so forth, but in the meantime "Don't give up the ship."

COLONEL J. C. JENKINS
The HERALD's Vagabond Colyumnist

The HERALD covers the FIELD like an Abril SHOWER.

IN THE NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 104, Vol. 19.—Fire sweeps Shanghai as fierce battle continues....Britain's battle fleet stands by in Mediterranean....Memorial to Will Rogers is unveiled in the Rockies....Beauties from all over America bid for "Miss America" crown ....Fashions for the young man and young lady.... Alice Faye and Tony Martin marry....Boat racing ....Tennis....Swimming....Yachting.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 1, Vol. 20.—Malcolm Campbell sets motorboat record....The Old Boys in Blue meet in Madison, Wis....''Miss America'' abdicates to New Jersey home....Society sees Polo Championships....Mrs. Sara Roosevelt....Dorothy Round.... F. D. R., Jr., and wife return....Lew Lehr....Tennis ....Swimming....Football.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 302, Vol. 8.—War in China and "piracy" in Europe bring world crisis.... U. S. speedboat star wins Gold Cup....Pike's Peak champion does it again....Big city's youngsters have a field day....The Woman's Page....The west honors Will Rogers....Summer goes but rodeos linger on.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 303, Vol. 8.—Hail Miss Liberty on 150th birthday of the Constitution.... Fighting Irish tackle the pigskin....Breaks record in final swim meet....Don Budge is world's tennis king ....Beauty queen spurns crown....America's No. 1 honeymooners home....No age limit in ancient bike race.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 11.—Famous Gold Cup remains in America....Duke of Gloucester in polo match....Mrs. Roosevelt becomes assistant to Republican National Chairman....Boy scales Rocky Mountain peaks....Miss Rawls wins four titles in A.A.U. meet....Firemen show tricks, perils of their trade....''Pirate subs'' speed world war crisis.... South's best fight it out under sail....Cops and kids just pals at sports show.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 12—Pedal pushers in 100 mile bicycle race....Civil war veterans march in Madison, Wis.....Young girl gets job as only person authorized to sign President's name....Chinese crews take old U. S. ships....Flanagan sets many marks in national title swim....Traveling Roosevelts come and go....Budge and Lizana take tennis titles....Big football year ahead for Notre Dame, Navy, Army, Georgetown.

PATHE NEWS—No. 15, Vol. 9.—Great Britain speeds battleships to Mediterranean while other European nations prepare....The war in Shanghai....Memorial to Will Rogers....Hats for fall wear....Parade of stars in New York's athletic carnival....Victory for Notre Dame in Gold Cup.

PATHE NEWS—No. 16, Vol. 9.—National tennis champions....Wheeler Dam dedicated....Historical festival....Tumbledown Shantytown....Boys of '61 march again....Commemoration stamps....Cardinal sings mass....150 years of liberty....Gauchos ride again.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 596, Vol. 9.—Refugees helpless in Chinese crisis....Speed keeps Gold Cup here....Police stage star parade.... Unser wins Pikes Peak dash....Beauty wins national crown....Young craftsmen get $20,000....Powder blast removes whale....Record crowd views rodeo.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 597, Vol. 9.—Constitution fetes begin....''Miss America'' takes a walk....Pro gridmen beat All Stars....Argentine four wins match....Budge, Lizana take tennis titles....Boys in blue gather again....Barnyard fowl stepping out....Bike riders race 100 miles.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

NEW EQUIPMENT

ANIMATION, TIME LAPSE AND GENERAL cinema apparatus. E. S. RINALDY, Chester, N. J.

DON'T PUT UP WITH POOR LIGHT. GET THE S. O. S. Super-arc low amperage reflector arc lamp for modern, brilliant projection. Latest tubular type, with giant 10¼ in. Bausch and Lomb elliptical reflector, Westinghouse motor, Weston ammeter, numerous other improvements, and only $147.70. Liberal trades. S. O. S., 636-AL Eleventh Avenue, New York.

GENERAL EQUIPMENT

MIRROROID, SILVER-WHITE SOUND SCREEN (patented). Gives brilliancy, depth, reflection and clarity. Unequalled for Technicolor. FREESE, 147 Water St., Newburgh, N. Y.

CARBON PRICES SHATTERED! WHY BUY elsewhere? 200,000 sets international brand. First quality, guaranteed for beautiful snow white projection. 7/10, $4.85 hundred sets; 8/12, $5.75 hundred sets. 10% discount 1000 sets. Buy a year's supply at these sacrifice prices and save. Bargains in all theatre equipment. S. O. S., 636-AL Eleventh Avenue, New York.

BOOKS

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$3 postage prepaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 736 pages of up-to-the-minute text, charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

A TRIPLE FEATURE AT THE PRICE OF ONE.—3 books, 600 pages, only $1.39, consisting of Sloane's "Motion Picture Projection," Mancall's "Servicing Projection Equipment" and Benson's "Fundamentals of Television." Any one book 49c. Plenty others. Ask S. O. S., 636-AL Eleventh Avenue, New York.

REPAIR SERVICE

GOLD SEAL OR SIMPLEX TICKET REGISTERS rebuilt, factory guaranteed, $15 per unit, including parts. "Loaners" furnished. Details from S. O. S., 636-AL Eleventh Avenue, New York.

FOR RENT

DESK SPACE AVAILABLE FOR PRESS AGENT or public stenographer active in theatrical work. Reasonable rent for complete service. BOX 915A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

USED EQUIPMENT

WHAT A WHALE OF A SALE! IT'S GREATER value month here. Good used Forest rectifiers $24.50, projection lenses, all sizes $4.95 up. Robbins and Meyers ¼ h.p. sync. motors, very fine, worth $45, special $19.95. Morelite, Peerless carbon arcs, from $39.50. Everything advertised actually in stock. S. O. S., 636-AL Eleventh Avenue, New York.

UNUSUAL BARGAINS IN USED OPERA chairs, sound equipment, motion picture machines, screens, spotlights, stereopticons, etc. Projection machines repaired. Catalog H free. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, LTD., 844 So. Wabash Ave., Chicago.

REAL VALUES—QUARTER SIZE LENSES, $10 pair, half size, $32 pair, popular makes, sizes limited; B & H splicers, $3.95; speakers from $7.95; baffles from $5.95; hearing aid amplifiers with monitor speaker and tubes, $15, handles up to 30 seats. Lots more—write now! CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

SACRIFICING—TALKIE AND SILENT—PORTable and theatre projectors, equipment, supplies, etc. Chance lifetime. Lists free. TOM AUSTIN, 470 8th Ave., New York.

THEATRE CHAIRS—1600 PANEL BACK SPRING seat chairs at $1.25, two lots. 1,500 fully upholstered spring seat chairs at $1.65. Photographs sent on request. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., 358 W. 44th Street, New York.

HOW ARE YOUR SEATS? OURS ARE SWELL. 18,000 used veneer and upholstered chairs, refinished, reconditioned, from 75c up. Nationally known makes. List 15M free. S. O. S., 636-AL Eleventh Avenue, New York.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

PROGRESSIVE MANAGERS ATTENTION! WILL operate business profitable to both if tiny room, beside theatre, busy location daily available, confidential. K. O., Box 280, Mansfield, O.

MAN OR WOMAN WITH CAPITAL TO TAKE interest in established story and talent agency. Prefer someone interested in theatrical work. With or without services. State everything in letter for interview with principal. BOX 790A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

TRAINING SCHOOL

THEATRE EMPLOYEES: ADVANCE TO BETter theatre positions. Free booklet shows you how. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington St., Elmira, N. Y.

HELP WANTED

EXPERT REPAIRMAN CAPABLE ASSEMBLING projectors in production. Familiar Simplex and Powers. Position in large middlewest city. Complete qualifications and references first letter. Confidential. BOX 923, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

SALESMEN WANTED IN KEY CITIES BY established reliable firm to handle hot sales proposition to theatres—good for $100 to $150 a week. State qualifications in first letter. BOX 921, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

WANTED TO BUY

8 OR 16 MM. MOVIE CAMERA AND PROJECTOR. Used, but in good condition. Will pay cash. BOX 789A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD

HOLMES PORTABLE EDUCATOR MODEL. BRUCE YEO, Souris, Prince Edward Island.

PAIR SOUNDHEADS FOR POWERS. STATE complete details in first letter. BOX 464, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BEST PRICES PAID FOR RCA SOUNDHEADS, Simplex, Powers projectors, arc lamps, rectifiers, generators, lenses, all equipment. Send list to BOX 924, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITIONS WANTED

PROJECTIONIST DESIRES CHANGE, PREFER California. Good references, experience on Simplex and Western Electric Sound, also Simplex Acme. JOHN DRIGGS, Pine Bluffs, Wyo.

WELL KNOWN THEATRE MANAGER WITH years of experience in all departments of theatre operation desires a new managerial connection immediately. Excellent record and references. Prefer Pennsylvania or New York, but will go anywhere. BOX 919, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MANAGER—MARRIED NOW EMPLOYED wishes permanent connection with modern progressive independent or chain. BOX 922, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

OPERATOR—EXPERIENCED, EFFICIENT, RELiable. Go anywhere. LEE MILLSAP, Mayfield, Ky.

THEATRES

THEATRE AND BUILDING. BEST BUY IN Florida. County seat. Only theatre in county. $10,000 cash, balance five years. BOX 912, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MODERN THEATRE FOR SALE, CONSISTING of two stores and seven offices. Seating capacity 1,450. Fully equipped with Western Electric Sound System. Large stage and dressing-rooms, to produce any stage play. Operating daily, (all year round), and has been, since the first opening, in the year of 1926, formerly managed by the Keith-Albee Amusements Corp. Will sacrifice for quick sale. Terms. UPTOWN THEATRE, Providence, R. I.

FOR SALE. THEATRE IN ANOTHER TOWN. Operating at nice profit. Simplex machines, carbon lamps, upholstered seats, cooling system and new RCA sound. Priced right. Reason for selling, Inquire Odra Shelor, Colchester, Ill.

TRANSLATION SERVICE

WILL MAKE FRENCH AND SPANISH TRANSlation of advertising literature at nominal cost. Can supply complete advertising layout and printing facilities also. Rates quoted upon request if sample submitted. BOX 916A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

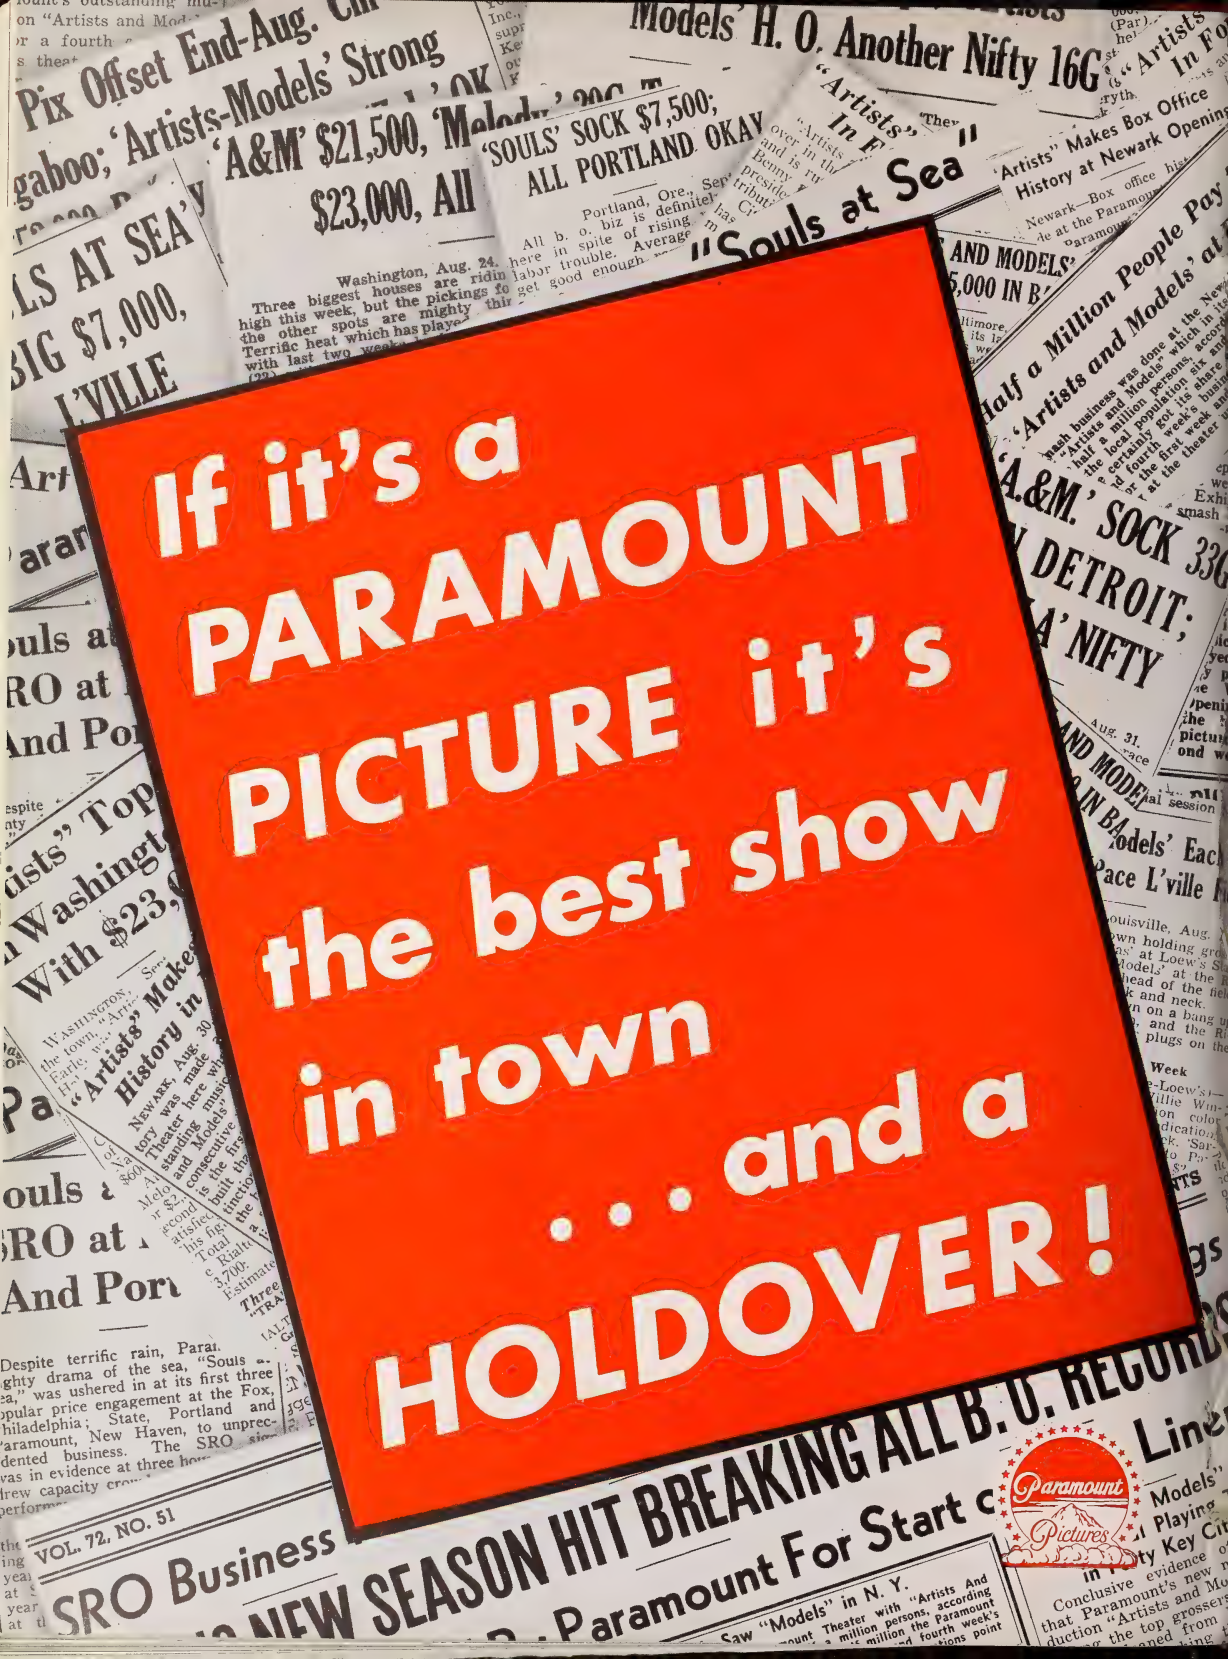
PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

WANTED

BY EVERY MOTION PICTURE PRODUCER!

The producers of Hollywood have joined the exhibitors of America in clamoring for GENE AUTRY, Singing cowboy No. 1 of the screen. They all recognize the box office magic of the AUTRY name. The trade and daily papers have been full of this and that company negotiating for the services of REPUBLIC'S singing-action star.

Despite anything you may read or hear, and to set you straight...GENE AUTRY is under long-term, exclusive contract to REPUBLIC.



If you want the new GENE AUTRY 1937-38 series of Four Jubilee Specials and Four Musical Westerns (and who doesn't!) you can get them, as usual, from

REPUBLIC

4 JUBILEES . . . 4 MUSICAL WESTERNS

CALLING ALL COWBOYS
BOOTS AND SADDLES
ROLL, WAGON, ROLL
The OLD BARN DANCE

PUBLIC COWBOY No. 1
CALGARY OR BUST
SADDLE PALS
MAN from MUSIC MOUNTAIN

If it's a
PARAMOUNT PICTURE it's the best show in town
. . . and a
HOLDOVER!
Paramount
Pictures
Models' H. O. Another Nifty 16G
Pix Offset End-Aug. Cli
gaboo; 'Artists-Models' Strong
'A&M' $21,500, 'Melody' 20G
$23,000, All
'SOULS' SOCK $7,500;
ALL PORTLAND OKAY
"Souls at Sea"
Artists" Makes Box Office
History at Newark Opening
Half a Million People Pay
'Artists and Models' at
'A.&M.' SOCK 33
DETROIT;
A' NIFTY
Washington, Aug. 24.
Three biggest houses are ridin high this week, but the pickings fo the other spots are mighty thi
Terrific heat which has playe with last two weeks
All b. o. biz is definitel here in spite of rising labor trouble. Average get good enough
Portland, Ore., Sep
biz is definitel has Cr
tribut
Despite terrific rain, Para ghty drama of the sea, "Souls a opular price engagement at the Fox, hiladelphia; State, Portland and aramount, New Haven, to unprec-dented business. The SRO vas in evidence at three ho drew capacity cro perform
VOL. 72, NO. 51
SRO Business
NEW SEASON HIT BREAKING ALL B. O. RECORD
Paramount For Start
Saw "Models" in N. Y.
Conclusive evidence that Paramount's new duction "Artists and Mo
the top grosser Models" Playing
Key Ci

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

GUILDS CHALLENGE IATSE HOLLYWOOD CONTROL MOVE

WILBUR AND COUNCIL RENEW FILM ATTACKS

DOUBLES SPLIT EVEN IN THREE SURVEYS

EIGHT YEAR CHART SHOWS RECEIPTS UP

VOL. 128, NO. 13 SEPTEMBER 25, 1937

Entered as second class matter, [illegible], at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publications at [illegible] New York. Subscriptions, $3.00 a year. Single copies, 25 cents.

THE NEW YORK SUN—SEPTEMBER 17, 1937

The New Talkies

Spencer Tracy in a Grand Comedy Drama, 'Big City

By EILEEN CREELMAN.

They don't often have surprise hits out in Hollywood. Only once in a long while does a picture sneak up on Broadway and turn out to be one of the funniest, most likable films of the year. "Big City" is such a film. Yesterday it opened at the Capitol Theater, an unpretentious picture filled with chuckles, thrills and more than a few loud guffaws.

Spencer Tracy and Luise Rainer, each of whom has been outstanding this year in important dramas, "Captains Courageous" and "The Good Earth," are teamed for the first time in "Big City." Mr. Tracy gives his usual steady performance, giving to the role much more than even its authors probably expected. Even with Mr. Tracy in it, "Big City" is not a starring vehicle. This is a writer's film, and a director's. A good cast simply helps matters along, helps quite a bit. But it is the writing and directing that make the picture.

Mr. Tracy plays the American husband of a young immigrant. It gives him a chance for comedy, for tenderness, for a bit of drama

"Big City" has somewhat the flavor of "Lady for a Day." The last two reels are a grand piece of comedy drama hokum, with such celebrated athletes as Jack Dempsey, Jim Jeffries, Jimmy McLarnin and Man Mountain Dean taking part in a hilarious rough-and-tumble fight. They seemed to be having as much fun as the audience.

Frank Borzage, the director, has kept both comedy and drama lively from the opening scene to that last explosive laugh at the finish. The story tells of a quarrel between rival taxi companies, of a murder carried out by one company, of the efforts of the independent taxi owners to protect the immigrant girl, who is framed and accused of the murder. They hide Anna, transferring her from hideout to hideout, while the police rave. That last mad sequence comes just in time to save her from deportation. "Big City" is right at the top for entertainment.

'BIG CITY.'

A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production. Original by Norman Krasna; the producer, Screenplay by Dore Schary and Hugo Butler; Directed by Frank Borzage. At the Capitol. The cast:

Joe Benton	Spencer Tracy
Anna Benton	Luise Rainer
The Mayor	Charley Grapewin
Sophie Sloane	Janet Beecher
Mike Edwards	Eddie Quillan
Paul Roya	Victor Varconi
John C. Andrews	Oscar O'Shea
Lola Johnson	Helen Troy

Jack Dempsey, James J. Jeffries, Jimmy McLarnin, Maxie Rosenbloom, Jim Thorpe, Jackie Fields, Frank Wykoff, Man Mountain Dean, Gus Sonnenberg, Bull Montana, Snowy Baker.

"BIG CITY" BIG BIZ at BIG CAPITOL!

(As we go to press—first three days top the Big Ones!)

beats "Captains Courageous" — "BIG CITY" — "You win!"

tops "Topper" — "BIG CITY" — "And I did swell, too!"

tops "Broadway Melody" — "BIG CITY" — "You got me 'Big City'!"

X marks the spot for more BIG NEWS!

SEE PAGE 53

GOOD?...

It's Perfect!

THE STAR'S PERFECT! It's Flynn's first modern-dress role since 'Green Light'—and twice as romantic!

THE SUPPORT'S PERFECT! Cast your eyes on the supporting talent then add 7 big favorites to the picture's name values!

THE STORY'S PERFECT! By SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS! (He's the author of 'It Happened One Night'!)

THE DIRECTION'S PERFECT! Director MICHAEL CURTIZ at the megaphone that delivered 'Captain Blood' and 'Kid Galahad'!

ERROL FLYNN

in

"THE PERFECT SPECIMEN"

with

JOAN BLONDELL

HUGH HERBERT • EDW. EV. HORTON • DICK FORAN
BEVERLY ROBERTS • MAY ROBSON • ALLEN JENKINS

Screen Play by Norman Reilly Raine, Lawrence Riley, Morse Brewster and Fritz Falkenstein • A First National Picture

ANOTHER PERFECT WARNER MONTH
October

THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA (PAUL MUNI, Gale Sondergaard, Joseph Schildkraut, Henry O'Neill, Erin O'Brien-Moore)

THEY WON'T FORGET (Claude Rains, Gloria Dickson, Edward Norris, Otto Kruger, Lana Turner)

THE PERFECT SPECIMEN

THE GREAT GARRICK (BRIAN AHERNE, OLIVIA de HAVILLAND, Edw. Everett Horton, Melville Cooper, Lionel Atwill, Henry O'Neill)

WEST OF SHANGHAI (BORIS KARLOFF as Wu Yen Fang, Beverly Roberts, Ricardo Cortez, Richard Loo)

'GREAT GARRICK' IS A GREAT JOB!

And it's delivered 3 weeks after 'Zola'– 2 weeks after 'They Won't Forget'–1 week after 'Perfect Specimen'– in October by the Consistent Company--WARNER BROS.

And for the week after that→

FIRST AND 'WAY AHEAD!

BORIS KARLOFF

as General Wu Yen Fang in

"WEST OF SHANGHAI"

with

BEVERLY ROBERTS • RICARDO CORTEZ

Vladimir Sokoloff • Chester Gan • Richard Loo • Luke Chan • Tetsu Komai
Mia Ichioaka • Directed by John Farrow • Story by Porter
Emerson Browne • Screen Play by Crane Wilbur

A First National Picture

美ㄐ里幸!

Which means: vellee fine opportunity for open-eyed managers!

WARNER BROS. Are 'Way Ahead in October!

THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA (PAUL MUNI, Gale Sondergaard, Joseph Schildkraut, Henry O'Neill, Erin O'Brien-Moore)

THEY WON'T FORGET (Claude Rains, Gloria Dickson, Edward Norris, Otto Kruger, Lana Turner)

THE PERFECT SPECIMEN (ERROL FLYNN, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Edw. Ev. Horton, Dick Foran, Beverly Roberts, May Robson, Allen Jenkins)

WEST OF SHANGHAI

THE GREAT GARRICK (BRIAN AHERNE, OLIVIA de HAVILLAND, Edward Everett Horton, Melville Cooper, Lionel Atwill, Henry O'Neill)

NOW IT'S 20TH'S "WIFE, DOCTOR AND NURSE"

Off to smash starts in early engagements. Topping "Wake Up and Live" in Detroit! Leading "Lloyds," "Slave Ship," "Love Is News" in Springfield! Bigger than "Lloyds" in San Francisco! Keep watching for more news! Even bigger news!

LOOK!—

"THIN ICE" HELD OVER IN 162 SITUATIONS

Extended runs have been given "Thin Ice," 20th Century-Fox attraction, in 162 situations during the first three weeks of its release, according to the distributor Saturday. Picture is in its third week in 11 cities and in its second week in 54 towns, with other holdovers ranging from three to four days reported in 87 instances.

Cities in which the production is running a third week are: Pittsburgh, Boston, Baltimore, San Francisco, Los Angeles, (Wilshire and United Artists theaters), Denver, Wilmington, Long Beach, Cal., Seattle and St. Louis. Two week runs so far are as follows: Portland, Me., Portland, Ore., New York, Philadelphia, Providence, Richmond, Kansas City, Indianapolis, Syracuse, Louisville, Miami, Minneapolis, Buffalo, Washington, Atlantic City, Worcester, Akron and San Diego.

From Film Daily

3rd WEEKS, TOO!

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 128, No. 13 — September 25, 1937

TECHNICAL SERVICE

FOR some months there has been a deal of talk and some publication of various reported plans for the passing of the functions of Electrical Research Products, Inc., at least in some measure and manner likely to deprive the motion picture industry of technological research available to it through the Telephone Company since the birth of sound pictures.

The pressures toward a change—if it really should come—have been in all probability more political than commercial. There has been this and that at Washington which may have discouraged the notion of the Telephone Company holding ramifications of interest in the amusement industry.

But entirely apart from such considerations, the industry itself, dependent so acutely upon technological competency, enterprise and service, would not well be served by any arrangement which should subtract the resources and research of the Bell Laboratories.

Conspicuously the motion picture is a user of tools and not a maker of them, an applier of processes and sciences, not a student and researcher. The motion picture's processes, devices and materials, excellent as they are, are subject to continuous improvement and ever will be. For those improvements the picture business must look to such specialized organizations as "Erpi", RCA Photophone, Eastman and Dupont.

Even the invention of the motion picture itself waited upon the arrival of the medium known as film, evolved by George Eastman at Rochester for other purposes. And sound came to the screen as an incident of the Telephone Company's research in the recording and characteristics of human speech for its own purposes in the transportation of talk. Also one is not to forget the contributions of General Electric and Westinghouse, in labors antecedent to Photophone.

The motion picture in the pursuit of its business of purveying entertainment by technological media must ever have contact and association with the great technological corporations.

△ △ △

LOOKING FOR SUGAR

RADIO made one of its most ornamental gestures when Dr. James Rowland Angell, retired president of Yale, was appointed educational counselor of the National Broadcasting Company. The poignant interest of the radio industry in education is one of the more tender and touching manifestations of the electrical age. No one but a damned cynic would venture to think that the vendors of 15 minute chunks of time-space vibration—cigarettes, coffee, laxatives, headache powder and vanishing cream—would be trying to cement their grip on the tenuous ether by a show of good works and lofty intent.

One may be sure that, anyway, erudite Dr. Angell has the intent. But, he faces a problem about the works. He has announced that he is going to Europe to seek methods.

Admittedly though, even a cynic would have sympathy with the radio's bedevilled state, with a continued menace of bureau rule, which might any day decide on the merits of the European pattern of control which makes it there a tool of the government, or send it an assignment of social propaganda like that borne by our own Federal Theatre.

A TOUCH of educational coloration and a blue print of ambitious project promises may be useful for the protection of the commercial and amusement status quo. A Yale banner is strategy.

"Adults do not want to be educated: neither do children," Dr. Angell announces. "Therefore broadcasting, despite the fact that it is a most extraordinary medium, must be sugar coated to be intriguing.

"My impression of radio is that there has been little success in dovetailing the educational programs with the teaching technique of the schools. . .The technique of educational broadcasting must be interesting enough so the listener will not turn off for a jazz band. . ."

One is to be whimsically reminded of the similarly motivated ostensible endeavours to dovetail the amusement screen and education. It is possible the educational dove really has no tail.

Meanwhile no long odds should be asked on the chance that after Dr. Angell gets through pursuing the sugar coating he will have such a Broadway accent that New Haven will not be able to understand him.

△ △ △

ON ALIEN FLAVOURS

WITH a glow of a special sort of joy, Mr. Munroe Greenthal of United Artists has sent up an editorial from the New York Evening Post which remarks:

> If the film, "Dead End", now current in town, had been made by an obscure little European company; if the lighting were poorer, the settings more scraggly, the acting less expert; if it blinked and flickered, the intellectual journals would undoubtedly be raving over it as a masterpiece of cinematographic art.

Somebody on the Post has been reading the reports of the National Board of Review's Exceptional Photoplay Committee.

△ △ △

EDUCATIONAL

JEWEL PRODUCTIONS, Mr. Samuel Cummins, announces a "road show picture" entitled "Love Life of a Gorilla."

Just to make certain that its intent as a social document is adequately appreciated, it is perhaps constructive to quote from a letter to Motion Picture Herald from Mr. Cummins last year, setting forth his program of service, in which he said: "Personally I have never made a sex picture, but I have produced many social hygiene films. . ." Also he remarked: "They are in reality educational films of much benefit to the public. . ."

Is it possible that the problem of trying to relate the screen and education, now puzzling so many astute minds, has been solved by Mr. Cummins? One may suspect it has.

This Week

Guilds and Unions

Creative talent groups in the industry, organized in guilds for collective bargaining, formed a solid bloc in the path of a militant drive undertaken by the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees for control of all organized labor connected with motion picture production. Increasing opposition to the IATSE bid for power was heard from the guilds, led by the Screen Actors, largest and, because of its alliance with Equity, most powerful of the group. Recollection of an accumulation of events before, during and since the Hollywood strike last spring bears importantly on understanding of the present issue.

The troubled situation is explained in its present status and its earlier manifestations in the story starting on page 13.

Collections Drop

Admission tax collections by the federal government in August dropped to the lowest point since May at $1,599,242, it was reported this week by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. The month's collections were nearly $34,000 under the July total of $1,633,088, and about 275,000 under the June high of $1,874,775, but were some $215,000 better than the August, 1936, collections of $1,384,107. For the eight months ended with August, the bureau reported, federal admission tax collections totaled $12,752,344, more than $1,500,000 better than the $11,189,899 collected in the same period last year.

New Musical, Old Rules

"Blossoms on Broadway" will be B. P. Schulberg's contribution to an already existing mass of proof that entertainment, and box office receipts, is still to be conjured from formulate old when Weber and Fields could command any booking.

Gus McCarthy explains the method and analyzes the ingredients in the pictorial preview on page 16.

Allied Views

Allied States Association of Motion Picture Exhibitors of New Jersey assembled in convention in Atlantic City to discuss the sales policies of Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, a proposed merger of the Independent Theatre Owners Association with Allied, and a plan put forward by Abram F. Myers for a film industry code similar to that in operation under the NRA.

The meeting is reported and dates for two others are announced on page 38.

Ruth Roland Dead

Ruth Roland, for years a favorite heroine in death defying serials, died Wednesday in Hollywood after a long illness. Born in San Francisco and educated in Los Angeles, Miss Roland was first on the stage as a child actress, Baby Ruth, one of her first appearances being as Cinderella in a stock company. In 1912 she made her first Ruth Roland serial for motion pictures and it was quickly followed by many others. Her activities in recent years included vaudeville tours for RKO and Fanchon and Marco.

Legion Antics

Legionnaires, taking over New York City this week for the American Legion convention, proved a greater attraction with their street antics than motion picture theatres, with the result that, although there were approximately 500,000 visitors in the city, grosses did not spurt upward, as expected. Newsreel companies took advantage of the event by giving it extensive coverage. Paramount issued two specials on the convention.

Legion activities with respect to theatres are explained on page 21.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Rovelstad, Managing Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, 366 Adelaide Street West, Toronto 2, Ontario, J. A. Cowan, representative. London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W I, Bruce Allan, cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 29, Rue Marsoulan, Paris 12, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-12 Paris; Rome Bureau, via Lovanio I, Rome, Italy, Vittorio Malpassuti, representative, Italcable, Malpassuti, Rome; Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague I, Czechoslovakia, Harry Knopf, representative; Budapest Bureau, 3, Kaplar-u, Budapest, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Shanghai Bureau, 142 Museum Road, Shanghai, China, J. P. Koehler, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, H. Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, K. G. Gidwaney, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, 87 Waalstraat, Amsterdam Z., Holland, Philip de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna VII, Hans Lorant, representative; Chile Bureau, Calle Estado 260, Oficina 306 Santiago de Chile, A. Weissmann, representative; Copenhagen Bureau, Vesterbrogade 20, Copenhagen V, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1937 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Dia, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

Lower Rentals

Something in the nature of a retort, unmistakable even if not direct, is made by British exhibitors to suggestions that they increase charges for admission. Instead, the General Council of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association has decided to press anew for a reduction of rental rates. A special rentals committee was voted by the Council. All of which rubs up against a refusal of the Kinematograph Renters Society to discuss rentals with the CEA. A factor in this impasse, if such it again becomes, is the fact that in previous years, when the CEA has made similar demands, exhibitor members have paid 50 per cent or more for outstanding attractions, in spite of resolutions for a "40 per cent maximum," rather than see competitive theatres get the productions.

Bruce Allan's story on this perennial problem starts on page 39.

Wilbur and Council

The Motion Picture Research Council this week ended two years of dormancy with a new program to "reform" the motion picture, this time aiming its crusade in the direction of "graded" films both for children and for adults, an ambition which the Council hopes to have realized by direct action of the producers, working with "the counsel of educational authorities."

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president, names 24 prominent educators, clergymen, economists, industrialists, politicians to the Council's advisory committee, as reported on page 18.

Increases Ordered

The Commonwealth Amusement Corporation, operating 28 theatres in Missouri and Kansas, ordered admission prices increased "wherever and as fast as possible" at a managers' meeting at Lake of the Ozarks. Tentative increases to test out public reaction were reported satisfactorily received.

The method by which the scales are to be revised is explained in the story on page 21.

Asks Church Support

Support by the church for the motion picture industry's policy of self-government was urged upon the Maine Universalist convention in Bangor by Carl E. Milliken, secretary of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, who emphasized, however, that the industry "confines itself to the business of furnishing wholesome entertainment."

Mr. Milliken is quoted on page 34.

No More Films to Japan

by cable from
TOKIO

September 22.—The Finance Ministry today notified importers of motion pictures that no more pictures would be admitted to Japan this year, with the exception of newsreels, those to be subject to official permits.

It is understood here that in the vaults of Paramount and MGM offices there are now fifty feature dramas available for release, indicating a stock of American film now in Japan sufficient to prevent serious shortages for theatres. Coincidentally, today, after a season of declining attendance the baseball industry announced free admissions from this date to the end of the current season.

The action of the Ministry with respect to foreign film is not officially explained. It is found that official attention has been directed to cabled reports from the Washington preview of the March of Time's Shanghai release, also that Japanese correspondents in New York and Washington have cabled reports to their papers, which reports have not been published.

RKO Report Oct. 14th

The preliminary report of George Alger, special master, on the proposed reorganization plan for RKO, will be ready October 14th, Mr. Alger said last week. A reading of the report will then take place at his office, providing the reorganizers with an opportunity to agree to revisions or recommendations before its final presentation to Federal Judge Bondy for ultimate decision.

See page 26.

Anti-Trust Action

Federal anti-trust court action started this week in Dallas against Interstate Circuit and major distributors, and, at the same time, the Department of Justice promised a "showdown" on California independent exhibitor complaints of unfair trade practices by Fox West Coast circuit and distributors in the Los Angeles territory.

The story is on page 28.

Quality

The proposed English quota would improve the quality of British motion pictures, Stuart Doyle, former managing director of Greater Union Theatres in Australia, said in voicing his opinion that the measure is "equitable." Possible invasion of American companies into British studios does not enter into consideration with respect to the quality of films, Mr. Doyle said.

Mr. Doyle's opinion is included in a story on page 26.

Shanghai Theatres

Shanghai theatres, not affected by recent bombings, are being reopened, the situation having been eased considerably by the retreat of Chinese forces and the presence of more foreign troops, according to J. P. Koehler, MOTION PICTURE HERALD representative in Shanghai. "There should be no thought of abandonment of business or wholesale discharge of experienced staffs," Mr. Koehler advised.

His message is published on page 33.

Editorial	Page 7
Release Chart	Page 75
In the Cutting Room	Page 35
Business Chart	Page 15
Box Office Champions	Page 50
In British Studios	Page 43
In the Courts	Page 28
The Hollywood Scene	Page 27
Technological	Page 66
This Week in Pictures	Page 10
Showmen's Reviews	Page 44
In the Newsreels	Page 85
Managers' Round Table	Page 67
Short Subjects on Broadway	Page 38
Theatre Receipts	Page 58
J. C. Jenkins' Colyum	Page 85
What the Picture Did for Me	Page 63
Productions in Work	Page 62

Sex, Not Education

Socalled "sex" or "clinical" films not only are unjustified generally but they definitely do not contain the "moral lesson" advanced in their support by those exhibiting them, according to Judge Philip Gilliam, in Denver, who this week closed the doors of that city to further exhibition of such pictures. The court praised the industry for its adherence to its own Production Code.

Pennsylvania was embroiled in a censorship argument over the banning of a socalled "political propaganda" film.

Censorship developments are reported on page 34.

Postponed

The American Federation of Musicians, at the request of the advisory committee of the Independent Radio Network Affiliates, has postponed its deadline for the signing of uniform contracts under which the radio industry would double the number of musicians it now employs. Originally the date was set for September 16th, but it now is October 15th. The IRNA is seeking to compile data on which to base a formula for the division of the new labor costs and has mailed letters to all station owners asking them to fill out a questionnaire within 48 hours after receipt.

Excerpts from the letter and the questionnaire are part of a story on page 38.

Goldwyn-Korda-UA

Purchase of United Artists by Samuel Goldwyn and Alexander Korda will be consummated in about three weeks when Mr. Korda arrives in New York from England, David Rose, financial adviser to Mr. Goldwyn, said. A sum of $6,000,000 is said to be required for the purchase of the holdings of Charles Chaplin, Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks in the company. They granted an option last May to Messrs. Goldwyn and Korda for purchase of their UA interests.

Story on page 42.

Double Features

Theatre patrons in Waukegan, Illinois, prefer single features to double bills, according to a poll of audiences conducted there. In the Illinois community the vote was almost two to one against two features while in St. Louis, early returns from a questionnaire distributed in Fanchon & Marco houses showed double features a slight favorite. A third poll, conducted in the Bernstein theatres in England, showed British audiences in favor of double bills.

Results of the various polls are included in a story on page 22.

This Week in Pictures

Commanders of the attacking army, one of the newsreel cameramen who are covering the year's most dramatic and dangerous assignment and a theatre in the beleaguered city, mutely portray the siege of Shanghai. Above are Rear Admiral Denbichi Ogawachi, in charge of the Japanese landing party; Howard Winner, Universal cameraman, and Captain Risabino Fujita. Below is the Capitol theatre, closed indeed "until further notice," ramparted with sandbags and advertising as coming attractions "You Only Live Once" and "Come and Get It."

Newest theatre in Finland is the Kino-Savoy in Helsingfors, a Finnish show window for Paramount. The marquee on opening night, September 1st, advertised "Souls at Sea."

WILLIAM DIETERLE, on vacation after completing the direction of "The Life of Emile Zola" for Warner Brothers, visited central European countries and made an extended stay in Poland. Here he is shown in Warsaw with L. Chrysmana, left, and Dr. B. Jankolowicz, right, Warner publicity director and manager respectively.

An 800 mile trek by caravan across the Sahara sands, made annually by the Touareg tribe in northern Africa to recover salt from ancient mines, becomes dramatically useful in Walter Futter's newly completed picture, "Jericho." With such a background pictorial values, such as the desert scene above, are emphasized in the film. Paul Robeson plays the leading role.

Louis B. Mayer, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vice-president in charge of production, on a business and vacation trip to England and the Continent, was entertained at a luncheon in the Savoy, London, at which his fellow executive, Samuel Eckman, Jr., managing director of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Ltd., was host to 400 political and industry personages. In the picture to the right Alexander Korda, United Artists British partner, is discussing the state of the industry with Lord Lee of Fareham, between courses. Below, the guest of honor is shown signing menu cards while Mr. Eckman, the host, stands at his left.

Annabella, English and Continental star for whom Twentieth Century-Fox has ambitious plans, as she appears in "Dinner at the Ritz," recently completed Robert T. Kane production made at Denham Studios.

Ed Thorgersen, sports commentator for Twentieth Century-Fox's Movietone News, has climbed from newsreels and short features to full length pictures. He is cast as a radio commentator in "Life Begins in College," a role in which, in real life, he began his entertainment career.

Knowing the testimony of his guide, left, his two sons and himself would not convince his friends of the authenticity of a 575 pound tuna, Al Young, of DuArt Laboratories, took the precaution of having this picture taken at the conclusion of a recent fishing trip to Nova Scotia.

GUILDS CHALLENGE IATSE'S MOVE TO CONTROL STUDIOS

Rift That Started Before Production Strike Last Spring Widens as Bioff Launches "One Big Union" Drive

Organized creative talent groups in the industry, headed by the Screen Actors' Guild which only last May obtained 10 year contracts with studios as collective bargaining agent for its 10,000 members, have joined in growing opposition to the announced claim of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees to union jurisdiction over employees in every branch of motion picture production.

Examination of the trend of the labor organization drive in Hollywood indicated that the rift had its inception before and during the production strike last spring and was latent even in reports later in the summer of a proposed affiliation of all organized labor in the motion picture, stage and radio industries.

The break in the friendly, even paternal, relationship between the IATSE and the Screen Actors' and other guilds and white collar unions can be explained as a step in the struggle for ultimate control of an association of all employee groups in the film, radio and theatrical fields toward which labor developments in these industries have been pointing. The IATSE, at present engaged in a militant drive for such an association, which in effect would be vertical unionism, is an American Federation of labor affiliate, as are the other factions in the issue.

Following the IATSE ultimatum of last week, phrased in a letter to producers from William Bioff, representing George Browne, International president, opposition to the move grew under the leadership of the professional guilds. The three major organizations, the Screen Actors, Directors and Writers, issued a joint statement denying the IATSE's right to speak for them and asserting that they would continue to act as sole bargaining agencies for their members.

Talent Groups Aligned

Aligned with the guilds were nearly all talent groups including six organizations formed during and since the strike, the Society of Motion Picture Sketch Artists and Illustrators, Society of Motion Picture Film Editors, Motion Picture Art Directors' Society, Society of Motion Picture Set Designers, Society of Motion Picture Interior Decorators, and the Society of Motion Picture Script Clerks.

Producer action on the IATSE bid for unlimited power and on its demand that all pictures bear the union emblem, "in order to insure projection of the prints throughout the country" by IATSE projectionists, was postponed after a conference between Mr. Bioff and studio representatives pending the return to Hollywood of Louis B. Mayer and Joseph M. Schenck, who have been leaders in labor negotiations on the Coast. Following the conference, called immediately after producers received the IATSE letter claiming jurisdiction over all workers in production from janitors to directors, Mr. Bioff said:

"We are immediately proceeding with the organization of film editors, cutters and assistants, music librarians, wardrobe makers and workers, tailors and handlers, gardeners, janitors, watchmen, firemen, policemen and Moviola operators, which will keep us busy until the arrival of Mr. Schenck, Mr. Mayer and other studio executives, at which time we will follow through with our organization program to include within our ranks every branch in the production of motion pictures."

Claims 95% of Fields

The boards of the actors', directors' and writers' guilds, in their joint statement declaring their intention of continuing to determine their own policies, said:

"These three guilds include in their membership more than 95 per cent of the active workers in their various fields. They are organizations designated by the workers as exclusive bargaining agencies in their respective fields to coordinate their activities and assist and protect their mutual interests. Whether or not Mr. Bioff has been quoted correctly, we are not informed. We trust that he has not been, for there is no substantial body of directors, assistant directors, unit managers, writers or actors for whom he could be said to be spokesman. For all these employees the guilds have been formed and will continue to act. They will continue to determine their own policies and guide their actions accordingly."

Fight Threatened

Aubrey Blair, executive secretary of the Junior Screen Actors' Guild, at a meeting of junior guild extras and bit players in Hollywood this week, said: "The Screen Actors' Guild will do everything in its power to avoid a fight with the IATSE but if a fight comes the IA will start it and the guild will finish it."

Officers of theatrical unions in the east professed great surprise at the IATSE attack but refused any statements other than a general expression of opinion that the whole matter was an outgrowth of minor disputes and would be settled soon. It was pointed out hopefully that George Browne, International president, has not entered the controversy with any statement. Frank Gillmore, president of the Associated Artists and Artistes of America, rejuvenated central control for the Screen Actors' Guild, Actors' Equity, Chorus Equity and Radio Equity, left for California by boat last week for an extended vacation.

Mr. Bioff had no comment to make on the stand taken by the guilds. After publication of the joint statement he said the IA had enrolled 2,000 members among the minor workers since the announcement of the jurisdictional claim and that in accordance with a telephoned request from Mr. Schenck the organization of creative talent would be postponed until further discussion with the producers. The IA executives deplored craft organization as constituted at present outside his group and said many unions have failed to obtain either agreements or satisfactory conditions with producers after many efforts. The IATSE, after observing their feeble efforts, he said, was now living up to its charter in claiming every craft in the production of films.

Forces Active Many Months

The IATSE announcement and the subsequent expressions of determined opposition from the professional guilds were unexpected and were regarded in most quarters, including the daily press, as the beginning of a jurisdictional fight which might prove the most serious labor difficulty ever encountered in any industry which has been singularly free of such trouble.

During and since the studio strike in Hollywood last spring which for six weeks occupied newspaper headlines and supplied endless material for art editors, the IATSE has followed a policy of absorption of most of the unions concerned, winning the allegiance of several by helping them to obtain producer agreements and lending material aid in the organization of others. The Alliance, in fact, was an important factor in the settlement of the strike itself, its influence having led to the dissolution of Federated Motion Picture Crafts, the loose association of the striking unions.

Most important of the IATSE's moves in the strike, however, was its support of the Screen Actors' Guild in that group's fight for producer contracts. Within a week after the first walkout, when the success of the strike apparently depended on action to be taken by the Guild, Mr. Bioff announced the wholehearted support of the IATSE for the actors' demands. The next evening at a general Guild meeting signing of the contract by five studios was announced and a strike call was averted. The rest of the studios followed in short order.

Since the strike the most important of the unions concerned in it have either voted for affiliation with the IATSE or have indicated that they would do so. The Associated Motion Picture Costumers only last week voted to surrender its own AFL charter and enter the IATSE. The make-up men and scenic artists locals of the International Brotherhod of Painters voted a month ago to leave that organization and were accepted into the IA group after apologizing for "slurs and innuendoes" they made against it during the strike. The Studio Utility Workers, one of the original Federated

(Continued on following page)

THEATRE UNION IGNORED BY CIO

Because the Committee for Industrial Organization refused to grant it a charter the United Theatrical Workers Union which recently signed agreements covering janitors, ushers, cashiers and doormen of 14 independent theatres in Milwaukee has voted to disband, according to Gale Dexter, business agent. Gunnar Mickelsen, CIO director for Wisconsin, said the failure to grant a charter was in line with the national organization's policy of not entering fields well organized by the American Federation of Labor.

In spite of this policy the Empire State Projectionists Union, New York City rival of Local 306, Motion Picture Machine Operators, an AFL affiliate, has made application for a CIO charter and is awaiting a decision.

UNION RIVALRY FLARES ON COAST

(Continued from preceding page)

Crafts groups on strike, has an agreement on wage scales and working conditions, but the field is limited merely to construction work, the union having lost about half its membership to the IA in the jurisdictional dispute which arose during the strike. The IA aided the union in getting its agreement.

Actors' Guild Strength

Paralleling this extension of IATSE jurisdiction has been a development of strength by the Screen Actors' Guild, accentuated after the revival of the Associated Artists and Artistes of America as a central bureau for all stage talent in the motion picture, stage and radio fields. Of the four guilds which comprise this unit, designed to bring all actors and actresses under a single labor affiliation, the Screen Actors group, with its 10,000 members, is the largest and most powerful.

Shortly before this development but after the strength of the Screen Actors' Guild became evident, a minor jurisdictional dispute arose between the Guild and the IATSE. The International strongly protested the suspension of Mrs. Jane Tallent by the Guild for having worked in a studio make-up department during the strike. Mrs. Tallent held a card in the IATSE make-up workers union, members of which did not accompany their fellow workers in the walkout, as well as a Guild card. The Actors ignored the protest.

Early in August it was reported that Kenneth Thomson, executive secretary of the Screen Actors' Guild and Mr. Browne were discussing plans for a working agreement between all AFL theatre unions which would link all organized workers in the amusement industries in a cooperative organization. The actors' group in Associated Artists and the Screen Actors in particular had already moved in this direction through tentative conversations with the American Federation of Musicians and through aid offered screen writers and directors in organizing their guilds. Following publication of these reports, however, there was no further word on the project until the IATSE last week made the blunt claim of jurisdiction over all labor in the motion picture industry.

Bargaining Underway

Units in both factions of the major jurisdictional dispute are beset with bargaining and negotiation difficulties. The Screen Directors' Guild this week was told by the producers to take the issue of collective bargaining for its members either to the Regional Labor Board or the courts, studio representatives reiterating their stand that they would not deal with the Guild as an agency for directors and assistants and unit managers. The Guild previously had refused to dissolve itself into two organizations, one for directors and one for assistants and unit managers.

The writers' field is split in two factions, Screen Playwrights and Screen Writers' Guild with the Guild's petition for designation as the sole collective bargaining agency set for hearing before the Labor Board September 27th. Also before the Labor Board are petitions of the Societies of Motion Picture Art Directors, Artists and Illustrators and Set Designers, all covering crafts claimed by the Scenic Artists local which is now an IATSE affiliate. The Society of Film Editors is carrying on bargaining conferences with the producers, having rejected the first proposal on wages and working conditions made by the studios.

The Screen Actors' Guild declared its closed shop provisions in effect in eastern studios Monday as scheduled, but with three important producers still not signatories to the Guild contract, March of Time, Educational and Mentone. Educational was granted several additional days in which to discuss objections to the contract which Mr. Thomson after it was promised that the company would comply with provisions of the contract.

Florence Marston, eastern secretary of the Guild, said no action was being taken against Mentone and March of Time other than to inform Guild members and cooperating talent unions that the two companies have not signed a contract. This means, Mrs. Marston said, that union actors will refuse to work in those studios.

Laboratory Agreements Asked

Film laboratories in Hollywood not now having IATSE contracts were notified this week that they must sign closed shop agreements and grant a 35 per cent wage increase to employees within 10 days. The IA already has agreements with Technicolor and Consolidated. Affected by the new demand are Cinecolor, International Cinema, Dunning Color, National Screen Service, Williams Shots, Western Film and Pacific Title.

Seven Theatres Gassed

Combination tear gas and stench bombs were exploded in seven New York theatres on Monday night injuring 14 persons. For four of the theatres it was the second attack within eight days. Police and county district attorneys have been investigating these and the previous bombings in which 50 persons were injured in simultaneous attacks in 21 theatres, but no arrests have been made. On Tuesday Mayor F. H. LaGuardia offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to the indictment of persons responsible for the bombings.

All the theatres attacked Monday are units of the Cocalis circuit, which, according to Samuel D. Cocalis, employs projectionists of the Empire Union, an independent group. Although all the houses were forced to interrupt their shows briefly none closed for the night.

After weeks of negotiation major circuit heads and Local 306 of the Motion Picture Machine Operators union reached a tentative agreement in New York this week under which projectionists receive a 10 per cent increase, retroactive to September 1st. Further discussions will be held on the scale which is to prevail for the next two years. Under the agreement projectionists who have been receiving $1.86 an hour will receive $2.04.

ACTORS VINDICATED IN WPA WALKOUT

Five members of Actors Equity who had received suspended fines of $50 each for failure to obey orders against participating in a strike on a WPA theatre project last May won vindication on appeal from the council's rulings at the quarterly membership meeting in New York last week. Five of the approximately 50 members tried and convicted by the council brought the appeals to the membership but since all the cases involved identical charges the membership's action was regarded as applicable to those who did not appeal.

MEET UNION, BRITISH EXHIBITORS ADVISED

The Council of the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association has recommended to all branches of the association that they accede to any requests made for conferences by the National Association of Theatrical Employees. A copy of the London Branch's agreement with the union is also being circulated. In many districts there has been a policy of non-recognition of trade unions.

Loew's Summer Business Exceeds Last Year's

Business for Loew's, Inc., for the summer quarter just closed exceeded that for the same period last year, the forthcoming financial report for the period is expected to show. The circuit's new policy of releasing important pictures during the warm weather is the reason advanced for the gain.

Discussion has been taking place regarding refinancing of Loew's 136,722 shares of $6.50 preferred, but no decision has been reached yet.

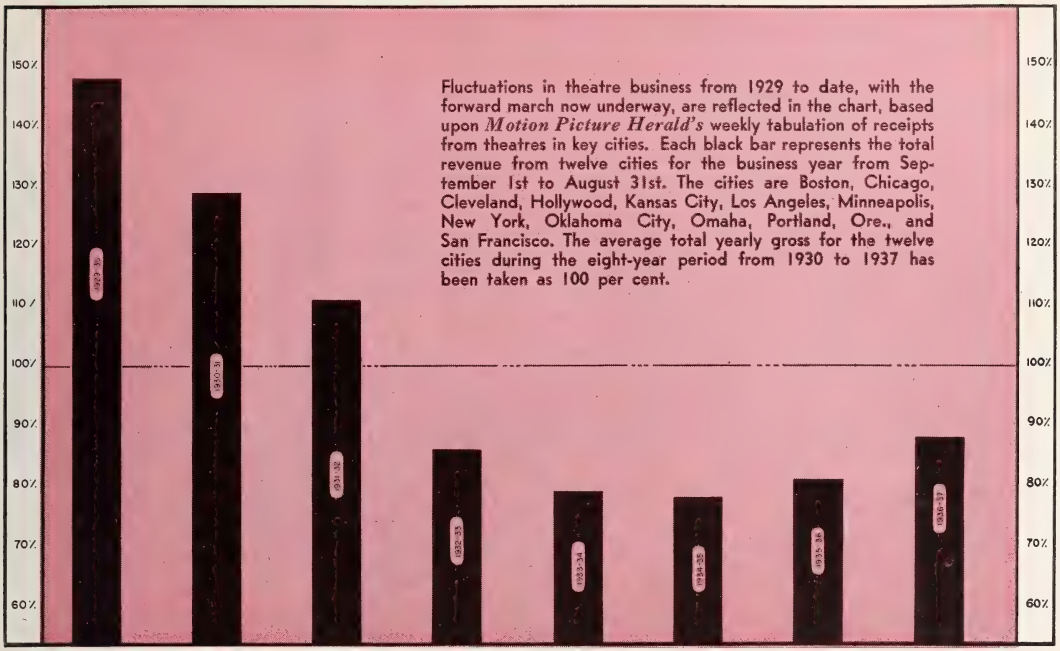
Empire-Canadian Merger In Offing, Says Nathanson

Empire Films, Ltd., will absorb Canadian Universal distribution "shortly now," according to N. L. Nathanson, who recently purchased large holdings in Canadian Universal.

The merger has been anticipated since conclusion of the Nathanson-Canadian Universal deal.

Warner-Lightman Deal Practically Set

Conclusion of the deal under which Malco Theatres of Memphis will take over 10 Warner theatres is expected within the next 10 days, M. A. Lightman, president of Malco, said in Cincinnati this week.



Included in the deal are two theatres in Danville which Mr. Lightman plans to combine with a group he now operates for Paramount.

Murphy Assigned to New York

William T. Murphy, sales representative in lower New England for Electrical Research Products, Inc., has been transferred to the New York Metropolitan area to succeed Robert Horn, who died recently. Erpi has announced 51 contracts have been signed for the installation of new Mirrophonic equipment during the last three weeks.

Lewellyn Miller, who has been editing Screen Play in Hollywood, is now in New York, editing for Hollywood Magazine.

THEATRE RECEIPTS MOVE UP

MGM Calls Radio Show Theatre Aid

Protection of its stars on the air and benefit to motion picture exhibitors were characterized this week as the motives behind MGM's radio show, for which General Foods has signed, starting November 4th, by Louis K. Sidney, head of Loew-owned WHN. Mr. Sidney discussed the new radio tieup on his return from a three-week vacation abroad.

"We want to see that our stars get the right material so that it will not only help them, but the exhibitor as well when he plays our pictures," Mr. Sidney said.

"The idea is to help exhibitors. There's no profit in the show for us. It's an exploitation proposition. Maybe we can develop new personalities which will benefit exhibitors as well as ourselves."

"With a few exceptions, like Greta Garbo and Norma Shearer," Mr. Sidney continued, "we have the right to cast our players in radio shows. The film contracts have a clause to this effect."

Confessing unfamiliarity with the terms of the contract, Mr. Sidney said that the weekly price was $20,000 and that Bill Bacher, who produced "Showboat" and "Hollywood Hotel" on the air, would be in charge.

At the same time RKO signed Frank Healy for a position similar to one Mr. Bacher will have with MGM. Mr. Healy, formerly a publicity man for the National Broadcasting Company and now with the Helen Ferguson publicity office, will start next week as radio contact man for RKO.

Mr. Healy's job will be to correlate all air activities, promote music over the air, work out broadcast schedules for RKO stars so as not to interfere with their film activities and to set special programs.

Exhibitor benefit of the new MGM show was also expressed by Walter Vincent, of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners committee.

"The disclosure of the plot and substance of a new picture, as has been done on the air time and time again, is the major evil of film broadcasts to most exhibitors," said Mr. Vincent.

Describing the air program as "helpful to the industry and to theatres," Mr. Vincent said that "it is inconceivable that the company would jeopardize the earning power of its own pictures and theatres" for the $20,000 weekly fee.

The starting date, November 4th, was confirmed Wednesday when it was announced the program would be broadcast over the NBC red network on Thursday nights from 9 to 10 o'clock.

Council Prepares Handbook On Types of Sound Track

A technical handbook, illustrating the ten different kinds of sound track now being used by the studios for release prints, has been prepared by the Research Council committee on standardization of theatre sound projection equipment, of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Revoke Permit for Residence Theatre

Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora revoked last week a permit granted by the Board of Standards and Appeals for the erection of motion picture theatre at Lexington Avenue and 77th Street, New York, fashionable residential district. In upholding the objection brought against the theatre, Justice Pecora said that the Board has exceeded its powers, violated zoning laws and acted contrary to public policy.

Erection of the theatre was opposed by the Ardsley Garage, whose property adjoins the site; Lenox Hill Hospital, also neighboring, and St. Anne's Academy, whose dormitory would face one of the entrances to the proposed theatre.

Application for the permit was made by William I. Hohauser, representing Marie E. Hart and the estate of Martha L. Rutherford, prospective owners.

Their original application was denied by the Manhattan Building Commissioner and later granted by the Board of Standards. The objectors then appealed to Justice Pecora.

Snook Named Assistant Treasurer

Homes B. Snook, in charge of Photophone's credit department since 1932, has been appointed assistant treasurer of RCA Manufacturing Company.

"BLOSSOMS" BASED ON

A HERALD PICTORIAL PREVIEW

by GUS McCARTHY
in Hollywood

SEVERAL months ago B. P. Schulberg decided to make a musical comedy. With wisdom acquired during long years of association with the manufacture of all forms of entertainment, he didn't, immediately, hire a lot of persons or build acres of sets. He didn't buy pages of advertising suggesting that exhibitors forget everything else and close their houses until his show came along. Unlike many of his contemporaries, neither did he succumb to the opiate of quick enthusiasm. Strange as it seems, in Hollywood, he analyzed his subject.

He made a comprehensive study of the scope of film musicals; learned that such films were dominating box offices everywhere. He found these musicals, generally, fashioned to a hackneyed pattern. He became convinced that such pictures could not retain their popularity indefinitely unless new ideas were injected into them and new methods of presenting those ideas were evolved.

Neither Mr. Schulberg's discoveries nor his conclusions are startling news. The fact that someone is going to do something about them, and how, is news. "Blossoms on Broadway" is practically completed. Not much has been heard about it. A one-time publicity man, the producer realizes the value of allowing persons to speculate. Yet, amidst rumors, some things are known. One is that Paramount executives, upon viewing early footage, allotted Mr. Schulberg a few extra hundred thousands of dollars with which to develop his ideas to the limit. And, if bona fide rumor is to be credited, "Blossoms" may be expected to recast the art, technique and, more importantly ,the audience entertainment value of musicals.

If it is surprising that something is going to be done about achieving the effect of newness in musicals, it should be more surprising to know that, actually, Mr. Schulberg isn't attempting anything radically new. Approaching his problem objectively, he is simply depending upon the worth of fundamentals; blending into his picture in an intelligent manner, so as to cause them to be unique, those proved elements which are recognized as the essence of desirable eye and ear entertainment.

To that end he has rounded up the finest talent available—histrionic, literary, musical, technical and directoral.

Along with Weber and Fields, those comedians whom our ancestors knew would always roll them in the aisles, the important persons in the picture will be Edward Arnold, direct from "Easy Living," Shirley Ross, John Trent, William Frawley, Frank Craven, Kitty Kelly, John Arthur, Edward Brophy, the Radio Rogues, Charles Halton and Frederick Clarke.

Theodore Reeves put the story idea on paper. Richard Wallace, who made "John Meade's Woman" and "Wedding Present," was assigned to direct. Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger contributed the music and lyrics of a song, as did Phil Botelje and Ralph Freed. Two numbers are credited to Frank Loesser and Manning Sherwin.

In theme, the photoplay is farce comedy with music, the kind that prevailed in the Weber and Fields heyday. Its sole purpose is to amuse. If it has an aesthetic value it probably is to prove that nothing more extraordinary than a well planned application of reliable standbys is required to make popular entertainment. The whole composition of the production—dialogue, situations, characterizations, music, embellishment—is being pointed to prove that good comedy always is appreciated.

Among the production's several unusual features should be the musical finale. To be presented in Gilbert and Sullivan style, the dialogue has been set to music and meter and the whole cast participates in the lyrical denouement. This has been done before. Another is an operatic burlesque, involving all principals and support, in which, as stills reproduced here may suggest, a statuary frieze of girls becomes animate. It may be recalled that this bit of film trickery was a feature of "Night Life of the Gods."

MUSICAL FUNDAMENTALS

As a matter of fact, about the only radical thing Mr. Schulberg is doing in this picture is endeavoring to demonstrate that the old stuff is still good stuff. Many who have been lamenting the passing of the vaudeville stage, meanwhile failing to take a census of the old vaudevillians currently employed in pictures, from Jack Benny down to the latest ventriloquistic sensation, are beginning to understand that innovations are not always required. Maybe Mr. Schulberg is correct in his conception that the primary purpose and function of the motion picture is to entertain. Others hold to the same theory. The public will have its opportunity to have a say in the matter in the days following November 15th.

WILBUR AND COUNCIL UP AGAIN WITH NEW PROGRAM FOR FILM "REFORMS"

Drive Pointed Toward Production of Films Especially for Children and Other Pictures Barring Juveniles

The Motion Picture Research Council, virtually dormant since 1935, this week resurrected its anti-industry crusade with an announcement from Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, now national president, in San Francisco, that rejuvenated aims of the Council are being pointed toward a campaign for motion pictures produced especially for children, and motion pictures for adults from which youngsters and adolescents will be excluded.

The Council received some attention in 1934 and 1935 through its "headline" commands to and demands on the trade for reforms in trade practices, ranging all the way from the regulation of producers at the source of filming in Hollywood to the abolition of block booking by distributors in their exchanges.

The Council had an unfruitful but stormy career, which ended in 1935 with the unexpected death of Dr. William Harrison Short, prime Council sponsor. During its two years, much effort was expended in attempting to influence socially and otherwise prominent women to serve in its presidency.

Among those who served but short terms were the late John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton University; Mrs. August Belmont, of the Social Register; A. Lawrence Lowell, president emeritus of Harvard University; Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of the President, and others, reputedly selected for their ability to strengthen the Council's financial position.

At the outset, 22 important civic and educational groups were named by Dr. Short as having intimated commitments to the Council's program, but they denied any interest and refused to support the campaign. Finally, the Council was stymied by the coincident rise of the Legion of Decency.

Since headquarters were transferred from New York to California, in 1935, after Dr. Short's demise, occasional signs of Council life could be discerned in the vicinity of San Francisco, but not until this week had there been any definite indication that the organization's activities would be resumed seriously.

Now, Dr. Wilbur issues the challenge that "producers, with the counsel of educational authorities"—presumably the Research Council—should develop "some form of grading pictures as to quality, suitability to juvenile audiences and so on." Dr. Wilbur's official statement makes no reference to just such gradings which the Legion of Decency has been continuing since 1935, designating films considered as suitable for general patronage, or for adults, besides designating other films as objectionable in part, or, condemned.

The Council aims to effect its campaign by promoting "the principle of community control of our movie fare through the elimination of compulsory block booking and blind selling," declared Dr. Wilbur. This is no new ambition of the Council, for it has been a supporter of the Neely-Pettengill anti-block booking Congressional proposal since its inception, receiving the support of Allied States Association of Exhibitors in this connection.

Evidently the Research Council still believes that enactment of the measure would effect "local supervision of motion pictures," which Dr. Wilbur now declares to be "quite as essential as local support of the public school," and necessary for the success of the Council's rejuvenated program.

Declaring that, "enactment of this (Neely-Pettengill) measure would free the neighborhood and small-town exhibitor from domination by the film industry and enable him to respond to pressure from community groups who want better movies for adults and children"—an old "war-cry" of the Council—Dr. Wilbur set forth the organization's new program in seven points, as follows:

1. Recognition of the amusement film as an influence coequal with the home, school and church in the development of the child and adolescent.

2. Recognition of the consequent necessity to differentiate between child and adult entertainment, and to urge the proper classification of motion pictures accordingly.

3. Recognition that film entertainment of the child and adolescent should be under the supervision of educational authorities, and that the admission of children and adolescents to motion pictures should be limited to those suitable for them.

4. Education of the public to a realization of the vital significance of the motion picture to American youth.

5. Community selection of films through the elimination of compulsory block booking and blind selling.

6. Further research into the problem of the motion picture in relation to the child and adolescent.

7. Development of the motion picture as a socially constructive force.

"The United States is one of the few countries where young people are admitted to the movies without any restriction," he asserted. "Most countries follow the principle of admitting children to motion pictures only when the films to be shown are passed by some competent authority as being suitable for them," he added, intimating that the Research Council, because of its Payne Fund Studies on Motion Pictures and Youth, might be that "competent authority."

Dr. Wilbur declares that the Council decidedly frowns on any federal or state censorship regulation, yet, he admits, it strongly favors federal regulation through laws governing the manner and method by which the industry conducts its buying and selling.

"Prominent California educators on the board of directors of the Council are Dr. Einar W. Jacobson, superintendent of public schools in Oakland; Dean William Webb Kemp, of the College of Education of the University of California, and Professor Claude A. Schull of State Teachers College," according to Dr. Wilbur.

The "National Advisory Committee," as named this week by Dr. Wilbur—each member presumably committed to work for the Council's revived program for film "reforms," is constituted as follows:

HENRY R. ATKINSON.

WERRETT WALLACE CHARTERS, Ohio educator and professor in the bureau of educational research both at Ohio University and Stephens College; author of numerous books and bulletins on the technical phases of education.

DR. FLORA J. COOKE, educator.

DR. EDGAR DALE, educator.

DR. JOHN HUSTON FINLEY, formerly president of Knox College, College of City of New York and associate editor of the New York Times since 1921; an educator and author.

ARTHUR BUTLER GRAHAM, lawyer in New York frequently identified with legal aspects of the motion picture.

ALANSON BIGELOW HOUGHTON, chairman of the board of the Corning Glass Works, a director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Republican Presidential Elector, former United States Congressman and Ambassador to Germany and to Great Britain.

DR. HERBERT SHERMAN HOUSTON, former publisher of Spanish Edition of World's Work and of Our World; president Cosmos Newspaper Service; director or member of League to Enforce Peace, Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, National Crusade Against Illiteracy; author on warfare and international problems.

DR. EDWIN AUGUSTUS LEE, educator, professor, school executive, lecturer; editor of vocational texts for McGraw-Hill Book Company; superintendent of schools in San Francisco; author of educational texts.

VANCE CRISWELL MCCORMICK, publisher, The Patriot (morning newspaper) and Evening News, Harrisburg, Pa., former city councilman, mayor and gubernatorial candidate in Pennsylvania; director of the Federal Reserve Bank.

DR. WESLEY CLAIR MITCHELL, economist; professor in economics in numerous colleges; author on economy.

KATHLEEN NORRIS, author.

EDWARD L. PARSONS, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, San Francisco.

DR. MALCOLM PEABODY.

DR. FREDERICK PETERSON, neurologist and toxicologist, New York.

MONSIGNOR CHARLES A. RAMM, St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco; Regent of the University of California.

MRS. A. H. REEVE.

RABBI IRVING F. REICHERT, president, B'nai B'rith, California.

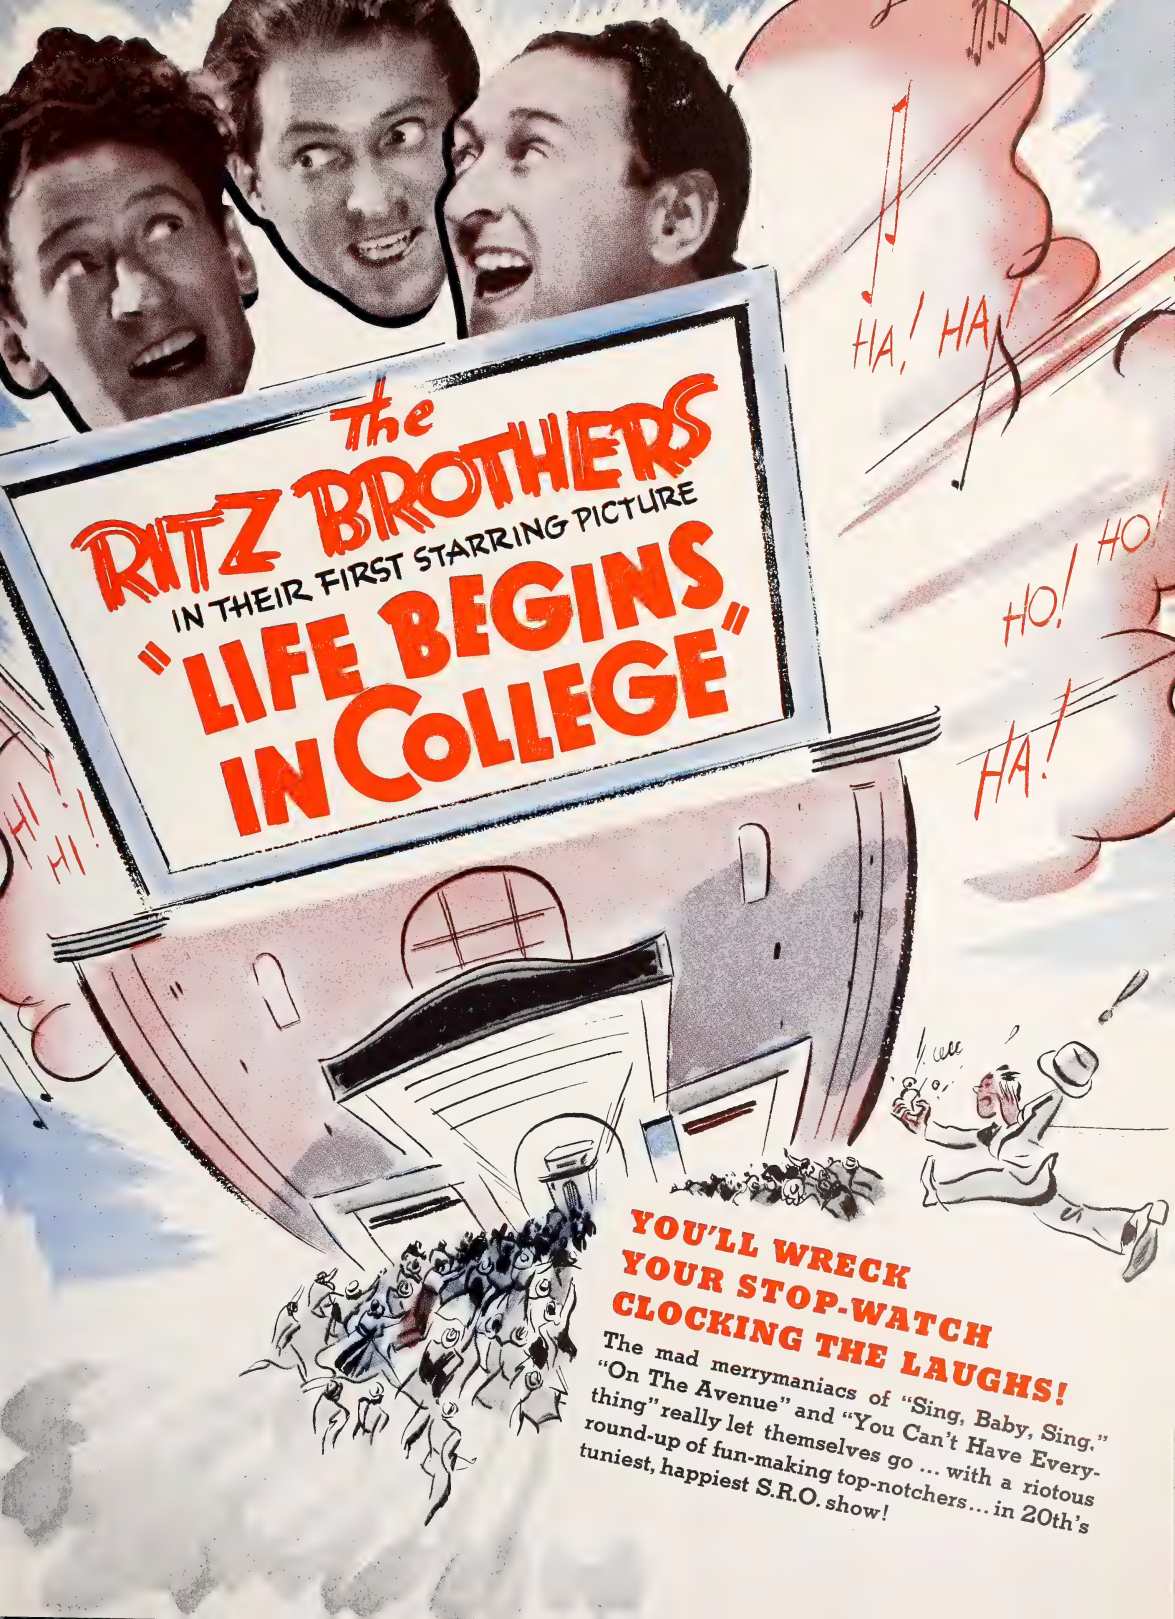
DR. AURELIA HENRY REINHARDT, president, Mills College, Oakland, Cal.; editor, author.

DR. EDWIN ROBERT ANDERSON SELIGMAN, international authority on economics; writer and teacher of economics.

REVEREND GUY EMERY SHIPLER, clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church; editor and author, Chatham, N. J.

DR. MIRIAM VAN WATERS, social worker, Framingham, Mass.; vice-president of the International Association of Juvenile Court Magistrates.

DR. BENJAMIN D. WOOD.



MRS. STANLEY P. WOODWARD.

DR. GEORGE F. ZOOK, educator, college professor and president and chairman of the American Council on Education.

MAY ROBSON FETES 54TH YEAR ACTING

May Robson, character actress, last Friday celebrated her 54th anniversary as a stage and screen actress. She made her initial appearance in "The Hoop of Gold", in Sydney, Australia, on September 17, 1883.

At present, Miss Robson is playing Aunt Polly in "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer", being produced by Selznick International Pictures for release through United Artists.

The
RITZ BROTHERS
IN THEIR FIRST STARRING PICTURE
"LIFE BEGINS IN COLLEGE"
HA! HA!
HO! HO!
HA!
HI! HI!
YOU'LL WRECK YOUR STOP-WATCH CLOCKING THE LAUGHS!
The mad merrymaniacs of "Sing, Baby, Sing," "On The Avenue" and "You Can't Have Everything" really let themselves go ... with a riotous round-up of fun-making top-notchers... in 20th's tuniest, happiest S.R.O. show!

IT'S A 3-RITZ CIRCUS . . . WITH A DOZEN SPLIT-YOUR-SIDE SHOWS!

Singing, stepping! Laughing, loving! Beauties, cuties! Joan Davis, slappy-go-lucky songstress of "Thin Ice"! Football more screwball than in "Pigskin Parade"! Brimming with that flair and flash that make 20th's musicals show world's extra-time sensations!

The RITZ BROTHERS in LIFE BEGINS IN COLLEGE

with this grand and glo-roarious entertainment cast

JOAN DAVIS
TONY MARTIN
GLORIA STUART
FRED STONE • NAT PENDLETON
DICK BALDWIN • JOAN MARSH
DIXIE DUNBAR • ED THORGERSEN
JED PROUTY • MAURICE CASS
MARJORIE WEAVER • J. C. NUGENT

Directed by WILLIAM A. SEITER

Associate Producer Harold Wilson. Screen play by Karl Tunberg and Don Ettlinger. Suggested by a series of stories by Darrell Ware. Ritz Brothers material and numbers by Sidney Kuller, Ray Golden and Samuel Pokrass. Dances staged by Nick Castle and Geneva Sawyer.

DARRYL F. ZANUCK in Charge of Production

5 zippy Pollack & Mitchell Hits:

"Why Talk About Love?"
"Big Chief Swing It"
"The Rhumba Goes Collegiate"
"Our Team Is On The Warpath"
"Fair Lombardy"
—and "Sweet Varsity Sue"
by Charles Tobias, Al Lewis and Murray Mencher

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

PRINTED IN U. S. A.

LEGIONNAIRES' STREET SHOWS TOO MUCH FOR BROADWAY THEATRES

Veterans' Pranks on Broadway Outdraw Theatres but Give Newsreels Material for Special Issues During Convention

Five hundred thousand strong, sightseers and delegates to the American Legion convention descended upon New York City this week but what with theatre entrances virtually blocked by milling crowds and what with Legionnaires provided continuous street entertainment with their antics and parades, motion picture theatres fared poorly, contrary to expectations.

However, while the convention sent grosses downward, it furnished a wealth of material for the newsreels. In former years Legion conventions in other cities were given great attention by the newsreels but this year coverage was even more extensive. Two reasons, both based on the fact that the convention was held in New York, were advanced by newsreel editors: first, there was greater interest in the meeting, and, second, camera crews were more available.

The keen interest which Paramount Newsreel officials believed the public had in the event was reflected in the fact that the organization issued two special reels. The first was released in Broadway theatres Monday night and showed the legionnaires arriving in New York by airplane, boat, train, automobile and trailer. The shots, running about 500 feet, also included a film record of the opening of the convention in Madison Square Garden, the fife and drum corps contest at the Polo Grounds and various street events such as legionnaires snarling traffic at Times Square.

Day and Night Shots of Parade

The highlight of the convention, both for the sightseers and for the newsreels, was the all-day parade staged along Fifth Avenue. From early morning until late at night, cameramen continued to grind. Paramount had planned to rush through a special reel and have it released in Broadway houses while the parade was still in progress but this plan was abandoned. News of the Day, however, issued an edition of parade pictures Tuesday night.

It was decided to emphasize the point that the parade started at 9 A.M. and continued on into the night. To accomplish this, a truck equipped with generators and spotlights cruised along the line of march supplying illumination for night shots.

Both special reels, the one issued Monday night and the one released early Wednesday morning, were sent to theatres.

All newsreels, Paramount, Universal, News of the Day, Movietone, and Pathe, made virtually similar coverages. Advantageous spots along the line of march were selected and cameramen stationed there. Crowd shots were taken care of by roving cameramen and the Army's aerial show was filmed by men both in the formation and in planes flying alongside.

Battery of cameramen covering American Legion parade are shown in this shot by Paramount Newsreel.

The fact that the parade lasted all day Tuesday kept potential theatregoers standing on street corners. On Monday night, celebrating was so widespread that few attended the theatres for fear of missing some original prank executed by the Legionnaires.

At the Capitol theatre, an executive was asked if the convention had affected business.

"It certainly has," was the reply. "It decreased it."

At another theatre, the manager was asked if he was looking forward to increased business after the parade.

"I'm looking forward to the convention ending," was the answer.

At the Roxy, it was pointed out that the crowd in front of the theatre was so dense that prospective patrons could not make their way to the box office.

Loew's State reported an increase in matinee business and "about average" for the evening performances.

Figures from Box Offices

The third week of "The Firefly" at the Astor totaled $10,216, about $3,000 under the previous week. "The Prisoner of Zenda" drew approximately $56,500 in the first four days of the third week at the Music Hall. The Roxy took in $36,000 in three days with "100 Men and a Girl" and a stage show, and the Strand was expected to complete the first week of "That Certain Woman" with approximately $30,000.

Midnight shows, aimed to attract American Legion visitors, were held at the Music Hall Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

The William L. Harris Post 196, American Legion band, of Boston, serenaded Will H. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, on Monday morning. The Post consists of postal employees who said they wanted to honor "our former chief, Postmaster General Hays." Mr. Hays was postmaster in 1921-22.

Commonwealth to Raise Admissions In 28 Theatres

A definite program of increasing admission prices "wherever and as fast as possible" was announced at the meeting of managers and executives of the 28-theatre Commonwealth Amusement Corporation on the Lake of the Ozarks last week by C. A. Schultz, circuit head.

The circuit already has raised prices in four places—from 25 to 35 cents in three, five cents in another. These formed the "test case" basis for the circuit's discussion of an extension of the policy. Reports from the four houses was that the public had reacted favorably. Apparently people are taking admission increases for granted because there have been advances in the price of almost everything else, Mr. Schultz said.

Most important approach to the problem of price raising, Commonwealth managers concluded, was personal handling by the manager of any difficulty. Managers now are under definite instructions to be near the front of the theatre during initiation of increases in order to give this sort of attention. Few complaints were reported by the four theatres that have made the increase.

The admission increase plan adopted by the circuit calls for a gradual raise, involving a few theatres at a time, which will be completed by January 1st. When completed the boost will average 15 per cent for the circuit, according to Mr. Schultz.

In conjunction with increased admissions, Commonwealth managers went into the problems of economy throughout all phases of theatre operation.

Managers spent most of the convention discussing promotion methods for making the fall box office campaign, September 26-January 2, a success.

Also discussed was better operation of theatres, with emphasis on greater alertness to safety and the reduction of accidents.

The convention closed with a banquet, attended by Commonwealth men as well as outsiders, including film and theatremen from the area. Managers attended dressed as they came out of the "King of the Sun" contest, the circuit's summer box office campaign. Each manager was given 10 articles of clothing on entering the contest, and lost an item each week if he did not meet his quota. The last three weeks, managers had an opportunity to win back some of the lost articles. Several managers appeared sans everything but diapers.

Winning the contest was Paul Stonum, Uptown, Carrollton, Mo., who took away the silver cup. The four other winners were Jack Stevenson, Monett, Mo.; H. Ohlson, Washington, Mo.; Lee Chamberlain, Harrisonville, Mo., and Ray Holmes, Norton, Kan.

DOUBLES SPLIT EVEN IN THREE SURVEYS

Single Features Favored in Waukegan Poll, But Trail in St. Louis, And in England

Single feature programs are almost a two to one favorite over double features in Waukegan, Illinois, but are running behind in St. Louis, according to returns of separate polls conducted in the two locations, whereas in England a circuit survey showed a three to one preference for double bills.

Waukegan residents indicated their choice by voting 1,112 for one feature accompanied by short subjects as against 641 for double features. The poll was conducted by the Waukegan News-Sun.

In St. Louis, the results were based on early returns from approximately 7,000 ballots already distributed.

Although no poll of the public's taste was taken, Canadian Famous Players circuit dropped double bills at the Capitol, Winnipeg, to adopt a new policy of having single film attractions at both the Capitol and the Metropolitan. While double bills will be continued in other Famous houses in Winnipeg, an effort is being made to break away from the dual attraction policy, it was stated.

The St. Louis poll is being conducted by the Fanchon & Marco circuit and the St. Louis Star-Times. Questionnaires covering the public's choice in entertainment are distributed in all F. & M. houses, and it is estimated that 400,000 of the questionnaires will have been distributed before the test is completed.

"The results should constitute not only a complete cross section of the movie audiences in the city of St. Louis, but will indicate very definitely what the majority of Americans prefer in entertainment, since St. Louis can be considered a typical American city," an announcement of the plan said.

Britons Favor Doubles

British audiences, though, appear to favor double features, it is indicated in the survey for 1937 conducted among theatre patrons by the Bernstein circuit which operates a number of English theatres. In all, 159,723 replies were received from 11 points and the vote in favor of double bills as against single pictures was 79.5 per cent for and 20.5 per cent against.

The questionnaires distributed in St. Louis seek the answers to seven questions: 1. Who is your favorite movie actor? 2. Who is your favorite actress? 3. Who is your favorite child actor or actress? 4. What kind of feature films do you prefer? (a) melodrama, (b) historical, (c) comedy, (d) war, (e) musical comedy, (f) love romance, (g) detective mystery, (h) gangsters? 5. What kind of short films do you prefer? cartoons, travel, industries, animal life, musical, sports, science, newsreels? 6. Do you prefer stage shows with movies? If yes, what type of stage show, prominent band, singers, dancers, vaudeville? 7. Do you prefer two feature pictures or one feature picture with short subjects?

Patrons also are requested to check whether they are male or female and their age classification, under 16 years, 16 to 25, 26 to 40, or over 40.

The first tabulation, taken from 721 answers, showed Clark Gable leading in the selection of a favorite actor. Ronald Colman was second and Paul Muni, third. The choice among actresses, in order, were: Myrna Loy, Claudette Colbert, Kay Francis, Loretta Young and Norma Shearer. Child performers were led by Shirley Temple, Jane Withers and Freddie Bartholomew. Musical comedy was the choice for type of film and cartoons were the favorite among short subjects.

Adventure Pictures First

In the Bernstein poll, thriller adventure pictures ranked first; musical comedy and society drama, second; comedy and love romance, third; historical, fourth, and war, fifth.

Clark Gable, Gary Cooper and Charles Laughton head the list of favorite masculine players and Norma Shearer, Myrna Loy and Greta Garbo lead the feminine list.

Among short subject, young men prefer sport topic while older men showed a leaning toward travel material.

A vote on advertising films in the theatre was about evenly divided for and against.

The subject of double feature programs was the only one discussed in the poll taken in Waukegan. News stories published in the News-Sun urged theatre patrons to state their opinions on the question in a letter or postcard to the paper.

Letters protested largely against the poor quality of double feature pictures while those favoring double bills did so largely because of the bargain angle.

The newspaper explained, in news stories, that it was making no effort to alter the programs at Waukegan theatres. The results, the paper continued, were offered to no producer or theatre operator unless they happened to read the account in the paper.

LAST SINGLE FEATURE THEATRE TRIES DUALS

The Fox Plaza, only theatre in Kansas City which had never offered a double feature program or a picture and stage show, inaugurated the two-feature policy last week.

The theatre, Fox Midwest Theatre Corporation's ace subsequent-run house, showed "Singing Marine" and "Knight Without Armour." The new policy is to be given a thorough test.

Mier Forms Company

Felipe Mier, former Warner manager in Mexico City and prominent in Mexican film circles, has formed a new producing company, Cinematografica Internacional, S. A. Six features, which stress Mexican themes, are planned.

ANTI - DUAL BILL LEAGUE ORGANIZED

The Anti - Movie Double Feature League of America was formed this week. George H. Siegel, a realtor, and William R. Clay, a compositor, both of Nutley, New Jersey, are the organizers of the move to end dual bills.

They announce they would circulate petitions throughout the nation urging moviegoers to boycott double features.

However, the manager of the Franklin theatre, only theatre in Nutley, took the entire matter as a joke.

"Neither of them attend the movies much," he said.

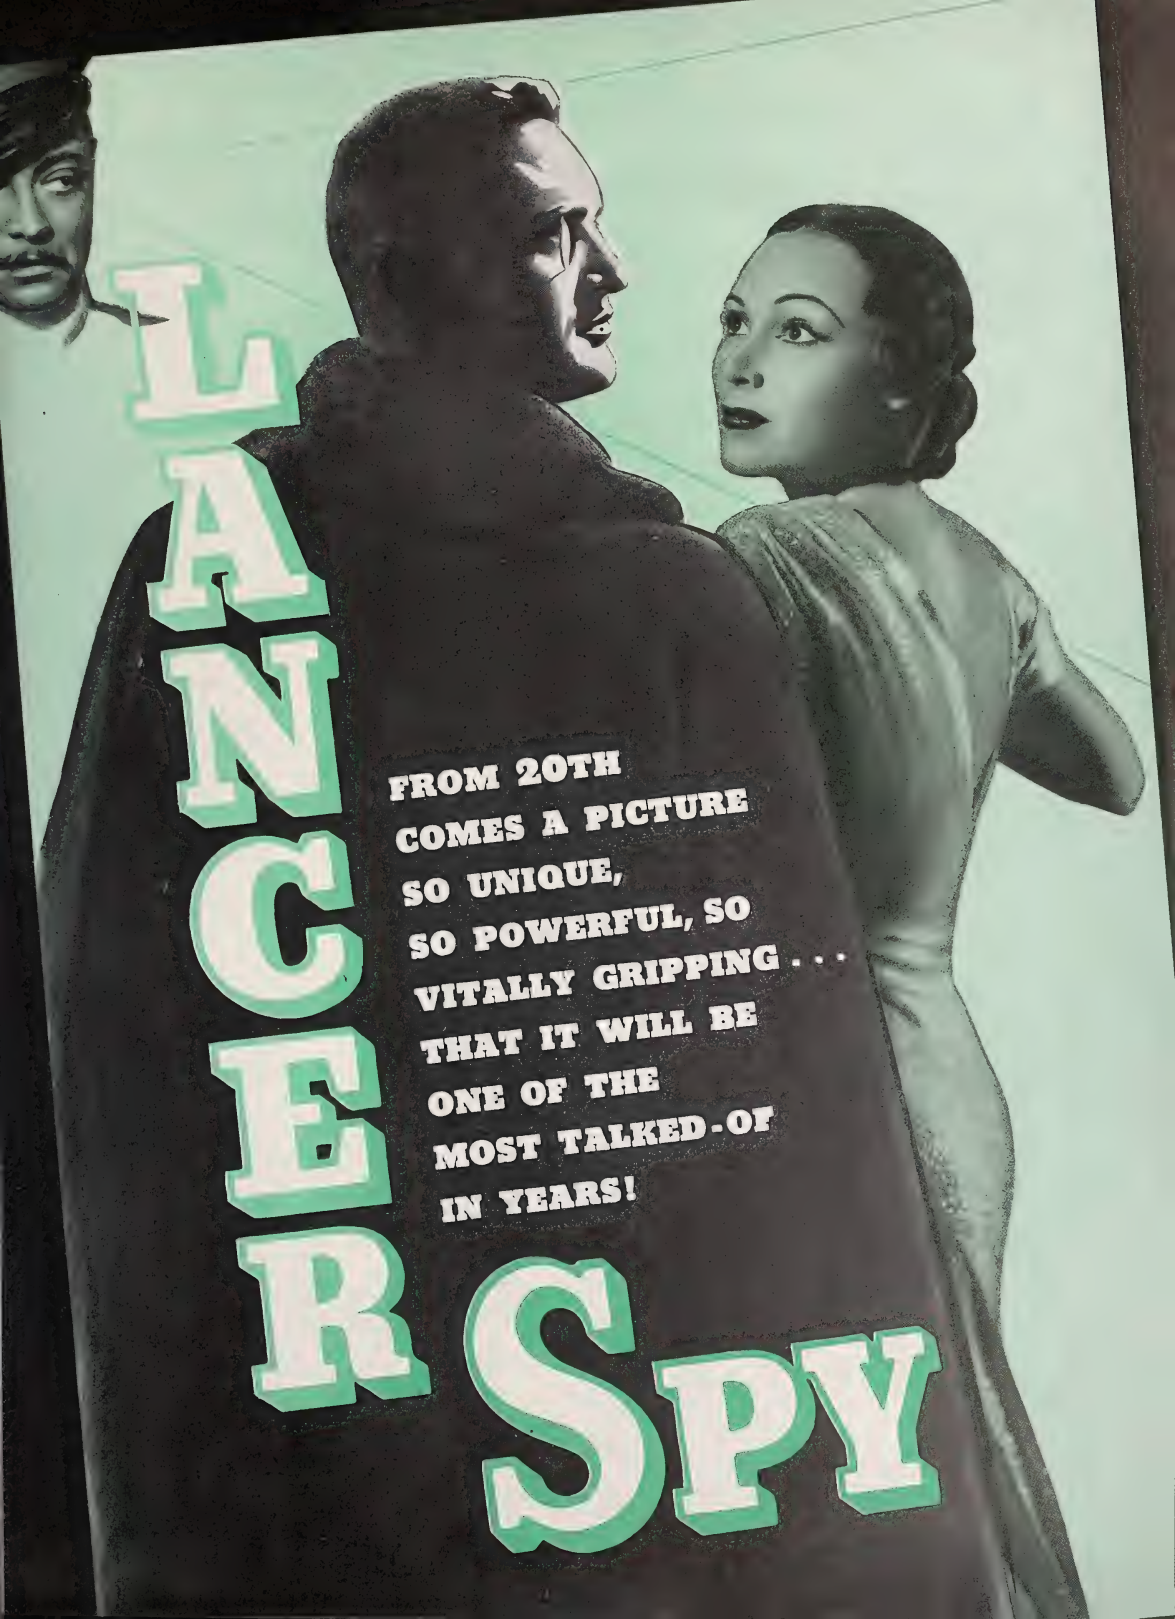
Music Publishers To Meet on Code

The Federal Trade Commission called last week a trade practice conference of music publishers to be held October 4th in Washington for consideration of the publishers' proposed voluntary code governing the industry.

The conference, which will be secret, will give all members of the music industry an opportunity to express their views on the program proposed by the Music Publishers Association for the elimination of unfair trade practices and methods of competition. One subject known to come under discussion is the way to combat unfair song-plugging.

Following the conference, the Commission will prepare a report on the recommendations and publish it for the consideration of the industry as a whole. A later conference will then be called for final decision, after the attitude of the industry at large is ascertained from reactions to the report.

Lift Negro Fight Reel Ban



The Sparks circuit, Florida, showed the first fight pictures involving a Negro and a white to be seen at a white theatre in Tampa when it exhibited reels of the Louis-Farr encounter recently. In the past, such pictures have been shown at colored theatres.

Bruno Frank with MGM

Bruno Frank, well-known novelist and playwright, has been signed by MGM and will come to this country in December to start work in Hollywood. The contract was negotiated by Edwin Knopf, scenario editor, in Paris.

Visits Egypt Office

J. H. Seidelman, head of Columbia's foreign department, sailed last week on a trip that will include a visit to the company's new office in Alexandria, Egypt. Mr. Seidelman will inaugurate the company's first sales season of the Egyptian office, known as Columbia Pictures Near East, Ltd.

LANCER SPY
FROM 20TH
COMES A PICTURE
SO UNIQUE,
SO POWERFUL, SO
VITALLY GRIPPING . . .
THAT IT WILL BE ONE OF THE
MOST TALKED-OF
IN YEARS!

THE INDUSTRY'S HIT-MAKERS PROUDLY PRESENT ONE THAT

RANKS WITH THEIR GREATEST!

Here is a production that transcends the usual yard-stick of boxoffice values. Its story . . . rooted in amazing actuality, life-real in its emotional assault . . . sweeps to an astonishing climax. Its brilliantly-playing cast . . . hand-picked with an eye to the story's dramatic impact . . . reveals in George Sanders one of your key stars of tomorrow. In every respect is evident the showmanship for which 20th is renowned. Sell it for the important attraction it is!

LANCER SPY

with

DOLORES
DEL RIO • GEORGE SANDERS

PETER
LORRE • JOSEPH SCHILDKRAUT

and

VIRGINIA FIELD • SIG RUMANN • MAURICE MOSCOVICH • LIONEL ATWILL • LUTHER ADLER

Directed by Gregory Ratoff

Associate Producer Samuel G. Engel

Screen play by Philip Dunne From a novel by Marthe McKenna

Darryl F. Zanuck In Charge of Production

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

DOYLE CALLS QUOTA AID TO QUALITY FILMS

Former Managing Director of Greater Union Theatres in Australia Calls Plan "Equitable"

Possible invasion of American companies into the British film industry is an irrelevant point in considering the proposed films act, according to Stuart Doyle, former managing director of Greater Union Theatres in Australia. Mr. Doyle believes the suggested quota is "equitable" and will result in the production of better quality British motion pictures.

If English pictures are to advance from their unimportant position in the international market to a place of importance, Mr. Stuart pointed out, the quality must be improved. Therefore, he continued, the question of invasion is beside the point and does not enter into consideration with respect to the quality of films.

In last week's issue of the MOTION PICTURE HERALD Mr. Bruce Allan, writing from London, reported:

"British independent producers, among them a large number whose energies are concentrated on the production of short subjects and documentary films, are uniting in strong opposition to what they believe is a threatened invasion of British studios by Hollywood stars, directors and technicians. Their objection, it is believed, will crystallize in demands for a greater measure of control over the industry by the Government than that outlined in the recent White Paper which detailed proposals for new Films Act legislation."

Mr. Doyle's opinion, on the quota, as expressed in an interview in New York, is that:

"The British quota seems to be equitable. It will eliminate weak and poor pictures."

As for the New South Wales quota, Mr. Doyle is of the opinion that it has proven itself to be a failure. Last year there was no attempt to enforce the provisions, Mr. Doyle continued, because there were only three quota pictures produced.

Mr. Doyle does not think there will be any attempt this year, either, to enforce the quota in its present form. However, he revealed that the government is undertaking an investigation with a view to amending the measure.

Although Mr. Doyle said he had tentative plans for his future in the theatre business he declined to disclose them, pointing out that there was nothing definite. He planned to sail this week on the Bremen for London. While there he intends to inspect the two theatres which he is having built in Piccadilly. His other interests at present include being chairman of the Commonwealth Broadcasting Network of Australia. The network of 16 stations is owned by Mr. Doyle and Frank Albert.

After a short stay in London, Mr. Doyle will return to Sidney, thus completing a world survey of the theatre business.

SALOON - THEATRE WAR SEEN AT END

Attempts of beer tavern operators to force the Sunday closing of Seattle theatres in retaliation for the closing of their establishments under a 1909 "blue law" have apparently failed.

B. Gray Warner, local prosecuting attorney, has refused to take action in the matter, advising tavern proprietors to appeal to the Superior Court if further action is desired. Such a step is considered unlikely.

British Publisher Sees Better Films

Hope that American producers planning to engage in production in England will make good their plans for quality pictures was expressed this week by Sam Harris, editor and publisher of Today's Cinema, one of London's two daily trade papers, on his arrival here from England.

Envisaging England as a golden opportunity for American producers, Mr. Harris said that if American producers fulfill their promise, they can expect to gain considerably. Failure to fulfill them, he said will result in loss of the opportunity to British producers.

Asked about the future of English production, Mr. Harris said that the independent producer was finding it increasingly difficult to obtain financing, with the result that the entire product was gradually being consolidated into the hands of the larger studios.

Mr. Harris urged American financial support of British production on the ground that English pictures of better quality will be of benefit to American theatre receipts. He said that such support should be given inasmuch as English films could never seriously compete with American films but might help to stimulate the market generally to mutual advantage.

Oklahoma City Bans "Tobacco Road"

Following the censor board's refusal to permit the presentation of "Tobacco Road," Mayor Martin, of Oklahoma City, this week notified Mrs. Frances Potter Hauser, booking agent, that the play could not be offered in the municipal auditorium "or anywhere else" in the city.

To Speak on Health Films

Myron Weiss, associate editor of Time magazine, will speak on "The Box Office Reaction to Health and Medical Films" at the annual convention of the American Public Health Association to be held in New York October 5th to 8th. Mr. Weiss will discuss both theatrical and non-theatrical films.

HOLLYWOOD GETS NEW PLACE IN SUN

Hollywood became reality last week.

The Los Angeles City Council unanimously fixed that section of the city which shall in future be known as Hollywood.

The action followed the threat of the Chamber of Commerce of neighboring Culver City to renounce its name and adopt that of Hollywood.

Report on RKO Reorganization Ready October 14

A tentative draft of his findings on the proposed reorganization plan of RKO will be ready October 14th, George Alger, special master who has held hearings on the plan, said last week.

The report will be read at his office at that time, he said, giving the various committees an opportunity to ascertain its nature prior to the submission of final recommendations to the federal district court. In this manner, the reorganizers may present additional testimony or recommend revision before its final report is made.

This procedure is expected to facilitate preparation of the final report and to dispense with possible objections which might delay the ultimate decision of Federal Judge William Bondy.

Mr. Alger is required to determine whether the plan is "fair, equitable and feasible."

Record Production Pace At Studio, Says Warner

Jack L. Warner, vice-president in charge of production for Warner Brothers, on his arrival in New York Tuesday from the coast, said that "with nine major productions currently in work at our Burbank studios, we are maintaining the greatest production pace in our history." Mr. Warner also said that his company is planning to film Sheridan's "School for Scandal" with Bette Davis and Errol Flynn starring.

Mr. Warner leaves on the Normandie for England next Wednesday, where he will meet with Sam E. Morris, vice-president in charge of foreign distribution to discuss production at the Teddington studios there and also be present at the title closing for the company's new theatre to be erected on the site of the Old Daly theatre in London.

Bate Heads Society

Henry Clay Bate, script writer for Universal Newsreel, was chosen president of the Society of the Fifth Division, Veterans of the World War, at the organization's national convention in New York.

Charles W. Leach, formerly connected with the home office of Gaumont British, has been named branch manager in New Haven for GB. He succeeds Carl J. Goe, resigned.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

Retakes

Second only to the problem of womanless pictures, Hollywood's most fearsome bugaboo is "retakes." As a matter of fact, the retake is a menace. Retakes have done more to ruin pictures than all other contributory causes together. Poor photography, bad recording, and any number of other causes make them imperative.

Some time ago Greta Garbo made a picture in which she repeated a sequence 62 times. The shooting of a sequence in "Under Two Flags," where Ronald Colman handed Rosalind Russell a small statue of a horse, required more than 30 takes before Director Frank Lloyd was satisfied. The other day we watched Cecil B. DeMille shoot a sequence in "Buccaneer" at least 10 or 12 times. All of these, however, were made when the actors were in the mood of the characters they were playing. The troublesome ones are those that are made after the picture is completed and, as is often the case, weeks have elapsed before the players are recalled to repeat their dialogue and action.

Expert opinion desired, we sought out Edward H. Griffith, who has a reputation for holding post-completion retakes to a minimum. Explaining that sometimes producers, in order to keep within the budget or shooting schedules, permit scenes to be made which they know full well will have to be remade after the picture has been completed, Mr. Griffith said, "If, when retakes are necessary, the entire sequence in which the remade scene appears could be retaken, then the evil of retakes would be eliminated. While a picture is being filmed, actors, guided by their director, attain characterization and tempo and build to a high point in the succeeding sequences. If they are good actors and directors, they know the story and have a feeling for the particular situation which causes them actually to live it. By the time they have reached the high point of any given sequence, the actors are actually the characters, and not so many 'Joe Somebodys making $7,000 a week.'"

But the protection shots are made, the picture is finished and the actors go about their ways, probably into other pictures, in which the characterizations are utterly different. Then it is discovered, and quite often it would have been preventable, that some detached incident has to be retaken.

"Then," says Mr. Griffith, "the actors are called back. No matter how competent they may be, they are not able to reach that high point they once before had attained as they repeat the required bit. Were the practice of shooting the entire sequence followed, things might be better. For then it might be possible for the people to regain the spirit they possessed during the original filming."

Studios Normal

For several years it has been Hollywood's custom to have approximately 45 pictures in production each week in September. That pace was maintained in the period ended September 17th. Eleven new films started, a figure close to that of the September 3rd period when 12 started, and that of September 10th when 15 went into work. As of the same date, seven productions were finished.

Three films started at MGM. All promise to be in the big feature classification. "Bad Man of Brimstone," which J. Walter Ruben is directing, features Wallace Beery, Noah Beery, Virginia Bruce and Guinn Williams, along with Lewis Stone, Bruce Cabot, Dennis O'Keefe, Joseph Calleia, Guy Kibbe, Charley Grapewin and Cliff Edwards. Joan Crawford and Spencer Tracy are the stars of "Mannequin." The support includes Alan Curtis, Leo Gorcey, Oscar O'Shea, Mary Phillips and Ralph Morgan. Frank Borzage is directing. "The Four Marys" will present Myrna Loy, Franchot Tone, Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon, Rita Johnson, Ruth Hussy, Leonard Penn and John Miljan. Richard Thorpe was assigned to direct.

TONS OF KANAB FOR HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, which is more Chinese than China, Italian than Italy, Dutch than Holland, and so on ad infinitum, isn't as Kanab as Kanab, Utah. But the discrepancy is being rectified.

On lot 2 of MGM is a heaping pile of dirt that looks like any other kind of dirt. Now there are all sorts of reasons for any kind of a pile of dirt being on any particular spot. But there's a particular reason for this pile.

It's there so there will be authentic realism in "Bad Man of Brimstone".

Bent on authenticity, also to preclude the possibility of anyone claiming a "boner" in the film, producer Harry Rapf discovered a difference in color of the soil on the lot and that of the soil in Kanab, where the company had been on a three-weeks location. The difference in tinting, according to Mr. Rapf, was very noticeable when photographed. Thus, to preserve unity in color, he ordered 250 tons of Kanab dirt to be spread and hardened as ground for the local shots.

"Big Broadcast" Started

Under its own sponsorship Paramount started "The Big Broadcast of 1938." The annual feature will mark W. C. Fields' return to the screen after an 18-months absence. Listed among the artists also scheduled to appear are Martha Raye, Dorothy Lamour, Ben Blue, Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Leif Ericson, Kersten Flagstad, Tito Guizar, Stanley Fields and Rufe Davis. Mitchell Leisen is directing. "Every Day's a Holiday," Major production, also went before the cameras. It is a Mae West feature. Other players are Edmund Lowe, Charles Winniger, Charles Butterworth, Walter Catlett and Roger Imhof. More will be added. Edward Sutherland is the director.

Republic started two. With Joseph Kane directing, "Springtime in the Rockies" will feature Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Polly Rowles, Alan Bridge, George Chesebro, Ruth Bacon, Jane Hunt and Ula Love. The cast for "Zorro Rides Again" includes John Carroll, Richard Alexander, Jack Morgan, Bob Kortmann, Roger Williams and Yakima Canutt. Jack English and William Whitney are sharing directorial responsibilities.

Columbia's contribution to the new work is "College Follies of 1938." The lengthy cast includes Walter Connolly, Jimmy Durante, Gertrude Neissen, Johnny Green and band, the Three Stooges, Jeni LeGon and Four Blackbirds, Raymond Walburn, Ernest Truex.

At 20th Century-Fox, "Love and Hisses," successor to "Wake Up and Live," started. Walter Winchell and Ben Bernie again are teamed. Other principals are Simone Simon, Joan Davis, Dick Baldwin, Wally Veron, the Peters Sisters and Chilton & Vernon. Sidney Lanfield is the director.

"Highway to Hell" is RKO-Radio's new activity. It will offer John Beal, Sally Eilers, Harry Carey, Lee Patrick, Frank M. Thomas, Ed Gargan, Paul Guilfoyle and Herman Brix as the leading names. Lew Landers is directing.

Mauch Twins Return

The Mauch twins, Billy and Bobby, return to the screen for Warner in "Penrod and His Twin Brother." Spring Byington, Frank Craven, little Don Hurlbert, Phillip Hurlick, Rodney Bitts and Jack Morrow also will be seen. William McGann is directing.

Two of the completed pictures are credited to Grand National. The David Diamond production, "He Wanted to Marry," which Raymond Cannon directed, features Wallace Ford, Ray Mayer, Isabel Jewell, Mary Treen, Tully Richards and Max Hoffman, Jr. Principal players in "Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel," produced by Ben Pivar and directed by Gordon Wiles, are Stuart Erwin, Helen Chandler, Toby Wing, Walter Byron, Spencer Charters and Milburn Stone.

Paramount also marked two productions off its shooting schedule. Important names in "Thrill of a Lifetime" are the Yacht Club Boys, Judy Canova, Ben Blue, Betty Grable, Eleanore Whitney, Johnny Downs, Leif Erikson, Larry Crabbe and Dorothy Lamour. George Archainbaud directed the Fanchon production. "Men Must Fight," a Harry Sherman "Hopalong Cassidy" production, lists William Boyd, George Hayes, Russell Hayden, Gwen Gaze, Hilda Plowright, John Warburton, Al Bridge, Al Hill, Earl Hodgin and John Beach. Les Selander directed.

Finally deciding to retain the original title, Warner Bros. finished "Tovarich." Claudette Colbert and Charles Boyer are starred. The support lists Basil Rathbone, Melville Cooper, Isabelle Jeans, Anita Louise, Maurice Murphy, Morris Carnovsky, Gregory Gaye, Fritz Feld, Vladimir Sokoloff, Kurt Bois, Christian Rub, Reine Riano, Montagu Love, George Davis, May Boley, Alphonse Martel and Heather Thatcher. Anatole Litvak directed.

One picture, Jane Withers' "45 Fathers," was finished at Twentieth Century-Fox. Its supporting principals are Shirley Deane, Thomas Beck, Louise Henry, Richard Carle, Joe and Flo McCoy and Nella Walker. James Tingling directed.

Universal wound up "Renegade Wranglers." The cast includes Bob Baker, Joan Barclay, Fuzzy Knight, Carl Stockdale, Harry Woods, Leroy Mason, Ralph Lewis, Glenn Strange and Jack Montgomery. Joe Lewis directed.

DALLAS SUIT STARTED, ANOTHER THREATENED

Anti-Trust Violation Charged to Interstate Circuit; California 'Showdown' Promised

The sustained interest of the federal government in possible violations of the Clayton and Sherman anti-trust laws in the motion picture industry resulted this week in the opening of a Department of Justice suit against Interstate Circuit and large distributors in Dallas, and a promise by the Department of a "showdown" on California independent exhibitor complaints of unfair trade practices of Fox West Coast circuit and distributors in that territory.

Charges Conspiracy

Opening of the Dallas action brought charges from B. W. Henderson, special prosecutor of the attorney general's office, that Interstate had the largest number of first-run pictures as a result of a conspiracy entered into between the circuit and distributors. He also declared the conspiracy gave Interstate the largest dollar volume of business.

"The companies proposed to clinch the business of first run Class A pictures at 40 cents, with subsequent runs at 25 cents for all theatres in the district," Mr. Henderson said. "The agreement made still exists."

In addition to the charge of the fixing of admission prices of subsequent-run houses, the action also attacks anti-double feature provisions in the distributors' contracts.

Under the contracts, distributors agree not to sell any product, which has played certain Interstate houses at a specified admission, to any other theatre which does not maintain a specified minimum.

Colonel H. A. Cole, president of Allied States Association of Motion Picture Exhibitors of Texas, on the stand Tuesday as a Government witness, said his organization had been a factor in bringing the federal suit against the circuit and the distributors. He told the court he had gone to Karl Hoblitzelle, president of Interstate, to protest the contract provision holding second run pictures at 25 cents. He quoted Mr. Hoblitzelle as saying that he wanted to help exhibitors, but the witness testified he had insisted the contract would work a hardship on small operators who wanted to charge 10 and 15 cents.

George S. Wright, chief of several attorneys for the defendants, saw the right of the owner of a copyright to defend its value challenged in this case. He said Mr. Hoblitzelle and E. J. O'Connell had saved the Interstate theatres from bankruptcy and asserted, too, that the operation of the circuit left room for competition.

The Government, in outlining its case, charged the companies were operated under a monopoly and in restraint of trade.

"Showdown" in California

In announcing the "showdown" on complaints filed by independent exhibitors in California, Harold J. Law, special assistant attorney general, declared:

"Two special Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and four accountants will aid us in the investigation which will either prove the falsity of the charges or result in grand jury action."

The audit, Mr. Law said, will take several weeks. Fox West Coast, Universal, United Artists, Paramount, Warner Brothers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Twentieth Century-Fox, RKO Radio, and Columbia have all agreed to give investigators full access to the books, he said.

Mr. Law also revealed that two consent decrees have been entered against Fox West Coast, but added that exhibitors still contend that violations exist.

After the audit is taken, the findings will be summarized and then the course of action to be followed will be decided upon, Mr. Law said.

Mr. Law recently arrived in Los Angeles from Washington with Harold Collins, of the Department of Justice. United Press, in a dispatch from Hollywood, quoted Mr. Law as stating that he would install seven assistants in an office and would either put the case before the federal grand jury or give major operators "a clean bill of health."

National Decency Legion Classifies 14 Productions

Of 14 new pictures reviewed and classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week nine were approved for general patronage, three were listed as unobjectionable for adults and two were cited as objectionable in part. The new pictures and their classification follow.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "All Over Town," "Escape by Night," "Las Quatro Miltas," "My Dear Miss Aldrich," "Mystery Range," "Roaring Guns," "She Asked For It," "Sudden Bill Dorn," "Western Gold." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Stage Door," "Susanne in Bade," "Wenn Frauen Schweigen." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Wine, Women and Horses," "Wife, Doctor and Nurse."

Alperson Sees World Distribution for GN

Grand National will have world wide distribution for the coming season with the closing of several deals pending, Edward L. Alperson, president, said in New York Wednesday on his arrival from the Coast.

"Sales of Grand National product both here and abroad are expected to gross in excess of $12,000,000 for the 1937-38 season," he said. Mr. Alperson came east to attend the opening of "Something to Sing About."

KAO Declares Dividend

The Board of Directors of Keith-Albee-Orpheum Corporation declared a dividend, out of capital surplus, of $1.75 per share on the 7 per cent Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock of the Corporation for the quarter ended March 31, 1934, payable on October 1, 1937, to the holders of record of the stock at the close of business on September 27, 1937.

Two File Stock Changes; Court Hits Consolidated

The Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington this week received a stock registration certificate from International Cinema, Inc., of California and a notice of stock changes in Universal Corporation, the while changes in Consolidated Film Industries' capital structure were prevented as a result of a court ruling in Wilmington, Del.

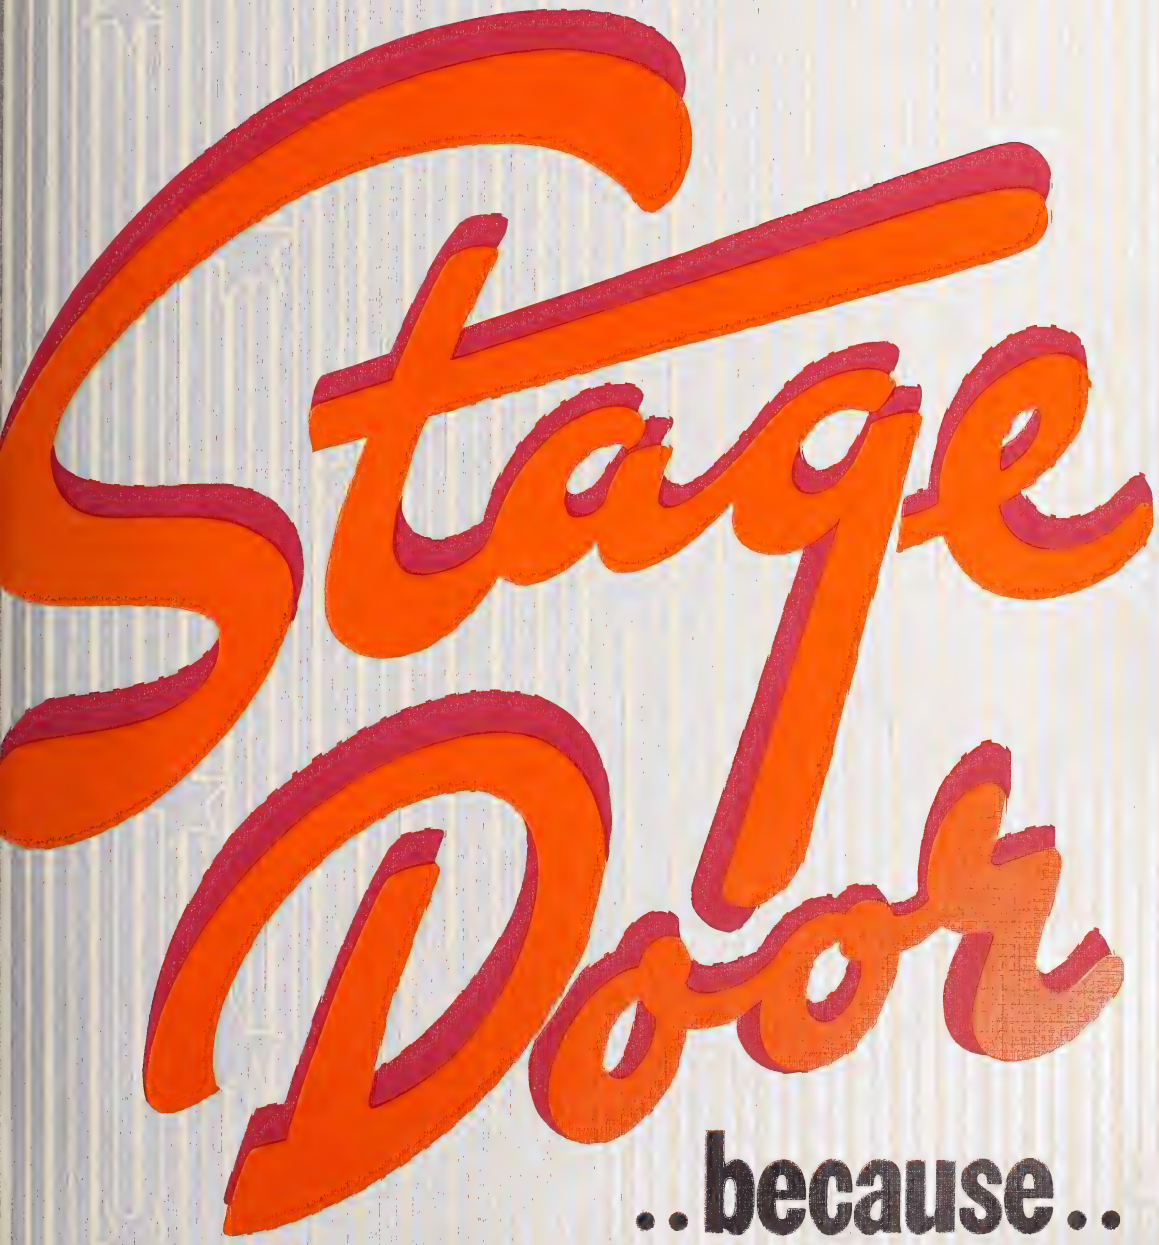
Plans for the issuance of 50,000 shares of class A and 100,000 shares of common stock were disclosed by International Cinema, Inc., Los Angeles, in a registration statement filed with the SEC last Friday. International's Hollywood laboratory this week became the California branch of Pathe.

The registration statement showed that the highest salary paid by International Cinema last year was $6,500, that amount being received by G. P. Regan, president, also by Bonar Russell, vice-president and general manager; A. C. Snyder, secretary-treasurer, and A. J. Guerin, laboratory manager.

Strengthening of Universal Corporation's holdings in Universal Pictures was reported by the SEC last week in its semi-monthly summary. The commission reported that during July, Universal Corporation acquired 180 shares of Universal Pictures first preferred and, at the close of the month, held 228,927 shares of common, 220 shares of first preferred and 20,000 shares of second preferred.

Consolidated Film Amendment

A proposed amendment to the certificate of incorporation of Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., was declared null and void in an opinion handed down by Chancellor Josiah O. Wolcott in the Chancery Court at Wilmington, Del., last week. A permanent injunction against the proposed amendment was granted. The opinion was filed in an action instituted by Norman Johnson of New York City, a preferred stockholder.



The corporation was upheld in all phases of the complaint excepting on the objection to the company's proposal to cancel at least a portion of the accrued and unpaid dividends on the old preferred stock in an exchange for new stock, in the Chancellor's opinion. Consolidated appealed to the Supreme Court at Dover after an adverse decision once before, the court upholding the Chancellor and sending the case back for final hearing.

Chancellor Wolcott declared that the amendment had been approved by the requisite vote of the stockholders, but because of the preliminary injunction issued in this cause it had not yet been effectuated by a filing and recording as required by law.

The proposed amendment would have increased the preferred stock from 400,000 shares to 500,000 shares; accumulated dividends on preferred had been reduced from $2 to $1 a share; the preferred would have been entitled to one-half of all the dividends declared in excess of accumulative dividends; preferred would be subject to redemption at $28 per share plus all accumulative and unpaid dividends; upon voluntary dissolution holders of preferred would have been entitled to a returnative distributional assets up to $28 per share plus accumulative and unpaid dividends.

It was also proposed under the amendment to make it possible to exchange one and one-quarter shares of the new participating capital stock and one-quarter share of the new common stock for one share of the preferred participating stock and to exchange two-thirds of a share of the new common stock for one share of common stock.

KEEP TIME OPEN FOR A RECORD RUN...ON

..because..

September 8, 1937 THE Hollywood REPORTER

"STAGE DOOR" SUPERB PICTURE; TRIUMPH FOR GREGORY LA CAVA

Brilliant Acting And Writing Make Production One Of The Finest Of Year; Hepburn, Rogers, Leeds, Menjou Score

"Stage Door" is a superb delineation of the humor, suffering and luck that combine to make life in the theatre. It is done with such fine inspiration by the excellent cast, the director, Gregory La Cava, and those who worked on the story that the picture stands head and shoulders in sheer entertainment above any of the big hit pictures of recent months. At the boxoffice, it will also forge far above most top films, and prove one of the biggest grossers in RKO's history.

Most discussed phase of the picture will probably be the individual performances of the players. Katharine Hepburn has never been better cast, not even excepting "Morning Glory." As a daughter of wealthy parents trying acting as a pastime, Miss Hepburn plays with true sincerity. Audiences will see and like a new Ginger Rogers, a wisecracking dancer, constantly at swords' points with most of her fellow lodgers in the Footlights Club boarding house. It is excellently done.

Andrea Leeds will become an important personality after this picture. Personifying the pathetic, hopeless side of those seeking acting careers, Miss Leeds gives an unforgettable portrayal. Adolphe Menjou is also at his best in the role of stage producer, who uses the same routine for any girl he is attempting to captivate.

For this outstanding job of casting, and the inspired work of each player, credit should go to Director Gregory La Cava. He should also be commended for the expert balancing of laughter and tears, the maintaining of interest in unfolding of the story, which has slight plot but holds chiefly through its characterizations. It is a picture you are sorry to see end.

An unusual feature of the film, despite the cast of young feminine players is that it has no love interest. The girls are guests in the boarding house, from which they go forth to work, to seek work, to have dates with all sorts of men. Miss Hepburn, obviously wealthy, is disliked at first by the other girls because of her interest in Shakespeare and because she is taking as a lark what to them means bread and butter.

Miss Hepburn's father, seeking to cure her of stage madness, secretly backs a play so that Menjou will cast her in a lead. Andrea Leeds, a great actress who has not worked for a year, has her heart set on the part. On the opening night, she broods so deeply over her failure to get it that she jumps from the roof of the lodging house to her death. Miss Rogers, blaming her death on Miss Hepburn, informs the latter, as she is about to go on, of Miss Leeds' death. Miss Hepburn, a wooden performer up to that point, is emotionally shocked into giving a swell portrayal.

The film has many topnotch scenes. The dialog is faultless. Credit for this finely written script goes to Morrie Ryskind, Director La Cava and Anthony Veiller, taking their story from the stage hit by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman.

Other players particularly outstanding are Gail Patrick, Constance Collier and Franklin Pangborn. Pangborn is better than ever in a butler role. A Miller as a dancer is also fine. Lucille Ball deserves special mention. Phyllis Kennedy is good in a comedy part. More good performances are given by Samuel S. Hinds, William Corson, Grady Sutton, Eve Arden, Margaret Early, Jean Rouverol, Elizabeth Dunne, Pierre Watkin and Frank Reicher.

Sets were in keeping with the class production. Musical background of Roy Webb was appropriately done, and photography of Robert de Grasse was first class. Gowns by Muriel King were attractive and appropriate.

"head and shoulders above any of the big hit pictures of recent months"...

THE Film DAILY

"Stage Door"

with Katharine Hepburn and Ginger Rogers
RKO Radio — [illegible] Mins.

(HOLLYWOOD PREVIEW)

SWELL PICTURE. SHOULD BE A SMASH HIT IN PRACTICALLY EVERY TYPE OF THEATER; SPELLS M-O-N-E-Y AT B. O.

This should be a smash hit in practically every type of theater. It is a triumph for the director, Gregory La Cava, who has given it a fast tempo and gained excellent performances from the cast. There is never a dull moment and the laughs come thick and fast although interspersed with some tears. Pandro Berman rates credit as producer. Ginger Rogers is a delight, handling her dialogue and comedy expertly. Katharine Hepburn is very convincing as a stage struck heiress, whose opening night performance is a triumph, because her acting is affected by the death of Andrea Leeds, who sought the role. Adolphe Menjou is superb as the stage producer, who uses the same routine on all the girls he wishes to captivate, but whose routines come a cropper when tried on Katharine. Andrea Leeds shows unusual talent and is in line for many important roles. Gail Patrick, Ann Miller, Constance Collier, Lucille Ball, Franklin Pangborn, Eve Arden and Jean Rouverol are among the principals who do fine work. Robert de Grasse's photography is high grade. A New York theatrical boarding house for girls is the setting for the picture. Samuel S. Hinds, through his attorney Pierre Watkin, induces Menjou to produce a play which will star his daughter Katharine. Menjou hopes that the play will be a failure so that Katharine will give up her career and return home; however Andrea Leed's death moves Katharine so deeply that she gives a splendid performance and is acclaimed a great actress.

Cast: Katharine Hepburn, Ginger Rogers, Adolphe Menjou, Gail Patrick, Constance Collier, Andrea Leeds, Samuel S. Hinds, Lucille Ball, Franklin Pangborn, Grady Sutton, Corson, Pierre Watkin, Kennedy, Eve Arden, Reicher, Phyllis Kennedy, Jean Rouverol, Miller, Margaret Early, Jane [illegible], Beth Dunne, Norma Drury, Harriett Brand, Peggy O'Donnell, Ralph Forbes, erine Alexander, Huntley Gordon, Pandro S. Berman

Play [illegible]

"swell picture.. should be a smash hit"...

"the applause at the picture's fadeout shook the walls of the theatres"....

SHOWMEN'S TRADE REVIEW

Stage Door

RKO Radio Drama 83 mins.

Outstanding Pic With Top Name Cast Guarantees Any Exhibitor a Record Breaker

Cast: Katharine Hepburn, Ginger Rogers, Adolphe Menjou, Gail Patrick, Constance Collier, Andrea Leeds, Samuel B. Hinds, Lucille Ball, Pierre Watkin, Franklyn Pangborn, Jean Rouverol, Ann Miller, and many others. From the play by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman. Directed by Gregory La Cava.

Plot: Katharine Hepburn, wealthy debutante, decides on the stage as a career against her father's wishes. She goes to live at the Footlights Club, a residence for poor aspiring actresses. Among others, she meets Ginger Rogers and Andrea Leeds, who take a violent dislike to her because of her overbearing manner. Finally Hepburn's father, secretly finances Menjou to produce a play and arranges with him to cast Hepburn in the lead hoping to cure her of her stage mania. Andrea Leeds, out of a job for a long while, has her heart set on the part and grieves inwardly until opening night when grief stricken, she throws herself from the roof of the boarding house. When Ginger Rogers blames Hepburn for Andrea's death, Hepburn becomes so wrought up that, rising under the stress to brilliant heights, she gives an unlooked-for triumphant emotional characterization, making the play a great success.

SUMMARY. This picture is a superb achievement and a great contribution to cinematic art as well as a big box office picture on account of the combined drawing powers of the Hepburn, Ginger Rogers and Menjou names, plus the renown of the play which was one of last season's hits. Unquestionably one of the great pictures of the year, it should topple box office records especially in key cities. The dialogue bristles with keen understandable wit and smart repartee. The pathos, drama and comedy are so cleverly interspersed that audiences will be constantly on the lookout for the next turn of events. Gregory La Cava's direction is a masterful triumph. All in all, this picture is tops. It offers excellent exploitation possibilities in tie-ups with dramatic schools, fur stores and fashion shops. Exhibitors should play up the fact that the play was one of the hits of the year in New York.

Catchline: "They thought she'd be a flop —but inspired by the struggles of others she climbed to success."

(FAMILY) GRAY CRANE, Hollywood

* * *

MOTION PICTURE DAILY

MOTION PICTURE DAILY'S HOLLYWOOD PREVIEW

"Stage Door"

(RKO)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 8.—Katharine Hepburn has had some bad pictures. She also has had some good ones. Ginger Rogers' lot since she attained the heights with Fred Astaire has been consistently more fortunate. Here, under the sympathetic and considerate guidance of Gregory La Cava, both have a great show. Along with them in this frank and joyous picture, which only for a moment assumes a note of tragic pathos, a new star shines brilliantly by her performance. Andrea Leeds stamps herself as a performer ready to take her place in screen affairs. Miss Hepburn and Miss Rogers, with Adolphe Menjou, Gail Patrick, Constance Collier, Samuel Hinds and Franklin Pangborn are what people expect competent players should be as Miss Leeds gives the story a soul and as Phyllis Kennedy stands out among the host of minor, but important, supports.

"Stage Door" is a tonic for the mind and spirit. To see the show means going away from it with a happy heart and a satisfaction that should lead to its being often recalled with pleasure.

A story of human beings, "Stage Door" is presented in a singularly human manner, not finding it necessary to resort to theatrical artificiality to evoke or sustain interest. For the most part it sparkles with natural humor in dialogue, situations and characterizations as it mirrors life, as life is known to many girls in a theatrical boarding house. Of them all only two look to their future with any degree of seriousness. One does so because she has to make good, the other because she is determined to. As the direct theme is adhered to, contrast is provided by many branchings which give vivid glimpses into the lives of girls who suffer and starve for art. Mainly the treatment provokes laughter. Only as it pertains to Miss Leeds, does it suggest otherwise. But as Miss Hepburn ventures into the theatre for want of something else to do she learns much from Miss Rogers, who also teaches Playboy Producer Menjou many tricks. She gets the part on which Miss Leeds has set her heart. Miss Leeds chooses suicide. On the opening night Miss Hepburn is a murderess to the girls and when she learns of the tragedy she goes on to give the kind of performance that Hepburn had given when she wants to. The applause at the picture's fadeout shook the walls of the theatre.

Incidentally, it is the kind of performance that Miss Leeds could have given when she wants to. The applause at the picture's fadeout shook the walls of the theatre.

"Stage Door" may need some selling. If so, the essentials in personalities, the warmly sentimental story content, production finesse, intelligent direction and entertaining quality are at hand. The chances are, however, that the show will be on the air and the metropolitan sophisticates and the more neighborly patrons of the small houses will be waiting for it. As it charmed and thrilled the preview audience so, should it do to all seeing it.

In transcribing the stage play to the screen Morrie Ryskind and Anthony Veiller have drawn swift moving portraiture of picturesque people and developed their sketch in a spontaneous and stimulating style. La Cava, bringing all the knowledge and skill garnered from his years of experience, blends the talents of his players with the quality of the material in a directing job that should be regarded as an achievement.

Running time, 90 minutes. "G."

"...a superb achievement as well as a big box office picture"....

DAILY VARIETY DAILY

Film Preview

Stage Door

RKO release of a Radio picture. Produced by Pandro S. Berman. Directed by Gregory La Cava. Screenplay by Morrie Ryskind and Anthony Veiller. From the stage play by Edna Ferber and George S. Kaufman. Photographed by Robert de Grasse. Musical director, Roy Webb. Art director, Carroll Clark. Set dressings associate, Darrell Silvera. Gowns by Muriel King. Recorded by John L. Cass. Edited by William Hamilton. Assistant director, James Anderson. Cast: Katharine Hepburn, Ginger Rogers, Adolphe Menjou, Gail Patrick, Constance Collier, Andrea Leeds, Samuel S. Hinds, Lucille Ball, Franklin Pangborn, Grady Sutton, Corson, Pierre Watkin, Grady Sutton, Frank Reicher, Phyllis Kennedy, Early, Arden, Ann Miller, Margaret Early, Elizabeth Dunne, Jean Rouverol, Norma Drury, Jane Rhodes, Katherine Alexander, Harriett Forbes, Huntley Gordon, Ralph Forbes. Hunter Gordon. Previewed at Pantages theatre, Hollywood, Sept. 7. Running time: 88 mins.

Once in a blue moon—oftener in this most scintillant of production seasons—there is a blending of elements in the making of a motion picture that creates something like what happens when steel strikes flint. Fire. 'Stage Door' is like that.

There's fire in the players, in the lines that sparkle through the piece like the lights they are. Likewise, the direction, and, it follows, the picture itself to the audience. The preview reception of this joint effort of Pandro S. Berman and Gregory La Cava left no possible doubt of the box office fate that awaits 'Stage Door' when it goes to the theatres. It is headed for very juicy and gratifying grosses that will justify the infinite care and skill bestowed upon its production and the large figure that unquestionably appear on its cost sheets.

Unlike most pictures with a professional Broadway background, this one pulsates with a warm, human story, with drama of the sort that tugs at the heart—stark and joyous, grim and gay, a tear lurking at the end of every laugh, and a laugh to usher in each tear.

It may be said that at the fundament of this deeply satisfying motion picture there are the combined art and experience and genius of George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber; and that's true. They wrote a sparkling and successful stage play before the films had their try at it. Yet 'Stage Door,' like most hit plays nowadays, came through the Hollywood crucible finer metal than it went in. It lost the illusory dimension of physical depth, perhaps, but took on scope and picturesqueness, the easy flow of scene and sequence that only pictures can provide, rapid pace, swift shadings of characterization, more sweeping and effective climaxes than the limitations of the theatre afford.

Katharine Hepburn is an heiress with an urge to be an actress. She goes to a typical theatrical boarding house off Times Square and there meets Ginger Rogers, who becomes her room-mate. Andrea Leeds has set her heart on playing a part that falls to Miss Hepburn through a deal made secretly between her father, Samuel S. Hinds, and Adolphe Menjou, a producer. Gail Patrick, a flame of Menjou's, is supplanted by Miss Rogers, whom Menjou sees dancing at a night club. Wooden in her part, Miss Hepburn is goaded to dramatic heights when on the opening night of her play she hears that Miss Leeds has killed herself in her disappointment. The picture closes on the same note of tongue-in-cheek, hard boiled kidding with which it begins. Life in the boarding house goes on as usual, but for the brief period of the action it has been a storm center of the emotions, a swirling vortex of truthfully, faithfully portrayed life as it is lived.

Miss Hepburn and Miss Rogers are billed worthily as co-stars. It's no end of pleasure for a seasoned fan to see Katharine Hepburn playing a character like Terry Randall, bringing to it the honest, genuine talent that she has to breathe into a part. Ginger Rogers is a revelation, and if there are still those who think her ability begins and ends with being a song-and-dance girl, they have only to look at her work in 'Stage Door' to realize that in this part Director La Cava has plumbed her for a genuine emotional response and found it. She is an actress of hitherto unrevealed capacities.

All this, however, must be a curtain-raiser to the real thrill of 'Stage Door,' who is Andrea Leeds. Her role isn't as big as those of the principals, but big enough to body forth a poignantly sensitive personality. The scene in which she ascends the staircase to the accompaniment of swelling applause to seize the tragic fate that awaits her will live as one of those rare inspired moments, alone enough to infuse this picture with the grace of true poetic beauty.

Adolphe Menjou is effective in his role, and the rest of the cast acquit themselves with much credit both to themselves and their director. The picture is lavishly mounted and dressed. The Kaufman-Ferber lines are delivered with all the value that's in them, which is a lot. Only one fault could be found with the general effect. That is the fairly frequent slurring over of good comedy lines when a number of persons are in the scene. Enunciation might have been clearer in some instances, or perhaps the director voluntarily sacrificed clarity to the swift pace of the show. In any case, it's too bad—but too many laughs ne spoiled a show yet.

"the preview reception left no possible doubt at the box office fate that awaits Stage Door"...

RKO RADIO PICTURES

TENSION ON THEATRE BUSINESS AND OTHER LINES EASES AT SHANGHAI

Newsreel Reveals Building of Forts in Pacific Islands; Film Confiscated by Japanese Riflemen at Hongkew

The Shanghai situation was eased considerably by the retreat of Chinese forces and the presence of more foreign troops, restoring some semblance of confidence both to the populace and to merchants, including those exhibitors whose theatres were not affected by recent bombings. This was the gist of a cablegram last Thursday from J. P. Koehler, MOTION PICTURE HERALD correspondent in Shanghai, who used the wire facilities of United Press to transmit to New York a description of the status today of the industry in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

At the same time, it was revealed through Universal Newsreel that the United States Navy Department is building fortifications in the Hawaiian Islands, also at Wake Island, Guam, and in the Philippines.

A cable report from a March of Time cameraman to the company's office in New York disclosed that both Japanese and Chinese authorities at Shanghai had refused to honor photographic permits and that cameras had been confiscated.

Calls Receipts Encouraging

Mr. Koehler, in his cable, said:

"Cinemas are reopening with encouraging receipts. Nanking's censors are expected to resume operations in Shanghai within a few days. All public utilities are in full operation except in Hongkew and the Eastern districts of the International Settlement. Comparatively small damage was done to cinema theatres except two subsequent-run houses.

"Tientsin, Peiping, Tsingtao, Hangkow, Chefoo and some other cities are operating cinemas with shipments possible from Shanghai on British steamers. Shanghai department stores and shops are open and doing business. Tennis, polo and other sports are played daily on the Shanghai race-course center. Chinese bombers appear occasionally after dark, but except for occasional stray archies, there is no great danger to the settlement. Food is sufficient, but prices are higher. Mails are delayed but there are daily deliveries in Shanghai.

Streets Busy

"The volunteer corps has been partially demobilized. The populace is orderly and the health department has the cholera situation in hand. Cable service has been restored.

"Emphatically there should be no thought of abandonment of business or wholesale discharge of experienced staffs.

"The streets, except for protection from occasional stray archies, are assuming their normal busy appearance. Local managers report present business small but not lost entirely. Hope for near future improvement. Although the situation is serious there is no cause for undue alarm at present. All well."

The Navy's activities in constructing fortifications came to light after Charles Ford, editor of Universal Newsreel, dispatched Norman Alley, cameraman, to Shanghai, via San Francisco and the Pan-American's China Clipper. Mr. Ford received a wire from Mr. Alley saying that the Navy had ordered all cameras on the Clipper sealed. Mr. Ford then contacted Washington and discovered the fortifications were the reason. It developed shots may be taken inside the plane and the like, but cameras must be sealed so film cannot be dropped over the side or otherwise disposed of, and what shots are taken must be submitted to the Navy Department at Washington.

Film Confiscated

The cable to the March of Time office was from Harrison Forman, who said:

"Since a few days ago, possession of a camera in Japanese controlled areas makes one liable to immediate confiscation and detention, and perhaps a roughing up. Chinese are still congenial but local authorities continue to refuse official permission to shoot films.

"In obtaining current sequences we had a close shave in an automobile race with a Japanese plane that bombed and machine-gunned us near Nanziang, and lucky escapes from Chinese and Japanese shells raining down in the Yangtze River and in Kiwangwan and Woosung.

"One film was confiscated by Japanese riflemen who stopped us with bayonets at Hongkew. We ducked machine gun bullets and shrapnel bombs when caught between the Japanese warships in a motorboat on the Whangpoo while Chinese airplanes were bombing and gunning the river."

Beatrice Kaufman, Eastern story head for Samuel Goldwyn, has resigned. Her successor has not been named.

Booing Society Starts Agitation In New Orleans; Membership Slow

Membership drives have started in New Orleans for the third chapter of the Society for the Booing of Commercial Announcements in Motion Picture Theatres with the arrival of William Bell, of the charter Little Rock unit, on a promotion visit.

Memberships are coming in slowly, Mr. Bell admitted, largely because New Orleans first-run theatres do not have commercial announcements. It is their constant threat, however, that makes him redouble efforts for organization of a militant opposition, he says.

"It's an insidious movement and we had better plan our combat right now," said Mr. Bell. "You haven't got any commercial announcements at first-run theatres here, but you never know when you will have them. We in Little Rock are much better off. We have them and know what to do about them."

Mr. Bell stressed the gentility of the Bronx cheer as practised in Little Rock, giving it a new-found quality of refinement. "You see," he explained, "as far as we are concerned it is a genteel demonstration of righteous indignation. We studiously avoid any show of horseplay. However, it makes a lot of noise."

CBS and AT&T Report Incomes

Net incomes were reported this week by the Columbia Broadcasting System as $2,523,813 for the 26 weeks ending July 3rd and by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company as $11,896,186 for the seven months ending July 31st.

Columbia's income represents an increase of $436,963 over the corresponding period last year. Gross income from sales totaled $17,640,184 as compared with $13,163,457 for the same period in 1936. Earnings are equivalent to $1.48 per share, an increase of 26 cents a share over the preceding year.

The net operating income from A. T. & T. represents a decline of $608,245 from that for the same period in 1936. The loss was in spite of gains in gross revenues for the recent period at a total of $62,913,734. July net income was $1,259,799 compared with $1,779,243 for July, 1936.

	1937	1936
July gross	$8,512,283	$8,996,648
Net oper. income	1,259,799	1,779,243
Seven months' gross	62,913,734	61,767,133
Net oper. income	11,896,186	12,504,431

A. T. & T.'s operations reflect to some extent its interests in the motion picture business, through the theatre and sound manufacturing activities of Western Electric and Electrical Research holdings.

Operation of the Byrd and Brookland theatres in Richmond, Virginia, and the Bluebird and Rex in Petersburg, has been taken over by Neighborhood Theatres, Inc. Charles A. Somma, in the theatre business in Richmond for several years, has been elected vice-president of Neighborhood Theatres.

JUDGE SEES NO 'MORAL LESSON' IN 'SEX' FILMS

Denver Municipal Jurist Praises Industry for Adherence to The Production Code

Commendation of the motion picture industry's voluntary adoption and adherence to the Production Code of higher film standards, and an equally vociferous denunciation of sponsors and exhibitors of the socalled "sex" or "clinical" film came this week from the courts in Denver, along with the formal decision that that city would hereafter be closed to such exhibitions.

The week also brought another loud censorship discussion, in Pennsylvania, over the banning of a "political propaganda" film.

In a statement following his decision to cut several scenes from the "sex" film, "Smashing the Vice Trust", Philip B. Gilliam, Denver municipal judge, said not only that the showing of such pictures in Denver theatres must cease but warned that any managers who display these pictures will run the risk of having their licenses revoked. He commended the motion picture industry for its stand on "sex" films, and added that "Denver would not be a city to undo all the good work."

The decision on "Smashing the Vice Trust" followed a protest from the local vice squad.

Cites Industry's Efforts

"Now and then, in Denver, a motion picture is shown of the type commonly known as a sex picture," said the judge in preface to his decision.

"Such pictures are usually played at the third-run theatres, and are advertised as being 'for adults only.' Whenever these films are shown there is usually a flood of protests to the authorities to have them stopped.

"When parties involved are brought into the Municipal Court, for a violation of the ordinance prohibiting the showing of obscene pictures, they claim that there is a moral lesson involved and that the pictures are therefore educational," he continued.

"For years the motion picture industry has endeavored to show to the public the type of entertainment that appeals to the people. Several years ago the Legion of Decency started a campaign against these sex pictures. The industry recognized and appreciated the good work being done by the Legion, and were convinced that the public did not want such pictures. As a result, practically all of the producers joined the movement and will not put out a picture that has not been reviewed in the office of Joseph Breen and received a code number—designating that it is suitable entertainment for the public.

"No discrimination is shown in this (industry) reviewing office, as they realize that there are many different types of appeals. Their purpose is not to discriminate, but rather to clean up motion pictures.

"In other words, the motion picture producers have taken it upon themselves to improve their industry, with a view to supplying the public with pictures of a high moral plane. Why, then, should Denver allow the tearing down of this commendable effort by permitting the showing of such sex pictures —films that the industry as a whole is against?

"In my opinion these socalled sex pictures are not educational. They are displayed always with an inference of evil. I, personally, do not think a theatre is the proper place for sex education.

"The people of Denver, as a whole, object to such films, and I think their objections are well founded. As long as I am on the municipal bench I am going to have these pictures stopped, and if they are again displayed, the theatre managers will place themselves in serious danger of losing their licenses."

For the second time this year, a motion picture based on the Spanish civil war has been barred from exhibition in Pennsylvania. And Governor George H. Earle, who prohibited the showing of the first film, "Spain in Flames," last February, has again been attacked for allegedly ordering the exclusion of the second film, "The Spanish Earth."

The picture was scheduled to open last Thursday at the Europa theatre, Philadelphia, but at the last moment, said manager Earl Harrison, he was advised that the State Board of Censors had ruled against the picture. That the censor board had been deliberating on the film more than a week was a most unusual procedure in passing on pictures, Mr. Harrison declared.

Charges Propaganda

Patrick A. Duffy, vice-chairman of the board, charged the film was "loyalist propaganda," the same reason given last February when the board barred "Spain in Flames." Mr. Duffy denied a charge by the North American Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy that the board had withheld its review until the arrival of Governor Earle from abroad. Mr. Duffy explained that he had been ill, and the board desired its full membership to pass judgment on the controversial film.

The North American Committee, which collects funds for the Spanish loyalist cause and tangled with Governor Earle in the matter of "Spain in Flames," said the Governor was personally responsible in banning the second Spanish film. The committee pointed out that the film was not passed upon until Governor Earle had returned from Europe, although a decision one way or the other would normally have been issued a week ago. "Spain in Flames" was banned last February because, according to Governor Earle, it was "recruiting propaganda for the Spanish loyalists." Under state law, a film can be disapproved only because it is "lewd, indecent or obscene."

Columbia President East

Harry Cohn, president and production chief of Columbia Pictures, arrived in New York this week to see a performance of the stage play, "You Can't Take It With You," which his company will turn into film. Mr. Cohn returns west on Saturday.

Milliken Asks Church Support

The motion picture industry "confines itself to the business of furnishing wholesome entertainment," Carl E. Milliken, secretary of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, declared Tuesday in an address to the Maine Universalist convention in Bangor, Maine.

"In recent years," he added, "the motion picture has become the favorite recreation of the masses and the sole amusement of millions. This art industry, which attracts 200,000,000 weekly to 60,000 theatres throughout the world, confines itself to the business of furnishing wholesome entertainment. It does not seek to replace the teacher or the preacher. It cannot substitute for parental training of children.

"Yet, by 15 years of effort under the leadership of Will Hays, the industry has developed its own self-government to make certain that accepted standards of morality are not flouted and the canons of good taste are not offended. A reviewing group of church women, after 15 years' experience, has approved 97 per cent of American pictures of the present year. It is also interesting to note that, at Mr. Hays' suggestion, motion picture producers are permitting the use of excerpts from non-current pictures for experimental use in character education," Mr. Milliken said.

"Church leaders can make motion pictures increasingly helpful and character building," he declared:

"First, by supporting the industry's policy of self-government;

"Second, by training their young people to choose the best pictures;

"Third, by using for teaching purposes in character building vitamins frequent in current pictures offered in the theatres;

"Fourth, by adopting this new art form to the use of the church program."

British Costs Too High, Says Futter

Describing production costs in England as excessively high, Walter Futter, Hollywood producer, who has been engaged in British production for the past year, said this week that American companies planning to send their own staffs to England may find expenses there prohibitive.

Mr. Futter arrived in New York last week to arrange for distribution of his new picture, "Jericho," starring Paul Robeson (picture in pictorial section). Following that, he will go to Hollywood to sign an unnamed star whom he plans to feature in his next English production.

Calling fallacious the belief that English production is economical, Mr. Futter said that British income taxes, exorbitant interest charges and the doubled salary demands of American players to make a picture abroad combine to skyrocket costs. Moreover, British studio rentals are three times those asked in Hollywood, he said, because of the high investment in them by English capitalists.

IN THE CUTTING ROOM

Live, Love and Learn

(MGM)

Comedy

Someone at MGM must have become aware that a few more comedies on its production schedule would be appreciated; in any case, the production now under consideration is a comedy. It might be termed a ridiculous comedy in which such things as a man's desire for a career, romance and a triangle situation are being subjected to a burlesque treatment. It's about what happens to an artist who cracks the headlines when the Navy and Marine corps take opposing sides as to the merits of his paintings, when he marries a socialite, when another socialite butts in, an art dealer who doesn't know whether or not he has discovered a genius, of a wife who runs out and a husband who ran after his wife. All that happens in a Bohemian atmosphere.

Though the last co-starring appearances of Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell were in "Trouble for Two" and "Night Must Fall," which were anything but comedies, Mr. Montgomery's forte is comedy. On the basis of these pictures and "Craig's Wife," no one questions Miss Russell's ability, least of all MGM, which has seen fit to elevate her to stardom. When Robert Benchley is in a picture and he portrays an inebriated character, it is assumed that he will account for plenty of laughter. Helen Vinson has often, especially in "Vogues of 1938," demonstrated that she is adept as a woman scorned. Among others the film also will present Mickey Rooney, Monty Wooley, of whom not much is known, Charles Judels, Maude Eburne, Harland Briggs, E. E. Clive, June Clayworth and Al Shean.

Among others, George Fitzmaurice, director of "The Emperor's Candlesticks," has been at the helm of many well-liked films. Just as well as producer Harry Rapf, he understands the importance of comedy. The main title will carry the legend that the film is based on an original story by Marion Parsonnet and that Charles Brackett, Cyril Hume and Richard Maibaum combined their talents to prepare the screen play. But after all, for entertainment and exploitation purposes, this is being produced as a comedy picture.

Release date: tentatively October 27, 1937.

He Wanted to Marry

(Temporary Title)

(Grand National)

A Navy Story

Wallace Ford had to go to England, make a series of pictures there, before he found out, or more particularly, producers found out that there was a demand for his talents in Hollywood. This despite creditable performances in "The Informer" and a score or more other good pictures. However, producer David Diamond engaged him for a series of pictures, along with Ray Mayer (this being the first) and possibly it will provide an answer to the question which critics, exhibitors and the public ask: Why aren't fellows like Eddie Quillan, Ford and Dick Arlen seen more often?

The story is about U. S. Navy sailors. In theme or character, it follows the idea set forth in the "Force and Brains" bits of fiction which occasionally appear in a popular priced weekly. There's a girl in the case, of course, in order that the piece will contain the full quota of romantic content. There's thrill action, too, the U. S. fleet in target practice and a bit of heroism as force saves the life of brains who tried to chisel him out of the girl's affections.

The yarn is an original screen play by Clarence Marks and producer Diamond, and Raymond Cannon is directing.

The girl in the case who threatens momentarily to sunder the force and brains friendship of Ford and Mayer is Isabel Jewell, who no matter what she may have done in the meantime is recalled for her part in "The Lost Horizon." Others who will be seen whose name value depends to a great extent on localized acquaintance are: Mary Treen, Max Hoffman, Jr., Cully Richards, George Humbert, Alexander Leftwich, Kenneth Harlan, James Robbins, Kernan Crippes, Rex Lease and Tom Kennedy.

Being geared for a specialized market, one in which audiences appreciate the worth of thrill action, a full amount of comedy and just enough romance and melodrama give the motivation spice, the picture will be followed by others in which the leading pair are aviators, marines and soldiers.

Release date: October 5, 1937.

Young Man's Fancy

(Universal)

Stage Show Story

Putting on a stage show in the face of all sorts of complications, romantic, comic and topical, is the substance of this production. The idea is not entirely new. The potential entertainment quality is always a matter of conjecture. Everything depends upon how well the project is done. Universal intends that this shall be done right, inasmuch as the cost will run over the $750,000 mark and, presently the company is in no mood to spend big money unless it is more than half way sure the investment will return a profit.

Looking at the matter from the standpoints of quality assurance and exploitation availability, the company appears to have many things in its favor. B. G. DeSylva has produced some good pictures, and David Butler has directed a great many good ones, including several Will Rogers and Shirley Temple films as well as Eddie Cantor's forthcoming "Ali Baba Goes to Town." Although there was not much of the story which Maxwell Shane and Bill Thomas wrote left when "This Way Please" appeared on the screen, the former publicity men should know what exhibitors require in the way of story. Monte Brice and David Grayson have done some good screen plays and Harold Adamson and Jimmy McHugh have written many appealing song numbers.

To bring this story of staging a show under difficulties to screen realism, DeSylva seems to have rounded up a quality cast. Among the personalities participating are George Murphy, presently in "Broadway Melody" and "The Women Men Marry," Alice Faye seen in many 20th Century-Fox films, Ken Murray, Andy Devine, William Gargan, Charles Winninger, Donald Meek, Larry Blake and Frances Hunt. Specialties will be contributed by the entertainers, The Diamond Brothers, Marion and Irma and Casper Reardon.

Release date: November 12 (Tentative).

Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel

(Grand National)

Comedy

In a general way this production will follow the entertainment and showmanship idea laid down in such films as "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" and "Mr. Dodds Takes the Air." A somewhat cobwebby young man with a penchant for statistics wins a small fortune by guessing the number of beans in a jar. Instead of buying a single barrel, he buys a barrel factory with his sudden wealth.

From the time of "Make Me a Star" to "Pigskin Parade," Stuart Erwin has given evidence that he is the inheritor of Charles Ray's conception of the simple American boy who always stumbles through to success. He is the "Mr. Boggs" in this instance. With him in the picture are Helen Chandler, Toby Wing, Spencer Charters, Tully Marshall, Walter Byron, Milburn Stone, Harry Tyler, Edgar Kane, Otto Hoffman and several others of lesser note.

The motivation is based on an original story by Clarence Buddington Kelland, with the screen play being done by Richard English. Gordon Wiles, who made "Venus Makes Trouble" and "Women of Glamour" for Columbia, is directing.

Family entertainment, this picture may not attain the eminence of those to which it was compared, but its amusement quality should appeal to family audiences.

Release date: October 22, 1937.

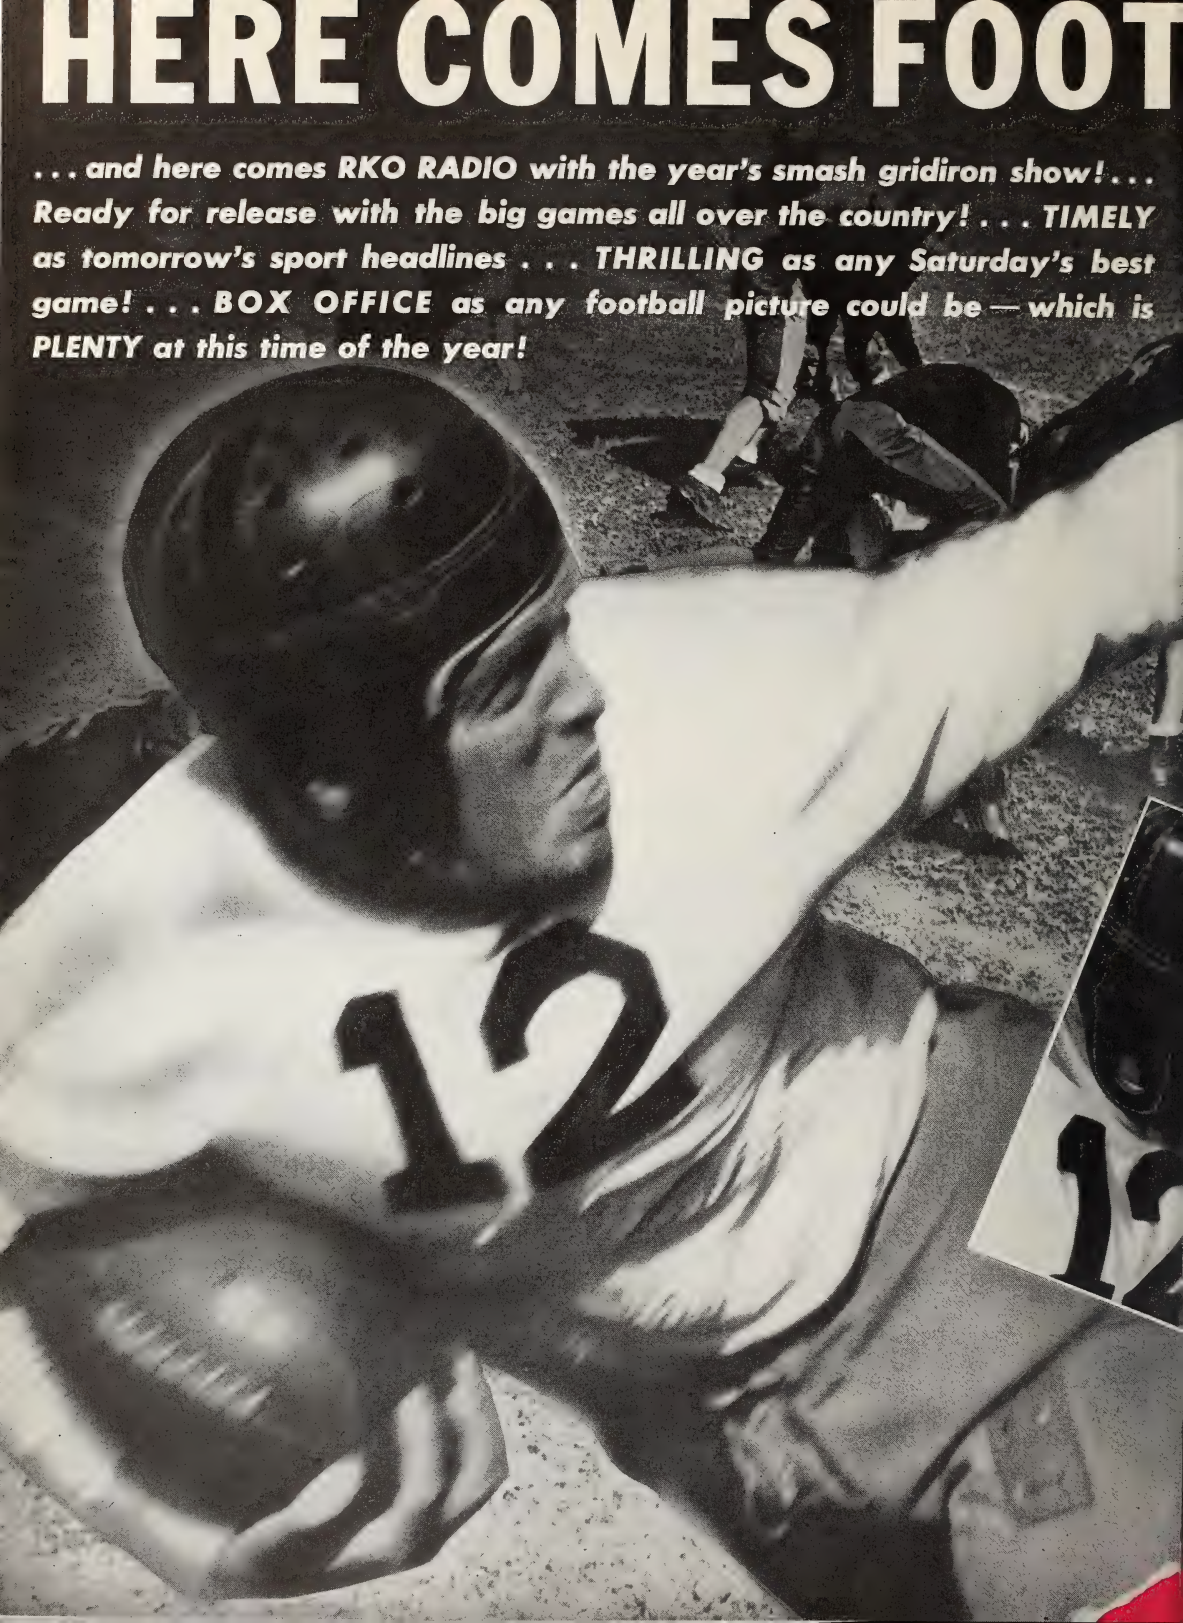
Portia on Trial

(Republic)

Problem Play

The combination of story character and quality of cast which will be featured indicate that this should be a picture of more than ordinary merit. Primarily, it appears to be a woman's story, one that will stir their most sympathetic emotions. Still it deals in circumstances and situations, which, when previously presented in similarly constructed photoplays have proved that they are not uninteresting to men.

In digest it deals with the experiences of a successful woman lawyer who must defend another woman on a murder charge. The dramatic character of the job is intensified because of the fact that the murdered man was once her husband, but their marriage had been annulled.



The production is based on a story by Faith Baldwin, who in addition to her repute as a novelist has provided many screen vehicles. The screen play is by Samuel Ornitz, credited with assisting in the preparation of "A Doctor's Diary" and "It Could Happen to You," with adaptation and added dialogue done by E. E. Paramore, Jr. George Nicholls, Jr., maker of many RKO-Radio pictures, is directing.

While the cast does not present any outstanding names, it does include capable and favorably known players. The principals are Frieda Inescort, Walter Abel, Neil Hamilton, Heather Angel, Ruth Donnelly and John Kolb. Anthony Marsh is the boy and other important parts are in the hands of Hobart Bosworth, Ian MacLaren, Chick Chandler, Paul Stanton, Leo Gorcey, Huntley Gordon, George Cooper and John Kelly.

Release date: October 8, 1937.

HERE COMES FOOT

. . . and here comes RKO RADIO with the year's smash gridiron show! . . . Ready for release with the big games all over the country! . . . TIMELY as tomorrow's sport headlines . . . THRILLING as any Saturday's best game! . . . BOX OFFICE as any football picture could be — which is PLENTY at this time of the year!

BALL!
SATURDAY'S HEROES
WITH VAN HEFLIN
MARIAN MARSH
RICHARD LANE · ALAN BRUCE · WILLIE BEST
DIRECTED BY EDWARD KILLY · PRODUCED BY ROBERT SISK SCREEN PLAY BY PAUL YAWITZ · CHARLES KAUFMAN · DAVID SILVERSTEIN
RKO RADIO PICTURES

COST STUDY DELAYS RADIO WORKERS PACT

Deadline for Signing of Contract to Double Musician Employees Now October 15

Complying with a request of the Independent Radio Network Affiliates for time to gather data, the American Federation of Musicians has postponed until October 15th, the deadline for the signing of a contract, which is designed to double the number of musicians now employed in radio.

Following in line with this delay, the international council of the AFM notified representatives of transcription companies and the three networks—National Broadcasting Company, Columbia Broadcasting System and Mutual Broadcasting System—that all negotiations with them will be deferred until after the IRNA matter is settled.

The progress made by the IRNA in its dealings with the AFM were explained in detail in a letter forwarded to station owners throughout the country. The letter also served as an appeal to broadcasters to attend a special convention of the National Association of Broadcasters in New York, October 12th.

Cost Distribution Problem

The one point on which signing of the contract now hinges is the adoption of a formula for distribution of the labor cost.

"At the convention," the IRNA letter stated, "an advisory vote taken disclosed that the affiliates were fairly evenly divided between a formula based on published rates and one based on net revenue. The objection in many cases to the rates basis, was that the published rate is a national rate on which only a small proportion of the actual business is accepted. The objection to the revenue basis was the unwillingness of many to disclose this figure to competitors and to unions."

In an attempt to overcome the objections the advisory committee of the IRNA, the letter explained, has engaged Ernst & Ernst, certified public accountants, to conduct an inquiry and thus prevent improper disclosure of figures.

Questionnaires Issued

Questionnaires to all station owners were sent under separate cover with a request that they be filled out within 48 hours after receipt. Among the points on which information was sought were:

"What were your net receipts during the 12 months ending August 31st, 1937?

"How much did you spend for staff musicians during this period?"

The IRNA's letter also pointed out that the deadline for agreeing on a standard form of contract had been postponed and then stated: "It is therefore absolutely essential that sufficient progress be made by that time (October 15th) to convince the federation of the good faith of the industry, and this means you. Otherwise the conclusion of these negotiations will be conducted in a state of hysteria and hostility and there will be losses and bitterness we are striving to avert."

All members of the music publishing industry have been invited to attend a closed conference on trade practices, called by the Federal Trade Commission to discuss the proposed voluntary code for publishers.

New Jersey Allied Airs Companies' Policies on Sales

Sales policies of Paramount and MGM featured the annual convention of Allied of New Jersey meeting which opened Wednesday at the Ritz-Carton Hotel, Atlantic City. The three-day meeting was called coincidentally with that of National Allied's eastern directors.

All members of the New Jersey unit recently pledged not to purchase Paramount product because of the recent withdrawal of six features from the 1936-37 contract.

Delegates also were expected to voice objection to MGM policies, charging inability to afford the higher rentals asked by the company for new season product and to discuss other companies' product and policies.

Other developments were awaited from the proposal of Harry Brandt, head of Independent Theatre Owners Association, to merge Allied with the ITOA. Already approved by ITOA directors, Mr. Brandt was to place the proposal before the delegates Thursday. Elections will be held Friday.

Also to come up for consideration was the plan of Abram F. Myers, chairman of the National Allied board, for a film industry code similar to that set up under the NRA and the one now govering the coal industry.

The Myers plan calls for a code that would establish fair practices, abolish block booking, false advertising and other alleged abuses.

Two Exhibitor Groups Set Annual Meetings

The Motion Picture Theatre owners of Washington will hold their annual convention October 22nd at the Washington Hotel, Seattle.

At the same time the annual convention of the Allied Theatres of Michigan will be held in Detroit with its probable date sometime in October.

William Riply, retiring president, will head the committee in charge of the Washington meeting.

Carre Joins Cantabria

Barlett Carre has joined Cantabria Films as production manager. The firm is producing all-Spanish pictures in Hollywood. John Alton has been signed by the company as head cinematographer.

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of September 18

CAPITOL
The Boss Didn't Say 'Good Morning' ..... MGM
Pigskin Champions ..... MGM
Bosko and the Cannibals... MGM

CENTRAL
Her Accidental Hero..... Twentieth Century-Fox

CRITERION
The Stork Takes a Holiday. Columbia
Xavier Cugat and Orchestra. Paramount
Calling All Doctors..... Columbia

MUSIC HALL
March of Time, No. 1..... RKO Radio

PARAMOUNT
Song of the Islands..... Paramount
Morning, Noon and Night Club ..... Paramount

RIALTO
Goofs and Saddles..... Columbia
The Grand Bounce..... MGM

RIVOLI
Mickey's Amateurs ..... United Artists
Comical Oddities of Ye Goode Olde Days..... Carl S. Clancy

ROXY
Motor Maniacs ..... Twentieth Century-Fox
Cleaning Day ..... Educational

STRAND
A Necking Party..... Vitaphone
I Want To Be a Sailor.... Vitaphone

Children's Book Week to Feature 'Sayzwer,' 'Heidi'

Motion pictures will figure for the first time in Children's Book Week, November 14th to 20th, annual sales drive sponsored nationally by book publishers.

Inclusion of films in the campaign is due to the imminence of two pictures based on juvenile books, "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," Selznick production, and the new Shirley Temple vehicle, "Heidi."

United Artists is preparing a three-card window exhibit for "Tom Sawyer" suitable for display in book stores, libraries and classrooms. The exploitation piece is similar to the one devised by Warners last spring for use in "The Prince and the Pauper" bookstore campaign during the Children's Book Festival sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune. In return for the privilege of participating, the United Artists posters are expected to assist Book Week by featuring the slogan, "Reading—the Highway to Adventure."

At the same time United Artists is preparing a study guide to contain pictures and background material on "Tom Sawyer," as of interest to school children.

Copies of this material are obtainable from the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, which is cooperating in the plan.

BRITISH EXHIBITORS RETORT WITH DEMAND FOR LOWER RENTAL COSTS

Association Council Answers Suggestions for Increasing Admission Charges with Committee to Meet Distributors

by BRUCE ALLAN
in London

An indirect but none the less unmistakable retort from British exhibitors to suggestions recently made that British admissions, like American, should take an upward trend, is conveyed by a decision of the General Council of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association to press for a reduction of rental rates.

The actual resolution of the Council merely established a special rentals committee "to consider the whole question of rentals and to report on any action that might be taken after consultation with the circuits." It has, however, special significance in view of the fact that Mr. W. R. Fuller, general secretary of the CEA, recently officially said that exhibitors did not propose to increase admission rates and that they did demand lower film prices. Also of some importance is the fact that the Council decision followed on refusal of the Kinematograph Renters Society, representing distributors, to discuss rentals with the CEA.

The immediate point which exhibitors wished to discuss with distributors was the fact that the same hire percentage is charged on films irrespective of the run, the second and third-run theatre paying at the same rate, frequently if not universally, as the first-run.

The refusal of the KRS to have a joint meeting on this question, which inevitably would, it seems, have broadened into a review of the general controversy on film prices, is in line with its declared policy of regarding rentals as a matter of negotiation between individual distributors and individual exhibitors. The CEA decision to agitate the matter is also in line with precedent; there is a long record of resolutions by the exhibitor body which have attempted, somewhat ineffectually in practice, to establish maximum rentals and to regulate them in various other ways.

Disregarded by Exhibitors

These policies have fallen down because of the established and recognized habit of exhibitors of disregarding them in every case in which they see a personal advantage in so doing. With a "40 per cent maximum" resolution on the books, CEA members eagerly have paid 50 per cent or more for outstanding attractions, rather than see them go to the other CEA members in the same booking areas. Human nature has beaten theoretical solidity every time; distributors quite openly expect it to continue to do so forever.

This fundamental situation does not seem likely to be changed by appointment of the latest CEA committee. If it is affected at all it will be because of the possibility now held out that circuits may be persuaded to cooperate. The circuits, of course, buy more advantageously than the individual exhibitor and presumably they would retain that advantage if the scale were lower than at present; to that extent they are as interested as the independent in making a maximum effective.

On the other hand, most of the circuits are directly or indirectly linked with various producing or distributing companies. They have lined up against exhibitors in the matter of new film legislation—which indirectly will have a considerable influence on rental scales—solely for that reason.

Part in Campaign Doubted

It seems questionable, control of these organizations being where it is, whether they will be allowed to cooperate in the national campaign, inaugurated by a protest meeting in London, which was envisaged by one of the speakers at the CEA Council. The point may turn on the exact degree of accuracy in the statement by Ken Nyman, CEA vice-president, that "circuits are as vulnerable as independents and just as much up against the wall." This is probably true as regards the negotiations of British circuits with the American distributors most frequently accused of oppressive trading, but what of those same circuits' ties with other British or American distributors which, with equally high-powered films, would use the same high-powered salesmanship?

Press Bureau Shelved

Another important matter discussed at the CEA Council meeting was the report of the legal, finance and parliamentary committee in regard to establishment of a Press and Propaganda Bureau. The principle of such a department was approved by the Council at its last meeting, when it considered a strong resolution from the Summer Conference of the CEA in favor of organized publicity for the exhibiting interest, with special reference to approaching Quota revision. The Committee was asked to go into details.

Its report was rather disappointing to those exhibitors who desire a militant publicity organization at short notice. After interviewing various applicants for the position of publicity officer and going into costs, the committee decided that the Bureau could not be established for less than £4,500 a year if it were to tackle Parliamentary agitation, and defensive and offensive publicity. This would entail an increased subscription from CEA members, estimated to average £1:1 for every theatre in the organization. Eliminating the Parliamentary work, the estimated cost would be £2,500, also an amount which the Association could not pay out of current revenue.

Referred Back

In the end, the Council referred the matter back to the committee, on the basis that it would reconsider the matter from the point of view of establishing a department which could be financed from the CEA's present resources. In the opinion of many speakers the larger scheme could be worked only in combination with other sections of the trade, and there was some discussion as to the possibility of reviving this joint publicity department, which was advocated convincingly by Mr. Simon Rowson at a CEA Conference some years back. As a matter of immediate practical politics it seems likely that the CEA may establish a publicity department as part of its present office organization.

A report from the cinematograph films legislation committee commented very briefly upon the White Paper, detailing the Government's Quota plans, to the effect that the committee proposed to follow a course "to which it is inadvisable at the moment to make public reference," but adding that the approaches already made to members of Parliament would be resumed when the House of Commons reassembled.

From the general purposes committee it was reported that a questionnaire was being circulated to all theatres asking their opinion for or against the 2,000 foot reel.

Maxwell and Union Cinemas

Following the death Wednesday of David Bernhard, chairman of the board of directors of Union Cinemas, Ltd., and father of C. F. Bernhard, founder and managing director of the circuit, the ordinary shares rose from six pence to two shillings on Thursday. The rise created the belief that John Maxwell, head of Associated British Pictures, was buying David Bernhard's shares and taking control of Union.

Circles close to Mr. Maxwell discounted the report, declaring that although there had been talks relative to the circuit, they preceded the death of the chairman. Union Cinemas has 228 theatres. The company's securities, of five shillings value, were at five shillings, six pence last April. His father's holdings gave C. F. Bernhard effective control of the company, and he probably will inherit those holdings.

If Mr. Maxwell were to acquire a controlling interest in Union Cinemas, it would make him unquestionably the dominant figure in the English theatre field. As the circuits total now, Mr. Maxwell's theatre company, Associated British Cinemas, Ltd., accounts for approximately 300 theatres. With

(Continued on page 42)

PARAMOUNT BRITISH PLANS AWAIT ZUKOR

Paramount's arrangements for producing in England under the indicated new quota requirements will be completed early in October after Adolph Zukor returns from Europe, Stanton Griffis, chairman of the administrative committee, said in New York last week. One of the purposes of Mr. Zukor's trip, the executive said, was to study production facilities in England and the company's plans will not be drawn up until after he has made his recommendations.

Add it

20,000,000
60
1,000,000
50,000

Floy

"YOUR

It's Appeal Sensationally MULTIPLIED by the NATION-WIDE THRILL-STORY CONTEST

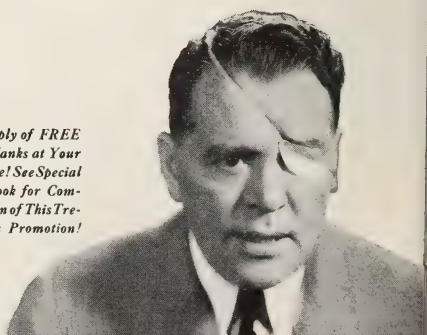
To be Conducted at Your Theatre!

THESE 2 BIG PRIZES!

FIRST GRAND PRIZE: $1,000 for the best True Adventure Story submitted.

SECOND GRAND PRIZE: A TRIP TO NEW YORK and return via one of the American Airlines 'Flagship' planes, a visit to the Eastern Vitaphone Studios and 2 days at a leading New York Hotel.



In Addition

(A) $250 for every True Adventure Story submitted that is used as the basis of a Vitaphone True Adventure Picture. These also will be eligible for the grand prizes.

(B) $25 for every True Adventure used for broadcast by Floyd Gibbons on the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet program.

Contest Closes Midnight May 15th, 1938

Full supply of FREE Entry Blanks at Your Exchange! See Special Press Book for Complete Plan of This Tremendous Promotion!

up yourself

READERS FOLLOWING IT DAILY IN 500 NEWSPAPERS!

KEY RADIO STATIONS BROADCASTING IT WEEKLY FOR 7 SOLID YEARS!

MEMBERS IN THE 'FLOYD GIBBONS ADVENTURERS' CLUB' RIGHT NOW!

DRUG STORES IN THE GIANT COLGATE-PALMOLIVE-PEET TIEUP DISPLAY!

And You'll See that You're Getting the Strongest Added Attraction in the History of Shorts when

VITAPHONE

Presents

d Gibbons

'THE HEADLINE HUNTER'

in

TRUE ADVENTURES"

FIRST RELEASE

"ATTIC OF TERROR"

Ready Now and Everybody's Raving!

An exploitation 'natural'! A real box-office draw! Full of thrill and suspense!—M. P. Daily

Bang up thriller! Carries a big suspense punch! —Film Daily

Play it! A showmanship natural on which exhibitors can go to town! Rates marquee billing and is a welcome addition to any program! —Box Office

Outstanding! Has ALL the earmarks of a hit! —Showmen's Trade Review

Held captive in an attic with a corpse!

BRITONS REJECT PRESS BUREAU IDEA

(Continued from page 39)

Union's 228 he would have more than 500 theatres under his control.

Under those circumstances, his nearest competitor in point of circuit totals would be Gaumont-British, controlling their major circuit and also Provincial Cinematograph Theatres, Ltd., accounting for approximately 300 theatres, and Odeon Theatres, Ltd., headed by Oscar Deutsch, with approximately 250 houses.

Labor Questionnaire

The Ministry of Labour is preparing a detailed questionnaire regarding labor conditions in British cinemas.

Trailers for Television

Trailers will be employed by the British Broadcasting Corporation in its television transmissions from the Alexandra Palace, commencing in October. Each Friday the highlights of the forthcoming week's programs will be illustrated, either by artistes in person or by means of films.

New UA Publicity Chief

H. R. Schleman, formerly press officer of United Artists in London, has succeeded Edmund Quarry as director of publicity. Appointed as press officer is John Downing, who has had charge of publicity for New World and Herbert Wilcox. Emil Lucas has been appointed to charge of Continental publicity; he has served Radio Pictures and Columbia in a similar capacity.

Capra's Action

Frank Capra has entered legal proceedings here against Columbia Pictures, Ltd., alleging his name was wrongly used in British publicity for "If You Could Only Cook," in breach of his agreement. He claims damages.

[In Los Angeles, Robert Kenny, superior court judge, on Tuesday sustained a demurrer by Columbia to Mr. Capra's suit to break his contract with the studio, and gave the director 10 days in which to file an amended complaint.]

Thornton Manager

W. H. Thornton, manager of the London Pavilion and previously in control of the Leicester Square theatre, has been appointed general manager of the Odeon, Leicester Square, which will open late in October on the site of the famous Alhambra.

Film Imports Into Ireland

Film imports into the Irish Free State during July were 700,000 feet, valued at £3,379. Last year the figures were 663,471 feet, value £3,669.

For the period January-July, the figures were 4,808,786 feet, value £26,875 against 1936 figures for the same period of 4,906,923 feet, value £30,044.

A new writers' department for the training of possible screen literary talent has been instituted by MGM. The department will be under the direction of Edwin Knopf, story head, and John Gallishaw, New York story consultant.

New Box Office Records Seen In Ross Survey of 29 Centers

Ross Federal Service, surveying economic conditions and box office potentialities in 29 exchange centers, concludes that a banner sales year lies ahead of the industry, predicting that all previous box office records will be broken in 1937-38.

The conclusion is based on three observations: (1) Economic conditions are showing a vast upswing, which, "film people" declare, will continue despite labor unrest, infantile paralysis epidemics and other unsettled factors troubling scattered localized sections. (2) Greatly increased production budgets of major film companies, backed by concentrated emphasis on "big feature" pictures, point to unequalled box office receipts and more profits. (3) Both improved economic conditions generally and the prospects of enlarged income via the box office specifically, have spurred the nation's exhibitors to reopen and improve their theatres—all sections of the country reporting extensive theatre renovation.

Ross reported that its survey disclosed in particular the improved conditions in the cotton and grain belts. Industrial regions such as New England were also said to be showing a decided upturn.

Inquiry by FCC Reported Near

Swearing in of Frank R. McNinch as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission Monday was believed in Washington this week to be the harbinger of an investigation by the commission into alleged broadcasting evils.

Mr. McNinch, former chairman of the Federal Power Commission, was appointed by President Roosevelt a while ago to "clean up" a situation believed so unhealthy that a Congressional investigation into the broadcast industry was avoided at the last session only by steam roller tactics.

The new FCC head, who has had several conferences with the President in recent weeks, has characterized his new function as one to "formulate fundamental policies and principles," indicating wider regulatory province over radio by the commission.

Among the major questions on which the commission is expected to act are alleged network domination of broadcasting, concentrated formation of public opinion through newspaper-ownership of stations, questionable sale of licenses and poor equalization of service in various zones.

Appointment of Mr. McNinch is considered a notice to other members of the commission that failure to cooperate in the clean-up will result in further injection of new blood into its membership.

Seeks Spanish Films

Education ministers of all Latin American nations have been invited by Lieutenant Colonel Guillerma Burbano Rueda, minister of education at Quito, Ecuador, to request European motion picture companies to product Spanish films, according to a cable from Quito to the New York Times. It is expected similar requests will be sent to the United States.

Goldwyn-Korda Deal Nearly Set

Notice for exercising the options held by Samuel Goldwyn and Alexander Korda for the purchase of United Artists stock will be given to Charles Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford shortly after the arrival of Mr. Korda from England in about three weeks, David Rose, vice president and financial adviser of Samuel Goldwyn, Inc., told a Motion Picture Daily reporter in an interview in his cabin on Tuesday just before the Queen Mary sailed for Southampton.

"The deal is set," Vice-president Rose was quoted as saying, "and I cannot talk about it at this time. The options will be included in a plan I am not in a position to discuss until I return with Mr. Korda."

Mr. Rose declined to comment when asked if American interests would participate in the $6,000,000 financing in which Mr. Chaplin, Mr. Fairbanks and Miss Pickford each will receive a reported $1,750,000 in cash and 50,000 shares of preferred stock in the company.

United Artists was originally formed by Miss Pickford, Messrs. Fairbanks and Chaplin and Harold Lloyd for the production and distribution of their own starring vehicles.

Miss Pickford recently expressed a desire to retire from production following her short-lived Pickford-Lasky production experiment. Mr. Chaplin now has his own studio and Messrs. Fairbanks and Lloyd are independent producers.

Mr. Korda is the head of London Films, but since 1935 has had a working agreement with United Artists providing for the reciprocal distribution of pictures in America and England. The proposed deal will not disturb his standing with the Prudential Assurance Company, which has financed much of Mr. Korda's production.

IN THE BRITISH STUDIOS

by BRUCE ALLAN
in London

ATP Starts Anew

Early in October the Ealing studio, enlarged and renovated, will see first shots made of a series of productions for Associated Talking Pictures, which this season, after a slow-up in activity, will again have a full studio program. Basil Dean will be the producer.

Anthony Kimmins, who has a new long-term contract with ATP, will direct the first picture. It will be a George Formby vehicle, and so far is untitled. The story will be written by Austin Melford and the director and Melford also will collaborate in the direction of dialogue. Kay Walsh will be opposite Formby, who will portray a shy Lancashire man on foreign travel.

Gene Markey's "The Sporting Peer" has been acquired by ATP as a starring vehicle for Edmund Gwenn. Carol Reed will direct; he has a new contract since making "Laburnum Grove" and "Who's Your Lady Friend?" Shooting will begin in mid-November. Gwenn later will be starred in an adaptation of Seton Merriman's novel, "Barlasch of the Guard."

Stories acquired by ATP include Robert Hichen's "The Bracelet," Norah James' "Sleeveless Errand," and Margaret Kennedy's "Come Live with Me."

New Miller Feature

Roy William Neill has finished "Quiet, Please," with Reginald Purdell and, also for Warner-First National at Teddington, is directing the Max Miller vehicle "Thank Evans." This will further exploit the personality of Educated Evans, the Edgar Wallace racecourse character who, in a film with the same name, put Miller among the best box-office bets in British films. In the cast are Polly Ward, Hal Walters, as Miller's stooge, the variety star Albert Whelan, and John Carol, a Teddington contract artiste who made a hit in the recent Glenda Farrell-Claude Hulbert "You Live and Learn."

Neill's daughter Barbara has arrived to study at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, preliminary to a screen career which probably will begin at Teddington. Neill, who directed several of the Constance Talmadge comedies, hopes the family will provide, in Barbara, some one worthy to be described as a successor to that artiste.

Silver Wedding

Tod Slaughter, leading figure in British melodrama for many years, and his wife, once Jenny Lynn and a West and comedy lead, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary by making film scenes at Shepperton, the very village in which they were married.

They are leads in George King's "Ticket of Leave Man," and Mrs. Slaughter is making her screen debut. Her husband has repeated many of his many blood-curdling stage roles, which he has played up and down the country for the whole 25 years, for British pictures.

Real old "meller" material is being used by the King unit, the current setting at Sound City representing a cellar forger's den with an equipment of such efficiency that the £50 notes it has turned out this week look every bit as good as the real thing—perhaps because that is just what they are, in order that closeups may not arouse the criticism of experts. Earlier, Tod Slaughter had done a little scientific garrotting, with his wife as the victim, for a picture which looks like an interesting period piece.

Marjorie Taylor, John Warwick, Frank Cochran, Peter Gawthorne and Norman Pierce are in the cast.

JEAN GILLIE appears in "Sweet Devil", a Jack Buchanan production directed by Rene Guissart at the Pinewood Studios.

20th-Fox for Pinewood

With the three major British studios—Denham, Pinewood and the uncompleted Amalgamated at Elstree—all in eager competition for the space contracts of major American companies scheming big picture production in England, the statement made recently by Joseph Schenck in London that Twentieth Century-Fox probably would locate itself at Pinewood was one of the important news items of the week.

Twentieth Century-Fox's British affiliate, New World, has worked at Denham, but though it is understood Robert T. Kane will remain in charge of an enlarged four-picture program in the next 12 months, the new productions alternately will be conducted by a special British unit of Twentieth Century-Fox, which will absorb New World. The first Fox picture with Gracie Fields will not come under this arrangement. It will be made at Denham.

The deal with Pinewood is to some extent provisional. It has to be ratified in New York and it may be that it is designed to cover the intermediate period before Twentieth Century-Fox is ready for its full program here, which conceivably may still be located elsewhere. Mr. Schenck appeared to suggest that Denham had not been ruled out. The important point of his statement was that it confirmed in full the expectation that Twentieth Century-Fox, like Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, contemplates including British productions in its regular schedule of releases, made with full Hollywood resources, on a £100,000 per picture basis, for world release. That Shirley Temple and other stars may come to London, with American directors in charge, indicates the seriousness of the Schenck-Zanuck plans.

Star, Director, Star

For the first time in six years, Henry Edwards is playing lead again in a British film, at Worton Hall. One of the first of our native screen favorites, with an experience going back to the old Hepworth studio, Edwards latterly has made a new reputation as a director. Now he has been cast in "Captain's Orders," for Liberty Films, with Jane Carr opposite. Iver Campbell is directing.

Early scenes for the film have shown the captain's bridge of the good ship Welcome, during a thick fog in which a collision with an iceberg has occurred. Marine details have been supervised by Captain Frank Shaw, a famous wartime commander of "Q" boats and writer of sea stories.

Make Six in Color

That Jack Buchanan Productions will make six pictures in color in the next two years, with Gielgud's "Richard of Bordeaux," as already announced, as the first of the series, was stated this week.

The Buchanan company already has completed three films, "Smash and Grab," starring Buchanan with Elsie Randolph, under Tim Whelan's direction; "The Sky's the Limit," with Buchanan this time partnered with Mara Losseff, the Continental star, Buchanan and Lee Garmes jointly directing, and "Sweet Devil," in which the stars are Jean Gille and Bobby Howes. Rene Guissart, onetime ace French cameraman, made it.

The current production of the company at Pinewood is "Break the News," which Rene Clair is directing with Malurice Chevalier, Adele Astaire and Jack Buchanan.

Her Own Unit

Resisting tempting offers from Hollywood, Jessie Matthews and her husband, Sonnie Hale, will form their own production unit, with British financing, as soon as the star is through with her current commitment with Gaumont-British.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

Victoria the Great

Historical romance and British epic produced and directed by Herbert Wilcox

A review by TERRY RAMSAYE

VICTORIA the Great in several of its aspects is the most emphatically significant motion picture that has been produced in Britain.

This picture could have been made nowhere else in the world and at no other time. It is as rich with romance, the drama of little tendernesses and of great moments, the dominance of empire overshadowing the lives of the great and the petty, as the life of Victoria herself. It is the story and the tradition of the greatest ruler of the modern world, re-created, illumined in a most British manner, with artful and substantially official authority.

To the many it will convey entertainment in terms of glamour, splendor, majesty, with many interludes of intensity.

To more thoughtful components of audiences, in some degree aware of the world and the times, the picture will have in addition the appeal of special interest in its relation to racial destinies, the map of two hemispheres and the inevitable relation of Victoria and her tradition to such more recent concerns as the abdication of Edward VIII and the problems of Sir Anthony Eden at Geneva.

In the strictly technical view of showmen "Victoria the Great" as a production presents surprise and discovery in the capacities of both Miss Anna Neagle in the title role and in the special adroitness of the direction by Mr. Herbert Wilcox in dealing simultaneously with the most sacred of British tradition and rigid officialdom and with the requirements of drama for the entertainment screen. "Victoria the Great" in some sequences is as documentary as a speech written for the King to read and yet contrives generally to reach the freedom of art expression.

"Victoria the Great" takes no such liberties with fact as much of the flow of American historical and biographical screen presentations—and seems not to have required them.

The picture is a demonstration of what Mr. Wilcox meant when he said, on the occasion of his last New York sojourn, that the destiny of British production was not in seeking to do competitively over there just what Hollywood does here, but rather to make British pictures, equally addressed at a world audience, but in a British manner.

It is inevitable that one on seeing "Victoria the Great" should recall Noel Coward's "Cavalcade" as done into film under Mr. Winfield Sheehan's supervision at the Fox studios. Victoria is the chapter that went before. And, incidentally, Mr. Truman Talley's documentary "The First World War" might be considered a sort of sequel chapter of a trilogy.

"Victoria the Great" gets under way through the first third of its considerable length with its more intimate, and presumably more fanciful sequences showing how this spunky child of royalty became a wilful young queen, a sweetheart, a wife—and, very much to the surprise of her contemporaries, some loyal, many scheming, most positively the ruler of Great Britain.

The destiny of an era is involved when the girl Victoria elects to have her bed moved from her mother's boudoir. A nation has turned its back to the connivances of Continental Europe, to win empire.

In the obvious cooperations, endorsements and encouragements which Mr. Wilcox has had from British authority, with special access and privilege such as no camera has ever before enjoyed, Britain has done something to help restore the lustre of the Crown. There is an indirect telling of the world why the throne of the "Widow at Windsor" was not to be shared by an American divorcee in 1937.

As history recorded and the screen now narrates, there have been few positions more difficult than that of Albert, the prince consort, when he became Victoria's husband. In consequence Mr. Anton Walbrook, cast for the part, found an equally difficult screen role with which he dealt with success and a degree of commendable restraint. The most important American name in the very large cast is that of Mr. H. B. Warner, who played Lord Melbourne, the prime minister.

The production includes two major Technicolor sequences which add much to the versimilitude and not so much to the dramatic continuity and unity. It seems that perhaps about the point where dramatic story appeal to Tillie-the-Toiler spectators begins to pale, the stimulus of color was injected to give aid to the pageantry of royalty, empire and glory.

"Victoria the Great" had its world premiere at the Leicester Square theatre in London September 16, and next month has its American opening at the Music Hall in New York. For metropolitan audiences it may be expected to command attention and patronage on its special merits. Elsewhere in the provinces it is likely to be as good as its presentation and selling. Competent showmen will find an abundance of cues and provocations for exploitation.

Producer and director, Herbert Wilcox. Distributed by RKO. Scenario and dialogue by Miles Malleson and Charles de Grandcourt. Assistant director, Lloyd Richards. Production manager, Tom White. Musical score by Anthony Collins. Musical direction by Muir Mathieson. Art editor, L. P. Williams. Photographed by F. A. Young; Technicolor sequences by William V. Skall. Editor, Jill Irving. Made at the London Film Studios, Denham, England. Release date, Oct. 22nd. Running time, 113 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Queen Victoria	Anna Neagle
Prince Consort	Anton Walbrook
Prince Earnest	Walter Rilla
Duchess of Kent	Mary Morris
Lord Melbourne	H. B. Warner
Baroness Lehzen	Greta Wegener
Archbishop of Canterbury	C. V. France
Wellington	James Dale
Sir Robert Peel	Charles Carson
Lord Conyngham	Hubert Harben
Palmerston	Felix Aylmer
Disraeli	Derrick De Marney (Young) / Hugh Miller (Old)
Gladstone	Arthur Young
Stockmar	Paul Leyssac
President Lincoln	Percy Parsons

Angel

(Paramount-Lubitsch)

Eternal Triangle Stuff

It goes without saying that return of Ernst Lubitsch to active production after two years is a circumstance to be mentioned by showmen who elect to proffer this picture to their patrons, for the Lubitsch name has definite and widely comprehended connotations. Likewise, indicative as well as informative is the presence of Marlene Dietrich, Herbert Marshall and Melvyn Douglas as principals supported by such players as Edward Everett Horton, Laura Hope Crews, Ernest Cossart and Herbert Mundin. Perhaps a majority of exhibitors will consider a sheer listing of these names ample notice to patrons that the picture is typically Lubitsch and therefore, of course, angelic in title only, not to say satirically.

In other sectors, if any, where more explicit definition of product is regarded as in order, showmen may choose to quote, in whole or part, the following text from the handsomely printed 4-page playbill supplied by Paramount

(Continued on page 49)

Sixty-one Holdovers!

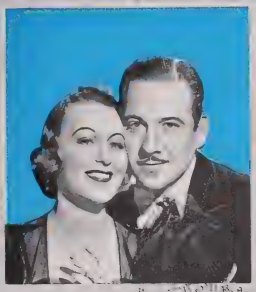
Exceeding our most optimistic expectations, "LOST HORIZON" has been held over in sixty-one cities, since its general release at popular prices! . . . The story of this great picture is now box-office history.

THE FOLLOWING PAGES GIVE INDICATION OF THE CONTINUANCE OF COLUMBIA'S BATTERY OF HIGH-POWERED HITS!

New Columbia Pictures

IRENE DUNNE
and
CARY GRANT

set a new high standard in great comedy in "The Awful Truth". . . A Leo McCarey production, delightfully directed by McCarey himself from a swell screen play by Vina Delmar, with Everett Riskin as associate producer . . . Here is a picture that will make good for us and for you and one that you can get behind whole-heartedly . . . A crack comedy cast includes such favorites as Ralph Bellamy, Cecil Cunningham and Alexander D'Arcy.



Ready for Screenings

GRACE MOORE
and MELVYN DOUGLAS

will soon be swinging their care-free way through "I'll Take Romance"! Smartly produced by Everett Riskin and directed by Edward H. Griffith, creator of "Cafe Metropole", "Holiday" and other smashes, from a screen play by George Oppenheimer and Jane Murfin . . . it's another Night of Love, as Grace Moore tames the man who made "Theodora" go wild, surrounded by a bang-up cast including Helen Westley and Stuart Erwin.

EXPLOITATION AT ITS BEST

A TOPICAL THRILLER THAT'S TOPS IN STORY AND ACTION!

G-MEN, revealing how they trap killers with weapons more fatal than guns!

G-GIRLS, something new in excitement . . . novel . . . fresh . . . gripping!

PUBLIC ENEMIES . . . their dramatic march into the government net!

CASH IN on today's demand for new thrills!

JACK HOLT in

TRAPPED BY G-MEN

with WYNNE GIBSON • C. HENRY GORDON • JACK LA RUE

Directed by LEWIS D. COLLINS Screen Play by TOM KILPATRICK

A COLUMBIA PICTURE

(Continued from page 44)

to persons attending the Hollywood preview:

"Melchior Lengyel, the Hungarian playwright-author of "Angel," has subsequently offered additional stories to Jeff Lazarus, head of Paramount's board, and by so doing has created a first-class problem for Lazarus. This results from two Lengyel traits, persistent salesmanship and a genius for writing racy, continental stories. When Lazarus frowns on one of these rather delicate stories and expresses his disbelief in its suitability for the screen, Lengyel refuses to take no for an answer, bangs the desk with his hand, and impiores: "Has Lubitsch seen it? Has Lubitsch said it can't be filmed?" Such is the tribute to the finesse of the Lubitsch touch."

In any case, persons attracted to an exhibition of "Angel," by whatever means, are going to see a type of product infrequently ventured in Hollywood during recent seasons. They will see Miss Dietrich portray in her usual heavy-lidded manner the professedly but by no means manifestly neglected wife of a British statesman whose job it is to keep the Empire's fellow members of the League of Nations in line with Downing Street policy. They will see Herbert Marshall as the allegedly but never in word or deed visibly inattentive spouse. And they will see Melvyn Douglas as a cocksure English gentleman of no declared occupation not only eager but determined to relieve her ladyship's purported if dubious distress without further delay or formality.

As the picture opens they will see an elaborately unidentified and somewhat throaty young woman arrive at a place in Paris which looks, during a long through-the-window and therefore speechless camera recording of the goings-on within, almost exactly like a well appointed house of assignation is popularly supposed to look. After a great deal of silent footage in which the camera trails a plump and bespangled person whose deportment and activities might lead innocents who believe their own eyes to assume she will be introduced as Madame Something-or-other, the dialogue, when it does begin, establishes her title as Grand Duchess and her place as a salon! Then they will see the visitor, who has explained herself only to the extent of saying she doesn't want good advice, meet an upstanding young man who says a friend sent him here to find diversion more exciting than Notre Dame and the Louvre, and exchange verbal evasions which wind up in (1) a dinner in public at a cafe, (2) a spot of ambiguous dialogue with equally ambiguous gestures in a private dining room and (3) an interruption and parting on a bench in what may be a park at some undesignated hour between sundown and dawn. If nobody drops a pin during all this they (meaning the audience) may detect in the dialogue certain half-hidden indications that nothing actually criminal has occurred.

Shortly after this it develops that the woman who doesn't want good advice is Lady Barker, wife of Sir Frederick Barker, who seems to have been doing for England about the same sort of chores Sir Anthony Eden has been getting credit for this past year or so. It further develops that the young man who didn't care for cathedrals, a Mr. Anthony Halton, no less, used to share a French sweetheart with Sir Frederick in their war years, although alternately, a historical coincidence which Mr. Halton recalls to Sir Frederick by way of making the statesman's acquaintance, which ripens at once into the most intimate kind of friendship. This mutual admiration results in an invitation from the peer to come down and see him some time, which the upright Mr. Halton does at once, discovering that the lady he playfully dubbed "angel" that night in Paris is Sir Frederick's wife and proceeding at once to insist, whenever his friend leaves the room to answer a 'phone call from Geneva, that she rejoin him at the same time and place on Wednesday next. (There's enough dialogue in this stanza to make up for that long silent stretch in the salon.)

Ultimately, of course, the British statesman who finds it no trick at all to guess what Jugoslavia or Japan is trying to keep him from guessing, trips over the fact that his wife is going to join his buddy in Paris and the three arrive there practically but not quite together. As a matter of fact, her ladyship, arriving last, blunders into the room where her husband has been attempting, futilely in spite of his mastery of international diplomacy, to bribe the Madame (pardon, Grand Duchess) to tell him things, whereupon they talk like a high school class play until his lordship learns that her ladyship is indeed the gal his pal's been telling him about and is told that it's all his fault because he hasn't been home much lately. At this point they (again meaning the audience) are asked to believe that the gentleman who keeps England out of war tells his wife it's all right with him if she doesn't do it again. She doesn't promise, but the fadeout shows her following him out of the room and they (meaning the audience, again) are free to draw their own conclusions.

It should be noted for the record, of course, that Herr Lubitsch has produced this picture in his accustomed ornate manner and equipped it with his usual incidental whimsies, some of them very laughable, concentrating his consummate artistry upon the sly insinuation, the cunning suggestion, the unfinished utterance, the off-center emphasis and the adroitly timed joining of dialogue with contradictory action, which are his stock in trade.

It should be noted, too, that the production bears the seal of the Production Code Administration, number 3,399 to be specific, from which circumstance it must be inferred that the film has been held to violate no section of the rules and regulations other directors go by. It is highly improbable, however, that even Herr Lubitsch would recommend making a special appeal to the kiddies to come and see his picture.

Previewed at the Westwood Village theatre, September 13, and a goodly crowd was there. Reaction to incidental humor, supplied by competent comedians and closely akin in character to the serious content of the story, was lively. An atmosphere of respectful attention prevailed at other times. Going out, many stopped to shake hands with Herr Lubitsch, standing with his back to the foyer wall and beaming a little, while, outside, ladies clustered about Melvyn Douglas squealing manifest delight with his portrayal of the party of the third part.— W. R. W.

Produced and directed by Ernst Lubitsch. Distributed by Paramount. Assistant director, Joseph Lefert. Screen play by Samson Raphaelson from the play by Melchior Lengyel. English play adaptation by Guy Bolton and Russell Medcraft. Film editor, William Shea. Art directors, Hans Dreier and Robert Usher. Musical direction by Boris Morro's. Song, "Angel," by Frederick Hollander and Leo Robin. Photographed by Charles Lang. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3399. Release date, October 15, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 88 minutes. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Maria Barker	Marlene Dietrich
Sir Frederick Barker	Herbert Marshall
Anthony Halton	Melvyn Douglas
Graham, valet	Edward Everett Horton
Grand Duchess Anna Dmitrievna	Laura Hope Crews
Walton, butler	Ernest Cossart
Greenwood	Herbert Mundin
Prince Vladmir Gregorovitch	Ivan Lebedeff
Lord Davington	Lionel Pape
Emma, Walton's fiancee	Dennie Moore
First footman	Leonard Carey
Second footman	Gerald Hamer
Maid, Barker home	Phillis Coghlan
English chauffeur	Eric Walton
Russian butler	Michael Visaroff
Prima	Duci Kerekjarto

The Wrong Road

(Republic)

A Preachment

A peculiar bit of mob psychology occurred during this preview. At a serious moment an unidentified youth (presumably) gave vent to a raspberry. Immediately from all corners of the auditorium and balcony came a flood of hoots, cat calls and hisses. As quickly, however, came a burst of handclapping by the more level headed among the audience, which put the disturbing element to shame. At the end, the picture received what it had earned, a roar of appreciative applause.

It is difficult to understand why such an incident should have occurred. Maybe the serious tone which the picture pursued, or the moral it pointed, hit too close to home. Certainly the quality of story, acting, directing or production technique could not have provoked it.

The story is one that makes persons, no matter what their age as long as it's above the juvenile period, pause and think. Believing that it will assure them future happiness, a boy and girl steal $100,000. They go to jail as they expected, considering their imprisonment a cheap price. But when they try to recover their loot, things happen which, either through the force of reason or the power of fear, appeal to their better moral and social instincts. They find happiness when the money is recovered and returned.

The story is well acted by Richard Cromwell, Helen Mack, Lionel Atwill, Horace MacMahon, Russ Powell and Marjorie Main. The supporting characters are above standard. James Cruze's direction is pointed, intelligent and understanding. The plot and denouement is well developed by cleverly written dialogue and well contrived action and situations. Did the piece offer more notable names, undoubtedly it would be welcomed in the big theatres. It may play in some of them in spite of this factor. But its real field is the neighborhood and smaller houses. There, if audiences are made aware of what to expect, and there is no lack of showmanship material with which to broadcast the knowledge, the picture should prove a popular attraction.

Previewed September 17 in Warner Beverly theatre. The reaction was as described.— G. M.

Produced and distributed by Republic. Colbert Clark, associate producer. Directed by James Cruze. Screen play by Gordon Rigby and Eric Taylor. Original story by Gordon Rigby. William Morgan, film editor. Photographed by Ernest Miller. P. C. A. Certificate number carried. General audience classification. Running time, 60 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date, October 11, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Jimmy Caldwell	Richard Cromwell
Ruth Holden	Helen Mack
Mike Roberts	Lionel Atwill
Blackie	Horace MacMahon
Foster	Russ Powell
McLean	Billy Bevan
Mrs. Foster	Marjorie Main
Holbrook	Rex Evans
District Attorney	Joseph Crehan
Beamish	Arthur Hoyt
Big Hobo	Syd Saylor
Judge	Selmer Jackson
O'Fearna	Chester Clute

Double Wedding

(MGM)

Farce

On July 24th, in the Cutting Room department of MOTION PICTURE HERALD, a discussion of this production credited an unnamed attache of MGM's publicity department with saying, "It's jam-packed with breezy situations, bright dialogue and outstanding characters. There's not a conventional moment in it; not a single solitary ordinary situation or a prosaic line. It effervesces, sparkles and bubbles like no other romantic comedy of the season." The reporter added: "That's quite a birthright to live up to, but Mr. Powell and Miss Loy have not disappointed in their previous joint appearances."

Had the audience which witnessed a public screening of the film in the Westwood Village Theatre, on an otherwise calm, moonlit night, had an opportunity to read those lines, it is quite possible it might have felt that the MGM publicity agent was modest.

"Double Wedding" is all that the man said it would be. On top of that, it's one of the funniest, most nonsensical and refreshing farces that has come along in a long time. If this Powell-Loy endeavor isn't an all-laugh show there never was one. A slight idea of its character may be gained if it is understood that the whole purpose of the piece seems to have been to make the stars look ridiculous, but smartly ridiculous, so

(Continued on page 52)

Box Office Champions for August

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING: Associate producer, Laurence Schwab. Directed by Norman Taurog. Screen play, Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen and Karl Tunberg. From an original story by Gregory Ratoff. Music and lyrics, Mack Gordon and Harry Revel. Photographer, Lucien Andriot. Art director, Duncan Cramer. Set decorations, Thomas Little. Assistant director, Jasper Blystone. Film editor, Hansen Fritch. Costumer, Royer. Sound, Arthur Von Kirbach and Roger Heman. Musical director, David Buttolph. Cast: Alice Faye, Ritz Brothers, Don Ameche, Charles Winninger, Louise Hovick, Rubinoff, Tony Martin, Arthur Treacher, Phyllis Brooks, Tip, Tap & Toe, Louise Prima, Tyler Brooke, George Humbert, Jed Prouty, Wally Vernon, Robert Murphy, Dorothy Christy, Paul McVey, Clara Blandick. Released August 3, 1937.

ARTISTS AND MODELS: Produced by Lewis E. Gensler. Directed by Raoul Walsh. Screen play, Walter DeLeon and Francis Martin. Based on an adaptation by Eve Greene and Harlan Ware. Story by Sig Herzig and Gene Thackrey. Musical direction, Boris Morros. Songs: "Whispers in the Dark" by Leon Robin and Frederick Hollander; "Public Melody Number One," Ted Koehler and Harold Arlen, conceived by Vincente Minnelli; "Mister Esquire," Ted Koehler and Victor Young; "Pop Goes the Bubble," "Stop! You're Breaking My Heart," by Ted Koehler and Burton Lane; "Sash, Pasha Opening," The Yacht Club Boys and Ted Koehler. Musical advisor, Phil Boutelje. Photographed by Victor Milner. Art director, Hans Dreier and Robert Usher. Edited by Alma Ruth Macrorie. Sound recording, Harold Lewis and Louis Mesenkop. Musical numbers staged by LeRoy Prinz. Costumes, Travis Banton. Esquire personnette and song by special permission of Esquire, Inc. Interior decorations by A. E. Freudeman. Cast: Jack Benny, Ida Lupino, Richard Arlen, Gail Patrick, Ben Blue, Judy Canova, Cecil Cunningham, Hedda Hopper, Sandra Storm, Kathryn Kay, Donald Meek, Nick Lukats. Specialties by Martha Raye, Louis Armstrong, Andre Kostelanetz and his Orchestra, Russell Patterson's "Personnettes," Judy, Anne and Zeke, Connie Boswell. Released August 12, 1937.

WEE WILLIE WINKIE: Associate producer, Gene Markey. Directed by John Ford. Screen play by Ernest Pascal and Julien Josephson. Based upon story by Rudyard Kipling. Music score by Alfred Newman. Photography, Arthur Miller. Cast: Shirley Temple, Victor McLaglen, C. Aubrey Smith, June Lang, Michael Whalen, Cesar Romero, Constance Collier, Douglas Scott, Gavin Muir, Willie Fung, Brandon Hurst, Lionel Pape, Clyde Cook, Lauri Beatty, Lionel Braha, Mary Forbes, Cyril McLaglen, Pat Somerset, Hector Sarno. Released July 30, 1937.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING 20th Century-Fox

SARATOGA MGM

SARATOGA: Produced by Bernard H. Hyman. Directed by Jack Conway. Original story and screen play by Anita Loos and Robert Hopkins. Associate producer, John Emerson. Assistant director, Tom Andre. Musical score by Edward Ward. Music by Walter Donaldson. Lyrics by Bob Wright and Chet Forest. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Photographer, Ray June. Cast: Clark Gable, Jean Harlow, Lionel Barrymore, Frank Morgan, Walter Pidgeon, Una Merkel, Cliff Edwards, George Zucco, Jonathan Hale, Hattie McDaniels, Frankie Darro, Henry Stone. Released July 23, 1937.

ARTISTS AND MODELS Paramount

WEE WILLIE WINKIE 20th Century-Fox

THE GOOD EARTH MGM

THE ROAD BACK Universal

THE GOOD EARTH: Associate producer, Albert Lewin. Directed by Sidney Franklin. Screen play by Talbot Jennings, Tess Slesinger and Claudine West. Based upon the novel by Pearl S. Buck. Adapted for the stage by Owen Davis and Donald Davis. Produced by The Theatre Guild, Inc. Musical score by Herbert Stothart. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Wardrobe, Dolly Tree. Photographed by Karl Freund. Cast: Paul Muni, Luise Rainer, Walter Connolly, Tilly Losch, Charley Grapewin, Jessie Ralph, Soo Yong, Keye Luke, Roland Lui, Suzanna Kim, Chingwah Lee, Harold Huber, Olaf Hytten. Released August 6, 1937.

THE ROAD BACK: Produced by Edmund Grainger. Directed by James Whale. Charles R. Rogers, executive producer. From the novel by Eric Maria Remarque. Screen play, R. G. Sheriff and Charles Kenyon. Photographer, John J. Mescall and George H. Robinson. Art director, Charles D. Hall. Cast: John King, Richard Cromwell, Slim Summerville, Andy Devine, Barbara Read, Louise Fazenda, Noah Beery, Jr., Maurice Murphy, John Emery, Etienne Girardot, Lionel Atwill, Henry Hunter, Larry Blake, Gene Garrick, Greta Gynte, Spring Byington, Frank Reicher, Laura Hope Crews, Charles Holton, Arthur Hohl, William B. Davidson. Released August 1, 1937.

(Continued from page 49)

that their antics would provide the most amusement for the most persons.

When William Shakespeare laid down the premise of his "Taming of the Shrew," a plot which he most likely filched from earlier dramatists, he or they never imagined what a 1937 generation of producers, writers, directors and actors would do to it. Surprised as they might be, could they see this show, Ferenc Molnar, whose play, "The Great Love," served as a basis for the present 85 minutes of foolishness, probably would be more amazed. Mr. Molnar has a reputation for writing intriguing romantic comedies. It is not of record that he ever dealt with anything that even savored of nonsensical farce.

But the picture wasn't made for those worthies. It was made for the sole purpose of amusing and delighting audiences of the moment, highbrows and lowbrows alike. What if most of it, particularly the climax, is done in Mack Sennett slapstick technique? Audiences have given evidence that they appreciate that class of entertainment. Of course some will consider it silly, and far beneath the talents of Powell and Loy. But for each one who may be inclined to that opinion, it is very likely that thousands will think otherwise and consider it desirable amusement and quite a feather in the caps of both. Lest there be fear that the piece may seem below Mr. Powell's dignity, it should be reported that he spent much time with producer Joseph L. Mankiewicz, screenplay writer, Jo Swerling and director Richard Thorpe in brewing the concoction before it went into work. Mr. Powell wanted it the way it is. Miss Loy, too, must have had a similar desire.

In gist, bare of a description of its countless ludicrous gags and situations, Miss Loy is cast as a woman who likes to guide the destinies of people. Mr. Powell plays a parked-trailer-residing Bohemian without a care or worry unless it is to make actors out of Florence Rice and John Beal, whom Miss Loy wants to see married. From one ridiculous situation to another, the effect of which was often lost because long and loud laughter drowned out ensuing lines, the film proceeds to its slapstick finish. Then, with more people crowded into the trailer than there are sardines in a can, things go wild and woozy. A wildly swinging guitar brings peaceful unconsciousness to Powell. As Miss Loy insists that someone be married and as Edgar Kennedy continues to argue with her as to whether or not he's an ape, pausing momentarily to snap her hat elastic across her nose, minister Donald Meek, sick and tired of Kennedy's bellowing, aims a wallop at him, only to have him duck and the blow land on Miss Loy's chin to have her join Powell in a coma. It is not remembered whether Beal, the mouse suddenly turned lion, marries Miss Rice.

Previewed at the Westwood Village theatre, Sept. 19. Up in the balcony the crowd seemed to be of the opinion that "Double Wedding" was just the kind of a prescription the doctor would have ordered had they been patients and he wanted them to laugh. Consensus seemed to be that they would be glad to pay to see the show again and that the film has the elements in composition, dialogue, characterizations and hurly-burly action that can be depended upon to please almost anywhere any time. Additionally, there is no lack of exploitation availability. As a matter of fact, taking a cue from the title goes double on stars, laughs, romance.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by MGM. Joseph L. Mankiewicz, producer. Directed by Richard Thorpe. From the play "The Great Love" by Ferenc Molnar. Screen play by Jo Swerling. Musical score by Edward Ward. Cedric Gibbons, art director. Douglas Shearer, recording director. Frank Sullivan, film editor. Photographed by William Daniels. P. C. A. Certificate number 3611. General audience classification. Running time, 85 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date: October 15, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST:

Charlie Lodge	William Powell
Margit Agnew	Myrna Loy
Irene Agnew	Florence Rice
Waldo Beaver	John Beal
Mrs. Kensington-Bly	Jessie Ralph
Spike	Edgar Kennedy
Keough	Sidney Toler
Mrs. Keough	Mary Gordon
Flint	Barnett Parker
Claire Lodge	Katharine Alexander
Felice	Priscilla Lawson
Shrank	Bert Roach

Stars over Arizona

(Monogram)

Adventure Story

In the beginning, when creeping moving pictures took to toddling, they took as their toy the outdoor action and adventure picture, then called the "western." As ably as any other medium, this type of picture spread the gospel of the screen. Through the years, with recurrent popularity, these pictures have proved desirable attractions. With certain deviations which experience and ingenuity have developed, today's action western is pretty much the same as its gray-bearded ancestor. Even down to the latest novelty, singing, "Stars Over Arizona" contains all that any western ever contained.

There's the bad bad man who never knows when he is licked. There's the hero who, never discouraged, always triumphs, and he always has time for a little love making. And there's always the girl for the villain to terrorize and the hero to save. The cattle are rustled; the dishonest official, always in the power of the forces of outlawry and disorder, lives again. There's the terrific man-to-man fight, the wild chase, the mass gun battle, but virtue always wins.

All that is expected of this type of picture is presented here. All is done in a sane sort of way—that is, a sane way for a shoot-'em-up film. It is easy to imagine the youngsters becoming loudly enthusiastic, and the youngsters of another day, now grown up, finding it enjoyable.

Previewed in the studio projection room in Hollywood. In this reviewer's opinion "Stars Over Arizona" is a lot better entertainment than quite a few of the more pretentious pictures seen lately.—G. M.

Distributed by Monogram. R. N. Bradbury, producer and director. Original screen play by Robert Emmet. Songs by Johnny Lange and Fred Stryker and by Billy Moll, Harry Richman and Murray Mencher. Howard Dullinger, film editor. Abe Meyer, musical supervisor. Edward M. Saeta, assistant director. Frank Sanucci, musical director. Photographed by Bert Longenecker. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3700. General audience classification. Running time, 65 minutes, when seen in Hollywood. Release date, Sept. 22, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Jack Randall	Shura Shermatova
Warner Richmond	Ernie Adams
Kathleen Eliot	Hal Price
Horace Murphy	Chick Hannon
Bob McKenzie	Charles Ramos
Tom Herbert	Wylie Grant

Mayerling

(Pax Film)

Historic Romance

The actual ending of the ill-fated career of Archduke Rudolph of Austria, son of the Emperor Francis Joseph and heir apparent to the Austro-Hungarian throne, has in the past 48 years been the subject of much conjecture, so much in fact that there are as many versions as there are persons professing to know about it. What is definitely known is that Rudolph committed suicide at Mayerling, his hunting lodge. What is almost as definite is that Baroness Marie Vetsera also committed suicide or died at the hands of Rudolph at this final clandestine meeting.

Ignoring all conjecture, except as it pertains to the love of Rudolph and the Baroness, this production from France, based on the novel "Idyl's End" by Claude Anet, is then a tale of ill-starred romance. Handsomely produced, well directed, the picture is human drama made poignant by the superb acting of Charles Boyer and the cameo like loveliness of Danielle Darrieux.

Rudolph as portrayed here is a disillusioned, sad and morally loose person, friend of the common people and enemy of officials in his father's government. With his selected clique of friends Rudolph drifts along, making, at the emperor's wish, a marriage of convenience. Rudolph meets Marie Vetsera at a public park and falls in love with her. Thereafter follows a series of secret meetings that lead to Mayerling and suicide.

The production features are all of the best with especial mention for the direction of Anatole Litvak and the photography of Thirard. Mention, too, should be made of the splendid supporting cast. The dialogue is in French, but adequate and carefully translated superimposed titles make for easy understanding. This picture of the tragedy of Mayerling is one of the finer efforts of the French industry. It is strictly adult fare.

Reviewed at the Filmarte theatre, New York. A capacity afternoon audience at this intimate theatre, devoted exclusively to the showing of foreign importations, gave definite indications that "Mayerling" was thoroughly enjoyed.—Paul C. Mooney, Jr.

Distributed by Pax Films, Inc. Produced by Nero Film. Directed by Anatole Litvak. Based on the novel "Idyl's End" by Claude Anet. Screen play by Joseph Kessel and J. C. Cube. Music by Arthur Honegger. Camera work by Thirard. Running time, 91 minutes. Release date, September 13, 1937. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Archduke Rudolph of Austria	Charles Boyer
Baroness Marie Vetsera	Danielle Darrieux
Countess Larisch	Suzy Prim
Emperor Franz Joseph	Jean Dax
Empress Elizabeth	Gabrielle Dorziat
Count Taafe	Debucourt
Baroness Vetsera (Helene)	Marthe Regnier
Chief of police	Vladimir Sokoloff
Loschek	Andre Dubosc

Dangerously Yours

(20th Century - Fox)

Melodrama

The copy and mechanics customarily employed by showmen for the exploitation of who-stole-the-jewel pictures may be brought down from the shelf and dusted off for this film without essential change. The names are different, and the direction of Mal St. Clair distinguishes this one from the average of its kind by keeping it coherent, but the gist of it is to pattern.

This time the jewel makes its appearance in Paris, is taken to a liner aboard which most of the attempted stealing takes place, and winds up in New York. As usual in these things, a lot of persons try to steal it, or look like they are going to try, and, as usual, the principal crook turns out to be a representative of law and order intent, and successfully, upon catching the thieves. One of these, naturally, is a girl, with whom he falls in love, wherefore she is paroled to him for the matrimonial fadeout.

Phyllis Brooks plays the girl in a manner suggesting that perhaps a bit of billing buildup about now will bear fruit in connection with more important assignments later.

Previewed at the Uptown theatre, Los Angeles, quietly.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Twentieth Century-Fox. Executive producer, Sol Wurtzel. Screen play by Lou Breslow and John Patrick. Directed by Mal St. Clair. Assistant director, Saul Murtzel. Photographed by Harry Davis. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3643. Release date, November 12, 1937. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 60 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Victor Morell	Cesar Romero
Valerie Barton	Phyllis Brooks
Aunt Cynthia Barton	Jane Darwell
Julien Stevens	Alan Dinehart
Flo Davis	Natalie Garson
Louis Davis	John Harrington
Walter Chandler	Douglas Wood
Eddie	Earle Foxe
Phil	Leon Ames
Monet	Albert Conti
Boris	Leonid Snegoff

Atlantic Flight

(Monogram)

Thrills in the Air

For one important reason this is an important picture. A fairly interesting show and one acceptable to showmanship, it proves conclusively and probably finally that headline newspaper celebrities have little if any business in motion pictures.

It takes a long time for the film to make

(Continued on page 55)

GREAT PERFORMANCE!

GLADYS GEORGE
as "MADAME X"

M-G-M has another smash hit!
You have another top money-name!
It takes a great show to truly establish a Star!

GLADYS GEORGE

gives the greatest performance of the world's most heart-stabbing story

Madame X

with WARREN WILLIAM • JOHN BEAL
Reginald Owen · William Henry · A SAM WOOD PRODUCTION
Screen play by John Meehan · Produced by James Kevin McGuinness
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER SENSATION!

LITHO U.S.A.

(Continued from page 49)

good its appellation. Prior to that moment it provides some interesting background asides in the field of aviation. To supplement a triangular romance, it offers some vivid pictures of a delayed opening in a parachute drop. There is a pleasing comedy contrast in which Milburn Stone "steals the picture." A girl enjoys some spectacular plane stunting and does a delayed parachute jump. An airplane meet culminates in a sensational crash, and Dick Merrill takes off on his round trip transatlantic flight to get a serum that will save the life of his injured pal.

Previewed at the Forum theatre, Los Angeles. The audience, undoubtedly holding a profound respect for Mr. Merrill as an aviator, did not seem to hold the same opinion of his acting abilities. This is unfortunate because, all the way through the film, it is obvious that Mr. Merrill knew better than anyone else that he is not an actor and did not try to be one. Nevertheless, the film is thrill entertainment that should prove attractive to certain types of audiences.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by Monogram. Directed by William Nigh. William Berke, associate producer. Original screen play by Scott Darling and Erna Lazarus. Photographed by Paul Ivana. Assistant director, Clarence Bricker. Technical director, E. R. Hickson. Special effects by Fred Jackman. P. C. A. Certificate No. 3626. Running time, 60 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date, August 25, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Dick Merrill ..... Lyle Moraine
John Lambie ..... Wilbur Mack
Weldon Heyburn ..... Buddy Messenger
Paula Stone ..... Gertrude Messenger
Milburn Stone ..... Donna Harlan
Ivan Lebedeff ..... Earl Dwire

The Lower Depths

(Mayer-Burstyn)

Realistic Drama

When word was brought to Maxim Gorki, propagandist and playwright on the proletarian platform, that his celebrated play, "The Lower Depths" was to be transposed into cinematic form, he expressed the sentiment that "the film people will break their teeth on it." For the work, according to the author's plan, was composed of atmosphere rather than of action. Nothing was intended to happen except the instillation of a mood. Whether Comrade Gorki's prophecy has met fulfillment in this film transcript of his dramatic masterpiece remains a question.

However, the picture version, which has been labeled by its director, John Renoir, as a realistic poem on the loss of human dignity, has seen fit to introduce into the original script several important variations to insure it being more palatable for audience appreciation. Gorki's treatment of a particular portion of the dregs of human society was dull, dour and desperately terrifying. In the picture the grim, ruthless tone of tragic frustration has been leavened by some apocryphal but wholly welcome alterations. The characters are individualized more clearly and humanly. The heavy, philosophical and sociological undertones that serve as the playwright's theme melody have received diminuendo scoring. There have been threaded into the introductory scenes some richly and sardonically comic sequences. The romantic angle is intensified to form the pivotal point in the play.

The story has been treated with consideration and care. The production is refreshingly free from the annoying stylized directorial mannerisms that mar many of the socalled arty, foreign film importations. Perhaps the highlight is to be found in the splendid ensemble acting of the entire company of players. Jean Gabin is roguishly natural and convincing in his portrayal of Pepel. The world wearied defeatist of Louis Jouvet as the Baron is a studied exposition of despair. Vladimir Sokoloff as a slimy, Shylockian Kostylev, Suzy Prim as his wanton of a wife, Junie Astor as her delicately sensitive sister and Jany Holt as a prostitute are other principals in the cast.

The motif of the play can be captioned as a sort of "Dead End" in reverse. The characters are not the victims of their environment. Rather, they are, according to their individual human weaknesses, the creators of the dark depths into which they have sunk their fates.

A sub plot from which the story's humorous moments are derived is devoted to sketching the initiation of the bankrupt baron into the society of the lost souls. The footage wherein the thief burglarizes the nobleman's apartment only to learn that his victim is practically as penniless as he, is spotted with scenes rich in Gallic and ironic wit. However, though welcome for its entertainment value, the comic transition detracts from the main workings of the story and the Baron is emphasized beyond his importance.

The expert merit of the entire production deserves respectful and serious study. But the extremely mature and advanced basis of the scenario must necessarily limit it to serious adult students of the drama, to those whose interest in the motion picture is more clinical than cinematic. A collection of particularly literate English titles make the story easily understandable.

Seen at the 55th St. Playhouse, an "upper class" show place where a crowded audience of "intellectuals" gave the screening of morbid plot a devoted and awed state of attention.—Joseph F. Coughlin, New York.

Produced in France by Albatros. Presented by Arthur Mayer and Joseph Burstyn. From the play by Maxim Gorki. Directed by Jean Renoir. Screen play, E. Zamiatine and J. Companeez. Adaptation and dialogue by Jean Renoir and Charles Spaak. English titles by Julian Leigh. Music by Jean Wiener. Settings by Eugene Laurie and Hughes Laurent. Photographed by F. Bourgas. No P. C. A. Certificate. Running time, 95 minutes. Release date, October 15, 1937. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Pepel ..... Jean Gabin
The Baron ..... Louis Jouvet
Vassilissa ..... Suzy Prim
Nastia ..... Jany Holt
Kostylev ..... Vladmir Sokoloff
Natacha ..... Junie Astor
The Actor ..... Robert Le Vigan
The Count ..... Camille Bert
Luka ..... Rene Genin
Satine ..... Paul Temps
Jabot ..... Robert Ozanne
Kletsch ..... Saint-Iles
Alioshka ..... Maurice Bazuet
The Inspector ..... Gabriello
Felix ..... Larive
Anna ..... Nathalie Alexeeff

Pigskin Champions

(MGM)

Timely

The dawn of another football season is the provocation that has diverted the talents of Pete Smith from the tennis and golf fare so much in evidence this summer. The material he has gathered to illustrate the finer points of the pigskin game, as of last season's close, is the best obtainable. The Green Bay Packers, champion professional outfit, to the accompaniment of Smith's running narrative, dig deep into their bag of tricks coming out with double spinners, hidden ball plays, punts to the coffin corner and forward passes mention chiefly because of their length and accuracy. As usual in the "specialties," comedy plays a major role. Running time, 11 minutes.

The Candid Candidate

(Paramount)

Clever

The inventive genius of Grampy saves the old fellow from some embarrassing moments in this Max Fleischer cartoon. Grampy is elected mayor, chiefly through the electioneering of Betty Boop. Arriving at city hall on his first day, Grampy is beset by angry citizens who demand this and that and threaten him with impeachment. Grampy puts on his thinking cap and waits for an idea. It develops. With the greatest of ease he sets up free bridges, repairs houses, puts out fires, while the citizens cheer. Running time, 7 minutes.

Let's Go Latin

(Paramount)

Band Presentation

An entertaining and tuneful musical subject with Xavier Cugat and his orchestra. Cugat, leaning toward Latin-American rhythms, plays the more melodious music of Cuba, the Argentine and Mexico. With the change of music from one country to another the settings and costumes are changed to conform to the locale. Besides Cugat, who also plays a violin solo, there are Carmen Castillo and Dorothy Miller, vocalists, and the dance team of Cesar and Maclovia. Running time, 11 minutes.

The Private Life of The Gannets

(Educational)

Very Good

The gannet, a species of bird that breeds in only four places in all the world, has been made the subject for an exhausting study and is detailed here in a most interesting and informative manner. Superb photography and the narrative of A. L. Alexander holds one's interest throughout. On a rocky pinnacle off the coast of Wales the camera catches step by step the hatching of a baby gannet and photographs the gannets diving into the water after fish.—Running time, 10½ minutes.

It's a Good Stunt

(Paramount)

Daredevilry

Thrills are a dime a dozen in this subject as some of the world's most daring stuntmen risk their lives. Included are a fire eater, a human fly, a troupe of acrobats who take their exercise on a ledge atop the Empire State Building, a trapeze artist, who performs while hanging from a blimp as it soars over Manhattan, a chap who crosses the East River on a tiny cake of ice, a knife thrower who forms a pattern of knives around his girl. Narrative by Ward Wilson. Running time, 10 minutes.

Motor Maniacs

(20th Century - Fox)

Thrills

In this subject, a collection of newsreel shots of the hazards of motor racing, there are thrills galore. The reel is full of exciting scenes from start to finish for each sequence has been chosen for just that purpose. From the Roosevelt Speedway in Long Island with its many curves the camera tours the speedways of the country photographing the accidents and near accidents that beset these daredevils of the track. Then there are motorbikes that climb steep hills with very few making the grade, the most of which buck near the top and like as not fall back on the driver.—Running time, 10 minutes.

Ritchey Abroad to Sell Monogram

Norton V. Ritchey, general manager of Monogram's export department, leaves next Wednesday for a two months' tour of England and the continent to close deals for European handling of Monogram's current product. He leaves via the Berengaria.

Monogram's British distribution has already been set with Pathe Pictures, Ltd.

Monogram is considering the possibility of filming quota pictures in Czechoslovakia and Poland. In both these countries 100 per cent distribution is guaranteed by the government for all features made in their studios.

WATCH THIS

UNIVERSAL'S GREAT
AND A GIRL" WILL KNO
EVERY RECORD* FOR EXTENDED RUNS, REPEA
HAVE YOU - AND WILL D
DEANNA DURBIN TO SELDOM ATTAINED BY

* NEW YORK ROXY SMASHES 7 YEAR RECORD ON FIRST 3 DAYS! HELD OVER 3rd WEEK IN PHILADELPHIA AND GOING GREAT GUNS!

HELD OVER SECOND WEEK IN LOS ANGELES, WASHINGTON, SPRINGFIELD, BALTIMORE!

PREDICTION!

TRIUMPH "100 MEN
CK INTO A COCKED HAT
OPENINGS, HOLD-OVERS,
T BOOKINGS OR WHAT
EFINITELY SKYROCKET
BOX-OFFICE HEIGHTS
ANY STAR IN HISTORY!

EXTENDED RUNS IN SUCH PLACES AS SYRACUSE, CINCINNATI . . . ALL OVER. IT'S SWEEPING THE COUNTRY!

AND HERE'S SOMETHING TO WRITE HOME ABOUT! OUT OF 706 CRITICS WHO HAVE SEEN THE PICTURE, EVERY ONE OF THEM . . . WITHOUT EXCEPTION . . . WENT OVERBOARD IN PRAISING IT TO THE SKIES!

THEATRE RECEIPTS

The total of theatre receipts for the calendar week ended September 18, 1937, from 66 theatres in 13 major cities of the country was $993,370. For the week ending September 11, 1937, 105 theatres in 17 major cities of the country aggregated $1,472,474.

(Copyright, 1937. Reproduction of material from this department without specific written permission from MOTION PICTURE HERALD expressly forbidden.)

Theatres	Seats	Price	Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week — Picture	Gross	Previous Week — Picture	Gross
Boston			(Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937)
Boston	3,246	35c-75c	$17,700	"It Happened in Hollywood" (Col.) (on stage: Ina Ray Hutton and Mitzi Mayfair)	21,000	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).... (stage: Ethel Merman) (25c-75c)	28,000
RKO Memorial	2,907	25c-65c	13,600	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Annapolis Salute" (RKO) (2nd week) (25c-50c)	18,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Annapolis Salute" (RKO) (1st week)	26,500
Loew's Orpheum	2,970	35c-65c	14,500	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	15,000	"The Good Earth" (MGM).....	17,000
Metropolitan	4,332	35c-75c	26,200	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)..... (plus stage show)	22,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (plus stage show)	27,500
Paramount	1,793	25c-50c	8,000	"On Such a Night" (Para.) and.... "Wild and Wooly" (20th Cent.-Fox) (35c-50c)	6,500	"Blonde Trouble" (Para.) and..... "King Solomon's Mines" (GB)	7,000
Chicago
Chicago	4,000	35c-75c	35,500	"Double or Nothing" (Para.)..... (on stage: Eddie Duchin and band)	40,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.)..... (stage: Jack Denny and Orch.) (2nd week)	35,000
Erlanger	1,200	50c-$1.50	11,000	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.).. (3rd week)	14,000	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.).. (2nd week)	15,500
Garrick	900	35c-75c	6,800	"Artists and Models" (Para.).....	7,000	"Captains Courageous" (MGM)....	6,500
Oriental	3,490	35c-55c	17,500	"Stella Dallas" (U. A.)..... (plus vaudeville)	36,000	"Wine, Women and Horses"..... (W.B.) (plus vaudeville revue)	16,000
Palace	2,509	35c-75c	19,900	"Riding on Air" (RKO)..... (Bobby Breen and Revue on stage)	21,000	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).. (plus vaudeville revue)	19,000
Roosevelt	1,591	35c-75c	13,000	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)..... (2nd week)	12,800	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)..... (1st week)	18,000
State-Lake	2,776	20c-40c	14,800	"Flight from Glory" (RKO)..... (stage: Verne Buck and Revue) (25c-55c)	14,400	"On Again—Off Again" (RKO).... (plus stage show)	13,200
United Artists	1,700	35c-75c	17,500	"Dead End" (U.A.)..... (2nd week)	21,000	"Dead End" (U.A.)..... (1st week)	23,000
Cleveland
Allen	3,300	30c-55c	5,700	"Varsity Show" (W.B.).....	6,500	"Lost Horizon" (Col.).....	12,000
Hippodrome	3,800	30c-55c	12,700	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	16,500	"Varsity Show" (W.B.).....	15,000
RKO Palace	3,100	30c-75c	17,800	"Back in Circulation" (W.B.)..... (on stage: Block & Sully)	19,000	"Make a Wish" (RKO)..... (plus Lillian Roth and vaudeville)	19,000
State	3,400	30c-55c	17,200	"Topper" (MGM)	18,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.).....	18,500
Denver
Denham	1,500	25c-40c	6,700	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (2nd week)	4,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (1st week)	8,500
Denver	2,500	25c-50c	9,600	"Prisoner of Zenda" (U.A.)..... (plus stage band)	16,000	"Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938" (U.A.) (plus stage band)	17,000
Orpheum	2,500	25c-40c	7,300	"Make a Wish" (RKO) and..... "Super Sleuth" (RKO)	7,900	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) and "Border Cafe" (RKO) (5 days-2nd week)	7,000
Los Angeles and Hollywood
Carthay Circle	1,518	50c-$1.50	11,800	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.).. (5 days)	14,500	"High, Wide and Handsome"..... (Para.) (6 days-4th week)	3,400
Chinese	2,500	30c-55c	11,600	"Wife, Doctor and Nurse" (20th.... Cent.-Fox) "Charlie Chan on Broadway" (20th Cent.-Fox)	12,798	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	21,698
Four Star	900	50c-$1.50	4,000	"The Firefly" (MGM)..... (6th week)	6,000	"The Firefly" (MGM)..... (5th week)	7,600
Hillstreet	2,700	30c-65c	8,000	"100 Men and a Girl" (Univ.) and "Reported Missing" (Univ.) (5 days)	10,200	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).. and "Annapolis Salute" (RKO)	12,500
Loew's State	2,500	30c-55c	14,700	"Wife, Doctor and Nurse" (20th.. Cent.-Fox) and "Charlie Chan on Broadway" (20th Cent.-Fox)	16,096	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and.. "Hot Water" (20th Cent.-Fox)	25,421
Pantages	3,000	30c-65c	8,100	"100 Men and a Girl" (Univ.) and.. "Reported Missing" (Univ.) (6 days including premiere)	15,000	"The Life of the Party" (RKO).. and "Annapolis Salute" (RKO)	11,000
Paramount	3,595	30c-55c	18,400	"Double or Nothing" (Para.)..... (on stage: Slate Bros., F. & M. revue, Rube Wolf and orchestra)	16,200	"Souls at Sea" (Para.)..... (stage: Senator Murphy) (2nd week)	19,800
W. B. Hollywood	3,000	30c-65c	10,400	"Varsity Show" (W.B.) and..... "Wine, Women and Horses" (W.B.) (2nd week)	5,200	"Varsity Show" (W.B.) and..... "Wine, Women and Horses" (W.B.) (1st week)	11,100
Minneapolis
Minnesota	4,000	25c-55c	12,200	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM)	9,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.).....	11,000
RKO Orpheum	2,900	25c-40c	7,200	"Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" (F.N.) (on stage: Duke Ellington and Revue) (35c-55c)	11,000	"You Can't Have Everything".... (20th Cent.-Fox)	11,000
State	2,400	25c-40c	5,600	"You Can't Have Everything"..... (20th Cent.-Fox)	5,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox).....	5,000

"THIS IS A FREE AD

. . . we advise you to see DEAD END, the picture now running at Loew's."

—says this editorial from the Dayton Daily News

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1937

DAYTON DAILY NEWS

FOUNDED 1808

Entered as second-class matter September 4, 1898, at Postoffice, Dayton, Ohio, under the act of congress of March 9, 1876. Published every day in by The News building, Fourth and Ludlow sts., member Audit Bureau of Circulation. Publishing Co., Subscribers will confer a favor on the circulation department by calling ADams 2112 and making any known complaint.

Next Door to Hell—A Free Ad

In "Dead End" one half the world sees how the other half lives. The prosperous occupants of the stylish apartments on the picturesque East River look down on the slums below. The extremes meet.

This is a free ad. We advise you to see "Dead End", the picture now running at Loew's. It will make for sound thinking.

THE kind of a picture every showman dreams of. Loaded to the hilt with exploitation possibilities of its own, the whole town helps him put it over. Word-of-mouth raves from the paying customers. Marvelous notices from the critics. And editorials like this already published in hundreds of cities while box-office records fall.

Samuel Goldwyn PRESENTS

DEAD END

4th record week, Rivoli Theatre, New York City

3rd week, United Artists Theatre, Chicago

Hold-overs and continuous first run move-overs in NEW HAVEN—DAYTON—HARTFORD—LOUISVILLE—CINCINNATI —ATLANTIC CITY—PITTSBURGH and scores of other cities.

Released Thru UNITED ARTISTS

[THEATRE RECEIPTS--CONT'D]

(Average weekly grosses for 66 week period from January 4, 1936, to April 3, 1937)

Theatres	Seats	Price	Average Receipts Per Week	Current Week: Picture	Current Week: Gross	Previous Week: Picture	Previous Week: Gross
Montreal
Capitol	2,547	25c-60c	9,300	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "The Lady Escapes" (20th Cent.-Fox)	10,500	"The Road Back" (Univ.)	9,000
Loew's	3,115	25c-40c	11,000	"Super Sleuth" (RKO) (25c-50c) (Hollywood Stage Revue)	14,000	"Gangway" (GB) and "Take My Tip" (GB)	7,000
Palace	2,600	25c-65c	10,500	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (2nd week)	7,000	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (1st week)	11,000
Princess	2,272	25c-65c	7,600	"Topper" (MGM) and "Under Cover of Night" (MGM)	7,000	"King Solomon's Mines" (GB) and "Take My Tip" (GB)	7,000
New York
Astor	1,142	55c-$2.20	15,600	"The Firefly" (MGM) (3rd week)	10,216	"The Firefly" (MGM) (2nd week)	13,585
Capitol	4,700	25c-85c	33,400	"The Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (2nd week)	24,000	"The Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (1st week)	40,000
Criterion	1,700	25c-75c	12,000	"Bulldog Drummond Comes Back" (Para.) (2nd week)	7,000	"Bulldog Drummond Comes Back" (Para.) (1st week)	12,000
Globe	1,400	55c-$2.20	17,800	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (6th week)	7,000	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) (5th week)	7,500
Hollywood	1,430	55c-$2.20	....	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.) (5th week)	23,500	"The Life of Emile Zola" (W.B.) (4th week)	26,500
Paramount	3,700	25c-99c	36,100	"Double or Nothing" (Para.) (stage: Shep Fields and Orch.) (2nd week)	40,000	"Double Or Nothing" (Para.) (stage: Shep Fields and Orch.) (1st week)	61,000
Rialto	594	25c-55c	7,700	"Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	8,500	"Borneo" (20th Cent.-Fox) (1st week)	8,000
Rivoli	2,200	25c-99c	23,100	"Dead End" (U.A.) (4th week)	28,500	"Dead End" (U.A.) (3rd week)	29,000
RKO Music Hall	6,200	40c-$1.65	79,000	"The Prisoner of Zenda" (U.A.) (plus stage show) (2nd week)	100,460	"The Prisoner of Zenda" (U.A.) (plus stage show) (1st week)	123,700
Roxy	5,954	25c-75c	35,400	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show) (2nd week)	47,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) (plus stage show) (1st week)	68,600
Strand	3,000	40c-99c	20,800	"Varsity Show" (W.B.) (2nd week)	15,000	"Varsity Show" (W.B.) (1st week)	22,000
Oklahoma City
Criterion	1,700	10c-40c	5,300	"The Big City" (MGM)	4,200	"The Prisoner of Zenda" (U.A.) (8 days)	6,500
Midwest	1,500	10c-55c	4,300	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox)	6,900	"Artists and Models" (Para.) (8 days)	6,400
Tower	1,100	10c-35c	....	"San Quentin" (F.N.)	2,400	"Ever Since Eve" (F.N.)	2,900
Omaha
Brandeis	1,200	25c-40c	4,900	"Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" (W.B.) and "It Happened in Hollywood" (Col.)	4,300	"The Life of the Party" (RKO) and "The League of Frightened Men" (Col.)	4,800
Omaha	2,200	25c-40c	6,900	"The Road Back" (Univ.) and "Flyaway Baby" (W.B.)	3,900	"Between Two Women" (MGM) and "Married Before Breakfast" (MGM)	4,500
Orpheum	3,000	25c-40c	9,200	"100 Men and a Girl" (Univ.) and "Public Wedding" (W.B.)	6,800	"You Can't Have Everything" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "Love from a Stranger" U.A.) (1 day) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox) (6 days)	5,600
Philadelphia
Aldine	1,300	40c-65c	9,200	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (8 days-3rd week)	9,000	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (2nd week)	13,500
Boyd	2,400	40c-65c	14,800	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) (5 days-2nd week)	7,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) (1st week)	17,000
Fox	3,000	40c-65c	17,000	"100 Men and a Girl" (Univ.) (2nd week)	17,000	"100 Men and a Girl" (Univ.) (1st week)	22,500
Stanley	3,700	40c-65c	15,700	"Double or Nothing" (Para.)	12,500	"Varsity Show" (W.B.)	19,000
San Francisco
Fox	5,651	15c-75c	11,000	"That Certain Woman" (W.B.) and "Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" (W.B.)	16,000	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox)	23,000
Golden Gate	2,850	15c-55c	16,600	"Life of the Party" (RKO) (plus stage show)	17,000	"Make a Wish" (RKO) (plus stage show)	22,500
Orpheum	2,440	15c-55c	8,200	"Lost Horizon" (Col.) (3rd week)	9,000	"Lost Horizon" (Col.) (2nd week)	15,000
Paramount	2,670	15c-75c	13,300	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox)	16,000	"Double Or Nothing" (Para.) and "London By Night" (MGM)	15,000
United Artists	1,200	15c-75c	6,900	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (2nd week)	9,000	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (1st week)	14,000
Warfield	2,680	15c-75c	15,300	"Confession" (W.B.) and "Dance, Charlie, Dance" (W.B.)	14,500	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and "Blonde Trouble" (Para.) (2nd week)	13,000
Seattle
Fifth Avenue	2,500	30c-55c	7,700	"Thin Ice" (20th Cent.-Fox) and "One Mile from Heaven" (20th Cent.-Fox)	9,250	"Broadway Melody of 1938" (MGM) (2nd week)	6,750
Liberty	1,800	25c-55c	7,700	"Lost Horizon" (Col.)	10,000	"Stella Dallas" (U.A.) (3rd week)	4,700
Orpheum	2,450	30c-55c	6,000	"Topper" (MGM) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox) (2nd week)	6,100	"Topper" (MGM) and "Think Fast, Mr. Moto" (20th Cent.-Fox) (1st week)	8,450
Paramount	3,050	30c-55c	5,200	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and "Blonde Trouble" (MGM) (2nd week)	5,250	"Souls at Sea" (Para.) and "Blonde Trouble" (Para.) (1st week)	6,200

MODERN

TODAY'S splendid motion picture quality can be completely protected... perfectly reproduced... with Eastman Fine-Grain Duplicating Films. For the simple reason that these new materials are capable of making duplicates actually indistinguishable from originals. With them the duplicating process goes definitely modern. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N.Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago, Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Fine-Grain

DUPLICATING FILMS

PRODUCTIONS IN WORK

TITLE	WRITER AND DIRECTOR	CAST	STAGE OF PRODUCTION
COLUMBIA
"College Follies of 1938"	From an original story by Corey Ford. Director: Al Rogell.	Walter Connolly, Jimmy Durante, Johnny Green and his Orchestra, Three Stooges, Raymond Walburn, Joan Perry, Charles Starrett.	Shooting
"Forgotten Women"	Original story, Mortimer Braus. Screen play, Sol Elkins. Director: Lambert Hillyer.	Scott Colton, Wynne Cahoon.	Shooting
GRAND NATIONAL
"Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel"	From the story by Clarence Budington Kelland. Screen play, Richard English. Director: Gordon Wiles.	Stuart Erwin, Helen Chandler, Toby Wing, Walter Byron, Spencer Charters, William Moore.	Editing
"Frontier Town"	Original and screen play, Edmond Kelso. Director: Ray Taylor.	Tex Ritter, Ann Evers, Chas. King, Snub Pollard, Horace Murphy, Forrest Taylor.	Shooting
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
"Navy, Blue and Gold"	Original and screen play, George Bruce. Director: Sam Wood.	Lionel Barrymore, Robert Young, Florence Rice, Billie Burke, James Stewart, Barnett Parker, Paul Kelly, Tom Brown.	Shooting
"Mannequin"	Original, Katharine Brush. Screen play, Lawrence Hazard. Director: Frank Borzage.	Joan Crawford, Spencer Tracy, Alan Curtis, Mary Phillips, Oscar O'Shea, Leo Gorcey, Elizabeth Risdon.	Shooting
"The Four Marys"	Original story, Fanny Heaslip Lea. Director: Richard Thorpe.	Myrna Loy, Franchot Tone, Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon.	Shooting
PARAMOUNT
"Wells Fargo"	Story, Stuart N. Lake. Screen play, Paul Schofield, Gerald Geraghty, Fred Jackson. Director: Frank Lloyd.	Joel McCrea, Frances Dee, Bob Burns, Lloyd Nolan, Mary Nash, Ralph Morgan, Porter Hall.	Shooting
"The Buccaneer"	Producing Director· Cecil B. DeMille.	Fredric March, Franciska Gaal, Akim Tamiroff, Ian Keith, Margot Grahame, Douglass Dumbrille, Walter Brennan, Robert Barret, Fred Kohler.	Shooting
"True Confession"	Original story, Louis Verneuil, Georges Berr. Screen play, Claude Binyon. Director: Wesley Ruggles.	Carole Lombard, Fred MacMurray, John Barrymore, Porter Hall, Edgar Kennedy, Una Merkel, Richard Carle, Fritz Feld.	Shooting
"The Big Broadcast of 1938"	Screen play, Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin. Director: Mitchell Leisen.	W. C. Fields, Martha Raye, Dorothy Lamour, Ben Blue, Shirley Ross, Bob Hope, Leii Erikson, Kirsten Flagstad, Stanley Fields, Tito Guizar, Rufe Davis.	Shooting
"Every Day's a Holiday"	Original, Jo Swerling and Mae West. Screen play, Mae West. Director: A. Edward Sutherland.	Mae West, Edmund Lowe, Chas. Winninger, Charles Butterworth, Walter Catlett, Roger Imhof.	Shooting
REPUBLIC
"The Duke Comes Back"	Original, Lucien Cary. Screen play, Edmund Seward and Adele Buffington. Director: Irving Pichel.	Heather Angel, Allan Lane, Genevieve Tobin, Fredric Burton.	Shooting
"Zorro Rides Again"	Co-Directors: Wm. Whitney, Jack English.	John Carroll, Duncan Renaldo, Richard Alexander, Jack Morgan, Roger Williams.	Shooting
"Springtime in the Rockies"	Story, Gilbert Wright. Screen play, Jack Natteford, Betty Burbridge. Director: Joe Kane.	Gene Autry, Polly Rowles, Smiley Burnette.	Shooting
RKO RADIO
"Women Have a Way"	Original story, Allan Scott, Charles Norman. Screen play, Allan Scott. Director: Leigh Jason.	Miriam Hopkins, Ray Milland, Walter Abel, Henry Stephenson, Alec Craig, Guinn Williams, Marie Osborne.	Shooting
"Damsel in Distress"	Original, P. G. Wodehouse. Screen play, P. G. Wodehouse, Ernest Pagano, S. K. Lauren. Director: George Stevens.	Fred Astaire, Joan Fontaine, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Ray Noble, Reginald Gardiner.	Shooting
"Hitting a New High"	Story, Robert Harari, Maxwell Shane. Screen play, Gertrude Purcell, John Twist. Director: Raoul Walsh.	Lily Pons, Gene Raymond, Jack Oakie, Eric Blore, Erik Rhodes, Edward Everett Horton, Luis Alberni.	Shooting
"Highway to Hell"	Original, Helen Vreeland, Hilda Vincent. Screen play, Sy Bartlett, J. Robert Bren. Director: Lew Landers.	John Beal, Sally Eilers, Harry Carey, Frank M. Thomas, Lee Patrick, Ed Gargan, Paul Guilfoyle.	Shooting
TWENTIETH CENT.-FOX
"Borrowing Trouble"	Screen play, Karen De Wolf, Robert Chapin. Director: Frank Strayer.	Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Florence Roberts, Shirley Deane, Billy Mahan, George Ernest.	Shooting
"Second Honeymoon"	Original, Philip Wylie. Director: Walter Lang.	Loretta Young, Tyrone Power, Stuart Erwin, Lyle Talbot, Phyllis Brooks.	Shooting
"Love and Hisses"	Original and screen play, Art Arthur, Curtis Kenyon, Jr. Director: Sidney Lanfield.	Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Simone Simon, Joan Davis, Dick Baldwin, Wally Vernon, the Peters Sisters, Chilton & Thomas.	Shooting
UNITED ARTISTS
"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer"	From the book by Mark Twain. Screen play, John V. A. Weaver. Director: Norman Taurog.	Tommy Kelly, Jackie Moran, Walter Brennan, May Robson, Ann Gillis, Victor Jory, David Jack Holt, Cora Sue Collins, Charles Richmond, Mickey Rentschler, Spring Byington, Victor Kilian, Margaret Hamilton, Nana Bryant, Hugh Chapman, Beulah Bondi.	Shooting
"Goldwyn Follies"	Music, George and Ira Gershwin. Screen play, Ben Hecht. Director: George Marshall.	Adolphe Menjou, Phil Baker, Ritz Brothers, Helen Jepson, Edgar Bergen and "Charlie McCarthy," Bobby Clark, Ella Logan, Virginia Verril, Zorina, George Ballachine and his American Ballet, Goldwyn Girls.	Shooting
UNIVERSAL
"A Young Man's Fancy"	Original story, Maxwell Shane, Bill Thomas, Warren Wilson. Screen play, Monte Brice, Charles Grapewin. Director: David Butler.	Alice Faye, George Murphy, Charles Winninger, William Gargan, Andy Devine.	Editing
"Tim Tyler's Luck"	Screen play, Norman S. Hall, Wyndham Gittens, Ray Trampe. Co-directors: Forde Beebe, Wyndham Gittens.	Frankie Thomas, Frances Robinson, Norman Willis, Anthony Warde, Earl Douglas, Alan Gregg, Edward Parker, Kenneth Harlan, Jack Mulhall, William Benedict, Al Shean.	Shooting
"Renegade Ranglers"	Story and screen play, Harry O. Hoyt. Director: Joseph Lewis.	Bob Burns, Joan Barclay.	Shooting
WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL
"This Woman Is Dangerous"	From the Saturday Evening Post story by A. H. Carr. Screen play, Horace Jackson. Director: Stanley Logan.	Kay Francis, Pat O'Brien, Gordon Oliver, Herbert Rawlinson, Alan Mowbray, Ralph Forbes.	Shooting
"Too Much of Everything"	Original screen play, Wally Klein, Jean Negulesco. Director: Arthur Lubin.	Bonita Granville, Gloria Blondell, Donald Crisp.	Shooting
"Swing Your Lady"	Screen play, Joseph Schrank, Maurice Leo. Director: Ray Enright.	Humphrey Bogart, Dorothy McNulty, Louise Fazenda, Frank McHugh, Allan Jenkins, Nat Pendleton.	Shooting
"Penrod and His Twin Brother"	Original screen play, Wm. and Hugh Cumming. Director: Wm. McGann.	Billy and Bobby Mauch, Spring Byington.	Shooting

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

COME CLOSER, FOLKS: James Dunn, Marian Marsh—We played this on a dual bill with Legion of Terror. It's a real comedy, showing the pitch men putting over a sale in a department store. Very good business.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

DANGEROUS ADVENTURE, A: Don Terry, Rosalind Keith—A very entertaining program picture dealing with the steel industry. Having no star value, it proved of no box office value, but brought favorable comment from those who saw it.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

DODGE CITY TRAIL: Charles Starrett—Plenty of action and good singing in this western. Running time, 72 minutes.—B. A. McConnell, Emerson Theatre, Hartford, Ark. Small town and coal mining patronage.

I PROMISE TO PAY: Leo Carrillo, Chester Morris —This picture is to the credit of a theatre to play it, bringing to its community the truth about fraudulent loan companies. Business only average.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theare, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

LEGION OF TERROR: Marguerite Churchill, Bruce Cabot—A very good action picture showing the workings of the Legion of Terror. Well worth playing. Business normal.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

PAROLE RACKET: Paul Kelly, Rosalind Keith—This week seems to be Racket Week for us. We played this picture last of the week to very good business. Although it is only a program picture, its expose of the parole racket proved to be good film fare.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

RECKLESS RANGER: Bob Allen, Louise Small—There are many better westerns than this one. He isn't in the class of Buck Jones with us, but we enjoyed usual week end business.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

THUNDER IN THE CITY: Edward G. Robinson, Luli Deste—If this had been speeded up it might have been top notch. As it is, many walked out on the long drawn-out scenes. They lost interest in the story waiting for things to happen which, when they did happen, added up to a fair night's entertainment. Played August 21.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

First National

CHEROKEE STRIP: Dick Foran, Jane Bryan—Good western, nicely done. Fast action and plausible. Entertains all the way. Running time, 55 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

EVER SINCE EVE: Marion Davies, Robert Montgomery—Good programmer. Gets by nicely. Running time, 75 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

GOLD DIGGERS OF 1937: Dick Powell, Joan Blondell—Good entertainment but not up to the old standard. Blondell slipping badly. Powell still a favorite with my patrons. Running time, 10 reels. Played August 26.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural patronage.

MOUNTAIN JUSTICE: George Brent, Josephine Hutchinson—Too cruel for entertainment. It is well acted and made a deep impression.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PRINCE AND THE PAUPER, THE: Errol Flynn, Mauch Twins—Swell picture that did no business.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

SAN QUENTIN: Pat O'Brien, Humphrey Bogart—A dandy action picture that holds them breathless. Our people liked it very much.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

TALENT SCOUT: Donald Woods, Jeanne Madden—Not so hot. Poor for rural patronage. No action. Running time, six reels. Played September 2.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Canada. Rural patronage.

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to —

What the Picture Did for Me

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Rockefeller Center, New York

THAT CERTAIN WOMAN: Bette Davis, Henry Fonda, Ian Hunter, Donald Crisp, Dwane Day—Another picture that I saw at the trade showing. This picture is one of Bette Davis' best. While you are watching it it will appear that the director tried to cover too much territory. In other words, without any explanation, the scenes would change and the next scene would be several years later and never a word of what had happened. But the picture developed in such a way that when it was all over everything was clearly understood and there was no doubt whatever as to what had taken place. All in all, the stars, direction and story make this a very fine picture. Will be a greater woman's picture than a man's picture but will also have very strong appeal to the men. Ian Hunter along with Fonda and Davis really contributed some wonderful work. And don't forget Donald Crisp. He was excellent as Fonda's hard boiled father. The little boy that played Bette Davis' and Fonda's child was also good, and if he is shown much in the preview should make the children want to see it.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BROADWAY MELODY OF 1938: Robert Taylor, Eleanor Powell—Swell production in any spot. Fast, classy action, plenty of comedy, fine song hits, swell sets and it's good, for McPhee says so.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS: Spencer Tracy, Freddie Bartholomew—Was one feature that pleased everyone and it was a pleasure to play it. Spencer Tracy was wonderful and without a doubt will win the Academy Award for his part in this. It's a picture that should have universal appeal. Running time, 116 minutes. Played September 5-7.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

DAY AT THE RACES, A: Marx Brothers, Allan Jones, Maureen O'Sullivan—The perfect comedy and a fair grosser. Played August 22-23.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

EMPEROR'S CANDLESTICKS, THE: William Powell, Luise Rainer—Good film fare. Bad title for our locality. Poor draw. Played August 19-20.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

FAMILY AFFAIR, A: Lionel Barrymore, Cecilia Parker—A program picture that will please much better than many so called specials. If you can get them in, they will go away well pleased. Played August 27-28.—C. A. Jordan, Opera House, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

HELL DIVERS (Re-issue): Wallace Beery, Clark Gable—Above average business. Well liked. It's still a good show.—W. H. Hardmann, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

LAST OF MRS. CHEYNEY, THE: Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery, William Powell—This is a good show and will please as near 100 per cent as possible. When you get Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery and William Powell on the same bill, you know you have a good show. Played August 15-16.—C. A. Jordan, Operahouse, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

MAYTIME: Nelson Eddy, Jeanette MacDonald—Drew considerable above average. Comments by the cash customers divided. Some thought it the best ever; others did not care for it at all. The principal complaint: too much Italian opera. The modern music, however, made a hit with all classes. Personally, I thought it a great show. Played September 5-7.—C. A. Jordan, Operahouse, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

PARNELL: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy—No good for us. Fine picture but no good for small towns.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PARNELL: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy—An excellent production but not the sort of thing our house appreciates enough to pay to see. Played August 12-13.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

THEY GAVE HIM A GUN: Franchot Tone, Spencer Tracy, Gladys George—Fine picture to average business.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

THIRTEENTH CHAIR, THE: Madge Evans, Dame May Whitty—Romantic mystery. Okay where you don't expect too much. Played August 18.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

WAY OUT WEST: Laurel and Hardy—Drew plenty of laughs and chuckles. Had two good nights even though there was a free show in town the second night. Running time, 70 minutes. Played September 10-11.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

Paramount

ARTISTS AND MODELS: Jack Benny, Ida Lupino, Richard Arlen, Gail Patrick—One of the best. Quite different from the ordinary musicals. Specialties were the best I have ever seen. Give it your best playing time. Let the people know you have something different.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. General patronage.

ARTISTS AND MODELS: Jack Benny, Ida Lupino, Richard Arlen, Gail Patrick—Didn't do the business we expected to on this. Was entertaining and seemed to please the majority but played second night to a very small house. Benny didn't have any too much support. Could have had a little help and Paramount would have had a honey. Running time, 97 minutes. Played August 29-30.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

BULLDOG DRUMMOND ESCAPES: Ray Milland, Heather Angel—Just a fair picture. Did not draw.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

EXCLUSIVE: Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer, Charles Ruggles—Only a fair program picture. Pleased about 70 per cent. Not as good as expected.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. General patronage.

EXCLUSIVE: Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer, Charles Ruggles—Failed to draw due to rainy weather. I suppose the picture pleased. Had enough comedy and action to satisfy my patrons. No kicks. Running time, 78 minutes. Played September 8-9.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

FORLORN RIVER: June Martel, Larry Crabbe—The only thing that helped this average western was the name Zane Grey. Our Saturday night audience seemed to enjoy the action but it was no better than anyone else's product. Running time, 55 minutes. Played September 10-11.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

GREAT GAMBINI, THE: Akim Tamiroff, Marian Marsh, Genevieve Tobin—A fair program system picture that will get by on the lower half of a double feature. Do not feel that it would ever stand alone. Running time, 70 minutes. Played September 8-9.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

I MET HIM IN PARIS: Claudette Colbert, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young—A crackerjack comedy with really funny situations, not just gags and slapstick. The beauty of the background greatly enhanced the story's value. The cast could not have been better. We should certainly have enjoyed capacity business

(Continued on following page, column 2)

A practical working tool for every projectionist

•

Revised Sixth Edition

F. H. RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION

The sixth edition of F. H. Richardson's Bluebook is now in its second printing, for which it has been extensively revised. In addition to revisions in text, it contains a supplementary chapter devoted to developments which have become important in projection room technique and servicing methods since the first printing.

The revised edition includes 736 pages of up-to-the-minute text, charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency.

$6.25 Postpaid

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER NEW YORK

but we didn't. Played August 15-16.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MAKE WAY FOR TOMORROW: Victor Moore, Beulah Bondi—Failed to draw. Not liked. Missed badly in a number of places. Amateurish. Running time, 82 minutes. Played September 8-9.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC: Martha Raye, Bob Burns—This is so silly it's hard to see why folks rushed to see it but they did, so everything's jake. Played August 21.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MOUNTAIN MUSIC: Bob Burns, Martha Raye—I thought it terrible but seemed to please. Screwy as a corkscrew. Running time, 72 minutes. Played August 6-7.—M. H. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

NIGHT OF MYSTERY: Roscoe Karns, Ruth Coleman—A good mystery picture that pleased. Running time, 66 minutes. Played September 10-11.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

TURN OFF THE MOON: Eleanore Whitney, Johnny Downs, Charles Ruggles—This picture does not get going good until about the fourth reel. From there on it's extra good with a grand finale. One patron told me it had the best morale of any picture she ever saw. —L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. General patronage.

Republic

HIT PARADE, THE: Phil Regan, Frances Langford—Good entertainment located around a radio station. More like a variety show. However, it pleased very much and that's what we're looking for these days. Will stand up for two days. Running time, 83 minutes. Played September 9.—B. A. McConnell, Emerson Theatre, Hartford, Ark. Small town and coal mining patronage.

ROUND-UP TIME IN TEXAS: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Not strictly a western, but it got the largest Saturday business in five years, and that's something. The country boys go for Autry in a big way. Hope he stays with Republic as they always give us good westerns.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. General patronage.

RKO Radio

BEHIND THE HEADLINES: Lee Tracy, Diana Gibson—Excellent action fare. Plenty of suspense. Played August 25.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

LIFE OF THE PARTY, THE: Joe Penner, Gene Raymond, Harriet Hilliard—Not the picture we figured it would be. It was our first from RKO and I hope the others in the "A" group are better. The children enjoyed it but adults were indifferent to the effort of the cast to be funny. A few of the ladies thought it real clever, though. Running time, 77 minutes. Played September 12-13.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

NEW FACES OF 1937: Joe Penner, Parkyakarkus, Harriet Hilliard—One of the biggest pictures of the year, full of action and good acting and comedy. As much in this picture as three ordinary features. Good anywhere. Played August 21.—George Lodge, Green Lantern Theatre, Claymont, Del. Small town patronage.

OUTCASTS OF POKER FLAT, THE: Preston Foster, Jean Muir—A mild melodrama. The cast saves it from too bad a fate. Played August 24.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

RIDING ON AIR: Joe E. Brown—Very good Joe E. Brown. Running time, 70 minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

SHALL WE DANCE: Ginger Rogers, Fred Astaire —Very good but not quite as good as the other Astaire-Rogers productions, according to our judgment. We ran into State Fair and Rochester Exposition competition, so our business suffered. Played September 8-9.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

YOU CAN'T BEAT LOVE: Preston Foster, Joan Fontaine—This is good all the way through. Great entertainment and pleased our patrons. Excellent for small towns and country but good anywhere. Played September 4.—George Lodge, Green Lantern Theatre, Claymont, Del. Small town patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ANGEL'S HOLIDAY: Jane Withers, Robert Kent—This one pleased our people greatly. Full of action and comedy. Splendid for small towns and country. Played September 11.—George Lodge, Green Lantern Theatre, Claymont, Del. Small town patronage.

CAFE METROPOLE: Loretta Young, Tyrone Power—No good for small town or country. The whole picture depends on talking, with little or no action. Played August 28.—George Lodge, Green Lantern Theatre, Claymont, Del. Small town patronage.

CALIFORNIAN, THE: Ricardo Cortez, Marjorie Weaver—Good programmer, plenty of action. Part western, part Spanish, well staged. Need not be afraid of this one. Running time, 55 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

CALIFORNIAN, THE: Ricardo Cortez, Marjorie Weaver—A very fine western in the days of the Spanish in California. Excellent singing and unusual story. Nicely done.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

DAVID HARUM (Re-issue): Will Rogers, Evelyn Venable—Did about average business, no more. Well liked.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

HOLY TERROR, THE: Jane Withers, Anthony Martin—Jane Withers is fast becoming a favorite with us, and her pictures have that down-to-earth entertainment slant that is lacking in so many other pictures. We have our first one to fall down on, and that's more than I can say about a lot of adult productions. "The Holy Terror" will suit any audience that is looking for wholesome entertainment. Running time, 82 minutes. Played September 5-6.—B. A. McConnell, Emerson Theatre, Hartford, Ark. Small town and coal mining patronage.

MIDNIGHT TAXI: Brian Donlevy, Frances Drake—Gave general satisfaction to normal business. Played September 4.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

OFF TO THE RACES: Jed Prouty, Shirley Deane—Has plenty of laughs and went over O. K.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

SING AND BE HAPPY: Anthony Martin, Dixie Dunbar—A fair mixture of comedy and music. The star is good. If he were given more meaty roles he might get somewhere. Played August 14.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SING AND BE HAPPY: Tony Martin, Dixie Dunbar—A very fine program picture. Just missed being a big picture.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

SLAVE SHIP: Wallace Beery, Warner Baxter, Elizabeth Allan, Mickey Rooney—Just the type picture you would expect from these two stars. Mickey Rooney is swell—so is Miss Allan. You won't go wrong on this one. Running time, 92 minutes. Played August 26-27.—B. A. McConnell, Emerson Theatre, Hartford, Ark. Small town and coal mining patronage.

THAT I MAY LIVE: Rochelle Hudson, Robert Kent —Extra good program picture. Pleased about 100 per cent better than average. Ran this one on Bargain Nites.—L. R. Creason, Palace Theatre, Eufaula, Okla. General patronage.

THIS IS MY AFFAIR: Robert Taylor, Barbara Stanwyck, Victor McLaglen—Did not do so well. Those who came were pleased.—W. H. Hardman, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

WAKE UP AND LIVE: Ben Bernie, Walter Winchell, Alice Faye, Jack Haley, Patsy Kelly—A real picture that pleased everybody. Unfortunately we ran into excessively hot weather and that hurt. Played September 1-2.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

WEE WILLIE WINKIE: Shirley Temple, Victor McLaglen—One of the best of the Temples. Has production, story value and cast. Shirley is excellent. Get behind it. For some unknown reason the Temple pictures do a little less as each one comes out.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

WOMAN WISE: Rochelle Hudson, Michael Whalen —Poor. Our worst business of the season.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING: Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Ritz Brothers—Excellent in any spot. Fast action, good comedy, loads of new songs. Everything that goes to make a fine entertainment. Running time, 100 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING: Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Ritz Brothers, Tony Martin—Fine entertainment and a good theme to keep musical sequences well distributed. Ritz Brothers better than ever and Tony Martin adding heavily to his rapidly mounting popularity. Running time, 99 minutes. Played September 5-8.—Peter Panagos, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind. General patronage.

United Artists

STAR IS BORN, A: Janet Gaynor, Fredric March—One of the finest pictures we have played this year with business above average. Many favorable comments. It's a swell show and if properly exploited will make you some money. Played August 8-9.—C. A. Jordan, Operahouse, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

STELLA DALLAS: Barbara Stanwyck, John Boles, Anne Shirley—Beyond comparison. The "finest thing ever filmed" was the declaration of the patronage, and

NEW CONTRIBUTORS FROM FIVE STATES

Five showmen from as many states this week join the exhibitors reporting on "What the Picture Did for Me".

Four contributing reports for the first time are these:

Ray Bickler, Mattray Theatre, Strasburg, North Dakota.

Guy W. Cocklin, Strand Theatre, Walnut, Iowa.

Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Arkansas.

A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Indiana.

Returning to reporting after more than a year's absence is A. G. Miller of the Lyric Theatre at Atkinson, Nebraska.

---

they barred none. The maximum number of stars plus would not be sufficient for this. Three Academy Awards would be needed for Barbara Stanwyck's performance. If you have to drag the patrons in, do it and they'll thank you. Running time, 105 minutes. Played September 12-15.—Peter Panagos, Indiana Theatre, Marion, Ind. General patronage.

WOMAN CHASES MAN: Miriam Hopkins. Joel McCrea—A feature length comedy that is all claimed for it. Business only fair but those who saw it seemed to like it.—C. A. Jordan, Operahouse, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

Universal

LUCKIEST GIRL IN THE WORLD, THE: Jane Wyatt, Louis Hayward—A satisfactory program picture that did just an average business. Played August 20-21.—C. A. Jordan, Operahouse, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

MY MAN GODFREY: William Powell, Carole Lombard—Here is an old picture that will get you more money at the box office than 50 per cent of the new ones. It did above the average business for us and pleased 100 per cent.—C. A. Jordan, Operahouse, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

NIGHT KEY: Boris Karloff, Jean Rogers—A good picture that kept a small house continually attentive. Played August 17.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SANDFLOW: Buck Jones, Lita Chevret—This was not as strong a picture as we usually get from Buck Jones. It did normal business. Played August 28.—C. W. Mills, Arcade Theatre, Sodus, N. Y. Family patronage.

TOP OF THE TOWN: Doris Nolan, George Murphy—People disappointed! So was I at the picture and the receipts. Some excellent acts in this and mighty good comedy and everything that goes to make a good picture, but somehow it missed fire.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

TWO IN A CROWD: Joan Bennett, Joel McCrea—A program picture that will get by but will cause no comment. Joan Bennett and Joel McCrea, both excellent stars, should be given better stories. Played August 13-14.—C. A. Jordan, Opera House, Cogswell, N. D. Small town patronage.

Warner Brothers

LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA, THE: Paul Muni, Gale Sondergaard—This picture is as great as Warners say it is. Although the first is somewhat tiresome (at least it was to me), it soon gets under way and the last half of the picture has you wondering what will happen next. If Muni doesn't win the Academy award with this, there's one thing certain and that is somebody else really did some dog-gone good acting. Saw this picture at Warners' trade showing. Hope it does good in my small town, although I'm afraid that it won't do as good as "Varsity Show" or "That Certain Woman." Sometimes the people in my town (population 930) do not appreciate a really big picture like this.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

MARRY THE GIRL: Hugh Herbert, Mary Boland—This picture is about the worst put out by this company this season. If we had known just how bad it was, it would have been shelved. Running time, 68 minutes. Played September 8-9.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

MELODY FOR TWO: James Melton, Patricia Ellis—Just fair business on a double bill.—W. H. Hardman, Royal Theatre, Frankfort, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PUBLIC WEDDING: Jane Wyman, William Hopper—One of the worst pictures we have ever played. No cast, no story, no direction. Warner is certainly cleaning out their vaults to complete the 1936-37 contract. Pay for this and leave it in the can and make friends.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

SINGING MARINE, THE: Dick Powell, Doris Weston, Larry Adler, Hugh Herbert—This is one of Warner Brothers' best and with Larry Adler it is tops. There is just enough of Hugh Herbert to be good. Audience reaction was very good. The new Doris Weston is a treat and she has a very pleasant voice and personality. Running time, 120 minutes. Played September 12-14.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

SLIM: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, Henry Fonda—A dandy picture and one that did very well for us. This is the sort of entertainment that they really go for in a big way locally. Played August 14.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

BACK TO THE WOODS: Broadway Comedies—The 3 Stooges. Slapstick, yes. Crazy, yes. But our audiences love them. The only trouble, you miss some of the lines because there is so much laughter.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

GRIPS, GRUNTS AND GROANS: Three Stooges—This type of picture is hard on the seats, but it is a pleasure to hear them roar in enjoyment. Extra good slapstick comedy and I've got my first one to have a kick on. Running time, 18 minutes.—B. A. McConnell, Emerson Theatre, Hartford, Ark. Small town and coal mining patronage.

Educational

CHESAPEAKE BAY RETRIEVER: Treasure Chest—Excellent subject based on this rather little known dog breed.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

GIRLS AHOY!: Buster West, Tom Patricola—These boys can really dance and will get by as comedians on their dancing ability. "Girls Ahoy!" is a clever comedy and well done by these two. Running time, 18 minutes.—B. A. McConnell, Emerson Theatre, Hartford, Ark. Small town and coal mining patronage.

HER ACCIDENTAL HERO: Two-Reel Comedies—Very discouraging comedy.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BOSKO AND THE CANNIBALS: Harman-Ising—A very good colored cartoon.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

RUSHIN' BALLET: Our Gang—One of the best we have seen this season. Got a big hand from grown-ups as well as children. Running time, nine minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

RUSHIN' BALLET: Our Gang—A fine Gang as usual. We play them on our best dates.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

Paramount

AQUABATS: Grantland Rice Sportlights—This one is good and a natural for us in a resort town. Plenty of thrills in this for all. Running time, 10 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

I LIKE BABIES AND INFINTS: Popeye the Sailor—Not up to Popeye standard. Running time, seven minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

UNDERWATER ROMANCE, AN: Grantland Rice Sportlights—A fair short. The underwater scenes at Silver Springs were very good but, of course, Ted Husing's comments are always the tops and can put anything over. Running time, nine minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

RKO Radio

MANY HAPPY RETURNS: Radio Flash Comedies—Same old line. Wife thinks husband is stepping out on her. Rather dumb but patrons seemed to enjoy it. Running time, 18 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

RHYTHM IN A NIGHT COURT: Nu-Atlas Productions—Passable. Not any too good or entertaining. Running time, nine minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

WAIF'S WELCOME, A: Rainbow Parade Cartoons—An excellent color cartoon and, while old, the prints have been fine for the most part on several we've picked up from this series.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

United Artists

LITTLE HIAWATHA: Silly Symphonies—This is one of the best that Disney ever made. Running time, eight minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

Universal

GOLFERS, THE: Meany-Miny-Moe Cartoons—Not so hot a cartoon.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

Vitaphone

FELLA WITH THE FIDDLE, THE: Merrie Melodies—Good. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

HE WAS HER MAN: Merrie Melodies—Fair cartoon.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

LOUISIANA KINGS: Melody Masters—Here is a real band number. Where has Vitagraph been hiding this band? They are the tops in music.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. General patronage.

PETER VAN STEEDEN AND ORCHESTRA: Melody Master Series—Excellent Melody Master. Several snappy numbers. Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

Serial

Universal

WILD WEST DAYS: Johnny Mack Brown—One of the best serials I have ever run. Business is improving each Saturday. Am on Chapter Four.—Walter Hollowell, State Theatre, McCrory, Ark. Small town and rural patronage.

Grown up and nation-wide, AIR EXPRESS now speed master of 500 giant super-swift transport planes, zooms America's shipments north, south, east, west—2500 miles overnight! Complete day and night service to 216 cities, and all points between, in the United States and Canada. Direct to Latin-America, Honolulu, and the Far East. Low cost. True, modern economy. For service, telephone any office of Railway Express and say "AIR EXPRESS DIVISION!"

TECHNOLOGICAL

The Bluebook School

Conducted by

F. H. RICHARDSON

ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 86

Bluebook School Question No. 86 was: (A) Explain why line voltage must be higher than arc voltage. (B) How much must supply voltage exceed arc voltage to insure stability of the arc? (C) Explain conditions under which it is permissible to supply a projector arc, and conditions which make it inadvisable to do so.

The following made acceptable replies (though I add the warning that once more I have "squeezed" some of you through against my better judgment):

S. Evans and C. Rau; D. Danielson; C. Oldham; G. Doe; H. Edwards; J. R. Prater, R. and K. Wells; W. Limmroth; H. B. Smith, W. H. Edmonds; C. L. Loft; O. H. Schmidt; R. S. Lee; L. H. Hayes; J. A. Zachritz; C. Champney; P. and L. Felt; W. C. Bant; H. Lathrope and M. Dey; D. D. Strobey; L. F. and G. Brown; J. R. Davidson and W. R. Matthews; R. H. Carter; A. C. Greene; D. Coates; F. H., S. and P. Dalbey; R. M. Schnider; D. and W. Porter; B. L. Kent; H. T. Billings; L. M. Roberts; B. B. Hornstein and R. R. Jacobs; M. D. McGuire; F. L. and L. Savlor; M. O'Connell, D. A. Shea and H. T. Plum; C. H. Lowrie; H. T. Randolph; T. and W. Turk; G. L. Goss; S. U. Lamont and P. F. Maxwell; E. Exline; T. W. Redhouse; F. E. Dorp and H. A. Ames; N. S. Reid and H. T. Watkins; W. Winkler and R. R. Robbins; F. D. Scanlon; A. H. Bradley; B. and M. Walker; L. E. Dodson and H. T. Todd; H. Bunker; E. F. and M. Wentworth; O. L. Goldstein and M. Samuels; A. Leonard and G. T. Jones; S. H. Billings and W. L. Brandon; R Davis and F. M. Brown; C. Caldwell; S. L. Maxwell; F. B. Shilshome; J. Morton; R. S. Welch; S. Hewitt; A. W. Baxter; A. D. Lonby; D. Dennis; F. W. Brandenburg; W. V. Henderson; J. K. Robinson and R. E. Bullard; L. A. Beechwood and M. F. Robinson; B. L. Bunt and W. R. Davis; L. G. Dillon and W. B. Myers; K. L. Brant.

Out of all the mass of answers, only four caught the perfectly obvious point that if supply and arc voltage were equal, there then could be no ballast resistance in circuit, hence when the carbons were contacted to strike an arc, a dead short and blown fuses would result. What's the matter with all youse guys? Those noting that point were G. E. Doe, S. Hewitt, P. and L. Felt, and W. H. Edmonds.

G. E. Doe answers, "There must be resistance in a projection arc circuit since without it, when the carbons are contacted to strike the arc, a short circuit would result and the fuses would blow, thus killing the circuit.

"I think the chief reason in back of the question is, however, that an arc 'cushion' is required to insure stability in the arc itself. Could the arc be struck without resistance in circuit in the form of a rheostat of some sort, and the voltage maintained absolutely steady throughout the run, the supply and arc voltage could be equal.

"But there are many buts in that. First, as above noted, the arc could not be formed. Second, the line voltage seldom if ever is absolutely constant. Third, there are constant variations in carbon crater, negative tip and arc stream resistance, which, though ordinarily slight, would be enough to alter the current flow, and at every such alteration there is additional rise or lowering of arc resistance, which would proceed until either the arc was broken or fuses were blown. Therefore the answer is that supply and arc voltage cannot be equal with ability to create or retain any arc at all. However, the difference must be the fixed amount required to enable maintenance of a smoothly burning arc, or there will be (if it is too high) waste or (if too small) an unsteady arc."

Which, gentlemen, seems to me about as carefully prepared and informative an answer as this "school" has received in all the years of its existence. We thank Brother Doe, a Chicago projectionist.

(B) J. R. Prater says, "It is usually considered essential to good results and a smoothly burning arc that supply voltage be from 20 to 25 volts higher than arc voltage, consequently most motor-generator sets supply d.c. at about 80 volts. However, by careful work it is possible to handle an arc in a satisfactory manner from a 70-volt generator and as a result have only a 15-volt rheostat loss."

Most "students" place the minimum difference at 15 volts, with the added comment that the exact amount required differs with character of the arc and with the skill and care of the projectionist himself, all of which is correct.

(C) S. Hewitt says, "It is a more complex problem now that there are so many devices available for rectifying a.c. for projection work. I think, therefore, the intent of the question will be served if economy of operation be chiefly considered, though in the case of a 220 volt (or higher) supply it is of course possible to transform it down to about 80 volts and then rectify it by a tube rectifier. That, however, means a multiplicity of equipments and added possibility of trouble.

"Dealing strictly with a motor generator per set, if the voltage be 110 or less, d.c., the loss of reduction by rheostat would be too small to justify installation of so expensive a machine as a motor-generator set except where rates for power are very high. In the latter case the matter should have very careful consideration. The cost of the set, its probable cost of maintenance and its probable deterioration must be considered, as against the easily computed cost of breaking down the voltage with resistance.

"If the supply be 110-volt a.c., then there is a double benefit of current rectification, plus the saving effected by a cost of wattage equal to difference in supply voltage and voltage of the generator of the set, times the amperage delivery. This difference ordinarily will be 110 — 80 = 30 volts.

"But if the voltage be 220 or more, the difference then of course is far greater, hence operation through resistance would mean very high waste. In such case, regardless of whether the supply be d.c. or a.c., its voltage must be broken down, either by a motor-generator set or by a transformer, to the pressure deemed requisite for best operation under the local conditions obtaining, usually about 80 volts."

BLUEBOOK SCHOOL QUESTION NO. 91

What are the tools to be considered requisite to a first-class projectionist's tool kit (not including expensive testing outfits which should be supplied by the theatre, but wrenches, size and kind; screwdrivers, size and kind; files, size and kind; plyers, size and kind, and so on).

To join the Bluebook School merely send in answers. Place name and question number upon first sheet. Address F. H. Richardson, No. 3 Tudor Lane, Scarsdale, N. Y.

Special SMPE Meeting For Projectionists

The fall meeting of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, which will be held at the Hotel Pennslyvania in New York City, October 11 to 14 inclusive, will have one entire session devoted to papers dealing with projection. The exact day for it will be set soon. The session has been named "A Projection Symposium."

It would seem appropriate for unions within reasonable distance to send a representative, possibly their chief executive officer, as an "observer," with instructions to report proceedings to the body he represents. The Society has thus honored our profession. Let us honor it by displaying practical interest.

I will be registered at the Pennsylvania Hotel that day and the night before the session. I will see to it that union representatives reporting to me, or individual projectionists, meet the S.M.P.E. officers and are made welcome. There will be a display of new developments in equipment well worth examination.

Agfacolor Discussed At Engineers Meeting

John L. Forrest, of the Agfa Ansco Corporation, presented a paper on "Agfacolor" at a meeting last week of the Atlantic Coast Section of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers at Hotel Pennsylvania, New York. He described the intricacies of the method of manufacturing and reversal-processing the film used in the Agfacolor process and demonstrated the quality of results attained with 25 mm. miniature camera stills and 16 mm. motion pictures.

Circuit to Acquire House in Charlotte

Arrangements have been made for North Carolina Theatres, Inc., to take over the Broadway theatre, Charlotte, from Warner Brothers. The house, recently refitted with new sound equipment, is one of the oldest theatres in Charlotte.

John Stoll, well-known California artist, has joined the special effects department at Selznick International. The department is headed by Jack Cosgrove.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE CLUB

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

Witness for the Defense

Well, it was a famous case and the folks came from miles around. Showmanship was on trial, accused of senility, charged with innocuous desuetude. The accusers labeled him an old, old bird who had been kicking around too long and had never amounted to as much as a whisper in a hail storm, even in his palmiest days, if any. Yes, sir, the plaintiffs were trying to have Showmanship declared incompetent. They said that with pictures being so good nowadays Showmanship was about as useful as skirts on a pretty girl's bathing suit. Theatres, they declared, needed nothing more than a few newspaper ads, seats, a screen, cashier, doorman, and a manager to count the take. Pictures would do the rest and they didn't want Showmanship hanging around to tell them how to run their affairs or bother the managers; no, sir.

So the court was called to order and Judge Industry took his place. Lawyer for the plaintiffs got up and started a long harangue on how the defendant always encouraged theatremen to spend money for exploitation and stay away from their houses to make tieups with newspapers and merchants. Managers should be at the theatres at all times, he said, to see that no one walked off with the light bulbs out of the men's room.

Well, he went on that way for a long time, when counsel for Showmanship interrupted to say that he had some fine character witnesses for the defendant on hand. "But they are very busy men, your Honor. If it please the court, we would like to have them sworn and give evidence so they can go back to work."

* * *

The judge agreed and the crowd started buzzing with anticipation, when Oscar Doob, Loew Theatres ad head, took the stand. When he was sworn in, counsel asked the witness to tell the court what Showmanship had done in the circuit's houses for the MGM picture "Topper", which everyone knew was a good job of work but, like many another of equal worth, needed the selling it got.

So Mr. Doob told how Showmanship had pointed out the boxoffice advisability of Loew-men selling the show as one of the screwiest; how in their campaigns set forth in the Round Table they went for the word "ectoplasm" to arouse curiosity, stopped traffic with the widely publicized "surrealist art gallery" lobby display, built up smart stunts with the lingerie shop and shower bath sequences in the picture. Counsel for the defense introduced additional evidence from other situations where theatremen found it more advantageous to soft-pedal the picture's ghost stuff, though amusing, and go heavier for the screwball advertising.

"Does this prove that Showmanship is weak and senile?" thundered the lawyer, as he introduced Doob's boxoffice tabulations which showed in all Loew engagements the picture returned grosses in exact proportion to the showmanship exercised by the individual theatremen. And that other exhibitors who used the same campaign syndicated by MGM also reported top business as a result.

The crowd started to applaud. The judge called for order. Counsel for the defense winked broadly at the plaintiff's lawyer who decided not to take the witness. He looked a bit worried.

* * *

Next called to speak for the defendant was "Skip" Weshner, Warner Philadelphia theatres zone chieftain, who brought along Exhibit No. 2—a newspaper sockeroo on "Souls at Sea" for the date at the Fox, Philadelphia. Counsel explained to the court that the picture was based on a story that had appeared originally in the Philadelphia Ledger in 1842 and published again in facsimile form in the paper's centennial issue.

Mr. Weshner described how the divisional publicity department sold the paper on using a layout of the same facsimile, bordered by action shots from the picture with a seven-column banner heading a two-column story. It was planted two days ahead and on page 3 of the paper, he said. Counsel passed the page over to the judge who read it with interest while "Skip" told how the boys had followed it by blowing up the page to a 40 by 60. This was planted out in front of the boxoffice with some smart tiein copy that stopped a lot of passersby and attracted quite a few right up to the window.

(Continued on page 71)

A. Mike Fogel

Round Table in Pictures

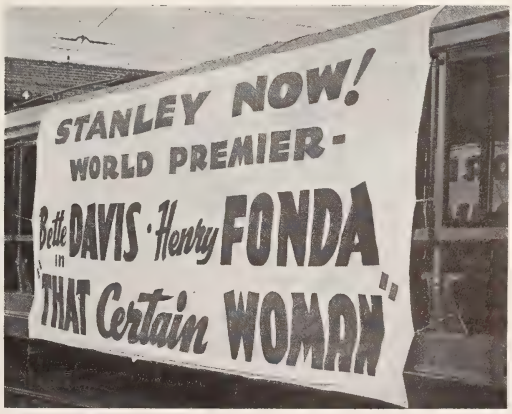
Governor's Day at the Colorado State Fair was the occasion of the Quigley July Silver Plaque presentation made in front of the grandstand by Governor Teller Ammons to Manager Pat Patchen, Main Theatre, Pueblo. Shown in the picture, from the left, are U. S. Senator Curtis P. Ritchie, the Governor, Patchen and Manager Bob Huffman, Uptown, Pueblo.

Dominating Kresge music window was display on "100 Men and a Girl" for date at Fox, Philadelphia. Giant star head was center of smart flash arranged under supervision of Skip Weshner by Publicist Jules Seltzer and Manager Harold Seidenberg.

Usher dressed as marine with fan carrying theatre credits drawn through the streets in a rickshaw propelled by a "coolie" was slant effected by Manager Irv Dashkin, for "Singing Marine" at the Savoy, Jamaica, L. I. Fife and drummers brought further attention. (Below) Historic display created for "Toast of New York" was planted by Manager J. G. Heinz at libraries for date at the RKO Alden, also in Jamaica.

Quigley Plaque Winners for August

The third Connecticut manager to land in the Plaque column and the first of his circuit is Barney Dobrans, of the M & P circuit's Crown Theatre, in New London. Dobrans won the August Bronze on his entry for a two-day subsequent run date on Paramount's "Make Way for Tomorrow," details of which will be found on a following page.



Listed as the first entrant in the state of Massachusetts to be voted a Quigley Plaque is Joe Di Pesa, Boston Loew Theatres publicist, who recently took down the August Silver on "Stella Dallas" at the State and Orpheum. Details of his campaign including masked girl stunt here illustrated will be found on a following page.

Among the many slants that attracted the curious in Barney Dobran's campaign on "Make Way for Tommorw" was a series of whitewashed footprints directed along the streets leading in and out of stores and coming to rest as to be expected at the Crown Theatre cashier's booth.

Street cars cover much mileage in and around Atlantic City which is one of the reasons the bannered bally shown here was utilized by Warnerites Sid Blumenstock and Herb Copelan to plug the world premiere of "That Certain Woman" at the Stanley, in the resort city.

CITYWIDE EXPLOITATION COVERAGE PROMOTED BY DI PESA, DOBRANS

Theatremen Voted Quigley Silver and Bronze Plaques for August List Newspaper Tieins and Varied Outdoor Angles

The point stressed and especially in local newspapers on the date for "Stella Dallas" for very generous returns was the fact that the engagement at Loew's Orpheum and State, Boston, was the New England premiere. Other publicity angles as effective were put on by Joe DiPesa for his Quigley August Silver campaign. Outstanding among these was the six-day "mother and daughter" photo contest in the Evening American.

Tiein broke on the front page with picture of Stanwyck and Shirley topped by captain offering $50 daily for best mother-daughter photos, representing city's happiest parents and children. Story credited picture as inspiration for the idea, title and theatres carried every day of the contest, which clicked unusually well.

Friday the 13th was the second day of the local engagement, which enabled Joe to hook in with the American to offer a gift from Barbara Stanwyck, a bassinette to the first baby born at a local maternity hospital on the 13th. Breaks on this included another page one smack. And among the other newspaper tieins that rate mention were included a feature story written especially for the Transcript by Mrs. Olive Higgins Prouty, local resident and author of the novel from which the picture was taken. Six-day serialization, full-page shots of Stanwyck were also planted and picture also was given notice in the Hollywood syndicate strip.

Three weeklies were also tied in by DiPesa to run an editorial entitled "Exploitation for a Cause," which called attention to the mother-and-daughter week bally, which obviously had to do with the picture. Editorials in each instance, though indicating that while the idea was to be considered as a stunt for the picture, the suggestion was a meritorious one, etc.

Strong Street Bally

Street ballyhoos were not neglected in the campaign, one attracting widely being a comely young woman masked and attired in unusual costume carried lettered parosol reading "Stella Dallas invites you to see her," etc. Girl made the downtown sections and rode the main street car and bus lines. Found also to be effective locally is the usage of tire covers and for this purpose DiPesa arranged displays with leading taxi fleets. Trucks of fan magazine distributors were also bannered.

Under the head of distribution various methods were employed to call attention to the date. Postal Telegraph, for instance, cooperated by distributing through messenger boys from office to office tiein heralds and bookmarks of course were given out at all lending and public libraries. The Loew man was also able to obtain thousands of the small size "Digest" magazines which he sniped and had distributed widely. Hotel postcards mailed from New York to selected mailing list and containing strong plug for the date was also found helpful.

Chalked up as another stunt and which also landed in the local dailies was a trophy offered by Miss Stanwyck to the best cowgirl rider at a local rodeo. Programs carried notice of the gift and papers ran shots of winning rider with the cup.

Window Displays Numerous

Window displays were numerous, DiPesa reporting some 350 displays being planted on the date. These included all Postal Telegraph branches, Lux soap tieins, and giant display at leading bookstore on the picture edition of the novel. Also spotted were copies of Mrs. Roosevelt's article posted in other windows together with the theatre credits.

Reported, too, was the co-operation of all the eight major and minor radio stations in the Boston territory. The broadcasters tied in with spot announcements over WMEX and WHDH. Station WEEI tied the picture in with sidewalk interview programs, similar slant being worked with WORL, which also used the radio dramatization. Among other radio hookins were tieup with WAAB which offered guest tickets on a song guessing contest and mention on WNAC having to do with the trophy offered in the rodeo contest.

The lobby display ahead and during run was in keeping with the importance of the date and DiPesa also created unusual displays for the theatre marquees among the other slants which were found of assistance in calling attention to the day and date showing at the two theatres.

Featured exploitations in both the DiPesa and Dobrans campaigns are illustrated in the Round Table photo section of this issue.

PLEASE OBSERVE THAT AWARDS DEADLINE

The deadline for the Quigley September Awards is midnight of Saturday, October 9. The deadline for United Artists' "Stella Dallas" contest is November 1.

Entries on this picture for Quigley Awards consideration must reach here in time to meet the monthly deadline and this is stressed in order to avoid any confusion between the two dates. Entrants who so desire may send their "Dallas" campaigns to the Round Table Quigley Awards with instructions to have these forwarded to the Judging Committee in the United Artists contest.

Playing 60 to 90 days after the first runs and with a capacity of some 1,000 seats, for his subsequent two-day date on "Make Way for Tomorrow" at the Crown, New London, Conn., Manager Barney Dobrans put together a sterling campaign of first-run merit and which the Judging Committee found worthy of the Quigley August Bronze.

Well in advance each member of the personnel pledged himself to inform at least 30 people of the coming date and Dobrans followed this up by a personal contact with his audiences by addressing patrons matinee and evenings one week in advance, and giving the picture his warm endorsement. Four girl members of the staff for three days ahead phoned to every number in the local directory and in advance cashiers also stressed playdates on every call. For a stunt tiein, Barney moved weighing scales into the lobby announcing that all women patrons weighing the same as Barbara Reed in the picture would be given free admission.

Many Outdoor Angles

Outdoor stuff covered many angles. Dobrans pasted one-sheets on sidewalk in front of the boxoffice and was able to stencil sidewalks in both directions for entire block. Found very effective was a series of footprints on the sidewalks in whitewash which led from store to store and then to the boxoffice. The New York hotel postcard tiein also contributed in rolling up interest. Title was planted in many windows by hooking up to the local merchandise advertised, leading bank, for instance, cooperating with attractive poster reading "Make way for tomorrow by putting something aside today."

Additional stunts that proved crowd-stoppers took the form of a very old-model Ford which was bannered and sent around town. Speed boat carrying giant banners covered the shore line at popular beaches and being the first time ever used locally garnered the attention it deserved. Dobrans arranged with the prosecuting attorney to have a local incorrigible sentenced to see the picture, and was able to obtain stories in the very conservative local paper by inviting inmates of the old folks' home to a special prevue. This proved to be one of the best attractors in the campaign. Bannered cars were promoted to carry the oldsters to the theatre, some 70 attending. Police department cooperated with special escort of three cruising cars. Barney's publicity barrage was further heightened by the finding of an octogenarian who had never seen or heard a motion picture and who was invited to the show. This made fine human interest copy.

Under his radio activities Dobrans lists a full week's plugging for the picture on the theatre's 15-minute daily program. This was followed by an electrical transcription program with further stressing given the date in local radio guide and station programs.

Among other things accomplished by the New London theatremen was the cooperation of leading local societies which he contacted through series of strong letters.

QUICK REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Talent Quest

Local dance spot tied in with Dick Moss, Fox Boulevard Theatre, Los Angeles, Cal. on "New Faces" for contest whereby management sought new talent from the audience, guest tickets going to those acclaimed the best. Orchestrations of hit tunes were also planted with leading bands.

For "Elephant Boy," local zoo cooperated with Moss, Dick giving ten free tickets to children at his Saturday matinee entitling them to zoo admission and ride on elephant.

Trick Float

Street bally used by Bill Hendricks, Warner's Granada, Santa Barbara, for "Singing Marine" consisted of float built over a miniature trailer pulled by an Austin with marine playing hit tunes on an accordion, bannered car was "loaded" with marines and gobs. At the beaches Bill set up his p.a. system making announcements on the picture and telescope with theatre ad was also planted, as were boys handing out imprinted eye shades. Other stunts included buglers atop buildings who unrolled banners plugging the picture, girl stationed in lobby playing hit tunes and bannered sailboats.

Sound Truck

John Pival, Kramer Theatre, Detroit, tied in with local picnic at which some 10,000 attended, by sending along his bannered sound truck to furnish dance music consisting of hit tunes from "Top of the Town." Plugs for the picture were also made over the p.a. system and cards distributed suggesting that picnickers see the opus after the festivities. Pival further put on an amateur stage show in which acts sang numbers from "Town." Special drinks named for the picture were featured at leading bars and street stencils were used at busy corners.

Lobby Display

Tying in with local American Legion and the 111th, United States Infantry Veterans Association, Chuck Shannon, for "They Gave Him a Gun" date at the Belmar, Pittsburgh, secured enough material for a lobby display consisting of German machine gun and shell, post flags and large service flag which bore a star for each local member killed in action. Display coupled with novelty heralds and advance plugs in local paper helped the engagement.

WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE

(Continued from page 67)

It was evident that the two witnesses for Showmanship had made a deep impression on judge and jury. The lawyer for the plaintiff realized he had a tough job ahead but as he got up to cross-examine there was a commotion at the door and in barged four charming young girls in costume. They carried a giant sized invitation personally addressed to His Honor to attend the opening that night of a widely-exploited picture.

Well, folks, plaintiff's lawyer was angry. He objected strongly to Showmanship going to work right in the courtroom to prejudice the jury in his favor. The judge, however, denied the objection, saying he thought the invite was a swell idea — so much so, in fact, that, plus the evidence of the witnesses, it about clinched the opinion in his mind that there was no basis for the charges against Showmanship.

So he threw out the case, adjourned court to get home in time to dress and attend the opening.

Swim Contest

Milt Harris, Loew publicist, Cleveland, tied up with the Cleveland Board of Education to hold swimming contest in nine public pools to exploit "Dead End" date at Loew's State. Contest was confined to girls aged fourteen and boys sixteen. Elimination contests were held in neighborhood pools. Winners are then to compete in the finals and each of the winners in the two classifications will receive a Bulova watch. Runners up will get cash prizes and guest tickets with silver plaque to the schools which the winners attend.

Shanghai Short

Max Weinberg, Little Theatre, Baltimore, Md., booked a travel short called "In Shanghai," showing the city before the current conflict. Then adding a frame reading "The films you have just seen were made in the streets of Shanghai a few months ago. We now offer you by contrast some scenes that were filmed in the streets of Shanghai a few days ago." Max followed with the Universal shots of the bombardment.

$1,000 in PRIZES

1st PRIZE	$500
2nd PRIZE	200
3rd PRIZE	100
4th PRIZE	50
5th PRIZE	50
6th PRIZE	50
7th PRIZE	25
8th PRIZE	25

The Judges

SAMUEL GOLDWYN
MARTIN QUIGLEY
Publisher, Motion Picture Herald
GEORGE SCHAEFER
Vice-President, United Artists
A—MIKE VOGEL
Managers' Round Table
MONROE GREENTHAL
Director of Advertising and Publicity, United Artists

My Thanks

...to the large number of exhibitors everywhere who have already submitted so many superlative campaigns in the STELLA DALLAS Contest. The splendid showmanship they reflect has without doubt added thousands of dollars to their theatre grosses. I appreciate the fine efforts that these campaigns represent.

Samuel Goldwyn

STELLA DALLAS CONTEST

Submit Your Complete Campaign to United Artists Corporation
729 Seventh Avenue, New York City

Contest starts immediately—all entries must be post-marked not later than midnight Nov. 1st. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be given.

MEMBERS DETAIL FOOTBALL IDEAS

The 1937 football season is upon us and, as is the annual custom, representative Round Tablers have forwarded details of what they have prepared and intend arranging this fall to tie in with local and national gridiron battles. In alphabetical order have been set down reports of members queried on these activities. More on this in next week's issue.

Charninsky Ties to S.M.U. For Plugging on Big Games

In Dallas, Louie Charninsky at the Capitol will sell the season by having local cheer leaders on stage for early morning shows; football captains and coaches making talks on season's predictions from the stage; presentation on autographed footballs to holders of lucky tickets; local school band playing in front of the theatre on eve of big games. Football parade before with banners announcing that members of rival teams with coaches will be guests of theatre has been found by Charninsky to bring in extra business, as have dressing the lobby with banners and some of the house staff in football uniforms.

Louie has everything set with the nationally famed S.M.U. team to cooperate on plugging the big games. The famed Mustang band will play in the lobby and progress of their games will be announced over the loud speaker from the theatre. Charninsky has also set special kid club shows.

Cohen Will Speak Before Schools To Sell Local Football Games

The home town of Yale University, being New Haven, Ben Cohen, at Loew's College, reports a number of slants tying in with the University team as well as the local high schools. Cohen will take a personal part by interviewing over the radio leading college players present as guests at the college night before big games. He has also accepted invitations to address pep meetings.

Ben has arranged to let loose lettered balloons at the Yale Bowl and between halves at high school games has received permission to entertain with such gags as bannered trick horses plugging current show, placarded sound truck making announcements of school interest and coming shows.

WANTED!

Exhibitors to Cash in on These New Popcorn Machines . . .

These thoroughly new, up-to-date Popcorn Machines get all the nickels and dimes. They are improved big-capacity models with lights, color and motion that really get the business for you. All-electric, full cabinet size. Capacities: $8.00 to $18.00 per hour. Low down payments, easy terms.

Write for Catalog!

ADVANCE MFG. CO.
6332 St. Louis Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

HARRY SHAW ARRANGES "PIGSKIN" SHORT TIEIN

Appearance of the Yale football team at the New Haven Loew house playing the short has been assured Harry Shaw, Loew New England division chief, through a recent showing of the MGM short, "Pigskin Champions", to the Yale director of athletics and the entire football coaching staff. Head coach "Ducky" Pond has further agreed to have the team autograph 100 or more footballs that Shaw is promoting for giveaways on a contest.

The coach further agrees to work with the local Loewmen on coming football pictures which cooperation, Shaw reports, finally was obtained after three years of endeavor.

Feldman Arranging To Film Important Local Games

For the featured games in Pittsburgh which is prominent on the football horizon because of the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech, Joe Feldman, Pittsburgh zone Warner Theatres ad head, reports in favor the idea of arranging motion pictures taken of important games under his supervision, all costs of which are underwritten by local merchants. Other things listed are spot announcements over p.a. systems at football games, free space in football programs, airplane pulling banners over stadium, between-halves clowning by special ballyhoo man and at intervals presentation of outstanding local football stars for teams on stages of the Warner Theatres.

Feldman reports no week-in and week-out participation in football tieups since he finds it more profitable to hit the high spots of the season with exploitation geared to the coming attraction.

McBride Finds Megaphones Effective Theatre Advertising

Cardboard football megaphones used last year went over so well that Ed McBride at Loew's State, Syracuse, intends using these again to tie in with local games. Half the cost of these is underwritten by prominent furniture company in exchange for co-op advertising, and at the 1936 Colgate-Syracuse game McBride distributed 25,000 with 5,000 passed out to the students in the cheering section. Megaphones were printed in orange, the school colors, and Ed reports the students using these effectively in cheering formation.

In addition McBride plans on having the college cheer leaders at the theatre some Sunday on an organ tieup, wherein his organist will be dressed in collegiate costume and will play college songs. He is also preparing for a visit from the Syracuse coach and the team for the usual introduction from the stage.

Special High School Nights Arranged by Rosenthal

Successful football exploitation executed last year by Morris Rosenthal at the Majestic, Bridgeport, Conn., and to be repeated this year in connection with the first football picture, include newsreel shots of the crowds and highlights of big games. Tiein banners announcing the stunt and that the pictures will be shown at the Majestic are carried around in the field between halves.

Rosy is also preparing to have special nights for each local high school. Boxes are draped with school colors, cheer leader and students are introduced from the stage, and players are introduced by well known sports writer. Stunt is reported highly effective and good for capacity on each of the nights.

Saunders Features Ice Stunt To Plug Football Picture

In addition to the special nights and newsreel shots sponsored by local paper which also cooperates with front page publicity, Matt Saunders at Loew's Poli in Bridgeport will stress contest for nearest scores of big college games in connection with merchants, who will give prizes. Theatre and attractions will be plugged on the contest cards and in merchants' windows. Scores and important plays of big games will be announced from the stage and advertised in advance.

Stills of stars appearing in current productions will be placed in sporting goods shops and sports departments of large stores. Comedy ballyman in costume will attend local games to pass out theatre heralds.

Featured contest will be a football frozen in huge cake of ice planted at local store which will sponsor the tiein. Prize will be given for the nearest guess on how long it will take for the ice to melt completely from the football. Gag will be tied in with current attraction.

Taylor Plugs Big Games In Weekly Theatre Newsreel

Buffalo annually sponsors high school competition in which ten local teams compete for cup offered by Harvard University. These games draw thousands of fans weekly, which allows Charles B. Taylor, publicity chief of Shea's Theatres, Buffalo, to distribute heralds and megaphones carrying football schedules together with theatre ads.

When showing a football picture or one especially appropriate to high school or college students, Taylor using huge truck float bearing pennants and colors of the various schools. Lobby is similarly decorated and schools contacted for special nights. On these occasions cheer leaders are invited to perform on the stage as are school glee clubs and bands, which parade down main street led by theatre banners direct to the theatre.

Special stories are run each week on the sports page of local papers calling attention to the big college game featured that week in the newsreel. Taylor reports this a very good contact as sports writers often come in to review the picture.

personalities

C. O. SHULER
formerly connected with houses in Ashland and Lineville, Ala., is now operating the Heflin at Heflin, Ala.

▽

ROBERT WORD
of the Ritz, Scotsboro, Ala., announced the opening of his new house at Bridgeport, Ala.

▽

S. S. BARKSDALE
manager of the DeKalb, Fort Wayne, Ind., plans the opening of the Strand four days each week.

▽

LEO BONOFF
has opened the newly constructed Bonoff Theatre, Saybrook, Conn.

▽

PETER PAROKAS
has opened the Strand, new house in Thompsonville, Conn.

▽

AIDIE ANGLIN
is the manager of the new Richland Theatre, Richland, Ga.

▽

W. BURKE
former manager of the Palace, London, Ontario, has been transferred to the Imperial in Sarnia and GEORGE ALLEN, assistant at the London Capitol has been made manager of the Palace.

▽

HARRY KING
has reopened the King Theatre, Toronto, Can.

▽

HARRY GREENMAN
has added the Irma Theatre, St. Louis, Mo., to his string of neighborhood houses.

▽

W. O. KEMP
is the manager of the new Victory, Poteau, Okla.

▽

J. E. MASSEY
of Waynesville, N. C., and owner of the Park there, has purchased half interest in the Lyric, Sylva, N. C.

▽

LEE CARROW
is rebuilding the Clinton, Detroit, Mich.

▽

FRANK MELLON
has purchased the Star Theatre, Detroit, Mich.

▽

SAM ACKERMAN
has completely rebuilt the East Side Theatre, Detroit.

▽

AUBREY McCRAY
is the new manager of the Lyric Theatre in Stuart, Fla., succeeding FRED HANCOCK.

▽

PAUL DIXSON
has succeeded G. W. DICKINSON, JR., as manager of the Macon, Macon, Mo., and HAROLD MODLIN has taken over managerial reins at Uptown and Dickinson, Parsons, Kans., replacing CARLTON DICKINSON. Both the Dickinson boys returned to college.

ADS ON NEXT PAGE AND THEIR AUTHORS

Two-column "Prisoner of Zenda", Charlie Pincus, Capitol, Salt Lake City, Utah; three-column on "Topper", George Henger, Criterion, Oklahoma City, Okla.; two-column "San Quentin", Mort Goodman, Hollywood and Downtown Theatres, Los Angeles, Cal., and two-column "Hoosier Schoolboy", Irwin Waite, Melba, Dallas, Tex.

Two-column "Devil Is Driving", Paul Kessler, Suffolk, Holyoke, Mass.; three-column "Wee Willie Winkie" and "Broadway Melody", Ray Bell, Loew's Theatres, Washington, D. C.; two-column "Tundra", Harry Jernberg, Providence Theatre, Winnipeg, Can., and three-column "Pigskin Champions" and "Knight Without Armor", Victor Geisel, Orpheum, Green Bay, Wis.

Showmen's Calendar

NOVEMBER

1st	All Saint's Day
	Daniel Boone Born—1734
2nd	Election Day
	North Dakota and South Dakota became states in 1889
	James K. Polk (11th President) Born—1795
	James Dunn's Birthday
4th	Dick Powell's Birthday
5th	Joel McCrea's Birthday
6th	Abraham Lincoln elected President—1860
7th	Montana becomes a state—1889
8th	Katharine Hepburn's Birthday
11th	Armistice Day
	Washington became a state—1889
	Roland Young's Birthday
	Joe Penner's Birthday
	Pat O'Brien's Birthday
13th	Robert Louis Stevenson Born—1850
14th	Jack Oakie's Birthday
15-21	Book Week
16th	Oklahoma became a state—1907
19th	James A. Garfield (20th President) Born—1831
20th	Reginald Denny's Birthday
23rd	Franklin Pierce (12th President) Born—1804
	Harpo Marx's Birthday
24th	Zachary Taylor (12th Persident) Born—1784
25th	Thanksgiving Day
28th	Rubenstein (Composer) Born—1829
	Fred Astaire's Birthday
30th	Mark Twain Born—1835
	Louisiana purchased—1803

HARVEY WHALEY
manager of the Grand, Macon, Ga., has resigned to accept a position as advertising and display manager of the J. C. Penny Co. store in Savannah.

▽

FRANK M. MURPHY
of Loew's Orpheum, Boston, is the new manager of Loew's Parkway, Wilmington, Del., succeeding ROSCOE DRISSEL, who has been transferred to Loew's State, Norfolk, Va.

▽

JOHN D. SIRICA
at present managing the Palace, New Britain, will become managing director of the new Parokas house, Thompsonville, Conn., when it opens next week.

▽

ALFRED JONES
formerly in the capacity of utility man at the Oasis Theatre, Brooklyn, has been promoted to assistant manager at that house.

▽

JOHN R. BOYUM
formerly assistant of the Strand, Madison, Wis., has been named manager of the Fox, Menominee, Mich.

▽

HENRY TOLLETTE
former manager of the Oriental, Milwaukee, Wis., is now manager of the Retlaw, Fond du Lac, Wis.

▽

GEORGE KERASOTES
is the new manager of the Modernistic Theatre, Onarga, Ill.

▽

TOM POWELL
is managing the new Capitol Theatre, Springfield, Ill.

▽

DAVE ROSENBAUM
will manage the new Hollywood, Ausable Forks, N. Y.

▽

FRANK HENSON
manager of Loew's Broad, Columbus, Ohio, has been named manager of Loew's, Canton, replacing LARRY THOMPSON.

▽

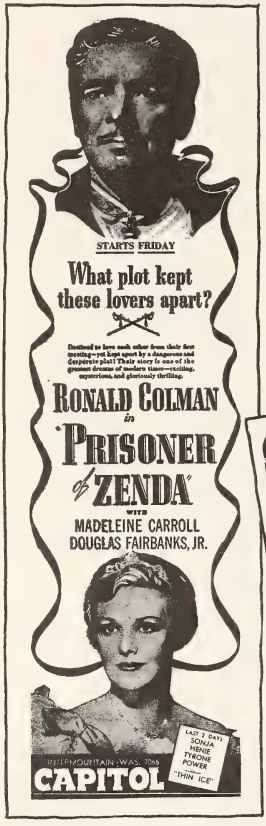
E. C. AREHART
has purchased the Strand, Milford, Ia., from F. F. JUNGKUNG.

▽

GEORGE PETERS
has been promoted from assistant at Loew's Capitol, Wash., to the Loew's house in Reading, Pa.

▽

DICK EASON
moves to the Isis, Lynchburg, Va., from the Trenton, switching posts with CALVIN BALL.



▽

HARRY MUNDY
assistant at the Warner, Worcester, Mass., has taken a similar post at the Capitol, Springfield, replacing CARL JAMROGA, resigned.

▽

EDDIE COFFEY
is now managing the Gem in Colusa, Cal.

REPRESENTATIVE NEWSPAPER ADS

THE RELEASE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Running times are those supplied by the companies. Asterisk indicates running time as made known by West Coast studio before announcement by home office in New York. Variations also may be due to local censorship deletions. Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1937-38 season.

ADVANCE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
Dawn to Dusk	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Nov.	1,'37†
Squadron "B"	Margaret Morris-Bill Edwards	Sept.	15,'37†

AMBASSADOR-CONN-MELODY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Anything for a Thrill	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	June	15,'37
Born to Fight	Frankie Darro-Jack La Rue	Nov.	3,'36
Devil Diamond, The	Kane Richmond-Frankie Darro	Jan.	15,'37
Fighting Texan, The	Kermit Maynard-Elaine Shepard	June	22,'37
Galloping Dynamite	Kermit Maynard-Ariane Allen	Dec.	30,'36
Headline Crasher	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Dec.	25,'36
Racing Blood	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Nov.	15,'36
Sing While You're Able	Pinky Tomlin	Mar.	20,'37	66
Thanks for Listening	Pinky Tomlin	July	12,'37
Tough to Handle	Frankie Darro-Kane Richmond	Mar.	24,'37
Valley of Terror	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	Jan.	20,'37
Whistling Bullets	Kermit Maynard-Harlene Wood	May	3,'37
Wild Horse Roundup	Kermit Maynard-Dickie Jones	Nov.	20,'36
With Love and Kisses	Pinky Tomlin-Toby Wing	Dec.	20,'36
Coming
Fighting Cadet	Frankie Darro
Gentleman Must Live, A	Pinky Tomlin
Reckless Chances	Kermit Maynard
Roaring Six Guns	Kermit Maynard-Mary Hayes
Young Dynamite	Frankie Darro

CELEBRITY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
For Love of You	F. Foresta-Riscoe and Wayne		60
Kiss Me Goodbye	M. Schneider-Riscoe and Wayne		62

CHESTERFIELD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Red Lights Ahead	Andy Clyde-Lucille Gleason	Dec.	29,'36

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Come Closer, Folks	James Dunn-Marian Marsh	Nov.	7,'36	61
Counsel for Crime	Otto Kruger-Jacqueline Wells	Sept.	14,'37†	62
(See "The Man Behind the Law," "In the Cutting Room," June 12,'37.)
Counterfeit Lady (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Joan Perry	Dec.	31,'36	60. Jan. 23,'37
Cowboy Star, The	Charles Starrett-Iris Shunn	Nov.	20,'36	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 10,'36.)
Criminals of the Air	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Apr.	30,'37	61
(See "Honeymoon Pilot," "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 27,'37.)
Dangerous Adventure, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	Aug.	1,'37	59
Devil Is Driving, The (G)	Richard Dix-Joan Perry	June	25,'37	68. July 24,'37
(Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78; Sept. 11,'37, p. 84.)
Devil's Playground (A)	Dolores Del Rio-Richard Dix	Jan.	24,'37	74. Feb. 27,'37
Fight to the Finish, A	Don Terry-Rosalind Keith	June	30,'37	59
(See "Taxi War," "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Find the Witness (G)	Rosalind Keith-Chas. Quigley	Jan.	8,'37	57. Mar. 6,'37
Frame Up, The	Paul Kelly-Jacqueline Wells	May	1,'37	59
(See "Right Guy," "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)
Girls Can Play	Chas. Quigley-Jacqueline Wells	June	21,'37	60
I Promise to Pay (G)	Lee Carrillo-Chester Morris	Apr.	21,'37	65. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 64.)
It Can't Last Forever (G)	Betty Furness-Ralph Bellamy	July	15,'37	68. Aug. 14,'37
It Happened in Hollywood	Richard Dix-Fay Wray	Sept.	7,'37†	67
(See "Once a Hero," "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 17,'37.)
It's All Yours (G)	Francis Lederer-M. Carroll	Sept.	1,'37†	80. Aug. 7,'37
Lady from Nowhere	Mary Astor-Charles Quigley	Nov.	21,'36	60
Law of the Ranger	Bob Allen-Elaine Shepard	Feb.	26,'37	57
League of Frightened Men (G)	Walter Connolly-Irene Hervey	May	25,'37	65. July 24,'37
Legion of Terror (G)	Marguerite Churchill-B. Cabot	Nov.	1,'36	60. Nov. 7,'36
Let's Get Married (G)	Ralph Bellamy-Ida Lupino	Mar.	25,'37	69. May 29,'37
Lost Horizon (A)	Ronald Colman-Jane Wyatt	Sept.	1,'37†	118. Feb. 27,'37
(Exploitation: Sept. 5,'36, p. 75; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; May 22,'37, p. 92; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, pp. 96, 100.)
More Than a Secretary (G)	Jean Arthur-George Brent	Dec.	24,'36	77. Dec. 28,'36
Meter Madness	Rosalind Keith-Allen Brook	Apr.	5,'37	62
(See "Speed Mad," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 20,'37.)
One Man Justice	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	July	1,'37	59
Outlaws of the Orient	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Aug.	20,'37†	61
Parole Racket (G)	Paul Kelly-Rosalind Keith	Mar.	4,'37	62. Apr. 10,'37
Pennies from Heaven (G)	Bing Crosby-Madge Evans	Nov.	25,'36	83. Dec. 18,'36
(Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 79; Feb. 8,'37, p. 72; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 81, 82; Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 96.)
Racketeers in Exile (G)	George Bancroft-Evelyn Venable	Mar.	31,'37	67. Apr. 3,'37
Rangers Step In, The	Bob Allen-Eleanor Stewart	Aug.	8,'37†	58
Reckless Ranger	Bob Allen-Louise Small	May	30,'37	56
Rio Grande Ranger	Bob Allen-Iris Meredith	Dec.	11,'36	54
(See "In the Cuting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)
Roaring Timber (G)	Jack Holt-Grace Bradley	July	4,'37	65. Aug. 28,'37
Speed to Spare	Dorothy Wilson-Chas. Quigley	May	4,'37	60
(See "Racing Luck," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 13,'37.)
Theodora Goes Wild (G)	Irene Dunne-Melvyn Douglas	Nov.	12,'36	95. Nov. 14,'36
(Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 81.)
Thunder in the City (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Luli Deste	Apr.	25,'37	76. Feb. 13,'37
Trapped	Charles Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Mar.	5,'37	55
Trouble in Morocco (G)	Jack Holt-Mae Clarke	Mar.	22,'37	62. Mar. 20,'37
Tugboat Princess	Walter C. Kelly-Edith Fellows	Oct.	15,'36	69
Two Fisted Sheriff	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks	June	15,'37	59
Two Gun Law	Chas. Starrett-Peggy Stratford	Apr.	7,'37	56
Venus Makes Trouble	James Dunn-Patricia Ellis	May	14,'37	58
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 3,'37.)
Westbound Mail	Chas. Starrett-Rosalind Keith	Jan.	22,'37	54
When You're in Love (G)	Grace Moore-Cary Grant	Feb.	27,'37	104. Feb. 20,'37
Woman in Distress (G)	May Robson-Irene Hervey	Jan.	17,'37	68. Feb. 13,'37
Women of Glamour (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce	Jan.	28,'37	72. Mar. 20,'37
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)
Coming
Absent Without Leave	Dolly Haas
All American Sweetheart	Scott Colton-Patricia Farr
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 18,'37.)
Awful Truth, The	Irene Dunne-Cary Grant	Oct.	7,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Carnival Lady	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth
College Follies of 1938	Jimmy Durante-Joan Perry
Forgotten Women	Wyn Cahoon-Scott Colton
Game That Kills, The	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Sept.	21,'37†
Hollywood Round-up	Buck Jones
I'll Take Romance	Grace Moore-M. Douglas	Oct.	28,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)
I Married an Artist	John Boles-Luli Deste
Life Begins with Love	Jean Parker-D. Montgomery	Oct.	14,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Night Before, The	Mary Astor-Richard Arlen
Old Wyoming Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Barbara Weeks
Paid to Dance	Don Terry-Jacqueline Wells
Park Avenue Dame	Fay Wray-Richard Arlen	Oct.	21,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)
Trapped by G-Men	Jack Holt-Wynne Gibson	Oct.	31,'37†
There's Always a Woman	Loretta Young-Randolph Scott

CRESCENT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Battle of Greed (G)	Tom Keene-Gwynne Shipman	Jan.	18,'37	65. Jan. 9,'37
Drums of Destiny (G)	Tom Keene-Edna Lawrence	June	12,'37	*60. June 19,'37
Law Commands, The	Tom Keene-Lorraine Hayes	May	12,'37	60
Old Louisiana (G)	Tom Keene-Rita Cansino	Mar.	1,'37	64. Mar. 20,'37
Raw Timber	Tom Keene-Peggy Keys	July	6,'37	63
Under Strange Flags	Tom Keene-Luana Walters	Apr.	12,'37	64

DANUBIA

(Hungarian Dialogue)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blue Danube Romance	Zita Perezel	Jan.	20,'37	85
Dreams of Love	Frank Taray	Jan.	3,'37	103
(English titles)
Friendly Expression	Radey-Szoke	Nov.	1,'36	65
Hungarian Village	Travelogue	Dec.	25,'36	20
(English titles)
I Married for Love	Kabos-Radal	Sept.	15,'37†	84
Man of Gold	Maria Egri-F. Kiss	Apr.	12,'37	92
Man Under the Bridge	Csortos-Lazar	Nov.	15,'36	82
Salary $200 Monthly	Javor-Felop	Dec.	31,'36	82
Scotchman in Hungary	Radey-Oresl	Apr.	12,'37	95
Sister Mary	Szorenyi-Sved	Mar.	28,'37	91
Sons of the Steppes	Kiss-Komcar	Dec.	26,'36	85
Storm on the Pusta	Kiss-Komcar	Apr.	5,'37	78
Three Spinsters	Emile Markus-Rajnay	Dec.	1,'36	84
Coming
Blame It on Love	Szeleczky-Basthy	Sept.	6,'37†	78
My Daughter Is Different	Turay-Kabos	Oct.	20,'37†	88
Once a Week	Kabos-Perczel	Sept.	10,'37†	74
Tempest in a Charda	Javor-Lazar	Oct.	20,'37†	90
Texas Mammy	Fedak	Oct.	25,'37†	89
Tomi	Pecsi-Adam	Sept.	11,'37†	81
Vicki (Country Ball)	Javor-Rose Barsony	Sept.	25,'37†	87
Yellow Roses	Kabos	Oct.	30,'37†	90

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

DuWORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crimson Circle	Noah Beery	Jan.	1,'37	74

FIRST NATIONAL

(See also Warner Brothers)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Case of the Stuttering Bishop, The, 176	Donald Woods-Ann Dvorak	June	5,'37	70
Cherokee Strip 178	Dick Foran-Jane Bryan	May	15,'37	55
Confession (A) 158	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Aug.	28,'37	*85. July 24,'37
Dance, Charlie, Dance (G) 165	Stuart Erwin-Jean Muir	Aug.	14,'37	64. May 1,'37
Draegerman Courage (G) 168	Jean Muir-Barton MacLane	May	15,'37	58. Aug. 29,'36
Empty Holsters 179	Dick Foran-Patricia Walthall	July	10,'37
Ever Since Eve (G) 162	Marion Davies-R. Montgomery	July	17,'37	79. June 26,'37
Gold Diggers of 1937 (G) 151 (Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 100; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; Mar. 6,'37, p. 90.)	Dick Powell-Joan Blondell	Dec.	26,'36	101. Dec. 12,'36
Green Light (G) 154 (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, pp. 78, 81; Apr. 3,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, p. 90; May 29,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Errol Flynn-Anita Louise	Feb.	20,'37	85. Jan. 9,'37
Guns of Pecos 960	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Jan.	2,'37	65
Her Husband's Secretary (A) 173 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Mar.	20,'37	61. Mar. 6,'37
Marked Woman (A) 156	Bette Davis-H. Bogart	Apr.	10,'37	96. Mar. 6,'37
Men in Exile 174	Richard Purcell-June Travis	Apr.	4,'37
Mountain Justice (A) 161	Josephine Hutchinson-G. Brent	Apr.	24,'37	82. May 22,'37
Mr. Dodd Takes the Air (G) 159	Kenny Baker-Jane Wyman	Aug.	21,'37	*80. July 31,'37
Once a Doctor (G) 171	Donald Woods-Jean Muir	Jan.	23,'37	65. Mar. 6,'37
Penrod and Sam (G) 172	Billy Mauch-Henry Watson	Feb.	28,'37	64. Jan. 16,'37
Prairie Thunder 180	Dick Foran-Ellen Clancy	Sept.	11,'37
Prince and the Pauper, The (G) 152 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 66; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 3,'37, p. 68.)	Mauch Twins-Errol Flynn	May	8,'37	120. Apr. 17,'37
San Quentin (G) 163	Pat O'Brien-Humphrey Bogart	Aug.	7,'37	70. Apr. 3,'37
Sing Me a Love Song (G) 160. (Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 70.)	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	Jan.	9,'37	79. Oct. 17,'36
Stolen Holiday (G) 157	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Feb.	6,'37	80. Dec. 26,'36
Talent Scout (G) 166	Donald Woods-Jeanne Madden	July	24,'37	62. June 12,'37
That Certain Woman (A) 254.	Bette Davis-Henry Fonda	Sept.	18,'37†	*94. Aug. 7,'37
That Man's Here Again (G) 175	Mary Maguire-Tom Brown	Apr.	17,'37	58. Mar. 27,'37
Three Men on a Horse (G) 151. (Exploitation: Dec. 12,'36, p. 81; Dec. 19,'36, p. 89; Dec. 26,'36, p. 70; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; May 1,'37, p. 83.)	Frank McHugh-Joan Blondell	Nov.	21,'36	85. Dec. 5,'36

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Accidents Will Happen	Ronald Reagan-Gloria Blondell
Adventurous Blonde, The (G)	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Nov.	13,'37†	*65. Sept. 11,'37
Alcatraz Island	John Litel-Ann Sheridan
Back in Circulation (A) 266	Joan Blondell-Pat O'Brien	Sept.	25,'37†	82. Aug. 7,'37
First Lady (G)	Kay Francis-Preston Foster			*82. Sept. 11,'37
Gold Is Where You Find It	George Brent-O. de Havilland
Hollywood Hotel	Dick Powell-Frances Langford
It's Love I'm After (G)	Leslie Howard-Bette Davis			*87. July 31,'37
Larger Than Life	Frank McHugh-Ann Sheridan
Love Is on the Air 269	Ronald Reagan-June Travis	Oct.	2,'37†	61
Over the Goal 272	William Hopper-June Travis	Oct.	16,'37†
Perfect Specimen, The 257 (See "in the Cutting Room." July 3,'37.)	Errol Flynn-Joan Blondell	Oct.	23,'37†
Sergeant Murphy	Ronald Reagan-Mary Maguire
They Won't Forget (A) 265 (See production article, "The Deep South," May 8,'37, p. 16.)	Gloria Dickson-Claude Rains	Oct.	9,'37†	95. June 19,'37
This Woman Is Dangerous	Kay Francis-Pat O'Brien
West of Shanghai (G) 164 (Reviewed under the title, "War Lord.")	Boris Karloff-Beverly Roberts			*65. July 17,'37

FRANK NORTON

(Greek Dialogue, English Titles)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Astero	Miss Kyvell	Feb.	21,'37	90
Far from the Crowd	Mary Tsagonis	Apr.	7,'37	82
Ftohea Toy Mpoam	Vasoula Manolidoy	Sept.	5,'37†	90

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Kaimourgea Zoe	Rita Karmen	Nov.	7,'37†	115
Reborn	Elene Papadake	Dec.	5,'37†	90
True Love	Sophea Damogley	Oct.	3,'37†	85

GB PICTURES

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Backstage 3614	Anna Neagle-Arthur Tracy	Mar.	15,'37	65
Everybody Dance (G) 3613	Ernest Truex-C. Courtneidge	Feb.	15,'37	70. Sept. 12,'36
Gangway (G)	Jessie Matthews-Nat Pendleton	Sept.	1,'37†	88. Aug. 28,'37
Head Over Heels in Love (G) 3604 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78.)	Jessie Matthews-Louis Borrell	Feb.	20,'37	81. Feb. 13,'37
King Solomon's Mines (G) 3618 (See production article, May 22,'37, p. 16.)	Cedric Hardwicke-Roland Young	Aug.	26,'37	76. July 3,'37
Love in Exile (A) 3623	Clive Brook-Helen Vinson	Nov.	15,'36	63. May 30,'36
Man of Affairs (G) 3606 (Reviewed under the title, "His Lordship.") (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, p. 88.)	George Arliss-Rene Ray	Jan.	20,'37	71. Nov. 28,'36
River of Unrest (G) 3621 (Reviewed under the title, "Ourselves Alone.")	John Lodge-John Loder	Jan.	15,'37	69. May 18,'36
Silent Barriers (G) 3608 (See "The Great Barrier," production article, Feb. 6,'37, p. 10; exploitation: Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; May 1,'37, p. 81; June 26,'37, p. 121; July 17,'37, p. 90; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, p. 94; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Richard Arlen-Lilli Palmer	Apr.	29,'37	83. Feb. 27,'37
Strangers On a Honeymoon (G) 3615	C. Cummings-Noah Berry	Dec.	15,'36	67. Jan. 9,'37
Talk of the Devil (G) 3607	Ricardo Cortez-Sally Eilers	June	1,'37	76. May 22,'37
Tenth Man, The (G) 3622	John Lodge-Antoinette Cellier	May	15,'37	65. Aug. 29,'36
Two of Us 3619	Jack Hulbert-Gina Malo	July	10,'37	64
Where There's a Will 3624	Will Hay	July	26,'37	74
Woman Alone, The (G) 3601 (Reviewed under the title, "Sabotage.")	Sylvia Sidney-John Loder	Jan.	12,'37	76. Jan. 2,'37
You're in the Army Now (G) 3620 (Reviewed under the title, "O. H. M. S.")	Wallace Ford-Anna Lee	Mar.	1,'37	73. Feb. 20,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Dr. Syn (G)	Geo. Arliss-Margaret Lockwood			81. Sept. 18,'37
Girl Was Young, The	Nova Pilbeam
Look Out for Love	Anna Neagle-T. Carminati
Non Stop New York	Anna Lee-Desmond Tester
Sailing Along	Jessie Matthews-Jack Whiting

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Days (G) 147	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Jan.	30,'37	52. Feb. 13,'37
Bank Alarm 139	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	June	25,'37	63
Boots of Destiny 204	Ken Maynard-Claire Dodd	July	23,'37†	56
Captain Calamity 128	George Houston-Movita	Nov.	29,'36	68
Forever Yours (G) 155	Benjamino Gigli	May	15,'37	70½. June 12,'37
Girl Loves Boy 124	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	27,'37	77
Girl Said No, The (G) 201	Robt. Armstrong-Irene Hervey	July	16,'37†	76½. May 29,'37
Gold Racket, The (G) 138	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Apr.	10,'37	65½. May 1,'37
Great Guy (G) 101 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 74; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 74, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81; May 22,'37, p. 88.)	James Cagney-Mae Clarke	Jan.	2,'37	73. Dec. 19,'36
Hats Off (G) 108	Mae Clarke-John Payne	Dec.	6,'37	66½. Jan. 2,'37
Headin' for the Rio Grande (G) 146	Tex Ritter-Eleanor Stewart	Dec.	20,'36	61. Dec. 12,'36
Here's Flash Casey 211	Eric Linden-Boots Mallory	Sept.	10,'37†
Hideout in the Alps 199 (Reviewed under the title, "Dusty Ermine.")	Jane Baxter-Anthony Bushell	July	23,'37	75. Oct. 10,'36
Hittin' the Trail 149	Tex Ritter-Jerry Bergh	Apr.	3,'37	58
Juggernaut (A) 154	Boris Karloff-Joan Wyndham	Apr.	30,'37	64. Oct. 17,'36
Killers of the Sea (G) 135	Capt. Wallace Casewell	May	8,'37	49. May 15,'37
Love Takes Flight (G) 206	Bruce Cabot-Beatrice Roberts	Aug.	13,'37†	71. Aug. 7,'37
Man in the Mirror, The (A) 112	E. E. Horton-Genevieve Tobin	Apr.	24,'37	71½. Jan. 16,'37
Mystery of the Hooded Horsemen 151	Tex Ritter-Iris Meredith	Aug.	6,'37	60
Navy Spy 137	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Mar.	13,'37	56
Renfrew of the Royal Mounted 212	Jimmy Newell-Carol Hughes	Sept.	17,'37†
Riders of the Rockies 150	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	July	2,'37	66
Romance and Riches (G) 153 (Reviewed under the title, "The Amazing Quest.")	Cary Grant-Mary Brian	Feb.	27,'37	58½. Aug. 28,'36
Scotland Yard Commands (G) 152	Clive Brook-V. Hopper	Jan.	23,'37	61. Feb. 20,'37
Shadow Strikes, The (G) 202.	Rod La Rocque-Lynn Anders	July	9,'37†	61. July 17,'37
Sing, Cowboy, Sing (G) 145	Tex Ritter-Louise Stanley	May	22,'37	59. June 5,'37
Small Town Boy, The 205	Stuart Erwin-Joyce Compton	July	30,'37†	61
Something to Sing About (G) 210	James Cagney-E. Daw	Sept.	3,'37†	*90. Sept. 4,'37
Song of the Gringo (G) 144	Tex Ritter-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	22,'36	62. Nov. 14,'36
Sweetheart of the Navy 123	Eric Linden-Cecilia Parker	June	18,'37	61
Trailing Trouble 208	Ken Maynard	Aug.	27,'37†
Trouble in Texas (G) 148	Tex Ritter	Mar.	6,'37	63. Mar. 13,'37
Two Who Dared (A) 113 (Reviewed under the title, "A Woman Alone.")	Anna Sten-Henry Wilcoxon	May	8,'37	73. June 6,'36
23½ Hours Leave (G) 103	James Ellison-Terry Walker	Mar.	20,'37	72½. Mar. 6,'37
We're in the Legion Now (G) 129 (Reviewed under the title, "Rest Cure.")	Reginald Denny-Esther Ralston	Jan.	16,'37	55½. Feb. 15,'36
Yellow Cargo (G) 136	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt	Nov.	8,'36	63. Nov. 14,'36

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Damaged Goods 175	Pedro de Cordoba			60. July 10,'37
Death Takes a Cruise
Gorgeous	Anna Sten
He Wanted to Marry	Wallace Ford-Isabel Jewell
Honolulu Honeymoon
King of the Sierras 207	Rex-Shiek	Oct.	1,'37†
Law of the Golden West	Tex Ritter
Love Me Again	Anna Sten
Love Runs Into Money
Make Up (G)	Nils Asther-June Clyde			70. July 10,'37
Mr. Boggs Buys a Barrel	Stuart Erwin-Helen Chandler
Murder at the Rancho	Ken Maynard
Orchid Girl	Anna Sten
Painter in the Sky
Photo Finish	Conrad Nagel-Eleanor Hunt
Snow Covered Wagons
Spy of Napoleon (G)	R. Barthelmess-D. Haas			98. Oct. 10,'36
Stars and Stripes
Tex Rides with the Boy Scouts 214	Tex Ritter	Sept.	24,'37†
Wallaby Jim of the Islands 213	Geo. Houston-Ruth Coleman	Sept.	24,'37†

GUARANTEED

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crime Patrol	Ray Walker-Geneva Mitchell	Mar.	1,'37	63
Oil Raider, The	Buster Crabbe	Nov.	1,'36
White Ivory	Jack Mulhall	Dec.	1,'36	69

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

HOFFBERG

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Coming
Early Bird, The	Richard Hayward
Irish and Proud of It	Richard Hayward
Calling All Cars	Jack LaRue-Lillian Miles	Feb.	10,'37....62	Jan. 26,'35
Fire Trap, The	Norman Foster-Evalyn Knapp	Jan.	10,'37....58	Dec. 7,'35
Inyaah	Borneo Expedition	Nov.	15,'36†....70
Phantom of Santa Fe	Nina Quartaro-Norman Kerry	Aug.	1,'37†....75
Rescue Squad	Ralph Forbes-Sheila Terry	Feb.	10,'37....82
Uncle from America	Czech Film	Dec.	15,'36....90
Wedding of Palo, The (G)	Rasmussen's Eskimo Drama	Mar.	1,'37....85	Mar. 20,'37
Coming
Ada Don't Do That	Polish Film
Business in Distress	Czech Film
I Give My Heart (A)	Gitta Alpar		85	Nov. 16,'35
Invitation to the Waltz (G)	Lilian Harvey		80	Nov. 16,'35
Kathleen Mavourneen	Sally O'Neil-Irish Cast
Maid of the Mountains, The (G)	Harry Welchman		80	Apr. 22,'33
Song of the Lark	Czech Film
Student's Romance, The (G)	Patric Knowles		78	Aug. 10,'35
Voice of India	Hoefler Expedition	Oct.	1,'37†....70

HUNGARIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Exception Granted	Imre Raday-Klari Tolnay	June	11,'37....9 rls
Extra, Extra!	Gy Kabos	Feb.	20,'37....8 Rls
Honeymoon On Cut-Rate	Paul Javor-I. Agai	Feb.	6,'37....8 rls
Pay, Madame	Paul Javor	May	30,'37....8 rls
Coming
Affair of Honor	Gy Kabos	Sept.	11,'37†....9 rls
All Men Are Wild	Paul Javor	Oct.	21,'37†....9 rls
Anniversary	Imre Raday-Ida Turay	Dec.	10,'37†....10 rls
Bride from Torocko	Paul Javor	Oct.	1,'37†....10 rls
Eighty Miles an Hour	Gy Kabos-M. Erdely	Nov.	19,'37†....8 rls
Hotel Springtime	Gy Kabos-Anna Tokes	Nov.	30,'37†....10 rls
I Picked You for My Husband	Paul Javor	Nov.	4,'37†....9 rls
It Happened in Budapest	Gy Kabos-Zita Perczel	Sept.	21,'37†....9 rls
Sport of Love, The	Gy Kabos-Ida Turray	Dec.	24,'37†....8 rls
Two Prisoners	Paul Javor	Oct.	12,'37†....10 rls

IMPERIAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broken Blossoms (A)	Dolly Haas-E. Williams	Dec.	1,'36....80	June 6,'36
Dead March, The (A)	Beake Carter	Sept.	15,'37†....73	Sept. 11,'37
High Hat	Frank Luther-Dorothy Dare	Jan.	1,'37....90
Rich Relations	Ralph Forbes-Frances Grant	Feb.	1,'37....90
She Shall Have Music	Jack Hylton-June Clyde	Nov.	1,'36....90	Dec. 1,'35
With Pleasure, Madame	Conrad Nagel-Marta Labarr	Apr.	15,'37....90
Coming
Back from Reno
Beauty Racket
Deerslayer
Honor Among Women
I Demand Payment	Betty Burgess-Jack LaRue
Night of Crime
Sky Girl

INVINCIBLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ellis Island	Donald Cook-Peggy Shannon	Nov.	5,'36....98

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
After the Thin Man (G) 713 (Exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 71; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86; May 1,'37, p. 80; June 5,'37, p. 64.)	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Dec.	25,'36....112	Dec. 12,'36
April Romance (G) 706	Richard Tauber	Nov.	20,'36....82	Feb. 13,'37
Bad Guy (G) 743	Bruce Cabot-Virginia Grey	Aug.	27,'37....69	Aug. 28,'37
Between Two Women (G) 737	Virginia Bruce-Franchot Tone	July	9,'37....89	July 3,'37
Big City (A) 801	Spencer Tracy-Luise Rainer	Sept.	3,'37†....80	Sept. 4,'37
Born to Dance (G) 709 (Exploitation: Jan. 2,'37, p. 108; Jan. 23,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, p. 77.)	Eleanor Powell-James Stewart	Nov.	27,'36....108	Nov. 21,'36
Broadway Melody of 1938 (G) 739	Eleanor Powell-Robt. Taylor	Aug.	20,'37....110	Aug. 21,'37
Camille (A) 639 (See production article, Dec. 24,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 8,'37, p. 107; Mar. 13,'37, p. 78; Mar. 27,'37, p. 78.)	Greta Garbo-Robert Taylor	Jan.	1,'37....108	Dec. 19,'36
Captains Courageous (G) 717 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 91, 92; Aug. 21,'37, pp. 76, 78; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 95, 96, 97.)	F. Bartholomew-Spencer Tracy	June	25,'37....116	Apr. 3,'37
Dangerous Number (G) 718	Robert Young-Ann Sothern	Jan.	22,'37....71	Feb. 6,'37
Day at the Races, A (G) 730 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 12; exploitation: May 15,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 86; July 17,'37, p. 89; Apr. 7,'37, p. 91.)	Marx Brothers-Allan Jones	June	11,'37....111	June 19,'37
Emperor's Candlesticks, The (G) 733	William Powell-Luise Rainer	July	2,'37....89	July 3,'37
Espionage (G) 723	Edmund Lowe-Madge Evans	Feb.	26,'37....67	Mar. 6,'37
Family Affair, A (G) 632	Lionel Barrymore-Cecilia Parker	Mar.	12,'37....69	Mar. 20,'37
General Spanky (G) 714	Spanky McFarland-P. Holmes	Dec.	11,'36....72	Oct. 31,'36
Good Earth, The (A) 741 (See production article, July 11,'36, p. 76; exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 69; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99; June 12,'37, p. 94; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92; Sept. 18,'37, pp. 82, 86.)	Paul Muni-Luise Rainer	Aug.	6,'37....139	Feb. 6,'37
Good Old Soak (G) 728 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67; June 26,'37, p. 121.)	Wallace Beery-Betty Furness	Apr.	23,'37....76	Apr. 24,'37
Hell Divers (re-issue) (G)	Clark Gable-Wallace Beery	June	4,'37....109	Dec. 26,'31
Last of Mrs. Cheyney, The 719 (See production article, Apr. 3,'37, p. 86; May 15,'37, p. 94; June 12,'37, p. 92.)	Joan Crawford-William Powell	Feb.	19,'37....98	Feb. 27,'37
London By Night (G) 740	George Murphy-Rita Johnson	July	30,'37....69	July 24,'37
Mad Holiday (G) 706	Elissa Landi-Edmund Lowe	Nov.	13,'36....71	Nov. 14,'36
Mama Steps Out (G) 721	Guy Kibbee-Alice Brady	Feb.	5,'37....65	Feb. 8,'37
Manhattan Melodrama (re-issue) (G)	C. Gable-M. Loy-W. Powell	July	2,'37....90	Apr. 28,'34
Man of the People (G) 716	Joseph Calleia-Florence Rice	Jan.	29,'37....81	Jan. 30,'37
Married Before Breakfast (G) 736	Robt. Young-Florence Rice	June	18,'37....70	June 26,'37
Maytime (G) 720 (Musical analysis: Mar. 27,'37, p. 15; exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 85; Apr. 3,'37, p. 64; Apr. 17,'37, p. 78; May 22,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, pp. 68, 69; July 24,'37, p. 80.)	J. MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Mar.	26,'37....132	Mar. 13,'37
My Dear Miss Aldrich (G) 803	Edna May Oliver-W. Pidgeon	Sept.	17,'37†....73	Sept. 11,'37
Naughty Marietta (re-issue) (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-N. Eddy	Aug.	6,'37....105	Mar. 2,'35
Night Must Fall (A) 727	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Apr.	30,'37....117	Apr. 10,'37
Nobody's Baby (G) 729	Patsy Kelly-Robt. Armstrong	Apr.	23,'37....67	Feb. 6,'37
Parnell (G) 722 (See production article, Feb. 13,'37, p. 16.)	Clark Gable-Myrna Loy	June	4,'37....119	June 12,'37
Personal Property (G) 725 (Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 79; June 12,'37, p. 93.)	Jean Harlow-Robert Taylor	Mar.	19,'37....84	Mar. 20,'37
Pick a Star (G) 735	Jack Haley-Patsy Kelly	May	21,'37....70	Apr. 24,'37
Romeo and Juliet (G) 1100 (See production article, Mar. 28,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 9,'37, p. 68; Jan. 23,'37, p. 79; Jan. 30,'37, p. 83; Feb. 6,'37, p. 77; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 79; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94; May 1,'37, p. 80; May 8,'37, p. 74; May 29,'37, p. 70; June 26,'37, pp. 118, 119, 123; July 3,'37, pp. 69, 70; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 80.)	Norma Shearer-Leslie Howard	Apr.	16,'37....127	July 18,'36
Saratoga (G) 742 (Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)	Clark Gable-Jean Harlow	July	23,'37....94	July 24,'37
Sinner Take All (A) 712	Bruce Cabot-Margaret Lindsay	Dec.	18,'36....74	Dec. 18,'36
Song of the City (G) 724 (Exploitation: Nov. 28,'36, p. 96; Dec. 26,'36, p. 75; Feb. 6,'37, p. 72; Feb. 20,'37, p. 85.)	Dean Jeffries-Margaret Lindsay	Apr.	2,'37....69	Mar. 27,'37
Tarzan Escapes (G) 711	J. Weissmuller-M. O'Sullivan	Nov.	8,'36....89	Nov. 7,'36
They Gave Him a Gun (A) 731	S. Tracy-G. George-F. Tone	May	14,'37....94	May 15,'37
Thirteenth Chair, The (G) 732	Madge Evans-Henry Daniell	May	7,'37....66	May 8,'37
Topper (G) 738 (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 75; Sept. 4,'37, pp. 95, 97.)	Constance Bennett-Cary Grant	July	16,'37....97	July 17,'37
Trader Horn (re-issue) (G)	Harry Carey-Edwina Booth	May	reissue....120	Jan. 24,'31
Under Cover of Night (G) 715	Edmund Lowe-Florence Rice	Jan.	8,'37....72	Jan. 9,'37
Way Out West (G) 734 (Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 92.)	Laurel and Hardy	Apr.	16,'37....64	Jan. 2,'37
Women Men Marry, The (A) 802	J. Hutchinson-George Murphy	Sept.	10,'37†....61	Sept. 11,'37
Coming
Bad Man of Brimstone	Wallace Beery-V. Bruce	Nov.	19,'37†
Bride Wore Red, The 804 (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Joan Crawford-Franchot Tone	Oct.	8,'37†
Conquest (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Greta Garbo-Charles Boyer	Oct.	22,'37†
Double Wedding (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Oct.	15,'37†
Firefly, The (G)	Jeanette MacDonald-Allan Jones	Nov.	5,'37†....138	July 24,'37
Four Marys, The	Myrna Loy-Franchot Tone
Last Gangster, The	E. G. Robinson-Andrea Marion	Nov.	12,'37†
Live, Love and Learn	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Oct.	29,'37†
Madame X 806 (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 18,'37.)	Gladys George-Warren William	Oct.	1,'37†
Mannequin	Joan Crawford-Spencer Tracy	Dec.	17,'37†
Navy, Blue and Gold	Lionel Barrymore-Robt. Young
Rosalie	Eleanor Powell-Nelson Eddy
Thoroughbreds Don't Cry	Mickey Rooney-Sophie Tucker	Nov.	26,'37†
Ugly Duckling	Allan Jones-Judy Garland

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Atlantic Flight	Dick Merrill-Paula Stone	Aug.	25,'37†
Blazing Barriers	Edw. Arnold, Jr.-F. McKinney	July	4,'37†
God's Country and the Man	Tom Keene	Sept.	2,'37†
Hoosier Schoolboy (G)	Mickey Rooney-Anne Nagel	July	7,'37†....62	July 3,'37
Legion of Missing Men	Ralph Forbes	July	28,'37†
Outer Gate	Ralph Morgan-Kay Linaker	Aug.	4,'37†
Paradise Isle (G) (Exploitation: Sept. 18,'37, p. 83.)	Warren Hull-Movita	July	21,'37†....73	Aug. 14,'37
Riders of the Dawn (G)	Jack Randall-Peggy Keys	July	14,'37†....55	Aug. 21,'37
Shadows of the Orient (G)	Regis Toomey-Esther Ralston	Aug.	18,'37†....65	Feb. 15,'36
Thirteenth Man	Weldon Heyburn-I. Courtney	June	30,'37†
Coming
Boy of the Streets	Jackie Cooper	Nov.	10,'37†
Bride for Henry, A	Anne Nagel-Neil Hamilton	Sept.	29,'37†
Code of the Range	Tim McCoy
County Fair, The
Danger Valley	Jack Randall	Nov.	3,'37†
Federal Bullets		Oct.	6,'37†
Land of the Sky Blue Water	Movita
Last Frontier, The	Jack Randall
Luck of Roaring Camp	Owen Davis, Jr.-Joan Woodbury	Nov.	17,'37†
Marines Are Here, The
Numbered Woman		Oct.	20,'37†
Romance of the Limberlost
Stars Over Arizona	Jack Randall-Kathleen Eliot	Sept.	22,'37†
Telephone Operator
Where Trails Divide	Tom Keene	Oct.	13,'37†

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Along Came Love (G) 3616	Irene Hervey-Chas. Starrett	Nov.	6,'36 66	Feb. 20,'37
Artists and Models (G) 3702 (Exploitation: Sept. 18,'37, p. 83.)	Jack Benny-Gail Patrick	Aug.	12,'37† 97	Aug. 7,'37
Blonde Trouble 3701	Johnny Downs-E. Whitney	Aug.	6,'37† 67	Aug. 7,'37
Borderland (G) 3668	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Feb.	26,'37 82	Feb. 13,'37
Bulldog Drummond Escapes (G) 3626	Ray Milland-Heather Angel	Jan.	22,'37 65	Mar. 13,'37
Champagne Waltz (G) 3628 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, pp. 79, 80; July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 87.)	Gladys Swarthout-F. MacMurray	Jan.	29,'37 85	Dec. 12,'36
Clarence 3632 (See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 26,'36.)	Roscoe Karns-Charlotte Wynters	Feb.	12,'37
College Holiday (G) 3623 (Exploitation: Mar. 6,'37, pp. 88, 92; Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)	Jack Benny-Burns & Allen	Dec.	25,'36 87	Dec. 26,'36
Crime Nobody Saw, The (G) 3635	Lew Ayres-Ruth Coleman	Mar.	12,'37 60	Apr. 17,'37
Doctor's Diary, A (G) 3627	John Trent-Helen Burgess	Jan.	15,'37 77	Jan. 30,'37
Double Or Nothing (G) 3707	Bing Crosby-Martha Raye	Sept.	17,'37† 95	Aug. 21,'37
Easy Living (G) 3652	Jean Arthur-Edw. Arnold	July	30,'37 88	July 10,'37
Easy to Take 3617 (See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)	Marsha Hunt-John Howard	Nov.	6,'36 67
Exclusive (G) 3653	F. MacMurray-Frances Farmer	July	30,'37 85	July 31,'37
Forlorn River (G) 3650	June Martel-Larry Crabbe	July	2,'37 56	July 3,'37
Girl from Scotland Yard 3638	Karen Morley-Robert Baldwin	Apr.	2,'37 61
Go West, Young Man (A) 3618 (Exploitation: Dec. 26,'36, p. 72; Jan. 2,'37, p. 106; Jan. 30,'37, p. 84.)	Mae West, Randolph Scott	Nov.	13, 36 80	Nov. 14,'36
Great Gambini, The (G) 3648	Akim Tamiroff-Marian Marsh	June	25,'37 70	July 24,'37
Her Husband Lies (A) 3636	Ricardo Cortez-Gail Patrick	Mar.	19,'37 76	Mar. 20,'37
Hideaway Girl (G) 3619	Martha Raye-Robt. Cummings	Nov.	20,'36 72	Nov. 14,'36
Hills of Old Wyoming (G) 3669	William Boyd-George Hayes	Apr.	16,'37 79	Apr. 17,'37
Hopalong Cassidy Returns (G) 3666	William Boyd-Evelyn Brent	Oct.	23,'36 75	Aug. 22,'36
Hopalong Rides Again (G) 3753	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept.	3,'37† 65	Aug. 21,'37
Hotel Haywire (G) 3645	Leo Carrillo-Mary Carlisle	June	4,'37 66	May 22,'37
I Met Him in Paris (G) 3644	Claudette Colbert-M. Douglas	May	28,'37 86	May 29,'37
Internes Can't Take Money (A) 3639 (Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 98.)	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Apr.	9,'37 79	Apr. 17,'37
John Meade's Woman (A) 3630	Edw. Arnold-Francine Larrimore	Feb.	26,'37 87	Feb. 27,'37
Jungle Princess, The (G) 3620	Ray Milland-Dorothy Lamour	Nov.	27,'36 84	Nov. 28,'36
King of Gamblers (A) 3640	Lloyw Nolan-Claire Trevor	Apr.	23,'37 78	Apr. 24,'37
Last Train from Madrid (G) 3646 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Apr. 24,'37, p. 92; May 22,'37, p. 89.)	Lew Ayres-Dorothy Lamour	June	11,'37 77	June 12,'37
Let's Make a Million (G) 3622	Edward Everett Horton	Dec.	18,'36 80	Feb. 27,'37
Maid of Salem (G) 3634 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Apr. 24,'37, p. 92; May 22,'37, p. 89.)	C. Colbert-Fred MacMurray	Feb.	19,'37 86	Jan. 30,'37
Make Way for Tomorrow (G) 3641 (Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80; July 31,'37, p. 82; Sept. 11,'37, p. 84.)	Beulah Bondi-Victor Moore	Apr.	30,'37 92	May 1,'37
Midnight Madonna (G) 3649	Warren William-Mady Correll	July	2,'37 65	June 12,'37
Mind Your Own Business (G) 3625	Charles Ruggles-Alice Brady	Jan.	8,'37 75	Dec. 19,'36
Mountain Music (G) 8647 (Exploitation: July 17,'37, p. 89; July 24,'37, pp. 79, 81; Aug. 7,'37, pp. 90, 92; Sept. 4,'37, p. 95; Sept. 18,'37, p. 86.)	Bob Burns-Martha Raye	June	18,'37 77	June 19,'37
Murder Goes to College (G) 3633	Roscoe Karns-Marsha Hunt	Mar.	5,'37 71	Mar. 6,'37
Night of Mystery, A (A) 3643	Roscoe Karns-Ruth Coleman	May	21,'37 75	May 22,'37
North of the Rio Grande (G) 3670	William Boyd-George Hayes	June	25,'37 70	June 26,'37
On Such a Night (A)	Karen Morley-Grant Richards	Aug.	27,'37† 73	Aug. 21,'37
Outcast (G) 3629	Warren William-Karen Morley	Feb.	5,'37 79	Feb. 6,'37
Plainsman, The (G) 3624 (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 20,'37, p. 82; Feb. 27,'37, p. 83; Mar. 6,'37, p. 91; Mar. 13,'37, p. 80; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 80, 82, 83; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 24,'37, p. 93; May 29,'37, p. 68; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Gary Cooper-Jean Arthur	Jan.	1,'37 113	Nov. 28,'36
Rustlers' Valley (G) 3671	William Boyd-George Hayes	July	23,'37 60	July 10,'37
Scrooge (G) 3527	Seymour Hicks-Donald Calthrop	Dec.	27,'36 73	Dec. 21,'35
She Asked for It (G)	Wm. Gargan-Orien Heyward	Sept.	10,'37† 68	Sept. 4,'37
She's No Lady (G)	Ann Dvorak-John Trent	Aug.	20,'37† 62	Aug. 7,'37
Sophie Lang Goes West (G) 3706	Gert. Michael-Larry Crabbe	Sept.	10,'37† *60	Sept. 4,'37
Souls at Sea (G) (See production article, Jan. 30,'37, p. 16.)	Gary Cooper-George Raft	Sept.	3,'37† 92	Aug. 14,'37
Swing High, Swing Low (G) 3634 (Exploitation: May 29,'37, p. 67.)	Carole Lombard-F. MacMurray	Mar.	12,'37 97	Mar. 20,'37
Trail Dust (G) 3667	William Boyd-Jimmy Ellison	Dec.	11,'36 77	Jan. 2,'37
Turn Off the Moon (G) 3642	Chas. Ruggles-Eleanore Whitney	May	14,'37 80	May 29,'37
Valiant is the Word for Carrie (A) 3611 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Feb. 13,'37, p. 86.)	Gladys George-Arline Judge	Oct.	2,'36 109	Sept. 26,'36
Waikiki Wedding (G) 3637 (Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 81; May 15,'37, p. 89; June 5,'37, p. 67; June 12,'37, pp. 92, 93; July 3,'37, p. 70; July 10,'37, p. 80; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 83; Aug. 28,'37, p. 98; Sept. 11,'37, p. 83; Sept. 18,'37, p. 86.)	Bing Crosby-Shirley Ross	Mar.	26,'37 89	Apr. 3,'37
Wedding Present (G) 3613 (Exploitation: Dec. 5,'36, p. 78.)	Joan Bennett-Cary Grant	Oct.	16,'36 81	Oct. 8,'36
Wild Money 3651	Edward Everett Horton	July	9,'37 69

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Marlene Dietrich-H. Marshall	Oct.	15,'37† 93
Barrier, The (See production article, Sept. 18,'37, p. 14.)	Jimmy Ellison-Jean Parker	Nov.	12,'37†
Blossoms of Broadway	Edward Arnold-Shirley Ross	Nov.	26,'37†
Born to the West	John Wayne-Marsha Hunt
Buccaneer, The	Fredric March-Franciska Gaal
Bulldog Drummond Comes Back (G)	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell	Sept.	24,'37† *58	Sept. 11,'37
Ebb Tide (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 18,'37.)	Oscar Homolka-Frances Farmer	Oct.	19,'37†
Every Day's A Holiday	Mae West
High, Wide and Handsome (G) 3710	Irene Dunne-Randolph Scott	Oct.	1,'37† 115	July 24,'37
Hold 'Em Navy	Lew Ayres-Mary Carlisle	Nov.	5,'37†
Love on Toast	Stella Ardler-John Payne
Night Club Scandal	J. Barrymore-Louise Campbell	Nov.	26,'37†
Partners in Crime 3711	Lynne Overman-Roscoe Karns	Oct.	8,'37†
Riders of the Panamints	Gilbert Roland-Marsha Hunt	Oct.	22,'37†
Texas Trail	William Boyd-George Hayes	Nov.	26,'37†
This Way, Please (G)	C. (Buddy) Rogers-Betty Grable	Oct.	29,'37† *70	Sept. 18,'37
Thrill of a Lifetime (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 18,'37.)	Eleanore Whitney-Johnny Downs
True Confession	C. Lombard-Fred MacMurray
Wells Fargo	Joel McCrea-Frances Dee
You and Me	Sylvia Sidney-George Raft	Oct.	22,'37†

RAY KIRKWOOD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventurous Rogue	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Jan.	3,'37†
El Justiciere	Ernesto Guillen	Jan.	3,'37†
Fighting Vagabonds	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Feb.	19,'37†
Masked Devil, The	Bobby Nelson-Donald Reed	Apr.	4,'37†

RELIABLE

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush Valley	Bob Custer	Nov.	1,'36 56
Santa Fe Rides	Bob Custer	Feb.	25,'37 58
Silver Trail	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Rex Lease	Feb.	28,'37 56
Vengeance of Rannah	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.-Bob Custer	Nov.	6,'36 56

Coming

Title	Star
Apache Trail	Bob Custer
Frontier Fury	Bob Custer
Outlaw River	Rin-Tin-Tin, Jr.
Prairie Terror	Bob Custer
Thundering Stampede	Bob Custer

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Cappy Ricks, The (G) 6027	Walter Brennan-Mary Brian	May	24,'37 56	June 5,'37
All Over Town (G) 6020	Olsen and Johnson	Sept.	8,'37 *60	Aug. 28,'37
Bar Z Bad Men 6323	Johnny Mack Brown-L. January	Jan.	20,'37 51
Beware of Ladies (G) 6011	Donald Cook-Judith Allen	Dec.	21,'36 61	Feb. 13,'37
Big Show, The 6301 (See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 24,'36.)	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov.	16,'36 70
Bill Cracks Down (G) 6028	Grant Withers-Beatrice Roberts	Mar.	22,'37 59	Mar. 27,'37
Boothill Brigade 6328	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Aug.	2,'37 53
Border Phantom 6333	Bob Steele-Harley Wood	Dec.	28,'36 58
Bulldog Drummond at Bay (G) 6025	John Lodge-Dorothy Mackaill	July	31,'37 62	July 31,'37
Cavalry 6331	Bob Steele-Frances Grant	Oct.	14,'36 60
Circus Girl 6014 (See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 13,'37.)	June Travis-Bob Livingston	Mar.	1,'37 62
Come On, Cowboys (G) 6317	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May	24,'37 57	May 29,'37
Dangerous Holiday (G) 6026	Ra Hould-Hedda Hopper	June	7,'37 57	July 31,'37
Doomed at Sundown 6337	Bob Steele-Lorraine Hayes	June	7,'37 53
Gambling Terror, The 6324	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Feb.	15,'37 53
Ghost Town Gold 6312	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Oct.	26,'36 55
Git Along Little Dogies (G) 6302	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Mar.	22,'37 62	Apr. 3,'37
Gun Lords of Stirrup Basin 6336	Bob Steele-Louise Stanley	May	10,'37 53
Gun Ranger, The 6332	Bob Steele-Eleanor Stewart	Nov.	19,'36 49
Gunsmoke Ranch 6316	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	May	5,'37 56
Guns in the Dark 6326	Johnny Mack Brown-C. Rochelle	Apr.	14,'37 56
Happy-Go-Lucky (G) 6013	Phil Regan-Evelyn Venable	Dec.	14,'36 68	Dec. 12,'36
Heart of the Rockies 7111	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Sept.	6,'37† 56
Hit Parade, The (G) 6002 (Exploitation: July 10,'37, p. 86.)	Frances Langford-Phil Regan	Apr.	26,'37 83	Apr. 10,'37
Hit the Saddle 6315	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Mar.	3,'37 57
It Could Happen to You 6016 (See "In the Cutting Room," May 15,'37.)	Alan Baxter-Andrea Leeds	June	28,'37 64
Jim Hanvey, Detective 6005	Guy Kibbee-Tom Brown	Apr.	5,'37 67	Mar. 27,'37
Join the Marines (G) 6003	June Travis-Paul Kelly	Jan.	25,'37 67	Feb. 6,'37
Larceny on the Air (G) 6030	Grace Bradley-Bob Livingston	Jan.	11,'37 60	Jan. 18,'37
Lawless Land 6322	Johnny Mack Brown-L. Stanley	Nov.	23,'36 55
Law Man is Born, A 6327	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	June	21,'37 61
Lightnin' Crandall 6335	Bob Steele-Lois January	Mar.	24,'37 60
Man Betrayed, A (G) 6012	Eddie Nugent-Kay Hughes	Dec.	28,'36 56	Jan. 16,'37
Meet the Boy Friend (G) 6018	Carol Hughes-David Carlyle	July	12,'37 63	July 31,'37
Michael O'Halloran (Spec.) (See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)	Wynne Gibson-Warren Hull	May	15,'37 67
Navy Blues (G) 6015	Mary Brian-Dick Purcell	Apr.	19,'37 68	May 1,'37
Old Corral, The 6305 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Dec.	21,'36 56
Paradise Express (G) 6029	Grant Withers-Dorothy Appleby	Feb.	22,'37 58	Mar. 13,'37
President's Mystery, The (G) 6007	Henry Wilcoxon-Betty Furness	Oct.	8,'36 78	Oct. 8,'36
Public Cowboy No. 1 7105	Gene Autry-Ann Rutherford	Aug.	23,'37† 59
Range Defenders (G) 6318	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	June	30,'37 56	July 24,'37
Red Rope, The 6338	Bob Steele-Lois January	July	19,'37 60

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Rhythm in the Clouds (G) 6017	Warren Hull-Patricia Ellis	June	21,'37	62 July 3,'37
Riders of the Whistling Skull 6314	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Jan.	4,'37	55
Roarin' Lead 6313 (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 7,'36.)	Bob Livingston-Ray Corrigan	Dec.	9,'36	53
Rootin' Tootin Rhythm (G) 6307	Gene Autry-Armida	May	12,'37	60 May 8,'37
Round-up Time in Texas 6306	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb.	28,'37	58
Sea Racketeers (G) 6019	Weldon Heyburn-Jeanne Madden	Aug.	16,'37	64 Aug. 14,'37
Sheik Steps Out, The (G) 6006	Ramon Novarro-Lola Lane	Sept.	6,'37	*66 July 31,'37
Trail of Vengeance 6325	Johnny Mack Brown-I. Meredith	Mar.	29,'37	54
Trusted Outlaw, The 6534	Bob Steele-Lois January	Feb.	1,'37	52
Two Wise Maids (G) 6004	Alison Skipworth-Polly Moran	Feb.	15,'37	68 Feb. 6,'37
Yodelin' Kid from Pine Ridge (G) 6308	Gene Autry-Betty Bronson	June	14,'37	60 June 26,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date
Arizona Gunfighter 7121	Bob Steele-Jean Carmen	Sept. 20,'37†
Boots and Saddles	Gene Autry-Judith Allen	Oct. 4,'37†
Duke Comes Back, The	Allan Lane-Heather Angel
Escape by Night (G) 7015	Wm. Hall-Anne Nagel	Sept. 20,'37† 64 Sept. 4,'37
Manhattan Merry-Go-Round	Phil Regan-Ann Dvorak
Portia on Trial 6001	Frieda Inescort-Walter Abel	Oct. 18,'37†
Ridin' the Lone Trail	Bob Steele-Claire Rochelle	Nov. 1,'37†
Springtime in the Rockies	Gene Autry
Trigger Trio 7112	Ray Corrigan-Max Terhune	Oct. 18,'37†
Wrong Road, The (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Richard Cromwell-Helen Mack	Oct. 11,'37†
Youth on Parole 6022 (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Gordon Oliver-Marian Marsh	Oct. 4,'37

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Annapolis Salute (G) 802	James Ellison-Marsha Hunt	Sept.	10,'37† *60 Aug.	21,'37
Behind the Headlines (G) 727	Lee Tracy-Diana Gibson	May	14,'37 58 June	12,'37
Big Shot, The (G) 735	Guy Kibbee-Cora Witherspoon	July	23,'37 60 July	31,'37
Border Cafe (G) 730	John Beal-Armida	June	4,'37 67 May	29,'37
China Passage (G) 718	Constance Worth-V. Haworth	Mar.	12,'37 65 Apr.	24,'37
Criminal Lawyer (G) 713 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Lee Tracy-Margot Grahame	Jan.	29,'37 72 Apr.	10,'37
Don't Tell the Wife (G) 720	Guy Kibbee-Una Merkel	Mar.	5,'37 62 Feb.	27,'37
Flight from Glory (G)	Chester Morris-Whitney Bourne	Aug.	20,'37 *60 Aug.	14,'37
Hideaway (G)	Fred Stone-Marjorie Lord	Aug.	13,'37 *60 July	31,'37
Hollywood Cowboy (G) 733	George O'Brien-Cecilia Parker	May	28,'37 64 July	31,'37
Life of the Party, The (G) 801	Gene Raymond-Harriet Hilliard	Sept.	3,'37† *79 Aug.	28,'37
Make a Wish (G) 745	Bobby Breen-Basil Rathbone	Aug.	27,'37 *70 Sept.	4,'37
Man Who Found Himself, The (G) 722	John Beal-Joan Fontaine	Apr.	2,'37 67 Mar.	13,'37
Meet the Missus (G) 729	Victor Moore-Helen Broderick	June	4,'37 60 May	29,'37
New Faces of 1937 (G) 732	Joe Penner-Harriet Hilliard	July	2,'37 100 July	10,'37
Night Waitress (G) 711	Margot Grahame-Gordon Jones	Dec.	18,'36 57 Jan.	2,'37
On Again—Off Again (G) 725	Wheeler and Woolsey	July	9,'37 68 July	17,'37
Outcasts of Poker Flat, The (G) 710	Preston Foster-Jean Muir	Apr.	16,'37 68 Mar.	20,'37
Park Avenue Logger (G) 787	George O'Brien-Beatrice Roberts	Feb.	26,'37 65 Jan.	30,'37
Plot Thickens, The (G) 641	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts	Dec.	11,'36 69 Nov.	21,'36
Plough and the Stars, The (G) 640 (See production article, Aug. 22,'36, p. 16.)	Barbara Stanwyck-P. Foster	Jan.	15,'37 67 Jan.	2,'37
Quality Street (G) 709	Kath. Hepburn-Franchot Tone	Mar.	26,'37 84 Mar.	30,'37
Racing Lady (G) 707	Ann Dvorak-Smith Ballew	Jan.	29,'37 59 Dec.	12,'36
Riding On Air (G) 771	Joe E. Brown-Florence Rice	June	18,'37 71 June	12,'37
Sea Devils (G) 714	Victor McLaglen-Preston Foster	Feb.	19,'37 88 Feb.	20,'37
Shall We Dance (G) 724 (Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 85; July 31,'37, p. 80.)	Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers	May	7,'37 116 May	8,'37
Soldier and the Lady, The (A) 717 (Reviewed under the title, "Michael Strogoff.") (Exploitation:	Anton Walbrook-Ellz. Allan	Apr.	9,'37 85 Feb.	27,'37
Super Sleuth (G) 734	Jack Oakie-Ann Sothern	July	16,'37 70 July	17,'37
That Girl from Paris (G) 712 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)	Lily Pons-Gene Raymond	Jan.	22,'37 105 Dec.	19,'36
There Goes My Girl (G) 728	Ann Sothern-Gene Raymond	May	21,'37 74 June	5,'37
They Wanted to Marry (G) 715	Gordon Jones-Betty Furness	Feb.	5,'37 60 Dec.	26,'36
Toast of New York (G) 719 (Exploitation: Aug. 28,'37, p. 96; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	July	30,'37 109 July	17,'37
Too Many Wives (G) 723	Anne Shirley-John Morley	Apr.	9,'37 61 Apr.	17,'37
Wanted: Jane Turner 643 (See "General Delivery," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 3,'36.)	Gloria Stuart-Lee Tracy	Dec.	4,'36 67
We're on the Jury (G) 716	Helen Broderick-Victor Moore	Feb.	12,'37 71 Jan.	23,'37
We Who Are About to Die (G) 639	Preston Foster-Ann Dvorak	Jan.	6,'37 82 Oct.	17,'36
When's Your Birthday? (G) 770	Joe E. Brown-Marian Marsh	Feb.	19,'37 77 Feb.	20,'37
Windjammer 783 (See "In the Cutting Room," May 29,'37.)	George O'Brien-Constance Worth	Aug.	6,'37 58
Winterset (G) 703 (Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 80; Jan. 30,'37, p. 83; Feb. 13,'37, p. 84; Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Burgess Meredith-Marge	Nov.	20,'36 77 Nov.	21,'36
Woman I Love, The (G) 721	Paul Muni-Miriam Hopkins	Apr.	23,'37 88 Apr.	24,'37
Woman Rebels, A (A) 642	Kath. Hepburn-H. Marshall	Nov.	6,'36 88 Oct.	31,'36
You Can't Beat Love (G) 731	Preston Foster-Joan Fontaine	June	25,'37 62 June	5,'37
You Can't Buy Luck (G) 726	Vinton Haworth-Helen Mack	Apr.	30,'37 61 May	1,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel. Date
Breakfast for Two 737	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall	Oct. 22,'37†
Damsel in Distress, A	Fred Astaire-Joan Fontaine
Fight for Your Lady	John Boles-Ida Lupino
Fit for a King (G)	Joe E. Brown-Helen Mack	Oct. 15,'37† 73 Sept. 4,'37
Forty Naughty Girls (G) 803	James Gleason-Zasu Pitts	Sept. 24,'37† *63 Sept. 4,'37
High Flyers	Wheeler and Woolsey
Highway To Hell	John Beal-Sally Eilers
Hitting a New High	Lily Pons-John Howard
Love in a Basement	James Dunn-Whitney Bourne
Music for Madame (G) 804	Nino Martini-Joan Fontaine	Oct. 8,'37† *75 Sept. 18,'37
Saturday's Heroes (G) 805	Van Heflin-Marian Marsh	Oct. 8,'37† *59 Sept. 18,'37
Stage Door (G) 806 (See production article, Aug. 14,'37, p. 16.)	Kath. Hepburn-Ginger Rogers	Oct. 8,'37† *90 Sept. 18,'37
There Goes the Groom 807	Burgess Meredith-Ann Sothern	Oct. 29,'37†
Victoria the Great 861	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook	Oct. 22,'37†
Women Have a Way	Miriam Hopkins-Ray Milland

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Heroes of the Alamo (G)	Earl Hodgins	Sunset	Aug.	19,'37 *75 Aug.	7,'37
Melody of the Plains (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Apr.	15,'37 *55 Apr.	10,'37
Singing Buckaroo, The (See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 21,'36.)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan.	15,'37
Three Legionnaires (G)	Robt. Armstrong	General	June	15,'37 *60 Mar.	27,'37
What Price Vengeance? (G)	Lyle Talbot	Rialto	June	1,'37 57 June	12,'37
Zamboanga (G)		Native Cast		*65 July	17,'37

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Holiday (G) 754	Jane Withers-Robert Kent	June	4,'37 71 May	8,'37
As You Like It (G) 711 (See production article, June 13,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 79.)	Ellis. Bergner-Laurence Olivier	Jan.	8,'37 96 Sept.	19,'36
Banjo On My Knee (G) 726 (Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, p. 89.)	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Dec.	4,'36 95 Dec.	5,'36
Big Business (G) 759	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	June	18,'37 61 Apr.	17,'37
Borneo	Mr. & Mrs. Martin Johnson	Sept.	10,'37† 75½
Born Reckless (G) 758	Rochelle Hudson-Brian Donlevy	July	9,'37 58 June	26,'37
Cafe Metropole (G) 750 (Exploitation: June 19,'37, p. 84.)	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	May	7,'37 83 May	8,'37
Californian, The (G) 753	Ricardo Cortez-Marjorie Weaver	July	16,'37 58 July	10,'37
Charlie Chan at the Olympics 752 (See "In the Cutting Room," Mar. 6,'37.)	Warner Oland-Kath. DeMille	May	21,'37 71
Charlie Chan at the Opera (G) 730	Warner Oland-Boris Karloff	Jan.	8,'37 68 Nov.	29,'36
Crack-Up (G) 727	Peter Lorre-Brian Donlevy	Jan.	15,'37 70 Jan.	16,'37
David Harum (G) 769 (re-issue)	Will Rogers-Evelyn Venable	May	14,'37 85 Mar.	3,'34
Doctor Bull (G) 768 (re-issue)	Will Rogers-Marian Nixon	Feb.	5,'37 79 Oct.	14,'36
Fair Warning (G) 740	Betty Furness-John Payne	Mar.	5,'37 68 Jan.	23,'37
Fifty Roads to Town (G) 748 (Exploitation: May 8,'37, p. 70.)	Don Ameche-Ann Sothern	Apr.	16,'37 81 Apr.	3,'37
Great Hospital Mystery, The 751 (Reviewed under the title, "Dead Yesterday.")	Sally Blane-Thomas Beck	May	14,'37 59 Mar.	6,'37
Handy Andy (G) 871 (re-issue)	Will Rogers	Aug.	13,'37† 81 May	5,'34
Holy Terror, The (G) 734	Jane Withers-Anthony Martin	Feb.	5,'37 67 Jan.	9,'37
It Happened Out West 745	Paul Kelly-Judith Allen	May	7,'37 50
King George VI Coronation 870	Technicolor Special	July	15,'37† 28
Lady Escapes, The (G) 747	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	July	23,'37 63 June	5,'37
Laughing at Trouble 724 (See "Glory," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 17,'36.)	Jane Darwell-Lois Wilson	Dec.	11,'36 67
Lloyds of London (G) 735 (Exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 108; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 27,'37, pp. 79, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 65, 71; May 8,'37, p. 74; July 31,'37, p. 80.)	F. Bartholomew-M. Carroll	Jan.	29,'37 117 Nov.	26,'36
Love Is News (G) 729 (Exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 90.)	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power	Feb.	26,'37 78 Feb.	27,'37
Love Under Fire (G) 803	Loretta Young-Don Ameche	Aug.	20,'37† 75 Aug.	14,'37
Midnight Taxi (G) 744	Brian Donlevy-Frances Drake	Apr.	2,'37 73 Mar.	27,'37
Nancy Steele Is Missing (G) 738	Victor McLaglen-Peter Lorre	Mar.	12,'37 84 Mar.	20,'37
Off to the Races (G) 736	Jed Prouty-Shirley Deane	Feb.	19,'37 57 Jan.	16,'37
On the Avenue (G) 732 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82; June 19,'37, p. 84.)	Dick Powell-Madeleine Carroll	Feb.	12,'37 89 Feb.	13,'37
One In a Million (G) 722 (Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 78; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 80, 82.)	Sonja Henie-Adolphe Menjou	Jan.	1,'37 94 Dec.	26,'36
One Mile from Heaven (G) 802	Claire Trevor-Sally Blane	Aug.	13,'37† 68 July	24,'37
Reunion (G) 717 (Exploitation: Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 27,'37, pp. 90, 91.)	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt	Nov.	20,'36 81 Nov.	21,'36
Secret Valley (G) 731	Richard Arlen-Virginia Grey	Jan.	15,'37 57 Feb.	13,'37
Seventh Heaven (G) 742	Simone Simon-James Stewart	Mar.	26,'37 102 Mar.	27,'37
She Had to Eat (G) 757 (Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64.)	Rochelle Hudson-Jack Haley	June	11,'37 74 Aug.	7,'37
Sing and Be Happy 756 (See "In the Cutting Room," May 1,'37.)	Anthony Martin-Dixie Dunbar	June	25,'37 64
Slave Ship (G) 748 (See production article, Mar. 13,'37, p. 16.)	Wallace Beery-Warner Baxter	July	2,'37 92 June	19,'37
Step Lively, Jeeves (G) 739	Arthur Treacher-Patricia Ellis	Apr.	9,'37 69 Jan.	30,'37
That I May Live (G) 755	Rochelle Hudson-Robert Kent	Apr.	30,'37 70 Mar.	6,'37
Thin Ice (G) 805	Sonja Henie-Tyrone Power	Sept.	3,'37† 78 Aug.	28,'37
Think Fast, Mr. Moto (G) 804	Peter Lorre-Virginia Field	Aug.	27,'37† 66 Apr.	17,'37
This Is My Affair (G) 721	Barbara Stanwyck-Robt. Taylor	May	28,'37 99
Time Out for Romance (G) 741	Claire Trevor-Michael Whalen	Mar.	19,'37 72 Feb.	20,'37

(THE RELEASE CHART--CON'T)

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Under the Red Robe (G) 743	Conrad Veidt-Annabella	May	21,'37	82.	June 12,'37
Under Your Spell (G) 720	Lawrence Tibbett-Wendy Barrie	Nov.	6,'36	63.	Nov. 14,'36
Wake Up and Live (G) 749 (Exploitation: July 3,'37, p. 69; July 10,'37, pp. 85, 86.)	Walter Winchell-Ben Bernie	Apr.	23,'37	91.	Apr. 17,'37
Wee Willie Winkie (G) 760 (See "The Great Diamond Mystery," "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Shirley Temple-V. McLaglen	July	30,'37	99.	July 3,'37
Western Gold (G) 761	Smith Bellew-Heather Angel	Aug.	27,'37	*56.	Sept. 11,'37
White Hunter (G) 719 (Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 81.)	Warner Baxter-June Lang	Nov.	27,'36	65.	Dec. 5,'36
Wife, Doctor and Nurse (G)	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter	Sept.	17,'37†	85.	Sept. 11,'37
Wild and Wooly (G)	Jane Withers-Walter Brennan	Sept.	10,'37†	64.	July 24,'37
Wild Brian Kent (G) 718	Ralph Bellamy-Mae Clarke	Nov.	6,'36	57.	Oct. 31,'36
Wings of the Morning (G) 737	Annabella-Henry Fonda	Feb.	19,'37	87.	Mar. 20,'37
Woman-Wise (G) 733	Rochelle Hudson-Michael Whalen	Jan.	22,'37	70.	Feb. 13,'37
You Can't Have Everything (G) 801	Alice Faye-Don Ameche	Aug.	3,'37†	99.	July 31,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ali Baba Goes to Town (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Eddie Cantor-June Lang	Oct.	20,'37†
Borrowing Trouble	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Charlie Chan on Broadway (G)	Warner Oland-Joan Marsh	Oct.	22,'37†	68.	Aug. 7,'37
Danger—Love at Work (See "In the Cutting Room," July 10,'37.)	Ann Sothern-Jack Haley	Nov.	5,'37†
Dangerously Yours (See "The Great Diamond Mystery," "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Cesar Romero-Phyllis Brooks	Nov.	12,'37†
45 Fathers (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Jane Withers-Thomas Beck	Dec.	10,'37†
Heidi (See "In the Cutting Room," July 24,'37.)	Shirley Temple-Jean Hersholt	Oct.	15,'37†
Hot Water (G)	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington	Sept.	24,'37†	58.	July 17,'37
In Old Chicago (See production article, Sept. 4,'37, p. 48.)	Tyrone Power-Alice Faye	Jan.	15,'38†
Lancer Spy (See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)	Peter Lorre-Dolores Del Rio	Oct.	8,'37†
Life Begins in College (See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)	Ritz Bros.-Gloria Stuart	Oct.	1,'37†
Look Out, Mr. Moto (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Peter Lorre-Rochelle Hudson	Nov.	26,'37†
Love and Hisses	Walter Winchell-Ben Bernie
Roll Along Cowboy	Smith Bellew-Cecelia Parker	Oct.	8,'37†
Second Honeymoon	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Accused (A)	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-D. Del Rio	Jan.	8,'37	86.	Aug. 8,'36
Beloved Enemy (G)	Merle Oberon-Brian Aherne	Dec.	25,'36	88.	Dec. 19,'36
Come and Get It (A) (Exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Nov. 28,'36, p. 99; Dec. 5,'36, pp. 83, 84; Dec. 19,'36, p. 94; Jan. 30,'37, p. 82; Feb. 13,'37, p. 89; May 1,'37, p. 82.)	Edward Arnold-Frances Farmer	Nov.	6,'36	99.	Nov. 7,'36
Dark Journey (G)	Vivien Leigh-Conrad Veidt	July	2,'37	82.	Mar. 6,'37
Dead End (G) (Exploitation: Sept. 18,'37, p. 86.)	Sylvia Sidney-Joel McCrea	Aug.	27,'37†	93.	Aug. 7,'37
Dreaming Lips (A)	Elis. Bergner-Raymond Massey	May	28,'37	78.	Mar. 6,'37
Elephant Boy (G) (Exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 96; July 31,'37, p. 82; Aug. 21,'37, p. 75.)	Native Cast	Apr.	23,'37	80.	Mar. 13,'37
Fire Over England (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 79.)	Laurence Olivier-Flora Robson	Mar.	5,'37	89.	Jan. 16,'37
Garden of Allah, The (A) (See production article, June 6,'36, p. 14; exploitation: Nov. 21,'36, p. 109; Jan. 30,'37, p. 85; Feb. 6,'37, pp. 76, 77; Feb. 20,'37, p. 80; Mar. 13,'37, p. 83; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 67, 68, 69.)	Marlene Dietrich-Charles Boyer	Nov.	20,'36	78.	Nov. 7,'36
History Is Made at Night (G) (Exploitation: Mar. 27,'37, p. 84; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 64, 71; Apr. 10,'37, pp. 91, 92; Apr. 17,'37, p. 82; Apr. 24,'37, pp. 91, 92; May 1,'37, p. 83; May 8,'37, p. 72; May 22,'37, pp. 89, 90; June 12,'37, p. 93.)	Charles Boyer-Jean Arthur	Apr.	2,'37	97.	Mar. 13,'37
Knight Without Armor (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 78; Sept. 11,'37, p. 84.)	Marlene Dietrich-Robt. Donat	July	23,'37	107.	June 19,'37
Love from a Stranger (A)	Ann Harding-Basil Rathbone	May	14,'37	87.	Feb. 13,'37
Man Who Could Work Miracles, The (G)	Roland Young-Jean Gardner	Feb.	19,'37	82.	Aug. 22,'36
Men Are Not Gods (A)	Miriam Hopkins-Gert. Lawrence	Jan.	22,'37	82.	Jan. 2,'37
Prisoner of Zenda (G)	Ronald Colman-M. Carroll	Sept.	3,'37†	*88.	Sept. 4,'37
Star Is Born, A (G) (See production article, Feb. 27,'37, p. 16; exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 86; May 29,'37, pp. 67, 69; June 5,'37, pp. 64, 67, 70; June 19,'37, p. 84; June 26,'37, pp. 120, 121, 122; July 10,'37, p. 87; July 17,'37, p. 91; July 31,'37, p. 80; Aug. 28,'37, p. 97; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)	Janet Gaynor-Fredric March	Apr.	30,'37	111.	May 1,'37
Stella Dallas (A) (Exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 81.)	Barbara Stanwyck-John Boles	Aug.	6,'37†	*104.	July 31,'37
Walt Disney's Academy Award Revue	Five Award Winners	June	18,'37†	44
Walter Wanger's Vogues of 1938 (G) (Exploitation: Aug. 21,'37, p. 74; Sept. 11,'37, p. 82.)	Warner Baxter-Joan Bennett	Sept.	17,'37†	108.	Aug. 7,'37
When Thief Meets Thief (A) (Reviewed under the title, "Jump for Glory.")	D. Fairbanks, Jr.-V. Hobson	June	4,'37	87.	May 8,'37
Woman Chases Man (G) (See production article, Apr. 17,'37, p. 12; exploitation: June 12,'37, p. 92; July 3,'37, p. 88; Sept. 11,'37, p. 83.)	Miriam Hopkins-Joel McCrea	May	7,'37	71.	May 1,'37
You Only Live Once (A) (Exploitation: Jan. 30,'37, p. 80; Mar. 6,'37, p. 89; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 76, 78; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 71; June 26,'37, p. 123; July 10,'37, p. 87; Aug. 21,'37, p. 74.)	Sylvia Sidney-Henry Fonda	Jan.	29,'37	86.	Jan. 30,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Action for Slander (A)	Clive Brook-Ann Todd			80.	Aug. 14,'37
Adventures of Marco Polo	Gary Cooper-Sigrid Gurie	Nov.	12,'37†
Adventures of Tom Sawyer	Tommy Kelly-Walter Brennan	Oct.	29,'37†
Diamond Trust, The (Reviewed under the title, "The Squeaker.")	Edmund Lowe-Ann Todd			77.	Sept. 11,'37
Divorce of Lady X, The	Merle Oberon-Laurence Olivier	Oct.	15,'37†
52nd Street	Ian Hunter-Pat Paterson	Sept.	24,'37†
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 17,'37.)
Goldwyn Follies, The	Phil Baker-Ritz Bros.	Dec.	25,'37†
Hurricane, The (See production article, Aug. 7,'37, p. 16.)	Dorothy Lamour-Jon Hall	Nov.	10,'37†
I Met My Love Again (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 18,'37.)	Joan Bennett-Henry Fonda	Oct.	22,'37†
Mutiny in the Mountains	Vivien Leigh-Paul Lucas	Nov.	5,'37†
Nothing Sacred (See production article, Aug. 7,'37, p. 16.)	Carole Lombard-Fredric March	Nov.	19,'37†
Stand-In (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Leslie Howard-Joan Blondell	Oct.	8,'37†
Storm in a Teacup (G)	Vivien Leigh-Rex Harrison	Nov.	12,'37†	86.	June 12,'37

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Armored Car (G) 1004	Robert Wilcox-Judith Barrett	June	20,'37	64.	Aug. 14,'37
As Good as Married (G) 1012	John Boles-Doris Nolan	May	9,'37	81.	May 1,'37
Black Aces 2050	Buck Jones-Kay Linaker	Sept.	5,'37†	58.
Boss Rider of Gun Creek 1042	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Nov.	1,'36	64.
Breezing Home (G) 1033	Binnie Barnes-Wm. Gargan	Jan.	31,'37	64.	Mar. 27,'37
California Straight Ahead (G) 1038	John Wayne-Louise Latimer	May	2,'37	67.	Apr. 3,'37
Conflict (G) 1036	John Wayne-Jean Rogers	Nov.	29,'36	61.	Dec. 5,'36
Empty Saddles (G) 1043	Buck Jones-Louise Brooks	Dec.	20,'36	62.	Oct. 24,'36
Four Days' Wonder (G) 1019	Jeanne Dante-Kennoth Howell	Jan.	3,'37	60.	Jan. 23,'37
Girl Overboard (G) 1021	Gloria Stuart-Walter Pidgeon	Feb.	28,'37	58.	May 29,'37
I Cover the War (G) 1016	John Wayne-Gwen Dazo	July	4,'37	68.	July 10,'37
Left Handed Law (G) 1045	Buck Jones	Apr.	18,'37	63.	May 1,'37
Let Them Live (G) 1035	Nan Grey-John Howard	Apr.	25,'37	73.	Apr. 24,'37
Love in a Bungalow (G) 1009	Kent Taylor-Nan Grey	June	27,'37	66.	July 10,'37
Love Letters of a Star (A) 1028	Henry Hunter-Polly Rowles	Nov.	8,'36	66.	Nov. 14,'36
Luckiest Girl in the World (G) 1014	Jane Wyatt-Louis Hayward	Nov.	15,'36	72.	Oct. 31,'36
Man I Marry, The (G) 1026	Doris Nolan-Michael Whalen	Nov.	1,'36	76.	Nov. 7,'36
Man in Blue, The (G) 1020	Robert Wilcox-Nan Grey	May	30,'37	67.	May 22,'37
Man Who Cried Wolf, The (G) 2023	Tom Brown-Barbara Read	Aug.	29,'37†	66.	Sept. 4,'37
Mighty Treve, The (G) 1034	Noah Beery, Jr.-Barbara Read	Jan.	17,'37	69.	Apr. 10,'37
Mysterious Crossing (G) 1025	James Dunn-Jean Rogers	Dec.	27,'36	56.	Feb. 13,'37
Night Key (G) 1024 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Boris Karloff-Jean Rogers	May	2,'37	67.	Apr. 24,'37
Oh, Doctor! (G) 1013 (Exploitation: May 22,'37, p. 87.)	Edward Everett Horton	May	16,'37	67.	Apr. 24,'37
100 Men and a Girl (G) 2001 (See Musical Analysis, Sept. 18,'37, p. 29.)	Deanna Durbin-Adolphe Menjou	Sept.	12,'37†	84.	Sept. 11,'37
Reported Missing (G)	Wm. Gargan-Jean Rogers	Aug.	15,'37	63.	Aug. 7,'37
Road Back, The (G) 1005 (See production article, Apr. 24,'37, p. 16; exploitation: July 31,'37, p. 80; Sept. 18,'37, p. 83.)	Richard Cromwell-John King	Aug.	1,'37	103	June 26,'37
Sandflow (G) 1044	Buck Jones-Lita Chevret	Feb.	14,'37	58.	Feb. 6,'37
She's Dangerous 1031	Cesar Romero-Tala Birell	Jan.	24,'37	68.
Smoke Tree Range 1046	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	June	6,'37	59.
Three Smart Girls (G) 1029 (Exploitation: Feb. 6,'37, pp. 73, 74; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 78, 82; Mar. 20,'37, pp. 78, 82; Apr. 3,'37, pp. 66, 67; Apr. 10,'37, p. 94; Apr. 17,'37, pp. 78, 80, 82; Apr. 24,'37, p. 94, May 1,'37, p. 82; May 15,'37, pp. 96, 99.)	Deanna Durbin-Ray Milland	Dec.	20,'36	84.	Jan. 30,'37
Top of the Town (G) 1007 (See production article, Jan. 23,'37, p. 16; exploitation: Apr. 24,'37, p. 91; May 1,'37, p. 79; May 22,'37, pp. 86, 87; June 5,'37, p. 70; June 12,'37, p. 92; June 19,'37, pp. 82, 85.)	George Murphy-Doris Nolan	Apr.	18,'37	86.	Apr. 3,'37
We Have Our Moments (G) 1017	Sally Eilers-James Dunn	Mar.	28,'37	67.	Apr. 3,'37
West Bound Limited 1008	Lyle Talbot-Polly Rowles	July	11,'37	66.
When Love Is Young (G) 1018	Virginia Bruce-Kent Taylor	Apr.	4,'37	76.	Apr. 24,'37
Wildcatter, The 1015	Scott Colton-Jean Rogers	June	6,'37	58.
Wings Over Honolulu (G) 1011	Wendy Barrie-Ray Milland	May	23,'37	78.	May 15,'37

Coming

Title	Star	Rel.	Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure's End	John Wayne-Diana Gibson
Behind the Mike	Wm. Gargan-Judith Barrett	Sept.	26,'37†	68.
Carnival Queen	Dorothea Kent-Robert Wilcox	Oct.	3,'37†	66.
Courage of the West (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Bob Baker-Lois January
Girl with Ideas, A	Wendy Barrie-Walter Pidgeon
Idol of the Crowds 2037 (See "In the Cutting Room." July 10,'37.)	John Wayne-Judith Barrett	Oct.	10,'37†	62½
Lady Fights Back, The 2025	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Sept.	19,'37†	63.
Law for Tombstone 2051	Buck Jones-Muriel Evans	Oct.	10,'37†	59.
Merry-Go-Round of 1938 (See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 14,'37.)	Bert Lahr-Alice Brady	Oct.	24,'37†
Renegade Rangers	Bob Burns-Joan Barclay
Some Blondes Are Dangerous	Noah Beery, Jr.-Dorothea Kent
Sudden Bill Dorn	Buck Jones-Evelyn Brent			62
That's My Story (See "In the Cutting Room," July 3,'37.	Claudia Morgan-Wm. Lundigan	Oct.	31,'37
Tim Tyler's Luck (See "In the Cutting Room." Sept. 18,'37.)	F. Thomas, Jr.-Frances Robinson
Trouble at Midnight	N. Beery, Jr.-Catharine Hughes	Oct.	17,'37†	68.
Westland Case, The (See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 11,'37.)	Preston Foster-Carol Hughes	Nov.	7,'37†
Young Man's Fancy, A	Alice Faye-George Murphy

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

VICTORY

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cheyenne Rides Again	Tom Tyler-Lucille Browne	Jan.	7,'37
Feud of the Trail	Tom Tyler-Harlene Wood	May	1,'37
Flying Fists	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	July	1,'37
Mystery Range	Tom Tyler-Jerry Bergh	May	1,'37
Phantom of the Range	Tom Tyler-Beth Marion	Nov.	28,'36
Silks and Saddles	Herman Brix-Toby Wing	Dec.	14,'36
Sky Racket	Herman Brix-Joan Barclay	Sept.	1,'37†
Two Minutes to Play	Herman Brix-Jeanne Martel	Nov.	2,'36

Coming

Brothers of the West	Tom Tyler-Lois Wilde	Sept.	30,'37†
Lost Ranch	Tom Tyler
Orphans of the Pecos	Tom Tyler
Roaring Motors	Herman Brix
Winning Stroke, The	Herman Brix

WARNER BROTHERS

(See also First National,

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Another Dawn (A) 106	Kay Francis-Errol Flynn	June	26,'37....73. Apr.	10,'37
(See production article, Mar. 6,'37, p. 16.)
Black Legion (A) 108	H. Bogart-E. O'Brien-Moore	Jan.	30,'37....83. Jan.	9,'37
(Exploitation: Jan. 16,'37, p. 76; Mar. 13,'37, pp. 80, 83; Mar. 20,'37, p. 82; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; Apr. 3,'37, p. 66; Apr. 10,'37, p. 95; July 17,'37, p. 89.)
Blazing Sixes 129	Dick Foran-Helen Valkis	June	12,'37....55
California Mail 930	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Nov.	14,'36....56
Call It a Day (G) 113	Olivia de Havilland-I. Hunter	Apr.	17,'37....89. Mar.	13,'37
Charge of the Light Brigade (G) 90!	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland	Nov.	7,'36....115. Oct.	24,'36
(See production article, July 25,'36, p. 16; exploitation: Nov. 14,'36, p. 90; Nov. 21,'36, p. 111; Jan. 15,'37, p. 78; Jan. 23,'37, p. 78; Feb. 6,'37, p. 74; Apr. 3,'37, p. 65; Apr. 10,'37, p. 92.)
Devil's Saddle Legion, The 130	Dick Foran-Anne Nagel	Aug.	14,'37
Fly-Away Baby (G) 125	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	June	19,'37....60. June	12,'37
Footloose Heiress 123	Craig Reynolds-Ann Sheridan	Aug.	21,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 10,'37.)
Fugitive In the Sky (G) 120	Jean Muir-Warren Hull	Nov.	28,'36....58. Oct.	31,'36
God's Country and the Woman (G) 105	George Brent-Beverly Roberts	Jan.	16,'37....85. Dec.	26,'36
(Exploitation: Feb. 13,'37, pp. 84, 85; Feb. 27,'37, p. 80.)
Go Getter, The (G) 115	George Brent-Anita Louise	May	22,'37....92. June	19,'37
(Exploitation: Sept. 4,'37, pp. 94, 97.)
Great O'Malley, The (G) 110	Pat O'Brien-Sybil Jason	Feb.	13,'37....71. Dec.	12,'36
(Exploitation: Apr. 10,'37, p. 91.)
Kid Galahad (G) 102	Edw. G. Robinson-Bette Davis	May	29,'37....101. May	8,'37
(Exploitation: June 5,'37, p. 64; Sept. 4,'37, p. 96.)
King and the Chorus Girl (G) 104	Fernand Gravet-Joan Blondell	Mar.	27,'37....95. Mar.	6,'37
(Exploitation: Mar. 20,'37, p. 76; Mar. 27,'37, p. 79; June 26,'37, p. 118.)
King of Hockey (G) 121	Anne Nagel-Richard Purcell	Dec.	19,'36....55. Nov.	14,'36
Land Beyond the Law 128	Dick Foran-Linda Perry	Mar.	13,'37....54
Marry the Girl (G) 116	Hugh Herbert-Mary Boland	July	1,'37....68. Aug.	14,'37
Melody for Two (G) 117	James Melton-Patricia Ellis	May	1,'37....60. Jan.	16,'37
Midnight Court (G) 124	Ann Dvorak-John Litel	Mar.	6,'37....60. Mar.	13,'37
Public Wedding 126	Jane Wyman-William Hopper	July	10,'37....58
Ready, Willing and Able (G) 101	Lee Dixon-Ruby Keeler	Mar.	6,'37....93. Feb.	6,'37
(Exploitation: May 1,'37, p. 78.)
Singing Marine, The (G) 101	Dick Powell-Doris Weston	July	3,'37....105. July	10,'37
(Exploitation: July 24,'37, p. 80.)
Slim (G) 114	Pat O'Brien-Henry Fonda	June	12,'37....80. July	3,'37
Smart Blonde (G) 122	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Jan.	2,'37....59. Dec.	5,'36
Varsity Show (G)	Dick Powell-Fred Waring	Sept.	4,'37†..*120. Aug.	21,'37
(See production article, July 24,'37, p. 16.)
White Bondage (G) 125	Jean Muir-Gordon Oliver	June	19,'37....60. Mar.	13,'37
Wine, Women and Horses (G)	Barton MacLane-Ann Sheridan	Sept.	11,'37†....64. July	24,'37

Coming

Adventures of Robin Hood	Errol Flynn-O. de Havilland
Expensive Husbands (G)	Beverly Roberts-Patric Knowles	Nov.	27,'37†..*60. Sept.	11,'37
Great Garrick, The 209	Brian Aherne-O. de Havilland	Oct.	30,'37
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 31,'37.)
Kid Comes Back, The (G) 123	Wayne Morris-June Travis		*60. Jan.	30,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "Don't Pull Your Punches.")
Life of Emile Zola, The (G) 203	Paul Muni-Gale Sondergaard	Oct.	2,'37†....116. July	10,'37
Missing Witnesses	Dick Powell-Jean Dale
One More Tomorrow	Dick Foran-June Travis
Patient in Room 18, The	Ann Sheridan-Patric Knowles
Penrod and His Twin Brother	Billy and Bobby Mauch
Sh! the Octopus	Hugh Herbert-Marcia Ralston
She Loved a Fireman	Dick Foran-Ann Sheridan
Submarine D-1	Pat O'Brien-George Brent
Swing Your Lady	Humphrey Bogart-Dorothy McNulty
Too Much of Everything	Bonita Granville-Dolores Costello
Tovarich	Claudette Colbert-Charles Boyer
Without Warning 218	Boris Karloff-Marie Wilson

WILLIAM STEINER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
From Nine to Nine	Ruth Roland-Roland Drew	Dec.	21,'36....6 rls.

WORLD

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
I Cover Chinatown	Norman Foster	Nov.	18,'36....7 rls.
Masquerade in Vienna (A)	Paula Wessely	Jan.	28,'37....95. Feb.	13,'37
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	Mar.	31,'37....79
Slalom (G)	Skiing Film	Dec.	15,'36....66. Jan.	23,'37
Treno Popolare	Italian Feature	Dec.	25,'36....62

Coming

Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe
Aurora Sul Mare	Italian Feature		67
Chanson D'Amour	Tito Schipa
Itto	Simone Berriau
Life and Loves of Beethoven	Harry Baur
Love on Skiis	Walter Rimil
Monks, The
Ninety Degrees South	Antarctic Film
Second Bureau	Jean Murat-Diana Koreno
Secrets of Stamboul	Valerie Hobson		79
Ski Chase	Hannes Schneider	Sept.	1,'37†....84
Street Without a Name	Constant Remy-Pola Illery
Song of Ceylon	Basil Wright		39
Tendre Enemmie	Simone Berriau

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Angel's Pit, The (A)	Amedo Nazzari			June	26,'37
Amphytrion (A)	Henri Garat	Globe	Mar.	23,'37..103. Apr.	3,'37
Beethoven Concerto (G)	V. Gardin	Amkino	Mar.	23,'37...90. Apr.	10,'37
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	British Lion		73. July	10,'37
Carnival in Flanders (A)	Francoise Rosay	American Tobis	Sept.	22,'36...98. Oct.	8,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")
Dominant Sex, The (A)	Phillips Holmes	Assoc. British		82. Feb.	26,'37
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	British I. E. Co.		80. Aug.	14,'37
Emil Und Die Detektive	Fritz Rasp	International		77
Episode (A)	Paula Wessely	Metropolis	May	15,'37...90. June	5,'37
Eternal Mask, The (A)	Mathias Wieman	Mayer-Burstyn	Jan.	12,'37...70. Jan.	23,'37
Farewell Again (G)	Leslie Banks	United Artists		80. May	22,'37
Flying Doctor, The (G)	Charles Farrell	20th Century-Fox		92. Dec.	19,'36
Fury Over Spain (G)		Modern Film		55. Aug.	14,'37
Gang Show, The (G)	Ralph Reader	General		May	1,'37
Glamorous Night (G)	Mary Ellis	Assoc. British		80. May	15,'37
Gobsek (A)	Leonid Leonidov	Amkino		74. Aug.	14,'37
Golem, The (A)	Harry Baur	Metropolis	Mar.	20,'37...88. Mar.	27,'37
Gypsy (A)	Roland Young	Warner		Feb.	13,'37
It Isn't Done (G)	Cecil Kellaway	British Empire		90. Mar.	27,'37
Jericho (G)	Paul Robeson	General		77. Sept.	4,'37
Kimiko (A)	Sachiko Chiba	International	Apr.	12,'37...73. Apr.	24,'37
King's People, The (G)	John Drinkwater	Mindlin	May	11,'37...70. May	22,'37
La Damigella di Bard (G)	E. Gammatica	Artisti		85. Jan.	9,'37
La Grande Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	Realization d'Art Cinematographique		120. July	3,'37
Last Night, The (G)	I. R. Peltser	Amkino	Apr.	27,'37...90. May	8,'37
Late Mattia Pascal, The (A)	Pierre Blanchar			Apr.	10,'37
Les Petits (G)	Alice Tisset	Franco-American	Dec.	29,'36...90. Jan.	23,'37
Let's Make a Night of It	Buddy Rogers	Assoc. British		80. July	10,'37
Mademoiselle Docteur (A)	Dita Parlo	United Artists		105. May	1,'37
Merry Comes to Town (G)	Zasu Pitts	Sound City		77. June	5,'37
Mill on the Floss, The (G)	Frank Lawton	National		90. Feb.	13,'37
Moonlight Sonata (G)	Paderewski	United Artists		90. Mar.	13,'37
Mutiny of the Elsinore, The (G)	Paul Lukas	Assoc. British		77. Sept.	18,'37
Ora Ponciano (G)	Chucho Solorzano	Prod. Soria		105. May	15,'37
Orphan Boy of Vienna (G)	Hans Olden	General		77. Sept.	18,'37
Orphan of the Wilderness	Gwen Munro	British Empire	Jan.	20,'37...85. Mar.	6,'37
Our Fighting Navy (G)	H. B. Warner	General		75. May	8,'37
Pagliacci (G)	Richard Tauber	United Artists		90. Feb.	6,'37
(See production article, Jan. 9,'37, p. 16.)
Pearls of the Crown (A)	Sascha Guitry	Tobis		115. June	5,'37
Pepe Le Moko (A)	Jean Gabin	Paris Film		100. Mar.	20,'37
Prisoners (G)	A. I. Chaban	Amkino	Feb.	16,'37...93. Feb.	27,'37
Pygmalion (G)	Lily Bouwmeester	Filmex Cinetone		Apr.	17,'37
Razumov (G)	Pierre Fresnay	Garrison	Mar.	8,'37...95. Mar.	27,'37
Revolutionists (G)	V. V. Schukin	Amkino	Dec.	'36...100. Feb.	6,'37
"Said O'Reilly to McNab" (G)	Will Mahoney	Gainsborough-GB		84. July	17,'37
Sensation (A)	John Lodge	Wardour		75. Jan.	23,'37
Silver Blaze (G)	Arthur Wontner	Assoc. British		70. July	17,'37
Sol Over Danmark (G)	Henrik Malberg		Apr.	13,'37...73. Apr.	24,'37
Southern Mail (A)	Richard-Wilm	Solar		100. Feb.	20,'37
Spain in Flames (A)		Amkino	Jan.	28,'37...63. Feb.	13,'37
Spanish Earth, The (A)		Prometheus	Aug.	20,'37...58. Sept.	4,'37
Thank You, Madam (G)	Jan Kiepura	American Tobis	Apr.	26,'37...85. May	1,'37
Thirteen, The (A)	Ivan Novoseltsev	Amkino		85. July	17,'37
30 Seconds of Love (G)	Elsa Merlini	E. J. A.		80. Jan.	2,'37
This'll Make You Whistle (A)	Jack Buchanan	Wilcox		78. Jan.	9,'37
Tsar to Lenin (A)		Lenauer Intern'l.	Mar.	6,'37...68. Mar.	27,'37
Wave, The (G)	Native Cast	Garrison	Apr.	20,'37...60. May	1,'37
White Squadron (G)	Antonio Centa	E. N. I. C.		85. Dec.	26,'36
World's in Love, The (A)	Marta Eggerth	Viennese	May	18,'37...90. May	29,'37
Yiddle with His Fiddle	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Dec.	31,'36

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-1-36) August 1, 1936.]

CELEBRITY

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

COMICOLOR CARTOONS

Happy Days ..... Sept.30,'36 .....

COLUMBIA

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Ay Tank Ay Go (1-23-37) (All Star) .. Dec. 4,'36 .. 16½ ..
Back to the Woods (3 Stooges) ..... May 14,'37 .. 19½ ..
Big Squirt, The (Charlie Chase ..... Sept.17,'37† .. 2 rls.
Bury the Hatchet (8-21-37) .. Aug. 6,'37 .. 19 ....
Calling All Doctors ..... July 22,'37 .. 19½ ..
Cash and Carry (9-11-37) (3 Stooges) .. Sept. 3,'37† .. 18½ ..
Dizzy Doctors (4-17-37) (3 Stooges) .... Mar. 19,'37 .. 17½ ..
Free Rent (1-30-37) (All Star) ..... Dec. 20,'36 .. 18 ....
From Bad to Worse (Andy Clyde ..... June 4,'37 .. 17 ....
Goofs and Saddles (Charlie Chase ..... July 2,'37 .. 17½ ..
Grand Hooter (6-5-37) (Charlie Chase ..... May 7,'37 .. 19½ ..
Grips, Grunts and Groans (3 Stooges) (3-27-37) .. Jan. 15,'37 .. 19 ....
Knee Action (2-27-37) (Andy Clyde ..... Jan. 9,'37 .. 17 ....
Ledge Night (Andy Clyde ..... June 11,'37 .. 18 ....
Love Comes to Mooneyville (1-2-37) .. Nov. 14,'36 .. 18 ....
My Little Feller (Andy Clyde ..... May 21,'37 .. 18 ....
New News (4-17-37) (Collins-Kennedy) ..... Apr. 1,'37 .. 17½ ..
Sailor Maid (Polly Moran ..... Feb. 12,'37 .. 19 ....
Slippery Silks (2-20-37) (3 Stooges) .... Dec. 27,'36 .. 17½ ..
Stuck in the Sticks (Andy Clyde ..... Mar. 26,'37 .. 18 ....
Super Snooper, The (El Brendel ..... Feb. 25,'37 .. 19½ ..
Three Dumb Clucks (3 Stooges) ..... Apr. 17,'37 .. 17 ....
Wrong Miss Wright, The (Charlie Chase ..... June 18,'37 .. 17 ....

BROADWAY FOLLIES

Drug Store Follies (9-11-37) ..... Sept. 3,'37† .. 9½ ..

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Bon Bon Parade ..... Nov. 26,'36 .. 8½ ..
Boy and His Dog, A (1-9-37) ..... Dec. 23,'36 .. 7 ....
Foxy Pup, The (6-5-37) ..... May 21,'37 .. 6½ ..
Gifts from the Air ..... Jan. 1,'37 .. 7½ ..
Indian Serenade ..... July 16,'37 .. 8 ....
Let's Go (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 10,'37 .. 7½ ..
Merry Mannequins ..... Mar. 19,'37 .. 6½ ..
Mother Hen's Holiday ..... May 7,'37 .. 7 ....
Scary Crows (9-11-37) ..... Aug. 20,'37 .. 8 ....
Skeleton Frolic (2-20-37) .. Jan. 29,'37 .. 7½ ..
Spring Festival (8-21-37) .. Aug. 6,'37 .. 8 ....
Stork Takes a Holiday, The ..... June 11,'37 .. 8 ....
Swing, Monkey, Swing ..... Sept. 10,'37 .....
Two Lazy Crows (11-28-36) .. Nov. 26,'36 .. 7 ....

COLUMBIA TOURS

Gold Quest of the Ages (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 28,'37 .. 10 ....
Fifty Years of Barter ..... May 28,'37 .. 9½ ..
Haiti's Black Napoleon (8-21-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37 .. 9 ....
Pirate Parts of the Caribbean ..... July 2,'37 .. 9 ....
When the West Was Young (3-20-37) ..... Mar. 12,'37 .. 9 ....

COMMUNITY SING
(2nd Series)

No. 1 (9-11-37) ..... Aug.20,'37† .. 10 ....
No. 2 ..... Sept.17,'37† .. 10 ....

COURT OF HUMAN RELATIONS

Runaway Marriage, The... (1-16-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36 .. 11 ....
Wedding Deal, The ..... Feb. 26,'37 .. 11½ ..

FEATURETTES

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Community Sing (No. 1) (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 17,'37 .. 10 ....
Community Sing (No. 2) ... Feb. 19,'37 .. 11 ....
Community Sing No. 3) (6-5-37) ..... May 20,'37 .. 10 ....
Community Sing (No. 4) ... June 18,'37 .. 10½ ..
Community Sing (No. 5) (9-11-37) ..... July 24,'37 .. 10½ ..
Herald of the Skies ..... Apr. 2,'37 .. 9½ ..
Story of Norton I, Emperor of the United States (2-6-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36 .. 9 ....

HAPPY HOUR

Goose Girl, The ..... May 30,'37 .. 3 rls.
Old Woman in the Woods, The ..... Apr. 23,'37 .. 3 rls.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

16. Merry Cafe (1-23-37) .. Dec. 26,'36 .. 7 ....
17. Lyin' Hunter, The (3-27-37) ..... Feb. 12,'37 .. 7 ....
18. Krazy's Race of Time (6-26-37) ..... May 6,'37 .. 7 ....
19. Masque Raid, The ..... June 25,'37 .. 7 ....

NEW WORLD OF SPORT SERIES

Fishing Thrills (2-13-37) .. Jan. 22,'37 .. 9 ....
Fit to Win (6-12-37) ..... May 7,'37 .. 9½ ..
Fleet Hoofs (4-17-37) ..... Mar. 5,'37 .. 10 ....
Fun in the Water (4-17-37) ..... Apr. 10,'37 .. 10 ....
Future Stars ..... Aug. 30,'37 .....
Golf Magic (9-11-37) ..... Aug. 16,'37 .. 9 ....
Plane Devils (1-9-37) ..... Nov. 28,'36 .. 9½ ..
Riding the Waves ..... June 4,'37 .. 10 ....
Scrambled Legs (3-27-37) .. Feb. 22,'37 .. 9 ....
Sport of the Seasons ..... June 25,'37 .. 9 ....
Sport's Greatest Thrills (8-21-37) ..... Aug. 3,'37 .. 9 ....

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Canine Capers ..... Sept.16,'37† .. 6½ ..
Dizzy Ducks (12-19-36) .... July 18,'37 .. 6½ ..
Puttin' Out the Kitten ..... Mar.26,'37 .. 7 ....
Scrappy's Band Concert .... Apr. 29,'37 .. 7 ....
Scrappy's Music Lesson .... June 4,'37 .. 7 ....

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

No. 4—(2-6-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36 .. 10 ....
No. 5—(2-27-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37 .. 10 ....
No. 6— ..... Feb. 19,'37 .. 10 ....
No. 7— ..... Mar.23,'37 .. 9½ ..
No. 8—(5-29-37) ..... Apr. 30,'37 .. 9½ ..
No. 9— ..... May 22,'37 .. 10 ....
No. 10— ..... June 4,'37 .. 9 ....
No. 11— ..... June 25,'37 .. 10½ ..
No. 12— ..... Aug. 13,'37 .. 10 ....
No. 13— ..... Sept.10,'37 .....

(New Series)

No. 1— ..... Sept.17,'37† .. 1 rl..

SPECIAL

Belgium (3-6-37) ..... Dec. 25,'36 .. 8½ ..
Old Paris and Berne (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 18,'36 .. 8½ ..

STRANGE AS IT MAY SEEM

Little Jack Horner ..... Sept.16,'37† .. 6½ ..

WORLD IN COLOR

Beautiful Bermuda ..... Sept.10,'37† .....

DuWORLD

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Story of the Rose, A (1-16-37) ..... 10 ....
Sus-Ti Ka (12-19-36) ..... 10 ....
Utah Picture Book (1-9-37) ..... 10 ....

EDUCATIONAL

[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Ask Uncle Sol ..... Oct. 8,'37† .. 1 rl..
Big Apple, The ..... Sept.17,'37† .. 1 rl..
Dental Follies (4-10-37) ... Feb. 26,'37 .. 11 ....
Gifts in Rhythm ..... Oct. 23,'36 .. 10 ....
Play! Girls ..... Nov. 6,'36 .. 11 ....
Pot Luck (8-14-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37† .. 11 ....
See Uncle Sol (2-6-37) .... Jan. 29,'37 .. 11 ....
Strike! You're Out (1-9-37) .. Dec. 11,'36 .. 11 ....

TERRY-TOONS

Big Game Hunt, The ..... Feb. 19,'37 .. 7 ....
Book Shop, The (1-30-37) .. Feb. 5,'37 .. 6 ....
Bug Carnival (4-17-37) .... Apr. 16,'37 .. 7 ....
Cleaning Day ..... Sept.17,'37† .. 1 rl..
Close Shave, A ..... Oct. 1,'37† .. 1 rl..
Dancing Bear, The ..... Oct. 15,'37† .. 1 rl..
Farmer Al Falfa in Trailer Life ..... Aug.20,'37† .. 6 ....
Farmer Al Falfa's Twentieth Anniversary ..... Nov. 27,'36 .. 7 ....
Flying South ..... Mar. 19,'37 .. 7 ....
Homeless Pup, The ..... July 23,'37 .. 7 ....
Kiko the Kangaroo in Skunked Again ..... Dec. 29,'36 .. 7 ....
Hay Ride, The ..... Apr. 2,'37 .. 6 ....
Mechanical Cow, The ..... June 25,'37 .. 7 ....
Miss Lonely Hearts ..... Sept.24,'37† .. 1 rl..
Ozzie Ostrich Comes to Town ..... May 28,'37 .. 7 ....
Paper Hangers, The (8-14-37) ..... July 30,'37 .. 7 ....
Pink Elephants ..... July 9,'37 .. 7 ....
Play Ball ..... June 11,'37 .. 6 ....
Puddy the Pup in Cats in a Bag (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 11,'36 .. 7 ....
Puddy's Coronation ..... May 14,'37 .. 7 ....
Puddy the Pup in Sunken Treasures ..... Oct. 16,'36 .. 6 ....
Red Hot Music ..... Mar. 5,'37 .. 6 ....
Robin Hood in an Arrow Escape (11-21-36) ..... Nov. 13,'36 .. 7 ....
Salty McGuire ..... Jan. 6,'37 .. 7 ....
Saw Mill Mystery, The .... Oct. 29,'37† .. 1 rl..
School Birds ..... Apr. 30,'37 .. 7 ....
Tin Can Tourist, The ..... (2-6-37) ..... Jan. 22,'37 .. 7 ....
Villain Still Pursued Her, The ..... Sept. 3,'37† .. 6½ ..

TREASURE CHEST

Chesapeake Bay Retriever, The (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 13,'36 .. 11 ....
Crystal Ballet ..... May 28,'37 .. 11 ....
Feminine Form (8-29-36) ... Aug. 7,'36 .. 10 ....
How to Ski ..... Aug. 20,'37 .. 11 ....
Legend of the Lei (1-2-37) .. Dec. 4,'36 .. 11 ....
Ornamental Swimming .... June 4,'37 .. 10 ....
Private Life of the Gannets .. Sept.10,'37† .. 11 ....
Songs of the Danube ..... May 7,'37 .. 9 ....
Symphony in Snow ..... (11-7-36) ..... Oct. 16,'36 .. 9 ....

TWO-REEL COMEDIES

Affairs of Pierre, The (7-31-37) ..... Aug. 6,'37† .. 19 ....
Amuse Yourself ..... Nov. 27,'36 .. 20 ....
Any Old Port (1-2-37) .... Nov. 6,'36 .. 18 ....
Bashful Ballerina ..... Sept.17,'37† .. ....
Big Courtship, The ..... Feb. 19,'37 .. ....
Chemist, The (9-24-36) .... Oct. 9,'36 .. 19 ....
Comic Artist's Home Life (4-3-37) ..... Apr. 9,'37 .. 18 ....
Ditto ..... Feb. 12,'37 .. 17 ....
Freshies ..... May 7,'37 .. 17 ....
Fun's Fun (2-6-37) ..... Feb. 5,'37 .. 19 ....
Girls Ahoy! ..... June 11,'37 .. 17 ....
Going, Going, Gone ..... Oct. 8,'37† .. ....
Hamlet and Eggs ..... June 18,'37 .. 16 ....
Her Accidental Hero ..... May 21,'37 .. 17 ....
High-C Honeymoon ..... Jan. 1,'37 .. 21 ....
His Pest Girl ..... Apr. 30,'37 .. 18 ....
Hi-ya Doc? ..... Apr. 23,'37 .. 20 ....
Holding the Bag ..... May 14,'37 .. 19 ....
Hold It ..... Jan. 29,'37 .. 17 ....
Jail Bait ..... Jan. 8,'37 .. 19 ....
Just the Type ..... Dec. 4,'36 .. 20 ....
Love in Arms ..... May 28,'37 .. 18 ....
Love Nest on Wheels ..... Mar. 26,'37 .. 18 ....
Man to Man ..... Feb. 26,'37 .. 17 ....
Melody Girl ..... Apr. 16,'37 .. 17 ....
Mixed Magic (12-9-36) .... Nov. 20,'36 .. 17 ....
Modern Home (11-28-36) .. Nov. 13,'36 .. 19 ....
Montague the Magnificent (8-14-37) ..... Aug. 27,'37† .. 17 ....
Off the Horses (4-10-37) .. Mar. 5,'37 .. 19 ....
Pixilated ..... Mar. 19,'37 .. 18 ....
Practically Perfect (1-30-37) . Jan. 15,'37 .. 21 ....
Ready to Serve (4-10-37) .. Mar. 12,'37 .. 15 ....
Screen Test, The (12-19-36) . Dec. 13,'36 .. 19 ....
Silly Night ..... Oct. 1,'37† .. ....
Slacks Appeal ..... Aug. 13,'37† .. 19 ....
Smart Way, The ..... Spring Is Here ..... Oct. 30,'36 .. 20 ....
Sweeties ..... Sept. 3,'37† .. 15 ....
That's the Spirit ..... June 25,'37 .. 17 ....
Timid Ghost, The ..... Sept.24,'37† .. ....
Transatlantic Love ..... Dec. 25,'36 .. 20 ....
Uncle Sol Solves It ..... Who's Crazy? ..... Aug. 20,'37† .. ....
Will You Stop! ..... Sept.10,'37† .. 17 ....

HOFFBERG

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

Baltimore, Home of Wally Simpson ..... Bamboo (5-29-37) ..... July 16,'37 .. 10 ....
Broadway Dance Parade ... June 15,'37 .. 10 ....
Busy Spots in Florida ..... Jan. 20,'37 .. 12 ....
Floridian Curiosities (5-29-37) ..... Jan. 10,'37 .. 11 ....
Hollywood Magic (5-29-37) ..... 10 ....
In Shanghai (6-5-37) ..... July 16,'37 .. 12 ....
Isle of Paradise ..... July 30,'37 .. 20 ....
Spanish Interlude, A ..... June 15,'37 .....

MAGNACOLOR

Catalina Island .....
Personalities on Parade .....
Yellowstone Park .....

IMPERIAL

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

EDGAR GUEST POETIC GEMS

Boyhood ..... 8 ....
Old Prospector, The ..... 8 ....

NOVELTIES

Nero ..... 8 ....
Hobo Here ..... 9 ....

PORT O' CALL

City of the Sun ..... 9 ....
Seventh Wonder ..... 9 ....

WORLD IN COLOR

Dream Harbor ..... 8 ....
Under the Southern Cross ..... 8 ....

MGM

Title — Rel. Date — Min.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

No. 9—Torture Money (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 2,'37 .. 20 ....
No. 10—It May Happen to You (8-14-37) ..... June 5,'37 .. 21 ....
No. 11—Soak the Poor .... Aug. 21,'37 .. 16 ....
No. 12—Give Till It Hurts . Sept. 18,'37 .....

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Colorful Bombay (5-8-37) ..... 8 ....
Floral Japan ..... July 24,'37 .. 8 ....
Glimpses of Java and Ceylon (4-10-37) ..... Mar. 6,'37 .. 9 ....
Glimpses of Peru ..... Sept. 4,'37† .....
Hong Kong, Hub of China (6-26-37) ..... May 1,'37 .. 8 ....
India on Parade ..... Feb. 6,'37 .. 9 ....
Picturesque South Africa (2-20-37) ..... Jan. 9,'37 .. 9 ....
Rocky Mountain Grandeur (7-24-37) ..... June 26,'37 .. 8 ....
Serene Siam (6-26-37) .... May 29,'37 .. 9 ....
Stockholm, Pride of Sweden . Oct. 2,'37† .....

HARMAN-ISING
(Happy Harmonies)

26—Pups' Christmas (12-26-36) ..... Dec. 12,'36 .. 8 ....
27—Circus Daze ..... Jan. 16,'37 .. 9 ....
28—Swing Wedding ..... Feb. 13,'37 .. 8 ....
29—Boske's Easter Eggs (4-3-37) ..... Mar. 20,'37 .. 8 ....
30—Boske and the Pirates (5-8-37) ..... May 1,'37 .. 8 ....
31—Hound and the Rabbit, The (6-26-37) ..... May 29,'37 .. 8 ....
32—Wayward Pups (8-14-37) ..... July 10,'37 .. 9 ....
33—Boske and the Cannibals ..... Aug.28,'37 .. 10 ....

M-G-M MINIATURES

Boss Didn't Say Good Morning, The ..... Oct. 1,'37 .....
Have Courage (7-24-37) .... June 12,'37 .. 10 ....
Hollywood: Second Step (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 5,'36'10 ....
How to Vote (9-5-36) .... Sept. 5,'36 .. 10 ....
Pacific Paradise ..... Aug.28,'37 .....
Rainbow Pass ..... Oct. 9,'37 .....
Romance of Digestion .... Mar.13,'37 .. 11 ....
What Do You Think? .... Jan. 23,'37 .. 10 ....

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Carnival in Paris (6-26-37) . May 29,'37 .. 21 ....
Girl's Best Years, A (2-20-37) ..... Dec. 25,'37 .. 19 ....
Hollywood Party (5-8-37) .. Apr. 3,'37 .. 21 ....
Some Time Soon (4-10-37) .. Mar. 6,'37 .. 20 ....

OUR GANG

Fishy Tales ..... Aug.28,'37 .. 11 ....
Framing Youth ..... Sept.11,'37† .. 11 ....
Glove Taps (4-10-37) ..... Feb. 20,'37 .. 11 ....
Hearts Are Thumps ..... Apr. 3,'37 .. 11 ....
Night 'n' Gales ..... July 24,'37 .. 11 ....
Reunion in Rhythm ..... Jan. 9,'37 .. 11 ....
Roamin' Holiday (7-31-37) . June 12,'37 .. 11 ....
Rushin' Ballet (6-26-37) .. Apr. 24,'37 .. 11 ....
Spooky Hooky (3-6-37) .... Dec. 5,'36 .. 11 ....
Three Smart Boys (5-8-37) . Mar. 13,'37 .. 11 ....

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Bar-Rae's Night Out ..... Feb. 27,'37 .. 10 ....
Decathlon Champion ..... Dec. 11,'37† .....
Dexterity (2-27-37) ..... Jan. 16,'37 .. 9 ....
Equestrian Acrobatics .... Aug.14,'37 .. 8 ....
Gilding the Lily ..... Feb. 6,'37 .. 8 ....
Golf Mistakes (6-26-37) .... June 12,'37 .. 10 ....
Grand Bounce, The (6-26-37) ..... May 22,'37 .. 11 ....

See Next Page

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title Rel. Date Min.

Jungle Juveniles .....Oct. 2,'37†.....
Minimaniacs .....Nov. 20,'37†.....
Olympic Ski Champions
(11-7-36) .....July 3,'37.10....
Penny Wisdom (5-8-37).....Apr. 10,'37.10....
Pigskin Champions .....Aug. 14,'37.....
Romance of Radium.....Oct. 23,'37.....
Ski Skill (4-10-37).....10....
(Reviewed under the title, "Ski Thrill")
Sports on Ice.....July 24,'37.10....
Tennis Tactics (5-8-37).....May 1,'37.10....
Wanted—A Master (1-2-37) .Dec. 26,'36.10....

RE-ISSUES (1937-8)

Beau Hunks .....Sept.18,'37†37....
Blotto .....Oct. 30,'37†26....

ROBERT BENCHLEY

How to Start the Day.....Sept.11,'37†.....

SPECIAL

Servant of the People
(3-20-37) .....Apr. 9,'37.21....
(Exploitation: Feb. 27,'37, p. 87.)

TABLOID MUSICALS

Bars and Stripes (5-8-37)..Feb. 20,'37.11....
Dancing on the Ceiling.....Jan. 2,'37..9....
Little Maestro (4-17-37)....Mar.27,'37.11....
Song of Revolt (7-24-37)...May 29,'37.11....

PARAMOUNT

Title Rel. Date Min.

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Be Human .....Nov. 20,'36..7....
Candid Candidate, The.....Aug.27,'37†.1 rl..
Ding Dong Doggie.....July 23,'37†.7....
Grampy's Indoor Outing.....Oct. 16,'36..7....
House Cleaning Blues.....Jan. 15,'37..7....
Hot Air Salesman, The
(3-20-37) .....Mar.12,'37..7....
Impractical Joker, The
(7-3-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
Making Friends .....Dec. 18,'36..7....
Pudgy Takes a Bow-Wow...Apr. 9,'37..7....
Pudgy Picks a Fight
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37..8....
Service With a Smile.....Sept.24,'37†.7....
Whoops! I'm a Cowboy.....Feb. 12,'37..7....

COLOR CLASSICS

Bunny-Mooning (3-13-37)...Feb. 12,'37..7....
Car-Tune Portrait, A
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37..7....
Chicken a la King.....Apr. 16,'37..8....
Christmas Comes But Once
a Year .....Dec. 4,'36..8....
Peeping Penguins (9-18-37) Aug. 27,'37†.7....
Play Safe .....Oct. 16,'36..7....

HEADLINERS

Blue Velvet Music .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Mark Warnow and Orch.
Friml Favorites (7-3-37)...June 4,'37.11....
Rudolf Friml, Jr. and Orch.
Hollywood Star Reporter,
No. 2 .....Oct. 29,'37†.1 rl..
Hula Heaven .....Oct. 1,'37†11....
Eddie Peabody
Installment Collector, The...July 24,'37.10....
Fred Allen
Let's Go Latin.....Sept.10,'37†11....
Xavier Cugat and Orch.
Musical Charmers .....Oct. 9,'36.11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Music by Morgan.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Russ Morgan and Orch.
Music, Music Everywhere...Dec. 18,'36.11....
Clyde Lucas and Orch.
Night in Manhattan.....July 30,'37.11....
Queens of Harmony.....Aug. 20,'37†11....
Phil Spitalny and Girl Orch.
Rah, Rah, Football.....Oct. 30,'36.10....
Will Osborne and Orch.
Song Hits on Parade.....Jan. 15,'37.10....
Freddie Rich & Orch.
Star Reporter in Hollywood
(11-21-37) .....Nov. 20,'36..9....
Ted Husing-Bennie Bart-
lett-Dorothy Lamour
Star Reporter, The, No. 2
(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,'37.11....
Vincent Lopez and Orch.
Boswell Sisters
Swing, Hutton, Swing.....May 7,'37.11....
Ina Ray Hutton and Orch.

MUSICAL ROMANCE
(Technicolor)

In Old Wyoming (2-27-37).Jan. 15,'37..9....
Schubert's Serenade .....July 23,'37..9....
Song of the Islands
(5-22-37) .....May 21,'37.10....
Trees (3-20-37) .....Mar. 19,'37..9....
Western Sketches .....Nov. 20,'36.10....

PARAGRAPHICS

Aviator Shorty .....July 23,'37.10....

Title Rel. Date Min.

Broadway Highlights, No. 8 .Dec. 11,'36.10....
Broadway Highlights, No. 9.....10....
Circus Comes to Town, The
(7-3-37) .....June 25,'37.10....
Cowboy Shorty .....Oct. 8,'37†.1 rl.
Game Trails .....Apr. 30,'37.10....
It's a Good Stunt.....Sept.10,'37†10....
It's a Living.....Mar. 5,'37.11....
Killer of the Tonto.....Aug. 13,'37†10....
Nobody Home .....Apr. 2,'37.10....
Rhythm of the River.....Oct. 9,'36.10....
Safety in the Air
(5-22-37) .....May 28,'37.10....
Sailor Shorty .....Oct. 23,'36.10....
That's Their Business.....Nov. 13,'36.11....
Where Champions Meet
(2-20-37) .....Jan. 8,'37..9....
Where Snow Is King.....Feb. 5,'37..9....

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL

No. 4—A Modern Monster
— Furs on Parade — All
Aboard .....Nov. 13,'36.11....
No. 5—Bamboo — Clamdig-
gers' Rodeo — Vienna
Boys' Choir .....Dec. 11,'36.10....
No. 6—Cornering a Killer
— Twilight — Let's All
Learn to Ski.....Jan. 8,'37..9....
No. 7 — Magic Caverns —
Albert Payson Terhune—
Swing Fashions .....Feb. 12,'37..9....
No. 8 — Tides of Fundy —
Home of the Rainbow—
Meet the Lorias.....Mar. 12,'37.10....
No. 9 — Moonlight and
Shadows — Rooftops of
Manhattan — Blackie and
Brownie .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
No. 10 — Sailboat Time —
Twilight on the Trail—
Magnetic Music (5-22-37).May 7,'37.10....
No. 11—Fishing Highlights.June 4,'37.11....
No. 12—(7-3-37) .....July 2,'37.10....

NEW SERIES

No. 1 .....Aug. 6,'37†.1 rl..
No. 2 (9-18-37) .....Sept. 3,'37†10....
No. 3—Let's Count Horses
—Novia Scotia Faces the
Sea Record Making.....Sept. 3,'37†10....

POPEYE THE SAILOR

Hold the Wire.....Oct. 23,'36..7....
Hospitaliky .....Apr. 16,'37..7....
I Like Babies and Infants..Sept.17,'37†.7....
I'm in the Army Now.....Dec. 25,'36..7....
I Never Change My
Altitude .....Aug. 20,'37†.7....
Lost and Foundry.....July 16,'37..7....
Morning, Noon and Night
Club (6-26-37) .....June 18,'37..7....
My Artistical Temperature..Mar. 19,'37..7....
Organ Grinder's Swing
(3-6-37) .....Feb. 19,'37..7....
Paneless Window Washer,
The (2-27-37) .....Jan. 22,'37..7....
Popeye the Sailer Meets
Sinbad the Sailor
(11-14-36) .....Nov. 27,'36..7....
(Technicolor special)
Spinach Roadster, The.....Nov. 27,'36..7....
Twisker Pitcher, The.....May 21,'37..7....

PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS

Two Editions Weekly

POPULAR SCIENCE
(Cinecolor)

No. 2 (11-28-36) .....Oct. 30,'36.10....
No. 3 .....Dec. 25,'36.11....
No. 4 (3-27-37) .....Feb. 26,'37.11....
No. 5 .....Apr. 30,'37.11....
No. 6 .....July 2,'37.11....

NEW SERIES

No. 1 (9-18-37) .....Sept. 3,'37†10....

SCREEN SONGS

Never Should Have Told
You (3-6-37) .....Jan. 29,'37..8....
Nat Brandwynne and Orch.
Please Keep Me in Your
Dreams (5-22-37) .....May 28,'37..8....
Henry King and Orch.
Talking Through My Heart.Nov. 27,'36..7....
Dick Stabile and Orch.
Twilight on the Trail.....Mar. 26,'37..7....
The Westerners
Whispers in the Dark.....Sept.24,'37†.7....
You Came to My Rescue....July 30,'37..8....
Shep Fields and Orch.

GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS
(NEW SERIES)

No. 30—Sporting Quiz, The
(11-21-36) .....Nov. 6,'36.10....

Title Rel. Date Min.

No. 31—Chimp Champs ....Dec. 4,'36.10....
No. 32—Sporting Pals ....Jan. 1,'37.10....
No. 33—Underwater Romance, An (3-6-37).....Jan. 29,'37.10....
No. 34—On the Nose
(3-13-37) .....Feb. 26,'37.10....
No. 35—King Soccer .....Mar. 26,'37.10....
No. 36—Wrestling (It's a
Laugh) .....Apr. 23,'37.10....
No. 37—Swing Stars
(5-22-37) .....May 14,'37.10....
No. 38—Pan-American
Champions (7-3-37).....June 11,'37.10....
No. 39—Rhythm of the
Game (7-10-37) .....July 9,'37.10....
No. 40—Aquabats .....Aug. 13,'37†10....
No. 41—Picking Pets .....Sept.10,'37†10....
No. 42—Four Smart Dogs..Oct. 8,'37†10....

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS
(Cinecolor)

No. 1.....Aug. 6,'37†.1 rl..
No. 2.....Oct. 8,'37†.1 rl..

RKO RADIO

Title Rel. Date Min.

CONDOR MUSICALES

Frozen Affair, A (8-28-37) .Sept.17,'37†10....
Murder in Swing Time
(9-4-37) .....Sept.27,'37†10....

LEON ERROL COMEDIES

Should Wives Work.....Sept.10,'37†.....

HEADLINER SERIES

2—Singing in the Air....Feb. 19,'37.19....
3—Rhythm on the Rampage
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 2,'37.18½..
4—Swing Fever .....July 25,'37.20....

EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES

Bad Housekeeping (4-10-37).Mar. 5,'37.19....
Dumb's the Word.....June 11,'37.18....
Hillbilly Goat (1-23-37)....Jan. 15,'37.18....
Locks and Bonds.....Apr. 16,'37.19....
Morning Judge .....Sept.24,'37†.....
Tramp Trouble .....Aug. 6,'37.16....

MARCH OF TIME

No. 4 (12-12-36) .....Nov. 27,'36.22....
No. 5 .....Dec. 25,'36.19....
No. 6 .....Jan. 22,'37.19....
No. 7 .....Feb. 19,'37.21....
No. 8 .....Mar. 19,'37.20....
No. 9 (4-17-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.21....
No. 10 .....May 14,'37.18....
No. 11 .....June 11,'37.18....
No. 12 .....July 9,'37.18....
No. 13 .....Aug. 6,'37.18....

1937-38

No. 1 (9-11-37) .....Sept. 3,'37†17....

MICKEY MOUSE

Clock Cleaners, The
(8-28-37) .....8....
Hawaiian Holiday
(9-4-37) .....8....

NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS

Rhythm in a Night Court
(9-4-37) .....Sept.24,'37†.9....

PATHE NEWS

Released twice a week

PATHE PARADE

No. 1 .....Sept.10,'37†.....

PATHE REVIEWS

Released once a month

PATHE TOPICS

Released seven times a year

RADIO FLASH COMEDIES

Don't Be Like That
(1-30-37) .....Dec. 4,'36.18....
Horse Play (4-3-37).....Mar. 13,'37.18....

RADIO MUSICAL COMEDIES

Deep South (1-23-37) .....Jan. 1,'37.17....
Mississippi Moods
(7-31-37) .....July 23,'37.17....
That Man Samson.....May 28,'37.19....

SMART SET

Grandma's Buoys (1-2-37)..Dec. 18,'36.16....
Inlawful .....Apr. 30,'37.17....

SPECIAL

Day With the Dionne
Quintuplets, A (4-24-37).Mar. 26,'37.18....

SPORTS WITH BILL CORUM

Beach Sports .....June 4,'37..9½..
Big League .....May 7,'37.11....
Foreign Sports .....Apr. 9,'37.10....
Golf Timing (8-21-37).....July 23,'37.11....
Iceman, The .....Jan. 15,'37..9....
Ladies' Day .....Dec. 18,'36.11....
Putting On the Dog.....Feb. 12,'37.11....
Royal Steeds .....July 2,'37.10....
Saratoga Summers
(3-27-37) .....Mar. 12,'37.11....
Singing Wheels (12-26-36).Nov. 20,'36.11....

Title Rel. Date Min.

STRUGGLE TO LIVE

Deadly Females .....Nov. 13,'36..9½..
Desert Land .....Apr. 5,'37..9....
Forest Gangsters (1-23-37)..Jan. 8,'37..9....

SUPERBA COMEDIES

Bridal Grief .....Feb. 5,'37.19....
One Live Ghost.....Nov. 6,'36.21....
Wife Insurance (8-14-37)..July 9,'37.16....
Wrong Romance, The.....May 14,'37.19....

WORLD ON PARADE

California Missions
(4-24-37) .....Apr. 16,'37.11....
Circus Winter Quarters.....May 14,'37.11....
Florida Cowboy .....June 11,'37..9½..
Gold Mania (1-16-37).....Dec. 25,'36.11....
Graveyard of Ships (1-2-37).Nov. 27,'36.11....
Heart of the Sierras.....Nov. 6,'36.11....
Jungle Playmate .....July 30,'37..9....
Manhattan Waterfront
(3-27-37) .....Feb. 19,'37.11....
Mt. Vernon .....Mar. 19,'37.10....
Romantic Mexico .....Jan. 22,'37.10....
Workshops of Old Mexico...July 9,'37.11....

STATE RIGHTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

ALEXANDER

Trailing the Seashore
(1-9-37) .....11....

AMERICAN RED CROSS

Behind the Flood Headlines
(5-8-37) .....11....

ASTOR

Carmen (5-29-37) .....9....
Halt! Who Goes There?
(5-29-37) .....9....

FILM EXCHANGE

Ski-Esta (1-2-37) .....10....

MATSON

Coronation Preview
(3-27-37) .....10....

ROGERS SPECIAL

Lest We Forget (5-1-37).....1 rl..

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

I Pledge My Heart (8-7-37).....11....

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Title Rel. Date Min.

ADVENTURES OF THE
NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN

Bone Bender Parade
(8-14-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Dogging It Around the
World .....Nov. 13,'36.10....
Looking for Trouble.....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Ski Parade, The.....Feb. 5,'37.....
Sports Headliners of 1936
(11-21-36) .....Oct. 30,'36.10....

MAGIC CARPET SERIES

Land of Genghis Khan
(2-6-37) .....Dec. 18,'36.10....
Portraits of Portugal
(8-7-37) .....Aug. 6,'37.10....
Touring Brazil (12-18-36)..Nov. 13,'36.10....
Western Grandeur (4-3-37).Feb. 5,'37..9½..

UNITED ARTISTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

MICKEY MOUSE

103. Alpine Climbers
(8-22-36) .....Oct. 28,'36†.9½..
104. Mickey's Circus
(8-15-36) .....Nov. 11,'36†.8....
105. Donald and Pluto
(11-14-36) .....Dec. 12,'36†.8....
107. Mickey's Elephant
(11-14-36) .....Feb. 19,'37†.9....
108. Don Donald (1-16-37).....8½..
109. Worm Turns, The
(1-23-37) .....Apr. 17,'37†.8½..
110. Magician Mickey .....June 17,'37†.8½..
111. Mickey's Amateurs
(6-19-37) .....1 rl..
112. Moose Hunters .....Aug. 5,'37†.9....

SILLY SYMPHONIES

106. Three Blind Mouse-keters (11-28-36)...Jan. 28,'37†.7....
108. Country Cousin, The
(11-21-36) .....Dec. 17,'36†.6½..
109. Mother Pluto
(11-21-36) .....Mar. 6,'37†.6½..
110. More Kittens (1-9-37).Mar. 27,'37†.8½..
111. Woodland Cafe
(6-26-37) .....1 rl..
112. Little Hiawatha
(6-26-37) .....1 rl..
113. Modern Inventions
(6-26-37) .....1 rl..

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
GOING PLACES with LOWELL THOMAS
No. 32 (2-6-37)	Feb. 1,'37	9½
No. 33 (3-27-37)	Mar. 15,'37	9
No. 34 (4-17-37)	Mar. 22,'37	8
No. 35 (4-17-37)	Apr. 12,'37	7
No. 36 (5-15-37)	May 10,'37	9½
No. 37 (5-15-37)	June 7,'37	9½
No. 38 (7-24-37)	July 26,'37	10
No. 39
No. 40
MEANY-MINY-MOE CARTOONS
Air Express	Sept.20,'37†	6
Big Race, The (3-13-37)	Mar. 3,'37	7
Country Store (8-7-37)	July 5,'37	7
Fireman's Picnic	Aug. 16,'37	6½
Golfers, The (2-13-37)	Jan. 11,'37	8½
House of Magic (2-13-37)	Feb. 8,'37	8
Knights for a Day (1-9-37)	Dec. 28,'36	7
Lumber Camp (3-20-37)	Mar. 15,'37	7
Ostrich Feathers	Sept. 6,'37†	7
Rest Resort	Aug. 23,'37	7
Steel Workers (5-15-37)	Apr. 26,'37	7
Stevedores, The	May 24,'37	7
Turkey Dinner	Nov. 30,'36	8
MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES
Alpine Cabaret (8-14-37)	Aug. 4,'37	10
Bargain Matinee (3-20-37)	Apr. 14,'37	10
Cocktail Party, The (5-15-37)	May 12,'37	10
Fun Begins at Home	Feb. 17,'37	10
Hawaiian Capers (9-18-37)	Sept. 8,'37†	17
It's on the Record	Mar. 17,'37	10½
Royal Cafe	Nov. 25,'36	10
School for Swing (2-6-37)	Jan. 20,'37	10
Shoes with Rhythm (5-15-37)	June 9,'37	10
Singing Bandit, The (7-3-37)	July 7,'37	10
Teddy Bergman's Bar-B-Q	Oct. 6,'37†	9
Television Highlights	Dec. 23,'36	10
OSWALD CARTOONS
Birthday Party, The	Mar. 29,'37	6½
Duck Hunt (3-13-37)	Mar. 8,'37	7
Everybody Sings (1-30-37)	Feb. 22,'37	7
Gopher Trouble	Nov. 30,'36	7
Keeper of the Lions	Oct. 18,'37†
Love Sick	Oct. 4,'37†
Playful Pup, The (7-31-37)	July 12,'37	7
Puppet Show (10-13-36)	Nov. 2,'36	8
Trailer Thrills (5-15-37)	May 3,'37	7
Unpopular Mechanic (10-17-36)	Nov. 6,'36	8
Wily Weasel, The	June 7,'37	7
STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES
No. 29—Novelty (9-24-36)	Nov. 9,'36	8½
No. 30—Novelty (12-26-36)	Dec. 7,'36	10
No. 31—Novelty (1-2-37)	Jan. 4,'37	9
No. 32—Novelty (1-30-37)	Feb. 1,'37	9
No. 33—Novelty (2-13-37)	Mar. 1,'37	9
No. 34—Novelty (4-17-37)	Mar. 29,'37	9
No. 35—Novelty (4-17-37)	Apr. 26,'37	9
No. 36—Novelty (4-17-37)	May 24,'37	8
No. 37—Novelty (7-3-37)	June 21,'37	8½
No. 38—Novelty (5-15-37)	July 19,'37	9
No. 39—Novelty (7-24-37)	Aug. 16,'37	9
No. 40—Novelty (9-18-37)	Sept. 6,'37†	9
No. 41—Novelty	Oct. 4,'37†	9
No. 42—Novelty	Nov. 1,'37†	9
UNIVERSAL SPECIAL
Hollywood Screen Test (8-14-37)	Aug. 30,'37†	21
King Edward the VIII	Dec. 14,'36	9½
You Can't Get Away With It	Nov. 30,'36	25

VITAPHONE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
BIG TIME VAUDEVILLE REEL
Vaude-Villians Marty May	Dec. 12,'36	10
Reel Vaudeville (1-30-37) Harry Rose	Jan. 2,'37	11
Bed-Time Vaudeville (2-20-37) Edgar Bergen	Jan. 30,'37	11
Bring On the Girls Smith and Dale	Mar. 6,'37	11
Vitaphone Diversions Charles Kemper	Apr. 3,'37	10
Nickel Lowdown Johnny Burke	May 1,'37	10
Vitaphone Funsters (6-12-37) Fritz and Jean Hubert	May 29,'37	11
Vaude-Festival	June 26,'37
Vaudeville Hits Elaine Arden	July 17,'37
Vitaphone Broadwayites Medley-Dupree	Aug. 21,'37	10
BROADWAY BREVITIES
Sweethearts and Flowers Regis Toomey- Preisser Sisters	Nov. 7,'36	20
That's Pictures (8-29-36) Jay C. Flippen	Nov. 21,'36	21
Joe Palooka In "The Blonde Bomber" Shemp Howard- Robert Norton	Nov. 28,'36	21
Here Comes the Circus "Poodles" Hanneford	Dec. 5,'36	18
"Give Me Liberty" John Litel	Dec. 19,'36	22
It's All Over Now (2-6-37) Dan Healy	Dec. 26,'36	20
Joe and Asbestos in "A Horse's Tale" (2-13-37) Harry Gribbon- Hamtree Harrington	Jan. 9,'37	20
Pretty Pretender, The (2-13-37) Bernice Claire	Jan. 23,'37	21
Joe Palooka in "Kick Me Again" (3-6-37) Shemp Howard- Robert Norton	Feb. 6,'37	21
Captain Blueblood Georgie Price	Feb. 3,'37	21
Swing for Sale (3-13-37) Hal LeRoy	Feb. 27,'37	22
Under Southern Stars Fred Lawrence-J. Bryan	Feb. 20,'37	18
Hotel a la Swing Eddie Foy, Jr.	Mar. 13,'37	20
Mail and Female Ken Murray	Mar. 27,'37	21
Play Street (4-10-37) Preisser Sisters	Apr. 3,'37	21
Romance of Robert Burns (4-10-37) Owen King-Linda Perry	Apr. 10,'37	16
Lifers of the Party, The Yacht Club Boys	Apr. 17,'37	21
Joe Palooka in "Taking the Count" Shemp Howard-Robt. Norton	Apr. 24,'37	21
Movie Mania Dave Apollon	May 8,'37	20
Musical Operation, A Frank Gaby-Virginia Verrill	May 15,'37	20
Day at Santa Anita Sybil Jason	May 22,'37	18
Sound Defects (6-12-37) Ruth Davis	June 5,'37	22
Joe Palooka in "Thirst Aid" Robt. Norton-Beverly Phalen	June 12,'37	20
Rhythm Roundup, The Estelle Taylor	June 19,'37	21
Little Pioneer, The (7-10-37) Sybil Jason	July 3,'37	19
Newsboys Nocturnes
Flowers from the Sky (8-21-37) Josephine Huston	July 24,'37	22
Cut Out for Love Donald Novis-Dorothy Dare	Aug. 2,'37
Du Barry Did All Right Irene Bordoni	Aug. 7,'37
Doctor Cupid Ken Murray-Oswald	Sept. 4,'37†
Postal Union Georgie Price	Sept. 11,'37†
Littlest Diplomat, The (9-11-37) Sybil Jason	Sept. 25,'37†	20
COLORTOUR ADVENTURE (Cinecolor)
Along the Mediterranean	Dec. 5,'36	10
Hollanders, The (1-23-37)	Jan. 2,'37	10
Nice Work (2-13-37)	Jan. 30,'37	10
Land of the Midnight Sun (3-13-37)	Feb. 27,'37	10
Nature the Artist (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37	10
Cradle of Civilization	Apr. 17,'37	10
Alpine Grandeur	May 15,'37	10
Gateway to Africa (6-12-37)	June 12,'37	10
Land of the Magyar (7-10-37)	July 3,'37
Crossing the Sahara	Aug. 14,'37
Long Bright Land (9-11-37)	Sept. 25,'37†	10
FLOYD GIBBONS' "YOUR TRUE ADVENTURE"
Attic of Terror (9-11-37)	Sept.18,'37†	12
LOONEY TUNES
No. 28—Village Smithy, The	Nov. 14,'36	7
No. 29—Porky of the North-woods (1-9-37)	Dec. 19,'36	7
No. 30—Porky the Wrestler	Jan. 9,'37	7
No. 31—Porky's Road Race	Feb. 6,'37	7
No. 32—Picador Porky (2-27-37)		8
No. 33—Porky's Romance	Apr. 17,'37	8
No. 34—Porky's Duck Hunt	Apr. 17,'37	8
No. 35—Porky and Gabby (6-12-37)	May 15,'37	8
No. 36—Porky's Building	June 19,'37	8
No. 37—Porky's Super Service (7-10-37)	July 3,'37	8
No. 38—Porky's Bad Time Story	July 24,'37	7
No. 39—Porky's Railroad (8-14-37)	Aug. 7,'37	7
No. 40—Get Rich Porky	Aug. 28,'37
No. 41—Porky's Garden	Sept. 11,'37
MELODY MASTERS
Clyde McCoy and Orch. (8-29-36)	Nov. 28,'36	10
Jimmie Lunceford and Orch. (1-23-37)	Dec. 19,'36	10
George Hall and Orch.	Jan. 9,'37	10
Louisiana Kings	Jan. 23,'37	10
Roger Wolfe Kahn and Orch.	Feb. 6,'37	10
Cab Calloway and Orch. (3-13-37)	Feb. 20,'37	10
Peter Van Steeden and Orch.	Mar. 6,'37	10
Jacques Fray and Orch. (4-10-37)	Mar. 27,'37	10
Jam Session, The Clyde McCoy and Orch.	Apr. 17,'37	10
Rimac Orchestra, The	May 8,'37	10
Jack Denny and Orch.	May 29,'37	10
Eliseo Grenet and Orch. (6-19-37)	June 19,'37	10
Lennie Hayton and Orch. (7-10-37)	July 10,'37	10
David Mendoza and Orch. (8-21-37)	July 31,'37	10
Russ Morgan and Orch.	Sept. 11,'37†
Milt Britton and Orch.	Oct. 2,'37†
Mal Hallett and Orch.	Oct. 23,'37†
Arnold Johnson and Orch. (9-11-37)	Nov. 11,'37†	10
MERRIE MELODIES (In Color)
No. 28—Don't Look Now	Nov. 7,'36	7
No. 29—Cocoonut Grove	Nov. 28,'36	7
No. 30—He Was Her Man	Jan. 2,'37	7
No. 31—Pigs Is Pigs (1-16-37)	Jan. 30,'37	7
No. 32—I Only Have Eyes for You (3-6-37)	Mar. 6,'37	8
No. 33—The Fella with the Fiddle (4-10-37)	Mar. 27,'37	8
No. 34—She Was an Acrobat's Daughter	Apr. 10,'37	8
No. 35—Ain't We Got Fun	May 1,'37	8
No. 36—Clean Pastures	May 22,'37
No. 37—Uncle Tom's Bungalow	June 5,'37
No. 38—Streamlined Greta Green (6-12-37)	June 19,'37	8
No. 39—Sweet Sioux (7-10-37)	June 26,'37	8
No. 40—Egghead Rides Again	July 17,'37	8
No. 41—Plenty of Money and You	July 31,'37	7
No. 42—Sunbonnet Blue	Aug. 21,'37
No. 43—Speaking of the Weather (8-21-37)	Sept. 4,'37	7
No. 44—Dog Daze	Sept. 18,'37
PICTORIAL REVIEWS
No. 4—Southern Wear—Aviation (1-23-37)	Dec. 26,'36	11
No. 5—Sports Afloat (2-6-37)	Jan. 16,'37	10
No. 6—Swimming — Wood Carving	Feb. 13,'37	10
No. 7—Phonograph Records—Lipsticks (4-10-37)	Mar. 20,'37	11
No. 8—Coiffeurs—Shoes	Apr. 10,'37	10
No. 9—Hats—Bathing Suits	May 11,'37	10
No. 10—Dancing-Leather (6-5-37)	May 22,'37	10
No. 11—Milk—Rugs	June 19,'37	10
No. 12—Pianos—Art (8-14-37)	July 17,'37	10
No. 13—Books—Furs	Aug. 28,'37
(NEW SERIES)
No. 1—Racing — Wrestling—Cheese (9-11-37)	Sept. 18,'37	10
VITAPHONE NOVELTIES
Poets of the Organ (8-22) Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crawford	Jan. 16,'37
Whale Ho (7-14)	Feb. 13,'37	10
Medium Well Done Hardeen	Mar. 6,'37	10
Ghost to Ghost Hookup, A Radio Ramblers	Apr. 3,'37	11
Home Run on the Keys (4-3-37) Babe Ruth	Apr. 24,'37	9
Check Your Cash Louis Zingone	May 22,'37	10
Double Talk (6-5-37) Edgar Bergen	June 26,'37	10
Palm Beach Knights Charles Ahearn	July 31,'37
Lyin' Tamer, The (7-11-36) George Jessel	Aug. 28,'37	10
VITAPHONE VARIETIES
Neckin' Party, A (9-11-37) Edgar Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"	Sept. 4,'37†	11
Puppet Love (9-11-37) Salici's Puppets	Oct. 2,'37†	10

WM. STEINER

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eagle's Vengeance, The	July 29,'37†	20

WORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Battling Bettas	July 8,'37†	10
Men of Ships	Sept. 10,'37†	9

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Jungle Menace (9-4-37) 20....
Frank Buck-C. Henry (each)
(15 episodes)

REPUBLIC

Dick Tracy 6401 (2-27-37) Feb. 20,'37†.....
Ralph Byrd-Kay Hughes
(15 episodes)
Painted Stallion, The 6421 June 5,'37†.....
Ray Corrigan-Hoot Gibson
Robinson Crusoe of Clipper Island 3583 Nov. 14,'36.....
Mala-Mamo Clark
(14 episodes)
S. O. S. Coast Guard 6441 Aug. 28,'37†.....
Ralph Byrd-Maxine Doyle
Zorro Rides Again 6461 Nov. 20,'37†.....
John Carroll

UNIVERSAL

Jungle Jim (12-26) Jan. 18,'37..2rls.
Grant Withers-Betty Jane Rhodes (each)
Radio Patrol (9-18-37) Oct. 4,'37†.2 rls.
Grant Withers-Cath. Hughes (each)
Secret Agent X9 Apr. 12,'37..2 rls.
Scott Kolk-Jean Rogers (each)
Tim Tyler's Luck 2 rls.
Frankie Thomas, Jr.-
Frances Robinson
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 18,'37.)
Wild West Days (6-26-37) July 5,'37†.2 rls.
Johnny Mack Brown (each)
(13 episodes)

VICTORY

Blake of Scotland Yard Apr. 15,'37.....
Ralph Byrd-Herbert Rawlinson
(15 episodes—also feature version)
Shadow of Chinatown
Bela Lugosi-Herman Brix Oct. 10,'36.....
(15 episodes—also feature version)

J. C JENKINS—HIS COLYUM

Neligh, Nebraska

Dear Herald:

Usually when we haven't anything else to say we turn to the weather with something like "Snice day," or "Beatshel how it rains." For the past six weeks the mercury in our thermometer has been flirting around between 100 and 104, but last night our showman friend John Piller of Valley City, North Dakota, sent down a cool wave that forced the mercury down to 54 and forced us to get up and put on another cover. Thanks, John, that was very nice of you.

This change reminds us that the time is not so very far off when our oil burner will start working and this will start us to wondering if an overdraft at the bank can be stretched until "the robins nest again." But what worries us right now is, what will these poor grasshoppers do when the blizzards come howling down from the north and nothing's left in our garden for them to eat but tumbleweeds.

▽

The other night we went and saw "Dodsworth," with Walter Huston and Ruth Chatterton. This picture received a very high rating from the critics, and it probably deserved it because of the excellent acting.

This is a partial revival of that old triangle theme wherein the wife deserts the husband for the love of a couple of good-for-nothings because they made love to her. We thought that old theme had gone to the boneyard some time ago.

Regardless of the theme, this picture should satisfy because of the excellent performances of Huston and Miss Chatterton.

▽

The other day we received a check from R. R. Winship, manager of the Majestic theatre at Phillpsburg, Kansas, and a letter asking us to have his subscription to the HERALD renewed. Yes sir, brother Winship, we will be more than pleased to do it. Thanks very much. That kind of letter pleases us very much. While we are on theatre matters we understand that you are contemplating a Neon lighting front for your Majestic theatre. If this is correct we would advise you to come over here and see the new Neon front of the Moon theatre. We have seen a lot of theatre fronts in our wanderings but none to equal the Moon's, either in the large towns or the small ones, and people will be surprised to see such a lighted front in a town where the cows graze on the public square and the dogs chase the alley cats up telephone poles.

▽

As we remember it now, some time ago we suggested that if we were a speculator on the board of trade we'd sell December corn, but that was when we were traveling northern Iowa. Since the past few weeks of dry, hot weather have changed the outlook, we are wondering if it would not have been a bad investment.

▽

The Moon theatre is playing "Captains Courageous," with Spencer Tarcy, Lionel Barrymore and little Freddie Bartholomew, and two or three other good ones. The picture drew a good afternoon attendance but we understand the attendance fell off somewhat at the evening showing. We can't understand this, as we rate it a very exciting and well acted picture. If your customers like excitement and thrills in pictures, and if they enjoy seeing fishermen pull in fish by the carload in a rough sea, and if they like to see boats wrecked in a rough sea they will surely get plenty of thrills in this one. It was especially interesting to us, but maybe that's because we enjoy seeing rough seas and seeing them pull in fish. There were no "sheros" in this one and no "parlor, bedroom or bath" scenes, and that may account for the falling off in attendance.

▽

Some time back, when we thought we were one of the nation's hopefuls, we used to tramp a mile through the snow to the Wade school house and we studied "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic," and then tramped back home and milked the cows at night and then figured long division after supper. We could name the capital of about every state in the Union; tell about Xerxes crossing the Hellespont with his 5,000,000 men; tell about Horatio holding the bridge that time, and how far the bull ran at Bull Run, but today, if a "hopeful" has to go three blocks on a cement sidewalk to get to school, they take him there in an automobile. He gets out at three o'clock to go and practice track meet, basket ball, football, baseball or goes on a "hike" because he has to have his "exercise" to build up his muscles and brain cells. This reminds us of a cartoon we saw some time ago. A boy had returned from college and he was lying on the sofa in the parlor with his hair parted in the middle and smoking a cigaret in a long holder. His mother asked him how he got along in college and he replied fine; said he was playing fullback with the college team. Then his father said, "Well, son, now that you are back, we will get your hair cut and you can put on a pair of overalls and play whoa-back with the home team." Doggone these doggone Dads, they just won't let a boy have the proper "exercise." Something has got to be done about that.

▽

Before we forget it we might suggest that you send us a theatre pass for Gertrude Merriam or send it direct to her in care of the HERALD. If you do, everything ought to be all right.

COLONEL J. C. JENKINS
The HERALD's Vagabond Colyumnist
The HERALD covers the FIELD like an April SHOWER.

IN THE NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 2, Vol. 20.—Latest pictures from the China war front....President summons cabinet for special meeting....Tourists visit grave of Robert Louis Stevenson....Young men in Australia perform in open air gym....“Miss America” wants to keep her crown....Hollywood Spotlight....Lew Lehr....Football at Pittsburgh, U. C. L. A., Stanford and Southern California.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 3, Vol. 20.—American Legion army of 400,000 takes New York....President Roosevelt in Constitution Day speech....Embargo halts ship on way to China....U. S. liner “President Hoover” damaged....Statesmen meet on European “piracy” charge....Salmon fishing in Columbia River ....Fashions....Lew Lehr....Horse Racing....Tennis....Football....Yachting.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 200, Vol. 9.—Latest films of war terror in Shanghai....Legion gathers in New York....Football fever hits the west....Mudders have their day on eastern track....President tells one on himself....The Woman's Page....Spectacular blaze seen from skyscraper....“Lucky” Teeter outdoes himself.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 201, Vol. 9.—New York surrenders to American Legion....Yachts race for President's Cup....Timber toppers start fall season ....President pledges U. S. to peace....John Roosevelt poses with fiancee.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 13.—Softball game now popular with millions....United States remembers constitution....New tractor hunts swamps for alligators....U. S. poloists at top form in Internationals ....Epidemic puts shut schools on the air....Now county fair season's here again....Justice Black and Klan hit the headlines....Clara Bow, the “It” girl, opens “It” cafe....Millions of New Yorkers see big fire.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 14.—Biggest city votes.... Europe's headache....Hitler addresses mass meeting in Germany....U. S. prohibits shipment of war supplies on government owned vessels....With the Roosevelts....American Legion takes over New York.

PATHE NEWS—No. 17, Vol. 9.—American Nazis exposed....Winter hair fashions....Cabinet meeting called....Salmon stopped by dam....Jersey factory fire....Steeplechase thriller....Coast Guard cadets.

PATHE NEWS—No. 18, Vol. 9.—Ray Sprigle, reporter, tells of scoop on Hugo Black-KKK expose ....President speaks on Constitution....Helen Wills Moody returns to tennis....Roosevelt romance....Gar Wood, Jr. wins....Legion invades Gotham.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 598, Vol. 9.—Blast, fire trap 100 girls....California fetes admission to Union....U. S. troops off for Orient.... Gals get rough in mat bout....Machine feeds mass of pups....Foreigners buy scrap metal....Fish run halts work on dam....Cuba celebrates revolution.... Rockettes stage mass drill....Calumet Dick wins handicap.

UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER NEWSREEL—No. 599, Vol. 9.—War torn Shanghai....Actual pictures of Chinese civilian areas show battle's devastation.... Bursting shells write history....Japan seizes base.

Discuss "Golem" Deals

Metropolis Pictures Corporation, headed by Martin J. Lewis, is negotiating with circuits for showings of "The Golem," French-Jewish production now in its third week at the Ascot, Clinton and People's Cinema, all in Greater New York. "The Golem" is also playing at the Europa, Philadelphia, and Little, Baltimore, and is scheduled to open next week at the World Playhouse, Chicago; Penn Square, Cleveland, and Art Cinema, Pittsburgh.

Liddle in U. S. from England

Richard A. Liddle, general manager of Ilford, Ltd., London, manufacturers of film stock, arrived in New York this week on a combined business and pleasure trip. He will be here four weeks and will study American laboratories and methods in film stock.

Brown Confers in New York

Walter Brown, midwest division manager for Ross Federal Service, visited New York this week for conferences with home office executives.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

NEW EQUIPMENT

ANIMATION, TIME LAPSE AND GENERAL cinema apparatus. E. S. RINALDY, Chester, N. J.

LET YOUR EYES LIGHT ON THIS LIGHT. S. O. S. new tubular super-arc low amperage reflector arc lamp, with giant 10¼" Bausch and Lomb elliptical mirror, Westinghouse motor, Weston ammeter, numerous improvements, now only $147.70. Your old equipment in trade. Write S. O. S., 636-AM Eleventh Avenue, New York.

GENERAL EQUIPMENT

MIRROROID, SILVER-WHITE SOUND SCREEN (patented). Gives brilliancy, depth, reflection and clarity. Unequalled for Technicolor. FREESE, 147 Water St., Newburgh, N. Y.

THEY'RE BOMBED! THEY'RE SMASHED! Carbon prices cut—200,000 sets international brand, first quality, guaranteed for beautiful snow white projection. 7/10, $4.85 hundred sets; 8/12, $5.75 hundred sets. 10% discount 1000 sets. Buy a year's supply at these sacrifice prices and save. Bargains in all theatre equipment. S. O. S., 636-AM Eleventh Avenue, New York.

BOOKS

THESE BOOKS WILL SHOW YOU A PROFIT. Only $1.39 for Sloane's "Motion Picture Projection," Mancall's "Servicing Projection Equipment" and Benson's "Fundamentals of Television." Any one book 49c. Plenty others. Ask S. O. S., 636-AM Eleventh Avenue, New York.

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$3 postage prepaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 736 pages of up-to-the-minute text, charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

MAN OR WOMAN WITH CAPITAL TO TAKE interest in established story and talent agency. Prefer someone interested in theatrical work. With or without services. State everything in letter for interview with principal. BOX 790A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

USED EQUIPMENT

CUSTOMERS KICKING? KICK OUT OLD seats. 18,000 American Seating, Ideal, veneer and upholstered chairs, reconstructed, refinished, from 75c. Get bargain list 15M. S. O. S., 636-AM Eleventh Avenue, New York.

UNUSUAL BARGAINS IN USED OPERA chairs, sound equipment, motion picture machines, screens, spotlights, stereopticons, etc. Projection machines repaired. Catalog H free. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, LTD., 844 So. Wabash Ave., Chicago.

REAL VALUES—QUARTER SIZE LENSES, $10 pair, half size, $32 pair, popular makes, sizes limited; B & H splicers, $3.95; speakers from $7.95; baffles from $5.95; hearing aid amplifiers with monitor speaker and tubes, $15, handles up to 30 seats. Lots more—write now! CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

SACRIFICING—TALKIE AND SILENT—PORTable and theatre projectors, equipment, supplies, etc. Chance lifetime. Lists free. TOM AUSTIN, 470 8th Ave., New York.

THEATRE CHAIRS—1600 PANEL BACK SPRING seat chairs at $1.25, two lots. 1,500 fully upholstered spring seat chairs at $1.65. Photographs sent on request. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., 358 W. 44th Street, New York.

EVERYBODY LOVES A BARGAIN. DEEP CUT prices, entire stock. Used projection lenses, all sizes, $4.95 up. Forest rectifiers, $24.50. Peerless. Morelite carbon arcs, from $39.50. Optical systems, good, used, standard makes, from $4.95. Simplex intermittents, $9.95. Loads of other theatre needs. We actually have what we advertise. S. O. S., 636-AM Eleventh Avenue, New York.

LARGE THEATRE HORN, WESTERN ELECtric type, 15 ft. full range, $25. BOX 925, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

SACRIFICING THEATRE EQUIPMENT. POWers projectors, S.O.S. sound, separate p.a. system, 175 chairs, Butterkist popcorn machine, fans, and many other items. $700 cash. BOX 927, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR RENT

DESK SPACE AVAILABLE FOR PRESS AGENT or public stenographer active in theatrical work. Reasonable rent for complete service. BOX 915A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

TRAINING SCHOOL

THEATRE EMPLOYEES: ADVANCE TO BETter theatre positions. Free booklet shows you how. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington St., Elmira, N. Y.

HELP WANTED

EXPERIENCED THEATRE MANAGER. MODern house. Population 8,000. Anthracite coal town. Reference required. Give complete details, also salary expected. Good opportunity for real business getter. BOX 930, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

WANTED TO BUY

WILL BUY RCA SOUNDHEADS, SIMPLEX, Powers projectors, arc lamps, rectifiers, generators, lenses. Cash waiting. BOX 929, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITIONS WANTED

PROJECTIONIST DESIRES CHANGE, PREFER California. Good references, experience on Simplex and Western Electric Sound, also Simplex Acme. JOHN DRIGGS, Pine Bluffs, Wyo.

WELL KNOWN THEATRE MANAGER WITH years of experience in all departments of theatre operation desires a new managerial connection immediately. Excellent record and references. Prefer Pennsylvania or New York, but will go anywhere. BOX 919, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MANAGER—MARRIED NOW EMPLOYED wishes permanent connection with modern progressive independent or chain. BOX 922, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

THEATRE ARTIST. EXPERT PICTURE, DISplay, newspaper art. 10 years' experience. BOX 928, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

THEATRES

WILL BUY OR LEASE THEATRES IN TOWNS from 3,000 to 8,000 population in St. Louis territory. S. E. Pirtle, Jerseyville, Ill.

FOR SALE—UPTOWN THEATRE, PROVIDENCE, R. I. 1450 seats. Formerly managed by Keith-Albee Corp. Sacrifice for quick sale. Terms.

I REPRESENT LARGE FIRM INTERESTED establishing chain first run theatre in New York State. If you have theatre meeting these requirements further details will be furnished. Complete information should be supplied in first letter as to price, lease, capacity, location, equipment and nearest competition. HEROLD REAL ESTATE, 759 Gerrans Building, Buffalo, N. Y.

TRANSLATION SERVICE

WILL MAKE FRENCH AND SPANISH TRANSlation of advertising literature at nominal cost. Can supply complete advertising layout and printing facilities also. Rates quoted upon request if sample submitted. BOX 916A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

REPAIR SERVICE

EXPERT FACTORY TRAINED MECHANICS will rebuild any make ticket machines, install all new factory made parts, at only $10 per unit. This price includes labor. Every job guaranteed. Service machines furnished, no charge. Details from BOX 926, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

